

CARRY THE POWER BYLAW—THAT IS THE DUTY WHICH RESTS WITH TORONTO NOW

OPPOSITION READY TO SHOW WEAKNESS OF FISCAL POLICY

Recent Stringency and Its Effects Traceable to Mismanagement on the Part of the Government.

OTTAWA, Nov. 30.—The real business of session will begin on Monday when R. R. Hall (Peterboro), and Lanctot (Richelleu), will move and second address in reply to speech from throne.

It is expected that debate will last several days and that opposition will take advantage of present rise in fortunes of party to give government a few uneasy moments.

One of the chief subjects for discussion will undoubtedly be the present stringency in money market. On both sides there is disposition to avoid causing any mistrust, or banking institutions of the country, but the finance minister will be criticized for failing to take advantage of the great prosperity of the country in the past eight or nine years of curtail expenses and be able to meet the present conditions.

How It Has Happened. It will be shown that the situation is largely the outcome of a fiscal policy which has allowed the balance of trade to run against us. For instance six years ago there was a balance of six millions in our favor, to-day our trade returns show an excess of imports over exports amounting to 10 million dollars.

With money pouring out of the country at such a rate there must inevitably be a contraction of business activities.

The opposition will put up their chief financial critics to attack the government on this question and during the debate it is probably that Mr. Fisher and Mr. Cockshutt with others will be heard.

At least that is the belief in the lobbies since the government has invited the discussion by inserting a paragraph in the speech touching the matter of money stringency.

The discussion is bound to take a wide range, but nothing will be said in criticism of action of banks.

Scandal Talk, Too. It is also expected that if government speakers give any opening, the debate may develop into a scandal talk, abundant material being at hand. Conservatives say.

Certain it is that the Opposition have been greatly encouraged by events of the past week.

The by-election in Colchester has produced a feeling among the disarray in government ranks, and has correspondingly elated their opponents, while the Board reception on Wednesday night, the result of the London election trial and other occurrences of less significance have made a conservative week.

The Montreal Gazette says to-day:—The speech at the opening of the session of parliament says "the public interests require that telegraph and telephone companies holding federal charters should be placed under government control. This is another case of W. F. MacLean, M.P., dominating the institution at Ottawa. When he makes a loud noise the other leaders fall into a funk and hasten to see how far they can go in meeting his demands."

Among those present, were: Hon. Archie Campbell, the late member; Hon. G. F. Graham, H. H. Dewar, K.C., and G. W. Inwood, provincial organizer. Addressing the meeting, Mr. Inwood said that the Liberals would meet the Conservative candidate on every platform during the campaign.

Dr. McLean is a native of Simcoe County, where he taught school for three years. In 1882 he graduated in medicine, and has practised at Woodbridge ever since.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Two men were reported killed and six persons seriously injured in a passenger elevator which fell ten floors to-day in the store of Edenhimer, Stein & Co., clothiers, 204 Jackson-boulevard.

Twenty persons are said to have been in the elevator when it fell. As the elevator left the tenth floor on a downward trip the cable parted and the cage plunged downward, striking the bottom of the shaft with terrific force.

Most of the occupants were employees of firms in the building. Two bodies were taken out of the car at the bottom of the shaft.

CUSTOMS DECREASE. The customs duties collected at the Port of Toronto for the month of November totaled $75,930.54; for November, 1906, they were $78,558.82, so that a decrease of $2,628.28 has been reported.

HON. MR. FIELDING. Minister of Finance, Who Will Be Prominent During the Coming Session of Parliament.

DR. P. D. McLEAN.

CHOOSE McLEAN TO CONTEST C. YORK

Liberals Hold Nominating Convention—Five Nominated, But Only 2 Were Voted On.

THORNHILL, Nov. 30.—(Special.)—The Liberals of Centre York to-day nominated Dr. P. D. McLean of Woodbridge as candidate for the federal parliament in the by-election on Dec. 23. Victoria Hall was filled to the doors.

Walter Scott of Victoria-square presided. He reminded the delegates that the last election, when the majority was so small, should be a warning to them.

The following were nominated: Dr. P. D. McLean, Woodbridge; A. F. Wilson, Markham; George W. Ferral, Weston; Levi Anns, Toronto.

A. J. Anderson, Toronto Junction. All retired except the first two, but Mr. McLean's majority over Mr. Wilson was overwhelming.

Mr. Wilson said that while the Liberal government had been fairly progressive it was not radical enough. If he should be chosen and elected, he would support more radical legislation.

Dr. McLean announced himself as an out and out supporter of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Among those present, were: Hon. Archie Campbell, the late member; Hon. G. F. Graham, H. H. Dewar, K.C., and G. W. Inwood, provincial organizer. Addressing the meeting, Mr. Inwood said that the Liberals would meet the Conservative candidate on every platform during the campaign.

Dr. McLean is a native of Simcoe County, where he taught school for three years. In 1882 he graduated in medicine, and has practised at Woodbridge ever since.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Two men were reported killed and six persons seriously injured in a passenger elevator which fell ten floors to-day in the store of Edenhimer, Stein & Co., clothiers, 204 Jackson-boulevard.

Twenty persons are said to have been in the elevator when it fell. As the elevator left the tenth floor on a downward trip the cable parted and the cage plunged downward, striking the bottom of the shaft with terrific force.

Most of the occupants were employees of firms in the building. Two bodies were taken out of the car at the bottom of the shaft.

CUSTOMS DECREASE. The customs duties collected at the Port of Toronto for the month of November totaled $75,930.54; for November, 1906, they were $78,558.82, so that a decrease of $2,628.28 has been reported.

HON. MR. FIELDING. Minister of Finance, Who Will Be Prominent During the Coming Session of Parliament.

RIOT IN DOUMA SPEAKER ABUSED

Constitutional Democrat Too Vigorous in His Denunciation of the Government.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 30.—The session of the duma, held to-day, which was devoted to the continuation of the debate on the declaration of the government, presented by Premier Stolypin yesterday, broke up in a riot. The reactionaries assaulted Fedor Roditchoff, the orator of the Constitutional Democrats, and attempted to drag him from the tribune in order to put an end to his vitriolic attack on the government.

Premier Stolypin and other members of the cabinet witnessed the demonstration from the ministerial box, but they departed when it became evident that the howling mob had no intention of allowing the session to proceed.

M. Roditchoff, during the course of a ringing speech, in which he was constantly interrupted by applause on seats, was denouncing the hundreds of victims of drumhead court-martial, and when he referred to the officials of the government as hangmen, a hundred reactionaries led by Vladimir Purishkevitch, Monarchist, and two priests, yelling like Indians, stormed the tribune.

President Khomyakov, after ringing his bell vainly for order, abandoned the chair and fled to the sitting closed.

The Constitutional Democrats and Social Democrats charged to the rescue of M. Roditchoff, who was being roughly handled. They formed a phalanx around him and bore him, still shouting defiance to one corner of the hall.

The chair continued for fully half an hour, until the party leaders succeeded in withdrawing their followers to the committee rooms for consultation.

12 DIRECTORS HELD FOR FRAUD

Alleged That Dividends Were Paid From Capital.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30.—Twelve directors of the United States Graphite Co., which went into the hands of receivers last July, were to-day held in $5000 bail each, for court.

It was alleged that the investors had been paid quarterly dividends out of money they had paid in, and that the property which the company owned had not improved and that false statements were made as to the financial status of the company.

The directors held were Paul Morris, William S. Darnell, Howard W. Bush, H. H. Messinger, August J. Hess, William A. Donnelly, Ed. S. Fritz, Charles A. Welsh, H. W. Wattkinson, J. C. Conrad, N. M. Hollanback and Mack LeVan Booskirk.

CONVICTED MURDERER GRANTED NEW TRIAL

William Paul, Under Sentence of Death, Will Have New Chance For Life.

The court of appeal has given judgment directing a new trial for William H. Paul, found guilty of murdering Henry Schilling.

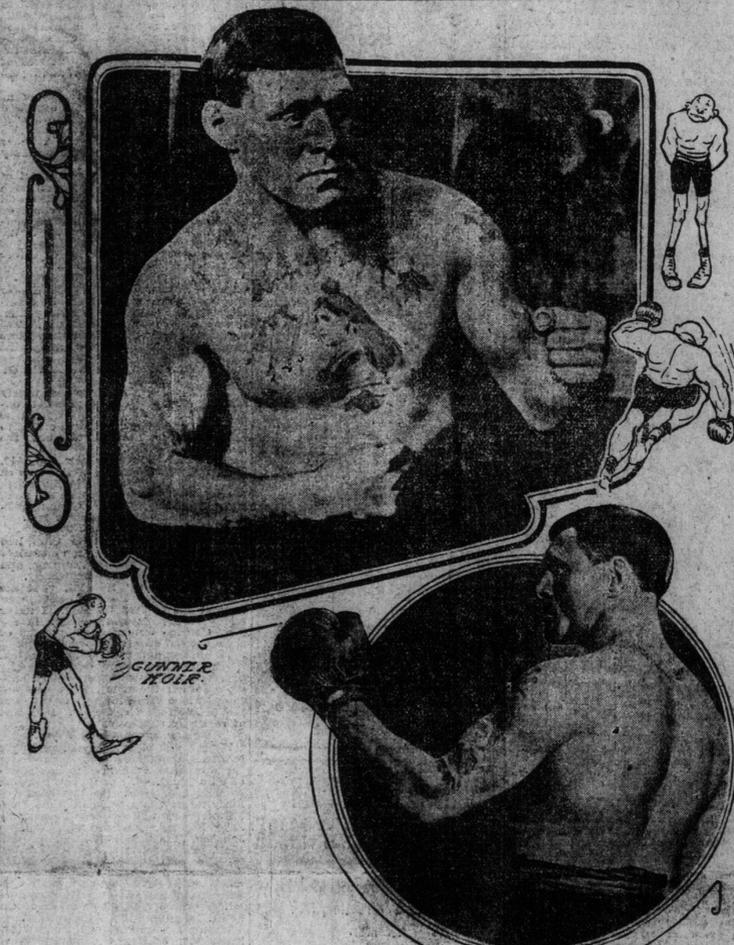

Paul was tried before Judge Anglin at Port Arthur, and a case reviewed to be stated to the court of appeal.

One of two questions submitted to the court was in regard to certain evidence as to the finding of a small notebook near the scene of the murder.

Fourth race, handicap, 3-year-olds, 7 furlongs, Columbia course. 1. Kempton, 119 (J. Walsh), 4 to 5, 2 to 1.

GIRL TERRIBLY BURNED. Brought on Train to Hospital, Carried in Father's Arms.

Helen Strode, 5 years of age, is in the Western Hospital, suffering from severe bruises to the back, neck and chest. The little girl lives at Maple, in York County, and had been playing with matches while her parents were at the barn. Her dress caught fire.

GUNNER MOIR, WHO MEETS TOMMY BURNS. Englishmen Declare He Will Stop Tommy Burns Inside of Twenty Rounds. — Burns, However, is the Favorite.

Race Results and Entries

CLOSING DAY RESULTS AT BENNING'S TRACK. Kara Wins Steeplechase—Beauclere Repeats—Results at City Park and Oakland.

BENNING'S RACE TRACK, Nov. 30. (Special.)—Following are the results: FIRST RACE—2-year-olds and up, 1 mile, Columbia course. 1. Easton, 106 (Brussel), 4 to 1, 2 to 1 and even.

THIRD RACE—2-year-olds, selling, 5 furlongs, Columbia course. 1. Bellweather, 112 (Raynor), 3 to 1, 1 to 4 and out.

FOURTH RACE—Eighth Maxim, 3-year-olds and up, 3 miles. 1. Beaulere, 104 (W. Swain), 3 to 1, 1 to 2 and 1 to 5.

FIFTH RACE, maiden 3-year-olds, 7 furlongs, Columbia course. 1. Kempton, 119 (J. Walsh), 4 to 5, 2 to 1.

SIXTH RACE, handicap, 3-year-olds and up, 1 1/8 miles, old course. 1. Howard Sheen, (Schaller), 5 to 1, 2 to 1 and even.

SEVENTH RACE, 3-year-olds and up, 1 1/8 miles, old course. 1. Samuel H. Harris (C. Brady), 8 to 1, 1 to 2 show.

EIGHTH RACE, 3-year-olds and up, 1 1/8 miles, old course. 1. Samuel H. Harris (C. Brady), 8 to 1, 1 to 2 show.

NINTH RACE, 3-year-olds and up, 1 1/8 miles, old course. 1. Samuel H. Harris (C. Brady), 8 to 1, 1 to 2 show.

TENTH RACE, 3-year-olds and up, 1 1/8 miles, old course. 1. Samuel H. Harris (C. Brady), 8 to 1, 1 to 2 show.

RESULTS AT CITY PARK. NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 30.—Following are results at City Park: FIFTH RACE—2-year-olds, 7 furlongs, 3-year-olds and up, selling.

SUNDAY WEATHER. Strong northwest winds, fair and colder.

SCORE OF 71 TO 9 S MONTREAL'S RECORD

Peterboro is Badly Wounded—The Parkdale Canoe Club Are Now the Junior Champions.

MONTREAL, Nov. 30.—Peterboro and Montreal met here to-day for the Canadian Rugby championship. There was a moderate breeze from the east, Montreal won the toss and chose to play against the sun and with the wind.

The return of Peterboro's kick-off by Russell was brought back because Montreal forwards forgot to give five yards. Peterboro had the ball at Montreal's 25-yard line. The first scrimmage resulted in a fumble, but Montreal's wings were persistently off-side, and Peterboro was given a free kick. College booted to the line, Russell fumbled, and the ball rolled away and crossed the goal. Peterboro followed up, and Hurlbut fell on the oval for a try, which College converted. Peterboro's Montreal 6. College returned kick-off, but the forwards were off on the 3-yard rule and the ball was given to Montreal 20 yards from Peterboro's line. On the first scrimmage Montreal worked a criss-cross, Gordon to Russell to Gordon, and the Montrealer ran the distance for a try, which was not converted. Peterboro 6, Montreal 5. The return kick-off brought the play to mid-field with Peterboro in possession. There was a delay to allow Peterboro's half-back to get his wind.

During the intermission it was seen that Ernie Hamilton and Jimmie Craig were setting a football fashion, being comforted by warm woolen gloves. On exchange of punts, O'Brien kicked to touch. Montreal's ball, Craig ran 25 yards, slipped and fell. On the third down Stinson booted, kicking over the dead-ball line for a point, which evened the score. Montreal 6, Peterboro 6.

Peterboro on Defensive. Peterboro was on the defensive, and was compelled to kick. College booted to centre, Stinson picked up and went 50 yards thru a broken field, and was nailed just outside the line. Kelly bucked for a try on first scrimmage, which Molson failed to convert. Montreal 11, Peterboro 6. Montreal did not give yards on Russell's return, and the ball was given to Peterboro. College kicked over the line, and Russell picked up and kicked clear. Prompt following up by Montreal wings forced Peterboro back, and play was in the victory territory. Hurlbut ran 20 yards and was taken down by Craig, College fumbled on the first scrimmage and the ball on the ball. On the first scrimmage Gordon passed to Russell, the back, who gave to Craig, and the Montrealer kicked 40 yards for a try, which Molson converted. Montreal 17, Peterboro 6. A fumble by College gave Stephens a chance. The lanky wing dribbled the ball to Peterboro's line, and on finally going over Peterboro's line, where Kelly dropped on it for a try, Molson converted. Montreal 22, Peterboro 6.

A Walk Away For Montreal. Russell returned the kick-off, and play was in the centre. College's kick was clear and Stinson had to chase it back, getting it out by a nice pick-up and kick. Failure to give yards brought the ball to Montreal's quarter. Then with varying success the leather travelled into each territory without anything starting serious. The Montreal was penalized for a forward pass, time was called, and the first quarter ended. The return of the kick-off saw play in Montreal's ground. Stinson was grassed. Montreal lost the ball because of off-side work. College kicked over. Stinson fumbled. Russell picked up ahead of Stinson. For this on-side play Peterboro was given a free kick. College kicked over. Peterboro's line. Crough muffed and Stephens kicked. There was a mix-up at the goal and Lessor dived on the ball for a try, which Molson converted. Montreal 25, Peterboro 8.

Half-Time Score 35 to 9. On the kick-off the ball was kicked to Stinson, who missed, and the ball struck a goal post. As it bounded, Russell kicked and sent the ball to touch. 30 yards out. College kicked over. Stinson picked up and went out 40 yards, but made forward pass, and the ball was given to Peterboro. A long kick sent the oval across Montreal's line, where Gilmore dropped on it and roused. Montreal 35, Peterboro 9. The next feature was a 20-yard run by Jimmy Craig. Montreal lost possession. Peterboro was given a free kick, because Russell charged an opponent. Craig tumbled the ball back. Peterboro had the ball in Montreal's territory. There was a respite to allow Hurlbut to regain his bearings after a collision. Half-time was called soon afterwards. Montreal 35, Peterboro 9.

Three kicks followed the kick-off, then Craig caught on the first play. Ted Savage was given the ball. He ran 45 yards and was downed. As he fell he sent the ball back. Walter Molson got it and went the remaining 30 yards for a try, which he himself converted. Montreal 41, Peterboro 9.

Craig's return of the kick-off was fumbled by Crough, but Peterboro held the ball. On the first scrimmage Peterboro was on the defensive, and was compelled to kick. College booted to centre, Stinson picked up and went 50 yards thru a broken field, and was nailed just outside the line. Kelly bucked for a try on first scrimmage, which Molson failed to convert. Montreal 11, Peterboro 6. Montreal did not give yards on Russell's return, and the ball was given to Peterboro. College kicked over the line, and Russell picked up and kicked clear. Prompt following up by Montreal wings forced Peterboro back, and play was in the victory territory. Hurlbut ran 20 yards and was taken down by Craig, College fumbled on the first scrimmage and the ball on the ball. On the first scrimmage Gordon passed to Russell, the back, who gave to Craig, and the Montrealer kicked 40 yards for a try, which Molson converted. Montreal 17, Peterboro 6. A fumble by College gave Stephens a chance. The lanky wing dribbled the ball to Peterboro's line, and on finally going over Peterboro's line, where Kelly dropped on it for a try, Molson converted. Montreal 22, Peterboro 6.

Representatives From C.A.A.U. and Federation Confer With the Olympic Commissioners.

OTTAWA, Nov. 30.—An important athletic conference took place this afternoon between the Olympic commission-ers in Canada, Col. Hanbury-Williams and P. D. Ross, the C.A.A.U. representatives, who are President Starks and Secretary Crowe; Rev. D. B. McDonald, representing the Intercollegiate Athletic Union; F. Nelson, representing the O.H.A.; J. G. Merriek, for the Ontario Rugby Football Union; C. C. Holland, for the Y.M.C.A. Athletic League of Canada, and W. Muir, Edwards of the Westmont Athletic Club, and the athletic faction representatives, including Tom Foran, President Buchanan, Secretary Spriggins, Leslie Boyd, Tom O'Connell, James Morrier, H. B. McGovern and F. Coulson.

The object of the conference was to arrive at an understanding as to the definition of an amateur in Canada. The C.A.A.U. contended that their definition of an amateur should be maintained, pointing out that it is practically impossible for a professional to negotiate the posts in the second period. Owing to darkness the game was not finished, and another game will now be necessary. The teams: Little York (1): Goal, Rose; backs, Whittier, Humphrey; halves, Dunn, Gibbons, Gilding; forwards, Johnstone, Barkley, Alf. Dunn, G. Gilding, P. Gilding.

Thistles (1): Goal, McNea; backs, Campbell, Waldron, halves, Marr, McLean, McDonald; forwards, Galbraith, McRoy, McAllister, Banks, Morgan. Referee: W. D. Hannah, City Teachers.

SENIOR SOCCER TEAMS TIE. Championship is Still Undecided—Each Team Notch a Goal.

Little York and Thistles played what was to have been the final game in the senior Toronto Football League Saturday at Rosedale, the game resulting a tie, 1-1.

Both goals were secured in the initial halves, neither team being able to negotiate the posts in the second period. Owing to darkness the game was not finished, and another game will now be necessary. The teams: Little York (1): Goal, Rose; backs, Whittier, Humphrey; halves, Dunn, Gibbons, Gilding; forwards, Johnstone, Barkley, Alf. Dunn, G. Gilding, P. Gilding.

Thistles (1): Goal, McNea; backs, Campbell, Waldron, halves, Marr, McLean, McDonald; forwards, Galbraith, McRoy, McAllister, Banks, Morgan. Referee: W. D. Hannah, City Teachers.

SENIOR SOCCER TEAMS TIE. Championship is Still Undecided—Each Team Notch a Goal.

Little York and Thistles played what was to have been the final game in the senior Toronto Football League Saturday at Rosedale, the game resulting a tie, 1-1.

Both goals were secured in the initial halves, neither team being able to negotiate the posts in the second period. Owing to darkness the game was not finished, and another game will now be necessary. The teams: Little York (1): Goal, Rose; backs, Whittier, Humphrey; halves, Dunn, Gibbons, Gilding; forwards, Johnstone, Barkley, Alf. Dunn, G. Gilding, P. Gilding.

Thistles (1): Goal, McNea; backs, Campbell, Waldron, halves, Marr, McLean, McDonald; forwards, Galbraith, McRoy, McAllister, Banks, Morgan. Referee: W. D. Hannah, City Teachers.

Continued on Page 6

Advertisement for shoes and clothing, including 'Quality of Gutta' and 'Overshoes, Jersey black, buckle at weight, list price $1.59'.

Advertisement for 'LARD street' and 'HIGH PARK' products.

Advertisement for 'SPECIALISTS' treating various ailments like 'Dyspepsia', 'Rheumatism', etc.

Advertisement for 'SOPER and WHITE' located at 'St. Toronto, Ontario'.

Advertisement for 'MAPLE' and 'Township Farmer Meets With Heavy Loss'.

Advertisement for 'CUNARDERS FOR CANADA NEW STEAMERS DIRECT' with details about shipping routes and agents.

Advertisement for 'TWO TAKE DROP OF 10 STOREYS' and 'Two Men Killed and Several Hurt in a Chicago Accident'.

Advertisement for 'GIRL TERRIBLY BURNED' and 'Brought on Train to Hospital, Carried in Father's Arms'.

Advertisement for 'RESULTS AT CITY PARK' and 'SUNDAY WEATHER'.

Advertisement for 'SENIOR SOCCER TEAMS TIE' and 'Championship is Still Undecided'.

Advertisement for 'CLOSING DAY RESULTS AT BENNING'S TRACK' and 'Race Results and Entries'.

Advertisement for 'CONVICTED MURDERER GRANTED NEW TRIAL' and 'William Paul, Under Sentence of Death, Will Have New Chance For Life'.

Advertisement for '12 DIRECTORS HELD FOR FRAUD' and 'Alleged That Dividends Were Paid From Capital'.

ABOUT THE AMATEUR ATHLETE IN THE ROWING CIRCLES

Olympic Stewards Will Exclude 90 Per Cent. of American Oarsmen Next Year Owing to the College Clause.

Some day there will be an international conference to define the "amateur athlete." He is a vague personage at present, and in this vagueness lies the possibility of serious international disputes.

It appears that the stewards of the rowing section of next year's Olympic festival have "excluded 90 per cent. of American oarsmen not at college" by their interpretation of the term.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

ing this distinction at all? Apart altogether from local British or any other local considerations, it seems that two worthy motives may inspire such a separation. The first is to prevent unfair competition. The professional who devotes his whole life to gaining proficiency in a certain sport may reasonably be regarded as an unfair competitor to an amateur who only essays the exercise at intervals.

Where's the Difference? Apparently athletics is less soul-absorbing than the arts. A virtuoso in the broad jump is perhaps less rapt to the vital than the artist.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

Whether we could send over any crew better than our best college crews, which could obtain amateur status under conceivable interpretation of the term, is doubtful.

'Let Emmett Dress Your Feet'

WESTON IS OVERCOAT IN THE WINTER CITY

Theatrical Performance For His Benefit May Be Given This Afternoon.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—"I am thankful to Providence for this iron constitution which enabled me to complete my long walk, and am thankful for the kindly manner in which the people here received me, but for goodness sake, tell them to cut out these invitations to eat turkey. I am sick of it," said Edward Payson Weston yesterday.

"It has been nothing but turkey, cranberries, celery and mince pie over and over again. When it comes to a case of human endurance with these old legs I am ready for anyone, but I never posed at anything out of the ordinary with my stomach."

"In fact, I must be more careful of that than anything else. The stomach is the boiler of the human system, and if not properly regulated will cause as much damage as the steel boiler running the machinery in a building."

The veteran pedestrian is elated over the way the members of the New Illinois Athletic Club are handling him. It was his purpose to rest all day, but he was obliged to get up at 10 o'clock, but all except newspaper men and others who refused to be "avoided" were away disappointed.

He was gallant enough to pose nearly an hour for a woman sketch artist connected with a magazine. After that he sat down on his bed and gave orders to those in charge that he "was out" the balance of the day.

Mrs. L. F. Minzesheimer and Ald. Joseph Badenoch called at the club at 3.15 and gave him a spin to the South Shore Country Club, where he ate more turkey and mince pie with many persons who were there to greet him.

Finns Beauties in Chicago. Members of the Athletics Club had Weston at the college. In Chicago, 10 o'clock Thursday morning, he said, and the night passed him immensely.

Weston was pleased upon receiving a telegram announcing that members of the Kankakee Athletic Club had started on a 30-day winter carrying 100 pounds of sand.

Weston was pleased upon receiving a telegram announcing that members of the Kankakee Athletic Club had started on a 30-day winter carrying 100 pounds of sand.

Weston was pleased upon receiving a telegram announcing that members of the Kankakee Athletic Club had started on a 30-day winter carrying 100 pounds of sand.

Weston was pleased upon receiving a telegram announcing that members of the Kankakee Athletic Club had started on a 30-day winter carrying 100 pounds of sand.

'K. K.' 5.00

Just a "handsome" boot for a man who is looking for comfort and ease—made of box calf—over heavy tan leathers and leather lined—heavy extension wet-proof sole and military heel—looks goods—fits perfectly—the right boot for now is a "Keith Kenquerer" and 5.00 it costs.

The Emmett Shoe Store 123 Yonge Street

THINKS GUNNER MOIR WILL BE EASY MARK For Tommy Burns on Monday—Moir is a Wrestler, Not a Boxer.

Charley St. Clair, the New York middleweight, in discussing the coming international battle between Gungnir Moir and Tommy Burns, said that he believed Moir would be an easy mark.

Moir is a big lemon. Burns will knock him out inside of six rounds, sure. Then Burns will go ahead and knock out this Jim Roche. I class with Moir and Roche myself, and the best I have done in this country was to mix it with Mickey McDonough for six rounds at the Long Acre.

Over in England I was a first-class man, and I only weighed 158. I fought Jim Roche ten three-minute rounds, and I knocked him down three times, and had him all in when I bucked my right hand and had to quit. I was matched with Wilson at Montreal, Toronto, Gait, Perth, and Moir for a $150 purse, but Moir thought I was a ringer, and he said he couldn't fight me without breaking his contract with Hackenschmidt.

I've seen Moir fight. He is a wrestler and that lets him out. He is a wrestler that lets him out. He is a wrestler that lets him out. He is a wrestler that lets him out.

Seats Are Selling High. LONDON, Nov. 30.—A foreign war could hardly stir England to a bigger pitch of excitement than prevailed over next Monday night's Burns-Moir 20-round fight here.

St. Paul's Church Improvements. The finance committee of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Bloor-street, are considering the enlargement of the Sunday schools, the building of a new parish house, and the installation of a new organ. The expenditure will be from $40,000 to $50,000.

What We Do BEFORE. AFTER. We repair shoes in a style never dreamed of by the old-fashioned workmen.

Abolish Three-Year-Old Rule. NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—The American Association of Trotting Horse Breeders met to-night at Madison-square Garden and a resolution was passed recommending the abolition of the rule which makes it necessary for three-year-olds or under to win three out of five heats to win a race.

Brewery Workers' Concert. The third annual concert of the Ingham Union of United Brewery Workers was held in Association Hall on Friday night, and was a great success.

Abolish Three-Year-Old Rule. NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—The American Association of Trotting Horse Breeders met to-night at Madison-square Garden and a resolution was passed recommending the abolition of the rule which makes it necessary for three-year-olds or under to win three out of five heats to win a race.

Monday Specials

DON'T wait for Xmas before you leave your order for a Suit or Overcoat. Winter is here now, and already our tailors and cutters, and workpeople are busy keeping up with the orders.

Overcoats and Ulsters to Order $13.50. A magnificent range to choose from, in the heavy tweeds, made in Ulster, single or double, with the fashionable Fur collar.

Men's Business Suits of $13.50. When you see the goods you'll wonder how we can make 'em for the price. A common ready-made would cost even more.

Blue and Black Serge Suitings at $14.50. The fine Imported Serges go at $14.50. Scarce goods now—few tailors have been able to keep up their stocks.

HOBBERLIN BROS. & CO., CASH TAILORS 151 Yonge Street. 7-9 East Richmond Street THE BIG STORE

DOES NOT BELIEVE IN TIPS.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 30.—Following a crusade started against racing here by a prominent minister, Federal Judge Sanders, in his charge to the United States Grand Jury yesterday, called attention to the newspaper publishing tips on races, and said that if they were paid for it they should be indicted and prosecuted.

CEMETERY RETURNS. There were 283 interments in city cemeteries during the month just closed. The comparative record:

Northern Hockey League. MOUNT FOREST, Ont., Nov. 30.—The annual meeting of the Northern Hockey League was held in the Imperial Hotel, Palmerston, yesterday.

A Pleasant Time. Court Memorial, I. O. F., last week held an entertainment of song, story and instrumental selections.

The Christmas Store

We're making a bigger bid than ever before for the cream of the Christmas trade. Our displays of fine silver, genuine cut glass, and table furnishings alone offer a superb assortment of desirable Christmas gifts.

RICE LEWIS & SON, LIMITED TORONTO. SILVERWARE—Bon Bon Dishes, CUT GLASS—Water Bottles, Vases, Decanters, Egg Stands, Rose Bowls, Candle Sticks, CUTLERY—Rodgers' Cutlery, Carvers, Butter Spreads, Dessert and Table Sets, Cutlery Cabinets, Etc., Etc.

IN COL

Students of the way in the memorial to the son, and have purchase of a Jameson Men River, near which took place. Societies for memorial tab. The societies endorsing the

The first of the Tuesday eve activities of city colleges, Establishment, of the by F. H. Lar Victoria, and comprises an university College Baker, McCri

The latest offering of the ut called for entrance provide a special offering a $10 landish and Octurby the police and Park and vic is to be hoped

The student were address O'Brien of s, boro, who gave count of his Dr. O'Brien of Michael's and province.

The student their eleven-th University Y. day night. S gnering wided ray, mission- York, on "The Japan and In C. Quinlan. Amongst the Benson, B.A., Condition of C. L. Timpany J. M. Mendie, lge.

No action h the case of th the row at th so an actio consideration Wednesday a coner conferre p. Quinlan's neering and i executive of i the onus of u upon the stu investigate in commendation The medical in the Central day evening, society. The e gative impo W. D. Brace; secretary-trea

DEAKIN (Canadian A LONDON, 2 spatch says speaking to League, said between the min lions over This did do with. In ciples should

NEW Capt. Collin from the Toronto Club, by W. P. Fra of the O.J.C. issued.

AN ON A large me the piano m Heinzman, K King-street, T tive meri Musicians spe Co. piano as building.

New Arm The new cav bly be opene Dragons will

IN COLLEGE HALLS

Students of Knox College are leading the way in the matter of providing a memorial to the late Rev. C. R. Jamieson, and have subscribed $100 for the purchase of a pulpit to be placed in the Jamieson Memorial Church at French River, near which the drowning fatality took place.

The University Literary Society has also asked the board of governors for permission to place a memorial tablet in the main building. The societies of the other colleges are endorsing the application.

The first inter-collegiate debate of the session was held on Tuesday evening, between representatives of Victoria and University colleges, the subject being "The Establishment, by the Canadian Government, of a National System of Telegraphs."

The latest action of the U.C. is deserving of the utmost censure. They have called for entries in a competition to be held in the English hall, and the main open long. It is suggested that each competitor deliver his yell from the park grandstand in order to test its effectiveness.

Next Friday evening will be the occasion of the annual dinner of the Faculty of Applied Science, and of the annual dance of the medical students. The one will be held at the gymnasium, and the other at McConkey's.

Mr. Harry Ruthven, who has acted as secretary at the university dining hall for the last four years, has resigned his position and acted in his former capacity for the last dinner on Saturday. The University Hockey Club held their annual meeting at the gymnasium on Friday. The elections resulted as follows: Honorary president, Prof. A. T. Delury; honorary vice-president, Dr. A. B. Wright; president, H. Clarke; vice-president, A. J. Clarke; secretary, M. Kennedy.

The students of St. Michael's College were addressed by Rev. Dr. M. J. O'Brien on St. Michael's day. Dr. O'Brien is an old student of St. Michael's and well known throughout the province.

The Students' Volunteer Union held their eleventh annual reception at the University Y.M.C.A. building on Friday night. Special features of the gathering were addresses by J. L. Murray, mission secretary, and J. W. York, on "The Awakening of China, Japan and India" by the president, A. C. Quimby; "Missionary Work Amongst the Chinese," and by R. C. Benson, B.A., of McMaster, on "The Condition of the People of India."

Other speakers were G. F. Saywell of Wycliffe; Miss Keasey, B.A., of the Methodist Deaconess' Training Home; C. L. Simpson, B.A., of McMaster; and J. M. Menzie, B.A., of Knox College.

action has as yet been taken in the case of the S.P.S. men who created the row at the Arts dinner a week or so ago, altho the matter is under consideration by the authorities. Last Wednesday afternoon Principal Falconer conferred with a committee composed of representatives of the engineering and literary societies and of the executive of the Students' Parliament.

Dr. Falconer diplomatically placed the onus of dealing with the offence upon the students themselves, and a sub-committee has been appointed to investigate damages and make some recommendation in the case.

The medical students held a meeting in the Central Y.M.C.A. Hall on Saturday evening, and organized a literary society. The officers elected were: Honorary president, Dean Roeve; president, W. D. Brace; vice-president, L. Patton; secretary-treasurer, U. E. Culbertson.

DEAKIN AND IMPERIALISM.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) LONDON, Nov. 30.—A. Deakin, speaking to the Imperial Federation League, said the solution of the question of the adjustment of relations between the mother country and the dominions over seas was necessary, and would no doubt be reasonably dealt with in the means of reasonable principles should be laid down.

NEW SECRETARY. Capt. Colin C. Harbottle has retired from the position of secretary of the Toronto Club, and has been succeeded by W. P. Fraser, the present secretary of the O.J.C.

Japs For G.T.P. VANCOUVER, Nov. 30.—Commissioner King practically closed the investigation of Japanese immigration methods yesterday when Suroua Catoh, head of the Canadian Nippon Co., admitted importation of 1400 Japanese laborers and miners between June and September.

Representatives of the company went to Japan carrying a promise from a G. T. P. representative to employ 5000 Japanese. They failed to get a contract, however, so a draft agreement was sent to Japan to satisfy the foreign office they would not be charged on the public. The passports were then issued.

An Outstanding Piano. A large number of fancy has come to the piano made by the old firm of Heintzman & Co., Limited, 115-117 West Queen-street, Toronto, due to the distinctive merits of this instrument. Musicians speak of the Heintzman & Co. piano as a new creation in piano building.

New Armories Nearly Ready. The new armories nearly ready will probably be opened in January, when the Dragons will use it for a riding school.

$150.00 ONLY. You would hardly believe this machine would purchase a Talking Machine by calling in at the E. S. Williams & Sons Co., 143 Yonge-street, you will have a surprise awaiting you, a disc instrument with handsome lower horn, only $15.00, complete.

BROWNS

Everything is Here in Plenty

The store is at its best—we've caught the holiday enthusiasm, and it's plain to be seen we've left very little undone to make this one of the most attractive spots in the city in stocks, and the prices asked, Cash or Credit.

22.00 Dressers for 15.65 27 odd Sample Dressers, empire oak and mahogany finish, 2 1/2 and 4 drawer cases, with long and curved casters, straight and shaped fronts, with 1 and 4 drawers, some have side cabinets, all fitted with British bevel mirrors, worth $22.00 to $24.00, Monday $15.65 each.

32.00 Dressers for 21.95 16 sample Dressers, polished 1-1/2-cut oak and genuine mahogany, 2 1/2 and 4 drawer cases, with long and curved casters, straight and shaped fronts, with 1 and 4 drawers, some have side cabinets, all fitted with British bevel mirrors, worth $32.00 to $34.00, Monday $21.95 each.

17.50 Cheffoniers for 12.85 28 sample Cheffoniers, 8 different styles, in golden or empire oak finish, and mahogany finish, all are nicely finished, some are large roomy cases, with long and short drawers, and cabinets, others smaller, neat cases, with nicely arranged drawers; all are fitted with good castors, brass trimmings, and British bevel mirrors; worth $17.50 to $17.50, Monday $12.85 each.

29.50 Cheffoniers for 19.45 33 Cheffoniers, polished genuine mahogany and 1-1/2-cut oak, 4 of the very newest designs, different styles, nicely arranged drawers, and cabinets, straight, full swell, and serpentine fronts, best brass trimmings, carved toilets, and shaped British bevel mirrors; worth $29.50 to $32.50, Monday $19.45 each.

Sideboards, Third Off

Sideboard, in golden elm, case neatly carved and polished, mirror, six, two cutlery drawers, and 4 cupboards, worth $25.00, Monday $19.35 each.

Sideboard, in royal oak, 1-1/2-cut finish, shaped top, two cutlery drawers, and long linen drawer, British bevel plate mirror, and double cupboard, Regular $25.00, for $19.45.

Sideboard, in solid oak, case highly polished, three cutlery drawers, one lined with plush, British bevel plate mirror, 3x18, long linen drawer, and double cupboard, with shelf, Regular $30.00, for $24.95.

Sideboard, in 1-1/2-cut oak, well finished, three small drawers, one lined with plush, one large lined with plush, British bevel plate mirror 3x18, heavy turned and carved standards, full-sized double cupboard, Regular $28.00, for $24.95.

Sideboard, in 1-1/2-cut oak, case highly polished, all hand-carved, three cutlery drawers, one lined with plush, long linen drawer, double cupboard, Regular $34.00, for $29.55.

Music Cabinets as a Xmas Gift

Music Cabinet, mahogany finish, open front, extended sides and back, Regular $20.00, for $17.75.

Music Cabinet, mahogany, square design, plain sides, back, and top, Regular $18.00, for $15.00.

Music Cabinet, mahogany, patented draw-out shelves, drawers, and British bevel mirror above, Regular $20.00, for $17.00.

Music Cabinet, mahogany, patented automatic shelves, with or without mirror on top or in door, Regular $22.00, special $19.75.

PARLOR SUITES

Parlor Suite, 3 pieces, in birch-mahogany frames, carved and polished, upholstered in silk, 19.85.

Parlor Suite, 3 pieces, solid walnut frames, upholstered in velours, plush trimmed, regular $28.00, for $21.75.

Parlor Suite, 3 pieces, upholstered in tapestry, frames carved and polished, regular $30.00, for $24.50.

Parlor Suite, 5 pieces, upholstered in velours, plush trimmed, fringe, regular $40.00, for $34.75.

Parlor Suite, 5 pieces, upholstered in Verona rugs, plush trimmed, fringe, all around, special $45.00, for $36.50.

Parlor Suite, 6 pieces, in birch-mahogany frames, carved and polished, upholstered in silk, tapestry, button edge and back, Reg. $50.00, for $49.50.

MORRIS CHAIRS

Morris Chairs, in oak or mahogany finish, carved, upholstered in velours, brass adjusting rods, regu. $8.00, for $5.95.

Morris Chairs, in solid oak frames, golden finish, reversible velours cushions, brass adjusting rods, regu. $6.95.

Morris Chairs, in solid oak frames, golden finish, reversible velours cushions, regular $12.00, for $9.25.

Morris Chairs, in solid quarter-cut oak frame, reversible velours cushions, brass adjusting rods, spe. $11.25.

Morris Chairs, in solid quarter-cut oak, reversible velours cushions, spring seats, brass adjusting rod, regular $17.00, for $13.75.

Mild Weather "Softens" Fur Prices

Canadian Mink Ties, etc., $22.50 to $150.00.

Canadian Mink Muffs, $30.00 up. Rich Glossy Persian Lamb Throw Ties, $15.00 up.

Beautiful New Persian Muffs to match, $35.00 up.

Persian Paw Muffs, new style, $15.00.

Persian Paw Ties to match, $12.50.

Grey Squirrel Ties, $12.50 up.

Grey Marmot Stole, 60 inches long, finished with head, 8 tails, chain fastener, Marmot $25.00.

Mink Marmot Stole, large Empire shape, with head and 2 tails, Monday $12.50.

Grey Lamb, White Thibet, sable, lynx, etc., made up in many attractive styles. See them Monday.

Persian Lamb Jackets, $150. Made of finest quality Persian lamb, marmot skins, rich glossy curl, large collar and revers of Canadian mink, satin lined, silk girdle, Monday $150.00.

Grey Squirrel Jackets for $59.50. Women's Jackets, of extra dark Siberian grey squirrel, large collar and revers, satin lined, silk girdle, regular $80.00, for $59.50.

Muskrat Jackets for $60.00. 12 odd Women's Jackets, of finest quality dark striped muskrat, large collar and revers of self, satin lined, silk girdle, all sizes, regular $39.00, for $60.00.

Near Seal Jackets for $35. 12 odd Women's Jackets, of best quality near seal, large collar and revers of self, satin lined, silk girdle, Monday special $35.00.

Belgian Mink Automobile Coats $100. Women's Coats, 7-8 length, of finest quality Belgian Mink, Empire back, with striped effects all over body of garment, rich brocade lining, but extra full, large storm collar, and buttons, was $250.00, for $100.00.

We Are Making a Special Holiday Display of Leather Chairs and Couches.

28.00 EASY CHAIRS 19.75

Easy Chair, upholstered in No. 1 leather, solid quarter-cut frames, upholstered seat and back, worth $28.00, for $19.75.

PARLOR ROCKERS

Parlor Rocking Chair, golden finish, nicely upholstered in No. 1 leather, solid quarter-cut frames, upholstered seat and back, worth $28.00, for $19.75.

DAVENPORTS

Folding Davenport, quarter-cut oak frame, golden finish, upholstered in velours, regular $25.00, for $19.75.

$1.75 Rex Brussels Carpets for $1.35

We know a whole lot about Brussels Carpets—seen and handled, and sold millions of yards—so we set up as Judges, and we positively believe that we never have seen or heard of a truer bargain in fine Brussels than the Rex Carpets. Quality strictly made from the finest Scotch and Cape wools combed together, making a rich, lustrous, woven fabric—the best for retaining their dyes, lovely patterns and colorings.

5 FRAME QUALITY

We have selected 18 rolls of patterns, some with 5-8 inch borders to match as a special feature of MONDAY'S selling, and when they are so cheap you should be here when the doors open. "Rex" Brussels, size, special $1.35.

Wool Rugs

Choice-patterned Wool Art Squares, soft-colorings of greens, reds, tans, and blues, regular $12.00, for $10.00.

$4.00 Hearth Rugs, $2.75

Select Smyrna, in beautiful colored Orientals, Persians, Turkish, and floral designs. Size 36 x 72 inches, Monday $2.75.

Jewelry Department

"BROWNIE" WATCH. A Christmas gift of a "Brownie Watch," whether for lady or gentleman, makes a most acceptable one. These we carry in all sizes and grades—from the 7-jeweled 9 size, to the 23-jeweled 18 size—and prices within the reach of all. Cash or credit.

To make the gift more complete, we have a full line of Lorgnettes, Vest Chains, and Fobs for you to choose from, both in solid gold and gold-filled. Cash or credit.

14k. Solid Gold Necklet, heart-shaped pendant attached, paved with pearls, Regular $35.00, for $27.50.

14k. Solid Gold Rope Pattern Whole and Half Pearl Necklet, $16.50. Regular $20.00, for $16.50.

Solid Gold Necklet (fourteen stones), Regular $12.00, for $10.00.

Solid Gold Necklet (twenty-two stones), Regular $12.00, for $9.50.

Solid Gold Necklet (three heart-shaped diamonds), Regular $9.50, for $7.00.

Solid Gold Necklet (rope pattern), heart-shaped amethyst attached, Regular $5.50, for $4.00.

Gold-filled Necklets, from $3.25 up.

17.50 EASY ROCKERS 14.95

Easy Rocker, in solid 1-1/2-cut oak, upholstered in No. 1 leather, carved and polished, Reg. $25.00, for $14.95.

EASY CHAIRS

Parlor Easy Chair, upholstered in No. 1 leather, steel construction, button edge and back, Reg. $25.00, for $19.75.

COUCHES

Couches, upholstered in velours, fringed all round, Regular $4.95, special $3.50.

Couches, upholstered in velours, open construction, in heavy show-wood frames, Regular $7.00.

Couches, upholstered in velours, assorted colors, heavy show-wood frames, regular $12.00, for $14.75.

CHILD'S HIGH CHAIRS

High Chair, golden finish, with tray, Regular $1.80, for $1.35.

High Chair, in quarter-cut oak, with tray, cane seat, Regu. $1.65, for $1.20.

High Chair, in quarter-cut oak, with tray, cane seat, Regu. $3.99, for $2.99.

BLANKETS

100 pairs only, Blankets, size 60 x 80 inches, weight 6 lbs., pink or blue borders, Regular $4.5, special $3.65.

50 pair Blankets, all-wool, unshrinkable, size 60 x 80 inches, weight 6 lbs., pink or blue borders, Regular $5.75, special $4.65.

FALL LEAF TABLE

Fall Leaf Table, golden finish, 4 heavy turned and bolted legs, Regular $6.00, for $4.90.

Kitchen Table, stained base, 4 feet long, with drawer, Regu. $2.35, for $1.85.

Kitchen Arm Rocker, golden finish, Regular $2.50, for $1.65.

Gas, Electric, and Combination Fixtures

Electric Bracket, curved shape, brushed brass, from 75c up, $9.50. (Including sockets and wiring).

Electric Pendants, 26 inches long, black, complete with sockets and switches and wiring, Only $2.25.

Three-light, to match, from $5.00 to $35.00.

"Fit-Rite" Overcoats

The English Chesterfield. Three-quarter length, moderately loose back, medium length vent Italian or tweed linings, and silk velvet collar. Either fly front or double-breasted style. New steel and Oxford grey friezes and Chevots, and black English heavers and meltons, at $10, $15, $20, and $25.

The French Chesters. A Semi-form-fitting 3-4 length, fly front Overcoat, with peaked lapels, long centre black vent finished with Huggins link and silk velvet collar; made from choice subdued patterns of Scotch cheviot. Selling from $12, $15, $20, and $25.

The New Ulster. Made with the close-fitting Prussian collar, black vent finished with Huggins link and Scotch chevots, made in Fit-Rite imitable style, at $15, $18, $20, and $25.

The Paletot. The form-fitting and popular Overcoat, for stylish men. Made from the favorite steel and Oxford grey shades, of best quality Scotch chevots, made in Fit-Rite imitable style, at $25, $30, and $32.

BROWNS

Everything is Here in Plenty

We've taken a wider view of things than a little "tight money" talk, and offer you the convenience of our Confidential Credit plan "full and free." And by using it you may make your holiday selections at the earliest minute—with no last minute worry and rush.

Ladies Dressing Table for 9.95. White enamel, empire oak or mahogany finish, shaped front, cases with long and nicely carved toilet, fitted with shaped British bevel mirror, Worth $9.95 $4.90, on Monday.

1.75 Feather Pillows, 98c. 100 pairs mixed Feather Pillows, 6 pounds to pair, covered with good quality fancy art ticking, 4 feet, $1.75. On Monday, per pair $1.49.

2.50 Pillows, 1.49. 100 pairs all Feather Pillows, 6 pounds to pair, large cases of best quality striped sateen ticking, 4 feet, worth $2.50 per pair, Monday $1.49.

6.50 Iron Beds, 4.65. Brass and Iron Beds, green or white enamel, new fancy design, with heavy posts and corners, shaped top, brass casters, extended foot, worth $6.50, on Monday $4.65.

32.50 Brass Beds, 23.75. Genuine Brass Bedsteads, 14-inch posts, heavy top rail, strong tiller, large brass knobs, extend 4 feet, foot, worth $32.50, on Monday $23.75.

Extension Tables—Third Off. Extension Table, in golden elm, 48-inch top, with three leaves, five heavy turned and bolted legs, extends 4 feet, $4.79.

Extension Table, in solid oak, highly polished, five heavy turned and bolted legs, extends 4 feet, Regular $14.00, for $8.95.

Extension Table, in royal oak, quarter-cut finish, 48-inch top, five heavy turned and veneered legs, extends to 8 feet, Regular $18.00, for $13.55.

Extension Table, in quarter-cut oak, highly polished, with five heavy turned and veneered legs, extends to 8 feet, Regular $20.00, for $12.95.

Extension Table, in quarter-cut oak, pedestal base, 48-inch top, extends to 8 feet, base all hand-carved, Regular $44.00, for $43.75.

Dining and Kitchen Chairs. Diners, in quarter-cut oak frames, highly polished, upholstered in green leather, five small chairs, $18.75 and one arm, Regular $25.00, for $18.75.

Diners, in quarter-cut oak frames, full box seats, upholstered in best green leather, five small chairs and one arm in set, Regular $28.00, for $19.75.

Diners, in quarter-cut oak frames, highly polished, spring seats, stuffered and padded backs, $27.75.

Heavy shaped legs, Regular price $6.00, for $5.57.

Kitchen Chair, golden finish, shaped seats, banister backs, Regular $6.00, for $4.79.

Diner, in golden finish, saddle seats, double runged, Regular 50 cents, for $3.87.

High-backed Diner, brass arms, double runged, Regular $1.25, for $1.00.

Curtains at Half Prices

100 pairs Nottingham Curtains, from 24 to 34 inches wide, heavy scroll border terms, new and best quality, with all-over pattern, heavy borders, Regular $1.75 and $2.00 per pair, Special, to clear $1.35.

PARLOR TABLES—XMAS SPECIALS

Parlor Tables, in quarter-cut oak or mahogany finish, top 20 inches, Regular $2.50, for $1.65.

Parlor Table, in quarter-cut oak, 24-inch top, with side drawers, 20 inches wide, Regular $4.75, for $3.30.

Parlor Table, in mahogany, highly polished, with shelf, Regu. $7.45, for $5.50.

Parlor Table, in solid mahogany, highly polished, Regular $17.50, for $13.00.

Oxley Table, solid brass, with hand-painted tops, and shelf, Reg. $3.99, for $3.00.

HALL RACKS

Hall Rack, Empire oak, 12 x 18-inch British bevel mirror, Reg. $7.50, for $5.00.

Hall Rack, Empire oak, 14 x 24-inch British bevel mirror, Reg. $12.00, for $8.00.

Hall Racks, selected quarter-cut oak, 42-inch oval-shaped, British bevel mirror, Regular $21.00, for $15.00.

Hall Rack, in quarter-cut oak, heavy colonial frame, canopy top, highly polished brass knobs, 24 x 36-inch British bevel mirror, Regular $55.00, for $40.00.

PARLOR TABLES—XMAS SPECIALS

Parlor Tables, in quarter-cut oak or mahogany finish, top 20 inches, Regular $2.50, for $1.65.

Parlor Table, in quarter-cut oak, 24-inch top, with side drawers, 20 inches wide, Regular $4.75, for $3.30.

Parlor Table, in mahogany, highly polished, with shelf, Regu. $7.45, for $5.50.

Parlor Table, in solid mahogany, highly polished, Regular $17.50, for $13.00.

PERFECTION IN PERSIAN LAMB GARMENTS

Is manifest in our display of this popular fur for this season. A member of the firm of one of the largest dealers in skins in the world, who was in our store this week, has pronounced it the finest showing of Persian Lamb Garments ever presented in Canada.

At $110 Handsome models, in plain Persian Lamb, in all the smart new styles, made with best trimmings.

At $135 Beautiful coats, in a wide range of styles, trimmed tastefully in mink, best linings and trimmings throughout.

SEE OUR WINDOW DISPLAY OF PERSIAN LAMB GARMENTS MONDAY

SELLERS-GOUGH FUR CO., LIMITED "FURLAND" 244-246 YONGE ST., COR. LOUISA

Team Record Was Broken By Bowlers Last Week

Iroquois Beat Out Royal Canadian B by 25 Pins—Frank Johnston Had High Score—Standing and Games This Week.

The feature of last week's bowling was the high team scores made by the Royal Canadian B. of the City League and Iroquois of the Toronto League.

Royals B have a clean record of 21 straight wins in the City League, with Centrals second with 16 wins and 5 losses. These two teams meet Tuesday night for the first time this season.

In the Toronto League Royal Canadians have the advantage, with Americans and Dominions tied for second, only two games behind.

The World is still leading in the morning section of the Printers, and Newtown-Treloar in the evening. Floral and Rosedale are tied in Class A of the Oddfellows. These two teams roll Saturday night. Rosedale are still leading in Class B of the Oddfellows.

In the Central League, Strollers lead the list with Brunswicks and Bronchows tied for second.

The following is the standing of the different leagues, with the games scheduled this week:

Table with columns: League Name, Won, Lost. Lists various leagues like Royal Canadians, Americans, Dominions, Iroquois, etc.

Table titled 'MONTREAL'S RECORD' showing scores for various teams like Benedicts, H. and A. Saunders, Royal Canadian A, etc.

MONTREAL'S RECORD

Continued From Page 1.

terboro let the ball loose and McAllen secured it. A forward pass gave Peterboro possession and College kicked to Montreal's 25 yard line. Russell returns the ball to the line, and Montreal, in a mix-up College, the Peterboro's centre half, was hurt and was compelled to go off. This was a big loss, because the lanky half-back had been playing a great game for the Ontario champions. Fumble brought play to Peterboro's quarter field. Caniff, who had replaced College, saved once. Montreal got the ball a yard from the line. Craig tried to drop a goal, but was blocked. Savage saved the ball. Stinson kicked over the line. The ball was loose when Savage pounced on it for a try, which Molson failed to convert. Montreal 46, Peterboro 9.

The kick-off was returned promptly and play opened 30 yards from Peterboro's goal. Craig and Stephens advanced the ball 20 yards, the latter going up Stinson's side and crossed the ball to Peterboro. Caniff tried to get away, but was forced back. Caniff kicked to touch. The kick-off was returned for 15 yards for a try. This was converted. Montreal 59, Peterboro 9.

Hamilton and Craig ran back the ball to the back line. The Montreal captain passed poorly to Russell, and there was a loss. Savage ran 5 yards through a broken field, dodging and twisting in spectacular style. Russell advanced the ball an additional ten yards on a buck. This was followed by a gain on a similar play. On the third down, Billy Murphy went over for a try, which was converted. Montreal 65, Peterboro 9.

Hamilton and Craig ran back the ball to the back line. The Montreal captain passed poorly to Russell, and there was a loss. Savage ran 5 yards through a broken field, dodging and twisting in spectacular style. Russell advanced the ball an additional ten yards on a buck. This was followed

SALARY $40,000 A YEAR!

There is a fascinating story in the November number of Busy Man's Magazine. It's a true story, telling how a young man who started at $12 a week came to be drawing such a salary before he was 30 years old. It is a story, thrilling with interest to every man and woman, particularly to the young man with life stretched out before him. Would you like to read it? OUR SPECIAL OFFER ENABLES YOU TO DO SO ENTIRELY FREE.

BUSY MAN'S MAGAZINE IS THE SIFTER OF MAGAZINEDOM

Every month its Editors read all the leading magazines and periodicals, both English and Foreign. From this enormous mass of current literature the very Cream is selected for Busy Man's Magazine. The most thrilling short stories; the most brilliant articles on topics of the time; the sayings of the wisest of the wise and the wittiest of the witty; everything that's really worth while gets into The Busy Man's.

FOR LESS THAN FOUR CENTS A WEEK

$2 a year—you may have Busy Man's Magazine delivered to your door every month.

SPECIAL OFFER FOURTEEN MONTHS FOR THE PRICE OF TWELVE

To all subscribers who send an order for the 12 months of 1908 we will give the numbers of the Magazine for November and December free.

Busy Man's makes an excellent Christmas present for your friends: CUT THIS COUPON OUT AND MAIL IT TO-DAY

The MacLean Publishing Co., Ltd. JOHN BAYNE MACLEAN, PRESIDENT 10 FRONT STREET EAST, TORONTO.

Personal. D. H. Lewis, secretary of the Automobile Club of Buffalo, who is to be superintendent of the Automobile and Sportsman's Show, to be held in Toronto on March 21 next, arrived in the city yesterday. Dr. Alfred Thompson, M.P. of Dawson City, is in the city.

Col. Ptolemy and Mr. Bridgman of Saltfleet Township asked Provincial Secretary Hanna Saturday to postpone the vote on a local option bylaw there in order to learn the status of Burlington Beach.

Frank G. Jackson, despatcher in the Grand Trunk terminal office at the Union Station, has been advanced to the position of despatcher at Lindsay. He is succeeded here by A. E. Frowde.

W. Smith, merchant tailor, will offer himself as candidate for the board of education.

Double Drowning. COLEBROOK, N.H., Nov. 30.—Chas. P. Heath, son of a physician at Wakefield, Mass., and Miss Lydia E. Hatch, the daughter of a Wilton, N.H., physician, were drowned in Big Diamond Pond, ten miles from here, yesterday, according to a report brought here today from Houston's camp, on the shores of the pond. Heath, who was 24 years old, and Miss Hatch, aged 25, started on a hunting trip yesterday. They were tracked across the ice on Big Diamond Pond, and at a place where the ice was very thin their hats were found. It is thought they broke thru the ice and were drowned.

Hockey Notes. A meeting of the hockey section of the Toronto Rowing Club is called for Tuesday, Dec. 2, at 8.30 p.m. All members who can be requested to be present. The adjourned hockey meeting of the club on Monday evening at 8 o'clock when all members are requested to be present; also any new men will be made welcome.

Ten Pin League Meeting. There will be a meeting of the City Tenpin League next Friday night.

BIRTHS. FARMERY—On Nov. 29, 1907, at Royal Villa of Leamy-avenue, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Farmery, a son.

DEATHS. BAND—Entered into rest at his late residence, 56 Woodlawn-avenue, on the morning of Nov. 29, 1907, Wm. Pennard, third son of the late Rev. Chas. Edward Band of Combe, Raleigh, Devonshire, England, in his 72d year. Funeral private.

HILL—In Toronto, on Saturday, Nov. 30, Fanny Q. Hill, beloved wife of R. Hill, and daughter of C. F. Turner.

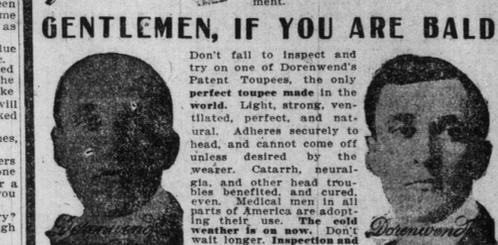

McKINNON—On Nov. 25, at 189 Baldwin-street, Mrs. M. Allen, beloved wife of Archie McKinnon, city agent for the Great West Life.

Funeral will leave the late residence on Monday, at 2 p.m., for Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

DORENWEND'S HAIR GOODS ARE SUPREME

Our Transformations Pompadour Bangs Switches, Braids Curls, Waves, etc.

Are all manufactured of first quality German cut hair, cut by our own cutters in Europe, designed by our own artist here, so we sell first quality, and copy no one. We stand alone as the foremost house in America. Ladies, also bear in mind our marcelling and hair dressing, shampooing, and hair-cutting Departments cannot be excelled. In a hurry, please phone for appointment.

Dr. L. Blanchard the renowned Chiropodist, so well-known in Canada, has charge of our Chiropody Parlors. Corns, Bunions, and all Troubles of the Feet positively cured.

The Dorenwend Co. of Toronto, Ltd. 103 and 105 Yonge Street.

LOOKS STYLISH ANYWAY. MRS. JONES' TROUBLES.

Ex-Stable Boy Who is On Trial For Bigamy. OTTAWA, Nov. 30.—(Special).—No-poleon Lang, who was arrested at Sault Ste. Mary on a bigamy charge, was brought up in police court this morning and remanded. He was not asked to plead.

CAUGHT STRAY MESSAGE. VICTORIA, B.C., Nov. 30.—While exchanging with the Vancouver office today, the local station of the Dominion wireless system received a message sent by the United States naval yard at Mare Island, Cal., to one of the American warships off the coast.

A.W. Miles, Undertaker, 396 College Street. Phone North 4131.

Tammany's Meet Monday. Tammany Tiger F. B. C. will hold a wind-up meeting in West End Y. M. C. A., Monday, Dec. 2. All members and officers are requested to be on hand.

Try Watson's Cough Drops. Fifty-Hundred on Board. ST. JOHN, Nov. 30.—(Special).—The Empress of Ireland sailed from St. John this morning at 6.30, with about 1500 passengers on board.

Adam

We speak in making these of a this a B

Bras Iron in Dress

If you sell here

Japanese of Inter

Pacific Coast Application

A Maclean, Can in Japan, reporting trade and commerce

An enquiry for rel slaves, received from Pacific coast

Our Pictures are the very best and newest

CRYSTAL PALACE HIGH-CLASS MOVING PICTURE THEATRE

YONGE STREET, OPP. TEMPERANCE

EXTRA! For Week of DEC. 2nd

THE JALVANS ORIENTAL ENTERTAINERS

Also Entire Change of Pictures Every Day.

CRYSTAL PALACE YONGE STREET, OPP. TEMPERANCE

CHURCH SERVICES TO-DAY IN THE CITY'S SUBURBS

Advent Sunday Will Be Duly Observed—Church Notes of Interest.

TORONTO JUNCTION.

TORONTO JUNCTION, Nov. 30.—Another instance of the growth of the Junction is shown in the building of a new Presbyterian Church in the western part of the town, at the corner of Louisa and Elizabeth-streets. Not long ago a mission was inaugurated in the west end and the meetings were held in a roomy hall at the corner of Louisa and Elizabeth-streets. The mission, under the supervision of St. James-square Church, Toronto. The new building will be opened shortly and will be a great convenience to Presbyterians in the western part of the town, many of whom had to travel a long distance to the church. Dr. Pidgeon has worked steadily towards the establishment of a permanent church in the west end and now sees his hopes realized.

At Victoria Presbyterian Church at Toronto Dr. Pidgeon will preach at both services, morning and evening. The Holy Communion will be dispensed at the morning service in St. John's Church. Rev. T. Beverley Smith will preach.

To-morrow special missionary services will be held at Annet-street, Toronto. The services will be held at 11 o'clock, and will be a great convenience to Presbyterians in the western part of the town, many of whom had to travel a long distance to the church. Dr. Pidgeon has worked steadily towards the establishment of a permanent church in the west end and now sees his hopes realized.

The special monthly communion service will be held at Annet-street, Toronto. The services will be held at 11 o'clock, and will be a great convenience to Presbyterians in the western part of the town, many of whom had to travel a long distance to the church. Dr. Pidgeon has worked steadily towards the establishment of a permanent church in the west end and now sees his hopes realized.

RIVERDALE.

In the Anglican churches in Riverdale to-day these services will be held: In St. Clement's, corner Brookline and Queen-streets, the day will be observed as one of intercession on behalf of missions, at 8 a.m. the corporate communion will meet. The other services will be adult bible class at 10 a.m., and holy communion at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. The evening prayer at 7 p.m. The evening prayer at 7 p.m. The evening prayer at 7 p.m.

In St. Matthew's Church, on Sunday, the Rev. Mr. B. B. B. will be a service of intercession on behalf of missions. The service will be held at 11 o'clock, and will be a great convenience to Presbyterians in the western part of the town, many of whom had to travel a long distance to the church. Dr. Pidgeon has worked steadily towards the establishment of a permanent church in the west end and now sees his hopes realized.

In St. Clement's Mission, Englewood-avenue, confirmation will be administered to the mission this evening by Rev. Bishop Reeve.

A sale of work will be held next Wednesday from 10 o'clock to 1 p.m. in the mission. The Men's Club will meet to-morrow, Monday, when an attractive program will be given.

In Simpson-avenue Methodist Church to-day Rev. Mr. Baker will conduct both the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. meetings. At 10:30 the Junior League will meet, and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and Elizabeth at 10 o'clock.

A bible class has been organized along modern lines, with the pastor as president, and Stanley Rust as secretary.

BAPTIST.

In the First-avenue Baptist Church this morning at 10 o'clock the men's class will meet with Mr. Wallis in charge. The Junior class will meet at the same hour in charge of Mr. Jackson and Wednesday evening the pastor will speak as well as at 7 p.m.

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of this institute will be held to-morrow (Monday) evening at 8 p.m.

Bowling Club. The sale of tickets for the annual banquet to be held on December 12 is already most encouraging. A feature of this event will be the presence of ladies, an innovation that will be heartily welcomed.

NORTH TORONTO.

To-day is Advent Sunday and the following services will be held in St. Clement's Anglican Church: The celebration of holy communion at 8 a.m., children's services at 11 a.m., Bible class and Sunday school at 3 p.m. Sermon at 7 p.m. The pastor, Rev. T. W. Powell, will preach both morning and evening.

The Young People's Society of the Epiphany Presbyterian Church formulated a program for the winter's activity under four heads, namely: "Missionary," under the leadership of T. A. Gibson, "devotional," to be conducted by the pastor, "social and lit-

HOME-MADE MEDICINE

Said to Relieve Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism. One ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion. One ounce Compound Sassaaparilla. Four ounces Compound Syrup.

Mixed and taken in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime, is stated by a prominent physician to give most excellent results in kidney or urinary affections, and also in rheumatism and sciatica. The mixture opens the clogged pores of the kidneys, thus assisting them in their work of filtering all waste and poisonous matter from the blood, and expels these in the urine.

To allow this poisonous matter to remain means that it will lodge in the muscular tissues or joints, and cause the untold misery known as rheumatism. This can be purchased at any good drug store, and mixed at home.

Anyone suffering from any of these afflictions will not doubt be pleased to try this simple and highly recommended remedy.

The society is anticipating a profitable winter's season. The pastor, Rev. W. G. Back, will preach both morning and evening to-day. Rev. J. W. Wilkinson will occupy the Daviville Methodist pulpit at both services to-day. Next Sunday the Sunday school anniversary services will be celebrated, to be followed on the Monday after by the annual Sunday school entertainment.

Evangelist Rev. W. A. Rodwell, who conducted the special evangelistic services in the Epiphany Methodist Church during the past week, will preach both morning and evening in the Epiphany Methodist Church to-day.

DEER PARK. The pastor, Rev. T. W. Paterson of Christ Church, will occupy his own pulpit on Wednesday evening. The subject of the sermon will be "Death." The curate, Rev. E. R. Ladbroke, will preach in the evening.

A special Advent sermon will be preached by the rector on Wednesday evening next. Fr. C. Churchill, organist of Christ Church, is giving fortnightly organ recitals during the winter months on Saturday afternoons at four o'clock. The first he gave was a week ago yesterday and the second will be given next Saturday afternoon.

COUNTY COUNCIL CLOSURES TO-DAY. Members Deal With Outcome of Woodcock Charges. Warden Baker, who was taken ill on Thursday, and compelled to vacate his office, was yesterday removed to his home at Bloomington, suffering from an attack of pneumonia. His condition is not regarded as critical.

The education committee's report was adopted, and an order for the borrowing of $700 to meet an overdraft that amount was passed. W. H. Pugsley and J. D. Evans were chosen as representatives of the county on the Agriculture and Arts Association.

Wardens' Investigation. The Warden's investigation was that of $250, and Constable Trivett's $3 were left, pending the investigation.

May Limit Scope. Another motion regarded by some as an attempt to limit the scope of the Woodcock investigation was that which deputed to the county solicitor and warden the power to say how far back the examination could extend. The motion, however, carried.

Last night the annual supper was held at the Clyde Hotel. Some 80 guests were in attendance, and the usual toast list was given. The Messrs. Lemon, as heretofore, furnished the report which reflected the very highest credit upon all concerned.

INVENTED THE TIME-LOCK. ZANESVILLE, O., Nov. 29.—John R. Obermyer, inventor of the time-lock for safes, is dead at his home, 30 miles west of here. While treasurer of Perry County in 1875 Obermyer conceived the time-lock and equipped the vault in which he kept the county funds with one of the contrivances. His idea was stolen before he could patent it, and it never brought him a cent.

Dr. F. H. Torrington Says So. Asked his opinion of the Heintzman & Co. piano, whose warehouses are at 115-117 West King-street, Toronto, that has been before the Canadian public for fifty years, he said: "I have only the most favorable opinion concerning the Heintzman & Co. piano. In tone, quality, touch and mechanism these instruments are a credit to any country."

JUST IMAGINE. You will be surprised by calling in at the Talking Machine Parlors of the R. S. Williams & Sons Co., 143 Yonge-street, and have a demonstration of their new Flow-Tone Disc Machine, only costing $15.00, complete.

20 VALUABLE PRIZES Will Be Presented to the Twenty MOST POPULAR STENOGRAPHERS in the City of Toronto. Prize Winners to Be Decided by a Popular Vote. Get Your Ballots at the Karn Drug Store. Vote Now.

SEE PRIZES IN THE WINDOW The F. E. Karn Co., Limited, Cor. Queen and Victoria Streets

FOR SALE FOR RENT

Factory, Warehouses and small Manufacturing Buildings. Flats for Storage, Warehouses and Manufacturing Purposes. We are reaching for the title "Headquarters for Business Real Estate."

Established 1893. FRED. H. ROSS & CO., 39 ADELAIDE STREET EAST.

HAVE YOU JOINED THE MOOSE?

New Social Organization is Successfully Launched in Toronto. A meeting was held last week in hall No. 4 the Temple Building for the purpose of launching the Toronto lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose, when the following officers were elected: Worthy dictator, G. H. Walters, vice-dictator, J. Duncan, M.D., presider, S. H. Ferguson, secretary, William Blackie, treasurer, D. McGill, inner guard, E. G. Smith, outer guard, H. Robert, sergeant-at-arms, Jack Macdonald, musician, Arthur Barrington, trustee, H. W. Stewart, assistant trustees, Dr. Bradley and W. E. Bryan, M.D.

This lodge is the second in Canada of the order, which is a charitable, social, fraternal non-benefit society, and it is expected that the growth will be as rapid as that of the first lodge in this country, at Winnipeg, where, although only two months old, the membership is expected to be close to 500 by the New Year.

The order in the United States is in friendly and fraternal communication, originated in Louisville, Ky., in 1888, and has since its organization spread from there in all directions, there being lodges now established from New York City west to the Pacific, while the south has taken very kindly to the Moose teachings.

It is the intention of the local lodge to visit the members of the order in the beginning, however, of the year, and to take furnished quarters and use them until the location desired is procurable. Regular meetings will be held for the time being in the Temple, and already plans are under way for a big New Year smoker and social session.

BARRED OUT. Three Insurance Companies Denied Authority to Work in California. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—The Examiner to-day says that three of the largest insurance companies doing business on the Pacific coast have been barred by Insurance Commissioner E. M. Wolf certificates of authority to do further business in this state.

The companies affected are the Palatine of London, the Commercial Union of London and the Williamsburg of New York. The trouble arose, it is said, because of the right of license to vote on money bylaws, and will obtain an opinion from the city's legal department.

The city clerk draws attention to the fact that only lessees who have a twenty-one day notice to vacate have entered on the voters' lists, and as a result, the first line of which ended in "Toronto" his timecheck was easily the best of those submitted and reads as follows: There was a young man of Toronto Who said, "I'll drink Scotch if I want to, And 'Fisher's' brand is the best in the land, So that is the Scotch I am on to."

HUGH MURRAY BURIED. Prominent Masons From Many Places Attend Obsequies. HAMILTON, Nov. 30.—The funeral of the late Hugh Murray, secretary of the Grand Lodge of Canada, A. F. & A. M., took place this afternoon, and was one of the largest Masonic funerals ever held in Hamilton.

There were present representative deputation from many cities in Canada, and the United States, and the turnout of local Masons was very large. The Masonic service at the grave was conducted by the officers of Acacia Lodge of this city, the choir of the Scottish Rite having charge of the musical part of the service. Among the prominent outsiders who were at the funeral were: Senator J. V. Ellis, St. John, N.B.; William Glosion, Beamsville; Senator J. K. Kerr; E. T. Malone, Toronto; Judge J. E. Harding, W. R. White, J. H. Burritt, Benjamin Allen and Deputy Grand Master D. F. MacWatt.

There were representative Masonic deputations from Stony Creek, Grimsby, Dundas, Burlington, Buffalo, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Detroit. The honorary pall-bearers were the officers of the grand lodge who were present. The members of Godfrey De Bullion Freemasonry formed the guard of honor. At the cemetery the cortege was met by the choir of the Scottish Rite and the members of the Grand Lodge read the committal service.

FORTUNE FOR MISSING MAN. Peter Macleod, a Scotchman, who was reported missing in the woods five years ago, is heir to a fortune, and the Toronto police would like to hear from or of him. Firemen Deceased. MONTREAL, Nov. 30.—Two first-class members of the fire department of fifteen years' standing, who were found guilty of having paid money to outside parties for influence in a promotion, have been reduced to the third grade.

PROPERTIES FOR SALE.

The Big Cities' List. $8000.—NEAR QUEEN'S PARK, new detached, solid brick, ten rooms and bath, square plan, hot water heating, electric, gas, and colonial verandah, everything very modern, lot 50 frontage; key at office.

$3000.—NEAR DUFFERIN AND COLLEGE, new detached, solid brick, 11 rooms, bath, open plumbing, grates, mantels, colonial verandah, new up-to-date house, must be sold this week.

THE BIG CITIES REALTY & AGENCY COMPANY, Limited, 6 College-street.

FOR SALE—A MOST COMPLETE AND comfortable 5-roomed house, cross hall, every convenience, nearly new, on Palmerston-avenue; also sold pressed brick, 4 rooms, gas and electric light, laundry in basement, parlor, marble bath; this is a new house on a new plan, in basement, parlor, marble bath; this is a new house on a new plan, in basement, parlor, marble bath.

FOR SALE IN PARKDALE, JUST completed, a solid brick detached residence, square plan, No. 59 Galley-avenue, all modern plumbing, gas and electric light, antique mantel, 7 rooms and bath room, unfinished attic. This is a well-built and cozy home in a beautiful location, near car lines. See this before you buy. Price below cost, terms easy. Box 7, World Office. ed7

MUST BE SOLD TO THE HIGHEST bidder—Four new houses, two solid brick and two brick clad front and rear, cast extensions; in very choice and central location, near car lines, five, six, eight and nine rooms, with every convenience, hot water boiler in kitchen, highest class plumbing, good quickly while weather is fine. Prices below cost, terms easy. Box 7, World Office. ed7

NIABET & Bacon's List. 20 ACRES—GOOD FRUIT LAND, on lake shore, west of Bronte, a very fine farm. 48 ACRES—ON LAKE SHORE, EAST of Oakville. 150 ACRE FARM, LAKE SHORE ROAD, Oakville. A 4 ACRE FRUIT FARM AT OAKVILLE. FOR PROPERTY AT OAKVILLE, Port Credit or vicinity, view Niabet & Bacon.

PROPERTIES TO RENT. Toronto General Trusts Corporation. THE TORONTO GENERAL TRUSTS Corporation. $14—QUEEN STREET EAST, FIVE or six rooms and water, immediate possession. $10—INDIAN ROAD, FIVE ROOMS and water, immediate possession. $30—ELM GROVE AVENUE, TEN ROOMS, bath, gas, electric, five, six, seven, eight, immediate possession.

THE TORONTO GENERAL TRUSTS Corporation, 50 Yonge-street.

HOUSES TO RENT. LOVE BROS. HAVE BRAND NEW houses for rent near car lines, only limited number left, five and six rooms, all conveniences, hot water, tank in kitchen, attached, fire, rent, reasonable. Address 1000 East Gerrard. Telephone Main 2009 or 15 Toronto-street. Main 783. ed7

HORSES AND CARRIAGES. FOR SALE CHEAP—THE FAST ROAD mare, Clara B., has passed thirty clips, is a fine, dark bay, very kind, thoroughly city broken, a beauty, jet black, also hackney horse, Chester, ideal family horse, reliable, kind and clever, good under saddle; also general purpose horse, trial gives a stock of new warrants; cushioned tired road wagon, Stanhope seat cutter, rubber-mounted cushions, delivery vans, etc. almost new; half value for cash; must positively sell by 5th. Apply 1588 West King.

PERSONAL. WOULD YOU MARRY IF SUITED?—Matrimonial paper containing advertisements marriageable people, many from the United States, Canada, Mexico, and elsewhere, and Canada, mailed free. R. Gunn, Toledo, Ohio.

HELP WANTED. CARRIERS WANTED FOR MORNING newspaper routes; good wages paid; will not interfere with other day employment. Apply R. C. Clarke, World Office, 31 Yonge-street.

GOOD OFFICE BOY WANTED. Apply The World, 83 Yonge-street. ed7

YOUNG MEN FOR FREMEN AND brakemen on all leading railroads in U.S. and Canada, and new lines being completed. Fremmen, $10 monthly, become engineers $20; brakemen $30, become conductors $40. National Railway Training School, Inc., 565 Boston Block, Minneapolis, Minn., U.S.A. 7

AGENTS WANTED. A GENTS AND CANVASSERS—A PRO-able winter business; 20th Century heat light in one gas burner; heats and lights any room at cost of light only. 20th Century Mfg. Co., 19 Warren-street, New York.

CARRIAGE WORKS. J. HENNESSY'S CARRIAGE WARE-rooms, 57 Queen-street west, we are getting in daily the latest imported goods, just what you need for winter. We close quarters, full leather top Stanhopes, just what you need for winter. We close quarters, full leather top Stanhopes, just what you need for winter.

ALFRED E. MORGAN, M.D., to be an associate coroner in the department of health. Oxford Dudley White, Arthur, to succeed R. M. Lindsay, resigned, as bailiff of the eighth division court, Wellington Court.

BUYERS' DIRECTORY

Readers of the World who scan this column and patronize advertisers will confer a favor upon this paper if they will say that they saw the advertisement in the Toronto World. In this way they will be doing a good turn to the advertiser as well as to the newspaper and themselves.

AMBULANCES. THE J. A. HUMPHREY & SON Private Ambulance Service, 475 Church-street, Tel. North 840. Branch office at station, 285 Queen-st. Phone M. 1414.

THE H. ELLIS PRIVATE AMBULANCE SERVICE, fitted with Marshall Sanitary Mattress, 33 College-street, Phone M. 524.

THE E. W. MATTHEWS CO., original private ambulance service; expert, encoed attendance. Phone M. 2571.

ANTIQUE FURNITURE. J.M. SIMPSON, ANTIQUARY, 355 Yonge-street, Old Silver, Sheffield, Plate, Works of Art, etc. Phone Main 415.

BAGGAGE AGENTS. JNO. McTAVISH, BAGGAGE TRANSFERRED to and from all the very highest class hotels, 39 Farley-avenue, Toronto. Phone M. 4450.

BUILDING MATERIALS. THE CONTRACTORS SUPPLY COMPANY, 100 King-street, 109 Queen-st. West, Main 4925.

LOCKSMITHS. BEAVER LOCK AND MACHINE WORKS, 117 Bay-street, manufacturers of all kinds of keys; vault and safe lock experts; builders hardware and brass goods; wrought iron work for all buildings; specialties made to order. Phone Main 6300.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. ALL valid Marriage Licenses go to Mrs. Reeves, 626 Queen West; open evenings; no witnesses. MARRIAGE LICENSES AND MATS. VERGNE JOHNSTON, 415 Parliament-street, opposite Gerrard, N. 5383.

OPTICAL GOODS. W. J. KETTLES, 25 Leadenhall, dispensing optician; perfectly fitting, handsome and comfortable eyeglasses. PENINSULAR STOVES AND RANGES. TRY ROBT. HUGHES, 371 YONGE-street, Regularly carries a nice assortment of peninsular range, A1 while you wait. Phone M. 2854.

RESTAURANTS. ORR BROTHERS LIMITED, restaurant and lunch counters, open day and night; best twenty-five-cent breakfast, dinners and supper, Nos. 35 and 37 Dundas-street, through to Richmond-street, Nos. 38 to 40.

SEWING MACHINES. JOHN GARDE & CO., 142 Victoria-street, Toronto, for Jones' high speed manufacturing and family machines. Phone Main 4923.

TOBACCO AND CIGARS. M. M. VARDON, direct importer of Havana cigars, Collegian Cigar Co., 75 Yonge-street. ALVIN BOLLARD, for best value, 123 Yonge-street.

TOBACCONISTS. K. L. Saper, wholesale and retail tobacconist, Order promptly filled, attended to. Phone Main 289, 127 Queen-street west.

TRUNK AND LEATHER GOODS. CO. Fine Goods, Close prices, 151 Yonge-street, Tel. Main 7800. UREKATERS. BATES & DODDS, UNDERTAKERS and Embalmers, 381 Queen-st. w. Phone Park 81.

GEO. E. BEDSON, undertaking parlors, 485 West Queen-street. Main 1536 telephone. Phone Main 632.

Mining Engineers. MINING ENGINEERS—EVANS & Laidlaw Consulting Mining Engineers, Offices: 206 Board of Trade Building, Toronto; Larchford, Larder Lake and Cobalt, Ont. ed7

MEDICAL. DR. SNIDER, CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, 83 Bathurst, Specialist stomach, heart, blood, skin, kidney, urinary organs and all special diseases of men and women. ed7

BUSINESS CARDS. FIVE HUNDRED NEATLY PRINTED cards, billheads or doggers, one dollar. Bernard, 246 Spadina. Telephone Main 687.

MINING SHARES WANTED. WANTED—50 SHARES HARRIS-MAX-well Larder Lake Gold Mine stock. Box 43, World. ed7

HERBALISTS.

ALVER'S CREAM OINTMENT cures Skin Diseases, Varicose Vein, Piles, etc. If misapplied money refunded. 165 Bay-street, Toronto.

ALL HUMAN DISEASES CURED by herbs. Mrs. Hickman, 634 Queen-street West.

QUEEN'S HOTEL, FRONT-STREET west, Toronto, Ont. McGaw & Winnet, proprietors. THE STRAND HOTEL is now at 80 Victoria-street; all new premises are built. Teddy Evans, JEWELLER.

EXPANSION GOLD-FILLED BRACE-LETS, 20 years guarantee, special, 700-725, entering free of charge. The Empire Jewelry Company, 223 Yonge-street, branch at 48 West Queen-street, opposite city hall.

THE GEORGE BRIMSTON CO., exclusive Locksmiths, 98 Victoria-street, Phone Main 4925. LIQUOR DEALERS. E. T. SANDELL (successor to J. S. Giles), Wines and Spirits, 523 and 525 Queen-st., Toronto. Phone North 139. Special attention to mail orders. Send for price list.

LIVE BIRDS. HOPE'S BIRD STORE, 109 Queen-st. West, Main 4925. LOCKSMITHS. BEAVER LOCK AND MACHINE WORKS, 117 Bay-street, manufacturers of all kinds of keys; vault and safe lock experts; builders hardware and brass goods; wrought iron work for all buildings; specialties made to order. Phone Main 6300.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. ALL valid Marriage Licenses go to Mrs. Reeves, 626 Queen West; open evenings; no witnesses. MARRIAGE LICENSES AND MATS. VERGNE JOHNSTON, 415 Parliament-street, opposite Gerrard, N. 5383.

OPTICAL GOODS. W. J. KETTLES, 25 Leadenhall, dispensing optician; perfectly fitting, handsome and comfortable eyeglasses. PENINSULAR STOVES AND RANGES. TRY ROBT. HUGHES, 371 YONGE-street, Regularly carries a nice assortment of peninsular range, A1 while you wait. Phone M. 2854.

RESTAURANTS. ORR BROTHERS LIMITED, restaurant and lunch counters, open day and night; best twenty-five-cent breakfast, dinners and supper, Nos. 35 and 37 Dundas-street, through to Richmond-street, Nos. 38 to 40.

SEWING MACHINES. JOHN GARDE & CO., 142 Victoria-street, Toronto, for Jones' high speed manufacturing and family machines. Phone Main 4923.

TOBACCO AND CIGARS. M. M. VARDON, direct importer of Havana cigars, Collegian Cigar Co., 75 Yonge-street. ALVIN BOLLARD, for best value, 123 Yonge-street.

TOBACCONISTS. K. L. Saper, wholesale and retail tobacconist, Order promptly filled, attended to. Phone Main 289, 127 Queen-street west.

TRUNK AND LEATHER GOODS. CO. Fine Goods, Close prices, 151 Yonge-street, Tel. Main 7800. UREKATERS. BATES & DODDS, UNDERTAKERS and Embalmers, 381 Queen-st. w. Phone Park 81.

GEO. E. BEDSON, undertaking parlors, 485 West Queen-street. Main 1536 telephone. Phone Main 632.

Mining Engineers. MINING ENGINEERS—EVANS & Laidlaw Consulting Mining Engineers, Offices: 206 Board of Trade Building, Toronto; Larchford, Larder Lake and Cobalt, Ont. ed7

MEDICAL. DR. SNIDER, CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, 83 Bathurst, Specialist stomach, heart, blood, skin, kidney, urinary organs and all special diseases of men and women. ed7

BUSINESS CARDS. FIVE HUNDRED NEATLY PRINTED cards, billheads or doggers, one dollar. Bernard, 246 Spadina. Telephone Main 687.

MINING SHARES WANTED. WANTED—50 SHARES HARRIS-MAX-well Larder Lake Gold Mine stock. Box 43, World. ed7

PERSONALS. CHARMING LADY, VERY WEALTHY, aged man of respectable appearance; no objection to mechanic; living in the country. Address through Miss Loeman, 529 Dept., 55 Fifth-avenue, Chicago.

CUT THIS OUT FOR LUCK—SEND ME your birth-date and I will send you a wonderful horoscope of your entire life. Prof. Raphael, 98 Sixth-avenue, New York. 7

Te Mo

Readers of the World who scan this column and patronize advertisers will confer a favor upon this paper if they will say that they saw the advertisement in the Toronto World. In this way they will be doing a good turn to the advertiser as well as to the newspaper and themselves.

AMBULANCES. THE J. A. HUMPHREY & SON Private Ambulance Service, 475 Church-street, Tel. North 840. Branch office at station, 285 Queen-st. Phone M. 1414.

THE H. ELLIS PRIVATE AMBULANCE SERVICE, fitted with Marshall Sanitary Mattress, 33 College-street, Phone M. 524.

THE E. W. MATTHEWS CO., original private ambulance service; expert, encoed attendance. Phone M. 2571.

ANTIQUE FURNITURE. J.M. SIMPSON, ANTIQUARY, 355 Yonge-street, Old Silver, Sheffield, Plate, Works of Art, etc. Phone Main 415.

BAGGAGE AGENTS. JNO. McTAVISH, BAGGAGE TRANSFERRED to and from all the very highest class hotels, 39 Farley-avenue, Toronto. Phone M. 4450.

BUILDING MATERIALS. THE CONTRACTORS SUPPLY COMPANY, 100 King-street, 109 Queen-st. West, Main 4925.

LOCKSMITHS. BEAVER LOCK AND MACHINE WORKS, 117 Bay-street, manufacturers of all kinds of keys; vault and safe lock experts; builders hardware and brass goods; wrought iron work for all buildings; specialties made to order. Phone Main 6300.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. ALL valid Marriage Licenses go to Mrs. Reeves, 626 Queen West; open evenings; no witnesses. MARRIAGE LICENSES AND MATS. VERGNE JOHNSTON, 415 Parliament-street, opposite Gerrard, N. 5383.

OPTICAL GOODS. W. J. KETTLES, 25 Leadenhall, dispensing optician; perfectly fitting, handsome and comfortable eyeglasses. PENINSULAR STOVES AND RANGES. TRY ROBT. HUGHES, 371 YONGE-street, Regularly carries a nice assortment of peninsular range, A1 while you wait. Phone M. 2854.

RESTAURANTS. ORR BROTHERS LIMITED, restaurant and lunch counters, open day and night; best twenty-five-cent breakfast, dinners and supper, Nos. 35 and 37 Dundas-street, through to Richmond-street, Nos. 38 to 40.

SEWING MACHINES. JOHN GARDE & CO., 142 Victoria-street, Toronto, for Jones' high speed manufacturing and family machines. Phone Main 4923.

TOBACCO AND CIGARS. M. M. VARDON, direct importer of Havana cigars, Collegian Cigar Co., 75 Yonge-street. ALVIN BOLLARD, for best value, 123 Yonge-street.

TOBACCONISTS. K. L. Saper, wholesale and retail tobacconist, Order promptly filled, attended to. Phone Main 289, 127 Queen-street west.

TRUNK AND LEATHER GOODS. CO. Fine Goods, Close prices, 151 Yonge-street, Tel. Main 7800. UREKATERS. BATES & DODDS, UNDERTAKERS and Embalmers, 381 Queen-st. w. Phone Park 81.

GEO. E. BEDSON, undertaking parlors, 485 West Queen-street. Main 1536 telephone. Phone Main 632.

Mining Engineers. MINING ENGINEERS—EVANS & Laidlaw Consulting Mining Engineers, Offices: 206 Board of Trade Building, Toronto; Larchford, Larder Lake and Cobalt, Ont. ed7

MEDICAL. DR. SNIDER, CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, 83 Bathurst, Specialist stomach, heart, blood, skin, kidney, urinary organs and all special diseases of men and women. ed7

BUSINESS CARDS. FIVE HUNDRED NEATLY PRINTED cards, billheads or doggers, one dollar. Bernard, 246 Spadina. Telephone Main 687.

MINING SHARES WANTED. WANTED—50 SHARES HARRIS-MAX-well Larder Lake Gold Mine stock. Box 43, World. ed7

SITUATION IS CLEARING

Depositors Are Losing the Nervous Hysteria—Domestic Conditions Are Also Brightened.

World Office, Saturday Evening, Nov. 30. In the light of the movements of the stocks at New York this morning...

With failures of frequent occurrence and financial institutions overburdened...

There has been a gradual improvement in matters financial and therefore led its weight to a rally in stock quotations...

The financial position has been confined pretty much to the United States. The effects of this were naturally felt in other countries...

Many theories have been advanced for the panic, but they all resolve themselves down to the fact that it was nothing more than the ordinary...

An almost universal bad crop year, with record prices for all commodities, necessitates calls for some readjusting of commercial intricacies...

It was suggested in these columns a week ago that it was altogether likely that low prices for domestic stocks had been witnessed for some little time to come...

The intimation from one of the leading Canadian bankers that the financial atmosphere shows signs of clearing...

Bank of England discount rate, 7 per cent. Money market, 10 per cent. New York call money, highest, 10 per cent.

Foreign Exchange

Classbook & Co., 100 St. James Building (Tel. Main 337), to-day report exchange rates as follows:

Toronto Stocks. Nov. 30. Bell Telephone, 101.00. Can. Gen. Elec., 101.00.

London. Nov. 30. Consols, 101.00. Bank of England, 101.00.

Chicago. Nov. 30. Wheat, 1.10. Corn, 1.00. Soybeans, 1.20.

London Markets. Nov. 30. Consols, 101.00. Bank of England, 101.00.

Chicago. Nov. 30. Wheat, 1.10. Corn, 1.00. Soybeans, 1.20.

London. Nov. 30. Consols, 101.00. Bank of England, 101.00.

Chicago. Nov. 30. Wheat, 1.10. Corn, 1.00. Soybeans, 1.20.

London. Nov. 30. Consols, 101.00. Bank of England, 101.00.

Chicago. Nov. 30. Wheat, 1.10. Corn, 1.00. Soybeans, 1.20.

London. Nov. 30. Consols, 101.00. Bank of England, 101.00.

Hotel, reported the following fluctuations on the New York market to-day:

Amal. Copper, 50 1/2. Amer. Locomotive, 38 1/2. Amer. Car & Foundry, 38 1/2.

Amal. Copper, 50 1/2. Amer. Locomotive, 38 1/2. Amer. Car & Foundry, 38 1/2.

Amal. Copper, 50 1/2. Amer. Locomotive, 38 1/2. Amer. Car & Foundry, 38 1/2.

Amal. Copper, 50 1/2. Amer. Locomotive, 38 1/2. Amer. Car & Foundry, 38 1/2.

Amal. Copper, 50 1/2. Amer. Locomotive, 38 1/2. Amer. Car & Foundry, 38 1/2.

Amal. Copper, 50 1/2. Amer. Locomotive, 38 1/2. Amer. Car & Foundry, 38 1/2.

Amal. Copper, 50 1/2. Amer. Locomotive, 38 1/2. Amer. Car & Foundry, 38 1/2.

Amal. Copper, 50 1/2. Amer. Locomotive, 38 1/2. Amer. Car & Foundry, 38 1/2.

Amal. Copper, 50 1/2. Amer. Locomotive, 38 1/2. Amer. Car & Foundry, 38 1/2.

Amal. Copper, 50 1/2. Amer. Locomotive, 38 1/2. Amer. Car & Foundry, 38 1/2.

Amal. Copper, 50 1/2. Amer. Locomotive, 38 1/2. Amer. Car & Foundry, 38 1/2.

Why the Write-ups?

Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway. It is not accepted that the space is being gratuitously...

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

Stocks and Bonds

Bought or sold for cash or on margin on the New York, Toronto and Montreal exchanges. Direct private wire to King St. W., Toronto.

ENNIS & STOPPANI BANKERS AND BROKERS 38 Broad and 34 New Street, - NEW YORK

Chicago Markets PRIVATE WIRE SERVICE. SPADER & PERKINS KING EDWARD HOTEL BUILDING, TORONTO

Wanted—DIAMOND Star, Trusts and Guarantees. National Portland Cement, Canadian Marconi, Canadian Gold Fields, White Bear.

HOW TO INVEST ONE DOLLAR FOX & ROSS 43 SCOTT STREET, TORONTO

We make a Specialty of this class of Securities. WILLS & CO. 18 Adelaide St. E.

OPPORTUNITY Men of good standing to introduce in their locality a splendid investment. Liberal commission or salary paid, with assistance of experienced salesman.

We Advise the Purchase of "FOSTER" "TRETREWEY" "SILVER LEAF" and "SILVER QUEEN" and "NIPISSING"

J. T. EASTWOOD & CO. 74 King Street West, Toronto

C. RYAN & CO. 43 SCOTT ST., TORONTO

160 ACRES Under cultivation—with buildings—near junction town: worth $3 per acre—will sell for $5 per acre, $1500 cash—balance to suit purchaser. Nothing better. Immediate possession.

The Geo. W. Bewell Co., Limited. Real Estate Brokers and Financial Agents, Aberdeen, Sask.

Financial Topics

CHANGE WITH NEW YEAR. Said a well-known bank manager this week to the World: "After the new year I think money should work easier, and the market should be more active."

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

Financial Topics

CHANGE WITH NEW YEAR. Said a well-known bank manager this week to the World: "After the new year I think money should work easier, and the market should be more active."

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

Financial Topics

CHANGE WITH NEW YEAR. Said a well-known bank manager this week to the World: "After the new year I think money should work easier, and the market should be more active."

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

What caused the panic. The following excerpts are from the Montreal papers and embody the views of individuals of the cause of the recent panic.

Why the write-ups? Column articles are being written in deference to the Montreal papers on the Toronto Street Railway.

COMES TO AMERICA AS A NEW INDUSTRY

ESPERANTO MISSIONARY

Young Man Hopes It Will Be Possible to Hold World's Convention in States.

A NEW INDUSTRY IN CAPE BRETON

First Shipment of Smelts From North Sydney to the United States.

SYDNEY MINES, Nov. 29.—What is believed to be the first shipment of smelts to the United States from North Sydney was sent to-day by Messrs. Carey & McGibbon, and in the initial step towards opening up an industry that has long remained dormant, and which can result in nothing but success to the promoters.

KAISER WILLIAM'S WELCOME FROM THE MAYORS OF MARYLEBONE, HOLBORN AND WESTMINSTER DURING HIS VISIT TO ENGLAND.

POLITICAL AND SOCIAL CONDITIONS OF RUSSIA

The Third Duma is Said to Be a Thing Apart From Life of the Empire.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 28.—In one important respect the history of Russia's Duma repeats the experience of other institutions adopted by her czars from the western world. When they have surrendered to a democratic idea it has been their habit to swallow it in its largest form and then to cast out most of its parts that disturb the perpetuation of the order. The names they retain. It is the existence side by side of the forms of progressive government with the actuality of absolutism in administration that has given the cynical and pessimistic color to the minds of so many educated Russians.

'PHONED THRU YOUR OWN CHEST YET?

Discovery Makes It Unnecessary to Put Your Lips to Transmitter any More

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 29.—It is not necessary to place one's lips to the transmitter of a telephone to be heard at the other end of the wire. The same results may be obtained by placing the transmitter firmly against the chest or in fact nearly every part of the body and speaking in a clear, natural tone.

GIANT TOOTHPICK FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA FORESTS

Pacific Province Produces Timber Which Makes Big California Trees Take Back Seats.

Vancouver, Nov. 29.—California has always had the reputation of being the home of big trees, but apparently the giants of the south have been forced into the back seats by the big toothpick from this province.

VALUE OF PRODUCTS OF UNITED STATES FOR ONE YEAR

Reached Total of $15,000,000,000 According to an Official Estimate Given Out.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Fifteen billion dollars represents the value of the annual production of manufacturers in the United States, Colonel John M. Carson, chief of the bureau of manufacturers, makes this statement in the annual report of the operations of his bureau. The figures do not represent finished products entirely, but include products in various stages of progress.

CONSCRIPTION MAY BE ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLIC

Recruiting and Deserting Make Problem Hard of Getting Soldiers and Pay is Small.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The difficulty of securing recruits for the army, the prevalence of desertion with the reasons therefor, and an unwelcome suggestion that the dreaded European system of conscription, or compulsory military service may become necessary to maintain the American army at its maximum strength, are the features of the annual report of Adjutant General Ainsworth to the secretary of war.

STANFORD WHITE SALE

Part of Artistic Property of Late Architect and the Purchasers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The supplementary sale of the artistic property belonging to the estate of Stanford White attracted art lovers to the American Art Galleries. The sale was conducted by Thomas E. Kirby. The bidding was spirited, and the $728 realized for the two hundred and more curious and beautiful things offered was considered fair.

NEW YORK TO PARIS

The Matin Plans an Auto Race by Way of Alaska.

PARIS, Nov. 28.—Following the recent auto race from Pekin to Paris, The Matin has decided to organize a race from New York to Paris via Chicago, Alaska, across the Bering Straits, Siberia and Russia.

YANKEES INVADE BERLIN

Herr Conried and Others Said to Be Arranging to Build Opera House

BERLIN, Nov. 29.—The Boursen Courier to-day publishes a statement from what it declares to be a trustworthy source that an American company has acquired a block at the western end of Unter den Linden upon which it is proposed to erect a new opera house to cost $8,000,000, ground for which has been broken in the city.

AGAIN POSTPONED

Harry Kendall Thaw's Trial, Will Not Take Place on Dec. 2.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The second trial of Harry Kendall Thaw, for the death of Stanford White, set for December 2, will again be postponed, and there is little chance that it will be called until well along in January.

PULP MILLS TO BE BUILT ON HOWE SOUND

Vancouver Men Will Establish Industry on Pacific Coast.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 29.—As the first step toward the establishment of a large pulp industry on Howe Sound, Captain H. A. Mellon of this city has posted with the Water Commissioner of New Westminster an application for 1000 inches of water, either on Rainy River or Cates Creek, Howe Sound.

RECRUITING AND DESERTING

Make Problem Hard of Getting Soldiers and Pay is Small.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The difficulty of securing recruits for the army, the prevalence of desertion with the reasons therefor, and an unwelcome suggestion that the dreaded European system of conscription, or compulsory military service may become necessary to maintain the American army at its maximum strength, are the features of the annual report of Adjutant General Ainsworth to the secretary of war.

CONSCRIPTION MAY BE ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLIC

Recruiting and Deserting Make Problem Hard of Getting Soldiers and Pay is Small.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The difficulty of securing recruits for the army, the prevalence of desertion with the reasons therefor, and an unwelcome suggestion that the dreaded European system of conscription, or compulsory military service may become necessary to maintain the American army at its maximum strength, are the features of the annual report of Adjutant General Ainsworth to the secretary of war.

PULP MILLS TO BE BUILT ON HOWE SOUND

Vancouver Men Will Establish Industry on Pacific Coast.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 29.—As the first step toward the establishment of a large pulp industry on Howe Sound, Captain H. A. Mellon of this city has posted with the Water Commissioner of New Westminster an application for 1000 inches of water, either on Rainy River or Cates Creek, Howe Sound.

RECRUITING AND DESERTING

Make Problem Hard of Getting Soldiers and Pay is Small.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The difficulty of securing recruits for the army, the prevalence of desertion with the reasons therefor, and an unwelcome suggestion that the dreaded European system of conscription, or compulsory military service may become necessary to maintain the American army at its maximum strength, are the features of the annual report of Adjutant General Ainsworth to the secretary of war.

NEW YORK TO PARIS

The Matin Plans an Auto Race by Way of Alaska.

PARIS, Nov. 28.—Following the recent auto race from Pekin to Paris, The Matin has decided to organize a race from New York to Paris via Chicago, Alaska, across the Bering Straits, Siberia and Russia.

YANKEES INVADE BERLIN

Herr Conried and Others Said to Be Arranging to Build Opera House

BERLIN, Nov. 29.—The Boursen Courier to-day publishes a statement from what it declares to be a trustworthy source that an American company has acquired a block at the western end of Unter den Linden upon which it is proposed to erect a new opera house to cost $8,000,000, ground for which has been broken in the city.

AGAIN POSTPONED

Harry Kendall Thaw's Trial, Will Not Take Place on Dec. 2.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The second trial of Harry Kendall Thaw, for the death of Stanford White, set for December 2, will again be postponed, and there is little chance that it will be called until well along in January.

PULP MILLS TO BE BUILT ON HOWE SOUND

Vancouver Men Will Establish Industry on Pacific Coast.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 29.—As the first step toward the establishment of a large pulp industry on Howe Sound, Captain H. A. Mellon of this city has posted with the Water Commissioner of New Westminster an application for 1000 inches of water, either on Rainy River or Cates Creek, Howe Sound.

COMES TO AMERICA AS A NEW INDUSTRY

ESPERANTO MISSIONARY

Young Man Hopes It Will Be Possible to Hold World's Convention in States.

A NEW INDUSTRY IN CAPE BRETON

First Shipment of Smelts From North Sydney to the United States.

SYDNEY MINES, Nov. 29.—What is believed to be the first shipment of smelts to the United States from North Sydney was sent to-day by Messrs. Carey & McGibbon, and in the initial step towards opening up an industry that has long remained dormant, and which can result in nothing but success to the promoters.

GIANT TOOTHPICK FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA FORESTS

Pacific Province Produces Timber Which Makes Big California Trees Take Back Seats.

Vancouver, Nov. 29.—California has always had the reputation of being the home of big trees, but apparently the giants of the south have been forced into the back seats by the big toothpick from this province.

VALUE OF PRODUCTS OF UNITED STATES FOR ONE YEAR

Reached Total of $15,000,000,000 According to an Official Estimate Given Out.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Fifteen billion dollars represents the value of the annual production of manufacturers in the United States, Colonel John M. Carson, chief of the bureau of manufacturers, makes this statement in the annual report of the operations of his bureau.

CONSCRIPTION MAY BE ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLIC

Recruiting and Deserting Make Problem Hard of Getting Soldiers and Pay is Small.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The difficulty of securing recruits for the army, the prevalence of desertion with the reasons therefor, and an unwelcome suggestion that the dreaded European system of conscription, or compulsory military service may become necessary to maintain the American army at its maximum strength, are the features of the annual report of Adjutant General Ainsworth to the secretary of war.

PULP MILLS TO BE BUILT ON HOWE SOUND

Vancouver Men Will Establish Industry on Pacific Coast.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 29.—As the first step toward the establishment of a large pulp industry on Howe Sound, Captain H. A. Mellon of this city has posted with the Water Commissioner of New Westminster an application for 1000 inches of water, either on Rainy River or Cates Creek, Howe Sound.

RECRUITING AND DESERTING

Make Problem Hard of Getting Soldiers and Pay is Small.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The difficulty of securing recruits for the army, the prevalence of desertion with the reasons therefor, and an unwelcome suggestion that the dreaded European system of conscription, or compulsory military service may become necessary to maintain the American army at its maximum strength, are the features of the annual report of Adjutant General Ainsworth to the secretary of war.

907

OR ONE IT?

UND DEAD.

es Kept Busy.

phone

ners!!!

oted on the hard heel of rips the ble and eing...

cksmiths

s, "Ideal" and anvas or heavy backing.

orders to 5141

UNLOP

REAL PAD

WOODNOTION

NEWS OF INTERESTING SOCIAL EVENTS DURING THE PAST WEEK

All communications for publication in the social columns of The Sunday World must be sent in writing and signed by the sender.

BEAUTIFUL GOWNS WORN AT PRINCESS

Play in Which Ethel Barrymore Appeared Marked by Its Rich Costumes.

The gowns in the production of "Her Sister" last week at the Princess were marked for their beauty and simplicity. Particularly fetching was the gown worn by Miss Barrymore...

MRS. COSGRAVE'S TEA.

Mrs. Lawrence Cosgrave celebrated her silver wedding on Thursday last and entertained at a large tea.

WOMAN'S MUSICAL CLUB.

The Women's Musical Club gave a very interesting program on Thursday morning from the works of Rubenstein and Von Flitz.

A PRETTY LUNCHEON.

A very pretty luncheon was given on Thursday, at Liawden by Mrs. Melvin Jones.

ART OF GIVING

There is no gift, great or small, but what will be enhanced by a setting of flowers. We excel in the art of arrangement; there is perfection in every detail.

96 Yonge-street. Night and Sunday Phone, Park 792.

A BENEFIT CARNIVAL FOR BOYS' INSTITUTE

Society Leaders of City Lend Their Patronage for Splendid Production.

The management of the Broadview Boys' Institute, thru Supt. E. J. Atkinson, have arranged for the presentation of the beautiful Japanese musical carnival "A Japanese Honey-moon" at Massey Hall next Thursday evening...

MRS. COSGRAVE'S TEA.

Mrs. Lawrence Cosgrave celebrated her silver wedding on Thursday last and entertained at a large tea.

WOMAN'S MUSICAL CLUB.

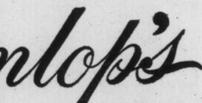

The Women's Musical Club gave a very interesting program on Thursday morning from the works of Rubenstein and Von Flitz.

A PRETTY LUNCHEON.

A very pretty luncheon was given on Thursday, at Liawden by Mrs. Melvin Jones.

ART OF GIVING

There is no gift, great or small, but what will be enhanced by a setting of flowers. We excel in the art of arrangement; there is perfection in every detail.

96 Yonge-street. Night and Sunday Phone, Park 792.

Extra-ordinary Piano Bargains

We have made a careful study of used pianos—and by thoroughly overhauling in our repair department the used pianos that come to us in exchange when buying BELL Pianos we can offer the best values obtainable.

- A Nice-toned Ebony Upright, $ 88
Full-sized Mahogany Upright, latest design, $175
An up-to-date 3-pedal Walnut Upright, $185
Six Squares, large size, various makers, your choice, each $ 60
Two dozen Organs. Prices start as low as $ 10

Terms—$4, $5, $6, $7, $8, $10 per month, according to the instrument. Call or write for complete list.

BELL PIANO Warerooms 146 YONGE STREET.

WOMEN'S TWILIGHT MUSICALS.

The art rooms at La Plaza were crowded on Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Ambrose Small arranged splendid program.

MRS. SMALL'S TEA.

Mrs. Sydney Small was the hostess of a tea on Monday last in honor of her guest, Mrs. Rae of Washington.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Madame Grey Burnand of England is visiting her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Burnand of Elgin-avenue.

MRS. CLAUDE FOX WILL NOT RECEIVE UNTIL AFTER THE NEW YEAR.

Mrs. Claude Fox will not receive until after the New Year.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS OF ST. THOMAS

ST. THOMAS, Nov. 29.—The social event of the week was the enjoyable bridge given by Mrs. C. W. Colter on Wednesday evening.

On Wednesday Mrs. Charles Duncombe gave a smart bridge, and was assisted in receiving by her guest, Mrs. (Dr.) Perry.

MRS. GAY'S POST-NUPTIAL.

Mrs. Robert Gay received for the first time since her marriage, on Monday and Tuesday last at her mother's residence, 67 South Drive.

MRS. KEEFER'S TEA.

Mrs. Napier Keefe entertained at the tea hour on Tuesday last.

WAVES AND PIN CURLS

There are few modes in hair as becoming to most feminine faces as a soft lustrous Wave.

The Pember Store 127-129 Yonge Street

PADEREWSKI'S APPEARANCE ATTRACTED SOCIAL SET

Unpleasant Weather Did Not Prevent Turnout of Large Crowd.

In spite of the unpleasant weather Massey Hall was crowded on Wednesday evening to hear the famous pianist, Paderewski.

MRS. GAY'S POST-NUPTIAL.

Mrs. Robert Gay received for the first time since her marriage, on Monday and Tuesday last at her mother's residence, 67 South Drive.

MRS. KEEFER'S TEA.

Mrs. Napier Keefe entertained at the tea hour on Tuesday last.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Miss Gertrude Hudspeeth of Port Hope was the guest of honor at a tea last Monday, given by Miss Louise Chadwick.

MRS. LENK OF TOLEDO IS THE GUEST OF HER MOTHER, MRS. CARVETH.

Mrs. Lenk of Toledo is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Carveth.

MRS. MEYERS OF DEER PARK ENTERTAINS AT TEA ON WEDNESDAY NEXT.

Mrs. J. J. Palmer, Huntley Lodge, Deer Park, will receive on Thursday next, and then not till after the New Year.

MESSAGE.

Massage, electricity, Swedish movements and facial massage. Patients treated at their residence if desired.

20% Reduction on Empire Puffs Next Week Only

Jules & Charles

Manufactured of the very best Parisian curly hair.

"Baby's Own" Soap

—is made right with the right ingredients for a perfect soap. It gives a rich creamy lather beautifully foamy & fragrant.

MRS. GAY'S POST-NUPTIAL.

Mrs. Robert Gay received for the first time since her marriage, on Monday and Tuesday last at her mother's residence, 67 South Drive.

MRS. KEEFER'S TEA.

Mrs. Napier Keefe entertained at the tea hour on Tuesday last.

Consult personally Prof. Jules & Charles

For all ailments of the hair. Toronto's Most Reliable Hair & Scalp Specialists.

THE "MAISON" JULES & CHARLES

431 Yonge St. Toronto

SPECIAL ATTENTION

INFANT FEEDING

DR. B. E. HAWKE

Phone N. 5497 21 Wellesley St.

WM. STITT & CO.

11 AND 13 KING STREET EAST

ARE MAKING A SPECIAL DISPLAY OF

The Latest Creations in French Pattern Hats.

Artistic Dinner and Evening Gowns.

Latest Novelties in Silks, Laces and Robes for Trousseaus.

OUR LADIES' TAILORING DEPARTMENT IS IN CHARGE OF AN EXPERIENCED TAILOR

PARIS KID CLOVE STORE

Gloves in All the Newest Shades. Evening Gloves in All Lengths.

CORSETS—LA GREGQUE AND LA SPIRITE.

Ben Kenney... and at the best horsemen... sulky, has been... River Stock... It was Ben... in speed... Nancy Hank... ago, and some... ed and driven... on the big tra...

Hudson Bay... William Ho... to the game... week in New Y...

Directwood.

chestnut pavin... 210 1-4, for... Young Fuller... fact, in many... Edward Evanc... hontas Abdall... guest paces th... half-mile track... or four season... over a hulle rin... day sound as... This looks like... fast classes on...

About... Subscriber: T... necessary to m... horse races on... rates of registr... far in the futu... not eligible fo...

The Madden... Joseph and E... the noted horse... evidently are t... off the old blo... $725 and the m... queen, Nancy... extensive and... During the we... York sale, they... there is an offe... 2.13, dam fo To... 2.06 1-2, etc., b... $725 and the m... Medford, for $1... 21 years old and... when four mont... mare is a barg... Seventeen year... of Boston paid...

The Lindsay... The horsemen... that the annual... in that town Ja... Lindsay is one... and the winter... ways an assure... men of the to... Billy Simpson a... the enthusiasm... fine points of... also know how... horsemen feel... enjoyable outin... will appear in...

Great Spe... The natives... zona, were cert... wonderful exhib... the harness in... place Nov. 11-16... The main fea... bill was two ex... champion hats... 1.56 1-4. Driven... Harry Harsey, in... opening day in... 29 3-4, 33 1-4, 3... one-quarter sec... 28 2-4, 1.27 3-4, 1... Another feat... ances of Walter... own two races o... the final heat o... crown pacer ste... which is the fa... west of the Mis...

Topics of the Turf

Ben Kenney, one of the most popular and at the same time one of the best horsemen that ever sat on a sulky, has been engaged by Hon. Jacob Rupert, proprietor of the Hudson River Stock Farm, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. It was Ben who gave the early lessons in speed to the great mare, Nancy Hanks, 2:04, nearly 20 years ago, and since that time he has trained and driven many of the best horses on the big tracks.

Hodson Buys Pure Gold, 2:10 1/4. William Hodson of Montreal got into the game good and strong last week in New York when he bought the was driven by Charles De Ryder. The trotting gelding, Wild Bell, also in De Ryder's stable, started the natives by trotting the third heat of the 2:19 class in 2:08 1/2. Like Argot Boy, Wild Bell also won two races during the week. The track, which is a mile oval, was pronounced by the eastern horsemen as second to none, and they all were enamored with the climate.

Trotting in England. The following are the results of the races decided at the meeting of the Trotting Horse Owners' Association at Parsloes Park, near Barking, yesterday afternoon. It was a wretched day, rain pouring heavily all thru the proceedings.

Ormonde, the fast son of Wilkes Boy, 2:24 1/2, and the great Paronella, owned by J. K. Newman, at Clabourne Farm, Lexington, Ky., will be prepared for the races next year by James Hogan. He showed a mile in 2:08 as a 4-year-old and was the ante-post favorite in Ann Direct's M. and M., but went lame. He was in the stud this year at Clabourne Farm.

William Bradley of New York City, the owner of Todd, 2:14 3/4, Major Delmar, 1:59 3/4 and George G., 2:06 1/4, is contemplating the establishment of a club stock farm in the near future. He recently purchased the 3-year-old filly Anita McKinney, by McKinney, 2:11 1/4, out of Anita, 2:32 3/4, by Baron Wilkes, 2:13.

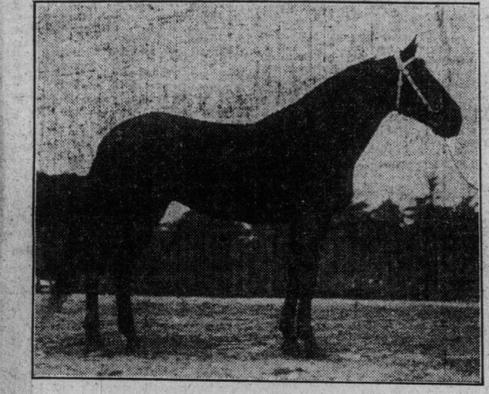

Toddington, the yearling by Moko, out of Fanella, 2:15, the son of Sadie Mac, 2:06 1/4, Todd, 2:14 3/4, etc., was not shod until September 20 last, yet he has trotted an eighth in 18 seconds this fall.

J. D. Springer, who raced Sonoma Girl, 2:05 1/4, early this season, bought a sister of the fast mare on his return to California. She is expected to be speed enough to show a mile around 2:21 with her.

The pacer John McEwen, 2:08 1/4, owned by Nat. Ray, was brought to this city last week by Charles Ray, father of Nat. The elder Ray had charge of the now famous pacer during the greater part of his career. Nat appearing only in time to do the teaming, as he is the only one that is able to get the gelding to race kindly.

Transmitting Acquired Habits. Breeders and trainers and pacers have given more or less thought to the assertion that acquired habits are transmitted as instincts. In other words that if the colt which could not trot fast naturally were taught to trot fast the teaching would thereby give it a so-called acquired instinct which it would have the power to transmit—a power that it could not have but for its education. Darwin was always relied upon as the one great scientist whose investigations and conclusions irrevocably settled the question. But science is nothing if not progressive, and the modern scientists have moved so far ahead of the Darwin "acquired habit" theory that it is left high and dry and utterly abandoned.

Rev. A. B. Wood of Ann Arbor, Mich., writing on this subject in the Detroit Free Press, presents the case in an interesting way. "Strict Darwinism means," he says, "that the evolution of vegetable and animal forms has been by means of the accumulation of small differences until which is called a new species has resulted. That individuals acquired by heredity to their descendants which increased them, so the sum of the small differences kept growing till the new species appeared. That these differences, as they appeared, were preserved by natural selection, i.e., the individual gave it an advantage in the struggle for existence, which insured its continuance, while those differences appearing which were not beneficial, but injurious, to that being eliminated. All this is superseded now by the theory that none of these acquired differences is inherited and thus passed on to descendants, but that a chestnut pacing stallion, Pure Gold, 2:10 1/4, for $1425. The horse is by Young Fullerton, 2:20 3/4, a son of Edward Everett, dam Pocan by Pochontas Abdallah, and is one of the best pacers that has raced on the half-mile tracks during the past three or four seasons. He has been in 2:05 over a mile ring and is said to be today sound as the day he was foaled. This looks like a new candidate for the fast classes on the ice this winter.

Directwood, blk. h., by Directly, 2:03 1/4; in stable of James Noble Dufferin track.

About Registration. Subscribers: The cash is all that is necessary to make entries in harness races on any track. No certificates of registration are required. In fact, many of the horses racing are not eligible for registration.

The Maddens Buy Good Mares. Joseph and Edward Madden, sons of the noted horseman, John E. Madden, evidently are the right kind of chips off the old block. Their ventures so far in the harness horse line have been extensive and particularly successful. During the week, at the big New York sale, they bought several brood mares, the most noted being Fanella, 2:13, dam of Todd, 2:14 3/4, Sadie Mac, 2:06 1/4, etc., by Arion, 2:07 3/4, for $3725, and the ex-champion trotting queen, Nancy Hanks, 2:04, by Happy Medium, for $1750. The latter is now 31 years old and is in foal. As there is an offer of $2000 for the foal when four months old, it looks like the mare is a bargain at the price paid. Seventeen years ago J. Malcolm Forbes of Boston paid $40,000 for her.

The Lindsay Meeting Jan. 14-15. The horsemen of Lindsay announce that the annual ice races will be held in that town Jan. 14-15. The Town of Lindsay is one of the best in Canada, and the winter meeting there is always an assured success. The horsemen of the town, headed by genial Billy Simpson and his brother George, are enthusiastic, and know all the fine points of the racing game. They also know how to make the visiting horsemen feel at home and have an enjoyable outing. Fuller particulars will appear in The World later on.

Great Speed in the West. The natives out in Phoenix, Arizona, were certainly treated to some wonderful exhibitions of speed during the harness horse meeting at that place Nov. 11-16.

The main feature of the big racing bill was two exhibitions by the world's champion harness horse, Dan Patch, 1:55 1/4. Driven by his regular driver, Harry Hersey, he paced a mile the opening day in 1:57 3/4; fractional time, 29-8 1/4, 38-1 1/4, 1:28, 1:57 3/4, and four quarters later he reduced this time by one-quarter second, as follows: 29-1 1/2, 38-2 1/4, 1:27 3/4, 1:57 1/2.

Another feature was the performance of Walter Cox's Argot Boy, who won two races during the meeting. In the final heat of his last race this well-known pacer stepped the mile in 2:03 1/4, which is the fastest mile ever paced west of the Mississippi in a race. He Tradesmen's Handicap. For cup. One mile and a half: Mr. Goodspeed's Kitty (Upton Park) (recs. 270 yds.), Saunderson, 1; T. Crazee's The Duke (Hack-second) (recs. 290 yds.), owner, 2; G. White's Little Hilda (Holloway) (recs. 300 yds.), Swales, 0; Mr. Lewsey's Little Polly (Stepney) (recs. 300 yds.), Breonon, 0. Won by seven lengths; others distanced. Time, 4 min. 53 sec.

Harness Horse Notes. Messrs. Richard & LeMay, former proprietors of DeLorimer Park, Montreal, state that they are building a new trotting track in that city, and propose to give two meetings over the ice, one in January and one in February.

Nellie Bay, b.m.; breeding unknown; matinee pacer; driven by Chas. Allen.

The trainer of Nahma, 2:11 1/4, has announced that he drove his mare a trial mile in 2:02 3/4 this fall. Horsemen will wonder what his announcement has been in making his object known. Everyone knows who has kept track of her racing career, that this game mare, and if she really accomplished the feat that is claimed for her she should prove a record breaker.

Hambroton 10 was not, despite the assertions of Wallace and others, the product of a long line of trotters or even trotting-bred horses. In him nature appears to have suddenly created a new species, with power to transmit the trotting instinct to a degree never before heard of or dreamed of. Blue Bull 75 is another instance, for the wildest imagination could not conjure up any trotting-ancestry worthy the name for that Indiana celebrity. The trotting breed, if one will take the trouble to look into the facts, came about because animal life suddenly gave rise to a new species. The improvement in the trotting species, therefore, was not due to natural selection, but to the Darwinian idea of transmitting acquired habits as instincts, has had to do with creating or perpetuating the trotting species. Nature created it and made it imperishable.—The Horse News.

Dan Michael, 2:03, for Russia. Dr. J. C. McCoy, the Delaware horseman, had been negotiating for a long time with Captain A. A. Tchemerzin of Russia for the sale of his famous double-gaited stallion Pan Michael, 2:03 pacing, 2:12 trotting, but the deal was not closed up until last week. Neither of the parties to the transaction would care to make the price public, but it was learned from a reliable source that the sum collected by Dr. McCoy was over the five-figure mark.

The stallion is now at his former owner's farm at Kirkwood, Del., and will soon be taken to New York for shipment to his new home.

Besides being a noted turf performer, Pan Michael is one of the best bred stallions in the country, he being by Boreal out of Baralma, by The Earl, thus a full brother to that famous horse Boralma.

From his 2-year-old form up to the end of his racing career Pan Michael has been one of the most-talked-of horses on the harness turf.

He will be used quite extensively for breeding purposes in Russia, and if Captain Tchemerzin's present plans go thru he will mate his new horse quite extensively with Orloff trotting mares, some of which are already being brought over to America to be mated with stallions there.

Next to the sale of Silko and Onward Silver, this is the most important sale of a trotting stallion to a foreign buyer. It is the first instance of a fast double-gaited horse being exported at a big price.

The Horse Market. Messrs. Burns & Sheppard of the Repository report the condition of the horse market during the past week as follows:

The amount of business done during the week has been fully up to the average and satisfactory. Very few sales over 200 horses for sale altogether, making a representative selection in all classes. There had several very nice shipments of fresh young horses from the country, sound and right every way, and we are now assured of being able to offer goodly numbers of such horses week by week. For next week's auctions some of our leading consignors are sending in carloads of first-class horses from the country, including heavy draughts, delivery and general purpose horses, and we will also have a number of capital drivers. In all, we will have from 200 to 250 horses to sell.

Prices have been pretty good, and first-class horses of any type are reaching figures which, under all circumstances, must be considered thoroughly satisfactory. Secondhand horses are plentiful and comparatively cheap. The following are the prevailing prices: Heavy draughts ..... $140 to $189 Express, delivery and general purpose horses ..... 120 to 175 Roadster and carriage Horses ..... 120 to 200 Secondhand drivers ..... 45 to 90

The time for making entries for our speed sale, to be held Jan. 3, is now getting short. We shall receive entries for the catalog up to Dec. 15 only, and parties owning trotters, pacers, roadsters, carriage or saddle horses, which they wish to dispose of should let us know without delay, as this is unquestionably the great sale of the year for such horses.

Leading Money Winners of 1907. The leading money-winning trotter of 1906 was Nutboy, 2:07 1/4, credited with a total of $19,000, with Brilliant Girl 2:08 1/4 being second with $10,200 and Silco (3) 2:11 1/4, winner of the Kentucky Futurity, third, with $18,200. These three being the only trotters whose earnings exceeded $10,000. The sensational Sonoma Girl 2:05 1/4 heads the list of money-winning trotters of 1907 with a total of $28,150, with her rival, Highball 2:06 1/4, a close second with a total of $19,100, with Brilliant Girl 2:08 1/4 being third with $10,200. The Kentucky Futurity, third, with $18,200, these three being the only trotters whose earnings exceeded $10,000. The sensational Sonoma Girl 2:05 1/4 heads the list of money-winning trotters of 1907 with a total of $28,150, with her rival, Highball 2:06 1/4, a close second with a total of $19,100, with Brilliant Girl 2:08 1/4 being third with $10,200. The Kentucky Futurity, third, with $18,200, these three being the only trotters whose earnings exceeded $10,000.

while Tempus Fugit 2:07 1/4 just reached the mark.

In 1906 one pacer earned over $10,000, this exception being Ardelle 2:04 1/4, totaling $10,780, Brenda Yorke (3) 2:08 1/4, Argot Boy 2:04 1/4, Custer 2:05 1/4, and Baron Grattan 2:05 1/2. Four others are credited with over $6000 each, these being Leland Onward, 2:04 1/4, Angus Pointer 2:03 3/4, Alice Pointer 2:05 1/2, and Major Mallow 2:06 1/4, while John A. 2:03 3/4 earned $5950.

All of the above figures are based on the respective horses' total earnings in 1906 and 1907, including not only the Grand Circuit meetings, but also the Great Western Circuit, Sonoma Girl, Highball, Kruger, Leland Onward and John A., were good money winners at the Libertyville, Ill., meeting in July, while Tempus Fugit won first money in a $5000 stake at the Milwaukee meeting in September.

LEADING MONEY WINNING TROTTERS.

Nutboy 2:07 1/4	1907
Brilliant Girl 2:08 1/4	$19,100
Oro 2:05 1/4	9,730
Silco (3) 2:11 1/4	9,730
Checho (3) 2:11 1/2	9,625
Goldust Maid 2:07 1/4	9,625
Sonoma Girl 2:05 1/4	1907
Highball 2:06 1/4	$28,150
Gen. Watts (3) 2:06 3/4	20,135
Wilkes Heart 2:06 1/4	15,020
Rudy Kid 2:04 1/4	15,550
Margaret O. 2:08 1/4	8,510

LEADING MONEY WINNING PACERS.

Ardelle 2:04 1/4	1907
Brenda Yorke (3) 2:08 3/4	$10,780
Silco (3) 2:11 1/4	9,730
Checho (3) 2:11 1/2	9,625
Custer 2:05 1/4	9,625
Argot Boy 2:03 1/2	5,340
Baron Grattan 2:03 1/4	5,015
Kruser 2:04	$8,865
Lealand Onward 2:04 1/2	8,570
Rudy Kid 2:04 1/4	7,730
Alice Pointer 2:05 1/2	6,250
Major Mallow 2:06 1/4	6,250
John A. 2:03 3/4	5,950

Let Her Be No Hard Times. Whenever a few banks fail and there is a stringency in the money market, everybody begins to look up a strong box and bewail the 43-candle hard times. That's what makes for hard times. It is a cowardly "yellow streak" in us which shows itself when we metaphorically crawl under the stoop, like whipped curs, and suck the

"Fashion-Craft"

DRESS SUITS

There is not one tailor in a hundred who can make a dress suit for $40 equal in material and workmanship to a Fashion-Craft Dress Suit at $30.

Or: Who can make a dress suit for $45 equal to a Fashion-Craft at $35.

Or: Who can make a dress suit for $50 equal to a Fashion-Craft at $40.

And: There is not one tailor in a thousand who can equal the style of Fashion-Craft Dress Suits at any price.

We make and emphasize this claim because the conventional Dress Suit is so well defined that comparison is easy, and we invite you to make the comparison.

It is a business matter—in this as in other business matters use business judgment. We are on trial—you are the judge—

Peter Bellinger, Prop.
Manning Arcade. 22 King Street West.

worth, inasmuch as the pick of them (six in number) were sold privately just before the sale, at the handsome price of $800, nearly $1000 apiece. We feel safe in predicting, also, that before the end of the week the horse show boxes will be selling at a premium—"Rider and Driver."

For Stallion Owners. There would be fewer disappointments in the breeding business, if owners could in some way be made to see the value of their horses as judged and estimated by the public. It is a well known fact that the owners very often have exaggerated ideas with reference to the value of their horses, so that when they are sold at public auction, it frequently happens that they are compelled to take so much less than they think they are worth that they become disgruntled and sour, and finally are lined up with the knockers. They then imagine that there is no money in the business, and worst of all they think breeders do not appreciate their efforts in breeding. But this is not true, and like most all disgruntled persons, the trouble is from another cause. We happen to know a stallion owner who owns a very common stallion, and who is angry with all his neighbors because they do not think his stallion the greatest in the world. When they go elsewhere to breed, this owner frets and fumes and curses, the consequence being that he has about lost all his friends, with no one to blame but himself. How foolish such conduct; for if there is any business where kindness and proper appreciation of other men's judgment is at an advantage, it is in the horse business. Men should not permit themselves to be ruled by prejudices, but by justice and right.—American Sportsman.

The Main Thing. We get a heap of good advice. On how to keep a wife. From men who claim that they have seen Most every side of life. The gist of all of it is we should kiss her every day. But don't forget to hand her out The large end of your pay.—Nashville American.

Of course it's nothing like a plot. But now the guileless wife makes shift To let her husband know just what She'd welcome as a Christmas gift.

THE REPOSITORY
Cor. Simcoe and Nelson Streets, Toronto
BURNS & SHEPPARD Proprietors
ESTABLISHED 1853

AUCTION SALES—225 HORSES
TUESDAY, DEC. 3rd, 125 HORSES
FRIDAY, DEC. 6th, 100 HORSES
Commencing each day at 11 o'clock.
ALL CLASSES—Heavy Draught, General Purpose, Delivery, Express, Drivers and Workers.
These include shipments of sound, fresh young horses, sent in from the country by some of our best consignors. Buyers wanting any kind of horses will find an excellent choice at either of these auctions.
Our annual speed sale of Trotters, Pacers, Roadsters, Carriage and Saddle Horses will be held on FRIDAY, JAN. 3rd, 1908, commencing at 11 o'clock.
Entries for Catalogue close on 15th December. Parties owning eligible horses should communicate with us early now, in order to secure a good position in the Catalogue. This is undoubtedly the most important event of the year for the sale of horses of any of the above classes.
O. A. BURNS, General Manager and Auctioneer.

The Lion, blk.g., by Monbars, 2:11 3/4; matinee trotter; owned by F. Dunn.

personally
s & Charles ts of the hair.
ost Reliable lp Specialists
re.
MAISON"
CHARLES
St. Toronto
ATTENTION FEEDING
E. HAWKE,
21 Wellesley St.

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

Waterford is with Pitt.
Armstrong and Miss
will spend the winter
at Mrs. McDowall's,
1 and Bloor-street.
Edo is the guest of
Carveth.
Deer Park enters
Wednesday next.
er, Huntley Lodge,
leave on Thursday
till after the New

NEWS FROM ACROSS THE SEA

ing Cat.
her kittens in an
the top of a tree at ab Union.

fiscian held a meetand decided to form the Metropolitan Union.

orth of Magie.
he valuable library of
and other occult sub-Charles F. Cox of New for sale at Sotheby's being realized for $89

Sinn Fein. making have pledged public meeting, pres-
by Mrs. (Mrs. J. J.)
with African industries wherever possible, in-articles in preference to ing Parson.

The Rev. A. N.
knowing as the "Walkscribed at Leeds last from Fley to Pompell.
and according to the
of 1800 miles and
and

Raid Pigeons. eight policeand ten detectives inded a house in the Rue Dorette, Paris, recent-sounds like the cries had been heard. The number of pigeons nest-whose cooing had been no Million Miles. who are

with left in com-berth line Moravian
nity-five trips out and his, and he sailed more miles in the forty years cord Memory. memory is claimed by law librarian of Alle-Pennsylvania. Insten's catalog of the books is to memory the titles of is able to produce involve asked for.

Wedding Anniversary.
nounced at yesterday's board of guardians at York, that Mrs. Dove, her workhouse, "sent her board, and she should put was the seventh anniwedding. The chairman the board's congratula-tured the matron for her pudding and some "expression."

tion of Tonalis.
of the Mile End wards the Scattered ties brought up their results. It appeared a-saying that the tonalis of Mr. Newport asked board were going in feet. Dr. Atkinson said down that guardians inspectors, and that one he should look after hair, teeth and feet.

lady Ladies. advice of the Land" was by Mr. Justice Grantham. suzies recently in the his name in order to who reported her private means had ob-of costumes without many ladies who dress made to realize that and trade people with the better," he said.
more fully realized that his statement in order women could be sent to to the boys of the Rocky w sending over 100 mil-of what as well as to this country, and these developments assisted by their mis-happy in feeling that lands would be so de-it would be able to prothe foodstuffs necesmotherland.

R's NICKNAMES.
regimental dinner with German
the course of conversation,
the "Traveling Kaiser," wonder if that's the only got?"
he also did asker.
You know okname? If so, out with be hesitating, he said saying: "Well, if you do it to please me, I com-speak!"
then confessed that known among the rank to army as "Alarm in of the night; arousing the town in which he might
The company
his, and Prince Henry then Progress.

and supplants the paddle, sings out the middle, that to the rail.
mental man to mourn the nephew.
All things must
the woodbine twined
Philadelphia Bulletin

THE MIDAS BY REX E. BEACH

By Permission of Harper & Brothers, New York

Chapter I.—At Unalak, Glenster and Dextery, gold miners bound to Nome, save a young woman from a party of sailors. The three sail north on the Santa Maria, the girl as a stowaway in the miners' cabin, while the rest of the party is bound to guard her claim and to serve of a man named by the name of Dextery. The girl overhears Glenster say to her companions her name is Helen Chester.

Chapter II.—The girl, carrying important papers, had left Seattle for Nome on the Ohio, with a small box, and she had been quarantined at Unalak. She had fled from the mine to reach Nome as soon as possible.

Chapter III.—The girl tells Glenster her name is Helen Chester. He brings her to the law office of Dextery, who tells her he will guard her mine himself. He kisses her against her will.

Chapter IV.—As Helen leaves the pier on the ship arriving at Nome, she is seen by Mrs. Chevalier of Nome. Struve the lawyer, who Helen has come to see, is drunk and Dextery is arrested from accidental shooting. Glenster and Dextery take Helen, for safety, to their mine.

Chapter V.—Judge Stillman, Helen's uncle, arrives at Nome and takes charge of her. He is a political schemer, and Dextery, partner of Struve, plots to jump the Midas claim. Their agent, Galloway, has been driven by Dextery to the mine to investigate the papers brought innocently by Helen, has clonked the titles of the rich mine owners. There have been many attempts to oust the rightful mine owners. Helen will try to become civilized and will not adopt the claim "jumpers."

Chapter VI.—McNamara as a reverter for Glenster, takes charge of the Midas by order of Judge Stillman. He has already seized many other claims. Glenster says to her, "I will be your partner, Helen. He prevents one of his men, Slapjack Simms, from shooting McNamara."

Chapter VII.—Scene in the theatre and box office. The Midas is the first at faro and then with the heart of Glenster. Jealousy prompts her to return to the theatre. McNamara is a doctor of law in the theatre.

Chapter VIII.—Helen makes a diagnosis of her love—in the theatre for the same when absent. Dextery relates a tale to her, concluding that she is a fortune-telling judge, lawyers and bankers. He later pays a visit to Judge Stillman and McNamara, who are in a panic manner how he proposes to settle the claim-jumping business.

Chapter IX.—Helen declares that if he cannot win according to law he will provide for her. She is informed that she is badly in need of funds to fight his case in the courts, learns that she is a fortune-teller, and along with Dextery and a trusty, proceeds to the Midas and the gold mine. She is told to obey a riot for the electric suit, the yellow metal. Helen Chester's part in the stucco robbery.

Chapter X.—Helen of stucco robbers arrive home without informing Struve. She is informed that she is a fortune-teller. Helen Chester informs Glenster that she can identify the men who robbed the mine. She is a fortune-teller, an adventures, saves the swag and, incidentally, prevents bloodshed.

Chapter XI.—After a fierce encounter with the Midas, Helen is returned from Frisco with a writ of superadeas directed against Judge Stillman. She is a fortune-teller, and now I will wed the Midas and all the gold. He refuses to obey a riot for the electric suit, the yellow metal. Helen Chester is once more baffled.

Chapter XII.—Dextery's cunning assists Wheaton to get aboard the Santa Maria to return to San Francisco, whether he consents or not. He is a fortune-teller, and he is a fortune-teller. He is a fortune-teller, and he is a fortune-teller.

Chapter XIII.—During Wheaton's absence, Glenster amuses himself at the gambling table. His streak of luck is returned to him. He is a fortune-teller, and he is a fortune-teller. He is a fortune-teller, and he is a fortune-teller.

Chapter XIV.—Helen Chester attends a society ball with McNamara; is attracted by the ladies of Nome, who have conspired to name a plot for her. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller.

Chapter XV.—Helen Chester is attracted by the ladies of Nome, who have conspired to name a plot for her. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller.

Chapter XVI.—Helen Chester is attracted by the ladies of Nome, who have conspired to name a plot for her. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller.

Chapter XVII.—Helen Chester is attracted by the ladies of Nome, who have conspired to name a plot for her. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller.

Chapter XVIII.—Helen Chester is attracted by the ladies of Nome, who have conspired to name a plot for her. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller.

Chapter XIX.—Helen Chester is attracted by the ladies of Nome, who have conspired to name a plot for her. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller.

Chapter XX.—Helen Chester is attracted by the ladies of Nome, who have conspired to name a plot for her. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller. She is a fortune-teller, and she is a fortune-teller.

she came out he asked: "Where is your raiucoat? You'll be drenched in no time."
"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I overheard them plotting."
"Who?"
"Uncle Arthur and Mr. McNamara." She faced him squarely as she said it, and therefore saw the light flame up in his eyes. He tried:
"And you came here to save me—came here at the risk of your good name?"
"Of course. I would have done the same for Dextery." The gladness died away, leaving him listless.
"I have seen the truth at last, and I don't know that it's worth while to fight any longer."
"Listen," she said. "You must go. I am sure there is a terrible wrong being done, and you and I must stop it. I have seen the truth at last, and I don't know that it's worth while to fight any longer."
"Very well. If you have taken sides with us, then you are under my protection for the risk you ran in warning me."
She moved to the front of the compartment and was peering forth between the draperies when she stifled a cry.
"Too late! Too late! They're here. Don't part the curtains. They'll see you."
Pushing through the gambling hall were Vooches and four others, seemingly in quest of some one.
"Run down the back stairs," she breathed, and she pushed him through the door. He caught and held her hand with a last word of gratitude. Then he slipped the bolt behind him, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll be thrown, and I don't want to be all around up. Water won't hurt me."
She thrust her tiny revolver into her dress, but he took it and upon examination about his head.
"But you," she objected.
"I'll get another in ten minutes." Then they were leaving, he said: "One other request, Roy. I'll be in hiding for a time, and I must get word to Miss Chester to keep watch on the uncle, for the big fight is on at last and the boys will hunt him sure if they catch him. I owe her this last warning. Will you send it to her?"
"I'll do it for your sake, not for her no, no; I don't mean that. I'll do the right thing all round. Leave it here and I'll see that she gets it tomorrow. And—Roy—be careful of yourself!" Her eyes were stary and she had a look of intense agony.
"You're not jealous now, only that mysterious glory of a woman who maces herself?"
Together they scurried back to the stable, and yet, in that short distance, she would have been swept from her feet had he not seized her and carried her through the barn door, streaming and soaked by the blinding sheets that drove forth like a storm.
He struck the light and she recognized the light of recognition of his mistress. She stroked the little fellow's muzzle and he licked her cheek with his tongue. Then, when she was at last mounted, she leaned forward:
"Will you kiss me once, Roy, for the last time?"
He took her rain-wet face between his hands and kissed her upon the forehead. She would have said a little more, but he did so, unseen by both of them, a face was pressed for an instant against the pane of glass in the stable door. "You're a brave girl, Roy. May God bless you," he said, extinguishing the light. He flung the door and she rode out into the night. Locking the portal, he plunged back towards the house to write his hurried note for there was much to do before the morning.
"Are you alone?" She nodded, and he slipped the bolt behind him, saying: "The marshals are after me. We just had a 'run in' at the Northern, and I am on the go."
"I'll get you out of here," she said, and I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?" He rapidly recounted the details of the case, and she checked them. If they should come, there's a back door leading out of the kitchen and a side entrance you can use. I'll get you out of here. Will you help me?"

"I can't ride with it. I'll

Miss M. B. Cuddy, L.L.C.M.
 Medallist Teacher of Piano-forte, Theory, etc.
 Studio: 522 Euclid Av.

FRANK BEMROSE
 TENOR
 Concerts, Recitals, Oratorios
 Now Booking Engagements.
 ADDRESS, 36 BOSWELL AVE.

LORA NEWMAN
 Concert Pianist and Teacher
 (late of Vienna)
 Pupil of the world-renowned Leschetizky.
 2 SURREY PLACE
 Phone N. 1508. Studio 486
 Yonge Street.

FRANK H. BURT
 Vocal Instructor
 CONCERT, ORATORIO, RECITAL
 Toronto Conservatory of Music,
 891 BATHURST STREET.

ELLA CLEGHORN
 Teacher of Piano.
 Pupil of Hermann Scholtz, Kammer Virtuoso to the King of Saxony; H. M. Field, Dresden, Germany.
 106 St. Vincent St. Phone N. 1067

JEAN KENNEY
 CONTRALTO
 VOCAL TEACHER
 Concerts and Recitals.
 STUDIO - 51 GOREVALE AVE.

ARTHUR LEITHEUSER
 BARTONE
 Oratorios, Concerts, Recitals.
 89 WILSON AVE. PHONE M. 3185.

F. H. Coombs
 Choirmaster and Organist St. Alban's Cathedral.
 TEACHER OF SINGING
 Studio, Nordheimer's; Address 32 Radford Avenue.

George Wilson
 TEACHER OF PIANO.
 Studio, Toronto Conservatory of Music

Wm. J. Pitman
 A. T. C. M.
 Teacher of Piano Playing Studio: Room 10, 2 College Street.

MRS. E. J. CLARKE
 Teacher of Piano Playing.
 Studio—Nordheimer's.
 Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday

RANICAL ATHERTON
 TENOR
 Pupil, Engagements, Voice Culture, Piano, Elocution, Correct Breathing, Artistic Singing. Terms.
 Studio, 278 Queen West.

W. E. FAIRCLOUGH
 Fellow of the Royal College of Organists.
 PIANO, ORGAN, THEORY
 Toronto College of Music and Nordheimer's.
 Residence: 48 Hawthorne-ave.

Metropolitan Assembly Rooms
 245-249 College Street
 M. J. SAGE, Manager
 For Balls, At Homes, Receptions

CHARLES E. MUSGRAVE
 and his
 NEW MUSIC STORE
 8 Yonge St. Arcade
 WOULD LIKE TO SEE YOU.

Miss Pearl O'Neil
 Instructor in Elocution
 Pupils prepared for the Concert Platform.
 Studio 22 Elm Grove, Park side.

G. LISSANT BEARDMORE CONCERT TENOR.
 Residence:
 30 NORTH SHERBOURNE STREET.

CONCERT HALLS
 Broadway Halls for Concerts and Entertainments, under new management.
 450-452 SPADINA AVENUE
 Phone Main 236.

Pianos "Polished" Tuned & Repaired
 Fine Furniture Repaired & Refinished
 The "Art" Piano Repairing Co.
 375 SPADINA AVENUE
 TORONTO

PIANOFORTE
 MRS. L. YATES
 Elementary and advanced. Special attention given hand formation and cultivation of touch. Studio Room 29 Avenue Chambers, cor. College and Spadina Ave. Phone 41 Henry St.

R. SEAKINS TEACHER
 SOLOIST
 MANDOLIN, BANJO, GUITAR, VIOLIN.
 Instruments lent free to beginners.
 Studio, 389 College St., cor. Spadina.

AFFAIRS OF THE MUSICAL WORLD

EDITED BY BETTY BARLOW

"Music is almost all we have of Heaven on earth"—Addison.
 Paderewski is a magic name. That all the old magic associated with it ever since the poetic Polish pianist was first introduced to the Canadian public in 1896 still influences the local mind was evidenced by the size and worshipful mood of the large audience that greeted him Wednesday evening in Massey Hall.

The recital was late in starting, but when it finally opened, and the slender, almost insignificant figure, the mysterious smileless face appeared, the applause left no doubt as to the cordiality of his welcome.

The Schubert "Am dem Wasser zu Singen" was somewhat blurred in melody and distorted in accompaniment. Paderewski's right hand appeared to tire in the accompaniment. In the playing of the familiar "Soiree de Vienne" was detected the first onset of the strenuous mood and some unmerciful pounding of the keys.

In "Der Erlkonig," altho of extraordinary virtuosity, Paderewski used false octaves instead of the legitimate octaves written by Liszt. This device is usually conceded to pupils when they have weak wrists.

The Chopin nocturne did not meet with rapturous reception, but the black key study had to be repeated. The A flat étude in double notes presented Paderewski in his best possible light, and was played delicately, poetically and with sensitive tone balance.

Liszt's pretty "Schumann" gave Paderewski his banner opportunity as a charmer in trivialities of that kind, and delighted his audience with his fleet finger work and Hungarian eccentricities in accent and rhythm.

This finished his regular program, but it did not satisfy his audience, who demanded encore after encore. The great Pole ought to be mildly censured for his program, which contained no Bach, no Brahms, Chopin or Beethoven. But these are details. Paderewski is still the wonderful pianist.

Ontario has received a decided acquisition to its musical circles in the person of Miss Gwendolen Holliday, late of London, England. Miss Holliday sang a few weeks ago before the Women's Musical Club and the clearness of her enunciation was particularly noticed. Doubtless ballad singing is her sphere. Miss Holliday is also a splendid teacher and holds many valuable testimonials as to her art. She is a pupil of the famous Signor Baraldi and under his training her voice developed wonderfully. Miss Holliday is at present located at the Conservatory of Music in Hamilton. She has, however, ever accepted a position as teacher on the staff of Haverhill College and will receive pupils in Toronto.

The next event on the regular list of Massey Hall is Sousa and his band. They will be in Toronto on Thursday, Dec. 12.

The National Chorus programs have been completed in detail for Dec. 10 and 17, when a notable festival of music takes place thru the co-operation of the chorus, the New York Symphony Orchestra, Miss Helen Davies, Francis Rogers and Kelly Cole. For Monday evening, Dec. 10, the orchestra works will be devoted to Wagner. On Tuesday afternoon an orchestral program will be presented, the piece of resistance being "Tchaikovsky's" first symphony, by request and in commemoration of his death, the Suite No. 1, from Porgy and Gyp, and the orchestra will play the orchestra's contribution to the program, Dvorak's symphony in E minor No. 3, Chabrier's Spanish Rhapsody and one or two other numbers. The chorus works are "The Pied Piper of Hamelin," by Sir Hubert Parry, to be heard for the first time, in which tenor, baritone and orchestra join with the chorus; Barnby's motet, "King All Glorious," for tenor, bass and chorus, and Bishop's charming part song, "Now Tramp Over Moss and Fell," for soprano, chorus and

A new Christmas oratorio, the work of a gifted Canadian, Mrs. Roberta Geddes-Harvey of Guelph, will be performed for the first time in Toronto, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 3, by Chalmers' Church Choir, under the direction of Edmund Hardy. The following soloists will take part: Josephine H. W. Parker, A. C. Macdonald, Edmund Hardy; Misses Lulu Calder, Millie Barrett; Messrs. Ernest Hazel-dine, F. W. Davidson, F. T. Verrall and James Morgan.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

KATHRYN CHATTOE-MORTON, CENTRAL SOLOIST OF BATHURST ST. METHODIST CHURCH, AND A WELL-KNOWN VOCALIST.

good reception at their concert. The orchestra will also contribute the accompaniment to St. Saen's brilliant piano concerto in G, minor to be played by Miss Mary Caldwell of the Toronto Conservatory, while the tenor soloist is Ellison Van Hoose, one of the leading American artists of the day.

The Mendelssohn Choir has issued an interesting prospectus of its work this season in the form of a very neat booklet. Outlines of the programs are given for the four concerts on Feb. 10, 11, 12 and 15 next. These concerts will be followed by the appearance in Convention Hall, Buffalo, on Feb. 24.

The Theodore Thomas Orchestra, under Frederick Stock, will assist in the first three concerts, while the final concert on Saturday will present the chorus principally in unaccompanied choral works, selected for the most part from the earlier repertoires. The assisting soloist will be Josef Hofmann, pianist, who will also appear in Buffalo.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

The vocal soloists engaged for the concert were of Grieg, Brahms and Cornelius, which appear on the program, are Miss Marie Stoddart, soprano; Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, and Gwyllim Miles, baritone.

man's Art Rooms on Thursday last was arranged by Mrs. Ambrose Small. Those taking part were Mrs. J. D. Ward, Mrs. Hewes Oliphant and Miss Blossom Corey, soloists, and Miss Margaret O'Sullivan gave a piano selection.

The Toronto Festival Chorus had a fine rehearsal on Tuesday evening last for the jubilee performance of "The Messiah," to be given, Dec. 30. The attendance was large and good and effective work done. The membership list will close on Tuesday evening next, and all who purpose entering for the work are expected to be present at the rehearsal on Tuesday evening next at the Toronto College of Music. Former members of the chorus, and all who have taken part in the work, are expected to be present.

Kathryn Chattoe-Morton, whose photograph appears, has won distinction by her beautiful contralto voice. She has been before the Canadian public for a number of years and has always delighted her audience by her charming voice, which is rich and noble in quality, and its compass verges on the extraordinary. As a teacher of vocal her success has been great, having trained many singers who are now prominent vocalists.

The recital given by M. M. McCutcheon for her first-year pupils last Wednesday evening was a most successful event. The studio was beautifully decorated with flowers, which gave an added charm to the event. The singing of the pupils may be characterized as excellent, and bespeaks a great credit on the work accomplished. No particular pupil can be mentioned, as all did splendidly. Mrs. McCutcheon, who has studied along with some of the best masters in America and who has won distinction by her soprano voice, is accomplishing much as a teacher of vocal.

The Mendelssohn Choir OF TORONTO
 A. S. VOGT, CONDUCTOR.
 For information regarding membership, concerts, etc., address J. A. Reed, Secretary, 313 Mackenzie-st., Toronto.

MRS. E. EISENHAEUER
 CONTRALTO SOLOIST.
 Voice Culture, Piano Instruction.
 STUDIO 110 SHERBOURNE STREET.

Mrs. L. A. Lillie
 Concert Soprano and Vocal Teacher.
 Artist supplied for Sacred and Secular Concerts.
 Studio, 189 Sherbourne Street.

Ernest Hazeldine
 TENOR
 Concerts, Recitals, Oratorios.
 Studio, 13 Seaford Avenue.
 Now Booking Engagements.

Pearl L. Davis
 CONCERT SOPRANO.
 Voice Culture, Piano Instruction.
 Studio: 70 SHUTER ST.

MRS. M. MCGUTCHEON
 Voice Culture and Expression in Singing.
 Voice tested free.
 STUDIO, 253 SPADINA AVE.
 Mondays and Thursdays.

THE INTERNATIONAL BANJO
 Guitar, Mandolin, Violin, Voice and Piano School Private Thorough Instruction. Instruments lent free.
 P. W. NEWTON, Principal 77 BORDEN STREET.

The Dominion Bureau of Music and Organist Exchange
 Headquarters for Select Concert Talent.
 AUGUST WILHELMJ, Baritone
 MISS GWENDOLLEN HOLLIDAY, Soprano.
 BARNABY NELSON, Tenor.
 The Most Up-to-Date Bureau in America.
 Address, 101 MAJOR ST., Toronto.

JACKSON
 CONCERT SOPRANO.
 For open dates address:
 124 MARBLE-ST. PHONE P. 3037

WILHELMJ
 CONCERTS AND RECITALS.
 Director, Dominion Bureau of Music and Organist Exchange, 101 Major-st. Vocal Studio, 87 SPADINA AVE. North 547.

GAUDET DE LESTARD
 Director of the Berlitz School for Modern Languages.
 Toronto Conservatory of Music.
 RESIDENCE: 125 COLLEGE STREET

PEARCY T. ISTD
 Tenor
 VOCAL INSTRUCTION
 Pupil of William Shakespeare, (Eng.)
 Studio, 353 George Street.
 Concert Engagements Accepted.

The Soul of a Piano is the Action. Insist on "OTTO HIGEL" Piano Action

BERTHA MAY CRAWFORD
 SOPRANO
 CONCERTS, RECITALS, ORATORIOS
 Address, 265 Palmerston Avenue, Phone Park 2260.

JAMES Quarrington
 BARITONE
 Teaching the famous Sbrigella method of singing.
 STUDIO-ROOM, NORDHEIMER'S

MADELINE M. EVANS
 CELLISTE
 Concert Engagements a Specialty
 Pupil of Leo Schratzenholz, Berlin, Germany.
 STUDIO: 1 WASHINGTON AVE.

Kathryn - Chattoe - Morton
 DRAMATIC CONTRALTO
 Concert, Recital, Oratorio. Teacher of Vocal Culture.
 STUDIO, ROOM 10, 3 CARLTON ST.
 Monday and Thursday, 4 to 5.

Mabel Manley Pickard
 Concert Soprano
W. F. Pickard
 Solo Organist and Accompanist 332 Huron Street.

Mr. T. J. Palmer, A.R.C.O.
 CONCERT ORGANIST
 Organ and piano. Organist and choirmaster of St. Paul's Anglican Church.
 STUDIO: 561 SHERBOURNE ST.
 Phone N. 4907

LEONIE BERNICE VAN HORN
 Soloist Jarvis Street Baptist Church Concert and Oratorio Soprano
 TEACHER OF SINGING AND INTERPRETATION
 Studio, 1088 Brunswick Ave. Phone N. 5188
 Returned for Winter Season from her studies in Europe with Shakespeare and de Reszke

GEORGE A. DIXON
 Concert Tenor
 Now Booking
 660 PALMERSTON AVE., TORONTO

W. O. FORSYTH
 (Director Metropolitan School of Music.
 Pianist and Teacher of the Higher Art of Piano-Playing.
 Private Studio: Nordheimer's, Toronto.

MR. E. W. SCHUCH
 Voice Culture and Expression in Singing.
 Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, Tuesday and Friday Evenings.
 STUDIO: 3 CARLTON STREET.

Dr. Albert Ham
 Voice Production and Singing
 Address: 561 JARVIS ST.

MR. CHAS. RIGBY
 BASS BARITONE
 Choirmaster Central Presbyterian Church, Teacher of Voice Production and Singing
 STUDIO: 741 GERRARD ST. EAST.
 Phone N. 5551.

PIANO TUNING R. F. WILKS
 Special Repair Department
 447 Yonge Street. Tel. N. 4278.
 Instructor of Piano Tuning at Conservatory of Music.

ROBBIE and RUSSELL GILRAY
 SCOTCH, IRISH, NAUTICAL DANCERS
 Now Booking Engagements
 Address, 358 Gladstone Avenue.

MARIE C. STRONG
 Tone Production and Singing Soloists Supplied for Sacred and Secular Concerts Studio: 97 Yonge Street.

MR. ARTHUR BLAKELEY
 The Eminent Recital Organist of the Sherbourne Street Methodist Church.
 731 ONTARIO STREET, or "NORDHEIMER'S," TORONTO.

Mr. John Adamson
 Singing and Voice Production.
 Oratorio and Concert Repertoire.
 Studio, s.e. corner Huron and College-st. Phone M. 2182.

MISS LISTER
 Concert Artists
 Vocalists, Pianists, Violinists, Whistlers, Elocutionists.
 Now Booking Engagements
 ADDRESS, 480 YONGE-STREET.

P. J. McAvay
 TEACHER OF SINGING
 Pupils prepared for light opera and vaudeville stage.
 STUDIO, 128 QUEEN STREET WEST.
 Voices tested free.

CLAXTON'S MUSIC STORE
 FREE LESSONS
 We give lessons free on the purchase of a violin, mandolin, guitar, banjo.
 Term of 12 lessons $3.00.
 CLAXTON'S MUSIC STORE.
 289 1-2 YONGE STREET.

FRANK C. SMITH
 VIOLINIST.
 Pupil, Concert Engagements.
 Studio:
 R. S. Williams', 141 Yonge St.

HARTWELL DE MILLE
 CONCERT BARITONE
 Soloist Central Methodist Church.
 ADDRESS, 10 BEATRICE-ST.
 Long distance phone (day) M. 829

MacGregor
 Concert Vocalist
 Oratorios, Recitals.
 891 Lansdowne Ave. Phone P. 1087.

MRS. W. J. OBERNIER
 TEACHER OF SINGING
 128 ROXBOROUGH STREET WEST

J. D. A. TRIPP
 FOR PIANO INSTRUCTION AND CONCERTS, APPLY TORONTO CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

FRANK S. WELSMAN
 PIANIST.
 Studio for lessons at Toronto Conservatory of Music. Residence: 32 MADISON AVENUE.

ELLENOR MASON
 A. L. S. E.
 INSTRUCTION IN ELOCUTION
 Graduate of Emerson System.
 Studio, 363 Ossington Avenue.

PETER C. KENNEDY
 PIANO INSTRUCTION.
 Consultation—Monday, Thursday and Saturday mornings, Nordheimer's, King St. East; other days at Metropolitan School of Music. (Park 85)

Howard Massey Frederick
 BARITONE
 PUPIL BRAGGIOTTI, Florence.
 Toronto Conservatory of Music.

CONCERT ORGANIST H. A. WHEELDON
 MUSEC. BAC. CANTAB. F.R.C.O. Organist and Choirmaster Metropolitan Methodist Church. is booking engagements for recitals during the coming season. Address: 561 SHERBOURNE STREET.

JAMIESON
 Baritone
 Studio—97 Yonge St., Toronto.

Edward Broome
 TEACHER OF SINGING
 CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

Mrs. Alfred Jury of Buffalo
 Vocal Studio:
 BELL PIANO WAREHOUSES,
 148 Yonge St., Toronto.
 Tuesdays and Wednesdays only.

WILLARD W. DEMMERY
 CONCERT BASSO
 Teacher of Voice Culture and Singing Studio: 187 Dovercourt Road.

MME. LeGRAND REED
 SOPRANO
 Pupil of Jean de Reszke
 All enquiries for terms and vacant dates should be addressed to:
 MR. W. J. ROBSON,
 Alexandra Theatre.

The Harry Rich Concert Bureau
 Popular Talent, Lowest Terms Supplied by 265 Richmond St. West, Toronto, Ont.
 Phone M. 5066, day or evening. Send for booklet.

Mrs. Charles McGann
 Piano and Vocal Teaching.
 Late Toronto College of Music.
 Studio, 291 Wilton Avenue.

SHAKESPEARE
 VOICE PRODUCTION.
 ADDRESS: 81 BLOOR ST. WEST.
 Phone N. 4767.

JAMES D. RICHARDSON
 VOICE CULTURE
 Choirmaster Broadway Tabernacle.
 Studio: 2 Buchanan Street.

Chas. E. Bodley
 PIANIST AND ACCOMPANIST
 26 Kenilworth Crescent.
 Phone, Beach 274.

Maude M. Bigwood
 CONCERT SOPRANO.
 Concerts, Oratorios, Recitals, etc.
 701 YONGE STREET
 Phone North 4579.

The Misses Sternberg
 DANCING AND PHYSICAL CULTURE
 SIMPSON HALL, 74 Yonge Street.
 Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

MAJESTIC

THE HOME OF BIG SCENIC PRODUCTIONS
PRESENTED ALWAYS AT POPULAR PRICES

MATINEE EVERY DAY

EVENINGS	10	20	30	50	EVENINGS
MATINEES	10	15	20	25	MATINEES

THE PEER OF ALL MELODRAMAS—THE ONE PLAY YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO MISS

The Play That Teaches a Moral. Interpreted by a Powerful Cast

CONVICT 999

More Scenery, More Electric Effects, More Sensations than any two shows

5 - MASSIVE SCENES - 15

-NEXT WEEK-

THE NEW HISTORICAL MELODRAMA

USTER'S LAST FIGHT

Affairs of the Stage

Eleanor Robson's Career.

The right of inheritance, superinduced by innate histrionic ability, of an unmistakable quality, has been the chief factor in the career of Miss Eleanor Robson. Her success has been a process of evolution based entirely upon her ability, her natural aptitude, and her perfect powers of portrayal in the various parts to which she has been assigned, and the success which she has achieved not only on the American, but on the English stage as well, has been merited.

Miss Eleanor Robson, now achieving the greatest success of her career in the spring of 1907, was born in London, England, in 1871. Her father, a member of the regular company of Liebler & Company's following season, and she then she has appeared as Flossie in "Unleavened Bread," as Mlle. de La Vere in "A Gentleman of France," in the little role of the dramatization of Miss Mary Johnston's "Audrey as Juliet," as Tina in "A Tenement Tragedy," and "Merely Mary Ann." Following the production of the latter play she was sent to London in it, and achieved a wonderful success there. She returned to the United States and appeared in "She Stoops to Conquer" as Kate Hardcastle, then resuming her tour in "Merely Mary Ann." This was followed by an all season engagement at the Liberty Theatre in New York during which she produced six new plays, the last, her present vehicle, "Salomy Jane," proving one of the greatest successes seen on any stage and which she will present at the Princess commencing Monday evening.

Cowell, Le Moyne and Ot's Skinner. The production was so well received that in the spring it went on an extensive tour.

Miss Robson became a regular member of Liebler & Company's following season, and she then she has appeared as Flossie in "Unleavened Bread," as Mlle. de La Vere in "A Gentleman of France," in the little role of the dramatization of Miss Mary Johnston's "Audrey as Juliet," as Tina in "A Tenement Tragedy," and "Merely Mary Ann." Following the production of the latter play she was sent to London in it, and achieved a wonderful success there. She returned to the United States and appeared in "She Stoops to Conquer" as Kate Hardcastle, then resuming her tour in "Merely Mary Ann." This was followed by an all season engagement at the Liberty Theatre in New York during which she produced six new plays, the last, her present vehicle, "Salomy Jane," proving one of the greatest successes seen on any stage and which she will present at the Princess commencing Monday evening.

Mrs. Campbell's Voice.

Among all of Mrs. Patrick Campbell's treasures, the one which is guarded with the greatest care and the one which she carries with her and keeps by her side on every "journey" she makes, is an American phonograph. For in the phonograph she carries the voice of her dead husband, whose body she buried on a South African battlefield.

It is, in reality, a voice from the grave. On the records are impressed words of hope and cheer and tenderness that the gallant sergeant spoke on the wilds of South Africa before the bullet of the Boer sharpshooter ended his life. Is it to be wondered at that Mrs. Campbell values this instrument so highly?

For her marriage was the culmination of a rare romance and the love between her and her husband was almost ideal. Mrs. Campbell was Beatrice Stella Tanner, the daughter of the manager of an oriental banking institution in London.

She was seventeen when she met the handsome young "Pat" Campbell; he was nineteen. It was a case of love at first sight. They were married, and in the course of time two children came to them. One was a boy, Allan, the image of his father. The other was a girl, Stella—her mother's prototype.

Business ventures called Patrick Campbell to South Africa. There he remained for seven years. His wife stayed in London with the two children. She undertook the study of music and in time was graduated with honors at the Royal Academy.

After seven years in South Africa, ten thousand miles away from his girl wife and their children, Patrick Campbell returned to London and became a barrister.

When the outbreak of the Boer war spread its cloud over England, he enlisted in the volunteer infantry and became a sergeant. Then it was Sergeant Patrick Campbell, No. 431, of Lord Methuen's Brigade—Imperial Yeomanry. The regiment of which he was a member was made up of English gentlemen living in and about London. In the meantime Mrs. Campbell had stormed the heights of endeavor and won the success as an actress, that is now one of the traditions of the English stage. When her gallant husband set sail for South Africa she was nearly heart-broken. In the dark hour which brought the news of his death, she was playing in her own theatre, the Royalty, and London was at her feet. It was in the midst of the play in which she first won fame, "The Second Mrs. Tanageray." During the second act, near the denouement, a cablegram bearing news of her husband's death was handed to her. The play was stopped at once and the Royalty was closed for a week, while the body of the handsome strapping Irish gentleman was buried on the wilds in South Africa with military honors.

Among the household treasures of the Patrick Campbells was an American phonograph. Their favorite amusement was to listen to its records and to make new ones of the voices of themselves and their friends.

Just before Sergeant Campbell went to the war in South Africa he spoke some messages into the machine and left them as affectionate legacies to his wife and children.

After he arrived at the seat of war with his regiment before the yeomanry went upon the battlefield to leave so many brave fellows there, Sergeant Campbell procured some records and imprinted upon them the sounds of his own voice, in words of love and cheer to his dear ones in England. These records he despatched homeward by the first outgoing steamer, and in due time they reached London. It was scarcely a week from the time that the cable brought the news of sorrow to wife and children, that a consignment of fresh records from husband and father reached them.

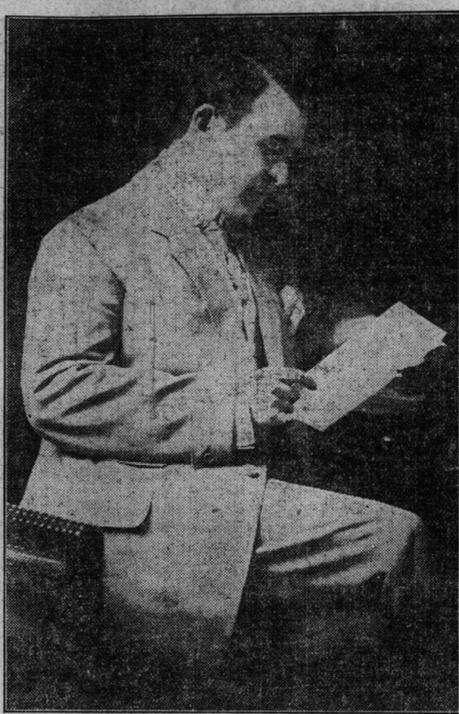

These records are to Mrs. Campbell the priceless memories of a man truly beloved. She carries them with her wherever she goes. They are her companions of the morning, her solace by night.

Little Stella, also has a phonograph and the dearest hours of her childhood were passed in listening to her father's voice passed in listening to her father's words spoken to her over the ocean.

Gallant Allan Campbell, his very father over again, and middy in his Majesty's navy, has a phonograph, too. He keeps it in his chest on board ship in Hong Kong harbor.

Mrs. Campbell will appear at the Princess the latter part of the week, commencing Thursday, December 12.

The burglar may pathetic plea. For just another chance. "If you don't send me up," said he, "No more will I a burglar be, But tackle high finance."

CHARLES MILLAR, ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL OF THE ROYAL ALEXANDRA PLAYERS.

CHAT WITH MR. MILLER.

One of the most capable and versatile, as well as popular, members of the Royal Alexandra players is Mr. Charles Miller, who has essayed a varied line of parts since the opening of the stock season here and played them all excellently.

The Sunday World on Wednesday evening found Mr. Miller in his dressing room busily engaged in encasing his own handsome figure in the uniform and accoutrements of a British soldier of the days of King George IV. If, as Shakespeare says, "one man in his time plays many parts," then the dictum is true a hundredfold in the case of the stock actor, who must be ready to make himself at home in the costume of any calling or any age, from a pirate to a bishop, or from ancient Egypt to ultra-modern Fifth-avenue.

Mr. Miller desired for a moment from the delicate operation of penciling his eye-lashes to answer the stage interviewer's first question: "How long have you been on the stage?"

"It is nearly 25 years since I made my first appearance," was his answer. As Mr. Miller has only passed his thirtieth year, the reporter ventured the remark that he must have started young.

"I did," laughed Mr. Miller. "My initial experience on the stage was a brief one, and was rudely interrupted. It was in my native town of Saginaw, Mich., and a visiting company was playing 'The Lights of London' for a week. One of their juvenile actors deserted them, and I taking advantage of my mother's absence on a visit, went on and played a part for the last half of the week. Either I was very good in the part, or the company needed a boy actor very much, for I received an offer to go on to the next town, and I went gladly. My dreams of a glorious career, in which I was to surpass the Boy Roscius, were rudely cut short, however, for my mother returned to Saginaw and discovered what I had done, and sent a hurried call after me. It was just as well, for I believe the company met with hard luck shortly after, and I, instead of proudly treading the boards, would likely have found myself humbly walking the ties. It was back to school for me, but the stage fever was in my blood, and I took every opportunity of following out my purpose to be an actor. During my college course at the University of Michigan I spent every vacation in a stock company, which, as everyone knows, is the best and only practical training school for the stage."

"Did you take up theatrical work on leaving college?" was the next question put to Mr. Miller.

"No, I did not. I went into business, to please my family, but the lure of the footlight was too strong, and a couple of years later I found myself back to my old love. Twice since then I have deserted the theatre to engage in other occupations, but it was no use, for each time I came back to the work that I find most congenial and pleasant. Nor was my desertion a complete one, for each time I had retained a financial interest in stock companies, and so, perforce, I kept in touch with what was going on behind the curtains. I have had a varied experience both in front and back of the theatre, for I managed and played in my own company in Boston. Some day I hope to have my own theatre, and then good-by to grease, paint and hare's foot."

Mr. Miller finds time in the midst of the busy life of a stock actor to indulge in a little writing for the stage. When at home in Boston Mr. Miller is an ardent automobilist and it is hard to say of which he is proudest—his cozy flat in Brooklyn or his trim runabout.

One of his favorite recreations is riding, and nearly every morning he goes for a canter thru Toronto's pretty suburbs.

AMUSING THE DINERS.

Dr. E. A. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia, is an after-dinner speaker whose accent his audience listens to with keen pleasure. Dr. Alderman differs from Mr. Littleton in many respects, but he belongs to the same general type in magnetism and charm. He has been coming to speak at New York dinners for the last four or five seasons and his popularity is steadily growing.

Dr. Alderman tells few stories to Mr. Littleton's many, but every winter he brings one or two new ones that make instant "hits." One of these is the story of "The Extravagant Wife."

A southern farmer asked a negro farm hand the cause of his worried and harassed expression.

"De tribul' boss," said the negro, "is mah wife. She is de 'stravagant' pusion I knows. She is alius after money. Money dis, en money dat, en mo' money. She comes ter me fer one dollar, en den she wants two dollars, en so hit goes."

"But Joe," enquired the boss, "what does she do with all this money?"

"Well, de fac' is, boss," explained Joe, "I ain' give'er none yit!"

A bit from one of Dr. Alderman's speeches that since has become classic in his terse description of his native land, of which he said: "Nowadays the south is about the only part of the country left where the people still believe in God, read Scott's novels, and vote the Democratic ticket."

Another bit of Dr. Alderman's often quoted is that concerning the moonshine whiskey of North Carolina, his native state, "one drink of it," said Dr. Alderman, "will make a jackrabbit walk up and spit in a bulldog's face."—From "The After-dinner Speakers of New York," by Charles F. Russell, in The Bohemian for December.

PROVERBS UP-TO-DATE.

He who waits for dead men's shoes is liable to get corns.

Better to have loved and lost than to have been the other fellow.

Backs are stubborn things.

It takes two to make a quarrel and three to make a divorce.

He who is born with a golden spoon in his mouth often lives to hock the family plate.

The proof of the pudding is in the morning.

Trust in God, but watch the tacker.

Beauty is not always skin deep.

He kills two birds with one stone who marries a widow with a family.

Sweet are the uses of alimony.—December Bohemian.

ROYAL ALEXANDRA

25c MATINEES 50c
TUESDAY—THURSDAY—SATURDAY

TUES.—SOUVENIRS—THURS.

WEEK DECEMBER 2ND

THE HENRIETTA

BRONSON HOWARD'S NOTED PLAY

ROBSON and CRANE'S SUCCESS

A STORY OF THE "LAMBS" AND "SHEPHERDS" OF WALL STREET

PHONE MAIN 3000 FOR SEATS

WHERE WAYS ING SO
WEDN

PRINCE GRAND ROYAL MAJESTIC SHEA'S STAR

At the most complete last New York seasonably Eleanor Robson only "Jane," written strong and drawn famous Californian "Kiss." Beginning son will play a w the Princess "The Jane" will then be with every detail five months' trium Theatre in New Yo The play itself is unique creations given to the stage. held that the "be dramatic in every all the schemes of on the principal maximum of dram actors of the play in a restricted spe nothing if not up upon this idea an energy decided to shatter it to bits, night of the drama tator verbose an spect that stretches straight back from forest of giant, r serried, discorded as if they reach t each side the sun from prevail it is nation to believe of the theatre have for every square in utilized. The target lowering, intercal head, all seem to b gin forest, and the characters who the one that they are "The cast is an been chosen in ve the personality of Hart's types. One Bill, the genius at the play there cou take as to his ide bottled from the p Jack Maybury, the hier, could never b those pages, and s slouching daughter Clays, is the passio life. The Vigiles are of that strong because of their s just, yet with hee bursting.

Best Harte paint a broad brush. Bill color that makes th paragraph he pict with a terse senten that endures for ev he opened up a vis and her newes oil pace that will tax

Miss Anna Cra

WEEK—HISTORICAL DRAMA

TER'S
AST GHT

time in the midst of a stock actor to in-writing for the stage.
in Boston Mr. Miller automobilist and it is which he is proudest—Brooklyn or his trim

G THE DINERS.

erman, president of the Virginia, is an after-fines accent his audience pleasure. Dr. Alder-Mr. Littleton in many belongs to the same generations and charm. He to speak at New York last four or five seasons
ity is steadily growing.
tells few stories to Mr. y, but every winter he two new ones that make
One of these is the story
"What ails the boss?"
mer asked a negro farm of his worried and har-

one of Dr. Alderman's has become classic in
of his native land.
d. "Nowadays the south part of the country left ple still believe in God, vets, and vote the Demoof Dr. Alderman's often concerning the moonshine with Carolina, his native nk of it," said Dr. Alder-a jackrabbit walk up child's face." From "The eakers of New York," by well, in "The Bohemian for RBS UP-TO-DATE.

for dead men's shoes is
ma. loved and lost than to other fellow.
uborn things
to make a quarrel and a divorce.
rn with a golden spoon in lives to rock the family of the pudding is in the
but watch the tickler.
always skin deep.
birds with one stone who w with a family.
-uses of alimony.—Decem-

Hardcastle
Stedpe Conquer"

GRAND

WHERE THE ATTRACTIONS ARE ALWAYS GOOD AT A NEVER-CHANGING SCALE OF MODERATE PRICES.

MATINEES:
WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY

"THE CAT AND THE FIDDLE"

FIRST TIME HERE OF THE GREATEST STAGE PRODUCTION OF ALL THE NURSERY RHYMES
A SPECTACULAR MUSICAL EXTRAVAGANZA WITH A FASCINATING PLOT.

GRAFFIC REPRODUCTION OF NEVER-NEVER LAND. 60--PEOPLE--60 GORGEOUSLY AND FANTASTICALLY MOUNTED.

NEXT WEEK
The Latest of New York's Musical Successes

WINE WOMEN
& SONG with BONITA (The Gibson Girl) and ORIGINAL CAST.

PRINCESS—Eleanor Robson, in "Salomy Jane."
GRAND—"The Cat and the Fiddle."
ROYAL ALEXANDRA—"The Henrietta."
MAJESTIC—"Convict 999."
SHEA'S—Vaudeville.
STAR—Pat White and His Gaiety Girls.

At the Princess.
The most conspicuous success of the last New York season was unquestion-ably Eleanor Robson's new play, "Salomy Jane," written by Paul Armstrong and drawn from Bret Harte's famous Californian story, "Salomy Jane's Kiss." Beginning to-morrow Miss Robson will play a week's engagement at the Princess Theatre, and "Salomy Jane" will then be presented to Toronto with every detail that went to make a five months' triumph at the Liberty Theatre in New York.

The play itself is one of the most unique creations that have yet been given to the stage. It has always been held that the best interests of the drama could not be served by laying out the schemes of a play out of doors, on the principal that to secure the maximum of dramatic effect, the characters of the play should move about in a restricted space. Paul Armstrong, nothing if not unconventional, seized upon this idea and with characteristic genius decided to either uphold it or shatter it to bits, and when the first night of the drama had passed into history he had smashed it beyond all hope of recall. A famous authority said:
"The first thing that strikes the spectator when the curtain rises upon 'Salomy Jane' is the vastness of the prospect that stretches before one. For the time being the limits of the stage have disappeared into the unknown, and straight back from the foglights the forest of giant redwoods appear in looming, disorderly rows until it seems as if they reach the setting sun. On each side the same apparent conditions prevail. It is no feat of the imagination to believe that the side walls of the theatre have been taken away, for every square inch of stage space is utilized. The tangled underbrush; the towering, interlacing branches overhead, all seem to be a part of the virgin forest, and the first view of the characters, who then appear convices one that they are but dwarfs."

The cast is an ideal one, and has been chosen in every instance because of personality of the actor fitted the part. One thinks of Yuba Hill, the genial stage driver, and in a play there could never be a mistake as to his identity. Colonel Starbuck, verbose and picturesque, has stepped from the pages of Bret Harte.
Jack Maybury, the cool, polished gambler, could never have existed outside those pages, and Salomy Jane herself, the bewitching daughter of the Kentucky clay, is the passionate and to the very life. The vigilantes, every man of them, are of that strong type that survived because of their strength, mercilessly set, yet with heads that are big to burning.

Bret Harte paired in his scenes with a broad brush, filled with the human color that makes the pulses leap. With a terse sentence he painted a "vast passion," and with a word he painted a love that endures for ever, and with a word he opened up a vista of death bravely met. At the Princess, Miss Robson and her newest play should strike a chord that will tax the capacity of the playhouse to its utmost. Big, young, strong, relentless, and satisfying, are the only adjectives that fitly describe it all.

At the Royal Alexandra.
From the charming light comedy of "Quality Street," the Royal Alexandra Players will make a long stride to
"The Henrietta," the four-act drama by Bronson Howard. As players of a decade ago will well remember, this is the piece in which Robson and Craus scored one of their greatest successes.
The character of Bertie, the "lamb" as played by Mr. Robson is still fresh in the minds of many. This part will be taken by Mr. Herbert Yost, while Mr. Robert McWade will play the role originated by Mr. Crane.

"The Henrietta" is a story of Wall-street. The principal characters in the piece are stock brokers, speculators in stocks and their friends. Nicholas Canastota, an American financier, and one of the "kings" of this famous commercial street. He has been named by his friends on the street, "Old Nick." He is a typical stock gambler all the way thru. One of his speculations was to obtain control of the Theatre, Broadway, New York. The plot comprises a garden party at Newport, at which the guests agree to impersonate the present stars in the theatrical firmament. The chorus of thirty handsome women, gorgeously gowned, goes far towards making the entertainment complete and perfect.

Convict 999.
A strenuous melodrama of intense human interest is "Convict 999," which will be presented at the Majestic all this week with a matinee every day.
A play in which the bonnet of sensation is attained by the author, John Oliver, who tells a remarkably coherent story in four acts and thirteen elaborate scenic settings, whose hero is a man named Dick Thurston, who comes entangled in a fenestral web of circumstantial evidence, thru the villainous machinations of one John Blaisdale, who uses his high position as first assistant district attorney to further his own vicious ends. The two men are rivals for the hand of Alice the beautiful and gifted daughter of Judge Branstone, of the criminal court, whose love is pledged to young Thurston, much to the chagrin of Blaisdale, who vows a terrible vengeance on the night of their annual ball, and the crime is fastened upon the young guardsman by means of a set of circumstances for which Blaisdale is largely responsible. Dick is taken into cur-bity, tried and sentenced to death. By a strange trick of fate the judge who pronounces sentence on him is the father of the girl he loves, and who loves him with a devotion that no evidence can shake. The unfortunate young man is taken to Sing Sing and transformed into a numeral, Convict 999, with only two months of life to live and a nameless one at last.
This point in the story is not reached without a series of the most thrilling situations ever conceived by a dramatist, but the big scene of the play takes place in Sing Sing, where there is a revolt of the convicts and their startling escape from a prison.
"Convict 999" is a modern play in which are blended, in skillful proportion, pathos, comedy, excitement and love interest. The play will be performed by an unusually strong acting company, and several entertaining specialties will be interpolated by capable performers.

Pat White and His Gaiety Girls.
Among the many attractions touring the Empire Circuit which has received more than the usual amount of favorable criticism from the press and public, is that of Pat White and his Gaiety Girls Company. They will be the attraction at the Star Theatre this week.
The company is headed by the inimitable Irish comedian, Pat White, who will be seen in the leading role of the two original satires which open and

The EIGHT SAILOR MAIDS with the CAT and the FIDDLE.

close the entertainment, which they will present, "A Grand Stand Play," or, "Casey at the Bat" is the title of the opening skit and is a satire on baseball.
The name given to the closing satire is
"The Down and Out Drug Store," which tells of the troubles of a junior drug clerk in a fashionable pharmacy.
A number of very catch musical numbers are interspersed in both of these actures. The scenic investiture is far above the ordinary while the costuming and electrical effects are claimed to be very excellent. The vaudeville act which will constitute the olio is made up of the following artists: Zalma Sommers, a very clever singing and musical numbers are in the hands of the handsome and well-trained chorus of girls. They will appear at opportune times and will offer many original selections. The entire show is claimed to be one that is away above the ordinary.

At the Star.
When the "Brigadiers" come to the Star Theatre next week local playgoers will have an excellent opportunity of judging for themselves just what a high-class burlesque company really is.
This season this noted troupe devotes its entire usual policy by offering an entirely brand new two-act musical

Scene from "Convict 999," the melodramatic offering at the Majestic this week

When the "Brigadiers" come to the Star Theatre next week local playgoers
will have an excellent opportunity of judging for themselves just what a
high-class burlesque company really is.
This season this noted troupe devotes
its entire usual policy by offering an entirely brand new two-act musical

ALL THIS WEEK
AMATEUR NIGHT FRIDAY
3-CASH PRIZES-3
Any amateurs wishing to appear, kindly leave their names at box-office.

STAR Theatre

HOME OF ADVANCED BURLESQUE

THE CARNIVAL OF LAUGHTER

PAT WHITE

(TORONTO'S FAVORITE COMEDIAN)

AND HIS GAIETY GIRLS

NEXT WEEK—THE BRIGADIERS—NEXT WEEK

Miss Anna Grant, with Pat White's Gaiety Girls, at the Star Theatre.

MASSEY HALL ... DEC. 5

A JAPANESE

HONEYMOON

AN ORIENTAL OPERA

400 - CAST - 400

BENEFIT

BROADVIEW BOYS' INSTITUTE

SOME PRESS COMMENTS

Most gorgeous and extensive production ever presented in Montreal. —Montreal Star
 Gorgeous and bewildering beyond description. —Detroit Tribune
 Two thousand five hundred people crowded into the Drill Hall. —Quebec Chronicle
 Nothing more beautiful or alluring ever seen on the local stage. —Ottawa Free Press
 The Teck Theatre was aglow with the color, scenery and atmosphere of Japan. —Buffalo Courier
 The grandest affair of the kind ever seen in the South. —Louisville Courier Journal
 No language can adequately describe its surpassing beauty. —Cleveland Plain Dealer

SOME INDIVIDUAL COMMENTS

The most beautiful, fairy-like spectacle I have ever witnessed. —Mrs. William McKinley Magnificent! Commend it to any city or people. —Mrs. Benjamin Harrison
 I cannot imagine a more beautiful or praiseworthy entertainment. —Mrs. Russell A. Alger Beautiful beyond expression. —Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks
 Simply incomparable in coloring and brilliant stage setting. —The Countess of Minto
 In point of general excellence scarcely to be improved upon. —Mrs. General Lew Wallace

PRICES 25c, 50c, $1.00, $1.50

BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED SOUVENIR PROGRAMME ON SALE 15 CENTS

ADVANCE SALE OPENS

MASSEY HALL WEDNESDAY, DEC. 4TH, 9 A. M.

CURTAIN 8.15

CARRIAGES 10.30

A JAPANESE HONEYMOON—MASSEY HALL, DEC. 5.

A JAPANESE HONEYMOON

"A Japanese Honeymoon." Not since Gilbert & Sullivan produced their almost imitable opera "The Mikado," have the music, the color and romantic atmosphere of Japan been presented in such charming and alluring form, as in the exquisite oriental opera, "A Japanese Honeymoon."

"When Love Is Young," "Happy Jappy Maids," "Underneath a Parasol," "Nobody Knows," "Petite Tonkinoise," "Mexican Love," "I Am Your Ruler," "Love the Last Girl Best," "Land of Bohemia," "Why Don't You?" "How'd You Like a Little Girl Like Me," "Carmena," "Love's Confession."

"BIRTH OF FLOWER-FAIRIES"—IN JAPANESE DANCING GIRL, IN "A JAPANESE HONEYMOON" MASSEY HALL, DEC. 5TH.

which has its Toronto premiere at Massey Music Hall next Thursday evening.

The plot finds its foundation on an ancient law in Japan, by which it is decreed that unless the chief magistrate of a village marries upon his ascendency to that office, or within three months thereafter, he shall be banished and sacrificed to the god of love.

The act opens with the joyous expectancy of the populace caused by the approaching announcement of Shio-Gun's betrothal. The mighty ruler has never been inspired to love, but tries all remedies known to Japanese maidens. The fatal day approaches, but finds him without a bride.

Ian Ko tries various schemes to awaken the dormant little god, Love, in his master's heart, but with no avail. At last a happy thought strikes Han Ko, and he introduces into the plot a young Canadian girl, who has arrived in port to meet her sweetheart, Carl, and whom he induces to use her gentle arts to awaken Shio-Gun's love. Under this little Canadian girl's cunning manoeuvres Shio-Gun's heart is at least awakened, but instead of loving that which is beautiful and good he looks upon, by some queer freak his affections turn to all that is ugly and uncanny. This complicates matters in an apparently hopeless tangle.

Here arrives Faisetta, a maid of uncertain age, and extremely plain. She has inherited a vast estate from a relative with the proviso, that she marries. Reaching Japan, she dons an exaggerated native costume, engages a maid and sallies forth. She is presented to Shio-Gun, and behold, he falls madly in love with her, thus averting many new complications on account of the queer laws of the island. Finally everything is straightened out and Shio-Gun and Faisetta are married, and "live happy forever afterwards."

There are ten scenes and thirty-six musical skits and singing numbers, in which are introduced many beautiful and moral oriental dances, including chorus entrances, solos, duets, quartets, double sextets and ensemble exits. Among the musical selections are the opening chorus: "We Are Too Young to Love" and "Love Adorning," "A Secret Sweet," "In Deutschland," "Heroes of the King's Navy," "Kissing Duet," "Warning Honeymoon," "I'm a Mandarin Great," "Let's Sail Away" and the newest and most brilliant march, "Jappy Land."

The stage will present a veritable cherry blossom grove, with wisteria gardens in the distance, and will be further embellished with gorgeous costumes, multi-colored lights, electrical fountains and other brilliant scenic investiture. Over 200 people are required in the closing scene alone, and the beautiful production, with its strange and haunting music, will, beyond doubt, prove the operatic sensation of the season.

MRS. LESLIE CARTER.
 Mrs. Leslie-Carter will present David Belasco's greatest play, Du Barry, at the Princess Theatre the first three days of next week.

The appearance of Mrs. Carter in this great play was a master stroke, and for several reasons. In the first place, it is said to be the biggest play yet produced by an American dramatist, and by a great good fortune the title role fell into the hands of the most extraordinary emotional actress that our stage has known. It is little wonder, then, that this play with Mrs. Carter should have achieved an extraordinary success. Not only is Mrs. Carter's performance of Du Barry by far one of the finest examples of emotional acting that the present generation has seen, but the production which was made for it stands pre-eminent as the most artistic and elaborate yet known to the stage. The production that will be used by Mrs. Carter in this city is the same as that in which she first appeared, and her company is, of course, of the first order of excellence.

Singular Trick.
 Mrs. Martha Patch, a widow of South Royalton, Mass., aged 70 years, keeps telling the neglect of her relatives, who failed to call with their old-time regularity, hung several yards of crepe upon the front door of her home. Someone saw it and the word

PRINCESS-TO-MORROW AND ALL THE WEEK MATS. Wed. & Sat. The Greatest Dramatic Treat of the Year

MISS ELEANOR ROBSON

MANAGEMENT LIEBLER & CO. who captured Toronto in "MERELY MARY ANN", and a company of unsurpassed excellence in a marvelous scenic presentation of the best of all Western dramas, based upon incidents in Bret Harte's Californian Idyl.

POWERFUL PICTURESQUE SALOMY JANE By PAUL ARMSTRONG FASCINATING THRILLING

HOLDS ITS AUDIENCE SPELLBOUND FROM BEGINNING TO CLOSE. PRICES EVENINGS 2.00, 1.50, 1.00, 75, 50, 25. MATINEES 1.50, 1.00, 75, 50, 25. SEATS SELLING

FIRST THREE DAYS OF NEXT WEEK DECEMBER 9, 10, 11 MATINEE WEDNESDAY

MRS. LESLIE-CARTER IN DU BARRY

BY DAVID BELASCO. SEAT SALE THURSDAY. PRICES 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00.

passed quickly that she was dead. Dozens of women conscious stricken, hurried to the house. Mrs. Patch greeted the delegates warmly and merely explained that she was lonesome.—Chicago Journal.

Too Bad!
 There are lots of golden chances From which harvests I might reap, And a value soon advances When a thing is very cheap.

But tho all the low stock par gains That with me will cut no ice, I can get no good of bargains, For I haven't got the price. —Chicago News

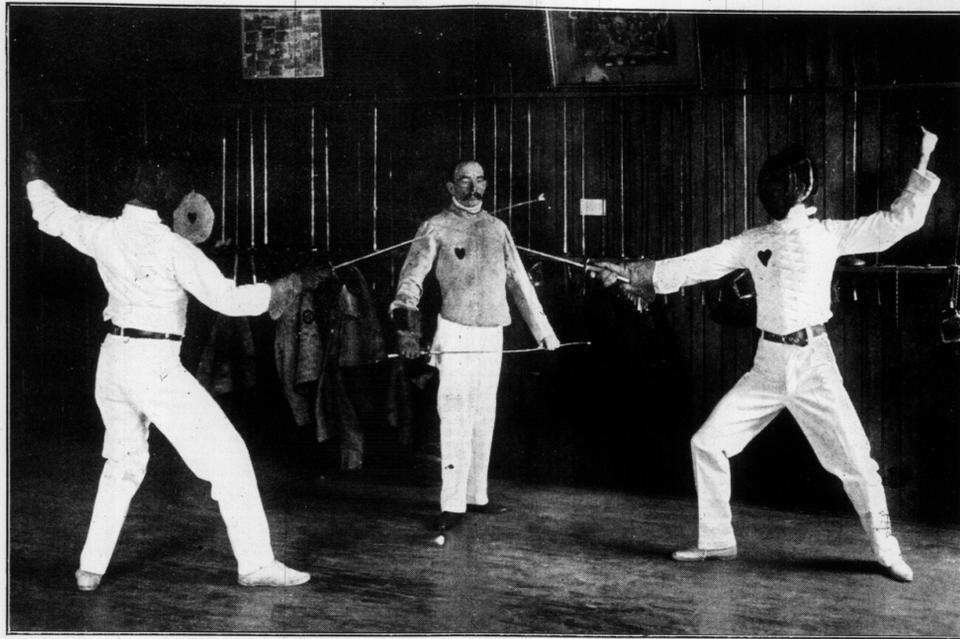

"THE BEAUTY CHORUS"—IN A JAPANESE HONEYMOON, MASSEY HALL, DECEMBER 5TH.

SOME OF POPULAR INDOOR SPORTS ENJOYED DURING THE WINTER SEASON

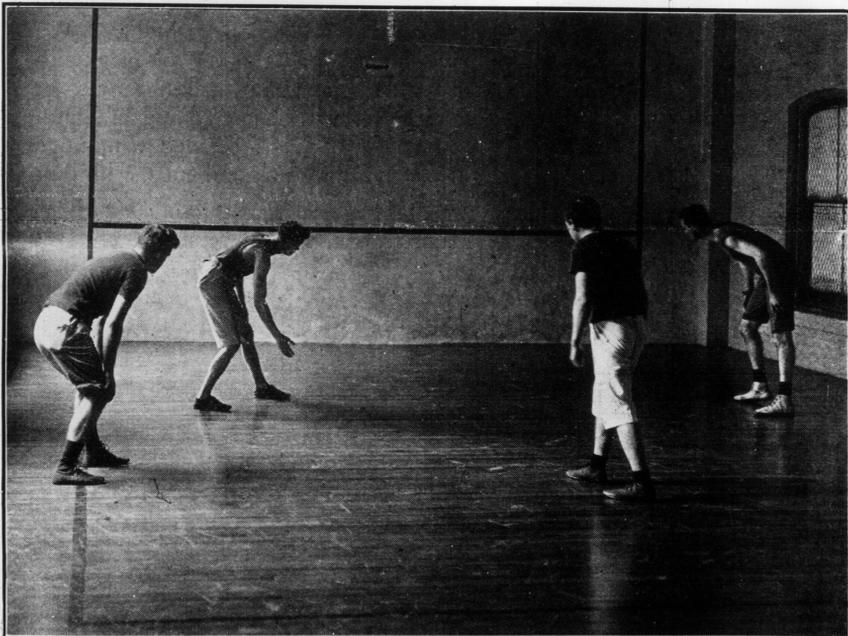

PRACTISING ON PUNCHING BAG.

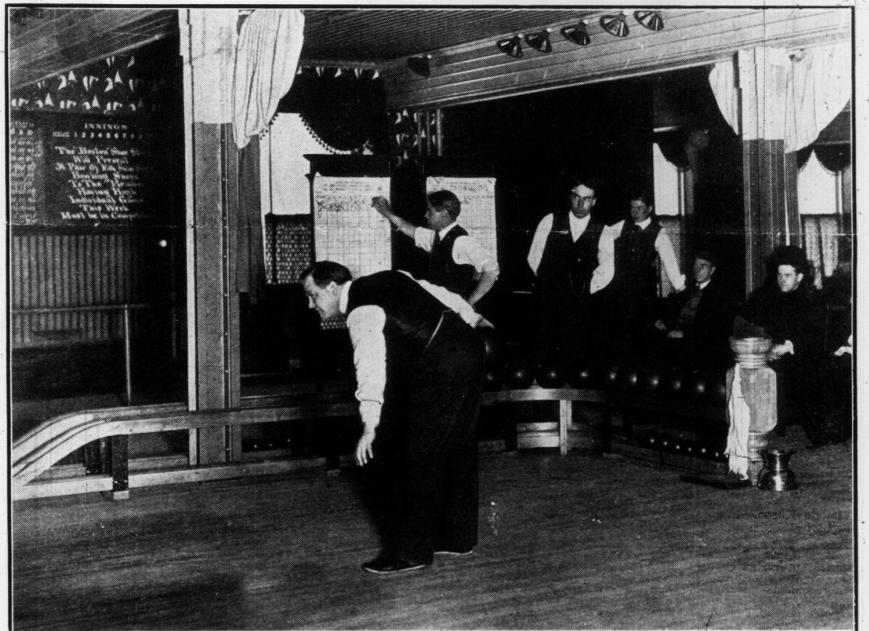

FENCING HOLDS A PECULIAR FASCINATION FOR THE YOUNG.

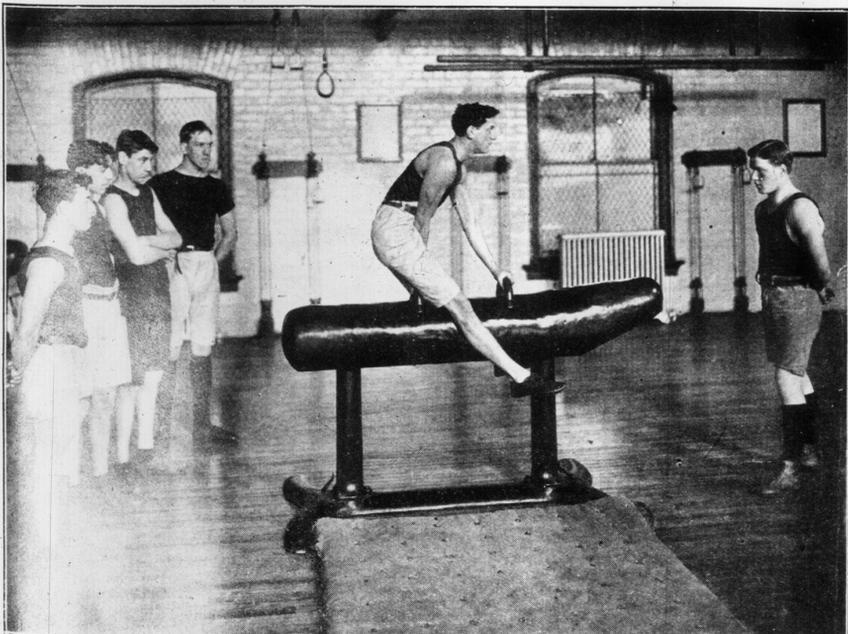

TOM FLANAGAN, SPORTSMAN.

PLAYING THE POPULAR GAME OF HANDBALL.

WHEN SUMMER PASSES AWAY INDOOR BOWLING FURNISHES KEEN PLEASURE.

EXERCISES ON THE HORSE ARE SPLENDID FOR PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT.

BASKETBALL IS ONE OF THE LIVELIEST OF INDOOR SPORTS.

907 9
ALL THE WEEK
Wed. & Sat.

ON

Company of unof the best of californian idyl

FASCINATING THRILLING

CLOSE.
SEATS SELLING

,10, 11

ER

RY

the low stock par gains, me will cut no ice,
in good of bargains,
vent got the price.
—Chicago News.

DECEMBER 5TH.

Members of the Paisley Baseball Team, which closed a splendid season.—Photo by J. W. Behn.

Life in Sunny Spain

It is unwise to enter Spain with any preconceived convictions or plans, writes Hamerton Yorke in The Daily Mail. The opinions of the most determined suffrage would die of inanition owing to the fact that in Spain a lady must never be contradicted by a man, whatever theory she may advance. "You are quite right; I entirely agree with you," says the polite Spaniard with his lips, while inwardly he remains forever of the same opinion still. While as to plans—they are mere works of supererogation, their feasibility depending upon the never-to-be-comprehended workings of those over-gods known among men as railway authorities. Once having discovered that the time table is full of meanings hidden from the vulgar eye, you wisely trouble no more about ways

Not a bit of it. That is its inconsequence. For the next three-quarters of an hour you will now proceed to cool your heels in the line before the solitary ticket office, while a clerk, with a soul above his business, leisurely proceeds to write out tickets of ever-varying destinations, and to clip them out with a pair of scissors. Incidentally, he converses on matters of private import with a loquacious friend inside the office. But there is no hurry, this is the period of geological settling down, when rocks are made. By and by, the single line of this wayside station (albeit it serves a city great with hoar antiquity) yields to view a train, and we revert to our first method, and board it in a screaming mass, a prey to the sudden delusion that there is not a moment to be lost. Newspaper necessary apparel. And—nothing happens. Big wooden arks with gold-painted panels and iron clamps, bastard descendants of the coffers one meets with in museums, continue to be brought into the station, but when one sees two or three on the back of one still active porter, one realizes that here, too, appearances are deceptive, and that the contents are not so bulky as they seem. Gradually the station empties; we are all quite com-

300 lbs
or
CLARK'S
Cooked
Corned Beef

—contains all the nutrition and food value of a 1200 pound steer.

Clark's Corned Beef in tins is perfectly cooked, tasty and appetizing; and contains no bone, or waste. It is not only the most convenient but at its usual retailing price is the

MOST ECONOMICAL OF MEATS.

INSIST ON CLARK'S.

It is Canadian Beef packed in Canada.

Clark's Pork and Beans is one of the most appetizing of breakfast and supper dishes. Can be eaten hot or cold. Plain or with Chili or Tomato Sauce.

vious fear of being whirled past their destination—this, of itself, being proof that the unexpected is quite the expected here, but those with a longer journey before they sit at ease, and the strangers of a while ago are now one's most interested friends. They abound in information of the most varied and untrustworthy kind—little escapes their curiosity, nothing their comment. It is a surprise to hear that one is English—they had thought French, but they like the English much better. Now food is brought out and offered, and good wishes as to its profitability exchanged, for in Spain it is the height of bad manners to eat in churlish solitude, even if sitting by the roadside one must offer one's crust to the passer-by. At present grapes, bread and the eminently respectable chorizo form the menu. "Travel with-

Pony Skin Coats

Shopping for Xmas

HAVE you thought of a suitable gift for your wife or sister or some other fellow's sister? Why not a fur garment? Pony Skin Coats are the latest in Parisian fashions. We have imported a number of black and brown Russian Pony Skin Coats, in Pony style, with latest shape of stand-up-turn-down collar, braided trimmings on collar front, back and cuffs, with buttons to match as in cut . . . 75.00

Muffs to match, Empire shape 15.00

Write for Catalogue.

The W. & D. Dineen Co.

LIMITED
Corner Yonge and Temperance Streets
Toronto.

HOW TO DEPOSIT BY MAIL

Remit the amount of your first deposit. ONE DOLLAR WILL OPEN AN ACCOUNT. You can send money by registered letter, postoffice or express money order, or draft or check on your local bank. As soon as your first deposit reaches us, your name and the amount of your deposit will be entered on our books, and we will send you a pass-book with similar entries. A signature card will also be sent you. Sign it and return to us in order that your signature may be readily identified. A letter is unnecessary. The depositor of a dollar receives the same consideration, prompt attention as the depositor of thousands.

WRITE TO-DAY FOR OUR BOOKLET, "SAFE SAVING."
Canada Permanent MORTGAGE CORPORATION, Toronto Street, Toronto

If You Are Deaf

Most deafness and ear troubles are caused by ignorance of physical law and "buzzing" in the ears, and other symptoms. Gradually deafness follows. Deafness need not always be permanent. The sense of hearing is automatic, mechanical. The human ear is but a delicate piece of mechanism. It is not reasonable that medicine will bring relief, and so there are thousands who accept their affliction incurable, saying: "I have tried many doctors, without getting any relief."

GEO. P. WAY, an electrical engineer, was deaf for 25 years. He had tried almost every device known, but had been under medical treatment, carried an ear trumpet, did everything he could to "help himself," finally he accidentally discovered a scientific principle which he developed through his mechanical genius into a little device which restored his hearing perfectly. This device is called "The Invention Way Ear Drum."

Way Ear Drums have now been on the market for ten years, and the demand would not be the case if they were not reliable. Those born deaf, or whose hearing has been impaired beyond relief, cannot be helped by the Way Ear Drum, but, inasmuch as most cases of deafness will yield to the right assistance, the Way Ear Drum should be tried by every sufferer from defective hearing. They are invisible, cannot collapse in the ear, are painless and easily applied—anyone can take them out and put them in without assistance, and they are not expensive.

Do not judge the Way Ear Drum by any other device, because it is scientifically different. Write, as near as you know, the cause of your deafness, and our specialist will advise you promptly and frankly if he believes you can be helped. We give your name of people in your own vicinity who are wearing the Way Ear Drum, that you may refer to them. Will you not write us to-day? WAY EAR DRUM CO., 1127 Maestic Building, Detroit, Mich.

principal who readily agrees with you (the words) that they are the very worst children in all Spain, was, not so many years ago, a pestering urchin himself. Besides, such discipline is doubtless good for the foreigner's soul, and the unearned increment is equally toothsome to all palates.

It is very hard on the municipalities; they appear to be assigned the work of wearing out certain doorsteps in each street, and it is a business that requires much time and attention. This is why they frequently sit two together, and are allowed to wear such beautiful cotton gloves. At night the watchmen recognized discordant cadences the hour and its atmospheric condition, they too, sit upon the same accommodating steps and hum little tunes to themselves to while the time away. And here it is not the mailed fist, but its antithesis the cotton glove, that rules the land. From the large white pair donned by the new customs officer at Irun, who holds one's garments up with a caution suggestive of their capacity to bite, while he racks his mind in agonized uncertainty as to what to do with them next, to the cotton gloves of the soldiers—grey on week-days, white on Sundays—it is the recognized badge of officialism; and, again, by the very inconsequence of its invariable suggestion of finicking propriety, in season and out of season, and its air of humble striving after an unattainable leather efficiency, it gives a superficial lie to the ability and strength it so inadequately covers.

Too Deep for Him. "No," remarked the man who occasionally lets out an audible thought, "I can't understand it."
"Can't understand what?" queried the party who had overheard the remark.
"Why a woman will weep at the imaginary woes of a stage hero and laugh at the real woes of her husband," explained he of the noisy thoughts.

SUNNYSIDE PARLORS

Are open the year round for balls, banquets, social parties, etc., and lunches of all kinds; also

HUMBER BEACH HOTEL
Where substantial first-class meals are served at short notice, and where the best of foreign and domestic beers, wines, liquors, etc., are kept.

P. V. MEYER, Proprietress.
Park 908 or 928.

DR. J. G. STEWART, V.S.
Diseases of Horses and Cattle Skillfully Treated.
OFFICE: 126 SIMCOE STREET.
Phone M. 2479. Residence P. 1829

PRETTY WOODBRIDGE MAID.
Little Maggie Huson.—Photo by Herbert E. Simpson.

IN GIRLHOOD'S DAYS.
Edna and Bessie Sparrow of Ritchie Avenue.

and means, but resign yourself to a long series of happenings that will and you (accidents apart) somewhere and sometime. First in the order of events comes justly, chaos. A team of bulls, straining and bell-bedecked; hawking, vociferating drivers, yelling encouragements from throats that pit the air in their unnecessary endeavors to assist a clattering, stamping, pelted over the stones; and you are shot out at the station under the impression that all this overwhelming hurry must have its special import.

parcels, precariously bound up with strings, bags, portmanteaux of every known and unknown variety since traveling first came to be, block up carriages and corridors; for here there is an unconquerable aversion from using the luggage van for anything that can be hooked or by crook, be wedged thru door or window, or over the toes of suffering humanity. Waterpots are tucked under the seat, and the gradually composing passengers proceed to divest themselves of all unnecessary—and sometimes one would think quite posed now; have even entered upon a stage of sudden resignation, when, at long last, and apparently with no particular reason, the train makes up its mind to start. Being an express, it will only stop indefinitely at every station and a few times in between, and the pace is a gentle "dander" admirably adapted for the full enjoyment of the landscape. Trains marked "Gran velocidad" (high speed) are of the baggage order, with a predilection for standing still. Station and stationery are almost synonymous terms in Spain. Commercial travelers, with only two or three stations to pass, clutch their seats, and with straining eyes give themselves up to the ob-out chorizo? Why, people will think you can't afford it!" This delectable dish is a species of highly spiced sausage, of the durability and consistency of red elephant hide, and it possesses a power of resistance and abidingness that does it credit in this so mutable world. Easy inconsequence, an adaptability whatever may turn up, has its undoubted charm after the hurry, the punctuality, the grown-up conventionalities of the home life. For in Spain one is again a child. Why, work, anything unpleasant can be thought of by and by. There is always manana (to-morrow), and again manana, and the sun is hot, and bells clang, and the present moment the dinner eat a chance. "I have not their father nor mother, 'cinco centimos!' and grubby hands shoot up into one's face. "And for cinco centimos you can buy new pants! Surely they are cheap in this town!" and the dead adder pursues its way. And it may be—for miracles do happen—that a municipal (policeman) will arise from his customary doorstep and cut a chiquillo (urchin) or two; or a black, triangle-shaped cura (priest) call out an admonishing word in passing. But not often. Children here are looked upon with a specially indulgent eye, and the very Jennie El More as Polly in "The Cat and the Fiddle," at the Grand.

Members Ontario Fruit-Growers' Association, photographed during annual convention at Victoria Hall.

REGINA WATCHES

It's a Handsome Timepiece and an Untailing Time-keeper.

ELLIS BROS., 108 Yonge Street
DIAMONDS and WATCHES Open Evenings Till Xmas

ONE OF THE CHARMING SPOTS YOU MAY HAVE MISSED WHEN SUMMER WAS HERE.—PHOTO BY J. A. BLAKEY.

Waste Paper in Toronto

By "Moutrie."

Possibly not one in a hundred of us ever gives a thought as to what becomes of the contents of our waste paper basket: the torn envelopes of letters, old and sometimes new bills; circulars, and the other communications that daily accumulate around us. Where goes all this mass of paper eventually go to? It will probably surprise you to learn that the greater part of the waste paper handled in Toronto eventually finds its way to the paper manufacturers of the United States, the principal purchasers being in the States of Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana; one business house alone sending five hundred car loads per annum, averaging round about 20,000 to 25,000 lbs. each, this being quite separate and distinct from the stuff shipped from other points direct where it is bought in the eastern provinces, and whence it comes principally by navigation, from such places as Prince Edward Island, Montreal, Quebec, etc.

The price of waste paper as bought by the ragman, who collects it laboriously from door to door, who sells it to the small junk shops, who in their turn dispose of it to the wholesale dealer, varies very much from time to time, being greatly dependent on the current price of wood pulp, which is used for making all the commoner qualities of paper.

Looking into this matter we find that the value to Toronto of the collecting of waste paper is in itself considerable, creating as it has done a new industry, giving employment to numerous people, not only in the collection, and sorting (which has to be most carefully done), but also to such men as teamsters and others.

There was a time at Ottawa, for instance, and at other places also, where the price paid for waste paper was so small that the farmers and others did not trouble to collect it, and simply either let it lie or burnt it up as it accumulated. Competition in the dealers' business being established, immediately prices rose. Now the industry is a most flourishing one, and the business is eagerly sought after by the railroad companies, a fact which surely speaks for itself.

It is curious to stand in one of these dealer's warehouses, and see the men

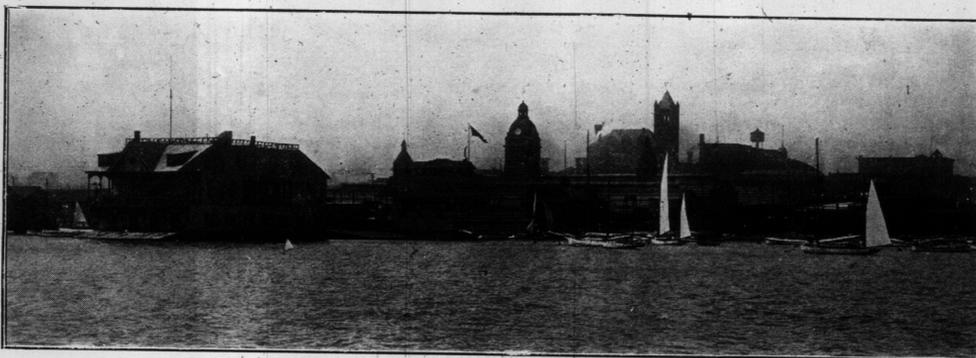

ing immediately over a large wooden press into which it falls, and the top then being closed, the screw is started pressing the paper within together with tremendous force, and making a solid bundle of it, weighing perhaps from 300 to 800 pounds. The sides of the press are then opened and the bundle firmly secured by means of iron wire tied around it, and it is then pushed out of the press on the floor, ready to be shipped away.

The word paper is derived from the Greek word Papyrus, an Egyptian plant, which was used for writing purposes in ancient times.

To the Chinese belongs the credit of Europe almost altogether from rags. Paper, at the present day, is made from such an infinite number of materials that it would be hardly possible to enumerate them all. They are, however, all directly or indirectly of vegetable produce, such as flax, hemp, cotton, wood, straw, esparto and manilla grasses, jute, cane, etc., and the art of paper-making consists in the reduction of all these materials into their primitive fibres, and forming them into felted sheets.

Waste paper, the ruddy of the paper manufacturer, is next in importance to rags, as it is already prepared pulp, the surface of which only requires and boys (mostly apparently of the Jewish persuasion) sorting the various kinds of paper that come in. When a sufficient quantity of paper of one particular kind is ready, it is swept from the first floor where the sorting is being done, thru a large trap door, open-having been the first who formed from fibres the web which constitutes the paper of our time. Their raw materials are the inner bark of several trees, such as the mulberry, and the bamboo, rags, rice, straw and other articles. The infinite variety of uses to which paper is put in China, as articles of clothing, handkerchiefs, napkins, twine, furniture, etc., show the state of perfection which its manufacture has there reached.

A GLIMPSE OF TORONTO'S WATERFRONT IN LATE NOVEMBER.

The Chinese consider paper so indispensable that a certain quantity is frequently secured to their wives in their marriage contracts.

The knowledge of the art seems to have been communicated by the Chinese to the Hindoos and Arabs, brought by the latter to Spain during their occupation of that country and from there it found its way to all parts of Europe. Paper made from cotton, with authentic dates from the tenth and earlier centuries, is preserved; but linen paper cannot be traced further back than the thirteenth century, from which time it seems to have taken the lead. From that period up to the end of the eighteenth century, paper was made in cleaning. The supply of this material increases in the same proportion as that of paper generally; it should, and will be saved in every household, as well as rags.

Wrapping paper, made of straw and other cheap materials, and paper bags have taken the place of old books and newspapers in the stores, for the purpose of packing up goods, and the increasing demand has caused old paper to be saved, where it would formerly have been considered useful only to kindle a fire.

Waste paper is sorted, like rags, into ferent grades. The sub-divisions, according to quality and cleanness of the stock are nearly as numerous as those for rags. Waste paper is a good substitute for rags over which it has the advantage that it is already reduced and absorbs very little power. According to quality and purity, it furnishes from 70 to 90 per cent. of its weight in the new paper.

It is especially of advantage to paper mills which have no water power or not enough of it. If the steam which escapes from the engine is used for boiling the papers, and otherwise econo-

a good many qualities. The cuttings of new white paper make up the highest class, and are called white shavings; they are sub-divided into hard or sized, and soft or unsized shavings. Colored shavings are the cuttings of colored paper.

Paper without printers' ink, but only writing fluid on its surface, such as old blank books, and letters, is highly valued, but found only in comparatively small quantities; another evidence of the daily increasing importance of the printing press.

Printed papers are divided into three classes.

The first one contains the best qualities of clean printed papers, such as books, letters, blank books, and others, which may be partially printed upon. It is called No. 1 Imperfection.

The second class consists of clean newspaper pamphlets and other waste of white paper. It is called No. 2 Imperfections, or No. 1 prints.

Soiled printed or writing papers, which have been once white, make up the third class, or No. 2 prints.

Manilla papers, board cuttings, wrapping papers, and any other kind of which enough can be gathered, are put up separately, and form as many dif-

WE'LL SOON BE BIG. Pretty Twins, Murray and Ollie Englell.

MASTER WILLIAM LEONARD McCLARY, aged 11 Years.

mized, a steam mill will, in working waste paper, consume comparatively little more fuel than one driven by water power.

Telepathic Thrift.
News travels so fast nowadays as to render one almost speechless with wonder at the achievements of the wireless telegraph and telephone. One night last week we won a case of whiskey at the Elks' fair in Lyons, and the night we brought it home there were three church members, a town official and two members of the band on hand to meet us in getting off the car. Since our arrival many people whom we have hitherto believed respectable have gone out of their respective ways to speak kindly to us.—Palmyra (N. Y.) Journal.

Restless Youth.
"I'm tired of being penned up in this prairie-dog hole," said the young specimen of the Cortinus horridus. "Can't I go out and play?"
"No, you can't," responded the mother snake. "You stay right here and play with your rattle."—Chicago Tribune.

COLLEGE COLLECTING AGENCY
ALL KINDS OF DEBTS COLLECTED
ALSO WEEKLY OR MONTHLY ACCOUNTS FOR CITY FIRMS—CALL OR WRITE
Phone Main 3188 — 237 COLLEGE ST.

Have you accepted our remarkable offer?
$2.70 Worth of
SANITOL
for $1.00

We want you to become familiar, by actual use, with all of the tooth and toilet preparations sold under the name Sanitol. We are therefore making you a special introductory offer of full-size packages of the following 10 Sanitol preparations for only $1.00. The total regular price of these 10 products, if purchased separately, is $2.70:

- Sanitol Tooth Powder . . . 25c
- Sanitol Face Cream . . . 25c
- Sanitol Tooth Paste . . . 25c
- Sanitol Toilet Powder . . . 25c
- Sanitol Liquid Antiseptic . . . 25c
- Sanitol Bath Powder . . . 25c
- Sanitol Tooth Brush . . . 35c
- Sanitol Shaving Cream . . . 25c
- Sanitol Violet-Elite Soap . . . 25c
- Sanitol Face Powder . . . 35c
- Total Retail Price . . . $2.70

All these for a $1.00 bill
Cut out this advertisement and mail at once with $1.00 and we will deliver these 10 products to you through your own druggist. In writing for this assortment give:
1st. Your druggist's name and address in full.
2nd. Your name and address in full.
3rd. Pin to the letter a $1.00 bill and address your letter.

Sanitol Chemical Laboratory Company,
126 Boyle Ave., St. Louis, U. S. A.

J. S. HANSON
PRESCRIPTIONS & FINE CHEMICALS
DRUGGIST
MODERN & SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING & FINISHING 444 SPADINA AVE.

Eminent Physicians Prescribe
Wilson's Invalids' Port
In all cases of general debility, convalescence.

This Garland Gas Range will heat your kitchen in winter and do the cooking as well. Your Garland can't do that, however, without our
COKE OR COAL ATTACHMENTS
It can be attached to any Garland range boiler. Call and see it work, or drop a card for circular. Get a Garland Gas or Coal Range.

JARMAN'S 512 Dundas Street
PLUMBING AND GAS HOUSE. Telephone Park 1767

Lamps used by Admiralty, War Office and large Railway Companies.
Get MORE LIGHT and SAVE YOUR CURRENT by using Brilliant Flame Arc Lamps
Alternating or Direct Current Manufacturers' Agents:
Gas & Electric Power Company
Stair Building, Toronto
Trade Special Discount.

TYPE A—$50.00.

"A CAMP OFF THE OLD BLOCK."—PTE. GEORGE H. CREBER, OF THE Q.O.R. AND HIS MILITARY SON.

Repulsive Pimples, Blackheads, Blisters

And all other forms of Acne are quickly and permanently eradicated by our Reliable Home Treatment which acts both externally and internally on the skin. A combination that cannot be beaten. Thousands have been cured, why not you?
Superfluous Hair, Moles
etc., eradicated forever by our reliable method of Electrolysis. Satisfaction guaranteed.
Remedies for all skin, scalp, hair and complexional troubles. Consultation free by mail. Send for booklet "C" and sample White Rose Cream.
Hiscott Dermatological Institute
61 College Street, Toronto
Tel. M. 831. Established 1892.

MRS. PATRICK CAMPBELL, WHO WILL BE SEEN AT THE PRINCESS.

ats suitable ister or Why not oats are

We
ack and oats, in of standmmings with but-75.00
15.00

n Co.

streets

MAIL

express money and the amount send you a pass-sent you. Sign specially identified.
ven the writing prompt atten-
"ving."
reet, Toronto

a stage hero and es of her husband, noisy thoughts.

PARLORS

und for balls, baneto, and lunches
CH HOTEL
st-class meals are s, and where the domestic beers, wines.

Proprietress.
or 328.

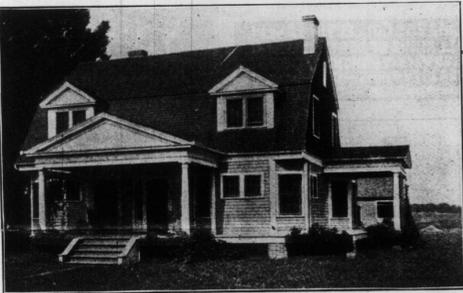

WART, V. S.

ges and Dogs
reated
COE STREET.
Residence P. 1829

$7,500—Palmerston Boulevard, close to College Street, handsome brand new residence, ten rooms and two bathrooms, hardwood floors, oak finish, hot water heating.

FRED HOLT
43 VICTORIA ST.

HOMELIKE AND ARTISTIC.

An Artistic Cottage

This house is in no special style of architecture, but certainly bespeaks a boy home in all its lines, and this, after all, is the principal object to be obtained. As a cottage fit in the gambrel roof style which is so popular from coast to coast. For a house of its apparent size it has considerable room in it. Gambrel roofed houses are always deceiving, there is always more room in them than one would expect from the small cottage appearance of the exterior. This cottage has eight rooms in all, not to mention the large reception hall, pantry, bath room, linen closet and many closets additional. There is a large vestibule. Unless the vestibule is of good size it does not little good, for one must leave the inside door open in order to retreat with a opening the outside door. The vestibule in this house is wide enough to overcome this drawback. The reception hall is very homelike, with its broad combination airway and cozy hall seat. Thru broad openings on either side one looks into the living room and reception room. The dining room is of good size and it will be noticed that each of the three principal rooms has a bay window down its full width, the living room also having a fireplace and a window seat. On the second floor are four good sized bedrooms each with a large closet. The bathroom is of good size, and the linen closet, while not large for the purpose is a decided convenience over none at all. The house could be built for $2,200, not including heating and plumbing.

America Alone Has Humming Birds. The art museums of Europe may have some treasures of which America cannot boast, our continent has the distinction of a monopoly of the world's supply of humming birds. The names of all the feathered beauties of these little creatures are said to be some four hundred species, the four hundred we may well call them, nearly all of which are peculiar to the tropical regions. Only eighteen cross the borders of the United States from Mexico, and occur only in our southwestern states.

The popular idea is that the hummer lives only on honey, gathered from flowers. This is a mistake. The bird does secure some honey, but its food consists mainly of the small insects which frequent the flowers. Some of these insects are injurious to the blossom, and the tiny bird fulfills a useful function in destroying them. That the hummer is insectivorous is also shown by its habit of catching tiny insects on the wing, which is occasionally observed. From "Experiences With Humming-birds," by H. K. Job, in The Outing Magazine for December.

YOU CAN ALWAYS RELY ON OUR
Oysters
BEING FRESH
Stevens Bros.
THE FISH STORE
Corner Robert & College Sts.
Phone North 5505.

The other day a visitor surprised a distinguished professor, who was saying to his baby—"Oh-ny, no-ny, a mussy tick his footy toesies—". Just then he caught sight of the visitor, blushed and muttered—"No, no; you must not expose your pedal extremities by extending them beyond the protective covering of the blankets, or you will lay your system open to attacks of caparrhal affection."

LATE MISS JEAN GEESON, ADDRESSING MEETING.

The death a short time ago in England of Miss Geeson brought to the minds of nearly all the residents of Toronto memories of the splendid work she did to save the Old Fort and to otherwise preserve interesting landmarks. Her hard but unselfish fight was not recognized by the city, perhaps, as it should have been. It is in tribute to her memory and life that this photogravure is published. Miss Geeson may be seen looking upward. Behind her is Sir Mortimore Clark and other prominent people.—Photo loaned by W. J. Watson.

Chapter in the Druce Drama

In view of the sensational developments in the Druce case, it may be useful to recall the facts of a claim as astonishing as anything in history. To understand what the Druce claim means we must go back—without commenting, of course, on the present police court revelations—to the first chapter of the romantic story, when Mrs. Anna changed, and his exhausting researches into the family history have made him the busiest of men. He has not forgotten the struggle his father had in the Australian backwoods to keep the family together. Under the will of Thomas Charles Druce, probate of which was granted in 1863, £1000 was bequeathed to the claimant's father, but the quiet life which was passed in Melbourne, where the family settled down, did not agree with the claimant. With a desire to be independent of his family he returned to the wilds of Australia and led the hard life which so often breaks a colonial. He was employed at a blacksmith's, tended flocks, worked on the land, and felled trees. In the end he became a carpenter and joiner.

He worked up a comparatively big business and then began to look about him for a wife. In 1858 he found a girl, a Melbourne girl, who had married and took up his residence just outside Melbourne. It was in the year 1858, so the story goes, that a man rushed into the workshop of George Hollamby Druce with a newspaper in his hand. It was one of those moments in a man's life so often to be found in novels, but rarely in reality. George was busy working on the model of an invention that was the result of many weeks' mental labor. "I say, George, I believe you are the Duke of Portland." The inventor stood aghast. He looked up from his work and recognized his brother Charles. That was the inspiration which brought the claimant to England.

STRAINING EVERY MUSCLE IN SCRIMMAGE.

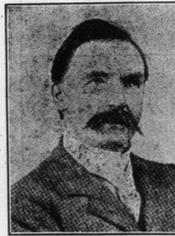

One of the hardest parts of the battle between Parkdale Canoe Club and Hamilton III. rugby teams a week ago, when the former won the junior championship.

Maria Druce made a series of applications for the opening of the Druce grave at Highgate Cemetery, where Thomas Charles Druce is stated to be buried. It is nearly ten years since Mrs. Druce made the sensational allegation that the coffin contained not the body of T. C. Druce, but lumps of lead. She declared that no doctor's certificate was produced at his death in the year 1864. But although she obtained an application to have the vault opened from the chancellor of the Diocese of London, the exhumation order was not carried out. It was the pinch of poverty that drove Mrs. Druce to the necessity of examining more closely the family history. Her husband, Walter Thomas Druce, who she believed was the eldest legitimate son of T. C. Druce, founder of the Baker-street Bazaar, died in the year 1880, and left her practically without any money. At last she had her doubts as to the exact personality of Thomas Charles Druce. It flashed across her mind that although T. C. Druce had left a fortune of £70,000, his personal estate must have amounted to more, that he was a more exalted person than the founder of the bazaar, that he was, in fact, no other than the fifth Duke of Portland.

Again she applied for an exhumation order and it was granted by the late Sir Francis Jeune, but again it was not executed. When the order was almost on the point of being carried out the London Cemetery Company created a sensation by refusing to execute it, and made application by counsel to the divisional court for an order nisi, on the ground, it was alleged, that they had not been consulted as to the proceedings, and also that no authorization was given by the home office. They won, and again Mrs. Druce was checked.

There followed a period of inactivity. Then the present claimant, George Hollamby Druce, came forward. It is claimed that he is the grandson of T. C. Druce, who married a Miss Crickmer. It follows that he claims also to be the grandson of the fifth Duke of Portland. It is the romance of a dual personality. The fifth Duke of Portland is alleged to have lived a double life as Thomas Charles Druce. He died in 1792, and the contention is that Druce did not die in 1864. The founder of the bazaar had another son by his second wife, Herbert Druce, the present owner of both the bazaar and the grave, who is now being prosecuted for perjury. A claim is made against Lord Howard de Walden for the Middlesex estate, which is a part of the Portland heritage.

It is four years since George Hollamby Druce came over from Australia to fight his claim. He is a true Colonial, square jawed, heavily browed, has a big drooping moustache. His face still bears traces of the colonial sun. He has a gentle, frank manner of speaking to the host of friends who are helping him to push his claim. Naturally his colonial mode of life has

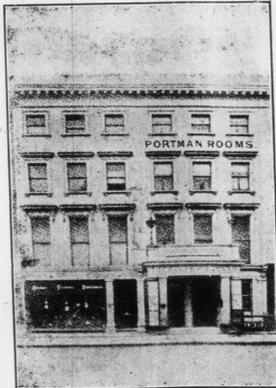

G. HOLLAMBY DRUCE, Grandson of T. C. Druce.

LATE T. C. DRUCE, Proprietor of the Baker Street Bazaar.

HERBERT DRUCE, Second son of T. C. Druce.

THE BAKER STREET BAZAAR.

MRS ANNA MARIA DRUCE, Widow of Walter, third son of T. C. Druce.

THE DRUCE GRAVE AT HIGHGATE CEMETERY.

PRINCIPAL FIGURES AND SCENES IN THE FAMOUS DRUCE CASE WHICH IS CHIEF TOPIC OF TALK IN ENGLAND

J. Must be rooms o hardwo ing-thoroug $8.50 5,000

J. H S B

Did These A friend e board fence them to pas deder what were near stopped, tur till it came that joined they were o this fence o other went to se, showed problem bey No doubt t and one was more natura should rete when it can off upon it The action cess, any r bodies in m one gives course open had turned side fence o other cat, matter. The Gord of care up stepped dow of the brid the train pa seing pow

The clas

J. T. & H. Hutson
43 VICTORIA STREET

$7000, Cor. Dovercourt Rd. and Dewson.

Must be seen to be appreciated, ten rooms and two bathrooms, four rooms on ground floor, including large living-room, with beam ceilings; hardwood trimming and floors, two verandahs, from living and dining-rooms, also separate verandah entrance, enclosed balcony, thoroughly up-to-date and decorated, ready occupation.

$8,500—Cor. Delaware and Dewson, colonial, two bathrooms, four rooms ground floor, including living-room, finished in hardwood, beam ceilings; invites careful inspection.

$5,000 to $5,700—On Delaware Avenue, Dovercourt Road and Dewson, all close to College Street, a number to choose from at above prices, all thoroughly up-to-date, on the square plan, hot water heating, hardwood floors, balconies, and each having three fireplaces and four rooms on first floor. Terms arranged to suit. Further particulars—

J. T. & H. Hutson
43 VICTORIA STREET

HERCULES SPRING BEDS

Are absolutely the most resilient and strongest spring beds made.

Did These Animals Reason or Not?

A friend of mine saw two cats approaching each other on the top of a board fence. There was no room for them to pass each other and he wondered what would happen. When they were near each other one of them stepped, turned around and retreated till it came to another board fence that joined at right angles the one they were on. The cat stepped off on this fence and waited there till the other went by. My friend thought this act showed an appreciation of the problem beyond the reach of instinct. No doubt those cats had met before and one was master of the other. What more natural than that the defeated cat should retreat before the superior, and when it came to the other fence step off upon it and let the victor pass? The action involved no mental process, any more than when two inert bodies in motion meet each other and one gives way. There was no other course open to the cat. If she or he had turned back and taken to the side fence solely to accommodate the other cat, why, that were another matter.

The Gordon setter that met a train of cars upon a railroad bridge, and stepped down upon one of the timbers of the bridge and stood there while the train passed, gave no proof of reasoning powers. It was the only thing the dog could do. Nearly all animals know enough to get out of the way of danger. If they did not, what would become of the race of animals?—From "Animal and Plant Intelligence," by John Burroughs, in The Outing Magazine for December.

THE RIVER OF LIFE.

Life like a river flows ever to sea. Fed by small streamlets, wayward and free. Love, hope and happiness, sweet streamlets three. Go far to make it, happy for thee. Life's river sometimes meets storms on its way. Making it braver to face the next day. Trust after storms have swept over thy breast Love, hope and happiness, lull thee to rest. Flow on, oh river, to eternity's sea. Merged in that great unknown haven with thee. Love, hope and happiness, blended in one. With God to guard thee, oh river, flow on. —F. Gillious.

"My son wants to marry your daughter. Does she know how to cook a good dinner?" "Yes, if she gets the materials for one. Does your son know how to supply them?"

Plain, simple discussion of modern building methods, materials and appliances in which are combined real estate, building construction and equipment, for the benefit of the prospective builder and buyer of a home and property.

Unique Semi-English Home

EXPRESSING SENTIMENTAL IDEALS

There is something about English architecture which adapts itself readily to the home spirit. The reason for this is sentiment. Sentiment pure and simple. The family life consists largely of the living out of sentimental ideas and making the exterior of a man's home, an expression of sentiment and unconventionality will establish a common bond of sympathy between that home and its owner. English architecture is sentimental no doubt for the reason that it is necessarily of a rambling nature, not being confined to any hard and fast rules to certain designs or proportions, as it is the case with the classic styles. Being of this rambling nature, it allows for a large variety of plans that are somewhat out of the square box order, thus allowing more individuality to each home of an English style.

The unique semi-English style of house which we illustrate this week is in decided contrast to the one shown in our last number. The house being placed upon a limited amount of ground does not give the same artistic exterior, but, nevertheless, has all those comforts which an ideal English home affords. It is of simple design, of good proportions, and its plan is very complete, having arrangements and conveniences that would challenge the most exacting housekeeper. This house would cost in the neighborhood of $5000.

A PRETTY HOME.

A PRETTY HOME.

This cottage emphasizes the results obtained from building after good plans. The first story of the house is sided with narrow siding and the upper storey or gables are shingled. The porch is both attractive and unique. The reception hall is thru the centre of the house, a very desirable plan which allows for the convenient arrangement of the rooms, both up stairs and down. This beautiful cottage home contains many of the luxuries of a more pretentious house. It has, besides the usual living rooms, a library, a good-sized pantry and three fireplaces. This latter fact adapts it particularly to a southern community, altho the house as built is in a northern state. It would cost $2000 to build this beautiful cottage.

If prospective home builders could only be made to realize the importance of having good plans to build from, there would be more homes like this beautiful little cottage. It has an exceptionally well-balanced exterior with its broad central gable surmounting

THE Union Trust Company
174 Bay Street

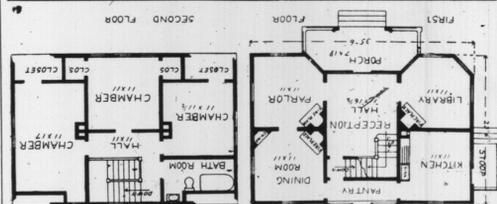

This attractive residence is situated in the northern part of the city, close to Yonge Street. It contains four large rooms on ground floor, besides a cloak-room and pantry. There is a handsome oak staircase leading up to a central hall on first floor, out of which open four large bedrooms, bathroom, separate w.c., and with ample clothes closets; there are two balconies on this floor, making the sleeping apartments exceptionally desirable. The upper floor consists of four good bedrooms and two trunk rooms. The cellar has separate entrance from summer kitchen, and is divided into four compartments. It will thus be seen that this house is specially built, well laid out, and having four fireplaces with handsome mantels. Large grounds, 100 ft. by 180 ft., with a number of splendid large shade trees. We feel justified in claiming that we are here offering one of the most desirable houses in the city. Price $12,000. Terms can be arranged.

FOR SALE

This beautiful suburban home, containing 14 rooms, heated by hot water, conservatory, modern plumbing, stone foundation. There are from seven to twenty acres of land, beautifully laid out and planted with the choicest kinds of fruit and shade trees. There are good out-buildings and brick cottage for hired help. For price and full particulars apply to

Waddington & Grundy
86 King Street East. Phone Main 6395

PLANS FOR PRETTY HOME.

the entrance in an attractive manner. On the rear is another gable to match it. The roof being of gambrel style, there is very little waste room on the second floor and this has been utilized as closets. There is always far more room in a gambrel-roofed house than there appears to be from the outside.

BOXING CLASS IN VARSITY GYMNASIUM.

The class, thru the thoroughness of Mr. Williams, the instructor, perform some skillful movements. The members form the letters "U.T." (University of Toronto) in the photogravure.

Boys' Brigade of Bathurst Street Methodist Church.—A group of runners who may yet shake Tom Longboat's record. It shows the line-up for the first annual Marathon road race, held by the 17th company.

Reading from left to right the names are: Top row—W. R. Plewman, Rev. Hammond, the daddy of the bunch; J. W. Tibbo, E. Davidge. Second row—Wes Spicer, W. Blandford, Jas. Lavery, Jas. Spicer, W. Skinner, Ed. Walker, W. Kellogg, Jas. Yates. Bottom row—E. Forde, A. Durman, A. Skinner, H. Bain, W. Lamb, B. Ashforth, W. Legier, J. Burks, E. Magee. The winner was Jas. Lavery. Time, 22 min. 10 sec. The course was three and a half miles long.

Laugh on Detectives

The task of getting the Cullinan diamond, which was presented to King Edward on his birthday, from the Transvaal to England was an exciting one. A good story is told of how a bluff was carried out in connection with the transportation.

The portion of the journey in which the greatest possibility of molestation lurked was from Johannesburg to Cape Town, where the diamond was placed in the strong-room of the Union Castle liner. Almost a thousand miles of railway had to be negotiated, and in the course of this portion of the trip, about many isolated spots which afford admirable opportunity for the operation of gangs of desperate men.

staff to travel to Cape Town by the mail on an "important mission." There was nothing unusual in the order, for both men—one a Lancashire man and the other of Irish nation-admonitions of caution, a parcel, nearly wrapped in brown paper and carefully sealed, was placed in their charge. This, they were informed, was the Members of the Irish Canadian Athletic Club.—One of the foremost organizations of sportsmen in Canada. It has produced several athletes who have won a name.

These places are passed in the dead of night as well as in broad daylight. Several schemes were evolved to ensure the safety of the precious stone. Finally, all were rejected for the extremely venturesome game of "bluff." A couple of hours before the departure of the home mail from Park Station, the principal station in Johannesburg, an order was issued to two members of the C.S.A. Railway detective ally—were reliable and well-seasoned to the peculiar duties of a detective in the "land of distances," but a subsequent instruction that they should go well armed made them curious and not a little inquisitive as to the nature of the mission. Their curiosity was not appeased, however, until they were ensconced in a first-class compartment and ready for departure. Then, with an effusive air of seriousness and mystery and Cullinan diamond, and they were to deposit it in the strong room of the boat, where the outer wrapping would be stripped off, with one or more of the seals intact. The return of this to the G.P.O. in Johannesburg was to be the guarantee of the postal authorities on board ship having taken over the parcel. Naturally, the forty odd hours' travel was a most anxious time for the detectives. Never during the journey

WHAT A LOT OF SMITHS THERE ARE

There is Smith who runs the drug store and Smith who runs the ice cart—Smith who drives the auto, and Smith who drives a street car—there is Smith who built the library for the town, and Smith who built the building for Smith. There are young Smiths and old Smiths—rich Smiths and poor Smiths—decent Smiths and shady Smiths. What a tremendous difference there is in Smiths!

Then, why, in all reason, don't you realize that if the mere name of Smith doesn't put all its owners into one class, the mere fact of fifty or sixty makes of clothing happening to bear the same price resemblance doesn't count for a thing if there isn't a quality sameness to keep it company?

It isn't fair to compare

SOVEREIGN BRAND CLOTHING

With any other brand sold at the same price. The what you get for your money and what you pay that counts.

COME ON IN. OAK HALL CLOTHIERS

RIGHT OPP. THE CHIMES KING EAST.

J. COOMBES, Manager.

The Beauty of Flowers.—Floral harp, as seen at the Horticultural Show in Massey Hall.

NEWCOMBE PIANOS

Unsurpassed for general Excellence and Superiority of Tone, Quality.

Awarded Gold Medal at the Paris Exposition, 1900, etc., etc.

Silver Medal just Awarded at the Jamestown Exposition for Newcombe Patent Piano.

Write for Illustrated booklet describing this new invention

"THE FINEST MADE IN CANADA"

THE NEWCOMBE PIANO CO., LIMITED
BELLWOODS AVE., TORONTO

City Representatives: THE MULHOLLAND NEWCOMBE, Limited, 8 and 10 Queen East, Toronto.

was the parcel out of the sight of one or the other of them. "I have never experienced a more anxious time, and I do not wish for another like it," was the remark of one.

The original instructions were carried out to the letter and congratulations were mutual. All concerned were heartily glad that the diamond had left South Africa.

Some months later the postmaster-general for the Transvaal, in his report on the postoffice, read at the legislative council at Pretoria, astonished the council, and, indeed, the whole of South Africa, with the announcement that the diamond had been safely conveyed to England as an ordinary registered package.

The postmaster-general did not publicly divulge the contents of the parcel, which was so zealously guarded by the detectives. It was not the demand, and the public had been genuinely "bluffed."

It is unwise to mention the Cullinan diamond now to the detectives who spent two sleepless nights watching over the brown paper parcel.

PENINSULAR STOVES AND RANGES

We have a large stock of these stoves on hand, and we want your opinion on the different designs. Every Peninsular is guaranteed, and will give you perfect satisfaction, both from the heating, baking, and economical standpoint. The Peninsular will out-last two ordinary stoves, and will give satisfaction every day that it is in use.

TORONTO AGENTS
A. WELCH & SON
304 QUEEN STREET WEST

IDOLO SECO SHERRY
BOTTLED IN SPAIN ONLY.

THE BANQUETING WINE par excellence.

At the Banquet of the Worshipful Company of Coopers, held at the Hotel Metropole, London; at the Lord Mayor's dinner, held at Guildhall; at the Royal Navy Club's Banquet at the 29th annual dinner of The Stanley Cycling Club, Hotel Metropole; at the Banquet of the Imperial Industries Club; at the 40th anniversary festival of the Home for Little Boys; at the Festival Dinner of the Middlesex Hospital, London; at the Royal Society Club Dinner, held at the Trocadero; at the Royal Blind Pension Society's Festival Dinner; Gonzalez & Byass' IDOLO SECO SHERRY was specially selected by the Committee and embodied in the wine list. Does this not prove the vast superiority of this brand over all others?

For sale at all leading Hotels, Cafes, Restaurants and Wine Merchants the World over.

Lawrence A. Wilson Co., Ltd., Agents, Montreal.

Type of Canadian Athletic Girl.—Miss T. McCormack of King Street West, Hamilton.

Of M...
How did...
were prepared...
as soon as th...
asked the bo...

Eleanor... name which...

Mr. an...
Mayor of...
Mr. and M...

A scene in "Quality Street," showing how that splendid play was produced at the Royal Alexandra.

Don't Send Your Clothes to the Laundry

With the "1900 Self-Working Washer" your maid can have the week's wash out before 9 o'clock in the morning, without any steaming, scrubbing or drudgery. It saves its cost over and over again in washerwomen's wages, lowered laundry bills and lessened wear and tear on all your washables.

It works so easy that your maid will much prefer doing the washing herself than suffer the annoyance of a washerwoman or the worry of sending the clothes to the laundry.

You know how the washboard wears out clothes. You also know how the laundries destroy dainty undergarments and fine linen fabrics.

The "1900 Self-Working Washer" can not wear out clothes. It drives the water through the clothes like a force pump.

It will wash heavy clothing as well as the finest and get them all spotlessly clean and do the work in half the time without tearing a single thread or cracking a button.

Simply turn a water faucet or an electric light key. After that the machine doesn't need anything but mere watching.

As soon as a tub full of clothes is washed a twist of the fingers switches the power to the wringer to wring the clothes out.

FREE TRIAL OFFER.

To prove this I will send you this machine for one month, free of all charges, freight prepaid. Try it for four washings and if it does not do all that is claimed for it, return it to me at my expense.

No cash deposit is asked, no notes.

If you keep the washer, you can if you wish, pay for it out of what it saves you, in weekly or monthly instalments. If you desire more information before taking advantage of this offer write for my illustrated washer book.

S.W.R. BACH, Mgr., 1900 Washer Co. There are over 2,000 "1900" washers in use in Toronto alone.

Vieux vin D'Oronto et les meilleurs Amers Natu-
rels volla le Vin
Tonique
Byrrh
Jeunes et vieux en trouvent leur benefice.
En vente partout.

Just a choice Old Port combined with some of Nature's best recuperative tonic.

BYRRH TONIC WINE benefits old and young.

On sale everywhere.

Smart Styles —in— PLEATED SKIRTS

Made to Order From Your Own Material

Pleatings for Waists and Flounces

Promptness and Satisfaction Assured

Featherbone Novelty Mfg. Co., Limited
266 KING ST. WEST
Telephone Main 8508
112 YONGE ST.
296 YONGE ST. TORONTO
Montreal: 318 Berks Building.

Of More Importance.
"How did you hint to her that you were prepared to start in housekeeping as soon as the honeymoon was over?" asked the bosom friend.

"Why, I told her that I was prepared to feather her nest," replied the prospective bridegroom.
"And what did she say?"
"Why, she said she was more interested to know if I could feather her hats."

"Yes," rejoined the demoralizer, "and in many cases it takes fifty and even sixty tude."

"the trials of life," remarked the moralizer.
"Yes," rejoined the demoralizer, "and in many cases it takes fifty and even sixty tude."

Thought He Proposed.
The day of the lady cop had arrived.

Eleanor Robson as "Salomy Jane" in the first act of the play of that name which appears at the Princess this week.

A beautiful scene on Price's dairy farm at Erindale, Ontario.

"Halt!" exclaimed one of the gentler guardians as she stepped in front of the speeding automobile.
"Will you take my name, miss?" asked the courteous young man in the big machine.
She blushed to the roots of her hair.
"Take your name?" she chirped. Why—why, this is so sudden!

And More.
"It takes fortitude to enable us to bear

THE CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE

HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO. ESTABLISHED 1867.

B. E. WALKER, President. PAID-UP CAPITAL... $ 10,000,000
ALEX. LAIRD, General Manager. REST... 5,000,000
A. H. IRELAND, Spt. of Branches. TOTAL ASSETS... 113,000,000

BRANCHES IN THE CITY OF TORONTO:
Main Office (21-25 King St. W.) Queen and Bathurst
Bloor and Yonge Queen East (Cor. Grant St.)
Market (103 King St. E.) Spadina and College.
Parkdale (1331 Queen St. W.) Yonge and College
Parliament St. (Cor. Carlton) Yonge and Queen

SAVINGS BANK DEPARTMENT IN EVERY BRANCH

SENATORS BASEBALL CLUB. Front row—H. Lucas, pitcher; Mat. Hayes, mascot; W. Chaloner, mascot; R. Brydges, catcher; W. Jacob, president; R. Beattie, 3rd b. and captain.

Following are the names of the champions of the Intermediate League for 1907, as shown in the illustration below:

Back row—W. Maas, pitcher; W. Grey, r. f.; J. Padden, s. s.; R. McGavin, 1st base and pitcher; G. Pyke, fielder; L. Brown, c. f.; W. Greening, l. f.

Centre row—H. Dandle, 2nd b.; R. B. Fulton, sec.; Jas. Barnfather, manager; Love of Hats.

"I suppose it is love of country that impels our friend to run for office." "I can't be quite sure," answered Farmer Corntossel, "whether it is love of country or hatred of work."

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hepton of Leeds, England.—The wife of Mr. Hepton, who has just been elected Lord Mayor of Leeds, is a Canadian, being the daughter of Robert McLaren, a prominent merchant of St. Catharines. Mr. and Mrs. Hepton have a beautiful summer home in Muskoka and spend a good deal of time there every season.

Senators Baseball Club, Champions of Intermediate League, 1907—Photo Benn Studio.

OFFICERS OF THE PHOEBE-STREET SCHOOL OLD BOYS' ASSOCIATION. Back row: Howard E. Clark, vice-president; A. F. Jury, vice-president; Len. E. Williams, hon. treasurer; George E. Bedson, president. Bottom row: Levi J. Clark, hon. president, principal 1876-1877; Joseph L. Leary, hon. president, principal; R. Bert Magill, hon. secretary; Alexander McMillan, hon. president, principal 1888-1900.

Some Recollections of Phoebe Street School

The original Phoebe-street school dated back to 1855 and consisted of three rooms. Some years later it was enlarged to a two-storey eight-roomed building and concurrently with the increase of local population it was further enlarged in 1878 to twelve rooms, and in 1890 to fourteen. The latter involved not only an additional storey, but considerable changes in the interior plans. Four of the small rooms became two large ones, in one of which a kindergarten was added. The old, narrow, engage the attention of the board of education. Could not old boys from all the schools come together and devise some plan for improvement in this regard? The schools are doing all that is possible under existing conditions, but they are sadly handicapped for want of suitable or available grounds.

The Phoebe-street Old Boys have already determined to equip the gymnasium in the new school. This is in the right direction, better perhaps than instituting a scholarship—especially as the school is so unfavorably situated for out-door physical training. Succeeding L. J. Clark, A. McMillan became principal in 1888, and continued till 1900, with the exception of a year and a half, when he replaced the late Mr. McAllister at Ryerson school, who for this period was supervisor of the schools in the west end.

WOMEN AS INVENTORS.

Women are stepping at a lively gait into the field of invention. There are many successful devices patented in the names of women, and a few of these have made large returns to their inventors. One woman had offered to her as soon as it was patented $20,000 for her device of a satchel-buttoned paper bag. The glove fasteners which have almost superseded the old-fashioned buttons and buttonholes are the invention of a woman. Domestic utensils naturally attract the ingenuity of women, and there are flat-irons, pie tins, ovens, stoves and baking dishes which are paying their originators well from every-day-in-the-year sales. But women are not confined to any field. "No pen-up Utica contracts their powers." A letter box with a signal for the postman when there is a letter in the box is one of woman's inventions. Another woman has invented an embalm- ing fluid for undertakers—grew some thing to think about. There are pages of women's names in the patent office reports. There are wheels, locks, brakes, alarm clocks, fire escapes and all sorts of patents issued to women.—Chicago Journal.

LOST THE GLOVES.

The other day Miss Fannie Lomer ran across the road to see an intimate friend. As is usual with young ladies, they had a good deal to tell one another. In the course of the conversation Fannie said: "I used to think that Gus Simpson was a nice young man, but I just hate him now." "In what way?" "Why, what has he done?" "He's treated me shamefully." "In what way?" "Why the other evening, at a party, I said to him, 'Let's play the old game of temptation. If I say "Yes" or "No" to your questions, I'll owe you a box of gloves, and if you say "Yes" or "No," you'll give me a box."

"The existing confidence created in our many products during many successful years of progress is conclusive proof of the superiority of our creations."

DIAMONDS FOR XMAS

Let your gift this year take the form of a Diamond—you cannot go astray. Look carefully over this list—something is sure to appeal to your ideas—note the price advantages—all stones carry our personal guarantee to be first quality—all mountings are hand-made, each one predominating with a style of its own.

2400 Fine Diamond Solitaire, $12.00	2401 Fine Diamond Solitaire, $35.00	2402 Fine Diamond Solitaire, $17.00	2403 Fine Diamond Ring, $19.00	2404 Fine Diamond Ring, $11.00	2405 Fine Diamond Ring, $13.00	2406 Fine Diamond Solitaire, $25.00	2407 Fine Diamond Solitaire, $30.00
2408 Fine Diamond Solitaire, $50.00	2409 Fine Diamond Solitaire, Hand Carved, $55.00	2410 Fine Diamond Solitaire Ring, $50.00	2411 Fine Diamond Solitaire, Hand Carved, $100.00	2412 Fine Diamond Solitaire, $50.00	2413 Fine Diamond Solitaire, Hand Carved, $55.00	2414 Fine Diamond Solitaire, $100.00	2415 Fine Diamond Solitaire, $100.00
2416 Fine Diamond and Ruby Hoop Ring, $40.00	2417 Fine Diamond and Pearl Hoop Ring, $55.00	2418 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $40.00	2419 Fine Diamond and Pearl Hoop Ring, $30.00	2420 Fine Diamond and Pearl Ring, $40.00	2421 Fine Diamond and Pearl Ring, $15.00	2422 Fine Diamond and Pearl Ring, $35.00	2423 Fine Diamond and Pearl Ring, $25.00
2424 Fine Diamond and Pearl Cluster Ring, $45.00	2425 Fine Diamond and Pearl Ring, $25.00	2426 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $45.00	2427 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $25.00	2428 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $18.00	2429 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $15.00	2430 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $15.00	2431 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $15.00
2432 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2433 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2434 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2435 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2436 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2437 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2438 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2439 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00
2440 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2441 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2442 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2443 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2444 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2445 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2446 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2447 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00
2448 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2449 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2450 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2451 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2452 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2453 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2454 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2455 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00
2456 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2457 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2458 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2459 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2460 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2461 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2462 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2463 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00
2464 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2465 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2466 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2467 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2468 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2469 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2470 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2471 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00
2472 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2473 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2474 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2475 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2476 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2477 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2478 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2479 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00
2480 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2481 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2482 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2483 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2484 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2485 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2486 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2487 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00
2488 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2489 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2490 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2491 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2492 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2493 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2494 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2495 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00
2496 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2497 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2498 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2499 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2500 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2501 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2502 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00	2503 Fine Diamond and Ruby Princess Hoop Ring, $100.00

A REASON
We are manufacturing jewelers; we buy our diamonds as such (not as retailers); we get big discounts; we mount in our own factory, on the premises, at first cost. These are our price-saving facilities—facilities enjoyed by no other jewelers in Toronto.

An early selection of the gift is wise—we lay aside your choice until desired. We also extend to you an invitation to inspect our vast stock of articles specially gotten together for your Xmas purchasing.

AMBROSE KENT & SONS LIMITED
JEWELERS AND DIAMOND MERCHANTS
156 Yonge St. Toronto

LATE WILLIAM E. RYAN Who died from injuries received in an automobile accident.

diny cross-halls were made wider and more light admitted. The caretaker's apartments, which had from the beginning been in the basement, were now transferred to a cottage on the premises, built under the supervision of Mr. Bishop, the new superintendent of school buildings.

This suggests the disadvantages with which the later boys of the old school have had to contend. Except basketball, there was no game open to them because there was no playground. Up to the nineties there was but one spot, and that not large, which afforded room for a game of ball. This was immediately east of the Weston Park building in the head of Soho-street. If, during the noon hour they hurried back to a game of the old quarter ball would break in on them, perhaps at a critical moment. Nevertheless, the boys were usually ready when the last signal was given. A pressing need of playgrounds is a question that should more seriously

ALBERT WILLIAMS RESTAURANT
179 Yonge St. Toronto.

A leading down-town cafe where the most varied menu in the city is obtainable. Table d'Hote Noon and Evening Dinners. Afternoon Tea from 3 to 6. Most reasonable prices prevail. Private dining-room for ladies. Banquet halls for large and small parties.

My Xmas Stock is Now Ready Consisting of DIAMONDS

- Pearl Pendants
- Stick Pins
- Brooches
- Cut Glass
- Locket Chains and Jewellery of all kinds.

I can save you 20 per cent. on all presents.

On payment of a small deposit goods will be held until Xmas.

R. A. GLEDHILL
DIRECT IMPORTER OF DIAMONDS
21 Yonge Street Arcade Issuer of Marriage Licenses.

STOCK WORTH MILLIONS.

The holders of the rich shares of the Canada Northwest Land Company will soon be carving up a few millions of dollars.

At a meeting of directors, Sir William Van Horne submitted figures showing that in a comparatively short time the entire amount of preferred and common stock subscribed will have been paid back to the holders, and the company will still hold lands, which at to-day's prices may pay out from $800 to $1000 a share, 25 per cent. value.

The largest shareholders of the company who will participate in the division are:

Robert Meighen	784
Mrs. J. A. C. McIntyre	675
Sir William Van Horne	2815
J. R. Ambrose and Charles Finlay (in trust)	1445
Lord Strathcona	1104
William Hendrie Hamilton	800
W. M. Howard, England	738
Sir Thomas Shaughnessy	500
R. B. Angus	500
R. B. Angus (in trust)	2812
Sir William Mulock	460
George F. Hart	400
Robert Reford	400
E. J. O'Brien	400
W. D. Matthews	400
R. Simpson (estate)	375
Senator Mackay	200

There are a large number of shareholders who own all the way from 5 to 10 shares.

Up to the annual meeting in March, out of a capital of $1,467,881, there had been returned to the stockholders the sum of $732,840, and at the last meeting

HOLIDAY GIFTS IN FINE CHINA AND GLASS

William Junor
88 West King St. Toronto

EYE Strain

causes headache and other disorders. Don't have recourse to drugs, have the cause removed. Dr. Harvey's skilled refractometer cures all defects of the eyes, and stops squinting by a painless and non-surgical method.

CONSULT HIM AT THE Empire College of Ophthalmology
OFFICE HOURS 9 A. M. TO 6 P. M.
358 Queen Street West, Toronto

Free! Handsome Fur Scarf.

This beautiful Fur Scarf made of rich black fur is OVER 56 INCHES LONG. It is cut in latest up-to-date fashion, and made from specially selected skins, with four full-furred black marten tails and neck chain and fastener. Very full and stylish, equal in appearance to the more expensive fur. To quickly introduce and advertise our Great Family Remedy, Dr. Maturin's Vegetable Pills (the greatest remedy known for the cure of weak and impure blood, indigestion, rheumatism, constipation, nervous diseases, kidney and liver troubles, catarrh of the bladder, and all female weaknesses, a builder and system renovator, we desire a few honest agents in each locality to receive our fine fur.

Don't Send Any Money—We Trust You. Just send us your name and address and agree to sell 10 boxes of our Pills at 25c a box, and we will send them to you post paid. Every customer who buys from you a box of Pills, receives a handsome piece of Jewellery which you give. This helps to make your sales quickly. When all sold send us the money received, $2.50, and we will send you without delay one of our Fur Scarves. Guaranteed a perfect and reliable Scarf. Address THE DR. MATURIN MEDICINE CO., Dept. 1000, Toronto, Ont.

WILL H. GREGORY
Director of the Royal Alexandra players, who, tho seldom seen by the public, is largely responsible for the success of their productions.

Director of the Royal Alexandra players, who, tho seldom seen by the public, is largely responsible for the success of their productions.

Near tion for H. H. Realty PRO

JAPA WA

Reason of As

VANCOU Drafts of forer betw tions for t were pres Saturday veigation The two signed by for the W that of the Macdonell.

umbra Gen two an- fight against contracts, b he present Marpole, I would be ca In the c colliery, 500 (the total w dian Nippo $135 to $1. Nippon Cos each man s the C.P.R. at similar tilled to fr freight rate the results Commission will not be That no c Hindu in house Assoc influx from. pon. Compa brought in supplied to Company, I General Com one thousand

FEWER Japanese in With H

TOKIO, D the bureau of foreign office States and investigating arrived in T with the off with whom veas of the week. In a said: "My visit Canada con tion to the upon race o of it is due by agitators dents in the who resent trymen from Mexico, whi proper for interests of abroad, man and living in my opinion, order to kee United State of labor im States, being the number

HAD HIS IN B Business M and Big

While stan to be busin Bay-street b day, a King he Pocket 5 $769.55 and He was on money in the not miss it. He then re ing in the li police any ad one there at The banks suspend pay the police at

GIVE Miss Flores Saturday pre gold watch Min-Bingham her splendid ladies' wait finished sixth