

CHARGED SIR JAMES WITH CORRUPT ACT

Prime Minister and Hon. Mr. Hanna Named in Taylor Case by Liberal Member—An Enquiry Ordered—Clear Cut and Empnatic Donials Made by Accused Ministers.

TORONTO, April 24.—The standing Committee on Privileges and Elections met at the Parliament Buildings at noon to-day, for the first time in nearly thirty years, and adjourned to 4 o'clock this afternoon, after being in session one minute. The committee was called together to investigate the sensational charges made by William Proudfoot of Centre Huron against Sir James Whitney and Hon. W. J. Hanna. When the committee had assembled it was announced that as there were five cabinet ministers on this committee, who did not wish to act, an adjournment would be made to 4 o'clock this afternoon, and when the House met at 3 o'clock these and other vacancies on the committee would be filled.

There are thirty-five members on the committee, six of whom are Liberals, one being the Hon. A. G. MacKay, who has since resigned his seat in the House and consequently will not act. Mr. Proudfoot, who makes the charges, and Mr. Rowell, leader of the Opposition, are members of the committee. It is likely when the committee is formally organized this afternoon, Mr. Ferguson, member for Grenville, will be elected chairman. It is an interesting fact that the last time this committee was convened was in 1884, the occasion being the investigation of the Bunting charges.

TORONTO, April 24.—Taking his political life in his hands, W. Proudfoot, Liberal member for Centre Huron, last night made definite charges across the floor of the House against Sir James Whitney and Hon. W. J. Hanna in connection with the Taylor-Scott matter during the past week. He charged "illegal, corrupt and improper" action, and asked for the appointment of a Royal Commission to investigate his charges.

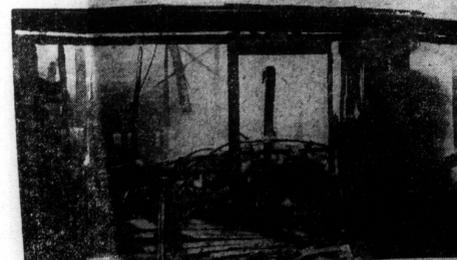

The answer of the Government was swift and direct. The charges were not referred to a Royal Commission, but at noon to-day the Committee on Privileges and Elections meets to take them up. Sir James Whitney and Hon. Mr. Hanna, in declaring their readiness, their anxiety to clear all the facts brought out as speedily as possible, brought the Government under a severe fire of outbursts of cheering as they headed the charges as falsehoods. "There is not one atom of truth in these charges," declared Sir James Whitney, in connection with his remarks. "They are words of the low and ignominious man who put them out before the public."

MOST REVOLTING IS THIS CASE

Death of Brantford Girl in Toronto Most Distressing Affair.

A most distressing case was reported today by Secretary Asford of the Children's Aid Society. Jean Fletcher, aged 18 years, a girl whom Mr. Asford took to Toronto a week ago to a Rescue Home, died last night as a result of the terrible condition she was in before being taken away. The girl was a ward of the Children's Aid Society. Some time ago her father was sentenced to two years, less a day, on the charge of incest, the girl who died yesterday having been the principal witness against him. The case was of a most revolting nature. Now there is an application for Fletcher to secure parole. The family lived along the Burford road. Secretary Asford leaves to-day to bring the girl's remains back to Brantford for burial. She died in the Western Hospital.

Purchase Building. The property known as the Wilkes Apartment House, situated on Dalhousie street and recently purchased by Mr. Cicero Force, has been resold to the Hurley Printing Co. for $5,000. The present building will be taken down and a modern building suitable for the company's building will be erected.

LOOKING INTO THE CORE ROOM, WHERE FIRE STARTED

NEW BANK OF MONTREAL WILL BE NOTABLE ADDITION

Two inspectors of the Bank of Montreal were in the city yesterday, and it is said, in connection with other matters, that the subject of a new building on the present site came up. The bank possesses one of the best and most valuable corners in the city, with a very large frontage, both on Market street and Darling street. It is known that plans have already been drawn up, and they call for a very handsome structure, because the Bank of Montreal never does anything by halves. It is rumored that tenders will be at once asked, and if these prove satisfactory Brantford will have its already excellent bank buildings enriched by a most notable and ornamental structure.

TERRIBLE DEATH LIST IN MINE HORROR NEAR PITTSBURG TO-DAY

Hundred Men Believed to be Dead--Out of 179, Only 79 Came Out--Work of Rescuing Bodies Grimly Proceeds To-Day.

[Canadian Press Despatch] PITTSBURGH, April 24.—With the coming of dawn fresh crews took the places of the tired workers, who had toiled energetically and braved death throughout the night in an effort to penetrate the dark recesses of the Cincinnati mine of the Pittsburgh Coal Company at Fintsville, Pa., where an explosion of fire damp yesterday killed many men and wrecked the mine. Eighteen bodies had been brought up to the mouth of the principal opening this morning, and from there transferred to Monongahela city to be prepared for burial. That the mine contains many more dead, even officers of the company, admit, while leaders of the rescue parties and some of the principal bosses from the mines of the company and the mines of independent companies in the neighborhood have been at work in the mine, but they were able to make little headway. The ventilation system has been paralyzed by the explosion, and before the workings could be explored it was necessary to construct temporary passages through which the fresh air could be forced. Long hours were consumed in this labor, but in the meantime parties provided with oxygen helmets had climbed over the fallen rock through some of the principal entries. They found many dead, but few living, and when the last of these rescuers appeared at the mouth of the slope this morning they gave it as their opinion that all the men who had not been accounted for were dead. It was hoped, company officers said, that the air would have been advanced by noon sufficient to allow a thorough search of the workings.

BIRCHALL'S SECRET GOES TO THE GRAVE UNTOLD TO WORLD

[Canadian Press Despatch] HAMILTON, Ont., April 24.—Rev. Canon Wade, formerly rector of the Church of the Ascension, died here to-day, and took with him to the grave the secret conveyed to him by Birchall, who was hanged at Woodstock for the murder of Benwell. Canon Wade was one of the chief figures in that noted case. He was the chaplain who walked to the scaffold with the murderer. Just before Birchall paid for his crime with his life he made a private statement to Canon Wade. What passed between the two Canon Wade would never disclose. Canon Wade had been in failing health for some months past, having suffered from a stroke of apoplexy while he was attending the recent Pan-Atlantic conference in England. At the time of his first illness he was compelled to remain at the home of his son in England for several months, but improved sufficiently to return to his home here. William Henry Wade was born in England in 1851 and came to this country when a young man. After receiving his education he prepared himself for the ministry of the Anglican Church, and was ordained a deacon by the Bishop of Huron in Christ Church, London, on November 29, 1885, and a priest of the church on November 7 of the year following. His first charge was at Burford, where he was located from 1885 to 1887. He then went to Woodstock, remaining there until 1892. On November 14, 1892 he assumed the rectorship of the Church of the Ascension, of this city, which office he retained until failing health compelled his retirement at the Easter vestry meeting of 1912. Since coming to Hamilton he was made a canon of Christ Church Cathedral of this city. Besides his wife, he is survived by one son, who is in the ministry of the Church of England in England, and three daughters, one of whom is a missionary in China. P.E.N.S.

NEW BATTERY IS ASSURED

Col. Ashton Will Command and Mr. W. T. Henderson Will Be Capt.

The 32nd Field Battery for Brantford of the 13th Brigade F. A. is now assured for Brantford with Lieut. Col. Ashton in command. Col. Ashton announced today that he would fill the post of Major for the new battery, but that he would retain the same rank and precedence as he had when he retired from the Dufferin Rifles. The battery will have strength of 80 with a Major, Captain and two subalterns. Mr. W. T. Henderson is named as Captain and Mr. W. P. Kellett as one of the Lieutenants. The new organization will be a Howitzer battery of four guns. Organization however will not be completed until the fall on the return of Col. Ashton from Europe. A provisional school will be opened here for qualifying officers.

One Minute Interviews

Mr. H. T. Westbrook: "I'll have lived in Brantford 70 years next February, and have seen it grow from almost a village to the hummer the place is now." Mr. S. P. Pitcher: "The Courier is sure a live wire these days."

GRAND OPERA HOUSE BRANTFORD

Thursday, April 24.—Wm. A. Brady Limited presents New York's greatest dramatic triumph, "BOUGHT AND PAID FOR," by Geo. Broadhurst, direct from its run of one solid year at The Playhouse, New York. "The New York Journal said: 'Makes you laugh with one eye and cry with the other. While there is a good deal of pathos in the play, there is a large vein of humor, with prolonged gushes of laughter. It is a great play, inspired by the happenings of our every-day life. Prices: 25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50. Seats Tuesday.'

Tuesday, April 23.—Wm. A. Brady presents ROBERT B. MANTELL in Shakespeare's greatest masterpiece of romance, "THE MERCHANT OF VENICE." Robert B. Mantell, by personal achievement, is now the legitimate leader of the American stage. William Winter, dean of American dramatic critics, in Shakespeare on the Stage, his permanent record for posterity. It is indeed gratifying to know that there is still an actor who is passing on the best traditions of our stage. The late Horace Howard Furness, America's greatest Shakespearean scholar, Curtin will raise promptly at 8 o'clock. Prices 25c to $2. Seats to non-subscribers Saturday.

REPORT WILL BE PRESENTED

In Connection With Graft Charges—Board of Works Meeting.

All the board of works were solemnly sworn to secrecy at the special meeting last night in connection with allegations of graft which have been made. A Courier reporter this morning was informed that a report would be presented at the meeting of the council on Monday night next by the committee, which would explain and deal with the whole matter. What form of oath the members took to keep things secret, was not mentioned, but it was a solemn cross-the-heart affair. The Courier does not believe in passing out innuendoes and insinuations against an entire body of officials, and the board of works report will be published in full when ready. Mr. James Legacy denied absolutely this morning that he had given any interview to The Expositor, and witnesses present corroborate his statement that he was quoted as making statements which he never uttered.

The thousands of spectators who watched the fire from the G. T. R. tracks were unable to see how it got stopped in such record time, but it was doubtless because of the work on the other side of the building. Quiet Wedding. Rev. G. Woodside yesterday joined John Schofield and Charlotte Street in the holy bonds of matrimony. Freight Bill. A bill for a car load of poles for the Hydro Electric commission from Summit, B.C., amounting to $24,30, is on file at the City Clerk's Office.

BAD FIRE NIPPED AT MALLEABLE PLANT

Hot Blaze Last Night at Pratt and Letchworth Company's Plant—Entire Plant Seemed in Danger of Destruction—Firemen Did Great Work in Saving Plant—Loss $15,000.

"There will be no men laid off work, at least only for a day or two, as temporary covering will be put up over the part of the factory damaged by fire." This statement was made officially at the Malleable Iron Works to-day. Work on rebuilding the core-room and moulding shop will be rushed with all possible despatch. The loss, it is estimated, will be well within $15,000. Fire which did not creep but fairly swept over the huge frame structure known as the new core room and the new moulding shop of the Pratt and Letchworth Company's plant threatened for half an hour last night the complete extinction of one of the Brantford's largest industries. A more spectacular or dangerous looking blaze could scarcely be imagined than that which met the members of the fire brigade about 6.20 last evening. The western end of the plant seemed all ablaze, with smoke issuing forth as from a dozen volcanoes. The fire seemed to be eating its way in a dozen different directions over the frame roof. Those on hand early passed it up as only a matter of time before the plant was wiped out.

That the fire department did excellent work in keeping the loss within $15,000 was conceded as soon as the blaze was under control. The new core room was totally destroyed, and the new moulding department ruined for the most part. The loss includes patterns and material in use on the floor and it is difficult to estimate what this loss on contents will be. Insurance men conservatively estimate the entire loss at $15,000. The Start. The fire started in the roof of the core room which faces the Grand Trunk round house. The employee who first saw the fire said it started right over his head and he believed it was from the dynamo. He ran to Box 413 the company's own alarm and turned it on. Meanwhile others saw the blaze which shot up within a minute and ran to turn in the alarm. First Work. The first hose turned on the fire was by G. T. R. Foreman Walker and John Stevens who has charge of the round house. They connected two hydrants in the round house, and the firemen did the rest. Meanwhile the firemen arrived and laid hose, both on the north and south side from hydrants and fought the fire from both sides. Chief Lewis lost no time in putting several streams on to protest the eastern portion of the plant which at first seemed gone. The firemen at first did not dare go to the roof because the fire seemed to be making such headway under it and with such rapidity that this would have been a dangerous procedure.

Hard to Get At. The fire was extremely difficult to get at, but the firemen drew their wagon over the tracks and laid the hose with skill. Many Malleable employees assisted, and a big squad of foreigners did a lot of work when directed. The G. T. R. flyers were delayed for some time until the fire was under control. Chimney Fell. There employees heard a mighty yell from hundreds of people who saw the big chimney over the core room about to topple. It fell with a mighty crash, the employees getting away by several feet. The big chimney which had only been up a week over the new cupola remained firm. Pulled Engines Out. There were two Grand Trunk engines in the round house and three just outside. Quick work was made in getting them away, as it was feared that the round house might not be saved. Very Quick Fire. The fire obtained such a quick headway from the nature of the building that the firemen arrived the whole place looked to be gone. The firemen took the pavement up Market street, the Central department going to Wilkins street and the East Ward to Sydenham street. General comment was heard on all sides that Speedy Settlement. Arrangements were started by wire last night by Messrs. K. V. Bunnell & Co. for a speedy settlement of insurance losses. Chief Lewis Pleased. Chief Lewis this morning was extremely well pleased with his men and the many others who helped in confining the blaze so well. He did not think the loss could possibly be over $15,000. When he first arrived it looked to him as if the entire plant was gone. The Chief thought it was due to the fact that the firemen were able to surround the blaze, the important work in this regard being from Wilkins street. About fourteen streams in all were put on, and the firemen were back at the hall before 9 o'clock. The Chief considered that the employees did excellent work, also a number of outsiders who jumped in, and whose work was greatly appreciated.

MR. KELLETT'S OTTAWA TRIP

Pr. Dover Harbor to Be Discussed With Hon. Robert Rogers.

Mr. W. P. Kellett, chief engineer and general manager of the Lake Erie and Northern Railway leaves for Ottawa this evening. He goes at the request of Hon. Mr. Rogers, Minister of Public Works, who wishes to have further consultation with regard to the proposed dredging of Port Dover harbor. If this is done, as before related in the Courier, a line of freighters will be established between Dover and Erie, Penn., thus greatly reducing the haul of coal and steel for Brantford manufacturers and other manufacturers even as far as Toronto.

THE CHARGES AGAINST WHITNEY AND HANNA

No one who knows Premier Whitney and Hon. Hanna will believe for one moment the charges of illegal, corrupt and improper practices hurled against them by Proudfoot of Centre Huron.

Their emphatic and indignant denials were hardly needed, and their prompt action in demanding an immediate investigation was just what might have been expected from their known probity.

The days of Rossism, of an attempt to bribe a member and all the rest of the scandalous doings by the government of that period, passed absolutely away the moment Sir James took hold of the helm of affairs.

As for Proudfoot he has taken his political life in his hands for if his allegations fail he will have to get out of the House.

On this point Bourinot (the recognized authority) says, that for any established cause, "The power of parliament to expel a member is undoubted."

CLOSURE

For the first time in the history of the Dominion House, a closure measure has been adopted.

Gladsone found it necessary many years ago in the British House to adopt a closure enactment, and it has since been quite frequently invoked by both sides over there.

The Grit members had the grossest indignity to suffer, "Shame" when Premier Borden voted "yea."

It is really all the shame has been on the side of the House. As a minority, they have sought to gag and bully the majority in Parliament and to hold up public business to the great financial loss and inconvenience of the people.

The threat is now repeated that the Grit majority in the Senate will be called upon to thwart the majority will of the Commons. If so the next move will be to put the members of that chamber on an elective basis. They will have to go to the polls in the same way as the M.P.s. Premier Borden is a cautious and a considerate man but he is also a very determined one when he knows that right is on his side.

THE DEATH OF SIR RICHARD SCOTT

The death in the eighty-eighth year of his age of Sir Richard Scott remains a unique figure from Canadian public life.

He was first elected to the then Canadian Legislature in 1857, and had since been more continuously a member of one great legislative body or the other than any other man.

He was not a brilliant man or great debater, but he possessed many solid and worthy qualities and throughout his life he was unblemished and useful. He had occupied portfolios both in the Ontario and Dominion Legislatures and displayed qualities of care and thoroughness as head of the departments entrusted to his charge. Of late years he had been a member of the Senate.

Increased was the author of the Scott Act and the Separate School Act. He was knighted by King Edward in June of 1909.

WILSON'S HARD TASK

No President of the United States since the days of Lincoln has had such hard tasks to face as the present occupant of the White House.

He and the Democratic party are pledged to a big cut in the tariff under which so many large institutions have grown up and flourished.

Nearly any manufacturer over there who is frank about the matter will admit that in many lines Uncle Sam cannot compete with British goods, largely for the reason that wages and other things are very much higher across the border than in the Old Land.

Already more than one firm has closed down or given notice to that effect. Here is one instance in Providence, Rhode Island, where the Grey-stone woolen mills have posted this notice on its doors:

"The provisions of the new Wilson tariff bill make it absolutely impossible for us to successfully compete with imported goods. Therefore a stoppage of machinery will take place immediately."

And on top of his tariff troubles, President Wilson has now a very nasty situation to deal with in connection with the defiant and aggressive attitude of California towards the Japanese. Secretary Bryan has been hurried there to try and patch up matters, and if he fails to succeed—well, Japan is not in any sense to be safely ignored by any other nation these days. They walloped not alone China, but Russia, and they most emphatically have the war goods, both on land and sea.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Whitney an alleged boodler, eh? Now what do you think of that?

And now the powers have told Montenegro that she must egress.

Proudfoot will lose the first section of his name if he fails to establish what he alleges.

You can't beat these days, for the very simple reason that they don't make 'em in any other country.

If you want to learn how to get in and dig, just take a look at Madison on the site of the new public building.

And after all that talk at the expense to the country of many thousands of dollars, the closure went through as quietly as a zephyr breeze.

It is the openly avowed and deliberate policy of the Courier to separate the people from as much money as it can, but then there is the blessed and the soothing compensation that we are giving more than enough value for the same.

Wedding Bells

MALLOTT-WALKER.
No. 1 Park avenue, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Walker, yesterday afternoon was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Emma Frances, their third daughter, became the wife of Mr. John W. Mallott of Wallenstein, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Llewellyn Brown in the presence of twenty-five guests, among whom were the following: Mr. and Mrs. John McCurtis, Mrs. A. Workman, Mrs. W. Milled, Mrs. McHugh, Mr. and Mrs. Kersey, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. E. Jones, Miss Bertha Johnson, Mr. Jones, Miss Bertha Johnson, Mr. Jones, Mrs. McCurtis and Miss Glady Walker.

They saw the contracting parties walk through the marriage ceremony, which was performed before a bank of daisies and ferns. Miss Laura Price played the wedding march. After the marriage a dainty wedding breakfast was served, after which the happy couple left for their new home.

Many beautiful and useful presents showed the high esteem in which the bride is held by a large circle of friends in this city.

Charges Sir James With Corrupt Act

drop innuendo and make his charges on the floor of the House. The action of the committee had left him no other course, reluctant as he was to take it. The Huron member then read his charges, set out in three typewritten sheets. The earlier portions of his declaration set out the facts as he understood them in connection with the Taylor-Scott contract and award, the request to make a campaign contribution, in reply to which Taylor paid over $500, and the charges Taylor is said to have made in order to get a fiat, these including the charge that Mr. Hanna had accepted the $500 mentioned, had manipulated the opening and granting of certain coal tenders, that there were grave irregularities in connection with the purchase of certain self-feeding stokers, and that the Minister had otherwise acted in an improper, corrupt and illegal manner.

"All of these matters were laid before the Hon. Sir James Whitney, Prime Minister of the Province of Ontario, and within a few days afterwards the fiat was granted, but on the understanding that it was not to be used for three months," went on Mr. Proudfoot.

"Absolute falsehood," rapped out the Prime Minister.

Mr. Proudfoot went on to declare his belief that the Provincial Secretary had delayed the prosecution or adjustment of the Taylor-Scott claim by endeavoring to obtain from Taylor a letter or document withdrawing all these charges. In Nov. 1911, approaching the general elections, Taylor had insisted on his claims being paid, making use of the same arguments on which the fiat had been granted. On the strength of this he had succeeded through Sir James Whitney and Hon. Mr. Hanna in having the claim referred to Thorne, the arbitrator.

"Absolute falsehood," repeated Sir James to this.

"Asks for Commission."

"I charge," said Mr. Proudfoot, said Hon. W. J. Hanna and Sir James Whitney with illegally, corruptly, and improperly causing the issue of the said fiat, and entering into the agreement to refer the claim to Thorne, and Laak for the appointment of a Royal Commission to investigate the conduct of the said parties in connection with the Taylor-Scott and Co. claim, and the statements and transactions detailed.

In explaining why he asked for a Royal Commission, Mr. Proudfoot pointed out that the Prime Minister and the Provincial Secretary, were members of this committee, and Sir James, the chairman. This brought a prompt contradiction from Sir James. The Huron member insisted, however, that politics would play too much a part in the deliberations of a committee of the House, and that the decision of two judges of the Supreme Court would carry more weight with the people of the Province.

When Sir James rose to reply the Conservative members cheered him for several minutes. Before he settled down to discuss the matter he took a quick thrust that, while not directed against anyone in particular struck home.

"We often find in this world that one meets all sorts of people," he said. "Good people, abandoned wretches of the worst kind, lost to all sense of decency, fair-play, and self-respect. That is only a sorry lot of my own. Mr. Speaker," he added, "addressed to nobody but the hon. gentlemen who wish to listen."

"We have," he continued, "the honorable gentleman's statement that he is credibly informed, and believes he can establish by satisfactory evidence—he expects us to believe he believes—that he established that I acted corruptly with reference to the issuing of a fiat to this man. There isn't another man who knows me in the Province of Ontario, who would risk such a statement."

"The hon. gentleman after considerable cogitation, after much fluttering of the doves, has finally taken the plunge in this matter, and we will follow it to the end. I made the (Continued on Page 10) and the number of dead would then be known.

Two of the company's physicians accompanied the rescue parties during the night, and were relieved by an equal number this morning. They were ready to render such assistance as might be needed, if by chance some of the entombed miners might have survived the explosion and afterward.

The bodies found were not far from the entrance, among them being that of a miner named McCollough, who had volunteered for rescue work and most careful miners in the district. He was among the first to enter the mine after the explosion, and, advancing farther than his associates, became lost. He is believed to have been killed by a falling roof, as he was provided with a helmet and was in no danger from gas.

Rescuers this morning reported that the bodies of 21 men had been seen, the majority of them having been killed by the explosion.

Later in the day the bodies of near the hundred mark, as it is known that 179 men went into the mine, and about 79 are known to have made their escape.

Soon after 8 o'clock it developed that the first rescue crew to enter the mine to-day had come upon other dead men, and the bodies were being brought to the opening. The telephone system in the mine is being repaired, and reports from the most advanced parties will be received at the opening as soon as linemen complete the connections.

Intutions before the House. He showed that tedious repetition had become an evil in the Commons, and set a good example to members of the Opposition by compressing his arguments into a brief address of less than half an hour.

Four Liberals in all were heard last night. Mr. Carroll, the member for South Breton, led off and was followed by Hon. H. R. Emmerson, who spoke for two hours, and who in arguing that the closure was not needed, made the assertion that the tactics of his party consisted not "obstruction" but "constitutional resistance" to the endeavor of the Administration to render effective aid to the Imperial navy. Dr. Michael Clark was also heard and in the course of his speech admitted that the closure resolution would be adopted and that the Naval Aid Bill would pass the House of Commons.

The galleries of the House were crowded throughout the day by spectators anxious to witness the division on the new rules, and perhaps expecting exciting scenes.

CLOSURE RULE ADOPTED NOW

Government Had 35 Majority to End Obstruction.

OTTAWA, April 24.—The closure was made a rule of the Canadian House of Commons shortly before the resolution of Right Hon. R. L. Borden embodying the principle was adopted on division. The majority in favor of the Government was thirty-five.

The vote was—
For the resolution 35
Against the resolution 108
No demonstration of any kind followed the announcement of the vote, and the House adjourned immediately.

The true viewpoint from which to judge the vehement protests of Opposition members against the adoption of rules to prevent the abuse of liberty of speech in the House of Commons was provided in the speech of Mr. E. M. Macdonald, of Pictou, N.S. With Mr. Macdonald it seemed to be largely a question of whose ox was gored. Of course, throughout his speech he proclaimed loudly and dramatically that a free Parliament was being chained, fettered and gagged.

The Real Liberal Attitude

But, just before he concluded with the hope that the Senate would either throw out the Naval Aid Bill or decline to consider it without a months' notice, he revealed his real opinion. He did so in warning the Conservative members that if the Liberals were returned to power they would not repeat the hated closure, unless to enforce it rightly against the Opposition. The member for Pictou had been quite indignant at the first that a closure rule was to be adopted with his party out of office, but he brightened up considerably and talked withunction of the closure, in which the Conservatives would squirm when he and his colleagues had a chance to use the new rule.

Sir Edmond Oiler delivered a vigorous speech in support of the reso-

BISHOP QUAYLE

Bishop Wm. A. Quayle, who comes to Wellington St. Methodist Church to lecture and preach Saturday and Sunday, April 20th and 27th, is called the genius of the American pulpit. He is one of the younger bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church of the United States. For four years he has been at Oklahoma city, Okla., but at the recent general conference was moved to St. Paul, Minn. In the regular pastorate he was very popular and successful as a pastor and an evangelist. He belonged to the whole church even before

He was inducted into the office of Bishop. His volumes of sermons, "The Blessed Life," "The Pastor's Preacher," "God's out of Doors," give us some idea of his master mind.

Dr. F. A. Thompson says: "Bishop Quayle is the prince of preachers, the prince of lecturers, the prince of men. No man can afford to miss any lecture or sermon he may give anywhere."

Prof. Nornie says: "His 'Hamlet' is indescribable. It must be heard, it is overwhelming. There is nothing known to me in the way of popular oratory that can be compared with it. It cannot be equalled on the globe."

Those who know him best, place him at the head of platform and pulpit orators to-day. Chancellor Hamilton of Washington University, says: "Under the spell of his wizard of speech, one is caught up to behold glad, new, wonderful visions of life and hope."

The pastor of Wellington Street, who has heard him perhaps as often as any one in Canada, says: "For wit, eloquence, intellectuality and spiritual uplift, he appeals to me more than any man I have ever heard. This is an opportunity for the citizens of Brantford that only comes once."

Saturday evening, Shakespeare's Hamlet, at 8 o'clock. Doors open at 7.30.

Artistic Display Wall Papers!

You may not know that you are indeed a true lover of Art—you unconsciously have a feeling that you are not satisfied with the hangings of your rooms, and when you see an effect that is the something that appeals to your ideas of what is pleasing, you say: "Now, there is the style I have wanted for a long time, but it must be very expensive and difficult to make." Yes, perhaps you are right, but then, again, you may not be—there are many very elaborate effects attained by simply "knowing how." We make a specialty of "knowing how," and will be pleased to give any person the benefit of our advanced knowledge of the proper styles in paper hanging, and also of a stock that is right-up-to-now in correctness.

GO TO CAMP ON JUNE 13

Colonel Muir, of Brant Dragoons Makes Announcement To-day.

Lieut.-Col. M. F. Muir, commanding the 25th Brant Dragoons, received notification this morning from the Assistant Adjutant-General of the Cavalry Division, Toronto, that the regiment will go into camp at Niagara-on-the-Lake for annual training on Monday, June 2nd, returning on Friday, June 13th. The Brant Dragoons were assigned to the second camp which is held the latter part of June. The second camp would have been an inconvenient time for the regiment as it is then a busy time in the County of Brant and horses would be scarce. From all prospects the regiment will go into camp on June 2nd fully up to strength and in excellent condition, fully maintaining their past reputation for being one of the best cavalry corps in Canada.

Plans Will be Discussed

(Continued from Page 1.) near the subway to Wellington St. To pave Church street from Albion street to Brant Avenue. To pave West street from the park to Brant Avenue. To pave Bridge street from the park to Dalhousie street. To continue Church street by a curve, across the Grace church lot, to West street. To divert Albion street and West street, (between the extension of Church street and the Point) by slight curves into the church lot. To remove all poles on streets surrounding the park. To continue Bridge street by curves along Wellington, into King and West streets. After the buildings are removed from the site, entirely new plans will be prepared for the layout of the park, which will be considered along with the two plans already in the possession of the association.

The Late Margaret Titterington
The funeral of the late Margaret Titterington, whose death resulted from burns received while in the course of her duties as domestic at the House of Refuge, took place yesterday afternoon from the undertaking parlors of Mr. H. S. Pierce to Mt. Hope cemetery. Rev. Mr. Saunders conducted impressive services assisted by Rev. Mr. McClinton. Many beautiful floral tributes were received.

HAIR TURNING GRAY OR FALLING? JUST MIX SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

Grandmother's Receptor Dandruff and Restoring Color to Hair.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also cures dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays skilled chemists do it's better than ourselves. By asking at any drug store for the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" you will get

MOTOR TRUCK BADLY NEEDED

Ex-Ald. Shepperson Gives One Out of Hundreds of Opinions Expressed.

Ex-Ald. J. W. Shepperson, one of the first at the scene of last night's fire at the Mallicable Iron Works, gave only one out of hundreds of expressions of commendation towards the work of the fire department. Mr. Shepperson said:

"I announce it in good plain English that our firemen did good work at that fire last night. The way the flames spread over that factory made it look as if it was nothing but a bunch of kindling wood, and at one time no one would have staked a plugged nickel on the chance of saving any of the factory. For a small brigade and the limited equipment at their disposal our firemen cannot be beaten. At the same time, we should give them a chance, by supplying them with motor trucks, to get them to fires more quickly and before the flames have got such a start. Five minutes at the beginning of a fire is better than an hour ten minutes later."

"With the tremendous outlay of capital in our great factory buildings, and the hundreds of men dependent on these institutions for a living, and the long distances to the different large factories, we can't afford to rely on the horse any longer. When the horse has become too slow for the day, surely it has become too slow for the fire wagon. We need motor trucks badly, and if they had been available last night, and the firemen by their use been able to reach the fire five minutes before they did, enough would have been saved to have paid for them. We want to be on the job in this matter, and not let the Citizens and Harrisburg beat us out. If we can't get revenue enough from our taxes to buy these trucks, then let a public subscription be opened, and I believe our citizens will respond liberally."

A DEPUTATION TO BE HEARD

Books of Brantford Gas Company Will Not Be Removed Pending Protest.

At the last meeting of the City Council a resolution of protest was passed against the removal of the books of the Brantford Gas Co. to Buffalo. This morning Mayor Hartman received the following letter from Mr. Brewster, M. P. P. Toronto, April 23, 1913. H. F. Leonard, City Clerk, Brantford: Dear Sir—Received your letter enclosing resolution re the application of the Brantford Gas Co. to have authority to hold their meeting in Buffalo. I saw Hon. Mr. Hanna and he has promised to fix a day to hear my deputation either for or against the bill. In the meantime the application will stand.

Your Furs are Safe in our Vaults!

Why send them out of town when they can be stored just well in Brantford? Furs are so highly prized by everyone, it follows that great care must be taken to protect them from the ravages of moths. It is a fact that more furs are ruined by these pests than by actual wear. The cold, dry air system of storage is a positive safeguard against moths. Much work and worry can be avoided by simply telephoning us at 819, and we will call for your furs and other winter apparel. You place your own valuation on each article, and we are responsible to you for that amount in case of loss by fire or moths. Our charge for storage and insurance is 3 per cent of the value—a moderate charge when it is remembered that we carefully dust each article, and hang them in a vault that is intensely cold. Nothing is packed or folded. Everything is kept on hangers, so that the most delicate article will not become creased or mussed, and will carry no odor of moth preventative.

BARRON—CRAIG.

Mr. Roderick Hugh Barron of this city and Miss May Craig were united in marriage yesterday at the First Baptist parsonage, 104 West street by the pastor, Rev. Llewellyn Brown. Mr. Morley Adams and Miss Louise Craig accompanied the bride and groom. The happy couple left on the 1.42 train for Jamestown, N.Y., where they will spend the summer.

Plans Not Defined

Definite plans have not been arranged as yet for the extension of the Brantford and Hamilton line to Gal. C. H. Levy, one of the Dominion Power and Transmission company's solicitors, when asked this morning as to when the first sod would be turned, stated that he could not say. "The work will be commenced as soon as possible, but I cannot say just when," he said. Mr. Levy also said that he did not think anyone would make application for the John Patterson franchise on the Hamilton, Waterloo and Guelph line. At any rate the Dominion Power and Transmission Company will not take any action. Mr. Levy was of the opinion that the C. P. R. Guelph junction line depreciated the value of the Patterson franchise. —Hamilton Herald.

CITY NEWS ITEMS

THE PROBS

TORONTO, April 24. - Pressure continues low in the Mississippi and Missouri valleys and generally high elsewhere. Fine weather is general in Canada with cool conditions in the west and warm elsewhere.

FORECASTS. Fine and warm to-day, Friday - Fresh southerly and southwesterly winds, local showers and thunderstorms.

Board of Works on Tour. The chairman and members of the Board of Works are out on their annual tour of inspection of the city.

Temperature. Temperature for the last 24 hours: Highest 76, lowest 43. For the same day last year, highest 54, lowest 39.

Give Them All a Chance. Manager Kane will use Pitchers Clarendon, Andrews and Reilly, and Catchers McCauley and Chappelain in the game against St. Kitts to-morrow at Agricultural Park.

Up the St. Lawrence. The Allan Line Steamer, Tunisian is the first passenger steamer to come up the St. Lawrence this spring. She is due to arrive at Quebec early Saturday morning.

County Matters. The Buildings and Grounds Committee of the County Council will meet on Saturday to discuss Hydro-Electric lighting for the Court House. The committee will then go to Paris to inspect a couple of new county bridges.

Shriners Meet in London. The spring ceremonial session of the Mocha Temple will be held in the new Masonic Temple to-morrow afternoon and will conclude in the evening. Brantford Shriners are preparing a little entertainment of their own, and it is said to be very funny. They are bringing a trick elephant with them also. -London Free Press.

Red Sox Notes. Another good practice was held this morning by the Brantford ball players, 17 in all. Ivers, the first baseman arrived this morning and is in fine condition. Dick Tasker, an old favorite is here to-morrow to play with Abbie Johnson team in an exhibition game against the Red Sox. The games will be called at 2.30 both Friday and Saturday. This morning work was started on the box seats at Agricultural park. The management has as yet received no word as to Buster Burrill's condition. It is thought he may not be here for some weeks.

Golf Directors. At a meeting of the directors of the Brantford Golf Club held last evening, the question of employing a professional caddy and improvement of the club house here were discussed and several recommendations of the house committee were adopted. It is generally conceded that the running of the new electric line through the links will greatly damage the whole property of the club. The question of compensation will be left in the hands of the club's legal adviser.

Tribute of a Friend. A former well-known Brantfordite residing in the States for many years but who is still a subscriber to the daily Courier and who has kept up his interest in the old home town, writes: 'I feel that the stand always taken by The Courier is the right one and tending to consolidate the Empire as well as to foster Canadian national pride in the magnificent heritage that the people have had handed to them by the old Mother Land beyond the sea. I have personally still a British subject, although I have the most cordial feeling and admiration for this people and country.'

Bishop Quayle's Visit. A great many citizens are looking forward to the visit of that celebrated American orator, Bishop Quayle, of Milwaukee, with much interest. The Bishop comes to conduct the 78th anniversary services of the Wellington street Methodist church on Sunday and deliver his renowned lecture on Hamlet on Saturday night. Although an M. E. Bishop, Dr. Quayle is not simply known in his own church, his activities have extended beyond the bonds of the church, and he is known not only as a platform man and a Shakespearean student of the day. The Bishop is not a stranger to many Brantford citizens. At the great C. E. convention at Seattle, Wash., three years ago some Brantfordites heard him, while two years he was the honored guest of the London and Hamilton conferences at their annual sessions, and many local citizens availed themselves of the privilege of hearing him then.

A Free Gift. Mr. Harry Cockshutt has presented the boys' department of the Y.M.C.A. with a beautiful painting designated as "Work and Play" by Mr. Paul Wiekson of Paris, Ont. The scene is that of two horses hitched to a plow and a young horse who is pausing in the field standing beside the work horses. The Y.M.C.A., and especially the boys' department, appreciate the gift. The painting will make a valuable addition to the department. It will be on exhibition at the Arts and Crafts exhibit.

At Scotland. Judge Hardy will preside at the Division Court in Scotland to-morrow.

25th Sergeants. The sergeants of the 25th Brant Dragoons will hold a business meeting at the armories to-night, when matters pertaining to the Niagara camp will be discussed.

K. of P. Calanth Lodge, K. of P., conferred the rank of esquire on a number of candidates in their castle hall last night.

Will Shut Off. Owing to repairs being effected at the waterworks consumers are asked to draw a supply off to-night. The water service will be discontinued in some parts of the city.

Canton Brantford. Canton Brantford, under the command of Captain D. A. Noble, held a very largely attended drill practice last night in preparation for the I. O. O. F. church parade on Sunday afternoon. Besides the local Canton, Cantons from Toronto and Hamilton and the I. O. O. F. band will be in line.

Is Quite Ill. Robert Woodley for twenty years a member of the Fire Department left work yesterday at the Central Fire Department quite ill. It is feared that he will be unable to return to his duties. He was captain for a number of years but was forced to retire owing to ill-health.

Deal Called Off. It was learned from good authority this morning that the Colborne street real estate transfer whereby the properties occupied by the Royal Bank, the Brantford Cafe and Mr. Malcolm were to be bought and used for a theatre will not come off for the time being.

Board of Trade. The general meeting of the Board of Trade will be held next Tuesday evening. Mr. Heaton representing the Ontario Fire Prevention association will open a discussion on "The Science and Improvement of the Methods of Fire Protection and Prevention." Invitations to the meeting are being sent to the City Council, the School Board and to Chief Lewis. It is to be hoped that all the large insurers will be present or represented.

At the B.C.I. About 300 attended the assault at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium held under the B.C.I. Athletic association. The star number on the programme was the basketball match between the local B.C.I. senior team and the Stratford Collegiate Institute. The local boys were victorious to the tune of 31-21. Two B.C.I. junior basketball teams put up a good exhibition of the game. The broom ball match, the pillow fight and the boxing match were sure some class. The boys and the spectators were highly pleased with the events of the evening.

Complaints Well Found. Complaints are being made by teamsters and others as to the condition of the Elgin street subway this spring. The roadway was lowered by the G.T.R. when the subway was built and the tracks run alongside the tracks runs into the roadway, and this spring the mass of slime and mud has been so bad that it has been almost impossible to get the heavy teaming through it. The roadway under this subway should be paved by the railway company and kept in proper condition.

Water Commissioners. A conference took place this morning in the city hall between the board of Water Commissioners, City Solicitor Henderson and W. P. Kellett of the Lake Erie & Northern Railway in reference to the right-of-way of the company's line through the waterworks property in the Holmedale district. The company agreed to stake their line out this afternoon, so that the commissioners could see exactly where the survey was located. The commissioners will go over the route to-morrow and will investigate the line and make a report on same at a meeting which is to be held next Monday. The idea of having the route staked out is to give the commission a good opportunity of seeing the route, so they can set a price on land through which the company wants to secure the right-of-way.

With The Police

A quartette of boisterous drunks adorned the prisoners' box at the police court this morning. His Worship dealt with them very leniently, an after hearing their various excuses allowed them to go.

Wm. Maracle has repeatedly refused to send his young daughter to school in spite of threats of Truant Officer Boylan. This morning Maracle received a lecture from His Worship which will no doubt have the desired effect. The case was adjourned a week to watch results. Geo. Mike charged J. Taylor with using insulting language. The information however was wrongly laid as it should have been laid against his wife. Mike says she called him 'silly like.' The case was dismissed and Mike will have a chance of changing the information. The case will be resumed to-morrow.

Mrs. Taylor who is to be the defendant in the above case in charged Roy Culver with using insulting language. "This insulting language seems to be contagious" said His Worship. Culver did not appear so the case will come up to-morrow.

Frances Kanecovitz was another suffering from the results of the insulting language plague. She charged Pavel Mastonski with calling her some wicked names. The foreigner, however absolutely denied the charge. The case was adjourned till to-morrow in order to obtain further witnesses. Mr. Woodington, K.C., appeared for the defendant. The court was then adjourned.

Will Confer Degree. The officers of Doric Lodge, No. 121, A. E. and A. M. will go down to Hamilton to-night to exemplify the third degree at a lodge of instruction which is being held there.

Hay Market. There was a large quantity of hay offered for sale at the market this morning the price asked being $1.11 per ton.

When you buy here you know you are getting the best. And it is the best that is alone worth buying when you are purchasing jewelry or silverware. These ought to have a permanence that is lasting as the sentiment which inspires them for gifts. You will find here a most attractive variety of high class and exclusive designs at unusually moderate prices.

Mr. Wiles and Quinlan is in Toronto today on business.

Miss Best of the Y.W.C.A. has been called to Detroit owing to the illness of her father.

Mrs. Stewart Sanderson, and Miss Gladys Sanderson, who have recently returned from Chicago, return to Brantford again this evening.

The many friends of Mrs. Chas. Cuthbertson, Lawrence street, who has been seriously ill, will be glad to learn that she is improving.

Mrs. Archibald M. Harley will receive for the first time in her new home, 183 Chatham street—tomorrow (Friday) afternoon and not again this season.

Mrs. S. G. Read who has been the author of several suffrage songs, has been requested to send the music and words of the quartette sung at Mr. Hughes lecture at the Conservatory of Music Hall, Brantford on Tuesday evening to Toronto, for use in the organizations in the Queen City.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place Wednesday afternoon in Zion Church when Mr. John Schofield and Miss Charlotte Street were married. The church was tastefully decorated, and the ceremony performed in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride and groom went direct from the church to the train followed by the good wishes of their many friends.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Ashton and Miss Amy Ashton, leave Brantford this evening for Montreal where Miss Amy joins Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. MacKenzie—the doctor and his wife, proceeding direct to Boston from which point they sail on their Mediterranean trip. Dr. Ashton will visit the London hospitals before returning to Brantford.

Sir Cecil Spring Rice, successor to Ambassador Bryce, sailed from England recently, and on arriving in New York will go directly to Washington. The church for use in America later in the season. Rt. Hon. James Bryce and Mrs. Bryce are leaving shortly for China, via San Francisco and hope to be in Peking to see the Chinese Assembly in session.

Quite a number of ladies attended the meeting of the W. H. A. held in the Board room of the Brantford Public Library yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of getting everything in order for this year's "Tag Day". The date decided upon is for Saturday 7th of June and well organized committees—how have the matter in hand. Many novelties will be introduced—pretty—manned (?) "floats" amongst other attractions.

Mr. Tom Palmer and Mr. Donald Waterous, of the L. E. & N. have returned from Port Dover and join the engineers at the other end of the line where construction is going on. "Bought and Paid For" is holding the boards of the Grand Opera House this evening, and as the company is reported to be the original New York cast, a large house is anticipated. Mr and Mrs. S. F. Lazier have returned to Hamilton after three months spent in Southern California.

McDonald-Meclafe.
 The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Stewart, Helen St. Paris Ont., was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock when their niece, Miss Henneseta Metcalfe was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Daniel Peachey McDonald of Brantford, Ont., the Rev. R. G. McBeth officiating.

The bride who was given away by her uncle, was prettily attired in a gown of embroidered mull, carrying white carnations, entered the drawing room, to the strains of Lohengrin wedding march, which was played by Miss Edith Peachey of Brantford, cousin of the groom. The bridesmaid, Miss Mayme Byers of Paris wore a dainty gown of pink silk and carried pink carnations. The groom was supported by Mr. William Stewart of Paris, cousin of the bride. The bride's going away gown was a tailor made suit of blue whipcord, and black picture hat.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald left on the 4:54 p.m. train for Port Huron and Detroit. On their return they will take up their residence at 23 Princess St. Brantford, Ont.

Women's Hospital Aid—Special Meeting.
 The special meeting of the Hospital Aid Auxiliary, held yesterday in the Library, was one of the largest and most enthusiastic of the year. The President, Mrs. J. E. Waterous occupied the chair and announced the objects of the meeting, namely, to make arrangements and organize for a Tag Day in June, in aid of furnishing Nurses Home.

The date chosen was Saturday, June 7th. The name this year would more properly be "Tag Day" as the ladies unanimously decided to have gay-colored celluloid flags on a pin, instead of buttons. These are much more attractive than the buttons, and though rather more expensive, will be offered at the old rate of 10c and upwards.

Other novel features are to be introduced—something new (and useful) for the horses is promised; the motor penants will be of different design and the Children's branch will sell flowers; while the Junior Auxiliary will put on a unique and original idea which will be both pretty and popular.

Heads of different districts were appointed, and many other workers were allotted places.

The furnishings for the Nurses Home are being tendered for, and samples have been sent in by those interested and the work is going forward.

A kind friend has sent as her donation a web of sheeting, which was gratefully received by the Auxiliary.

Ratine, which looks so much like Turkish toweling is the material of the season for children's dresses and coats, and here it has ascended to the dignity of a saucy hat with a bit of marabout to one side! The material is as washable as a towel and needs no ironing or starching.

Quaint old fashioned shapes of Leghorn are shown for the small girl's summer toilet. Roses, soft shadowy laces and ribbons go to the trimming of these little chapeaux.

New York—Nation-wide plans for the better protection of young women travellers are being perfected by the Young Women's Christian Association.

A committee appointed recently by Mrs. James S. Cushman, president of the Metropolitan board, has under consideration the posting in every railroad station and street railway car and station in the United States—of the following warnings:

"Girl should never speak to strangers, either men or women, in the street, in shops, in stations, in trains, in lonely country roads or in places of amusement."

"Girls should never ask the way of any but officials on duty, such as policemen, railway officials or postmen."

"Girls should never stay to help a woman who apparently faints at their feet in the street, but should immediately call a policeman to her aid."

"Girls should never accept an invitation to join a Sunday school or bible class given them by strangers, even if the strangers are wearing the dress of sisters or nuns or are in clerical attire."

"Girls should never go to an address given them by a stranger."

"Girls should never go with a stranger, even if the stranger is dressed as a hospital nurse, or believe stories of their relatives having suffered accident or having been taken ill suddenly, as this is a common device to kidnap girls."

"Girls should never accept candy, food or glass of water or small favors offered to them by strangers. Neither should they buy scents or food or candy at their doors. Any of these things may contain drugs."

"Girls should never take situations, without first making enquiries through a society active or affiliated in travellers' aid work."

"Girls should never go to any large town, even for one night, without knowing of a safe lodging."

Brant Sanatorium.
 The special committee of the Brant Sanatorium had a conference with Doctors Ashton and Frank in regard to the equipment and staff at the institution. A list of necessary equipment was made out and tenders are being asked for. Vice-President Cook and Mr. Watts were asked to meet representatives of the Daughters of the Empire to visit the building and inspect the dining room and kitchen in order to install necessary equipments. It was decided to at once take steps to procure a nurse in charge and the remainder of the staff will then be secured.

CHILDREN IN THE HOME.
 When there are children in the home it requires constant attention to keep them free from the many childhood ailments which come so quickly—some of the proving fatal while others leave the little one cross, restless and weak. To keep little ones well Baby's Own Tablets must be kept in the house. These Tablets regulate the stomach and bowels, break up colds and fevers; expel worms and make teething easy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr Williams' Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont.

Obituary

The Late Mrs. Hayward.
 The death of Mrs. Mary Hayward, wife of the late George Hayward of Waterford, passed away at 10.30 this morning at the residence of her son, F. W. Hayward, 94 Queen street. The late Mrs. Hayward was in her 80th year, and leaves to mourn her loss two sons, F. W. Hayward of this city, and L. S. Hayward of Chicago, and one daughter, Mrs. C. Hearn, of this city. The deceased lived in Waterford for many years and was well known and highly respected in that community. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

The Late Mrs. Hargreaves.
 Many old friends in this vicinity will regret to learn of the passing of Mrs. Margaret Hargreaves, whose death occurred yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. J. A. Sanderson, 74 Dufferin avenue. The late Mrs. Hargreaves had been a resident of this county for many years, but had for some time past resided with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Sanderson. She was the widow of the late John Hargreaves of Brantford township, and was universally esteemed and respected by all who knew her. Mrs. Hargreaves attended Farringdon Church for many years, but recently, owing to failing health, had been an attendant at Park Baptist. A family of three sons and two daughters are left: Thomas M., Brantford township; Dr. George, Jamaica; Rev. J. R. Oregon; Mrs. W. J. Chase, Victoria, B.C.; Mrs. J. A. Sanderson, city. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon to Farringdon Church cemetery, and will be private.

Duchess Improves
 LONDON, April 24.—Satisfactory progress is reported by the surgeons in attendance on the Duchess of Connaught, wife of the Governor-General of Canada. She passed a good night, and her condition is better than it has been for some days. The weakness resulting from the removal of the vermiform appendix on April 10 is disappearing.

DOES YOUR SIDE ACHE?
 When the first symptoms appear, rub with Nerviline—rub it in deeply. It penetrates to the muscles and chords that are sore—takes away stiffness—removes all strain and inflammation. If the condition is chronic, put a Nerviline Porous Plaster on the affected spot. This draws out any virus or neuralgic irritation, restores the tissue to their wonted healthiness, permanently cures any weakness of tendency to pain. Nerviline Plasters absorb all the deleterious secretions through the relaxed pores—and when used along with Nerviline itself, every muscular pain or ache must go.

Dayton Flood Pictures.
 The management of the Apollo are once more to the front with the motion pictures of the disaster which lately befell Dayton and the surrounding district of Ohio. These pictures are wonderful reproductions of this terrible catastrophe, and are sure to create a great deal of interest. Other feature pictures and an excellent vaudeville attraction have been secured to complete the bill.

You should see Whitlock's New Shows for men and boys at 50c, 75c and $1.00. Extraordinary values.

BRANTFORD PLAYERS LOOK GOOD IN INITIAL PRACTICE

Light Work Only at the Park, But the Players Looked Good---Chapdelaine a Lively Chap and a Good Catcher---Recruits are a Promising Lot.

Manager Amby Kane and his squad of Red Soxes were in full force at Agricultural Park yesterday, both morning and afternoon when a slight work out was indulged in...

The recent rain was so heavy that the lower grounds were so soaked that it was utterly impossible to use them... the work out had to be held on the upper grounds...

It was a wise move on the part of Manager Kane to hold the practices there, as the diamond is being laid up, and had they played on it when it was so water soaked would have ruined it...

The afternoon work out was principally devoted to batting practice... the players took turns in batting to get their eye on the ball...

Off to one side Kane sent his batter, and the string of pitchers lobbed them over to the catchers... it being the first day out, Kane would not let them put any strain behind their shots...

Johnson is already off to a whirlwind flash. He has worked 36 innings to date against big league clubs, counting exhibition and regular contests...

Lady Marjorie's Love

She glanced beseechingly at her step mother, mutely begging for help, but the Countess's hard eyes were cast coldly down; her expression and attitude plainly showed that she withdrew herself entirely from the conversation. The Dowager laughed.

"It's to Tipperary ye're going and nowhere else, and it isn't a fuss, I tell ye plainly, me dear, that I mean to have about it," she said with a portentous nod of decision and a tap of the ivory headed stick. "And, as for Eleanor Paget, ye'll be good enough not to mention the name of her to me again. It's a good memory I have for all I am seventy-seven, and well do I remember the names she's put her tongue to for me before ever she bothered that poor innocent boy, Harry Paget, into marrying her. 'Ye'll regret it, me dear, for sure it's the extravagance of a paycock she has, and never a sixpence to sling against another,' said I to him, and faith, so she had, and regret it he did long before ever his day came to lie in the grave that she worried him in. And if ye had any sense, me lady, instead of being the simple silly of a child ye are, it's well ye'd know why it is ye've had no answer to your letter." The Dowager grimly chuckled again. "Sure, Eleanor Paget's no fool, and ye're too pretty, Marjorie, though I say it, to be seen with those two great awkward gowls of girls of hers. And you without a sixpence too. It isn't the bread of charity that Eleanor Paget will cut, much less butter, let me tell you. No, no, me dear, ye'll just pack your boxes and come to Ireland with me. There's nothing to keep ye in England."

The tone of the last sentence was expressive; the glance that she cast Marjorie opened her lips to speak. The Dowager, watching her keenly, did not intend to speak. She struck in before a syllable could pass her lips. "Never did there live one of the sex more cruelly astute than the little old woman," she made a peremptory gesture with her shrunken jewelled hand—made it as though the girl had answered her.

"Pooh, pooh, me dear. It isn't at this time of day that ye'll try to make a fool of me or to demean yourself by taking of Loftus Bligh. Sure it was but your money that he was after, and it's plain enough he's shown that it's like he wants ye now that it's gone. And as for the precious engagement—and your father would never have allowed it if he'd had his wits—sure it's better that it's worth," cried the Dowager shrilly, with an emphatic thump of the stick. "Faith, it's a money-hunting jackanapes of a scamp he must be, and it's that would like to tell him so. No, no, Marjorie, ye'll do as I tell ye, and put that letter in the top of your head, me girl. If ye would have taken young Jocelyn, that I understood from Lady Marlingford here has offered ye more than once, why, ye might have stayed and welcome. Ye since ye won't—

"I hate Tom Jocelyn," Marjorie dashed fiercely. "Fenella knows I do."

"But since ye won't, why, ye must come back to Ireland with me," concluded the Dowager calmly.

"No," Marjorie said emphatically. "I'm not a slave," she said. "I am not a child. I—I won't go back with you."

The Dowager dropped her stick in amazement and what held her stable old woman had been heard but very few times in her life, and the novelty of the sensation almost took her breath away. She could only glare at the intrepid little, defiant figure. Even the Countess raised her head with a cold, half-amused glance of wonder. Marjorie's eyes flashed back at both undauntedly.

"I won't go," she said. "You shall neither of you frighten me; you shall neither of you make me go away against my will. I'm not a child, I am a woman. I'm over ages you can't force me, not even you, grandmamma, although you are my father's mother. I won't go to Ireland; I will not. You jeer at Aunt Eleanor. I shall wait for her letter; she was always full of me. I believe she's fond of me now. You have sneered at Loftus I shall marry Loftus if I like. I don't care what you say. I'm so miserable and so lonely that I don't care what I do." She gulped a sob. "But if I were twenty times more miserable for you, and I believe I'd soon die than marry Tom Jocelyn. I wish I were dead with my father; no one has loved me or wanted me since he died. You only want me to go to Ireland because you think it wouldn't do to let the last of the Wynnes starve. You don't care for me, for me, grandmamma, any more than Fenella does, you never have you know you haven't. You—you're a cruel bitter old woman, and— Fenella is just an iceberg. And as you don't care for me, I won't care for you. And I won't go to Ireland, so there."

She dashed out of the room, a passionate little whirlwind of defiance. Her rapid feet could be heard running across the hall with a fierce little clatter of heels upon the flags. The younger and elder Countess smiling. Fenella was smiling. The Dowager with a gasp of wrath, put her hand up to her cap, with a confused air of not knowing whether it and her head were safely where she had a right to expect them to be. Amusement had for the moment rendered her dumb. The Countess, smiling still, struck neatly in before she could recover herself.

One Thing After Another

By RUTH CAMERON

WHEN the babies get the chicken-pox, and you break your very best cloisonne vase, and your least beloved aunt writes that she is going to make you a visit, and your maid threatens to leave if you have any more company, and someone spills a dish of soup on your best gown at the church supper, and to cap it all, that terrible neuralgia, which you dread more than anything on earth, pays you a visit, you are sure to sigh deeply and say, "Well, it's one thing after another."

But when your children miraculously escape the whooping cough, despite the fact that they were repeatedly exposed to it, when you replace that disagreeable maid by one so perfect that you are almost afraid of your good fortune, when your aunt writes that she is sorry to break the news, but she will have to postpone her visit indefinitely, and your wealthy cousin brings you half a dozen pairs of Paris gloves on her return from a trip abroad, when your new evening gown which you designed yourself turns out such a success that everyone compliments you upon it, and the fashion leader of your coterie asks if it is a Pain, when to cap it all your husband gets a substantial raise and celebrates by giving you the set of mink furs you have so long hopelessly desired, do you then remember to say "It's one thing after another," meaning one pleasant thing after another?

Probably not.

And yet, on the whole, don't the pleasant little things follow one another just about as persistently as the troubles. Isn't it one pleasant thing after another, just about as much as one disagreeable thing?

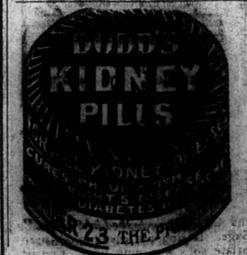

I think it is. Only sometimes we seem to take the pleasant things for granted, while we resent the unpleasant happenings as something unfairly and unjustly foisted upon us. The confident belief which we all seem to have that happiness is the divine right of mankind and that anything else is an injustice is almost amusing. "If angels have any sense of humor, how we must divert them," Horace Walpole once said. I wonder whether they laugh or weep at the way in which we forget our blessings and resent our misfortunes.

No life can be all happiness or all unhappiness. There are times in all lives when the misfortunes seem to preponderate, and other times when happiness seems to tip the beam. Of course we can't help regretting our mishaps, but let's try to appreciate our blessings at least as much, if not more, and whenever happiness does tip the beam let's not forget to say "Life is one good thing after another."

Red Cameron

Archibald a catcher, who has been with the Buffalo International League team, is anxious for a try-out with London. He has written for a chance with Deneau's Dudes.

Frank Shaughnessy, manager of the Ottawa Baseball club, who went to Fort Wayne for the Senators last week, has landed his first new pitcher. The latest addition to the hurling corps of the Canadian League champions is none other than Walter Miller, a younger brother of George Miller, the famous pitcher of the Detroit Tigers.

WOMAN'S MOST SUCCESSFUL MEDICINE

Known All Over The World—Known Only For The Good It Has Done.

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or received so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In nearly every community you will find women who have been restored to health by this famous medicine. Almost every woman you meet knows of the great good it has been doing among suffering women for the past 50 years.

For example, M. E. "I have always had pains in the abdomen and a weakness there and after a course of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me much good. I am stronger, digestion is better and I can work with ambition. I have been encouraged by many mothers of families to take it as it is the best remedy in the world. You can publish this in the papers."—Mrs. WILLIAM S. BOURQUE, Fox Creek, N. B.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, many of whom state that it has saved them from surgical operations.

HE DIED OF KIDNEY DISEASE

How often we hear of these sad cases. The back—pains and headaches were noticed—but not treated. Dizzy spells, frequent calls and languid condition appeared, but nothing was done till the disease was far advanced. Care invariably results from Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They restore perfect health, destroy every symptom of diseased kidneys, build up constitutions that defy further outbreaks. Because purely vegetable and free from injurious materials, no remedy equals Dr. Hamilton's Pills for kidney and liver complaint. Sold in 25c boxes by all dealers.

Convictions

By HOWARD L. RANN

A CONVICTION is a belief with a long root which can be changed with as much ease as a safety razor blade. The older a man gets the harder it is for him to pull up a conviction by the roots and replace it with something that looks like orange gelatin.

There are several kinds of convictions, but far and away the most popular are political convictions. Some men get along nicely without any convictions whatever on any subject until they become a candidate for congress, when they are immediately attacked by a number of fervid convictions which will not in any way local industry. Very few politicians use the same line of convictions in every campaign, as it keeps them too busy explaining their vote to the prying country editor.

Social convictions are those which prevent people from appearing in society what they feel like inside. This kind of a conviction will cause a man to squeeze into a dress suit fifteen years old and put up a losing fight against a seven-course dinner, without being able to pronounce a word on the menu, when he would rather be at home trying to trip up the game of solitaire. It also causes many a woman to invite to dinner friends of her husband who don't know a salad fork from any other farm implement, in order to push along a business deal.

Religious convictions are of two sorts—transient and permanent. The first of these is a comfortable variety which can be worn on Sunday with the utmost composure and replace the rest of the week with sharp practice. Permanent religious convictions are those which do not have to be renewed at every revival meeting, but show their durable qualities by doing a powerful sight of good without making any noise about it.

Every person should collect a few heat-treated convictions and then stick to them whether it hurts or not. The man with convictions which stick out and interfere with the law breaker will never be popular, but he will be able to dress in the morning without turning the mirror to the wall.

BREATHE FREELY! OPEN UP NOSTRILS AND STUFFED HEAD—END CATARRH

Instant Relief When Nose and Head are Clogged from a Cold—Stops Nasty Catarrhal Discharges—Dull Headache Vanishes.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils, penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake to-night struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucus dripping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless. But your faith—just once, in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

Charged With Corrupt Act

(Continued from Page 3) statement in the House the other day that if the honorable gentleman had a charge to make and would make it here we would keep the House here for—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils, penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Without an Atom of Truth. "Just one more thing," he said, "or the Globe will say that I did not deny this charge. I suppose I ought to say just what the fact is. Well, the fact is there is not one atom of truth in these charges. They are worthy of the low and ignoble mind of the man who has put them out before the public."

The members of the Government greeted this with wild applause. "The smallest portion of time necessary will be used," repeated Sir James. "We do not propose to dilly-dally around in any way that will allow the matter to die out or be ruled off. I propose that this shall go straight to the Committee on Privileges and Elections if this House will say so, and whether this honorable gentleman is there or not we will be there and this investigation will take place."

Mr. Rowell objected: "I ask, Mr. Speaker, if the language in the last remark of my honorable friend the Prime Minister is parliamentary language?" "What did I say?" challenged Sir James. "That the charges were worthy of the low and ignoble mind of the man who presented them."

Welcomes Investigation. "I rise, Mr. Speaker," he said, "to assure this House and this committee that I do not for one moment shrink investigation under the rules of this House. On the contrary I welcome it. When those who are making these charges to-day are through with what they have to say I shall make full answer without any qualification or reserve. And when I am through there will be not one act of mine that will reflect in any way on my honor or conduct or the conduct of my department, or on my public life in this province. And this I will be content to leave to the judgment of all fair-minded men in this province, when they know of the blackmail—because it is blackmail—that I have been subjected to for upwards of a year and a half." The Minister was interrupted by an outburst of cheering from the Government supporters, and when it had subsided he stated that he accepted the member from Huron from this criticism, because he did not know what Mr. Hanna knew.

The Provincial Secretary stated that a week ago he would have been glad to trust his case to a committee composed entirely of the justice, the insinuations and innuendo that had featured the meetings of the Public Accounts Committee he had entirely altered his mind.

HE NOW BELIEVES IN "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

Because He No Longer Suffers With Headaches

TAYLORVILLE, ONT. "I was a sufferer from Fearful Headaches for over two years. Sometimes, they were so bad that I was unable to work for days at a time. I took all kinds of medicine, was treated by physicians, but yet the Headaches persisted. "Fruit-a-lives" did it so, with I must confess, very little faith. But after I had taken them for three days, my Headaches were easier and in a week they left me. After I had taken a box of these tablets, my headaches were quite cured. My appetite was always poor and my stomach had no new appetite in splendid and my digestion excellent. I had become thin and weak from the constant Headaches but now not only have I been cured of all these awful Headaches, but my strength is growing up once more and I feel like a new man."

BERT CORNELL. Take "Fruit-a-lives," 50c a box, 6 for $2.50—trial size, 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ontario.

want to say, more, that so far as these coal tenders are concerned, that every suggestion, even an innuendo, is absolutely false and entirely without a possibility of foundation. Let me say that now. Let me say this now: Let every member of the Opposition bring forward every man who ever had anything to do with my department in any shape or form, with respect to either coal or self-feeding stokers. I shall have more to say later, but in the meantime I wish to make this statement to-night.

Mr. Rowell wound up the discussion by urging the Opposition to support the appointment of a Royal Commission composed of two High Court judges, in preference to a committee of the House. He insisted that party bias would not be absent from the deliberations of a House committee and that the charges would not be as well ventilated as they would be with the investigation before non-partisan judges.

Then the motions were put the Government amendment being carried by 64 to 15. Allan Studholme voting with the Government. Just before adjournment Sir James Whitney asked all those on the committee to meet at noon, and then moved the adjournment until this afternoon.
