LAKEVIEW

The Choicest Residential Section of Greater Regina

The best investment today. More Regina people are buying Lakeview lots now than any other prop- erty. Over 300 lots have been sold in Lakeview during the past two weeks.

"Think of the location of Lakeview." Adjoining the new Parliament Buildings overlooking Was- cana Lake and Park. In the southwest part of the city, the only direction in which the city can grow.

Good Reasons Why You Should Buy Lakeview Lots

1. Because street cars are sure to serve this property as soon as the Parliament Buildings are finished.
2. Because several of the shrewdest business men of Regina have purchased lots in Lakeview during the past month.
3. Because you cannot fail to make a profit by next spring.
4. Because a portion of Lakeview has city water and sewer already.
5. Because Regina will have a population of one hundred thousand in a few years.
6. Because Regina will have more railroad development in 1911 than any other city west of the Great Lakes.
7. Because you will never be able to buy Lakeview lots at present prices by next spring.
8. Because our prices are low and terms easy.

A letter of congratulation to Lieut. Governor Brown on his appointment was sent by the Board of Trade through President McAra and Secretary Burdette.

The Regina Orchestral Society intends making a determined effort to win the Governor-General's trophy, competition for which takes place this year in Winnipeg.

Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner, of Chicago, a famous Sunday school worker, addressed meetings of Regina S. S. teachers in the Baptist and Knox churches on Sunday.

A. M. Hawkin, caught just as he left the Hotel Grand with the coat of a guest, was found guilty in the police court and sentenced to three months in the guard room at the Police Barracks.

An action for $500 has been entered against the Regina Standard by Miss Sadie Cockwell, one of the competitors in a recent circulation contest, on the grounds that she has been discriminated against.

Rev. J. W. Aikens, temperance field secretary of the Methodist church in Canada, made an address on local option in the Regina Theatre Sunday afternoon. He occupied the pulpit of Knox church in the morning.

Word has been received in Regina that the efforts for the establishment of a Mystic Shrine in this city have met with success. The title of the latest Masonic institution in the city will be Madi Temple Ancient Arabic Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

A deputation consisting of J. A. Allan, W. E. Mason, J. H. D. Stevens and R. B. Ferguson, waited on the city council Monday evening asked for a grant of $15,000 for a new Y. W. C. A. building, to be erected at an estimated cost of $150,000.

The presentation of the Nelson Shields to the city schools and provincial educational institutions took place on Thursday, Rev. Alfred Hall of Durban, S. A., officiating. Lieut. Governor Brown presided, and many distinguished citizens were present.

Magistrate Trant writes that owing to overpressure of work in his office he is compelled to violate the law by working on Sunday. He asks for a public subscription to pay the cost of a clerk in his office, as no appropriation for such expense has been made by the city.

The first series of the City Bowling League has been completed with the Civil Service team comparatively easy winners. R. M. Ross, of that team, also had the highest individual score with 235, while Wagner, of the Drugists, and Dennison, of the Hotels, were next with 225.

The Regina Chess Club has been re-organized with the following officers: President, J. Jonas; vice-pres., Geo. Rooke; secretary-treasurer, V. B. Powis; match captain, J. Jonas; committee, C. F. Miller, L. H. Gurney, J. Stoch, and J. Hensen. Matches will be arranged with Moose Jaw, Yorkton, Saskatoon, and Prince Albert.

The provincial executive of the Trades and Labor Congress, consisting of James Summerville, Moose Jaw; J. Perry, Saskatoon; A. S. Wells, Regina and B. Simmons, president Regina Trades and Labor Council, waited upon Premier Scott on Friday to ventilate numerous grievances. The usual reply of "serious consideration" was given.

The works committee of the City Council is again dealing with the street railway proposition. Five and a half miles of track are planned for next year on the following streets: Eleventh, Albert, Fifteenth, Scarth, Broad, South Railway, Lorne, Dewdney, Elphinstone, Thirteenth. A site adjacent to the exhibition grounds has been recommended for the car barns. Extensions to the annexes will not be considered until the matter of annexation is settled.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wright, of London, Ont., were a much discussed couple in Regina last week. It came about through a statement credited to Mrs. Wright, who is prominent in temperance and missionary circles, that vice was rampant in Regina under the segregation system; in fact that this city possessed a red-light district. Fuel was added to the fire of indignation when a second statement, alleged to have been made by Mr. Wright, was published, in which he corroborated the remarks of Mrs. Wright. Chief Zeats promptly hurled a challenge eastward, offering to donate $1,000 to any missionary society if it could be proven that a segregated district exists in Regina. Prominent citizens repudiated the slanderous assertions reported to have been made by Mr. and Mrs. Wright, and the city was on the verge of entering a heavy action for damages, when a long message was received from Mr. Wright in which he claimed that neither Mrs. Wright or he had made the statements credited to them; in fact it was all a reporter's mistake.

Normal School. Arrangements have been made by the Department of Education to hold local sessions of the Normal School at the following places in the Province, namely: Regina, Saskatoon, Moosemin, Yorkton and Estevan.
