Guelph Evening Mercury
 FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 10, 1873

Town and County News.
THAIN & ELLIOTT's great implement sale to-morrow.
 This beautiful weather is very much like Indian summer.

PALMERSTON complains of the badness of the surrounding roads in spring and fall as being a great hindrance to her prosperity.

We congratulate the Editor of the Listowel Banner on his "old liking for mechanical matters." How sweet it is to find a kindred spirit!

THE DROT.—Don't fail to read E.
 O'Donnell & Co's advertisement in today's paper, in relation to their new stock of Teas. He wants all to go direct to the Tea Depot.

Flocks of birds can now daily be seen going southward. These little travellers indicate the near approach of cold weather. Moral: Get your fall planning done at once, and finish digging up your potatoes.

The town-line between Wallace and Minto, from the end of the gravel road to Palmerston, is being improved to the extent of one hundred dollars. Each township gives fifty dollars.

The Berlin & Galt branch of the Grand Trunk Railway will be opened on Monday next. Two trains each way per day are to be run. The hours of their departure and arrival will be found in our advertisement.

G. T. R. MAGNATES.—Mr. Brydges, Mr.
 Hannaford, Mr. Spicer, and other leading Grand Trunk officials passed westward to-day on the 9.45 train. Their journey is partly to inspect the road after its change of gauge, and also to meet Mr.
 Potter, the chairman of the road, who is out west.

Wm. TINDALL, Sr., of Nichol, sold his prize lamb to Richard Rivers, from near Walkerton, for a handsome price. Mr.
 Rivers was at the Provincial Fair, but found he could suit himself better out of Mr. Tindall's flock than he could upon the fair ground.

A BOGGY ACCIDENT happened to Dr.
 Tamblin, of Garafaxa, last week. He was discovered lying stunned by the side of the road, near Douglass, and his horse and empty vehicle were found a little further on. The doctor suffered considerably from the effects of the accident for a day or two, but is now better.

FARM SOLD.—Messrs J. & R. Reabeing, about to start for California, sold the north-west half of lot 31 and south-east half of lot 32, of Eramosa, (207 acres) to James S. Armstrong for $12,000.

This is a large stone dwelling and new frame bank barn 70x72 feet on the premises.

On Saturday night Mr. Wm Owen's barn on the 4th con. Peel, was burned down. Mr. Owen lately bought a farm to the west of that which he now resides, upon which was a log barn. About 450 bushels was put into the barn this season.
 There is a small insurance on the building.

A CUTTHROAT—A most villainous act was perpetrated a few days ago. Mr.
 Hope, 9th Con. Peel, had been using his horses in the morning, but rain coming on, he turned them out into the field, and upon going in the afternoon to hitch them up, one of his working horses, a valuable animal, was found lying quite dead with his throat cut.

During the present summer in West Garafaxa many farmers have had a large number of sheep killed by dogs: David Small losing five, Hugh Thomson eight and one badly wounded, John Al-fison nine in one night, Mr. Dobbins all he had, Mr. Short on the east side of the river, all he had but one, Messrs.
 Johnson & Thomson two, and several others a greater or less number. Mr. J.
 Gerrie, who had his sheep closed up, seeing two dogs (one black, the other brown) prowling about, warned his neighbors to be on the watch. The black dog was killed, since which time no further depredations have been committed.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night.
 A committee was appointed to confer with the joint committee of the Sons of Temperance and of the Good Templars, on the best means of promoting the Temperance cause, said Committee to report to Association before any important action is taken. The proprietors of the billiard saloons having petitioned the Council to extend the hours during which they may keep open their saloons, a committee was appointed to draft and circulate among the ratepayers a petition praying the Council not to extend the time. The literary exercises consisted of the reading by the Editor, Mr. Cooley, of a manuscript magazine, consisting of interesting articles under the titles: "The answer by Fitz," "My soul and I," "a selection from Whittier's "Dunes," and "how to perform them" and "The poetry of life."

IMPORTED RAMA.—Wm. Whitlaw, Esq., of Paisley Block, has just received by the Allan line, two Leicester rams, consigned to him by a friend in Scotland. They arrived in Guelph on Wednesday in good condition, and are fine specimens of the Leicester breed. One of them is for Mr.
 Oliver, of Dumfries. They were both purchased at the late great sale of rams at Kelso. The one belonging to Mr.
 Whitlaw is from the celebrated Rock Flock of Mr. Bosanquet, Northumberland, being the same breed as the one shown by him which took the first prize this year at the Guelph Central, Provincial and Hamilton Exhibitions. Mr.
 Oliver's is from Mr. Foster's flock, Milingham, Northumberland, whose sheep were very successful prize takers this year at the Highland Agricultural Society's show at Stirling. The great interest taken by Mr. Whitlaw in improving the breed of sheep is praiseworthy, and we hope the heavy outlay he has been at will be amply repaid.

Local and Other Items
 The tailors' strike continues.

 The bound vol. of the Sunday Magazine for Ministers and the 23rd.

The Ottawa Times has the following:-

It is not impossible that Ministers may ask for a Committee of the House to examine and report upon the evidence taken before the Royal Commission, and to take such further evidence as they may deem necessary.

As the Mail has not yet given any hint on this subject, it is uncertain whether the foregoing is an "official utterance" or not.

More Nonsense.

Practice makes perfect. That is the reason, we suppose, why the Mail is so good at evading the vital point of any question where the facts happen to be stubbornly in the way of the views the paper wishes to maintain.

Either Sir Hugh Allan and his company got a favourable charter, or they did not. If it be true that they have decided to give it up, the abandonment of the scheme by them must be accepted as proof positive that it was not a favourable charter.

The remainder of the article is in the same vein, and the writer triumphantly proves to his own satisfaction that because the revelations of Sir Hugh's corruption have forced him to resign the charter, because the scheme was put in so rash and impracticable a shape that the English capitalists would have nothing to do with it, therefore the gigantic charter which the rival companies fought to obtain was scarcely worth having.

The English press appears to be unanimous in their condemnation of the Dominion Ministry in reference to the Pacific Scandal. Two more influential London newspapers—the Spectator and the Saturday Review—have published articles expressing the opinion that the guilt of Sir John A. Macdonald and his colleagues is proved beyond doubt.

We learn from a private source that the Pacific Scandal is all the talk in England. We understand that a cable despatch has been received in London by friends of Sir John A. Macdonald, foreshadowing defeat on the 23rd of October. It is further reported in London, and we believe not without good authority, that the name of the "Right Honourable" Sir John A. Macdonald will be shortly struck off the list of Her Majesty's Privy Counsellors.

Barking Up the Wrong Tree. Not the least ludicrous of the attitudes assumed by the Tory organs when the Allan correspondence first shed its beneficial light upon Ministerial corruption, was the position they assumed with regard to Mr. Mullen. Most of Sir Hugh's confidential letters were addressed to the Chicago speculator, ergo he must have been the one who delivered them over for publication.

OUTRAGE wants a judgeship, and in case he gets one Langevin is looked to as the coming Quebec Premier. Knowing ones of both political parties in Toronto are figuring up the strength of the contending sides when the House meets.

Their old store being too small on account of the continual increase in the Wholesale Manufacturing, as well as in the Retail Departments they have now fitted up the new and much larger place in first-class style, and would intimate to their very numerous customers and the public generally that having increased the facilities for manufacturing they are now able to offer to the public first-rate goods in all branches, at lower prices than ever before.

The Rival Clansmen:

A Scottish Vendetta.

CHAPTER II.

TIMELY ARRIVAL—HECTOR AND FLORA PURSUED BY IAN AND THE M'KENZIES.

With these the same ceremony was repeated, and then, addressing those before him in stern, eager tones, Ian said—"Now, my kinsmen, we must be after our foe. There are three that we must pursue—two men and a woman. I ask from you that the woman be delivered safe to me, and that your claymores may drink the blood of her companions. Angus, we will leave you to watch over the body of our dead Chief. And now for action."

There was a subdued responsive cheer, and the party at once left the hut, leaving Angus behind.

The storm which had just passed had swollen the burn which ran down the glen, until it was now a raging torrent; and the roaring sound it made as it leaped over rocks, falling into deep pools, and rushing through gorges caused Ian's heart to leap with joy, for he felt that, with the din of the cataract sounding in their ears, he could reach the party of which he was in pursuit before they could be aware of his and his companions' presence.

The tall Highlander who had first entered the hut led the way, and the others—six in number—followed in single file, Ian being second. Carefully and cautiously they had to pick their steps, for the path just skirted the margin of the precipice, at the bottom of which the burn careered along, and huge stones having been loosened from the mountain side, and down rolled were here and there obstructing the path, rendering walking difficult and dangerous.

But, nevertheless, past all these obstacles did the Highlanders press swiftly and stealthily—all eagerly bent on their terrible purpose, and determined that the son of the hated M'Leod, should not again see the morning light.

Still on they pushed, and they were just nearing the point where the glen opens up at the margin of Loch Maroe, when suddenly the leading clansmen halted and listened. Then seizing Ian's hand he caused him to kneel down and look forward.

Ian's heart bounded. Between Ben-Eay and the hills to the eastward a small patch of sky was visible; and there, distinctly outlined, and not more than fifty yards in advance, were Hector and Flora, and their companion, Ned Gordon.

Silently the word was passed, then each drew his claymore and they swiftly hurried on, nearing the others at every step. The loud voice of Gordon could now be distinguished talking and joking with the others, while Flora and Hector could be heard replying in monosyllables and laughing heartily at his witty sallies.

Not more than a dozen yards now separated the two parties, and those in front were still ignorant of their foes' presence, when suddenly the wild war-cry of the M'Kenzies rang out, and the party, sheltered by the darkness of the night and now headed by Ian, rushed forward to attack M'Leod and Gordon.

Life in Arkansas.

The New York Tribune has the following in reference to social life in Arkansas:—

We finish our perusal of the Greenwood (Ark.) Standard, a newspaper about the size of a pocket-handkerchief, with a feeling of having been in a small battle and of having been hit somewhere personally. Judge Meers, we are told, was shot on Wednesday, Mr. Ward, of Clarksville, was shot on Friday. An unfortunate man named Pigg was shot last week. Several people are spoken of as having been slightly wounded; but of such small matters we make no account. In Johnson County all is said to have been terror and excitement. In Perryville they are organizing three military companies, "two white and one black." Occasionally, when a warrant is out for the arrest of some murderer, he also organizes a military company and declares war against the Sheriff and all his dependents. The Adjutant-General, Bishop, writes a long letter to Gov. Baxter, explaining to His Excellency that "there is great difficulty in making arrests." In sheer weariness we turn from the news columns of this little sheet and try to solace ourselves by reading the advertisements. We fall back upon the peaceful Boots and Shoes and the innocent Dry Goods. It is quite restorative to note the cards of the Physicians and to be informed that "they attend calls day and night." We recognize the usefulness of that citizen who informs the public that he "keeps constantly on hand good stocks of Metallic Burial Cases, Walnut, Velvet, and Imitation Rosewood Coffins." We feel that the enterprising tradesman who has for sale a great variety of "Monuments and Headstones" must be doing a fine, we hope a cash business.

As one result of the recent tailors' strike in Toronto, Messrs. Stovell, Sanders, Riddell and Clark, proprietors of four leading establishments, have completed arrangements for sending work to Europe.

In Japan a man aged thirty recently committed suicide by hanging, in fulfillment of a vow which when seventeen years of age, he had made to Buddha, namely: that if at the age of thirty he had not become famous he would die.

Two gentlemen, lately travelling in Scotland, were discussing the fare at different hotels. One observed that at his hotel he had tea so strong it was necessary to confine it in an iron vessel. "At mine," said the other, "it is made so weak it has not strength to run out of the teapot."

The re-opening of the Port Elgin Wesleyan Methodist Church was celebrated on Sunday the 5th inst. The Rev. J. G. Laird, chairman of the Owen Sound District, and the Rev. G. A. Mitchell, D. D. of Kincardine, were the preachers. The Trust Fund tea meeting came off Monday evening.

A political club is being formed in London which is likely to be troublesome to "Whips." Its motto is to be "Measures not men," and its members are to be those Lords and Commons and aspirants to seats who profess independence, and, whichever way they may generally vote, refuse to be tied to the chariot wheels of either Mr. Gladstone or Mr. Disraeli.

Captain John Morrish, says the Inter-Ocean, in exploring for mineral in Richard County, Wisconsin, recently, found a vein of earth resembling castile soap. It is employed to wash hands, and a gentleman who had used it for that purpose supposed it was castile soap, and declared it was after his attention had been called to it. It leaves the skin smooth and soft. It is said to remove grease spots from clothes.
