The Old Marquis

The Girl of the Cloisters

CHAPTER XL
THE CLOSING SCENE.

Lela blushed, as her eyes rested lovingly on her husband.

"Never met such a happy man in my life," said Lord Combermere, peering at him; "just told the marquis that he ought to be proud of such a son—and daughter!" and he bowed and smiled.

Lela laughed.

"They are just going to start, Lord Combermere; you had better get in."

He was about to enter the phaeton, when a carriage drove up with a neighboring baronet and his wife, and the first to alight was a lady in a habit, with her veil drawn over her face.

Lela started as she saw her, but the suspicion that flashed on her mind seemed too absurd, and she was struggling with it, when the veiled lady approached the phaeton, and, raising her veil, disclosed the face of Edith Drayton.

She had changed greatly since Lela had last seen her; her face was thin, and marked with faint, fine lines; the eyes were colorless, and the glorious eyes were filled with a restless fire. She stood looking down at Lela, with a half-defiant smile, and Lela, whose gentleness ever placed her at a disadvantage at such moments, looked up at her with timid surprise.

"You are astonished to see me, Lady Fane," she said, with a cold smile. "Permit me to explain the cause of my presence. I am paying a visit to Thorley Hall, and Sir Ashley, my host, insisted upon bringing me here. I had no excuse to offer, excepting the true one, and I thought it best to conceal that. Was I right? If you think otherwise, please say so, and I will go away. In this case, rest assured that my presence here is as unpleasant to me as it is to you."

Lela opened her lips, but could find no words. Lord Combermere stared curiously, and at that moment Lord Edgar rode up to them to start. Seeing Edith Drayton, he pulled up short, colored painfully, then turned pale and stern, and would have spoken, doubtless to the point, but Lela arose and laid her hand on his arm.

"Miss Drayton is here as our guest, Edgar," she said, meaningly, and with a bow, he got off his horse, but did not offer to shake hands.

Sir Ashley Cower, at whose house Edith Drayton was stopping, now came up, and, little guessing the nature of the surprise he had introduced, said:

"Oh, Fane, my friend, Miss Drayton. I persuaded her to join us. Do you think you can find her a mount? Our last three runs have quite knocked my horses up!"

Lord Edgar bit his lip, but he bowed again.

"I will go and see," he said.

Edith Drayton gathered her habit skirt in her hand.

"Let me go with you, please," she said. "I should like to see the horse I am going to ride."

Several of the party accompanied them to the stables, and Lord Edgar walked down the stalls, looking for a suitable horse; but suddenly Edith Drayton stopped at a stall.

In it stood the mare which she had exchanged for Lord Edgar's horse.

"This is the horse I should like to ride," she said, quietly. "That is, if I may."

Lord Edgar shook his head.

"No," he said, curtly. "You know the horse. It is not safe."

She laughed—a hard, cold laugh.

For Love of a Woman;

New Romeo and Juliet.

CHAPTER I
EBHIND THE FOOTLIGHTS.

The dark eyes glittered still more keenly as he spoke, and the hand that held the play-bill tightened.

"You will succeed if you set your heart on it," he said, more calmly. "You have done well up to now. I haven't praised you—that is not my way—but I am satisfied. Up to now you have got on in regular strides; to-morrow night is the great leap—the great chance that seldom comes more than once in a life. Take it, Doris, take it!"

"Yes, Jeffrey," she said, softly; but he heard the sigh she tried to stifle, and looked up.

"Well," he said, grimly. "You would say—"

She moved away from him and leant against the table, her hands clasped loosely.

"I was going to say that it seems to me as if all the trying in the world would not make me a Shakespeare's Juliet. The lines are beautiful, and I know them—oh, yes, I know them, but—"

"Do you think any young girl—anyone so young as I am—could play it properly, Jeffrey?"

"Juliet was fourteen," he said, grimly.

Doris smiled.

"That's a mistake, I think, Jeffrey; she was eighteen, most people say. Oh, she was young enough; yes, but—but then, you see, she had met Romeo."

The old man looked at her attentively, then his keen gaze dropped to the floor.

"Is it necessary for an actor to have actually died before he can perfectly represent a death-scene?" he asked.

She laughed, and a faint blush rose to her face.

LIFT CORNS OFF IT DOESN'T HURT

Pain? No, not one bit! Just drop a little Frezzone on that touchy corn. Instantly it stops aching, then you lift that bothersome corn right off. Yes, magic! Costs only a few cents.

Try Frezzone! Your druggist sells a tiny bottle, sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and calluses, without one particle of pain, soreness or irritation. Frezzone is the mysterious ether discovery of a Cincinnati genius.

"Perhaps dying isn't so important as falling in love, Jeffrey; but it seems to me that one must have loved—and lost—before one can play Juliet, and I've done neither."

He made no response to this piece of speculation; but after some minutes' silence he said:

"Do some of it, Doris."

She started slightly, as if he had awakened her from a dream, and recited some of the lines.

The old man watched her, and listened anxiously at first, then with rapt attention, as, losing herself in the part, she grew more emphatic and spontaneous; but suddenly she stopped.

"It will not do, Jeffrey, will it?" she said, quickly. "There—there is no heart in it, is there? Don't tell me it's all right!" she pleaded. "I always like the truth—from you at least!"

"And you get it," he said, grimly. "No, it is not all right. You look—he stopped—"and your voice is musical and thrilling; but there is something wanting yet. Do not give it up—it will come right. To-morrow, with the lights and the people—there will be a full house, crammed—the feeling you want will come, and I shall be satisfied."

He rose and rolled up the paper. "I have to go back to the theatre."

"I'll come with you," she said, quickly.

"No," he said; "you are better alone. Take your book and go out into the fields. This room is not large enough."

And he passed out.

She understood him, and, after a moment or two of reflection, got her hat, murmuring as she ran down the stairs:

"Dear old Jeffrey! I must do it for his sake."

Doris Marlowe, as she passed down the quiet street, was as unlike the popular idea of an actress as it is possible to imagine. It is too generally supposed by the great public that an actress must necessarily be "loud" in word, dress, and voice; that she must be affected on and off the stage; and that her behaviour is as objectionable as her manner and attire. If the usual run of actresses are of this fashion, Doris was a singular exception to this rule. Her voice was soft and low, and as refined in its tones as the daughter of an earl; her manner was as quiet as any well-bred lady's could be, and to her plain, white dress and straw hat she looked as much like a school-girl as anything else, especially as she had a copy of "Romeo and Juliet" in her hand, which might have been mistaken for a French grammar.

There was, in fact, nothing "loud" about her; indeed, when off the stage, she was rather silent and shy, and the colour was apt to come into her pale, white cheeks as into those of the school-girl she resembled. It was only from the quiet play of the dark, thick brows, and the ever-changing expression of the eloquent eyes that the keenest observer would ever have detected that Doris Marlowe was something different from the ordinary young lady whom one meets—and forgets—every day.

Small children are wearing colors of startling brightness.

The Victorian style of hair dressing is becoming popular.

Fashion Plates.

A DAINTY SUMMER FROCK.

2821—Printed crepe, or figured voile would be good for this style. It is nice for embroidered or bordered materials, and for founcing, as well as linen, batiste, silk, gabardine, gingham and percale. The closing is at the back. The flaring cut may be omitted.

The Pattern is cut in 5 sizes: 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. Size 12 requires 3 1/2 yards of 40 inch material.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

A VERY ATTRACTIVE GOWN.

2809—This style would be effective in linen with cluny or filet lace, or in shantung with embroidered bands. It is nice also for serge, voile, foulard, taffeta, gingham and other wash fabrics.

The Pattern is cut in 7 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. Size 38 will require 6 yards of 44 inch material. Width of skirt at lower edge, is about 2 yards, with plaits extended.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

G. Knowling,

War Veterans Form New Branch.

President Harold Mitchell, Vice-President (Captain) Leo Murphy, Secretary F. P. LeGrow and K. M. Blair, who were visiting Conception Bay on business in connection with the Great War Veterans' Association, returned to the city on Tuesday evening, having motored overland. We learn that their mission was a most successful one, many sailors and soldiers having been interviewed from Coley's Point, Spaniard's Bay, Bay Roberts and nearby localities. A meeting of all returned Sailors, Soldiers and Foresters was held in the Court house at Bay Roberts on Monday night when the following officers of the new branch were duly installed:

President—J. Barrett.
Vice-President—Esau Mercer.
Asst. V.P.—A. Parsons.
Secy.—Treas.—Allan Caravan.

Several returned veterans who are still ill at their homes, from the effects of wounds, were visited, as were also the monuments erected in the local cemeteries to the memories of fallen brethren in various branches of His Majesty's forces. Matters affecting local grievances, were carefully gone into, and it is considered that nearly 250 will have enrolled under the War Veterans' banner before the Bay Roberts branch is in existence many months.

War Veterans Form New Branch.

President Harold Mitchell, Vice-President (Captain) Leo Murphy, Secretary F. P. LeGrow and K. M. Blair, who were visiting Conception Bay on business in connection with the Great War Veterans' Association, returned to the city on Tuesday evening, having motored overland. We learn that their mission was a most successful one, many sailors and soldiers having been interviewed from Coley's Point, Spaniard's Bay, Bay Roberts and nearby localities. A meeting of all returned Sailors, Soldiers and Foresters was held in the Court house at Bay Roberts on Monday night when the following officers of the new branch were duly installed:

President—J. Barrett.
Vice-President—Esau Mercer.
Asst. V.P.—A. Parsons.
Secy-Treas.—Allan Caravan.

Several returned veterans who are still ill at their homes, from the effects of wounds, were visited, as were also the monuments erected in the local cemeteries to the memories of fallen brethren in various branches of His Majesty's forces. Matters affecting local grievances were carefully gone into, and it is considered that nearly 250 will have enrolled under the War Veterans' banner before the Bay Roberts branch is in existence many months.

Disorderly Demonstrations

AT FLAT ISLANDS, B.B.

A rather serious demonstration has taken place at Flat Island, B.B., according to the report of the Stipendiary Magistrate at Greenspond. He relates that Constable Simmonds and Tucker searched Coward's Island for intoxicating liquors last Saturday morning, and on returning to Flat Island were met by two motor boats full of hostile men, one boat flying the Union Jack. Upon landing at Flat Island a crowd of about one hundred men met them, bawling, shouting and demanding the constables to leave, and some threatened to throw them overboard. The constables tried to reason with the mob, which eventually gave them ten minutes to leave the island. Arthur Samson, a prominent F. P. U. man, and at one time one of the candidates for the House of Assembly, who was one of the crowd, agreed to take the constables to St. Brendan's and did so. When leaving, the mob cheered and shouted.

It has been decided to send a Stipendiary Magistrate to Flat Island for the purpose of having the ring-leaders arrested and tried, and yesterday a squad of policemen left the city on their way to the scene of the trouble. It is hoped that the evidence to be taken will show that the affair has been exaggerated, but it is evident that there is a spirit of lawlessness abroad, and that the majesty of the law must be vindicated. There seems to be a growing feeling in parts of the country that communities can be a law unto themselves and govern by violence, and too great a speed and determination cannot be shown in putting this down.

The Next Big Air Stunt.

The crossing of the Atlantic by air-plane now having been accomplished both by land and naval planes the next big air stunt is the circumnavigation of the globe. "The U. S. Army has made tentative plans for this achievement," says the Boston Globe, "but unless Congress loosens up with its appropriations the honor of furnishing the Magellan as well as the Columbus of the air will hardly fall to the United States."

Funeral at Carbonear.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Thomas Browne took place at Carbonear on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. P. W. Browne, son of the deceased, sang Requiem Mass at St. Patrick's Church, for the repose of her soul. At the grave side the prayers for the dead were recited by Right Rev. Mons. McCarthy.

Record Tourist Traffic.

Since the beginning of June, every arrival of the Kyle at Port aux Basques brings a number of Canadian and American visitors to the West Coast to engage in salmon fishing. Not since 1914 were so many sportsmen along the Humber and Codroy Rivers at this date, and if they continue coming at the present rate, this year's tourist traffic on the West Coast will be the biggest on record.

It Took Years to Learn.

That in Dr. Chase's Ointment There is Positive Cure for Piles or Hemorrhoids.

Reports come to us almost daily from persons who have suffered 10, 20, 30 years or more from piles or hemorrhoids before finding out that Dr. Chase's Ointment affords immediate relief and ultimate cure for this annoying and distressing ailment. This is not a trouble about which people care to speak, but if you ask your friends about Dr. Chase's Ointment you will be surprised to hear how many have been cured of piles by its use. It is the one treatment for piles on which you can depend absolutely for prompt relief.

Mr. B. F. Tracey, Mississauga, Ont., writes: "For about thirty-five years I was troubled with itching piles, which kept me from sleep until I was completely worn out. Then at length I would drop off to sleep and rub myself raw. I tried every kind of ointment made without any permanent good. I also tried a homoeopathic doctor, but only had momentary relief from his treatments. Three years ago I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment and in half a box was completely cured me. I have never been troubled with piles since, and can heartily recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to anyone suffering from this terrible agony or from any other skin disease."

"(This is to certify that the above statement is correct in every particular.)"—Rev. H. Berry, pastor Methodist Church.)
Mr. H. B. MacDonald, Walkerton, Ont., writes: "Having suffered from piles for some time, I finally tried Dr. Chase's Ointment, which afforded almost instant relief, and in time, cure. I have great faith in Dr. Chase's Ointment, and think it superior to any ointment on the market. I would advise anyone suffering from piles to give it a trial."

ANOTHER ULTIMATUM!

Allies Should Advance Into Germany.

Sympathetic Strike Did Not Materialize--Mobs Attack Food Factories in Hamburg -- Peace Treaty May Be Signed Monday.

GERMAN SAILORS PRISONERS.

LONDON, June 25. (Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—The Admiralty announces that on the afternoon of June 22nd, German officers were formed up on the deck of the warship Revenge under an armed guard, with Admiral von Reuter and his staff in front. Admiral Sydney Fremantle told von Reuter he was to consider himself a prisoner of war for violating the terms of the armistice, and added that this was a traitorous act but not the first occasion on which the Germans had violated all laws of civilization on the High Seas. Admiral von Reuter replied he was responsible for what had been done. He said he had felt he had done what any British sailor would have done under the same circumstances. He would do it again under similar circumstances. The prisoners were then marched off.

MASONS' PEACE CELEBRATION.

LONDON, June 25. Many overseas Freemasons have arrived in England within the last few days to take part in the great Grand Lodge celebration of peace at Albert Hall, on June 27th. Canada Lodge holds its annual installation to-day when a special feature will be the entertainment of visitors from Canada and the United States. Baron Amthill will be the installing master. The Lord Mayor of London, on the evening of June 26, will hold a reception at the Mansion House in connection with the celebration, when a number of distinguished masons have been invited to meet the Duke of Connaught. A meeting of Jubilee Masters' Lodge, of which the Duke of Connaught is permanent master, is

TINO IS BROKE.

PARIS, June 25. Former King Constantine of Greece who has been living in Switzerland, is in financial difficulties, according to advices from Geneva to Paris newspapers. Former Emperor William has been supplying the former Greek ruler with funds, but this subsidy has been cut off. It is added that Constantine is endeavoring to become reconciled with the present Greek Government.

HORATIO AGAIN.

PARIS, June 25. An authorized denial was made in a high American source to-day that there was any truth in an intimation made in the British House of Commons yesterday by Horatio Bottomley, Independent member from South Hackney, and editor of John Bull, respecting the disposition of the German war fleet. Mr. Bottomley's intimation was that President Wilson had overruled the plea of Premier Lloyd George that the German ships should be surrendered instead of interned.

HINDENBURG RESIGNS.

BERLIN, June 25. Hermann Muekler, the new Foreign Minister, the Tageblatt says, has declined to go to Versailles to sign the Peace Treaty. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, it is added, has resigned the chief command of the army.

THE U. S. ARMY.

WASHINGTON, June 25. Without recording a vote, the Senate to-night adopted the Committee amendments to the Army Appropriation Bill providing for an average army of four hundred thousand men for a year, beginning July 1.

NOT TRUE.

DUBLIN, June 24. With reference to the allegation made by Messrs Walsh and Dunne, representatives of American Irish Societies, that the prosecution of Countess Markievicz, Sinn Fein leader, was in retaliation for the Countess having given information to the delegates concerning brutalities against Irish women, an official denial of this charge was issued at Dublin Castle to-day.

ANOTHER SCHEME BEING PREPARED.

LONDON, June 25. Right Hon. Ian McPherson is hard at work on a scheme for the solution of the Irish problem which he last evening was due to an attempt to arrest two Australian soldiers. The police used their batons. It is reported that a number of policemen and Australian soldiers were injured.

ULTIMATUM MAY BE NECESSARY.

PARIS, June 25. If the heads of the Allied Powers in Paris do not hear from Welmar very soon regarding the German delegation for the signing of the Peace Treaty an ultimatum will be sent to the German Government, according to the Paris office of Reuter's Limited. The ultimatum will demand the appointment of plenipotentiaries within a certain number of hours.

SIGNING MAY BE DELAYED TILL MONDAY.

PARIS, June 25. Up to 4.45 o'clock this afternoon no official word had been received here regarding the formation of plans with regard to the signing of the Peace Treaty. The peace leaders were perplexed over the situation. It was conceded to be impossible that the ceremony of signing could take place before Saturday. Unofficial reports were that it would probably be delayed until Monday.

GERMAN REPRESENTATIVES NOT YET CHOSEN.

WEIMAR, June 25. The plenipotentiaries who will sign the Peace Treaty for Germany have not yet been chosen. It is still proving difficult to find men who are willing to affix their signature to a document which is to be such a momentous historic record.

SELECTING NEW DELEGATES.

PARIS, June 25. Advices from Germany to the Council of Four are to the effect that the German Government was occupied to-day in selecting new delegates for Versailles.

RIOTING AT HAMBURG.

COPENHAGEN, June 25. Serious rioting occurred at Hamburg on Monday and Tuesday when mobs attacked food preserving factories, it being alleged that bodies of dogs and cats had been found in them. The managers were dragged to the streets and roughly handled. The mob tried to disarm troops marching through the streets and the latter opened fire, a number of persons being killed and wounded.

WINNIPEG STRIKE OFF.

WINNIPEG, June 25. The general sympathetic strike has been called off. The men out have been told to return to work on Thursday morning at eleven o'clock. The decision of the strike committee which ends the struggle, follows a conference of delegates of the strike committee with Premier Norris and members of the Provincial Govt. yesterday morning. A commission will be appointed to investigate the strike and settle the dispute at once.

BRITAIN NOT TO BLAME.

LONDON, June 25. In the House of Commons to-day Right Hon. Walter Long, First Lord of the Admiralty, stated that the Allies in Paris were now considering the question of reparation for the sinking of the German warships. The statement that the crews were changed periodically was not right, he said, but invalids were exchanged. The total guard had been reduced from 4,700 to 1,800. It was impossible for the Admiralty to take precautions to prevent the sinking, because the ships were interned, not surrendered. Therefore the Admiralty had no power to place guards on them. Mr. Long denied that the Admiralty had recommended internment. He pointed out that the decision of the Allied heads in favor of internment controlled the situation and made prevention of the scuttling utterly impossible.

AN OFFICIAL EXPLANATION.

PARIS, June 25. The following may be regarded as an official explanation of the proposals regarding the German fleet. At the time of the signing of the armistice the British Admiralty and the British Government strongly urged that the German ships be surrendered. The French military authorities, put forward the view that to the purpose of the armistice the surrender of the German ships was not absolutely essential. They were most anxious that the armistice should be concluded, having regard for the very heavy loss of life daily on the Western front. Insistence upon the surrender of the fleet, they felt may delay the signing which, despite rumours to the contrary, Marshal Foch was as desirous as anyone. The French, therefore, suggested that the German ships be interned in neutral ports, a course which they believed would be regarded by the enemy in the same way as would the surrender of the ships. This view was supported by Admiral Benson, American Naval representative in Paris. Ultimately a compromise was reached providing for the internment of the ships in a British port.

"SAYS NOTHING, BUT SAW WOOD."

AMERONGEN, June 25. (By the A.P.)—News of Germany's decision to accept the peace terms, including the clause providing for the delivery of the former German Emperor to the Allies, reached the castle late yesterday evening. Exactly how

TURNING ONE'S FAMILY INSA

To refuse to admit to an outsider that any member of one's family has a fault or could be in the wrong in anything is family loyalty carried to an extreme that I at least think unjustifiable. But there is another attitude at the end of the scale which, though common, is just as annoying. I mean that of the person who makes a point of perfect frankness about all his family's faults and foibles and even drags out the family skeleton before an audience half interested, half embarrassed. I have lately been thrown into contact with an unusually notable example of this.

Here are some of the things she says—not just to intimate friends, in confidence, but to anyone who cares to listen. This is the Way She Talks About Her Sister's Playing.

She has a sister who plays fairly well on the mandolin. She is often asked to play and evidently enjoys doing it and thinks herself a notable performer, which she is. After listening to her one day M— said to me, "Too bad Grace can't play the mandolin when she wants to so much."

Speaking of the children of another sister, "Of course, you know Emily's children are dreadfully spoiled. Emily never was meant to have children. She hasn't the faintest idea in the world how to bring them up. I wouldn't be a bit surprised to see Harry (her nephew) land in a reform school."

When I asked her about her mother one day she said, "Oh, mother's deep in dressmaking as usual. I think it is terrible for a woman of her age to think as much of clothes as she does. Why all through the war it was as much as I could do to get her to knit a little."

"The one real skeleton in the fam-

TURNING ONE'S FAMILY INSIDE OUT.

RUTH CAMERON

To refuse to admit to an outsider that any member of one's family has a fault or could be in the wrong in anything is family loyalty carried to an extreme that I at least think unjustifiable. But there is another attitude at the end of the scale which, though less common, is just as annoying. I mean that of the person who makes a point of perfect frankness about all his family's faults and foibles and even drags out the family skeleton before an audience half interested, half embarrassed.

I have lately been thrown into contact with an unusually notable example of this.

Here are some of the things she says—not just to intimate friends, in confidence, but to anyone who cares to listen.

This is the Way She Talks About Her Sister's Playing.

She has a sister who plays fairly well on the mandolin. She is often asked to play and evidently enjoys doing it and thinks herself a passable performer, which she is. After listening to her one day M— said to me, "Too bad Grace can't play the mandolin when she wants to so much."

Speaking of the children of another sister, "Of course, you know Emily's children are dreadfully spoiled. Emily never was meant to have children. She hasn't the faintest idea in the world how to bring them up. I wouldn't be a bit surprised to see Harry (her nephew) land in a reform school."

She Calls Her Mother Unpatriotic.

When I asked her about her mother one day she said, "Oh, mother's deep in dressmaking as usual. I think it is terrible for a woman of her age to think as much of clothes as she does. Why all through the war it was as much as I could do to get her to knit a little."

The one real skeleton in the family is a brother who was mixed up in an unpleasant divorce suit. M— insists upon referring to this affair openly and even telling the details.

When one knows her intimately one finds that she really has a very deep affection for her family. But anyone who knew her casually would never pierce through her pose and would think she had a very undesirable family that she didn't care much about.

Be Frank About Yourself First.

Frankness is a very fine thing in its right uses but I cannot feel that turning one's family inside out for outsiders to laugh or be shocked at is one of them.

If you want to turn yourself inside out that is one thing (though one often sees that carried too far for good taste) but surely before you proceed to your family you ought to consider their feelings and the fact that there is a certain noblesse oblige about reticence in family matters.

English Physician Calls Prohibition Absolute Nonsense.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Prohibition is absolute nonsense, Sir St. Clair Thompson, noted English physician, declared here to-day. Dr. Thompson was a representative of the British Medical Association to the convention of the American Medical Association at Atlantic City. In company with other physicians, he is making a tour of the medical centres of the United States.

"The arbitrary denial of all alcoholic stimulants could not and never would be done in England, and I am sure it would not be successful here," he said. "Aside from the fact that it is not a wise measure medicinally, it is autocratic and revolutionary. Men of all nations from the beginning of time have used alcoholic drinks as a stimulant. Used in moderation, it is a good thing. Deny it to all on account of the excesses of a few, and the people will take to opium, hashish, tobacco in excess or other drugs. It will certainly drive a great many good people from the United States to other countries."

Just Folks

WILLIAM OSWALD'S DISCOVERY.

When William Oswald Effingham was born his parents said:

There never was a child before with such a noble head.

With pardonable modesty they raved about his worth

And called their precious little tot the cutest babe on earth

As William Oswald older grew his folks more loudly raved,

Before his face that he was the brightest of the bright.

They told the clever things he did, repeated all he said

Until at last they had completely turned the youngster's head.

Because he heard his parents brag about his day and night,

He got to thinking that he was the brightest of the bright.

He didn't seem to notice when they gave him his degree

That ninety other fellows shared his brilliant company.

At last into the world he went in search of gold and fame,

And was shocked to find that no one seemed to recognize his claim:

It troubled him and grieved him and it left him much depressed.

To discover no one thought him any better than the rest.

Now he knows that there are others that are wiser than he is,

That some know everything he knows, with something added too.

And he tells his foolish parents when they boast of him at night,

That the world is full of people who are marvelously bright.

Household Notes.

When sewing up sheets, don't cut into two until the seams are sewed over and over.

Lettuce for sandwiches should be thoroughly washed and only the small leaves selected.

Varnish shelves and the inside of pantry drawers after cleaning. They will clean easier.

Grease can be removed from wall paper by rubbing with flannel moistened with alcohol.

When a flower vase is too deep, twist some paper in a loose roll and stuff in the bottom.

Add a cupful of vinegar to water in which colored clothes are washed. This prevents running.

To test the heat of an oven, put a bit of white paper in it. If too hot, the paper will blacken.

Rolling up children's socks stretches them at the top and makes them fall down when worn.

When boiling a cracked egg, add some vinegar to the water to prevent the white from boiling out.

Chicken-and-lamb stew is one of the dishes which can very easily be prepared in a fireless cooker.

To keep sandwiches fresh, wring out a napkin in hot water, wring them in it and put in a cool place.

Allow at least three Turkish towels for each member of the family when planning towel supplies.

When lard has been spilled on wood dash cold water on to prevent the grease from soaking in.

Coffee gelatin and junket broken and served with cream in the same individual dishes make a pleasing dessert.

Witty Toasts.

Here are a few witty and amusing toasts given at banquets:

One rather cynical toast ran thus: "Woman—she requires an eulogy; she speaks for herself."

At the wedding breakfast of a deaf and dumb couple, the guest, in the speech of the evening, wished them "unspeakable bliss."

At another gathering were toasted: "The Bench and the Bar: if it were not for the bar, there would be little use for the Bench."

The following was proposed at a shoemakers' dinner: "May we have all the women in the country to shoe, and all the men to boot."

A young man referred to one member of the sex he eulogised as "a detective deer; so sweet that honey would blush in her presence, and treacle stand appalled."

HOWE COMPUTING SCALES.

Joseph Ross, Esq., of Harbour Grace, has recently installed one of the latest type Computing Scales, manufactured by the old reliable Howe Scale Company, of Rutland, Vt., U. S. A.

Mr. Ross has been in the grocery business for many years, and is fully satisfied that a good Computing Scale is absolutely necessary in any well conducted grocery.

Mr. Ross will be glad to show his Scale to anyone interested, and explain its advantages over any other springless scale on the market.

In this Scale the load is distributed evenly on all bearings, which every one knows is the only correct principle in scale construction.

This Scale has the new patented dash-pot, which keeps the Scale steady at all times and never requires adjustment.

Distrust Increasing.

Has the game of hide and seek which Germany has been all along playing with the Allies come to an end, or are there some newer developments being brought in, one of them being the scuttling of the surrendered ships at Scapa Flow, on Sunday and the later destruction of ships in German waters which had not been turned over to the Allies under the provisions of the November armistice. To what purpose were these sinkings and what had the Germans to gain? Was their action prompted by a hope of securing sympathy, and if so from whom was this sympathy expected? So far as Germany is concerned there is not one spark or gleam of regard or sympathy, from any nation of decency, to shine on the dark pathway of all her acts and deeds, and a profound distrust of everything German permeates the universe. The London (England) press is unanimous in strongly condemning the treachery of the German crews, which at command sank the ships upon which they were permitted to remain, under parole. It further expresses distrust of Germany's decision (if a decision has yet been made) to sign the Peace Treaty, and contends that even after this desideratum the Allies will have to be continually on the watch to guard against overt acts by Germany, until full reparation is made and the final conditions settled and written off.

Recent events have proven that the German is still unrepentant and still maintains his former attitude of truculence and arrogance. In suing for peace he hesitatingly takes the position of dictator and has from the first demanded peace by negotiation. The Huns have no mental capability of realising that they are standing as prisoners before the bar of universal justice, charged with innumerable crimes against divine and human law, and that the terms which the Allies are imposing upon them is part of their sentence. Instead they assume the role of advocates and plead the difficulty of complying with the verdict which the world's jury has brought in. And all the while that their case is being heard, they are plotting and conspiring to have the just and righteous sentence which has been delivered in the Peace Terms upset and rendered nugatory. By every pretext and wile they are putting off the day and delaying the affixing of the signatures of their representatives to the document which defines the status of Germany for years to come. The latest bluff is that the plenipotentiaries who will sign for Germany have not yet been chosen, the excuse now being that it is proving difficult to find men who are willing to place their signatures to "a document which is to be such a momentous historic record." Saturday, June 21st. was to have been the last day allowed, and Germany was threatened that if the treaty was not completed then, an advance into the country would be made by the Allied troops. But again the Four Council have weakened, and keenly alive to the situation Germany further procrastinates, and the Council again yields and becomes subordinated to her wishes. Another extension of time has been again granted, and it is now open to doubt whether the Treaty will be signed on Saturday or Monday—if at all—as cabled reports are of the usual conflicting nature. The Peace Conference Secretariat being still without official knowledge of the personnel of the German peace delegation, does not know when it will arrive at Versailles. And so the farce or comedy goes on, with distrust increasing, until at some early date the Allies will have to make a virtue of necessity, and resume their march to Berlin, which was interrupted on the 11th day of November, 1918, when Germany's request for an armistice was agreed to.

REV. G. J. BOND, M. A., LL.D., ELECTED PRESIDENT.
The Telegram was apprised by wire last evening of the election of Rev. Dr. Bond to the office of President of the Methodist Conference for the ensuing year. This is Dr. Bond's second time being honored in this respect, the first being in 1885, after a period of fourteen years in the Ministry. The other officers elected at Carbonear yesterday were:
Rev. H. Royle—Secretary.
Rev. H. G. Coppin—Journal Secty.
Rev. Ezra Broughton—Statistical Secretary.
Rev. W. J. Morris, Rev. C. R. Blyant—Assistant Secretaries.
The Telegram unites with other friends in extending congratulations to the Reverend President and Secretaries.

Montgomery, Major Cluny L. Paterson, Major G. T. Carty, Major J. St. P. Knight, Major A. Raley, Major R. H. Tait, Capt. C. Butler, Capt. L. C. Murphy, Capt. E. R. A. Chafe, Capt. J. H. Snow, Capt. L. R. Cooper, Capt. V. S. Bennett, Capt. A. B. Baird, Capt. Hamilton, Private Secretary, was also present.

Factory Accident.

Yesterday forenoon a workman named McPherson, employed at the Horwood Lumber Co.'s factory, met with a serious accident. He was engaged running one of the machines, and in some unaccountable way his apron became entangled in the moving machinery, and before he could cut it away or shut the power off, he was drawn among the revolving gear, and badly injured. His cries attracted the attention of other workers, who immediately shut off the power and extricated him. A doctor was called, who ordered him to the hospital, where he was taken in the ambulance. It was feared at first that his life was endangered, but according to reports received from the hospital, this morning, McPherson had spent a very good night, and that no fatal results are looked for.

Busy Church Scene.

Fifty men of St. Mary's congregation began on Tuesday evening last, the work of building a new vestry in the basement of the church as a memorial of the Diamond Jubilee. Messrs. John P. Harvey and Cyrus Warren first used their picks and shovels and set the movement a-going. Mr. Harvey was the first person baptized in the church on the day of the Consecration, while Mr. Warren was present at the Consecration Service and will remember the day's proceedings. After several hours of strenuous toil the workers were invited to the parish room where the ladies of the congregation had provided necessary refreshments. It is needless to state that full justice was done to the good things provided. Afterwards Capt. E. H. Dawe proposed, and Mr. W. J. Pike seconded, a hearty vote of thanks to the ladies for their generosity. This was sincerely given by all present. Before the gathering dispersed the Rector thanked both men and women for their valued assistance and expressed the wish that the work shall be completed quickly. Arrangements were then made for the continuation of the work—the men being divided into gangs which will visit the site in turn and do what is necessary.

Receives Deputation.

Minister of Militia A. E. Hickman received a deputation of the G. W. V. A. this week, discussing fully with the deputation the questions of Navy men's gratuities and allowances and many other questions affecting rates of pay and amounts payable by the Government on the Canadian basis. The War Veterans' Association were well represented by delegates from the army and navy and the interview will probably have a good effect upon some outstanding local differences.

Fishermen Doing Well.

The fishermen at Renewa have done fairly well with cod the last week or so, but the presence of ice is seriously interfering with operations. At several places along the coast to Placentia there are no traps in the water up to the present, owing to the danger of having them destroyed by the numerous bergs which are scattered along the coast.

Turning to the Tasks of Peace.

For four and one half years our country has labored under the spur of a great purpose and to help to accomplish a great task. Now that task is done; the trappings of war become relics; we lay them aside and turn to the tasks of peace. During this long and weary period we have had but one thought and aim—to contribute our utmost for the winning of the war. Great sailing ships have been built, new methods devised, new markets for our industries opened up. Sources of supply discovered that were before unknown. Due to this development made necessary by war, our country is to-day capable of handling the industries of peace to a greater extent than ever before.

The great industrial era which our country faces, insures the certainty of there being ample opportunity for rendering this service. The use of COAL is essential to the great basic industrial enterprises which our country is about to face. In mine and quarry, in the homes of the rich and poor, on the highway, and along the railway line, in every walk of life, in every industry we must have COAL. Why allow millions of dollars to leave the country annually when we have plenty of COAL at home?

Factory Accident.

Yesterday forenoon a workman named McPherson, employed at the Horwood Lumber Co.'s factory, met with a serious accident. He was engaged running one of the machines, and in some unaccountable way his apron became entangled in the moving machinery, and before he could cut it away or shut the power off, he was drawn among the revolving gear, and badly injured. His cries attracted the attention of other workers, who immediately shut off the power and extricated him. A doctor was called, who ordered him to the hospital, where he was taken in the ambulance. It was feared at first that his life was endangered, but according to reports received from the hospital, this morning, McPherson had spent a very good night, and that no fatal results are looked for.

The Majestic.

Last evening's show at the Majestic Theatre was voted by many as the best to be given in St. John's for a long time. "Glory," featuring Juanita Hansen and the famous vaudeville kings, Holb and Dill, in a six reel picture, has a delightful strain of humor running through it. The story itself, also, is very interesting and the packed house was highly pleased with it. The comedy was particularly good, setting the audience in roars of laughter. The same show will be repeated to-night.

Rolled Over Hill.

At 12 o'clock to-day, while several barrels of flour were being landed at Fitzpatrick's store, Gower Street, at the top of Holloway Street, from a long cart, two barrels fell off, and began to roll down Holloway Street, which is possibly the steepest in the city. Several people who were going up the hill narrowly escaped injury, the horses that were passing along Duckworth St. also came near being struck, but fortunately no body was even touched. The barrels bounded off a telegraph pole at the bottom of the hill and smashed open, scattering the flour in all directions.

Our Baseball
PLAGIARISED AND

Provided that we have no rain in the meantime, or that the fog will not descend to such an extent as to interfere with Fred's vision in judging the balls and strikes, Umpire Chessman will call "Play Ball" at 7 to-night for the big game between the Wanderers and Cubs. Both teams are confident of winning and the fans will be treated to some "real" ball. The Cubs are intent on retrieving their defeat by the Lions as they are most anxious to retain possession of the silverware, which the Hartnettes say is coming their way again. Should the Cubs win, the four teams will be equal with one game each to play to finish the first round. If, on the other hand, the Wanderers are victorious it will give them distinct lead in the fixtures.
The line-up to-night will probably be:
Cubs: Pitcher—Smith-Thistle; Catcher—Britt; 1st Base—W. Brown; 2nd Base—Knight; 3rd Base—F. Brown; Shortstop—McCrimble; R. Field—Dobbin; C. Field—O'Regan; L. Field—Balfour.

Did you ever see anything more eternally perverse than that Weather Man? Last winter when we were anxious for frost for our Hockey and Curling—Nothing Doing. Now, when we want the Sunshine and Heat, he issues a peremptory demand that we don our fur-coats. He seems to have an ingrowing grudge especially directed against sport of all kinds.

By Personal Solicitation.

Below we publish another letter from Catalina to Hon. J. G. Stone. It is clear from these letters that the whole sentiment of Trinity district is not what the Advocate would have us believe.
Mr. John G. Stone.
Dear Sir:—By the Advocate I notice you are getting painted rather black, but this don't cut any ice with the most of us around here. We well know Coaker before every day as we go along, and seemingly still better. Don't let anything worry you. Never pay any attention to Coaker's Advocate. I was at the meeting the night they expelled you from the Council and when you come down I will tell you the four or five who spoke against you there. Don't blame all the Council sir, there were only 70 members there Monday night and they had hard scrapping to get that many. What is that out of over 300 which there was on the roll one time? However out of the 70 present, very few of them voted against you, so small they had to appoint a committee to try and get the Resolution, which Coaker sent, signed up. Will tell you more later, and wishing you the best of luck.
Yours truly,

PLAGIARISED AND OTHERWISE.

CUBS—WANDERERS.

Provided that we have no rain in the meantime, or that the fog will not descend to such an extent as to interfere with Fred's vision in judging the balls and strikes, Umpire Chessman will call "Play Ball" at 7 to- night for the big game between the Wanderers and Cubs. Both teams are confident of winning and the fans will be treated to some "real" ball. The Cubs are intent on retrieving their defeat by the Lions as they are most anxious to retain possession of the silverware, which the Hartnettites say is coming their way again. Should the Cubs win, the four teams will be equal with one game each to play to finish the first round. If, on the other hand, the Wanderers are victorious it will give them distinct lead in the fixtures.

The line-up to-night will probably be:
Cubs: Pitcher . . . . .Smith-Thistle
Hall . . . . .Catcher
Clouston . . . . .Britt

Did you ever see anything more eternally perverse than that Weather Man's Last Winter when we were anxious for frost for our Hockey and Curling—Nothing Doing. Now, when we want the Sunshine and Heat, he issues a peremptory demand that we don our fur-coats. He seems to have an ingrowing grudge especially di- rected against sport of all kinds.

By Personal Solicitation.

Below we publish another letter from Catalina to Hon. J. G. Stone. It is clear from these letters that the whole sentiment of Trinity district is not what the Advocate would have us believe.

Mr. John G. Stone,
Dear Sir:—By the Advocate I notice you are getting painted rather black, but this don't cut any ice with the most of us around here. We will know Coaker before this time of the day, and seemingly every day as we go along, we know him still better. Don't let anything worry you. Never pay any attention to Coaker's Advocate. I was at the meeting the night they expelled you from the Council and when you come down I will tell you the four or five who spoke against you there. Don't blame all the Council sir, there were only 70 members there Monday night and they had hard scrapping to get that many. What is that out of over 300 which there was on the roll one time? However out of the 70 present, very few of them voted against you, so small they had to appoint a committee to try and get the Resolution, which Coaker sent, signed up. Will tell you more later, and wishing you the best of luck.
Yours truly,
Catalina, May 29, 1919.

To-day's Messages.

THANKED POLICE.

LONDON, June 25. At Epsom Police Court the chair- man, on behalf of the Bench and in- habitants of Epsom, expressed appreciation of the gallant efforts of the Epsom police during the attack on the police station. He expressed regret at the death of Sergeant Green, and sympathy with the injured policemen. The Epsom Urban and District Coun- cil had sent a letter to the Canadian Red Cross, thanking them for a check for two hundred pounds for Sergeant Green's family, and stating that they fully appreciated that nobody resent- ed the attack on the police station more than the great Canadian nation.

HAS NO KNOWLEDGE.

PARIS, June 25. The Treaty of Peace will be signed either Friday or Saturday, it is be- lieved. Although the day has not been definitely fixed, it has been de- cided that the hour for the ceremony will be at two o'clock p.m. The peace conference secretary is still without official knowledge of the personnel of the new German peace delegation and does not know when it will arrive at Versailles.

DISPROPORTION OF SEXES.

LONDON, June 25. Commissioner Lamb, of the Salva- tion Army, giving evidence to-day be- fore the birth rate commission, ex- pressed the opinion that the birth rate would suffer owing to the lack of houses preventing many from mar- rying. The disproportion of the sexes, he said, had now assumed a men- acing aspect. One of the most vital considerations in connection with Em- pire reconstruction was the question of the more equal distribution of the sexes throughout the British Empire, which among other things would tend to raise the standard of home life in the dominions. Commissioner Lamb stated that the Salvation Army had migrated ten thousand single women to the dominions. The number of failures had been under one half of one per cent. Seventy-five per cent. of the women who were sent to Can- ada, had married within three years after their arrival. He said, he said, were awaiting immigration, mainly former war workers, between the ages of 17 and 28. The majority of them wished to go to Canada, particu- larly to Ontario, to join relatives. The Commissioner said that the experi- ence and fresh capacity which many of them had gained in war work ren- dered them suitable and in good con- dition for overseas.

ULTIMATUM TO-MORROW.

PARIS, June 26. It is understood that if no official communication is received by night- fall from Berlin, relative to the plans of the German Government for sign- ing the Peace Treaty, something in the nature of an ultimatum will be sent to Berlin by the Peace Confer- ence.

WILLIE HAS ESCAPED.

PARIS, June 26. Frederick William Hohenzollern, former Crown Prince has escaped from Holland and made his way into Germany.

BASTILLE DAY FOR CELEBRATION.

PARIS, June 26. The French Government has de- cided that the official victory celebra- tion by France shall take place on July fourteenth, the anniversary of the taking of the Bastille, 1789.

RIOTING IN BERLIN.

BERLIN, June 25. The streets of Berlin were again the scene of rioting, and this morning when, incited by speeches from agitators in Alexander Platz, mobs at- tacked and robbed pedestrians and maltreated isolated soldiers. Troops sent to Alexander Platz were fired upon by crowds in the streets and from roofs of buildings, but they finally succeeded in clearing the streets. Elsewhere in the city bands of marauders robbed shops and at- tacked citizens, rifling their pockets. After daylight this morning the city was quieter, but at noon the police appealed for help for troops as the crowds were gathering once more.

GERMANS ANNOUNCE PEACE.

LONDON, June 25. President Ebert, Premier Bauer and all the ministers have issued a pro- clamations to the German people, ac- cording to a wireless message from Berlin announcing the conclusion of peace, and urging as the first press- ing need the bending of all efforts to its fulfilment.

BUT DELEGATION NOT APPOINTED.

BERLIN, June 25. The identity of the men to be de- legated to Versailles as German representatives to sign the treaty of peace, will not be announced before Thursday, according to an official statement issued to-day. There was no session of the cabinet to-day.

PARIS, June 25.

(Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—In the inter-allied games featherweight pre- liminaries, Hallam of Australia beat Cole of Canada in ten rounds on points.

Memorial Service.

A Memorial Service in honor of the men of the congregational and Pres- byterian Churches who have given their lives during the Great War, 1914-1918, will be held at the St. An- drew's Presbyterian Church at 10 a.m. on July 1st, 1919. All adherents of these two churches are invited to attend Divine Service at that hour. June 26, 1919

As He Might Write It Now.

Drink to me only with thine eyes;
No use to look for wine,
There is no kick within the cup,
No ferment in the vine.
The thirst that from my soul doth rise
Doth ask a bar benign;
No soda fountain slop nor sup
Can match the foaming stein.
I sent thee late an empty jug,
Not so much honoring thee,
As sending it in hope that thou
Wouldest make it full for me.
But thou hast tip't in gainst thy mug
And send'st it back to me
As hollow in its heart, I vow,
As 'e'en thy head could be!

Gleanings From the Old Country.

The Limerick strike is ended. A big fall in fish prices is reported from Aberdeen. There is a plague of rats in the small towns in West Surrey. The Victoria and Albert Museum is to be repainted at a cost of £1,700. Five new Royal Academicians and three Associates have been appointed. Heavy draught horses averaged £117 at a sale of army horses at Reading. The local government board have sanctioned three Leeds housing schemes. "People will have to fork out more" (for the church).—Rector of Weybridge. The board of agriculture have extended the Notification of Rabies Order to cats. The outbreak of rabies in England and Wales threatens to assume serious proportions. A telegraph lineman fell 80 feet from a pole in Boyle street, London, and was killed. A lad named Benjamin Edwards, of Oldhill, Staffs, fell 600 feet down a disused pit shaft. Corporal Alfred Berry (33) was found decapitated at a level crossing at Portsmouth. In London 69,913 acres of the Duke of Sutherland's Scottish estates were sold for £123,300. Damage estimated at $15,000 was caused by a fire at Messrs. Cochran's sawmills, Glasgow. Hull is to ask permission to stamp "City of Hull" on new shillings for children on Peace Day. A three-toed egg laid by a hen at Boscawen, Cornwall, weighed five and a half ounces, and was six and a half inches long. The Labor party are to try and get the income tax exemption limit raised from £130 to £250. A committee has been formed to investigate the question of uniform for the After-War Army. The automobile association has called upon the government to remove the super-tax on petrol. A public enquiry on national lines is to be held into the conditions of night work in bakeries. The British tug Hughlin, was sunk off the Belgian coast during a storm, and 22 lives were lost. For damage during rioting on January 31, claims for £11,865 have been lodged with the Glasgow corporation. "Clomel drapers' assistants strike has been settled. This season's Irish wool crop promises to be the best for many years. A war memorial, costing £23,000, is to be erected in the Mall, Lurgan. Anne O'Grady, an inmate of the workhouse at Castlereagh, died aged 105. The Irish government has decided to retain the office of press censor for the present. Ireland was swept by a blizzard recently, which wrought havoc in many parts of the country. The premises of Messrs. Duff Bros., scotchmen, Coagh, and a number of workmen's houses have been destroyed by fire. Messrs. G. and J. Burns, Ltd., intend to resume the usual summer daylight service between Belfast and Ardrossan. An explosion occurred in a house in Grattan street, Cork, resulting in five of the occupants being seriously burned. At Thames police court an applicant complained that his wife had wilfully thrown his false eye onto the fire.

Very short underskirts are worn with the new frocks.

STEER Brothers.

Nearly Ate Pin.
A young man at Portugal Cove narrowly escaped serious injury a few days ago. He was eating a bar of milk chocolate, when a pin of about two inches long, with a white bead head pierced his tongue. He suffered considerable pain and it was some time before he could extract it. The moral is obvious. Candy manufacturers should see that the makers of the candy do not have pins about their persons when engaged at this work.
Binard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria.

Wills and Wonts.
Even the great Duke of Marlborough could not resist the temptation of a farewell "slap" at his duchess when he left her £10,000, "where-with to spoil Blenheim in her own way, and £15,000 to keep clean and go to law with."
William Darley, of Ash, bequeathed to his spouse, "for picking my pocket of 60 guineas, the sum of one shilling." And the will of Chas. Parker, a London bookseller, contains this clause: "I give to Elizabeth Parker the sum of £50, whom, through my foolish fondness, I made my wife, without regard to family, fame, or fortune, and who, in return, has not spared, most unjustly, to accuse me of every crime except robbery."
A Yorkshire testator thus indulges his humour at the expense of his widow's feelings and pocket "During my married life I have always declared that my wife was the dearest woman in the world, and I am convinced that should anyone be rash enough to marry her after my death he will find her so. To deter as far as possible anyone making such a ruinous experiment, I leave her nothing."

Why Socks Have Clocks.
It is surprising how much of the past still remains, more especially in regard to the clothes we wear.
On the backs of most gloves will be found three thin strips. These marks correspond to the fourchette pieces between the fingers. In earlier times gloves were not made so neatly as they are to-day, and the stitching of the fingers was carried down part of the way onto the back of the glove, braid being used to conceal the seams. To a practically similar reason does the clock on a sock owe its origin. In the days when stockings were made of cloth the seams occurred where the clocks are now displayed, the decoration being utilised to hide the seams. The little bow which will invariably be found in the leather band inside a man's hat is a survival of the time when a hat was made by taking a piece of leather, boring two holes through it, and drawing it together with a piece of string.
Hankerchiefs were not always square. At one time they were shaped to the user's fancy. It chanced that this irregularity displeased Queen Marie Antoinette, who suggested one winter evening at Versailles that a uniform shape would be an indication of good taste. The result was a decree by Louis XVI, issued in the early days of 1785, enacting that all pocket-hankerchiefs should have right-angled edges henceforward.
Very short underskirts are worn with the new frocks.

Wedding Bells.

DARBY-PARSONS.
A very pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon in Cochrane Street Methodist Church, when Mr. Herbert Warwick Darby, second son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Darby, Gower Street, city, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Irene Parsons, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Parsons, 55 Haywood Avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Bond, Pastor of the church. The bride was charmingly attired in cream Georgette duchesse satin with pearl trimmings with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Miss Ethel Darby, sister of the groom and Miss Maisie Pike, cousin of the bride. Little Miss Norma Burt acted as flower girl. The groom was ably supported by Mr. G. H. Parsons, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was held, after which the party drove to Waterford Bridge, where the happy pair entrained for Holyrood at which place the honeymoon will be spent.

MOORE-HICKEY.
Torbay was the scene of a pretty wedding on Sunday, when Miss Maud Hickey of that place and Mr. M. J. Moore of this city were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. Fr. Ashley. The bride was attended by Miss Mary E. Lacey of Torbay, while Mr. Alec Lacey of this city supported the groom. The groom's present to the bride was a gold wrist watch, to the bridesmaid a gold bracelet and to the best man a fountain pen. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will reside in St. John's.

EATON-BELL.
The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Penney, Long's Hill, was the scene of a festive yesterday afternoon, when their nephew, Regimental Quarter Master Sergeant W. J. Eaton of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, and Miss Daisy Janet Bell, of Edinburgh, Scotland, were united in the sacred bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Dudley B. Ashford. Miss Louise Penney was bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by Mr. Corporal Walter L. Thistle. After the ceremony refreshments were served by Mrs. Penney, and the happy couple were enthusiastically toasted, after which the newly wedded pair accompanied by their friends motorized to Holyrood where the honeymoon will be spent.

SLEEP.
Sleep, b a l m f sleep, of which the poet writes! With that in stock, successful are our nights. If man can't sleep when to his couch he goes, if he can't draw some hours of calm repose, if midnight hours but fret him and exhaust his life is vain, his world a killing frost. He may have fame in both the hemispheres; admiring men may greet his nobles with cheers; the "Welcome" sign may hang across the street when he to Frumville turns his princely feet; but all his honors tawdry are and cheap, if night hours come and he can't go to sleep. He may have wealth heaped up and heaped again, his bins and cribs may groan with iron men; he may have yachts and stately parks and grounds, and hunting steeds on which to ride to hounds, but such possessions have no worth or charm. Life is a failure and a false alarm, if sleep won't come when he retires to bed, while hours drag on with weary feet of lead. While I can sleep I envy no one's luck; the millionaire can keep his showy buck; the statesman great may revel in his fame, all shining marks can play their lustrous game; I sleep the night through like a little man, and rise at dawn to do the best I can.

Newfoundlander Dies Abroad.

Silas Partridge Knight, inventor of an electrotyping process for making copper plates for fine printing, died yesterday at his home, 83 Seventh avenue. He was 88 years old and one of the oldest members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the United States. Mr. Knight was born at St. John's, Nfld., on Jan. 21, 1831. He invented his electrotyping process at Boston and came to Brooklyn with it in 1852. He succeeded in having an electrotyping department installed at Harper Brothers and Co., in Manhattan, and was a superintendent with that firm for forty years. Mr. Knight attributed his long life to temperance in habits and food, together with vigorous exercise. His wife, Lydia Gunderson, died in Brooklyn twenty years ago. Mr. Knight is survived by a son and three daughters.—Brooklyn Standard Union, Saturday, June 14th, 1919.

Obituary.

H. C. MORRIS.

Miss Nellie Morris, 73 Long's Hill, received the sad news of the death of her brother H. C. (Charlie) Morris, at Halifax on Monday last, following an operation for appendicitis, from Archdeacon Armitage. The deceased who was well known in St. John's, was for many years an official of the Marine and Fisheries department, subsequently going to Halifax, Nova Scotia in which city he won for himself the esteem of all with whom he came in contact. The late Mr. Morris was the eldest son of Captain Stephen and Margaret Morris, both of whom entered into rest years ago. The only surviving near relatives are a sister (Nellie) and a brother, (George). The body will be brought to St. John's for interment in the Church of England Cemetery where the wife and adopted daughter of the deceased are buried. To the bereaved brother and sister the Telegram offers sincere condolences.

Road Still Unimproved.

Some time ago we directed the attention of the Municipal Council to the wretched condition of that portion of Torbay Road nearest Torbay, which had then been covered with a soft loam instead of gravel or sand. The cabmen found it very difficult in passing over this road, when at its best. Now, however, that so much rain has fallen, the condition there had best be left to the imagination—it beggars description. If the Inspector whose duty it is to see to this matter is a godly man, he will lose no time in having improvements made, for the amount of tall language that is heard in these nowadays has turned the green grass of the surrounding fields quite black. In a civilized community this should not be.

DISEASED GUMS AND TEETH.

Of all the poison taken into the blood, the germs and pus contributed by the diseased gums and teeth are the most destructive to the human system. If every red blood cell is forced to fight against numbers of germs to the cell, the blood cannot attend to the building up of the body, and if allowed to continue the system is bound to break down and eventually you are an invalid. Kidney, stomach, heart trouble, rheumatism and many other diseases are brought on by diseased gums and teeth.

NOTICE! Sale of U. S. Navy Coal.

TENDERS will be received by the undersigned up to Noon on Wednesday, July 2, 1918, for the purchase of about fourteen hundred and fifty (1450) tons of coal, the property of the United States Government, now stored in the care of Messrs. A. Harvey & Co., Ltd., in St. John's.

The coal must be removed by the purchaser at the rate of not less than two hundred (200) tons per day after the tender is accepted, and a deposit of fifty per cent of the estimated amount of the purchase money must be made with the undersigned, immediately the tender is accepted, and the balance of the purchase money must be paid in cash on delivery. Customs duties and other charges including all expenses for moving, etc., to be paid by the purchaser. A sample of the coal may be seen at any time, upon application at the office of Messrs. A. Harvey & Co., Ltd.

No guarantee is given as to the quantity or quality of the coal offered for sale, and the undersigned will not be bound to accept the highest or any tender.
