To fasten a blade which has come out of the handle, fill the cavity with rosin, then warm the part to be adjusted, and insert slowly, pressing it in firmly. Hold till it gets cold.

For rheumatism, take half a glassful of lemonjuice for 10 nights. Always take it when getting into bed at night. Wear flamnel next to the skin, and in cold weather sleep in warm blankets.

A little powdered borax thrown into the bath makes the water very soft, and greatly invigorates and rests the bather. This is particularly beneficial to those who are troubled with nervousness or sleeplessness.

How to Dust a Room.

Case, sah.

—A bright newsboy on the Maine Central was endeavoring to assure a nervous lady who wanted to get off the train at Auburn the other day that she would be informed when the cars reached the city. She had been exceedingly alarmed. She would jump at each station and say, "Is this Auburn?" Finally Auburn was reached and the newsboy was near at hand. "Do I—do I—" she exclaimed, "do I leave the cars with you." And the lady looked volumes at the boy and slammed the door when she went out.

If She Was Streong.—"Talk about wives," said Farmer Hawbuck; "I've got one in a million. Why, she gets up in the mornin', milks 17 cows and gets breakfast for 20 hard workin' men before 6 o'clock, by George!"

"She must be a very robust woman."
