

THE LIBERAL DEFEAT.

The crisis in Great Britain has come sooner than was anticipated. It has been for a long time seen that the Government was doomed, but it was expected to drag out a sickly and feeble existence some weeks, or perhaps months, longer. Its majority had dwindled to such an extent that it was never sure of being sustained in the House of Commons, and its moral strength in the country seems to have diminished in even a greater proportion than its numerical strength in the legislature. The bye-elections have gone against the Liberals almost continuously for some time. Where they have not lost a seat their man has been returned by an ominously diminished majority. Then the divisions amongst themselves have weakened them in the country, as well as in the House. When it was known that they could not count upon a solid Irish contingent, and when there were many and very plain indications that the English and the Scotch supporters of the Government were uneasy and discontented, the opinion became general that the defeat of the Government was only a question of a few days, more or less. Latterly it came to be believed that Mr. Gladstone was no longer in sympathy with the Government, and that belief deprived them of the little prestige they had remaining. Mr. Gladstone's name has been to the Liberals for some time past a tower of strength; deprived of his countenance they are very poor indeed.

It is this loss of moral strength that makes the defeat of Friday so very disastrous. If the Liberals felt themselves strong in the country they would be apt to say that their opponents had obtained on the question of the reduction of the war secretary's salary a snap verdict, and they would refuse to accept the defeat as final. And there would be some reason for the contention. Half the members were not present when the vote was taken, and the matter voted upon was one of comparatively small importance. But in its present debilitated condition a blow that in other circumstances would do it but little harm, may, and probably will, prove fatal.

It is evident that the Liberals as a party are greatly disheartened and are not in a position to appeal to the country. According to present appearances their defeat is certain. They are sure to be beaten, and the only question with them at present is, how badly? There will be a large majority against them in England, Scotland appears to be disgusted with Liberal rule, Wales will perhaps give them a majority, but they can no longer depend upon carrying eighty odd seats in Ireland. It is admitted that there will be a majority against them, and as many read the signs of the times that majority will be very large. It is hard to see how the Liberals can make a good fight. They will be depressed by the conviction that the country is against them. The question of Home Rule for Ireland is not popular in Great Britain, and the question of the abolition of the House of Lords does not seem to be a burning one even among the Liberals themselves. They, therefore, go to the country without a cry, without prestige, and, if Mr. Gladstone's strength is not more than human, without a leader.

FREE-TRADERS TESTED.

The free trade principles of the free traders of Cape Colony were not able to stand what does not appear to be a very severe strain. Enterprising Australians, not long ago, began to send meat to Cape Colony. The Australian meat was sold in the Cape market at a price with which the Cape farmers and graziers declared they could not compete. To allay the discontent that had arisen the Legislature imposed a duty of two pence a pound on preserved and salted meats. But the Australians were not to be balked by this device. They began to send frozen meat, on which there was no duty, to Cape Colony. On this the cattle raisers and sheep farmers of the Cape set up a loud outcry. The cheap Australian mutton drove Cape mutton out of the market. No one would pay a high price for Cape mutton when he could get Australian mutton for less than half the money. Would the Government see the Cape graziers ruined in order to enrich those of Australia? There was no use in arguing against what was known to be a stern fact. Mutton could not be raised at the Cape for the price at which Australians were prepared to supply the Cape market. The free trade ministers and the free trade members of the Legislature were obliged to succumb to outside pressure. An important native industry must not be sacrificed in order that the inhabitants of the towns might get cheap mutton and other meat. A prohibitive duty was, with the consent of men who were theoretically free traders, imposed on frozen meat. "Sir Gordon Sprigg, who is theoretically a free trader, justified the action of the Cape Government on the ground that the farmers of the colony would be ruined if Australian meat were suffered to come in free, and the revenue would consequently suffer. Mr. Rhodes and other members of the Government appear to have acquiesced in this view, and in the preliminary debate, of which alone the full account has reached this country, only one member of the Assembly, Mr. Tamplin, was found to defend the theory of free trade and cheap food. Mr. Rhodes frankly owned himself to be an opportunist in this matter, and attributes his ability to open the markets of South Africa to the manufacturers of Great Britain largely to the fact that there are no manufacturing interests to compete with in South Africa."

It is evident, therefore, that in South Africa, as well as in Canada, the United States and the great majority of civilized nations, abstract theories of free trade, however logical they may be, must give way to what the majority of the people know and feel to be their interests. "Self-preservation is the first law of nature" holds good in trade as well as in everything else.

SHORT SIGHTED.

The organ of the Opposition here takes a very peculiar position on the Manitoba school question. It supposes that the Legislature of Manitoba is required by the remedial order to establish separate schools in the Province and to have no voice in the regulation of those schools or in the way in which the public money expended on them is to be spent. Our contemporary of course does not quote the remedial order. It is very questionable whether the writer of such rubbish ever read that order. When it shows from the terms of the order that the Government is to have no control over the schools it establishes, it may expect reasonable people to believe what it asserts, but not until then. Separate schools exist in Ontario, but they are regulated and inspected by Government. And if Manitoba established a system similar to that of Ontario, it is certain it would be held, both by the Dominion Government and the Roman Catholics of the Dominion, to have complied with the terms of the remedial order. The Government of Manitoba knows this very well, for although it objects to the separate schools because those in operation in the Province previous to 1890 were ineffective and badly managed, it does not offer to establish a system which will be so regulated that it will be effective. Why has it not done this? Simply because the Leader of the Government and his colleagues know that the power to regulate and supervise the schools is necessarily involved in the power to establish them, and that if they consented to have a law enacted to establish separate schools to be controlled in all things secular by the Government, they would be immediately taken at their word. This is precisely what the intelligent men of the minority want, and the stricter the supervision, and the more efficient the schools the better they will be pleased.

But it is easy to perceive that the Times wants to see the school difficulty intensified. It is evidently too shallow to see that the Opposition are, as regards this question, in precisely the same position as the Government. The crisis that would cause the breaking up of the Conservative party on this question would effectually prevent the accession to power of the Liberal party as it is at present organized.

A HOPELESS TASK.

The Japanese in attempting to reform Korea have a big contract in hand. The country has been misgoverned so long that society in it is rotten from top to bottom. The chief agent of political change in the country appears to be murder. When a public man is for any cause obnoxious to the powers that be he is secretly put out of the way as speedily as possible. The Vice Minister of Justice stood in the way of the abolition of a rising man and he was assassinated. As just now reform is the order of the day in Korea an inquiry was made into the murder and it appeared that the Tal-Wen-Kun, an old and experienced statesman, was implicated in the bad business. "No body imagined that the motive of the crime," writes one well acquainted with Korean methods, "lay deeper than the old statesman's desire to clear from his path an obstructive and inconveniently influential official." The inquiries into this murder brought to light a conspiracy to overturn the whole Government. The plot was a cunning and a complicated one, and the designs of the plotters were to be carried out by fostering rebellion. The discovery led to the fall in disgrace of the Tal-Wen-Kun, but that is but a very short step in the reforms that must be made before Korea becomes a country fit for civilized men to live in peace and security. "The whole of officialdom," we are told, "seems to be honeycombed with corruption and crime." The country is in a miserable condition. In the provinces which were lately the seat of rebellion "the charred ruins of houses and the corpses of men and women are seen everywhere. Sometimes throughout miles of country no living thing remains. Yes, according to Japanese reports, the local officials ply their trade of merciless oppression as relentlessly as ever. Not only are they indifferent to the sufferings of the destitute but they make wholesale arrests of innocent men on charges of complicity with the Tonghak (the rebel), the sole object being to extort money. In every local prison from fifty to seventy of such victims are said to be incarcerated, and in some districts so many of the inhabitants are confined that the rice harvested last autumn remains still unharvested and lies stored in the galleries. Small wonder that mob agitation is beginning to add another evil feature to the situation."

The writer of the letter of which the above is an extract says that the dimensions of the task that Japan has undertaken grow more formidable the more closely it is studied. It is to be regretted for the sake of humanity that the Japanese were not permitted to take complete possession of Korea. It is clear that it was theirs by right of conquest, and if it were not for foreign intervention it would have become virtually if not actually part of the Empire of Japan. If the country were under Japanese rule, it would no doubt in a short time be very greatly improved. The Japanese have demonstrated that they possess great administrative ability, and they have also shown that they know how to exercise authority in such a way as to promote the general welfare.

WELL ANSWERED.

Commenting on the criticisms of the Grits, who waste their time in trying to belittle Sir John Macdonald, the Montreal Gazette says:

The new crop of critics who deny Sir John Macdonald's title to greatness are neither consistent nor wise in their generation. If proof of Sir John's capacity were wanted it would be found in the critics' tributes to the dependences of the men he has overthrown. Taking Confederation as the starting point, it is seen that he has met and defeated Mr. Mackenzie, who, if sometimes mistaken, was undoubtedly a good man in every good sense of the term. Then Sir John tackled that heaven-sent orator and statesman, and intriguer and wobbler, Mr. Edward Blake; and Mr. Blake went down, and away. Sir John fought with Mr. Laurier, who (always taking the declarations of Sir John Macdonald's opponents) is as an orator and expounder inferior, if to anyone, only to his predecessor, Mr. Blake, and who possesses, moreover, untried magnetism and the power of winning men's hearts. And Mr. Laurier was beaten as Mr. Blake had been.

E. M. JOHNSON

37 Government Street, Corner of Broughton.

ESTABLISHED 1879.

Real Estate Agent, Conveyancer and Notary Public

Loans Effected, Rents and Income Collected, Deeds Prepared, Etc., Etc.

FOR SALE--20,000 ACRES FARMING LAND

In contiguous Blocks; Beautifully watered; forming one of the finest estates in the Province; house and farm buildings, 2000 cattle; 50 to 80 horses; easy approach; good roads; railways projected to property and the estate is in close proximity to some of the best developed, most promising gold mines in the District. The price of the whole is extremely moderate. Principals only treated with.

FOR SALE---A 1388-ACRE FARM

About 1000 Acres of which is Ploughable Prairie of First-class Quality.

- 120 Head Cattle 1 pedigree Hereford Bull.
12 Horses.
Ploughs, Harrows, Reapers, Wagon, sleds and usual Farm Implements.
Double Harness, Harness, Bull Chains, Saddles (adies and gent's), Bridles, etc.
Blacksmiths' Bellows, Anvil and Tools and Carpenters' Tools.
9-Room House (shingle roofed; Stable for 10 horses, with hay loft above; Stone Roothouse, Store Buildings, Dairy, Cow Sheds, etc., etc.
7 Miles (about) Standing Fences, in good order; Cornalls, &c.
Small Lot Household Furniture, Store and Pipes, Crockery, etc., etc.

These localities are rapidly settling up and as farm land is limited great inducement is offered to any person or corporation having capital and knowledge necessary to develop and work these estates. A store, hotel and blacksmith shop could be run in connection with the farm.

P. O. BOX 188.

This Property is within easy distance of many of the most important Gold, Silver and Coal Mines in West Kootenay. The soil is the best bottom land, and the locality is one of the few places in the Province where so large a piece of good farmland can be found in one block. A river runs through the property, and rainbow trout are plentiful and afford capital sport. Deer abound in considerable numbers. Bear, Wolf, Coyote and other large game are to be found in the hills. There are two creeks recorded and belonging to the estate, one flows all the year round. Limestone and brick clay are to be had in the valley.
The Gattle are well bred; a much larger herd could be farmed with the place. The bunch grass on the hills in the vicinity covers many thousands of acres, and is available to the few land owners in the valley.
The Climate is not severe, the station was for many years the winter quarters of the H. B. Co.'s pack trains.
The Title is Crown Grant. Immediate possession can be given.
The South West Kootenay and Osoyoos Divisions of Yale District, British Columbia, judging from the actual ore products of the mines to date, are destined in the next year or two to be the richest and most important mineral centres in the world.

A store, hotel and blacksmith shop could be run in connection with the farm.

TELEPHONE NO. 74.

A COMPARISON.

The following description of "two grand British cruisers," and the comparison between them and the two most formidable cruisers of the United States navy are taken from an American newspaper, the New York Commercial Advertiser:

The details in regard to the dimensions, horse-power and armament of England's two most formidable cruisers, the Powerful and the Terrible, have just been made public. Americans have reason to take an especial interest in these vessels, for they were constructed with the avowed object of outclassing these famous twin-commerce destroyers of the white navy, the Columbia and the Minneapolis.

SCHOOL TRUSTEE CAUCUSING.

To THE EDITOR:—I read with considerable interest Mr. Marchant's explanation of the school trustee caucusing in the Times of the 18th instant; it is refreshing to see the bold front he puts on to one of the most presumptuous and underhanded transactions that could be perpetrated by public servants.

For Victoria West I isolated from other parts of the city and isolated alike neglected by the municipal authorities and the school board, seems to be the bone of contention this time. To her seems to be attributed this general stir about in school matters, and the proposed change all round of the teaching staff of the city, and in order that there may be no cause for jealousy amongst the teachers, Mr. Marchant and his fellow conspirators in their wisdom have decreed that there shall be a general post, irrespective of good or evil that may accrue, or of the wishes of the electors.

Mr. Marchant tells us that as a board of trustees they have dealt unjustly towards the Victoria West school by "removing excellent teachers and replacing them by those having little or no experience"; he might go a step farther and say that he and his followers have made the Victoria West school, in some instances, a dumping ground for teachers of indifferent record from the other parts of the city, and that the school board and the trustees are anxious to promote his pet scheme of labor where "the work is easier and the remuneration equal." He also declares to a subordinate position in another school that he may be better able to "find a suitable sphere for his ability."

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

To THE EDITOR:—It is not the duty of the sanitary authorities to have complete disinfecting appliances always ready for those who require to make use of them. In conversation I learned yesterday that a well-known medical practitioner recently visited the sanitary office in company with the medical health officer, who informed him that the bath and all the appointments were at his disposal. A policeman who accompanied them swept up the room—which was in a very disordered condition—and also lit the fire, thus enabling the medical man to get the bath of which he was in need.

Another day the Doctor went to the place, but found that the bathroom was as he had left it, and neither kindling nor fuel were in sight. On explaining to the sanitary officer who was on the premises what he required, he was informed that he could light the fire and get his own hot water, but that it was a matter with which the sanitary officer had nothing to do.

Now, Sir, if the sanitary officer in whose headquarters the bath is situated has nothing to do with providing for the disinfecting of medical men who have no desire to carry disease either in their persons or in their clothing, who may I ask is responsible—if anyone—for providing such important sanitary precautions. This subject is one to which the city fathers should give consideration.

CITIZEN.

WELL ANSWERED.

Commenting on the criticisms of the Grits, who waste their time in trying to belittle Sir John Macdonald, the Montreal Gazette says:

The new crop of critics who deny Sir John Macdonald's title to greatness are neither consistent nor wise in their generation. If proof of Sir John's capacity were wanted it would be found in the critics' tributes to the dependences of the men he has overthrown. Taking Confederation as the starting point, it is seen that he has met and defeated Mr. Mackenzie, who, if sometimes mistaken, was undoubtedly a good man in every good sense of the term. Then Sir John tackled that heaven-sent orator and statesman, and intriguer and wobbler, Mr. Edward Blake; and Mr. Blake went down, and away. Sir John fought with Mr. Laurier, who (always taking the declarations of Sir John Macdonald's opponents) is as an orator and expounder inferior, if to anyone, only to his predecessor, Mr. Blake, and who possesses, moreover, untried magnetism and the power of winning men's hearts. And Mr. Laurier was beaten as Mr. Blake had been.

The details in regard to the dimensions, horse-power and armament of England's two most formidable cruisers, the Powerful and the Terrible, have just been made public. Americans have reason to take an especial interest in these vessels, for they were constructed with the avowed object of outclassing these famous twin-commerce destroyers of the white navy, the Columbia and the Minneapolis.

The details in regard to the dimensions, horse-power and armament of England's two most formidable cruisers, the Powerful and the Terrible, have just been made public. Americans have reason to take an especial interest in these vessels, for they were constructed with the avowed object of outclassing these famous twin-commerce destroyers of the white navy, the Columbia and the Minneapolis.

NEW

Dominion

Agricultural

Vancouver

the police

evidence

suspended

before the

Table

Christie's

Army, at

The of

one were covered in

The of

very hard

From Ind

visitors f

Yanov

genera

outward

sect, is a

of naval

Glasgow

Orient to

system of

C. C. a

Colonist

Macdonal

Manitoba

quintess

ence for

Manitoba

the butte

Manitoba

butter is

cents, an

possible

will leave

The sha operative

It seems be start

are consid

a paper d

In spite

clean-up in, is, s

tion, very hours' run ounces of

was at th

this fact

clean-up

is pectd.

J. Smith

consist

Superint

WESTMI

ston has

Mr. B.

spector, i trict. So

The ostle

dillon and on the par

farms in

of

Before r

Martin, ch

works, rep

country to

cheese ther

crop. Th

are in fine

to Kooten

New W

one canner

the Fraser

The run

is usually in 1894

which 1894

the middle nearly com

and in anal

saying his last

The best start a dra

Persons

with the re

in the past

is fine

half of the Suit was t

was tuesday.

The man will be held has of late

ment of a great exten

be up to th

At an inf

all the follo

upon condition of

be struck o

dice to any

that his ore

with for the

George A.

cleared mud

from time

was again

Morley at looked for a meantime

is

A house

York was

The conten

The tend

of a drill

tract price

ditions of

Ald. Bain

them.

Andrew

been arrest

quarter-bre

named Ag

H. P. Ba

Magistrate

for eight d

NANAIMO

called by th

District Ho

shew, to

John Ho

along the

and on the five young

passing the

bolled. T

The Colonist.

FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1895.

A SERIOUS CRISIS.

It is not difficult to see that there is at present a very important crisis in the affairs of the Dominion. The refusal of the Manitoba Legislature to act in accordance with the remedial order has placed both political parties in an extremely difficult position.

Those who sympathize with the Manitoba minority, particularly the men who represent the province of Quebec, independently of party, evidently intend to insist upon the power which it is invested by the constitution to enact a law which will remedy the grievance of which that minority complains.

It is not generally understood that some of the provinces are not free to enact such laws as the majority of their inhabitants consider best suited to their several circumstances.

It has also been decided that if separate schools are established in a province after it has entered the Dominion they cannot be abolished if the minority objects.

The first school law enacted in Manitoba after it became a province established separate schools. That law was in force nineteen years, when it was repealed and the denominational or separate schools abolished.

The minority in Manitoba, which happens to be Roman Catholic, protested against being deprived of the privileges it had enjoyed so long, and tried to recover them. The constitutionality of the law depriving the Roman Catholics of their schools was tested in the courts.

The United States, if the Government proposes to carry out the Monroe doctrine as it is interpreted by some patriotic journalists, will have plenty to do. Its pretences the South and Central American republics are not very scrupulous in their dealings with European nations.

Great Britain has a boundary dispute with Venezuela which these same Monroe doctrine jingoes have undertaken to settle, but it does not appear that they have succeeded in rousing the British lion from his comfortable doze.

It is generally supposed that Dr. Goldwin Smith leans to the Liberal side in Dominion politics. He was not long ago the oracle, and the Grits were, from the leader downward, willing to swear by him.

devoutly to be hoped that the leading men of the Dominion will set the example of toleration and generous forbearance and that the people themselves will see that the time has come when the welfare of the country depends upon their meeting those with whom they differ in such a way as will facilitate a fair and reasonable settlement of this very delicate and very difficult subject.

AN ADVOCATE OF PEACE.

The speech which the Emperor of Germany delivered at Hamburg on Wednesday must be comforting and reassuring to the people of the whole of Europe.

The great enterprise whose completion he was celebrating with such pomp and ceremony and with such rejoicing is a work of peace. It is intended to facilitate communication and to promote trade, and other nations will in all probability receive as much or nearly as much benefit from it as Germany itself.

The great enterprise whose completion he was celebrating with such pomp and ceremony and with such rejoicing is a work of peace. It is intended to facilitate communication and to promote trade, and other nations will in all probability receive as much or nearly as much benefit from it as Germany itself.

TROUBLESOME PROTEGES.

The United States, if the Government proposes to carry out the Monroe doctrine as it is interpreted by some patriotic journalists, will have plenty to do. Its pretences the South and Central American republics are not very scrupulous in their dealings with European nations.

Great Britain has a boundary dispute with Venezuela which these same Monroe doctrine jingoes have undertaken to settle, but it does not appear that they have succeeded in rousing the British lion from his comfortable doze.

It is generally supposed that Dr. Goldwin Smith leans to the Liberal side in Dominion politics. He was not long ago the oracle, and the Grits were, from the leader downward, willing to swear by him.

Great Britain has a boundary dispute with Venezuela which these same Monroe doctrine jingoes have undertaken to settle, but it does not appear that they have succeeded in rousing the British lion from his comfortable doze.

It is generally supposed that Dr. Goldwin Smith leans to the Liberal side in Dominion politics. He was not long ago the oracle, and the Grits were, from the leader downward, willing to swear by him.

Great Britain has a boundary dispute with Venezuela which these same Monroe doctrine jingoes have undertaken to settle, but it does not appear that they have succeeded in rousing the British lion from his comfortable doze.

which all were deeply interested, were being agitated. "Then you do not consider the trade question of sufficient importance?"

The newspapers of the East treat "Mr. Greenway's reply" with moderation and good temper. The point at which disagreement is expressed has reference to the view that the Federal power has proposed that the educational institutions of 1890 be restored.

WHAT IS THOUGHT OF THE REPLY.

The newspapers of the East treat "Mr. Greenway's reply" with moderation and good temper. The point at which disagreement is expressed has reference to the view that the Federal power has proposed that the educational institutions of 1890 be restored.

But it requires a strained interpretation of the Dominion constitution to reach the conclusion that Manitoba has been asked to re-establish inefficiency where inefficiency previously existed.

The Winnipeg "Nor" Western puts the same points very strongly. It says: "If Ministers were not in a dilemma they would surely not have thought it necessary to set out with an excuse for their course which is so obviously manufactured for the purpose and ends at a dead end."

AN INTERESTING EXPERIMENT.

The plan of relieving the unemployed by giving them plots of land to cultivate has proved very successful in Detroit. To the Mayor of that city, Hazen S. Pingree, belongs the honor of devising that ingenious mode of assisting the self-respecting poor, and his success has encouraged others to follow his example.

It was in the spring of 1894 that it occurred to Mayor Pingree to utilize the idle lands in the outskirts of the city for cultivation by the poor in order to raise food for themselves. A large area of land was placed at his disposal by its benevolent and public-spirited owners.

At the Cedar Hill schoolhouse last evening a very successful strawberry and ice cream social was given in aid of St. Luke's church. The hall was very prettily decorated and reflected credit on the ladies who had charge of the work.

YESTERDAY afternoon the Board of Trade Building Association held their annual meeting, there being present Messrs. E. Crow Baker, vice-president (in the chair), C. E. Renouf, J. R. Smith, James Hutchingson, J. G. W. Kay, G. Leiser, R. P. Rithet, L. Pither, G. Leiser, E. Pearson, T. M. Henderson, W. R. Wilson, J. Sehl, J. Nicholas, A. B. Gray and the secretary, Mr. E. Worsley.

A TRAGEDY of caribou acid administered by mistake nearly terminated the life of the little four year old son of Mr. William Angus on Wednesday night. Intending to give the child, who was not well, a dose of medicine that he had prepared for him, his mother by mistake poured out a teaspoonful of caribou acid from a bottle which closely resembled the medicine bottle.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

remedial order without saying why or wherefore, than to have given as a reason for their refusal what a very little examination shows is no reason at all, and what, even as a pretext, cannot be said to be very plausible.

A CONTRAST.

The moderation of the reply of the Manitoba Legislature to the remedial order is universally commended. The thoughtful reader cannot help being struck with the difference between it and the philippic that have been written and uttered by the self-constituted champions of the majority in Manitoba.

THE promotion examinations are now being held in all the city schools, having commenced Wednesday. The various principals have charge of the work and the results will be announced on Monday.

THE British Whig, of Kingston, Ont., celebrated the first anniversary of the other day by issuing a special number, most profusely and artistically illustrated, picturing the manufacturing and business interests, the social and educational life, the sporting and picturesque world of which it is the centre.

W. J. WALTERS and J. A. Van Bokkelen of Port Townsend came over on the Kingston last evening to arrange for an excursion to that city on July 4, when a gentlemen celebration will be given.

THE "OLSEN" IS LOST.

Somewhere in the locality of Hakodate, Japan, the Victoria sailing schooner Roese Olsen, which left here in command of Capt. A. E. Whidden on the 28th of December last, is a total wreck, she being the second of the home fleet lost this year.

YESTERDAY afternoon the Board of Trade Building Association held their annual meeting, there being present Messrs. E. Crow Baker, vice-president (in the chair), C. E. Renouf, J. R. Smith, James Hutchingson, J. G. W. Kay, G. Leiser, R. P. Rithet, L. Pither, G. Leiser, E. Pearson, T. M. Henderson, W. R. Wilson, J. Sehl, J. Nicholas, A. B. Gray and the secretary, Mr. E. Worsley.

A TRAGEDY of caribou acid administered by mistake nearly terminated the life of the little four year old son of Mr. William Angus on Wednesday night. Intending to give the child, who was not well, a dose of medicine that he had prepared for him, his mother by mistake poured out a teaspoonful of caribou acid from a bottle which closely resembled the medicine bottle.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

THE CITY.

HARRY HUTNER, found guilty on Wednesday at Esquimaux of a series of assaults was yesterday sentenced by Mr. Baynes Reed to pay a fine of $50, and was bound over to keep the peace for twelve months.

THE garden fete at Cloverdale on July 3, in aid of St. Luke's church, is to be under the patronage and presence of His Honor, the Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. Dowling, the Hon. Chief Justice and Mrs. Davis and General and Mrs. Roberts.

MR. ALFRED ROBER, secretary of the Texada Gold and Silver Mining Company, has written to the COLONIST to say that the report that that company has bonded claims held by it to an Eastern syndicate is entirely without foundation, so far as the said syndicate is concerned.

A VERY interesting parlor social was given at the residence of Mrs. David Spenser, Birdcage walk, yesterday afternoon. The annual meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held on July 4, and a birthday party for members of the union is arranged for July 17. Owing to the school examinations next week the regular meeting of the society has been postponed.

NOTICE was served upon the city yesterday by Messrs. Yates & Jay that application will be made to the Supreme court for an injunction to restrain the Mayor from executing the contract for filter bed construction with Messrs. Walkley, King & Casey. The contention is that the contract was improperly awarded, and interesting developments in connection are looked for.

THE promotion examinations are now being held in all the city schools, having commenced Wednesday. The various principals have charge of the work and the results will be announced on Monday.

THE British Whig, of Kingston, Ont., celebrated the first anniversary of the other day by issuing a special number, most profusely and artistically illustrated, picturing the manufacturing and business interests, the social and educational life, the sporting and picturesque world of which it is the centre.

W. J. WALTERS and J. A. Van Bokkelen of Port Townsend came over on the Kingston last evening to arrange for an excursion to that city on July 4, when a gentlemen celebration will be given.

THE "OLSEN" IS LOST. Somewhere in the locality of Hakodate, Japan, the Victoria sailing schooner Roese Olsen, which left here in command of Capt. A. E. Whidden on the 28th of December last, is a total wreck, she being the second of the home fleet lost this year.

YESTERDAY afternoon the Board of Trade Building Association held their annual meeting, there being present Messrs. E. Crow Baker, vice-president (in the chair), C. E. Renouf, J. R. Smith, James Hutchingson, J. G. W. Kay, G. Leiser, R. P. Rithet, L. Pither, G. Leiser, E. Pearson, T. M. Henderson, W. R. Wilson, J. Sehl, J. Nicholas, A. B. Gray and the secretary, Mr. E. Worsley.

A TRAGEDY of caribou acid administered by mistake nearly terminated the life of the little four year old son of Mr. William Angus on Wednesday night. Intending to give the child, who was not well, a dose of medicine that he had prepared for him, his mother by mistake poured out a teaspoonful of caribou acid from a bottle which closely resembled the medicine bottle.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

"MEMORY'S LUCKY BAG."

David Christie Murray Relates Some Incidents of His Own Experience.

Pathetic and Lively Scenes Presented in Graphic and Picturesque Words.

David Christie Murray has the double faculty of being able to speak or write interestingly with equal facility. For two hours last night he spoke at the A.O.U.W. hall, and from the very first was on the best terms possible with his audience.

Mr. Murray's early struggles in London came next, his life rapidly vanishing, till at last for four days he was penniless and starving. The kindly action of the president of the London press club gave him the lift he needed, and from his own experiences he wrote a description of an impetuous youth in London that was accepted by the Gentlemen's Magazine.

Mr. Murray, "It was a long time before I told the ladies, complimenting me on the article, remarked that it was so lifelike that I might almost have gone through it myself, that I really had written my own experience."

A humorous account of a tramp from London to Hereford was next told. He had sent £10 ahead of him to the Green Dragon hotel, the leading hotel of the place. With great humor he described the surprise of a pompous waiter when, ragged, dirty and unshowered, the speaker demanded a room. Next came sketches of members of the House of Commons, including one of the late Lord Beaconsfield.

THE "OLSEN" IS LOST. Somewhere in the locality of Hakodate, Japan, the Victoria sailing schooner Roese Olsen, which left here in command of Capt. A. E. Whidden on the 28th of December last, is a total wreck, she being the second of the home fleet lost this year.

YESTERDAY afternoon the Board of Trade Building Association held their annual meeting, there being present Messrs. E. Crow Baker, vice-president (in the chair), C. E. Renouf, J. R. Smith, James Hutchingson, J. G. W. Kay, G. Leiser, R. P. Rithet, L. Pither, G. Leiser, E. Pearson, T. M. Henderson, W. R. Wilson, J. Sehl, J. Nicholas, A. B. Gray and the secretary, Mr. E. Worsley.

A TRAGEDY of caribou acid administered by mistake nearly terminated the life of the little four year old son of Mr. William Angus on Wednesday night. Intending to give the child, who was not well, a dose of medicine that he had prepared for him, his mother by mistake poured out a teaspoonful of caribou acid from a bottle which closely resembled the medicine bottle.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

DOMINION DAY.

The Great Reunion Planned by Vancouver to Celebrate the Birthday of Confederation.

Sailors and Soldiers to Be Seen in Fascinating Exhibitions—Attractive Excursion Plans.

The celebration of Canada's natal day at Vancouver on Monday and Tuesday, July 1 and 2, promises to outshine previous occasions.

The citizens' committee is a very influential one, and no stone has been left unturned to enhance the pleasure of visitors.

The other attractions are too numerous to mention, but it may be stated that no line of sport has been overlooked.

The military feature of the Dominion Day celebration at Vancouver will not be a sham fight, but will be an exhibition of drill exercises which though not so exciting will be even prettier and quite as interesting as the great sports.

Yesterday was the last day of the Epworth League convention. The delegates assembled at 9 a.m. in the devotional exercises being conducted by Mr. F. W. Davy.

ALMOST CRAZY Suffering from Constipation.

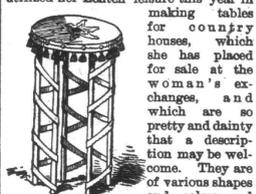

Expected to be in the Asylum—After all other Remedies Failed B.B.B. made a Perfect Cure, Restoring Robust Health.

Cataract Relieved in 10 to 20 Minutes.—One short puff of the breath through the blowers supplied with each bottle of Dr. Agnew's Cataract Powder, relieves instantly and permanently cures Cataract, Hay Fever, Colds, Headaches, etc.

COUNTRY HOUSE TABLE.

A Useful and Pretty Article That Can Be Made in Many Styles as the Case May Be.

A charitable woman, who uses her artistic talents for the benefit of others, utilized her Lenten leisure this year in making tables for country houses.

All white ones are also very effective, trimmed with blue and white braid and tassels, also trimmed with blue and white braid.

Turnover collars and cuffs of sheerest white swiss, tucked with insertions of yellow valenciennes lace, and narrow frills of the same lace are much worn with dark costumes.

Double box plaited ruffles of wide, satin striped grenadine ribbons threaten to supersede feather boas for warm season's wear at least.

The chief characteristics of fashion's present charming show are its infinite variety, its designs, colorings and endless phases, affording an almost unlimited choice of models suited to special peculiarities of face, form or feature.

Language of the Veil. The language of the veil of 1895 requires little interpretation. For the theater, for summer dancing or for a picnic the veil is fastened on in the thick folds that permit coquettish drawings across the face.

A Worker in the Tenements. Mrs. Lillian W. Betts, whose editorial and miscellaneous work on The Outlook is well known to a large circle of readers, is still a young woman, slight of figure, mentally and physically active and alert and deeply interested in the benevolent enterprises of New York.

A Flimsy Bride. All the world loves a lover, even a scullery board of education. That stolid body in Atlanta has reinstated Miss Laura Morgan, one of the principals of the Girls' High school in that city, whose position was forfeited by marrying her sick lover to nurse him.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

Little Prospect of Early Prorogation—The School Question to Be Dealt With.

The "Globe" on British Columbia's Members—The Auditor-General's Memorial.

OTTAWA, June 15.—Very little progress has been made in the house this week, and although everybody is talking prorogation by the 12th or 15th of July, at the present rate of progress there is little prospect of the members being able to leave for their homes about that time.

The British Columbia members were greatly amused to read an article in the Toronto Globe the other day characterizing some of the members of the Ontario legislature as "St. Ministerial Reels."

The Auditor-General's Memorial. The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

TIBED OF ASIATICS. WASHINGTON CITY, June 22.—Consul General Mills, at Honolulu, has sent to the state department a report of the labor commission on the coffee industry in Hawaii.

IN answer to many inquiries by post from B. C. and other parts concerning the price of watches, the following schedule will show that the price of our firm are Rock Bottom Prices:

Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Plain, $4.00

MOVEMENTS. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

SILVER CASES. Plain, $4.00

GOLD FILLED CASES. Open face, from $6.00 to $12.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

his month. Since he got the increase the Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before.

There was an interesting discussion in the House on Wednesday on Major McLennan's bill to prevent the letting of public contracts to aliens.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

The Auditor-General has been much more severe upon the ministry than was the case before. As previously stated the position at present before parliament cannot be substantiated by facts, and there is but one reason assignable for the Auditor-General's causing it to be presented to the house, which is that he would like to see his old friends back in power once more.

Condensed Coffee and Milk. REINDEER BRAND. Condensed Cocoa and Milk.

REINDEER BRAND. Just what is wanted for your Summer outing. Kept by all Grocers.

M. STROUSS, F. O. BOX 604, OFFICE, 19 YATES STREET, VICTORIA, B. C.

Wool, Hides, Pelts, Tallow. HIGHEST MARKET PRICES AND FOR SPOT CASH.

Consignments and Correspondence Solicited; Bags and Price Lists on Application.

TO SUBSCRIBERS. IN ORDER that subscribers to THE WEEKLY COLONIST may have an opportunity to secure a set of the famous "MASTERPIECES," a limited number of Sets are offered to those sending to this office the Coupon which appears on another page, together with 10 cents for each Part—$2.00 for the Set.

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

Watches. Waltham Watch Co. stemwind, 7 jewels, gilt, $5.00

SHIPS AND SHIPPING.

From THE DAILY COLONIST, JUNE 28. A Quartette of Prisoners by the "City of Topeka" - Idaho Forger Suspect Apprehended.

Many Ocean Liners at the New Victoria Docks - The "Sehomo" Labeled for a Dock Bill.

Two of the Alaska steamships, the Queen and the City of Topeka, got in yesterday from the North, the former, returning to expectations, arriving first. She was returning from her first excursion trip of the season, and encountering good weather, made the round trip in less than nine days.

Nearly one half of her excursionists disembarked here, one Raymond and Whitcomb party of 62 members landing to go East. All were much delighted with their voyage North, the great ice fields being to most of them something new. The Queen arrived at 11 o'clock and proceeded to the Sound two hours later, having passed the Queen Charlotte Islands. The latter had been delayed in the North several days by having more than the usual number of calls to make.

She brought a full general cargo, nearly all consigned to Sound cities, a shipment of different kinds of furs being the only freight landed here. Mr. Bosowitz, who made the round trip on the steamer, and who brought the furs down, was one of the few passengers landed here.

On board were four prisoners, John Simons, Adolph Meyer, Gardner and Monahan, who with one exception were being taken to San Quentin. Simons was under sentence of six years' imprisonment for shooting Edward, a popular newspaper man of Alaska.

The circumstances of the affair have already appeared in print, but it is said, since the trial of the case Simons has won much of the sympathy of the Alaskan citizens. Gardner is being taken back to Idaho by the district attorney on a regulation charging him with forgery. It seems that Gardner had been recognized in Sitka, where he was becoming quite popular. He had not changed his name nor made any attempt to disguise his personal appearance. Soon after being recognized he left for Juneau, where shortly afterwards he was arrested. The amount of his forgeries is said to be in the neighborhood of $900.

Adolph Meyer was deputy marshal of Alaska and while in that position misappropriated public moneys, for which offense he was sentenced to two years' imprisonment. Monahan's term of incarceration is much shorter than that of either of the other two and was for smuggling. The three prisoners were transferred to the steamer Walla Walla for passage direct to San Francisco, an act which is claimed is not justified by law. There has been considerable rain lately, but when the Topeka left the weather was mild and pleasant. No news from the Northern mining camps is reported by those who came down on the steamer.

SALES FOR CHINA AND JAPAN. About three o'clock yesterday afternoon the Northern Pacific steamship company after five hours' stay in port, sailed for China and Japan with a full general cargo, a small quantity of which was from here. Among her passengers are four reported Chinese, while in the saloon are: J. E. Mitchell, jr., Kobe; Miss Rene Stanley; Shanghai; Mrs. and Miss Stanley, Shanghai; George McCall, wife, Yokohama; F. E. Crow, Yokohama. Miss Stanley, a Berner did not get out on the Tacoma, she having resigned to return to England. Second Officer Shaw is promoted to be chief officer and other promotions are expected to be having down the line. The vacancy in the position of fourth officer is filled by J. Moore, from Victoria. Two of the deported Chinese on the vessel are from San Francisco and the other two from Portland. The other two were put aboard the Tacoma by Deputy U. S. Marshall J. M. Quiller, of Seattle. Ling Sing, alias Joe Gay, was for several years cook on the United States revenue cutter, the "Albatross." While in that position he turned many a dishonest penny smuggling. His offense was rendered more grave from the fact that his smuggling was done aboard the vessel, Uncle Sam's own.

BACK FROM THE COAST. Rain every day for the week was experienced by the C.P.N. steamer Maude, which returned from the West Coast yesterday evening. She passed the police post Ariel at Clayoquot, the Quadra and the Juan de Fuca and several of the sailing fleet at different points along the coast. She heard of no particular trouble, however, among the Indians, and the schooners Triumph and Sapphire, the two vessels supposed to be having the greatest difficulty in securing their Indian reported that they would be able to sail this week. Orders of the fleet were also making preparations to sail as this week. Mrs. Clarence Cox, Mrs. William Cox and Mrs. O'Keefe were among the passengers to arrive on the Maude, the two former having been down as far as Clayoquot with their husbands. The Maude brought back one sack of gold quartz from the Champion mine, Mineral Creek. A shipment of one ton from the Franklin mine was also about ready to be sent to Tacoma for treatment when the Maude left.

TO AND FROM SAN FRANCISCO. The San Francisco steamships Walla Walla and Mexico were among the big fleet of ocean-going vessels at the outer wharf yesterday. The Mexico, loaded down with freight and passengers, the result of recent out rates, arrived from San Francisco about the middle of the afternoon and sailed again at 6 o'clock. She landed 221 tons of freight before sailing and a good number of her 112 cabin passengers. Owing to the high price of good Walla Walla's coal, the captain of the vessel was sick and needed the wine to give him a little tone. True the grateful patient had left some money on the counter; but that was gratified, not the price of good Walla Walla's coal. The captain, while he did not convict, instructed the interpreter to translate aloud to the crowd of Chinese in attendance the announcement that Wan Lee was discharged simply because there had not been sufficient evidence to convict, and should the case have been proved $350 would have been the fine.

THE DISMANTLING OF THE RATEPAYERS WITH THE decision of the majority of the city council to let the contract for the waterworks improvements to Messrs. King & Casey, Casey has resulted in the following petition, signed by over 200 ratepayers, being sent to the Mayor yesterday: "You are requested by the undersigned citizens and ratepayers to call a public meeting of ratepayers of the city of Victoria to consider the action of the city council in awarding the filter beds contract to Messrs. Walkley, King & Casey; and you are further requested to invite the members of the council board who voted for the award to explain their action to the meeting." In the meantime no action has yet been taken in the injunction case with the exception of warning the council that proceedings for an injunction to restrain the signing of the contract will be instituted.

When so many people are taking and deriving from food's San Francisco, why don't you try it yourself? It is highly recommended.

LIBERATED AT SEATTLE. The steamer Sehomo, which has just been leased by the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company to the Puget Sound and

THE WORLD OF SPORT.

Fun Fast and Furious at the Gymkhana Meeting - The "Amities" Lose at Seattle.

Victoria Defeats Nanaimo at Cricket and the Tables Are Turned at Lacrosse.

Better than that of a farce comedy of the highest order was the fun furnished at the gymkhana races at the Driving park yesterday afternoon. There was, in the first place, a rare collection of horses, covering everything from the antoraosid thoroughbred to the wicked-eyed Indian cayuse, but they all got there in some way. The introductory race was called promptly at 2:30, the competitors to gallop past a hanging ring, Turk's head, and bladder, the rig to be taken, the Turk's head out off and the bladder thrust off. There were fifteen entries and considerable amusement was afforded. A number of the riders succeeded in taking the rings, but when it came to the Turk's head they fought shy, evidently not desiring to have anything to do with a Turk. The best riders being Messrs. Kirk, G. Ward and Muniz.

The second event was a bareback sprint race, 200 yards start - dismount - don shirt over the hurdle. There were fifteen entries and several of the men got away together, though a number came to grief at the first hurdle. In the end Captain Perry came through the ring with the greatest ease, and the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The third game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The fourth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The fifth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The sixth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The seventh game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The eighth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The ninth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The tenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The eleventh game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twelfth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The fourteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The fifteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The sixteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The seventeenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The eighteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The nineteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twentieth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-first game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-second game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-third game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-fourth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-fifth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-sixth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-seventh game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-eighth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-ninth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirtieth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirty-first game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirty-second game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirty-third game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirty-fourth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

THE WORLD OF SPORT.

Fun Fast and Furious at the Gymkhana Meeting - The "Amities" Lose at Seattle.

Victoria Defeats Nanaimo at Cricket and the Tables Are Turned at Lacrosse.

Better than that of a farce comedy of the highest order was the fun furnished at the gymkhana races at the Driving park yesterday afternoon. There was, in the first place, a rare collection of horses, covering everything from the antoraosid thoroughbred to the wicked-eyed Indian cayuse, but they all got there in some way. The introductory race was called promptly at 2:30, the competitors to gallop past a hanging ring, Turk's head, and bladder, the rig to be taken, the Turk's head out off and the bladder thrust off. There were fifteen entries and considerable amusement was afforded. A number of the riders succeeded in taking the rings, but when it came to the Turk's head they fought shy, evidently not desiring to have anything to do with a Turk. The best riders being Messrs. Kirk, G. Ward and Muniz.

The second event was a bareback sprint race, 200 yards start - dismount - don shirt over the hurdle. There were fifteen entries and several of the men got away together, though a number came to grief at the first hurdle. In the end Captain Perry came through the ring with the greatest ease, and the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The third game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The fourth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The fifth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The sixth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The seventh game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The eighth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The ninth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The tenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The eleventh game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twelfth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The fourteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The fifteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The sixteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The seventeenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The eighteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The nineteenth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twentieth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-first game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-second game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-third game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-fourth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-fifth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-sixth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-seventh game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-eighth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The twenty-ninth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirtieth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirty-first game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirty-second game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirty-third game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

The thirty-fourth game - Both teams started off with good red-hot lacrosse, quick checking and some pretty combination play. Luster at centre made some remarkably fine plays for the visitors, while Gaidler and Bland loomed up for the Capitals. Campbell did some great running for Victoria, helping to break the home in fine style. Victoria made better time in shooting, the Nanaimo defence were up and ready to start. Start - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt - dismount - don shirt.

THE WORLD OF SPORT.

Fun Fast and Furious at the Gymkhana Meeting - The "Amities" Lose at Seattle.

Victoria Defeats Nanaimo at Cricket and the Tables Are Turned at Lacrosse.

Better than that of a farce comedy of the highest order was the fun furnished at the gymkhana races at the Driving park yesterday afternoon. There was, in the first place, a rare collection of horses, covering everything from the antoraosid thoroughbred to the wicked-eyed Indian cayuse, but they all got there in some way. The introductory race was called promptly at 2:30, the competitors to gallop past a hanging ring, Turk's head, and bladder, the rig to be taken, the Turk's head out off and the bladder thrust off. There were fifteen entries and considerable amusement was afforded. A number of the riders succeeded in taking the rings, but when it came to the Turk's head they fought shy, evidently not desiring to have anything to do with a Turk. The best riders being Messrs. Kirk, G. Ward and Muniz.

The second event was a bareback

CABLE NEWS.

The "Standard's" Rome Correspondent on Church Affairs in the United States.

Mr. Gladstone's Explanation of His Position—Russia's Guarantee of Chinese Loan.

LONDON, June 20.—The Standard's Rome correspondent discusses the great attention which the Vatican has paid to Cardinal Gibbons, and says: "The secret history of all this is rather curious. Cardinal Gibbons is a power in America, both by his sound doctrine and his personal influence, and, with a few exceptions, holds all the Catholic forces there in his hands. This is not altogether pleasing in the highest quarters, especially when coupled with the fact that the American bishops show great spirit and independence. The Pope instituted the apostolic delegation at Washington with a view to checking this independence. Cardinal Gibbons came to vote the disapproval of the American bishops of this step. Meantime, however, the question has been carefully discussed here, and the result is that Bishop Satali will be a cardinal. This, together with the special attention shown to Cardinal Gibbons, must needs tend to convince him that the presentation of the bishops' memorial would be both useless and inopportune. A group of American placed flowers on the statue of Joanne d' Arc and the Strasburg statue in view of French participation in the festivities at Kiel. They then proceeded to the offices of 'La Libre Parole' cheering the paper and shouting 'down with the Jews.'

It is reported here that the Cuban insurgent Gomez has been captured. Mr. Gladstone has telegraphed to the Westminster Gazette a reply to the statement made by the London Times alleging that the ex-premier had withdrawn from his palling agreement with Mr. Charles Villiers, and saying Mr. Gladstone's action was occasioned by his disapproval of the policy of the Rosebery government, especially in regard to the Welsh church disestablishment bill. Mr. Gladstone says the statement made in wholly untrue as regards his attitude towards the government and the Welsh disestablishment bill. He adds that he believes that the government in order to preserve his independence while the bill was in the committee stage had cancelled his pair, but it was done without his request. Mr. Gladstone intimates before leaving England that he did not care to be considered paired against certain amendments to the Welsh disestablishment, but the Liberal whips found that the Unionists failed to agree to this arrangement and so were obliged to terminate his pair altogether. The government of Venezuela has given out a statement that there is every prospect of an early settlement of the difficulty pending between that country and France, while letters received from Paris and from reliable sources assert that just the contrary is true, and intimate that if England and France do not make common cause against that country it is more than likely that France will help England's claims and recognize them as just. A semi-official telegram from Washington announced that the new secretary of state would follow up the policy of the late Secretary Gresham and would finish a new interpretation of the Monroe doctrine which the late secretary had started. A dispatch to the Times from Hongkong says that the Black Flag general has demanded the withdrawal of the 200 British marines landed at Anping, on the island of Formosa. The British officer commanding the marines has refused to withdraw, and is preparing to fight. A special dispatch received here from Paris says the Russian convention guaranteeing the Chinese loan has been signed at St. Petersburg by Prince Lobanoff Rostovsky, the Russian minister of finance, and M. Dewit, the Chinese minister plenipotentiary, on behalf of China. It is reported that five ships of the French Mediterranean squadron will shortly be dispatched from Toulon to Heyport. Scenes in the chamber of deputies at Rome yesterday, growing out of the socialist motion to extend a general amnesty to persons condemned by court martial for political offenses, which led to an exchange of blows, have not shaken the position of the cabinet. Premier Crispi, amid interruptions, said that the right of pardon was a royal prerogative, and the chamber could not grant amnesty, but could only recommend clemency to the king. The Socialists became violent, and finally led to fistfights and a general tumult, when the sitting was suspended. A duel is being arranged between Deputies Dandrea and Casalego. Mr. Jacob Bright, M.P., for South Manchester, has succeeded Mr. Villiers as pair with Mr. Gladstone. He is a brother of the late John Bright. The Emperor of Austria has requested Marquis de Bacquehem, minister of the interior in the late Austrian cabinet, to hold himself at the Emperor's service. This is supposed to indicate that he will be the next premier. The amount of bullion gone into the Bank of England on balance to-day was $70,000. A dispatch from Christiania says Herr Konvieve has informed the King that owing to a lack of unity in the various parties he must relinquish the task of forming a coalition cabinet. LONDON, June 21.—The Duke of Westminster has addressed a reply to the memorial of the Armenians in America, thanking them for their support. He adds that the adhesion of the great republic to the cause of suffering Armenia cannot surely be without great effect upon the Porte, all the more so as they are comparatively disinterested in questions affecting the balance of power in the East. The government was defeated to-day on motion of Hon. Wm. St. John E. Broderick, Conservative member for Guildford, the secretary of war by £1,000, on account of an alleged deficiency in the army stores and munitions of war, chiefly cordite. The motion was adopted by a vote of 122 to 125. Progress was immediately reported. The Chronicle's Vienna correspondent telegraphs that Dr. von Ploper, ex-minister of finance in the Austrian cabinet and leader of the German Liberals, has resigned and retired from political life. "I am informed," says the Chronicle correspondent, "that the Emperor ungraciously dismissed him, and Count Hohenwart, leader of the Conservatives, who is responsible for the miscarriage of the franchise reform, likewise received marks of imperial displeasure." The Times discusses the American currency question editorially and anticipates the Democrats will split upon this question. "The difference between the two parties,"

CABLE NEWS.

The "Standard's" Rome Correspondent on Church Affairs in the United States.

Mr. Gladstone's Explanation of His Position—Russia's Guarantee of Chinese Loan.

LONDON, June 20.—The Standard's Rome correspondent discusses the great attention which the Vatican has paid to Cardinal Gibbons, and says: "The secret history of all this is rather curious. Cardinal Gibbons is a power in America, both by his sound doctrine and his personal influence, and, with a few exceptions, holds all the Catholic forces there in his hands. This is not altogether pleasing in the highest quarters, especially when coupled with the fact that the American bishops show great spirit and independence. The Pope instituted the apostolic delegation at Washington with a view to checking this independence. Cardinal Gibbons came to vote the disapproval of the American bishops of this step. Meantime, however, the question has been carefully discussed here, and the result is that Bishop Satali will be a cardinal. This, together with the special attention shown to Cardinal Gibbons, must needs tend to convince him that the presentation of the bishops' memorial would be both useless and inopportune. A group of American placed flowers on the statue of Joanne d' Arc and the Strasburg statue in view of French participation in the festivities at Kiel. They then proceeded to the offices of 'La Libre Parole' cheering the paper and shouting 'down with the Jews.'

It is reported here that the Cuban insurgent Gomez has been captured. Mr. Gladstone has telegraphed to the Westminster Gazette a reply to the statement made by the London Times alleging that the ex-premier had withdrawn from his palling agreement with Mr. Charles Villiers, and saying Mr. Gladstone's action was occasioned by his disapproval of the policy of the Rosebery government, especially in regard to the Welsh church disestablishment bill. Mr. Gladstone says the statement made in wholly untrue as regards his attitude towards the government and the Welsh disestablishment bill. He adds that he believes that the government in order to preserve his independence while the bill was in the committee stage had cancelled his pair, but it was done without his request. Mr. Gladstone intimates before leaving England that he did not care to be considered paired against certain amendments to the Welsh disestablishment, but the Liberal whips found that the Unionists failed to agree to this arrangement and so were obliged to terminate his pair altogether. The government of Venezuela has given out a statement that there is every prospect of an early settlement of the difficulty pending between that country and France, while letters received from Paris and from reliable sources assert that just the contrary is true, and intimate that if England and France do not make common cause against that country it is more than likely that France will help England's claims and recognize them as just. A semi-official telegram from Washington announced that the new secretary of state would follow up the policy of the late Secretary Gresham and would finish a new interpretation of the Monroe doctrine which the late secretary had started. A dispatch to the Times from Hongkong says that the Black Flag general has demanded the withdrawal of the 200 British marines landed at Anping, on the island of Formosa. The British officer commanding the marines has refused to withdraw, and is preparing to fight. A special dispatch received here from Paris says the Russian convention guaranteeing the Chinese loan has been signed at St. Petersburg by Prince Lobanoff Rostovsky, the Russian minister of finance, and M. Dewit, the Chinese minister plenipotentiary, on behalf of China. It is reported that five ships of the French Mediterranean squadron will shortly be dispatched from Toulon to Heyport. Scenes in the chamber of deputies at Rome yesterday, growing out of the socialist motion to extend a general amnesty to persons condemned by court martial for political offenses, which led to an exchange of blows, have not shaken the position of the cabinet. Premier Crispi, amid interruptions, said that the right of pardon was a royal prerogative, and the chamber could not grant amnesty, but could only recommend clemency to the king. The Socialists became violent, and finally led to fistfights and a general tumult, when the sitting was suspended. A duel is being arranged between Deputies Dandrea and Casalego. Mr. Jacob Bright, M.P., for South Manchester, has succeeded Mr. Villiers as pair with Mr. Gladstone. He is a brother of the late John Bright. The Emperor of Austria has requested Marquis de Bacquehem, minister of the interior in the late Austrian cabinet, to hold himself at the Emperor's service. This is supposed to indicate that he will be the next premier. The amount of bullion gone into the Bank of England on balance to-day was $70,000. A dispatch from Christiania says Herr Konvieve has informed the King that owing to a lack of unity in the various parties he must relinquish the task of forming a coalition cabinet. LONDON, June 21.—The Duke of Westminster has addressed a reply to the memorial of the Armenians in America, thanking them for their support. He adds that the adhesion of the great republic to the cause of suffering Armenia cannot surely be without great effect upon the Porte, all the more so as they are comparatively disinterested in questions affecting the balance of power in the East. The government was defeated to-day on motion of Hon. Wm. St. John E. Broderick, Conservative member for Guildford, the secretary of war by £1,000, on account of an alleged deficiency in the army stores and munitions of war, chiefly cordite. The motion was adopted by a vote of 122 to 125. Progress was immediately reported. The Chronicle's Vienna correspondent telegraphs that Dr. von Ploper, ex-minister of finance in the Austrian cabinet and leader of the German Liberals, has resigned and retired from political life. "I am informed," says the Chronicle correspondent, "that the Emperor ungraciously dismissed him, and Count Hohenwart, leader of the Conservatives, who is responsible for the miscarriage of the franchise reform, likewise received marks of imperial displeasure." The Times discusses the American currency question editorially and anticipates the Democrats will split upon this question. "The difference between the two parties,"

CAPITAL NOTES.

Atlantic and Lake Superior Railway—Penitentiary Economies—Dominion Rifle Matches.

Called to the Senate—International Fishery Commission to Be Here in July.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) OTTAWA, June 21.—There has been an animated discussion in the House on the affairs of the Atlantic and Lake Superior railway. Sir Richard Cartwright strongly condemned any government action. Hon. Mr. Foster made it clear that the government assumed no responsibility in connection with the railway.

On the penitentiary estimates Sir Charles Tupper said he had heard the Patrons of Industry complain because the price of Kingston made twine was too low and was injuring the business of the Paton factory at Brantford.

Hon. Mr. Dickey announced that city corps and artillery would be drilled this year. He gave account of the progress of the work on the Esplanade fortifications.

Sir Charles Tupper gives notice of a bill to amend the penitentiaries act and provide a uniform scale for officers, guards, attendant parochial schools, and public schools. Present appointments are well affected.

Messrs. Wakeham and Rathbone, international fishery commissioners, will commence their inquiry on the Pacific coast at the beginning of July.

George T. Baird, of Perth Centre, N.B., has been called to the Senate in place of Hon. Mr. Foster, deceased.

The Dominion rifle matches have been fixed to commence August 30, instead of September 2.

An order in council will probably be passed next week which recognizes as the Dominion flag the British red ensign with a maple leaf on the flag.

GLADSTONE'S ACTION.

LONDON, June 21.—The Liberal leaders are endeavoring to mitigate the effects of Mr. Gladstone's reported surrender of his pair at the House of Commons, but it is unquestionably the most extraordinary of the many extraordinary acts in the great statesman's career. It promises to withdraw in extreme contumely his support from the government which inherited his own control of the party.

The truth is that Mr. Gladstone is even more of a churchman than a Liberal, and in old age he cannot follow his party in what must eventually result in the separation of the church and the State. He is a man of high moral character, and he has in Wales. He had pledged himself to disestablishment in Wales, but apparently has repented of it. As he is on the steamship "Castillon Castle," at Kiel, even his nearest friends have apparently failed to get an explanation from him. But the following statement has been made on his behalf:

Since his retirement Mr. Gladstone has never voted in the House of Commons, but his vote has been paired against that of Mr. Villiers, a Unionist, and the "father of the house," who is too infirm to attend the sittings. Some weeks ago Mr. Gladstone told Lord Rosebery, who is staying with him at Hawarden, that as there were some points in the Welsh disestablishment bill which he did not approve, he would prefer thus far to remain neutral.

The first of these points, dealing with the creation of the Welsh church endowments, was reached, and accordingly Lord Rosebery informed the ministerial whips that Mr. Gladstone should be free to vote. The Liberal whips sent word in due course to the Unionist whips. Mr. Chamberlain heard of it and immediately left the house, known as the Times. He was not aware that Mr. Gladstone's objection was confined to certain specific points in the Welsh bill, and the Times assumed that Mr. Gladstone withdrew his pair in token of his disapproval of the policy of the government.

The correspondent saw Mr. Herbert Gladstone, who corroborated in every respect the foregoing explanation, which had been obtained from another member of the party. Inquiry among other members of the party showed that Mr. Gladstone's action, even accepting it in this restricted sense, is sure to precipitate resignation, which may come at any moment. The Tory leaders wish to force it, and undoubtedly enough Liberal members will follow Gladstone in opposition to the Welsh bill to defeat the government. Well-informed persons say, however, that Mr. Balfour is unwilling as Rosebery himself to go to the country now.

CANADIAN NEWS.

(Special to the Colonist.)

CHATHAM, June 20.—Joseph Jewell, proprietor of the station hotel, ordered George McGregor, a barber, and Charles Mynot, who had been drinking, to get out of the hotel. McGregor attacked him with a razor, and during the ten minutes the proceedings lasted severed his eye.

Fred. Hopwood, aged 22, a school teacher, was drowned in Pelican lake last night while bathing.

WINNIPEG WIRINGS.

WINNIPEG, June 21.—(Special)—Premier Greenway expects to leave for England shortly on a trip for the benefit of his health.

Farr, the C.P.R. engineer, was arraigned at the police court for trial this morning, but on application of the defence the hearing was postponed till to-morrow. When Farr was brought into the room he stood for a minute and passed steadily at the young woman mixed up in the case with Mr. Tremor or the slightest indication of agitation. The moment Miss Robinson returned his gaze her eyes filled with tears, and with a half suppressed sob she covered her face with her gloved hands and silently wept. Once she nearly fainted in her chair, but Chief McRae quickly brought a glass of water to her, and she revived. Farr was seated directly opposite Miss Robinson, and during the ten minutes the proceedings lasted never took his eyes off her.

Fred. Hopwood, aged 22, a school teacher, was drowned in Pelican lake last night while bathing.

NEWFOUNDLAND POLITICS.

St. Johns, Nfld., June 20.—In the assembly to-day George Johnston, chairman of the contingents committee, tabled a motion to expunge from the records of the house the reports and certificates of Justice Winter in April and August last year, unseating and disqualifying certain members of the Whiteway party on the ground that they had obtained their seats through bribery and corruption. The Whitewayites are trying to force Mr. Winter to resign his judgeship, and have made war on him since the verdicts were given. The Telegram says the Whiteway organ, was fined last year for contempt of court for imputing partisanship to him.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

SEATTLE, June 20.—A fire broke out this morning at 1:30, which totally destroyed the power house of the Consolidated Street Railway Company, which furnishes power for all the electric railways but two, and lights for the northern half of the city. Only four cars and one dynamo were saved. Loss, $100,000; insurance, $40,000.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

MINISTERIAL CRISIS.

The British Government Defeated on a Motion to Reduce a Minister's Salary.

Ministers Called Upon by the "Times" to Accept the Inevitable and Resign.

LONDON, June 21.—The announcement of the vote, 132 to 125, against the government on Hon. Mr. Broderick's motion to reduce the salary of the secretary of war by £1,000 on account of an alleged deficiency in the army stores, caused a great sensation in the House of Commons. The general belief expressed this evening is that the defeat of the government means a crisis. The business of the session can be wound up in short order. The results of the division was so unexpected that when the paper was handed to the opposition whip, Mr. Akers Douglas, to read the figures, he returned it to the government whip, Mr. Edward T. Ellis, who had been about to read it when he saw it was a defeat and returned it to Mr. Douglas who, as the opposition had won, was entitled to announce the figures. Mr. Douglas read them amid prolonged and vociferous opposition cheering.

The Conservative leader, Mr. Balfour, asked what course the government proposed to take, and as the answer was not given, Sir William Verson Harcourt, announced that the government would proceed with a non-contentious bill, and the house proceeded to discuss the naval works bill. The Unionists are jubilant at such an unexpected victory. The opposition only issued an ordinary "whip," but there was an immense amount of private canvassing done to bring up their supporters. The division occurred during the dinner hour and some of the government supporters had left the house. Great excitement prevails in the lobbies and members are eagerly discussing the expected dissolution.

The Chronicle's lobbyist says that a loud shout of triumph went up from the Conservative benches. The members leaped up to their feet and the Liberal Unionists, led by Joseph Chamberlain, leaned forward with mocking cheers, mingled with cries of resignation. Mr. Campbell-Bannerman turned round and formally sent his resignation to Lord Rosebery. He then left the house. The explanation of the affair is that the Radicals expected an exciting debate over an attack upon the Duke of Cambridge, and as his resignation was not expected, all interest was gone. They slipped away before the whips who supposed they were able to count upon a majority of sixteen. The Opposition whips caught the Liberals napping.

The Daily News (Liberal) in an editorial says: "To tell the world of our defensive reasons in detail would be an act of criminal folly, for which no punishment could be too severe. Mr. Campbell-Bannerman's resignation cannot be accepted. If he resigns his colleagues will resign with him. The House of Commons adjourned at 10:30 without further incident. It is reported that Mr. Campbell-Bannerman, secretary of war, said to a friend in the lobby that this was his last night as a minister in the present cabinet. The resignation of Lord Rosebery, the premier, was a formal cabinet will be held to-morrow."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman feels the defeat as a personal affront and resents its indignity by the front of the Opposition benches to whom he had promised to give the information as soon as it was expected to do so, although he thought such publicity not advisable.

It is stated that several Conservatives regret the outcome of the vote. Mr. Campbell-Bannerman being very popular on both sides of the House. Lord Rosebery came to town to-night and the cabinet meeting began in Sir William Harcourt's room in the House of Commons. It was continued at Lord Rosebery's residence until nearly midnight.

The Times in an editorial discussing the ministerial crisis says: "Following closely upon the resignation of Lord Rosebery, the wildest imagining of the ministerial apologetes cannot explain away this defeat, it is admitted even by numbers of staunch Liberals, places the government in an extremely awkward position. With Mr. Campbell-Bannerman personally, much sympathy will be felt. No course except resignation is open to him, and that must involve the break-up of the cabinet. The government will gain nothing by seeking a formal vote of confidence, which is not even certain to be given. It is useless to struggle ignominiously to postpone an inevitable dissolution."

THE HENDERSHOTT MURDER.

LONDON, June 21.—(Special)—William David Waller, who was hanged with John Henderboth, made a confession of his guilt other than the secret made to Rev. D. J. Spooner. He told turnkey Edward Langan, just before his execution, that he alone committed the murder in the woods, but that John Henderboth, though only present, planned it. Waller says he struck his victim over the back of the head with an axe and felled him to the ground; that Henderboth staggered to his feet and started to run, and he, picking up a redga, followed and repeatedly struck him over the head with it. The wedge, he said, he afterwards buried in the ground, which accounts for its non-appearance.

"IT WELL DESERVES ITS FAME."

So Says Mr. Clair H. Sisson, of Carnarvon, Ont., who was cured by Paine's Celery Compound.

THE MEDICINE THAT ALWAYS MAKES SICK PEOPLE WELL.

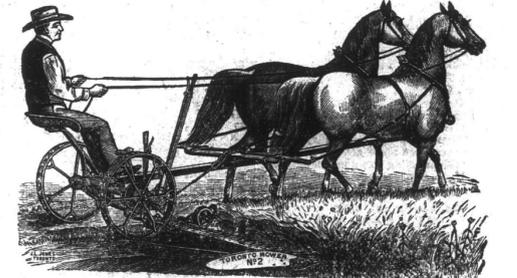

In literature, art, music, law and statesmanship, the world has seen but few giants of towering intellect. The same may be said about the profession of medicine, that noble science that aims at assuaging pain, banishing disease and saving precious human life. Amongst the few noble medical men that have left grand records and imperishable names and memories, Professor Edward E. Phelps, M.D., L.L.D., will always stand high, and rank with the mightiest benefactors that men have ever seen or heard of. Prof. Phelps' grand discovery, Paine's Celery Compound, has done more for the sick and afflicted than any other medicine that human skill and science ever devised. Countless thousands of men and women on this North American continent owe their lives and present good health to that wonderful curing medicine that Prof. Phelps gave to suffering humanity. To-day, thousands are lifting themselves from the pains and miseries of nervous diseases, rheumatism, dyspepsia, indigestion, liver and kidney troubles, headaches, sleeplessness, and impure and poisoned blood, by the curing and recreating virtues and power of Paine's Celery Compound. Mr. Clair H. Sisson, of Carnarvon, Ont., who was so satisfactorily cured by Paine's Celery Compound, after failure with all ordinary means, desires to contribute his quota of praise to a medicine which, he declares, well deserves its fame. Mr. Sisson says:—"Some time ago, I had a severe attack of Gripe, and I did not recover from the effects of the disease. Later on, the disease attacked me with double force, so that I was unable to work. Previous to this, I was doctoring for catarrh and heart trouble, but received no benefit from the treatment I got. "One day, in my mail, I received a book, 'The Dominion Album,' which was devoted to the interests of Paine's Celery Compound. After reading many testimonials, I concluded it was the medicine for me, and I sent and purchased three bottles. After using one bottle, I was more relieved, and when I had finished the others two, I was more like my former self. Now, I have no symptoms of catarrh or heart trouble. Your Paine's Celery Compound well deserves the fame that the many testimonials have given it. Yours is the most wonderful and best medicine of the age, and almost as palatable as milk. I shall consider it my duty to speak of its merits wherever I go."

SUITS! SUITS! SUITS!

English Serge Suits ... $5.00, $6.75, $8.00
BEST VALUES. LOWEST PRICES.
Fine Tweed Suits 6.00, 7.50, 10.00
Boys' School Suits..... 1.50, 1.60, 2.00

B. WILLIAMS & CO. (CLOTHIERS AND HATTERS, 97 JOHNSON STREET.

E. G. PRIOR & CO LIMITED LIABILITY.

Have for sale this season the following celebrated machines:
Toronto Mowers and Hay Tedders, Sharp's Sulky Rakes,
Osborne Mowers and Hay Tedders, A Full Line of Hay-Making Tools,
ALSO A COMPLETE STOCK OF SHELF AND HEAVY HARDWARE. PRICES LOWER THAN EVER.
E. G. PRIOR & CO., LD.,
VICTORIA, VANCOUVER AND KAMLOOPS.

LEA AND PERRINS'

OBSERVE THAT THE SIGNATURE
Highest Honors—World's Fair.
DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER
IS NOW PRINTED IN BLUE INK DIAGONALLY ACROSS THE OUTSIDE WRAPPER of every Bottle of the ORIGINAL WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.
Sold Wholesale by the Proprietors Worcester; Crosse & Blackwell, Ltd., London; and Export Oilmen generally.
RETAIL EVERYWHERE.
AGENTS—M. DOUGLAS & CO. and URQUHART & CO.—MONTREAL.

NEWS OF THE PROVINCE.

Fairview Orphans' Home - Fifteen Months in Prison for Stealing a Watch.

Siwash Murder and Suicide - Hydrant Mined at Similkameen - Interior News.

(Special to the Colonist.)

VANCOUVER, June 24.—The Imperial Bank has leased premises in the Inns of Court building.

Edward Kane is still soliciting subscriptions towards expenses of securing a new trial for his brother.

The opening of the non-sectarian children's orphan home at Fairview takes place on Wednesday next.

VANCOUVER, June 24.—(Special.)—H.M.S. Wild Swan is in port.

Chief McLaren, Sergeant Haywood and Lyons, and Inspector McLeod, under suspension, have been given one week by the council to answer to charges against them.

VANCOUVER, June 25.—It is said "quo warranto" proceedings will be taken against Ald. Gallagher for the purpose of declaring him disqualified.

A by-law is being introduced to provide for the payment of trades licenses twice a year.

On motion of Ald. Gallagher the qualifications of the Mayor and all the Aldermen are to be inquired into.

The council meeting last night was prolonged and very lively.

The Imperial Bank will open here in September with A. Jukes, at present agent at Brandon.

From indications the Dominion Day celebration will be far ahead of anything of the kind ever attempted here.

Reduced rates have been obtained within two days' journey in all directions, and the celebration has been widely advertised.

It is fair to say that the crowd will be 50 per cent. larger than on other years.

WESTMINSTER. NEW WESTMINSTER, June 25.—A vein of high grade gold-bearing ore has been discovered by Indians in the Elk mountains.

Capitalists are interesting themselves. The four-year old son of Jason Allard was drowned at Langley yesterday in a well close to his father's house.

The child was almost immediately taken out after falling in, but could not be resuscitated.

SAVANNAH. NANAIMO, June 24.—The Nanaimo silver company has gone up with their new instruments on Saturday night and made a very profitable haul.

Deed, an Indian, charged with stealing a silver watch at Union, was sentenced on Saturday to three months in the House of Correction.

MARSHVILLE. MARSHVILLE, June 24.—The bank refuse to Wood is down from the Alaskan islands in fifteen days.

Capt. McLeod reports that the trip was entirely uneventful. Work on the new government building is in full swing.

Messrs. Bradbury & Hurst, the contractors, are employing local hands as much as possible.

The wharf at Kuper Island is to be thoroughly repaired. It is in a very shaky condition.

DUNCAN, June 24.—The following Victorians were here on Saturday enjoying the sunny weather and good fishing: Ashdown Green, J. C. Provost, W. Provost, J. K. Worfold, H. Croft, A. W. Vowell, Rev. Canon Beauland and Captain Barnes.

DUNCAN, June 24.—Two young people of prominence in the Cowichan district and very deservedly popular, on Saturday linked their fortunes when Rev. A. J. Leakey, rector of Cowichan, performed the ceremony which made Miss Mather the bride of Mr. E. B. Greaves.

REVELSTOCK. (From the Kootenay Mail) A wagon road is to be built from Columbia Mountain to Roseland.

Fred Agiles brought in some specimens from the Puzzle containing about 30 per cent. of malachite.

Mr. Rolfe, of the Nelson Sawmill Co., expects to commence the installation of the electric plant at an early date.

Mike Sullivan and Wm. Dunn are now developing the Hill Top, which lies adjacent to the Robert E. Lee.

It is reported on good authority that a smelter will be built at Trull Landing instead of Northport.

Postmaster Street has sold the High Ore to A. B. Ralston for $3,000, and an interest in the capital stock of the company which is being formed to take over the property.

The pay vein has been struck on the Robert E. Lee. At the time of writing the vein is about two feet in width. The highest assay is $67.80, the average being over $30.

The Kootenay Tip-Top and Northern Star are blossoming. On the Kootenay the ledge has been uncovered for a width of forty feet and assays well. The North Star is perhaps the pick of the combination.

John Swift has brought in from his claim, the Mount Hie, some samples of ore which appear to contain nickel. As nickel is known to exist in the neighborhood, it is likely that Swift's claim may be a valuable one, apart from the gold and silver it contains.

(From the Island Sentinel.) Piping for the hydraulic mine at Granite and Similkameen and back, is under consideration. The spirit of the ransher is more hopeful in anticipation of what the fall may have in store.

The weather in the Similkameen country has been remarkably backward for June and the snow has not melted on the mountains to as great an extent as usual.

Several hospitals have been in the district for some time awaiting an opportunity to inspect properties, but have had to await the removal of the snow.

A party is expected shortly to leave for Big Bend to examine some quartz claims, which run fairly rich in gold.

A few days ago information came down from Douglas Lake that a slaw had shot his wife and then shot himself.

The slaw was known as Frank Fred and lived about Graves' place. The affair occurred about a mile or two the other side of the ranch.

They were riding along, the slaw behind, when he drew his revolver and shot three times. The first shot entered the breast and the slaw fell off her horse.

The second shot went wide, but the third entered the heart and death was instantaneous.

The first shot, however, would have proved fatal. Pretty Fred then shot himself dead. It appears that the slaw was crazed at the time, but it is also said it was another case of jealousy, with which some whites were connected.

NEW DENVER. (From the Ledger.) Twelve-Mile creek is looming up as a possible camp.

Many new strikes are being made along the Kaolo railway grade.

Frank Dick is securing numerous assays from Cariboo creek and the returns are interesting.

The Alpha prospect will build a concentrator for four Mills this summer. The B. C. Iron Works has the contract.

Geo. Graham, conductor on the N. & S. R., has purchased Black & McLennan's quarter interest in the Great Falls.

Gold, in more or less quantities, is to be found on every location on Springer creek. The richest strikes this season have been made on that creek.

The owners of the Noble Five group have given the B. C. Iron Works, of Vancouver, an order for a tramway from that property to Cady, Kamathal grounds have been granted by the townships.

A survey of the line will be made in a week. J. Whitford, of the Goodenough fraction, was down on Saturday. He reported that property looking promising, but all work had been suspended for a while owing to the leakage of water from the melting snow.

Five inches of the beautiful fall there on Friday night.

At a meeting of the owners of the War Eagle mine, on Trull creek, held in Spokane last week, a dividend was declared wherein $50,000 in cash will be divided among the stockholders.

AN ART AMATEUR. BERLIN, June 24.—The Kaiser and two of the leading marine painters, Herran Bohno and Saltzman, went to the opening of the canal, where he indicated to them the best moments and occasions for sketches.

They will execute a series of paintings representing the most striking views of the cemetery, and the paintings will be preserved to the national gallery.

The Emperor took a trip to Munich, Bavaria, on Monday, to make arrangements for building the new Schack gallery of pictures, which he has presented to his city.

Count Adolph Friedrich, a noble and a millionaire author, died on April 19, 1894, and bequeathed his large picture gallery to the national gallery.

His museum, but the Emperor decided that the gallery should remain at Munich. The people of Munich were so delighted that they decided to purchase the collection.

His Majesty in the famous gallery with the wording of the telegram conveying his determination to the Munich authorities is inscribed on the pedestal. His Majesty's visit was quite unexpected and he jumped into a common hack.

While, however, he was being driven to the palace of the regent he was saluted by the officers of the garrison whom he met on his visit to Munich, however, he is delighted at his visit and with the Emperor's keen judgment and unaffected bonhomie.

HAWAIIAN POLITICS. SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—For several weeks among the colony of Hawaiian exiles here small groups have been in earnest consultation.

Yesterday Hawaiian Consul Wilder reported the organization of a filibustering expedition to carry 1,000 picked men and a large supply of arms and ammunition to Hawaii.

Mr. Wilder is skeptical regarding the real strength of the expedition, but admits that the exiles here are desperate men and have strong financial backing.

(HONOLULU, June 18 (via San Francisco).) President Dole in his address to the first legislature of the Hawaiian republic said: "One of the matters to which I would especially direct your attention is cable communication with the outer world. Until such communication is secured, Hawaii must remain isolated. To do everything within our power to establish such communication is and must continue to be one of the aims of the Hawaiian people until accomplished."

But two cables have been introduced in the legislature so far—the new land law and the supplementary appropriation bill, one item of which is for the settlement of Princess Kaiulani. She is to receive $4,000 a year from the government, commencing April 1 last. This money will be paid as long as she does not reside in politics.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION. MONTREAL, June 25.—(Special.)—The Gazette says of the school question that it is the most difficult of solution since Confederation, even surmounting the Jesuitic estate act, in that the latter was never within the jurisdiction of parliament. In the Manitoba case an entirely different state of things is encountered, as parliament has the jurisdiction. It may decline to interfere with provincial legislation in any way, or it may proceed to grant such redress to the minority as is within its competence to give, and it is this distinction which places the present question in a wholly different category from those issues affecting religious convictions and susceptibility which have preceded it.

NEW WESTMINSTER. NEW WESTMINSTER, June 24.—(Special.)—The insurance on all the canneries at Stevenson has been raised since the Costello fire.

D. W. Thurston, the swindling sewing machine man who raked money on imaginary sales, has pleaded guilty and has been sent for trial.

A lady, whose name could not be ascertained, was shot in the forehead by a lad who pointed a gun at her thinking it was her husband. The ball was extracted from the bone.

CAPITAL NOTES.

Government Aid to Be Granted to Silver-Lead Smelting in British Columbia.

Two Cent Railway Rate—Mileok and the Governor General—Manitoba Schools.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, June 24.—Hon. Mr. Foster gave notice of a motion to pay $30,000 a year for five years for aid to silver lead smelting in British Columbia at the rate of fifteen cents per ton on the ore smelted. This is the outcome of the British Columbia members' representations last week.

The date of the Dominion rifle matches has been definitely fixed, to commence on August 26.

It is announced to-night that a remedial school bill will be introduced by the government next week if Manitoba's reply is received to-morrow as expected.

An interesting discussion took place to-night on the subject of a two cent rate for railways, but no decision was reached.

Mr. Maloney's bill to reduce the Government's liability to $25,000,000 was strongly opposed. Hon. Mr. Daly said the Imperial government would disallow the measure as they did in 1883.

OTTAWA, June 25.—Joseph Martin in a letter to the Citizen says that evidently there has been a misunderstanding with the Roman Catholics on the school question, and he believes it can be settled without the interference of parliament.

If the Catholics only want religious teaching, as Mr. O'Brien says, Manitoba will grant this. There is a possibility that a conference of leaders may be arranged to settle the whole dispute.

While the estimates were under consideration Colonel Prior said he thought the whole expense of the maintenance of the Darcy Island lighthouse should be paid by the Dominion.

A resolution of Hon. Mr. Mills for a reduction of the public expenditures was defeated by 87 to 37.

Hon. Mr. Foster said to-night that the session would close within three weeks. The Cabinet were in session to-day until late in the afternoon considering remedial legislation, and the house was kept waiting for them.

Mr. Grieve will introduce a bill to limit the control of Canadian trucks by American citizens, and to prohibit the sale of trucks to foreigners, and to prohibit the sale of trucks to foreigners, and to prohibit the sale of trucks to foreigners.

An address of condolence from the Conservative members was sent to Lady Thompson to-day. It was beautifully illuminated.

CANADIAN NEWS.

(Special to the Colonist.)

OTTAWA, June 24.—By the collapse of the bridge over the Ottawa river near the Hotel de Ville, a boat carrying a young man named Phil, who was carrying a load of wood, and two sheep, were precipitated into the stream. Phil was badly hurt and may die; Turner was unhurt.

KINGSTON, June 24.—A most determined case of untold took place at Birmingham in Pittsburg township. An old bachelor, named Thomas Hutton, who lived alone, shot himself. He drove a staple in the floor, passed a string through it, and tied it to the trigger of a rifle. Sitting on the floor he placed the muzzle against his heart, pulled the string, and fell back dead. His clothes were found a purse containing $50, and small pieces of paper, one of which was written: "Don't bury me here. The deceased imagined that his friends were conspiring to poison him. He was in good circumstances."

TORONTO, June 24.—The Rainy River district is booming now. said Frank Conmee, M.P.P. for Algoma West. "The mines are being developed and discoveries are being made daily. Four stamp mills are in operation, and prospectors are on the ground looking out for getting others in operation. The ore is very rich and people are swarming in. The majority of them are Americans who are coming by way of Duluth. There is one thing we need though, and that is a railway. The Ontario and Rainy River is the thing talked of, but we have not enough assistance yet to establish it."

MONTREAL, June 24.—The C. P. R. traffic for the week ending June 21, was $361,000, for the same week last year, $348,000.

MONTREAL, June 25.—The members of the Council of the Dominion Rifle Association have agreed to change the date for the opening of the rifle matches from August 26 to September 2 to suit the Ontario men, as the former date interferes with the Toronto exhibition.

TORONTO, June 25.—President Caldwell, Vice-President Oler and E. Gurney, of the board of Trade, waited upon the Mayor today to complain of the excessive insurance rates, asserted that the city should be improved so that they might get some relief from the present high rates.

SACKVILLE, N. B., June 25.—Edward Cogswell, a well known business man of this place, has been missing since Monday, when he went out for a walk on the marsh near here and did not reappear. Mr. Cogswell, it is alleged, was much worried over business affairs which were said to be involved.

WINNIPEG WIRINGS.

WINNIPEG, June 25.—(Special.)—A large delegation of citizens waited upon the legislative committee to-day to urge that changes be made in the Winnipeg Incorporation act so that the city council would have the power to authorize the running of Sunday street cars without first taking the vote of the people.

The supplementary estimates brought down in the legislature this afternoon include the following: Dairying, $3,200; electrical division agricultural societies, $1,000; immigration, $2,500; Imperial Institute exhibit, $1,000.

A religious anniversary service was held at St. Boniface cathedral this morning. An excellent band of music was found near the village of Roseland yesterday morning. It is about twenty feet below the surface.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S RIGHTS.

The Rosebery Administration Resigns—Lord Salisbury Will Form a New Cabinet.

Proceedings in the House of Commons Yesterday—Vernon Harcourt's Announcement.

LONDON, June 24.—In the House of Commons to-day there was a most animated scene, and outside the houses of parliament large crowds of people gathered eagerly discussing the situation. The Speaker, Mr. Wm. Courty Gull, took the chair at 3 p.m. Soon afterwards the Secretary of State for War, Mr. Campbell-Bannerman, entered the house amid prolonged Liberal cheers.

Mr. Balfour followed and was greeted with vigorous cheers from his supporters. At 3:30 p.m., the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, entered the house, and the Liberals rose in a body and cheered him to the echo. The supporters of Mr. Chamberlain made a similar demonstration when the Unionist leader entered.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt said: "It is my duty to announce to the House that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office. The government, however, is not prepared to resign, and I am therefore glad to see that the House has voted to censure the secretary of war, that when never a more able, respectable, or more popular minister ever held office."

on the Irish land bill in order to pass it before the general election. There will undoubtedly be some settlement of the Irish land question and it will be one of the first measures of the new government, but it is probable they will prefer to introduce their own measure in a new parliament.

The various Conservative agents throughout the country have received official notice to prepare for an immediate dissolution of parliament.

Mr. Gladstone remained discussing the situation with Lord Rosebery until midnight. The party was joined by Mr. Asquith, the Home Secretary, and Lord Tweedmouth, the Lord Privy Seal.

DUBLIN, June 24.—The Independent, commenting on the fall of the Rosebery ministry, says: "This government was returned to pass home rule, which failed owing to the House of Lords raising the cry that they would either end or mend the House of Lords, but they attempted neither. It was the means of the government's failure and it ought to have resigned long ago."

The Freeman's Journal says: "The Irish supporters of the ministry are keenly disappointed at the abandonment of power by the ministers. The ministry relied on and was destroyed by a band of Irishmen posing as genuine exponents of the national feeling."

JAPAN AND KOREA.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The steamer Capricorn arrived last night from Yokohama, bringing the following advices:

YOKOHAMA, June 7.—Although no international complications are apprehended on account of Formosa, the latest Korean developments are justly regarded with great anxiety. Crown Prince, Japanese representative at Seoul, has been called ostensibly to take part in a consultation as to the future policy of Japan, but it is really believed to discuss the question of abandoning the policy of non-interference and the political reforms into the Korean monarchy.

Until a few weeks ago the dominating influence of Japan was easily maintained, but since the announcement that Japan had accepted the recent demand of Russia and her allies, the Koreans have convinced themselves that Russia alone is to be opened and control, and that they may safely repudiate the pledge to the island empire.

The ministry of Kim Hong, which rule was overthrown on June 1. A new cabinet was formed, the leading members of which are avowedly opposed to the adoption of the Japanese methods of reform.

LONDON, June 24.—A dispatch to the Times from Kobe says the Japanese government are determined not to permit any alterations of their policy. A joint committee of the opposition parties has been dissolved and their meetings prohibited. Despite these measures a reconstruction of the cabinet is being planned, and the cabinet is being earnestly discussed.

BACK TO THE WORLD.

OTTAWA, June 25.—(Special.)—There is much excitement here over the disappearance of Prince Edward, of the Capobianco, a schooner which was wrecked on the coast of Newfoundland.

The Marquis of Salisbury, who is believed to have been on board, is reported to be in a very bad way, and it is believed that he will not survive the journey.

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement has been reached on the subject of forming a new cabinet, which will be composed of both sections of the Unionist party."

The Times says that Lord Rosebery resigned on Saturday evening. "We understand that absolutely no agreement

She was so little accustomed herself to anything save breathless admiration and delight at the glories of Venice that this strange attitude of cold hate seemed to her well nigh unnatural.

At the Molto they called a gondola and glided in it slowly down the Grand canal. The canon thought it had fallen off since the days of the Austrians. Half the palaces were worse kept, and the other half were scraped and cleaned and redecorated throughout in the most ridiculous Venetian street fashion.

"And you are going to tell us something about this Amintore business," Mrs. Hesselgrave remarked after a pause as they reached the front of the Arsenal.

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon replied, brightening up at the suggestion. "I was coming to that. I intended to tell you all about it. His name is Amintore."

"That's well," Mrs. Hesselgrave echoed, with a sympathetic smile. "What's being done about it?"

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon replied, brightening up at the suggestion. "I was coming to that. I intended to tell you all about it. His name is Amintore."

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon replied, brightening up at the suggestion. "I was coming to that. I intended to tell you all about it. His name is Amintore."

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon replied, brightening up at the suggestion. "I was coming to that. I intended to tell you all about it. His name is Amintore."

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon replied, brightening up at the suggestion. "I was coming to that. I intended to tell you all about it. His name is Amintore."

shapes our ends," as Emerson or somebody says—ah, thank you, was it Shakespeare?—rough how them how me may, and that's been the case, I say, with this Amintore business.

"Yes, it's him!" he said excitedly in a tone of blank alarm. "A good deal altered, of course, and quite disguised beyond all other one's recognition, but he's in, enough! I should know him in a second!"

"It's who?" Mrs. Hesselgrave faltered out, hardly daring to ask. The canon gasped for breath. He could only just speak.

"Why, Bertie," he answered low, leaning forward to whisper it. "Don't you understand? Bertie Redburn! The man that's dead! The late Lord Amintore!"

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"So you think that's Lord Amintore dressed up like that? Well, really now, how interesting!"

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"Well, whoever he is, he's a charming fellow. You must admit yourself. I've thought all a long he's a charming fellow."

"Yes, it's him!" he said excitedly in a tone of blank alarm. "A good deal altered, of course, and quite disguised beyond all other one's recognition, but he's in, enough! I should know him in a second!"

"It's who?" Mrs. Hesselgrave faltered out, hardly daring to ask. The canon gasped for breath. He could only just speak.

"Why, Bertie," he answered low, leaning forward to whisper it. "Don't you understand? Bertie Redburn! The man that's dead! The late Lord Amintore!"

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"So you think that's Lord Amintore dressed up like that? Well, really now, how interesting!"

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"Well, whoever he is, he's a charming fellow. You must admit yourself. I've thought all a long he's a charming fellow."

"Yes, it's him!" he said excitedly in a tone of blank alarm. "A good deal altered, of course, and quite disguised beyond all other one's recognition, but he's in, enough! I should know him in a second!"

"It's who?" Mrs. Hesselgrave faltered out, hardly daring to ask. The canon gasped for breath. He could only just speak.

"Why, Bertie," he answered low, leaning forward to whisper it. "Don't you understand? Bertie Redburn! The man that's dead! The late Lord Amintore!"

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"So you think that's Lord Amintore dressed up like that? Well, really now, how interesting!"

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"Well, whoever he is, he's a charming fellow. You must admit yourself. I've thought all a long he's a charming fellow."

"Yes, it's him!" he said excitedly in a tone of blank alarm. "A good deal altered, of course, and quite disguised beyond all other one's recognition, but he's in, enough! I should know him in a second!"

"It's who?" Mrs. Hesselgrave faltered out, hardly daring to ask. The canon gasped for breath. He could only just speak.

"Why, Bertie," he answered low, leaning forward to whisper it. "Don't you understand? Bertie Redburn! The man that's dead! The late Lord Amintore!"

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"So you think that's Lord Amintore dressed up like that? Well, really now, how interesting!"

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

"Oh, dear, yes," the canon answered without a second's hesitation. "He studied in Paris under a first rate painter— a fellow with one of their long wined, double barreled names—Bastien somebody it was—I never can get the name of them."

CONFLICTING POLICIES.

Manifestoes of the Unionist, the Liberal and the Irish Parties.

Justin McCarthy Advocates Alliance Between the Home Rulers and the Liberals.

LONDON, June 26.—The National Liberal Federation manifesto says that Home Rule is the first and foremost of measures to be pushed, and there are also mentioned the employers' liability bill, the Welsh church disestablishment bill, the Irish land bill, the one man and one vote bill, the local veto bill (local option), the factories and workshops bill, and sweeping reforms for dwellers in towns and country are demanded in the interest of the whole nation. Perhaps the most important feature of all in the manifesto is the insistence that the policy formulated in the Leeds programme shall be preserved until it is established beyond all question that when the houses of parliament come into conflict the will of the representative chamber shall prevail.

Mr. Thomas Stowell, the Conservative member of parliament who made a special criticism on the government seal bill, while riding along London to London, met Lord Rosebery, to whom he remarked by way of introduction, "Yes," replied Lord Rosebery, laughing, "and there's been a good deal of fishing for the seals of office this week."

Both parties profess to be ready for a general election in July, and the outgoing ministry do not appear greatly disinclined. Lord Rosebery and Sir William Harcourt are particularly jaunty and jovial, and make it plain that their release from office at this time was the thing most to be desired.

The Irish people are taking great interest in the present situation. Justin McCarthy has issued a manifesto to the people of Ireland, stating that the defeat of the government has placed Ireland's bitterest enemies in office "for a brief space before the election."

The manifesto says: "Downing street and Dublin castle will be occupied by the Unionist and Conservative parties. This defeat was encompassed by the factious who still divide Ireland, and by the votes of the Chamberlains, the Russells and other false friends of land and rent."

Advocating the continuance of the alliance with the Liberal party is Ireland's only hope of redress." The manifesto appeals earnestly to Irishmen at home and abroad for funds with which to fight their enemies in the coming election campaign.

In an interview John Redmond said it seemed probable that the election would result in the Liberal party. The Parliament had advised the government to dissolve parliament when the Liberal party was united. Mr. Gladstone gave the same advice, and Redmond was in a position to accept positively the government's resignation because the cabinet rejected the proposal. If the government had dissolved parliament then, the Liberals would have carried the country on the Home Rule policy. They now go to the country without a policy, without a leader, without a disinterested and disinterested. He did not anticipate that the Tory government would occur Ireland. They would have the power to pass the Irish land bill through the House of Lords, and they were more likely to do so quickly and to provide money for the purchase of land than the Liberals. He was not sure that Home Rule would not be eventually dealt with by the Conservatives. The political prisoners could not be worse off under a Tory government than they were under Mr. Asquith, the retiring home secretary.

Replying to Mr. Henry Labouchere in the House of Commons to-day, Hon. Akenside Douglas, the Conservative whip, said his party was anxious for a dissolution of parliament at the earliest possible moment. He hoped to be able to make a statement on the subject on Monday next.

The election addresses of Right Honorable Messrs. Balfour and Chamberlain on accepting office, represent the government as not dissolving parliament, but as resigning. Mr. Chamberlain in his address adds: "The Unionist leaders have ably and really agreed that the wild projects of a constitutional change and a new legislative form, which form the staple proposals of the two last administrations shall be laid aside. The Unionists will devote their principal attention to a policy of constructive social reform, and at the same time to the maintenance of the full efficiency of the defensive resources of the empire."

The Times says that Lord Salisbury offers the Chamberlainship of the Exchequer to Mr. Goschen, but he preferred the Admiralty office.

Four Irish sympathizers have guaranteed £20,000 to the anti-Parliament for an election fund.

The Standard says that Baron Haldar has been appointed Lord Chancellor in succession to Lord Herschell, and that Hon. Joseph Chamberlain's son will probably be a junior Lord of the Treasury.

MANITOBA BUTTER.

TO THE EDITOR.—I would you kindly give space in your valuable paper for the following notice. In the issue of Sunday, 23rd, under "News of the Province," I am referred to as having said I was in favor of butter being in sealed tins. I am not in favor of that mode of packing butter for the reason that there is no demand for it in that kind of package. I am in favor of any package that suits the trade, but certainly do not recommend anything that is not wanted.

I may add my trip to the province is purely a business one, solely to learn the requirements of the British Columbia market for dairy produce from Manitoba. I have found everyone interested alive to business and ready and willing to give me all the information required, and such information as will be very beneficial to the Manitoba dairymen.

I may also say that there have been established in Manitoba, by the aid of the Provincial government, a large number of creameries and cheese factories. These factories are all first-class buildings and thoroughly equipped with all the latest improved machinery, and are in every respect equal to the best constructed factories in the Dominion. In consequence of the quality of the cream and the excellence of getting the finest butter and cheese from Manitoba that can be produced in this Dominion.

Manitobans are alive to the fact that this province is naturally adapted for dairying, and they are determined to put forth every effort to develop the dairy industry, wealth of the province and the future of the Dominion.

[TO BE CONTINUED]

WEDNESDAY, June 26.—D. C. Kinsey, a retired Wisconsin man, had a very bad day by the collapse of a moving building.

Leaving on the parapet of the high pitched bridge.

"He said that certain. We've got full particulars. All hands were lost, and he must have been lost among them."

"But this moment, at sight of Arnold Willoughby's bent head, with one finger pointed carelessly in the lock behind his ear, the canon set starting wildly in front of him with wide open eyes."

"What's the matter with him?" Mrs. Hesselgrave exclaimed, following blankly the direction of the canon's eyes. She had court in the United Kingdom. Once dead, always dead, was a rule that ought to be applied to these Tichborne revivists. If you choose to go out like a candle of your own kind, you had better do it at once. I decline to recognize you when you want to come to life again at inconvenient moments. There should be a bill brought in to declare Bertie Redburn was really dead, and then dead he should remain by act of parliament.

"Mother, mother," she cried.

But as soon as they were inside the house and Kathleen had gone up with her mother and Mrs. Valentine into her pretty little bedroom, the woman's face grew pale and her own wife gave vent explosively to a fearful and wholly unexpected disclosure.

"You know, my dear," she said confidently, "that was Lord Amintore. I feel quite sure of it. One of our country wouldn't say so, on dear Fred's account. You know dear Fred can't be contradicted."

Once more Kathleen darted a warning look at her mother and once more Mrs. Hesselgrave accepted the hint blindly. "But he was so different, the canon thought," she remarked, just to keep up the conversation, wondering dimly all the while what his mother never for a moment suspected the real rank of her lover, for that a lover he was, Mrs. Hesselgrave took for granted at once, now she knew the dreadful woman was really dead. She would hardly have given her belief changed, exactly as Fred said—she must have had something done to them. It was a sort of a fact of fact of fact. It was a sort of a fact of fact of fact. It was a sort of a fact of fact of fact.

"Oh, my dear, that was not Bertie, was it?" Mrs. Valentine asked in a picture or land scape. The moment she could get alone with her mother, she began to speak to her seriously.

"Mother," she said in her most coaxing tone, "you were so good to take my hints. I didn't want Canon Valentine to know that I was in love with you. And she had loved him as the common-sense of that she had never concealed from her own heart for many days since the trip to the Lido. He could never say of her in future that it was his rank and his artificial position in the world that had captivated her fancy. She loved him for himself. She knew it—she was certain of it! Had she not written it down in plain black and white in her diary? Yet he was to find out now that she had discovered his true name—Kathleen trembled to herself as she thought of the possible result, for she was very much in love—he might never see her again. It was a way she had when deeply moved. It was a way she had when deeply moved. It was a way she had when deeply moved."

"Oh, my dear, that was not Bertie, was it?" Mrs. Valentine asked in a picture or land scape. The moment she could get alone with her mother, she began to speak to her seriously.

The Colonist.

FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1895. PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING BY THE COLONIST PRINTING & PUBLISHING CO., LIMITED, LIABILITY.

TERMS: THE DAILY COLONIST. PUBLISHED EVERY DAY EXCEPT MONDAY. PER YEAR, (POSTAGE FREE TO ANY PART OF CANADA) $10.00.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 1. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 2. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 3. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 4. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 5. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 6. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 7. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 8. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 9. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 10. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 11. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 12. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 13. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 14. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 15. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 16. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 17. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 18. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 19. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 20. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 21. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 22. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 23. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 24. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 25. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 26. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 27. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

ADVERTISING RATES: REGULAR COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING. NO. 28. As distinguished from everything of a transient character.

something wrong somewhere. It may be that the owners of capital have been badly bitten by those who do business recklessly, and they are consequently afraid to trust enterprising men with their money.

Experience has shown that territory ought to be represented in the Cabinet. The provinces which are distant from the seat of Government are certain to be neglected.

When this line is built and in operation African slavery will receive its death blow. The Arab slave hunters will be met on their hunting grounds and the hunting parties will be intercepted on their journey to the slave markets of the North and West.

The traditional murderer is a villain of forbidding appearance who has "cut-throat" written on his countenance in the largest and ugliest characters.

A DELIBERATE MURDER. The traditional murderer is a villain of forbidding appearance who has "cut-throat" written on his countenance in the largest and ugliest characters.

On Saturday last the Rosebery Government resigned. It had been in existence about fifteen months. Its constitution had been from the first feeble and stinky.

During Lord Rosebery's tenure of office disaster had followed disaster. The cares, anxieties and worries of his position were more than the Premier's constitution could bear.

With a divided party, growing weaker and weaker every month, it could hardly be expected that Lord Rosebery could do a great deal towards carrying out the Newcastle programme.

Lord Rosebery must feel that his defeat is a happy release. Had he remained in office a few months longer he could have done very little either at home or abroad that he could look upon with satisfaction.

The nation will hail with joy the advent of Lord Salisbury to power. What the people want more than anything else just now is a foreign policy which will place Great Britain in her proper place among the nations of the earth and keep her there.

The Parliament of Great Britain has at last voted money for the construction of a railroad from Mombasa, on the East coast of Africa, to Lake Victoria Nyanza.

The stock of uncoined gold is much larger at present than it was in 1894, and it is quite clear that if there were any necessity of money the reserve would be called upon.

The fact is, however, that the banks of the world are crowding with gold, either in the form of coin or in bars, which is admitted not only by Mr. Cassanese, but by all who take the trouble to study the returns of the great banks.

In view of such figures it is not absurd to talk of a scarcity of gold. The Little England party did what they could to discourage the projectors and to convince members of Parliament that to build it would be a waste of money.

When money is so very plentiful that it has to be spoken of as being in scarcity or satisfactory investment, there must be something wrong somewhere.

Experience has shown that territory ought to be represented in the Cabinet. The provinces which are distant from the seat of Government are certain to be neglected.

When this line is built and in operation African slavery will receive its death blow. The Arab slave hunters will be met on their hunting grounds and the hunting parties will be intercepted on their journey to the slave markets of the North and West.

The traditional murderer is a villain of forbidding appearance who has "cut-throat" written on his countenance in the largest and ugliest characters.

A DELIBERATE MURDER. The traditional murderer is a villain of forbidding appearance who has "cut-throat" written on his countenance in the largest and ugliest characters.

On Saturday last the Rosebery Government resigned. It had been in existence about fifteen months. Its constitution had been from the first feeble and stinky.

During Lord Rosebery's tenure of office disaster had followed disaster. The cares, anxieties and worries of his position were more than the Premier's constitution could bear.

With a divided party, growing weaker and weaker every month, it could hardly be expected that Lord Rosebery could do a great deal towards carrying out the Newcastle programme.

Lord Rosebery must feel that his defeat is a happy release. Had he remained in office a few months longer he could have done very little either at home or abroad that he could look upon with satisfaction.

The nation will hail with joy the advent of Lord Salisbury to power. What the people want more than anything else just now is a foreign policy which will place Great Britain in her proper place among the nations of the earth and keep her there.

The Parliament of Great Britain has at last voted money for the construction of a railroad from Mombasa, on the East coast of Africa, to Lake Victoria Nyanza.

The stock of uncoined gold is much larger at present than it was in 1894, and it is quite clear that if there were any necessity of money the reserve would be called upon.

The fact is, however, that the banks of the world are crowding with gold, either in the form of coin or in bars, which is admitted not only by Mr. Cassanese, but by all who take the trouble to study the returns of the great banks.

In view of such figures it is not absurd to talk of a scarcity of gold. The Little England party did what they could to discourage the projectors and to convince members of Parliament that to build it would be a waste of money.

When money is so very plentiful that it has to be spoken of as being in scarcity or satisfactory investment, there must be something wrong somewhere.

Experience has shown that territory ought to be represented in the Cabinet. The provinces which are distant from the seat of Government are certain to be neglected.

When this line is built and in operation African slavery will receive its death blow. The Arab slave hunters will be met on their hunting grounds and the hunting parties will be intercepted on their journey to the slave markets of the North and West.

difficult it is for it to get a fair start, to shift for itself unaided, either to die of inanition or to struggle feebly along for a time until it should be strangled by unchecked foreign competition.

Experience has shown that territory ought to be represented in the Cabinet. The provinces which are distant from the seat of Government are certain to be neglected.

When this line is built and in operation African slavery will receive its death blow. The Arab slave hunters will be met on their hunting grounds and the hunting parties will be intercepted on their journey to the slave markets of the North and West.

The traditional murderer is a villain of forbidding appearance who has "cut-throat" written on his countenance in the largest and ugliest characters.

A DELIBERATE MURDER. The traditional murderer is a villain of forbidding appearance who has "cut-throat" written on his countenance in the largest and ugliest characters.

On Saturday last the Rosebery Government resigned. It had been in existence about fifteen months. Its constitution had been from the first feeble and stinky.

During Lord Rosebery's tenure of office disaster had followed disaster. The cares, anxieties and worries of his position were more than the Premier's constitution could bear.

With a divided party, growing weaker and weaker every month, it could hardly be expected that Lord Rosebery could do a great deal towards carrying out the Newcastle programme.

Lord Rosebery must feel that his defeat is a happy release. Had he remained in office a few months longer he could have done very little either at home or abroad that he could look upon with satisfaction.

The nation will hail with joy the advent of Lord Salisbury to power. What the people want more than anything else just now is a foreign policy which will place Great Britain in her proper place among the nations of the earth and keep her there.

The Parliament of Great Britain has at last voted money for the construction of a railroad from Mombasa, on the East coast of Africa, to Lake Victoria Nyanza.

The stock of uncoined gold is much larger at present than it was in 1894, and it is quite clear that if there were any necessity of money the reserve would be called upon.

The fact is, however, that the banks of the world are crowding with gold, either in the form of coin or in bars, which is admitted not only by Mr. Cassanese, but by all who take the trouble to study the returns of the great banks.

In view of such figures it is not absurd to talk of a scarcity of gold. The Little England party did what they could to discourage the projectors and to convince members of Parliament that to build it would be a waste of money.

When money is so very plentiful that it has to be spoken of as being in scarcity or satisfactory investment, there must be something wrong somewhere.

Experience has shown that territory ought to be represented in the Cabinet. The provinces which are distant from the seat of Government are certain to be neglected.

When this line is built and in operation African slavery will receive its death blow. The Arab slave hunters will be met on their hunting grounds and the hunting parties will be intercepted on their journey to the slave markets of the North and West.

The traditional murderer is a villain of forbidding appearance who has "cut-throat" written on his countenance in the largest and ugliest characters.

A DELIBERATE MURDER. The traditional murderer is a villain of forbidding appearance who has "cut-throat" written on his countenance in the largest and ugliest characters.

On Saturday last the Rosebery Government resigned. It had been in existence about fifteen months. Its constitution had been from the first feeble and stinky.

During Lord Rosebery's tenure of office disaster had followed disaster. The cares, anxieties and worries of his position were more than the Premier's constitution could bear.

With a divided party, growing weaker and weaker every month, it could hardly be expected that Lord Rosebery could do a great deal towards carrying out the Newcastle programme.

Lord Rosebery must feel that his defeat is a happy release. Had he remained in office a few months longer he could have done very little either at home or abroad that he could look upon with satisfaction.

The nation will hail with joy the advent of Lord Salisbury to power. What the people want more than anything else just now is a foreign policy which will place Great Britain in her proper place among the nations of the earth and keep her there.

The Parliament of Great Britain has at last voted money for the construction of a railroad from Mombasa, on the East coast of Africa, to Lake Victoria Nyanza.

The stock of uncoined gold is much larger at present than it was in 1894, and it is quite clear that if there were any necessity of money the reserve would be called upon.

The fact is, however, that the banks of the world are crowding with gold, either in the form of coin or in bars, which is admitted not only by Mr. Cassanese, but by all who take the trouble to study the returns of the great banks.

In view of such figures it is not absurd to talk of a scarcity of gold. The Little England party did what they could to discourage the projectors and to convince members of Parliament that to build it would be a waste of money.

When money is so very plentiful that it has to be spoken of as being in scarcity or satisfactory investment, there must be something wrong somewhere.

Experience has shown that territory ought to be represented in the Cabinet. The provinces which are distant from the seat of Government are certain to be neglected.

When this line is built and in operation African slavery will receive its death blow. The Arab slave hunters will be met on their hunting grounds and the hunting parties will be intercepted on their journey to the slave markets of the North and West.

AN ARTICLE ON SEALING

Which Forms an Interesting Appendix to the Report of the Marine Department.

Lessons of the Catch of Last Year - The Agreement Respecting Implements.

Sealing affairs receive considerable attention in the annual report of the marine and fisheries department, just issued. An article by Mr. R. N. Venning, an officer of the department, who it will be remembered was sent as a commissioner to the Russian seal islands, forms one of the appendices.

The text of the legislation adopted, the instructions to cruisers and the agreement reached between Her Majesty's government and that of the United States appear there, together with some remarks as to their application and effect.

The seal catch of the season and other items of interest are also treated, as well as some incidental questions arising out of the seizures by United States authorities, from time to time.

Part II of this appendix treats of the agreement between Her Majesty's government and that of Russia providing protective zones along the coast of the Bering Sea.

It is interesting to note that the Russian seal islands, in the North Pacific coast, have been properly assumed the cost of supporting the leper hospital at Trondheim, New Brunswick, and the difference of longitude between Trondheim and Darcy Island does not lessen, as far as we can see, the obligation of the Dominion Government to provide a refuge for those unfortunate who are afflicted with leprosy in British Columbia.

It is the duty of the Government to support the leper hospital in Trondheim, and it is also its duty to support the lazaretto on Darcy Island. It is clear enough, and we consequently expect that the next letter which the Department of Agriculture will send the Corporation of Victoria will contain a request for a detailed statement of the expenditure on Darcy Island with a view of refunding the amount to the Corporation, and also an intimation that from a certain date named in the letter it is the intention of the Department to take upon itself the expense of the maintenance and improvement of the lazaretto.

THE LACHINE CANAL BRIDGES. It must be admitted that the Lachine Canal Bridge is a very bad business, and that the Department of Railways and Canals is to be blamed for allowing itself to be imposed upon and outrageously cheated. But it will also have to be admitted that the Government, as soon as it was aware that advantage had been taken of the remissness of its officials, has done all that it could do to recover the money out of which it had been cheated, and to punish both its negligent and unfaithful servants and the dishonest contractor.

The following article from the Montreal Gazette shows what the Government has done in the matter: "Reference to the tabulated statement will show that in the waters of Behring Sea, the catch this year comprised 11,723 males and 14,702 females. It has not yet been satisfactorily shown that female seals while nursing, whatever they may do after they have ceased suckling their young, seek the open sea to any great distance from shore, and indeed the preponderance of the evidence is in the negative, but the above figures must be regarded as very significant in successfully combating the statements hitherto advanced. No should it be forgotten that further significance is added to the figures when it is considered that the Behring Sea catch was taken only during August and September when the bulk of the moose had ceased nursing their young, and it is a long way to the open sea. There is every reason to believe that still fewer females, if indeed any appreciable number, would have been taken had the operations of the sealers commenced the month of July, when the mass of the pups are depending upon the fostering care of the mothers."

The legislation passed to give effect to the international sealing agreement, Mr. Venning thus comments upon: "As in legislation to carry out the Behring sea award, that provided under this agreement appears in effect to be certain prohibitions stipulated therein. It has been shown that although condemnation resulted in only one instance in respect of the vessels seized under the agreement in 1893, yet such of these vessels had in some cases broken up and was put to the expense of lifting and proof of innocent intent, without any recourse whatever."

"Subsection 6 of section 1 of the act may be quoted as follows: "(6) If during the period and within the seas specified by the order, a British ship is found having on board certain fishing or shooting implements or seal skins or articles of seal, it shall lie on the water to be used or employed in contravention of this act. The far reaching effect of these two latter provisions may not appear at first sight. It must be obvious that in the very nature of things any ship equipped for a sealing voyage may be said not only to be preparing, but to be at all times and under all circumstances, prepared to take seal. The legislation imposes upon the master of the vessel the burden of establishing his innocence should the necessary implements of his voyage, seal skins or bottles of seals be found on board, but this can only be done before the court and after the seizure has been effected and his voyage broken up, even if then. At all times and in every locality of his voyage, from America to Asia and return, every sealing vessel must necessarily and properly have all or most of these things on board, as an absolute condition of the industry in which he is engaged. Hence it would appear to be somewhat exacting that such proof should devolve upon the master, in the light of the fact that the possession of these articles, even at the time or within the limit, is not an offence against the agreement with Russia."

The Realm, Lady Colin Campbell's Report, says that Lady Randolph Churchill (formerly Miss Jennie Jerome, of New York), widow of the late Lord Randolph Churchill, is now seen in Paris in the most striking and graceful manner. She wears a black alpaca suit, edged with black leather, and milk-brokers, concealed by a short skirt, and wears a black straw hat.

Constable H. B. Graves was united in marriage to Miss Mutter, daughter of Major J. M. Mutter, M.P., by Rev. A. J. Jenney, vicar of Cowichan, on Saturday last. There was a considerable gathering of guests, and the bridal procession was handsome and numerous. The happy couple will pass the honeymoon on the American side.

Not many business houses in the United States can boast of fifty years standing. In fact, of those of J. C. G. & Co., Lowell, Mass., whose incorporation has passed its half-centennial and who have so vigorously at present.

GOOD FOR PARTS 1 TO 20 INCLUSIVE. NAME: F.O. Masterpieces from the Art Galleries of the World. With three Comps and 10 cents each part.

IS MONEY SCARCE? People are always complaining that money is scarce. The great want of the time, very many are ready to say, is more money. It is scarce with them and they not unreasonably conclude it is scarce with everybody.

At the close of the week in this city money was loaned on call at 1 per cent, time money at 1 per cent, to 2 1/2 per cent, and on mercantile paper from 2 1/2 to 3 per cent. The London Economist in its latest number, June 8, says: "owing to the increasing abundance of money and the prospect of greater surpluses at the beginning of next month, the discount market has become weaker, and the quotation for the best three-month bill is down to 3 per cent."

STOCK OF GOLD-TONS. Year. Coined, Uncoined, Total. 1894. 1,200 1,750 2,950. 1895. 1,300 1,850 3,150.

There was a strong opposition to the construction of this road. The Little England party did what they could to discourage the projectors and to convince members of Parliament that to build it would be a waste of money. They were very nearly successful.