JOHN BRITNELL,

298 Yonge Street. - - Toronto, Canada.

My books, how I love them. Of all my friends they are the oldest, the most kind and the most faithful. I have joyfully and sacredly kept their company through all changes for nearly thirty years. In sickness they have been more to me than medicine, and in sorrow and bereavement they have been at once my solace and my joy. In business their advice at times has been unexpected and disappointing, yet they proved themselves to be my surest and kindest guides. Here I meet and converse with the best and wisest of men of all ages; they tell me about their cities, kings, armies, politics and revolutions, and their magnificent temples, and I gaze with admiration and astonishment at the marvellous panorama. Their authors, although some of them hundreds of years in their graves, accompany, guide and protect me the world over, and I attend to the recital of their adventures with breathless interest never to be forgotten. Here may be seen a score of beautiful volumes printed when COLUMBUS was in his prime, and I have not the slightest doubt but that some of these monuments of the past have been handled and perused by our own first English printer, WILLIAM CAXTON, WYNKYN DE WORDE, MARTIN LUTHER and his friend PHILIP MELANCTHON, SHAKESPEARE and LOCKE, BACON, BOYLE and MILTON; RACINE and MOLIÈRE being as yet unborn. What histories they are in themselves, oftentimes bound in oak, having illuminated capitals and bearing the arms of popes, kings and cardinals. They have followed the birth of nations, the downfall of kingdoms, and in some instances have followed in silence the funeral procession of their own originators to the block. They furnish me with endless instruction and amusement, and, when overcome with care, they bid the storm of my heart be still. How often am I pained when I see such friends and companions slighted or abused with levity and vandalism. All are welcome to this rich intellectual repast, and I bespeak for them the respect I myself bestow.

An Extraordinary and UNEXAMPLED COLLECTION of upwards of sixty MANUSCRIPT DOCUMENTS relating to the early occupation and settlement of this portion of the country, nearly all of which are on good paper and in a capital state of preservation; and had we decided to have sold them separately, could have realized double, or even three-fold the sum we charge for them as a whole. With ourselves it is at all times a pleasure as well as a duty to sacrifice profit to principle. We are especially happy to do so in this instance, on behalf, as we believe, of generations yet unborn, and offer this valuable collection, commencing on the 20th of April, 1793, and terminating on April 9th, 1815—a few days previous to the downfall of Napoleon at Waterloo, for the sum of $65.00.

The first letter in order of time runs as follows: "Saturday, Morn, Navy Hall, 20th April, 1793. Sir—The Governor wishes to see you to-morrow morning very early, as he wants to give some Rifles and Tomahawks to the Indians. Your ob't serv't, W. MAYNE. To Com'r Gen. J. McGill," Navy Hall was GOV. SIMCOE's headquarters, and was situated near Fort Niagara. Another is dated from Camp York, 22nd Sep'r, 1793, and directs JOHN MCGILL "to forward for the use of this Port by order of GOVERNOR SIMCOE, the following articles, viz., One coil 3½ inch white rope, half a gallon oil, twelve proof falling axes." E. B. LITTLEHALES writes from Navy Hall under date 29th July, 1793, and directs JOHN MCGILL to issue out of the Provincial Government stores in your charge, materials necessary for building a saw-mill at TORONTO, and for two gunboats at Niagara, etc., etc. He is also requested to issue to Mr. Welbank a quantity of beads, two tomahawks, a rifle, etc., for some Indian chiefs. We have also "Copy of an Approved Requisition of materials for building a saw-mill at TORONTO," dated from Niagara, 20th July, 1793, and giving the full particulars of the materials required. Another is addressed to John McGill from John Wilson, complaining of the bad state of the Humber saw-mill—says the foundation is in danger, and asking for instructions. This is endorsed: "To be repaired." J. G. S. Another of much importance is dated York, Upper Canada, Dec. 1st, 1795, and signed by J. G. Simcoe. He requests John McGill to "employ a party of the Queen's Rangers in opening a road and making bridges between the Garrison (near site of present Old Fort) and town of York. You are also directed to employ a party of the said Queen's Rangers in cutting wood for burning bricks, clearing the ground of trees and roots whereon the Government House is to be built at York, and in turning up clay for bricks. You are likewise to engage a sufficient number of men to mould and burn a quantity of bricks to build two wings for the Government House, forty feet long each, as soon as the season will permit. You are also to engage bricklayers, masons, carpenters and laborers, and to pay the same, as well as to issue and provide from time to time such stores and materials as may be required for the said service, and for two frame houses each thirty feet long, adjoining the two wings, for committee rooms to the house during the sitting of the Legislature, and for so doing this shall be your warrant and authority."

Another is dated York, 11th June, 1795, in which directions are given to provide materials for the purpose of building a wharf, cut a canal, etc. This also is signed J. G. Simcoe. Another interesting document comprises an original pay list for Fatigue Men and Laborers in the Commissary and Storekeepers' Department, and is either signed or marked by upwards of sixty individuals. Another, dated York, 11th June, 1795, provides for the repair of the Commander's quarters at York, used as a Government House; and for the building a public house at Burlington Bay. Another most interesting document relates to the contract for rails to enclose part of the Government Lands at York, and signed by Governor Simcoe, 17th March, 1796. Fifty-one pounds and three pence was paid (full particulars given) to Andrew and David Thomson, for building one wing to the intended Government House at York, 12th Oct., 1797. Another very important document, and occupying a double page of foolscap, is the Four Years' Revenue under the existing Acts, compared with the extended consolidating Bill, passed 39th Geo. III., in Lower Canada and sent to England for confirmation.

It is quite impossible for us to do justice or to adequately describe these historical documents. It will therefore be noticed, we give up the attempt, in the act of commencing, in the hope of seeing them well edited by one or other of the learned societies on this continent.

HOLY BIBLE, KING JAMES' VERSION, 1611.

Holy Bible, conteyning the Old Testament and the New, newly translated out of the Original Tongues, and with the former Translations diligently compared and revised by His Majestie's Special Commandment [including the Apocrypha], beautifully printed in LARGE Black Letter TYPE, very thick vol, royal folio, morocco, gilt edges (wanting the title-pages, some of the preliminary matter, and ends at Revelation VII., several intermediate leaves are also missing), VERY SCARCE, 22.50. London, Barker, 1611. 1

This is a copy of the first issue of the first edition, and is designated the GREAT "HE BIBLE," from the rendering of the last clause of Ruth iii. 15: "And HE went into the citie."

It has also many errors, corrected in later issues, including the repetition of two lines: "The children of Israel lift up their eyes and behold the Egyptians marched after them," in Exodus xiv. 10.

Holy Bible. THE SECOND ISSUE of the FIRST EDITION. Precisely the same as the above, with the Dedication to KING JAMES nearly intact, wanting leaf 7 of the Genealogies, but has the Map, the Translators' Address to the Reader—King James, 14 pages; Calendar, 10 leaves; and the Genealogies, 34 pages, which wants a leaf; a few leaves torn and slightly imperfect; the five last chapters in Revelation being imperfect or wanting. This copy has the TITLE to the NEW TESTAMENT, which is in good condition, brought to the commencement of the volume, the text being exactly the same as the first issue. Very thick folio volume in the original rough calf, one cover loose, VERY SCARCE, 20.00. London, Barker, 1611. 2

This copy may be verified by the word Christ, which is misprinted "Chkist" on the fifth line of the Dedication.

Holy Bible. Printed in fine Black Letter TYPE, but different to the preceding, the Titles and preliminary pages being the same as the second issue. The first title is nearly perfect and mounted, the second title being PERFECT AND CLEAN, both finely engraved, and, with the exception of the date, are exact facsimiles of the first edition. The volume is slightly imperfect, and the twenty-second chapter of Revelation is wanting. Recently rebound, half calf, 14.00. London 1613. 3

STANDARD FRENCH LITERATURE.

Encyclopedia ou Dictionnaire Raisonné des Sciences des Arts et des Metiers. 28 vols, folio, half calf, including 11 vols of plates, a fine clean set, 30.00. 1772, etc. 97

We can well afford, in this our day, to measure the opinions expressed by D'ALEMBERT and DIDEROT, the editors, and Grimm, Rousseau, Dumarsais, and other contributors, by the age and surrounding circumstances. It is a distinct and magnificent landmark in the world of letters; it will never be out of date, for it has been, and always will be, referred to, and every man of letters will agree with us in the opinion that no public library and no good bookseller's stock can be complete without this great historical and philosophical work; it is the space it occupies, and that alone, which compels us to part with it.

Boethii de CONSOLATIONE PHILOSOPHIE. Very small 48mo, vellum, not being quite 3 inches high and one inch and a half wide, including the binding, and WITHOUT DOUBT THE SMALLEST EDITION EVER PRINTED. Title slightly repaired, EXCEEDINGLY RARE, 2.50. Ex Officina Plantiniana, 1610. 503

Dugdale (Sir W.) Short View of the Late Troubles in England. Their rise, growth, and tragical conclusion, etc., etc. Folio, half calf, 959 pp, 2.25. Oxford, 1681. 504

"His memory ought to be venerated and held in everlasting remembrance."—Anthony Wood.

Chambers (E.) F.R.S., Cyclopædia of Arts and Sciences, Human and Divine. A noble old work. 7th edition, 2 thick vols, folio, calf, numerous anatomical and other plates, 2.00. Lon. 1751. 505

Apprenticed in his youth to Senex (of Atlas fame), he afterwards devoted himself to this great work. It suggested the idea of the great French encyclopædia of Diderot and others, (which see in this catalogue) and Dr. Rees made it the basis of his own.

Hamilton (J.) F.R.S. PERSPECTIVE in all its branches. Teaching to describe by mathematical rules, the lines, plain figures, and solid bodies, rectilinear, curvilinear, and mixed, projections of shadows, reflections by polished plains. Illustrated by about 100 LARGE FOLDING PLATES, thick folio, calf, 2 vols in 1, 3.25. For the author, 1738. 506

Dodwell's Cyclopaean, or PELASGIC REMAINS in GREECE and ITALY. Views and description of 131 fine large plates, including the architectural constructions of a later period. Imperial folio, half morocco, scarce, 3.50. Pub. £6 16s. 6d. Lon. 1833. 507

One or two of the plates are mended. It is a splendid work for the historical and classical library.

Milton (John). Prose works, including, The Doctrine and Discipline of Divorce, Reformation touching Church Discipline in England, Treatise of Civil Power, Speech for the Liberty of Unlicen'd Printing, etc. Early and rare folio edition, calf, 568 pages clean, the covers loose, 3.00. 1697. 508

We believe "AREOPAGITICA," contained in the above volume to be the finest piece of prose in the English language. Lord Macaulay well calls it "that sublime treatise which every statesman should wear as a sign upon his hand, and as frontlets between his eyes,"—Cr. t. and Hist. Essays; and it is a foregone conclusion, that had this been made a text book in the public schools of this country years ago, we should never have heard of any public scandals.

- Paradise Lost. A poem written in TEN BOOKS, by JOHN MILTON. Infidelity and CHRISTIANITY. Authorized verbatim report of the 4 nights debate, between the Rev. BREWIN GRANT, B. A., and JOSEPH SYMES, Esq., at Hartlepool in Feb., 1880. 104 pages, sewn, 2cc. 705

Brewin Grant, who died in London last month, whipped George Jacob Holyoake in discussion about 40 years ago and he has never recovered. More recently he thrashed the late Mr. Charles Bradlaugh at the Hall of Science, after angling for him for years. In England he has been by far the most able antagonist and useful man in this ugly work. Mr. Joseph Symes was formerly a Wesleyan minister, and we believe has now abandoned the propagation of infidelity. The comparative merits of the two systems are here exhibited in their best and worst aspects.

Italy, from the ALPS to MOUNT ETNA, with numerous full page engravings and hundreds of fine woodcuts from designs by KAULBACH, KELLER, CLOSS, BAUNFIELD, etc. A large and superb volume, super-royal, 4to cloth gilt, 6.00. Lon. Virtue, n. d.

"Of this magnificent volume on Italy it is barely possible to speak in terms of over-praise. Whether we regard the value of the information or the extreme beauty of the engravings—which amount to many hundreds in number—we cannot but be struck with admiration at the work, and with wonderment at the enormous cost of producing so splendid a volume. Every city from the Alps to the Arno, from the Arno to the Tiber to Etna, is laid under contribution."—The Queen.

JOHN BRITNELL,

298 Yonge Street, - - Toronto, Canada.

My books, how I love them. Of all my friends they are the oldest, the most kind and the most faithful. I have joyfully and sacredly kept their company through all changes for nearly thirty years. In sickness they have been more to me than medicine, and in sorrow and bereavement they have been at once my solace and my joy. In business their advice at times has been unexpected and disappointing, yet they proved themselves to be my surest and kindest guides. Here I meet and converse with the best and wisest of men of all ages; they tell me about their cities, kings, armies, politics and revolutions, and their magnificent temples, and I gaze with admiration and astonishment at the marvellous panorama. Their authors, although some of them hundreds of years in their graves, accompany, guide and protect me the world over, and I attend to the recital of their adventures with breathless interest never to be forgotten. Here may be seen a score of beautiful volumes printed when COLUMBUS was in his prime, and I have not the slightest doubt but that some of these monuments of the past have been handled and perused by our own first English printer, WILLIAM CAXTON, WYNKYN DE WORDE, MARTIN LUTHER and his friend PHILIP MELANCTHON, SHAKESPEARE and LOCKE, BACON, BOYLE and MILTON; RACINE and MOLIÈRE being as yet unborn. What histories they are in themselves, oftentimes bound in oak, having illuminated capitals and bearing the arms of popes, kings and cardinals. They have followed the birth of nations, the downfall of kingdoms, and in some instances have followed in silence the funeral procession of their own originators to the block. They furnish me with endless instruction and amusement, and, when overcome with care, they bid the storm of my heart be still. How often am I pained when I see such friends and companions slighted or abused with levity and vandalism. All are welcome to this rich intellectual repast, and I bespeak for them the respect I myself bestow.

JOHN BRITNELL,

298 Yonge St., Toronto.

An Extraordinary and UNEXAMPLED COLLECTION of upwards of sixty MANUSCRIPT DOCUMENTS relating to the early occupation and settlement of this portion of the country, nearly all of which are on good paper and in a capital state of preservation; and had we decided to have sold them separately, could have realized double, or even three-fold the sum we charge for them as a whole. With ourselves it is at all times a pleasure as well as a duty to sacrifice profit to principle. We are especially happy to do so in this instance, on behalf, as we believe, of generations yet unborn, and offer this valuable collection, commencing on the 20th of April, 1793, and terminating on April 9th, 1815—a few days previous to the downfall of Napoleon at Waterloo, for the sum of $65.00.

The first letter in order of time runs as follows: "Saturday, Morn, Navy Hall, 20th April, 1793. Sir—The Governor wishes to see you to-morrow morning very early, as he wants to give some Rifles and Tomahawks to the Indians. Your ob't serv't, W. MAYNE. To Com'r Gen. J. McGill," Navy Hall was GOV. SIMCOE's headquarters, and was situated near Fort Niagara. Another is dated from Camp York, 22nd Sep'r, 1793, and directs JOHN MCGILL "to forward for the use of this Port by order of GOVERNOR SIMCOE, the following articles, viz., One coil 3½ inch white rope, half a gallon oil, twelve proof falling axes." E. B. LITTLEHALES writes from Navy Hall under date 29th July, 1793, and directs JOHN MCGILL to issue out of the Provincial Government stores in your charge, materials necessary for building a saw-mill at TORONTO, and for two gunboats at Niagara, etc., etc. He is also requested to issue to Mr. Welbank a quantity of beads, two tomahawks, a rifle, etc., for some Indian chiefs. We have also "Copy of an Approved Requisition of materials for building a saw-mill at TORONTO," dated from Niagara, 20th July, 1793, and giving the full particulars of the materials required. Another is addressed to John McGill from John Wilson, complaining of the bad state of the Humber saw-mill—says the foundation is in danger, and asking for instructions. This is endorsed: "To be repaired." J. G. S. Another of much importance is dated York, Upper Canada, Dec. 1st, 1795, and signed by J. G. Simcoe. He requests John McGill to "employ a party of the Queen's Rangers in opening a road and making bridges between the Garrison (near site of present Old Fort) and town of York. You are also directed to employ a party of the said Queen's Rangers in cutting wood for burning bricks, clearing the ground of trees and roots whereon the Government House is to be built at York, and in turning up clay for bricks. You are likewise to engage a sufficient number of men to mould and burn a quantity of bricks to build two wings for the Government House, forty feet long each, as soon as the season will permit. You are also to engage bricklayers, masons, carpenters and laborers, and to pay the same, as well as to issue and provide from time to time such stores and materials as may be required for the said service, and for two frame houses each thirty feet long, adjoining the two wings, for committee rooms to the house during the sitting of the Legislature, and for so doing this shall be your warrant and authority."

Another is dated York, 11th June, 1795, in which directions are given to provide materials for the purpose of building a wharf, cut a canal, etc. This also is signed J. G. Simcoe. Another interesting document comprises an original pay list for Fatigue Men and Laborers in the Commissary and Storekeepers' Department, and is either signed or marked by upwards of sixty individuals. Another, dated York, 11th June, 1795, provides for the repair of the Commander's quarters at York, used as a Government House; and for the building a public house at Burlington Bay. Another most interesting document relates to the contract for rails to enclose part of the Government Lands at York, and signed by Governor Simcoe, 17th March, 1796. Fifty-one pounds and three pence was paid (full particulars given) to Andrew and David Thomson, for building one wing to the intended Government House at York, 12th Oct., 1797. Another very important document, and occupying a double page of foolscap, is the Four Years' Revenue under the existing Acts, compared with the extended consolidating Bill, passed 39th Geo. III., in Lower Canada and sent to England for confirmation.

It is quite impossible for us to do justice or to adequately describe these historical documents. It will therefore be noticed, we give up the attempt, in the act of commencing, in the hope of seeing them well edited by one or other of the learned societies on this continent.

HOLY BIBLE, KING JAMES' VERSION, 1611.

Holy Bible, conteyning the Old Testament and the New, newly translated out of the Original Tongues, and with the former Translations diligently compared and revised by His Majestie's Special Commandment [including the Apocrypha], beautifully printed in LARGE Black Letter TYPE, very thick vol, royal folio, morocco, gilt edges (wanting the title-pages, some of the preliminary matter, and ends at Revelation VII., several intermediate leaves are also missing), VERY SCARCE, 22.50. London, Barker, 1611. 1

This is a copy of the first issue of the first edition, and is designated the GREAT "HE BIBLE," from the rendering of the last clause of Ruth iii. 15: "And HE went into the citie."

It has also many errors, corrected in later issues, including the repetition of two lines: "The children of Israel lift up their eyes and behold the Egyptians marched after them," in Exodus xiv. 10.

Holy Bible. THE SECOND ISSUE of the FIRST EDITION. Precisely the same as the above, with the Dedication to KING JAMES nearly intact, wanting leaf 7 of the Genealogies, but has the Map, the Translators' Address to the Reader—King James, 14 pages; Calendar, 10 leaves; and the Genealogies, 34 pages, which wants a leaf; a few leaves torn and slightly imperfect; the five last chapters in Revelation being imperfect or wanting. This copy has the TITLE to the NEW TESTAMENT, which is in good condition, brought to the commencement of the volume, the text being exactly the same as the first issue. Very thick folio volume in the original rough calf, one cover loose, VERY SCARCE, 20.00. London, Barker, 1611. 2

This copy may be verified by the word Christ, which is misprinted "Chkist" on the fifth line of the Dedication.

Holy Bible. Printed in fine Black Letter TYPE, but different to the preceding, the Titles and preliminary pages being the same as the second issue. The first title is nearly perfect and mounted, the second title being PERFECT AND CLEAN, both finely engraved, and, with the exception of the date, are exact facsimiles of the first edition. The volume is slightly imperfect, and the twenty-second chapter of Revelation is wanting. Recently rebound, half calf, 14.00. London 1613. 3

STANDARD FRENCH LITERATURE.

Encyclopedia ou Dictionnaire Raisonné des Sciences des Arts et des Métiers. 28 vols, folio, half calf, including 11 vols of plates, a fine clean set, 30.00. 1772, etc. 97

We can well afford, in this our day, to measure the opinions expressed by D'ALEMBERT and DIDEROT, the editors, and Grimm, Rousseau, Dumarsais, and other contributors, by the age and surrounding circumstances. It is a distinct and magnificent landmark in the world of letters; it will never be out of date, for it has been, and always will be, referred to, and every man of letters will agree with us in the opinion that no public library and no good bookseller's stock can be complete without this great historical and philosophical work; it is the space it occupies, and that alone, which compels us to part with it.

We believe "AREOPAGITICA," contained in the above volume to be the finest piece of prose in the English language. Lord Macaulay well calls it "that sublime treatise which every statesman should wear as a sign upon his hand, and as frontlets between his eyes,"—Cr. t. and Hist. Essays; and it is a foregone conclusion, that had this been made a text book in the public schools of this country years ago, we should never have heard of any public scandals.

Infidelity and CHRISTIANITY. Authorized verbatim report of the 4 nights debate, between the Rev. BREWIN GRANT, B. A., and JOSEPH SYMES, Esq., at Hartlepool in Feb., 1880. 104 pages, sewn, 2cc. 705

Brewin Grant, who died in London last month, whipped George Jacob Holyoake in discussion about 40 years ago and he has never recovered. More recently he thrashed the late Mr. Charles Bradlaugh at the Hall of Science, after angling for him for years. In England he has been by far the most able antagonist and useful man in this ugly work. Mr. Joseph Symes was formerly a Wesleyan minister, and we believe has now abandoned the propagation of infidelity. The comparative merits of the two systems are here exhibited in their best and worst aspects.

Secularism Report of a THREE NIGHTS' DEBATE between the Rev. Jas. McCann, D. D., and Charles Bradlaugh, Esq., M. P., at the Hall of Science, London, in Dec. 1881. 103 pages, crown 8vo, cloth, 25c. 706

"Of this magnificent volume on Italy it is barely possible to speak in terms of over-praise. Whether we regard the value of the information or the extreme beauty of the engravings—which amount to many hundreds in number—we cannot but be struck with admiration at the work, and with wonderment at the enormous cost of producing so splendid a volume. Every city from the Alps to the Arno, from the Arno to the Tiber to Etna, is laid under contribution."—The Queen.
