MR. BALLANTYNE DIES SUDDENLY SUNDAY

Prominent Brantford Man to His Last Resting Place.

Was Leading Member of St. John's Anglican Church.

It is with very great regret that the Courier records the death of Mr. Robert G. Ballantyne, a citizen generally well known and a leading resident of West Brantford. Deceased, who celebrated his sixtieth birthday in August, was up and around as late as Thursday last, when following upon uric trouble, he was seized with pneumonia, and despite all that affectionate care and medical attention could do, he fell asleep early on Sunday morning.

He was born in Brantford of Irish parentage, and he possessed to a marked extent the quick wit, the ready laugh and the cheery disposition so eminently characteristic of the Emerald Isle. Wherever he went, his presence acted as a tonic breeze, and one of his calling places was this office, where he was always very welcome, as indeed he was every- where else.

In politics he was a staunch Con- servative—none more so than "Bob," and he did valuable work for the party. He possessed a very great pride in his city, and in the Empire, and his kindly deeds were numerous and continuous. He took an active part in municipal affairs, more espe- cially as they affected his section of the community, "Brooklyn," as he used to term it, and he was at one time an efficient member of the school board, but above and beyond all his outstanding characteristics, were his great devotion to his family and to his church. An ardent and valued member of Grace Church for many years, he used to be the priest to drive Archdeacon Mackenzie from mission to mission at the period when such existed as portions of the direct activities of the parish. Then when the needs called for a separate charge in West Brantford, he was one of the foremost in securing the erection of St. John's and in its after main- tenance. He was for many years church warden, and in fact made the office almost his second home. In his successful business as plumber, painter and decorator, he had estab- lished a high record for efficiency and whole souled integrity, as truth he did in all walks of life. He leaves to mourn his exceedingly great loss, a widow and two sons, both of this city, Robert H. Ballan- tyne, and William Ballantyne. The tender thoughts of very many are with them in this their great time of sorrow.

At St. John's yesterday an air of sadness brooded over the services, for the deceased was much beloved by the members. Rev. Mr. Saunders spoke of the great loss sustained by the passing away of a faithful attend- ant and one of the best supporters and active members. His two favor- ite hymns were sung, "For ever with the Lord," and "Lead Kindly Light." In Grace Church, Rev. Mr. Potts pronounced the demise of "a dear and old friend." One very prominent in the parish until his activities were transferred to St. John's.

Thus there has passed to his re- ward a fond husband and father, a faithful citizen and a loyal church- man. In paying this tribute to his memory, this paper does so with the keen sense of the loss of a true and old friend.

Archbishop Bruchesi Deplores Tango Dance

Along our thoroughfares are seen young women who have discovered that dress is the means of suggesting immodesty. "Have your amusements and family gatherings, but let them be innocent and modest. Just at present there are few people who seem not to be able to enjoy themselves unless they can indulge in what verges on the indecent. Christian society and christian families should not tolerate these dances. "The ignominious dances are re- volving to every feeling of delicacy and propriety. They are positively revolting and a disgrace to our Chris- tian society. Although a licentious side of life is too clearly in view, let us thank God that it is redeemed by the noble industry and self-denial, the purity and charity of virtuous legions."

Ordinary Rights Of a Pedestrian

The Dominion Railway Board handed down an important decision last week affecting Brantford railroads. The decision vir- tually gives the Lake Erie & Northern railway priority of rights over the Brantford street railway at the crossing in the Holmedale, despite the fact that the street railway was the first occupant of the ground. The Dominion commissioners held that the street railway enjoyed no further rights than an ordi- nary pedestrian. The represen- tatives of the street railway contended that they had the right from the municipality to run through trains and freight on that line from Brantford to Paris, but the commissioners could not see that this helped their case any. Accordingly, the Holmedale street case must stop when there is an approach of a L. E. & N. train unless the latter gets by.

WERE THEY HAZED, OR WERE THEY NOT?

College Men at Winnipeg Start Something With Authorities.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 27.—The "freshies" of United Colleges were "optionally" initiated Saturday night by the upper classmen. The "option- al" part of the initiation was appar- ently added to appease the faculty, who had prohibited forcible initiation of the new men. Optional or other- wise the initiative is described as a real old-fashioned hazing. The fresh- men, 110 in number, were dropped through a hole in the floor, tossed from floor to floor in blankets, put in the electric chair and carefully rolled in lampblack, eggs and flour. The rules in both colleges are very strict against hazing, the penalty being expulsion. The upper classmen were loud in their declarations that this was not hazing "but initiation." Even whether they will be able to make the college authorities clearly "see" the difference between hazing and initiation depends the fate of a large part of the upper classmen in both colleges.

FIREMEN WERE OUT FOR HOB'S BLAZE

A "Weary Willie" Wanted to Get Warmed Up on Sunday.

Shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday after- noon Dr. Pierson phoned that the Central Fire Station stating that Mr. Lew. Taylor had informed him that the G. T. R. bridge near the O. I. B. was on fire and to send the brigade there at once. Chief Lewis dispatched a number of men equipped with hose and chemical appliances but when the fire fighters arrived on the scene they found that the bridge was in perfect safety. They scanned the surroundings for fire but no blaze was found. On second sight they observed a "hobo" more familiarly known as a tramp, sitting on the bank beside a small fire consisting of a few old newspapers, and some chips which the Weary Willie had gathered. The Knight of the road had evidently been chilled by the cool October air and was simply warming his hands over the tiny blaze. The firemen quickly extinguished the blaze and the follower of the great and only General Coxy, left in peace for parts unknown. Mr. Taylor, in explanation of the alarm, said when he saw the conflag- ration it most assuredly would have reached the bridge had he not asked to have it attended to.

VICTIM'S BURIED NUMBER 132 AT NOON

Aftermath of the Terrible Mine Disaster at Dawson.

Public Funeral Not Possible Owing to Nature of Bodies.

(Canadian Press Despatch) DAWSON, N. M., Oct. 27.—By noon to-day 132 of the victims of the Stag Canon Mine No. 2 disaster had been buried. The major portion of the bodies now being recovered are in such condition that they cannot be shipped or laid out in the morgue for public funerals. It was the case with the first two score. Health officers are using vigilance to see that the sanitation of the town is not im- paired. Rescue men who bring the bodies from the mine are subjected to disinfectants after each trip. Bodies are taken to the cemetery directly from the temporary morgue at the mine and if identification is possible, members of the dead miners' fam- ilies are not permitted to view them. Danger from fire passed last night when air currents were directed into every room of the workings and no smoulders were found. Government mine experts will re- main in Dawson for two or three weeks in an effort to determine pos- itively the cause and nature of the disaster. The Red Cross, the Salvation Army and the Stag Canon Fuel Co. will at once begin efforts to arrange the affairs for the dead miners' families.

POLITICS CHARGED BY HON. I. B. LUCAS

But the Separate School Men at Ottawa Vigorously Refute Same.

(Ottawa Ont. Oct. 27.—In reply to the charge made by Hon. I. B. Lucas, provincial treasurer, that the trouble in the Ottawa separate schools was of political origin, Trustee S. M. Genest, chairman of the board, declared this morning that this was in the matter except the catchword "politics." "The question becomes a political one," said Mr. Genest, "I will hand in my resignation. I sincerely deplore the fact that this 'politics story' has gone abroad." Another member of the board, Trustee Dr. Freeland, who is collector of inland revenue for the province, Ot- tawa, said that the politics charge was easily refuted. There were men of both political parties on the board, and he, as well as the chair- man, Mr. Genest, were civil servants and in such, eschewed politics. "If the government persecutes in its present attitude in this matter," said Dr. Freeland, "then it is committing itself to a policy of persecution, for to legislate to the injury of one part of the people at the bidding of another part, which has no interests in the matter except the catchword of tyrannizing is the essence and definition of persecution."

THAW'S CASE CONCORD, N.H., Oct. 27.—HARRY K. THAW, his counsel and the attor- neys representing the State of New York, went to Rochester to-day to at- tend a hearing before Governor Fel- ler at his home in that city on the questions of a further continuance of the Thaw extradition proceedings. Thaw seeks a delay of two weeks. The New York lawyers are opposed to the continuance. The hearing was held at the Governor's home, be- cause indisposition of the executive prevented his coming to the state capitol here.

MILITANTS AGAIN ACTIVE

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Militant suf- fragesites this morning set fire to and burned to the ground the T. House, a fine residence at Bramsbott, 1/2 miles from Aldershot, belonging to T. McKenna, a brother of the Home Secretary, Reginald McKenna. A quantity of suffrage literature and several kerosene cans were found lying on the ground together with the notification that the "arson squad" had set fire to the mansion as a protest against the forcible feeding of imprisoned suffragettes.

WON BIG PRIZE SASKATOON, Sask., Oct. 27.—Paul Gerach, farmer, of Allan, Sask., who won a threshing outfit valued at $1,200, in open competition with the farmers of the world, for the best bushel of wheat at the Dry Farming Congress, Tulsa, Okla., is a German- American, who came to Saskatchewan five years ago. The prize wheat weighed 71 pounds to the bushel.

Big Meeting To Discuss Issue

At a meeting of the grounds committee of the Park Board, held on Saturday, it was decided to call a meeting of the large Civic Improvement Committee to consider the City Hall question. Mr. Drunington-Grubb, the landscape architect, of Toronto, will be asked to come up to Brantford some time before the meeting and study the sub- ject from his standpoint, so that he will be able to advise the meeting.

The Park Board consider it essential that the necessity of a new City Hall be made a means of beautifying Brantford. Hav- ing for so many years suffered the reproach of a disreputable building and accessories, the people are now entitled to have a settlement of the present question on such lines as will add beauty and dignity to the city. This can only be done by a settlement of the present question on an open mind and a readiness to do what is best, and then unite to do it.

JOYOUS RETURN OF SURVIVORS

A Bride Fainted When She Met Her Husband She Thought Dead.

(Canadian Press Despatch) NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—There was an echo here yesterday of the recent disaster to the Steamer Volturo, which was burned at sea, when 46 survivors of the ill-fated vessel were brought into port by the Steamer Carmania. They were rescued by the Steamer Devonian and taken to Liver- pool, where they were transferred to the Carmania. There were numerous dramatic scenes at the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society's building when the survivors came face to face with others of the Volturo's saved passengers brought here by other steamers. A bride, who had been separated from her husband dur- ing the rescue at sea, and who had believed him dead, screamed in fright, "It is his ghost," when she be- lieved him to be the man. Mrs. Brouche Grossman of Phila- delphia, with three children, was among the Carmania's passengers. She had been brooding over the sup- posed loss of her husband and a child, and was overjoyed when in- formed that they arrived here last week and had gone to Philadelphia.

AGRETTES SEIZED VALUED AT $6,000

New York Authorities Take Drastic Action With Lady's Property

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The largest single seizure the customs inspec- tors have made since the new regu- lations prohibiting the importation of agrettes went into effect, is on record at the customs house to-day, in the matter of a declaration from Miss Edna McLaughlin, daughter of a former police inspector here, who arrived yesterday from Europe. The young woman had frankly de- clared the fine feather as part of her apparel was valued in all at $8,000 and was shocked when she learned that regardless of her English na- tivity the inspectors must seize the agret- tes. She protested that she had bought the plumes in this country, but learned to her dismay that only 24 hours before her arrival an order had been issued for the seizure of all such feathers whether originally purchased in this country or abroad. Finished with explanations the in- spector finally plucked the costly plumes from the hat they were adorning and sent them to the appraisers' stores. They will undoubtedly in view of the unequivocal language of the law be consigned to the furnace in the basement of the public stores.

SHE HAS DISAPPEARED

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—Word reach- ed here to-day that Miss Mary Com- pton, the wealthy young English woman, had disappeared from the steamship Canadian 48 hours after it sailed from that port. Capt. Bul- lock of the Canadian reported by wireless to the Winfredin, which ar- rived from Liverpool to-day, that a thorough search of the ship failed to disclose any trace of the woman. Miss Compton, who said she had come to "investigate spiritualism," was deported as being mildly insane.

LT. COL. HOWARD HOME AGAIN TODAY

Popular Commander of Dufferins Had a Fine Trip.

He Saw the Best Armies in World at Various Centres.

Lt. Col. Howard and Mrs. Howard arrived in the city at 10 o'clock this morning from several weeks visit in Europe. Major Genet and several other officers and friends were on hand to bid them a hearty welcome. The ladies of the party presented Mrs. Howard with a handsome bou- quet of roses. The Colonel was one of the party of officers accompanying Hon. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia. When seen by a Courier man, Col. Howard expressed himself as glad to be home again. "We had a most wonderful trip," he remarked. After arriving in London on Aug. 30th we left on Sept. 4th for the continent. We landed at Boulogne and from there went by the nine motor cars through France to Berne, Switzerland. We made head- quarters at Berne and motored out each morning to Swiss Army man- oeuvres near that place. They were remarkably good and aeroplanes took part. We motored back through France, visiting the principle military centres, including Epinal, where the aerodrome quarters are, Nancy, where there are many military and air schools. For the French Army man- oeuvres our headquarters were at Wittlich. We saw the flower of the French army and they made a great impression especially with regard to their artillery and cavalry. We next went to Paris. Both in France and Switzerland we received the very greatest hospitality. Back to London we attended the divisional man- oeuvres, making our headquarters at Luton. Afterwards we were at the big army manoeuvres near North- hampton with our headquarters at Bedford. It was a marvellous spec- tacle. The British Tommies are in the front line and they are doing it well. Mrs. Brouche Grossman of Phila- delphia, with three children, was among the Carmania's passengers. She had been brooding over the sup- posed loss of her husband and a child, and was overjoyed when in- formed that they arrived here last week and had gone to Philadelphia.

Comments The Idea For A Naval Holiday

(Canadian Press Despatch) ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 27.—Secre- tary of the Navy Daniels, traveling with President Wilson to Mobile, last night expressed his own ap- proval of the suggestion of Winston Churchill, first lord of admiralty of Great Britain that the powers should agree to cease naval construction for a short period. "I feel sure," said Mr. Daniels, "that if all the other naval-build- ing countries agreed to such an arrange- ment the United States also would gladly do so. I think this sugges- tion follows as a direct sequence to Secretary Bryan's peace policy." The secretary said he did not be- lieve, however, that the Churchill suggestion would affect the immedi- ate programme of the United States Government. Mr. Daniels did not discuss the Churchill proposal with President Wilson.

CANDIDATE'S DELIBERATE ATTEMPT TO AROUSE RACE PREJUDICE OF THE GERMAN RESIDENTS OF SOUTH BRUCE

Uses False Report of Speech of Hon. Mr. Hughes at Vancouver.

WALKERTON, Oct. 27.—The racial appeal to the German voters of South Bruce, which has been a marked feature of the Liberal campaign from the start, has taken a form more open than anything in the past, and by all appearances a frantic effort is being made to stir passions and sway this vote. To the German farmers all through the riding, there has been sent a circular letter which reads as follows: Walkerton, Oct. 24, 1913. Dear Sir, Accompanying this letter you will find an exact copy in part of a speech delivered in Vancouver on August 7, 1912, by Hon. Sam. Hughes, minister of militia and defence in the Borden Government. Premier Borden has never repudiated this speech or any part of it, so we must conclude that Hon. Mr. Hughes spoke officially on behalf of the whole Borden Govern- ment. Read the speech carefully, note particularly the part in large type refer- ring to Germany and also remember that shortly after this speech was made the Borden Government tried to force a vote of $35,000,000 through Parliament to send to England. Hon. Mr. Hughes said: "The peril is from Germany" and that "German must be taught a lesson." Was this vote of $35,000,000 for the purpose of teaching Germany a lesson? Mr. Cargill is the candidate for the Borden Government and there- fore a supporter of its naval policy. If you think the Fatherland is in peril to Canada and must be taught a lesson, vote for Mr. Cargill. If, however, you would prefer to con- tinue the present relations exist- ing between the Fatherland and Canada and to have national and industrial peace and the spending of Canadian money in Canada, give me your vote on October 30. Faithfully yours, R. E. TRUAX. Has Been Repudiated. This indicates the character of the campaign, which the Conservative party has been fighting from the opening of the riding. Among the German voters absolute misrepresent-

MEXICAN RESULTS KNOWN IN A WEEK

Returns are Very Uncertain and Guessing is Hard Work.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—The re- turns of yesterday's elections may possibly be known within a week, but it is more likely that a fortnight will elapse before the result is placed be- fore the public. Not even a prognosti- cation as to who was placed at the top of the poll can be made at the present moment, since in many cases the returns are lacking owing to the faulty communications with various sections of the republic. In the federal capital itself the re- sult may be determined within a day or two, but even this is not certain. Telegrams received to-day by the department of the interior showed that the elections at Guadalajara and Toluca had passed off in an orderly manner, but that a tight vote was re- corded. Huerta Elected. VERA CRUZ, Mexico, Oct. 27.—Provisional President Victoriano Hu- erta obtained 1,500 of the 2,000 votes cast in Vera Cruz at yesterday's elec- tion, according to the official returns. S. F. Whitham is the Complainant in Alleged Fraud.

O. F. Maclem of Ottawa was arrested at the Palmer House, Toronto, by Detectives Miller and Armstrong on a charge of stealing $3750 worth of stock certificates from S. F. Whitham of Belleville. Mr. Whitham was a member of Brantford City Council for some years, also a candidate for mayor. According to the complainant, he met Maclem in Belleville a short time ago, and while talk- ing he mentioned having some stock certificates which he was trying to dispose of. Maclem said that he knew of a man in Ottawa to whom he could sell the stock at a good profit. Whitham then gave Maclem the certificates. A few days ago he met Maclem and asked him for the cer- tificates. Maclem said that he had disposed of them to the Ot- tawa man, but had not as yet received any money from him. Whitham, however, became sus- picious, and telegraphed the Ot- tawa man, who replied that he had not bought the stock, and that he was not acquainted with Maclem. Whitham then laid a charge of theft against Maclem, and he was arrested. When taken into custody he admitted having sold the cer- tificates to a local man, receiv- ing $1000 cash and a promise to pay $1000 more in two days.

SIMPLICITY OF LINE DISTINGUISHES THIS WRAP

The manner in which straight breadths of rich fabric are lapped across each other to form this wrap is admirable. Mandarin blue brocaded crepe is the material used and the lining is of deep red satin. Beaver fur—a soft, light brown fur reserved in favor this season, edges the top and arm openings of the wrap. The brilliant color of this wrap is most effective with a gown of black lansdowne with which are worn jetted coiffure band and gloves of white silk with embroidery on the wrist.

W.C.T.U. Presses Claims Upon Anglican Clergymen

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The convention of the World's Women's Christian Temperance Union adopted a resolution Saturday requesting the house of bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church to "consider the propriety" of using unfermented wine at the communion sacrament in place of fermented wine, "which contains the narcotic poison alcohol."

The resolution was a substitute for one originally offered setting forth that fermented wine "could not truly represent the blood of Christ."

This phrase was objected to by English delegates, who declared that it would antagonize the Church of England. The English delegates also objected to an amendment declaring that "Jesus commanded unfermented wine in the holy communion."

Accused Tried To End Life.

MONTREAL, Oct. 27.—Charles Paul, C.E., 59 years old, charged with misappropriation of money entrusted to him by foreiguers, attempted suicide by cutting his throat yesterday while en route to police headquarters under arrest. Paul was treated at a hospital and later locked up.

Laborers employed on the Transcontinental Railway allege that Paul was given money to forward to Italy. The money never reached its destination, they claim.

Noted German Dead.

BERLIN, Oct. 27.—Privy Councilor Ludwig Max Goldberger, the well-known capitalist and economist, died at his residence in Berlin Friday evening, aged 65 years. The immediate cause of death was arterio-sclerosis, combined with heart disease.

His Good Eye.

A man who had lost the sight of both eyes trained his hearing until he could tell by the sound of his footsteps on the sidewalks as he made his way about town whether he was in the middle of the walk or at one side, whether he was walking past a brick or a frame house or a fence or open ground. He knew in what part of the town he was not only by his footsteps or sense of general direction, but by the "difference in the tones" of his footsteps, and he walked about freely seldom running into anything or any body. Some one in his presence once called in question his total blindness.

"Which eye do you think I can see with?" he asked the skeptic.

"The left one, of course," was the reply. "I can see that the right one is blind."

In reply the blind man merely opened his pocket and tapped the left eye with the little blade.

It was a glass eye.

Franks of Nature.

Monument park, near Colorado Springs, Colo., contains some queer freaks of nature. Among the most singular is a group of light grayish yellow sandstone pillars twenty or more feet high capped with a thin layer of dark colored rock which resemble the tops of giant umbrellas which have survived and partially dried up. The dark colored capping being of a much harder (ironstone) rock than the pillars has to some extent protected the latter from disintegration. Exposed at nightfall to the traveler impressed with the weird effect of these gigantic and grotesque forms, which in the uncertain light assumed the attitudes of huge human or animal shapes.—Argonaut.

ST. MATHIEU, Rimouski, Co., Que., Oct. 27.—(Special)—"Publish it to all the world that Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me." Those are the words of Mrs. Dionne, an old and respected resident of this place. And surely that cure was a wonderful one. Mrs. Dionne had reached the advanced age of sixty-one years when ill-health overtook her. From 184 lbs. she wasted away till she weighed only 120 lbs., and she was a very sick woman, indeed. Speaking of her case, she says: "My back and head ached, my heart troubled me, my sleep was broken and unrefreshing, and I perspired freely at night. I also had a pressure or sharp pain on the top of my head, and I found it difficult to collect my thoughts."

It was at this stage that Mrs. Dionne concluded that her trouble came from her kidneys and she turned to Dodd's Kidney Pills. The first box helped her. She took twelve boxes, and is cured.

"Dodd's Kidney Pills always help old people, because when the human body starts to wear out, the kidneys are the first to go. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure the kidneys."

No mere cut can do justice to the splendid nature of Brantford's new public building. As it continues to grow citizens are commencing to realize what a dandy structure they will have.

Paris News

PARIS, Oct. 27.—The death occurred in Paris on Saturday morning of one of her leading citizens in the person of Mr. John Allan, a man who had taken a leading part in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the town. Born in Kilwinning, Scotland, in 1839, he came to Canada as a lad settling in Galt, where he was employed for a number of years on the Galt Reformer under the late Hon. James Young. Later he purchased the paper and successfully conducted it until failing eyesight compelled him to leave the printing business. He then (about 1870), came to Paris with Mr. David Brown, when they established the Ontario Nut and Bolt works, the Standard News works and with Mr. McGill the McGill Plaster Co., later to become the Alabastine Co. The late Mr. Allan held many positions of trust, among others being chairman of the Board of Education, Alderman and Reeve of the town, President of the Horticultural society and President of the Mechanics' Institute and Public Library. For many years he was chairman of the board of management of the Presbyterian church and took a very active part in the erection of their present magnificent edifice. Four daughters and one son are left to mourn his loss. They are: Miss Justice D., at home; Miss Margaret D., of Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Thomas Gibson of Calgary, Alta.; Mrs. (Dr.) McLaughlin of Wilkie, Sask.; and Mr. James Allan of Montreal.

A public service will be held in the Presbyterian church to-morrow at 2:30 p.m. and interment will take place at 3 p.m. in the cemetery.

The injuries to Mr. James Scott, who was hurt on Friday at the Municipal lighting plant, were not so serious as at first supposed and he will be around in a few days.

Owing to the continued wet weather of last week, the athletic meet of the Paris, Brantford and Galt Junior Y.M.C.A., which was to have been held here on Saturday was postponed.

A small blaze among some old boards at Stewart's Foundry, gave the firemen a run on Saturday at 6:30 p.m. No damage was done.

GOT THREE MONTHS.

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 27.—For stabbing his brother-in-law, John Merrill John Coughlin was this morning sentenced by Magistrate Farrell to three months in jail. The stabbing came as the result of a family quarrel which started over the death of John Merrill Coughlin's wife, who deserted him and was under protection of the police. Merrill Coughlin's brother-in-law, Merrill was in the hospital two weeks in a dangerous condition as a result of the injuries received and it was thought for a time he would not recover.

WILL LEAVE LONDON.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—It is probable that at the conclusion of the present Methodist Conference year, Rev. A. J. Johnston, B. A., will permanently sever his connection with the Dundas Centre Methodist Church of which he is at present in charge. It is understood that Mr. Johnston has been offered a splendid position on the staff of Victoria College, Toronto.

It is said they are still trying to iron out that kink in Laurier's sunny smile, but without much reasonable hope of success.

Don't forget the cash haul in connection with any new city hall.

PROVINCIAL PREMIERS MEET

The Premiers of the nine Provinces of Canada have convened at Ottawa for a conference. The meeting is not at the instigation, or under the auspices, of the Dominion Government.

The term "Province" seems to indicate a somewhat small area, but this is most emphatically not the case with reference to the Provinces of this great Dominion.

Quebec, for instance, has a total land and water area of 706,000 square miles, Ontario 407,000, British Columbia 355,000, Manitoba 251,000, Saskatchewan 251,000, and so on.

Contrast with this Great Britain, 121,380 square miles; German Empire, 209,000; France, 207,000; Japan, 162,000; United States, 3,623,000, and one begins to realize what our nine Provinces stand for.

The various local Premiers are of differing political views, and there will be nothing of a party nature in their discussions—simply a desire to mutually co-operate with reference to matters affecting the welfare of each Province.

REPORT OF LABOR DEPARTMENT

The Labor Gazette, issued by the Department of Labor at Ottawa, makes pleasing reading in the October number.

September is reported to have been an exceptionally "favorable month for agriculture."

Lumbering both as to trade and the labor conditions is recorded as not comparing favorably with last year.

The mining industry throughout Canada was in an active condition.

In the Nova Scotia mines, trade was steady and large shipments were made.

The Dominion and Nova Scotia Companies opened up new collieries and made good progress.

It was reported that large deposits of silver, lead and zinc-ore have been opened up in Gloucester County, New Brunswick.

The copper mines at Eustis in the Province of Quebec were running to their full extent with a shortage of men reported.

The mines in the Cobalt district maintained a normal output. Its value increased owing to the higher price of silver.

A census bulletin, showing the mineral production in Canada for the year 1910, has recently been issued.

As compared with the mineral output of the Dominion in 1900 an increase in the ten years, is shown, of 849 in the number of mines or works, of $65,734,248 in the value of buildings, and plant, of 31,442 in the number of persons employed, of $24,597,877 in the earnings of salaries and wages, and $74,048,070 in the value of production.

An increased activity in manufacturing establishments was reported during September. This was partly due to the optimistic feeling caused by the fulfillment of expectation for a heavy western grain crop.

Construction on the various rail-ways proceeded without interruption during September. Weather conditions were good, and satisfactory progress was made.

Double tracking was continued on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway in British Columbia. Track laying on the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific was also proceeding at a rapid pace.

The Canadian Northern and other lines also manifested much construction activity and the Hudson Bay Railway is well in hand.

The movement of general freight was very heavy during September. Passenger traffic on steam railways was not as large as in the corresponding month of last year.

Electric railway receipts, however, showed an increase in nearly all localities. Active preparations were made at lake and ocean ports early in the month for moving western grain crops.

The following are the reports with reference to individual trades:

Building—A decrease as compared with last September, but more active than for months.

Metal trade—Fairly active.

Engineering Trades—Well employed.

Shipyards—Busy.

Woodworking and Furnishing—Active conditions.

Printing—Printers well employed.

Clothing—Tailors and garment workers actively employed.

Cotton Mills more active than during first part of the year.

Textiles—Workers in general well employed.

Leather—Trade had an average month.

Barbers and Butchers—Active conditions.

Unskilled Labor—This class busy throughout the country.

September Thirtieth,

Last.

OTTAWA, Oct. 27.—The total immigration to Canada during the first six months, April to September of the current fiscal year was 237,267 made up of 121,204 British; 73,809 American and 113,183 from all other countries.

During the six corresponding months of last fiscal year the total number 273,649, composed of 103,423 British; 89,659 American and 75,659 from all other countries. The increase is 12 per cent.

Contrast with this Great Britain, 121,380 square miles; German Empire, 209,000; France, 207,000; Japan, 162,000; United States, 3,623,000, and one begins to realize what our nine Provinces stand for.

The various local Premiers are of differing political views, and there will be nothing of a party nature in their discussions—simply a desire to mutually co-operate with reference to matters affecting the welfare of each Province.

The mining industry throughout Canada was in an active condition.

In the Nova Scotia mines, trade was steady and large shipments were made.

The Dominion and Nova Scotia Companies opened up new collieries and made good progress.

It was reported that large deposits of silver, lead and zinc-ore have been opened up in Gloucester County, New Brunswick.

The copper mines at Eustis in the Province of Quebec were running to their full extent with a shortage of men reported.

The mines in the Cobalt district maintained a normal output. Its value increased owing to the higher price of silver.

A census bulletin, showing the mineral production in Canada for the year 1910, has recently been issued.

As compared with the mineral output of the Dominion in 1900 an increase in the ten years, is shown, of 849 in the number of mines or works, of $65,734,248 in the value of buildings, and plant, of 31,442 in the number of persons employed, of $24,597,877 in the earnings of salaries and wages, and $74,048,070 in the value of production.

An increased activity in manufacturing establishments was reported during September. This was partly due to the optimistic feeling caused by the fulfillment of expectation for a heavy western grain crop.

Construction on the various rail-ways proceeded without interruption during September. Weather conditions were good, and satisfactory progress was made.

Double tracking was continued on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway in British Columbia. Track laying on the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific was also proceeding at a rapid pace.

The Canadian Northern and other lines also manifested much construction activity and the Hudson Bay Railway is well in hand.

The movement of general freight was very heavy during September. Passenger traffic on steam railways was not as large as in the corresponding month of last year.

Electric railway receipts, however, showed an increase in nearly all localities. Active preparations were made at lake and ocean ports early in the month for moving western grain crops.

The following are the reports with reference to individual trades:

Building—A decrease as compared with last September, but more active than for months.

Metal trade—Fairly active.

Engineering Trades—Well employed.

HOME RULE BILL TO BE RUSHED

Asquith Makes Course of Government Clear in His Speech at Ladybank.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Premier Asquith addressed an enthusiastic meeting of his constituents of Ladybank, Fifeshire, Scotland, last evening. He dealt exclusively with the question of home rule and emphasized that the Government intended to make use of the Parliament Act in order to give Liberal legislation something approaching an equal chance with their opponents.

The Government, he said, had declared in favor of home rule when they had an overwhelming majority over all parties, and the last election was fought with the knowledge that home rule would come next to the passing of the Parliament Act.

It would have been the greatest breach of public faith to put off this legislation.

Mr. Asquith affirmed that the Government still believed that as the bill now stood the Irish Legislature, which it would bring into existence, even if it had the disposition, which the Government did not believe it to have, would not, and could not have the power to be guilty of acts of oppression with regard to the minority.

He pointed out that the Lords had not attempted to modify, amend, or improve the bill.

Tribute To Irish. The prime minister paid a tribute to the loyalty and self-sacrifice of the Irish party in the House of Commons. He added:

"You are often told that I am Redmond's subservient tool (laughter), just as in Ireland Mr. Redmond is told that he is mine. There is just as much truth in the one accusation as in the other—and that is none at all. (Cheers.) Liberals and Nationalists have worked in co-operation in a common cause—a cause in the justice and policy of which we both believe."

The Bill as it left the Commons, continued the prime minister, as it had been twice rejected by the House of Lords, had the hearty approval of the whole Liberal party in Great Britain and of the majority of the Irish Nationalists; and there was abundant evidence that it had the support of the great self-governing dominions. (Cheers.)

Ought the action of statesmen to be affected or deflected by the means of forcible resistance to the execution of the law? (Great applause.) The doctrines preached during the last session with regard to the Irish, which I regret to say, have received countenance in responsible quarters in this country, are a negation of the great principle of Parliamentary and still more of a democratic Government.

Ulster's Stand. If the Ulster minority is entitled to resist the home rule, what possible answer could be made to a like claim by the masses of the Irish people? (Cheers.) No, we need not and shall not be intimidated by the threat of force. (Prolonged cheers.)

Then, speaking slowly and deliberately, the prime minister said: "I have more than once expressed the hope and belief that the new system of government in Ireland will be brought into operation without recourse to armed forces by the crowd, but if a statute deliberately enacted by Parliament were to be met by organized armed resistance it would clearly be not only the right but the duty of the executive to assert the authority of the law by every appropriate and adequate means." (Loud cheers.)

Mr. Asquith, after referring to some of the extravagant manifestations in Ulster, declared that it was the duty of every man to deal respectfully with the deepest and genuine sentiments of the minority, although he believed their apprehensions to be without foundation. All Liberals and Nationalists, therefore, should spare no effort to eliminate such apprehensions. He had offered to consider any honestly put forward proposals, however, for the exclusion of Ulster had been avowedly put forward, not as a help towards the solution of the problem of Irish self-government, but with the most uncompromising declaration that their acceptance would diminish hostility to the principles of the bill.

No Longer the Case. He would be glad to be authoritatively informed that that was no longer the case. There were two obvious reasons why all patriotic men should desire a settlement by consent. In the first place, there was the supreme importance of the future well-being of Ireland. The new systems should not startle with apparent triumph one section however preponderant its numbers, nor with apparent humiliation another section. He firmly believed that ties binding Irishmen would prove more durable and effective than their differences if their unifying process were given a chance of success. It was worth paying a very considerable price to procure the absence of ill-will and the possibility of co-operation.

Then the second reason was that whatever was done should be regarded by all parties as resting on a sound foundation and capable of future development beyond the risks of party vicissitudes. Ireland had far too long been the cockpit of British politics. (Cheers.) Proposals, however, made in perfectly good faith and good-will, for a formal conference of the party leaders, did not appeal. A conference without defined limits would be almost certainly abortive and would probably leave matters worse than was a conference necessary if there was a genuine disposition in all quarters, by an interchange of suggestions, free and frank without prejudice, to contribute to the common stock.

"I invite that interchange," added Mr. Asquith. Both I and my colleagues are ready to take part in it. (Cheers.) We should not depart, however from the root and principle of the bill.

In the second place nothing must be done to erect a permanent barrier to Irish unity. I myself am sanguine enough to believe that the difficulties ought not to be beyond the sources of statesmanship. One thing is certain, we are not going to be false to the trust which the vast majority of the Irish people have reposed in us. (Cheers.) We are not going to betray their cause. We are bound to prosecute their purpose and by obligations to loyalty and honor, but by profound conviction that it has behind it the sympathies of the British democracy at home and throughout the empire, that it carries with it the best and only enduring prospect of a happy and prosperous future for Ireland and Great Britain." (Loud and prolonged cheers.)

To The Editor

THE NEW CITY HALL.

Editor of The Courier.

Sir—It is with some reluctance that I write at the present time on such an important topic as that of a new City Hall. In your editorial in Saturday's issue of the Courier, and under the heading "The Latest Proposal" you infer or say, "at last there is recognition of the desirability of not using the centre of the market square for a civic pile."

Now Sir, where the recognition (or objection) to using the Market square for a new City Hall site comes from, I fail to find out. It is generally agreed we need a City Hall worthy of the name, but if it is intended to erect said building on the Darling street site, I feel certain (from what I have learned from the working men in particular) that the by-law will be defeated. What nicer site could you desire than the present one, situated as it is in the very core of this beautiful city of ours, where every citizen could admire the lovely ground surrounding it. I would suggest that two ballots be prepared, to read thus:

I. Are you in favor of building a new City Hall on Darling Street.

II. Are you in favor of building a City Hall on the Market Square.

I think this would simplify matters and settle this vexed question for all time. The writer desires to see a new City Hall, but will oppose building one on the Darling Street site.

Sincerely yours, W. F. M. Sheridan St.

Yesterday, it seems, we shivered in the bleak December blast; and I've just this hour discovered that the year's going fast! Soon again, yes, etc we know it, wintry blasts again will freeze painter, plumber, printer, poet, and such citizens as these. Soon again we'll hear men yawning in the bleak and cheerless dawn: "Go and do your Christmas shopping ere the final rush is on!" How the years go whizzing by us! When man thinks how fast they've walked his "marks are scarcely pious, and the women folks are shocked. Yesterday, or day before it, I was young, and full of pride: I'd achieve—I grimly swore it—mighty things before I died. And I've just been round the edges of the things I meant to do. "Ist got I meant to be; and already I am waxing old and withered, tired and lame, and I feel my grip relaxing, and I've sort o' lost my aim. Man

DUFFERIN PARADE VERY LARGE ONE

The Soldiers Were Out On Sunday and Heard Eloquent Discourse.

The Dufferin Rifles never looked better than upon the occasion of their parade on Sunday afternoon to service at St. Andrew's church. They marched over 400 all ranks, and had with them twenty-two staff sergeants and sergeants of the 1st Highlanders, Hamilton, whose tall figures and picturesque uniform attracted general attention.

Both bands were out in force and excelled themselves.

The march was direct from the armories to the edifice on Brant Ave. and thousands of spectators were on that street. On return the brass band played "God Save the King," when Major Genet gave the order to disband.

Col. Ashton was on parade for the first time in his new artillery suit, a very attractive uniform, at the church.

There was a very large congregation and Rev. Mr. Gordon preached a fine and impressive sermon. The hymns were "O God our help in ages past," "Soldiers of Christ Arise," and "My Soul be on thy guard." There was a finely rendered anthem, "Send out Thy Light," and a splendid solo, "The recessional" by Mr. John Howarth.

The Sermon.
 Rev. Mr. Gordon took his text from II. Tim. II: 4. "No soldier on service entangleth himself with the affairs of this life," deducing from these words his subject, "A Soldier's motto: Duty First." The preacher illustrated the value of this as a soldier's motto from the history of the decline of the Roman Empire. A principal contributing cause to its decline and fall was the entanglement of the soldiers in mechanics, trades, amusements and luxuries of living. The soldier's one business is soldiering; all else is sacrificed to this one duty.

What is true of the soldiers of King George is true of the soldiers of King Jesus. Both must be fighters if they expect to win. It is not war which has robbed mankind of its noblest and best. The most pitiful piercing wail of the ages arises not from battlefields, where men die in garments rolled in blood, far from home, amid the cannon's roar, and the dust of marching hooves, and the call and clash of armed fighting, but from the quiet, lovely, commonplace battlefields of human life. It is not so much as sin that ruins men. Far more men have been lost to home and country by sin than by war. Life is a battle, all who win put duty first.

But putting duty first means selfishness. The almost incomparable sufferings of the soldiers of history have all been endured unselfishly. Again, we have a chief characteristic of the Christian life—selflessness—giving up for others, suffering to liberate others. Just as the British soldier marches to relieve Kharotum and Lucknow, the Christian soldier marches to relieve his brethren from centuries of sin and superstition and shame. The first is noble, the second is nobler still; the first refers to time only; the second reaches into eternity.

Finally to all cowards and poor fighters, who put duty second, there is disgrace and banishment; no matter who their master may be. But to all true soldiers their reward and a home. Especially for the Christian soldier is there a splendid home, a welcome, a crown and a "well done and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

REV. DR. TROY AT PARK BAPTIST

Eloquent Evangelist Makes Fine Impression on Large Crowd.

Park Baptist church held a big rally day in every good way Sunday. The church in the past has had such outstanding men as Dr. Varley of London, Dr. A. J. Gordon of Boston, and Dr. Riley of Minneapolis, but Dr. Troy compares favorably with these and the opening day of his mission here was full of promise. The church was well filled both morning and evening. The large chorus choir of about fifty voices led the congregation in a service of praise which will long be remembered.

The text in the morning was Romans 8: 28: "For we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them that are called according to his eternal purpose." This address was packed with comfort and will long remain as a source of strength to the bereaved.

In the evening he spoke on the Scripture found in II. Chronicles 20: 27: "And when the burnt offering began the song of the Lord also began." This sermon was a mighty appeal to return to the Lord, it is impossible to give even an adequate outline of these addresses in a few words. He will speak each afternoon at 3.30 and each evening at 8 during this week.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.
 The services at the Congregational Church were largely attended, both morning and evening. In the evening, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Kelly delivered a masterly address on the subject of "The warning of the inner light," taking for his text: Hosea 7: 9, "Morally and spiritually. An excellent musical program was rendered, consisting of anthems by choir, Miss Campion, duet, Miss Secord and Mrs. Brooks, numbers by Brant Quartette.

ALEXANDRA PRESBYTERIAN
 The Rev. Dr. Hanna of Toronto occupied the pulpit for both services. The morning discourse was founded on the text, "And when I see the blood I will pass over you." The points emphasized were: First, a safe provision; second, a provision that reveals God's righteousness; third, a provision that must be appropriated, must be accepted. God is in earnest, faith links us to God. The Rev. Dr. Hanna proved evident that genuine satisfaction is only to be found in the religion of Jesus Christ. The closing hymn, "There is life for a look at the Crucified One," was in keeping with the sermon. "The King's Business" was appropriately sung by Mrs. Barton and Mr. J. Housion during the service. In the evening the Rev. Dr. Hanna preached an eloquent and impressive sermon, portraying Christ as a suppliant—"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. First, Jesus still stands waiting admission; second, how does He knock? Jesus and His spirit. Why does He knock? Because He knows the peril. Third, Jesus seeks to be one advocate. He is waiting to bestow untold blessings. The unspeakable joy of having the King of Glory our Guest. He wishes to come into our hearts. The door must be opened from the inside. Christ will not force an entrance. "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If any man hear my voice and open the door I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." The musical part was exceptionally pleasing, which included a bright song service prior to the regular. The anthem by the choir, "Saviour, Now the Day is Ending," composed by J. H. Pearce, Mus.Doc., was splendidly sung, also a solo by Mr. N. McLeod and a duet by Mrs. Burton and Mrs. Aver. "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" was delightfully sung by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Aver of Paris. "Behold, a Stranger at the Door" was the closing hymn, and in keeping with the splendid sermon by the Rev. Dr. Hanna.

Farrington Society.
 The subject for debate at the Farrington Debating Society, Tuesday evening will be: "That all natural products and raw materials be placed on the free list; that the British preference be increased from 33 to 50 per cent."

PARFUMERIE ED. PINAUD, Department M. ED. PINAUD BUILDING NEW YORK

With the City Police

There was somewhat of an interesting case before the magistrate in the police court this morning. Tony Janetos, a peanut, popcorn, etc. vendor, selling from a wagon on the Market Square, caused M. Campbell a vendor of like refreshment, who has been selling from a wagon which he was driving around the streets, with a breach of the by-law governing such matters, and which is known as By-Law No. 1100. The by-law prohibits the street sale from a wagon or basket of fruits, candy and peanuts.

The vendor claimed that when he secured a license he had informed Mayor Hartman of his purpose. The Magistrate said the license was not properly made out as it read not 1913 but 1880, which shows that the forms were gotten out some years ago. It was, therefore, not valid. Mr. H. S. Hewitt, counsel for the plaintiff asked that the defendant be only nominally fined.

The P. M. fined the defendant $5 and costs and advised him that under the circumstances the city council might remit the penalty as the license should never have been granted.

Abuse of Forgery.
 Paul Farnago, a Maltese, was to have appeared to face a charge of forgery, but he did not put in an appearance. He was arrested on Saturday night by Sergt. Wallace and allowed out on bail. It is alleged that the defendant stole a bank book of a fellow countryman and boarded, securing the bank book it is alleged he forged a cheque and secured $84. The Bank of Montreal is the institution interested in the case.

Adjournd.
 The cases of John Spittal vs. Roy Culver, false pretences and fraudulent conversion, were laid over for a week. The case will probably go to the Division Court.

CARD OF THANKS Mr. Howell Roy and family desire to thank their friends and neighbors for the many expressions of kindness and sympathy shown them in their recent bereavement.

Laid at Rest The Late Norman E. Fountain. The death took place rather unexpectedly at Fairfield Plains of Mr. Norman E. Fountain, postmaster and proprietor of the general store there for some years past. Deceased, who has been a well known resident of the city and county for a number of years, has been suffering acutely from rheumatism for about seven months, but notwithstanding this fact his death was quite sudden. A distressing incident was the fact that Mrs. Fountain was in the city on business when the sad event took place. Mrs. Smith, who was staying with Mrs. Fountain, had left the room for only a couple of minutes, and on her return found that Mr. Fountain had passed away. Deceased was a man of sterling integrity and keen business capacity, and was the possessor of a great many friends in the city and county, who will regret exceedingly to learn of his death. Mr. Fountain was a member of the Methodist church and a man of exemplary habits. Deceased was married to Miss Clara Scruton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Scruton, of this city, who is left to mourn the loss of a loving and thoughtful husband, and to her and the numerous other relatives, the sincere sympathy of many friends will be extended. Messrs. I. D. Herbert S. and Wilfred Scruton of this city are brothers-in-law of the deceased. He also leaves three brothers: Fleming at Peace River; Ed. at Lethbridge; Wm. at Detroit. Other relatives are: Millford Broad, Toronto; Phil Broad, Otterville; and Mrs. Brierly, Woodstock. The funeral is taking place this afternoon from Fairfield Plains at 1.30 and interment will take place at Mt. Hope cemetery at 4.30, where a short service will be held on arrival there. The pallbearers are: Henry Smith, Geo. Rutherford, and Ed Swazie. Chas. Reburn, John McEwen, and Lemon Parsley, all old friends and neighbors of the deceased.

Mrs. Howell Roy. The funeral of the late Mrs. Howell Roy took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her father, Mr. William Stewart, Cainsville to Mt. Hope cemetery. The services were largely attended, many coming from a distance. Rev. C. R. Morrow officiated, assisted by the Rev. J. Liddy. The pallbearers were brothers of the deceased. The following very beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held and to the sympathy extended: Pillay, husband and family; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roy, star and crescent, Mr. and Mrs. L. Howell and Jennie, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. Bernier, St. Louis. Sprays—Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Lamond, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hazelton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foulger, Mr. and Mrs. McCann, Gainsville Institute; Blacksmith and Shear Department of Cocksbutt Plow Co.; Gordon and Anson, Reba; Mr. and Mrs. George Wells, Mr. and Mrs. H. McAllister, Cainsville S.S., Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Young Mr. and Mrs. Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kingdom, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hazelton, Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. Avery, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roy, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Graydon, Knights of the Macabees.

PHILOSOPHICAL PHELIX AND THE WEATHER TORONTO, Oct. 27.—The weather conditions are much disturbed throughout the continent, and especially so in the Western Provinces, where a cold wave with snow is following an area of low pressure which is moving towards the Great Lakes. Rain has been general and heavy in the Maritime Provinces. Forecasts: Winds, shifting to north and north east, cloudy with local showers; Tuesday, colder and unsettled.

C. P. R. MEN GET PRIZES To have merited the distinction of having the most beautiful station garden on the whole Lake Superior division of the Canadian Pacific Railway is to have won the admiration of every stationmaster on the company's lines reaching from ocean to ocean. This honor has just been awarded to P. A. Nicol, station agent at Jack 175th, in winning the general superintendent's prize of twenty-five dollars. Since the C.P.R. inaugurated the system of beautifying the station houses, round-houses and section houses by supplying seeds and offering prizes for the best gardens, competition has become keen among the officials at various points of the system. Each year has brought forth better results until a perfection has been reached, and now the railway station, which was ever unsightly, has assumed the aspect of the Swiss chalet. Each property, by the individuality of its respective official, has its own unique characteristics, and is artistic and wholly beautiful. The other prize-winners of the Lake Superior division were as follows: W. Chandler, locomotive foreman, first prize for the best roundhouse garden; A. Drest, section foreman, Kama, first prize for the best section house garden; F. Zanna, section foreman, Craig, Ont., second prize for the section house garden; $5. W. J. Summers, agent, Cache Bay, first flower garden on district No. 1; $10; second prize $5, won by N. W. Vanvleet, agent, Clamford. District No. 3, first prize $10, won by P. Barr, agent at Pearl; second prize, $5, awarded to J. Nicol at Rossport.

THE PROBS TORONTO, Oct. 27.—The weather conditions are much disturbed throughout the continent, and especially so in the Western Provinces, where a cold wave with snow is following an area of low pressure which is moving towards the Great Lakes. Rain has been general and heavy in the Maritime Provinces. Forecasts: Winds, shifting to north and north east, cloudy with local showers; Tuesday, colder and unsettled.

Another One Brantford Said to be Likely to Have Another Play House. It was learned this morning that in all probability the old Y. M. C. A. building on Colborne St. will in a short time be turned into a theatre. The premises are to be remodelled and a first class up to date play house will be installed. There are plans being made for same and if the present deal, which is now pending, does not fall through, Brantford will soon have another place of amusement. Just whether the new theatre will be used as an Opera House to large attractions or a Vaudeville-Moving Picture House has so far not been decided upon. The site is a capital one for a theatre, situated as it is right in the heart of the business section of the city.

COURIER TROPHY WON IN A GREAT BATTLE

The All-Scots Were Victorious in 20 Minutes of Exciting Overtime Play --Y.M.C.A. Put Up a Great Fight but Lost--Mr. Brewster Presents Cup

In the game between the Y. M. C. A. and All Scots in the final of the Courier Cup, took place on Saturday afternoon at Agricultural Park, before about 300 spectators.

The Y. M. C. A. captain, E. Fisher, on the toss, and elected to play against the wind, but with the sun at his back.

The weather was ideal when the teams lined up and the crowd was loud in their applause when Kelly set the ball rolling. McGill kicked the Y. M. C. A. goal, but the All Scots, on the opening exchanges took place within the All Scots' area, but the defensive tackling of the Scotsmen kept the Y. M. C. A. from scoring.

From a goal kick, Sandy Stewart made the first opening for the Scots, taking the ball right down the wing and putting in a beautiful centre which Tidwell just got to, before Kelly could head into the net.

From now onward the game was very fast, both teams struggling hard to score. From a corner kick, Fisher placed the ball right in front of the goal, but McGill brought up a magnificent save and kicked away. Shortly afterwards he repeated his performance in saving a hard drive from Holland. Towards the end of the first half the Y. M. C. A. goal had a narrow escape, Kelly just missing with a tremendous drive. Half time was called without a score.

The second half opened up in a spirited fashion. Tidwell was again called upon to save a hard shot from Stewart, who was playing a great game. The Scots forced the Y. M. C. A. to concede a corner, and a very exciting incident took place. I. Morrow took the kick for the Scots and put the ball right in front of the goal, but Mason, getting his foot to it, cleared down the field with only the goal-keeper to beat. Morrow went right after him and brought down just inside the penalty area. The referee awarded a penalty and Mason taking the kick hit the cross bar and the ball bounced out. McGrattan cleared, the Y. M. C. A. missing the best chance of the day. The game was very fast, and both teams were playing fine football, but in spite of numerous attempts, neither team had scored when the whistle blew. In consequence, it was decided to play ten minutes extra. In the first few minutes the Scots had all the game and then it was that in a melee around the Y. M. C. A. goal, that J. Maich netted the ball, and so scored the only goal of the match. It was easy for the Scots to keep the Y. M. C. A. out for the remaining few minutes of the game and so the All Scots were the victors of one of this season's best games.

The goal-keeping of McGill was the best performance of the day, and both the Scots' backs are worthy of mention.

E. Roberts of the Y. M. C. A. at centre half, seemed to be the heart and soul of the team.

It was a great game, although the All Scots have won, the Y. M. C. A. have nothing to be ashamed of.

The teams lined up as follows: each All Scots—Goal, McGill; backs, Morrow, McGrattan; half backs, Mulloy, Anthony, Forgie; forward, Maich, Comachian, Taylor, Ramsay, Stewart.

Y. M. C. A.—Goal, Tiswell; backs, Mason, Holland; half back, Palmer, Roberts, Clark; forwards, Islay, Hamilton, Holland, Poynter, Fisher.

At the conclusion of the game, Mr. W. S. Brewster, M.P.P., who has been a frequent visitor at the football games this summer, presented the cup to Captain McGrattan, of the All Scots, on behalf of The Courier.

Mr. Brewster congratulated not only the winners, but the losers on their great game, the crowd which included a large number of the fair sex, cheering his remarks lustily. The proceedings were short but lively, everybody being happy at the finish. Cheers for the winners, the losers, The Courier and Mr. Brewster wound up a splendid sporting attraction, and one which for true sportsmanship would be hard to beat.

THE "COURIER" FOOTBALL CUP

REAL SPORTSMANSHIP IN BRANTFORD SOCCER

Great were the All-Scots on Saturday and great were the losers, the Y.M.C.A., in what constituted the best football game of the season. In 20 minutes' thrilling overtime play the All-Scots emerged victors 1-0. During the entire game it seemed as if inches and fractional parts thereof separated either one team or the other from victory at the goal posts. The Scots won when Johnny Maich made a beautiful kick and was hoisted to the shoulders of his comrades. While Maich distinguished himself, however, it is seldom that finer defence work has ever been seen in local soccer competition than that by Morrow, McGrattan and McGill for the All-Scots. The defence was impregnable, although there was many a Y.M.C.A. kick which looked extremely dangerous. On the other hand, the Y. M. C. A. seemed at several periods to have much the better of the play, and they kept the ball in Scottish territory to such an extent that there was nervousness among the Scot supporters. Fisher of the Y.M.C.A. played a particularly good game, and is undoubtedly one of the stars of the league. The Courier Cup has been won and lost for the first time. It was a magnificent battle, in which the true sportsmanship of the losing team and their splendid work were as apparent as the enthusiasm of the victors. And the victory was no fluke, neither was it sure until the whistle blew full time.

The Courier Trophy was won on Saturday by the All-Scots and presented, amid the cheers of winners and losers, by Mr. W. S. Brewster, M.P.P., to Captain McGrattan and his team of stalwarts.

LOCAL COLLEGIATE DEFEATED GALT IN GREAT RUGBY GAME

The Brantford Collegiate Institute rugby team in an inter-scholastic game with the Galt Collegiate Institute team in Galt on Saturday, defeated Galt 7 to 5. The Brantford boys deserved to win as they played a clean sportsmanlike game. This cannot be said of Galt. The local boys were well supported, over 400 going up, not including the team. About 400 attended the game. The winning of this game puts Galt out of the running.

First Quarter.
Shortly after the kick off, Livingstone, while running the ball back was knocked out by Galt, two Galt players sandwiching him. Wood for Brantford fell on the ball and the team lined up for a scrimmage. After that the ball was exchanged for several minutes. Galt got the ball near Brantford's line, and kicked for a touching goal. Shortly before the quarter was finished Brantford beat Galt back to their 20 yard line and Slemm kicked over the line. On a fumble behind the line by the Galt centre man, Macdonald fell on the ball for a touch and Slemm converted.

Second Quarter.
In this quarter play was close, the exchanges and punts being numerous. After ten minutes play, Galt kicked from Brantford's twenty yard line for a touching goal.

Third Quarter.
Five minutes after the commencement of this quarter Slemm tried for a touching goal but the ball went to the dead line, making the score 7-4.

Last Quarter.
The Galt team well knowing that if they lost this game they were a bunch of "dead ones" came a little stronger, and did not fail to include dirty tackling. A few minutes before time, Livingston, that handy little right back for Brantford was knocked out for ten minutes and was carried off the field, Sage replacing him. This was due to dirty tackling on the part of Marshall, a teacher in the Galt Collegiate Institute, and Kinsman, who has played long enough to know better. With 30 seconds to play the Galt centre half, from a too difficult position, kicked in an effort to tie the game, but failed. Slemm was brought down behind the lines for a point.

Referees, Brantford, Rev. A. E. Lavelle; Galt, Mr. Mitchell; Guelph, Major Jones.

DENEAU MANAGER FOR RED SOX, 1914

Following the letter of Rube Deneau to London fans on Saturday, complaining that he had been poorly treated by the London directors, it is regarded now as a sure thing that Deneau will be seen managing Brantford next year. Although President Nelson refused to make any announcement on Saturday, the Courier is in position to state authoritatively that Deneau will be in Brantford next year. As yet no negotiations have been completed between Deneau and the Brantford president, although the Rube is a free agent as far as his connection with London is concerned. It is hardly likely that, in view of the row between himself and London directors, that he will return to London. Local fans can expect something startling in the way of an announcement about the Red Sox in short order. The proposal to buy a whole team out in a New York State city is all off with the prospect of getting Rube Deneau here as manager. There is no need of going into Deneau's record. In three starts in the Canadian he has finished first once, second with London and in the second division once. As a player, general and all-round good fellow, Deneau is unbeatable.

Hockey

Galt will enter a junior O. H. A. team and probably an intermediate team. At a meeting the best field in years, the situation was thoroughly discussed and it was agreed that Galt could have two teams this winter. A committee composed of Messrs. T. T. Aitkin, James Fraser and Dr. Deans was appointed to look up the material available, and report back to a meeting to be called by the committee.

GAMBLED AWAY OVER $20,000 AGENT IS NOW UNDER ARREST

James H. Denison, Arrested at Park Hill, Says Defalcations Have Been Going on for Two Years—Covered His Shortage on Books of Massey-Harris Co.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—Arrested by the Chief Constable of Park Hill, Ont., at the request of the Toronto police on a warrant charging him with the theft of $335 from the Massey-Harris Company where he has been employed as an accountant for the past eighteen years, Jas. H. Denison, 29 Glenwood Avenue, North Toronto, was brought to the city Saturday night by Detective Young. When closely questioned by the police Denison admitted that his defalcations covered a period of two years and amounted to nearly $20,000.

Denison has been a trusted employee of the company and for some time has been going through Ontario collecting sums of money from the different agencies of his firm. Recently the company suspected that Denison had been spending money much in excess of his salary and after hurriedly going through his books, found that their suspicions were well grounded. The warrant was issued for his arrest, and, knowing that he would be in Park Hill on Friday, the police notified the chief constable of the town to arrest him. The constable went to the hotel where Denison was staying and told him that he was wanted by the Toronto police although he did not place him under arrest. Denison, had he wished to do so, could have fled and evaded the police successfully. Later in the day the officials of the Massey-Harris Company received word from the Park Hill "chief" that their employee was in there and if they wanted him to come after him.

Learning on Saturday that the constable had neglected to arrest the man they instructed him to do so by wire. Denison says that during the last two years that he has taken $20,000 belonging to the company and that he has been successful in hiding the shortage in his books. The money he claims to have lost in certain forms of gambling.

Denison told the police that he had proposed coming to Toronto soon to make known to the company his defalcations and for this reason when he had not been arrested Friday afternoon he had not attempted to evade the police.

PURGATION OF SIN BEYOND THE GRAVE

Striking Sermon Delivered at the Grand Opera House by Pastor Emerson.

Many turned out yesterday afternoon to hear Pastor J. F. Emerson, of Minneapolis, discuss what lies "Beyond the Grave." Interest ran high throughout his entire discourse, which lasted for over an hour. The lecture covered much of the Scriptures from Genesis to Revelation. The pastor was very emphatic in his contention that there is an opportunity for purgation from sin beyond the grave. He said that the scriptures as a whole supported this thought, "Every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that he is God." Since this has never yet taken place with the great majority of mankind its fulfillment must be future; beyond the grave many knees will bow, which have never bowed before. The Lord is that true Light, "which lighteth every man that cometh into the world." The billions not enlightened on this side of the grave must be enlightened on the other side, "for God's Word is false. 'If I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me.' Surely the Lord has not drawn all men unto Him on this side of the grave; it must be beyond the grave where these words will be fulfilled, said the speaker.

Some might object, quoting the text: "Now is the day of salvation, now is the acceptable time," etc. But this, he said, reads a little differently in the language in which it was first written. Instead of reading "Now is the day," as does the English, the Hebrew reads, "Now is a day," implying that there is another day of salvation, and another acceptable time. These alleged blunders in translation, made several years ago, had caused many otherwise well thinking people to suppose that God is accepting a few now who chance to hear of Christ in this the only day of salvation, and that he will consign all the rest of the vast majority of His creatures to a hell of fire and brimstone to be tortured forever. Recently, however, all Christian people are awakening more and more to the real teachings of the Bible, and to a deeper appreciation of the fact that "God is Love."

Two Judgment Days Mr. Emerson also contended that there were two judgment days, corresponding to the two days of salvation, arguing that if there are two distinct periods of salvation, there must of necessity be two separate days of judgment. He quoted from the scriptures to show that if "the saints shall judge the world" (1 Cor. 6:2), then it is evident that the judgment day of the saints must precede the day of judgment of the world.

Two Resurrections. The speaker stated that the subject of the Resurrection is sometimes misunderstood; that there are in fact two Resurrections. "Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection."—Rev. 20:6. "There shall be resurrection both of the just and the unjust."

Our Lord referred to these two resurrections when He said: "Marvel not at this for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth; they that have done good unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation."—John 5:28, 29. The Revised version translates it, "unto the resurrection of judgment," showing that the Church will in the first resurrection be immediately rewarded with full, perfect life, while the world will through a process of judgments be gradually lifted up out of degradation, gradually resurrected to the plane of perfect human life once held by father Adam.

Since Christ has given himself "a ransom for all, to be testified in due time," it must of necessity, he said, follow that all will "come unto the knowledge of the Truth."—Tim. 2:4, 6. The pastor spoke with conviction and quoted Scripture to support every point, concluding with an appeal to all thinking Christians to study their Bibles with more care, and with renewed energy.

LOFTY SCHEME OF EARL GREY

Outline of Plan in London as Issued by Brant Historical Society.

(Issued by the Brantford Historical Association.) Lord Grey's illustrated book of Aldwych stie; with its accompanying booklet of British press notices, occupies an area of two and one half acres. It lies midway between St. Paul's Cathedral and Westminster Abbey, in the heart of London, and on this site Lord Grey proposes to erect a building which will serve as an official and commercial centre for the overseas governments, and a social home for the people of the different dominions while in London.

On viewing the site and its surroundings, under the first impression one stands appalled at the greatness of the undertaking; the mind refuses to grasp the scheme in all its comprehensiveness, but after a brief study of the British press notices, the project at once becomes clear, plain and practicable.

The promoters have approached and presented the matter from a broad altruistic, humanitarian standpoint, with a strong appeal to the instincts in human nature. The British press-viewing the project from an Imperial standpoint, have truly forecast it to be a symbol, a centre, and a creative power of Empire; viewing it from a business standpoint, they have left it to the consideration of the people of the different overseas dominions; and after a careful consideration of the matter, as an overseas individual or community, one is constrained to say, that were this project put forth by some stock seller, land speculator, or dividend seeker, it would seem that it would appeal so strongly to the business instincts of men, that its accomplishment would be a mere matter of detail. The several governments would express a lasting gratitude to the promoters for the solution of so grave and weighty a question, and the people would pay the dividends; but because the question has been approached from a broad Imperial standpoint it will, perhaps, but make the practical, everyday Canadian say: "What do imagination and Empire mean to us? What will they do for us?" And if the project will make the Canadian answer this question, then, perhaps, it will serve, one of the greatest purposes; and if it will bring the Canadian to a full realization of the question, in its true sense, then Government Centre, for his part, will become a spontaneous assurance.

It is a big question to answer. Too big for small space! The British press have said, that imagination has played an important part in the upbuilding of the Empire. It has done more. It has played a great part in the making of the world. Thought made the world and imagination made it beautiful. Thought and imagination gave the world the literature of the Orient, the poet prince of philosophy and his ideal Kingdom, the art of Greece and the laws of Rome, which have become the foundation of all modern thought, worship, works and forms of government. Alexander's empire fell, but Thought and Imagination were immortal, and fled, and in the renaissance poets of the Elizabethan age, caused the discovery of the New World, and the foundation of England's Empire was laid. Statesmen put on the poet's mantle. Chatham conquered and Beaconsfield, the apostle of authority, placed the crown of India upon the Queen's head and England became an Empire. There were those who were disposed to say that the Crown was but a show-symbol, a tiara of tinsel, and yet it made, and still makes possible the evolution of India from darkness into light, a bloodless revolution, a new hope, and a new life to heathen millions. And in fact we have found the secret of Empire. Authority is the highest and greatest earthly good, when it rules hand in hand with justice—as England has ever ruled. Self-preservation and self-ennoblement are instincts and desires in human nature. Justice preserves life; it ennobles self; it creates that feeling of security which makes a man's cottage his castle, and it enables one to live the best life possible. Justice can only be where there is authority and authority is the fruit of Empire.

But Empire has its evils. There was tinsel in the Empire of Beaconsfield; Mammon had become England's god and rank too often, bit the guinea stamp. There was danger, when that prince of profound philosophy Carlyle, the greatest Imperialist of his age, appeared and stripped England of all its show and shams and man stepped forth once more as God made him, without one ounce of tinsel. Then the poet clothed him. No doubt the real Castle of Camelot was made of wattle and daub, but what would England be, without the Hall which Merlin built—Imagination? The Idylls of the King have cast a glory over England which have made England beautiful. And England loves to think that Camelot's King has come again—we speak not of the living. Living they stand powers behind the throne.

Lord Rosebery has spoken of the practical mystic, that most formidable of all combinations. The mystic creates the useful and clothes it in the beautiful. The beautiful in Lord Grey's scheme is, that it has in it all the essentials of a true democracy. It embraces only the man-kings of Carlyle. By-gone Empires have had their mansions of marble and gold, symbols of conquest and glory, but this building will stand unique in the world's history, as having its basis deep down in the needs of common humanity. Its uses will aid in forming the ideals of a nation. Character grows out of ideals, conditions out of character. Character and constitutions are the greatest battlefields a nation can build. Canadian character and constitutions are in the formative stage. Loyalty is a sort of religious instinct, a faith in the good deeds of great men. A good deed raises all humanity to its level, and in this scheme, we can see an inspiration and a creative power to our unit of Empire—a Canadian constitutional ritual; the ritual that made England great; the creed of king, noble and man.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR She Mixed Sulphur With it to Restore Color, Gloss, Thickness. Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, silver and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Restorer," thus avoiding a lot of muss. While wavy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge and soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. Agent George Bowles.

CANADIAN OFFICERS ARE HOME FROM MANOEUVRES IN BRITAIN

Hon. Sam. Hughes Said He Found Sentiment of Germans Amicable Toward the English—Officers to Lecture on Military Subjects Concerning Recent Manoeuvres.

OTTAWA, Oct. 27.—Col. the Hon. Sam. Hughes, who has been in Great Britain and the Continent for a couple of months, accompanied by a detachment of Canadian militia officers, returned to Ottawa yesterday. The party witnessed the British army manoeuvres, and also those of the Swiss and French armies.

"Our reception" stated the Minister of Militia in an interview, "was the embodiment of kindness. While no Canadian officers except myself went to Germany, I found there a kindly feeling towards Canada and an amicable sentiment towards Great Britain.

The effect of the trip upon the Canadian officers has been inestimable. They give lectures in their different localities on the manoeuvres, and the lessons they have learned, but will be careful to avoid comparisons between the armies of different nations. Much interest has been created in Britain with regard to affairs of the Canadian militia, and other dominions are coming into line with in sending over officers to the manoeuvres."

Col. Hughes announced that next Summer the system of interchange of officers will be continued. Prince Alexander of Teck, brother of the Queen, will likely take command of a cavalry brigade at Petawawa, though his coming is not yet definite. It is quite probable also that Lord Dundonald, who received an ovation from the Canadian contingent, will visit Canada unofficially next Summer. As a result of the Minister's statement a number of matters are the subject of negotiation with the War office. They include the adjustment of pensions to be paid by Canada for British officers serving here. It is also proposed to have colonial representatives on boards for the examination of officers.
