

OTTAWA SEES NOTHING BUT AN ELECTION

Well Informed Circles Declare Appeal Will Come When Supply Voted.

MANY MEIGHEN MEN FAVOR THE COURSE

Liberals to Lead Lively Battle and Offer Amendment to Speech Demanding Election

Ottawa, Feb. 8.—Influence of a general election is widely discussed here as a probable result of the Liberal victory in West Peterboro. Although members of the government decline to discuss the possibility of such an outcome, there is a strong wing among government supporters which favors appeal to the people, and adoption of such a course would not create much surprise in well-informed circles. If the government decides to dissolve, dissolution would probably come following the passing of supply.

Lively Fighting Anyway. Whatever course is adopted in this regard, there is no doubt that the Peterboro result will pave the way to some lively fighting in the House. Liberals are exultant over the result and intend to make the best of it in House discussions. "It will not be a private fight," as one leading member put it today, "anybody can come in."

Liberals to Voice

The Ottawa Citizen on its front page today prints the following: "When Parliament assembles next week in the midst of a very tense political situation, the Liberals propose to force the fighting and move an amendment in the debate on the address, calling for dissolution of Parliament and a general election immediately after the necessary supply to carry on the public service is voted. Favoring this course are many supporters of the government and some of the government themselves. A general election in most circles is regarded as inevitable, and it will be surprising if it occurs in May. The government will consider the situation and take counsel of its followers in caucus in the coming week. Meanwhile, no rainbow is seen peering over the ominous clouds that deepened yesterday in Peterboro. Very probably tariff revision will be definitely deferred."

Premier Will Carry On As Usual View In Certain Quarters

Whatever Happens Session is Certain to be a Fight All the Way Through.

Special to The Standard

Ottawa, Feb. 8.—Although the Ottawa Journal, a strong administration organ, will tomorrow follow the lead of the Montreal Gazette in urging an appeal to the country, it can be stated on the most reliable authority that unless some unforeseen contingency arises, there will be no general election this year.

Premier Meighen, with a majority of 25 behind him in the Commons, takes the ground that the mandate of his ministry has not been impaired by the result in West Peterboro. In support of this position the argument is offered that it would be absurd to hold that the loss of a single constituency particularly under the circumstances which obtained in West Peterboro, is sufficient reason for the government to resign more especially as the ministry has carried three out of five by-elections since Mr. Meighen became prime minister.

What About Tariff?

Nor will the result in West Peterboro interfere with the revision of the tariff. The government's proposal will be submitted to parliament some time in April. They will involve no radical changes, and although there will be a great many detailed alterations, the principle of adequate protection as well as a substantial revenue which has been the foundation of Canadian fiscal policy since 1878 will be maintained.

The Ottawa Citizen, an erstwhile Conservative newspaper, which now supports the agrarian party, declares tonight that the Mackenzie King opposition will make a determined attempt to force the government to the country as soon as parliament meets, but in view of the fact that the government's majority is still large, and that closure makes obstructive tactics impossible such threats are not taken seriously.

A Fighting Session

The session, however, will be a fighting one. The two oppositions—Liberals and Agrarians—barraged on certain occasions in the country, and by one or two recruits from the government ranks may be expected to challenge the ministry early and often. Premier Meighen, with military as one of his outstanding characteristics, faces the ordeal confident and unshaken. Cabinet reorganization appears uncertain. Had the government met in West Peterboro a shuffle about opening constituencies

Labor Wants Eight Hour Day, Unemployment Help And Immigration Delay

Ottawa, Feb. 8.—The eight hour day, unemployment insurance, the repeal of the bill providing for the deportation of British-born Canadian citizens are among the important points included in the legislative program of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress which was forwarded to Premier Meighen and members of the federal cabinet today by Tom Moore, congress president.

Mr. Moore has indicated to Premier Meighen that the congress executive would appreciate a meeting with the cabinet to discuss the proposed legislation.

GERMAN TRICK TO SINK LINER WITH SOLDIERS

Surrendered Ship Used as a Transport Had Bolts Almost Cut.

EXPECTED TO BREAK IN SUBMARINE AREA

But Steel Was Tough and Injuries Are Discovered Only Recently.

New York, Feb. 8.—A German war plot that failed was revealed here today. Four defective bolts, taken from the machinery of the United States transport Mount Vernon told the tale. They were discovered by the engineering forces of Commander R. D. Gaewood, director of the Shipping Board's division of construction and repairs, and placed on exhibition at his office. Here is the story:—After the Mount Vernon—formerly the Kron Prinzessen Cecilie, the famous "gold ship" that raced into Bar Harbor in the early days of the war—had been seized as a troopship, her German crew cut two-thirds of the way through the four six-inch bolts which connected the engines with the main crankshaft.

Hid By Engineers

The skillfully made cuts remained hidden by the fittings of the engines and were only discovered recently when the engines were taken apart. It is believed that in certain United States detention camps there were trained German engineers who cut and replaced the bolts with bolts of the converted troopship. For it is believed that the bolts were left barely holding with the hope that the craft would just creep out into U-boat lanes and then fall prey to the undersea craft when a sudden strain on the engines came with an order for full speed ahead.

Luck Saved Liner

But the breakdown never came. Luck or toughness of steel permitted the liner to make a dozen round trips through submarine-infested seas, carrying on each voyage from 3,000 to 4,000 men. Just to round things out, she encircled the globe to bring troops home from Russia. The Mount Vernon had several narrow escapes when that strain of the German expected did come. Once she was torpedoed and thirty-five of her crew killed, but made her way to a French port.

Egg Prices Take Another Big Drop

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Big receipts of eggs today forced prices down six cents a dozen, wholesale. Today's receipts were the largest this year. Geddes Empowered To Seek Disarmament

It is declared that this is one of the most important questions the ambassador discussed with the prime minister.

PRICES CONTINUE TO FALL

London, Feb. 8.—Speaking today with regard to the drop in food prices, Charles A. McCarty, the food minister, declared that the present decline as far as he could judge, would be likely to continue for a considerable time.

It would have been made almost at once, but it is admitted that the reverse maintained by the ministry will make the premier more cautious about opening constituencies

This evidence was formally tendered, and as formally rejected by Chairman Sir Walter Cassels under the previous ruling that such evidence could not be accepted.

SEVERE CHARGE OF ANGLo-AMERICAN BREAK

Washington Amazed and Slightly Peeved at Action Taken in London.

Montreal, Feb. 8.—A local paper carries the following cable under date of London:

"The British foreign office on Monday made a gesture of tremendous significance when it summoned to its office in Whitehall every correspondent representing an American newspaper or news service and uttered, through the lips of one of the most important figures in Anglo-American relations today, a warning that 'we are treading the path leading to war.'"

The conference had been carefully arranged. It was conducted under conditions that left no doubt as to its official character. Every preparation, even down to such details as the providing of paper and pencils had been made.

Nameless Spokesman

The spokesman for Great Britain, it was announced, before the session must remain anonymous. But it was evident that in his address he had the knowledge and the sanction, and the approval of the government. The newspaper men accustomed to dealing with the softer phrases of diplomacy, were amazed at the frankness of the speech, from which it was to be inferred that America's relations with England are strained to a far greater degree than would appear on the surface, although the speaker smoothed away some of the harshness of the text by declaring that there was no question under discussion which could not be settled diplomatically." IRISH CANNOT HAVE FREEDOM FROM ENGLAND

Land of Lurking Subs and Police Murders, Says Lloyd George, Must be Controlled.

TASK SO TERRIBLE HE CANNOT RESIGN

Welsh Liberals Give Premier Rousing Reception as He Denounces Murder Tactics.

Londonderry, Feb. 8.—Premier Lloyd George today issued a warning that the period of danger is not yet passed. "The world is still reeling under the most terrible blow—it is restless and demoralized," he declared in addressing the Welsh Liberals in Central Hall. The premier declared he had no doubt that the world was engaged in a terrible task, he declared. "It is far more important than defending myself. Who says the danger is past? I see it everywhere because it worries me and fills me with dread."

Ready to Quit

"If somebody with authority—without vision—whose word I could accept, could tell me 'yes, that I would sign my resignation tomorrow.'"

Alluding to Ireland, he said the revolutionists had given Ireland a greater measure of home rule than either Gladstone or Asquith had proposed. "But," he cried, "they say they won't take it. They must have an Irish republic, an Irish army, an Irish navy. They won't get it, and if they don't get it we are told, they will kill our policemen, our soldiers—not in open fighting, but hiding in holes, walking as respectable tenant farmers or swaggering along the road until they come to a hiding place, where they find rifles, passing perhaps the soldier who are about to murder, as though they were innocent men. "Are we to allow that sort of thing to be done without protecting the people we are representing?" (Cries of no.)

No Republican Issue

There is no issue between us and our political opponents on Home Rule. We have gone one better than the Gladstonian home rule.

"There is an issue about setting up an independent country by our very gates—in the places where submarines used to lurk and sink our ships and endanger our commerce and life of the nation. There is an issue as to whether the policemen and soldiers who are there upholding the honor of our flag are to be shot down, by men who lurk in houses. I know of no other issue."

He gave the alarm and most of the inmates of the house saved themselves, but it proved impossible to reach the children and maid.

AMERICA WANTS PORT TO GUARD AGAINST JAPAN

Predicts Too That Sale of Port Would Mean Recognition at Once.

London, Feb. 8.—The Russian Soviet authorities were told today by a United States millionaire that the United States wanted Kamchatka as an Asiatic base in case of war between the United States and Japan, according to an announcement made recently in a speech by Nikolai Lenine, the Bolshevik Premier, concerning concessions as quoted in the Russian press review published in Moscow, a copy of which has been received here.

Asserting that the proposed treaty conceding Kamchatka is part of a scheme of the bourgeois capital to utilize Kamchatka as a war base, Lenine is quoted as having said: Why Port is Needed A United States multi-millionaire who has been here spoke very frankly about the motives of the United States, namely, that the United States desires to have a base in Asia in case of war with Japan. This millionaire said that if he should sell Kamchatka to the United States he would promise such enthusiasm on the part of the population of the United States that the United States Government will immediately recognize the Soviet Government in Russia.

M. Lenine declared that the granting of concessions did not mean peace, but an industrial war. He said it was likely that the concessionaires would try to establish free private trade, but that they could not conclude a treaty with the Soviets.

FIFTEEN MINE WORKERS HURT NEAR SYDNEY

Rake Broke as Cage Was Descending With Load of Men.

FOUR HAVE INJURIES OF SERIOUS NATURE

Doctors Were on Scene Before Injured Were Brought to the Surface.

Sydney, N. S., Feb. 8.—Fifteen miners were injured, four seriously, in Dominion No. 12 colliery at three o'clock this afternoon, when the cable on the riding rake in the north side of the mine snapped. The day shift had just left the rake when the night shift comprising about 20 men took their places. The rake had just started away, when the cable broke causing it to proceed down at a fast rate.

Some Men Jumped

Some of the men realising what had happened jumped and thus were saved from serious injury. Five of the injured were rushed to the different hospitals immediately they were brought to the surface; others who had sustained minor injuries were taken to their homes. The colliery doctors were on the scene before any of the injured had reached the surface and administered first aid among the injured.

The injured included: Fred Vacheresse, Fred Stevens, William Waterfield, Dan McDonald, who are at present in local hospitals. Their injuries while serious will not prove fatal. A foreigner was later removed to St. Joseph's hospital, suffering with cuts about the head.

Considering the nature of the accident, it is remarkable that no fatalities occurred. Had the accident happened when the day shift were being brought to the shaft, there might have been many deaths as the rake probably would have been carrying from one hundred to one hundred and fifty men. As a result of the damage both s.c. and two mines collieries will be idle tomorrow.

SEES DANGER OF ANGLo-AMERICAN BREAK

Washington Amazed and Slightly Peevish at Action Taken in London.

(Continued from page 1) In substance the statement was a direct appeal to both countries, through the press, to exercise patience, and to use every possible care to guard against statements or actions which may serve to arouse feeling either in Canada or America. But it was a forecast, vigorous warning, in which terms not usually found in diplomatic exchanges were used.

The speaker insisted upon describing the situation as one of "broad aspects" in which the Anglo-American peoples are drifting apart through a lack of comprehension for each other. He declared that conditions had been thought about "by piecemeal" partly through news and press stories exchanged between Great Britain and America and blamed much of the present sentiment in both countries upon English and American "social politicians."

Washington is Amazed. Washington, Feb. 8.—Members of Congress and administrative officials of the government received with amazement the news that an important figure in Anglo-American politics had warned American correspondents that the two nations "are treading the path leading to war."

"The thing seems preposterous," said Secretary of State Colby. The significance of the statements was recognized, in view of the circumstances surrounding their delivery. But everywhere there was surprise that the British foreign office should have interpreted the relations existing between the countries as requiring what was taken to be a diplomatic move of such a serious nature. The possibility of war growing out of the questions now in dispute between the two countries was regarded as ridiculous, and surprise was universal that the British spokesman should so openly have referred to it. His remarks were considered ill-advised, untimely and un diplomatic.

Interesting Paper On Coins And Tokens

Dr. L. A. Langstroth Reads Most Instructive Paper Before Natural History Society

At the Natural History room last night, Dr. L. A. Langstroth gave a most interesting and instructive paper on the "Early coins and tokens of Canada." Dr. Langstroth has made a special study of coins and his paper dealt with the history and development of coin and paper or card money as a medium of exchange from the time of the Indian wampum down to the present. Dr. Langstroth probably has the best collection of the early coins that can be found, and by the use of the projector these were shown in various positions. He reviewed the early history of coinage placing the date in the year 700 B. C. when the first known coins were produced by the Lydians in Asia Minor, and also the methods employed in striking the coin.

Wampum First. He said the earliest record we have of a circulating medium in Canada is that of "Wampum" used by the Indians. Wampum consists of small cylinders or tubes about 3/4 of an inch long made from sea shells. It was in two colors, white and purple. Its value was "one sou" or halfpenny for the white and two sou, or one penny for the purple. This was declared legal tender among the British-American colonies up until 1879, although it continued to circulate among the Colonies until 1704, and among the Indians until 1825.

French Silver 1670. In 1670 France had two silver pieces struck for use in Canada. They were dated that year and bore the portrait of Louis IV. These were the first coins Canada had she could call her own, and they are now exceedingly rare and highly prized by those who possess them.

Dr. Langstroth said the first copper coins were known in 1717. In all the French issues, the obverse of the coins and they are all have representation of the French regime in Canada. In 1685, Dr. Langstroth said, Canada had its first money, or what we now term bills. From 1759 until early in 1800 no pieces were issued for or by Canada, all the money that was used was English silver, gold and copper, or their equivalents of other countries.

Merchants Strike Coins.

Early in the last century, he said, owing to the growth and prosperity of the colony, there became an imperative demand for small change, and as copper in bulk was legal tender many of the merchants began to issue large quantities of copper coins. These coins usually bore the portrait of the ruling sovereign, but in a great many cases, bore the name of the firm or individual who issued them, and nearly all of them bore some motto such as "Pure Copper Proferable to Paper." "For Public Accommodation," etc. These began to appear about 1815, and from that time until 1837 the country became flooded with copper of all sizes, and even some were in brass. This led to unscrupulous persons issuing copper pennies that were very thin and much lighter in weight, and eventually caused considerable trouble in various ways, but in 1837 the Bank of Montreal, The Bank du Peuple, the City Bank and the Quebec Bank issued pennies and half pennies of full weight and beautiful design, which became popular and filled a want.

Great Britain Slow.

During this period Great Britain made no effort to give Canada a currency of its own, but had issued for the Colonies in America a set of four pieces in 1822. These are the only ones Canada can claim as strictly official issues under British rule before Confederation. The different provinces, however, had their official issues. New Brunswick had her Frigate series of 1845 and of 1854, copper coins of beautiful design and workmanship. She also had silver coins of 1862 and 1864 in denominations of 20 cents, 10 cents and 5 cents, and in 1861 a half cent and cent.

The speaker also set forth the history of the various coins of the other provinces. These coins did duty until Confederation, since which time all are fairly well familiar with the official medium of exchange. The speaker then gave a most interesting review of the history of Tokens, pointing out the part they played in trade of the various provinces. In our own province, he said, we had but few, the St. John half penny being the principal exponent. In closing the speaker said: "Let every one here strive to have in our little museum a collection of the coins and tokens of Canada that we shall all be proud of, a collection that will attract our own citizens as well as strangers, and while many of the coins are rare and difficult to obtain, yet with steady continuity of purpose and a few dollars from time to time judiciously expended there is no reason that we shall not succeed."

Common People Feel They Were Betrayed in Struggle, He Adds.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Great Britain will not undertake a race with the United States for seapower, Sir Philip Gibbs, British war correspondent, declared today before the House Naval Committee. Great Britain hasn't the money, he said, and most Britons do not regard the United States navy "as a menace."

Sir Philip said that before any agreement for disarmament could be reached by the principal powers, the Russian question would have to be settled and the Russian people drawn back into the "family of nations."

Would Invite Russia. Representatives of the Russian Soviet Government should, by all means, be included in any conference to discuss disarmament, Sir Philip declared. He characterized the Russian Red Army as "the greatest military menace in the world."

There is a spirit of revolt, entirely apart from Bolshevism, in Europe today, because of the general fear of another war, he declared, adding that the people felt that they had been betrayed in the last war, because they had been told that it was a war to end wars.

Burden Greater Than 1914

"The burden of armaments in Europe is greater today than it was in 1914. Britain is spending $70,000,000 pounds a year on its military-naval establishment. This sum is more than twice the entire national budget for all purposes before the war." In Mesopotamia alone Great Britain is spending 40,000,000 pounds a year for military purposes. He told the committee that the British people did not consider another naval bill to provide a "strong and supreme navy," necessary because "they realize that Great Britain's chief menace, the German navy, has been crushed forever."

EXTRADITION CASE POSTPONED

Halifax, Feb. 8.—The extradition case of John Jenkins, said to be wanted in New Bedford, Mass., on charge of theft of jewelry, which came up in the supreme court here this morning, was postponed until Tuesday next, after W. J. O'Hearn, K.C., had concluded the case for the United States authorities. Mr. O'Hearn produced evidence to show that Jenkins had been convicted on a charge of adultery and on a charge of polygamy while resident in the United States.

Judge Landis After Dry Law Violators

Closes up Twenty-Two Buildings Which Had Been Used for Sale of Liquor.

(Copyright 1921, By Public Ledger.) Under the Judge's order, he said, "Have a heart" to that man Kenesaw Mountain Landis, federal judge of the Chicago district. He's business and seems satisfied to remain so. If you doubt this statement ask the owners of twenty-two buildings in Chicago that must remain unoccupied for one year. The only thing these owners did was to pay no attention to the law. There's a clause in the Volstead act that makes a structure a nuisance in which liquor is sold in violation of the law. One of the buildings put under the ban for twelve months is owned by the University of Chicago.

Under the Judge's order, the places must not be entered or used for any purpose whatsoever during the entire twelve months. In other words, they'll give evidence every day of the danger of defying the law.

A few judges like Landis could put booze out of business or come pretty near it. But there is only one Landis, however, he has put teeth in the Volstead Act, teeth that bite into that most sensitive organ, the purse of the respectable person who wouldn't conduct a booze joint but sees no wrong in furnishing quarters for and making money out of men who do.

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. Friends Invade Parsonage Bringing Tangible Evidences of Appreciation.

On Saturday evening last, the social jubilation which for some time has been characteristic of this section of the beautiful Washadumak was again in evidence, this time at the United Baptist parsonage. A rich overflow of friendship and the pastor, Rev. W. H. Jenkins and wife with a generous donation to boot. The Hon. Dr. J. B. Hetherington presided at the function. His mother delighted in all by her presence. Among the excellent things literary and musical was an original song by Mr. Robert Mitchell, a comic recitation by Mr. Aaron Jenkins and speeches by Messrs. George Fisher and T. P. Hetherington. The usual feast closed the event in time to clear the sabbath law.

LIVELY CLASHES WHEN MINISTER BEFORE INQUIRY

Hon. H. Wickwire Refuses to Answer Some Questions from Mr. C. H. Cahan.

RELATES CONDITIONS IN HIS DEPARTMENT

Declares He Was Busy for Months in Popularizing Highways Act.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 8.—Belief that the highways programme in Nova Scotia had not fallen down, despite the situation resulting from the disclosures of last August, when it was found that expenditures on various roads at that time under construction were greatly exceeding the estimates, was expressed before the Royal Commission investigating the operations of the Provincial Highways Board at this afternoon's session by Hon. H. H. Wickwire, minister of highways, under cross-examination of C. H. Cahan, K. C. acting for several members of the Opposition in the Legislature.

Clashed With Counsel

Persistent questioning from Mr. Cahan, as to whether the minister did not think that he had not been as active as he might have been in directing the efforts of the highways board, finally brought from the witness the rejoinder that he thought alleged interference on his part in the functioning of the board was one of the matters under investigation. Pressed to admit that he had been derelict in his duties in not keeping in closer touch with the progress expenditures of last summer, the witness admitted that he was not required to admit anything.

"You are under oath," queried Mr. Cahan.

"Yes, but being under oath does not involve my answering unfair and improper questions,"

"If you do not propose to answer my questions, I cannot force you," was the final admission of the cross-examiner.

Relates About Appointment

The minister related the circumstances of his appointment and decried the duties under the act as he interpreted them. He said that he was largely occupied, following his appointment, with the work of popularizing the highways act, which, in his view of the wide departure from previous legislation on the subject, was in his judgment no easy task. He had little to do with the setting up of the machinery of his department for the reason that this had been provided and was functioning, previous to his taking over of the office.

Under Examination of Hon. A. K. Maclean

Under examination of Hon. A. K. Maclean, counsel for the Provincial Government, earlier in the afternoon, the witness stated that in all matters relating to the purchase of machinery under the authorization of the board, he had saved the Provincial Government $25,000 over the listed prices at which such machinery was sold to the ordinary consumer.

Retired Baptist Minister Dead

Rev. Frederick T. Snell Passes Away at Hampton Station After Lingering Illness.

Hampton Station, Feb. 8.—Rev. Frederick T. Snell died at his home here early this morning. Nearly seven years ago falling health compelled him to retire from the active work of the ministry. He was then pastor of the Baptist Church at Alma, N. B. For a time he made his home at Harvey, Albert Co., and later moved to Hampton Station.

The serious heart trouble from which he suffered held him a prisoner at home much of the time. It gradually grew worse and for nearly two months he has been confined to his bed and much of the time unconscious.

Born in England. He was born in Cornwall, England, seventy-six years ago. In 1889 he was ordained to the work of the ministry. After ten years of service he came to America, and labored for some years in Georgia. About 1895 he came to New Brunswick and became pastor of the Baptist Church at Havelock. In 1899 he returned to England and remained in the homeland for six years. But Canada had not lost his attraction for him and in 1905 he returned, becoming pastor of the church at New castle. Subsequently he ministered to the churches at Upper Blackville and at Alma.

A widow and four children are left to mourn his departure and to cherish the memory of his gentle righteous life. The two sons, Fred and Howard reside in Hampton. One daughter, Mrs. C. B. Wetmore, also makes her home in Hampton. Another daughter, Mrs. Horace Bishop, was in California.

The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2:45, after the hour of the express from St. John.

Prisoner An American and Might Disappear Over Border Declares the Prosecution.

REMAINED UNTIL NEXT MONDAY FOR TRIAL

One Witness Will Have to be Brought to Fredericton from Montreal.

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, Feb. 8.—In the police court this afternoon Edmund W. McDonald, charged with having stolen goods in his possession, knowing them to be stolen, and also charged with having liquor in his possession other than in his private dwelling, appeared before Police Magistrate Limerick and was remanded until Monday for a hearing of both charges. R. B. Hanson, K.C., for the C. P. R., asked for a remand for eight days, stating that the prosecution in the first case had found that one witness would have to be called from Montreal to give evidence in the case.

C. R. Hawkins, who appeared on behalf of P. J. Hughes, also asked for a remand of eight days. J. F. Winslow, for the defendant, stated that it was not fair to the prisoner to be kept in prison eight days while the prosecution had no proof of the charges against him. Mr. Hanson stated as the man was not a resident of New Brunswick, but of Maine, if he were allowed out on bail he would probably not be seen again within jurisdiction of the court.

Friendly Feeling Towards Americans Everywhere Manifested.

Nationalists Feel They Have Not Been Given a Fair Hearing.

(Copyright 1921, By Public Ledger.) Samsun, Asiatic Turkey, Feb. 8.—Samsun was greatly surprised on arriving at this port, in control of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, by the extremely friendly sentiments expressed by the Turkish Nationalists for America and Americans. It had been said everywhere in Constantinople that the Nationalists were hostile to Americans as well as to citizens of the Balkan countries and that they would be glad to see the American Government, the Nationalist capital, as I planned, or even to leave Samsun, without long delay after our landing. However, I was received most cordially by the local authorities, who expressed regret for misunderstandings with America in the past and obtained in record time from the Nationalist Government a permit for me to go to Angora and return. No American or European correspondent has been here or in Angora for months. The United States at present has no official relations with Angora, but a destroyer is kept in Samsun harbor to look after the interests of Americans in the city and in the interior.

Friendly to America. I am told that the attitude of Mustafa Kemal himself has become much more friendly toward America. It is evident the Turks are trying to win the favor of the United States administration in the United States. They are especially desirous of establishing commercial relations with America and the local government informs me they will welcome American trade on the same basis as that of their own citizens.

The Kemalists have never regarded Americans as enemies as they consider the British and French. While the British and French are deported, Americans are allowed to remain in Anatolia and a law which subjected all Allied property to requisition has been amended to exempt that owned by Americans. A requisition forbidding any message in English to enter or leave Anatolia has also been changed to permit American firms and the Near East Relief in Samsun alone to receive business letters in English subject to censorship. The prohibition of the English language, the governor informs me, was never directed against Americans but against the British whose "intrigues and propaganda" the Kemalists fear.

Favor Kemalists. American tobacco buyers and Near East Relief workers in this city, despite the petty annoyances they have suffered, favor the Kemal cause and think American should recognize the Ankara government which they consider superior to the old regime.

Turkish rule, as I have seen it here, certainly has the appearance of strength. Though few policemen are in evidence in Samsun, good order is maintained wide in the interior, the brigands who infested the caravan routes have been wiped out and travel is reported safe.

I have talked with all classes of Turks here, rich, poor, doctors, boatmen, soldiers, civilians and also with women in their homes. The popular idea of the harem full of wives being practically a thing of the past—and invariably found them the most loyal supporters of the Ankara government and bitterly hostile to England whom they all firmly believe wishes to destroy the Turkish nation.

Try Magnesia For Stomach Trouble

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, pancreatin, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic, just try the effect of a little Bismarck Magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, or milk, but the pure Bismarck Magnesia, which you can obtain from practically any drug-gist in either powdered or tablet form. Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

Mutual Life of Canada Had Good Year's Business

Company Made Advances All Along the Line—Over Fifty Years of Activity.

The Annual Statement of The Mutual Life of Canada, which appears on another page, must be gratifying to the Directors and Officers of the Company and will doubtless be received by the Policyholders from Coast to Coast with the deepest satisfaction. Although the year 1920 excelled all its predecessors, yet every department of the Company's operations in 1920 showed a marked increase over that of the previous year. In income, assets, new assurances, surplus earned, total assets and investments in force, the year 1920 was a phenomenal success.

Over $200,000,000. During the later months the Company had increased its assurance in force to $200,000,000, and at the close of the year the figures stood at over $206,000,000. To protect these obligations, the Company has accumulated assets of nearly $45,000,000, a sum which the surplus shows exceeds by $6,000,000 the amount necessary to guarantee the payment of all policies. The success of a Life Insurance Company depends largely on its investments and it is noteworthy that while the reserves have been calculated on a 3 per cent and 2 1/2 per cent basis, the Company has earned interest at the rate of 6 1/2 per cent. The excess interest, as well as all other profits, becomes the property of the policyholders of the Company and is used to reduce premiums, to increase the insurance, or is payable in cash.

Strictly Co-operative. The Mutual of Canada, as most of our readers are aware, is unique in that it is the only example of a Company which has been established and conducted in Canada on a strictly co-operative basis. This means that all the policyholders of the Company share equally in its ownership, and the experience of the Company during the year 1920 was such that, in spite of the heavy strain put on its resources during the last six years, the Directors felt justified in increasing the dividends for 1921 by 50 per cent over those paid in 1920.

Altogether the 51st year has proven to be in every way the banner year in the long history of "Canada's Only Mutual" and we congratulate the Directors, Officers, and Policyholders of the Company on the splendid results achieved.

Denies Scalding Was Cause of Wife's Death

Accident Took Place in Apartment at the Waldorf During a Wedding Celebration.

New York, Feb. 8.—Mrs. Julia McBride of 220 Twenty-fifth street, Elmhurst, Queens, the wife of Neil McBride, a civil engineer employed by the contracting firm of P. J. McGovern is dead in the Flushing Hospital, according to a report in the office of Dr. Howard W. Neill, Medical Examiner of Queens, her death was caused by burns received on January 24 at the Waldorf Astor Hotel, when she fell into a bath tub and was scalded. Her husband, however, said last night that she had died of kidney trouble and had not been burned.

According to the report in Dr. Neill's office, which was corroborated by a neighbor of the McBrides, Mr. and Mrs. McBride attended the wedding of Mrs. McGovern's daughter at the Waldorf, and during the afternoon Mrs. McBride became ill and went into a bathroom of the suite in which the wedding was being celebrated. As she entered she slipped on the tiling of the floor and lost her balance, falling into the bathtub. She reached out for something to break her fall as she went forward and grasped the hot water faucet, which she turned on full force.

The fall into the bathtub caused her to lose consciousness, it was said in the report, and she lay there for some time with hot water pouring over her body from the open faucet. By the time help arrived she had been severely scalded. The hotel physician was summoned and had her removed to her home at once. Later she was taken to the Flushing Hospital for treatment.

MOSQUE IN PARIS.

Paris, Feb. 8.—This city is soon to have its first mosque for the benefit of the Mohammedans in French possessions in Northern Africa—Algeria, Tunisia and Morocco. The people of these colonies have subscribed to a fund for the erection of the building and Algeria has nominated an Imam, or leader, for the mosque. The city of Paris will present the grounds on which the mosque is to be built and the French parliament has appropriated 500,000 francs for construction purposes. Attached to the mosque will be a Muslim burial place.

SCHEIDEMANN TELLS STORY OF GREAT WAR

"The Collapse" Written from Diary of Former Hun Chancellor.

HOLLWEG DEPENDED ON SOCIALISTS FOR POWER

Thinks Wilson Wanted to Keep Out of War—Forced in by Submarine Warfare.

(Copyright 1921, By Public Ledger.) Berlin, Feb. 8.—Philipp Scheidemann, ex-Chancellor and during the war leader of the German Socialists, has followed the urge of all playing more or less important roles in the late conflict and has written his contribution to the literature of the war in a book entitled "The Collapse." The book which appeared this week and which is based on a 26 volume diary which Scheidemann started the day of Austria's ultimatum to Berlin, is a running commentary on incidents of the war from a socialist viewpoint including the ruthless submarine war, the Reichstag resolution for peace by agreement, the International Social Conference in Stockholm and the struggle to unseat the Kaiser. It uncovers no secrets of high importance on these issues, but is most interesting in its intimate revelation of life behind the scenes in the German Government during the war and shows ex-Chancellor Von Bethmann Hollweg and Scheidemann, leaders of the big opposition parties doing out together their speeches on important occasions and arranging to give each other opinions for telling political lies. This confirms what Bethmann told me that he regretted to have Scheidemann speak a word for the monarchy and commit the Socialists to support of the Kaiser and ended in 1917 when Scheidemann demanded the retirement of Bethmann as an obstacle to peace.

Agreed With Bernstorff. A passage of interest to America deals with a conversation with Bernstorff after the ambassador's return from Washington. Bernstorff, who Scheidemann found, agreed thoroughly with him in almost everything regarding the war and arms, then expressed complete conviction that President Wilson had not wanted war, but zealously had tried to bring peace. Once his hand had been forced by the cabinet towards a campaign, Bernstorff said, Wilson naturally exploited the situation to obtain a larger standing army and to improve the navy, and finally—and this was the most important thing for Wilson—to build a mercantile marine under the pretext of providing tonnage for England. This had always been the cherished plan of the Kaiser, but to assure to American merchant ships because he simply could not understand why the United States should be completely dependent on the English marine of other countries.

Bernstorff added that even if England were compelled to make peace by the submarine war, a general peace would not result thereby, because America would on the same instant start war against Germany. Bernstorff and Scheidemann were in complete accord regarding the significance thereof and the economic consequences this would have for Germany.

Of particular interest at present being to Germany's attitude of unending refusal to sign the Paris reparations proposals is Scheidemann's concluding chapter on the attitude of his cabinet towards the signature of the Versailles treaty. He recalls how the cabinet changed a passage in his first speech as the treaty would not restore the monarchy, but later in some oratorical flourish and substituted a simple "this treaty is unacceptable." Then he describes how under the influence of Eberhard, his argument the cabinet were raised, first, in the cabinet and later in parliament. He closes the book with a picture of himself taking the chancellorship and resigning the chancellorship and resigning.

SHE WAS ALMOST A NERVOUS WRECK

Halifax Woman Restored by Tonic Year Ago—Still in Splendid Health.

"At the time my wife began taking Tonic," said John A. Hayter, 120 Maynard street, Halifax, "she had suffered from stomach trouble for four years, and was almost a complete nervous and physical wreck. She could scarcely do anything, as everything disagreed with her so bad, and often for days at a time didn't eat a morsel. She bloated terribly after meals, and suffered from awful cramping pains in her stomach. She also had headaches and dizzy spells constantly, and was hardly able to do her household work."

"One day a friend told her about Tonic, and got her to try it. Well, she said anything she wants now without the least pain or distress, has a fine appetite, and, in fact, is rid of all her troubles, and is doing her household work with ease. We can't praise Tonic too highly."

Although it has been something over a year now since Mrs. Hayter's experiences with Tonic, she stated in an interview with a special Tonic representative a few days ago that she was still feeling fine, which is another link in the long chain of evidence regarding both the immediate and lasting results being obtained from the Master Medicine.

Tonic is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., E. W. Munro and by T. H. Wilson, Fairville, N. B., and R. D. Wetmore, Perry's Point, N. B., under the personal direction of a special Tonic representative.—Adv.

Red Paper in London Raises A Big Howl

News Agents Refuse to Handle It—Calls on Labor Unions to Stop Boycott.

(Copyright 1921, By Public Ledger.) London, Feb. 8.—So many whole-sale news agents upon whom the London newspapers depend solely for distribution in the London area have declined to handle "the Communist" that this new Red organ was compelled to-day to purchase a page and a half in the Laborite Herald to get itself before the public. In the form of a resolution "the Communist" is sending to all labor councils a protest against the boycott. It calls the action of the news agents a "flagrant example of the distastefulness of the bourgeoisie" and calls upon the trade union movement to refuse to tolerate such tactics. The paper was started here recently by the executive committee of the Communist party in Great Britain under the editorship of Francis Meynall, whose name was closely connected with the recent scandal of smuggling from Russia into England several hundred thousand dollars worth of jewels for Bolshevik propaganda purposes.

Roy M. Wolvin To Build Racing Yacht

Montreal, Feb. 8.—That the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club will be well represented in the international yacht race to be held next July on Lake St. Louis near here was assured yesterday, when it was announced that Roy M. Wolvin, president of the Dominion Steel Co., had ordered a boat to compete in the trial races from which the defenders will be selected. This makes the fourth new boat ordered, one of the others being owned by J. K. L. Ross, the international racing man. Schooner Peter McIntyre. The new schooner Peter McIntyre, after loading under-deck cargo of lumber at Sisson, Outter mill, Indiantown, was towed through the falls yesterday to the McAvity wharf, where she will receive the finishing touches by carpenters and riggers. Her three masts will be stepped this week and the ship will be ready in a few weeks to sail for Las Palmas, Canary Islands.

THE OFFICIAL JAR

The above reproduction is from a photo taken of the official Barley Jar, after it had been filled, sealed and labeled by Mayor Schofield. Twenty-two free prizes, including a 5-passenger Ford Touring Car, are offered for the best guesses on the number of kernels of barley that Mayor Schofield poured into the Small's Peanut Butter jar. We would suggest that you get a jar of Small's Peanut Butter, eat the delicious contents, wash the jar, fill it with barley purchased from Robertson's, count the kernels in your jar and thus arrive at some sort of an estimate on the number of kernels in the official jar. See the officially sealed jar on exhibition in the window at Macaulay Bros. & Co., 65 King Street.

MAYOR SCHOFIELD FILLING THE OFFICIAL BARLEY JAR

RULES OF THE SUBSCRIBERS' GUESSING CONTEST

1. A subscriber may enter into the Barley Guessing Competition, provided he or she gives a subscription to a candidate in The Standard's Big Prize Contest, or pays a subscription into the Contest Office of The Standard for the benefit of a candidate.

NOTICE—Read rule 1 carefully. Notice that the subscriber must pay direct to a candidate or to the contest office. A subscriber will NOT be allowed an estimate if his or her subscription is paid to an agent who deducts a commission on the subscription.

2. One guess will be given for each dollar paid on subscription under the above conditions.

3. The Free Prizes for the subscribers' Guessing Contest will consist of the following:

5 Passenger Ford Touring Car.

4. Either the candidate or the Contest Department of The Standard will supply you with the necessary blank or blanks to fill in your guesses.

5. A subscriber or candidate may send subscriptions to boys at Military Hospitals or to other friends, and be entitled to send in guesses.

In a case of this kind the following is to appear on the back of the guessing coupon: "I have submitted this guess as subscriber did not wish to take advantage of the Guessing Contest; the candidate's signature must be attached. Then, also, this article must follow: 'I relinquish all claims to any prize in your subscribers' contest which this coupon may win in favor of the above signed candidate.' Subscriber's signature must be attached.

7. In the event of a tie, priority will be the deciding factor, and the tying guesses which reached us first will be given the preference. If the tying guesses reached the Contest Department simultaneously, the subscriber who gave the longest term subscription will be given the preference. If the tying guesses arrived simultaneously and the same amounts were paid by the parties tying, new subscribers will be given the preference over renewals or arrears subscriptions.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION

Premier Melgoin is in receipt of tons of advice just at present, the prevailing tendency of which appears to be in favor of an early appeal to the country. Even many of his closest friends are said to favor this course. Why they should do so is by no means clear. The defeat of the Government candidate in Peterboro was the result of a fluke, and can be no stretch of the imagination in the House will go out of their way to make the sledding as difficult as possible for him, but the Premier is not a man who is easily turned from his purpose, and if he feels that he can carry on with a reasonable degree of success—and there seems to be no reason why he should not—he will probably do so. If on the other hand he should decide to take the advice of some of his friends and go to the country, he should go at once.

VOCATIONAL CLASSES

The Times seems to be sadly worried as to the future of vocational training in this city. It seems to feel that if the present classes are discontinued, the youth of both sexes of the city will go to perdition. That of course would be a sad pity; and if it were in any respect true, would justify the adoption of very heroic measures. But it does not happen to be true; because the city council has refused to provide $25,000 to be spent in whatever way the vocational committee chooses to spend it. It does not follow that the whole system must be discontinued. The decision to "wreck" the plant and other impediments which vocational classes have accumulated is merely the result of a number of small minds, actuated by sheer temper, just like a spoiled child, who being denied just what he or she wants to play with, for the time being, vents his or her temper by smashing up some other toys. It is a silly thing to do, but there are apparently some older children who are not immune from the falling. All we have to say is this: that if the plant, etc., is scrapped the city council should firmly resolve never to furnish funds to replace it under any circumstances whatever.

With the exception of some few subjects the majority of the subjects taught in the vocational classes should be taught in the public schools. For instance, the education that is given to girls in the public schools is about as much use to the majority of them in after life as it would be to a Hotentot. Precisely the same subjects are taught to boys and girls alike, utterly regardless of the different paths in life that they will have to tread. Except a girl is going to be a school teacher, what is the use of teaching her mathematics, the various sciences and languages and such like? Why not teach them something useful such as cooking, sewing and general household economics instead? The average girl when she leaves High School is just about as useful around the house, as a china ornament. She will probably be able to tell you the botanical name of each flower in the vase on the table and which of the nine orders of insect life any particular bug may belong to; but that knowledge will not enable her to cook a meal or mend her clothes. Why have to have special classes to teach these most important duties to the future mothers of the country? Why not bring them up to it from early life? The knowledge will never come as to them, even if they are never called upon to put it into practice.

With boys conditions are perhaps a little different. There are so many different callings for them to choose from that it would be extremely difficult to have vocational classes for all of them in the public schools. Extraneous teaching therefore is necessary to some extent. The proper place for a boy to learn a calling is by apprenticeship to it, where he will come in actual contact with practical work. No technical school or class can teach him properly, it can only extend his knowledge. This means to acquire this knowledge should be available somewhere.

The Times refers to some well-schooled people who have permitted

THE VACANT SENATORSHIP

The death of the Hon. Peter McSweeney has caused a vacancy in the Senate which will be filled all in good time. There is no need for worry as to who the appointee will be, nor is there any need for any particular hurry in making the appointment. In due course Mr. Wignmore will present to the Government the name of the gentleman whom he considers most suitable for the position, and in doing so will no doubt take into account all the qualifications which the position calls for.

It has always been the custom in making appointments to the Senate to see that the various elements in the community are represented, and the late Senator McSweeney was usually regarded as the representative of the Irish Catholics of the province. In the same way Senator Porlier and Senator Bourque represent the Acadians. There is no doubt that in making any recommendation for the vacancy Mr. Wignmore will bear this consideration in mind. We are given to understand that a large number of names have been suggested to Mr. Wignmore as desirable appointees. These will doubtless receive his due consideration, and he will exercise his judgment in making a choice, either from among them or otherwise as he shall think best. In the meanwhile it would be just as well to wait and see.

Apart from the fact that the citizens of St. John had the pleasure of being most enjoyably entertained by the Moncton Singers yesterday, their visit to this city can easily have other and more lasting effects. There is unfortunately a sad lack of neighborliness between the various towns and cities of this province, and a more frequent interchange of visits between representative bodies in each with the others would be productive of an immense amount of good. We would get to know each other better; ideas that we have formed of our neighbors might undergo modification and in the same way ideas that they may have formed about us might be subjected to change if we only knew each other better than we do. The Moncton visitors left a most agreeable impression behind them, and they will be welcomed again in this city. As New Brunswickers we are a comparatively small community, and we cannot afford to be too stand-offish among ourselves. The "get-together" idea wants encouraging and one way bring this about is to see more of each other.

Results of the polling in South Africa received down to the time of going to press, are most satisfactory, and unless the later returns show a strong change of sentiment the continuance of Imperial connection would appear to be in very little danger. With 39 supporters already elected as against 15 of all other parties. General Smuts' prospects are decidedly encouraging. There are 124 seats to be filled, however, so that there is still room for uncertainty as to the final outcome.

Mrs. Ralph Smith was offered the position of Speaker of the British Columbia Legislature and refused it. Naturally she would. Did any one really suppose that she would allow herself to be snuffed out that way? The impression we gathered of Mrs. Smith when she was in St. John was that she was a militant reformer, and to put her in the Chair would have effectively quashed all her opportunities for putting into effect the policies she has mapped out. Mrs. Smith is not built that way.

At one of the schools in Toronto the other day a small boy was eating his claims for the "funny little lumps" on his face and forehead. Later he was taken to the Hospital suffering with a much-discussed affliction. Meanwhile the boys who were permitted to rub the funny little lumps are thinking proudly.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

And Good Proof, Too.
 Another proof of the protection given by vaccination is afforded by the fact that the staff of the smallpox hospitals are always immune from the disease on account of vaccination.—Quebec Board of Health Bulletin.

Not Ready For Run.
 There are still courageous men and firm administrators and some peoples of India and other lands who will stand out against the effort to envelop the world in blood and fire, famine, starvation and lawless anarchy, poisoning and clamorous beneath the wings of human brotherhood.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Take the Guns Away.
 Why not "frisk" the floating population and the submerged for guns? It would be a job to clean up, but not more than the police department could do if it set about it seriously. But cleaning up the existing crop would not get us fair. The supply should be shut off. To do this thoroughly, legislation that Government should control the manufacture and sale of revolvers by private concerns should be prohibited. No one but the government or an agent thereof should be allowed to manufacture revolvers or issue them. A revolver is not a hunt for weapon. It has only one use—that is to wound or kill men. It should therefore, be kept under control of government agencies.—Chicago Tribune.

Proposed Extension of Patronage.
 An Ottawa lawyer, Mr. J. A. Ewart, K. C., writes a letter to a local newspaper suggesting that Sir Robert Borden should be appointed the next Governor General. He had done as much for Sir Wilfrid Laurier upon the defeat of that statesman in 1911. The Toronto Star says that the post should be filled on the advice of the Ottawa Government. If the post were to be filled by a Canadian what is the matter with the principle of promotion? The promotion of a Lieutenant Governor would point to Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, who is bilingual and qualified in every way.

Those who advocated the appointment of a Canadian as a piece of Ottawa patronage are really in favor of severing the British connection but not bold enough to say so. From this carry it is only fair to say the Ottawa lawyer is exempt, for he never hesitates to advocate independence. The Governor General is the British connection. He is the agent here of Great Britain, taking his instructions from that Government. Rompize him in the manner suggested and the last link with the Mother Country is broken.—Burlington Expositor.

COLOR BLIND.
 Manchester Guardian: (Mr. Lumsden, chief charity officer of Leeds, has announced that blue-eyed men make the worst husbands. Ninety per cent of the cases of wife desertion with which he has dealt with have had to do with blue-eyed men.)

"The eyes of my love," said the maiden, "are blue,
 As blue as the billows that rage."
 "I hope," said the expert, "whatever you do
 You'll remember that billows can change."
 Those eyes of that deepest cerulean hue
 Mean black ones for you."
 "Oh, no," said the maiden, "that's never the sole,
 I never in the slightest cast—
 That color that captures my heart
 And my soul."
 "I'm perfectly sure that it's safe."
 "It is," said the expert and doubtfully smiled:
 "Or, shall we say, swift."
 "You always put things in the horridest way."
 The maiden replied with a frown.
 "If I stick to my Blue-eyes, whatever you say."
 "I know I shall not be done brown."
 "If you knew," said the expert, "the things I have seen, You'd not be so green."
 "From eyes that are dog-like or greenish or gray
 A spouse you may hopefully choose—
 Statistics have proved that they won't run away."
 And leave you alone in the blues.
 But take my advice, gentle maiden
 And do
 A bolt from the blue."

Heavy Meat Eaters Have Slow Kidneys

Eat less meat if you feel Back-achy or have Bladder trouble.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the urine as usual, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jal Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jal Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Merchants Do Not Like Hotel Smoke

King Street Dealers Complain to Common Council About Royal Hotel Smoke.

Another complaint about the smoke from the Royal Hotel was registered with the common council yesterday by the Retail Merchants' Association, this time backed up by three King street wholesale merchants, Messrs. Brock & Patterson, Dominion Rubber System (Maritime) and Yasko & Co. All complained that because of the smoke from the chimney of the hotel they had to keep their windows closed and even then much stock was spoiled and they urged the council to provide some relief.

Commissioner Thornton explained that he had gone into this matter several times and Mr. Raymond was quite willing to do anything to abate the nuisance complained of, but up to date he had not been able to get a smoke consumer that was guaranteed to work. He said, too, that the Royal Hotel was not the only place in town from which smoke was allowed to pollute the air, and until a real smoke consumer was invented or hard coal became cheaper he did not see that that much could be done about it. The communication was referred to the commissioner of safety.

FROM CROFTER TO A WEALTHY RAILWAY MAN

Gen. "Jack" Stewart, Man Who Built Railways in France, Visits London.

REORGANIZED WHOLE ALLIED RAILWAY CORPS

Born in Little Scotch Village, Came to Canada, and Made Huge Fortune.

By T. P. O'CONNOR, M. P.
(Copyright 1921, By Cross Atlantic)
London, Feb. 3.—Among the recent visitors to London is General John W. Stewart, "Jack" Stewart, as he is known to his intimate friends and has been called "Prosen-faced Jack," in joke, he might at a great dinner party all through an evening and never open his lips or, indeed, attract any attention, and leave the company as unknown as when he entered it. Yet he has had one of the most remarkable careers of his time. Born in Assynt in Sutherlandshire, a little more than fifty years ago—then and now forty miles from a railway station—in the home of a crofter, he got his education at a University, small though the resources of the family were; then went into Glasgow at a small salary; saw there was nothing in Glasgow for so ambitious and energetic a spirit; borrowed the passage money to Canada from his dear old mother; landed at Quebec with ten shillings, and starting with ten shillings, a lonely, friendless immigrant, he is now at a little more than fifty years of age, in the ranks of the millionaires. It is a big leap in a not long life.

Has Worked Hard.

Every step has been advanced by sheer hard work and something like genius. He served first as a farm hand; then got on to a railway; and when he had been on the railway for a short time, he came to his employers and made them an offer to subcontract a few miles of the railway at a price they thought quite moderate. He made a nice bit of profit, however, upon it; then sub-contracted for a few more miles of the road; made a bigger profit; and in the end the two Irishmen and the Norwegian who were the heads of the firm realized that a man he was he became a partner; married the sister-in-law of one of his partners—a delightful Irish-American girl; and from that time forward his firm has prospered till it is now one of the most powerful contractors in Canada and the United States.

Sent To France.

Realizing the genius of this man, and realizing at the same time private information the deficiencies of our railway equipment on the front—their state is ghastly one, but this is not the time to tell of it—brought Mr. Stewart to Mr. Lloyd George; Mr. Lloyd George was struck with him; pushed his claims for a share in the reorganization of the railway service; there were obstacles—I assume from that hopeless War Office gang under the Kitchener regime; and when one morning Mr. Lloyd George rang the bell to call for Stewart, that gentleman was already on his way to Canada. He is not the man to push himself; and, indeed, he never has offered his services if I had not taken the matter into my own hands. In time Mr. Lloyd George was in the position to choose his man; and Stewart went to the front. With Sir Henry Maybury—a very remarkable fellow is Maybury—he transformed the situation; brought order out of chaos; and is one of the men who really helped to win the war.

Has Scotch Estate.

With that ineradicable love of their own land which is a honorable feature of Scotchmen, General Stewart has acquired a large estate in his native country; is a deputy-lieutenant there; gives a high tribute to the free press; has deer forest and unlimited hospitality for some months every year. And now he is picking up a considerable trifle in the shape of big contracts in all parts of the world. But he remains quiet, silent, shy—unknown beyond a small circle of friends; and his great career and his equally great heart. But they understand him up at Assynt.

After receiving his discharge, he returned to his home, where he has since made his home. For many years he was employed as engineer at the old gas works. He is survived by four sons, John, William, Henry and Archibald, and two daughters, Miss Emily and Mrs. Frank Lahey, all of this city.

Catarrhal Deafness May Be Overcome

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head and ear noises, or are growing hard of hearing, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmitin (double strength), and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy, and the mucous membrane into throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

CHURCH PLAN REJECTED.

Woman Suffrage In All Countries

World Campaign for Votes for Women Planned—Canada to Help Newfoundland.

By LYDIA K. COMMANDER. (Copyright, 1921, by Cross-Atlantic.) London, Feb. 8.—A tremendous world campaign for votes for women has been planned by the International Suffrage Alliance, at the meeting of the executive board in London. Delegates from all the principal countries were present. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, the president, and Mrs. Stanley MacCormick of Boston.

Canada to Help.

The women of the United States will organize the women of their own dependencies and of Jamaica, Cuba and South America. Canada will be asked to assist Newfoundland, her sister Dominion, and the oldest British Dominion. Great Britain will be asked to help South Africa, India and Egypt, and to give special care to Palestine, where the Zionist women are already helping the Arab women to obtain political freedom.

Will Get Information.

Four committees of the Alliance are to gather information from all countries on these subjects: 1. The nationality of married women. This question becomes urgent during the war. 2. The care of mothers, married and unmarried, and of children whose legitimate or illegitimate status is in doubt. 3. Moral standards and sexual hygiene, especially the restraint of commercialized vice and the care and cure of social diseases. 4. Women's work and to work and to equal pay, and the manner in which women are discriminated against in the different occupations and different countries.

It is rumored that Mrs. Smith may be given cabinet rank later.

Boils So Bad HAD TO GIVE UP WORK.

From the days of Job up to the present time, boils have been one of the afflictions of the human race. All the poisoning and lancing you may do will not prevent them from breaking out again. Boils are simply caused by the bad blood bursting out, and the bad blood must be made pure before the boils will disappear. Backdoor Blood Bitter, which has been on the market for over forty years, is well known as the greatest blood medicine procurable. It purifies the blood by removing every particle of foul matter from the system, and when this is done the boils vanish, and you should never be troubled again. Mrs. James Hately, Newport Island, Que., writes—"I was troubled with boils on my face and neck, and all without benefit. At last, a friend told me of Backdoor Blood Bitter, so I decided to give it a trial. I got three bottles, but before I had taken two the boils were all gone. It is eight months now, and I have had no return of the old trouble, and have never felt so well. It is on sale only by The St. Williams Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

Fascinated By Beautiful Actress

Bolshevist Chief Under Sway of Lady, Commissary Gorkhoff.

(Copyright 1921, by Cross-Atlantic.) London, Feb. 8.—Brilliant, beautiful, almost girlish in appearance, and a born adventuress, is an intimate friend of the epistle of Olga Gorkhoff, the mysterious woman whose influence over Lenin is threatening rapidly to disrupt the Bolshevist regime. The lady-commissary Gorkhoff, as she is known to her friends, or the "Red Raspitin," the significant nickname which she has earned from her enemies, is today the most intriguing and talked-of personality in Russia, if not in the whole of Europe.

Meteorite Career.

Lenin is completely under her sway. Violent dissensions have occurred among the People's Commissaries over the "Red Raspitin," but still she continues in her meteoric career. Early in November Lunacharsky, at a meeting of the Council of Commissaries, violently reproached Lenin for protecting her, but without effect. Charged with accepting a bribe of half a million rubles from a religious society as consideration for protecting the rights of orthodox saints, this amazing adventuress calmly refused point-blank to appear before the commission of enquiry.

The daughter of a humble peasant of the Ukraine, even in the underground days of her Canadian life, her unique beauty and gifted personality, Olga Gorkhoff compelled public attention. Her writings were acclaimed by Maxim Gorky; her beauty attracting the attention even of the fastidious court at the Tsarsko-Selo. In fact, an invitation to the Imperial Palace already had been extended to her when it was discovered by the secret police that the fair Olga was consorting with a dangerous group of anarchists.

Has Dangerous Enemies.

Seemingly by a miracle she escaped punishment to the seat of mines of Siberia, in the new Russia of today, while Olga numbers among her devoted admirers the most powerful chiefs of the Soviets, she has made many dangerous enemies. The "Red Raspitin" is a unique type of Russian beauty. She is slim and graceful of figure, with her hands and beautiful feet. Of dark olive, almost swarthy complexion and raven-black hair, she has glittering black eyes, the fascination of which, it is said, no man is able to resist. Her meeting with Lenin was dramatic. Invited by some obscure commission to attend a conference, Lenin arrived with the mistaken idea that it was another and more important event. Bored to distraction at last with the long-winded speeches, he was about to go when he caught sight of the Gorkhoff. It was a crisis in his life.

Has Famous Salon.

Immediately they became the closest of friends. The feeling grew into something stronger. They became inseparable. Lady-commissary Gorkhoff as she was now to be styled, was furnished with a luxurious suite of rooms in the former content of the relatives of the late Czar, the Commissary in charge immediately addressed a letter to Lenin, referring to her as responsible for the historic treasures in the palace unless she was immediately removed.

At the regular meeting of the Women's Institute held this week at the home of Mrs. A. H. Chipman, a debate took place on the following subject: "Resolved, that the present age is more conducive to womanhood than was the age of our grandmothers." Mrs. W. H. Johnson was the leader of the affirmative side and Mrs. S. S. King of the negative. The judges who were Mrs. H. J. Colpitts, Mrs. Leonard Fairweather and Mrs. Turnbull decided in favor of the affirmative side.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR GIRL.

By HELEN ROWLAND (Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

A generous roller will give anything in the world to the church—except his Sunday morning.

Somewhat, a woman always feels hesitant and tremble, when she perceives a man to give up a bad habit; because she never can tell with what other vice or folly he will replace it.

Love is a sweet, heavenly concoction, into which the devil has flung a handful of biters—the soufflé, into which the chief has spilled the black pepper.

It is a Moris-Vampire—And she stethop one of three. "How can I lure a man to sin? "On a soda-pop" cried she.

She tore her hair, she rolled her eyes. She sobbed, "What shall I do? "I cannot vamp with lemonade. "Not sundae and lime-juice!"

As such as a man has succeeded in inducing his wife to give up her lipstick, make over her clothes, and act "sensibly," he begins to wonder what it was about her that he found so fascinating.

What a girl used to think, when a man stared at her: "Mercy! Do my ankles show? Is my hat on straight?"

What she thinks now: "Heavens! Do my ears show? Is my rouge on straight?"

Of course the movies are educational! Many a girl would never have known what it is to be made to love artistically, if it had not been for the movies. Wallace Reid, or William S. Hart on the masculine imagination.

When a man becomes a confirmed bachelor, it is usually because he is too proud to be a rich girl's darling, and too selfish to be a poor girl's cash-register.

Moncton Singers Captured the City

Scored Tremendous Success in Presentation of Opera "The Chimes of Normandy."

The city of St. John in the very representative and large audience that filled the Imperial Theatre last evening was completely captivated by the Moncton opera singers in their splendid rendering of the beautiful opera, "The Chimes of Normandy." The principals in their singing and acting displayed a sweetness of tone and a dramatic power that might well have done credit to avowed professionals. They were supported by a well-balanced chorus of winsome village maidens and stalwart swains who ably assisted in the catching melodies that ran through the entire score.

Serpollite, the village good-for-nothing, was played by Moncton's premier soloist Miss Gertrude McElean, who lost nothing of the daring her part called for. Her rich soprano was heard to marked advantage in the "Just Look at This, and Look at That." She was warmly applauded, while a floral tribute was handed up over the footlights.

Bouquets Passed

In her interpretation of Germaine, the Lost Marchioness, Miss Bertha Ferguson portrayed in a most realistic manner the gentle breeding which peasant clothes could not conceal. Miss Ferguson is possessed of a voice of sweetness which was well adapted to the opening number "The Legend of the Bells." She was presented with two beautiful bouquets during the performance.

Mr. Frank Elliott as Henri, the Marquis de Cornville, captivated all with his brilliant tenor solo, "With Joy With My Heart." The duet number which he sang with Germaine was a very pleasing blending of the two voices.

Leopoldine the fisherman, was played by Mr. Walter Neil, his gallant bearing and powerful voice which was afforded such a marked opportunity in "The Fisherman's Solo" as well as in "The Night I'll Never Forget" gave little warning of his fall from a sturdy fisher lad to the servile factotum of Serpolite.

R. B. Metzler, as Gaspard the Miser, proved himself possessed of rare ability in the portrayal of a difficult role. His acting was one of the most powerful parts of the performance. While he was not afforded many opportunities for singing he proved himself possessed of a rich and pleasing baritone.

The tragedy supplied by his part was offset in a very happy manner by the Balli Mr. R. B. Gander, and the Notary Mr. Fred Reid, who provided some of the most humorous of their characterization of the dignity of their offices.

Beautiful Quartette

One of the most beautiful numbers in the opera, in which the voices of the five principals with splendid harmony was attained in the "Gold Sweet is On My Brow," sung by Germaine, Serpolite, Grenchieau, Mr. Reid and Mr. Johnson.

Between Acts I and II Mr. Alonzo Johnson who is well known to St. John audiences as a member of the lusty funny quintette of the 165th Battalion, stationed here in the Winter of '16, sung Norvanna. His voice has lost nothing of its former power and sweetness and he was warmly applauded for his brilliant number.

Mayor Extends Welcome

W. H. Golding, manager of the Imperial, invited Mayor Schofield to the platform between Acts III and IV. His Worship there extended the freedom of the city and a very hearty welcome on behalf of the citizens of St. John to the Moncton singers.

In a witty speech he congratulated the Monctonians on the excellence of their performance which had greatly pleased all those who had been privileged to attend their two performances. The presence of the Moncton players in St. John and the hearty welcome they had received augured well, he said, for the spirit of amity and goodwill which should prevail throughout the entire province. It was what the country wanted to weld closer the ties that should bind all in one large community of neighbors. He commended the Imperial management who by their co-operation has permitted the staging of the opera in St. John.

A further lesson that the performance bore for those who would see he said was "Canada for Canadians."

Moncton Singers Captured the City

Scored Tremendous Success in Presentation of Opera "The Chimes of Normandy."

The city of St. John in the very representative and large audience that filled the Imperial Theatre last evening was completely captivated by the Moncton opera singers in their splendid rendering of the beautiful opera, "The Chimes of Normandy." The principals in their singing and acting displayed a sweetness of tone and a dramatic power that might well have done credit to avowed professionals. They were supported by a well-balanced chorus of winsome village maidens and stalwart swains who ably assisted in the catching melodies that ran through the entire score.

Serpollite, the village good-for-nothing, was played by Moncton's premier soloist Miss Gertrude McElean, who lost nothing of the daring her part called for. Her rich soprano was heard to marked advantage in the "Just Look at This, and Look at That." She was warmly applauded, while a floral tribute was handed up over the footlights.

Bouquets Passed

In her interpretation of Germaine, the Lost Marchioness, Miss Bertha Ferguson portrayed in a most realistic manner the gentle breeding which peasant clothes could not conceal. Miss Ferguson is possessed of a voice of sweetness which was well adapted to the opening number "The Legend of the Bells." She was presented with two beautiful bouquets during the performance.

Mr. Frank Elliott as Henri, the Marquis de Cornville, captivated all with his brilliant tenor solo, "With Joy With My Heart." The duet number which he sang with Germaine was a very pleasing blending of the two voices.

Leopoldine the fisherman, was played by Mr. Walter Neil, his gallant bearing and powerful voice which was afforded such a marked opportunity in "The Fisherman's Solo" as well as in "The Night I'll Never Forget" gave little warning of his fall from a sturdy fisher lad to the servile factotum of Serpolite.

R. B. Metzler, as Gaspard the Miser, proved himself possessed of rare ability in the portrayal of a difficult role. His acting was one of the most powerful parts of the performance. While he was not afforded many opportunities for singing he proved himself possessed of a rich and pleasing baritone.

The tragedy supplied by his part was offset in a very happy manner by the Balli Mr. R. B. Gander, and the Notary Mr. Fred Reid, who provided some of the most humorous of their characterization of the dignity of their offices.

Beautiful Quartette

One of the most beautiful numbers in the opera, in which the voices of the five principals with splendid harmony was attained in the "Gold Sweet is On My Brow," sung by Germaine, Serpolite, Grenchieau, Mr. Reid and Mr. Johnson.

Between Acts I and II Mr. Alonzo Johnson who is well known to St. John audiences as a member of the lusty funny quintette of the 165th Battalion, stationed here in the Winter of '16, sung Norvanna. His voice has lost nothing of its former power and sweetness and he was warmly applauded for his brilliant number.

Mayor Extends Welcome

W. H. Golding, manager of the Imperial, invited Mayor Schofield to the platform between Acts III and IV. His Worship there extended the freedom of the city and a very hearty welcome on behalf of the citizens of St. John to the Moncton singers.

In a witty speech he congratulated the Monctonians on the excellence of their performance which had greatly pleased all those who had been privileged to attend their two performances. The presence of the Moncton players in St. John and the hearty welcome they had received augured well, he said, for the spirit of amity and goodwill which should prevail throughout the entire province. It was what the country wanted to weld closer the ties that should bind all in one large community of neighbors. He commended the Imperial management who by their co-operation has permitted the staging of the opera in St. John.

A further lesson that the performance bore for those who would see he said was "Canada for Canadians."

Hoppe's Money For Titular

Billboard $2,500 for Horvans.

New York, Feb. 8.—The billboard for the world's cleanest match, the Horvans, is being erected here from his tour with the "put-up" match. R. B. manager of the title hold posted $1,500 with the Balk-Callender Company, to be paid in installments. The Horvans match is being developed yesterday by Pawling, manager of the Philadelphia, had offered the match.

The money posted today a match between Hoppe and Horvans. Hoppe, a 13-baldie billiard, said "Horvans has done a lot but neither he nor those who have shown any interest in the match. The company at the time of the tournament here by ignored it and announced a fine stand for a match here for the principal player Hoppe. Well, there's the money to be covered Horvans, he is going back to Belgium for this season is a question."

Match at 1,000 P.M. "I am ready to clinch late next October or earlier, 1,000 p.m.—500 in his and 500 at night. We will have a match at 1,000 with his backers. We will Horvans put up a bond appear here next fall. file a bond for $10,000 who will get the contest, such protection.

"As for the scene of the championship, it is not that matter, but it is the city that offers the means. To do this, the club from Pawling, who the event at the Lee Park York may come through better offer. The West Virginia champion has been on a basis to suit him. Horvans insists, we no debate about that. Horvans has been a match at 3,000 points certainly will not play after afternoon and night. A sort of sporting country want to see a night. This would be a simple if the match is Philadelphia. Billiard, who come there from New Baltimore, Washington, and other Eastern points stay for one day, but the return in three days to Marathon through.

Many Frady to "It is a peculiar proposition to post a challenger puts up his Horvans's claim having value for us to take the we should see whether he is or whether he came on nothing more than to with Hoppe. If the man believe that he has to beat Hoppe I can make $20,000 to wager on him in this city are 900 each.

"Horvans may be a but he could not beat Hoppe of game. Only a few er will be able to take the and Horvans is not a it is said that Hoppe is him as he did Cochran here. His defeat would days ago that he was range a match with Hoppe. He is not a debate is about over a near a match for the title.

Hoppé's Money Up For Titular Match

Billiard Champion's Manager Posts $2,500 for Tilt With Horemans.

New York, Feb. 8.—The controversy between Willie Hoppé, the billiard champion, and his manager, the Belgian countess, yesterday reached the "split-up" stage. St. B. Benjamin, manager of the title holder, arrived here from his tour with Hoppé, and posted $2,500 with the Brunswick-Balk-Challenger Company, which controls professional billiards on this side of the Atlantic. Horemans is allowed a week to carry that forfeit and enter into negotiations for a match. It developed yesterday that George Pawling, manager of the Ice Palace, Philadelphia, had offered $10,000 for the match.

The money posted today is to bind a match between Hoppé and Horemans for the world's championship at 15.3 ballgame billiards, said Benjamin. Horemans has done a lot of talking, but neither he nor those connected with him have shown any money. The champion of the world has been ignored and announced that he did not feel like playing just then. That was a fine stand for a man who, according to announcements, had come here for the principal purpose of challenging Hoppé.

Well, there's the money again, waiting to be covered. Horemans says that he is going back to Belgium soon, so a match this season is out of the question.

Match at 1,000 Points. "I am ready to clinch a contest for late next October or early in November, 1,000 points—500 in the afternoon and 500 at night. We will wager any sum up to $10,000 with Horemans or his backers. We will insist that Horemans put up a bond that he will appear here next fall. Hoppé will file a similar bond. The promoter who will get the contest will demand such protection.

"As for the scene of the match, we are willing to accept whatever. The champion, of course, has the say in that matter, but he is ready to go to the city that offers the best inducements. To date the top offer is $10,000 from Pawling, who wants to run the event at the Ice Palace. New York may come through with even better offer. We would like to play on the basis of winner take all, but Horemans insists, we will split it on a basis to suit him. There will be no debate about this.

"Horemans has been talking about a match at 3,000 points. Hoppé most certainly will not play for three days—afternoon and night. There is any sort of sporting contest in this country want to see a decision in one night. This would be particularly desirable if the most were played in Philadelphia. Billiard followers would come there from New York, Boston, Baltimore, Washington, Wilmington and other Eastern points. They would stay for one day, but they would not return for three days to see a billiard Marathon through.

Many Feady to Wager. "It is a peculiar procedure for a champion to post a forfeit before a challenger puts up his money, but Horemans' claims have made it difficult for us to take this action. We do not know whether he means business or whether he came here to trade on nothing more than talk of a match with Hoppé. If the backers of Horemans believe that he has a fine chance to beat Hoppé I can muster more than $200,000 to wager on Willie. Three men in this city are ready to bet $25,000 each.

"Horemans may be a great nurer, but he could not beat Hoppé with that kind of game. Only a great shotmaker will be able to give Hoppé a fight and Horemans is not a shotmaker. Let it be said that Hoppé would not play him as he did Cochran and Schaefer. His facilities would be different.

As Horemans announced here some days ago that he was ready to arrange a match with Hoppé on a winner take all basis, it looks as if the debate is about over and that we are near a match for the 15.3 ballgame title.

King And Shea On Giants' Bandwagon

Lee King, outfielder, and Pat Shea, pitcher, sent their signed contracts into the offices of the Giants yesterday. King is the centre fielder when the opposition pitching is of the left handed variety. The West Virginian will have some opposition for his job at San Antonio, but it looks as if he will retain the berth.

Shea is a promising youngster, who was purchased last fall from Toronto for $12,000. He had a short trial with the Red Sox several seasons ago and was released without a string. Pat was one of the sensations of the International League in 1920.

GORMAN INJURED

St. John Skater Given A Boost

Montreal Star Says Charlie Gorman is Nicest and Least Showy in Races.

A prophet, and perhaps a skater without honor in his own country. The following is what the Montreal Star has to say of Charlie Gorman's wonderful performance at the Canadian Championships in Montreal: "One of the nicest and at the same time one of the least showy skaters on the ice was Charlie Gorman of St. John, N. B. This clever boy, though only trying for third place in points, was the best skater in the world. The former Canadian champion, was nevertheless the running of the two-mile, the only man who could possibly take the honor away from Wheeler. If he had won that race—and he nearly did—he would have taken the title back to the East. But just when Gorman was going strong and when the spectators were predicting that he would be first at the tape, the unfortunate New Brunswicker had a mishap. Either he caught his skate in somebody else's or he lost his balance, which it is hard to say. However the fact remains that he fell just as the men were coming into the stretch and thus was out of the running."

Chatham Wants Game At Moncton

Chatham, N. B., Feb. 8.—The executive of the Chatham hockey club at a special meeting, held decided that there will be no appeal to the executive of the N.B.H.L., from the order of President, J. D. Black that the Fredericton-Chatham game of Jan. 25th be replayed on neutral ice. There is a feeling that Moncton would be a better place than Bathurst for the re-playing of the game because a larger attendance would result. However, Chatham fans do not expect the game will have to be replayed at all. They feel confident that even without "Shoory" Veno the Chatham club will win at Campbellton tomorrow night and thus clinch the Chatham cup for the second successive year.

President Covey And The Venos

Brothers Stanley and Wilfred Are Ineligible to Play for Chatham.

Special to The Standard
Fredericton, Feb. 8.—President A. W. Covey, of the Maritime Branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada has sent a final edict to Chatham to the effect that Stanley ("Shoory") Veno is definitely ineligible to play for Chatham in the New Brunswick Hockey League this season.

This notice was the answer to Chatham's efforts to have the star defender, who has been the stormy petrel of Eastern Hockey circles this season, declared eligible to play with their team against Campbellton in the crucial game of the N. B. H. L. tomorrow night.

Wired Chatham
"I wired to E. W. Watling, of the Chatham club, stating that the Veno Brothers, Stanley and Wilfred, are the property of the Maritime branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada and that they cannot play for Chatham this season," said A. W. Covey. "But they cannot play with Moncton until they become eligible under the residence rule of the Eastern League."

"Not for one calendar year from the time they went to Moncton will the Veno's be eligible under the A. A. U. of C. rules to play for Chatham again," declared Mr. Covey. "I have been in touch with the members of our executive and we are going to put an end to these players jumping around from one team to another."

Will Be No Change
There will be no change made in the decision originally handed out in this game. Definite decision that the A. A. U. of C. will not permit "Shoory" Veno to play with the Chatham team is a rude jolt to the supporters of the Chatham cup holders, who were confident that a permit for their star defender to play with the team against Campbellton tomorrow night would be forthcoming. At Chatham it was said that deserting the A. A. U. of C. and playing "independent" hockey as the Independent League has done in Nova Scotia, was a probable outcome of the situation.

U. N. B. Trimmed Acadia Players

Hockey Thriller at Capital Extended Into Twenty Minute Overtime—Score 6 to 5.

Special to The Standard
Fredericton, Feb. 8.—U. N. B. won from Acadia tonight in a hockey thriller that extended into twenty minutes of overtime, the final score being six to five. The game was an intercollegiate League fixture and drew a good-sized crowd, but not as many as have been turning out to witness the N. B. H. L. games here.

Loosely Played
It was rather loosely played game, but the closeness of the score kept the interest of the fans, who voted U. N. B. the better team, but heavy to win as two of their goals especially were scored on long shots that under ordinary circumstances would not have got by.

After seven and a half minutes of overtime, Billy Lounsbury, U. N. B.'s left winger, who had gotten out of a sick bed to play, notched the odd goal on a quick shot to the upper corner of the Acadia net on a pass from "Fats" Jewett, the big U. N. B. defence player, who had previously scored three of U. N. B.'s goals unassisted.

A Complaint
During the remainder of that overtime period nobody scored, and in as much as Captain's Burgess and Boardley had agreed that twenty minutes would be the time limit of overtime, Fred McLean, the Fredericton player, who was in charge of the game as referee, declared U. N. B. the winners by a score of six to five. There was some complaint made that the entire overtime period had not elapsed when the timer bell rang and U. N. B. refused to continue playing if there was any dispute, but Captain Boardley of the Acadia team said he was willing to call it a game, and then Referee McLean made his decision.

Looked For Easy Victory
With their trio—Capt. Burgess, Lounsbury and Jewett—in action, and Acadia minus the services of Parker, their regular centre ice player, U. N. B. looked to have an easy victory, and at one time had a 3-0 lead over the visitors; but thereafter they got careless and Acadia soon had the score tied up. In fact, at the commencement of the second period, Acadia jumped into the lead, only to have U. N. B. score twice to raise the score and with only a short time to go, Acadia seemed to have the game won when Langwith notched the goal that evened up the score and drove the game into overtime. The Acadia team were much heavier than U. N. B. and while they did not individual stars that the Red and Black boasts of, they played together, worked hard all the time and, as the result shows, came within an ace of winning the game.
