Ottawa Platform. "That the best interests of Canada demand that substantial reductions of the burdens of customs taxation be made, with a view to the accomplishing of two purposes of the highest importance, first, diminishing the very high cost of living, which presses so severely on the masses of the people; second, reducing the cost of the instruments of production in the industries based on the natural resources of the Dominion, the vigorous development of which is essential to the progress and prosperity of our country. "That, to these ends, wheat flour and all products of wheat, the principle articles of food, farm implements and machinery, farm tractors, mining, four and sawmill machinery and various parts thereof, rough and partly dressed lumber, gasoline, illuminating, lubricating and fuel oils, nuts, bolts, screws and hardware, fertilizers, should be free from customs duties, as well as the raw material entering into the same. "That a revision downwards of the tariff should be made whereby substantial reductions should be effected in the duties on raw materials, apparel and footwear, and on other articles of general consumption (other than luxuries) as well as on the raw material entering into the same. "That the British preference be increased to 50 per cent of the general tariff. "Note that a part of the phraseology of the Ottawa platform, that about the cost of living, which presses so severely on the masses of the people, is the same as the Ottawa platform, but the likeness ends. For, whereas that summer the National convention deemed for professed to deem that this high price oppression demanded a complete abrogation of the tariff, and that there the slaughter of the tariff, today it diluted its remedy to a vague declaration of an unspecified reduction, pending something better at some undefined date later on. "And so the free trade platform of 1919 goes into the hold of the good ship with the famous platform of 1913, or, at least, is covered with a tarpaulin of pure expediency, to be brought out at some future time when the fortunes of free trader are less bright.

LONDON RELUCTANT TO ACCEPT REPORT

Does Not Believe Brusiloff Has Usurped Power in Soviet Gov't at Moscow.

London, May 19.—In official quarters in London, reluctance is indicated in accepting as a fact the rumor that General Alexis A. Brusiloff, commander-in-chief of the Russian Army under the Imperial Regime, and now a member of the Supreme Command of the Bolshevik forces, has usurped the power in the Soviet Government in Moscow, wielded in the past by Nikolai Lenin and the other people's commissaries. But while reluctant as to the contents of the more recent official advice from Moscow, officials show a willingness to attribute the interruptions in wireless communications with Moscow to an explosion and a fire. "It is hinted that there are grounds for believing that this 'accident' may be traced to Polish machinations, timed to agree with the successes of the Polish aggressors in the region of Kiev. "It was pointed out today, that several Generals and other officers of high rank, known to be associated with Brusiloff in the Supreme Command of the Bolshevik armies, are among the most trusted of the Russian Soviet Commanders and that this would seem to negative the suggestion that Brusiloff has been constituted a veritable dictator and surrounded by 'lightweight' staff officers, who are mere figureheads.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely grassless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all over the place. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, shiny, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

POLISH-UKRAINIAN OFFENSIVE LEADS TO PRESS DISPUTE

Le Temps of Paris Takes Exception to Statement by Manchester Guardian.

FRANCE IS NOT SCHEMING

Liberation of Ukrainian Territory is the Aim and Bolsheviks Deserve Small Sympathy.

Paris, May 18.—One English newspaper has at last realized the true meaning of the Polish-Ukrainian offensive. The Manchester Guardian of Saturday contains a strong editorial criticizing the activities of the French military in Poland and blaming them for the Polish-Ukrainian composite force on men who plead valiantly for a settlement. The whole article is filled with the spirit of that advanced liberalism which the Manchester Guardian is the leading English exponent. It is indeed so advanced that it speaks of it as being a "friendly" newspaper and its sympathy for the Bolshevik victim of the Polish attack is based on high moral grounds. But it is significant that the Guardian is trying to excuse the English Liberals than of English big business, which evidently is alarmed at the possible great increase of French influence in Eastern Europe. "The French pursuing a vain dream of building up Poland as a client state of France, bounding in France's great enemy on the Eastern front, that Poland is France's ally and that France is trying to ensure Poland's independence no less than her own. The Manchester Guardian declares that Polish objects are entirely national and secondary and hints that they involve the annexation of not of the Ukraine, at least a great portion of Russian territory to which the Poles have not the smallest national claim. "The Guardian further states: "The Poles are imposing a state of war on a population suffering, if possible, more than the Austrians and Serbians. "Facts of the Case. "Comment of this kind is not warranted by the facts of the case. First, despite the Bolshevik protestations about their desire for peace, it must be remembered that they have twice launched attacks on Poland since the end of January and only talked of peace after the attack failed. Secondly, the Polish-Ukrainian doesn't contemplate a continued offensive against the Bolsheviks, but only the liberation of Ukrainian territory. Just as in January the Poles and the Letts freed the Lettish provinces of Lettland, there is no reason why the Poles should break their promise to leave Ukraine to the Ukrainians after its recovery, any more than they did to the Letts about Lettland. As for the horrors of war and the suffering population, the Guardian writer forgets that war in Russia is not on anything like the same scale as it was in France. In the whole Lettish campaign I saw no worse devastation than an occasional burnt cottage—a very few so-called broken bridges. There are no such things as shell barrages or fire curtains in Russian warfare. Finally, it seems as though the Guardian's sympathy for the Bolsheviks lead it to overestimate the well-being of the population under Soviet rule. The inhabitants of Lettland were perfectly delighted at liberation from the Red terror, and though Lettland was short enough of food herself, she was not suffering as a result of the campaign, they were at least assured of regular rations at a comparatively moderate price. Finally, the Ukrainians, like the Letts, are not national patriots. They don't want to be included in a Russia, either Soviet or Imperial. They want independence. For that they fought against the Soviets beside the army of Denekine who had promised them freedom, and for that they later fought against Denekine because he failed to keep his promises. If the Poles don't play fair, they will find the Ukrainians rising to their feet and fighting against them, to their interest to keep faith, and madness to break it. "Not the least interesting feature of Le Temps' indignation is that nowhere does it specially deny the charge of French wirepulling. The Guardian claims "there are hundreds of picked French officers in Poland." "Le Temps sardonically admits it, but argues they are working for the good of Poland and of the Allies, England, not the least. If they can hold the Poles, Ukrainians and probably Rumanians also their agreements, without equibbling during the next three months, Le Temps' viewpoint—and French policy—will be magnificently vindicated.

WOMEN EMPLOYED IN GOV'T DEPT'S

Question of Major Andrews Regarding Their Employment Answered by Mr. Sifton.

Ottawa, Ont., May 19.—(Canadian Press)—Major G. W. Andrews' question in regard to employment of married women in Government Departments, where they were filling positions which could be handled by returned men, trained for the Civil Service, was answered in the House of Commons this afternoon by a return tabled by Hon. Arthur Sifton, Secretary of State. The return showed that 42 married women whose husbands had not served in the Canadian Expeditionary Force, were employed in various departments. Several departments kept no records of such employees. "Major Andrews was also informed that the Department of Immigration and Colonization did employ a married woman at a salary of $300 per month; she was not the wife, or mother of a returned soldier, and had no record had been made at the time of her appointment to secure a war widow or dependent, capable of filling the position. The wife of a returned soldier, in question was not in the employ of the Dominion Government, and while nothing officially was known as to his employment, he was believed to be in the service of one of the provincial governments. S., May 19.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in a Catholic chapel at Milltown, at six o'clock Wednesday, when Frank Bonnell, of St. Stephen, and Miss Hattie Loretta Devers, of Milltown, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The bride was costumed in a pretty pink or dark blue with hat to match and her bridesmaid, Miss Florence McFarlane was becomingly attired in blue with hat to match. The groom was supported by Philip McFarlane of St. Stephen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Moore, and a large number of friends who assembled at the early hour gave striking evidence of the esteem in which the happy couple are held. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of Miss Sarah Shannon where a wedding breakfast was served to immediate relatives and friends. After a brief honeymoon trip the happy couple will reside in St. Stephen. The wedding presents were most elaborate and included cut glass, china, linen and substantial cheeses. Among the presents were two handsome chairs given by a number of the merchants in St. Stephen.

GREAT BRITAIN'S DEBT TO UNITED STATES

Will be Dealt With Independently of Britain's Share in Germany Indemnity.

London, May 19.—Austen Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, stated in the House of Commons, today, that the question of Great Britain's indebtedness to the United States was being dealt with independently of any question of Great Britain's share in the indemnity from Germany. "The Chancellor's statement was called out by a question as to whether an arrangement had been made with France that she repay her indebtedness to Great Britain when France receives her share of the German indemnity, and, if so, whether it would be possible for Great Britain to repay her borrowings from the United States on the same conditions, namely, when Great Britain receives her share of the indemnity. "Mr. Chamberlain said that France's net debt to Great Britain after considering adjustments had been made, probably would total under five hundred million pounds. "The nominal value of French Gov-

Ottawa, May 19.—Several cars of Canadian eggs are reported moving from Ontario points to seaboard for export to Great Britain. SOVIET REVOLT IN GERMANY MAY RESULT

Said if Election is Against Communists They Will Start Revolution.

ARREST OF QUILWITZ HAS BEEN ORDERED

Party of Men and Boys Loot Sangerhausen Banks and Treasury.

Berlin, May 18.—According to the Morgan Post a warrant for the arrest of General von Luttwitz, military leader in the attempted Kapp coup d'etat, on a charge of high treason has just been issued by the Supreme Court of Leipzig, capital of Saxony. "It is also reported that in the event that the forthcoming elections for the Reichstag do not result favorably for the proletariat there will be a Soviet revolution in central Germany. The Communists, according to this report, plan to prevent middle class voters from voting by attacking polling places and destroying ballot boxes. If despite this the bourgeoisie are successful the Communist revolt will start simultaneously in the central provinces, and Soviets will be established throughout Germany. "A gang of fifty men and boys proclaimed a Soviet republic in Sangerhausen, Saxony, robbed banks and the town treasury of more than a half million marks, requisitioned nothing but automobiles and then rode away after a reign of a few hours. "The gang, press reports say, was composed of members of the Workers' Communist party from Halle and Sangerhausen, many not of voting age. Apparently their raid was carefully prearranged. About twenty members of the gang came with the early morning train from Halle, where they were met by the Sangerhausen conspirators at the station. They all proceeded through the streets of the sleeping town to the branch of the Reichsbank, where they commanded the watchman to permit them to enter. "The watchman refusing, they broke open the door and some shots were fired. Here over 30,000 marks were commandeered. Two more banks were looted and then the bandits marched to the Town Hall and occupied it. The police were armed only with sabres and were helpless before the gang, who were fitted out with rifles, revolvers and hand grenades. "Near the town treasury was employed the post office occupied to prevent long distance telephone calls for help, and then the gang permitted itself the bravado of issuing proclamations in the new regime and the dictatorship of the proletariat. These were signed with the name of Max Holz, a Communist bandit, who terrorized a lower Saxony in his keep days and is now imprisoned. But the only act of this "government" was the pilferage of stores and the emptying of the town treasury. "Armed and angry citizens undertook pursuit, but the greater part was broken down or captured. Later several of the Sangerhausen thieves were arrested and considerable money was recovered, but the greater part was taken by the Halle conspirators, of whom there is still no trace.

MARKET FAVORABLY REGARDS BUDGET

Montreal, May 19.—Trading on the local market fell off to 5300 shares in the forenoon session, being lighter than for some days past. The dullness is doubtless due to the shortage of funds and to the action of New York in its construed weakness and lack of motive for purchasing stocks, although the general feeling is that most issues are cheap. The budget has now been disposed of and is favorably regarded on the local street where the comment is that it is good common sense. The action in the business profits tax was welcomed and the cancellation of the 1/2 per cent war excess duty was considered a timely concession to the demands of the west. Although there was nothing unfavorable in the budget from a financial standpoint, and the extra levies made on sales upon income, together with various other taxes are recognized as good ones. The budget had no effect on the stock market. "Howard Smith was the feature of the day the price of the stock rose to 100 and a fair amount of activity. No specific reason is given for the advance. Daniel C. Clark Is New President

Chosen Yesterday at Meeting of St. John Protestant Orphans' Home Directors—Other Officers and Committees Elected.

A meeting of the directors of the St. John Protestant Orphans' Home was held yesterday afternoon in committee's rooms, Britain Street, T. H. Estabrooks presiding. After the reading of the minutes of the annual public meeting held in the Board of Trade rooms last week, the election of officers was proceeded with. On the name of the president incumbent being put forward for re-election, the president, asked that he be relieved of his duties, as he felt that another who could give more time and attention to the work should now take up the reins of office. He promised however, to continue to serve on the board and to give his full and cheerful support to all branches of the orphanage work.

The name of Daniel C. Clark was then placed in nomination by Dr. Morrison, and no other names offering, received the unanimous vote of the directors.

Mr. Clark, the well known contractor, who is one of the Home's directors, expressed his willingness to bear a share of the work of the board, but was somewhat reluctant to accept the responsibilities entailed by the chair. On being assured the hearty support of the entire board, however, he willingly accepted the appointment.

The election of officers then proceeded with the following results: First vice-president, Mrs. David McLellan, second vice-president, David Hipwell, secretary, Mrs. John S. McLellan, treasurer, Henry C. Rankine, auditors, Siruan Robertson and J. King Kelly. The selecting committee in charge of the entrance of orphans and the placement of orphanage children, Dr. W. S. Morrison, David Hipwell, Mrs. David McLellan, Mrs. P. W. Murray, Mrs. J. A. Edmund Scott, Miss Mabel Sydney Smith and P. H. Estabrooks, Finance Committee, Joseph Likely, C. H. Peters, W. M. Campbell, President D. C. Clark. The House Furnishing Committee will be composed of lady members of the directorate and will be chosen at their next meeting.

Special Finance committee, W. H. Goding, chairman, President D. C. Clark, T. H. Estabrooks, David Hipwell, F. A. Kinneer, W. M. Campbell and J. H. Fleming, Fredrickton.

Upon motion of T. H. Estabrooks, J. King Kelly was appointed to the honorary list of directors in recognition of his whole-hearted interest and services of long standing, and also because he voluntarily retired from the directorate after his election last week in order that Rev. E. H. Cochran of Moncton might be placed on the board as a representative of that important centre. The meeting readily concurred with Mr. Estabrooks's motion and remarks.

The newly elected president then thanked the directorate for the confidence reposed in him. He said his interest in orphanage work had been first aroused in England where he had visited several large institutions engaged in the work. While travelling through the province in his office of Grand Master of the Masonic order he found the Protestant people in all its sections much interested in the work of the old St. John institution and ready to aid in its support. He assured the meeting that they could count on their generosity when the institution's plans for extension were formulated. Before closing his remarks the new chairman questioned the directors on the manner in which the joint orphanage was conducted. He was told that illegitimate children were no longer debarred from the Home as hitherto, nor were Catholic children excluded. In the latter case, however, they must be Catholics in the manner of the other orphans.

Upon motion of Mrs. J. S. McLaren, a hearty vote of thanks was extended to retiring president, T. H. Estabrooks.

Mr. Estabrooks said that he felt the office of president for the orphanage's coming year required an officer able to be in his place often than he himself could promise to be, nevertheless as a director he purposed working as hard and as willingly as in the past.

The secretary read a letter of appreciation from Kenneth Inches in reply to the board's resolution of condolence, upon the death of his father, Dr. P. R. Inches and the board's expression of thanks for the late Dr. Inches generous services to the Home. The late Dr. Inches was for many years a gratis medical advisor to the institution.

It was announced that there was a total of eighty children in the British Street and West St. John homes. The children were all in good health and the newly established institution was in a flourishing condition under the capable management of Miss Dawes.

A strike is also in course at the Brompton Pulp and Paper plant and a lockout in Wayagamack paper mill and rumors are heard that one may take place at the Bridgewater.

Hood's Sarsaparilla—A Good Blood-Purifying Tonic Medicine.

It is a medicine in which the people can and do have entire confidence as pure, clean and safe.

All the claims made for it are justified by the testimony of the gratifying results attending its use in a multitude of cases of scrofula, eczema or salt rheum, psoriasis, blood-poisoning, catarrh and rheumatism, and of loss of appetite, that tired feeling and low or run-down conditions common in the spring.

It is not adulterated; it is not misbranded, but honestly labelled. It originated in a physician's prescription and is recommended and used by many physicians today. It has a record of nearly 60 years of wonderful success.

Hood's Sarsaparilla "makes food taste good." Get it today.

If you need a mild laxative or cathartic, take Hood's Pills.

MARKET FAVORABLY REGARDS BUDGET

Montreal, May 19.—Trading on the local market fell off to 5300 shares in the forenoon session, being lighter than for some days past. The dullness was doubtless due to the shortage of funds and to the action of New York in its continued weakness and lack of activity. At the moment there seems no motive for purchasing stocks, although the general feeling is that most issues are cheap. The budget has now been disposed of and is favorably regarded on the local street where the comment is that it is good common sense. The action in the business profits tax was welcome and the cancellation of the 7 1/2 per cent war customs duty was considered a timely concession to the demands of the west. Altogether there was nothing unfavorable in the budget from a financial standpoint, and the extra levies made on sales upon income, together with the interest tax are recognized as good ones. The budget had no effect on the stock market.

Howard Smith was the feature of the day the price of the stock rose to 106 and a fair amount of activity. No specific reason is given for the advance.

THE BUDGET AND MR. FIELDING'S AMENDMENT.

Mr. Fielding's amendment to the Budget resolution is ill-judged, ill-timed, and, in the light of some of his own remarks, ill-considered also. He knows that the estimated revenue will fall a long way short of the amount that will be required to meet the expenditure, and he knows—no one better—that there are only two ways in which the deficiency can be made up, either by further borrowing, or by additional taxation. Yet he contemplates both these methods, and, to make matters worse, wants to reduce the already inadequate revenue by a reduction in the tariff. He admits that to float any further loan would only tie up more money by taking it out of ordinary trade channels, and he says that to add to the tax will only increase the cost of living. How, then, would he meet the situation?

One would not, of course, expect constructive criticism from a political opponent, but at the same time one would look for commonsense criticism from a man in Mr. Fielding's position. He may not be satisfied with the Budget proposals, but what has he better to suggest? He offers no other course for the Finance Minister to adopt to rid the needed funds; his only suggestion would make matters even worse than they are. He advises the Government to strive to get the country's finances back to a normal basis, and in the same breath he wants them to throw away a considerable portion of their revenue, an increase in which is the first essential to getting them back to normal. One would hesitate to use the word "childish" to any criticism made by an ex-Finance Minister of Mr. Fielding's experience, but there is no other word than that that properly describes them.

Mr. Fielding condemned alike a policy of absolute protection and also one of wide-open free trade. So does every other sane man; but that is not the view of the majority of the men who sit on the same side of the House as Mr. Fielding. They ask for free trade out and out, with no exceptions. What the country wants is adequate protection for such industries as need it; such protection as will build up the growing industries until they are sufficiently established to do without it; nothing more. This can hardly be got by taking off the duties that now protect them.

The Government is faced with the task of finding a million dollars to make up the estimated deficiency in the ordinary revenue, and they have announced the means they propose to adopt to accomplish this task. The general consensus of opinion throughout the country seems to be that the plan proposed is about as good a one as possible under all existing conditions. Whether it will work out as anticipated, time alone will show. It may be that all the new taxes will not bring in as much as is anticipated; in fact it is not unlikely that the tax on luxuries will cause a falling off in the amount of buying that will be done. If this should be the result, a great deal of extravagance which has been so rife for some time past will be checked, and people will learn to economize a little. Any abstention from purchasing the more costly articles, whether luxuries or accessories, will probably result also in a reduction in the present high prices of these articles, for merchants cannot afford to continue stocked up with goods they cannot sell. The bulk of the new taxes will fall on the shoulders of the better-to-do classes, which is the place where the burden should properly rest.

GETTING FROM UNDER.

There seems to be a disposition on the part of merchants and storekeepers in all parts of Canada, as indicated by the advertisements in the newspapers which are published in the different sections, to hold price-reduction sales. The only inference to be drawn from this seemingly widespread policy is that these men have come to the conclusion that it is time to unload some of their stocks in view of a considerable fall in prices that must come sooner or later. There are indications which are plain enough to those who take the trouble to look for them—that these prices have about reached the limit that the ordinary man can afford to pay. Circumstances during the past three or four years have made money more plentiful than usual, and more easily earned. The result has been a regular orgy of extravagance, which got worse as time went on. The majority of those who made money spent it as fast as they got it; they bought things that under ordinary circumstances they would never have dreamt of buying, irrespective of cost or need for them. The more money they got the more they were prepared to throw away to gratify their desires and those whose business it was to supply the means of gratification were not slow to take notice of and profit by the situation as it presented itself. It is manifest, however, that this condition of affairs cannot, and could not, continue indefinitely. The time must come when a halt must be called, and that time seems to be here now. A realization of the folly of the line of conduct that they have been pursuing is apparently coming over people, together with the further realization that money is becoming rather more difficult to get than it was. The result is that they are curtailing their expenditures, some because they see the wisdom of doing so, and others because they cannot help themselves. In either event it means that merchants will sell fewer goods, and get rid of their stocks they must reduce their prices, or find themselves left with stocks that there is no call for. More especially is this the case in the clothing and furnishing trades, in which fashion plays such an important part. As long as fashions change almost overnight, certain classes of goods cannot well be kept in stock for very long or they become useless, and must be sold for whatever they will bring. When these things come in new, outrageous prices are demanded for them because they are "the very latest." When the novelty is worn off they are a drug on the market. In no case has greater extravagance been shown than in the matter of this fashionable attire, and it is as well that there should be a change.

It cannot be denied that cost of production has increased; the increase in the wage scale, the shorter hours of work, and the difficulty in getting a ready supply of raw materials have all combined to raise prices. But these conditions are not wholly responsible for the high prices asked; the knowledge that people had money to spend freely has led to the asking of prices that were more excessive than circumstances really warranted—just plain profiteering in fact. This has got to stop now, and all these reduction sales are evidence that this fact is now realized.

A TARIFF INTELLIGENCE BRANCH.

In this country the fostering of home industry and the raising of revenue must continue to be the paramount objects of tariff policy. In the United States general reductions of the tariff have been advocated, and sometimes carried out because the revenues were redundant. In other cases the prevailing argument for reducing the tariff there was that a necessary increase in the revenue would thereby be brought about. More than one of the downward revisions of the Canadian tariff have been for the avowed purpose of getting nearer to free trade and dealing a blow to protection. But, as the Mail and Empire says, never before was it so necessary as it is now that the Canadian tariff should be efficient for protection, and at the same time expanding to the revenue. It may be that on a few articles the duties could be reduced with benefit to Canadian production, and it is certain that on a number of articles of the luxury class the duties could be increased with advantage to the revenue or to both. A general revision of the tariff is promised in the near future by Sir Henry Drayton, but it should not be attempted without ample information that comes up to date. A committee of the Cabinet such as Sir Thomas White proposed to charge with the work of making a scrutiny into the tariff could collect data for a revision, but members of the Cabinet have enough to do as it is. A ton of the country for the purpose of giving bearings at the various industrial and trading centres would take a long time. Even when the round of the producing and trading districts had been made, the information gathered would be far from exhaustive. Many of the relevant facts would have to be sought by other means. For a scientific revision of the tariff a great deal of knowledge is necessary, and we see no other way for the Government to acquire that knowledge than through the agency of a Tariff Board made up of experts fit to be trusted with the work of keeping the Government fully advised of the course of events affecting tariff matters. Every day it becomes more important that the Government be kept in touch with conditions in countries that export largely to Canada, for particularly in the United States, these conditions seem more conducive than over to the movement of merchandise hither. Not long ago the United States was contributing 65 per cent. of the goods we imported. Now it is sending us 75 per cent. of our total imports. A Tariff Board would be of invaluable service to the country as an intelligence branch of the Government, reporting as to the exact cost of producing, the current market prices, etc., of United States goods that are entered for consumption here. New processes or other changing conditions could thus be kept track of. The work of a Tariff Board would never be brought to an end, because trade never stands still and the conditions of trade and production are constantly undergoing change. A Tariff Board would be of great use to the Minister of Customs and to the Finance Minister, who would often find it convenient to consult it.

The Salvation Army campaign for funds carries a peculiar appeal to the general public. It has always been recognized that this organization conducts a work distinctly its own, but it was during the war that the public appreciation of the Salvation Army rose to impressive heights. The splendid work of the Army, done without advertising or self-praise, but most effectively, bred everywhere an admiration for the organization that will now be reflected in the contributions made to assist the plans for extending the usefulness of the Army. The plans of the campaign contemplate the expenditure of a large proportion of the funds raised in the localities in which they are raised and all in furtherance of the efforts of the organization to assist the needy and elevate mankind.

Dr. Michael Clark, M. P. for Red Deer, told the members in the House of Commons the other day that he had never heard that we went to either the New or the Old Testament for instruction in the electoral franchise; but he would not mind knowing how elections were conducted in Judea. He has little fancy to take the electoral inspiration from Edmund Burke.

In Jackson, Wyoming, where the women candidates defeated the males, all the public offices are to be filled by them. If this sort of thing spreads because of woman suffrage, the fair sex will be the sufferers in the long run. If the women got all the jobs they will have to support the men and the children. There is no other way out of it.

"Pussyfoot" Johnson says that most of the Sinn Féiners are total abstainers, but just how strong a recommendation this is for prohibition is doubtful.

However, we trust that President Wilson was satisfied with the way in which Marshal Foch conducted the operations on land.

Overproduction. Generally speaking there is no such thing as overproduction. I suppose the best we have ever done is to produce enough wealth in any one year to have 10 per cent left over. Have you enough goods? Has anybody, except an infinitesimally small proportion of the population? The world as a whole has never been on East Street. Why do we export goods—mean, in the long run? Simply to trade some of our wealth for another kind that the other fellow has. Commerce is only barter.—Frank A. Vanderlip, banker and manufacturer.

Benny's Note Book

BY LEE PAPE

I was sitting on the front steps this afternoon, and pop came up, saying, Well, Benny, was new? and I said, His Nones day off and ma's making suppr and she baked these stowed tomatoes because I smelt them on my way out.

O well accidents will happen in the best regulated families, lets just eat the tomatoes and pretend we dont notice anything unusual about them, sed pop. Cant I pretend I dont notice anything unusual about them without eating them? I sed, and pop sed, Scretary sed, be a spout.

And wen ma called us for suppr she gave me and pop tomatoes in 2 savours without taking any herself and without giving my sater Gladde any on account of stowed tomatoes being one of the things Gladde dont eat, and pop ate a spoonfull of his and made his face look as if he thavt he was going to heaven or some place, saying, Mother, these tomatoes are perfectly delicious.

Wat, do you mean it? sed ma, and pop sed, Wy shudent I mean it? and ma sed, O, no reason, of course. And I ate a spoonfull of mine saying, O, ma, these stowed tomatoes are grate, I've ate stowed tomatoes before, but not like this. Being glad I caver had, and ma took a spoonful on her own plate and tasted them, and pop sed, Wat are you making such a face about, mother?

Did I make a face, sed ma, and pop sed, Wy made one of the worst faces I've seen this year, wy dont you finish your tomatoes, mother?

Willyum Potts, you know those tomatoes are berry, you must think im svidly dents, sed ma. "Which pop picked up his sawser and smelt it, saying, Well, so they are. And I pcked up mine and smelted it, saying, Darn if they aint."

Wich they cerry was.

CHANCERY COURT CASE DISMISSED

Before His Honor Judge Chandler in Chancery Court yesterday morning a case arising out of matters in connection with the establishment of the Protestant Memorial Home was dismissed as it was shown to the court to have been settled at the sessions of the Grand Orange Lodge in Woodstock a few weeks ago. George A. Blair was the plaintiff and L. A. Palmer, Robert Willis and N. J. Morrison, defendants. The plaintiff asked for a declaration by the court that the sum of $1,000 voted to the St. John Protestant Orphan Home by a committee of which he alleged the defendants were members was illegal and ultra vires as he alleged it had been taken from a memorial fund; that such payment was a misapplication of and an illegal diversion of said money and trust fund; and for an injunction restraining the defendants from voting any more money from such trust memorial fund. He was represented by J. F. H. Todd while Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., appeared for the defence. The defence contended that the plaintiff was not entitled to bring action because of a want of interest in the subject matter in question and as he was not a member of the Grand Orange Lodge, and if a member he had not applied to said grand lodge to commence proceedings. The defence urged that the action complained of was not illegal or ultra vires of

Excellent Address
On Good Roads

Dr. P. E. Doolittle Proved Interesting Speaker at Luncheon Yesterday Afternoon—Campaign for Great National Highway.

"Good Roads" was the subject of a cheery address delivered by Dr. P. E. Doolittle at a joint luncheon of the Canadian Club and the New Brunswick Automobile Association at Bonds yesterday afternoon. The speaker was introduced to an assembly by A. M. Belding, President of the Canadian Club, who read a letter from Ontario's Minister of Public Works referring to the doctor's continued effort in working for good roads. The minister expressed the wish that New Brunswick should join with her sister province in the campaign for a great national highway.

Dr. Doolittle, in his opening remarks, spoke of the pleasure it afforded him to lunch with the Canadian Club, of which he was a member in Toronto. It was the first home dinner he had enjoyed since leaving his home city. The Good Roads campaign in Ontario, he continued, started over twenty-five years ago, when a road engineer was appointed for the province and a plan of county improvement was introduced by which any county desiring to improve its highways by having roads of a permanent character was to be financed by the provincial government. Wentworth was the first county to be benefited by the plan in accepting the government's offer and Peterborough was the last.

In 1901 before the good road work had begun in the province, the population of the two counties was about equal, and also that of the two principal towns in each, Hamilton and Peterborough. In the ten years following the rural population of Peterborough County decreased by 25,000 however, and that of Wentworth increased by 5,000. It produces three times as much as Peterborough county, and is divided into numerous prosperous and productive farms, while many lie vacant in Peterborough. Good roads mean the insuring of transportation facilities to the farmer and therefore greater production. By their means the starving millions of Europe may be fed, and the world unrest eliminated. To say nothing of the enormous benefit prosperous farming population must mean to the nation. With the adoption of good roads the doctor continued, the nation will enjoy the greatest commercial agricultural and industrial development ever experienced.

He then went on to relate what had been done by the people of California. They there realized that the winter climate was the county's greatest asset. In order to induce tourists to visit the State they commenced their campaign by the expenditure of fifteen millions on good roads, as a result of such action 20,000 Canadians spent last winter there, the money spent by them there in one week alone amounting to over a million dollars, and the Canadian consisted of but a small quota of the thousands of tourists who enjoyed the California sunshine. What California had done to boost

WEDDINGS.

Armstrong-Merritt.

A quiet wedding was solemnized yesterday morning at six o'clock in Main street Baptist church, when Rev. Dr. Hutchinson officiated in marriage. Gordon C. Armstrong and E. Pearl Merritt, both of this city. The bride was given away by her brother, A. Stanley Merritt. The groom is an employe of the C. N. E. After a short honeymoon trip they will reside at 254 Main street.

Kelly-Nicol.

The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception yesterday morning was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Alphonsus Kelly was united in marriage to Miss Nellie Nicol by Rev. Simon Oram. Arthur S. Godson presided at the organ on the entrance of the bride played Lohengrin's Bridal March, during the offertory "The Voice that Breathed Our Eden," and on the bride party leaving the church, Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bridesmaid was Miss Florence Kelly, a sister of the groom. The groom was supported by T. LeRoque. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly left on the early train for Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto.

Branscombe-Harper.

Anagance, N. B., May 17.—A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper, Anagance Ridge, on Wednesday, May 12th, when their eldest daughter, Josephine Alfreda, was united in marriage to Maurice James Branscombe, of Corn Hill. The ceremony, which took place in the presence of about sixty invited guests, was performed by Rev. E. H. Cochran, of Moncton. The bride, dressed in duchess satin and Georgette crepe, with head trimmings, entered the parlor on the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Beatrice Harper, sister of the bride, and took her place under a prettily trimmed arch. The many presents received testify to the popularity of the young couple. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl and amethyst necklace, and to the organist a pearl ring. After partaking of a dainty supper the bride and groom left for their home in Corn Hill, where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

Their winter climate, Canada, and especially the Maritime Provinces could well do, to boost their Summer climate, which was second to none. The so-called backward provinces of Quebec were fully alive to the great attraction good roads had for the tourist. A national highway has been built from Quebec to Montreal, and from Montreal to the border of the United States as a result millions will be spent by tourists in that province this summer. In the city of Montreal, restaurants have been booked by Americans for the whole Summer until, late in the Fall. The speaker queried how much had been spent by tourists in New Brunswick, if the amount did not compare favorably with Quebec it was because our roads were not equal to those of that province.

Anything which was novel or which possessed historical interest was eagerly sought by all tourists, but above all by Americans. St. John possessing the only reversing falls in the world, possessed an admirable drawing card for tourists traffic which should be fully advertised.

Henry Wordsworth Longfellow by immortalizing the basishment of the innocent Acadians had given to Nova Scotia an advertising agency which was worth millions to that province. The speaker hoped that New Brunswick would join with the other provinces in building his tombstone and the ambition of his life, a national highway from coast to coast. He urged that the rule of the road be changed for the sake of uniformity and to avoid accidents which would result with tourist traffic under the present order. In doing so the change would be an aping of the Yankees he contended, for the French had introduced that rule, both in Acadia and Quebec, years before the United States existed.

In conclusion the speaker congratulated the province on the work already done. The Robbsey road was a credit to the people, and spoke for the efficiency of the Minister of Public Works. He hoped that the province would soon determine what course the great trunk road of the nation would pursue in this province, and having done so, immediately set to work to build it. The Farmers' Government of Ontario were backing the good roads programme to their utmost, which was but natural when it was considered that 40,000 cars in that province were owned by the farmers alone. This year's programme called on the provincial government to bear 50 per cent of the cost of work on trunk roads, and 20 per cent on back roads. Over 1,600 miles of road will be built by the province this year. He hoped on his return to St. John in some four years' time, to see the streets of the city compare favorably with the roads of the province and the projected hotel an established fact and overflowing with tourists.

The president of the N. B. Automobile Association, T. P. Bagan, on behalf of both the Association and the Canadian Club, thanked the speaker for his address which all had listened to with much interest and pleasure. The N. B. A. A. he said, had done much to boost the national highway scheme which they heartily favored. He drew the doctor's attention to the fact that in addition to the splendid stretch of road to Robbsey, tarred roads were being constructed outside of Moncton and near Chatham and Newcastle. An eminent road engineer had made the statement that good gravel roads properly maintained were equal to asphalt, and as the province possessed the material, he hoped to see roads established throughout all parts of the province.

SHALL THIS WORK GO ON?

If by a touch of a magic wand we could take you and all other men and women and show them the work of the Salvation Army for the regeneration of Mankind through Christ and ask them the above question, we know the answer would be "yes"—and that they would embrace the privilege to aid in its progress— This is not possible but WE WANT YOU TO READ THESE WORD PICTURES. If your heart is with us on this work, give as God has prospered you; give in the true spirit of SELF-DENIAL.

GOD FIRST
They have been called a people of one idea—God First.
Whatever happens, their work goes on, serving God and their fellowmen.
Empires may rise and fall, the world may seem to be enveloped in blood and strife, but they still see God's sunshine and love, still do the nearest work of mercy, still praise God for the saving of souls.
Judge if you will from what you know of their work, whether the world has not cause to rejoice with them in their adherence to this one idea—"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God."

TAKE HER UP TENDERLY
MIDNIGHT—the City Street—the Police Officer—the wayward girl—the patrol wagon—and then—
The Desk Sergeant's a kindly soul. He reads human nature. He sees that sin is not yet graven into the face of the girl—so he says to the patrolman: "She's no wastrel, Bob." "Better send her over to the Salvation Army, and let them see what they can do for her."
The police knew the work of the Salvation Army. God has blessed it and those who come under its influence abundantly.

DEATH HOVERS SO NEAR
that the beating of his wings can almost be heard.
There's an aspect of Maternity Hospital work among "unfortunates" that is worth remembering.
While loving hands and brave hearts often fight desperately—though not always successfully—to bring mother and babe through the valley of the shadow, the cry of the newly born often awakens the god-imprinted mother love, and softens hearts that before had been hardened to every gracious influence.
INDEED, THE MATERNITY HOSPITAL WORK of the Salvation Army is one of the most blessed and encouraging of all.

YESU AI WO WO CHUNG CHE!
YOU have sung this. YES you have. It is the Chinese version of "Jesus loves me, this I know."
It would do your heart good to see crowds of little children in the streets of Peking clap their hands and sing:
YESU ai wo, Wo chung che!
The awakening of China will come through bringing the children to Christ.
To teach them to know and love Jesus is one of the privileges of the Salvation Army.
In China they have a number of corps, officers and cadets, a Girls' Industrial School and a Training Institute.

FROM PRISON CELL TO $7,500 A YEAR
M.—was a forger, clever, hardened. He was "doing a stretch" for the third time. When in jail he accepted Christ.
He was watched over and cared for. On his release he was placed where his natural talents could be honorably used. Today he is drawing a salary of $7,500 a year.
He owes everything that makes life worth living to the ministry of the Salvation Army.

THERE'S A HOME FOR LITTLE CHILDREN
Not an orphanage, or an institution—a home.
The children there are not all total orphans. Some have fathers; some have mothers.
It's a heart-warming sight to see fathers come there on Saturdays and Sundays to spend happy hours with their motherless babies.
Equally comforting is the appreciation of widows whose little ones are well taken care of while they are at work.
Many totally orphaned little ones are very early placed in good homes, where they may renew the love of father and mother.
To preserve the atmosphere of home, that's the guiding spirit of the Orphan Children's work of the Salvation Army.

QUARREL PATCHERS
"I won't live with her—she's no good."
"He's a brute. I'll have the law on him; I'll get a separation or divorce. I'll— I'll—"
Meantime two or three little children are neglected and terrified while the parents fight it out.
To pacify such parents and bring them on their knees to genuine reconciliation is a task that seems to fall peculiarly to the lot of the Salvation Army. And "Praise God," these opportunities have opened the way for Christ to enter many and many a home. It is no uncommon thing for police court officials or friendly neighbors to call in such emergencies the aid of the Salvation Army.

GUTTER AND UNIVERSITY MEET
Some people think their officers come only from converts among the submerged tenth.
This is not so. Provided a man or woman is possessed of a personal experience of salvation and a passion to help and save the world, he or she will be welcome in their ranks.
From gutter, from university, from slum hall, from mansion, men and women of every type of intellect and ability have consecrated themselves for service to Christ through the medium of the Salvation Army.
Every rank and office is open to young men and women whose ability and consecration qualify them for it.

A MAN MAY BE DOWN BUT HE'S NEVER "OUT"
Such is the strong faith of the SALVATION ARMY in the power of God to regenerate the human heart.

ONE MILLION VISITS A WEEK
NOT visits to comfortable homes, but to the homes of the poor and the sick.
HOMES where beds are not too comfortable.
WHERE playthings are few or none at all.
WHERE living costs are felt keenly; where even bread may be scarce.
Where Christ is almost unknown.
MANY of these visits are amongst our foreign population. There our purpose is to preach Christ. Because if these people accept Christ, they will become good and true Canadians.

ARE ACCOUNTS AUDITED?
Yes. Every year independent chartered accountants of recognized standing examine the International, National and Territorial Books.
VOUCHERS are provided for every dollar spent for the purpose for which it was intended.
BALANCE SHEETS showing the administration of all funds entrusted to their care will be sent to interested enquirers.

EIGHTY-FIVE PER CENT. RECLAIMED
Eighty-five out of every hundred "rescued" girls regain their self-respect in passing through our hands.
TRUE penitence and the acceptance of Christ's forgiveness work miracles in regeneration. Many consecrate their lives to the service of the Master by aiding other "unfortunates."
If you should see our "Out of Love's" fund, which is made up of money sent to us for the support of their babies, you would know that this restoration and consecration is no temporary thing, but the earnestness of a true life and spirit regained.

CHRONICALLY UNEMPLOYED
You know the type—the flotsam and jetsam of labor.
We reach these men, and by preaching Christ's example and forgiveness and power to save and regenerate are blessed to see thousands of them restored spiritually, physically and mentally and become useful citizens again.
Hundreds of employers in this territory will testify to the result achieved by the Industrial Homes of the Salvation Army.

THIRTEEN MILLION MEALS
Or, to be exact, 12,806,943 meals were supplied by the 282 Social Institutions of a single organization in a year.
Most of them were paid for. Sometimes only the few cents the applicant could afford, but a very great number—millions in fact—were free to men and women in actual want.
YOU may not know what it is to be hungry; perhaps you never will. But if you, or anybody belonging to you, were ever "up against it," you will appreciate to the full this sidelight on the Social Service Work of the Salvation Army.

FIFTY YEARS FIGHTING SIN
They know the triumphs of victory, but never the bitterness of defeat, because their war against sin is unceasing.
OPPOSITION, calumny; every force that sin can muster, is used to check-mate their work of regeneration and drag back into iniquity the soul they bring to Christ.
But those who enter their ranks soon learn that Christ is an impregnable shield—a Divine Fortress.

PRINCIPLES
To forego all desire to accumulate money or chattels for personal advantage.
To live decently, to have sufficient food, clothes and shelter, but to ask no reward in this life.
To dedicate their lives solely to the work of helping others and bringing them to Christ.
To spend their lives in consecrated ministry to the physical and spiritual needs of the poor, hopeless, needy, fallen and stricken.
These are the principles that govern the lives of the Salvation Army Officers.
"By their deeds ye shall know them."

HIS MOTHER'S CHURCH
He was quite a lad, and unconsciously approaching one of the fatally fascinating perils of the street.
In a friendly way our officer warned him.
Conversation followed. The lad said: "The nearest church to my home was 100 miles away."
"How did you manage on Sundays, then?" the officer enquired.
"When I am at home, sister, my mother is my church," he said simply.
"Good-night, my boy, your mother's religion will keep you in this or any other city," were her parting words.
"God helping me, Sister," he replied reverently to the officer.

PRIVILEGES
—to undo cruelty and injustice.
—to pluck childhood from the mire.
—to restore cast-off women and girls.
—to shelter wretched and homeless men and women.
—to bring cheer to the down-hearted.
—to nurse the sick.
—to bury the desolate dead.

—to preach in the open air the good news of redemption as taught by the Man of Galilee.

ALLIES TO DELAY SPA SESSIONS

Lloyd George and Millerand Wish More Time to Reach an Agreement.

ITALY ALSO IS A FACTOR

Approaching Elections in Germany Another Element That Makes for Delay.

London, May 18.—It was admitted today by official circles that a postponement of the Spa conference was probable. At the same time it was stated that the postponement would be at the volition of the Allies and not because of any move by Berlin. An announcement that it had been decided to postpone the date for the meeting at Spa, it was said, probably will follow the forthcoming week-end conference between Premier Lloyd George and Millerand. The reasons for the decision were given as follows: First, the realization by Premier Millerand and Lloyd George that they have a tremendous amount of ground to cover to reach a complete agreement before talking with the Germans and appreciation of the fact that the week ends between now and the Spa meeting will not suffice for other conferences necessary between subordinates.

Second, the fall of the Nitti Government in Italy and Premier Millerand's fight with the General Federation of Labor in France, which has moved to dissolve. Last, but not least, according to official viewpoints, is the desirability of waiting to treat with the German Government until it has been weighed in the balance of the forthcoming elections in Germany. It was emphasized that the Germans accepted unconditionally the summons to come to Spa, and it was asserted that no communication had been received from them in which a postponement of the meeting was suggested or making their attendance at Spa conditioned on the evacuation of Frankfurt by the French, or on any other factors.

The preliminary character of the forthcoming conference of the British and French Premiers was emphasized. Marshal Foch will not attend it, and it is probable that Premier Lloyd George will not sit in any Treasury or military expert, although he is well supplied with reports from them. The conference will be the same kind of an informal get-together such as proved successful in ironing out the differences between them before the San Remo meeting.

The fall of the Cabinet of Premier Nitti of Italy is not considered as an important element which will affect the meeting. The British view is that if Premier Nitti is not returned to power Italy will be represented by some other Premier who will carry out the San Remo and other commitments of the Nitti Government.

The most difficult thing about Premier Nitti's fall is that it burdens Premier Lloyd George with hypnotizing a new one.

ALLIES TO DELAY SPA SESSIONS

Lloyd George and Millerand Wish More Time to Reach an Agreement.

ITALY ALSO IS A FACTOR

Approaching Elections in Germany Another Element That Makes for Delay.

London, May 18.—It was admitted today by official circles that a postponement of the Spa conference was probable. At the same time it was stated that the postponement would be at the volition of the Allies and not because of any move by Berlin. An announcement that it had been decided to postpone the date for the meeting at Spa, it was said, probably will follow the forthcoming week-end conference between Premier Lloyd George and Millerand. Mrs. D. A. McDonald Gives Testimony

Says Tanlac Proved Its Worth by Restoring Her to Splendid Health.

The remarkable results being obtained by the use of Tanlac is further evidenced in the case of Mrs. D. A. McDonald, of Reservoir, Cape Breton, while speaking of her experience with the medicine which has been so beneficial to her. Mrs. McDonald said: "If it hadn't been for Tanlac I believe I should have had to give up entirely, on account of being troubled with the worst kind of indigestion. I couldn't eat a thing but what gas would form and blow me up so badly that I had to loosen my clothes. The distress caused by this indigestion was especially bad at night and often I had to get up and pace the floor before I could get any relief. I used to have violent headaches that kept me in bed for days at a time and drove me almost frantic with pain. My nerves got so bad that the least little thing upset me and I couldn't bear to have anybody around. I couldn't sleep at night and by mid-day would be completely done up."

"I had tried so many medicines without getting any relief, that when a friend advised me to try Tanlac I thought it would only be like all the rest. Still, I gave it a trial and I hadn't got through the second bottle before I began to improve, and by the time I had finished the fourth, I was as well as could be. I can now eat anything I want to and am never troubled with gas or indigestion. I am no longer troubled with shortness of breath or palpitation of the heart. Headaches are a thing of the past, and my nerves are as steady as a clock. I sleep as soundly as a child every night and get up in the morning feeling so fresh and strong that my work is no trouble to me at all. Tanlac is certainly wonderful and after what it has done for me I am glad of the chance to recommend it."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and the leading drug list in every town, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

THE BRITISH NAVY SAW ITS DUTY AND DID IT.

Navy League and other friends of the British Navy have nothing to be said in any criticism from friend or foe as to the part the British sailor played in the Great War. When "deep calls unto deep," whether it be the "noise of waterspouts," or the criticisms of shallow noise-makers, there is only one story that can tell regarding the British navy—it saw its duty and did it, quietly, determinedly, unostentatiously, unselfishly, effectively. When the whole world was threatened with the domination of a cruel, relentless foe,—when a weaker nation was being trampled upon and solemn treaties were being cast to the winds,—the British Navy, regardless of the great peril it was plunging itself into, and clearly visualizing the effect that an enemy triumph would have upon the world at large, ranged itself alongside the weaker power, and undertook, practically alone and unaided, to defend its own homeland and the lands on this side of the ocean from destruction.

Day after day, month after month, year after year, in winter and summer, in storm and sunshine, surrounded by every instrument of death that a scientific devilism could devise, it kept up its lonely vigil in the North Sea and adjoining waters, bravely meeting the menace of hidden mines, of enemy warships, submarines and seaplanes; keeping free for neutral nations as well as for itself and its allies the ocean lanes of commerce; sweeping the seven seas of the enemies, and making it possible for not only Canadian, but other peoples on this continent to carry on business on land and sea with comparatively little interruption or danger.

But this is only a small—very small part of the story that the "deep" could tell, if it would, of the British Navy, whose glorious traditions and achievements are the boast and pride of the British peoples of the earth. Never too proud to "parade" in their when duty called or danger, the record of its splendid ships and its no less splendid sailors (a record which extends as well to the sailors of the mercantile marine) who have sunk beneath the wave, in order that the world might be saved from slavery and that others might "live, speak in such thunderous tones as to make any criticism of them sound awfully small and mean.

Uses of Salt

Billots says: Salt, that common substance everyone is familiar with, is called by the chemists "sodium chloride" and in their bottles they label it "Na Cl." It is indeed a queer fact that it is made from that deadly gas chlorine, and from a most remarkable metal called sodium. This sodium is the softest metal known, for it can be molded in the fingers like putty. When pure, the metal has to be kept under water, for as soon as it comes in contact with water or moist air, it generates a temperature of 230 degrees and begins to burn. Being lighter than water, if a piece is thrown into a dish of water, the metal will melt and sink. When this poisonous gas, chlorine, and the explosive metal, sodium, are combined, they form a substance that is an essential part of man's diet, a substance that animals will travel miles to get at. In the household, salt can be used as more than a food, and it is the purpose of this article to enlighten the householder on a few benefits that can be derived from its use.

New Boxing Rules For Olympic Bouts

England and France Dominate All the Arrangements.

England and France, the dominating forces in the International Boxing Union, have also organized what is known as the International Amateur Boxing Federation, and have assumed full powers in the adoption of conditions for the government of the boxing competitions at the Olympic games. The Belgian Olympic Committee had arranged rules for the boxing championship, but when the federation met in London the Belgian rules were thrown into the waste basket and the rules of the federation declared to be in force. J. H. Douglas, chairman of the federation, said: "We have agreed upon our rules, and all that we need now do is to send a copy of them to the Belgian committee and inform them that the boxing must take place under them. That will get rid of all the controversy."

Warton, Ont.—"I feel it my duty to let others know the benefit I have derived from the use of Dr. Pierce's medicines, and I hope this may be the means of inducing some sufferer to try these remedies for I know they will do all that is claimed for them. I took five or six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription during expectancy and it did wonders for me. I had practically no suffering and have a lovely healthy baby girl. I have such confidence in the 'Favorite Prescription' I am continuing its use and it is building me up and supplying plenty of nourishment for my babe. I also took Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets for the relief of varicose veins and they certainly worked a miracle. I only took two bottles."—MRS. DAVID H. COLLINS, Warton, Ontario.

Pittsburg, May 18.—A ouja board was responsible for Miss Bertha Henry landing in jail recently, and police authorities demand that she take steps to prevent it from getting out of control on murder tips.

The police arrived at No. 507 Army St. in response to her alarm that a murder had been committed, but no traces were found. Coroner Dempsey asked her, "Where do you get that stuff?" She referred him to the ouja board.

Ballet And Plays At London Theatres

Pavlova and Moscovitch at Drury Lane — Seven New Productions for Lucky Londoners to View.

By Louis Zangwill.
London, May 18.—Prodigious activity continues in theatre-land. Seven new productions including a J. M. Barrie and a Malsworthy play, are due for the coming week.

Madam Anna Pavlova in ballet at Drury Lane Theatre and Maurice Moscovitch in "The Government Inspector" at the Duke of York's theatre have colored the atmosphere of the theatre going public. Color and atmosphere indeed are characteristic of both productions.

It was Madam Pavlova's new bow to London after years of absence, and a quite gorgeous feast she brought to it. Her opening program consisted of two elaborate ballets, and of seven shorter pieces labelled "divertissement." In the first, "Snowflakes," we have a prince who had been turned into a doll by a wicked fairy restored again; and he leads his rescuer and a band of children crowd "Kingdom of Pine Trees where the Christmas Tree was born.

"More grown up" is "Amarilla," the second elaborate ballet. A gipsy maid coming along with troupe to dance at a garden picnic suddenly recognizes her lover, a high-born Count. The Count however is in the society of the high-born Marchioness he is now wed. The gipsy maid dances wondrously to win his love back, but he gives her only money, and she falls heartbroken. It is an exquisite garden scene of the Watteau pattern. The dances of the high-born crowd are the formal and graceful movements of the eighteenth century, and the gipsy contributed passion and abandonment. The flaming impression of the evening was the Syrian dance, gorgeous in extreme, weird and barbaric.

"The Government Inspector" Gogol's famous comedy presents, with both realism and satire, the corruption of the Russian social system of a century ago. It is hugely entertaining.

TIPS TO HOUSEWIVES.
Flaked cereals put through the chopper make a delicious coating for croquettes.

Dry mustard rubbed on the fingers after handling onions or fish, removes the odor.

A young adventurer stranded in a hotel is mistaken by all the pots of the town for a government inspector whose arrival is expected. He accepts the mistake and works the position for all it is worth, and has an immense good time, and clears out of the way with his booty of bribes and other perquisites just in the nick of time as the real inspector arrives. As is usual with the Russian method, it is in this case also rather to elaborate, and aiming at too great literalness. Mr. Moscovitch plays the role of the ill paid governor of the town who makes the most of his position.

"The Show-Room."
Besides the American and Russian, there has been an "aristocratic" invasion of the London theatre. Another woman of rank, Lady Bell, has opened here in "The Show-Room." A young man in love with a pretty cousin finds himself also involuntarily involved with a lady of the show room. He possesses, however a shy naturalist uncle, Baronet & Fellow of the Royal Society, specializing in the spider, and as the lady of the show room allows herself to be interested by the uncle in this pet interest of his, she develops a positive enthusiasm of spiders, a passion arises between the two on the ground of their absorption. The young man is thus set out, and all's well that ends well. It was an amiable and agreeable performance. Miss Sybil Thorne played the Show-Room lady and Nicholas Hannen the uncle baronet.

The Clancy Kids Pleasing Comedy

Large Audience at Trinity School House Last Evening Enjoyed Performance Given by "Beavers" of Winsted School.

The Clancy Kids a very pleasing comedy was presented before a large audience at Trinity School House last evening by the "Beavers" of Winsted School. This was the annual entertainment of Miss Lawson's pupils and the proceeds are for The Protestant Orphan's Home. Before the play a beautiful little sketch was given entitled "The Hope of Canada" (1) which the spirit of Patriotism called upon Canada to shine forth. Those representing the word "Canada" bore illuminated letters which gave a fine effect.

The comedy was excellently acted by all the young people taking part. The clear enunciation of the girls being favorably commented upon. Fluff, the comical maid and the Clancy Kids supplied much of the fun and Miss Zoe Peterson as Fluff was splendid.

The play included a short scene from A Mid Summer Night's Dream with fairies and the donkey-headed Bottom all taking their parts well.

Senorita Pujol played with excellent technique and spirit. Mrs. Kent Scovill was the accompanist. The programme was as follows:

DOMINIONS MAY BE HEARD FROM IN JAP TREATY

Anglo-Japanese Treaty Will Probably be Renewed as it is.

Determination That Australia Shall Remain a "White Man's Country."

London, May 15.—The Anglo-Japanese treaty will in all probability be renewed shortly without material change. It will not expire until July 30, 1921, but under its terms either Government must give notice on July 20 next as to whether it wishes to continue or terminate it. Very little doubt is entertained in well-informed circles here that England will renew it, as it is understood Japan is anxious to do.

The treaty has become one of the settled features of British policy, and as it has worked well in the past, will be continued almost as a matter of routine. Certain changes will be necessary in order to make the instrument conform with the Treaty of Versailles and special interest attaches to this in that it will be the first agreement of first class importance to be communicated to the League of Nations.

As regards Anglo-American relations, it was pointed out today that the present treaty specifically removes either party from obligation to go to war with any state with which it has an arbitration treaty, and as England and the United States are signatories of the Peace Commission's treaty of September, 1914, Japan could never risk England to side with her against America. An argument, put forward in certain American newspapers, that the failure of the senate to ratify, earlier, the arbitration treaty with England, has deprived the safeguard inserted in the Anglo-Japanese agreement of all effect, is therefore not considered by experts here to be well founded.

The dominions, particularly Australia, may, however, make their voices heard in the new Japanese deal. W. A. Watt, treasurer of the Australian Commonwealth, in a speech last night said Australia would want the right to be considered in the negotiations. The points she might bring are five tonnage in the Pacific Mail Gazette, as the attitude of Japan towards the return of Kiauchau, the extraordinary Japanese immigration now in progress into the New Hebrides, and other islands in the Australian waters, and the necessity of formal Japanese recognition of the policy of a "white Australia."

Exclusion of Japs.
London, May 13.—The question whether the issue is to be a continuance of the Anglo-Japanese alliance is being brought before the British public by the presence of W. A. Watt, treasurer of the Australian Commonwealth, in England. Mr. Watt arrived in London this week and has given out a number of interviews in which he has declared close co-operation between Great Britain and her dominions with regard to foreign policies and emphasized Australia's determination to remain a "white man's country."

At a dinner given in his honor, which was attended by Viscount Milner, Secretary of State for the Colonies, and numerous other men in public life, Mr. Watt in an address said: "The dominant thought in our minds has been that in southeastern Asia five eight hundred million colored people and the Australian people say that whatever can be done to keep our country for such as the British and their children should be done. We know that we could not repel an armed assault by the great yellow or brown nations, but we believe that in the fullness of time the statesmen of the Empire will understand our attitude and assist us to enforce it."

"If there are conversations in the near future between the Empire of the Mikado and the British Government, the Australian people want their views registered before the responsible thinkers in the home of our Empire."

Vancouver, May 17.—When the Canadian Manufacturers' Association convention opens here on June 7, official welcomes to the delegates will be voiced by Premier Oliver on behalf of the province and Mayor Gale on behalf of the city. The provincial branch of the association with the assistance of other organizations, is making every effort to present in the fullest form all information respecting the possibilities and resources of British Columbia, with a view to inducing Canadian capital to invest in the West. About 600 delegates, many of whom will bring their families, are expected to attend the convention which will be the largest "all Canadian" gathering scheduled for Western Canada for this summer.

Nearly everyone of the delegates is interested in the development of export trade, according to J. B. Thomson, chairman of the British Columbia division of the association. Added to these 600 delegates will be others attending the fisheries convention, which is looked for approximately the same time. Indeed some are intending to put in attendance at both conventions.

GOETHALS OFFERED TO REBUILD FRANCE

Headed U. S. Syndicate Willing to Put up $14,000,000, 000 "or More."

IF FOUND NECESSARY

Claimed Reason Offer Was Turned Down Was Fear of Giving Importance to Labor Organization.

(By Wythe Williams, Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co.)

Paris, May 18.—The committee of the General Federation of Labor called last week to the effect that American capitalists had offered, through the French labor delegates in America, sufficient funds to rebuild the devastated regions of France, now in mourning as a serious "affair" in French politics.

Until today not a single Paris newspaper had paid the slightest attention to that important announcement, but now Gustave Tery's violently anti-American L'Oeuvre of all papers, goes after the government in the strongest terms for not having accepted the American offer and gives striking details of the character of the offer. L'Oeuvre, apparently has gone thoroughly into the subject and declares that the offer was made by General Goethals, heading a group of American business men that the sum offered was 20,000,000,000 francs (normally, $14,000,000,000) or more if needed.

Herbert Spencer's Home Auctioned. London, May 19.—The house where Herbert Spencer, the Victorian philosopher, was born on April 27, 1820, has been sold under the hammer. It is a small red-brick house of a humble type, one of a pair, standing in a back street in Derby, and bears a commemorative tablet. The house, together with its twin neighbor, went for $1400. On April 27, the town celebrated Herbert Spencer's centenary.

Ont. Motor League Censuses of Traffic

In Ten Hours on Three Highways 8,234 Vehicles Passed and Only 47 Were Horse Drawn.

A recent census of the traffic by the Ontario Motor League reveals some interesting information and shows the wonderful increase in motor transport. The census was taken on the three main highways, extending Toronto—the Hamilton-Toronto highway, Yonge street and the Kingston Road. The three highways are the best that Ontario can boast, and they cost the people of Ontario millions. It was frequently alleged, too, that though the people of Ontario had built them, they had only proved speedways for Yankee tourists.

The census covered ten hours' traffic, between 9 in the morning to 7 in the evening. This would roughly catch seventy-five per cent of the traffic of that day. The following facts were tabulated: 8,234 vehicles passed the checkers. Of this number, only 47 were horse-drawn; all the rest—8,187, in fact—were motor vehicles of some kind. Included in this number of motor vehicles were 73 different trucks. The day in question happened to be a Sunday. It did not seem to affect heavy traffic at all. Moreover, out of that 8,000 odd motor vehicles, only 52 were owned outside the Province of Ontario. This is a sufficient refutation of the above-mentioned allegation against Yankee tourists and Ontario highways.

FATAL ACCIDENT HAPPENED IN MARKET SLIP LAST NIGHT

Maurice Downing of Victoria Street Fell from North Market Wharf—Companion, Patrick Mariner, Jumped After Him—Policeman Young Rescued Both—Downing Died in Hospital Shortly After.

The North Wharf and Market Slip was the scene of a fatal accident last evening about nine o'clock which resulted in the death of Maurice Downing, a longshoreman who resided at Victoria Street, North End, the narrow escape of Patrick Mariner of Water Street, West St. John and the plucky rescue of the two men from the water by Police Constable Harry Young.

There was a hurry call sent into police headquarters about nine o'clock for the ambulance and the police patrol, and the information given over the telephone was that two men had fallen from the North wharf into the waters of the Market Slip and were in a drowning condition.

Detectives Biddiscombe and Donohue who were at the station at the time the message was received went to the scene in the patrol wagon and on arrival at the wharf they found Michael Cogswell of the City Road in a drunken condition standing on the wharf flourishing a rope and insisting that he effect the rescue of Mariner and Downing who were in the water below between the wharf and a coal scow, while four or five men stood by apparently prevented by the drunken man's actions from helping the two companions. The detectives placed Cogswell in the patrol wagon and then took steps to assist Policeman Harry Young who had arrived on the scene a few minutes before them, in making a rescue.

Policeman Young was on the scow and had been attempting to drag Mariner and Downing up in the water. Finding this about impossible, Officer Young lowered himself down a rope into the cold water which was about five feet deep and up to his shoulders. The officers waded up to the men and found Mariner supporting Downing who was unconscious. The policeman relieved Mariner of his burden and passed the unconscious form up to the detectives on the scow. Young then took hold of Mariner who was also in a critical condition, and waded ashore with him.

The detective applied artificial respiration to Downing as first aid, placed him in the ambulance and worked over him all the way to the General Public Hospital.

Although Downing's condition on admittance to the hospital was critical and he was still in an unconscious state, some hope was held out for his recovery. He failed to rally, however, and passed away about half an hour after he had been admitted.

Mariner who was taken to the police station in the patrol wagon was also in a critical condition, but after Desman Thomas and Detective Saunders had worked over him for some time, they succeeded in bringing him back to normal. According to the story told by the two men taken to the police station, all three were sitting on the cap of the North wharf drinking, when Downing suddenly fell over into the water between a coal scow and the wharf. Mariner jumped in after him and attempted to hold him above the water until help arrived. The tide was coming in at the time but the depth of water was not more than from four to five feet. As Mariner was not very tall he was only successful in keeping his companion and himself above water for a part of the time.

In view of the nature of the surroundings, and the height from the top of the wharf to the water, it is believed that Downing's death was due to injuries received in his fall, as he must have struck both the side of the wharf and the scow before reaching the water.

Spectator spoke highly of the conduct of Policeman Young, who showed considerable presence of mind in effecting the rescue. The plan he adopted being to hold the two men under the circumstances. After landing the man he went to his home and after changing his uniform returned to duty at his beat.

Both Mariner and Cogswell are held at the police station on a charge of drunkenness.

It was stated by a detective that when he arrived at the hospital with the unconscious man he did not see any doctor present, and Downing was looked after by the nurses, who done all possible for the unfortunate victim.

It was further stated that when the ambulance was called, the doctor was on duty but was absent for a short time, but that he was quickly communicated with on the telephone and gave instructions what to do with the man until he arrived to attend the case himself.

While Downing was in the water for some little time before he was rescued by Policeman Young, it is believed that he was not drowned, although he must have swallowed considerable water, but the belief is that when he fell from the wharf he struck the side of the coal scow and was badly injured and when found in the water by his companion Mariner he was unconscious.

The coroner was notified and an inquest will undoubtedly be held.

Maurice Downing lost his life as a single man aged 35 years, and resided with his mother on Victoria street. Patrick Mariner is aged 33 years, and Michael Cogswell is aged 34 years, and like their unfortunate companion are single men and have been engaged in longshore work.

Development of Lepreaux River

Government Members Visited the Falls Yesterday—Premier Foster Says Project is Being Proceeded With as Fast as Possible.

Plans for the development of Lepreaux River under the Water Power Act, passed at the last session of the Legislature, are being worked out. The general layout of the dams and plant at the Big Falls and the lower falls have been approved by Mr. Holgate, the well known hydro-electric engineer of Montreal. After a visit to both falls with members of his Government yesterday Premier Foster said the project was being proceeded with as fast as possible, and he hoped next month to be in the position to make an announcement of some interest to St. John.

Premier Foster, Hon. J. P. Byrne, Hon. Robert Murray, Hon. C. W. T. Mason, Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, with Fred Magee and Frank J. Sweeney, members of Westmorland county went to Lepreaux in company with C. O. Foss of the N. B. Water Power Commission. They had to leave their autocar on the St. George Road about a mile and a half from the site of the proposed power developments and march in by an old wood road. As the day was warm the Government were soon feeling like Moses on the rocky road to Jordan, and Mr. Sweeney and Mr. Magee were protesting that the miles thereabouts were twice as long as in the beautiful valley around Moncton, and to add to their troubles Mr. Venton seized the occasion to deliver a lecture on the need of good roads.

When the plan was explained to the Big Falls the layout was explained to them, and when they arrived at the Lower Falls the plan for the development there was also pointed out. After which they admired the scenery and had lunch.

At the Big Falls, where there is a head of 100 feet, the plan call for the development of 2250 horse power for a twenty-four hour day, 5,000 h. p. for a ten hour day. At the Lower Falls, where there is a head of 70 feet at low tide, about two-thirds of the power of the Big Falls is available. Up the river there is the Ragged Falls with a head of 90 feet, making for the three falls a total head of 260 feet.

At the Big Falls the dam would be about 300 feet long on the bottom and six hundred feet long at the top. This dam would give a pondage six miles long by an average breadth of 350 feet. Mr. Whitney who made a survey in 1911 reported that there were 12 possible sites for storage dams on the river. Six of these he estimated would have a storage capacity of 1,750,000,000 cubic feet. The Water Power Commission has records of the run-off of the river for practically four years. On the basis of the driest year experienced the storage capacity of six dams would keep the plants going to full capacity and leave a reserve of 2,000,000,000 cubic feet of water. Mr. Foss thinks a storage capacity of 2,000,000,000 cubic feet can be obtained without any trouble. The Water Power Commission is arranging for a more extended survey of the storage possibilities, as it is the intention to secure the maximum of power available on the Lepreaux twenty-four hours a day in order to supply St. John with energy that is necessary to its industrial development and general well-being.

According to Mr. Foss it would take about two seasons to complete the work of harnessing the Lepreaux and it is unlikely that power will be had on to St. John before the end of next year. The canals will have to be excavated through solid rock. As regards the cost Mr. Whitney in 1911 estimated that the City of St. John could be developed for $700,000, which was considered a low figure at the time. Since then the cost of everything has about doubled.

Before machinery can be got in to the development sites roads will have to be built. They have already been built in some places.

In regard to the construction of transmission lines there would be little difficulty, as they would run over rocky hills through a territory which has been swept by forest fires.

Put Clocks Ahead Saturday Midnight

Mayor Will Issue Proclamation Today for City Departments—Daylight Time from Saturday, May 22, to Saturday, Sept. 11.

Yesterday afternoon Mayor Schofield was inclined to issue a proclamation that the City of St. John observe daylight time in its departments, and this proclamation will be sent out today. The proclamation will set forth that in support of a resolution adopted by council on April 28th last, the city will observe Daylight Time from midnight of Saturday, May 22nd, until midnight of Saturday, September 11th, and will request that all clocks be set ahead one hour to conform with the change in time.

There was some objection raised yesterday regarding the ferry but it is felt that this department like all others will fall in line today.

Terminal Agent, L. B. Igusa, of the C. N. R. advised that if the city adopted daylight saving the railway freight shed would operate on the new time, despite the fact that the railway will remain on standard time. This would solve the problem of conflict in time so far as wholesalers are concerned. It is understood that the C. P. R. will also have its sheds open to suit the general public.
