

Germany Declares "State of War"

STATE OF WAR NOW DECLARED BY KAISER

As King of Prussia He Signed Document Today - Military Has Charge of Entire German Government

[By Special Wire to the Courier] LONDON, July 31.—A despatch from Berlin to Reuter's Telegram Company, says that a state of war has been proclaimed in Germany.

bear the brunt of the burden in case hostilities should be decided on. Meanwhile the German Government put forth the greatest exertions to prevent the spread of alarming rumors and false news.

SERVIAN CAPITAL WHICH IS IMPERILLED AND CHIEF OF STAFF WHO WAS ARRESTED IN FIRST WAR MOVE

Declaration of war between Austria-Hungary and Serbia, which threatens the peace of all Europe, has been announced in despatches from Vienna. Now that war actually exists, every chancellery of Europe is striving frantically to confine the struggle to the two principals and avoid the embroilment of France, Russia and England on the one side and of Germany and Italy on the other.

RUSSIA IS ALL AGLOW WITH SPIRIT OF WAR

Crowds Parade Streets All Night and People of All Classes Rush to Mobilization Offices.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] ST. PETERSBURG, July 31.—The population of the Russian capital kept awake throughout the night, and the streets resounded with the din of patriotic demonstrations.

shouted for the emperor and the army. Impromptu meetings were held in all parts of the city and the suburbs, and orators roused their audiences to an unprecedented frenzy of enthusiasm.

TEN PER CENT. FOR ADVANCES IS CHARGED

A BIG REDUCTION

Unprecedented State of Affairs in London Banking Situation.

Was Made in Assessment of Stratford Property by the Judge.

[By Special Wire to the Courier.] LONDON, July 31.—The banking situation in London has become so abnormal that it is understood the British cabinet at its meeting to-day discussed the possibility of taking measures to prevent a possible panic.

His Honor Judge Hardy reduced the assessment placed upon the property of the Joseph Stratford estate by the Brantford township from $48,000 to $18,000 when the appeal against assessment was heard at the county court house yesterday.

IT MEANS WAR

LONDON, JULY 31.—THE MOMENTOUS ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE BY PREMIER ASQUITH IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TO-DAY THAT RUSSIA HAD PROCLAIMED THE GENERAL MOBILIZATION OF HER ARMY AND FLEET AND IN CONSEQUENCE, MARTIAL LAW HAD BEEN PROCLAIMED IN GERMANY AND A GENERAL MOBILIZATION IN GERMANY WOULD FOLLOW.

Crisis Has Now Reached Its Most Acute Stage

Declaration of War by Russia and Germany May Come at Any Moment, Although Conversations Are in Progress for Peace.

[By Special Wire to the Courier.] "Conversations" were resumed by the Russian and Austrian Governments. Martial law was proclaimed throughout Germany.

LONDON, July 31.—Official announcement of the resumption of the "conversations" at St. Petersburg and Vienna came at the moment when pessimism had taken entire possession of the whole of Europe and the hope that it might lead to a peaceable solution, but the news was offset later in the day by the proclamation of martial law in Germany which was regarded as a preliminary to the mobilization of the German forces for war.

JURY BLAMES DOCTOR IN TAMWORTH CASE

Verdict at the Inquest Declares That Blanche Yorke Succumbed to Criminal Operation.

TAMWORTH, July 31.—Dr. Clifford K. Robinson, the young Kingston physician, who attempted to establish a practice in Tamworth about five months ago, was declared by a coroner's jury yesterday afternoon to have caused the death of Blanche Lillian Yorke, the young dressmaker who disappeared on the night of July 8th, and whose mutilated body was found in the cellar of the doctor's residence on Tuesday last.

POLITICAL PARTIES BURY DIFFERENCES WHEN WAR STALKS

Home Rule Question Quite Agreeably Deferred-Naval Vote Sidetracked.

LONDON, July 31.—The political forces of the country are all mobilized solidly, presenting in Premier Asquith's words to the House of Commons yesterday, a 'solid front.' The spectacle of a solid front in support of the Government by all sections of the Irish members in the House of Commons was even more remarkable than the reconciliation of Mr. Asquith and Mr. Bonar Law. The traditional sentiment of the home rulers that England's extremity is Ireland's opportunity was buried when the Irish members murmured, "Hear, hear" to the Premier's plea for unity.

All Political Issues Sunk.

Not only the home rule question, but all measures likely to arouse party or international hostilities have been sidetracked. They include the naval vote, which inevitably excites discussion of Germany's policy, and the vote for imperial defence. Nevertheless there is a strong, although apparently a minority, feeling that Great Britain should maintain neutrality whatever comes, and refuse to be drawn into the quarrels of the continental powers.

Labor Strong for Peace.

The peace section of the Liberal party, which through past years of strained relations with Germany, has worked for reconciliation, and which often has been called 'The Little Englanders,' is taking a strong stand against the war. Its spokesmen in the press are the Manchester Guardian, one of the most powerful papers in England, and the Daily News, which is owned by a rich Quaker family named Cadbury. The Guardian said today:

"Rather than be guilty of this madness there is no constitutional measure of revolt which Englishmen ought not to use who think more of their duty to their own country than of the real or imaginary interests of Russian autocracy."

London Times Criticized

It regrets that the Times is for war, and still is regarded in Europe as speaking with the voice of the British Foreign Office.

The Labor party also opposes war unitedly. Its members in the House of Commons today adopted a resolution praising Sir Edward Grey for his attempt at mediation, and adding: "The Labor party hopes that on no condition will you be dragged into a conflict in which the Premier states we have no direct or indirect interest."

The resolution calls upon all labor organizations to oppose the war vigorously. Socialist committees have held meetings of protest against the war.

SUSPICIOUS OF DELHI'S MAYOR

Constable Brown Knocked Down Four Times Making Arrest.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The New York Telegraph's despatch this week from Delhi, Texas, follows:

Jeremiah Schultz, grand chief of the Benevolent Brothers, to which lodge all the prominent citizens of Delhi belong, says that Mayor Cyrus Perkins attempted a dastardly trick last week in connection with the animal barbecue of the organization. He vows he'll take the matter up with the lodge and have the mayor expelled.

Last Tuesday Mr. Schultz and the other members of the committee on arrangements for the barbecue, advertised for a steer to butcher. Six were offered, among them being one belonging to Mayor Walker. The price on the mayor's steer was very low. He called on the committee and said:

"I am offering this steer $30 below his value because I want my fellow lodge members to have a good time partially on me."

The committee was about to buy the mayor's steer when Walpole Whipple said he'd give the lodge one. It was the Whipple animal that was eaten. Yesterday the steer offered by the mayor died. Seth Klucas, the veterinarian, says it had been sick a long time.

Mayor Walker took the veterinarian's words as slander and ordered Constable Brown to arrest him. The officer of the law was knocked down four times, but he got Klucas' watch in the struggle and says he won't return it till his owner submits to arrest. The whole town is talking. There is much indignation.

CANADA AND WAR

Canada has wheat and other food products to sell. If there is a big war, the price of wheat and other food supplies will go up. The Canadian producers of wheat and other food supplies will get more money for their products. So far so good.

But Canada has to borrow money from England for public and private works. Canadian railways and Canadian municipalities have to sell bonds in the Old Country whenever they desire to draw upon their credit for development purposes. Many Canadian private corporations have to do the same thing.

But bonds, no matter how attractive will not sell when the stock market is in a war panic and high-dividend-paying securities are being thrown on the bargain counters. Failure to sell these Canadian bonds means that Canadian public works cannot be proceeded with. Failure to proceed with public works means unemployment.

High prices for wheat and other food supplies, coupled with unemployment, mean a falling off in the demand for everything but the necessities of life. That, in turn, means factories shut down or working half time.

Those who would feign believe that Canada stands to gain by the threatened great European war and those who think that Canadians will be able to look on with as much nonchalance as a crowd looks on at a baseball game, have a very great misapprehension of the true situation.

Canada can watch the war clouds only with the most serious anxiety.

PROPHETIC.

Subjoined is an extract from the speech of Premier Borden in the Dominion House, Dec. 5, 1912, when he submitted his proposed grant of naval aid to John Bull:

"To-day, while the clouds are heavy and we hear the booming of distant thunder and see the lightning flashes above the horizon, we cannot and we will not wait and deliberate until our impending storm shall have burst upon us in fury and with disaster. Almost unaided the motherland, not for herself alone, but for us as well, is sustaining the burden of a vital imperial duty and confronting an overwhelming necessity of national existence. Bringing the best assistance that we may in the urgency of the moment, we come thus to her aid in token of our determination to protect and insure the safety and integrity of this Empire, and of our resolve to defend on sea, as well as on land, our flag, our honor, and our heritage."

DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVES.

"Every despatch telling of the appearance of the army worm in any portion of Ontario announces that the fight against the invader is in the hands of the district representatives. To those who have not been in close touch with farming conditions for some years, the term may not be clear. Who is the district representative? What does he do, and whom does he represent, asks the Toronto News.

Seven years ago the Ontario Department of Agriculture was seeking for a plan to bring the farmers of the Province into closer touch with the Ontario Agricultural College. The minister desired to make the results of careful scientific research as widely available as possible. It was decided to open Government offices at as many points as possible and put in charge of each a graduate of the College, whose suggestion and advice would be at the service of the farmer. Over forty of such offices were established, as nearly as possible, one in each county. The young man sent to each post of observation made a special study of the district, its soil, the nature of its crops and its capabilities.

He preached the gospel of drainage and spraying. He organized Farmers' Institutes and Farmers' Clubs. He lent his aid for the organization of Women's Institutes. He advocated the establishment of Rural Schools. Fair as a means of interesting the boys and girls in the romance of agriculture. He did not press his technical knowledge upon the people, but when his opinion was asked he gave it freely and in full detail.

One applied himself specially to the problem of profitable marketing, and established egg circles, uniting producers on the farm and consumers in the city to their mutual advantage. Others preached co-operation and broke down gradually the walls of indifference which the farmers had built around themselves. The district representative became what the Government intended, a consulting farmer, whose expert advice was free to all.

The value of the plan has been proved to the hilt. The fact that one by one, these district representatives have been taken elsewhere by private companies at greater salaries than the Government can afford to pay makes it clear that the reputation of the young men is high. In one district the representative was about to leave, contributed $500 for the increase of his salary, so that he might be induced to stay another year. The salaries paid by the government range between $1,200 and $1,500. They are not large enough. Now that the system has proved itself the department should draft a regular salary scale providing for a more liberal minimum and for annual increases sufficiently large to keep the experts at work. To carry to each portion of the province a bottled supply of that fine enthusiasm which is brewed so plentifully at the Guelph Agricultural College is a fine thing."

Served in Death

In rounding the sweep of a road at Sherborne Park, Glos., a Northcowl chemist named Williams was thrown out of his motor car on Tuesday and killed.

Southport's New Lake

A new sea bathing lake, 400 feet by 200 feet wide, adjoining the marine drive on Southport foreshore, was formerly opened on Monday by Lord Derby.

Municipal Dwellings Unwanted

East Cowes ratepayers on Monday balloted on the question: Are you in favor of or against municipal dwellings being built by the council? The majority against was 107.

Swimming Bath Room

Owing to the hot weather 68,000 people have paid for admission to the Birmingham corporation baths. This beats the previous record for a week of $4,000 by 14,000.

Writ Server Shot

A Blackpool lawyer's clerk, Frank Hinchcliffe, 22, while serving a writ on a man in Osborne road, was seriously wounded by a revolver shot fired as soon as he opened the door. His alleged assailant, who had locked himself in the house was arrested.

Shot Through the Eye

Harry Chapman, son of the proprietor of the South Eastern Hotel, Redhill, was found shot through the eye, and with a revolver at his side, in his bedroom on Monday. He died in the hospital before an operation could be performed.

Maiming Renewed

At the same time that a postcard was received in Wolverhampton on Monday intimating that a maiming outrage would be committed in the district, two horses were found badly mutilated with a knife or a razor, in a field near the borough boundary. This fresh attack has caused renewed disquietude among horse owners.

Bulletins On War Flashed Over Wire

STRICT CENSORSHIP.

BERLIN, July 31.—All despatches regarded by the authorities as objectionable are now being returned to the senders and a rigid censorship on telegrams to all parts of the world has been put into operation.

RAILWAY GUARDED.

KOENIGSBERG, Germany, July 31.—The German military authorities have posted notices that the railroad station and tracks here have been placed under military guard. Nobody is allowed to approach nearer than a distance of 100 yards from the tracks and cutovers and an order says that civilians disobeying the sentries challenge will expose themselves to the danger of being shot down.

SPY ARRESTED.

ALLENSTEIN, Germany, July 31.—A Russian spy was arrested here today. He is said to belong to the St. Petersburg military intelligence department.

EXTRA EDITION STOPPED.

VIENNA, July 31.—The police authorities have forbidden the publication of extra editions of the newspapers and even the regular editions have not been permitted to refer to the occupation of Belgrade which is still not generally known. It has leaked out that the Austrian plan of campaign is to attack Serbia chiefly by way of Bosnia while the armies on the Danube in the north simply occupy positions and remain temporarily inactive.

SERVIANS LOST 23.

VIENNA, July 31.—Austrian frontier guards to-day repelled a strong attack by Servians near Klotievatz on the Bosnian frontier without sustaining loss. The Servians lost one officer and 22 men.

NO ORDER ISSUED.

BERLIN, July 31.—The German Foreign Office gave assurances this morning that no mobilization order would be issued by Germany to-day. Officials admitted, however, that the situation had not improved, but had become rather aggravated since the issue of the Russian mobilization order.

SERVIAN SYMPATHY

BARCELONA, Spain, July 31.—Great manifestations in favor of Serbia were organized here to-day but were dispersed by the police.

WILL STAY AT NEW YORK

HAMBURG, July 31.—Beside suspending the sailing from Hamburg of the Emperor it was reported to-day that the Hamburg-American line had also ordered the Vaterland to stay at New York and await the developments of the International situation. The other Hamburg-American liners, however, will continue the service. Shipping to Baltic ports has been entirely suspended.

AUSTRIANS REPULSED

LONDON, July 31.—An Exchange Telegraph Company from Nish, Serbia, via Saloniki, says that up till last night the Austrian invaders at Semendria had not succeeded in forcing the pass held by the Serbian troops, whose possession would give them access to the Morava River Valley and thus open up a direct road to Nish.

DESPERATE FIGHTING

LONDON, July 31.—Another despatch from Nish to the Exchange Telegraph Company says desperate fighting continues along the River Drina. Both Austrians and Servians have sustained heavy losses. The Austrian divisions after fighting all day failed to force the defile leading to Plevlje and Priepolie.

HOLLAND MOBILIZES

THE HAGUE, July 31.—Queen Wilhelmina of Holland this afternoon issued an urgent decree ordering the general mobilization of the Dutch army.

ACTIVE ON FRONTIER

PARIS, July 31.—Military movements on the German side of the frontier were very active to-day and the French covering troops sent out outposts. A German patrol at one point fully crossed the frontier probably owing to mistake.

BRITISH FLEET LEAVES

PEKING, July 31.—The British fleet to-day deserted Wei-Hei-Wei and sailed at Midday with sealed orders, thus fulfilling its long standing orders. The British considered the place not worth defending.

PHONES ARE CUT

LONDON, July 31.—A Central News despatch from Paris says telephonic communication between France and Germany has been interrupted since four o'clock this afternoon.

WAS TOO RISKY.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The following statement was given out by the directors of the Hamburg-American Line: "In view of the uncertainty of the present European situation, we have decided to postpone sailings of the Vaterland from New York, the America from Boston, August 1, and the Emperor from Hamburg, July 31. Due notice will be given of the eventual sailing dates."

BLEW UP BRIDGE

LONDON, July 31.—A Central News despatch from Berlin says the Russian troops to-day blew up the frontier railroad bridge of the Warsaw-Vienna Railroad.

APPOINTED TO COMMAND

BERLIN, July 31.—Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany was to-day appointed to the command of the first division of the principal Guards army corps.

NO MORE SAILINGS

NEW YORK, July 31.—The North German Lloyd Steamship Line announced to-day that none of its steamers would sail from New York until further notice.

FRANCE TAKES LINER

PARIS, July 31.—La Provence, of the French Trans-Atlantic Line was to-day requisitioned by the French minister of marine for the service of the Republic. She is to be armed at once, and therefore has been withdrawn at once from trans-Atlantic service. The France, which is not an auxiliary cruiser, will sail on Tuesday.

NEARLY CAUGHT HER

ATHENS, Greece, July 31.—The Montenegrin Royal Yacht Deglara was almost captured to-day by the Austrian fleet blockading Antivari. The yacht was approaching the port but when she sighted the blockading fleet, turned and fled. She was pursued by Austrian destroyers, but arrived safely at Corfu.

READY TO HELP

WELLINGTON, N.Z., July 31.—William F. Massey, prime minister of New Zealand, to-day announced to parliament that the government proposed to offer the services of an expeditionary force to the Imperial government if events necessitated it. All the members thereupon stood and sang "God Save the King."

RUSSIANS RETURNING.

TORONTO, July 31.—A car load of Russians passed through this city from the west to-day en route home, who had recall orders delivered to them three weeks ago telling them what to do and where to go. The order was that they be in Russia by August 15. A notice that British naval reserves in this city received a month ago would also indicate some fore-knowledge on the part of Britain. They were asked to confirm their addresses and forward medical certificates stating whether they were fit for service. Many Austrians reservists are passing through the city from the north and west under recall orders stating that their passage will be provided. It is supposed that a transport will take them from Montreal. The local Servians have received no word yet.

which would be easily accessible from the main line of the Lake Erie and Northern Railway on a building on Jubilee Terrace. We could not find a suitable location for the railway elsewhere. The same reason does not apply in connection with the station. The Company can find a suitable location for the station without damage to the public Terrace, as would undoubtedly occur if the Company's application was granted. In my view, the location the Company now apply for, for its station, is inconvenient and unsuitable and would be injurious to Jubilee Terrace; and I think the application should be refused.

In my opinion the Railway Company should be informed that the Board will not divert from the Order of the 16th April, 1913.

INSTANTLY KILLED

QUEBEC, July 31.—Emile De Beaumont, a joiner, was instantly killed while working on a building on Couillard St. to-day when he touched a live wire. He leaves a wife and family.

PALE AND SICKLY BOYS AND GIRLS

Need All the Strength That Good Red Blood Can Give

Youth is the time to lay the foundation for health. Every boy and girl should have plenty of pure red blood and strong nerves. With thin impure blood they start life with a handicap too great to win success and happiness. Pure red blood means healthful growth, strong nerves, a clear brain and a good digestion. In a word pure blood is the foundation of health.

The signs of thin, impure blood are many and unmistakable. The pale irritable boy or girl, who has no appetite or ambition, is always tired out melancholy, short of breath, and who does not grow strong is the victim of anaemia or bloodlessness, the greatest enemy of youth.

There is just one thing to do for these boys and girls—build up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. You can't afford to experiment with other remedies for there must be no guesswork in the treatment of anaemia. Thorough neglect or wrong treatment anaemia gradually develops into pernicious form which is practically incurable. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills work directly on the blood, giving it just the elements which it lacks. In this way these pills build up every organ and nerve in the body, thus developing strong rugged boys and girls. Miss Anna Loseke, Grand Forks, B.C. says "I think that before taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I was one of the most miserable girls alive. I was hardly ever free from awful headaches, was as pale as a ghost, and could not go upstairs without stopping to rest. Now since taking the pills the headaches have gone, my appetite is good and I am equal to almost any exertion, and you may be sure I will always recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail, post paid at 50 cents a box or 6 boxes for $2.50 by writing direct to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont.

Pleasant Party
 A merry little canoeing party was held last night at Mohawk Park when the pavilion was prettily decorated in honor of Miss Edmondson of Woodstock who is leaving for her home after being the holiday guest of Miss Bloxham Echo Place. Dainty refreshments were served up and enjoyed by all. Chaperones of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Morrow.

Head Their Picnic.
 Yesterday the Anglican Church congregation from Echo Place held their annual picnic to Whiteman's Creek where a splendid day outing was spent. Sports of every description rewarded by useful prizes passed the time quickly, while a peanut and candy scramble caused considerable fun, this year's picnic surpassing in numbers and sociability any previously held.

Many Canoeists Out
 The canal and Mohawk Lake is fast becoming popular for local canoeists and launch parties. Last night there were a number of canoes out and many of the city's young people are beginning to find out that they don't have to travel twenty or thirty miles to get good boating grounds. Never before have there been so many campers at the park and it will be some day a paying concern for whoever gets a hold of it, either the city or the Brantford and Hamilton railroad.

Will Attend To-day's Game.
 J. J. McCaffery, president of the Toronto Internationals, and Joe Kelly the manager, arrived in the city last evening to attend the game this afternoon between the Red Sox and the Toronto Beavers. It is said that McCaffery is looking for new men and may make an offer for both Auld and Chase, who will pitch to-day's game.

NEW MOTOR TRUCK

Fire and Light Committee Decides on Matter at Meeting.

The first real forward step towards the purchasing of a motor truck for the city fire department was taken at the meeting of the fire and light committee of the city council held yesterday afternoon, Chairman Ald. T. E. Ryerson presided.

The committee decided that they will approach the council on Monday evening to give them the authority to investigate in regard to the purchasing of a truck and report back to the city council.

It was pointed out that the large number of long runs the firemen have particularly up the hill make a truck absolutely necessary. Other cities, much smaller than Brantford have the trucks and the general feeling among the citizens seems to be that it is not only a much needed, but an urgent improvement.

With the City Police

Magistrate Livingston is determined to stamp out cruelty to animals and he declared himself thus at the court this morning when a charge of cruelty to horse against Henry Elliott of Burtch's Corners was investigated.

Defendant pleaded "Not Guilty" and said he was not aware that he had ill-treated his horses, which were better looked after than the majority of farmers horses.

Dr. Cutcliffe testified that the horses had fallen at the Market and Colborne street corner and upon examination he found one of the horses had sores upon its shoulders, which he thought would cause great pain to the animal.

Witnesses for the defence testified that such sores became deadened and painless with movement and that they thought no cruelty had been inflicted. Two veterinary surgeons testified that the horses were in working condition and defendant said that the sores on the shoulders had been open and strained by the fall on the corner.

The bench held that defendant must have known he had caused some pain to the horse, although he might not have so intended. A fine of $4 and costs was imposed.

P. C. Cobden noticed some photographic dye lying beside the Belmont yesterday and he kept an eye upon it. After some hours a young fellow took it and said he was taking it to his pals, who owned it. When taken to the said pals the constable discovered them in the midst of a scrap and Harry Ashford of London, was fined $3 this morning for his part of the performance while a warrant will be issued for Jos. Prince of Hamilton, the other offender.

Walter Podd got upon the outside of too much red wine yesterday and smashed a window of the house of Mrs. Marshall, West Brantford. He pleaded guilty at the court and got off with costs.

Harry Foster was hitting it up high in an automobile on George street, a few days ago and this morning declared when charged with a breach of the Motor Act that his speedometer never registered more than 14 miles "Then it wants correcting" said the Magistrate and defendant responded that it was in perfect condition, to which the bench remarked if that was so, then defendants eyes were not. The need of witnesses necessitated an adjournment.

CZAR CALLS COUNCIL

ST. PETERSBURG, July 31.—The Emperor of Russia to-day gave an audience to the German ambassador and subsequently presided a full council of ministers, attended by the chief of the army general staff.

Dry Again.

Colborne street was dry again this morning when the main crossing, Bridge, was broken by the bank falling away beneath it. This is the second time this has occurred and as it happens without warning it causes the residents on Colborne street particularly barber shops a great deal of inconvenience. The supply was off this morning from seven to eleven.

Clerks Again Defeated.

The Clerks Softball team again went down to defeat by the Ham and Nott team last evening at Agricultural Park by the score of 5-3. For six innings Woolams, the Clerks' pitcher, with good support held the H. and N. bunch scoreless, and at the end of the sixth the score was 2-0 in the clerks favor. In the seventh the factory men got to Woolams real hard, and with errors by the Clerks, collected five runs in that inning. The Clerks scored one more in their half of the seventh and from then on each side was retired quickly. The batteries were: Clerks, Woolams, Klersey; Ham and Nott, Simmons and Wright.

Simcoe Proved Easy.

The Simcoe Tennis Club were found to be very easy by the representatives of the Dufferin Club when they met at the latter's courts yesterday. So easy in fact was the opposition that the Duffs obtained eight out of the nine points to be gained, only one set of singles going to Simcoe. The majority of the sets were taken by such scores as 6-1, 6-2, and 6-3. This easy step advances the local club another stage in the Western Ontario Championship contest. The form displayed by the Duffs has created some interest and yesterday the president of the W.O.L.T.A., Mr. Chas. H. Reed, was present to witness the fight put up by the men of his home, Simcoe, and he has gone away with a high opinion of the calibre of Brantford tennis players.

Dry Again.
 Colborne street was dry again this morning when the main crossing, Bridge, was broken by the bank falling away beneath it. This is the second time this has occurred and as it happens without warning it causes the residents on Colborne street particularly barber shops a great deal of inconvenience. The supply was off this morning from seven to eleven.

Clerks Again Defeated.
 The Clerks Softball team again went down to defeat by the Ham and Nott team last evening at Agricultural Park by the score of 5-3. For six innings Woolams, the Clerks' pitcher, with good support held the H. and N. bunch scoreless, and at the end of the sixth the score was 2-0 in the clerks favor. In the seventh the factory men got to Woolams real hard, and with errors by the Clerks, collected five runs in that inning. The Clerks scored one more in their half of the seventh and from then on each side was retired quickly. The batteries were: Clerks, Woolams, Klersey; Ham and Nott, Simmons and Wright.

Simcoe Proved Easy.
 The Simcoe Tennis Club were found to be very easy by the representatives of the Dufferin Club when they met at the latter's courts yesterday. So easy in fact was the opposition that the Duffs obtained eight out of the nine points to be gained, only one set of singles going to Simcoe. The majority of the sets were taken by such scores as 6-1, 6-2, and 6-3. This easy step advances the local club another stage in the Western Ontario Championship contest. The form displayed by the Duffs has created some interest and yesterday the president of the W.O.L.T.A., Mr. Chas. H. Reed, was present to witness the fight put up by the men of his home, Simcoe, and he has gone away with a high opinion of the calibre of Brantford tennis players.

BREEZY BUDGET FROM BUSY PARIS

(From our own Correspondent)
 PARIS, July 31.—Mr. John B. Clarke, formerly of Paris, has again maintained his reputation as a successful teacher. He sent four entrance pupils from Rockford school to Waterloo, where they all successfully passed their examination.

This week Mr. and Mrs. John Price who have resided in Paris for the last four years, are leaving for Guelph, where Mr. Price has secured a good position. Before leaving, Mrs. Price was presented with a silver butter dish by her fellow employees in the sweater department.

A quiet wedding was solemnized recently in St. James church when Miss Ida May Thompson was married to Mr. Albert E. Pitchard, Rev. C. C. Purton officiated.

Wednesday, August 12th is to be civic holiday here. This will enable a good contingent to spend a day in Brantford during the old home week there.

Mr. Mitchell, student of Brantford, is to take charge of the services on Sunday in St. James', Anglican church here.

Prior to her marriage, Miss Beatrice Smith, was presented with a handsome set of fruit dishes, also a cream and sugar set, by her girl friends in No. 3 finishing room, Penman's, Limited.

Dr. and Mrs. Gould and family returned from Kincairdine on Monday. The many friends of the doctor will be pleased to learn that he has fully recovered from his recent serious illness and has again resumed his practice here.

Clerks Defeated 5 to 3
 The clerks met defeat at the hands of the Ham and Nott brigade last night when a fast game of softball was put up. The fielding of the clerks was a feature of the game, they snapped up everything that was possible and it was only an unfortunate break in the last inning that gave Hams the victory. Playing the better game the clerks gained a lead of two runs and it looked like a shut-out for the factory men. In the last inning with two men out a high fly was dropped in the outfield and this was the first of five runs collected by Hams' who ran out winners by 5 to 3, the clerks getting a run in their last innings.

CANADA WOULD ADD 'THE OLD GREY MOTHER'

Preliminary Plans to Mobilize 25,000 Troops if Necessary - A Military Council at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, July 31.—Canada is getting ready to back up Great Britain to the full extent of the Dominion's defence resources in case the Empire is drawn into the European struggle. An emergency meeting of the Militia Council was held yesterday, with Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes presiding. The Minister of Militia, who had been hurriedly summoned yesterday from his home in Lindsay in consequence of communications from the British War Office, took prompt charge of preliminary preparations for calling out with all expedition a first contingent of 20,000 or 25,000 men from Canada or any lesser number to join the Imperial army as soon as the call for help comes.

Col. Fisset, Deputy Minister; Gen. Macdonald, Master of Ordnance; Col. G. Warkin, Chief of Staff; Col. Williams, Adjutant-General; Col. Morrison, Director of Artillery, and Col. Smith, Judge Advocate General, were present at the meeting.

The British War Office has been advised that it can rely on quick action by the Canadian militia forces. It is understood that similar assurances have also been given by Australia.

Plans for Mobilization Ready
The Militia Headquarters Staff have plans for speedy mobilization already prepared, and every official has been instructed as to what his duties shall be in case word comes from London asking for a Canadian contingent. The units of the permanent force at Halifax and Esquimaux and other points have been ordered to be ready for mobilization orders. As a preliminary precaution the Halifax garrison has been promptly brought back from the camp at Aldershot to their barracks and fort stations at the Halifax Citadel. At the same time, however, there is no disposition on the part of the authorities here to unduly raise a war scare, and beyond having plans prepared for a prompt mobilization in case of necessity nothing further is contemplated at the present moment.

Col. Hughes says that a Canadian first contingent of from 20,000 to 30,000 men could be mobilized and ready to sail within two or three weeks. It is said that the minister would go himself in command of the troops.

The Militia Department says that there would be no delay at all in mobilizing and adequately equipping at least 20,000 men. At Petawawa this summer 13,000 troops were mobilized within a week, and there was scarcely a hitch.

No Immediate Haste
As an evidence, however, of the fact that no further active preparations for war are to be made at present it may be noted that Col. Hughes left for Bracebridge last night where he will speak at a banquet to-day. He does not expect to return to the capital until Monday. Brigadier-General Macdonald, head of the Militia Supplies Branch, has also decided that there is no necessity for changing his plans for a western tour of inspection, starting on Saturday next.

Premier Borden will probably return to the capital from Muskoka early next week, but he has been advised that there is no immediate necessity for his presence here.

"Made in Brantford" Will Be Slogan of Exhibition

Some 35 of the leading manufacturers of Brantford gathered at the Old Home Week headquarters in the Temple Building this morning to make further arrangements for the holding of the "made in Brantford" industrial exhibition to be held in the Armories during Old Home Week. Ald F. Calbeck, chairman of the Industrial committee presided and the meeting was, indeed, a very enthusiastic one, and if there were any doubts as to the success of the exhibition, they were surely dispelled by this morning's meeting. Some 38 manufacturers have already taken their space in the Armories for their exhibit and many more are coming. The first thing decided on was to have some sort of drawing card at the exhibition continuously and it was decided that in addition to the bands, which will be present, coupons will be issued on the admission tickets, which cost ten cents and these coupons will serve as draws for a drawing contest, in which three or four valuable premiums will be given away in addition to several minor ones. To-night a committee from the general exhibition committee will meet at the armories and arrange for further sites for exhibitors.

ALL COLONIES WILL FIGHT IF NECESSARY

Great Spirit is Revealed in the Press of Australia and New Zealand.

MONTREAL, July 31.—Answering cables requests from The Montreal Star for opinions as to what actions the dominions should take if Britain is involved in an European war editors of papers in Australia and New Zealand send the following replies:

SYDNEY, July 31.—The Sydney Morning Herald—All dominions should place their whole naval military and material resources at the disposal of the crown wherever required.

PERTH, W. A. July 31.—The Daily News says: "In time of grave danger we consider the dominions should strain every nerve, give every penny, and send every man to assist the motherland thus repaying in some degree that assistance and care given throughout times of trouble and tranquility which enabled dominions to become what they are. The war should be an empire one—by it we all must stand or fall."

MELBOURNE, July 31.—The Argus says: "Australia is intensely concerned and awaits Britain's call. Our fleet is available if required."

BRISBANE, July 31.—The Brisbane Courier says: "Ours is no fair-weather allegiance, the dominions must aid to the last man and the last shilling."

AUCKLAND, July 31.—The Auckland Star says: "All dominion parliaments should discuss question and give strong lead to the people and public sentiment to support voluntary contingents, garrison the British Isles, India, and relieve the Imperial requirements in operations in Europe if required."

WELLINGTON, July 31.—The Dominion says: "Dominions best assistance, ensuring maintenance of food, coal supplies. If required expeditionary forces. In parliament to-night the Premier intimated the readiness of New Zealand to send volunteer expeditionary forces, which will under the defence system be coordinated with Imperial defences. Referring to Canada, he said, 'Well done, Canada.' The members then rose spontaneously and sang, 'God Save the King.'"

Y.M.C.A. LADS BACK FROM LAKE And They All Look Pretty Healthy After Their Outing.

Seventy-five healthy looking boys, full of life and invigorated by a ten days sojourn in camp, arrived back in the city at eight o'clock last night. They were all Y. M. C. A. boys and had been camping at Dunnville where they enjoyed one of the finest camp outings that has ever been promoted by the Y. M. C. A.

The camp was, from the departure of the advance guard to the return to the city, a success without precedent. Everything went well, the transport on the G. T. R. was expeditious, the cooking was splendid and the regime magnificent.

Every day was filled in with games of some description while boating, canoeing, joy-riding and launch driving all formed part of the pleasures of the camp. It was a camp of fun, there were no stringent restrictions—everyone was free for the greater part of the day and it says much for the respect which Scoutmaster McFarlan commands that he successfully brought the festivities to an end without a loss of discipline. This was the reason that no accidents marred the life of the campers.

Every morning after prayers, there was a tent inspection and a pennant was given to those possessing the neatest shelter. Among the successes of the holiday was parents day, when over 40 fond adults visited the scene of the settlement and expressed great satisfaction at all they saw. Rev. A. L. Lavell visited on Thursday and stayed awhile and put his entertaining talents to the test by the camp fire at night. His efforts were most heartily applauded. The boys received a compliment, but rarely given, when they attended St. John Parish Church on Sunday last, having trooped 1-2 miles under a scorching sun. The pastor of the little church which was the scene of the service, said he would remember the Brantford boys for their kindness.

The sport of the fair was provided with treasure hunts, the boys being given a clue to the treasure which usually was a box of candies or some juicy fruit.

Twice, fishermen of the bay took the boys out in launches while Mr. Robert Kerr of Dunnville, took them out for a trip on his powerful launch. The boys were defeated in a baseball game 10 to 6 by a bunch of farmers who proved experts with the bat and ball. Shurt however, twirled great slants for the 'Y' and the farmers had a job to connect.

Leaving the camp the boys crowded upon three large hay racks and a pleasant six mile jaunt brought them back to the station whence they embarked for home a fairly tanned lot.

Important to Travellers.
Because a passenger gave his luggage into the care of a porter three-quarters of an hour before his train started, the L. and Y. Railway Company contended when he sued at Manchester on Monday that they were not liable for a lost parcel, valued at 28 pounds. Three-quarters of an hour they said, was an unreasonable time for luggage to be in a porter's custody, but the judge held that there was negligence and gave judgment for the plaintiffs, with costs on the higher scale.

Arson Charge
A coach builder named Chippington was remanded on Monday at Southend on a charge of setting fire to his premises in the High street at Rayleigh where £1,700 damage was done. It was alleged that he told a jobmaster named Padney that he intended to have a "bust-up" and invited him to put a trap in his stables saying that the insurance companies could afford to pay. Chippington pleaded not guilty.

The New York Stock Exchange will remain open. Militants again attempt to enter Buckingham Palace.

CRISIS NOW REACHED

It is impossible for the Servians in the time of their disposal to have crossed the Drina and advanced twenty miles within Austrian territory. It is also argued that the announcement of 500,000 Austrian soldiers being on the march into Servia is practically impossible and it is said that Austria cannot have 500,000 men on the move in less than six weeks.

While there has been little or no excitement such as might have been witnessed in other cities during a financial crisis of the dimensions of that which London is going through, the scenes in the city to-day were unlike any since the great Gurney Bank failure for $5,000,000, in 1866, when the government found it necessary to suspend the Bank Act so that the Bank of England would not be compelled to pay gold for its notes. During the Indian mutiny in 1857, the Bank Act also was suspended, and the rate rose to 10 percent.

The main entrance to the Bank of England was besieged by holders of notes, waiting to have them changed into gold, and in the afternoon the crowd became so great that the gold laced officials formed the people into lines in the big quadrangle. Most of them were messengers from the smaller banks or from business houses but occasionally there was a white aproned butcher's boy rubbing shoulders with a city magnate.

At the other frontage of the bank, which is not far from the stock exchange, dozens of two-horse drays were drawn up awaiting their turn to get into the gate to be loaded with gold and silver which the banks throughout London were getting in exchange for Bank of England notes held by them. The street was lined by policemen, not so much in fear of a panic, as to prevent the purloining of the canvas bags which contained the much sought-after currency.

The opinion was general that the Bank Act would be suspended as it was argued that when the gold once got out of the hands of the bank there was nothing to prevent it being sent abroad.

It was also understood that the bank was preparing to issue £1 notes to take the place of sovereigns.

[By Special Wire to The Courier.]
BERLIN, July 31.—The morning passed without the heavy cloud over the European horizon breaking and there was no relief to the almost despairing uncertainty existing in the German capital where the excitement continued to increase.

It had been generally expected that to-day would bring the decision for peace or war and when a decree was promulgated proclaiming martial law and consequent military government, all began to think that armed conflict could be the only outcome.

Government officials, however, refrained from making any definite declaration, saying they preferred to wait till all the resources of diplomacy had been exhausted. It was well understood that the issue of an order for the mobilization of the German forces would be tantamount to a declaration of war and it was decided to postpone this action until the last possible moment in which there was a ray of hope for peace.

It was admitted that the situation had become worse during the last 24 hours, but the fact that both Germany and France issued official denials of their intention to mobilize was regarded as a favorable sign that everything possible was being done to prevent a clash.

It was evident everywhere to-day that the military authorities were quietly preparing for the speedy moving of troops in case the order for mobilization should be given.

At many of the banks in Berlin this morning army officers were seen making financial preparations for their separation from their families while many women were there to deposit their valuables in the safety vaults.

Saxony came back to Dresden from Switzerland.

"You think our confidential clerk should be watched?" inquired Mr. Skilds. "I've always thought he was above suspicion."

Invalid Saves Boy
Great heroism was displayed on Monday at Wheelock, near Sandbach, by an invalid man named Haynes, who plunged into the canal to save a boy named Bickerton who slipped into the water while reaching for butterflies.

Weybridge Tragedy
Wm. Redhouse, known to a large circle of London friends and acquaintances as "Tom Redhouse," formerly proprietor of the Ship Hotel, Weybridge, was found dead hanging from a bedpost at Vigo House, Weybridge, on Monday morning. He was due to appear before the Registrar at Kingston Bankruptcy Court on Tuesday for his adjourned public examination.

Geetel Footpad
George R. Young, a London racket and professional singer, while walking near Bell Weir Lock about half past ten on Sunday evening was accosted by a tall, well-dressed stranger, who inquired the way to a certain hangar. The clerk turned back with the stranger to direct him, and was the point of leaving him when he was felled by a blow from an umbrella, causing him to fall unconscious to the ground. When he recovered he missed his purse and 7 pounds 10s.

FRANCE READY TO SPRING IF GERMANY MOVES

No French Troops Have Approached Border Within Six Miles.

(By Special Wire to The Courier.) PARIS, July 31.—In no case has any considerable force of French troops advanced closer to the German frontier than a distance of six miles. The French foreign office officials were considerably more pessimistic to-day because as they explained the gravity of the situation was increasing with the lapse of each day.

At the same time it was said that it must not be assumed that all hope of a peaceful solution had vanished. The French Government, it was asserted, would leave nothing undone to bring about this object. France, it was pointed out, rather than seem to be in the least provocative is foregoing the justifiable advantage an early mobilization of her army would give her and will not make any move until after Germany has done so.

The slight amount of hope perceptible is based on problematical contingencies. There has been much talk of Germany approaching Austria and Russia, it is explained, but the fact is, according to official information that Germany has done nothing and clear and definite action on the part of Germany alone can open a way out of the crisis.

Campers Return The Y. M. C. A. campers at Dunnville return to the city and their homes to-night, after having spent one of the finest holidays under canvas it is possible to imagine. The boys were held down by no restrictions, and except for morning and evening prayer and a short drill they were free to ramble, swim or do just as they pleased. Scout Master McFarlane has had a busy time taking parties of young naturalists into the woods and explaining plant and animal life to them fully.

Board of Works. The regular meeting of the City Board of Works was held last evening Ald. G. A. Ward presiding. It was a short session and the business done was rather lighter than usual. It was decided to purchase another car of oil for the city streets, as it had proved very successful. The committee decided to meet in conference a committee from the Township Council in reference to a walk on the east side of West street from city limits to Mt. Hope cemetery. The rest of the business was merely routine.

RUSHED TO THE BRANTFORD HOSPITAL WITH LEG OFF

Agent Hayes at Canfield Junction Met With a Serious Accident—Freight Train Brought Him to This City.

As the result of an accident he met and carried into the caboose when first aid was rendered by the crew men. The train was bound through Brantford, nearly 35 miles distant but the nearest point at which a hospital could be located and the train made a record run here arriving at 2.50. Sergeant Wallace and Constable Cox, agent Hayes of Canfield lies in the Brantford General Hospital with his left leg severed below the knee and a bad wound on the side of his skull. He is also suffering severely from shock.

It was Mr. Hayes' custom to go down to Dunnville two or three times for provisions and ride back to Canfield Junction on through Freight No. 89 from Fort Erie. This freight slows down for the interlock at Canfield and Mr. Hayes had made it a habit to jump off when the train slowed down. Last night he was riding on the tenth car back from the engine and as the train slowed down for the junction he jumped, but his foot slipped and the left leg was caught underneath the wheels, severing it just below the knee. He was picked up by the crew and rushed to the hospital where he received immediate treatment. He was quite conscious at the station here and acted in a manner that won the admiration of all the crew standing around. Agent Hayes is one of the best known men in the Grand Trunk service in western Ontario. He was for a number of years stationed at Welland.

His condition was reported as favorable at the hospital this morning.

Mottos to Order. Montreal Daily Mail. —Of late years publishers in London, Edinburgh, and New York have issued many beautiful series of illuminated texts from the Bible, from Shakespeare, Tennyson, Emerson and other poets and sages. These mottoes have become time-worn, so that here and there an illuminator executes mottoes chosen or written by a teacher, a student, or a plain ordinary household, who wishes to decorate his library or den in an unconventional way. Not far from the Mail building is an illuminator who this month completed a few mottoes of an unusual cast radiant in gold and colors. Here are some of them:—

Be happy and you will be good. Let us honor truth by use.—Emerson. "I see no shadows," saith the sun; yet he casts them on every one. The time to be happy is now; the place to be happy is here; the way to be happy is to make others happy. It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer; but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.—Proverbs, xx, 14. Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might.—Ecclesiastes, ix, 10. If thou hast heard a word let it die with thee; and be bold, it will not burst thee.—Ecclesiastes, xix, 10. I kept silent, yea, even from good words, but it was pain and grief to me.—Psalms, xxxix, 3.

BRANTFORD, CANADA, FRIDAY, JULY 31, 1914.

TORONTO TAKES
FIRST OF SERIES
FROM RED SOX

Nick Pitched a Good Game
But Failed to Land Victory, Losing 6-0.

Reverse 45 was chronicled on the books of the Red Sox yesterday afternoon when the Toronto Beavers walked away with the first game by the score 6 to 0. Defeat at last took on the form of a complete shut-out, not once were the Red Sox able to score.
Even in the seventh with three men on bases, secured by three bingles, the Red Sox were unable to knock out the timely hit. The only thing that can be said in their favor was the fact that there was a little more life displayed, and where there's life there's hope. But the Sox are not quite out of their shell yet, and until they are,
there will be nothing doing.
Nick pitched a steady game and as the seventh innings shows, it was not his fault that the game was lost.
When a team after getting three ring-les, and three men on, can't drive a run across the loss cannot be placed on the pitcher Nick struck out eight of the Beavers and allowed only three bases on balls in the whole game. Johnny Nelson and Lacroix were both responsible for some of the Beavers scoring, Johnny was away off color, and besides getting an error to his record he was struck out twice by Kirley. There is no reason why with their seven hits the Red Sox didn't score but poor base running and inability to knock out safe ones to score, a runner largely account for the shut out.

There was nothing sensational about the game, not even a double play. It was simply another game quietly but easily taken away from Rube's men.

Notes of Game

Big Nick looked comparatively good in the first round. He retired Hunt on a grounder and struck out Ort and Killilea. A base on balls was sandwiched in between this exhibition.
Long duplicated past performances by bingling a beauty over third to start Brantford's first. LaCroix was sent trying to bunt while Dudley fled to Burritt. Cosma grounded out.
Is a runner out when the first baseman juggles the ball? This controversy started when Cosma was out in Brantford's first.
With two out in the second Fried threw a bullet through Deneau's legs.
Burritt going to second. The Rabbit shortstop threw Harkins out, however, on the next one.
Toronto started trouble in the third when Kerley walked and Hunt singled. Then the Beavers got a cheap run on Nelson's error on Ort's grounder. Trout's single past Nelson scored two more. Killilea laid one down and heat it out. Lacroix's passed ball put Nickel in wrong still further. Isaacs was the first out of the inning and the crowd yelled, "Hoorah!"

Trout scored on Schultz's fly to centre.
Burritt struck out. Nickel's support was decidedly wobbly.
Barrett started Brantford's second but was out stealing. Deneau struck out. Fried followed his manager.

With two out in the third Long walked but LaCroix lined to left field.
Nickel looked like a big league pic-cher in the fourth. The Beavers went out in order.
Cosma was left stranded on second in the fourth when the Rube struck out for the second time.

Killilea was caught stealing second in Toronto's fifth, Cosma taking the throw.
In Brantford's fifth Fried walked and Long got a fine double to centre, but LaCroix grounded out, leaving the runners stranded.
With two out in Toronto's sixth Burritt responded with a two bager to left, but Nickel struck out Har-kins.
Dudley got a scratch hit in Brantford's sixth but was left stranded on first.

With one out in Toronto's seventh Hunt singled and Ort doubled. Hunt was caught at the plate. Ort was caught on third when LaCroix bluff-ed to throw to second.
The Red Sox filled the bases in the seventh on singles by Fried, Long and Lacroix. Dudley came up and struck out. It was ignominious. Three hits and no runs.

Killilea and Isaacs both singled in Toronto's eighth and scored on Harkin's double which came with two out.

Brantford got two men on bases in the ninth but the usual happened.

The Coroner's jury found Dr. C. K.
Robinson of Tamworth responsible for the death of Miss Blanche L. Yorke on July 8.

7000 People For Big
Athletic Game Here

Plan is Now Open—An All-Star Cast Will be Selected—Brief Notes on What's Doing in the Canadian League.

President Nelson announced last night that an all-star team would be secured to play against the Philadelphia Athletics here in old home week.
Ottawa is playing at Peterboro on that date, Eric is billed in Brantford.
Toronto is at Hamilton and London at St. Thomas. It should not be difficult to secure the league's very best to meet the Athletics.

The plan for the big game opened yesterday at Hughes and Howie's store. The indications are that every-fan in Brantford will be over to the park besides thousands from out of the city. London, Woodstock and Paris Berlin, Galt and many other cities have sent in requests for seats but the local demand is being first met.

Just how many people will attend
the big game is a hard matter to guess.
Once upon a time there were over 12,000 paid admissions at a lacrosse game behind the dyke and there were some 2000 soldiers on the grounds as well. The players lined the dyke and crowded around the entire field. It is safe to estimate a crowd of 7,000 for the appearance of the world's champions and at that there will be standing room only.

Listen to the following ravings from the London Advertiser:
Maybe the reason Deneau sold Gero his best pitcher, to the Shagmen was that he figured he could lose just as easy without any real pitchers on his club.
The more Rube Deneau tries to strengthen up the weaker his club appears to be. By selling Gero he has weakened his pitching staff, and maybe he will be able to win a few games now.

No doubt the sale of Gero was put through by Rube in order to help the Shagmen beat out London. Deneau likes London about as much as a lamb likes a lion.
In Hamilton they are under the impression that the race for the Canadian League pennant is just starting and the opinion is that Shaughnessy will yet beat out the Reising outfit.
Brantford papers are criticising Deneau for not getting out on the coaching line and injecting some pep into his team when he is not playing.
Rube is now taking his regular turn
as a pitcher.
Frank Long, the former London outfielder is playing a good game for the tailenders, and is hitting the ball on the nose.

It would be "crool crool" indeed for big Nickel to draw his release after the game he pitched yesterday. Apparently there is no pitching which will win for the Red Sox, no matter how good it is unless Nickel is drawing about $10 per minute salary. It would be useless to let him out and expect to secure anyone better at this stage of the season.

The fans have been roasting Umpire Freeman this week. The ump has had the misfortune of giving several close ones against Brantford. There is this to be said he is on the field and nearer the play and should, therefore be able to see things better. We don't like the idea of asking any umpire to hand us even the close ones.

That Ottawa bunch put the Kibosh on London yesterday and with one month more to go, the Champions may come back and repeat. Just to hear the whine from London sport columns it would be worth while. If ever a town got a swelled head, London developed it this year and if they lost pennant Doc Reising couldn't be elected as pound-keeper September 7.

And still fans complain about their team. After Hamilton made nine errors yesterday. The Red Sox haven't been guilty of that all year and yesterday's game was one of the worst they have played.
In Detroit they are taking baseball seriously. A fight ensued yesterday between an umpire and a player and the police reserves were called out.
And still they say interest is lacking
this year in the pastime.

THIS GREAT WORLD
This good old world is wonderful, it gives us every chance; and if our lives are blundered, and if we don't advance, the fault is ours, that's evident; we do not play the game; we ought to make a heavy dent in History or Fame. The world is kind and generous to every useful man; 'twill help (I'll bet a tenny!) us, in every plan. If we are prompt and dutiful, and labor day by day, the world will act just beautiful, and help us on our way. It makes me feel jim-jamerous, from scaplock down to shoes, when kickers, loud and clamorous, this good old world abuses. It's so beautifully burdensome, with grief and woe so rife, their staying here's absurd an'
some of them should quit this life.
But when they get to Paradise they'll still stand round and kick. All words are stern and rigorous to that besotold world we're broiling in, where sun-when it has fault to find. This fine old world we're broiling in, where sun-shine's always free, this world we're blithely toiling in, is good enough for me!

SATURDAY SOCCER GAMES SHOULD BE LIVELY CONTESTS

Outcome of Week-End Football Watched With Much Enthusiasm.

The interest of the football public of Brantford will be centred in the two games which constitute the semi-finals of the Courier Cup competition. Of the two matches there is little to denote one a better game than the other, both will be fast and at the Agricultural park where Holmedale meet Tutela it looks as if the park boys will come out on top. They have a better average all round than the Tiggers who have played somewhat streakily, doing well one week and unaccountably failing the next. They will probably rise to the occasion on Saturday and a stiff encounter will result.

Scots should be masters of the situation when they oppose Paris at Tutela Park on Saturday. The Frenchmen will not be quite at home on the down-town green and will lack the support they have at home. Although the Parisians are a plucky lot and will put up a game fight they will probably meet their fate at the hands of the Scots.

If these results turn out as anticipated it means that a rousing final will be played between Tutela and Scots and then a record for football in these parts will be established. Both games on Saturday start at 6.15 prompt and all players are asked to note this fact.

Scots United Team to Play Paris
Magill goal; backs, Cook, Taylor, half backs, Harrington, Morrow (capt), Forgie, Vipond, Linn, Jones, Hutchinson Morrison. Reserves: Malloy, Maich Ramsay. Referee Goutley.
All players are requested to be on the field at 5.30.

Holmedale Line-up
Holmedale vs. Tutela on Agricultural park semi-finals for the Courier Cup. Kick off at 6 o'clock sharp. The Tiggers will turn out in the following order: Scanlon, Mildgley, Hoyle, (ca.) Hart Stewart, Ellison, Webb, Giles Solman, Coburn, Owen. Reserves: Cullen Scanlon F. Sevier. All players be on the ground at 5.30.

Tutela Line-up
The following will represent Tutela at Agricultural park in semi-final of Courier Cup. Kick off at 6 o'clock sharp:
Goal, S. Tigwell; backs, Another, F. Barne; halves, R. Vining, E. Roberts, P. McLeod; forwards, Hamilton, Hingley, Gore, Collett, Fisher. Reserves: Bailey and Clark.
All players are requested to be on ground by 5.30.

LONDON WERE SHUT OUT
Ottawa Won First Game of Important Series.
LONDON, July 31.—London was given a horrible trouncing by Ottawa in the first game of the series here yesterday. Bobby Heck, held in popular esteem as the best little twirler in the Tecumseh camp, was knocked off the mound in the third round, the visitors having in the meantime tallied five counters off seven hits. Only four Londoners got as far as first base, and the whole quartette were left on the sacks, the count at the finish being 8 to 0.

ERRORS HELP PETES
PETERBORO, July 31.—Nine errors on the part of the Hamilton crew gave the Petes the first game of the series here yesterday, 6 to 2. It was a weird work on the part of the visitors, who did not seem to be able to do anything right. The infield showed very erratic wings. The Petes earned about three runs and the rest were handed to them on a large sized platter. Tracey outpitched Clements, although the latter did well under the circumstances.

ERIE July 31—Tommy Dorbeck and Colligan contrived to work the defeat of St. Thomas yesterday. Dorbeck holding the visitors to three scattered hits and Colligan driving in four runs with a brace of homers. One came in the third, the other in the fifth with Dawson on each time. Kustus drew two of the Saints' three hits. Hughey was hit hard and often and was poorly supported. Eric's errors pulled Dorbeck into several holes, but he managed to work his way through without damage.

NEWSOME'S RINK LOST IN FINAL

Frontier Trophy at Buffalo is Won by Euler of Berlin.

BUFFALO, July 31.—The international tournament was completed yesterday with the exception of a few games of singles, and resulted in the crack Berlin rink, skipped by Mayor Euler, winning the Frontier Trophy, from the Brantfordites, and the Honey rink from Guelph, skipped by Hoover, winning the consolation or Buffalo Trophy after a very close game from Skinner of the Toronto Granites. This rink has been doing good work all the week, reaching the semi-final in each event. The closing games in the Scotch doubles resulted in Toronto having four high-grade representatives. The final game, Dr. Paul and Hambly versus Van Valkenburg and Boothe on Bailey Beach, resulted in the Alexandra Club capturing two trophies having won the International Trophy and the Hotel Lafayette Trophy for Scotch doubles.

LAURENTIAN LINES
The Canadian Pacific is increasing its service on their Laurentian lines. In no part of their system has the travel developed in anything like similar proportions. It is of course, to a great extent summer travel; but the late "Father" Labelle builded better than he knew, when he first, after years of constant effort, was enabled to get his bit of pioneer line through to St. Jerome—his "corduroy" line, as it was called in the early eighties.

—A line which ran through an immense country, the possibilities of which are only now being understood. The cure, whom the older generation would remember—burly and genial and rubicund—on St. James Street—did not foresee that development would commence as the result of his work—the setting down of scores of summer resorts, the building of towns the setting up of pulp and kindred industries; the swarms of summer folk, living out in the open on the crests of the hills.

AUSTRIANS RETURNING
MONTREAL, July 30.—The German Steamer Willahad, now in port from Rotterdam and Antwerp, will carry back to Europe the first batch of Austrians to sail from Montreal for the seat of war. When the vessel clears from this port Saturday or Sunday morning there will be at least two hundred of the local Austrians on board. Five thousand Austrians in Montreal are supposed to answer the call of their sovereign for they are in the first and second reservist divisions. Quite a number of the colony have become British subjects and are except from military service in the conflict.

FOUND DEAD
NORTH BAY, Ont., July 31.—B. C. Wolfram, manager of the West Dome Mine at Paraguanie, was found dead in his room in one of the hotels here last night with a bullet wound through his head. The presence of a large revolver suggests suicide. Wolfram came into town Tuesday from Hawleybury, and seemed in good health and spirits, so that no reason can be assigned for suicide. An inquest will be held.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Keep her locks youthful, dark, glossy and thick with common garden Sage and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though at home is messy and trouble some. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.
Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger. Agent T. George Bowler.

"Count Discount" vs. Reg. Ular Price

"Count Discount" is putting up some battle too, isn't he? You notice Reginald we call "Reg" for short because we never allow the "long price" to enter this store—hence "Count Discount" versus "Regular Price." The Count is making Regular Price ask for "quarter" too—that is 25 per cent off.

And what "Count Discount" is doing to Regular Price here now is where you come in. It's for your clothes economy that he is contesting and you win—if you will only take advantage of these bargains. If the prices quoted below do not tempt you come in and see the quality back of them.

Jack Coombs Is Coming Back to Active Duty in One More Season

Jack Coombs will again pitch for the Athletics.
So the doctors say.
He has visited the best specialists in the east. They have assured him that by next spring he will be able to take his regular turn in the box.
"I lack the weight now" says the former great iron man from the north woods of Maine.
"My last ball is missing," continues Jack, "but my arm is getting better right along and my curve is working nicely."
In Syracuse the other day he pitched in an exhibition game and had Syracuse helpless. It was his first real attempt to twirl since illness brought him down.
No ordinary man could ever have survived the siege that Coombs went through. His recovery is a tribute to clean living. An iron constitution and perfect habits, built up under a keen brain. Coombs is one of the brainiest pitchers of all time. He knows as much about pitching as any twirler in either major league. A man with his knowledge can afford to lose quite an amount of speed and still be a winning hurler.

Only a few days ago he heard the verdict that he would be in condition to pitch again by next year. The doctors told him he had better hold off this season but that when next spring came he could go south with plans of chucking in his regular turn.
"They never miss you when you're gone," cannot be applied to Coombs case. Nothing would be more welcome to the Athletics in particular, and baseball in general than his return. Connie Mack never had a man more missed than Coombs. He has ever been an invaluable help to the Athletics and a credit to the game.
"Waiter, this pudding is quite cold."
"Impossible, sir! This is the fifth time it has been warmed since morning!"—Journal Amusant.

Lawn Tennis.

The ladies of the Dufferin Tennis Club found their opponents from the Bell View Courts very easy to defeat and they took the whole of the six points possible by an aggregate score of 72 points to 11. It was quite a runaway victory.
Miss Nellie Jones defeated Miss Cox 6-1, 6-1.
Miss Naimie Howie defeated Miss J. Cox 6-1, 6-0.
Miss Dorothy Garrett defeated Miss Norris 6-1, 6-0.
Miss Ivadelle Howie, defeated Miss Littich 6-0, 6-1.
In the doubles The Misses Cox fell to Dorothy Rowe and Marjorie Sweet by 6-0, while Misses Norris and Littich were conquered by Wilma Jones and Ivadelle Howie by scores of 6-1, and 6-4.
The Dufferin courts will be the scene of an interesting encounter between the visitors from Simcoe and the Duffs cracks, who will compete in the Western Ontario championships.

The "Paris Road" club was entertained yesterday by the "Bell View" club of this city. The final score reading in favor of Bell View. The following members represented their clubs in the doubles:
Paris 6 2 Bell View 7 3
Miss A. Greenwood, Miss Agnes Cox, Mr. G. Greenwood, Mr. G. Waterhouse, Mr. T. C. Moyle, Mr. F. D. Ansell, Mr. Fred Matah, Mr. T. S. Moyer
Light refreshments were served at the conclusion and the Paris Club honored the locals by three cheers and arrangements were made for a return match, which should prove another such enjoyable event.
Bell View Tennis Club Tourney Supplementary Round
Garland Waterhouse (3rd - 15) vs. S. McIntosh (3rd - 15).
Semi Finals
P. D. Ansell (sc) vs. Howard Loftus (3rd - 15).
S. Sweetman (3rd - 15) vs. G. Waterhouse (3rd - 15) and S. McIntosh (3rd - 15).

NEGRO FIGHTERS FOR FR

Jack Johnson One of Worst Offenders - Gans Engineered in His Time.

By Jack Skelly

P. T. Barnum, the greatest man that ever lived, never fo public so cleverly and so slyly, best present bunch of heavy negro fighters have been doing past ten years.

Barnum never made any about the tricks and hippodrome so successfully pulled off, ways declared that the public be fooled.

Theatrical and showmen in the public and get away with this is not possible for any time with the fictive game. I round stalling machines. I boxing an honest professional. Fakers may go along and get the coin or a time but as the fans get wise, the hippo find themselves in the soup.

I never knew an out and fighter, promoter or manager, not in the end go down and disgraced. I could mention of these schemers who have sidetracked or who have died out a dollar. But let them die are gone and forgotten.

Johnson Has Hurt Gans

I consider Jack Johnson, world heavyweight champion, word, has done more to deg sport than any other man worn the big crown. I am judged on account of his c on account of his artful, ways in dealing with ring alone. I always had great re such manly colored fighters Jackson, and George Dixon were both worthy pugilists not try to make themselves ious and fought fair and ho tles.

Johnson has always been ster. He agreed to lay down ferries and then, at the last shifted the cut and grabbed from an opponent who was shadow of his former self. G Jeffries was just as deep in as the black fellow. He m gone down in the history of as one of the grandest gladi ever held the championship miserable affair with Joh Reno will always mar his r I must confess that this finish of Jeffries also gave old game a bad black eye, indeed very humiliating to race. JURY BLAMES DOCTOR IN TAMWORTH CASE been scorched. The witness declared that the condition of the linen showed that something had been carried in the sheet to the fire and then thrown into the flames.

Letter Kept Secret
Another sensation was created when Damon B. Floyd, a general storekeeper, produced in court a letter written to him by the doctor and posted from Kingston shortly after the physician left Tamworth for parts unknown. The letter, it appeared, had not been shown to the police when the investigation was being held, and Mr. Floyd was severely censured by Crown Attorney Preston for withholding such important evidence. When the letter was produced in court the Crown Attorney made a public announcement that it was considered to be of such importance that its contents would be withheld from the public, although the jury was permitted to read it upon the understanding that they would not divulge its contents.
It was ascertained, however, that the letter was a personal communication from Dr. Robinson to Mr. Floyd in regard to the latter securing for him a set of surgical instruments which the doctor feared would be seized by his creditors. The most important matter in the letter was the fact that the instruments were to be sent to him at Kingston and that the merchant was not to divulge the fact that he had received the communication to any residents in the village.
Mr. Floyd in explaining the affair to the corner stated that the reason he did not give the letter to the police was the fact that he was afraid criminal proceedings would be taken against the doctor and that he would be called to give evidence at the trial. "I showed the letter to one other person," the witness said, "and he also advised me to say nothing about it." Mr. Floyd also admitted that he was a personal friend of the doctor and that the latter had his offices over the merchant's store.

The Wife Shows Up
Shortly after the afternoon session opened, Mrs. C. K. Robinson, the doctor's wife, who has been ill in a Kingston hospital, accompanied by the physician's brother and brother-in-law, Dr. George Bell, arrived in the village. No intimation of the intended trip was given and their arrival created great surprise. It appeared, however, that the inquest was not the cause of the trip for the only member of the party to appear at the session was Dr. Bell, who made but a brief stay. It was stated that the trip involved the state of Dr. Robinson's business affairs and which caused the sudden trip from Kingston.
Upon arriving here both Dr. Bell and Mrs. Robinson was closeted with Inspector Greer and Crown Attorney Prescott for a short time but beyond the act that the conference had no bearing on the case no further particulars were made public.
That the body found in the cellar of Dr. Robinson's house was that of Miss Yorke was established at a closing session of the inquest. The corpse was positively identified by Dr. Stewart Lockridge a dentist who recognized the work he had done upon the teeth. Daniel McGregor, fiance of the dead girl, also identified the opal engagement ring which he had given to Miss Yorke and which was found upon the finger of the corpse. A silver purse found in the house was recognized by Samuel Yorke as that belonging to his sister.

Mrs. Thompson told about Dr. Robinson taking some sheets to her to be washed shortly after Miss Yorke disappeared. These sheets, the witness said, was spotted with blood stains, "It was on a Friday night," she said, "when the doctor came to me. He carried a bundle in his hand and asked me to wash them and return them for sure by Saturday afternoon. He said that I was to take them to his office and if he was not there I was to leave them with Mr. Floyd. The bundle was very heavy and on opening it I found that it contained some sheets which were soaked with water. There was a number of blotches caused by blood upon them and it was apparent that the doctor had tried to wash them himself and failed. On making a further investigation I noticed that the hem of one of the sheets was burned. The burn was made in such a manner as to indicate that he had tried to throw something into the fire from the sheet."
"During the time the doctor was talking he seemed to be very nervous and looked white and ill. I washed the sheets for him and left them in Mr. Floyd's store to be delivered."

Floyd's Statement
Damon B. Floyd stated that he was a close friend of Dr. Robinson. When asked as to receiving a letter from the physician after the doctor had disappeared, Mr. Floyd admitted he had, and that he kept the affair a secret.
"Only one letter came to me after Dr. Robinson left," he explained, "this was on the 19th. It was posted from Kingston, but I have no reason to believe that he was in that city then. The only reason that I did not notify the authorities was that I was afraid of becoming mixed up in the affair if it ever was taken to court. Also I did not see anything in the letter which appeared to pertain to the disappearance of Miss Yorke, and I could not see the necessity of making the letter public property."
The witness stated that when the girl vanished he spoke to Dr. Robinson and asked him if he had anything to do with the affair.
The doctor said that he had not, and declared that he had only treated her for stomach trouble.
"In concluding the doctor said to me," he stated, "that he would not have any time to perform an operation while Miss Yorke was in his office, even if we desired to do so. Later, we searched his house, but could find nothing. I also investigated the yard and cellar, but there was nothing there."
Dan McGregor told of the various searches made for the girl by himself and her relatives, and swore that he had been stopped by Dr. Robinson several times before the latter left the town, and asked if there had been anything discovered. "The last time the doctor stopped me," said the witness, "he suggested that I drag the river as it might be possible that she had thrown herself into the water."
Mr. McGregor swore that when he and Sam Yorke, the dead girl's brother, first saw the doctor after Miss Yorke had disappeared, the physician declared that he did not know whether she had visited him on the Wednesday night or not.
"He later stated that she had been in for about twenty minutes," said the witness, "but when examined in our presence by Inspector Miller, he admitted that it was about an hour and a half. He declared that he was treating her for stomach trouble, and that on the night that she was last seen he was kneading her stomach for gas."
"Did you know that Dr. Robinson was treating Miss Yorke," asked the Crown, "She told me so."
"Did Dr. Robinson ever tell you?"

"Yes, but not until after Miss Yorke was missing."
"Did either parties ever say anything to you about paying the expenses?" "No, absolutely nothing."
"Was it ever stated that you would do so eventually and were you ever in Dr. Robinson's office before Miss Yorke disappeared?" "No."
Says Body Was Not Buried
The evidence of Mr. McGregor regarding the visit to Dr. Robinson was corroborated by him and Ed. Yorke, while Inspector Greer and High Constable Vankoughnet told of finding the body and of exhuming it. Details of the previous search made by Inspector Miller were given by the high constable, who emphatically declared that the body was not buried at that time. "We went through the house very thoroughly and carefully and I am sure that the body was not concealed in it," said the officer, "unless, of course, it was secreted in the mattress and taken from there to be interred in the cellar after we left."
The witness also said that the furnace had been searched, but that nothing suspicious had been found. He believed that bones and ashes of clothes subsequently found were burned by Inspector Greer, who, in describing the discovery to the jury stated that there was also a solid mass of ashes which he believed was the result of part of the contents of a mattress being burned.
By the evidence of C. R. Jones, manager of the Sterling Bank, it was shown that Miss Yorke had over $67 on deposit. The manager said that there had been no withdrawals for some time previous to the woman's disappearance or since she had been missing.
Looked for Living Only
There was much discussion before it was decided that it was permissible that H. Richardson, a jurymen, should give evidence, but finally the coroner allowed it.
Mr. Richardson related his story in a straightforward manner without interruption.

"When I first heard of Miss Yorke's disappearance, it was the general opinion that the doctor seemed to have been implicated in the affair."
"On Sunday, July 11th, Dr. Robinson came along the street, and it struck me then that it would be well to call him aside and tell him of the suspicion. I called him into my shop and stated that there was a report in circulation that the missing girl might be concealed in his house for treatment."
"I told him that my advice to him would be for him to choose two respectable men to show his whole house to make sure that she was not there."
"He seemed to fall readily in line with our requests, and he asked Mr. Carscallen and myself to go through the house with him."
"We went through the house, not expecting to find any trace of a living person. Then we went into the cellar, and down there I struck a match. As I did so the doctor halted and jerked himself up. I noticed it at the time, and remarked it after."
"Anyway, our examination proved to our satisfaction that there was no living person within the house at all."
Displayed Anxiety
The following morning the doctor called me out of my shop while he was on his way to the depot in the bus and asked me to give him the names of any person who had been circulating reports about him."
"I said to him, 'Doctor, what do you mean? What report is there in circulation? If there is any I haven't heard about it.'
"He replied to the effect that he was going to Kingston to get a lawyer for those who had been circulating reports. He then drove on."
"The following Wednesday evening he again approached me with regard to the reports, circulated about him. He said he was going to look up the lawyer. I said to him, 'The evidence against you is so strong that you had better let other men look up the law while you remain silent,'"

At the time something about his countenance struck me; his actions were peculiar. His head was continually toying in the air and he seemed to be uneasy."
Mr. Carscallen, who was foreman of the jury, corroborated Mr. Richardson's testimony regarding the visit to the house.
The funeral of Miss Yorke will be held from the Methodist Church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The service will be conducted by Rev. Joseph Barnes, the pastor, and will be public.

ROYAL GIFTS TO SHACKLETON

Mascot and Flags From Queen Alexandra—Endurance Inspected.

Queen Alexandra, who is taking deep interest in Sir Ernest Shackleton's projected voyage to the Arctic regions and his journey across South Pole paid a visit of inspection Thursday at the West India Dock to the Endurance, the vessel in which the explorer and his party intend to make the sea passage.
Her Majesty was accompanied by her sister, the Empress Marie of Romania, Princess Victoria, and several members of the Royal and Imperial families and reached the dock at 12.20. The ship was gaily decorated for the occasion, and her entire company was assembled to welcome visitors.
Sir Ernest Shackleton received Royal visitors in person and presented Lady Shackleton and their children—Raymond, Cicely, and Edward. The officers also were present and the Queen greeted them graciously and they chatted to them about interesting but hazardous enterprises. The members of the ship's company also were presented and Sir Ernest Shackleton called special attention to those who had accompanied him on a former expedition. To these Queen talked for some time, put many questions illustrative of keen interest in their travels, and giving them all success in their venture.

The hut intended for the ship's quarters was rigged up all side the vessel, and the visitors inspected it and all its appointments to the greatest detail. They also inspected every part of the Endurance and Queen Alexandra expressed approval of all the appointments, was particularly impressed with severe economy of space which it had been found necessary to practise. Inevitably practical as usual, her Majesty felt the mattresses and declared to be very springy and comfortable but was at a loss to understand the occupants could manage in tiny quarters. The saloon she thought "very nice but very small."
The question of victualling naturally appealed to her and she examined the galley arrangements very minutely, and with evident approval.
Sir Ernest expected that the Royal ladies would hardly care to go but they insisted on doing so. Queen Alexandra remarking "I am going to see everything." So great was interest and so thorough her examination that the visit, originally intended to last but half an hour, extended to nearly an hour and a half.
The Royal ladies were keen on learning about the motor-sledge which is intended to be used on journeying across the great ice-fields and they had

Queen Alexandra, who is taking deep interest in Sir Ernest Shackleton's projected voyage to the Antarctic regions, and his journey across the South Pole paid a visit of inspection on Thursday at the West India Dock to the Endurance, the vessel in which the explorer and his party intend to make the sea passage.

Her Majesty was accompanied by her sister, the Empress Marie of Russia, Princess Victoria, and several members of the Royal and Imperial suites and reached the dock at about 12.30. The ship was gaily "dressed" for the occasion, and her entire company was assembled to welcome the visitors.

Sir Ernest Shackleton received the Royal visitors in person and presented Lady Shackleton and their three children—Raymond, Cicely, and Edward. The officers also were presented, and the Queen greeted them graciously chatting to them about their interesting but hazardous enterprise. The members of the ship's company also were presented and Sir Ernest Shackleton called special attention to those who had accompanied him on a former expedition. EUROPE FEARS PERILS OF BIG WAR AS RUSSIA'S TROOPS GATHER TO HELP SERBIA

KING PETER I OF SERBIA

THE CROWN PRINCE OF SERBIA

WHERE THE FIRES OF WAR ARE ABLAZE.

Diplomatic relations between Austro-Hungary and Serbia have been severed, and the public of Vienna believes war is certain. The chancelleries of Europe, however, have not abandoned hope.

Russia is the key to the situation. Russia has mobilized her army on other occasions, but has not placed it in the field. However, the vital question now appears to be whether Russia will come to the aid of her little Slav sister in her extremity.

satisfaction of seeing it in operation, though not as a sledge but as a motor boat.

When the inspection had been brought to length to a close, Queen Alexandra made a very interesting present to Sir Ernest Shackleton in wishing him and his brave comrades all success and a safe return. The gift took the form of two flags and a mascot. The flags were of silk. One of them was her Majesty's own personal standard, while the other was the Union Jack. The mascot was a beautiful medallion in enamel, surrounded by crystal.

Sir Ernest heartily thanked her Majesty for her gifts, and said these interesting souvenirs of the Royal visit would be carried with him throughout his journeys to be brought safely back (as he devoutly hoped) after a journey that, in its entirety, had never before been attempted by any human being.

When the Royal and Imperial visitors quitted the vessel after bidding good-bye to her commander and his party the whole ship's company came to the side of the vessel and gave three hearty cheers.

The Endurance will sail from the West India Rocks on July 29 and will call at Cowes, where the ship will probably be visited by the King. Thence she will proceed to Cardiff or Bristol to coal, finally leaving England about Aug. 8 or 9 for Buenos Ayres.

The Ross Sea ship Aurora, which has been acquired from Sir Douglas Mawson, is at Hobart Tasmania and will sail in October.

It's Tiresome Being a King

Maybe you've had days when you were quite young in which you wished you were a king. Nothing to do, you know, except wear ermine and wave a sceptre, and generally behave as though oil had just been struck in the coal pasture.

Well, having seen kings and a pair of queens in action, any such notion I may have entertained has flown from me.

It's a wearisome, boring, leg-dreadening job to be a monarch. I'm not in the confidence of the royal family, but I'll venture its members run a higher average of yawns per capita than any other clan in England. This notion that a limited monarch enjoys the limit of monotony came to me when I saw the king and queen of Denmark riding through the streets in one of the royal processions. It happened that I was so placed as to see a great deal that went on.

The procession itself paled the ineffable glories of the world's five greatest shows. What with the Horse Guards, jingling in silver armor down streets lined with a vividly red, but I'll venture its members run a higher average of yawns per capita than any other clan in England. This notion that a limited monarch enjoys the limit of monotony came to me when I saw the king and queen of Denmark riding through the streets in one of the royal processions. It happened that I was so placed as to see a great deal that went on.

A Duke and His Pipe

In a crested and cushioned automobile which preceded the state carriage sat one of the royal dukes, all alone. He held in his teeth an enormous briar pipe. All the lines in his face ran downwards.

His machine stopped for a second, and he withdrew that pipe and inspected it solemnly, and with a look of unutterable woe decided that it was out.

Then he tried to find a match in his state pants and couldn't, and couldn't locate a pocket in which to put the dead pipe. So that, just as the car purred softly on, he put it back in his mouth as the only available receptacle, and resumed his pose of patient suffering.

Their majesties of Denmark came next. King Christian of Denmark is a tall, good looking athletic chap, who smiled and bowed all along the route, as though he were running for office.

And, in some degrees, that is what every king in Europe is doing just now. Unless Fleet street opinion is in error, each of these limited monarchs is making a bid for personal popularity in these times when thrones are no more sacred than they have been in days past.

The alderman of Holborn presented King Christian and his queen with a golden casket, in which were assurances of distinguished esteem. He was fairly enthusiastic over it.

And then, for a moment, after re-entering his carriage, the mask slipped. Never have I seen such an expression of forlorn, unmitigated boredom as appeared on the face of this brilliant young monarch, riding in a glittering carriage between throngs who sometimes remembered to cheer.

After all, King Christian is young and by that fact still resilient. The true tragedy of reigning came to me that night when I saw King George and Queen Mary entertaining their majesties of Denmark at the opening of the military tournament at the Olympic.

They sat in a nice, prim, uninterested line in the royal box. Now and then they smiled automatically.

Occasionally a look of animation crossed King Christian's features. He being still young, as has been remarked, it looked as though he had caught sight of a particularly good looking girl in the boxes below.

The two queens had their heads together a good part of the time, whispering in each other's ear if they were not appearing scandal they believed their appearance.

And at the end of the row sat King George, gorgeous as a peacock, in gold lace and epaulettes and orders—and hopeless apathetic.

Every one agrees that King George would be a good fellow if his job gave him a chance to be. But practically for the whole of their stay in the royal box he sat there silent, staring dimly ahead, the puffs of fatigue under his eyes, parentheses of uninterested, deep cut on either side of the monarchical nose.

You see about all that he has to do is to change clothes and eat, and ride in the grand entrance.

No Chance to Relax I became engrossed in the pursuit of royalty. Therefore I went to Aldershot, where 95,000 troops played at sham battling, and played at it very badly, according to critics.

The king and queen were to review the troops there and I was able to get near enough to see them do it. Perhaps it was imagination on my part but it seemed as if they pumped up animation by a plainly visible effort. A regiment would march by, bands playing, horses prancing, a thousand khaki-clad knees bending as one, a thousand right arms swinging with the route step, a thousand bayonet points catching the sun.

The king and queen would lean forward, simulating intense interest. But they were not interested. They could not be. They have been "fed up" on regiments from the time of their respective royal kilts.

They were unable to maintain the pace. By and by each would lean back and that curtain of utter lack of interest would fall over them. They seemed to need a rewinding for each regiment.

And that isn't all. To be a reigning monarch nowadays demands a certain muscular endurance. The king and queen walked over the Aldershot field and so did I and by and by my heels began to throb and the dust settled in my ears and I went back to town.

The monarchs couldn't. Each day for the week they walked or rode the greater part of the daylight, which doesn't fall into dusk until about 8 o'clock. Each night they field various sorts of levees, as they do almost every night.

They have about the privacy enjoyed by the Circassian woman at a circus. They were actually on view about 14 hours each day, according to a statement of a court attaché.
