The Allan Steamer Assyrian Floated Without Damage.

Pertinent Suggestions Regarding Ocean Penny Postage.

Farewell to Gen. Booth on Starting for America.

Many Cholera Cases in Russia and Gallicia-Corea and Japan Allied Against China.

Afloat Again.

GLASGOW, Sept. 11. - The steamship Assyrian, from Montreal, Aug. 29, for Glasgow, which went aground yesterday opposite Dumbarton, has been floated without damage.

Look to Your Letters.

London, Sept. 11 .- Merchants throughout Great Britain are still complaining of the large proportion of underpaid letters from Canada. The last mail reaching London brought many letters over weight. Canadian visitors to Great Britain have to pay full postage on many letters they receive from their friends at home.

Gen. Booth's Departure. LONDON, Sept. 11.-Genearl Booth, of the Salvation Army, left Euston station this morning en route to America. Detachments of the Salvation Army corps from all parts of London and vicinity were at the station to bid him farewell. Gen. Booth will embark on the steamer Carthagenian for St. Johns, Nfld., make a tour of Newfoundland and Canada, and reach New York about Oct. 20. From New York he will proceed to the chief cities in the West | Germans lost only two men. and Northwest, and finish his tour at Scattle, Wash., Dec. 28.

Allied Against China.

London, Sept. 111 .- This dispatch from Tokio has been received: A treaty of alliance between Japan and Corea was signed at Seoul on Aug. 26. The first clause says that the object of treaty is to accomplish the independence of Corea and to promote the common interests of Corea and Japan by expelling the Chinese troops from the peniasula. In the second clause Japan proposes to operate against Chinese forces both defensively and offensively, and Corea pledges herself to aid her with provisions and other means. The third clause says that the treaty will be operative during the present Chinese-Japanese war.

The Czar's Failing Health.

PARIS, Sept. 11 .- Bad reports are being circulated about the health of the Czar. It is said that he is seriously ill with Bright's disease and with a pulmonary affection, which has become incurable since his attack of influenza last spring. Well informed physicians believe this. The second son of the Czar, the Grand Duke George, who has been ill in the Caucasus for some time, has been told to return to his family. This fact is also considered as a serious indication that something is wrong with the Czar. If anything happened to the Czar there would be a change of incalculable effect upon European politics.

A Commercial Congress.

London, Sept. 11 .- The Congress of Associated Chambers of Commerce opened here today, Sir Albert K. Rollit presiding. In his opening speech the presiding officer said that all current data concurred in promising a revival of trade. It was one of the greatest of facts that any movement causing a relaxation of the tariff in America must be beneficial to British trade. Whatever England had suffered through bad times, other countries had suffered more. A resolution declaring that British trade interest with Spain required that treaty relations should be settled with the least possible delay was adopted.

Many Cholera Victims.

ODESSA, Sept. 11. - During the past week there were reported throughout Russia 6,396 new cases of cholera and 3,192

During the first week in September there were 146 fresh cases of cholera and 101

Sad Scenes at the Wreck. PARIS, Sept. 11 .- It is definitely stated the accident on the Paris-Cologne express was due to the slow shunting of a freight train at Apilly. The engineer of the express saw the cars on the line and reversed his engine, thereby reducing the speed of the train, and saving a number of lives. As soon as the accident became known a number of pricets and physicians hurried to the railroad station and did everything possible to assist the dying and injured travelers. The priests administered the last sacrament to several who were dying. Terrible scenes were witnessed when the railroad officials and others began to clear away the wreck. Several of the dead were frightfully mangled, and others had their heads severed from their bodies. The station master ran along the track while trying to signal to the express train and to the freight train which was in its way, and he was caught between the two trains and killed. It seems to be certain that there were no Americans among the killed or

Ocean Penny Postage.

LONDON. Sept. 11 .- The Daily Chronicle today publishes an interview of a column and a baif with the Canadian Postmaster-General, Sir A. P. Caron, and attaches great importance to his statement that Canada favors the penny postage system. Sir A. P. Caron said: "One thing alone has blocked the way up to the present, and a testival procession representing the histhat is the colonial interdict. In this country there is a practical unanimity in of Casar's time to the soldiers who fought favor of it. It is quite a mistake to sup. against Napoleon. In the procession will pose that Canada would object to a penny be represented Thomas a-Kempis, the the contrary. we would welcome it. It is was a native of the town-part of the onward march of civilization." The Chronicle thereupon says: Here, then, is an opportunity for the first step in the direction of imperial penny postage, for which all are waiting. Canada puts no obstacle in the way; then let the beginning be made. Let penny postage be estab-lished to the Dominion and to such other colonies as do not object and the day of the penny rate throughout the whole empire will not be long delayed. The reform is one which would work its own way if once given a chance to prove its value.

THE GRAND TRUNK.

A Malicious Stock-Jobbing Report Denied by Manager Seargeant.

MONTREAL, Sept. 12.—The Star's special cables from London say: "The Economist, in its railway article, says that it expects that the Grand Trunk Railway Company will default, and further, in support, the paper says it is sure that by the end of the year there will be a big deficit in the debenture interest. If a receiver cannot be appointed, says the Economist, the directors will probably be obliged to make an issue of deferred warrants.'

When shown the foregoing cablegram this morning Mr. L. J. Seargeant said the statement evidently emanated from parties interested in the depreciation of Grand Trunk securities and was false and malicious.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Alleged Scheme for Filling the Tory Boodle Bags-Mr. Allison's Candidature.

memorial adopted is to remedy this. The 42 members of the book and publishing committee labored long and earnestly in Wesley Hall. An interesting makers on the track with him. He disdebate arcse over the proposition to mounted three times, and each time reestablish a branch Methodist paper in the Northwest Territories. At length it was the end of 15 miles he was off for 3 minvoted down and a compromise amendment adopted, by which it will be recommended that a paid corresponding editor of the Guardian be stationed at Winnipeg. Newton W. Rowell's motion to reduce the personnel of the committee by one-half was voted down. In the committee on itinerancy the debate was very warm. The committee distinguished itself by voting down everything in sight, including a motion to reduce the size of the stationing committee one half; a motion to reduce it one-half and make it independent by the exclusion of any member directly interested in his own station, and a motion to take the vote in future by ballot instead of as at present by open vote. Thus the composition of the stationing committee will still include the chairman of districts, the president of the conference, and one representative from

The last committee of all to adjourn was that on superannuation matters, which met in the King Street Methodist Church. The proceedings were not characterized by very fierce debate, one reason why, doubtless, being the fact that the most dainty morsels of debate on which there is great divergence of opinion were held over for a future meeting. The proposed new constitution of the superannuation fund was under discussion and was practically adopted. The points on which there is a difference of opinion, and which have yet to be argued, relate to the mode in which circuit contributions shall be levied and the basis of ministerial subscriptions. The new constitution is based on the Australian and American systems and the most important item of difference from the present constitution is the departure in the matter of refunds. By the paragraphs accepted in committee this morning all subscriptions will be refunded to members ceasing their connection with the church, whether they do so voluntarily or for the church's good. The committee on Sabbath observance have instructed their secretary to draw up the report to be presented to the conference. This afternoon and evening will be devoted to further committee work, with the extention of a short session of the conference at 5 o'clock. Three hundred and ninety-six delegates, wives and friends have registered so far. By reaching the 300 mark they are entitled to a free re-

RADWAY'S GREAT RIDE. The Toronto Mail, in its report of Frank F. Radway's ride in Toronto yesterday,

"On Rosedale track yesterday afternoon F. F. Radway, of the London B. C., of London, and the Wanderers' B. C., of Toronto, smashed all Canadian track records from 6 to 100 miles inclusive, his figures for the latter distance being also American record. "The conditions were far from favorable when Radway commenced his ride at 1:20 p.m. yesterday. A gale was blowing from before evening, militated greatly against time. The record-breaker was well paced there being always three or four paceceived a rub-down and refreshments. At utes; at 54 miles he was off 4 minutes, and at 79 miles he was off for a minute. He showed signs of distress before his second dismount, but brisk rubbing gave him new energy. After his third dismount he rode decidedly better than earlier in the race. "The pacemakers were J. Miln, F. A. Moore, Fred A f, and Sam Young, W. H. Lee, F. Crowley, R. Heebner, M. R. Gooderham, F. Burnside, R. Gardner, J. B. Holland, R. O. Blayney, G. Gurtis, L. D. Robertson, J. Reid and R. E. McColl. The officials were: Referee, G. M. Wells; timers, G. H. Orr, P. E. Doolittle; scorers, F. Whatmough, F. 100...... 5 32 09 1-5 IT WAS A HARD RIDE. The Empire says: "The conditions were most adverse, the air being cold and raw, while a fall wind was blowing great guns up the back stretch. When 32 miles had been covered Rad dismounted and had a rub-down, and he got off again at 50 miles. At this juncture, he had a bad time, and he wanted to quit, but going on steadily for another ten miles, he began to freshen up. He was at this time but five minutes ahead of "Dave" and up to 75 miles he had not improved his position. The record-smasher was now improving at every mile, and thereafter the cutting went on in big chunks. Unlike the ride of September, '92, the pace in the dying stages of the effort grew faster, winding up in a spurt in the last lap. At 6:30 the deed had been done, and the plucky rider jumped off his wheel, apparently fresh and good for a repetition of the performance. RADWAY'S HOME-COMING.

Radway will arrive home from Toronto at 6:50 tonight via G. T. R. He will be met at the station by the members of the London Club and given an enthusiastic welcome.

Valentine Fisher is Cured of His Troubles to Bave No Return-He is Doing a Flourishing Fruit

Tree Business, Collingwood, Sept 10 .- About a year ago a telegraphic dispatch from here told how Valentine Fisher, who has suffered for years from Sciatica, and who was so crippled by the disease as to be unable to work and was generally thought at death's door, was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. That the story was no fiction was known by all citizens of this place. That the cure is a permanent one is now just as generally known, for since his recovery, Mr. Fisher has been hard at work selling fruit trees for Chase Bros., of Rochester, N. Y., and has traveled the whole of this section for this firm with most gratifying success.

A prominent English physician of long experience with drunkards says that he can recall hundreds of recoveries among men, but only five among women.

THE Marquis of Dufferin and Ava, as das street, and examine the fine Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, has lately headed a movement to preserve the historical buildings of the ancient port of Rye, including Ypres Castle, built more than 700 years ago, and the Land Gate, erected in 1360. Seven hundred pounds is needed for the project.

Q. D. TIDBALL,

Tuesday Afternoon.

After an afternoon spent in committee work, the conference reassembled at 4:30 to receive Rev. Mr. Porter, the official representative of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. The gallery was well filled with visitors, and before the colored delegate could be heard a final chance was given for those who wished to move motions or notices thereof. As a result the discipline came in for nearly a dezen more proposed amendments, which were sent to committee. Mr. Porter was introduced by Dr. Sutherland. The reverend gentleman was well received, and with characteristic politeness and mildness of manner he proceeded to read a very eloquent address of greeting. He stated that although different color and geographical separated, yet they were one body; "One in taith and doctrine, one in charity." He related the history of his church, which was started in 1799 by Rev. Richard Allen, and regularly organized in 1816. In 1838 they elected their first bishop. Since then there had been 22 bishops, but thirteen had order of businentered into their rest. They had over at the finish: 600,000 members in the United States, Africa, West Indias, Canada and the isles of the sea. They also had over 5,000 itinerant and 9,000 local preachers, nearly 500 .-000 pupils, teachers and officers in their Sunday schools. The body owned 5,000 dollars. "There is no stay or stand in Methodism," said the colored brother, "but continual striving against sin and Satan's

Rev. Dr. Antliff moved and Rev. John Learoyd seconded a resolution expressive of the pleasure of the conference at having heard Mr. Porter's address, and giving thanks to God for the success that had crowned the labors of that great branch of the church.

Dr. Lathern mentioned incidentally that the African Episcopal Methodists, just one century ago, were the largest society of Methodists in the territory now known as the Dominion of Canada. They were refugee slaves on the coast of Nova Scotia, and under the leadership of William Black.

Mr. Porter replied to the vote of thanks, and prophesied that Methodism would win the world for God. "That is," explained Mr. Porter, "the fire of Methodism will, with a little of the water of the Baptists thrown on to make steam." (Laughter.) The conference then adjourned.

THE WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY. The report of the Women's Missionary Society was brought down and laid over until today, when it will he read by the secretary, Mrs. E. S. Strachan. There had been advancement in every department of the work, the report said-a steady growth in intelligent and consecrated pursuit of their aim, which is the advancement of heathen women and children, and the arousing of their sisters in the church to a deeper sense of their responsibility in the matter. In both directions the four previous years. Auxiliaries had 537. These contain 12,486 annual members, a gain of 5,270; and 645 life members, an increase of 252. In young people's circles and bands there are 6,640, being 3,087 in advance. The total membership is 19,771. The income last year amounted to $37,974 16, a gain in the four years of $15,66788. The total receipts during the twelve years of existence was $219,309 90. As well as the direct work of spreading the gospel the society through its supply committee had ministered to the material comfort of numerous needy ones in domestic and Indian missions. Boxes and barreleand bales and bags of goods and clothing to the amount of $7,000-representing much labor and self-denial to both those who had prepared, and those who had packed them for carriage, and joy and comfort to multitudes, make more real and welcome the story of the gospel. Thirty-two missionaries now represented them. Two are stationed in China, sixteen in Japan (five of whom are in Canada on furlough), seven in the Indian work in British Columbia, two among the Chinese in British Columbia, and five among the French in Montreal. The report contained touching reference to the death of Mrs. Hannah Lund, Woodstock, who before her death had been a missionary to Japan. She is the first missionary of the W. F. M. S. to be called to

GLEANINGS FROM COMMITTEES. The committee on deaconess' movement will recommend other conferences to imitate Toronto in the master of a Deaconess

The committee on embarrassed trusts spent the afternoon considering the affairs of the Prescott Church and the St. Lawrence central camp grounds. Before deciding to do anything in the matter the committee will communicate with Mr. John N. Lake, treasurer of the fund, and get further information.

The committee on course of study finally passed the resolution making it necessary for probationers to pass a matriculation examination before being received into the ministry.

The committee on church union practically adopted Rev. Mr. Courtice's motion of the morning for the establishment of a federal court for Protestant churches an atom of schism and hold out at the same whereby the forces of the church will be time the right hand of fellowship to all more economically distributed in missionary territory. The clause respecting the French Protestant Church was not adopted. The sociological committee reported organization with Rev. Dr. Williamson, chairman; A. Odlum, secretary. The committee on civil rights reported similarly with Rev. Dr. Potts, chairman, and Rev. Dr. Williamson, secretary.

The committee on missions held a long and interesting meeting in the King Street Methodist Church and made considerable progress. The committee is, however, obliged to wait for the report of the committee on conference boundaries before the question of the composition of the general board can be taken up. The paragraphs were passed.

The committee on general superintendency and general conference fund find that the financial showing during the quadrennium is not so bad as was thought. Receipts about equal expenditure, with the exception of some extraordinary expenses which are not likely to recur. Mr. J. J. McLaren's proposal to tax each member of the conference $5 was defeated. The debate on the proposition to have three general superintendents promises to be very interesting.

The committee on systematic beneficence repeated the declaration of the conference of 1890 with reference to Christians giving cross the boundary lines not even to preach one-tensh to the church. Some methods of | the gospel without being subjected to the church would never be relieved from wretched penury until a complete reformaing.

MOTIONS. Rev. H. S. Matthews gave notice of motion respecting the election of the gen- meit of Canada. "And will you permit eral superintendent-that the election be held every four years instead of every eight

An interesting motion of Dr. Parker's endeavored to place the minimum salary of a married clergyman. "Make it blank," said the doctor.

"Oh, fill in the blank," said a delegate. "Well, it's very often a blank anyhow," added the doctor, and many of the dele-gases smiled grimly. The motion further suggested $750 as the minimum salary, payable once a month, same to be a first lien upon the circuit funds.

Mr. W. McGibbon, Niagara, drew attention to the fact that electric excursion cars dipree court, and a political life far too at Niagara Falls were operated on Sunday, partly over Government ground, to the triment of Christian worship in that eighborhood and the morals of the young of our country. He moved that the conference take action.

Many more notices were given, the majority being amendments to the muchabused discipline.

Yesterday was the last day for the above order of business, and Dr. Potts remarked "Let us all be thankful that we are done with notices of motion. "Amen," answered several of the breth-

Evening Service. A public meeting was held in the evening to receive the fraternal delegates from England and the United States. The church was crowded upstairs and down, and a full choir under Mr. J. W. Fetherston furnished music for the occasion. The general superintendent, Dr. Carman, occupied the chair, and on the platform were Rev. John Learoyd, Rev. J. W. Annis, Rev. Dr. Williamson, Rev. Dr. Burns, Rev. John Potts, Rev. J. S. Ross, D.D., Dr. W. J. Shaw, Rev. Dr. Jackson, Judge Chesley, Rev. Mr. Porter, the fraternal delegates-Rev. H. J. Pope and Rev. J. H. Potts-and

After the usual exercises, Dr. Shaw read the credentials of Rev. H. J. Pope, Birmingham, England. In connection with the same an address of greeting from the British Wesleyan body of England was road. It was a very interesting document, and in it it was stated that the church had increased by 15,000 since four years ago. A similar address was received from the Methodist Church in Ireland. Both contained touching references to the patient endurance and fervent devotion of the late Dr. George Douglas.

Dr. John Potts, Toronto, who two years ago was the representative of Canadian Methodism to the different conferences in England and Ireland, introduced Mr. Pope. There were many great men, he said, in the British Wesleyan Conference, and he was a truly great man who, like Mr. Pope, reached the presidential chair. They would shortly welcome Dr. Potts, of Detroit, but the present was not only a fraternal but a filial feeling, a grateful feeling, and they should remember that British Methodism

He was represent year was not complete the statistics ceived with enthusiasm and spoke were compiled from the printed reports of lovingly of the ties that bind Canada and England together; spoke been increased by 237, making a total of of the wonderful progress Canadian Methodism had made, and alluded to the union as an object lesson which they loved to contemplate, and from which it was hoped to derive many and great advantages. He complimented Dr. Potts on his love of conferences and the conference on having the doctor as a member. and he hinted that when next a representative was sent to Britain it would be wise to send a lay delegate as well. Great Britain would then reciprocate, he was sure. Referring to the progress of the past 150 years, Mr. Potts said that John Wesley would be surprised if he had lived to the present day, and would hardly understand Methodism as it is divided in England into Primitive Methodists, Free Methodists, Bible Christians and the Old Weslevan Church. "We thank God for the past," said Mr. Pope, "but we don't propose to live on the past." He spoke of the innovations introduced by Wesley and reviewed the several successive stages which led up to the circumstances of the church as it is today. In early Methodism sometimes the first payment on the chapel was the collection taken up on the opening Sunday. On one occasion a preacher tock as his text that very appropriate line: "Alas, my Lord, it was borrowed."

(Laughter.) As there was some danger of the Legislature closing the chapels and appropriating the buildings it was not to be wondered at he said, that the money was borrowed. Then if the Government took the church it was only fit and proper that they should lso take over the mortgage. (Laughter.) The agitation of 55 years ago was looked ipon as a calamity frem the human side, but had since worked for good. Mr. Pope gave the delegates and visitors the benefit of his experience in dealing with church building funds. From figures quoted by the speaker it was shown that the British Wesleyan body was in prime financial condition. To maintain the principles of their church it was not necessary for Wesleyans to unchurch others. They could not, however, cease their separate existence and join the Anglican Church because of its Romanizing tendencies. But they believed that it was possible for them to pursue their separate work as at present without other churches. The speaker in closing spoke brightly of the coming union of the Methodists, and characterized the forward movement as having saved English Methodism from stagnation and formality.

The secretary then read the credentials of Rev. Dr. Potts, of Detroit, editor of the Michigan Christian Advocate, and representative of the largest Methodist Church on the face of the earth. Rev. J. W. Annis introduced Dr. Potts, who is a Canadian by birth and a descendant of old United Empire Loyalists. On rising Dr. Carman gave the visitor a handshake lasting several minutes, and the delegates arose and gave the Chatauquan salute. Mr. Potts proved himself to be an eloquent speaker, and in the great audience that listened to him there were few, unless otherwise informed, who would have known that the speaker was completely deaf. "For one," said Dr. Potts, "I have never been a pleader for political union, though I, for one, would not object to it if a majority on both sides would desire it. As it was not good for man to be alone, so it might not be good for a nation of men to be alone in a mighty continent like this."

(Applause.) "One thing I could wish for," continued the doctor, "that is a little more freedom in our traveling relations. It is hardly becoming in our relations that we cannot raising money which have been tried were annoyance, and often the impertinence, of condemned. and it was declared that the custom regulations. But how sorry I an to confess that today in matters of pretical religion our nation is far frem beng an ideal one. The progress of ou race seems to have been accorpanied by an outgrowth of deprivity. And we have in our country soie new things under the sun to contend wih. There is the accursed American salon, the Mormon blot and the notorious corupt, and a thousand and one things unneessary to mention. The Sabbath day is to little regarded among us. God's name is profaned and the other commandments ar broken. There is corruption too of walth, and a carnival of crime and lust and folly which sometimes seems to remind on of the sad condition of the Roman empire when Christ came to call mankind to higher plane of duty and labor.

'American life is not yet hell, though sme portions of it border closely upon pedition. Nor is our American society in a opeless condition. There is a leaven in it that is working for righteousness. Tere is a fealty to God which may preseve us. The moral tendency is, I believe, orthe whole, upward."

The noxous things that Americans had toontend against was detailed-socialism, ecrupt forms of religion, Roman Catholicis dominating public life, the division of th churches of Christ into too many denomintions all tended the one way. He urged clier affiliation of Christian bodies, designaed the Epworth League movement as a bon to Methodist young people and closed win a brilliant peroration.

The conference has arranged a way to brig you all back to earth," said Dr. Car-ma at the conclusion of Mr. Potts' address. 'Acollection will now be taken up at its request."

NOUNDUE REPRESSION DESIR-ABLE.

Te Montreal Witness, referring to an appal which was published a day or two sine in the ADVERTISER, says: We gather from the earnest and thoughtful appeal mao in this paper to the Methodist Conferece, now sitting, that there must be a movment in that body adverse to the fratmizing of the young people of the Metodist congregations with those of othedenominations in connection with the Socity of Christian Endeavor. The Christian Indeavor societies in each denominationre as much under denominational controls the Sunday schools are. The only obje; of such a movement must therefore be the segregation of the young peop of the Methodist Church from those of oper denominations for fear of some Thisis very much in the same spirit as that; which the Roman Catholics demand separte schools. For the purpose in question, indeed, the principle can easily be carril too far. The leaders and managers in ar religious body may safely count upont that on the point of denominationalismhey are far from being representative (their constituents. We should presumerom its past record that it is only a very nall element even in conference that desire to tighten denominational fetters, but, natever it amounts to there, it goes withot saying that the proportion of the peopl who share that desire is much small. The young people of the Methodist egregations themselves have shown by th voluntary adoption of the name Christn Endeavor, instead of, or in addition tethat of Epworth League, that they are b enormous majority in favor of th free interchange of Christian sympay in connection with this form of wor. We presume the membership of the circh generally would show a like majory in the same direction. The question ofrganic union between the churches has my difficulties associated with it, and mny question whether, if accomplishedt would really promote real Christian uty. But it is generally admitted that spitual unity is essential to any real Christnity, and that any effort to hinder the inr-communion of Christians is a crime minst the holy Catholic Church, which Christ's body. OUR EXPORTS TO THE STATES. Advance sheets of the reports of United States consuls in Ontario, Quebec, the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland, just printed at Washington, prove that even under the almost prohibitory McKinley tariff Canadians sent large quantities of their products into the States. For the quarter ended June 30 last, there were exported from the Provinces named products to the value of $6,480,256. This was at the rate of $2,160,000 a month, or $25,920,-000 a year. Among the products of the farm and garden exported to the States from Canada in the three months named were beans, peas and potatoes of the total value of $382,618; horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, etc., $144,141; hay and straw, $98,-548; barley, $58,561; oats, rye, wheat, etc., $36,102; flax, $33,885; apples, $3,268; nursery stock and seeds, $6,439, besides $8,800 worth of starch. Among the other articles exported were lime, plaster, cement, etc., of the total value of $77,624; coal, $32,106, and ores of copper and an increase of $67,026, exports of beans amounting to $100,682, and of shooks, staves, heading and bolts amounting to $53,497. This is the trade which trade much of it.

defendants, the Toronto Street Railway Company, in an action for damages, that they have the right under their charter to drive their cars at whatever rate of speed they please. But the court held that though no rate was stipulated in the agreement with the city, the cars must go only at such a rate of speed as is consistent with the safety of others, who have the right to use the roadway.

WOMEN AS DELEGATES.

It is possible that the question of woman's legibility to hold office as a delegate to conference may come up in the General Conference of the Methodist Church in this city, and if it does one of the most interesting debates of the gathering will doubtless ensue.

The question is already a live one, inasmuch as it has been before the court of appeal of the Methodist Church on an appeal from the decision of the ruling of the president of the Nova Scotia Conference, he ruling that women, as members of the Methodist Church, duly qualified, "can be admitted as lay delegates." The court of appeal reversed this decision, but the judgment of the august body has not been allowed to go unchallenged. In the denominational press of the Maritime Province an interesting correspondence has taken place, led by Dr. Black, of Amherst, N. S., who respectfully asked to be informed wherein the ruling of the president of the Nova Scotia Conference conflicts with the Bible or the Methodist Discipline? In reply to this query another correspondent pointed out that the court of appeal decided that the word "laymen" in paragraphs 112 and 160 of the Discipline does not include women, and consequently women cannot be members of annual conferences. But now arises further trouble if this interpretation is to remain good with regard to words in other paragraphs in the Discipline similarly imparting the male sex. There are, comments this correspondent, Methodist Sunday schools superintended by women. Paragraph 283 speaks plainly of "the superintendent and his assistant." Then we have in this good city of London and elsewhere, as the Maritime Province critic points out, women who are class leaders in the Methodist Church. But paragraph 29 of the Discipline says of the class leader, "It paragraph 82 says (sub-sec. 3): "See that all the leaders be not only men of have especial watch over the interests of a paternal Government, the society, and it shall be his duty," and similar references are made to the vice-

Thus, if the foundation for the decision of the court of appeals of the Methodist Church is simply the interpretation of the / word "laymen" as meaning men only, the inference of this critic is that men only shall be Sunday school superintendents, class leaders, Epworth League officers and so forth. If we may judge opinion in the body, as voiced by action, we hardly think that this circumscribed view of the Discipline will be generally indorsed. It would be interesting to have the whole question discussed by the fathers and brethren here asembled. For ourselves, we are on the side of woman representation. The women are the chief workers in almost every Christian church today. They perform the hardest work for the promotion of morality, of temperance, of the cause of missions. We know that in the Methodist Church they make model class leaders and Sunday school organizers. Surely if their fellowmembers select them as representatives in the church courts, and there is no question of their competency to take a part in promoting the work of the Church, they should be gladly welcomed. If the rules of a Church, drawn up in bygone days when women's power and influence for good were not understood as they are today, they should be changed. In Canada the Methodist Church has women members quite as well qualified educationally, intellectually, morally, and in every other way, as a majority of the men who are selected as delegates to conference, and the same remark holds good of the women of other Christian bodies. They cannot long be discriminated against. To recognize their equality will not retard, but rather advance the common cause.

-Again there are complaints that many letters sent from Canada to Great Britain are underpaid, resulting in the collection of double rates on reaching their destination. The cause can probably be traced to the fact that whereas the ordinary weight for letters sent from points in Canada to other places in the Dominion and the United States is one ounce for 3 cents, letters for Great Britain must not be over one-half ounce in weight or they must pay additional postage. The postoffice authorities in this city say that there are not many underpaid letters sent out from here. When we have the universal penny postage rate throughout the English-speaking world all these troubles will be got over easily.

A NEIGHBOR'S CONFESSION.

A high tax contemporary asserts that the removal of 50 cents duty on hard coal-the duty on soft coal is still collected-saves "three-quarters of a million dollars to the people." A year or two since, the same journal told its readers that the coal duty made no difference to the people restrictionists argue we would be better paid it! We thank our contemporwithout. We hold we cannot have too ary for its tardy admission that the tariff is a tax. But we suppose by tomorrow it will be arguing with regard to -The Ontario Court of Appeal gave an the tax is collected on other commoditiesimportant judgment yesterday with regard and they are many and grievous-that they to the rate of speed at which electric cars | are paid by the foreigner and not by the should be run. It was contended for the Canadian consumer. That view is no longer entertained by any intelligent Canadian, and at their earliest opportunity the electors as a whole will declare in favor of the collection of no tax that does not go wholly into the Dominion treasury, and that is not needed for the government of stables, to which 50 new stalls hav been the country, economically managed.

-What this country wants, remarks the Manitoba Free Press, is a new government. The present one has been so long at Ottawa that it has practically become assimilated | already quartered at the park, and bitting with the combines.

MR. LAURIER IN VICTORIA, B. C.

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. C. S. Hyman, M. P. for London, and Hon. D. C. Fraser, M. P. for Guysboro, N. S., addressed a mass-meeting of the electors of Victoria, B. C., on Monday evening. The enthusiasm, the telegraph says, was tremendous, and never has political leader had a better reception in the capital of the Pacific Province. Mr. Laurier's elequent plea for trade freedom and for honest, economical government, was applauded to the echo. Mr. and Madame Laurier attended a reception given in their honor at Government House during the afternoon. The people of the Pacific Coast everywhere show that they are ripe for genuine tariff reform.

THE WHEEL. RADWAY BEATS THE RECORD.

(Special to the ADVERTISER.)

TORONTO, Sept. 11 .- Frank Radway, of London, the crack long distance rider, broke the Canadian and American 100mile record to-day by 20 minutes and 59 seconds. The record was held by Dave Nasmith, of Toronto, at 5 hours, 22 minutes and 9 seconds. Radway's time today was 5 hours 1 minute and 10 seconds.

The feat was accomplished on the Rosedale track, starting at 2 p.m. He was paced by some of Toronto's leading wheelmen, and a large crowd of sympathizers cheered him as he pulled the record down notch by notch.

A strong wind was blowing-a regular gale. But for this Radway would certainly have brought the time considerably under five hours. Under the circumstances his feat was a splendid one. Not only does he reduce the American and Canadian 100 mile record, but he lowers all records for Canada for any distance between 6 and 100 miles, including the one hour Canadian record.

Radway showed wonderful pluck and endurance, as is shown by the fact that he ran the last ten miles of his long ride in 28 minutes-a wonderful test of strength. He rode the Quadrant racing wheel that he has used all season. A press dispatch says: Radway began to beat the former record from the start. a fight with Corbett, ended in the refusal He did five miles in 13 minutes and 10 3.5 seconds, as against Nasmith's 14 minutes

LONDON BICYCLE CLUB NOTES. Secretary Glover, of the Londons, has received official notice from Chairman Robertson, of the C. W. A. racing board, that the suspension has been raised in the case of Ashton Brown, one of their members, who raced at an unsanctioned meet early in the season. The many friends of "Ash" will be pleased to see him on the track again. A meeting of the racing board of the L. B. C. will be held at the club house this evening at 8:30 sharp.

Secretary Browne, of the Fair meet, is receiving a large number of entries for the meet Saturday, which promises to be one of the best held in London this season.

The track at Queen's Park is now in splendid condition for training purposes. DAVIDSON TIPS A RECORD.

Springfield, Mass., Sept. 11.—Harley Davidson, Wanderers Bicycle Club, Toronto, yesterday tied the world's class A one-quarter mile flying start record of 28 seconds, which he made in a drizzling rain. FIVE MEN AND AN OCTOPUS. A Desperate Fight With a Sea Monster Near the Golden Gate.

The largest octopus ever caught in the addition of new congregations. (San Francisco Examiner.) vicinity of the Golden Gate was brought in by Nicholas Panay and his crew of four men in the fishing boat Alexander. They had been fishing near the Duxbury reef since last Monday morning, and they were meeting with fair success. On Thursday they hooked this monster and a battle was the result. Gustav Antani was pulling in the long line with its many hooks, while his companions were taking off the fish and rebaiting the hooks. Suddenly there came a strong, sullen pull at the line, and the fishermen thought it had become entangled in the rocks of the reef.

The hooks used by the fishermen are yielding and easily bent, so that they can be dislodged should they become oaught, and Gustav gave a pull on the line to loosen it. It gave way, but there was a dead weight on it, and the astonished fisherman began taking in the line slowly, wondering what made it drag so heavily. He soon discovered a long arm shoot up from the surface of the ocean a few feet away from the boat, and others soon followed it. The water seemed full of the terrible snakelike limbs, and the fishermen knew they had an ectopus to deal with. The tentacles of the sea monster reached higher than the mast of their little vessel as it floundered about in the water, endeavoring seemingly to reach out for its captors. Gustav forgot all about his line. He let it go and reached for a hatchet with which to defend himself. The line paid $150, wishing to call a minister a soon as out a few yards and the octopus sank, but possible. It was resolved that he charge the myriad of hooks caught on the gunwale of the craft as they flew over and the fish

The capture of such fish is lucrative, and the fishermen determined to add it to their load. Chinamen are very fond of the tentacles, and they eagerly purchase all that are caught. Gustav hauled again on the line, and for a few moments he wished that he had cut it instead. As the octapus was drawn nearer it suddenly opened out its long arms and reached for the fishermen. One of its tentacles fell across the deck of the boat and its suckers gained a good hold. Others went around the keel, and almost instantly it had the boat in its embrace. A few well-directed blows of a hatchet freed the boat from immediate danger, and several feet of one of the long feelers lay on the

Their long, sucker-like arms can be chopped off inch by inch without producng any apparent effect, and the advantage

After a feeler had been chopped off the octopus omewhat released his hold and the strong pull on the line by Gustav hauled the body of the fish up on that side of the boat. It took all hands to haul him on board, and they exultingly exhibited their capture at the fishermen's market. The huge fish was hoisted to the roof of the market, fully 30 feet high, and its long arms swept the floor. It had not been hanging long before a crowd of Chinamen were around it, and they soon struck a bargain with the plucky fishermen and

INDUSTRIAL FAIR.

Germania Day at the Toronto Exposition.

Notes of Some of the Principal Exhibits.

EXHIBITION GROUNDS, TORONTO, Sept 11.-Today was Germania Day at the Industrial Exhibition, and was under the patronage of the various German societies of the Province. The weather was delightful and the attendance very large. The bicycle races, which were postponed last week, have been fixed for Thursday afternoon next. Some 38,000 people paid admission yesterday to view the famous painting, "The Morning of the Crucifixion," The grand officers of the Patrons of Industry visited the fair this afternoon. Judging of the horses and cattle is in progress, and also the judging of the hoge. Tomorrow will be Farmers' Day.

Excellence of the Chatham Wagons. There is no branch of Canadian industry which has attained higher development than the wagon and carriage line, and there is no firm devoted to it that has contributed more towards this end or stands higher in the estimation of the purchasing community than the Chatham Manufacturing Company, whose name is a synonym for excellent and pregressive workmanship. The Chatham and Chatagua Giant Wagons are recognized as models, and their superiority was confirmed by the World's Fair judges, who awarded the company a gold medal and diploma. This is competition with the world. The Chatham wagons are especially celebrated for received additional contributios from modern improvements, chief among of Jackson to put his name to such an several congregations to make u the deagreement. "I would not sign those ficiency in the augmentation fud in the vention more than doubles the strength of the axle, with which, however, it does not come in contact, holding moisture and rotting the axle as some do. The truss blocks are east iron and lock the nuts on the boits. In adopting the Giant Arm the makers justly claim to have capped the climax in wagon building. By their 21 and 3 inch Giant Arms Malleable not only are axles unbreakable, but the arms are equal to steel skeins and superior to them in wearing and running qualities. The arm is also guaranteed to be not only lighter and cheaper but much stronger than any other make of 3 or 3 cast iron wagons. The company is this year prepared to turn out 2,000 of these, of which 1,000 have already been sold, Simpson's Patent Malleable Adjustable Stakes are another valuable improvement.

The Chatham Wagons are, it is needless to say, as attractive in design and in finish as they are reliable in workmanship. Their increasing popularity is the natural result National Cash Registers. The exhibit of the National Cash Register Company, as in previous years, is an attractive and interesting one. Under modern conditions a cash register has become a necessity for all business men; that the National is best calculated to fit this want is shown by the fact that the enormous receipts of the World's Fair were kept track of with these machines, which are practically perfect in every respect. Over 600 machines were employed daily throughout the fair, and they gave complete satisfaction. In June the Toronto agency was taken in hand by Mr. G. I. Riddell, and good progress is being made in the business. The special feature of the exhibit this year, which far surpasses anything previously shown here, is the highly improved "No. 79," a beautiful machine, which, in combination with the "triplicating machine," greatly simplifies business, and prevents mistakes arising, while keeping perfect track of every transaction. No. 79, besides fullfilling the functions of an ordinary register, adds the totals, prints a ticket numbered consecutively, dated, bearing the name of the firm and recording the amount of the sale. It also registers each sale on a continuous slip. The triplicating machine gives three copies of each sale-bill, one being kept in the machine for the proprietor. The machines may be seen at any time at 63 King street west, Toronto. A Condensed Meat Exhibit.

Directly opposite the western entrance to the main building is situated a pretty little booth, in which is displayed in abundance Wethey's condensed mines meat, manufactured in St. Catharines. The exhibit is in charge of Mr. Wethey himself, whose courteous manner and kind attention to those who visit his exhibit add greatly to the pleasure of those who call to test the merits of his goods. Mr. Wethey's experience has been that of most cautious men who start their business with the idea of making an article which will be unequaled by any similar product in the market. He has been manufacturing his mince meat for the last ten years, and for six years past has turned out the grade which he is now selling, and which has gained a reputation from Halifax to Victoria. Every pound of mince meat which he makes is compounded under his personal supervision, and weighed out by himself. The materials used are best, apples, currants, raisins, sugar, evaporated cider and spices. The result is a meat which is absolutely pure consideration of a committed omposed of and which is also absolutely clean. The compound is patented. Mr. Wethey turns Neill and McCartney (elder and report out at present from five to seven tons each week, and his trade is being continually enlarged, the increase last year being 25 scribe trials to Mr. Lawrence and that the per cent. He does a heavy trade in Lon-Presbytery adjourn to meeticur weeks don, Hamilton, St. Catharines and other Winnipeg, Brandon and all the British Columbia cities; his goods are in demand she side and it caught in the flesh of the | Mr. Cook submitted report | committee | in Ottawa, Montreal, and even Halifax, at Philadelphia. He sent here for refer- octopus. A long, hard, steady pull brought to strike standing committees, as follows: but the people of Toronto have not yet been be produces. For this reason he decided to come to the fair, and he is already reaping a rich reward in the many praises bestowed upon his excellent display. It would be a pity that any housekeeper should miss an opportunity of testing this meat. It is put up, as its name implies, in condensed form, one pound of it as sold being equal to three times the amount when ready for use. It is handled by every firstclass jobber throughout the country, and any retail grocer who does not siready handle it can obtain it from his wholesaler. Ladies are advised on no account to miss a visit to Mr. Wethey's display, where the qualities of his mince meat may be practically tested in delicious mince pies, whose ight and flaky pastry is of itself sufficient to excite admiration. A Beautiful Carriage Display. Messrs. B. J. Nash & Co., the wholesale carriage manufacturers, of this city, have on exhibition in the carriage building a fine collection of vehicles of all descriptions. This company make a specialty of hearses and coaches, and in these lines show some fine specimens. The hearses and funeral cars shown are elegant pieces of workmanship. Other vehicles of handsome design and superb finish are: The latest style of fine, light landau; a coupe, said to be the finest, as regards style and finish, ever statement made, and the best wishes of shown at the Industrial; spider phaetons, designed after the best exhibited at the World's Fair; large, roomy, comfortable, three-spring phaetons and small phaetons. B. J. Nash & Co. are among the largest manufacturers in the Dominion, their business extending all over Canada. Mr. A. B. Greer, a member of the firm, is in charge of the exhibit.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is earache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are specially subject.

way to Whitborough, Sir Nash had invited em to make his house their resting place. Not until the day following his conversation at the dinner table had Mr. North an opportunity of questioning his wife: but, that omo false representation, intentionally or otherwise, had been made to him on the subject of her late husband's death, he felt They were alone in her dressing room. Mrs. North, who had a great deal of beautiful black hair, was standing before the glass, doing something to a portion of it, when her husband suddenly accested her. He called her by her Christian name in those first married days. It was a very fine one. "Amanda, you told me, that Major Bohun died of sun stroke," "Well?" she returned carelessly, occupied with her hair.

But he did not die of sun stroke. Hedied of—of something else."
Mr. North had watched women's faces turn to pallor, but never in his whole life had he seen so livid a look of terror as now overspread his wife's. Her hair dropped from her nervous hands. "Why, what is she matter?" he ex-She murmured something about a spasm of the heart, to which she was subject; an excuse, as he saw. Another moment, and she had recovered her composure, and was busy with her hair again.

'You were asking me something, were you not, Mr. North?" "About Major Bohun; what was it he died of—if it was not sun stroke?"

"But it was of sun stroke," she said, in a sharp, ringing accent, that would have required only a little more to be a scream. What else should he die of so suddenly in India's burning climate? He went out in the blazing mid day sun, and was brought home

And nothing more, then or afterwards, did Mr. North learn. Her manner rendered it impossible to press the subject. He might have applied to Sir Nash for information, but an instinct prevented his doing so. After all, it did not matter to him what Major Bohun had died of, Mr. North said to imself, and determined to forget the incident. But that some mystery must have attended Major Bohun's death, some painful circumstances which could blanch his vife's face with sickly terror, remained on. Mr. North's mind as a fact not to be dis

Mrs. North effected changes. Almost the very day she was taken home to Whit-borough, she let it be known that she should rule with an imperious will. Her husband became a very reed in her hands; yielding passively to her sway, as if all the spirit he had ever owned had gone out of him. Mrs. North professed to hate the very name of trade; that any one with whom she was so nearly connected should be in business, brought her a sense of degradation and a great deal of talk about it. The quiet, modest, comfortable home at Whitborough was at once given up for the more pre-tentious Manor Hall at Dallory Ham, which happened to be in the market. And they set up there in a style that might have more properly belonged to the lord lieutenant of the county. Perhaps it was her assumption of grandeur indoors and out, combined with the imperious manner, the like of which had never before been seen in the simple neighborhood, that caused people to call her "Madam." Or, it might have been to distinguish her from the first Mrs.

In proportion as Mrs. North made herself hated and feared by her husband, and his children, and the household, so did she become popular with society. It sometimes happens that the more fascination a woman displays to the world, the more unbearable is she in her own house. It was the case here. Madam put on all her attractions when out of doors; she visited and dressed and dined; and gave fetes again at Dallory Hall utterly regardless of expense. Little wonder that she swayed the neighborhood.

Not the immediate neighborhood. the exception of the Dallory family (and they did not live there always), there was not a single person she would have visited. A few gentlepeople raised at Dallory Ham; Mrs. North did not condescend to know any of them. People living at a greater distance she made friends with, but not those around her; and with as many of the county amilies as would make friends with her. The pleasantest times were those when she would betake herself off on long visits, to London or elsewhere; they grew to be looked Butthe most decided raid made by Mrs. North was on her husband's business connections. Had Thomas Gass been a chimney sweeper, she could not have treated him with more intense contempt. Thomas Gass had his share of sense, and pitied his partner far more than he would have done had that gentleman gone in for hanging instead of second marriage. Mr. Gass was a very wealthy man now; and had built himself a handsome and comfortable residence

But, as the years went on, he was doomed to furnish food himself to all the gossips within miles. Dallory rose from its couch one fine morning, to hear that Thomas Gass the confirmed old bachelor, had married his housekeeper. Not one of your "lady housekeepers," but a useful, good, hard working damsel, who had passed the first bloom of youth, and had not much beauty to recommend her. It was a nine day's wonder. Of course however much the neighbors might solace their feelings by ridiculing him and abusing her, they could not undo the marriage. All that remained to them was, to make the best of it; and by degrees they wisely did so. The new Mrs. Gass glided easily into her honors. She made an excellent wife to her ailing husband -for Thomas Gass's health had begun to fail before his marriage-she put on no airs of being superior to what she was; she turned out to be a thoroughly capable woman of business, giving much judicious advice to those about her; she was very good to the sick and suffering, caring for the poor, ready to give a helping hand wherever and whenever it might be needed. In spite of her fine dresses, which sat ludicrously upon her, and of her manner of talking, which she did not attempt to improve; bove all, in spite of their own prejudices, Dallery grew to like and respect Mrs. Gass. and its small gentle people admitted her to their houses on an equality.

And so time and years went on, Mr. North withdrawing himself more and more from personal attendance on the business, which seemed to have grown utterly distasteful to him. His sons had become young men. Edmund was a civil engineer; by proession at least, not much by practice. Never in strong health, given to expensive and idle habits, Edmund North was generally either in trouble abroad, or leading a lazy life at home, his time being much | past year.

divided between going into needless passions and writing poetry. Richard was at the works, the mainspring of the business. Mr. Gass had become a confirmed invalid, and could not personally attend to it; Mr. North did not do so. There was only Richard—Dick, as they all called him; but he was a host in himself. Of far higher powers than Mr. North had ever possessed, cultivated in mind, he was a thorough man of business, and at the same time a finished They were staying at this time at Sir of business, and at the same time a finished Nash Bohun's. In passing through London after the Continental wedding trip on their yet courteous and considerate to the very lowest, Richard North was loved and respected. He walked through life doing his duty by his fellow men; striving to do it to God. He had been tired at home in many ways since his father's second marriage, and borne all with patient endurance; how much he was tried out of home, he alone

For a long time past there had been trouble in the firm, ill feeling between the two old partners; chiefly because Mr. North put no limit to the sums he drew out from his private account. Poor Mr. North at length confessed that he could not help it; the money was wanted by his wife; though how on earth she contrived to get rid of so much, even with all her extravagance, he could not conceive. Mr. Gass insisted on a separation; John North must withdraw from the firm; Richard might take his place. Poor Mr. North yielded meekly. "Don't let it get abroad," he only stipulated, speaking as if he were half heartbroken, which was nothing new;
"I should not like the world to know that I was superseded." They respected his wishes, and the change was made privately; very few being aware that the senior partnership in the firm had passed into the hands of a young man. Thenceforth Mr. North ceased to have any control in the business; in fact, to have any connection with it. Dallory suspected it not; Mrs. North had not the faintest idea of it. Richard North signed the checks as he had done before, "North and Gass;" and per-haps the bank at Whitborough alone knew that he signed them now as principal.

The rapid action of the "great pain cure," Polson's Nerviline, in relieving the most intense pain, is a matter of wonder to all who have used it. There is nothing surprising in its results, for it is made of the strongest, purest and most efficient remedies known in medicine. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life, as I never expected to recover when I first commenced using it. A warrant was sworn out and Little arrested.

Special Customs Officer Drulard stationed himself at the ferry dock in Windsor on Saturday night, and in an hour had the lady searcher's room filled with women who had smuggled goods on them. The goods secured were all of a cheap quality and were the kind purchased by the peddlers, The catch was a big one.

KENT.

The cattle shed of S. Montgomery, Oungah, was struck by lightning Saturday. The horses and a few articles were saved but the flames destroyed the barn, granary and straw stack, and little could be dontowards saving the grain. There were 700 bushels of wheat, 224 bushels of barley, 400 bushels of oats, also 13 tons of hay, besides the binder and other implements. Mr. Montgomery is insured in the London Mutual for $1,500 on buildings and contents. All danger of a smallpox epidemic in Kent county is over.

LAMBION.

At Osgoode Hall, before Judge Street, in the case of Reg v. Conn., N. Macdonald (St. Thomas), for the defendant, moved, under sec. 651 of the criminal code, to change the venue of the trial of an indictment against the defendant for forgery from the county of Lambton to some neighboring county, on the ground of prejudice against the defendant in Lambton, the defendant having been once tried there, when the jury disagreed. The learned judge was of opinion that motions of this kind should be discouraged, and refused the motion.

The swift river steamer Unique had an other mishap Monday, a bolt breaking when opposite Port Lambton. The steamer had to be towed to Detroit, where the damage was repaired.

MIDDLESEX.

The anniversary services of the Oliver Methodist Church, Dorchester circuit, took place Sunday, Sept. 9. The sermons were preached afternoon and evening by Rev. W. H. Graham, ex-president of Montreal Conference. They were of rare excellence and highly appreciated by the congregation. The paster and members of St. Matthew's Church, Florence, are to be highly congratulated on the success of their barvest thanksgiving service, held on Soncay, Sept. 9. The ladies of the congregation had previously displayed their talent and good taste by the manner in which they succeeded in so beautifully and artistically decorating the church with fruits, grains, when I commenced the use of Northrop flowers and vegetables. The services was & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for conducted by Rev. W. Johnson, paster of Wardsville, and Rev. R. H. Diehl, pastor of the congregation. The former gentleman preached a most elequent and impressive sermon, taking for his text Dueteronomy, viii., 7-10. The choir, with Miss Nelli Young presiding at the organ, led the congregation in excellent singing, the hymes chosen being most appropriate. A beautful

RICHMOND, Ky., Sept. 11 .- Just as the congregation was leaving the Mount Pleisant Christian Church, Foxtown, last evening, William Sixsmith stepped up to the organist, Mrs. Jones, and fired two shits at her from a pistol. Only one bullet struck her, but her corset saved her life, and she was only badly frightened. Sxsmith escaped. No cause is known for the attempted murder.

Wife vs. Horse.

Husbands, give to your wives at least as much consideration as you would a pet animal. You would not knowingly work a favorite horse while sick. Yet, how many feeble, debilitated wives work on, dragging out weary lives, made miserable by the many diseases peculiar to women. They suffer in silence and because delicacy prevents complaint you underestimate the disease and its effect in shortening her life. Get her Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Get her Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
We assure you that no sufferer from those painful and weakening female diseases, which wreck the constitutions of so many women can take it without being benefited. The greatest restorative tonic and strengtlening nervine known to medical science. Produces refreshing sleep and drives melarcholy away. Prevents threatened insanity and cures eleeplessness, nervous debility, spasms, St. Vitus' Dance, and kindrel nervous diseases.

OTHERS, DO YOU KNOW that Paregoric,
Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Scothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Knew that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed? Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle? Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

No You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

No You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

THE WESTERN FAIR, 1894. Hurrah for the fair, we must go there, I hear the folks all cry, Excuses fail, naught can prevail, Till the fair has drifted by.

What though the work we may have to shirk, Far greater strength we'll ply, And it will so, like a sugar snow, When the fair has drifted by.

Carpets If warm or cold, both young or old, Alike to the fair will fly. Alike to the fair will fly.

Nor stop to think, about the chink,
Till the fair has drifted by.

He can't regard that times are hard,
When prospective treats are nigh,
And don't lament, we may repent
When the fair has drifted by.

For some are rash regards the cash, And present wants supply, And future need receives no heed Till the fair has drifted by.

The folks all say it will be gay,
And the programme takes their eye,
For weeks they'll dream, of what they've seen,
When the fair has drifted by.

The maidens fair, they will be there. With cheeks that blush, oh my! What sight we'll see, we can't decree, Till the fair has drifted by. Hurrah for the show, we all must go,

Nor stop to reason why,
Nor count the cost, that shall be lost,
Till the fair has drifted by.

Repetition of Job's Great Affliction.

Mr. George Henry Drew, of this city, has been in very poor health for some time. His system was completely run down, and his blood so impoverished that "boils came out all over his body"—in short, it seemed but a repetition of Job's great affliction, for no sooner did they disappear in one part of the body than they returned elsewhere with more severity, and this condition of affairs seemed to increase, although Mr. Drew had tried no end of curealls. On the 5th day of August he got one bottle of the Royal Crown Remedy and a box of Royal Crown Fills at Bark-well's drug store, of which he has taken half, and last evening he called at the above store to return thanks, and in the presence of eight witnesses stated that it did him more than $1,000 worth of good, as he had not felt as well for years, and the benefit derived from it could not be overrated, and it ought to be made known to other sufferers. It establishes throughout the entire system functional harmony, and supplies the blood vessels with a pure and healthy current of new life. The skin, after a few days' use of the Crown Remedy, becomes clear and beautiful — pimples, blotches, black spots and skin eruptions are removed, sores and ulcers soon cured. Persons suffering from Scrofula, Eruptive Diseases of the Eyes, Mouth, Ears, Legs, Throat and Glands, that have accumulated and spread, either from uncured diseases or mercury, or from the use of corrosive sublimate, may rely on a cure if the Royal Crown Remedy is continued a sufficient time to make its impression on the system.
