

SPRACKLIN FOUND "NOT GUILTY" OF MANSLAUGHTER BY SANDWICH JURY

Shooting of Beverley Trumble, Proprietor of the Chappell House, Sandwich, on November 6th Last, Was Done in Self-Defence.

A despatch from Sandwich says:—After fifty-seven minutes deliberation the jury returned a verdict pronouncing Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, pastor of Sandwich Methodist Church and former special liquor license inspector "not guilty" of the charge of manslaughter arising out of the shooting of Beverley Trumble, proprietor of the Chappell House here during a raid on November 6th last. This came to a close trial which commenced before Sir William Mulock, at the Essex County Spring Assize Court here. The judge's charge to the jury was concluded shortly after two o'clock and they left to commence their deliberations at 2.18. They returned to the court room at exactly 8.15 o'clock and announced their finding in two words: "Not Guilty." No comment of any kind was attached to the finding by the jury nor made by His Lordship.

Previous to the announcement, Chief Justice Mulock issued an emphatic warning that any demonstrations on the part of the spectators would be treated as contempt of court and the offenders promptly placed under arrest. As a consequence, the only evidence of the suppressed excitement prevalent were the scarcely audible sighs of relief from Mr. Spracklin's sympathizers. Mr. Spracklin at once stepped from the prisoner's dock a free man, stopping only to shake hands with his lawyers, he left the courtroom descending to the main floor of the Courthouse, he voiced his relief in the words "Thank God it's all over." In the sheriff's office he was surrounded by relatives and friends who tendered their congratulations. Asked if he intended to resume his work as license inspector, he replied, "I'm not saying, as a matter of fact I have made absolutely no plans."

successfully a man must swim eighty yards suitably clothed for the exercise, and then another forty yards fully dressed.

A naval friend was telling me something I did not know before, which is that every ship carries a horseshoe for luck. This has been a fetish with the Navy ever since the day when Nelson nailed a horseshoe to the mast of the Victory.

British House Increases Insurance Benefit

A despatch from London says:—In the House of Commons during the debate on the Unemployment Insurance Bill, the Government, in response to urgent representation by the Laborites, agreed to increase the insurance benefit from 18 to 20 shillings for men and 16 shillings for women.

Herbert Hoover, of California, has accepted the post of Secretary of Commerce in the Harding Cabinet.

Question of Mandates Puzzles the League

A despatch from Paris says:—According to La Liberté the League of Nations has been placed in an embarrassing position on the subject of mandates.

"The terrible embarrassment of the league is shown," says the paper, "by the fact that it must either reconsider the whole mandate question or adhere to all previous decisions. By reconsidering the mandates Britain and Japan will be offended and by adherence to the decisions the United States will be alienated from the league."

It is announced in Halifax that the legislature of Nova Scotia will meet March 9th.

Lake marine insurance will go into effect on April 15, which means that is the date officially set for the opening of navigation.

Sixteen Doctors Have Been Suspended

A despatch from Winnipeg says:—Sixteen Manitoba physicians have been suspended for periods ranging from one week to six months, as a result of the wholesale issuance of prescriptions for whiskey as a beverage, Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons for Manitoba announced on Thursday.

One of the doctors suspended gave 10,000 prescriptions during a one-month period, according to testimony obtained by a special committee of enquiry appointed by the council. Twelve of the physicians practice in Winnipeg.

British Mandate in Palestine Takes Effect

A despatch from Paris says:—The French and Italian military forces still in Palestine were withdrawn at the beginning of March in accordance with the terms of the British mandate over Palestine.

Not a Sack of Flour Lost.

In his report presented to the House of Commons, James Stewart, of the Canadian Wheat Board, stated that of more than 7,000,000 bags of flour handled not a bag was lost through deterioration or not being accounted for.

A Letter From London

The Prince of Wales has just been appointed Colonel-in-Chief of the Seaforth Highlanders. This makes the tenth regiment with his Royal Highness at its head. The cost of ten different uniforms is no small matter these days, and the amount paid by the Prince for kit alone must run well into four figures.

I noticed the other afternoon when I saw Princess Mary at a charity function that she was not wearing a single jewel. When taking tea she took off her gloves, and not a ring was visible. I am told she considers jewels a little showy. She sometimes wears them at home, and they suit her admirably.

Although the Prince of Wales has his business advisers he always has his own say, and is emphatic on the point that no one is to be inconvenienced in order that his possessions may return larger incomes. But his Royal Highness was never so indignant as when it was suggested that Kennington Oval might be sold for building purposes to yield an annual rental between three and four thousand a year instead of seven hundred pounds odd. "I will never consent to the people's pleasure being interfered with," he said.

The Prince, I am told, has a very sweet tooth. Only the other day I saw him come out of the Bath Club and pop a chocolate into his mouth as soon as he had told the chauffeur where he wanted to go. He inherits his love for sweetmeats from his grandmother, Queen Alexandra, who always had boxes of mixed sweets in every room she used at Sandringham, and still has special cream fondants made for her in the Royal kitchen.

One member of the Royal Family regards the cinema not only as a power but also as a real recreation. Queen Alexandra has private cinema shows at Marlborough House. Lists and descriptions of all the trade shows are supplied to her, and if she takes a fancy to a film she has a private view of it at Marlborough House for herself and her friends.

Not many people remember how the Duke of Connaught was in the 'sixties asked to accept the Throne of Greece. Had it not been for the opposition of the great Continental Powers at that time he might have been on the Throne of that troublesome country at present.

It is not generally known, I think, that the American Ambassador to the Court of St. James's does not actually live at the Embassy in Grosvenor Gardens. He is forced to rent a private house somewhere in the vicinity, and it is there that his social receptions are held.

A story is told of Mr. Whitelaw Reid, who was Ambassador about ten years ago. A police officer late one evening found a man walking anxiously up and down the pavement in Grosvenor Gardens. The policeman said sharply, "Move on, my man. Haven't you got a home?" "No," came the simple reply, "I have no home. I am the American Ambassador."

During the war the number of non-swimmers in the Navy, among both officers and men, was very noticeable. I am glad to see that the naval authorities have been making inquiries, with the result that it has been decided to reintroduce the pre-war swimming tests. To carry these out

There will be four eclipses in 1921, including an annular eclipse of the sun, April 15th, invisible here, and a total eclipse of the sun on Oct. 1st, also invisible in this part of the world. A total eclipse of the moon, visible in North and South America, New Zealand and part of Australia, will occur April 21 and 22, and there will be a partial eclipse of the moon on Oct. 16, the ending of which will be visible here.

On Saturday Mr. Andrew McKenzie, of the Minto-Howick towline had quite an experience. He had put a fair sized parcel of sulphur into his stove at his home. The sulphur after ignition, caused dangerous fumes, and Mr. Mc-Kenzie drew the burning package out of the stove. The burning sulphur fell on the floor, and Mr. McKenzie in picking it up in a shovel was suffocated. He was in a serious condition for some hours before reviving. His father and mother from Harriston, and Mrs. McKenzie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McIntosh of Carriick, were sent for. It took a long time until the sufferer was resuscitated, and the situation was quite alarming.

Buy Tags for Dogs.
Carriick ratepayers are asked to take notice of the fact that the assessor will have a supply of dog tags with him on his rounds this year, and every owner or harbinger of a dog must purchase a tag for the animal. Any dog found off its owner's premises without a tag may be shot and the owner is liable to a heavy fine.

Vich?

"Now, boys," said the teacher, "there were two rich men; one of them had made his fortune by honesty and industry, while the other had made his by fraud and roguery. Which of these two men would you prefer to be?"

There was a moment's hesitation, then young Solomon Isaac's hand went up as he quietly enquired, "Vich made the most?"

Arkell-Ferguson

A quiet wedding took place at 12.00 clock noon on Thursday last at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. J. Fowler, 98 Bay St., Stratford, when Annie May, second youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson of Walkerton, was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick S.
Arkell of Tecawater, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. Arkell of Tecawater.
Rev. Findlay Matheson, of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, officiated.
The bride who is a graduate of Stratford General Hospital, was gold medalist of her class in 1916 and also served two years overseas with the Canadian Army Medical Corps, and since her return has spent nine months at St. Mary's Hospital (Mayo Bros.) Rochester, Minn. After a short trip to Guelph and other points, Mr. and Mrs. Arkell will reside at Summerhill Farm, Tecawater.

Death of John Mosack.

An old resident of Walkerton and a pioneer wagon maker of Bruce County, passed away at his home near the G. T.
R. station on Monday morning last in the person of Mr. John Mosack. Ailing for the past year with prostate trouble, his death, while regretted, was not unexpected. Born in New Germany 81 years ago, the deceased was the last surviving member of a family of five brothers and four sisters. He spent the early days of his life at the wagon building business in Formosa and Ennisville, where he became noted for his skill in this line.
About thirty-five years ago he removed to Walkerton, where he was employed for a quarter of a century in the Furniture Factory at the station, now owned and operated by the Knechtel Furniture Co. He retired from active life about ten years ago, just after celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of his marriage to Miss Madeline Batte, daughter of the late John Batte of Formosa, and who still survives him. Of fourteen children who blessed the union, eight survive.
Twenty-one grand-children and six great-grand-children also survive. A man of sterling character, he was highly esteemed in the community. He was an affectionate husband and devoted father, and his removal from the home is especially mourned by his bereaved widow and family, the latter of whom spent many happy days with him in his declining years, and all of whom were present at his bedside when the spark fled. The funeral, which took place to the R. C.
Church and Walkerton cemetery on Wednesday morning, was largely attended.—Herald & Times.

Shooting Affray at Wingham

Wingham, Feb. 25 — Ex-Councillor Wm Patterson, well-known jeweller, is in jail, and Albert Lutitt, butcher, is in Wingham Hospital with a dangerous bullet wound in his abdomen as the result of a shooting affray which occurred in the Patterson residence.

All the circumstances in connection with the affair are not known, but the statement is made by Patterson that he mistook Lutitt for a burglar.

The exact nature of the charge to be laid against Patterson depends upon the condition of Lutitt. Crown Attorney Seager of Goderich has been informed of the circumstances as they are known, and will appear for the Crown at the preliminary hearing.

Just about dawn, Nightwatchman Ed Lewis, while patrolling Josephine street heard a noise proceeding from the Patterson home. Upon investigation he could hear the voices of two men in a violent quarrel. He found the front door locked, and tried to gain an entrance by the back door. Just as he did so two shots rang out, and the disturbance suddenly ceased.

Alarmed, the watchman went to the home of Chief Allan for aid and returned with him to the Patterson home. They effected an entrance and found Patterson and Lutitt lying on the floor downstairs. Lutitt had a bullet wound in his abdomen, and a mark on the floor showing the course of the second bullet. The gun was lying nearby. Doctors Calder and Redmond were called and attended to Lutitt's injury, and then had him removed to the hospital.

The two men are well known merchants of the town and have been on friendly terms for years. A motive for the shooting is not suggested by any one who knows them, and so far the affair is more or less of a mystery.

Mrs. Patterson has been out of town for some days.

Farm For Sale.

Philip Hoffarth is offering his farm of 68 acres, more or less, being Lot 29, Con. C, Carrick, for sale on very fair terms. There is on the premises a good house and barn, driving shed, drilled well and spring, seven acres of fall wheat and good young maple bush. Best reasons for selling.

Bergaine.

One 6 h.p. Fairbank—Morse stationary engine, clutch pulley, good as new. One 6 h.p. Fairbank—Morse stationary engine, clutch pulley, good as new, with a most substantial truck under it, ready to hitch a team to it, less the doubletrees. Both of these engines were sold by us and were again traded in for tractors. We guarantee them equal to a new engine, and will sell them at a large discount on the price of new ones. These are real bargains. Look them over before investing more money on something no better. Grabill & Widmeyer, Ford dealers, Ayton, Ont.
