BRITISH WARSHIP NOW AT CALCUTTA

Situation Quieter, But Some Looting Goes On.

Indian Fanatics Beheld European, and Another Also Reported Murdered—Military Operations Progress Steadily.

London, Aug. 27.—An official statement says the military operations in India in connection with the Malabar disturbances are progressing satisfactorily. It reports that a mob of 2,000 attacked the police at Tirunavelli and later attacked the British post, but were dispersed with machine guns. Lieutenant Rowley and Johnston became separated from the troops and their bodies were subsequently recovered, terribly mutilated.

The railway station and post office at Paranganagudi have been sacked and the line cut. The situation now is as follows:

A detachment of troops at Malapuran are isolated but all are well. The line to Kuttippalam is cut, the road is blocked and bridges broken. Some government offices have been gutted and two British soldiers, one European and fifteen police and local officials of Tirur have been taken prisoners.

The warship Canopus arrived at Calcutta yesterday. The situation is quiet, but looting and murder of Hindus are rampant at Walluvanad and Ponnani. Fanatics from Calicut entered a Palenogode estate and beheaded a European in his bungalow. It is also reported that a European was murdered and his body thrown into the river. Looting continues.

B. C. ASKED FOR MORE MEN FOR HARVEST FIELDS

Vancouver, Aug. 27.—About 3,800 unemployed have been sent to the harvest fields from British Columbia and orders have been received for 1,200 more. Employment bureau officials say they are unable to fill orders now on hand, owing to the refusal of the unemployed to accept the work. Civic officials have warned those refusing to take advantage of the work offered on the grounds that they will not be permitted to participate in unemployment relief next winter. It is estimated that there are still more than 9,000 unemployed in the province.

The order for payment not having been complied with, Magistrate Forbes was ordered to investigate, and reports O'Hanley made an attempt to flee to the United States. An order has been issued for his commitment to the county jail if he does not pay up.

UNEARTHED OLD INSCRIPTION

Italian Savant Finds Roman Records in Cyrene in Africa.

London, Aug. 27.—A discovery which, it is said, will form one of the fundamental sources for a history of the Roman Empire under Augustus has been made recently by Dr. Oliviero, an Italian savant in Cyrene, the ancient Greek colony in Africa, found in the seventh century.

Morning Post correspondent, writing from Cyrene, says that excavations at Ghengis—the ancient Berber, which Herodotus, near the mouth of the River Lethe—have resulted in the unearthing of a block of marble eight feet long, one face of which bears a flawless Greek inscription of over one hundred lines. The translation of a letter from Augustus on the government and administration of justice in Cyrene, giving a wonderful insight into the financial and judicial conditions of the country at that time.

WITH HER BUTLER TO BUCKINGHAM

Wealthy War Widow and Winner of D. S. O.

"The Tragedy of Lord Kitchener," by Viscount Esher—How Irish Negotiations are Said to Have Started—A Royal Wedding.

(From Our Own Correspondent) London, Aug. 27.—A poignant little vignette of post-war life was told me today by a lady who knows both the people concerned.

The son of a Midland vicar who joined the army before his university career was completed, rose from a subaltern to the rank of colonel, and the command of his regiment. His father died during the war and he found that he had no qualifications for post-war employment.

A year ago, in desperation, he accepted a job as butler to a wealthy widow whose husband had made a fortune during the war. A few weeks since he asked if he might have the following Thursday off, as he had a private engagement. His mistress replied that it could be arranged if the appointment was a pressing one.

Under some pressure he admitted that he had received the royal command to attend at Buckingham Palace to be introduced to the D. S. O., whereupon the lady not only consented to his having the day free, but insisted on his using the Rolls Royce. She then asked if he was taking his mother or his fiancée with him, and on replying that his fiancée's mother was dead and that he was engaged, she coyly suggested that he should take her.

He could not easily refuse, with the result that the Rolls Royce carried to Buckingham Palace the servant and mistress of the lady who had been introduced to the D. S. O., whereupon the lady not only consented to his having the day free, but insisted on his using the Rolls Royce. She then asked if he was taking his mother or his fiancée with him, and on replying that his fiancée's mother was dead and that he was engaged, she coyly suggested that he should take her.

U. S. AND ALLIES

What London Times Thinks About the Situation.

London, Aug. 27.—The London Times says that it prefers to take, on the whole, an optimistic view of the German-American peace treaty, but it does not believe the Allies will be contented to continue to do the duty of execution of the treaty while the United States stands at a convenient distance to reap the share of benefits that may accrue.

The newspaper welcomes the treaty, however, as the first definite indication of renewal of active U. S. interest in European affairs, and assumes from the U. S. acceptance of the provisions of the treaty that she will continue to participate in the occupation of the Rhine.

Failure of the U. S. to ratify the defensive convention of the year, honours in the newspaper to have been one of the chief causes of friction which, it says, impeded developments of the Entente and the maintenance of peace in Europe since the war.

CREW ABANDON VESSEL ASHORE NEAR HALIFAX

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 27.—Abandoned by her crew with her stern gradually settling, gently pounding on the "sides" at Sambro ledges, where she went ashore early yesterday morning, the U. S. The annual convention of the brotherhood will open on Monday morning and will last for four days. About 200 delegates will be in attendance. While he could not say what the brotherhood would decide upon in view of the action taken by the labor parliament, Mr. Mosher said it was possible that the brotherhood would broaden out materially in order to take in other classes of railway workers.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I have been dreaming about a hammock. Curious thing to dream about—just it. Not much of a hammock at that—but there were other things. There was the shade of some cherry trees. A bit of sloping greenward ran down to a great pine, through whose spreading branches could be seen glimpses of a broad stream stretching away for miles. With blue hills in the distance. Overhead, fleecy clouds went drifting away toward some far-off haven beyond the blue horizon. Over the stream inshore a delightful languor in the air, a glory of purple asters and golden-rod by the roadside, and the rich red of the Hawthorne berries. What does the dream mean?"

FOR FATHER AND SON

SNAP The Great Hand Cleaner

It bears that the members of the Oxford University Expedition to the Spitzbergen landed safely. The first word of their work on the island has just reached London, and will probably be published in the next few days. They had a streak of two of good luck and better they had at the start through the strike troubles in Norway. One of the objects of the expedition was to find out something of a rare Arctic bird called the Barnacle Goose, and, if possible, to get some of its eggs. They had the good fortune to discover some of the birds with nests and eggs complete almost immediately after their first landing.

At the last meeting of the G. W. V. A. a resolution of appreciation and good wishes was unanimously adopted and subsequently presented to Rev. Canon and Mrs. G. A. ### "BILLY" GAMBLE DIES AT 61.

Chicago Bachelor Who Won Fame as a Practical Jokester.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—William O. "Billy" Gamble, sixty-one, one of the best known bachelor jokers in Chicago, who won fame among friends in the Casino, University, Saddle and Cycle and Chicago Golf clubs as a practical joker, died here this week. He originated the "hutter" and "baker's" balls, burlesquing the annual bachelors' and benedict's dance; and amused society with his "widows' and widowers' parties." He also launched the "society force publication," "Almanach de Goethe Street," devoted to Gold Coast celebrities of the North Side.

At the time of the coronation of King Edward he caused a furore by sending elaborately engraved "invitations" to the ceremony to a selected list of friends, to the deep chagrin of those who were omitted.

His latest stunt was the "Humdrum Club," a bride playing group of bachelors' friends whom he fed at their weekly meetings on lettuce, radishes and green onions raised in window boxes at his bachelor apartment.

TWO PRIESTS STOP BATTLE.

Wave American Flag and Save 400 Besieged Republicans.

Ossining, Aug. 27.—The Rev. Father James A. Walsh, head of the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America, at Ossining recently stopped a battle in China and saved 400 federal troops from slaughter. The battle took place a few days ago in Kowchow, province of Kwang Tung, which is the domain of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, president of the Chinese republic.

President Sun had 400 soldiers in Kowchow. About 4,000 revolutionary troops from Kwang Sai, a northern province, invaded Kowchow. They were raining bombs in the yard of the republic.

HAS 23 OFFERS OF MARRIAGE; ACCEPTS THE FIRST PROPOSAL

Newark, N. J., August 27.—(By Canadian Press)—There is no security of husbands, so Mrs. Nettie Durham, of 503 Washington street, has discovered. Tired of keeping a rooming house, Mrs. Durham, who has been a widow for fifteen years, wrote to the Sheriff of Omaha several weeks ago asking him to find her a husband. She now has twenty-three proposals of marriage on her hands. She overcame the difficulty by making a choice by refusing the man whose proposal she received first. She sent cards of polite refusal to the second and third men heard from, and ignored the other twenty.

ENGLISH TRADE INACTIVE

London, Aug. 27—It is impossible as yet to give actual figures showing the extent of revival in our trade since termination of the coal strike. Recovery is laboriously slow; in fact, almost imperceptible in some industries. The coal situation is improving rapidly and fuel prices are now falling sharply. Nevertheless, manufacturers say that a further decline must occur in order to bring the cost of fuel to a reasonable economic level. At present, home consumption and export requirements are far short of the coal output, and it will take weeks—possibly months—for the trade to absorb the excess. Production figures of pig iron in Great Britain for July are now available. They show that, although the coal miners returned to work early in that month, only fifteen blast furnaces were operating in July, as against 109 before the coal strike, and 299 in July last year. The month's output of pig iron was only 19,200 tons, compared with 39,100 in March, 1920, before the coal stoppage, and 850,000 in July a year ago. Production of steel ingots and castings was 117,200 tons, compared with 39,100 in March, 1920, and 789,000 in the previous July and 884,700 last September, the month of largest output since the strike.

MORE MILLIONS IN MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

Toronto About to Take Over Entire Street Car Service—Some Results.

Toronto, Aug. 27.—(By Canadian Press).—Undeterred by the report of a special commission declaring the general Ontario provincial hydro-radial programme economically unsound, the city of Toronto on September 1 will take over the street car service, now in the hands of the Toronto Railway Company, until that date pass over to civic ownership.

When the city has taken possession of the local Mackenzie light and power plant and the York radials under the so-called clear-up deal and purchased the street railway, which is expected to take over on September 1, it will have well on to eighty millions of dollars invested in public utilities.

Here is how the impressive total is made up:—
Local light and power plants, $19,000,000
City's share of generating and transmission plants, Niagara 29,000,000
Civic carlines 2,600,000
Toronto Railway System, say 20,000,000
Waterworks system 17,000,000
Civic abattoir 4,000,000

$77,900,000
This vast amount does not include Toronto's share of the cost of the Hydro's Chippewa canal, which may run from fifteen to twenty-five millions, nor the millions of dollars invested in the Canadian National Exhibition, harbor works, fire protection, parks, etc.

The abattoir and the civic car lines have shown deficits every year. A few citizens have complained. The majority appear to have been satisfied because the railways were stub lines built in the outer districts where the company refused to operate, and the city council did not expect them to pay more than operating expenses until the private franchise expired. As to the abattoir, it was regarded as a partial protection against profiteering in meat and against the selling of unwholesome meat. Last year the abattoir paid its way.

The city's experience with public ownership of power and light accounts for much of the enthusiasm for public ownership. During the last ten years, on an investment of eleven million dollars in the local hydro, Toronto has saved in rates to its own customers twenty-two millions of dollars, in addition to the millions saved by the customers of the private plant through the forced reduction of rates. Now the city is buying out the private plant for about eight million dollars a year, which alone is the equivalent of more than $4.00 per horsepower. Needless duplicate capital investment of the same amount yearly also will be avoided. A further advantage is that the city will be spared the necessity of linking up the street railway with the existing hydro system at a cost of more than two million dollars.

The city's share of the Mackenzie generating and transmission plants works out to $16,000,000 in a total of twenty-two millions, the other hydro municipalities in the Niagara system assuming the remainder. This big sum does not stagger the citizens because they not only have not felt the burden of the thirteen millions already invested in generating and transmission plants but have experienced actual relief in the cheapening of light and power.

It is worth noting that the city already pays, as its share of the proportion of water rentals to the province, $11,000 per year, and in taxes to the municipalities.

on its hydro plants $62,500. The street railway is now paying $38 per horsepower for its current, but when it is municipally owned and gets hydro power after next September the cost may be reduced $4 or $5 per horsepower.

A picturesque feature of the big deal is that Toronto thereby was made the more or less reluctant purchaser of nearly one hundred miles of radial railway. These lines run on the highway to the city limits on the east and west and from Lake Simcoe to a point about four miles within the city boundaries on the north. The radial cars, however, are to stop hereafter at the northern limits, which means a long freight haul down town by truck. The municipalities through which the northern line or Metropolitan Railway runs are to have the opportunity of joining the city as part owners.

The Ontario Hydro Commission is to operate the three radials on behalf of the city. Sir Adam Beck is fearful that he cannot make them pay unless they can get to the waterfront at the foot of Yonge street and link up with one another. The provincial government, however, is refusing to guarantee the cost of construction with that end in view, urging that it should be a purely Toronto proposition.

Recently the adjoining county of York has shown some disposition to become a joint owner of the Metropolitan Railway. The line is of standard gauge and will remain so. If the city continues

LACO NITRO LAMPS

The Light for the Living-Room should be selected with utmost care, for it is here that truly if "there's no place like home"—there's no place in the home like the living room. It reflects your changing moods—it must be bright as sunlight for your bright occasions—it can be cozy for your relaxation—comfortable for your reading or study.

LACO NITRO LAMPS are the lamps for the living room, for their beautiful soft white light rightly shaded or diffused can be adapted to all occasions. LACO NITRO LAMPS are high powered, efficient lamps, producing the quality of light that most closely approximates sunlight. Inside the LACO NITRO LAMP bulb the filament burns in a specially prepared gas instead of in a vacuum, as in other lamps.

Not only does this produce a brighter and more efficient light, but it prevents bulb-blackening, so common in poor lamps.

Consult your Electrical or Hardware Dealer and buy your Lamps from him—he knows the best.

LACO NITRO LAMPS

Plan now to look over your lamps and throw out the poor, weak bulbs, and replace with LACO NITRO LAMPS.

INSPECTED SHOWS WHICH CAME HERE

H. A. Porter and W. H. Golding, who have been to Bangor viewing the Williams Standard Shows at the fair in that city and which are booked here for the local exhibition, returned on Thursday. Mr. Porter said yesterday that the Bangor show had excellent race track accommodations, a large midway than ever had been attempted here and a grand display of fireworks, but that their show did not compare with the local exhibition in regard to the decoration of their buildings and exhibits of animals and farm produce.

Regarding the Williams Standard Shows which will be here on Monday to repair and sell before the opening of the local exhibition, Mr. Porter said that it contained many attractive features, including the merry-go-round, the Ferris wheel and the whip and, in addition, eight side shows. He mentioned an aquatic act which was an especially good feature as the majority of the work in this act was done under water.

One feature which Mr. Porter does not know whether he will be able to secure or not is an animal which was caught a few days before the opening of the Bangor fair in the woods of Maine. He said that this animal was a cat with wings protruding from the hind quarters although these wings were covered with hair instead of feathers. The owner has already refused an offer of $1,100 for the animal.

SWETKA-BRITTON.
A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of the groom's parents, Fair Vale, on Thursday, August 25, when Rev. Dr. Hibbard united in marriage Miss Helen Britton, of Cardiff, Wales, and John Swetka of Detroit, Michigan, formerly of this city. The bride, who was given away by Percy Sudbury of Moncton, wore a gown of white satin and georgette with veil and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Little Miss Mary Seaton acted as flower girl and was prettily gowned in pink organdie. The wedding march was effectively played by Miss Jennie Roden. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The presents received were numerous, including a chest of silver from the Union Corporation Ltd., London, England, with which firm the bride was employed. During the evening an informal reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Swetka will leave on Saturday for Detroit where they will make their home.

A GREAT OUTING FOR THE ORPHANS
Some 300 Expected This Afternoon at Picnic at S. I. side.
More than 300 orphans from the institutions about the city will be made happy this afternoon, when they will be taken to Seaside Park to enjoy an outing there. The children will include those of St. Patrick's Industrial School, Silver Falls, St. Vincent's Orphanage, Children's Aid, Protestant Orphanage, east side, Protestant Orphanage, west side, and the Provincial Home for Children. Automobiles, loaned by the people of the city, will convey the children to the park at two o'clock this afternoon and bring them back in the evening.
Ice cream, candy and peanuts and other refreshments, which have been donated by citizens, will be served to the children. An outdoor stage has been erected by Alexander Wilson, and on this structure a troupe of little girls, under the direction of Mrs. Jessie Ross, and assisted by Bayard Currie, will give a musical entertainment. They will be followed by Steve Mathews with some character sketches, and by Robert Carson, who will sing some comic songs. Mr. Duplissa and Charles Cromwell will give exhibitions of juggling and sleight-of-hand work, and eight young ladies, attired in fancy gowns, will perform an old-fashioned dance. F. Joyce will be stage manager.
Following the entertainment, the children will form in line and pass before a fish-pond, where they will receive presents of a useful and pleasing nature. Each child will also receive a half-pound box of chocolates. Races and sports will then be held. Good prizes are offered. This will close the day's sport for the children, as they are scheduled to return home from the park at six o'clock.
Those responsible for this good work are Charles F. Tilley, chairman; Captain A. J. Mulcahy, J. H. Hamilton, A. C. Powers, and Elmer R. Ingraham, treasurer. They wish to thank the citizens who were liberal in their donations and their assistance, and especially the ladies of West St. John, who donated all the cake that will be consumed by the youngsters this afternoon.

UNDER WAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIPS
Preparations to Make Big Meet Here an Outstanding Success—Word from Outside.
The committee having in hand preparations for the maritime province track and field championships met yesterday afternoon at the office of A. W. Covey, Sydney street, and got things going well. The chief idea in mind is to make the sports an outstanding success and to this end the most minute details are being looked after by competent men. Already entry forms are being applied for. A notable assembly of the best athletes of the three provinces is assured. The meet will be on Saturday afternoon September 10, and entries will close with L. T. Dow at Mr. Covey's office on September 3.
The Halifax Chronicle says: "St. John is to have the maritime field and track championships this year. They will include all the standard events, the discus and 56 pound put being eliminated, and there is being added a 220 yards race for boys which is an short distance bicycle race. The meet will be conducted by the Maritime Association and intimation has been received from Charlottetown that P. E. Island will send a delegation of about fifteen competitors."
The King's County Record, Sussex, says: "The Sussex A. A. C. will be represented at the maritime province championship meeting, which will be held at St. John on Saturday, September 10. There will be athletes from all parts of the provinces entered and the local entrants will have a tryout against the best that can be produced in the west."

HALIFAX COMMENT ON THE REGATTA
All Well Pleased With Reception Here.
Chronicle Says Hilton Belyea is Going to St. Mary's Regatta and Also Three Other St. John Oarsmen—Boat-building.
Of the Renforth regatta, the Halifax Chronicle says all representatives from that city were delighted with the reception here and that "the big meet has cemented the combination of St. John and Halifax in amateur rowing. Hilton Belyea, St. John's great sculler and Canadian champion, has started something in the sister city and judging by the immense crowd which witnessed the Renforth regatta, St. John once more has the rowing fever—and has it real bad at that."
"And it was not only at the regatta course that the present popularity of rowing was evident. Through the city there were evidences of it on all sides. The firm of Manchester, Robertson and Allison made a great rowing display at their big store in King street and a feature that attracted the attention and admiration of thousands was the magnificent Wallace Ross memorial trophy presented by that late oarsman's brother to the city of St. John for annual competition by oarsmen under 22 years of age, and which race Harry Giggey, a promising young Millidgeville N. B. oarsman won at the Renforth regatta. Another racing exhibit within the store is the shell which the famous Paris crew of St. John raced. The lines of the shell are good, the outriggers and rowlocks in fine shape and the craft wonderfully well preserved. Evidently there had been some improvement made in the fittings since the Paris crew's time for it is fitted with sliding or rolling track. A well-known Halifaxian who examined the boat carefully said that in lines, construction and rigging she was little, if any, behind the craft of today.
"In show windows on the same street there were pictures and photos of Renforth and his crew, and of Wallace Ross and many other well-known New Brunswick oarsmen. In another window was a display of Hilton Belyea's great collection in trophies, cups and medals won in sculling, skating and bicycle racing.
The regatta brought out at Renforth many St. John veterans of the racing game including an elderly man who used to row against the Paris crew in his young days, and was the guest of the mayor of St. John during the day. Rev. Mr. Fulton, well-known in Halifax, was there, too, as much interested in racing as ever and Peter Clinch, who in the past was so strongly identified with the promotion of racing in St. John was one of the finest judges of the regatta.
The boat quarters in the club house at the side of the course were somewhat crowded because of the great number of shells and there was every opportunity of comparing the different makes and styles.
The one regrettable feature was what occurred in the junior fours, which St. Mary's led by lengths at the end of the race but were disqualified because of not crossing the line between the two buoys denoting the finish line but instead crossing between the inner buoy and the shore, the explanation given being that the crew steersman thought that as in Halifax, the inner end of the line was on the shore and not a buoy on the water. After consulting the racing laws the referee decided that not having finished between the two buoys as required by the conditions of racing there was no action open to him but ruling the crew out.
"Hilton Belyea, the Canadian champion, will come to St. Mary's regatta here and will row in the single and also in the fours, bringing three other St. John oarsmen with him to make up the crew. Hilton is an admirer of the N. W. Arm and when he was at Buffalo did not hesitate to say so in making comparisons. He had his houseboat, with his family on board, up at Renforth, moored at the side of the regatta course and was a house to all.
A suggestion was made at St. John this week that a boat builder there was willing to build a four oared shell and ship to Halifax in the spring so that the same Halifax crew could row it on time and then row their own best available shell on time likewise, with the understanding that if the St. John shell wins on the time trial it be purchased at the price which the other shell cost, while if it fails to make the best time of the two it can be sent back on the builder's hands.
At Renforth both Jack O'Neill and P. H. Hart had a try out of Belyea's single and rather liked its action.
