AT the opening meeting of the arch-bishops of the United States, at the Cathu-lic University, Washington, on Wednes-day last, Cardinal Gibbons announced that he had just received a cablegram from Rome stating that his Holiness the Rope had appointed Archbishop Chappelle, of New Orleans, Apostolic Delegate to Cuba. Archbishop Chappelle is in Rome, or was there on the date in question. He does not cease to be Archbishop of New Orleans, his mission to Cuba being of a special nature. His appointment to this important and delicate office is most favourably commented upon. The Archbishog speaks French and Spanish as well or bet ter than he does English,

MONTREAL papers to hand inform us that Archbishop Bruchesi of that city, arrived home on Friday last from his tour of the Maritime Frovinces. He expressed himself as delighted with his trip and spoke highly of the hospitable manner in which he had been entertained by the prelates he had visited. In this conection it may be said that his Grace of Montreal visited these parts ange before. Away back in 1879, Father Bruchesi, recently ordained was returning from Rome, in company with some other ecclesiastics who had been pursuing their studies along with him in France and Rome. They were on poard the mail steamer City of Quebec of the Dominion Line, from Liverpool for Montreal. All went well till they reached the northern coast of this Province, when the vicinity of East Point and ran aground After some hours delay waiting for the rising tide an unavailing effort was made to get the steamer off. Finally her Maj esty is warship, Bellerophon hove in sight, and seeing the steamer in distress took a tow line and attempted to extricate her from her sand bed; but in this she was not successful. The Bellerophon, however, took off the passengers and landed them at Pictou, whence they proceeded home by rail. Father Bruchesi said his first Mass on this side of the Atlantic in the church of "Stella Maris," at Pictou, and it seemd to him, as he said, like a place of pilgrimage when he was there a few days ago, as Archbishop of Montreal and had the privilege of again celebrating Mass in the same beautiful church,

UNCEASING MUSIC

Floating out upon the starlight Came the words the Angel spoke, And so sweet their tender music That the echoes all awoke, And Ave, gratia plena.

Ave! sang the spreading branches Of the vine-enshrouded trees; Gratia plena / soft was murmured From the sedges, as the breeze Bent them down to kiss the waters As they sought the distant seas.

And poor mortals caught the mus Lo! the victory was won; And the echo, Gratia plena! From the rising of the sun Blends with Ora, Mater, ora Till the day of life is done.
