

British Empire Celebrates Nelson's Famous Victory

The Great Admiral's Monument in London Scene of a Remarkable Demonstration---Togo Sends Wreath.

ment masses at the base of the Nelson column.

The Gallant Enemy.

Among the floral tributes, occupying the more prominent positions, was a wreath inscribed: "To the memory of the gallant dead of France and Spain, who lost their lives in the great conflict."

The column itself was covered with laurel streamers, stretching from the top of the statue to the base.

A Wreath From Togo.

The boys of the Naval Brigade arrived at the scene from Portsmouth during the morning, and after saluting the column by presenting arms, placed on it a wreath from Admiral Togo.

Services, which were all largely attended, were held simultaneously in St. Paul's Cathedral, where Nelson was buried, and in other churches.

The Naval League took charge of the celebration in the afternoon, and besides the services at Trafalgar Square similar ceremonies were held simultaneously under the League's auspices throughout the country, consisting of the playing of the national anthem, the King's "Recessional" and National Anthem. In Trafalgar Square the National Anthem was played by massed bands, while the crowds, which filled the square, sang the hymn "God Save the King" in the singing. Tomorrow services will be held in all the churches. Those at St. Paul's Cathedral, being of an official nature, will be attended by British and foreign officials and the naval attaches of the powers.

As a more permanent recognition of the centenary the Navy League proposes to improve Trafalgar Square by erecting a new lantern and erecting a majestic, "imperial" monument to the fleet.

SNAP-SHOTS AT VARIOUS SPORTS.

This is the Nelson centennial, and it will also go down in history as the day of the slaughter of the Argonauts of Toronto under the mountain at Hamilton.

The French Automobile Club has refused the Vanderbilt cup, and next year it will not have either that race or the one for the James Gordon Bennett cup. Well, it seems that the age is really becoming more humane when France refuses to hold the race. The millionaires are beginning to get cold feet, and have lost much of their keenness to participate in a funeral at their own expense. The fool-killer will have to think up something else.

President Ruel, of the Georgetown University, says the American college football game is only fit for thugs. We wonder what he would say if he lived at Ottawa.

Here's what the Winnipeg Tribune thinks of the Marlboros' chances: Even if the Marlboros were granted permission by the O. H. A. to meet the Ottawas, westerners have occasion to smile when they think what would happen to those submissive Ducks when they hitch up against the Ottawas. Last season's Rowing Club seven defeated the Marlboros in Winnipeg. The Rowing Club was easy for the Rat Portage seven. Rat Portage lost to the Ottawas. Please find the Marlboros if stacked up against the Ottawas. Just how long the O. H. A. champions would last against those rough-house Ottawas requires little exertion of the gray matter. The Marlboros would simply be absorbed in the first Ottawa mouthful. Stanley cup gossip will soon be in season, but any Marlboro talk along that line just now looks more like a fever for players than a trip to Ottawa.

We had the temerity to mention the other day that the Marlboros, senior O. H. A. champions, would never get the Stanley cup from Ottawa. The Telegram thinks that "papa's pet" could beat the Ottawas if they were not so beastly rough, and such rude, vulgar fellows, and so it breaks out with this specimen of wit: Marlboros' announcement that they want to play for the Stanley cup sends a rude ha-ha echoing all the way from Winnipeg to London, and the further back in the woods it gets the louder the cackle. And while the Ducks could not win against the kind of hockey the Ottawas play at home, it might be well to remind an esteemed contemporary, who amuses himself playing with the Thames mud, they would not get so badly beaten that they would want to go home and dishand. Seems somehow as if something like that happened up London way recently.

London's dandies do not create any large vacancy in the football world. But it teaches a lesson, and that is that small places should be content to take someone their own size and play intermediate or junior football. —Telegram.

It looks as if Terry McGovern has got back to something like his old time form, though it is safe to wager, he will never be the boy that he was before Young Corbett took his laurels. Just how near to being right Terry is one cannot judge until he has been given a more adequate try-out than that of Wednesday evening. Not that he did not beat a good boy, and beat him decisively and in a hurry. He is entitled to credit for his victory, but too much promise for his future should not be taken from it. Murphy is what we want to regard as a featherweight in the days before the classes were hopelessly jumbled. He fights best at 125 pounds, and is benefited none by taking on any weight beyond that figure. For his bout with McGovern on Wednesday he agreed to 127 pounds at 6 o'clock, which means that Terry was around 120 at ringside, giving him an advantage of something like eight pounds. In a sense it was the old story of a good little man against a good bigger man. McGovern's work will make him a card again, and will get him chances to meet boys of his weight, and demonstrate just how close he is to his old time self. —Detroit Free Press.

The English soccer game did get in right at Boston, but judging from an article in one of the Boston papers, it will not supersede the American game in that city. It may become more popular than it is, but it will never be any more popular in this hemisphere than cricket. The article says:

"Just why soccer football has been compared with the game played so extensively among American colleges and schools, and why its enthusiastic followers have so persistently insisted that it will supersede the American game, cannot be easily understood. The game approaches the American game only in so much as there is a ball to kick, instead of to throw with a stick as in baseball, or to throw with the hands, as in the purely American game of basketball. There is no play of room for soccer football in this country, and it is a great game. There is not a dull moment in it, and there are moments just as exciting as any ever seen on any 'Varsity gridiron. But it lacks the element of personal combat which is embodied in American football, as well as English Rugby, and in every respect is entirely dissimilar from our college game. Soccer football does not offer the chance for unobserved rough play that our football does, but the man who plays it carelessly or clumsily can be injured just as easily."

Tom Phillips declares that all is serene at Rat Portage, and that the Thistles will be stronger than they were last year. They will have to play the first test of hockey this winter to win from Winnipeg, who have been doing some successful soccer for players.

The Toronto Telegram in still continues its rude libels at London because of the Irish boxer's defeat. If the O. R. F. had put the Tigers against the Thistles, it would have been a first class fight, and a good gamble that the London club would have been the best. Figure it out from today's score.

FOOTBALL BULL; LOSING INTEREST

University Publication Says There's Something the Matter With Game.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 20.—The Harvard Bulletin, a university publication, in its issue today contains an editorial on "The Trouble With Football." It says in part:

"Something is the matter with a game which grows more and more uninteresting every year; which takes the time and attention, not only of the players, but also of the undergraduates as a body, until for weeks they talk and think about nothing but football; which requires the constant attention of skilled physicians, which injures men so that they are crippled for weeks and some cases made permanently unfit for athletic exercises."

"It is often said that the constantly increasing attendance at the important football games, and the state of the student body, are just interesting than they used to be. The truth is that the sale of tickets is due to a very large extent to the excitement which the newspapers give the games. The unanimous opinion of the men who saw the games in the early 30s is that they were infinitely more interesting to watch than those which are played today. The sport is dull. One sees a player plunge into a group of a dozen others and there it disappears. That is all there is to 75 per cent of the formations in the modern game. The editorial quotes W. H. Lewis, one of the Harvard coaches, on the matter of slugging and asks: 'Why are men coached to slug and to violate the rules with the reservation that they must not be seen by the officials? We know that players are so coached. To be a little more concrete, everybody who watched the Pennsylvania eleven in Cambridge last fall saw two or three men whose playing was simply barbaric, but no one can deny that they were very effective men for their side. There is something radically wrong with the game, and it ought to be substantially changed, or else abolished.'

Have Captured More Purse Than the American Nags — Keene's Good Pair.

New York, Oct. 20.—There may be some doubts in the minds of racegoers in regard to the greatest race horse the American turf has seen during the last twenty years, but there is no question that in Domingo and Sysonby James R. Keene has owned the greatest breed winners in the country. With these two horses alone Mr. Keene has won $381,423 from the various racing associations.

Domingo, known as the black whirlwind, won $136,580. This sum will likely be eclipsed by Sysonby, the racing marvel of today. It took Domingo three years to win this amount. In two years Sysonby has won $134,523. If the latter had won last season's Futurity, the only race in which he has been defeated in his career, he would have beaten all previous winners made by race horses in this country, and he would have outstripped Domingo's record by nearly $20,000.

Sysonby leads all horses this year in the matter of money won. During the season he ran in nine races, won eight outright, and made a dead heat in the other event. His total net winnings are $145,150. Artful, Sysonby's greatest rival, has not been nearly so fortunate in landing the rich plums of the turf this year. Her most important victory was the Brighton Handicap, worth $22,500. She won two other over-night events and her winnings amounted to $23,500.

Ormondale, the winner of the Futurity, is the largest winning two-year-old of the season. He only won one race, but as that event exceeded in value every other race of the season it placed him at the head of the list with $45,000.

Hemlock Belle for two seasons a favorite with racegoers, won $15,000 this year. This was a large sum, considering that she is now four years old and race, but as that event exceeded in value every other race of the season it placed her at the head of the list with $45,000.

with $45,000. Tradition was the second best three-year-old filly of the season, and gathered in $18,450. Jacobite, the leading winning two-year-old in Sydney Page's string, won $15,000. Ormondale's Right, the only other son of Ormondale, besides Ormondale, racing in the east, won $7,500. The stable's winnings to date amount to $121,000.

There have been no horses in America this year worth $200,000. The English thoroughbreds exceed them in every respect. In the matter of money won, the champion race horse of the world, Doncaster, during the same period of time, won $275,500. Flying Fox in two years won an aggregate amount of $200,000.

NO ROOM FOR SPECTATORS.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 20.—For the first time this year spectators were not admitted to the grounds to see Harvard practice. This is the earliest date for secret practice in Harvard's history, and shows that Reid has achieved up his sleeves which he is unwilling to share with the outside world.

SHUT-OUT FOR CLINTON.

Clinton, Oct. 20.—Scarford defeated Clinton today by 21 to 0, in a junior O. R. F. U. game. The defeat of the home team was chiefly due to the inexperience of it being their first game.

THE RING.

RYAN MAY LOSE SIGHT.

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—"Buddy" Ryan, who until recently was considered a likely candidate for welter-weight championship honors, is in danger of losing completely the use of his left eye. Ryan at present cannot see from this member and his physician holds out little hope of his ever regaining his sight. There is a possibility of a sympathetic affliction of the right eye. Ryan's injury was the result of a fight with Johnny Reid, a manager of fight. The dispute was over a matter of trivial matters, and in the quarrel that followed Reid slashed Ryan with a knife across the face. The blade of the knife entered the eyeball and severed the pupil.

THE TURF.

TRACK SOLD.

Louisville, Oct. 20.—Churchill Downs, probably the most historic race course in America, has been purchased by Colonel W. E. Applegate, of Louisville, Jerome Respass, of Covington, Ky., Captain S. S. Brown, of Lexington, and Matt J. Winn, of Louisville, president of the American Turf Association. The price has not been given out officially, but it is understood to be in the neighborhood of $125,000. The lease of the present lease, the New Louisville Jockey Club, will not expire for four years.

YESTERDAY'S WINNERS.

At Jamaica—Lochinvar 8 to 1, Spring 9 to 10, Lotus 9 to 10, Grenade 8 to 2, Baron Edmore 7 to 1, and at the same place—Lafayette 2 to 1, and at the same place—Lafayette 2 to 1, and at the same place—Lafayette 2 to 1.

MUD-RUNNERS IN DEMAND.

New York, Oct. 20.—Mud-runners were in demand at Jamaica today, and three favorites won. The Golden City, a three-year-old, the feature, resulted in the defeat of the heavily favored Bob Woodrow, the winner being Grenade backed down from 6 to 1 to 9 to 2. Woodrow and Arkle ran close together for three-quarters of a mile, and then fell. Grenade, who was a long shot, won easily by four lengths. Bob Woodrow, who was a long shot, won easily by four lengths. Bob Woodrow, who was a long shot, won easily by four lengths.

BELL WILL TRY FOR IRISH CUP

Quitting Champion to Participate in Tournament on Thanksgiving Day.

Jim Bell, the champion quoter of the Dominion, will participate in the Forest City Club's tournament to be held on the King street grounds on Thursday next (Thanksgiving Day).

Bell will be in the contest for the Irish Benevolent Society's cup now held by Harry Storey of this city. It is pretty safe to say that the champion will win, if he pitches quots as well as he did when he took the Hyman trophy in August. The Irish Benevolent Society's cup has been won by Bob Walsh, and once by Frank McEvan, Harry Storey and R. Errington, the veteran from Glanworth. Walsh will make a strong bid for it, for should he again capture the prize it will become his property. The match is open to members only of the Forest City Club.

Two additional matches are to be placed. In one, cash prizes of $4, $3, $2 and $1 are to be given, and in the other the first prize is to be $100. The prizes for the two matches are to be $100. The prizes for the two matches are to be $100. The prizes for the two matches are to be $100.

PREACHER SAYS B.A.L. IS CLEANEST SPORT

"A conscientious baseball player is the type of a real man," said Rev. Dr. Lewis, one of the most prominent divines, to his audience at Plymouth Congregational Church, he added:

"It takes courage to be a baseball player. I tell you that man walks up to bat, with thousands of eyes focused on his every move, knowing that if he does not do the right thing he will hear from just as many angry mouths. He has a goodly load of responsibility resting on his shoulders. When the same man is standing on the diamond and sees a ball sailing for him, and knows that he has to 'bag' it or get fired, he is under a larger strain than many a bank president."

Jap Naval Review.

Tokyo, Oct. 21.—It is officially announced that the grand naval review will take place on Monday next. Great enthusiasm over the event prevails in Tokyo and Yokohama. Seventy-five special trains will be run between the two cities on the day of the review.

Move to Amalgamate Big Leagues Is the Latest

The Scheme, However, May Be Knocked in the Head as Unfeasible.

Cincinnati, Oct. 20.—Within the next few days much progress may be made in the scheme looking to the consolidation of the National and American Leagues into one major organization. On the other hand, the plan may be ranked as unfeasible for the present, and thrown back into a dark and dingy corner of baseball's limbo. That there was such a plan on foot, and that a number of the most prominent players in both big leagues were taking interest in it, was first announced a couple of months ago. Since that time every effort has been made to keep the negotiations under cover, and nothing but the merest outlines of the scheme have gained publicity. The matter is now approaching a head, and there may shortly be further revelations.

It can be stated absolutely that such a consolidation of league interests is consummated the result will be one major league consisting of eight clubs only. All talk of a twelve or ten club organization is without the slightest shadow of probability. It would be a league of more than eight clubs, and a money-maker, except for the two or three leading teams who are represented in both leagues, pure and simple, not an expansion.

The eleven cities now enjoying major league ball seven are certain to be retained, in case the plan goes through. Five of these are the cities where the two leagues are both leagues, namely, New York, Philadelphia and Boston in the east, Chicago and St. Louis in the west. Of the three cities where only one league is represented, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, both grand ball towns, would be included in the combined circuit. Brooklyn, which has far superior plants and facilities, would be dropped. That leaves one of the three

COLOR LINE MAY CAUSE SOME TROUBLE

New York, October 20.—It is feared that the question of race prejudice will figure in the Columbia-Amherst game tomorrow. The game is being played at the Amherst team, and because of this fact one of the best of Columbia's ends will not get into the game. Fisher, who played such a good game against Williams, is understood, has refused to oppose a negro who will probably be playing against him. He is a Southerner and does not wish to play against a team which has a negro player. As he is a very determined fellow it is not likely that the football coaches can convince him of his error. He is as the wing positions are undoubtedly the weakest on the Columbia eleven.

A $5,000 PURSE WAS OFFERED

But Nelson Wants a Bigger Sum to Meet Terry McGovern.

New York, Oct. 21.—A $5,000 purse was offered in Philadelphia yesterday for a six-round contest between Battling Nelson and Terry McGovern. Billy Nelson, Nelson's manager, refused the offer in Kansas City, and rejected it, wiring that he believed the boys would draw a $50,000 house. "I am ready to sign articles for a match tomorrow," said Nelson, "but it must be for a reasonable sum. Battling and I have wanted to take on McGovern for a long time. He appears to have come into his own again, and we are hoping he will give Battling a chance at him. I know McGovern is a dangerous man, but so is Nelson, and I am ready the minute a suitable purse is offered."

For some reason, a purse double that, for Nelson's appearance was also offered for Young Corbett to meet McGovern. Ten thousand dollars is the prize for the two boys competing for Corbett. Corbett has accepted the offer. He says he will meet Terry at 125 pounds, weighing in at 8 o'clock in the afternoon, and beat him before the eighth round. Nelson has not been heard from. He has said previously that he will fight Corbett at 125 pounds, the same weight at which they met in Hartford, and that the Thanksgiving Day championship changed hands.

Chinese Peculation.

Pekin, Oct. 21.—Notwithstanding its reform policy, China continues to exhibit evidence of official corruption. The imperial granaries, supplying thousands of bannermen and Government dependents at Peking, has burned down just before the time for the winter distribution of rice. Superintendents Kul and Liu have appealed to the throne that they be punished, because of their inability to detect the peculations of subordinates.

For Coloring at Home.

There is a very easy way — to color at home. This is the "DY-O-LA" way. "DY-O-LA" is the different and better dye. With "DY-O-LA" to color waists, skirts and suits, you need give no thought to the quality of fabric. One package of "DY-O-LA" colors silk, woolen, cotton and mixed goods a rich, brilliant, lasting shade. More than that "DY-O-LA" is absolutely free from acid and will not injure the most delicate fabrics. Equally safe for use on the hands. The "DY-O-LA" does not stain the hands or utensils in which the dyes are prepared. That $100,000 Robbery.

Bridgport, Conn., Oct. 21.—Edward George Canfield, wanted in Pittsburgh, Pa., for the robbery of $100,000 in cash from the Adams Express Company, was arrested here today. SEE BOLD RESCUE ACT

Crowds Cheer as Woman's Form Is Lowered From Dizzy Heights.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—With her eyes fixed in a stony stare into the depths below, her classic features set as if carved in marble, the beautiful lady lay on her back, suspended in the air, as if by magic, in the grasp of the dispirited structure as if about to hurl her to certain destruction upon the granite street 150 feet beneath.

Crucified in the busy canyons of commerce below her, and the city's pulsebeat of industry was stilled in horror. Would she cling to the edge, or would she fall? The crowd, until the final crash came, or would she in panic plunge downward to death? This was the problem which turned every eye toward the building.

TRADE IS ACTIVE; WIRELESS SAVED COLLECTIONS GOOD CREW OF STEAMER

Bradstreet's Weekly Trade Review from All Parts of the Dominion.

Montreal, Oct. 21.—Bradstreet's trade review for the week past says: There has been somewhat of a lull in the drygoods trade here during the past week. Retailers are fairly well supplied with fall lines, and until cold weather starts the winter movement will be less heavy. The cottons for spring trade, however, continue good. The movement in wholesale groceries is still large, and all lines of hardware are active. The country (sales are fairly good, but there is some slow movement in city collections. Country produce is coming forward well and the grain crops of the Province are moving more freely. Receipts of western grain here much exceed those of previous seasons, well over 5,000,000 bushels having been delivered so far. The shipping trade is generally busy, and the demand for export has been light, but there is a good export demand for other lines of farm products. Values of commodities generally bright, and farmers are receiving good prices for their grain, and this fact, together with the general industrial activity, is taking the best ground for hoping general trade conditions will remain as satisfactory as they are at present. As the crop moving movement is continuing activity in all branches of trade continues very bright, and farmers are having a phenomenally busy time of it although actual cold weather is wanted to move retail trade. Orders for spring goods are already coming forward, and their volume shows that confidence for a good trade extends well into next season. The demand for staple groceries is heavy from all parts of the country and values have a firm tone. Wholesale hardware houses say stocks are moving fairly well at this time of the year. Shipments will likely be heavy until the close of navigation, about the middle of next month. In all branches of trade collections are fair to good and complaint in this regard is only occasional. Ontario trade is moving more freely while prices are steady to firm. Dry goods have a steadier tone. Hogs prices have declined, but are nevertheless in somewhat better demand. All lines of local and provincial industries show continued activity, and on all hands the trade is bright and cheerful. Advice from Victoria and Vancouver continues exceedingly active. There is a good tone to trade at Ottawa. The demand for wholesale lines is active and there is a fairly good movement to retail trade. Local industries continue active and the general outlook continues bright.

Travelled in a Circle. Chicago, Oct. 21.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Santa Fe, N. M., says: Since discovery in Berlin that a five-cent copper, following weeks of prospecting, William Didean, of Schenectady, N. Y., was found dead from starvation in Berlin. It was determined that Didean had been found in a cave near the city of White Oak. For a mile around where Didean's body was found were his tracks, showing that for days he had been traveling in a circle, having lost his way returning from the mine.

"Codfish cheese" is the name given to a canned preparation of fresh cod fish, and it is used for high or fish cakes. In order that they might not be distributed by early arriving employees, some burglar in Berlin, upon the door of a store they were robbing a placard reading: "Closed on account of sudden death." The ruse was successful.

Probably the first iron railroad bridge was built on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad at Manayunk by Richard B. Osborne, chief engineer, in 1845. It was a simple beam bridge of 34 feet clear span, of the Howe truss type, with cast iron chord and web trusses, the bottom chord and vertical web members being of wrought iron. This bridge was followed by several others of the same type.

AN EXPLANATION

The Advertiser owes an explanation to its readers on account of some blemishes in the editions of the last two evenings. Including the repetition last night of several columns of local matter and the omission of an equal amount of live local news.

The change from a slow to a fast press invariably causes some confusion in the mechanical departments. The difficulties are being remedied very rapidly, and it is expected that within a day or two the paper will appear enlarged and greatly improved.

HUMILIATED BY

OTTER VALLEY ROW

Baptist Convention Expresses "Sense of Pain."

THE OPIUM TRAFFIC DENOUNCED

The Otter Valley affair, in which a free fight took place in the Baptist Church, was brought before the Baptist convention yesterday afternoon.

The committee on resolutions presented to the matter, and the decision is embodied in the following resolution:

"We publicly put on record our profound sense of pain and humiliation at the sad events that have recently happened at the Baptist Church in the Otter Valley; that we express our gratification at the statement of the superintendent of home missions that the home mission board has vigorously grappled with the situation so far as the case refers to the interests of the board; that we earnestly request the pastors and members of the Otter Valley Church to give themselves up to humiliation before God and to prayer, and to use every means to restore the harmony that has so sadly been broken, and remove the cause of the Baptist denomination and the cause of Christ at large."

This resolution was moved, seconded and adopted unanimously.

Church Union.
The possibilities of the union of the Baptist Church with any other Christian body were discussed yesterday afternoon. It was decided to appoint a committee to consider the question, and to report to the next convention. This important matter is the subject of considerable contention among the members of Baptist churches in general, and much difference of opinion exists in regard to whether those not already baptised may become active members of a church. Rev. E. J. Stobo, sen., spoke emphatically in favor of regeneration before baptism; not in or after baptism. The following were present: Dr. Laing, Dr. Gordon, A. A. Cameron, A. McNeely, W. W. McMaster and Dr. Perry.

It was urged upon pastors their responsibility as Christians to give practical help to attain high standards of morality. The adoption of prohibition or local option should be urged whenever it is practicable. The following committee was appointed to co-operate with the alliance committee in this matter: Dr. Laing, Dr. Gordon, A. A. Cameron, A. McNeely, W. W. McMaster and Dr. Perry.
