CRACKSMEN MADE HAUL

They Stole $200,000 Worth of Diamonds in New York

Walls of House Chiselled Through Into Big Pawn Shop

(Canadian Press Despatch) NEW YORK, March 17.—The cracksmen who tunneled their way through heavy brick and concrete walls, avoiding a net work of burglar alarm wires and stole $200,000 worth of diamonds from the safe of Martin, Simons and Sons pawn shop on the lower east side, were seen in flight with their booty by a woman, the police announced today.

This woman, whose name the police withhold, lives in the five-story tenement adjoining the pawn shop. She told the detectives that she was coming downstairs about 10 o'clock yesterday morning when a strange man came up from the cellar of the tenement. He carried an acetylene lamp on his shoulder. She followed him to the street and saw another man drive up in a light wagon. Into the wagon the first man placed the lamp. He then went back to the cellar and returned in a few minutes with another lamp and a parcel wrapped in manila paper. He placed these in the wagon and both men drove away.

The police are certain that these men are the ones who chiselled walls of the tenement foundations to the cellar of the pawn shop. The brown paper parcel, they believe, contained the fortune in gems taken from the safe. From the women they obtained good descriptions of the two men. Later they took her to the rogues' gallery to identify the men, if possible, from the pictures of criminals on file there.

They were rewarded to access to such riches that the robbers must have been stunned. The vault contained valuables worth $200,000, according to a statement which money had been loaned, $20,000 in negotiable securities and $60,000 in notes as well as $8,000 in cash and checks. The thieves took the bonds and notes, but threw them away in the basement before leaving the building.

In the vault they took nothing but diamonds and light jewelry contained in 27 drawers. Watches and other jewelry of less value, packed away in 200 small drawers and compartments, were not taken although all the drawers had been pulled from their places and the jewelry and watches dropped on the floor until they were a foot deep.

Cold Dinners And Shivering Spell Over

Experience Evidently a Poor Teacher With the Authorities of the Gas Company.

The two-day period of cold dinners, a rush on the sandwich counters, and a general raid on all kinds of makeshift heating appliances, from coal oil to wax candles, was brought to a close in this city last night shortly after 7 o'clock. When the gas blew its way into hundreds of chilly homes in this city it was received with cheers and loud acclaim. The night promised to be cold. While the night with despatch, a big force of men being kept at work all Saturday night and Sunday, there was a feeling of indignation against the Gas Company authorities on account of a recurrence of exactly the same trouble as last year. In this connection, it is said to be the fault of the Dominion Gas Company that the likelihood of another break was not eliminated entirely a year ago when repairs were effected. It is said to be not an impossibility to place the gas main away from the possible overflow of the spring freshet, the expenditure of a little money being all that would be necessary to protect the pipe. At any rate, Mayor Hartman announced this morning that he proposed to look into matters very carefully, and see that there would be no repetition of the trouble. Other towns west of Brantford were up against it in a similar way.

FIREMEN MAKE CASE CLEAR

No Application For a Raise and Committee Has Not Therefore Rejected it.

Following a meeting of the fire and light committee on Thursday night of last week, the Expositor announced that the firemen's pay would not be increased this year, nor would a motor truck be secured. As a matter of fact, neither of these matters were discussed at the committee meeting in question, and as another matter of fact, the firemen have not applied for an increase in pay. It was announced over a week ago in the Courier that the police force was to be increased, and a committee was appointed to decide on future action will be advised to-morrow on the advice of Sir Alan Aylesworth to enter suit to recover against the directors personally. The report of the investigating committee will be submitted to the bondholders to-morrow at Toronto.

PURCHASES A. U. S. FIRM

Massey Harris Company Puts Through Another Big Deal.

The Massey-Harris Company have just completed an important transaction whereby they have purchased the entire capital stock of the Deyo-Massey Engine Company of Binghamton, N.Y. The above company manufacture a full line of agricultural power engines from 1 1/2 hp. to 20 hp. They also make a full line of orchard spraying machines and hold a leading position in the United States' trade in this line. For the present the factory will be continued at Binghamton, but in the expectation of the Massey-Harris Company in the comparatively near future to build a gasoline engine plant in Canada. In the meantime the Binghamton factory will have its capacity enlarged to meet the Canadian as well as the United States' trade.

It will be remembered that this is the second venture the Massey-Harris Company have made in purchasing United States' manufacturing companies, having secured the bulk of the stock of the Johnston Harvester Co. of Batavia, N.Y., about two years ago. Already the number of men employed has been doubled, because increased from 1900 to about 2900. This was made possible by adding new buildings of reinforced concrete to the extent of over six acres of floor space.

CARD OF THANKS. Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Johnson desire to express sincere thanks for kindness shown them in their late bereavement.

WORST SCENE ON RECORD

Disgraceful Tactics by Liberals in House of Commons.

OTTAWA, March 17.—The Canadian House of Commons was the theatre Saturday night of the most disgraceful scene in its history when the Liberal members, under the leadership of Hon. William Pugsley, broke all bounds of decency and perpetrated a near riot. It was culminated in a long-drawn-out and deliberate resistance of the standing rules of the House, carried out on apparently prearranged lines. For the first time in the Canadian Parliament the Speaker was forced to name a member whose persistent disregard of the rules of the House made this position so necessary. The member named was Dr. Michael Clark, of Red Deer, who, since entering the politics of the Dominion, has more than once posed before the House as an adherent and exponent of British Parliamentary procedure. The Opposition revolted against the House rules as soon as these rules were applied late Friday night, and continued to fight all night and all day, dividing the House eight times on questions of order, and finally adopting a position of open defiance of the Speaker. So tense was the situation from 8 o'clock till the hour of adjournment that more than once it seemed impossible to avoid a physical collision of the warring parties. This extreme act of Parliamentary degradation was avoided, and the whole scene was averted, by the masterly control and cool-headed generalship of the Prime Minister, supported by the extraordinary restraint placed upon themselves by the Conservative members. The day was replete with developments in a situation already unprecedented. Great crowds of people jammed the House galleries for the final act of the two weeks' obstructionist tactics of the Opposition. Will Enter Suit Against The Directors

Word was received in the city today that the bond holders of the Grand Valley Radial, who recently appointed a committee to decide on future action will be advised to-morrow on the advice of Sir Alan Aylesworth to enter suit to recover against the directors personally. The report of the investigating committee will be submitted to the bondholders to-morrow at Toronto.

RUBBISH SAYS MAYOR HARTMAN

In Reply to Denial Made of Any Intention by Police to Strike.

"Does any one think, for a moment there would have been a special meeting of the various chairmen of the City Council committees to consider the ultimatum of the police if it had not been learned on good authority that a strike was intended?" Mayor Hartman asked this question this morning when the denial of the Expositor that no strike was intended was put up to him. Furthermore, the Mayor wanted to know what other interpretation but that of an intention to strike could be placed on the men's ultimatum. As a matter of fact, the hour of 9 o'clock was fixed, but a little reflection as to the seriousness of the consequences, also the fact that the Council was friendly disposed towards the men's claims, prevented the strike going into effect. Attempts were made to cover up the ultimatum, but the ultimatum, look positively ridiculous to the municipal authorities, against whom the entire matter was directed.

NEW RAILWAY A BLESSING

Cement Retaining Wall at Jubilee Terrace, Would Afford Protection

In connection with the recent flood a Courier man was inspecting matters on Saturday afternoon beyond the end of the Terrace boat house and found that much of the bank had been eaten away as far as Scarie avenue and beyond. While there Mr. I. Simpson, Carriage Manufacturer happened along. "I wish," he remarked to the reporter, "that all the citizens could see this."

"In what respect?" "Well, I was quite opposed to the Lake Erie and Northern Railway route along this side of the river, but not now. As I understand it, the company propose to build a solid retaining wall and if they don't you can see that the city will be forced to do so."

INDEPENDENT FORESTERS — Court Fairly holds social evening Tuesday, eighteenth, eight o'clock, Bank of Hamilton Building. Foresters of all city courts and their friends invited. Refreshments.

Holmedale Will Have to Secure Protection

Factory Managers Emphatic To day that City Dykes are Needed for District

That Holmedale will have to have dyke protection, and that action will be taken this year, was the announcement made this morning by both Managers Watson of the Watson Manufacturing Company and Vary of the Slingsby Company. Mr. Watson stated that if the water got over the company's dyke it would wipe the factory out entirely, and as a matter of fact, it was getting too close to the top. It was his opinion that the building of a bridge by the Grand Trunk in the Holmedale would greatly aggravate matters by narrowing the river channel and raising the water abnormally. "Certainly something will have to be done," said Mr. Watson. Mr. John Vary was no less emphatic, pointing out that he had presented a petition last year to the City Council. It was necessary for the whole Holmedale district to have a dyke built. Thus far the companies had been affording their own protection. The damage from flood at the Watson Company's on Saturday was $200, while at the Slingsby, Company a big gang of men had to get out and hustle to prevent a serious overflow into the buildings.

To-day's Session In the Commons at Ottawa

OTTAWA, March 17.—The first business in the Commons this afternoon will, it is expected, be the airing of the Hochelaga election charges. How far the opposition is prepared to go is not known beyond the fact that certain affidavits will be submitted. It is understood that an election of the Liberal side does not, but rather that the whole case should be taken to the courts under the controversy. After some private bills and routine have been attended to the navy debate will be on again and if obstruction is resumed, it is understood to be the government's intention to apply closure. Two days' notice of this has to be given, and as the House rises on Wednesday for the Easter recess, any measure of closure cannot be gone on with until next week.

ALF. STEVENS BADLY BITTEN

Popular Mail Carrier Attacked by a Dog on Saturday.

Mr. Alf. Stevens, one of His Majesty's mail carriers, was on Saturday the victim of a nasty attack by a dog on Albion street. The dog is said to be owned by Mr. Ted Gleason. While making his rounds Mr. Stevens was bitten through the hand by the dog, his elbow was badly lacerated and his clothes torn. He had a sharp encounter with the canine in preventing it from doing further damage and yesterday suffered great pain. Medical attention was required and it is likely steps will be taken to do away with the dog. Mr. Stevens stated this morning that he had heard the dog was very vicious and considered he had had a narrow escape. He knew of no steps taken to get rid of the animal.

SMALL BLAZE

Lack of Gas Resulted in Coal Oil Stove Explosion on Sunday.

Because of having been forced to adopt a makeshift to secure sufficient heat in her room, on account of the break in the natural gas main on Saturday, Mrs. Mitchell of the Temple building, Dalhousie street, early Sunday morning, was the victim of what might have been a bad fire. A coal oil stove which was being lighted exploded, spreading the fire to the floor. The department was called, and was able to extinguish the blaze with chemicals. Throughout the city many near fires were reported under similar circumstances, all due to the failure of the Brantford Gas Company to protect the main supply to the city. The firemen were also called out last night to Mrs. Young's, in the Heyd block on Market street. The same pressure was the cause, but no damage was done. Another still alarm came in from 100 Dalhousie street, gas troubles being the cause.

One Minute Interviews

Ald. M. W. McEwen—"I rather like the job of being acting crown attorney at the police court, where things are interesting these days." W. J. Feldkamp, assistant manager Canada Gas Company—"We are making extensions all the time and the season is a very busy one." Mr. John Carmody, Gas Expert—"I cannot see why the main supply pipe to the city could not have been fully protected by the Dominion Gas Company against a recurrence of the trouble which was caused on Saturday by the river."

A TRAGEDY OF DAKOTA

Family of Five Frozen to Death In a Blizzard

(Canadian Press Despatch) RAPID CITY, S. D., March 17.—A. N. Perry, his wife, three daughters and a son were found frozen to death on Box El'er Divide, 16 miles east of here on Saturday. Leslie Perry 19 years old, another son, was found delirious by W. E. Gearen of St. Paul. He talked incoherently of searching for his parents since early Friday morning. When told they were dead he fainted and is in the hospital. His face, hands and feet are frozen. Perry, who was postmaster at Big Bend left here Thursday afternoon with his family and household goods loaded in four teams, attempting in the severe storm to reach the ranch he had leased. The first intimation of their fate came when a pair of horses with gunnysacks over their heads traces dragging, wandered into the corral of Milton Preece's ranch. The trail of horses led the searchers to a wagon half buried in the snow. In the wagon Perry's four children and Mrs. Perry were found. The other five were found in the snow. Two men who left here Friday morning to search for Perry's family are missing.

THE WHITNEY GOVERNMENT

Bars Sale of Liquor in New Town's Charter—Interview With Mr. Brewster.

Mr. W. S. Brewster, M.P.P., handed out an interesting talk to The Courier on Saturday at the proceedings in the Legislature during the past week. The South Brant member said: "The session last week was taken almost entirely with two subjects, the budget debate and the debate on the temperance question. The other debate came to a conclusion on Thursday and the vote was taken sustaining the government by the usual majority. It was a noteworthy fact that Mr. Studholme, leader of the Labor party voted with the government, showing that in his opinion, the government had wisely administered the finances of the province. During this debate, Mr. Westbrook, the member for North Brant, made his maiden speech. He created a very favorable impression and was warmly congratulated at the conclusion of his speech, upon his first effort in the House. Mr. Westbrook has taken a good position in the Legislature and is certainly an excellent representative, always looking after the interests of his constituency."

FINE TRIBUTE TO ST. PATRICK

Very Rev. Dr. Brady Delivered Eloquent Sermon at St. Mary's Church.

At St. Mary's Church last night the Very Rev. Dr. Brady paid an eloquent tribute to the labors of the great Apostle of Ireland, St. Patrick, taking for his text the words, "Many hearing him were in admiration at his doctrine, saying, How came this man by all these things, and such mighty works as are wrought by his hands?" A brief sketch of the life of Ireland's patron saint was given—his birth, his early surroundings, his being carried captive by Irish marauders and sold as a slave to a chieftain named Melcho, his escape and return across the sea to his own people after six years' captivity, then his repeated visions convincing him that he was called by God to return to Ireland and bring the light of the gospel to that noble people. Then was related how, under the wise instruction in doctrine and piety by his uncle, St. Martin, Bishop of Tours, and St. Germain, St. Patrick was soon ordained priest and afterwards consecrated bishop by Pope Celestine, who commissioned him to convert Ireland to the faith. This work was so thoroughly accomplished by the holy saint that he lived to see Ireland filled with Christian churches, monasteries and convents. Before his death at Downpatrick, St. Patrick established his see at Armagh, Cardinal Logue being the present occupant.

For proof of the lasting effects of St. Patrick's teaching to the Irish people, the reverend speaker traced the history of Ireland from its first invasion by the Danes down to the last century, in which he pictured a series of persecutions unparalleled in the history of the nations of the world. He spoke in warm praise of the English statesmen of the present day who are striving to undo the wrongs of many years of English misrule in Ireland. He concluded his remarkable sermon by exhorting his hearers to follow in the footsteps of their forefathers, who were descendants of the priceless inheritance of example, to be, like them, men of faith, to love and cherish their holy religion. Ireland was the most moral nation of the world because she was the most religious. He called upon them to remember that they were descendants of heroes, children of the Isle of Saints, and prove themselves worthy of the title they bear.

Ford Parade. Mr. C. J. Mitchell is holding a parade of his 1913 model T Fords. He expects to have some 15 new cars in the parade. These have all been sold to local people.

DISGRACEFUL.

The above is the only who will describe the humiliating tattle provided by the Liberal Dominion House on Saturday. Dr. Clark of Red Deer leader and Grit papers describe as a hero. The Toronto Globe of him:

DISGRACEFUL.

"Dr. Clark, the Brantford member for Red Deer, and the fairest and most gentlemanly debaters in the House," "named" by the Speaker in his opening upon the constitution of every member of Parliament in reality Clark is one of the greatest obstructionists with whom Canada has ever been afflicted, and once belonged to the British where he sat under closure of order. After he had repeatedly defied the ruling of the Speaker, this order "I will name you Dr. Clark." "Name us all," chorus members of the opposition "Name and be damned," he shouted.

DISGRACEFUL.

And according to the Globe Wilfrid Laurier sat up to the news and when told what happened said he was proud boys' to whom he conveyed hearty congratulations. Think of that coming from Premier! The situation is clear. A hungry politician are just to have another chance at power in order to force an appeal to willing to go to any and every excess. If they should prove successful which is doubtful, they will be a smashing as no other party sustained in this Dominion.

SHOULD BE AN ENQUIRY

Once again the people of Brantford have been put to great loss, discomfort and positive gain by a break in connection with gas supply. That mishaps will take place in connection with any public enterprise we all know, but recurrence of a similar mishap that of last year, in connection with the gas service, calls for investigation.

SHOULD BE AN ENQUIRY

It is true that it is a private corporation, but in all essentials public service (as it should be) made in the first place in addition the municipality is a heavy stockholder, with the of the time being having a share of the board. The Grand River in 1912 showed what it could do at flood time breaking the main pipe near Cocksbutt Bridge, and now a similar incident has been recorded. Surely there should have some lesson conveyed by the break, and the pipe placed in a more permanent position. As it is, shivering Brantford were again forced to do without and cooking facilities, at a when cold weather was again upon us. The average folk are long suffering and good natured enough they have to face the inevitable this does not look like that. The general public have rights, as well as corporations, this incident looks to be like a

DISGRACEFUL.
The above is the only word which will describe the humiliating spectacle provided by the Liberals in the Dominion House on Saturday.
Dr. Clark of Red Deer was the leader and Grit papers describe him as a hero. The Toronto Globe says of him:
"Dr. Clark, the British-born member for Red Deer, and one of the fairest and most gentlemanly debaters in the House, was named" by the Speaker for insisting upon the constitutional rights of every member of Parliament."

NOTES AND COMMENTS.
If I can't rule let there be chaos" is evidently Laurier's new motto.
Well you decent Liberals what do you think of the exhibition of your members at Ottawa?
If Dr. Clark of Red Deer got his just deserts he would be handed over to a bunch of militant suffragettes.
The humiliation of Canada in the eyes of the world does not cut any figure with those Grit wind-jammers.
There is not one iota of Canadian general public opinion at the back of the Laurierites in this navy matter.
Party passion, pusillanimously pushed presents poor scenes at Ottawa is about the way it should be put.

SHOULD BE AN ENQUIRY
Once again the people of this city have been put to great annoyance, and discomfort and positive danger by a break in connection with the supply.
That mishaps will take place in connection with any public or private enterprise we all know, but the recurrence of a similar mishap to that of last year, in connection with gas service, calls for investigation.
It is true that it is a private corporation, but in all essentials it is a public service (as it should have been made in the first place) and the municipality is quite every stockholder, with the Mayor at the time being having a seat at the board.

CARROLL'S FOOLISH PERFORMANCE.
Mr. Carroll, the Liberal member for Cape Breton, no doubt considers himself a very smart man, but it is to be doubted after a recent exhibition of his whether other folks will join in the estimate.
He got up in the house the other morning at 9.40 and asked permission to read a speech on the ground that a precedent had been set by Premier Borden recently reading to the House an important announcement.
He secured permission by this false pretence and then proceeded to read the entire contents of a magazine.
Carroll was elected in the general contest by the narrow margin of 104 and a silly act like the above should be sufficient to lead his constituents to leave him at home the next fight.
Another dodge of some of the wind-jammers has been to commence their speeches all over again on the ground that relays of members relieving guard constituted a new audience.

And these are the kind of men who are seeking to pose before the country as statesmen!

THE CHURCHILLS—AN ANSWER TO A CORRESPONDENT
The circumstances regarding the Marquis of Salisbury and Lord Randolph Churchill were these.
"Randy," as he was called, was the younger brother of the Duke of Marlborough, and he entered the House of Commons in 1874 when he was twenty-five years of age. He was nominally a Conservative, but very ambitious, high strung, and like all the Churchills, exceedingly clever, and mere party ties did not at that time suit him. He accordingly became the leader of three other members who became dubbed the "Fourth Party," and in brilliant fashion they used to harass both Liberals and Conservatives. There can be no doubt that his skill and astuteness did much to stir up the "drybones" of Toryism, and when Salisbury was thought of in 1885, after the Conservatives had been five years in Opposition, he was offered and accepted the post of Secretary of State for India, with of course a seat in the Cabinet and then became Chancellor of the Exchequer a post which he regarded as ranking next to that of Prime Minister.

NATURAL GAS IN ONTARIO
Ontario's yield of natural gas is rapidly increasing. In 1909 the output had a value of $1,188,170; in 1910 $1,491,239, and in 1911, $2,186,762.
The natural gas territory borders on the east and north shores of Lake Erie, and the gaps between the areas at present productive are steadily being obliterated, and in such a way as to make it improbable that practically the whole shore will in time be found to be underlain by gas-bearing strata. It has already been shown by wells drilled in the land under the water of Lake Erie in front of the Township of Rainham, that the gas field includes portions of the bed of that lake. The outlines of the gas field in Kent county, and the large yield of wells on the shore line, strongly suggest that there is an extension of the field, probably one of considerable size, beneath the waters of the lake in that district also.

What the Other Fellow Thinks.
Without Political Bias.
Monetary Times (Independent)—It is doubtful whether the people of Canada will accept "it is a great constitutional struggle," as the excuse for the childish waste of time at Ottawa. The whole incident savors of school children rather than of statesmen. Diversions caused in the House by firecrackers, and the entrance of members in night caps, bath robes and with pillows, smacks of vaudeville rather than parliamentary dignity. If the demonstration is the only dignified way in which an Opposition can gratify its desires, parliamentary rules are sadly lacking. The country would be grateful for a measure which would make it easier and more business-like for Conservatives and Liberals alike to act as a respectable Opposition, whoever happened to be in that box.

Women in Canada.
"Canada" (published in London, England)—On another page will be found some interesting information gathered by Miss Ella C. Sykes, author of "A Home-Helper in Canada," in the course of her recent visit to the Dominion, during which she collected the material embodied in her book. Readers of our review of Miss Sykes' book will recall that during the spring and summer of 1911 she took five temporary posts as home-help in four Provinces; staying at Government hotels when in search of work; and also being a guest on a chicken ranch and a prairie farm. The result of these experiences is that Miss Sykes is doing her best, as she did in her paper before the Society of Arts on Tuesday—to dissuade the incompetent amateur from going out to Canada until she has undergone some practical training. The type that Canada needs, Miss Sykes is convinced, is "the strong, adaptable girl with no caste prejudices, doing at Rome as Rome does, ready to take what work is offered, but skilled in something that a new country needs, such as stenography, school teaching, dressmaking, millinery, and so on; able, as well, to cook and wash, as only 5 per cent of the Canadian women keep servants."

While her own experience led her to the conclusion that the post of home-help is unsuitable for educated women—except perhaps on the Pacific Slope—Miss Sykes recognizes that there is room and to spare for women in the Dominion, and that the British girl of the right type will find plenty of scope for her activities and a far wider life than would in all probability be her lot in over-crowded England. Of this the opportunities which she enumerates for educated women are in themselves proof.

signal to the rest of the Opposition, every Liberal member jumped to his feet. Apparently the intention was to recipitate a physical struggle. If so, the plan failed because of the attitude of the Ministerial members, who appreciated the move and remained in their seats.
The sitting ended by Mr. Pugsley withdrawing his motion that the chairman leave the chair (which would have meant the defeat of the bill) on the understanding that the Prime Minister should adjourn the House. It was then 11 o'clock. Mr. Borden, in moving that the committee rise, made a statement to the House, definitely announcing that the Government intended to maintain the rights of the majority, to carry out the mandate of the people and to pass the Naval Aid Bill. He made it perfectly clear that the Government would do its own governing. The King's Government, he said, must be carried on.
Hon. George Graham, replying for the Opposition under the conditions already described, said that there might have been a better feeling if the Government had not sought to force the bill two weeks ago. Under the circumstances anybody would have revolted. He expressed the hope that on Monday "we will be in as good fighting trim and in better humor."

Premier is Heard.
This is what occurred at the heat of the disgraceful proceedings:
The Premier: "I am very sorry," he said, "that hon. members on the other side of the House have seen fit to give a very painful exhibition, indeed."
Dr. Pugsley was on his feet in an instant.
"Mr. Speaker," he said, but got no further amid the shouts of "Order" on the other side.
Once again he tried, and this time made himself heard.
"Mr. Borden," he said, "I did not intend to arouse the ire of my hon. friend."
Dr. Pugsley: I want to defend our friends on this side of the house.
"Mr. Borden: I trust that my hon. friend from Red Deer who is not only a very sane and reasonable member of this house, but also a gentleman, will—"

THE COAL SITUATION.

Next Three Months Coal Will Be Cheap.

Now is the time to order your next year's supply of coal. The price of coal is lowest during April and May than any other time in the year. At present Buffalo harbor is clear of ice and railway companies are busy loading their boats with coal. This is being done to rush the coal to the West as soon as navigation opens on account of the supply getting very low in that section of the country during the past winter. This state of affairs will have a tendency to make coal a scarce article in Ontario. It will pay you to order your coal from F. H. Walsh before May 15th after that date all mine-owners' advance the prices monthly.

Throughout the past winter several of the local dealers have been buying coal from independent firms in Detroit at an advance in price of $1.00 a ton over what Mr. Walsh has been paying; therefore, he is able to quote you a better price for April, May and June deliveries, especially car lots for employees of factories.

This coal is mined under the city of Scranton, Pa. (guaranteed), and no better coal can be purchased in the world. Mr. Walsh can quote a lower price than most dealers as he is under less expense than any coal merchant in the city. You get coal of quality and quantity, which is full of weight, worth and warmth, when you have Mr. Walsh fill your coal bins. He is already booking orders for next year's supply of coal at prices which will astonish you. If you are not already one of his many satisfied customers give him your next order and be convinced that he sells the best coal in the city and at economical prices and full weight.

He is also sole agent for Beaver Brand Charcoal F. H. Walsh, Coal and Wood Dealer. Phone 345.

With the Police

A long list of cases were heard by his Worship this morning in the police court.

The first to appear was Robert Morrison, a vag, who was allowed to go back to the House of Refuge.

Thomas Stutchfield, on the same charge, was given 30 days.

Wm. Harrison, drunk, will spend 30 days in Castle Brown.

Nick Bom Bom was up, charged with assaulting the police. He was on quite a spree, and when the P.C. tried to gather him in he started a fight, which cost him $7.85.

Frank Eiting was charged with stealing a pair of rubber boots. The evidence was not taken. He will appear on the 19th.

Jennie Steves charged her husband Mike Steves, with assault. When the evidence was heard, however, the defendant was found not entirely to blame. The trouble started over letters he found from her to another man and replies from the said man. His Worship, after reading these, decided she was partly to blame. Plaintiff, however, said she would rather go to jail than live with him. His Worship said it was not necessary to do either. They were both convinced they would get along better singly, and his Worship was of the same opinion, so they were separated.

J. W. Pierson, a billed man, secured a bottle of rum at the Kerby, knowing he was billed. He said he secured it for his wife, who was sick at home. The story was an old one. His Worship thought, and so Pierson was forced to pay the usual $12.85.

Bert Meates and John Montgomery made restitution to the extent of $30 to Eli Loser for theft of a horse, but they were also assessed $8.85 each, court costs. Montgomery claims he thought the stable was Meates' stable all the time.

Alfred Taylor was charged with breach of the water by-law. Mr. Charlton appeared for the defendant and Mr. Henderson for the city. Plumbers are expected to take out a permit. This has not been done, with the result that prosecution is following. The evidence, however, showed that there was laxity in the city office, as well as with the plumbers. During the argument Mr. Henderson and Mr. Charlton became quite heated. "You're wrong," said the former, "I'm told my opponent thinks the law is wrong, and he is going to show it. I'm here to see it."

Mr. Charlton: "It's a lie."

Mr. Henderson: "You're reported as having said you would bust the by-law."

Mr. Charlton: "That's not so."

Mr. Charlton: "This, your Worship, is a case where they are trying to make an example of some one."

Mr. Frank: "That is not so, but these plumbers have got to take out a license, or else they will be prosecuted."

Mr. Charlton: "I'm going to show you people your law is no good before I'm through."

Mr. Henderson: "If that's your attitude, why then I will prosecute."

Whereupon Mr. Charlton asked for an adjournment till the 27th.

Mr. Henderson said he did not intend to go ahead with the case, but after the attitude of Mr. Charlton he would be forced to. It was adjourned till the 27th.

Will Sell Farm.

John F. Hafner, a well known Winnipeg man, was in the city last week to arrange for the sale of the W. S. Campbell farm, north of Brantford.

Gas on at Galt.

A Canadian Press despatch from Galt states: Natural gas was again turned on in Galt last evening after citizens had endured the inconveniences attendant upon the lack of it for 12 hours. Many people were unaware that the illuminating vapor was again on tap and spent the night in the dim light of coal oil lamps. The cold weather of yesterday caused some suffering among those who relied on natural gas for heating purposes.

Had Fine Time.

The Philathea Class of the First Baptist Church were royally entertained on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Williams, 177 Nelson street. During the evening a handkerchief shower was given Mrs. Swift, who is leaving for Portland, Oregon. Music and games were indulged in, after which a dainty supper brought the evening to a close.

PUTS AN END TO BACKACHE QUICKLY CURES WEAK KIDNEYS

A Few Doses Give Relief, Helps Lifeless Organs Regain Health, Strength and Activity.

It is useless, dangerous, and unnecessary to be tortured with the digging, twisting pains of backache and rheumatism, or suffer with disagreeable kidney and bladder disorders any longer.

The new discovery, Croxone, provides a remedy which every sufferer can now depend upon to promptly and surely relieve all such misery and bring about a speedy cure.

Croxone cures these troubles because it quickly overcomes the very cause of the disease. It soaks right into the stopped-up, inactive kidneys through the membranes and linings; cleans out the little filtering glands; neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid and makes the kidneys filter and sift from the blood all the waste and poisonous matter that clog the system and cause such troubles. It does not matter whether you have but slight symptoms or the most chronic aggravated case of kidney, bladder trouble, or rheumatism that it is possible to imagine, for the very principle of Croxone is such that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results.

You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it and all the misery and suffering that go with such troubles end.

You can secure an original package of Croxone from any first class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.

CITY NEWS ITEMS

In Toronto.
Thomas J. Hendry was in Toronto yesterday and while there turned over a large real estate deal.

Instructive Lecture.
Dr. Ashton lectured under the auspices of the Men's Association of Trinity church last evening on "Tuberculosis." The address was very interesting, and made a deep impression on those present.

Waiting For Poles.
Engineer Ireland of the Hydro-Electric office stated this morning that as soon as a consignment of poles arrived in the city and unloaded, the construction work would commence.

Pipe Dream.
Yesterday (Doc) Pentland had a pipe dream of a million dollar concern being formed in the city, but this morning he fell into the hands of the police, suffering from an overdose of liquor.

Military Notes.
The recruit class will be held as usual to-night. The 25th Dragoons held a recruit class in the armories last night. D and A companies are holding supper to-night, the former in the armories, the latter at the home of Capt. Colquhoun, Dalhousie street. D Company are attending the Colonial prior to their supper.

Muskat Shooting.
"Funny that the only possible damage which could be done to the Brantford system of dykes is that caused by muskrats, and yet they won't allow us to shoot them within city limits," said a local man last night who likes this pastime. It is stated that provincial regulations allow muskrats to be shot around dykes. Incidentally, the animals are plentiful along the river.

Police Court.
"Doc" Pentland was arrested yesterday on Dalhousie street in a decidedly intoxicated condition. "Doc" is a billed man and although he failed to make an appearance this morning he must come over with the usual $12.85.

Tillie Clouse had a blow out last night and tried to get away with all the booze in town. She appeared this morning but was allowed to go as it was her first appearance in over a year.

Passed Away.
After an illness of over thirty years, Mrs. Ira Baker, South Hamilton Rd., passed away this morning at three o'clock. Beside her sorrowing husband, she leaves to her three daughters, Mrs. John Duff, of Cainsville; Mrs. Duncan McLellan, California, and one son, Herbert, at home. The funeral will take place from her husband's residence, South Hamilton Road on Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock to the Hope cemetery. The Courier extends sincerest sympathy to the bereaved.

Very Successful Banquet
The Young Men's Class, known as the "Always Faithful" held their third annual banquet in the parlors of the Tea Pot Inn last night. About fifty members of the class sat down to a very dainty supper prepared by Caterer Crumback. After the many good things had been disposed of Mr. John Schultz, the very popular teacher of the class, rose and in the capacity of chairman extended the cordial greetings. He also spoke upon the work of the class during the past year and the outlook of the class for the coming year. The toast to "Our Guests" was ably proposed by Lloyd Hazelton, a member of the class, and responded to by Messrs W H Peirce, F. Chalcraft, J. W. Widdup and Rev. Llewellyn Brown. The toast to "The Class" was proposed by Mr. Claude Rock and responded to by Elmer Pierce. Jack Orr proposed the toast "Our City" which was responded to by Chris. Cleator, Miss Styles and Miss Wright rendered a duet at the piano in a very fine manner, followed by the toast to "Our Church" proposed by Douglas Collins and responded to by Clarence Parsons. A toast to the Y.M.C.A. was proposed by Arnold Hitchon and responded to by Mr. Goodwin, the Secretary of the association. The toast to the "Gentlemen" was proposed by Mrs. Geo. L. Goodwin and responded to by Walter Parson. Numerous musical numbers by members of the school helped to make the banquet a huge success. Mr. Schultz when seen to-day regarding the banquet said "It was the best gathering and most satisfactory banquet the class has ever held." The officers of the A. F. Class are: Teacher, J. F. Schultz; President, Elmer Peirce; Vice President, Lloyd Hazelton; Secretary, Claude Rock; Treasurer, Elmer Brigham; Chairman Social and Entertainment Committee, N Hazelton; Chairman Games and sports Arnold Hitchon; Chairman Membership, Clarence Parsons.

There are some wrongs in the book of Fate
That human laws cannot abate;
There are some crimes so black and base
That God Himself cannot erase.
—Munyon.

THE highest law, in my opinion, is Love. Its children are charity, sympathy and forgiveness. It tempers justice and holds high the lantern of Hope. But pagan statute laws could never modify or eventually eradicate many wrongs. The first is ignorance of the laws governing the human body. By our false modesty or false notions we speak of certain organs in a shame-faced manner. As a result, children, especially daughters, are brought up in ignorance of natural laws. I would have the anatomy of the human body illustrated in every particular on blackboards in every child in our public schools. I would have the genital organs as freely discussed and understood as the hands or feet. It is the mysterious that excites passion. It is the novelty and the uncertainty that lead pass astray; I would have every man or woman who was afflicted with any disease that could be transmitted. Further, I would not permit a pure woman to enter into wedlock with a man or a young man with libertine proclivities.

Through false modesty men and women are ignorant of Nature; their bowels become clogged and their systems poisoned. Children are allowed to go to school and sit all day without a movement of the bowels, which deadens the intellect and undermines the constitution. I would make it the duty of every teacher to see that the child's bowels are moved daily, for the further I investigate into the cause of disease the more convinced I am that constipation is the cause of more ailments, of more suffering, of more unhappiness than all other causes combined. It is the mother of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, Liver Affections, Blood Impurities, Heart Affections, Rheumatism and Kidney Affections. I am receiving hundreds of letters from people who have been cured or benefited by the use of Munyon's Paw Paw Laxative Pills. These little sugar-coated pills are unlike any other cathartics that ever been offered. They act so gently, yet so effectively, that they amaze even the most sceptical. They seem to excite no nervous activity. They start the secretions of the stomach and bowels, so that all the food received is rich, red blood in the system, and then in a natural way evacuate the lower bowel, keeping the stomach and the intestines wholesome and sanitary. I want every dyspeptic, every person who suffers with indigestion, or any liver ailment, all those who have pimples or skin eruptions, who have sallow complexions, who are troubled with dizziness or constipation, to try these little Paw Paw Pills.

They are sold in all drug stores in two sizes, ten pills for 10 cts., 25 pills for 25 cts.

LISTEN TO US

"We are only little ones, but we know Zam-Buk eased our pain and cured our sores. Perhaps it would cure you, too, if you tried it?"
Isn't this sound advice from "babes and sucklings"? Take it! The speakers are the children of Mrs. E. Webster, of Selmeurs St., Montreal, and the mother adds weight to their appeal. She says: "My little girl contracted scalp disease at school. Bad gatherings formed all over her head, and not only caused the child acute pain but made her very ill. The sores discharged, and occurring on the scalp we feared she would lose all her hair. She was in a pitiable plight when we tried Zam-Buk, but a few days' treatment with this balm gave her ease. Then the sores began to heal, and we continued the Zam-Buk treatment. In a short time she was quite healed. "My little boy sustained a serious scald on the neck. It set up a bad sore, and quite a few things we tried, failed to heal it or give him ease. Once more we turned to Zam-Buk, and we were not disappointed. It acted like a charm in drawing away the pain, and soon healed the wound."

Zam-Buk is "something different" in the way of balms. It contains powerful healing herbs, which, as soon as applied to skin diseases, kill off the germs and end the painful smarting. Other essences contained in Zam-Buk so stimulate the cells that new healthy tissue is specially formed. Eczema, itch, drows, cold sores, abscesses, festering sores, blood poisoning, chronic wounds, cold cracks, etc., are healed and cured in this way. Use it for all skin injuries and diseases. It is also of great service for piles. All drug stores and stores at 50 cents box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

And you know when you make a purchase here, that you can depend upon the article being exactly as represented, for we make no claims that cannot be substantiated. If you wish to select a ring, whether for yourself or as a gift to another, we suggest that you drop in here first and see the excellent variety we have in stock. You will undoubtedly find just the style of ring you want here, and our prices will delight you too.

GREAT WORK BY THE WOMEN

But Funds are Still Needed For the Brant Tuberculosis Hospital.

Great work by the women of Brantford and throughout the county is being done in connection with the new tuberculosis hospital but the announcement was made to-day that very little funds were really in the hands of the governors wherewith to complete the furnishing of the new institution. It was announced this morning that the hospital was rapidly nearing final completion, the only difficulty being encountered being that of the matter of funds for furnishings. In this connection the various Women's Institutes are doing great work and taking great interest in the hospital. The local order of Daughters of the Empire has assumed the work of hospital auxiliary, and propose to raise, from $300 to $400. The ladies of the Moyle-Tranquility Institute are supplying 35 pillows, while the Paris Women's Institute will supply much-needed linen. The North Brant Women's Institute has promised to donate $100 for a shack to be known as the North Brant Women's Institute shack on hospital grounds. Another women's organization is also proposing to assist substantially. An appeal is being made to all societies to help as it is conceded that the work of the hospital is almost the most important of its kind.

Loss of Appetite is also loss of vitality, vigor, tone. To recover appetite and the rest, take Hood's Sarsaparilla—that strengthens the stomach, perfect digestion, makes eating rich and pure, and steadies the nerves.

Invitations, have been issued by Lady Lillian York to the marriage of her daughter, Evelyn Pelly, to Capt. T. H. Rivers-Bulkeley, Scots Guards, on Saturday, April 19, at 2.30 o'clock, at the Guards' Chapel, Wellington Barracks, and afterwards at Grosvenor Gardens, S.W.

An organ recital is being given by Mr. Thomas Darwen in Wellington Street Church on Good Friday afternoon, which will be a treat to music-lovers. The selections are to be from Bach, Chopin, Lux, Lemare, Hollins and Nevin. Mr. W. G. Darwen and Mr. Charles Darwen also assisting.

A thoroughly enjoyable time was spent at the Collegiate Institute Friday night, when the pupils of the third and second forms, held an "At Home". An impromptu program had been arranged of recitations and music, games and promenades being interspersed, after which light refreshments were served, bringing a very happy evening to a close.

The ladies of the Moyle-Tranquility Women's Institute held their March meeting at the Tranquility school house on Wednesday afternoon. In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. Hurley, the chair was taken by Mrs. G. T. Wood. An exceptionally bright and instructive address was given by Miss Ethel Good on "Canadian Writers of Fiction." Mesdames J. Eddy, W. Patterson and H. T. Batson gave most interesting papers on "Eggs," their preservatives, their food value, and the different methods of preparing them for the table. A paper on "Easter Thoughts" was given by the secretary, Mrs. G. T. Wood. Two very bright recitations were given by the little Misses Lena Kinney and Gracie Turnbull. The meeting closed by singing "God Save the King."

Brantfordites will be interested in the following despatch from Washington on the Senate investigation into indignities which the suffragettes recently suffered in that city: "Mrs. Gilbert H. Grosvenor, daughter of Alexander Graham Bell, the celebrated inventor, told the committee that rowdies pulled flags from the hands of her children who were in the parade in an automobile, and tore decorations off the car. Gross indignities and insults suffered by women paraders in the suffragette parade were further recounted to the committee. Dr. Nellie B. Mark of Baltimore, a marcher, said that she saw another young girl among the Maryland delegation 'chucked' under the chin by a rowdy and another man trying to put his arm around her. 'I lit one man on the nose with my baton,' said Dr. Mark. 'He fled into the crowd. Some other man tried to pinch another girl, and I struck him in the mouth. He gulped, and I made his teeth went down. One woman had her arm pinched black and blue to the shoulder by the crowd as she marched along. I saw another girl with her coat nearly torn off. The Maryland flag we carried was spit on by the men, and they threw lighted cigarettes at it. The police jeered and merely laughed. They fall in front of us.' Mrs. Mark said the attitude of the police was that of 'jellyfish indifference.'"

MILITARY WERE AT SUPPER

Fine Social Events Were Held Last Evening--The Proceedings.

A. Company, Dufferin Rifles
 Captain and Mrs. Colquhoun most hospitably entertained at their home on Dalhousie street Friday night a number of the staff officers of the Regiment and officers and members of A. Company to a complimentary banquet. Their spacious double parlors were handsomely decorated with bunting, British flags and other things in keeping, which gave their cosy home a very military-like effect. The popular hosts have given many such functions, but the jolly affair Friday night eclipsed all former efforts, and those who were fortunate enough to partake of their hospitality will long remember the happy event. The tables upon which the splendid repast was served, looked exceedingly pretty, being decorated in pink and white. The popular good-natured Captain and his wife certainly left nothing undone to make their guests feel at home, and the hospitality shown to all will long live in their memory.

Among the officers who were seated around the festive board were Colonel F. Howard, Capt.-Adj. P. P. Ballachey, Capt. G. D. Watt, Capt. S. Dunlop, Capt. E. H. Newman, Q.M.S. J. Moore, Sergt.-Major W. Oxtoby, Lieut. R. Secord, Lieut. Jones, Bandmaster F. Johnson and Capt. Colquhoun.

After partaking of the beautiful things which the host and his wife provided, which was served by a smart corps of ladies, Capt. Colquhoun called the gathering to order, and a lengthy toast list was carried out.

The Toast List:
 The King--National Anthem.
 Selection by "A. Company" string band.
 Commanding Officers and Staff--Colonel Howard responded, and spoke of the efficiency of A. Company saying that their high standing was a source of inspiration for the other companies of the Regiment, and congratulated Capt. Colquhoun, his officers and men for their good work.
 Song--Pte. Wakeling.
 Capt.-Adj. Ballachey paid many flattering remarks to A. Company and its commander.
 Recitation--Corp. Bissett.
 Capt. G. D. Watt made one of his witty speeches for which he is noted. He introduced quite a novel feature when he presented those who turned out in connection with the recent police riot, with their old bank cheques which had all been cashed as souvenirs of active service.
 As a joke, Capt. Watt presented the Farrell with a huge tin medal.
 Selection--A. Company's string band.
 Speech--Capt. S. Dunlop.
 "Our Sister Companies"--This toast was responded to by Captain H. Newman of E. Company.
 Song--Pte. Wakeling.
 "Our Guests"--Responded to by Bandmaster Johnson and Mr. Clark.
 "Officers of A. Company"--Responded to by Lieut. Secord and James.
 Violin Solo--Pte. Farrell, jr.

Presentation
 At this stage of the proceedings, one of the most pleasing features of the evening transpired, when Col. Sgt. Bolt, on behalf of the officers and members of A. Company presented Col. Sgt. Allan with a handsome leather-bound oak rocking chair. Col. Sgt. Allan was completely taken by surprise and overjoyed.

"Staff Sergeants"--Responded to by Q.M.S. Muir and Sergt.-Major Oxtoby, the latter saying he joined A. Company when they had quarters in the old frame armories in the East ward.
 Vocal Duet--Pte. Farrell and Pte. Small.
 "Sergeants and Men of A. Company"--Responded to by Col. Sgt. Bolt and Sergts. Bissell, Murray and Brown.
 Song--Pte. Farrell.
 Guitar Solo--Pte. McIntyre.
 "The Press"--Responded to by Lloyd Moore, who told a few funny stories, and Cliff Todd, who sang "I'd love to lead a military band."
 "The Ladies"--Responded to by all singing "They are jolly good ladies."
 Colonel Howard arose and took the opportunity to thank Captain and Mrs. Colquhoun on behalf of those present, and the cream of military banquets was brought to a close.

D. Company.
 Lieutenant Frank Hicks and members of "D" Company, 38th Dufferin

SPORTING COMMENT

By FREE LANCE

The Brantford wrestlers who participated in the tournament at Toronto, returned home Saturday morning and were in a disgruntled frame of mind over their treatment in the Queen City. Apparently the boys were badly used. The rules were supposed to be amateur, but the Brantford lads were blood from head to heels in short order, so badly did the Toronto referee handle things. Brown won the 145 pound class. It is doubtful if the local boys will make the trip again. Betts has challenged Jack Sloan to a bout here, although Sloan is heavier than he is. Sloan, by the way, did not turn up at the Toronto tournament for some reason or other.

Bill Phelon has a lot of fun in the St. Louis Sporting News on the practice of baseball players allowing their names for use in newspaper articles, which they never write, never read and never sign, but which they get paid good money for. Phelon writes as follows:

"Ah, well--what's the diff? The public is wise at last; the public now hoots openly and derisively at the 'signed stories' of the ball players, and the next World's Series will see still louder hootings. But--rich success awaits the paper which will actually print it as the players say it--the paper which will employ stenographers and clever paragraphers who will take down the words, spoken in panache and with a 'twinkle' in the words really spoken by the stars. That stuff will be great reading.

Which version would you, O brother bug, consider more authentic, or more interesting, this:

By Tristrus Cobspeake
 "Our defeat this afternoon was a combination of evil fortune and trivial misunderstandings. Up to the eventual seventh inning, we had the enemy fairly conquered, retreating sullenly, still keeping up a heavy fire, but nevertheless mastered and overwhelmed. Then came a momentary hesitation, which, alas, proved fatal to our ambitions. Dingbat, who had up to this critical moment pitched masterly, magnificent ball, lost control for the fraction of a minute--a pass to Gobswatt ensued--Doghoff sacrificed; the wireless telepathy hitherto flashed back and forth between Runbook on first and DeQokk on second fluttered tremulously--and both men were safe. Then came Manitunk with his enormous black war club; Dingbat, instead of obeying my signal and apportioned him wide, sweeping curves, delivered a ball fairly over centre--and a crashing drive was the result, turning the tide of victory."

Or this:

By Tristrus Cobspeake.
 "Aw, nix, nix! I'm all in! Can't you wait till I get a Kellerman an' a rub? Huh! Well, this was all: We had them dubs till the seventh easy. Then Rifles, were out in full force Friday night and attended a theatre party at the Colonial.

After seeing the performance, the company marched back to the Armories where they partook of a lunch in the men's institute. While lunch was being prepared the soldiers amused themselves singing popular songs.

After lunch, Col. Ashton addressed the soldiers of the King.
 Songs were sung by Col. Sgt. A. C. Hart and Sergt. P. Unsworth.
 Duet, McLeod brothers, and Messrs Neil McLeod and D. S. Stanley.
 Mr. Whitlam gave a recitation.
 Lieut. Hicks spoke to the men, who received him with applause, and inspired them with the hope that D. Company would again be the banner company as in days of yore. Lieut. Hicks presented members of the company who had the honor to be on active service.
 Lieut. Duncan spoke of the necessity to get more recruits, etc.
 Recitation, Mr. Whitlam.
 Song, Mr. Neil McLeod.
 Sergt. Martin addressed the men of the company, and urged those present to get recruits.

fair tactics. Brantford is interested chiefly in Brantford dates.

Life's Formula

Love a little, spurn a little, give a little, earn a little, laugh a little, cry a little, chaff a little, sigh a little, work a little, play a little, shirk a little, pray a little.
 Grin a little, scowl a little, chin a little, howl a little, use a little, take a little, lose a little, make a little, run a little, lag a little, pun a little, brag a little.
 Walk a little, roar a little, talk a little, soar a little, weep a little, breathe a little, sleep a little, grieve a little, mope a little, prate a little, hope a little, wait a little.
 And future generations in our world of woe and love can do no more than follow "Life's Formula."

JIM JEFFRIES A COMEBACK

The Californian Really Thinking of Entering the Ring Again.

Jim Jeffries really is thinking of returning to the ring. Tom Jones has been spreading the report around, but Tom's reputation as a long-winded conversational artist is such that I didn't take Tom very seriously. Yesterday a wire to Jeffries himself brought a prompt response.

Bob Edgren--New York Evening World, New York.

We have had several talks but have not decided yet. I have kept in good shape ever since Reno. Haven't let the fat come back and am in as good condition to start training as I ever was. If I decide to fight again I will take on several bouts before I go after the big one. If I don't make good I'm through. If I do I will go right on. Believe a few fights would make me as good as ever. I don't care about the money. If I start fighting again it will be to bring the championship back where it belongs.

JAS. J. JEFFRIES.

Jeffries will be thirty-eight years of age on the 15th April. That should not be a handicap to a heavyweight who has taken good care of himself and has lived the open-air life of a hunter and a fisherman, as Jeffries has.

When Bob Fitzsimmons was at Jeff's present age he knocked out Jim Daly in one round. Ed. Dunkehorst in two, Gus Ruhlin in six and Tom Sharkey in two.

According to this dope, Jeff's case should not seem hopeless. The fiercest that he has been "out" of the ring more than Fitzsimmons has should be in his favor, as he has expended so much less vitality in mauling and being mauled.

Bob Fitzsimmons fought his last ring battle at the age of forty-seven, being beaten by Bill Lange in Australia in twelve rounds. Jeffries at thirty-eight should have much less trouble with McCarty, Falzer and all of the lot of present-day white heavyweights. The old Jeff could have taken them and knocked them all out in one ring, on the same night, in a few rounds each.

Brantford Gets Fine Dates in League Schedule

Red Sox Will be Home on All Holidays and Also on Seven Saturdays.

The Courier to-day presents the Brantford Canadian League games at home and abroad. The schedule is considered a satisfactory one in every way. The Red Sox will be home on every holiday, as well as away. Guelph will play here two Saturdays, St. Thomas two, Berlin one and Peterboro two. While away: two in Ottawa, two in London, one in St. Thomas, Berlin and Peterboro. In addition, the club will play opening games at Peterboro, and in Ottawa as well as at home. This looks like pretty good picking. There will be no changes from the dates as given below:

Home Dates
 Ottawa--May 7, 8; June 23, 24, 25.
 Hamilton--May 24 (a.m.) 26, 27, 28; July 28, 29, 30.
 London--May 19, 20, 21; July 14, 15, 16; Aug. 11 (two games).

Home Dates
 Ottawa--May 13, 14, 15; July 24, 25, 26; Aug. 18, 19, 20.
 St. Thomas--June 5, 6, 7, 28, 29; July 1 (two games); 2; Aug. 28, 29, 30.
 Berlin--May 29, 30, 31; Aug. 12, 13; Sept. 1 (two games).
 Peterboro--May 9, 10; July 17, 18, 19.
 Brantford Abroad
 Brantford will have Saturdays as follows: two in Ottawa, two in London, one in St. Thomas, Berlin and Peterboro. In addition, the club will play opening games at Peterboro, and in Ottawa as well as at home. This looks like pretty good picking. There will be no changes from the dates as given below:

 London--May 19, 20, 21; July 14, 15, 16; Aug. 11 (two games).

appointed; Jocko Halligan, Buffalo last year with the Canadian, and formerly with the International; J. M. Daly, Rochester, strongly recommended by Silk O'Loughlin; R. McLaughlin, Buffalo, last year with the O. and P.; R. M. Black, Gander, N.S., an old International League player.

Canadian League

The holiday dates are:
 May 24--Hamilton at Brantford (a.m.), Brantford at Hamilton (p.m.)
 Guelph at Ottawa; Berlin at London; Peterboro at St. Thomas.
 June 3 (flag-raising)--Hamilton at Ottawa.
 July 1--Hamilton at Guelph; St. Thomas at Brantford; Berlin at Ottawa; Peterboro at London.
 Civic Holiday--Ottawa at Hamilton; Brantford at Ottawa; London at Brantford; Guelph at Peterboro; St. Thomas at Guelph; Berlin at St. Thomas; Peterboro at Berlin.
 Labor Day--Ottawa at Peterboro; Guelph at Hamilton; St. Thomas at London; Berlin at Brantford.
 Each club plays 107 games, but not the same number at home as abroad, owing to the difference in the population of the cities. With the teams pooling ten per cent. of all gates, less the league expenses, this difference in the number of games at home is at least partially equalized.

BRITISH SOCCER RESULTS SCOTLAND WINS BIG GAME

LONDON, March 17.--In Saturday's rugby struggle, England kicked off and had the advantage of a high wind. Quite early a free kick fell to Scotland. Tarr secured, however and handed to Lowe, who was beautifully assisted by Sweet. Following a great break-away by the Scottish front rank, headed by Turner, the ball was dribbled to English goal, but Lowe touched down.

A great run by Coates followed. He would have scored, but Wallace, the Scottish back, made a superb tackle. An attempt at goal for England followed by Sweet, but the ball went underneath the crossbar.

A high kick by Robertson, who took advantage of the wind, then carried the game into the English territory. Great round passing by Sutherland, Shand and Sweet followed, the latter dropping the ball.

The annual international match between Scotland and Ireland was played in Dublin Saturday and resulted in a victory for the Scottish eleven by 2 goals to 1.

The two countries have played for supremacy for the last 30 consecutive years.

The Scotsmen have won 25 games against their opponents' three, while 24 have been drawn.

The most important game Saturday in Scotland was between Dundee and Clyde. These teams met in Glasgow in an endeavor to break their tie in the former round of the Scottish Cup. They again failed to produce a winner, and in all likelihood will be ordered to play off during this coming week at neutral grounds.

Manchester City, by their victory Saturday now hold the coveted position at the head of the first division league, although on games played Aston Villa are only one point behind.

The second division table shows no change.

Rangers only managed to draw in their Scottish fixture, and fortunate it was for them when Celtic had to step down to defeat.

A Suppertime Thought

Take a minute. And it's so easy to bake
 What best brightens up fine biscuits if you choose suppertime? the right flour.
 There's one sure answer and you guessed it right first time--a batch of biscuits!
 Golden-topped, fresh and warm from the oven, ready to melt in your mouth as quickly as the butter that's spread on them.

SAVING THE SCENE

An Emergency For Which Actors Must Ever Be Prepared.

ACTS NOT ON THE PLAYBILLS.

Presence of Mind by Which Clara Morris Turned to Advantage a Canine Interruption in "Miss Mutton" and a Feline Intrusion in "Camille."

An experienced actor is supposed to be able to cope with any stage emergency, no matter what is lacking or what happens. Cool, self possessed, it is expected of him to turn the ridiculous into a source of applause rather than of disapproval or laughter.

And among the necessary acquirements for the actor is an unshakable self control, no matter if by some carelessness she is thrown into a situation almost without precedent. She must never fly off at a tangent because of some unforeseen incident. She must not scream when the perennial gallery idiot yells "Fire!" If something is forgotten she must try hard to hide its absence or invent a substitute.

If anything unusual occurred I always tried to incorporate it into the play if possible, as when in the school-room scene of "Miss Mutton" I was astonished to see a large water spaniel come trotting on to the stage, waving his tail at me as if we had been bosom friends for years. I don't like to recall all the things I thought about that dog for a moment or two.

Then I rose, and, thanking heaven and a generous master for the collar he wore, I grasped it, and, having stroked his silky ear with the other hand, I said to my pupils: "Children, I do not wish to curtail your pleasures, but I have told you before that I cannot permit you to have your pets in this room during lesson hours. Now, don't force me to remind you of that again."

And the little girl who played Paul quickly and cleverly responded to my wink. "Oh, excuse us this time, Miss Mutton, and we won't do it again." And, taking the dog from me, she led him off into the retirement of private life, while in the morning one newspaper mentioned that "among the prettiest of the lighter touches of the performance was the scene at the Christmas tree in the first act and the dog scene in the third act."

Another time, in Baltimore, when I was playing "Camille," I had a similar experience. In the fifth act I had staggered from the window of the bureau, hearing that dread moment when I was to see the reflection of my wrecked and ruined self in the looking glass. The house was all attention, watching dim eyes the piteous, weak movements of the dying woman. Just then I heard the quick indrawing of the breath that startled wadmouing, always indelible in before either a scream or a laugh.

My heart gave a plunge. "What is it? Oh, what is wrong?" And I glanced down at myself anxiously, for really I was very little in that scene. "What is it?"

Then came a titter, and evidently it was growing. In agony I turned quickly about and found myself facing a monstrous cat. Startled, he held the very center of the stage, his two great eyes fixed unflinchingly upon my face. His tail stood straight and aggressively in the air, twitching with short twitches at the very top.

Alas, no wonder they giggled! But how to save the approaching death scene was what went through my mind.

Clinging to the bureau, I slipped to my knees, and with an earnest prayer that he would not resist my appeal in a faint voice I called him to me. Thomas looked suspiciously at me, sniffed, then approached gingerly and snuggled at my fingers. Then he rubbed his dingy body against my knee, and in an instant my arms were about him, my cheek on his wicked old head.

What a sigh of relief went like a wave over that audience! I had won!

I then called Nanine to relieve me, and the applause that swept the house was as balmy to my great distress; he grows too heavy for me to pet."

And Sir Thomas was carried off so instantly, imagining perhaps that I was envious of the hit he had made.

My manager, who was somewhat of a wag, of course made the most of the saved situation. A gentleman met him on the street the next morning and was anxious for him to settle an argument between himself and wife.

A CUNNING WAGER.

It Looked Like a Sure Loss, but Was Really Easy Money.

There was a queer bet, one that seemed somewhat foolhardy, made by a politician a few weeks before the election in 1906, when it was apparent that McKinley would sweep the country.

He had been approached by a man who offered to make a "majority" wager. "I'll tell you what I'll do," the politician replied. "I'll bet you $50 that I can write down the names of thirty states that McKinley will carry."

The man snatched up the bet eagerly, and the politician wrote the list of names and gave them to a friend to keep, sealed, until the day after election.

"Now," he said, "just to show you how big a catch McKinley has, I will bet you $500 that I can name ten additional states that he will carry."

The man who took the first bet jumped at the second chance, feeling certain that forty states would not go Republican.

When the election was over and the votes counted the envelopes were opened. In the list of thirty states the politician had named all the solid south and the doubtful states. He lost $50. But in the list of ten he named twenty-two states not so Democratic in twenty years until the election of 1912.

LAID THE SPECTER.

The Story of a Ghost With a Troubled Conscience.

The following well authenticated ghostly happenings are recorded in Jesse Adelphi Middleton's "The Grey Ghost Book."

A lady had taken a furnished house in Suffolk, England, from a widow who had lately lost her son. One day she was sitting in the drawing room when the figure of a boy of about thirteen walked across the room, halted opposite a table on which was some china and began to weep bitterly. When she got up and hastened toward the boy to comfort him he at once vanished.

As the same thing occurred repeatedly, the lady wrote to the owner of the house, seeking for some explanation. This was her answer:

"Will you kindly search the table with the china ornaments on it, and if you find sixpence in any of them put it into the poor bag in church? I gave the sixpence to put in the bag the last Sunday he went to church, and instead of putting it in he kept it to spend. He told me about it before he died, but I did not know where he had hidden it."

The tenant searched and found the sixpence in a little china jug. She put it into the poor bag and was never again visited by the apparition.

"Paying Through the Nose." "Paying through the nose" is to be indirectly swindled in a transaction or to pay an exorbitant price for a thing.

At this instant he bora me with some trick, "Henry VIII," I, L. 128.

Druggist Says When Mixed With Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair.

"Wych's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of muss. Some druggists make their own but it isn't nearly so nice as Wych's."

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, then left to age and carefully filtered will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching, and falling hair.

Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Wych's Sage and Sulphur" it surely helps folks appear years younger.

Lady Marjorie's Love

"With Lady Marjorie!" Marjorie exclaimed. "I would not remain with her even did she wish it. What can you be thinking of to suppose it, Mr. Barrington?"
"I beg your pardon, and she spoke it out. I was merely going to suppose it, failing that—of course failing that—you had formed any plans for the future."
"The words made her think of Loftus Bligh—Loftus, who should have rendered all such anxiety on her part unnecessary, who should have been at her side to direct, protect and comfort her. She had never spoken to Barrington one word of Loftus, and she could not do so now. But a thought had come to her as she sat there sobbing, and she spoke it out. She had quite forgotten poor child who desperately derogatory to her dignity it was that she, Lady Marjorie Wynne, should confide in Mr. Chadburn's agent. She was so lonely, so miserable, so alone, who else was there who would seem to care, so much or speak so kindly? So far she had not in the least tried to understand why he should care so much or should care at all. She accepted the result without searching for the reason. It was plain to her that he did care, and it was equally certain in her present state of mind, that she must talk to somebody.
"Yes," she said quietly, and pulling at Jack's velvet ear as she looked out of the window again. "I have been thinking, Mr. Barrington, I must earn my living somehow if I won't go to grandmamma. That's of course, but I don't know how. If I were a man I could enlist or emigrate, I suppose or some one would get me something to do. But it is so difficult for a girl I can't go into a convent, can I?"
"Barrington half smiled. Perhaps, looking at the slender black figure and facing the effect of a coil and hood over the big brown eyes and curly brown hair, he thought that she would make a sweet little nun. But if so, it was not a sentiment to come into his mind.
"Well, hardly," I suppose," he said.
"Or on the stage—even if I would and I wouldn't. And then, I'm not clever you know; I can't write or paint or anything like that. I never read a novel without wondering how they managed to think of it all, and to tell it without getting in a middle. And as for my drawing, my last governess—she was a German, poor dear—used just to give one look at them and turn away."
"No, I'm afraid—since you ask me—the fortune she so earnestly awaits you in either of these fields, Lady Marjorie."
"Fortune?" She shrugged her slender shoulders with a half laugh and a pathetic little grimace. "Oh, I've given up thinking of that. I have come to a struggle for bread and butter—bread and butter for the last of the Wynnes. How I should have laughed at such an idea as that."

Laid at Rest

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Carey took place from the residence of her son, 38 Niagara street, on Thursday morning at 8.30 to St. Basil's church where a requiem high mass was sung by Rev. Father C. C. Guephre, the Very Rev. Dean Brady officiating at the grave.
The pallbearers were Messrs. John S. Hartley, John Dowling, Jas. McGregor, P. Harrington, and Wm. Cutmore.
The floral tributes were many and beautiful; there being a wreath from grandchildren, St. Catharines; cross, G. F. R. friends; sprays, Tailoring Department, Hughes and Howie, Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coyle, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Free, Mr. and Mrs. Melsom, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stevens, Mass Cards—Mr. and Mrs. J. Carey, St. Catharines; Mr. and Mrs. P. O'Donohue, Mrs. N. Brennan and family, Miss Margaret Daly, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Margaret, Margaret and Rose O'Grady, Mr. W. Cutmore, Edward Carey, of Hamilton, Miss E. Mellican, Mr. and Mrs. P. Harrington, Mrs. Dawson and family, Misses D. and M. Shannon, Mrs. M. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McIntyre, Mrs. G. W. ## A MESSAGE FOR THOSE WHO SUFFER

MRS. E. J. TALBOT TELLS THEM TO FIND A CURE IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.
She Had Rheumatism, Lumbago and Neuralgia and Found the Remedy. She Was Looking For it in Dodd's Kidney Pills.
HAMILTON, Ont., Mar. 17 (Special).—"I know there are a lot of people who suffer and do not know what will cure them. Dodd's Kidney Pills will."
These are the words of Mrs. E. J. Talbot who resides at 288 Wellington street north this city. And Mrs. Talbot speaks out of her own experience.
"Last July I was very sick," Mrs. Talbot continues. "My heart bothered me, my limbs were heavy, and I had a dragging sensation across the loins. Rheumatism, lumbago, and neuralgia added to my sufferings, and the doctor I called in did not help me much. I had tried seven boxes and I am so much stronger and better that I felt I must recommend them to others."
Mrs. Talbot's complication of troubles all came from sick kidneys.

Jim Jefferies

Now, Harry, that isn't at all patriotic. Would you rob America of the honor of holding the title? Willie Ritchie is the rightful holder, having won it from the former champion Ad Wolgast, who had it in direct line of descent from Nelson, Gans, Erne and Lavigne.
Welsh has no claim on the title unless he broke into this line somewhere—which he didn't.
Pollok excuses his attempt to make a champion of Welsh by explaining that "Welsh won a decision over Ritchie, making his claim better than Willie's."
Sure, Welsh won a decision over Ritchie, a year before Ritchie defeated Wolgast in a championship battle.
Dan Morgan says he never challenged McFarland to bet, and that he didn't "try to get Packey's goat." However, that may be, nobody can say that Daniel's nerve is deserting him. Yesterday he began distributing the latest postal card printed in colors. There are two pictures and one of Morgan. Under the Britton pictures are the lines: "Jack Britton, America's standard bearer—known as the 'Fighting Tip' and rated the most scientific boxer in the world."
The real nerve is displayed in the line, running across the top: "Jack Britton, Conqueror of Packey McFarland."
Accompanying each postal card is a clipping from the only paper in New York that called Britton winner.

Lacrosse

And I suppose that in some of the outlying districts, where they haven't heard of the trimming, Packey gave Britton, Daniel will get away with it.
It is an assured fact that London will be represented on the lacrosse map in the Canadian Lacrosse Association. A club is under way and will be organized shortly.
The London club will in all probability request grouping with St. Marys and Brantford.
Since the necessary move on the part of several other Western Ontario towns has been backward, the London club will ask for admission with the above mentioned lacrosse centers, London and St. Marys will have intermediate teams and after the Brantford team was ousted so easily in the senior series last season it is expected that they too, will fall in line with an intermediate club. The train connections between these three centers are good and it is expected that the group will be a go.

Ball Notes

Reardon Wants Job. Letters from Reardon and Tom Silcox wanting jobs as pitchers on the London club were received on Saturday. Reardon is the left hander with the Brantford team last season, while the fans need no introduction to Silcox, who is the same one who was a member of the Leptons club last season for a while and the season before. Manager Deneau will hardly consider these two applications as his pitching staff looks very formidable without these two old timers, when he gets another man who he is sure will be a go.
An application from a Detroit infielder was also received; his name is Ringler. President Stevely will forward it on to Manager Deneau to look into.
Cameron Quits Baseball. Deneau writes and tells about the retirement from the game of Scotty Cameron, the Detroit lad, with Hamilton last season. The wonder at the short field position of the 1911 season has passed out of baseball, entirely having received his release from Knotty Lee's Chicago left hander, who is being claimed by Manager Cook.

The New Directory And Its Many Names

The Flexibility of the English Language is More Than Emphasized—The Smith Family Leads All Others.

What's in a name? Or rather, what's in a city directory? The new City Directory for Brantford has just been issued, and the names in it are a study. As a Collegiate Institute master recently observed: How beautifully flexible the English language is!

It was the remark of an excited person at a wedding that brought the observation to mind when the remark was passed. It is now "cistomary to kuss the bride." Names of people in their relationship to each other can be made equally flexible as they can be by a reference to the new directory.

The great Smith family still holds sway in Brantford as in other English speaking communities. In the new directory 174 Smith grown-ups are registered. This is to say nothing of the little Smiths, whose names the directory men don't begin to secure. Next after the Smiths come the Browns who number 84, but there are only one Browning. Third in number are the Johnsons who are 64 strong, while the Johnstons also make 24. The Taylor family is third with 59; then come Davis and Davies which combined make 52, but the Jones family probably holds place with 49. Other familiar names are Wrights 46, McDonalds 45, Millers 45, Clarks 42, Halls 43, Thompsons 43, Youngs 40, Whites 38, Williams 33, Cooks 33, Campbells 31, Adams 30, Greens 29, Hills 29, Robinsons 28, Lakes 28, Moores 28, Kellys 28, Martens 23, Lees 23, Bennetts 24, Gardiners 23, Lambs 22, Kings 20, Robertsons 23, etc.

In the new directory there is an Abbott, a Pope, a Monkman, a Priest, a Priestley, six Bishops, eight Churches, two Chaplains, five Churchills, seven Crosses, 11 Parsons. Keeping in a Biblical train of mind: one Job, one Sampson, two Kains, three Daniels, eight Judges, several Shepherds, and 20 Kings are noted. There are also three Sovereigns, five Dukes, two Marquis's and five Squires and several Pages.

There are Blacks, Blackers, Blackburns, Blackmores, Blackwells, Browns, Greens, Whites, Whitelaws, Whitesides and numerous others.

There are Brocks and Fishers, also Fish, a Trout, a Salmon, and two Whales, and two Sardinskies. Several Bonny people, two Blotts and one Blottner are found. There are some Booths, Boxes four Bragg families and one Brags. There are five Bulls, three Bullers, one Bullman and five Bullocks.

Getting down to names of places, however, Brantford has a Burford, a Burch, one England, four Irelands, a Derbyshire, a Kent, a Walkerville, Jarvis, Hamiltons, Mitchells, Prestons, Miltons, and numerous others.

There are 36 Butlers, but only one Butt. Carpenters 7, Carters 22, Cooks 33, Coopers 18, four Crookers and three Crooks.

There are also 12 Days, two Weeks, and several Knights. There are Springs, Somers and Winters, also Norths, Souths, Wests and Easto's. Seven Crosses but only one Crossley are found in the book.

There is only one Farmer, but several Fields. Others under the "F" order are as follows: Fish 2, Fishers 4, Fishleigh 1, Finns 2, Finnimore 1

All told 9 English appear but are outnumbered by 36 Scots and four Savages. There are 15 Sharps and 6 Strongs, also 5 Shavers. There are 3 Sleeths, 1 Slemin but no Sleuths. Then comes 2 Snows, 2 Raines and 2 Sparks. There are 2 Sweets, 2 Stones, 24 Stewards, 5 Steves and 3 Stovers. There are 30 Walkers and 1 Walker-ville, 16 Wards, 21 Watsons and 17 Watt's, Weavers 10, Webbs 4, but only 1 Webber also 2 Waggs but only 1 Waghorn. There are 4 Large's, 4 Small's and 1 Smalley, 1 Will, 4 Wilkes and 50 Wilson's, 2 Wolfe's also Lyon's and 40 Wood's, 4 Yules and a Somers.

Last of all there are Underwoods and Uptegroves, two Torry's but sad to relate no Grits.

FINE EVENT

Annual At Home of Business College Was Held Friday Evening.

The Brantford Business College held their annual at-home and banquet in their school rooms Friday evening. A very unique programme, which was concluded about eleven o'clock, entertained the pupils and their guests for the first part of the evening. The Empire Orchestra supplied the music for the evening in a very capable manner. During the evening the very popular Congregational quartette consisting of Messrs Green, Styles, Kerr and Crooker, rendered several selections in their usual fine style. Mr. Martin also sang in a very pleasing manner. Others who rendered vocal numbers were Miss Fuller, Mr. Morris, Miss Seeley. A very novel item was interspersed throughout the programme, namely, promenades, for each of which a subject was announced by the chairman for the promenaders to discuss. These were quite popular, judging from the enthusiasm of some. Following the program, the Collegians adjourned to their quarters upstairs where Caterer Crum had prepared a dainty supper, such as only the proprietor of the Tea Pot Inn can prepare. About one hundred and twenty-five in all sat down at the long tables. In the course of half an hour the attack started to ease off to some extent. But this was not all. Subsequent to the banquet proper, a dance was held in the large rooms down stairs, many of the younger folks staying till the wee sma' hours.

The Empire Orchestra supplied the music for the dance in a very acceptable manner.

Mr. Rowe made a very capable chairman, while Mr. Day, the active principal, acted in the capacity of director of affairs.

The electric lights threatened to spoil the evening on one or two occasions, but came on again.

Music and Drama

Few plays on the boards to-day can parallel the record of success achieved by "In Old Kentucky," scheduled for an appearance at the Grand Opera House on the evening of Wednesday the 19th. Its popularity is widespread and its fame is enduring. The tendency of latter-day dramatists to write upon themes of immediate current interest, does not always result in the sort of play that appeals through a decade of continuous presentation. "In Old Kentucky" seemingly was written for all time and to fit all changes in public taste. When its dramatic merit and generous supply of excellent features are considered, it is difficult to account for its continued prosperity. It tells a delightful story.

SURELY SETTLES UPSET STOMACHS

"Pape's Diapiesin" ends Indigestion, Gas, Sourness in five minutes.

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that just that—makes Pape's Diapiesin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul, tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste; remember the moment Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.

Miller's Worm Powders act mildly and without injury to the child and there can be no doubt of their steady effect upon worms. They have been in successful use for a long time and are recognized as a leading preparation for the purpose. They have proved their power in numberless cases and have given relief to thousands of children, who, but for the good offices of this superior compound would have continued weak and enfeebled.

Charges of Liberals as a Pancake

Dastardly Plot Revealed
jure Secretary of S

OTTAWA, March 19.—The last two weeks of a welcome calm prevailed in the Commons to-day. Navy question will not be touched until after the recess.

When the House meets tomorrow, supplementary estimates will be taken up and motioned to carry on the business for the remaining weeks of the current fiscal year. Little discussion is expected these estimates and front probably be dealt with at 11 o'clock to-morrow evening. The House rises until after the recess. The future of the Navy question depends on what developments occur in the time.

OTTAWA, March 18.—The main object of the motion intended to do to Hon. Coderre, Secretary of State, mention a couple of other Ministers, over the conduct of Hochelaga bye-election, fourth an attenuated and un House yesterday.

The charge made by Gauthier, of St. Hyacinthe, an organized system of perjury was carried on in the chiefly by Emile Bourassa, Hon. and Elie Lalumiere, the declaration and prompt Mr. Coderre and his agents would be regarded with most public positions; that after their investigation the Sec State with exposure unless wards were forthcoming; the House and Lalumiere each as one of the "Coders" and that Bourassa obtained an eminent position, Mr. Gauthier for an investigation before House Committee on Privileges and Immunities.

Hon. Louis Coderre on bench charge made and a number of votes in support of it, immediately the whole story an absolute complete denial and, follows custom in such cases, left the her.

Took It All Back.

The Liberal charge against the Secretary of State did not stand. Hon. C. J. J. Minister of Justice, produced affidavits from the same whose declarations had been Mr. Gauthier denying the truth statements first signed and they said they had not understood. They denied that a system of perjury had been organized peroration had existed with these two sets of affidavits from the same men, statements the charges were there could be no prima facie case, the proper course would be to refer the matter to the which alone had jurisdiction in questions.

Mr. Gauthier declined to withdraw his motion and Sir Wilfrid P. laid much emphasis upon the Government employment, Mr. Borden then stated that no appointment had been made or would be made.

The debate ran on until 1:15 Gauthier concluding by declaring willingness to go before the Pelee and Elections Committee, a majority of his opponents prove his charges or take his motion. The House then divided on a vote of 87 to 54.

The Secretary of State then addressed the Chamber and was given a enthusiastic reception by Conservative members.

One Minute Interviews

Ald. McFarland—"Commendable progress is being made in every way connection with the local Hydro Electric construction plans."

H. H. Powell, Manager Gas Company—"There is no doubt but the Dominion Gas Company has been too good and plenty to meet the main, which has already been twice broken by floods."

The seventeenth of Ireland evening which claimed Mr. and Mrs. C. Spence as hostesses last evening was a most brilliant affair—particulars of the event will appear in Saturday's issue of The Courier in addition to other social affairs of same date.
