A BLOODY OUTBREAK OF RUSSIAN CONVICTS

Political Prisoners in Yakutsk District of Siberia Mutinied and Started for Alaska—Grim Story Which Comes From the Frozen North

Seattle, Wash., June 30.—A cable despatch from Nome, Alaska, describes a bloody outbreak of Russian political prisoners in the Yakutsk district of Siberia, and flight of the mutineers across the wilderness toward Behring Strait, in an effort to reach Alaska.

The despatch says: "Advices from Vladivostok of the Northern Siberian Company across Behring Strait, state that the band of prisoners in the Yakutsk district revolted, killed the guards and started on a retreat of 2,000 miles for East Cape, where they planned to take small boats and make the mainland of Alaska, 38 miles away. Captain Kalininkoff, acting governor of the district, ordered Cosaks to attack the prisoners. The fugitives, in ambush, killed four Cosaks and wounded twelve others, forcing them to retreat. Approaching an Esquimaux village the convicts pressed the natives into their service and confiscated food, clothing and tools. When the Esquimaux rebelled, a number were shot. Capt. Kave issued a warning by special messenger to East Cape and that place was garrisoned against attack. The report reaching here is that the convicts are expected to try to make Dinvidies Island, in the centre of Behring Straits. A Russian cruiser is expected daily at Vladivostok to intercept the fugitives. Captain Kalininkoff says the convicts are murderers and criminals of the worst sort."

GREAT COLLEGES HELD CLOSING TODAY

New Haven, Conn., June 30.—Commencement day at Yale University was especially honored by the presence of the chief magistrate of the nation, William H. Taft, 78, who in adherence to precedent as a fellow, dated the robes as a corporation member, and walked in the procession, which is made up of the several hundred officers of the university and the candidates for degrees. The occasion was one of simple arrangements as far as President Taft was concerned, as he in theory at least, laid aside his public duties and during his stay in New Haven and at the university was simply Yale Alumnus and member of the corporation.

BASEBALL WRANGLE

The baseball situation is interesting. At time of going to press, the Times is unable to state what teams will play on either ground tonight. The game passed this finite split between St. Peter's and St. Joseph's. There was a proposal this morning to have a game between St. Peter's and St. John the Baptist and the Clippers on the Shamrock grounds tomorrow, and between St. John the Baptist and St. Peter's on the Shamrock grounds on Wednesday. The society teams would thus have the call of both grounds.

HUNG HERSELF IN BOSTON HOTEL

Boston, June 29.—A woman who registered at the Imperial Hotel, Brighton, today as "Mrs. Walter P. Sprague, St. John, N. B.," committed suicide by hanging with a handkerchief in her room. A note left indicated that the woman was in poor health and had intended drowning herself. An investigation by the police showed she was the wife of Walter Sprague of Dorchester, Mass., and had been visiting in St. John recently. Several unused postal cards of St. John scenery (Rockwood Park, etc.) were found among the effects. It is not known if she has relatives there. Mrs. Sprague was about 30 years of age and leaves a young child.

New York, June 30.—The following of the zig-zag trail left by the trunk containing the body of Elsie Sigel on the day following her murder, has resulted in the implicating of seven Chinamen, all of whom, while not actually accused of having a hand in the killing of the young woman, are suspected of having had knowledge of the crime and of the efforts of Leon Ling to dispose of the body. Only one of the seven, Chung Sin, is in the custody of the police. The others, Wah Lee, the laundryman, at whose place in 126th street, the trunk was first placed, has disappeared, and Lee Sing, who chop suey restaurant keeper in Newark, has been in communication with the police.

STEAM AND SAIL FISHERS MAY FIGHT

Repairs to the Concrete Main on the Loch Lomond System Were Completed Today

North Sydney, N. S. June 30.—(Special)—The sequel to the trouble between the Gloucester fishing schooner Senator Gardner and the French steamer trawler on the Quaro Banks a few weeks ago, will probably develop here in the course of a few days, when the big trawler, Nordcapper comes to port for bunker coal. The Gorton Pew Fishing Co., of Gloucester, owners of the Senator Gardner, have been in communication with the leading law firms here for a week regarding the matter, and an action for damages against the French steamer will be instituted as soon as she reaches port. The Nordcapper is now at St. Pierre, where she is loading her season's catch of 2,500 quintals of fish. The Gloucester will also, it is said, take action against the trawler Jeanette for interference with the schooner Smuggler, whose skipper, Patrick Sheehan, claims he was overpowered on the banks by the trawler, and gear and lines valued at over $1,000 destroyed.

MUCH BUSINESS IN PROBATE COURT

Estate of David H. Anderson of the parish of Musquash, gentleman. Return of citation for leave to sell the real estate, which there a large number of different parcels, in consequence of a deficiency of the personality has been filed. Leave to sell granted up to amount sufficient to pay the debts. Mr. S. A. M. Skinner, proctor. Other counsel was present to represent one of the creditors. The amount of the claim of each creditor being small, and there being no reason why leave to sell should not be granted, the court refused to allow the application for costs for the appearance of counsel for such creditor.

ACCIDENT AT INDIANTOWN

A drowning fatality was narrowly averted at Indiantown this morning, and that the river waters did not claim a victim due to the tact and coolness displayed by Bruce Weston, pursuer of the steamer May Queen, and Harbor Master George Coram. As it was, John Landers of Pleasant Point, had a very close call.

It was about 8.15, just previous to the departure of the steamer May Queen, when freight was being rushed aboard the steamer. Landers, it is said, was considerably under the influence of liquor and was standing on a gang plank in the way of the trucks passing up and down. In some manner he stumbled over or was struck by a truck and fell between the steamer and the wharf. Bruce Weston and Harbor Master Coram were the first to his assistance. A plank was thrown to Landers, but he made no effort to hold it or assist himself. Mr. Coram then procured a boat-hook and reaching down was just in time to hook Landers by the coat as he was going down. Weston then, reaching far down, caught hold of Landers' coat collar as Coram pulled him to the surface.

MR. BINKS TAKES PRECAUTIONS
Mr. Peter Binks took a sunshine bath this morning. When he turned on the tap in his bathroom there was no water. Mr. Binks's neighbors were shocked at some of the remarks that floated out of the window, for he is usually the mildest and most cheerful of men. He was down town this morning ordering a rain-barrel, and conferring with Superintendent Hutchinson of the weather department. He was also called on the chief of police and said that he was in danger of meeting an alderman whenever he went out. He wanted the chief to protect the alderman.

THE WAR SCARE
The war scare in Crete appears to have subsided, and a peace commission of British dignitaries has gone to Berlin to confer with the brethren there. London suffragettes and St. John ball players are now under observation.

THE HOLIDAY FEAST
Mr. Hiram Hornbass informed the Times news reporter that there has been great excitement among the mosquitoes and black flies in the settlement for several days past. He has observed the same thing in several years, just before the first of July; and attributes it to the fact that many city people, whose check is soft and tender, visit the Settlement for the holiday.

"That doesn't mean reporters," added Hiram, and the new reporter gravely lifted his hat and acknowledged the compliment to the tribe.

PRINCESS ZARA

The Power of the Fraternity.

The princess did not start—she did not even look surprised when I uttered the strange sentence, but her great round eyes walled up in tears, and she caught her breath in a half-sobbing gasp. Then, without uttering a word, she extended her hand and placed it in mine, and we remained thus for a moment silent. Presently, in a low whisper, I heard her repeat after me the words, "Love, honor, and obey," and she added: "As long as we both shall live."

With a quick gesture that was purely feminine, she withdrew her hand from mine and thrust it clattering hair away from her temples. Then she went to the window and gazed upon the snow clad city, and thus she remained for several minutes.

Presently she returned and came back to where I was standing.

"It is strange, it is not, Mr. Derrington," she asked in a low voice. "I do not think that I am myself truly. It is hard to realize that this is Zara, the Echeveria who speaks to you now. I am like another person; it is as though another spirit had entered me, and I seem to act without a will of my own. It began last night when you first entered my presence. I saw you apparently asleep in the garden, knowing that you had overheard the conversation between my brother and myself. I asserted that when we stood together under the green light later in the evening, when you told me that I must keep the engagement made with you today, it seemed as though you were longed to me—as though you had stolen away my will—though I know you would not act without my sanction. Can you explain it?"

"No," I replied, "nobody can explain it. It is a secret that is known only to God, and His ways are unsearchable. But we have recognized it from the first."

We said nothing for a few minutes. The subject seemed out of place at that moment. We both knew all that the other would have said, or could wish to say, and there was no need to do what would seem like repeating it.

"When will you hear from that note you have sent me?" she asked presently.

"Very soon, now," I replied. "If your servant has delivered the message, there should be a reply within a few minutes. Let us go to the window and watch."

So we stood there by the window, silently communing with each other without speaking. Her left hand was clasped within my right one, and the minutes came and went unheeded, until a large, double-breasted man, who was approaching I had recognized the huge proportions of Tom Coyle, holding the reins, and I knew that underneath the covering were trustworthy followers of mine who would make short work of the waiting assassins.

"There comes the answer to my note," I said. "Watch that brizaka."

"I see it," she replied then.

It dashed upon a run straight for the point where the other one was waiting, and came to a stop with a suddenness that threw the horses back upon their haunches. At that same instant there dashed from beneath the covering a half dozen men, and while some seized the horses of the waiting brizaka, the others pulled the man from the driver's seat, still others jerked open the curtains and sprang inside. From our post of observation we could see that a severe struggle was taking place, and twice we heard the reports of pistols; and then the smaller carriage drove away, while the larger one, that which Tom Coyle had been driving, dashed straight for the door of the princess's house.

"The other contained the prisoners," I said to my companion.

"This one is coming here. Remember now, Zara, that you promised to trust me implicitly. No matter what happens, remember that."

"I will remember," she replied.

Then there came the summons at the door, and the voice of Tom Coyle requesting an audience with the Princess Zara d'Echeveria. She looked at me inquiringly, and I nodded. In a moment more, Tom, followed by two men, entered the room where we were awaiting them.

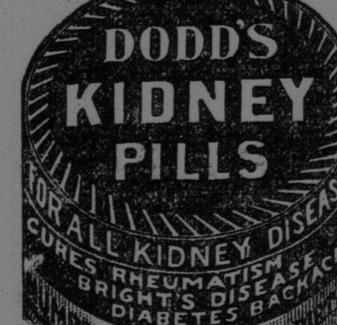

"Your name is Dubravnik?" said one of the men, addressing me.

"Yes," I replied.

"And may I ask if this is the Princess d'Echeveria?"

"That is my name," replied Zara.

"I am very sorry to disturb you, but I must request you both to go with me, in the name of the Czar."

Fashion Hint for Times Readers

Eyelet embroidery flouncing in rather a wide width was used for this charming blouse, which is dressy in character, albeit very simply fashioned. Strips of the flouncing, running up and down, form the fronts of the blouse, the overlapping front sleeves are also formed of the flouncing used up and down, the edge of scallops running down the outer side of the arm. The blouse is finished with a little turn-down collar edged with the pleated lace and a small jabot tie of embroidery.

NEW YORK WOMAN DELEGATE MAKES ATTACK ON THEATRES

Tells the Women's Council that Plays of Doubtful Moral Calibre Always Draw Big Houses—A Plea for the Blind—Marriage of Cousins Scored

Toronto, June 29.—Before the section of the Women's Congress on social work and moral reform today, Miss Sadie American of New York, made a clever attack upon the theatres, which received considerable applause from her audience.

"Do you think that alert theatrical managers do not know their business? Don't they know that the sure guarantee of success for a play is to get it damned in the public print? Then you go to see the play for yourself, and come home and tell your neighbor that it is not fit for her to see. Then she immediately distrusts your judgment and goes to see it for herself. It's all wrong. You cannot rule people by saying 'don't' to them.

"Unless you are willing to provide well-remunerated proper places for your boys and girls to dance in, they will go to improper places. It is human nature to want amusement.

"When the author of 'Three Weeks' came to the United States and was lectured from one end of the country to the other, it is true that she might have written the most elaborate treatise on the white slave traffic, and remained unnoticed in a corner of a book that no one can mention in writing a society without seeing that sort of name raised which should make every decent woman blush to her finger tips.

"Before the industrial sections an address was given by F. Gardner, principal of the School for the Blind, Beaufort. There are 2,000 blind in the province of whom 200 are of or under school age. The blind want work, something to make the long, dreary day more livable, and there are many kinds of work which they can do, well, though not so fast, as those having sight. It is inadvisable, he went on, "for a blind person to marry one who is sightless, not because there is risk of blind offspring, but because every house needs at least one pair of eyes. The influence of the council should be used to prevent the intermarriage of couples which is a prevalent cause of blindness, deafness and other physical and mental defects.

"Fritz Helga Schested, of Denmark, told a section of the delegates to the International Congress of Women how to farm this morning. "Farming affords an interesting and excellent occupation, and the physical work is not beyond woman's strength," she said, "and the women in Denmark are steadily taking it up as a profession. I myself, an one of the women who earn their living as an agriculturalist, after having gone through a special training on this head. Of the 724,000 people who live in the rural districts of Denmark, 150,000 or 20-45 per cent are women who earn their living by agricultural work."

ONE DEAD, TWO HURT IN MONTREAL AUTO SMASH

Montreal, June 29.—One man instantly killed, another seriously injured internally with two others bruised and badly shaken was the result of an automobile accident near Dixie at 9 o'clock tonight. The dead man is William C. McIntyre, a prominent and wealthy Montrealer, and the injured are Percy Cowan, a stock broker, and W. H. Weldon, manager of the Windsor Hotel.

The chauffeur escaped with a few bruises. The car was travelling at a high rate of speed, bound for Montreal. Suddenly it swerved into a telegraph pole and overturned, the pole snapping off and crushing the life out of McIntyre, who was in the rear seat with Cowan.

Cher, N. B., June 29.—The marriage of Miss Frances Dickey Cunliffe to Rev. John James McCaskill occurred at Christ church, Fort Kent (Maine), today. As the Lohengrin wedding march was played by Bernard Anselmi, of Houlton, the bride leaning on the arm of her father, and preceded by Miss Laura Mallett, as flower girl, was met at the altar by the groom, accompanied by the groomsmen, W. H. Cunliffe, Jr.

The bride was attended by the Misses Emma Putnam and Virginia Donnell, of Houlton, as bridesmaids. Miss Cunliffe looked exceedingly pretty in a wedding gown of diaphanous satin train with veil fastened with lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of the same flowers, while the bridesmaids were faultless in pink chiffon over mesaline.

The ring service was performed by Rev. Kenneth McKay of Houlton. The church was filled with relatives and friends of the bride and groom and at the close of the service nearly all remained to the home of the bride, where an informal reception was held, and cake and punch served by the Misses Dora Brodbery and Mary Pinkham.

The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pendant of aqua marine seed pearls while the bridesmaid, groomsmen, flower girls and ushers were handsomely and appropriately remunerated.

The groom, who is now pastor of St. Matthew's church, St. John, for seven years, occupied the pulpit in Christ church, Fort Kent, and during that time he endeavored himself to his whole congregation and was respected and loved by the entire community.

Miss Cunliffe, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cunliffe, is one of the most charming and dearly loved young ladies of her town, and her departure from Fort Kent leaves a vacancy in her circle of friends which can never be filled.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaskill left on the Temiscouata express for a two months tour of the provinces, including a few weeks fishing at Bras d'Or lakes, Nova Scotia. They were wished Godspeed by numerous friends amid showers of ac, confetti and old shoes.

Everything She Ate SEEMED A BURDEN TO CARRY. HAD STOMACH TROUBLE FOUR YEARS.

When your food has not been properly digested, your body has not received the benefit it should. The exertions of the gastric juice have been confined entirely to removing the unassimilated undigested portions of food which they cannot properly digest as speedily as possible from the body, thereby only giving the blood a sour and crusting of nourishment with which to feed the tissues. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the bowels, promotes perfect digestion, makes pure blood, tones the stomach, and thus restores perfect health and strength to the debilitated system.

Mrs. D. A. Francisco, Roseland, B.C., writes: "I was suffering from stomach trouble of the worst kind for about four years. Everything I ate seemed a burden to carry. I always awoke in the morning with a sickening and loathing in my mouth and was also troubled with swellings in my hands and feet, which my physician said was due to the disordered state of my stomach. I tried everything that was purchasable, and also consulted two or three physicians, but could get no relief until one of my neighbors told me of a wonderful cure by Burdock Blood Bitters. I used a dozen or ten bottles and am now perfectly cured. I wish to recommend B.B.B. to anyone who may be so unfortunate as I was."

CANADA'S CREDIT IN ENGLISH MARKET

It Was Never so High as it is at the Present Time—Largest Colonial Loan Ever Floats—Goes for Good Price

Montreal, June 29.—A special London cable says: The government loan out tomorrow differs from the market expectations. It will not be for £10,000,000, but for £20,000,000, 3 1/2 per cent inscribed stock at 98 1/2, or 97, as the market conjectured. It will fall due from 1930 to 1950.

It is the largest loan any colony ever placed on this market. The price of the existing stock is 99, and the underwriting of such a large loan within half a point of the existing quotation is accepted as evidence of Canada's high credit here, especially seeing all the business is done through a Canadian bank, namely the Bank of Montreal.

Leading brokers comment on the fact that the market considers the price high, which shows that Canada got her money cheaply enough. She might have done even better had she not been so inopportunely pressed. Statements somewhat spoiled the impression. Four millions of the loan goes for redemption of bonds maturing.

DR. PUGSLEY TURNS FIRST SOD OF THE PORT ARTHUR DRYDOCK

In His Address the Minister of Public Works Predicts a Great Future for the Town Which Gave 100 Acres of Water Front and a Big Cash Bonus to Aid the Industry

Port Arthur, Ont., June 29.—The minister of public works, with Mrs. Pugsley, his two sons and Miss MacDonald, private secretary, arrived here this morning being preceded by his department.

Mr. Connors, M.P., the mayor of the city, resident engineer of the department at Port Arthur and Fort William, and a number of aldermen and citizens, and first taken on an automobile tour around the city, after which the minister made a mention of the harbor and works now made outside Canada to vessels engaged in Canadian coasting trade, would have upon the shipbuilding and ship-repairing industry of the great lakes, and spoke of the great pleasure it gave him to be present on this important occasion. The minister was followed by Mr. Connors, M.P., and others.

This evening the minister will be banqueted by the Canadian Club, and tomorrow he will visit Fort-William for the purpose of inspecting the extensive harbor works being carried on at that port, leaving tomorrow evening for Winnipeg.

"PORRIDGE CRAZY" HE BROKE WINDOWS

London, Ont., June 29.—William Austin, an Englishman, arrested this morning for being disorderly and breaking the windows of his boarding house, gave an account of his case, which he did it because he had nothing to eat but porridge morning, noon and night at his meals for two weeks.

"I am simply porridge crazy," he said, "and can't sleep or work for thinking about it. I pay $4 a week, but they won't give me anything else."

He was remanded for a week.

The concert given by the City Cornet Band from the bandstand in King square last night, was thoroughly enjoyed by a very large number of people. The crowd was very orderly and the policemen report no trouble.

FOUGHT TO DEATH ON THE RIVER BANKS

British Columbia Constable and a Suspected Robber in a Duel.

Ashcroft, B. C., June 29.—A boat containing three men suspected of being train robbers was seen coming down Thompson river, passing Venies station yesterday. The boat reached Ashcroft containing two men. They were ordered by Special Constable Her Decker to pull into shore and after a landing was made one of the men stepped out of the boat.

Decker, who was alone, called on him to surrender, leveling a Winchester rifle; at the same instant the man pulled a revolver, the shots were fired simultaneously and the suspected robber fell dead.

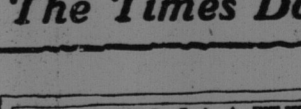

The second man, who was still in the boat, then opened fire, hitting Decker instantly. The murderer then escaped, heading eastward along the railway.

There is no trace of the escaped robber. Bloodhounds and an armed posse are scouring the hills south of Ashcroft in an effort to locate the bandit. His capture is imminent as he is on foot and has no means of a hasty retreat. It is expected he will fight to a finish and he is armed to the teeth.

It will be remembered that in the attempted train robbery over a week ago the hold-up men tackled the wrong train and missed their treasure. Over a dozen mounted police, besides special constables, provincial police and Thiel detectives, have been on the robbery trail ever since. A reward of $8,000 is offered for their capture.

PAYING THE PIPER

St. John is paying dearly for having paid a local contracting firm to experiment with work that should have been done by contractors skilled in the work. The citizens had hoped that when the new water supply was turned on their troubles would have ended, but yesterday this morning there were houses without water.

There should have been no such leaks as have been found in the reinforced concrete pipe on the main line to Loch Lomond. There is no reasonable excuse for the conditions that exist. Work that was well done and well inspected as the work progressed, by men who knew what they were inspecting, should not need repairs at this early stage. Nor should the citizens who endorsed the enormous expenditure to secure a good water supply find themselves thrown back upon former conditions.

More People Needed The imperial press conference adopted a resolution offered by Sir Hugh Graham urging that the British press endeavor to turn the attention of intending emigrants to countries under the flag. Sir Hugh emphasized the great importance of a large population in Canada, as the greatest factor in this country's contribution to imperial safety and prosperity. The resolution was well timed. Canada and Australia have not received their fair share of the emigrants from the old country.

Mr. Hazen's Valley Railway bluff does not work well. He has made no proposition to the federal government that he could not abandon at any moment. There is no legislative power behind his talk. He did not seek any such authority.

one. The imperial and colonial governments might co-operate in such work and it would pay to expend money in aiding emigrating Britons if they would settle in the colonies. This is the subsidy or bonus idea and in some cases it might be abused. But what of that so long as in the aggregate the result is good. The keeping of surplus population of the British Isles under the flag is easily one of the most important problems both of Great and Greater Britain.

THE QUEBEC BRIDGE

Some Conservative journals are much excited by the heat and the Quebec bridge. Touching the latter, some remarks made by the Montreal Witness should be carefully considered by the anxious editors. We quote: "Little surprise will be felt at the report that the difficulties in the way of constructing the Quebec bridge are so stupendous that the project may be delayed on account of the differences of opinion among the expert engineers, both with regard to the general principle and the details of the work. It is an undertaking in which the element of doubt should not be allowed to enter. Yet it seems the engineers cannot agree and, so long as there is disagreement, there must be doubts. Better abandon the project altogether than have a bridge with the reputation of being unsafe. The cantilever principle in bridge-building would seem to have its limitations, and it may be that the proposed Quebec bridge reaches them. That such may be the case is suggested by the quotation attributed to an eminent engineer who said that the element of contraction and expansion calls for an allowance of two feet four inches in the length of the bridge. This, it is further noted, has to be allowed for in the calculation for stresses over the whole structure, and is mentioned as a sample of the elements of unprecedented character which must be taken into consideration. The difficulties encountered may be imagined when it is added that there is no existing data upon which to base calculations involving such departures from ordinary bridge engineering practice, and we can well believe that the three experts engaged upon the task will not arrive at a unanimous conclusion for some time to come."

Never in its history has Canada had so good cause to rejoice on the national holiday. The country is prosperous, and progressive. Its population and wealth are increasing. It has the promise of splendid crops for the current year. Its factories are busy. In the west new towns are springing up. Development of great resources is steadily in progress. The ties that bind Canada to the empire are being drawn closer in sympathy and in practical relations. The young Canadian has opportunities opening before him as bright and promising as ever offered themselves to the ambitious heart of youth in any age or clime. Let us all, therefore, enjoy the day and honor the flag.

Canada's credit in London is so high that there was no difficulty in floating a large loan on most favorable terms. The fact is the subject of congratulatory comment by the London press and by leading brokers. The leading financiers in the great centre of imperial finance declare their faith in Canada under Liberal rule in the most emphatic and effective way. Hon. Mr. Fielding is to be congratulated on the success of this loan, and the government upon the high credit this country enjoys in the world's greatest money market.

One hundred and twelve suffragettes were arrested in London, after a vain attempt to storm Westminster, and after two of them had in turn knocked off the hat of a police inspector. There is method behind this madness. These women are determined to gain a hearing, and will not be ignored. Mr. Asquith may as well capitulate.

The minister of public works was given a great reception at Port Arthur yesterday, on the occasion of the turning of the first sod for the dry dock and shipbuilding plant. The people appreciate a minister who appreciates and labors for the development of Canada.

The statement that we are to get the Champlain monument next fall does not arouse unmitigated enthusiasm. The statement may be made subject to revision. That monument is almost as elusive as the ghost of the great colonizer.

Mr. Hazen's Valley Railway bluff does not work well. He has made no proposition to the federal government that he could not abandon at any moment. There is no legislative power behind his talk. He did not seek any such authority.

Capt. Saul Bonnell, who went as pilot on the government steamer Minto on her trip to the Marconi stations down the Strait of Belle Isle has returned to North Sydney and reports the Strait still almost blocked with ice. The Minto went as far north as Belle Isle, and had considerable difficulty in forcing her way through the ice, especially at the northern end of the Strait, where hundreds of immense bergs were met with. Capt. Bonnell states that in his many years experience in Newfoundland waters he has never seen such great quantities of ice at this season of the year. It will be at least a month before the Belle Isle route will be available for transatlantic steamers.

The constitution board, composed of Judge Chipman, Kentville, Judge McGillivray, Antigonish, and D. McDougall, president of the United Mine Workers, met on Monday at Sydney Mines and adjourned, owing to Judge McGillivray having to take up Judge Patterson's duties in the Pictou circuit. Messrs. T. J. Browne, of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal company, appeared before the board, and on behalf of his company, issued a statement to the effect that among other reasons the Sydney Mines corporation refuses to recognize the United Mine Workers' association on the grounds that it is a foreign corporation. The district convention twenty-three, of Nova Scotia, will meet here tomorrow and the day following to discuss important questions at issue.

LA Tosca AT THE NICKEL

Today and tomorrow, the holiday, at the Nickel, patrons will be treated to a wonderfully fine bill. In the first place there is to be another of those magnificently acted and elaborately staged Pathé art films in Victorien Sardou's masterpiece, La Tosca, a thrilling drama of Rome at a time when the whole country was terror-stricken, wondering whether it would be Napoleon or the Austrians who would gain the upper hand.

There comes the seasonally fine Vitagraph Co. art film, of a historical character, entitled, "Washington Under the British Flag," and two comedy numbers, will make the Nickel's programme the most wonderfully fine ever seen in this city.

A special feature will be a reproduction—through the courtesy of J. & A. McMillan—of Queen Alexandra's private collection of snapshots, pictures dear to British hearts, and the pictures yet published today in their Red and Lullaby numbers respectively and on Thursday will present the Nickel with the orchestra has provided. The Nickel will be open at 10 a. m. Thursday to accommodate those who want the afternoon and evening for other pleasures.

Collier's big London show at the Victoria rink continues to please and the large gathering present last evening warmly praised the marvellous acts seen at this great show.

This afternoon and evening and for the remainder of the week there will be two performances daily: Dominion Day (Thursday), two big shows at popular prices.

BIG INDIAN PICTURE AT STAR

Tonight and tomorrow at the Star Theatre over in north end, there is going to be one of the finest pictures yet published in "The Indian Trailer," one of those wild and dashing western prairie melodramas so popular with all classes of people. This feature was promised for Monday and Tuesday last, but it missed shipment in Montreal. There will be four other fine pictures. All Western in a Coney Island song-and-dance music. Big holiday shows starting at 2 p. m. and 8.30 p. m.

AGREEMENT RE HARBOR LOTS

The Draft was Submitted to the Harbor Committee Yesterday—Special Meeting Will Consider Details

A meeting of the harbor board was held yesterday afternoon to consider the proposed agreement by the Dominion government and the C. P. R. with reference to the transfer of properties on the west side. The recorder submitted a draft outlining certain points in the agreement and after discussing the matter it was decided to take it up at a special meeting which will be held on Thursday.

It was reported to the board that the dredge Cynthia was ready to start deepening the basin between the Sand Point and South Rodney wharves. The harbor master reported that a steamer now lying at No. 5 berth, where the work is to begin, would sail on Thursday. The matter was left in his hands to give the dredge access to the berth as soon as possible.

A bill from Francis Kerr, Ltd., for $100 for providing storage room for the city's materials in Lower Cove while the wharf is being built was referred to the director to bring in a report.

Edward Doherty claimed $100 from the city for four years' care of the dog, which he lost at Reed's Point in 1905. Neither the members of the board nor the city officials were aware that Mr. Doherty had been performing this work. On inquiry it was learned that Mr. Doherty claimed the lost harbor master, Capt. Taylor, employed him and gave him an assurance that he would receive $25 a year.

The director was instructed to make further inquiries.

The lease of one of the city's sheds in Sydney wharf was granted to Harold C. Schofield at $100 a year. It is proposed to use the shed for landing coal and a stipulation was made that Mr. Schofield must make all alterations at his own expense and restore the shed at the termination of the lease.

The harbor master, deputy harbor master and other city employees under the board were granted the usual vacation.

A company shipping bills here from Nova Scotia applied for a reduction in the rate of toll wharfage. The matter was left in the hands of the director to ascertain the amount of business the concern was doing.

VAN BUELOW WILL SOON GIVE UP HIS PLACE

German Statesman Has Decided to Retire from the Chancellorship Which He Has Held Since 1900

Berlin, June 29.—Prince von Buelow has authorized the announcement that he intends to retire from the chancellorship of the empire in any event so soon as the pending finance reform measure is discussed in one way or another. The prince remains in office only temporarily in an endeavor to pass the bill. Prince von Buelow, who celebrated his sixtieth birthday on May 3 this year, has been Chancellor since 1900. He has several times desired to retire, but remained at his post at the Emperor's expressed wish.

Despite these superficial signs of satisfaction, the Imperial Chancellor's statement marks an era of serious political difficulties. To go back a short time, the finance committee of the Reichstag rejected two important features of the government's project of financial reform, embracing provision for the deficit of $28,000,000 in the German imperial finances.

For over two years Prince Buelow conducted the business of the country, by means of the parliament "Bloe," or coalition parties, but this compromise of political parties was wrecked some time ago by the financial proposals which the increasing deficit in the imperial revenue made it necessary to bring forward. The estimate of Herr von Sydow, imperial minister of finance, showed that the deficit for the financial year 1909 to 1910 inclusive, would amount to about $100,000,000, and their decision on the "Bloe" was at an end.

One by one, however, the Government plans for making good have fallen through. The budget committee vetoed the taxes on gas, electricity, and advertisements, and Prince Buelow had to admit that the estate duty, the sheet anchor of the government, would have to be turned into a legacy duty. In one way and another, therefore, Prince Buelow has met with nothing but opposition to his plans.

FLORENCE KINRADE MARRIED YESTERDAY

She Became the Bride of Clair Montrose Wright in New York—Will Go Abroad on Wedding Tour

Hamilton, Ont., June 29.—Clair Montrose Wright and Florence Kinrade were married yesterday in New York city at Madison avenue Methodist church by Rev. Dr. Wallace McMullen. Miss Kinrade is a daughter of T. L. Kinrade, the wealthy school principal and the father of the bride. The wedding was a quiet affair, and the bride and groom will go to England and tour the continent. It is stated by local Methodists that this marriage precludes Wright's entry into the Methodist ministry, as it is against church discipline for men studying for the ministry to marry until ordained.

D. C. Clark, contractor for the new wharf, expected to place the fourth crib in position yesterday, but the tides did not suit and it will probably be Thursday before the crib is moved. Mr. Clark yesterday began the construction of his fifth crib.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF SPORT

William (Red) Walker, one of the best known figures on the Canadian turf, topped the list of winning owners at the Blue Bonnets meeting which was brought to a close last Saturday at Montreal. His winnings totalled $5,535, a sum $1,548 greater than that carried off by J. W. Colt, who is second on the list.

Walker had two stake winners in Stanley and Centre Shot. The former by winning the Mount Royal Handicap, the feature race of the meeting, brought in near $2,400 for his owner and the latter through her victories in the Jacques Cartier Stake and three other races swelled his total by $2,730.

No sitting down by the roadside to rest for little 13-year-old Mildred Bellnap. "It is too hot to walk three more miles and make it an even fifty," she declared, after taking what she calls a stroll from her Dorchester, Mass., home to Providence, R. I.

"I first started in to walk when I was a very young child and I never walk or stay at home, because the cars always made me sick. Father and I take long walks every Sunday. He went to Providence once. He is quite a walker, but I can outdo him. We tried to walk to Providence once before and got as far as Attleboro, when our father got tired and we had to turn back. That was April 19.

The receipts of the Cross-Hybrid fight were the smallest ever taken in an endurance contest in California. The gross amount amounted to less than $1,800. Of this, the promoters received $850 and Cross $750. Cross, expecting to reap a fortune, had paid from his own pocket the extra fare for his train to New York, he must feel that he is a rather poor financier not to have insisted upon as good a guarantee as he asked of the Army of A.

Pitcher Pape, purchased by the Boston Americans from Milwaukee, reached Boston last night and will work out in the practice at Huntington avenue grounds today. According to a telegram received at the headquarters of Pape is in such good condition that he will be able to go to the box on his arrival. The Boston club is also after Pape's Milwaukee pitcher, the big second baseman, Ed. Wright. The comfort news was also given out that Trip Speaker the outfielder, has entirely recovered from the injury to his leg and last night will take a place in the lineup against the Athletics.

Stanley Ketchel laughed his sparring partners on Monday at San Francisco to please the large crowd at the arena. He knocked out three heavyweights just to show what he could do.

In the second round with Lew Taylor, an amateur heavyweight, Ketchel caught him with a short left punch, and he dropped. Ketchel then went on to knock out Goff, a soldier, who had appeared with several of his comrades to box with Ketchel, lasted until the second round, when he was knocked out by a right hand. Ketchel then went on to knock out two of regulation length, and the last being extended down several times during the encounter.

Bob Armstrong, a colored heavy-weight, who was defeated last night and was taken on as Ketchel's chief sparring partner.

Hugh Jennings, of the Tigres, is planning a trip to Ireland after the close of the season. He has promised to take the world's championship for him. Pretty safe crack for Hughie if it happens to come out on top of the National League heap.

J. W. Brady, a pitcher and outfielder who has been playing with the Kansas City team of the American Association, has been signed by the Boston Americans. Brady had been with the Kansas City club, and after securing his release filed with the Boston Americans a contract for last season.

YALE AND HARVARD WILL MEET TOMORROW IN THEIR ANNUAL BATTLE OF OARS

New London, Conn., June 30.—Despite the competition of commencement day at both Yale and Harvard, New London today will witness the annual battle of oars between the Blue and Crimson, which will be fought out tomorrow. The contest is expected tonight and tomorrow morning, but it is not likely that the attendance records will be either crew is up to the standard of past years. The aquatic stars of both universities engaged in final practice today and are now resting on their oars in eager anticipation of the "do or die" struggle of the morrow.

Crimson rowers here today are manifesting greater confidence than for several seasons past, although they recognize full well that it was over-confidence, more than anything else, that cost Harvard a defeat at Lake Cayuga on May 31. Yale is generally regarded by Harvard men as having a better variety eight than Coach Kennedy was able to put into the water last year, but they feel, nevertheless, that if Harvard vary the race it is capable of the Crimson will again secure a win in the variety event.

Joe Ballard, the scholastic miler from the Providence, R. I., high school, who holds the mile and a half running record, and the lad who broke the half mile, one mile and two mile records in the recent New England scholastic championships, will enter the University of Pennsylvania in the fall. Ballard is the best scholastic miler runner in America and he recently won the mile in 4:20 and the half mile with ease and then went out and took two other races.

Willis Britt, manager of Battling Nelson, the lightweight champion, is authority for the statement that the Dane will soon return from the ring forever. Will returned from San Francisco a few days ago, where he seconded Nelson in his battle with Fighting Dick Hyland, at the Colma A. C., of California.

"Nelson will be the next champion to quit the ring," said Britt. "But told me that he had dropped him, and he was growing tired of the fighting business and that after his battle with Freddie Welsh, school, that his light weight day, and I call it fun," she says.

"I first started in to walk when I was a very young child and I never walk or stay at home, because the cars always made me sick. Father and I take long walks every Sunday. He went to Providence once. He is quite a walker, but I can outdo him. We tried to walk to Providence once before and got as far as Attleboro, when our father got tired and we had to turn back. That was April 19.

That Billy Papke feels confident that he is going to beat Stanley Ketchel when they meet in their 20-round bout at Colma, Calif., on the afternoon of July 5, is shown by the quickness with which he signed the articles of agreement calling for the men to meet on the 20th of the month, of which the winner will receive 75 per cent and the loser 25. "I will beat Ketchel surely this time," says Papke.

Although the A. A. U. has placed the ban upon Marathon racing during the hot summer months, the governing board of the national body says it never intended that racing of 10 or 15 miles should be eliminated as a summer sport. On the other hand, it is doing everything in its power to encourage a healthy interest in long-distance running.

Monday night's bouts were: Philadelphia: It was a warm night and also a poor house at the West End A. C. and Al Kubiak and Jack Reed did not extend themselves. The crowd expected to see a fierce contest and when the bout boxed three rounds they began to boo and hiss and yell "Toss 'em off." Kubiak put out Jones in the fourth round, and for the first time the bout had a semblance of a contest. The fifth round was punctuated with a little excitement, and in the sixth Reed, deciding that he must do something to win back the good will of the crowd, fought with a stiff jab which staggered the big Michigan heavyweight, but before the bell had fully recovered and was giving as good as he received. Neither man was entitled to any special distinction.

New York: Jack O'Donnell and Joe Phillips boxed a fast 10-round draw at the Madison A. C. O'Donnell knocked down his opponent in the seventh round with a hard left to the jaw, and for a while it looked as if he might get the better of the fight. But in the next round Phillips came back strong. The punch had apparently hurt him and he had to be helped up. O'Donnell, knocking him down before the end of the round, with each scoring a knockdown and both boxing well, however, the new heavy ends but no other team.

New York—Tommy Stagg of Philadelphia won from Tommy Stone of this city in the seventh round of what was scheduled to be a 10-round battle at the Olympic A. C. The contest was fast and exciting until a punch landed, low on the side of the head, stopped the fight, declaring Stagg the winner.

The action of the maritime body can have little effect on most of the team as base ball is the only sport they figure in. Those, however, to whom it means the most are Dr. Malcolm, John Malcolm and H. Clawson. The former two have figured prominently in football and are among the best players of the game in the city. Clawson has always been a factor in local hockey.

LITTLE DIFFICULTY IN SOCIETY LEAGUE

The St. Joseph's Team Claim a Game as Forfeited—St. Peters Did Not Appear

A little difficulty has arisen in the Interstate Base Ball League, with the St. Peter's as the complainants. The cause of the trouble is the question of which team has the right to play Rogers, who has played backstop for the St. Peter's in a number of games. Not long ago the St. Peter's team, which included Rogers, was defeated by McGowan.

The St. Joseph's, who are now the most successful competitors St. Peter's have, and who have been a long time in the league, claimed that they could use Rogers to good advantage and they obtained that from the St. Peter's. Rogers was announced that if Rogers went to play for the St. Peter's, he would be playing for the St. Peter's.

AT CAMP SUSSEX

Sussex, N. B., June 30—(Special)—The military camp at Sussex is now in full swing. The first guard and picket went on duty last evening. The 71st Regiment band was to have played at guard mounting parade, but did not do so on account of the bass drum being broken. The same was the case at Rivelle this morning. A change has been made in the regulations regarding pay for shooting this year. No matter how well men shoot on the range, his pay is given according to his marks made, regardless of the number of seasons he has been in camp.

A large number of visitors are expected at the camp tomorrow, Dominion Day. In honor of the day a royal salute of twenty-one guns will be fired at noon by the 10th field battery from the high ground on the north facing the station. One of the regimental bands will play the national anthem and the performance will be very interesting as usual. A muster parade for the signallers took place this morning. The weather today is all that could be desired, but last night it was rather cold and there was considerable scrambling for blankets in the various tents.

Brookville, Ont., June 30—(Special)—Hon. G. P. Graham, minister of railways, came to his home here yesterday afternoon from a short rest before resuming his departmental duties preparatory to his departure for England. Mr. Graham was asked to express an opinion on the resignation of H. D. Lumsden, chief engineer of the National Transcontinental Railway. This he positively declined to do until Lumsden's letter of resignation would come before him.

MANY CONTRADICTIONS IN THIS LIQUOR CASE

Amelia Francis Was Before the Court This Morning—An Army of Witnesses Called

Deliberate contradictions under oath in the hearing of a liquor case against Amelia Francis this morning before Judge Ritchie will probably lead to the institution of proceedings against the woman or John Johnson for perjury.

Yesterday afternoon the hearing was adjourned until this morning to obtain Johnson's testimony. He was therefore not assigned to the hard labor squad in jail today.

At the re-opening of the proceedings G. A. Henderson who presided, announced that he attempted to prove the accused guilty of selling liquor on Sheffield street on Monday, June 21, had been abandoned under duress by the woman.

Johnson stated after the woman had pleaded not guilty, that after the parade of the militia had departed from Barrack Green he repaired to the abode of the Francis woman, where he and his wife boarded. At four o'clock one Samuel Hector strolled in and was invited by Kate Berrigan, an inmate, to pay for a drink at the Lancers. Hector was served by Amelia Francis, who received thirty cents from Hector.

Alfred Coombs, of Fredericton, was the second visitor. He treated Eliza Norman, Johnson and himself to liquor.

John McCallister and another man next espied the "Always Open" sign and McCallister included Johnson in the treat. At this juncture James McAllister and Thomas McCann entered the house. McAllister was desirous of ascertaining the cause of the proceedings for procuring all in the house with liquor, and she replied that one dollar was the standard price. However, she reduced it to 70 cents, when McAllister said his funds did not exceed that sum. Johnson was among the number who availed themselves of the victor's generosity. All he imbued three drinks of whiskey.

In E. S. Ritchie, who represented the woman, he stated that he was arrested for drunkenness on the following Tuesday night, after being ejected from the Francis domicile. However, he denied that it was due to an anxiety generated by the event that he was a witness against the woman. He had been interrogated and had supplied information to the prosecution. He further denied that he remained with the woman over a few months without paying his board. He was fined $100 for selling beer on Sheffield street, after a liquor allegation was not substantiated, and was defended then by E. S. Ritchie.

The Francis woman was sworn on her own behalf at the conclusion of Johnson's evidence. She declared that she did not give one glass of liquor on the Sunday specified, and that she was not in the house during the entire day. She claimed that Johnson concealed his evidence as a scheme to get square for refusal to permit him and his wife to remain with her without paying for their maintenance. She said that Johnson was with her for six months and eventually she suggested that she was not object to his departure, as business conditions were dull. He refused emphatically to work, and when ejected warned her that she would suffer for treating him thus in driving him out upon the cruel world.

She tentatively remarked that she supported herself and inmates of her house by selling soft beer, although not fortified with a license. She asserted that Inspector Jones had her to sell beer if there was no disorder in her apartments. "He is a kind man," interjected his honor. "Oh, he wouldn't let us poor women starve to death," was the woman's reply.

His honor manifested an interest in disclosing whether the negro or white man was the purchaser, and promised that the guilty one would be committed for trial. At the resumption of the hearing on Monday morning the men who, according to Johnson, obtained liquor from Francis will testify. Far more credence is placed in the man's evidence.

William Doody, who was taken into custody on Germain street last night, said a few drinks upset him, and was fined $8 or twenty days.

James Taylor, aged 50, was taken into custody on Charlotte street at half past eleven for intoxication by Patrolman Ward. Simultaneously Sargeant Campbell espied George Jones, aged 60, in the Old Burying Ground and placed him in a cell at police headquarters.

A coincidence is that Amelia Francis was testifying when he was locked up. Last autumn Jones, who is from Musquash, visited Sheffield street, and was relieved of over $20 in the Francis woman's apartments. He claimed that the negro was the thief, and was the only witness in a liquor case against her. He could not furnish a corroborating story of the theft and therefore he did not recover any part of it. The negro during the hearing swore that she did not serve Jones with liquor, but Jones was positive that she did.
