BEATTY'S FLEET IN GREAT TOWN AFTER TRIUMPH

Gallant Exploits of Commanders of Destroyers Re-counted With Admiration.

HUNS WILL LIE LOW Bluejackets Think Foe Will Not Venture Out for Six Months.

LONDON, June 8.—"It is a tonic to visit Beatty's battle cruiser fleet, from which I have just returned," said a naval officer of high rank to The Associated Press today. He added: "The officers and men are in splendid fettle. Instead of feeling depressed, they are inclined to feel sorry for the poor Germans. It is impossible to speak too highly of the officers and men of our destroyers, who were simply wonderful. They consistently held the upper hand in the greatest battle ever engaged in by these little warcraft."

"Until we have Admiral Jellicoe's full report, which is being collected and digested as rapidly as possible, it is quite out of the question for me to give any more connected details of the battle than have been published. But I can relate a few incidents and give some impressions, which may show something of the spirit of the action. As for the fleet itself, it is quite ready for another battle as big as the Jutland action."

"The gallant exploit of the commander of the destroyer is one of the most striking incidents of the action, which unfolded in extraordinary fashion. This destroyer, fifth in the line, saw her four leaders, one by one, put out of action, but kept ahead without warning, and got all her torpedoes home. She then discovered a great German battleship looming out of the mist so close to her that the enemy tried his big guns but his shells blew over the funnels and masts of the little warship. She escaped without further damage."

"Another marvelous escape of one of our destroyers, which had dropped a stoker reported himself wounded. But as no shell had struck the ship, the commanding officer, who had been wounded, declined to believe the man. He, however, reported himself again the next morning as a casualty and showed the commander a 12-inch shrapnel shell which had dropped through the hatchway into the hold."

"A similar incident occurred aboard the battle cruiser Lion, where two minor officers from the fighting top saw an exploded 12-inch shell lying on the deck in some burning debris. These officers ran to the fire and extinguished it before it had done any harm."

"Eleven thousand prisoners were gathered in by the Russians, making over 51,000 taken in the first four days of the offensive, and with the Russians still pushing on, vast numbers more are likely to be promptly taken. In the north in Volhynia the Russians have made an advance towards Rovno and Kovel south of the Pripiet, and after an action in which they overtook the enemy, they occupied the town of Lutsk, representing an advance of about 20 miles. In many places they have seized the lines of the Ikwa and Sty Rivers, have crossed them and are continuing their offensive. All the world coming to hand tends to confirm the belief that the Austrians are sustaining a military disaster of first rate importance."

In the south in Galicia the Russians are also energetically attacking the enemy and they have already captured a number of powerful organized positions on the front of Traubkovichsky-Jaz-

SHIFT ALL PRISONERS TO NEUTRAL COUNTRIES

London Graphic Brings Forward Suggestion of Novel Sort.

LONDON, Friday, June 9.—The Daily Graphic, discussing the alleged hardships of British prisoners in Germany, suggests that the prisoners of all the belligerent nations be transferred to neutral countries and be paid for by the respective governments. The Graphic urges the United States to take up the matter to the extent of making a special appeal to the German Government to agree to such an arrangement.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, June 8.—It is understood that Hon. T. Chase Casgrain, postmaster-general, will shortly resign his portfolio and be appointed commissioner-general for Canada at Paris, which is the home of his wife, whom he married a year ago. Rhodes, M.P., will become Speaker.

CHAPLAIN FOUGHT GALLANTLY TO END Rev. Capt. Wilkens Used Bayonet and Then His Fists on Germans. COL. BULLER BURIED He Rests Beside Col. Farquhar, His Predecessor in Command.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, June 8.—Details of the battle of Sanctuary Wood are beginning to reach the minister of militia. He learned by cable this evening that Col. Buller of the Princess Pat was killed on June 5 at Voormesella. In Col. Farquhar's grave, Col. Farquhar was the first commanding officer of the Princess Patricia, and when he was killed, Col. Buller, then a major, succeeded him. Both were aides-de-camp at Government House. The story of the death of Rev. Capt. H. G. Wilkens of the First C.M.R., a westerner, is thrilling. When the Germans attacked, although a chaplain, he fought as a combatant. When the enemy reached the Canadian line, he used the bayonet and finally his fists, until he was killed.

By a Staff Reporter. LONDON, June 8.—The Germans have won a tactical victory at Ypres. He returned to the dressing station. He was again wounded and again sent to the dressing station. Once more he attempted to rejoin his comrades, but was unable. Capt. Niven was twice wounded in previous fighting.

CANADIANS SHELL GERMAN FRONT Artillery Engagement Continues to East of Ypres. Foe Does Not Attack Keeps Infantry in Trenches After Suffering Repulses.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, June 8.—The Germans have gained no ground on the Canadian front at Ypres since the capture of the front line trenches running through Hoge on Tuesday afternoon, and today and last night the only action was the intermittent bombardment of each other by the artillery on both sides. After the repulse of several of their attacks on Wednesday by the Canadians, who inflicted severe losses on them, the Germans did not venture out of their trenches, but preferred to wait for their big guns to dig up the ground. The Canadian artillerists also showed that they could do some digging, and the duel is being prolonged. Persons who have been behind the Canadian lines continue to express supreme confidence that the Germans will not be able to make any impression on the main positions of the Canadians. These are immensely strong. The despatch of Sir Douglas Haig from the front tonight at 12 o'clock said: "The situation at Hoge is unchanged, and there has been no fighting engagements today. The artillery of both sides shelled intermittently both day and night."

GREECE AGREES TO DEMOBILIZE PART OF ARMY Cabinet Makes Announcement as Result of Entente Powers' Pressure. PUT END TO QUIBLING British Papers Firm in Demanding Use of Strong Pressure.

ATHENS, via London, June 9, 1.28 a.m.—The Greek cabinet has decided to publish immediately a demobilization decree disbanding the 12 senior military classes.

LONDON, Friday, June 9.—The editorials in the London morning papers are largely taken up by the official British announcement that restrictive measures affecting Greek ports are being considered "to prevent supplies from reaching the enemy."

Press despatches from Cardiff say that port officers in Wales have been instructed to refuse clearance to Greek vessels.

The leaders unanimously express relief that the entente at last has decided to take strong measures to end the anomalous situation in Greece and the belief is general that Greece will be compelled to capitulate in a short time. Although it is not known what demands have been made upon Greece, the Daily Telegraph and other morning papers express the hope that it is nothing short of the demobilization of the Greek army. The Post says:

"Greece is confronted with a serious emergency. It is in the power of the allies to close the sea against her, and her many rich island possessions may become endangered." The Daily Graphic says: "If lesser measures are insufficient to prevent Greece from aiding the enemy, we shall doubtless proceed to a full blockade of Greek ports. Bulgarian troops certainly will not be allowed to occupy Greek ports unless the Greek Government had virtually decided to throw in its lot with the central powers. The rep' of the entente powers is prompt and will be decisive."

LONDON, June 8.—One warrant officer and 11 men, survivors of the cruiser Hampshire, which went down off the Orkney Islands with Earl Kitchener and members of his staff aboard, have been washed ashore on a raft, according to an announcement made by the admiralty tonight. The cruiser Hampshire sank in deep water two miles from land, between Marwick Head and the Brough of Birsay, on the west coast of the Orkney Islands, says a despatch from Aberdeen, Scotland.

W. A. BEW WILL BE BROUGHT BACK FROM NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE TODAY. W. Arthur Bew was arrested at Niagara-on-the-Lake last night, on a warrant charging him with the theft of $100 in cash from the law firm of M. Dewar & Co. in Old Mills Road, Cornwall. Bew was employed in the Toronto office of the firm as a bookkeeper. Last Friday he disappeared from the city, and is alleged to have taken the money with him. Detective Tiggle left this morning for Niagara to bring the prisoner back.

BOY HAD THIGH BROKEN. Riding his bicycle along Nelson street yesterday evening, 18-year-old Edward Biskley, 99 Markham street, was knocked down by a motor car driven by William Harrison of the Repository, and had his thigh broken. He was removed to the General Hospital in the police ambulance.

FIVE ARMIES OF ENEMY ARE ON EVE OF BEATING GENERAL RETREAT—CZAR CAPTURES LUTSK AND ADVANCES ON ROVNO AND KOVEL AND GENERAL HEADQUARTERS ANNOUNCES WINNING OF IMPORTANT VICTORY.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, June 8.—An important victory, crowned by a great breach in the fortified front of the enemy in Galicia and Volhynia, in front of Lemberg, is claimed tonight by the Russians in their official statement on the result of the engagements from June 4 to 7. On Tuesday Russian troops defeated and dispersed masses of Austrian troops and occupied the town of Lutsk, following a battle in that region. In Wednesday's fighting the Russians added 11,000 prisoners to the 40,000 previously taken, and they also captured yesterday many guns, machine guns, a quantity of other weapons, field kitchens and telephone material. The Russians are advancing on Kovel and Rovno.

The Russian general staff reports that in many places the czar's infantry have seized not only the lines of the Rivers Ikwa and Sty, but have crossed them and continued the offensive. On the lower Strips in Galicia Russian infantry, supported by artillery fire, has captured by a rapid advance a number of powerful Austrian organized positions on the front of Traubkovichsky-Jaslavets, and has already arrived quite near the line of the Strips River. From Lutsk the Russians are developing their offensive in the direction of Rovno and Kovel and they are keeping on the heels of the defeated enemy.

LEMBERG IS IN GREAT DANGER. Special despatches from Petrograd express the belief that the Russian successes against the Austrians are far more important than appears from the official announcement. The Daily Telegraph's correspondent ventures the assertion on the authority of a prominent Russian expert, that "all five Austrian armies are on the eve of a general retreat and that Lemberg is in great strategic danger."

BLOW BREACH IN FRONT. On the same authority it is asserted that "a strategic breach, 100 miles wide, has been blown in the Austrian front, involving the armies of Gen. Count von Bothmer and Gen. von Boehm-Ermolli, and part of that of Archduke Joseph Ferdinand. According to other despatches the Russian success is largely due to the unprecedented use of artillery, surpassing in intensity any previous efforts on either side on the east front. The retreat of many Austrian trench detachments was completely cut off by a curtain of shrapnel, through which it was impossible for any living thing to pass, and the Austrians were thus compelled to surrender en masse.

FOE'S LOSSES MOUNT UP. The Times estimates the Austrian losses at 200,000. The Germans continue their futile offensive against the Russians on the Divina front, bombarding the Ilkull bridgehead by a concentrated fire, and making repeated attempts to advance in the region south of Smorgon. These movements were checked by the Russian fire. South of Krevo their artillery fired gusts of shells on the Russian positions.

RUSSIA GIVES OFFICIAL VIEW. The Russian official statement on the victory says: "On Tuesday we developed our offensive in the direction of Rovno and Kovel and, keeping on the heels of the overthrown enemy, following a battle in the region of Lutsk, we occupied that town. In many places we have seized not only the lines of the Rivers Ikwa and Sty, but have crossed them and continued our offensive." "In Galicia, on the lower Strips, our infantry, supported by artillery fire, has captured by an energetic advance a number of powerful enemy organized positions on the front of Traubkovichsky-Jaslavets, and have arrived quite near the line of the Strips River."

"In addition to the 40,000 prisoners previously taken, we took in the course of yesterday's fighting 56 officers and about 11,000 men, and captured a number of guns and machine guns, a quantity of other weapons, field kitchens and telephone material." "The results of the engagements from the 4th to the 7th in Volhynia and Galicia permit us to consider that we have already gained an important victory, which is crowned by a great breach in the enemy's fortified front."

FIGHTING LESS THAN WEEK. The official Russian statement of yesterday announced the capture, from the beginning of the offensive movement, of 900 officers and more than 40,000 men, so that the number given today brings up the total to well over 50,000. The new Russian campaign has been under way less than a week. Lutsk is the apex of a triangle of fortresses whose base line, extending from Dubno to Rovno, lies to the southeast. These fortresses were captured by the Austrians last autumn after long and severe fighting, during which Lutsk changed hands several times.

ENDEAVORS CAPTURE YPRES

Engage in Desperate Fighting in Whole Sector.

TESTED NEW GUNS

Prepared for Fighting Little Many Days Ago.

June 8.—A despatch from Rotterdam says that fighting continues in the Ypres sector. On both sides the actions are as fierce as any ever known on the western front. Day after day the guns thunder without ceasing and shells are raining on the British lines near Besseneke, Hooge and Gheluwe. The advantage the Germans gained in the last days of the battle has been completely nullified. It is now expected that the British will have to remain in their present positions until they are able to launch a new offensive. The new guns tested by the British in the Ypres sector are of a type which will be ready for use in a few days. They are of a type which will be ready for use in a few days.

KITCHENER WAS NEVER HESITANT

"He Could Always See Black or White, But Never Gray."

HUGHES' DESCRIPTION

Sir Sam Was Greatly Impressed With Genius of Kitchener.

Staff Reporter.

W. A. W., June 8.—"Kitchener was a Britisher thru and thru. He could see black or white; he never saw gray."

The speaker was Gen. Hughes. This afternoon he was asked about his last meeting with the great soldier, and Sir Sam consented to tell some of the things about "K. of K." which have impressed themselves indelibly upon his mind.

"I saw Kitchener several times in the last few weeks of his life. He was a man of my own country. It had been my privilege to know him for several years past, and he gave me a hearty and warm welcome. One of the things that struck me was his wonderful manner in which he seemed to be hearing up under the tremendous strain of war.

"He had grown slightly more gray than when I saw him a year before, but his great frame stood erect and his mind seemed as clear and powerful as when I met him fifteen years before in Africa.

"He had a warm heart. There was nothing at all pretentious about Kitchener's room in the war office. He was not of the kind who give a great deal of thought to personal comfort. While his whole exterior appeared as cold and uncomplaising as the mountain crags of Scotland, as warm and tender as the melodies of his native Ireland.

"He never tired of talking about Canada and Canadians. He had learned to admire their fighting qualities in Africa, and the gallantry of our boys at St. Julien. He was full of my pride in them. Naturally he was in conversation with Kitchener at the war office was of an official and confidential character. We did not always see eye to eye, but I respected his opinion and I think he respected mine.

to waver for a single instant in his belief that the Kaiser would be smashed. He was no blind optimist; he knew the British character better. Kitchener was a Britisher, thru and thru. NEW BREAKWATER FOR KEW BEACH ADVISED

Parks Committee on Annual Tour—Also Favor Lake Near Catfish Pond.

The parks committee yesterday made their annual tour of inspection of the city parks, every one being visited. At Kew Beach the committee noted the damage which had been done by the recent storms and Parks Commissioner Chambers thought it would be advisable to build a fresh breakwater.

The commission at Catfish Pond referred to his proposition of draining the northern section of the marsh and running the water to the south so as to form a lake about three acres in extent. This proposal was looked upon favorably by the committee.

MANY U.S. MOTORISTS ARE TOURING ONTARIO

Taking Advantage of Privilege Granted by Motor Reciprocity Agreement.

Americans are taking full advantage of their privilege of visiting Canada by automobile without extra expense as granted to them by the recently passed motor reciprocity agreement. Eight hundred licenses have been issued to them in Windsor and 400 in Niagara.

This is before the regular tourist traffic has begun. Those who have crossed so far are estimated to be mostly local residents who have taken an early opportunity of motoring thru the adjacent parts of Ontario as they had not been able to do before owing to the necessity of buying an Ontario license before they could take even a ten-mile trip in this country.

One of the best-known men in the city hall, Provincial Constable Burns, who was for 15 years the county crown attorney's clerk, died yesterday morning at his home, 148 Woodbine avenue, after a long and serious illness.

During his career at the city hall the late Mr. Burns, who was 64 years of age, served with three crown attorneys and previous to that was manager of Victoria Park for eight years. He was born in London, England, and came to Canada 35 years ago.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Robert and Pte. Gordon, and four daughters, Irene, Amy and Edith at home, and Mrs. T. H. Miller, of 42 Rainsford road. The funeral will take place tomorrow to Norway Cemetery.

CONFESSED TO MURDER OF THREE PEOPLE

Desperate Character Rounded Up in Kenora Wilds by Constable Simpson.

Keweetaskamung, "the Skunk," accused of the murder of Mrs. Huebner and her daughter in the Kenora wilds, has been arrested after a long chase over swollen streams and thru rough and broken country, according to a telegram received by the provincial police department here. The telegram was from Constable W. Simpson and was addressed from Fort Alexandria, which is in Manitoba.

"The Skunk" is the second of the fugitives to be apprehended. His partner, John Winkak, was arrested a few days ago near their home. He confessed not only to the murder of which he was accused, but also to that of Joseph Dewarck, whose body was found beneath a pile of hay in his barn on the shore of Lake of the Woods. This murder is supposed to have taken place at the end of last month.

CITY COUNSEL GEARY REFUSES TO RETURN

In Letter to City Clerk, He Declares His Determination to Go to the Front.

Corporation Counsel Capt. Geary is determined to go to the front. City Clerk Littlejohn received his long delayed letter yesterday. It was written from West Sandling on May 25, and reads: "Your letter of April 25 reached me on Friday, May 13, having been apparently delayed somewhere. The resolution enclosed seemed to be based on the assumption that my state of health is one that will not permit of my engaging in active warfare. That is wrong—it has not been finally so declared, and, as far as one can see, will not be. I expect when my turn comes, to be quite fit for the front, so that there is no reason of this sort for my returning, and I have no idea of asking special treatment."

"My letter of May 8 to the board of control no doubt has reached you, telling me of my regret for the difficulty which my absence has raised. I shall be only too glad when, with the end of the war, we can all get back home."

THANKS FROM "HAMPSHIRE."

Last week at the annual meeting of the Canadian National Ladies' Guild for Sailors a letter was read from the officers and crew of H.M.S. "Hampshire," thanking the women for a consignment of fruit, which had been received on board as their gift.

HYDRO FINANCING

City Auditor Reports City Hydro Gross Income for 1915 of $1,620,187, with Net Surplus of $3,137.

Hydro advertised 1916 rates reduced 15% from January 1st.

Gross Income for 1915	$1,620,187
Reduction at 15 per cent.	$243,027
Net Surplus for 1915	3,137
Loss on basis of 1915 Business	$239,890

Was the last rate reduction warranted in the opinion of the citizens of Toronto, who are the owners of the Hydro?

It will require 29,986 additional street lamps at $8.00 per lamp to make up this amount.

Will the ratepayers consent to pay this amount in civic use of power or in taxes, so that Hydro can break even?

The net result is that every customer of Hydro at 1916 rates means a net loss to ratepayers.

You can secure better service (backed by steam reserve, storage batteries, and 4 transmission lines) at no higher cost, without increasing Hydro deficit, by using service of

NEW BEACH RESIDENTS HAVE CELLARS FLOODED

Removal of Sand Along the Beach Causes Water to Rise Above Normal.

Ratepayers living on the waterfront in the Kew Beach district appeared before the board of control yesterday complaining about the removal of sand from the beach. During the past two or three days the lake has been very rough and the water is three feet higher than normal. Some of the ratepayers have suffered considerably, as the water has flooded their cellars, and the deputation thought the city was responsible.

Controller Cameron thought it would be foolish for the controllers to admit responsibility, while Controller O'Neill wanted to place the responsibility where it belonged. The matter will be given immediate attention.

Lieut. Charles Chambers, the parks commissioner, applied on behalf of the 9th Mississauga Horse for 12,000 rounds of ammunition, which is now held by the city, for the use of the regiment at Long Branch. The matter was referred to the property commissioner.

WASTED TALENTS.

The train robber suddenly appeared as many of the passengers were preparing to retire for the night. "Come, shoot!" he demanded, as he stood lowering above an eastern clergyman, who had just finished a devout prayer. The minister looked at him sadly for a moment, and then said: "If I had such energetic fellows as you to pass the plate now and then I might have something to give you."

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 9. The Secret of Victory. While the allies are being hard pushed on the western front at Verdun and Ypres, the Russians have come along with a swinging blow in the east. The old familiar but unpronounceable names of eighteen months ago are once more in evidence, and we may expect to hear that Lemberg, which is only seventy-five miles from the Russian front, is once more a centre of interest.

Neutral and German sympathizers may not fully understand the reality of the alliance between France, Russia, Great Britain, Italy, Serbia, Japan and the other powers involved on their side. It is a real alliance, and it works out for the purposes for which it was entered into. When the western armies were being prepared Russia hurled her battalions on the eastern front and kept the Germans busy until they brought up all their forces and drove the retreating Russians so far east and no doubt the Kaiser's staff believed they were permanently out of business.

During this time the French and British armies were getting ready. They are still not much more than "beginning to get ready," as was said last week by one entitled to speak. But meanwhile they are holding their own. With the help of Japan and the other allies, the Russian military have been organized and equipped, and have already done wonders in the Caucasus and the Mesopotamian region. Now they have begun a diversion in Galicia which is going to take the attention of the German to an extent which he will dislike to think about.

The war is at its crisis, and the allies have begun to show the strength of their co-operation. Germany had the strength of preparation to begin with. The allies had a long lead to overtake, but they are pulling up and they are pulling together. That is the secret of victory.

Shall We Sell to Russia? In the current number of "Everybody's Magazine," Richard Washburn Child advises Uncle Sam to become acquainted with Russia. Russia has 170,000,000 people, almost unlimited natural resources, but little manufacturing. Her people are becoming educated, are demanding many comforts and luxuries heretofore denied them, are on the threshold of a great era of development, and will be eager customers after the war for what the manufacturers of the world have to sell them.

Until recently Germany largely encroached the trade of Russia. The war has ended that monopoly and the British and French manufacturers are planning a great commercial invasion. Will there not be a market in Russia for the manufacturers and exporters of Canada? True, we are a long way off, but a line of steamers is already projected between Prince Rupert and Vladivostok. Several big Canadian firms, notably the big manufacturers of agricultural implements, had already obtained a strong foothold in European Russia before the war. Sir George Foster has sent a confidential agent thru the Russian Empire to study and report upon trade possibilities and conditions.

But if Canada is to meet Russia she must send aggressive salesmen to that country, and their first and essential qualification will be a knowledge of the Russian language. This no doubt should be linked up with some knowledge of Russian history, geography, politics and traditions. Would it not therefore be a useful task for the University of Toronto at once to inaugurate a summer school for the education of young men anxious to learn something about Russia and something of the Russian tongue? Even in four months a great deal of useful knowledge could be acquired.

Unfortunately for years we have viewed the czar's empire with a jaundiced eye, and our schools have wholly failed to pay any attention to the Russian language and literature. Now, however, with Russia the ally of Britain, the protagonist of world-wide prohibition, the young giant awakening to great possibilities, our schools and universities should offer a course to young men that would fit them to bring Canada and Russia closer together, and give us a chance at what is soon to be the greatest consuming market of the world.

Cannot Be Evaded. It will become harder every day for the United States to evade the problem of taking over and operating the railroads of that country. Our friends to the south have no "three alternatives." The government will not give or lend money to the roads, and it has not the slightest objection to any or all of them passing into the hands of a receiver. But the receiver cannot solve the situation. He may displace inefficient management, raise some money by certificates for pressing demands in the way of maintenance and equipment, but sooner or later the roads must pass from the control of the court into the control of a private corporation. As reorganized the road will probably start off all the better for its interment in a judicial hospital, but it has to face the problem that faces all the other roads, namely, how to raise money, however badly needed, from a public that will not buy railway stocks at any price.

It will take two billion dollars to make the railroads of the United States efficient. That vast sum honestly and judiciously expended would yield a magnificent return, but the Morgans, the Harrimans, the free booters of Wall street, have utterly destroyed the confidence of the people, who regard the looting of the New Haven and Rock Island as typical.

Hence a situation is created which may be termed nationalization. Our neighbors are coming to it grudgingly, but they will come to it inevitably. The situation is created which may be termed nationalization. Our neighbors are coming to it grudgingly, but they will come to it inevitably.

Does the Doctor Work at a Trade? Dr. Hugh Chabot is quoted by The Indianapolis Medical Journal as saying that the practice of medicine is becoming a trade instead of a profession. Theoretically men enter the ministry, are called to the bar and obtain degrees in medicine for the purpose of serving humanity. It is their business to guard the physical and spiritual health of the community and to see that even-handed justice prevails. The man who teaches them, the university professor, is even rendering a greater service to the public, for without him the practice of the physician and the advocates could not be properly trained.

At one time undoubtedly men in the liberal professions were supposed to be devoted to the welfare of the community. Universities were free and the professor lived upon voluntary contributions from his pupils. The lawyer received honorariums from wealthy clients, but he was all the more bound in conscience to plead the cause of the needy and oppressed. The physician was bound to give to the world the result of any discovery free of charge instead of exploiting it for personal gain, and that noble tradition still lingers in the profession.

But the advent of the specialist and the exigencies of modern life have undoubtedly robbed the professions of their former greatness and simplicity. So specialized has medicine become that the successful practitioners, according to Dr. Chabot, organize themselves into groups, and the wealthy patient is passed from one member to another as long as his money lasts. Education has been made free and many churches search out and minister to the poor. But the successful medical man confines his attention to the rich, and the successful lawyer no longer bothers his head about the wrongs of the needy and oppressed.

Dr. Chabot thinks that medicine has become so frankly a trade that the state might as well provide the doctors and look directly after the health of the community, but should not something of the same kind be done with the advocate? Should not lawyers like judges be appointed and paid by the state?

Finally the suggestion is made that the up-to-date physician with all his learning lacks something of the courage and skill of the old-fashioned practitioner. The country doctor, who knew his patient from birth, had a certain affection for him, and a certain authority over him, saved a good many cases which probably got by the modern expert. But personal touch and sympathy are fading from all the relations of life, in this age of machinery and specialization. Hence more and more the state must concern itself with matters heretofore left to chance and charity.

Dickens and Democracy. This is the forty-sixth anniversary of the death of Charles Dickens. In these days of war and national trial it may to some seem out of place to direct attention to Dickens. But no more fully contributed to the establishment of democratic ideas than Charles Dickens did. The people who read and enjoy Dickens are generally good democrats. He waged unceasing warfare against shams of all kinds, against red tape, against officialism and bureaucracy, the "circumlocution department," as he called it, and against all oppression and injustice to the under-dogs of the world. He was also against what Walt Whitman called the unending audacity of elected persons, and he was the cheerful prophet of the common people. There never was a time when people needed more the tonic of his point of view, and the stimulation of his humor. He was born in the middle of wars and cradled in hardship. His youth was such an experience of agony of mind and severity of body that he never cared to speak of it in later life. Yet he triumphed over all sorts of difficulties and won his place among the immortals. A correspondent at the Chicago conventions remarks that when the news of Sir William Robertson's promotion was announced, and the fact mentioned that he had risen from the ranks, numerous delegates refused to believe that such a thing was possible in a monarchy. Many Americans do not understand that the British Empire is the most democratic government in the world. What else would we be fighting for but democracy? Those who read and understand the unending popularity of Charles Dickens will find that his democracy is the secret of his success.

ALGOQUIN PARK. The Grand Trunk Railway System have made important improvements this year in connection with their interests at Algoquin Park. The Highlands Inn has been renovated throughout, the equipment has been augmented, suites of rooms with private bath have been installed, and new cold storage plant added. In addition, a canopy roof has been erected on the boat-house with open sides, making it a delightful resting place. Both houses have been erected, giving privacy for those who desire to bathe in Cache Lake, opposite the Highlands Inn. A dock has been built extending 135 feet into the lake, with a depth of water at the extreme end of the dock of 14 feet, which will meet the desires of those who like to dive and swim in deep water. A bathing beach has been constructed for the children, or those who are unable to swim, and which extends to a gradual slope for 100 feet from shore. A new clay tennis court has been built, which will be in first-class condition for those caring for this exercise. A guide house has been built at some distance in the rear of the hotel for the occupancy of the guides. IRISH CRISIS SAVED LLOYD GEORGE'S LIFE. He Had Intended to Go With Kitchener to Russia.

LONDON, June 8.—David Lloyd George, minister of munitions, was only prevented from accompanying Lord Kitchener on his ill-fated trip on the cruiser Hampshire by the Irish crisis, according to statements in political circles here today. It had been arranged that Lloyd George should accompany the minister of war to Russia, but the sudden call upon the Welsh statesman to mediate between the Irish factions upset this plan.

His place was taken by other representatives of the ministry of munitions.

ROOSEVELT'S PRESENCE MIGHT SAVE SITUATION. Deadlock Between Republicans and Progressives at Chicago Continues.

"DOOR WAS LEFT OPEN" Murdock Intimates That Old Guards Must Make Next Move.

CHICAGO, June 8.—Indications today were that the Republican and Progressive national conventions would split tickets in the field. Victor Murdock, chairman of the Progressive national convention, summed up the whole situation when he said today: "Well, we left the door open, and the Republicans don't seem to be coming in."

That was the Progressive leader's reply to enquiries as to whether there remained any prospect for harmony and whether there was likelihood to be appointed today, conference committees representing both parties to receive and pass upon peace suggestions.

NO TRUCE PROBABLE. Republican leaders, too, discounted the success of the peace talks, saying that action had been delayed for so long that a majority of the Republican delegates already had decided to proceed without regard for any third party, and nominate Justice Hughes, for whom the greatest support has been gathered.

There are some among the Progressives as well, who still believe that the colonel himself could save the day if he would come to Chicago. Representative Gardner, of Massachusetts, is a Roosevelt ticket pledged with Progressive leaders to bring Col. Roosevelt out without delay.

Certain precautionary measures affecting Greek shipping are under way. Press despatches from Cardiff say that port officers in Wales have been instructed to refuse clearance to Greek vessels.

CHURCHILL FOR BIG POST? London Chronicle Says He Has Genius and Energy.

LONDON, June 8.—The Daily Chronicle's parliamentary correspondent, writing on the question of war after referring to Lloyd George's qualifications for the post, says:

"Another name discussed in connection with the vacancy is that of Mr. Churchill. His genius and energy are undeniable, but his great gifts are vitiated by bad judgment, and he has for the time being entirely lost public confidence."

GERMANS ADMIT LOSS OF LUTZOW

Sinking of Cruisers Rostock and Elbing is Likewise Acknowledged.

Deny Running Away No Mines or Submarines Played a Part, Says German Admiralty.

Berlin, June 8, via London, 11.45 a.m.—An official statement issued today gives the total loss of the German high-sea fleet...

The statement says: "Of these losses the battleship Pommern and five torpedo boats have already been reported in official statements...

"It is asserted that the German fleet left the battlefield and the English fleet remained on duty in the battlefield. With regard to this it is stated that by repeated, effective attacks of our torpedo boat flotillas during the night of May 31, the English main fleet was forced to turn round and it never again came within sight of our high-sea fleet...

"In spite of the superior independence and reinforcements by an English squadron of 12 vessels, which came up from the southern coast Sea, never attempted to come again into touch with our forces to continue the battle or attempted to continue the battle with the above-mentioned squadron...

"The English assertion that the English fleet was driven back to reach the fleeing German fleet in order to defeat it before reaching its home ports is not supported in connection with the alleged official English statement issued at Londonderry on June 1, 1916...

"Numberous German torpedo boat flotilla were reported to have been sent for a night attack towards the north and beyond the theatre of the main battle on the night of May 31, 1916...

"The German admiralty also today announced the loss of the modern battleships, which had previously been reported in official statements...

"In view of the wrong interpretation of this measure, and moreover, in order to prevent English legends about the gigantic losses on our side, these legends must no longer be regarded...

TRANSACTIONS HEAVY IN MINTYRE STOCK

Further Advancement Scored — Street Expecting Consolidation Announcement.

Outside of the McIntyre group of stocks trading at the Standard Stock Exchange yesterday was quiet and rather featureless. The market was fairly active with about 15,000 shares changing hands during the day, and fully a third of this total was in McIntyre alone.

This stock continued to occupy the spotlight with an advance to 177. It opened at 169 and on heavy buying advanced to the above figure and closing only slightly lower at 175. The rumors of the amalgamation of the McIntyre group of mines was largely responsible for the activity of McIntyre.

In yesterday's market there seemed to be someone with an unlimited buying order, which readily absorbed well all stock that was put on. The whole country is reported to have its eyes on this stock and some international development marketwise was expected as soon as the anticipated announcement with regard to the consolidation is made public.

The street is bullish and predictions of 3% for the stock are in circulation. McIntyre Extension was comparatively strong also, selling up to 55 and closing at the top price.

Apex was traded in around 3 1/4, closing at 3. Dome Extension changed hands at 88. Dome Lake was quiet at 81. On light trading Hollinger sold steady at $22.75. For the new Hollinger Consolidated stock $7.25 was bid if and when issued.

Further headway was made by McIntyre-Darragh, which sold at 61, and McIntyre Lake, which sold at 27. Timiskaming was dull at 64 to 64 1/2.

C. P. R. Dividend Payments Are Easily Assured

In the first ten months of the 1915-16 fiscal year the net earnings were almost sufficient to meet the whole dividend and fixed charges of the Canadian Pacific shown in the annual report for last year. From July 1 to April 30 the C.P.R. net was $41,164,000, while the dividends (10 per cent. common and 4 per cent. preferred) as shown a year ago were $39,219,051 and the fixed charges $12,065,661, a total of $51,284,712.

General Electric Strong on Small Trading—Dominion Steel Co. Presents Good Statement.

Yesterday's Toronto stock market was pretty much a duplication of the two previous days' business. Trading was quiet and any changes in prices were not of much significance.

General Electric was the one strong issue with sales from 114 1/2 to 116. In the other issues there was no definite trend. Shredded Wheat made an advance to 122, but these shares have only a limited market and therefore not accepted as an indication of general market sentiment.

Cement, Steamships, Dominion Steel and Brazilian all held within a narrow range. The annual statement of the Dominion Steel Company was given out yesterday after a meeting of the directors. The earnings, after provision for all prior obligations, left nearly ten per cent on the issued capital.

The statement was accepted as a gratifying performance on the part of the company, especially as profits were really only made during the last five months of the year. Since the closing of the last fiscal year the company's business is up to full capacity and at high prices for the output, and it is now stated that earnings are running well over 20 per cent.

The company has materially strengthened its financial position during the past year and investment confidence in the common stock is now restored. McIntyre monopolized most of the business among the unlisted issues and scored an advance of six points. An announcement of some importance to the shareholders of this company is expected shortly.

MINING NOTES

HOLLINGER NEW STOCK

The first quotations on new Hollinger stock (Hollinger Consolidated) were made today, when, as and if issued, it sold at $22.75 and when raised to $7.25 without attracting any offers. The latter bid was equivalent to $29 for the old Hollinger, comparing with sales at $22.75.

CROSS-CUT STARTED

Homer L. Gibson in his Fortnightly review of the mines, says as follows on the Jupiter: The cross-cut from the six hundred foot level of the McIntyre Extension shaft has been started. This shaft will be extended to points underlying the Jupiter main shaft, and will be put through to connect with these veins.

McINTYRE RUMORS

Various rumors regarding McIntyre of the mine were current. One of these was to the effect that McIntyre and certain interests who identify his name with the McIntyre group, namely McIntyre, McIntyre Extension and Jupiter, along with other possibly the Penamint, and that a bid of $2.25 was made. The offer was not accepted.

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

BAKERS WANT TO WORK ON SUNDAY

Tell Ontario Cabinet It is Necessary for Them to Do So.

AFFECTED BY WAR

Premier Hearst Tells Them Matter Will Be Considered.

War has affected bread so heavily that it bakers cannot start baking at midday on Sunday. Lord's Day Alliance or no, Toronto housewives will have to do their own baking.

That was the proposition laid before the premier and members of his cabinet yesterday by 26 bakers from various parts of the province. They went into details. People will have new bread even if it is bad for them. On Friday night bakers work strenuously to turn out two days' loaves. On Saturday they rest. On Sunday night they come to work at 9 in the evening, which is two hours after their usual time, and get their bread out into the carts without sufficient cooling. It should have at least four hours. Therefore there are more complaints about lousy bread on Tuesday than on any other day in the week. Also they wrap it warm on Monday morning. That keeps in the moisture and forces back the acidity, which is bad for Toronto's digestion.

The bread carts which should get away from the bakery by 7 o'clock, don't start until half past 8 or 9. All this because the bakers have to work at night because of the Lord's Day Alliance. Obviously the bakers cannot work all Sunday night, and then, after breakfast, start on Monday's work.

Labor is Scarce. Besides, labor is getting scarce. The young bakers have gone to the war. The old men like working at night even less than the young men. They are in a position to dictate. "They simply will not work at night," said one of the masters. "There are plenty of other things that they can do. It cannot be arranged that they can work in the day time. Toronto housewives will have to heat their ovens."

The bakers said they did not like breaking the biblical or the civil law; but what could they do? The people must eat bread and they would eat new bread. Therefore, the bakers must break the Sabbath. If they broke it at 9 in the evening, they might, as well do it earlier in the day. The men would not look upon it as an infringement of their liberties, quite on the contrary.

The premier said they might be able to prove in any court of law, which they were hauling that taking bread was a "work of necessity." That would not be the difficulty. He would consult the attorney-general. He knew the importance of sleep at the hours provided for it by a kind Providence. He knew men liked their evenings to themselves. Still, this might be the thin edge of the wedge. Other industries also might plead necessity, their real motive was profit. The sanctity of the Sabbath was a thing to be most carefully guarded. He understood that what they wanted to do was to trespass on the Sabbath a little more than they were doing at present. The matter should have the best consideration of the cabinet.

Ex-Alderman Hilton, Charles J. Bodley, President of the Ontario Shillcock Company, Ottawa; Mark Bredin and W. Carruthers presented the views of the delegation.

BUILDING HOME FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS

Much Assistance Being Given by Lady Ross Chapter, Daughters of Empire.

The last monthly meeting for the season of the Lady Ross Chapter, I.O.D.E. was held yesterday afternoon in the Y.M.C.A. building, College street, with the regent, Mrs. R. H. Cameron, in the chair.

During the meeting a miscellaneous shower was given for the Y.M.C.A. boys at the front, which was liberally contributed to by the members. This chapter, organized less than six months ago, undertook to raise funds for the equipment of a ward in the soldiers' convalescent hospital, which they have accomplished. They are now turning their efforts to assisting in the building of a home for our returned disabled heroes.

An interesting item toward the hospital fund was the circulation of paper strips by Mrs. T. Yates Egan, which realized over $100.

WOMEN'S MASS MEETING AT MASSEY HALL MONDAY

As the result of a good deal of thought as to the best means of interesting all the women of Toronto in the special needs of the moment, it has been decided to hold a mass meeting at Massey Hall on Monday evening, when it is expected that a bumper house of earnest and enthusiastic women citizens will attend and that an impetus may be given to recruiting and to other things of the moment.

Military men are now asking that women take this step, and Gen. Logie endorses the idea. Arrangements are in the hands of Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, Mrs. Campbell Meyers and Mrs. Plumtree. Mayor G. H. Williams will be in the chair.

EAT MORE CANADIAN FRUIT.

Owing to certain trade restrictions, the export trade of Canada in 1915 is expected to be limited. This will mean that there will have to be an increased consumption of fruit in Canada, and the Canadian Government through the fruit commissioner's office of the department of agriculture, are endeavoring to interest all Canadians to aid one of our most important national industries. The Grand Trunk System, thru the medium of their dining cars and hotels are co-operating with the government to this end, and on June 24 will be started a campaign to educate Canadians to follow the slogan, "Eat More Canadian Fruit." This slogan being shown on all menu cards used by the Grand Trunk on their cars and in their hotels, and by calling attention to the Canadian fruits on these menus.

There is a capital of approximately $140,000,000 invested in the Canadian fruit industry. The Niagara Peninsula, the greatest fruit district in Canada, produces 95 per cent. of the Canadian grapes, and 35 per cent. of our home-grown peaches. Pears, plums, cherries and small fruits are also grown extensively. Approximately 2756 carloads of Ontario apples were marketed during the past season; of this shipment 66 per cent. were carried over the Grand Trunk lines.

METHODISTS ELECT REV. J. W. STEWART

New Conference Head Has Been Forty-Two Years in Ministry.

TO MAKE MEN ENLIST

Criticize Recruiting Methods and Urge Government to Act.

An impressive memorial service for the members of the conference who had passed away during the year closed the second day's session of the Toronto Methodist Conference at the Carlton Street Methodist Church last night. Obituaries were read of the five ministers whose deaths occurred since the conference met a year ago, and the touching expressions of love and honor for the departed ones deeply affected the large congregation assembled. Those for whom notices were read were the Revs. J. H. Stonehouse, Richard Hobbs, Hugh W. Locke, William Burns and J. C. Wilmut.

At the conference, in the morning, Rev. J. Wallace Stewart of Owen Sound was elected president on the second ballot. Mr. Stewart has been in the ministry 42 years. He is a man of commanding presence and appearance.

Rev. R. B. Boyton of Bradford, the assistant secretary for the past year, was elected secretary for 1916-17. He succeeded Rev. A. Newton St. John.

At the afternoon meeting interesting information on enlistment among adherents of the Methodist Church in Canada was given by the army and navy board. Dr. J. J. Long, a member of this board, stated that thruout the Dominion 24,000 men were enlisted. He was appointed as chaplain to different units, and 189 have made application for chaplaincies, but have not as yet been stationed with battalions. In the Toronto conference there have been 19 applications with six appointments. He stated that owing to slowness in sending in reports it was very difficult to secure a complete record of enlistments.

O. Hazlewood stated that in Canada about 30,000 Methodists had enlisted. He added that he did not consider this number to be the proper share of recruits from this denomination. "In this conference there are 65,000 members of the Methodist Church in Canada, and non-members usually number about three to one of members. Taking these figures, there are in this conference 195,000. With an average of 24 per cent. of military age, there should be 47,700 soldiers. But statistics show that in this conference 7978 have enlisted, which is only 4 1/2 per cent. of our Methodist population. Of this number, 5000 are from Toronto or about 6 per cent. of the Methodist population of the city. Statistics quoted figures to show that enlistment in Toronto was even better than elsewhere. The percentage from the Bay of Quinte is 2 1/2 to 10 per cent.; Hamilton, 2 1/2 to 10 per cent.; Montreal, 3 per cent., and all over Canada not more than 2 per cent. He stated that there was a great field in Methodism for recruiting, and there is no better recruiting agency than the pulpit. He concluded by stating that one of the factors that were going to bring this war to a successful issue was the united prayers of a righteous nation for a righteous cause.

To Make Men Enlist. Captain Magwood, chaplain of the 216th Battalion, urged that a message be forwarded from this conference to the government of this country, stating that the time has come in the exigencies of the conflict that the government should take steps in order to get men to enlist. This proposition met with the approval of the conference, and steps will be taken to draft a resolution to this effect. He added that the recruiting methods adopted were a disgrace. Colonels were asked to raise a battalion, and were left entirely to their own resources in doing so. Money was needed, and the methods of raising money were not congenial to right-thinking men. He desired that the government should take more action.

The End of the Bar. Reports were read from other departments. Mrs. James Haies, representative of the Women's Missionary Society, stated that there was an income of collection to the amount of $2000.

Dr. W. Briggs, chairman of the book committee, stated that a Methodist publication of some sort entered practically every Methodist home in the Dominion. Despite the war there had been a turnover of a $1000 more in his department than last year, and $23,000 had been given to the superannuation fund.

WANT MAGAZINES FOR SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Plea for These Made at Yesterday's Session of W. C. T. U.

WORK FOR PREVENTION

This Would Be Better Than to Spend Energies Later on in Charity.

At yesterday's sessions of the W.C.T.U., a plea for magazines for soldiers and sailors was made by Mr. Speedy of the local unions, with the request that any available be sent to Willard Hall.

A memorial service was conducted in the afternoon by Mrs. T. M. Campbell and Mrs. Redmond reported on the work of the W.C.T.U. at the National Exhibition, which was very satisfactory. For social work during the year the local unions had collected $24.84. Dr. Bert Sherratt gave an address on social and moral reform, emphasizing the fact that it is far better to work for prevention rather than spend energies later in charity.

RAIL AND LAKE CARRIERS IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

Important Rules Enacted by Members of Freight Claim Association.

HELD AT WASHINGTON

Address Delivered by Hon. J. S. Harlan of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The Freight Claim Association, comprising in its membership practically all the rail and lake carriers of the U. S., Canada and Mexico, held its annual convention at the new Willard Hotel, Washington, D.C., on Wednesday, May 17, 1916. President E. Arnold, freight claim agent, Grand Trunk Railway System, in the chair.

The association has been termed the strongest body of its kind in the world. Its rules are mandatory, its object the prompt and lawful settlement of freight claims with claimants and between carriers, also the study of claim causes and the application of preventive measures.

The Hon. James S. Harlan, commissioner of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C., was introduced to the assembly by President Arnold, and opened the meeting with an address, covering the relationship of the association with the interstate commerce commission, emphasizing more especially the work that has been accomplished thru meetings of the sub-committee of the association with the commission and with representatives of the national industrial traffic leagues and other public organizations representing the public of the U. S. and Canada.

A meeting was held in the afternoon with the president of the association, Mr. J. S. Harlan, in the chair. He stated that the commission had been reduced to 115 roads, reporting the interstate commerce commission, show a reduction in payment of loss and damage claims for 1915 from 1914 of $7,182,581, or 23.8 per cent. The figures for 1914, $23,675,962; 1915, $24,931,381, a very large saving taking into consideration that the earnings for the year 1915 showed an appreciable increase over 1914.

At the Chicago meeting at Hotel La Salle June, 1914, E. Arnold was elected president of the association, the first time in the history of this organization that a Canadian had been so honored.

At the 1914 meeting strong emphasis was placed on the duty of the association thru its cause and prevention of loss and damage by reducing as low as possible the proportion of freight traffic earnings paid in loss and damage claims. The association feels that a good working plan in this direction has been accomplished.

The Folly of Taking Digestive Pills

A Warning to Dyspeptics.

The habit of taking digestive pills after meals makes chronic dyspepsia of many thousands of men and women because artificial digestants, drugs and medicines have practically no influence upon the excessively acid condition of the stomach contents which is the cause of most forms of indigestion and dyspepsia.

After dinner pill merely lessens the sensitiveness of the stomach nerves and thus gives a false sense of freedom from pain. If those who are subject to indigestion, gas, flatulence, belching, bloating, heartburn, etc., after eating would get about an ounce of pure bio-urated magnesia from their druggist and take a teaspoonful in a little water after meals, there would be no further necessity for drug or medicine because bio-urated magnesia instantly neutralizes stomach acidity, stops food fermentation and thus insures normal business digestion by enabling the stomach to do its work without hindrance.

NO BABY'S STOMACH CAN DIGEST STARCH

Not a Baby is Able to Digest Starch Before it is Five Months Old.

No baby is able to digest starch before it is five months old. This is a fact well known to all physiologists and to all physicians who make a specialty of children. In view of this fact one would think that it should be an offence punished by law to offer any starchy substance for sale as infants' food. Yet such is not the case. In a recent address before the Royal College of Physicians in London, Dr. G. Moore, health officer of Huddersfield, said: "Surely it is not too much to ask that the law should be amended so that the sale of any starchy substance for infants' food should be prohibited until the child is five months old." About Earrings

Women who have no special interest in the history of feminine adornment are apt to think of earrings as comparatively modern things. As a matter of fact, we are informed by a writer on the subject that no adornment of the head claims priority to earrings. They have been fashionable in all ages and almost all nations.

The extravagance of the Grecian and Roman ladies in the purchase of these articles of adornment almost exceeds belief. Pliny says "they seek for pearls at the bottom of the Red Sea and search the bowels of the earth for emeralds to ornament their ears." and Seneca tells us that "a single pair of earrings was worth the revenues of a large estate, and that some women would wear at their ears the price of two or three patrimonia."

We read that the earrings worn by Cleopatra were valued at more than $800,000, and that Servilla, the mother of Brutus, was presented with a pair by Julius Caesar, the value of which was about $250,000.

STORIES OF THE OPERAS

Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana." Condensed by Adrien Tournier.

The story of "Cavalleria Rusticana" is a Sicilian village of the present day during the Easter festival. Turiddu, a young farmer, went away from his home to serve in the army. He was pledged to marry Lola, a lovely village maiden, but during his absence she wedded Alfio, a carter. Turiddu, to console himself for the loss of his old love, turns to Santuzza, a peasant girl, who readily yields her affection to the handsome soldier. He soon becomes tired of this new conquest and, despite the fact that Lola is the wife of another, continued to love her.

Santuzza enters the open square before the church as the devout peasants are going to mass. She meets Lucia, the mother of Turiddu, and asks where she can find him. Lucia replies that she does not know. Santuzza then pleads with the mother to inform her of the whereabouts of her son, as he was seen in the village the night before. Lucia, however, is silent. At this moment Alfio, the carter, enters, accompanied by some villagers. He praises the virtues of his faithful and loving wife, Lola. Lucia speaks to him and he asks her if she happens to know any of her old wife. She tells him that her son has come to Francofonte to get a new supply. Alfio denies this information, saying that he saw Turiddu near his home. Santuzza motions to Lucia to conceal her surprise and after the carter and his friends enter the church, explains matters to the mother. She tells her how Turiddu loved Lola before he went to war, and returning found her married to another. He then wooed her, Santuzza, and Lola, seeing that he had transferred his affections, was not content and used her wiles to regain his love.

Upon hearing how her son had deserted Santuzza, Lucia is grieved and orders the church to pray for them both. Turiddu comes to the square and finding Santuzza alone, asks if she is not going into the church. She asks where he has been. He answers to her being untruthful, saying that he was seen at the entrance of Lola's house. When he taunts her for playing the part of a spy she tells him that Alfio gave her the information. Turiddu becomes enraged and begs Santuzza to leave him, saying that he no longer loves Lola. She reproaches him and he flings her away from him. Lola enters and asks if Alfio has passed. Then, noting Santuzza, she asks her if she is not coming to mass. The peasant girl answers that only those who have not sinned dare enter the sacred portals. Lola goes into the church, bidding Turiddu remain outside, when he tries to follow her. The angered Turiddu is deaf to the pleadings of Santuzza and cruelly flings her to the ground when she coaxes him to remain with her.

The Petunia One flower that can be depended upon above all others to bloom uninterruptedly throughout summer and until frost is the petunia. This bright and freely flowering plant seems impervious to drought and heat; even a heavy rainstorm crushes its beauty for only a few hours, for new flowers are always coming along.

FEMININE FOIBLES By Annette Bradshaw

ASKING THE IMPOSSIBLE "Please Make My Hair Look Just Like Hers." Wet Feet A very successful poultryman puts fresh sods in his brooder house, not only to furnish the chicks green stuff, but to give them something moist under foot. Also he throws water on the sods to increase the moisture. He says that the chicks' little legs will not develop and grow as they should on a dry floor—that the tendency is for them to dry up. Many water fountains are constructed with the idea of preventing the chicks from getting into the water. This man says water won't harm the chicks a bit; that, on the contrary, unless they have plenty of moisture under foot it will do them good to get their feet into the water.

The Amateur Gardener

BY RACHEL B. TODD, M.D. Gladioli and Dahlias. It is about the right time now to put in various bulbs for summer flowering. Of these by far the two most popular kinds are the dahlias and the gladioli, because of the nature of these bulbs is concerned no one should meet with the least difficulty, since good roots will grow in spite of many adverse conditions.

ODD PARASOL TRIMMINGS

The parasol season has arrived. Whether one leaves town or is classed among the stay-at-homes the sun protector becomes a pleasing necessity, adding very greatly to the comfort and appearance of its possessor. Taffeta remains the leading fabric, and it is offered not only to the popular navy, purple, old blue and red, but likewise in the composite colorings and patterns that are delicate or garish as one's taste may dictate.

WIMES PROGRAMES FOR TODAY

CHARLIE CHAPLIN'S STORY By ROSE WILDER LANE.

(Continued from Yesterday.) CHAPTER XVII. In Which He Looks at a Celebrated Actor, Dares to Play at the Royal Box, Pays a Royal Visit to the Crime, Gains Favor with the Public and Receives a Summons From Another Famous Star. My nerves were stretched tight, like badly tuned violin strings, and I seemed to feel them vibrate when I stepped on the stage and spoke my opening line. Mr. Gillette's eyes upon me, and the packed house listening. My brain was keyed to a high pitch, working smoothly, but it did not seem in any way attached to my body, and I heard the words as the someone else had spoken them. They were clear, firm, the accent perfect. I felt myself stepping three feet forward in the right, an instant turning to Mr. Gillette, heard my second line spoken, with the emphasis placed properly on the third word. "Don't look at the royal box," I said myself.

STEAMER BARRED FILM ACTORS, CAUSING DELAY

WANT NATIONAL BIRTHDAY ON CHAPLIN'S HOLIDAY

Production of Scene Finally Accomplished by Bayne and Bushman. The final scenes for "A Million a Minute," a forthcoming wonder-play in which Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne are starred, have just been completed after considerable delay. The delay was caused on account of the European war, which has brought transatlantic shipping almost to a standstill, and the conditions which obtain make it almost impossible to use a steamship under any circumstances.

ASKED ACTRESS FOR AN OLD MOTOR CAR

Kathlyn Williams Receives Many Unusual Requests From Movie Fans. Movie fans do not confine their letters to movie stars to simple requests for autographed photographs. Far from it. Some of the more enthusiastic ones seem to have an idea that a screen star is a cross between a charity institution and a fairy godmother. One girl admirer writes to Kathlyn Williams as follows: "Dear Miss Williams: You are my favorite moving picture actress. I would appreciate it so much if you would give me one of your old automobiles, any one. I wouldn't care how small. Another writes to Miss Williams asking her for one of those beautiful garments which you wore in "Thou Shalt Not Covet."
