The two prisoners evidently realize the strong chain of circumstances that link by link is being welded against them, and Hendershott was particularly nervous. Saturday witnessed the presentation of practically the first damaging evidence against the elder prisoner.

UNION WITH CANADA IS HER ONLY

HOPE. The Colony Has Ceased To Be Self-Supperting and Cannot Continue To Be Self-Governing-Annexation With the

U.S. Impossible, While Confederation of The Tribune at St. John's, Nfld., decries the idea of annexation with the United States, and believes it is impracticable even if the people were unani-mously in favor of it. In reality, howmous on that subject, and even if an overwhelming majority were in favor of annexation, they firmly believe that England would never permit one of her colonies to break loose and unite with another state; and that any movement in that direction would be promptly and sternly checked. The geographical position of this island forbids such a transferrence. As a naval station, it is without a rival in North America. The power that possesses it holds the key of the Gulf of St. Lawrence. To permit its occupation by a foreign power would be to destroy the safety of the rising Dominion of Canada, and to establish a standing menace close to her shores. No British statesman dare countenance such a step. Annexation therefore is far outside the range of practical politics and to agitate for it would be mere waste of time and strength.

"The manifest destiny" of Newfoundland is to unite with Canada.

Ine mannest estiny of Revisional land is to unite with Canada.

The Island Bankrupt.

The political situation at this date may be defined in a few words: Sir William Whiteway, with a strong Government, once more occupies the seat of authority. He has now to decide the destiny of the country. With a people impoverished by the recent financial convulsion, and a declining revenue, through the falling off of importations, caused by a diminution in the purchasing powen of the people, he is unable to find ways and means for carrying on the Government and paying interest on the large public debt which has been piled up. In other words, the colony has ceased to be self-supporting, and cannot continue to be self-governing.

Her Only Hope Is Union.

FIRE ANNOUNCEMENT

We are glad to announce that business is going on as usual at the Yonge-street Piano Rooms, 188 Yonge street. Although threatened with destruction by the great fire last Sunday morning, thanks to the persevering efforts of our Fire Brigade, assisted most effectively by the splendid Fire Company of the T. Eaton Co., we escaped with a smoking, and are now as ready as ever to receive our patrons at the old stand. We suffered a small loss from smoke, but none from heat or water, and our loss having been adjusted by the Insurance Companies, we now invite buyers to inspect the stock, as all instruments are on display just as they escaped the fire, and are being offered at reduced prices. We are in this way distributing to buyers the Insurance Settlement. We are daily receiving from the factories a new stock carefully selected, and for convenience will fill all orders received, by mail or through travelers, direct from factory unless specially arranged, until the greater part of the present stock is disposed of. IF YOU WANT A SUPERB PIANO AT A BARCAIN NOW IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY.

MR W. P. ROBARTS DEAD. en Ending of a Well-Known Citizen

Many people in Hamilton and elsewhere will learn with regret of the death of Mr. William P. Robarts, which occurred very suddenly at 5.15 Thursday afternoon. Mr. Robarts had always enjoyed good health up till Monday last, when he was confined to his bed with an attack of neuralgia of the neart. Thursday he felt somewhat better, but as his physician advised that he thowed slight symptoms of typhoid fever, and as he had many years ago a hard light with that disease, he decided to make a will. He signed the document at 4 p.m., and the formation of a clot of blood over the heart, little more than in hour after, ended his life.

Deceased was in his 52nd year, and was born in Barbadoes. He came to Hamilton 22 years ago, and has been tonnected with the Bank of Hamilton ver since, for the past few years occupying the responsible position of injector of agencies. He was unmarried and resided at No. 132 Main-street west. Three brothers and an unmarried sister myrive him. The former are Messrs. F. Three brothers and an unmarried sister survive him.
