Last Inspection of Highland Brigade By Lt.-Col. Borden

Takes Occasion to Look Over Brigade Before Embarking Next Week—During Week Was Guest of Honor at Officers Mess and at Special Smoker—All Were Memorable Functions

(From N. S. Highlander)

Aldershot Camp, N. S., Sept. 9—Friday afternoon, Lt. Colonel Allison H. Borden, commanding the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade, held his last inspection of the Brigade, prior to his sailing for overseas. At 2.30 p. m. the four battalions fell in taking up positions in review order. Beginning with the 85th, the senior Battalion, which was the first to be reviewed by Colonel Borden, he received the salutes. Then passing down the lines, company by company, platoon by platoon, Colonel Borden inquired the name of each member in his presence, and, this finished, he spoke a few words of compliment and encouragement to them all, saying that, though he was preceding them overseas, their turn to cross would soon eventuate. The occasion made a deep impression on the men of the Brigade in-as-much as it disclosed Col Borden's living, human, as well as soldierly, interest in each individual member of the Highland Brigade.

GUEST OF HONOR

During the week evenings, Lt.-Colonel Borden, Commanding the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade, was guest of honor at the Officers Messes of the various Battalions of the Brigade. The functions were designed to mark the esteem in which Lt.-Colonel Borden was held by the officers of the Brigade and to give him special social memories to carry with him overseas when he sails next week. For each of the occasions the mess tables were beautifully decorated and the menu made dainty and inviting. Toasts were given to His Majesty, the King and to the guest of honor.

THE ROLL CALL

We have tendered the toll, we have paid the price
We have braved and battled and bled,
And set in the shrine of our brother-in-arms,
Are the names of Canada's dead,
We are given our share of the grist that goes
To grind in the War God's mill—
But every place that another has left
Is a place that YOU can fill.

You scan the scroll of our sacrifice
And you hope that the list will end
"Ere you feel the throbs that tears your throat,
As you say, "He was my friend,"
And its "Poor Old Bob, I knew him well"—
Or "Bill—my God—not Bill"—
But every place that a pal has left
Is a place that YOU can fill.

Do you remember the day they left?
That day they passed through Town?
When the bayonets gleamed like a spray of steel
On the river of rolling brown?
And now?—In this same old Town today
There are slackers who're slacking still
All blind to the fact that the place that's left
Is the place that they should fill.

The far-off note of the bugle-call
And the beat of the distant drum
Tell not the tale of the men who've gone
But the men who have got to come.
Oh! Duty is calling and vengeance is calling—
Their cry shall never be stilled
Till the last of the gaps in Canada's ranks
By Canada's sons are filled.

What the Duke of Connaught Really Said

Official Statement of His View of Highland Brigade—"Extremely Pleased."

Aldershot Camp, N. S., Sept. 9—Official recognition of the recent visit of Field Marshall H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught to Aldershot Camp and his express opinion of the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade has been made permanent in a report from Militia Headquarters, Ottawa, received at Camp Headquarters, Aldershot.

Following is a pertinent extract from the report, the extract having appeared in Aldershot Camp Orders, date of Sept. 5, issued by Col. W. E. Thompson, Camp Commandant. Verbatim the extract reads: "His Royal Highness commands me to notify you that he was extremely pleased with His Inspection of Troops at Aldershot. The Highland Brigade, which he saw there, was a particularly fine one; their movements on Parade were extremely good, while the arrangements for instruction in the Camp were quite some of the best—if not the best—we have seen. The musketry, Trench Work, Bombing, Snapping, and ordinary Parade, as well as Officers and Non-commissioned Officers Instructional School, were being run in a particularly workmanlike and able manner, and His Royal Highness considers that very great credit is due to the Officers concerned."

Justice Now For Higher Commands

Military Council, Under Chairmanship of Major-General to Decide Canadian Commands

London, September 9—A military council, consisting of seven members at first, which was held today, will later probably be increased to ten, under the chairmanship of a major-general who from the first has done excellent work as a representative of the Canadian militia department in London. This is the solution of the somewhat difficult situation regarding the higher commands among the Canadian forces in England. The only question remaining is whether the imperial authorities, who naturally have the last say in regarding the training and disposition of all troops, will agree. It is thought generally in military circles that Sir Sam Hughes has shown military judgment in the solution, and that the unpleasant overlapping among various Canadian major-generals, which certainly caused friction will end.

Military Age May be Raised

Remark of Sir William Robertson Creates Belief Limit Will Be 45 Years

London, September 8—Reports are current that the government intends shortly to raise the military age limit to 45 years. The belief that the age limit under the Military Service Act will soon be raised has arisen chiefly out of Sir William Robertson's recent declaration that "Great Britain must not only win the war, but win the peace," coupled with Lloyd George's refusal to give a pledge not to raise the military age limit.

FIVE GERMAN FORTRESSES FALLEN

(From the London Daily Mail)
The British Army has captured five villages in Picardy. Within the same period five German fortresses have been stormed—positions of incomparably greater strategic value than the shell-racked hamlets Haig's heroes have taken on the Somme. No staff maps chart them; they are imbedded in Germany's innermost consciousness. There are their names:
Fort Faith-in-Invincibility.
Fort Government-Bluff.
Fort Belief-in-Enemy-Exhaustion.
Fort Confidence-in-a-Prussian-Peace.
Fort Certainty-of-Final-Victory.
These were mighty German strongholds, tenaciously held for two years. But they have fallen.

King Winter is armed with countless millions of ice-hard snow-crystals, driven by the full force of winter winds; his destructive work is aided by rapid changes in temperature, which freeze tiny particles of water in the pores of unprotected woodwork, tearing the wood fibres apart as freezing water splits a wrought-iron pipe. In the course of a long Canadian winter he can cause irreparable damage to an unprotected silo, barn or home. He attacks in vain, however, the building protected with

NEW RULES

FOR RECRUITING

More Rigorous Medical Examination in Canada—Steps to Prevent Repeating

Ottawa, September 9.—New regulations are being provided for insuring the fitness of men accepted for service in the expeditionary forces. Recruiting officers are to be required to make certain that men entering the force are within the age limits and medical officers will also be called upon to exercise great care against the admission of unfit men. A recruit will be examined first by the local medical officer at the place of enlistment and on reaching the mobilization center he will be re-examined by a medical board. After he is finally attached for overseas service, if there is any doubt as to his condition, he may be re-examined on request by the medical officer.

Steps are being taken also to keep some sort of record of men rejected for unfitness probably by obtaining from such men signed cards certifying to their rejection. This is only for the purpose of preventing men once rejected from applying at other places, a common practice.

THE RIGHT STUFF

An officer of one of the light cruisers was reported in the official returns as "severely wounded. Whitehall immediately received a telegram respecting but ardently protesting against so misleading and humiliating a description. "I have only got a chip knocked out of my shin and shall be ready for duty in a very few days." The P. M. O. was promptly wired for a full description of this officer's injuries. It turned out that he had the right leg fractured, and left tibia chipped, a large piece of shell embedded in his groin, and seventeen other cuts and wounds.—A. P. in Land and Water.

HAS BROKEN OUT AFRESH

Tells His People He Must Be Preserved to Help Deify Run World

After a period, if not of silence at least of unreported speeches, William Second seems to have broken out afresh with a flow of oratory.

We have had at great length the sermon lately delivered by him to German army chaplains, and there has also been his address to the Prussian Guards, latter's defeat and partial surrender to the British army.

The Imperial speech which seems to have attracted the greatest attention in Germany is one which he made somewhere in the rear of Peronne to German soldiers who were awaiting their turn to be conveyed away from the zone of war. Other listeners included a considerable number of officers and many ambulance men, drivers, and so forth.

The Kaiser said: "It is the most poignant grief of my life that I am unable to take a more active part in this war. It is my earnest desire to take my place in the trenches and to deal such blows at our enemies as my age and strength would permit.

"I could take my place with the youngest of you, and I promise that I would leave my mark on the enemy.
"But, the inscrutable Almighty has willed otherwise. Into my care has been committed by Divine destiny the leadership of our country, of its armies, of its forces on land and at sea.

"The burden of thinking, deciding, leading has been laid upon me, and realizing this I know that my life must not be risked in the foremost line of a battle, where my feelings, if unrestrained, would carry me swiftly.

"My life must be conserved carefully for the welfare of Germany, to carry out the duties assigned to me by Divine appointment."

85TH BAND CONCERT AT WOLFVILLE

In Aid of Military Y. M. C. A. Work—Financial and Musical Success

Consensus of opinion seems to be that the grand concert, under the patronage of the commanding officers of the Battalions of the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade, given Friday evening at Wolfville in College Hall, in aid of military Y. M. C. A. work, was extraordinarily successful, both financially and musically.

Capt. Chaplain Mackinnon was chairman and briefly remarked encouragingly the generally serviceable work the Y. M. C. A. was doing for our men in khaki. Afterwards an audience of 1000 people, soldiers and civilians, settled back to enjoy a program of music and readings which gave great delight to all present, won from them unstinted applause and insistent encores, and left in their hearts the fruits of pure joy and the worth of having lived.

Premier honors went to the 85th Band, which, under the direction of Lieut. Dan Mooney, played with more engaging musicianship than ever before a popular program that in every number was delectable and in one or two numbers moved many in the audience to tears from reawakening memories of "dear dead days that were and never again to be." Bandsman H. P. Barnes, the wizard of the piccolo, outdid all his past performances, fetching from from the audience uproarious applause for his brilliant tonal ripples in Brewer's "Deep Blue Sea" (Polka). He was compelled to bow acknowledgments, and at last to reply to the encore with Le Thier's sparkling "Dance of the Satyrs," which he made a marvel of runs, thrills, and tones that chased one another from gamut to gamut in high glee and abandon. It was good work; it was square work—in master musicianship.

Bandsman Thomas Roy was the second soloist in a baritone variation on the air "When You and I Were Young, Maggie." As always, Bandsman Roy was the impeccable technician; and put a moving emotional expressiveness into the tonal quality and flow that was altogether winning. He did not, however, respond to an insistent encore. The band was heard in several popular overtures, medleys, or potpourris, the most fetching being "Songs From the Old Folks," which, it was observed, melted many to tears of tender memories. The ensemble of the band, both in the grand selections and in the accompaniments, to the soloists was noticeably excellent—balanced, unanimous, precise, solid, and poperly subdued. The basses were particularly musical in these respects—which is an achievement in any case by any band.

The program was enhanced by solos sung by Mrs. Lambert, wife of Capt. Chaplain Lambert, 97th Battalion. Her sweet, clear soprano was heard engagingly in "Little Boy Blue" and in a Chinese genre song, "Good Bye to the Leaves" (DeKoven), to which, for encore, she responded with a prettily delivered old English air.

Bandsman H. Murray "scored a hit" with his readings. With "Molly Muldoon," which he delivered with dramatic intensity, thus increasing the effect of the farce anti-china, he created a "riot" of applause. In response he did some of his imitable "Rube" character grotesqueries. Bandsman Murray is really an artist in his line. Mrs. J. D. Clark proved herself an artistic accompanist.

Over $50,000 has been raised at the London Safe Rooms for food for British prisoners in Germany.

BIG PICNIC AT KINGSPORT.

Officers and Men Unite in Making Mirth, Melody and Amusement

O me, O my, O mummy,
What's up w' my tummy?
Too much corn,
Sure's your born,
O me, O my, O mummy.

Such was the refrain heard the day following the great picnic and corn-boil given by the Officers and N. C. O's of the 85th Battalion to the men at Kingsport last Wednesday afternoon.

It was a great day for everybody concerned. It was a day, in which the officers showed that if in camp they had to military rigorists and trainers of soldiers, they were just as ready to enjoy the fun of life as were the men in the ranks. And if the picnic and corn boil do nothing else, it accomplished this worth and it created a solidarity, a human sympathy between the officers and men of the 85th Battalion of all that happened. Thirteen coaches of the D. A. R. brought the whole Battalion to Kingsport, where the sun and the sparkling waves beamed a welcome.

There were games, a corn feed, a bon-fire, and a pot-pourri of old sweet songs and of fun in which everybody joined. The fun was so splitting, the feature was this. In the midst of the corn-feed the pipes were heard skirling ("such music tance, and Lieut. Layte has seen coming up the street playing the pibroch of Donull other officers, with Major Miller leading, snatched up pipes. Col. Phinney took possession of the bass drum, Capt. Ralston seized the snare drum, and other officers requisitioned tin pans. This musical cavalcade formed up, with the men of the Battalion behind them, and marched though the town in grand procession.

When this splendid function had concluded, a great bon-fire was next in order. In the immense pile, 20 tar barrels, 10 cords of wood, and all the old orchard tree limbs that had been accumulating for years, were assembled, and lighted. The mighty glare lit up the whole country round, and made the throngs of men on the banks above the beach seem like a sea of fiery faces. Much fun was got from charging the fire with old sticks as bayonets in illumination of bayonet charges on the Huns.

There was music aplenty. The 85th Band played all the old familiar tunes, and the Battalion, for two hours joined in the songs and choruses. After wards in single column, the Battalion marched in triumph round the picnic grounds, circling and re-circling the scene of the bon-fire.

The games were excellent throughout. The fun feature was the special sack-races. Capt. Ralston would have won from Major Morrison, had not the Capt. stubbed his toe and fallen. But he fell full gloriously. Among other contestants were Col. Phinney and Major J. A. MacKenzie. This was a tuck-and-go-struggle, the former defeating the latter by a safe margin. Capt. Morrison challenged Capt. Martin, but the latter declined on the ground of his own youth. The tug of war and the potato races were close contests and very interesting.

During the afternoon Lt. Colonel Borden and Mrs. Borden motored to the happy scene, and everybody had a rip, roaring good time, and not a disgruntled word was heard—except the sad refrain, next day, "O me, O my, O mummy!"

Of the 800 Prussian Guards at Oviliers only 124 were left when the British were done with them.

A BUSY WEEK AFTER FIRE WATER

The inspectors and constables at Kentville have had a pretty busy week chasing the liquor which persistently seems to creep into the vicinity from all manners of bootleg peddlars. As a consequence of their efforts Saturday and Sunday were very quiet but they would have been otherwise if the liquor seized had been turned loose among the civilians and soldiers.

On Thursday last Inspector Sanford seized two cases of liquor at Centreville station. They contained about three dozen flasks and two dozen bottles. Provincial Constable Buchanan seized a case at Sheffield Mills Station the same day. Friday night Inspector Sanford corralled a two gallon jug at Aldershot station. This was not all the supplies intended to lubricate internally the men in this vicinity for on Saturday Constable Buchanan struck oil at Cambridge Station by gathering in a new two gallon oil can filled with the ardent and addressed to a man who had been dead fully twenty years and his thrust must have been quenched long ere this. The last lot of liquor came from Sydney but all the other shipments were from St. John.

Again on Sunday morning an auto from an adjoining County was searched and a quantity of liquor removed which did not decrease the ability of the car or the driver to perform their regular auto work.

Monday morning found the constables with their insatiable appetites for liquor still unquenched and they laid violent hands on a suit case in the charge of a woman. It contained several bottles far stronger than the law permits.

GERMAN WAR HELMET

On Saturday we had on display in our office window a helmet of the Prussian Guards sent home by Harry Hiltz of the 25th Battalion to his parents at Kingsport. The helmet is a striking one and was perforated with two bullet holes. A water bottle accompanied the helmet. Lieut. Hiltz had engraved on the metal bottle the following "German water bottle, taken from a captured German officer at Sanctuary Wood, 3rd battle of Ypres, June 1-12, where Canada's Second Army made History." On the other side were the battles in which the 25th had fought: Kemmel Mines, 11-18-15; The Bluff, March 27, '16; St. Eloi, April 6-12, '16; Ypres, June 1-12; Hill 60, June 30-24; Voormezul, Wychite.

Messrs Frank E. Boylan of New Ross and Constantine Gaul of Dalhousie are the latest addition to our list of merchants. They have purchased the large grocery business of Cross & DeWolfe and will continue it along the same lines, paying special attention to first class groceries, flour and feeds and the best that an up to date meat market can supply. They are men who have been prominent in business elsewhere in the County and can be depended upon to use their best efforts to satisfy their patrons. Be sure to call at the store and get acquainted with the proprietors.

BRITISH SUCCESS

With the British Armies in the Field, Sept. 9—The first mention of Irish troops fighting at Guillemont has been made officially, and it is now possible to write about them in more detail. Their charge Guillemont last Sunday with English battalions of riflemen on their right was one of the most astonishing feats of the war, almost too fast in its impetuosity. They went forward with pipes playing them on to a wild and irresistible assault. If there had been three times their number of the enemy against them they would not have been checked until they had carried the northern part of the ruined waste, that was once a village. The English troops who fought with them tell me they have never seen anything like the way in which these Irishmen dashed ahead. "It was like a human avalanche," said one of them. The officers cheered their men on as they came alongside, one of their commanding officers following the last across picked up pieces of chalk to throw after his men, shouting good luck to them. They stormed the first, second

BIG IMMIGRATION AFTER THE WAR.

J. Murray Gibbon, head of the publicity bureau of the C. P. R. who has just returned to Montreal from a visit to England, thinks that with the end of the war an enormous immigration to Canada will commence, says a Montreal despatch of Wednesday. He said:

"Everywhere I went I heard the same story. Young men in the British Isles, who have saved money, will come to Canada. Canada is the most popular of all the Colonies, a great deal more popular than it has ever been before, and the Dominion should prepare herself for the coming of young Britishers."

CANADA FIGHTING AT THE SOMME FRONT

Ottawa, Sept. 10—It is reported her that the Canadians have again been in action, this time on the Somme front, to which a large number of the troops from the Dominion were moved some time ago. No details of the engagement are available, but the fighting appears to have taken place on Friday, when the British continued their advance, capturing a German trench and repulsing a number of counter-attacks. The action does not seem to have been a heavy or serious one so far as the Canadian divisions were concerned.

Friederick Horses (coming to Halifax)

The Friederick Gleaner says: Driver Tommy Raymond, the local trainer, who went to Quebec to start his stable in the horse races in that Province has returned home. James K. Newboro, 213 1-4, is ill, and will not be ready to race for a couple of weeks. He took a cold at Moncton, where he made his first and only start this season and gradually became worse while in Three Rivers. He did not start, while Miss Keifer, who is lame, was also unable to get into the racing at Three Rivers. According to Driver Raymond, both horses will be all right within a week or two, but he will not make any starts until the Halifax races in September.

Berwick August 30—A very impressive service was held last Sunday afternoon at the residence of W. W. Pineo, Waterville, Kings Co. It was a memorial service in memory of his son, the late Capt. H. Pineo, who fell at the front some where in France early in the month of July. Hundreds of people were present on that beautiful afternoon to participate in the service which was in charge of Rev. Mr. Dakin, pastor of the Baptist Church and was ably assisted by the splendid choir of that church. Mr. Dakin gave an able discourse, taking for his text Psalm 46:1. He also read a letter by Capt. Barnes to Mrs. Pineo, giving an account of her son's death. Capt. (Rev. Dr. Cullen, president of Acadia College), was also present, and he gave an account of Capt. Pineo's life when he was at college. It was an occasion long to be remembered by those present.

The Maritime Baptist of the 30th, in speaking of Mrs. George Churchill's return to India, has these words: On September 9th our venerable and well-beloved "Mother" Churchill sails from San Francisco, returning to her loved Bobbili and the Telugu people, so deeply enshrined in her affections. She is seventy-five but eager to spend her declining years in bearing testimony to the Saviour's love in India. Her lameness will prevent her from touring very much but the people will come to her if she cannot go to them. Readers of this paper will be glad to know that Mrs. Churchill's life and letters are soon to be edited by a gifted writer and speaker, Mrs. Grace D. McLeod Rogers of Amherst, and the book will appear simultaneously in England, the United States, and Canada. It seems likely to be very popular.

King Nicholas to Visit Front

Paris, September 1—King Nicholas of Montenegro left Paris last night for Italy, where he will visit the Austro-Italy battle front. On his return to France he will pay visits to the British and Belgian armies.

Charlottown, P. E. I., Aug. 31—The Baptist parsonage, barn and outbuildings at Tyron were burned last evening. The loss is $3,000, with insurance of $1,200. The Pastor Rev. F. P. Calder was absent at the time. The fire started in the barn. The origin is unknown.

The Archduchess Zita, wife of the Austrian heir-presumptive, has given the whole of the copper and pewter utensils of her household to the Government to be broken up for military purposes. The copper articles alone weigh more than half a ton.

The order abolishing the kiln in Canadian Scottish regiments on the western front has been finally rescinded after a fortnight's controversy. The proposed abolition was defended on the ground of economy.

LT. RYAN BANDMASTER OF 219TH BATTALION.

Noted Musical Director of R. C. R. Band Will Train Purple Feather Musicians

Lieutenant Ryan, who has just undertaken the task of forming and training the Band of the 219th Battalion comes as a distinct acquisition to the whole Highland Brigade. Born a Canadian, married to a Canadian, and living most of his life among Canadians, he has caught the spirit of the country and knows how to interpret its music in a most successful way and has won many laurels for himself and for his bands.

Joining the imperial army as a lad, his talents were soon discovered, and he was sent to the Royal Military School of Music at Honnslow, London, at which he graduated. The 3rd West Indian Regiment had just been formed, and his first task was to organize and train its band, which he did so skillfully that he was appointed to the band of the 1st West Indian Regiment. This he took to the Colonial Exhibition in England in 1905 and achieved such a triumph that he was given a month's engagement in the Crystal Palace, London, and a two months tour of the Provinces. In 1906 his services were secured for the R. C. R. and no bandmaster could ask a more worthy tribute than the high standard to which this band attained. He was sent to London and headed the Canadian Contingent at the last coronation. In recognition of his services he received his commission. When the war broke out he crossed again with the R. C. R. but was invalided back from the base. On recovering his health, he took command in the meantime of the base depot company of the R. C. R., Halifax. When the 219th sought a bandmaster, it turned to him and he has assumed the burden of organizing and training its band. With such a record there can be no doubt of his success.

There are still a few places to fill in the band. Anyone in the country who has a talent that way, will have an unrivalled opportunity to serve King and Country and cheer the boys that are going to the front, if he will communicate at once with Lieut. Ryan, 219th Battalion, Aldershot.

CANADIAN RECRUITS FOR THE BRITISH NAVY

Two Thousand at Once—Many From Maritime Provinces—Canadian Pay

Ottawa, Sept. 9—It is expected that Canada will have contributed two thousand recruits at least for the royal navy by the end of the year under the arrangement announced by Hon. J. D. Hazen. The plan agreed upon between the Canadian government and the admiralty provides for a maximum of five thousand men. They will be recruited in Canada and sent to England for the major part of their training. In the work of enlistment the government will have the services of Captain, the Hon. Rupert Guinness, who came to Canada some weeks ago for the purpose of securing recruits for the navy. The new men enlisted in Canada will receive Canadian rates of pay, which are higher than the British rates.

It is expected that the Maritime Provinces will provide many of the recruits for the navy, altho the inland provinces will be expected to do their share, especially in the region of the great lakes.

It having been suggested that a special badge should be issued for length of service in the trenches, as is done in the French Army, Mr. Forster says that the matter has been considered, but it has not found favor.

Australia has subscribed over $15,000,000 to patriotic funds.

Fifty-One Wounds, Besides Lockjaw

Cpl. Riley's Marvellous Recovery — Has Record For Greatest Number of Wounds

Glasgow, Sept. 9.—A cat with its proverbial nine lives, could hardly be expected to recover from fifty-one wounds simultaneously; but Lance-Corpl. Riley, who is now a patient at the Queen Mary Hospital, Southend, can lay claim to this astonishing record. He is as hale and hearty and cheerful a patient as one could wish to find.

The modern explosive missiles and the terrible rain of bullets from machine guns result in wounds of which the old time army doctor could not have dreamed; but, though it is by no means uncommon to find cases nowadays where a man has received a dozen wounds, Lance-Corporal Riley, with his fifty-one, is believed to have established a record.

Riley was picked up at St. Eloi apparently dead, with his left leg and side spattered with shell and bullet wounds. To add to the complications of his terrible injuries there, followed indications of incipient tetanus, the dreaded "lockjaw," but the marvels of modern surgery have not merely saved his life, but, it is hoped, will eventually result in his complete recovery.

Russia to Have The Dardanelles

Cable From Petrograd States That Treaty Grants Russia the Straits.

Petrograd (via London) — Sept. 9.—On the return of the Russian Parliamentary delegates to Russia a sitting of the Joint Army and Navy Committee of the Duma was held, when Professor Millukoff, the famous Liberal leader, said:

"The most important question in which we were interested was the problem of the Dardanelles. An agreement has been made between Russia and her Allies, according to which we are promised both sides of the Straits.

"This agreement has not been published, but we consider it our duty to make it most widely known. In the course of my conversation with him, Viscount Grey, the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, admitted that the problem of the Dardanelles was just as important for Russia as the problem of Alsace-Lorraine for France.

"We have emphasized in all our conversations that the problem of the Dardanelles is our national problem. We have got the impression that leading circles abroad are inclined to consider this question in a sense favorable to us."

TO GO OVERSEAS

Lieut. George Young of the 25th O.S. Battalion, C.E.F., has been transferred to the 185th Battalion and will go overseas once more with the latter. His experiences at the front make him a valuable officer, and it is a matter of great satisfaction to all that he has so fully recovered from his recent illness as to be on duty again.

Smuggling Food Into Germany

Scheme Worked by Actors Is Proof That Huns Are Starving

Amsterdam, Sept. 9.—The Germans are trying to smuggle foodstuffs into their country by every means in their power.

A troupe of German actors had been on tour in Holland, and on their return over the frontier it was found that many of the figures of the heathen gods and goddesses among their "props" weighed far too much for their size. The Custom-House officer held an inquiry, and it was found that the hollow figures had been filled with food.

Thus "Votan" was filled with flour; "Siegfried" contained a tin of lard, "Aberich's" head was a large Dutch cheese, and "Brunhilde" was stuffed with sausage pudding.

It is not without good reason that within the last few days the Vossische Zeitung publishes several cases of suicide among the women of Berlin. They were brought to that limit of despair by the shortage of food tickets and the chaotic state of affairs resulting from such a catastrophe. It is certain that hunger will be rampant in Germany unless the food supply is increased.

German professors will be forced to invent some special way of making the paper food tickets themselves palatable to German citizens.

LAUDER'S RETORT

Harry Lauder was commending to a Yorkshire audience the worthy object for which a boxing tournament had been promoted when he was interrupted by a voice from the body of the hall. "If you'd only shake intelligently what might be able to understand what yez says." The famous comedian proved equal to the occasion, and replied—"If the purrson doon there does not bide quiet a wee, I will cum doon and present him wi' a pair o' boxin' gloves—on the nose!"

COMPLETES COURSE

Lieut. F. J. McCharles, who has completed the last captain's course at R. S. I., reported for duty with the 185th O.S. Battalion at the end of August. He was formerly with the 94th under Captain Nicholson, and was acting O. C. of "B" Coy. of that regiment. Victoria County and Baddeck Bridge claim him as their own.

BEATING BOOSE IN GREAT BRITAIN.

London, Sept. 9.—Official returns just published by the Liquor Control Board show a gratifying decrease in drunkenness in the British Isles as a result of the restrictions on the sale of drink. The convictions in London for the last year show a decrease of 25,000, as compared with the year before the war began. Charges have been made that drinking among women has increased. This is disproved by the official statistics, which reveal a drop of nearly a half of the convictions recorded against women.

$18000 BATTLE LATEST OFFER

New Orleans, September 8.—An offer of an $18,000 purse for a twenty-round fight here January 1, for the world's lightweight championship between Freddie Welsh, of England, title holder, and Johnnie Dundee, of New York, was telegraphed today by a local fight promoter to Welsh, in New York, and Dundee, in Kansas City.

BUDGET FROM 185th BATT.

Sgt. W. O. Mitchell, of the 185th, formerly of the Halifax city police force, has been appointed to the charge of the Garrison Military Police in Kentville. Lance-Corpl. McDonald, formerly Police Sergeant of the city of Sydney has also been detailed for duty on the garrison force. Both N.C.O.'s belong to D Coy. Peter Campbell, of the same Coy. is also detailed for this duty.

The making of platoon machine gun men in the 185th commenced last week by the attachment of two men from each platoon to the machine gun section, under Lt. Jas. Holland. The new men had their first experience on Tuesday night, when they accompanied the battalion on night operations. Emplacements were dug and the entire machine gun equipment of the battalion set up ready for action in twenty minutes.

Five months ago, when the 185th Battalion mobilized at Broughton it boasted, in spite of its large percentage of Scotch blood, only one experience band piper. From this start Pipe Sgt. Bowes, formerly of Louisburg, who has been instructing the pipers, has accomplished the training of fourteen pipe bandsmen and four others are now on the chinters learning to play from score. The Battalion owns sixteen pipes, eight kettle drums and four bass drums for pipe purposes, which were presented to them by their friends in Capt. Breton. The band marched out on Wednesday night with twelve pipers, four kettle drums and bass drum.

London, Sept. 9.—A despatch today from "Somewhere on the Somme" says:—One Canadian division has taken over trenches held by Imperial regiments—who have made fame for themselves in the early days of the offensive.

Canadians In Big Job On Somme

We are living in hope. Our main ambition is that we really get the Huns before they shorten their lives.

Our newest division has been doing good work not far from our old positions, thru heavy bombardments, which, it is suspected, have been started by the Germans to cover preparations for falling back to a place that will make the Ypres salient a thing of history, and will absolutely justify the toll of Canadian lives it has taken to hold this important Flanders position.

COL STANFIELD WELCOMED BACK

Lt.-Colonel John Stanfield, O. C. 193rd Battalion, rejoined his unit Saturday, arriving here on the "Bluenose" express. He was met by the Officers of the 193rd who expressed their pleasure at seeing him recovered from his recent illness, and welcomed him back to Camp.

Mr. Rupert Wheaton of Dorchester, Mass., arrived on Tuesday last to spend two weeks with his relatives at Centreville. His cousin Mr. Leander Martin also of Dorchester is expected this week to visit his former home.

Death of C. F. Rockwell, Esq.
The death of Charles F. Rockwell, took place at his residence Kentville early Monday morning after a short illness at the age of 69 years.

Mr. Rockwell was born at Upper Dyke in this County, July 3, 1847, son of the late Judah and Prudence Rockwell. During his early life he engaged in teaching and filled that position in many of the leading schools of the county. He married Anna Kidston of Cornwallis and had two children who survive him. Mrs. Frank Fowler and Mrs. Harry S. Dodge of Bridgetown. He married for his second wife Ada Murphy of Cornwallis who survives him. Mr. J. Parks Rockwell of Portland, Me., and Mrs. Wilfred Cox of Upper Dyke are brother and sister of deceased.

About 25 years ago Mr. Rockwell moved to Kentville and was appointed to the position of Prothonotary of the Supreme Court, also acting as a Stipendiary Magistrate. On the death of Stephen Belcher, he succeeded to the office of High Sheriff and retained that until about a year ago when failing health prevented him from driving through the County, he resigned and was reappointed to his former office of Prothonotary.

He was prominent for years in civic politics being Councilor for the town and also Mayor for several years. Among the fraternal orders he was very prominent, being an Oddfellow for 43 years and a Past Grand Master of the order. He also was a member of the Masonic Lodge and filled important positions there.

Socially Mr. Rockwell was a man most highly esteemed, being willing to help any one. In the hours of grief over beloved ones removed, no one with whom he was acquainted ever failed to get expressions of sorrow and assistance from him.

The funeral service will be held from the residence on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock conducted by Rev. A. C. Borden. The services will be under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. and burial at Upper Canada.

Members of Hiawatha Lodge, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet this Tuesday evening at the Lodge Rooms to make arrangements for the funeral service of the late brother C. F. Rockwell.

HANTSPOURT

Sept. 8th, Rev. Wm. J. Lockyer has resigned his charge at St. Andrews Church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mosher of Kemp Shore have been visiting here at Lockhartville.

Mrs. G. Folker and her mother, Mrs. Wm. Folker have been visiting Halls Harbor.

Professor Forsythe of Kings College was in town last Sunday.

Dr. Allison former president of Mt. Allison, with Mrs. Allison were here spending several days. They left for Halifax on Monday.

A meeting was held in I. O. O. F. Hall on Friday evening for the purpose of raising funds to help the families of the sailors in our navy. Besides the speakers—Rev. W. J. Lockyer, Archdeacon Martell, Windsor, Capt. Connor and Rev. P. C. Reid, Aldershot, there was a musical programme that was very much enjoyed. Mayor Sterling presided and at the close of the meeting called on those present for contributions toward the fund.

About $102.00 was raised on the spot, and collectors were to be sent out to solicit the citizens of the town who were not present. The meeting closed by singing the national anthem.

The Tribune says re Hantsport regiment and disturbed our peace on Sunday. They were drunk, of course. It was all bad enough, but the worst is yet to come at it is evident that some one in our midst is selling liquor to the soldiers, and probably to others. As I write, the trial has not taken place, but I sincerely hope the illicit seller will be found and dealt with as the law directs.
