KITCHENER'S ENERGY.

The Sirdar Has Been Astonishing London People.

WANTED 500,000 DOLLARS

And Lost No Time in Getting to Work to Secure It.

Has Got Over Half the Amount Needed Already for the Gordon Memorial College—He Tackled Bankers and Merchants, Actors and Society Men—Told Them He Wanted Money, and He Has Got It.

London, Dec. 4.—Lord Kitchener has been astonishing London this week by an exhibition of the most extraordinary energy on behalf of his pet project, the founding of a Gordon memorial college at Khartoum.

On Tuesday he said he wanted $500,000 for carrying out the scheme. Being a man of action, he immediately started out to get it. He spent days and nights addressing all sorts of gatherings, from bankers, brokers and merchants in the city, to actors and society men in the West End. Every where he has stated frankly and plainly that he wanted money, and he has got it.

On to-day considerably more than half the sum required has been subscribed, and the fund is still growing.

So great is the enthusiasm that it is not hard to believe the sum asked for will be made up many times over.

As one Londoner put it, the appeal so far has only been made to the wealthy classes for their pounds. Wait till the poor are asked for their shillings.

Some of the Subscribers.
Among the subscribers are William Waldorf Astor $5000, Lord Rosebery $1000, Col. Gouraud $1000, J. S. Morgan & Co. $1000, Sir Thomas Linton $500 and Cecil Rhodes $500.

An amusing feature of the contribution is that 85 per cent of the money came from Ernest Terah Hooley, the bankrupt promoter, who had such a startling experience with "Guineapigs."

Lord Kitchener, on being pressed to write an account of his campaign, replied: "No, let us have at least one general who has not written a book." He sits at his desk to-day writing his memoirs in a book to be called "Caton Woodville for his portrait in a painting of the memorial service held in Khartoum, on the spot where Gordon was murdered, which the Queen has commissioned. He then returns to Khartoum to hunt for the Mahdi's treasure, which is understood to be buried somewhere in the vicinity of the city.

When the memorial college is established and in working order, the children of scholars will be taught English and such elementary subjects as geography. Later on, other classes will be admitted and technical education will be included in the curriculum.

The Grumblers, of Course.
Of course, there is the inevitable outcry from a section of Englishmen that the college must be made dogmatically Christian, but in the Sudan, as in India, England's first business will be to make good Mohammedans and not bad Christians. Some even boldly urge that the new college be purely a Mohammedan university, or, at any rate, a college of the great Mohammedan university, which one day may have its seat in Cairo or India.

TRAINWRECKING IN ENGLAND.
Many Bold Attempts, Which Happily Failed of Their Purpose.

London, Dec. 4.—The train-wrecking mania seems alarmingly on the increase in England. Dozens of attempts have been made lately, though fortunately they have been unsuccessful. The perpetrators seem to be organized, as from all parts of the Kingdom come stories of obstacles being found on railroads. Last week's royal train had a narrow escape. Last week the most sensational case occurred near Marchington, Wales. A heavy lorry, or flat car, was taken from a shed and placed across the line at a most dangerous curve. The railway men, who fortunately discovered it, had great difficulty in removing it, so firmly was the car fixed. They had just succeeded in removing the obstruction when the express flew past.

SHOT IN ROSSLAND.
John Kirkland of Geolph Township the Victim of a Wrathful Neighbor.

Geolph, Dec. 4.—John Morris, Geolph Township, has received word stating that John Kirkland, a former resident of the same township, had been shot dead in Rossland, B.C., by an irate neighbor, about two weeks ago.

Deceased was well known in the city and surrounding townships. He was a powerfully built, athletic fellow, and a genial, good-hearted man. He sold his farm to John Morris last spring, and went to Rossland in company with his wife, who kept house for him until the time of his death. He was about 35 years old.

The letter received by Mr. Morris states that the sister is on her way home.

MAD MULLAH MOVEMENT.

March Checked by the British Troops

London, Dec. 4.—Assant news from the Indian frontier, the "Mad Mullah" is again on the warpath, has caused considerable apprehension among the Indian authorities, though the latest advices show that his victorious march has been partly checked by the friendly Khan of Robat, who by a timely snipe has saved the British lines of communication with the garrison at Chitral, which the Mad Mullah endeavored to cut. The fanatical movement, however, has taken a strong hold among the Gwatis, and there is a prospect of another "little frontier war." A British force of nearly seven thousand men is now held in readiness for movement to the front. The followers of the Mullah are variously estimated to number from three thousand to six thousand, and their numbers are growing daily. The outcome of the rising will probably be an effective British occupation of the whole of the Swat valley and another big hole in the Indian budget.

FASHODA AFFAIR SETTLED.

France Has Gracefully Backed Down, as Practically Admitted by Her Foreign Minister.

Paris, Dec. 4.—M. Delcasse, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, in the course of conversation the other day, admitted that Major Marchand had been ordered to retire from Fashoda by a long and tortuous route, because the French Government was afraid he would be made too much of should he return to France within six months. Marchand, it seems, is too terribly in earnest and too vain or too simple to understand that he is only a subordinate officer in the army and that his business is to see, not to think. He has reached his old home, and doubtless will get out as quickly as possible.

It is understood that Capt. Barnter will not travel with his chief. His orders are to tramp back through the Bah-EI-Ghazal province, gathering up French flags and other insignemments he retires, finally halting within the frontier of Upper Ubangi. That is to say the French Government has taken the hint, and has graciously admitted that the Mullah is not to be trifled with.

AS GERMANS SEE IT.
A Prediction That England Will Find in America Her Chief Competitor in Asia.

Berlin, Dec. 4.—The Lokal Anzeiger says that the American Government will probably receive compulsory general military service in America, but that its hired forces will come largely from Cuba, the Philippine Islands, Central and South America and East Asia, "thus reviving the medieval system of mercenary troops."

The Vorwaerts declares "it is already certain that England will find her main competitor in the American as well as the East Asian markets to be not Germany, but the United States, and not merely commercial rivals, but rivals in the sense of a real star, and between the United States and Great Britain the battle for the exploitation of these districts will begin."

The Deutsche Zeitung has published a long article on the "new world" of the Spanish colonial estate, which is "visibly, piece by piece, being sold at auction."

OLD LIFEBOAT WRECKED.

Friend of All Nations Had Saved 400 Lives, and Was Lost on a Wild-Goose Chase.

London, Dec. 3.—The famous old lifeboat, Friend of All Nations, of Margate, which, during a service of 22 years, saved about 400 lives, has had her career brought to a pathetic close, being wrecked going out to a vessel in apparent distress.

It is remarkable that the boat was lost on the anniversary of a catastrophe last year, when Friend of All Nations capsized and sank, and 100 lives were drowned.

On this occasion the boat broke in two, but none were drowned, the crew being rescued by a tug. They got ashore, then gallantly manned another boat and went out to sea again, when it was found that after all the trouble, they had been on a wild goose chase, the vessel supposed to have been in trouble having passed on her way.

SUICIDE MANIA IN GERMANY.

Hundreds of School Children Under Six Have Killed Themselves.

Berlin, Dec. 4.—Das Echo, in an article, drawing attention to the statistics of German suicides for the ten years from 1887 to 1896, shows that 407 school children committed suicide. All these cases occurred in state schools; 331 were boys and 76 girls, each under 15 years of age. Whether or not Germany is more productive than other nations of this horrible modern symptom of child suicide, it certainly, as Das Echo remarks, may be regarded as one of the saddest and most startling of the phenomena of modern social life.

MACKIE GETS 10 YEARS.

The Jury Disagreed as to the Guilt of W. H. Ponton.

STOOD 10 FOR ACQUITTAL.

Ex-Bank Clerk is Now Out on $10,000 Bail to Stand Another Trial.

Venue May Be Changed to Cobourg—Considerable Dissatisfaction Expressed With the Verdict Against Mackie—Pare's and Holden's Cases Go Over Till After the Next Trial—Mackie to Be Taken to Kingston To-Day.

Napanee, Ont., Dec. 3.—(Special.)—At 9 o'clock this morning the doors of the Court House were besieged by the eager crowds of citizens, who would hardly care a way for the judge and the counsellors. The judge took his place upon the bench at 9.05. The room was jammed. Crier Black gave his last cry, and sank back, relieved.

The judge called the sheriff to him and asked if the jury had arrived at a decision.

In the meantime Holden, Pare, Ponton and Mackie were brought into the dock. The court was still.

It was 9.10. "Billie" Ponton looked anxious, and sat beside his mother. They talked in low whispers.

Mr. Mackie, father of the prisoner Mackie, was also present.

The sheriff brought a message, and the judge said: "Very well; bring them in."

In filed the jury, looking careworn and weary, as if they had not slept a wink. The names were called.

It was 9.15. "Gentlemen, have you agreed upon a verdict?" asked Mr. De-roche.

The foreman, James McCaughey, said: "Robert Mackie is guilty of the charge. Five recommend to mercy."

"What of Ponton?" asked Clerk De-roche.

"Ten are for acquittal; two are for conviction."

"Is there any hope of their agreeing?" asked His Lordship.

The foreman asked that the judge would go over the story again, as in the midst of so much evidence they had lost the thread.

While the judge conned his notes the jury sat, impressive.

TWO CASES OF SMALLPOX.

Medical Health Officer Sheard, Traces One to Cobourg, But the Source of the Other is Not Given. Out—Both Patients Young Women.

Two Toronto homes are under the rigid surveillance of the Health Department today, and had been all day yesterday. Ingress and egress have been stopped by quarantine, for smallpox, the authorities are prone to believe, has entered there, to the exclusion necessarily of everything else.

By a coincidence unparalleled in the health annals of this city the symptoms were discovered in the cases of Miss Barton, 32 Phoebe-street, and of Miss Boyce, visiting at 16 Garden-avenue, on the one day, yesterday.

Yesterday they were both removed with the utmost alacrity and care to the small-pox hospital.

The coincidence is the more enhanced, because of the fact that the two houses are far remote; their respective inmates are practically unacquainted, and the others' existence and the contagion seems to be untraceable to the same source.

In fact in only one case, that of Miss Barton, is there any clue to origination. The young lady is a daughter of Mr. Thos. W. Barton, and has recently, it is understood, returned from a visit to Cobourg, the scene of the outbreak of some weeks ago.

In the case of Miss Boyce, the link of contagion is known only, if to anybody, to Medical Health Officer Sheard, Miss Boyce, a young lady of 20 or thereabouts, is from Montreal. She has been for the past month or so the guest of Mr. Alfred R. Symons of Garden-avenue, assistant librarian at Osgoode Hall. A physician was summoned yesterday and, not being positive in his diagnosis, summoned Dr. Sheard, who confirmed him in his suspicion that it was a case of smallpox in the earlier stages of development and had Miss Boyce removed to isolation as above stated.

Neither of the presumed cases has as yet shown the characteristic lesions, but sheard is of the opinion that the disease is an epidemic or even of any further outbreak is minimized.

Both houses have been thoroughly fumigated and there is not the least cause for any apprehension.

The Medical Health Officer declines to say anything upon the subject, but will make an official statement at the meeting of the Local Board of Health on Wednesday.

To Close the Hospital.
Cobourg, Dec. 4.—Arrangements have been completed for the closing of the Smallpox Hospital. Five weeks ago Cobourg was threatened with serious danger, but the vigilance of the authorities has been rewarded. The patient will probably go to her home near Deseronto. It is a subject for congratulation that the second strain did not contract the disease, and she has simply to thank her prompt vaccination and the disinfecting regulations for her good fortune.

Called Him "Boodler Blair."
And That Was More Than the Minister of Railways Would Stand.

Halifax, Dec. 4.—Hon. A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways, last week instructed counsel to institute proceedings against the New Glasgow Enterprise and its editor for criminal libel, on account of an article published entitled "Boodler Blair."

The article accused the Minister of profiting personally by an order given to an American firm for locomotives for the I.C.R. The Enterprise, in its last issue, published an apology, and it is understood that threatened prosecution has been dropped.

SNOW AND SLUSH AND ICY MUSH.

Curbstones Flush, Gutters Gush and Trolley Wheels Send Show-

Toronto had a variety of weather yesterday, the most of it of a very unpleasant character. The early morning was dull and mild, not unpleasant enough to materially affect the ordinary church attendance. Shortly after noon the leaden, lowering clouds commenced a steady rain, which, as the daylight faded, turned into sleet. The temperature falling, and a stiff breeze from the east springing up, the drizzle developed into a snowstorm and a miniature blizzard. Those who were abroad were glad of the street car accommodation, but this was not without some little difficulty, for the signboards of the cars were covered with snow and the street crossings with slush. The electric lights often failed, and a car journey was a matter of discomfort. As the night advanced there was no abatement of the storm, and the street car service was a matter of uncertainty.

The storm, which was unexpected, was central over Kentucky yesterday morning, and moved quickly north-east towards the Maritime Provinces. The Meteorological Department had night before last the storm was a severe one in the west, as the wires were evidently down in that district. No news could be obtained in that direction further west than Detroit. The storm is general over Ontario.

Train Delayed From Hamilton.
The Canadian Pacific train, No. 86, from Hamilton, due at the Union Station at 10 o'clock last night, was completely paralyzed by the big snowstorm. She reached Burlington a few minutes past midnight, and such a rough trip that no attempt was made to bring her into Toronto. She will be delayed at Burlington until the snow is cleared. A large number of local people are on board and the passengers for the city will not be able to make connections until this morning.

Settled Their Differences.
The Cummings Brothers Meet Again and Vote to Continue Their Business Relations.

Thanksgiving Day last week saw a very pleasant little party seated around a private fully supplied table in one of the pleasant dining rooms of the Roscoe House. In the party were Mr. Robert Cummings, Mr. Ralph Cummings, Miss Nettie Marshall and Miss Blanche Douglas. The party was of significance to local theatre-goers, because it brought together Messrs. Robert and Ralph Cummings, who at once advised their differences and voted to continue their business relations. No story of any business differences has ever appeared in the newspapers, and it is generally known and generally known in many circles.

That Missing $82,000 Said to Have Been Recovered by the Molsens Bank at Winnipeg—A Queer Story.

From The Sunday World.
I have just heard that the secret of the robbery of $82,000 from Molsens Bank in Winnipeg has been revealed. The story of the revelation as given me is as follows: It was reported to the manager that one of the clerks in the bank had gone crazy in consequence of the continued and perpetual espionage of the detectives. He was always of a religious and cranky turn of mind. On Wednesday he was found praying in the snow in his night shirt by command of the Lord Jesus."

Such a man was experienced in convincing him that the Lord further insisted on his disclosing the hiding place of the money. There he up and told the story, and the $82,000 was recovered. Such is the yarn that has reached me, and I believe is correct.

The Captious One.
The World telegraphed to its Montreal correspondent on Saturday night a story that from the headquarters of Molsens Bank what truth there was in the foregoing story. The correspondent replied: "General Manager Wolfertan Thomas says story refers to young Jack, who is now in the asylum at Geolph, but there is nothing in the statement that he took the money or returned it."

It has been reported among prominent business men of Toronto that several days ago the missing money had been discovered and returned to the bank. Mr. Thomas' statement, however, qualifies the story, which apparently still surrounded in mystery.

IRRIGATION IN ALBERTA
Half a Million Dollars to Be Spent in Reclaiming Half a Million Acres of Land.

Winnipeg, Dec. 4.—The Alberta Irrigation Company, of which Mr. E. T. Galt of Lethbridge is president, has commenced work on a mammoth scheme to reclaim lands between Cardston and Lethbridge, in Southern Alberta. Sixty miles of canal will be built, and 40 miles are at work thereon. The sum of $500,000 will be expended, and 500,000 acres of land irrigated. The main canal is to be finished next year, and the lateral following season. It is proposed to sell the lands on low terms, the settlement of district being of primary importance.

The intake of the canal will be at a point on St. Mary's River, some miles above Cardston and five miles north of the international boundary line, and its course will be as nearly direct as possible to Stirling, a distance of 60 miles, a point 20 miles from Lethbridge on the line of railroad between Lethbridge and Great Falls. There will also be 20 miles of lateral canals connecting various points along the main canal, so as to secure the reclamation of as much land as possible.

TRAGEDY IN MONTREAL.

The Terrible Demon Jealousy Was in This Man.

GIRL WOULDN'T HAVE HIM

When She Married Another He Killed Her and Then Suicided.

Pierre Lauson Meets the 19-Year-Old Wife of Adelaire Richot on St. James-Street, and Without a Moment's Warning Shot Her Dead at His Feet—When Pursued, the Coward Shot Himself, Dying Three Hours Later.

Montreal, Dec. 4.—(Special.)—Less than a month ago Montreal was startled by a foul murder and suicide, and now just such another double crime has been perpetrated.

Early last evening the 18-year-old wife of Adelaire Richot was coming east on St. James-street, and when opposite the Queen's Hotel and quite near the Grand Trunk Depot, she was murdered in cold blood.

Richot, who is a workman, had married the girl only a month before, and they had gone to housekeeping on McCord-street. Previous to her marriage she had an admirer named Pierre Lauson, who was greatly smitten with the young woman's exceedingly pretty face, and when she married he swore that she would not live long with her husband, and it is even said that Lauson threatened to kill her on sight, and in fact this is exactly what he did last evening.

Mrs. Richot, accompanied by a little girl living next door, was coming down town to meet her husband, and when at the place above indicated she suddenly met Lauson, who immediately caught the poor woman by the wrists, and, whipping out a revolver, he shot her dead at his feet.

It does not appear to have been the cowardly murderer's first intention to commit suicide after shooting Madame Richot, for he made off up a side street as soon as she fell. There were men near at hand, however, who saw the deed committed, and they were soon hotly pursuing the author of the terrible crime, and, in fact, Lauson had not run far when he saw the game was up, and once more he drew the revolver and sent a ball crashing into his own crazy criminal brain. Mrs. Richot died instantly and, although her ex-husband never regained consciousness, he did not expire until about three hours after the double tragedy was enacted, and both bodies were placed side by side in an ambulance and driven to the hospital, where an inquest will be held some time to-morrow.

ALL EUROPE WATCHING.
Another Territorial Dispute Has Cropped Up Now.

Paris, Dec. 4.—All Europe is breathlessly watching for the outcome of yet another territorial dispute, in which the question of effective occupation will probably soon loom up. This large quarrel, however, is not international, but intermunicipal. The three municipalities of Chamouilly, Salanches and St. Jovinus have referred this serious question to the Government. Who owns the top of Mont Blanc? The leasing to enterprising prospectors of various spots at different altitudes on Mont Blanc has been most profitable. Chamouilly having proclaimed that the entire summit is under its sphere of influence, the other municipalities have protested. A mass of old maps and documents comparable to the Venezuelan dossier have now been submitted to the Government.

WHAT IS IT?
The World heard a rumor yesterday that something sensational would be sprung before long in connection with the bank burglary case at Napanee.

Colder After the Storm.
Meteorological Office, Toronto, Dec. 4.—(4 p.m.)—An important storm, which was central over Kentucky this morning, is moving quickly northward to the Maritime Provinces, and is at present causing high winds and snow in the Lower Lake district.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Victoria, 35-44; Kamloops, 6-34; Port Arthur, 2-10; Parry Sound, 34-38; Toronto, 28-35; Ottawa, 18-32; Montreal, 22-28; Quebec, 21-32; Halifax, 32-44.

Prohibitions.
Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds and gales from the northeast and northwest; snow or rain at first, clearing by night, with decreasing winds and lower temperature.

Ottawa Valley—Strong winds and gales from east to north, with snow or rain at first, clearing by night, with decreasing winds and lower temperature.

Lake Superior—Fair and cold. Manitoba—Fair, with higher temperature and light local snowfalls.

BIG FEAST AT BRIDGEMAN CLUB

Feasting and Fun in the Arlington Hotel in Washington.

ALL THE BIG WIGS ON HAND.

Sentiment, Wit and Satire Flowed Freely - British and Canadian Delegates Were of the Party and the Conduct of the War Was Discussed Amid Much Merriment.

Washington, D.C., Dec. 3.-The Gildison Club tonight gave a most notable dinner, entertaining guests of the United States, Europe and other parts of the world. In the company were the President, Vice-President, members of the Cabinet, the President of Costa Rica, the Premier of Canada, the entire Joint High American-Canadian Commission, Gen. Garcia, the most prominent officers of the army and navy, Senators, representatives and many other distinguished men. More than one hundred and sixty people were assembled in the beautifully-decorated dining hall of the Arlington Hotel.

The dinner was in a measure conducted on a line of compliment and honor to men who distinguished themselves by both land and sea in the late war. Great orations were given to the President, Admiral Schley and Gen. Slaughter, who rose to speak, while other speakers received most generous consideration.

Happy Chairman. President Frank H. Hooper was very fortunate in his introductions of prominent guests, and with sentiment, wit and satire conducted the features of the dinner to a most satisfactory conclusion. Speeches are always short at grand dinners, and there was no exception to the rule tonight. Remarks were made by the President, the Vice-President, the President of Costa Rica, Lord Herschell, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Secretary of State, Hon. John Hay, Secretary of War, Hon. William Brewster, Hon. John D. Long, Hon. John W. Foster and others.

The Menu Was Unique. The menu was in keeping with the other features of the evening. There were several pages in imitation of army orders, beginning with a proclamation of the president of the club, and ending with a list of guests to assist the regulars of the club at the engagement in the Arlington dining room from 8 to 12 o'clock. They were followed by a series of orders in military style directing the various committees of the club to perform the different duties as usually performed by them.

Among the features was a burlesque investigation of the conduct of the war, which conveyed some of the more humorous fancies of the real investigators. The members of the committee brought in immense stacks of testimonial reports, and different exhibits, which took up some guests and caused great amusement. The report contained with the dinner there was a war, that Spain got licked, and that the Anglo-Saxons stood together.

As this was a very important dinner, British flags were unveiled, and a compliment paid to the Cuban members of the Joint High Commission.

Uncle Sam's New Ward. Another feature was the appearance of Uncle Sam with a number of colored men dressed to represent the Philippines, and a play was made up by the new population which would be acquired by the United States. A very laughable scene was the presentation of a horse to General H. V. Boynton, one of the members of the club, and the presentation of a horse to the army. The horse was one of the state property, and its appearance caused a great deal of hilarity.

Some Distinguished Guests. Among the many distinguished guests present were: William McKinley, President of the United States; Don Rafael Iglesias, President of Costa Rica; A. H. Brown, Vice-President of the United States; the Right Hon. Lord Herschell, G.C.B., England; Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada; Sir James Winter, Premier of Newfoundland; Hon. John D. Long, Secretary of War; Hon. John W. Foster, Secretary of State; Hon. John Hay, Secretary of State; Hon. John W. Foster, Secretary of State; Hon. John W. Foster, Secretary of State.

Money for Missionaries. The system inaugurated by the Church Sunday School for the collecting of money for foreign missions has proved a big success, and this year the sum realized has been away ahead of any former. Yesterday Rev. T. R. O'Meara, the pastor, announced that $125 had been received from the different classes, which will be divided between the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Rev. W. R. White, editor of the Omaha Bee; W. R. General Passenger Agent Southern Railway.

JUST SIZING UP THE HANDS.

Each Side of the Paris Peace Commission is Waiting for the Opponent to Lead—There is a Halt.

Paris, Dec. 3.—The position of the Peace Commissions, says an American commissioner, is that of two card players, each studying his own hand and waiting for his opponent's lead.

In spite of this temporary halt in the negotiations and contrary to general opinion, Judge Day, President of the American Commission believes the treaty will be signed next week. But a great deal of work must be done before the treaty is ready for the signatures as after ten weeks of negotiations the only articles accepted by the commissioners are the three leading ones, providing for the cessation of the Spanish colonies and three only in principle and not in language.

The adjournment today was at Judge Day's request, as the long morning session also developed a divergent opinion and had the joint session been held the Americans would not have entered it as a united body.

What is the Hitch? The exact nature of the difference of opinion is not ascertained, but it is believed some of the commissioners are in a more yielding mood towards Spain than others.

There is no doubt that the Spaniards, on Monday will report the arrival of the American instructions, the absence of which caused Friday's adjournment. Amongst anxious observers is skepticism concerning these instructions. It is believed that they constitute a diplomatic scapegoat put forward by the Spaniards to cover the delay necessary to them.

Cooling in the Carolines. The question of a quiet station for the United States in the Carolines is not likely to prove a serious stumbling block. The Americans have made it one of the demands whose granting is essential to the conclusion of the treaty of peace. Some of them are not enthusiastic in its favor and none of them think Germany's negotiations for the Carolines are likely to lead to complications between Germany and the United States.

In French official circles it is asserted that, under the Pope's award of 1885, Germany already possesses certain rights in the Carolines which would prevent Spain from selling the United States one of those islands. But this is a matter which has already been investigated by the Americans who find that Germany's rights refer to certain fishing privileges rights of German citizens and their right to a coaling station to be agreed on mutually between Spain and Germany.

WILLIAM BEATTY IS DEAD.

A Prominent Citizen of Parry Sound Who Suffered a Terrible Fate.

Parry Sound, Ont., Dec. 4.—After a long illness and gradually declining health, the death of William Beatty took place here on Friday evening, the 2nd inst. Mr. Beatty came to Parry Sound in 1863, and has ever since been prominently connected with the growth and development of the town and district of Parry Sound. He was a large property-holder and engaged in business in various ways. He was an enthusiastic temperance man and a prominent and active member of the Methodist Church and identified in instituting the annual religious camp meetings here. In earlier life he was active in politics and was elected a local member for the County of Welland and was one of the "Nine Martyrs" during the time of the Sandfield-Macdonald Government, and throughout life a staunch Liberal. He married Isabella Boyes, daughter of the late John G. Boyes, at one time Mayor of Toronto. He leaves a widow, three daughters and one son. The funeral takes place here on Tuesday next.

THE ADVANCE OF CARLISM.

Don Carlos is Undoubtedly Preparing for a Bold Latin Campaign—What the Feeling is.

London, Dec. 3.—The crisis in Spain is followed with the most keen interest. Don Carlos is undoubtedly preparing for a bold stroke. His emissaries are endeavoring to suborn the Spanish army, a large portion of it being disaffected, partly on account of the arrears of pay, but chiefly owing to the conviction that the army was prevented from earning distinction during the late war on account of the incapacity and corruption of the political administrators. These new factors have given Don Carlos a much better chance of success than had when he made his former attempts to gain the throne of Spain.

One factor influencing thinking Spaniards against the substitution of King Stork for King Log, and that is that Don Carlos would be bound by his own professions to regulate the treaty with the United States, and Spain would thus be in a more perilous state than ever. She would not only lose her possessions but would forfeit the millions possessed by the United States.

Don Jaime, the son of Don Carlos, is reported to be moving from place to place on the French side of the Pyrenees from whence he is pulling the Carlist wires.

What a Leader Says. The Count de Mathe, a leading Carlist who is now in Paris, is quoted in an interview as expressing himself sanguine of success. He claims that Carlism has made a great advance among the regular soldiers, while the people, clergy, and some of the bishops, he alleges, are longing to return to the old regime. The Count adds: "As for the Pope, he is always on the side of the party in power and will send his blessing to Don Carlos as soon as he sits on the throne. Gen. Weyler is ready to give his sword to the highest bidder, and Don Carlos, his wife (the Princess de Rohan) and her family are ready to advance funds and the French Legation will also aid financially and provide volunteers."

No Feeling Against Americans. According to travelers in Spain there is little or no feeling against the Americans among the Spanish people generally. An English visitor who has just crossed Spain, writes in the English papers saying: "I have not found a word of un-friendliness or of abuse of Americans. If any of them care to come here (meaning Spain) they will find every one very happy to see them."

A resident foreigner in Madrid told me that if an American army marched into the country it would be received with arms, as many Spaniards had said to him that it would be better to have good government under Americans, than to suffer as we do under the Government we have."

Will Call for Mr. Porter.

New York, Dec. 3.—President R. A. O. Smith of the new American Mail Steamship Company has instructed the Captain of the Admiral Sampson, which left here Thursday last, to call at Santiago and take off Special Commissioner Robert P. Porter, who is now at that port. The Admiral Sampson will touch at Santiago on Monday next and will call at Port Antonio, Jamaica, reaching Philadelphia on her return Friday, Dec. 12. It is expected that Commissioner Porter will proceed at once to Washington and the schedules of the Cuban tariff will be published about Dec. 15.

ARRIVED BY SPECIAL TRAIN

Louise Hepner Reaches the City With a Host of "Jack and the Beanstalk" Maids in Bunches and Clusters.

The Union Depot yesterday noon presented the appearance of a seminary trunk and it was an interesting sight which greeted the spectators in the neighborhood and one that will not soon be forgotten. The occasion was the arrival of that famous extravaganza company and production, "Jack and the Beanstalk." A special train of five cars brought the company from Buffalo over the Grand Trunk and "Jack," "Little Miss Muffet," "Old King Cole," "Sittin' on a Log," "The Old Maid," "The Boy Who Cried Wolf," and the many other famous characters of the romance of "Mother Goose and Arabian Nights' melodies" were recognized, as they alighted from the train and proceeded to their hotels. There were "pretty maids" in a next out of the bunches, clusters, groups, platoons, droves, flocks and herds of them, with curly hair and young and comely faces, and were easily recognized through the town. "Those are 'Jack and the Beanstalk' girls" was the common remark through the town, and so they were. It was difficult, however, to pick out the future of them all, as all were very fair, but the bright face and smiling features of Louise Hepner, her graceful and charming manner, once convinced the spectator that it was our own Louise Hepner, the "Jack" of the production and a Torontoan.

Miss Hepner was born and raised in Toronto, and it was a pleasure to see her in her new role.

that he might answer any question of law, but would not recant the evidence or the story. All I can say in this regard is that I have never seen him since I am bound to answer it. Is there any hope of your agreeing on the prisoner Ponton?" asked the judge.

The foreman replied: "I could not say, my lord."

"Do you as a body desire further time?" asked the judge.

The jury talked among themselves. The foreman reported that they would like to spend another hour together, but it was 9:30, and the jury filed out again.

The Jury Goes Back. While the jury deliberated the court room was subdued. There was not the same hilarity that there was last night. The announcement of the jury had a dampening effect on the spectators. Every one feared what the issue would be.

There was an angry scene between Mackie and the prisoner Ponton. After an animated conversation they shook hands and the prisoner went back to his cell. Mackie was left in the court room for a while.

Could Not Agree. "Order" called Constable Huff, as the jury returned. They were a tired and weary looking set. The clerk of the court asked: "Have you agreed upon a verdict as the prisoner?"

"No," said the foreman. "No," said the clerk. And all was silent, while the jurors looked at the clock and the spectators at the prisoner. The judge said that it was regrettable after all the expense that had been incurred that the jury had not reached a verdict. He was conscientiously arrived at. He thanked the jurors for their patience and the prisoner for his conduct. "You are now discharged," the judge said.

"Stand up, Robert Mackie. What have you to say?" said the judge. "Nothing, my lord, only that I am innocent. I have been a long time in jail," replied the prisoner.

The judge said that, of course, the prisoner knew whether he was guilty or not, but he had to answer to the law. He added, the prisoner was to all intents and purposes guilty. He did not wish to say anything more, but he would say that the offence was a grave one. The full penalty was 10 years. It was not the intention of the judge to put the prisoner in the Provincial Penitentiary for the period of ten years, said His Lordship.

"Can you have my sentence date from the time I have been in jail, I have been in jail five months."

After a pause, the judge said: "I think not." The prisoner looked at the judge with a look of defiance. "There is just a murmur of dissatisfaction in the audience at the decision. You are now discharged," the judge said.

Pare and Holden Go Over. It was 10:30. There was a pause, and then another matter was taken up. The judge said that the cases of Pare and Holden were to be tried together. He would hear them over under the present circumstances. Pare and Holden stood up and around the hotel where a gigantic crowd was congregated, an oration was given by the prisoner, and he was taken to his foundation. Farmers, storekeepers, business men and men of leisure took off their hats and waved three round hats and a tiger to the boy that was almost free.

Ponton Bailed. Thomas McGinnis came down this morning accompanied by Lawyer Porter drove up to the jail. Papers were accepted by W. J. Sullivan and bail of $10,000 in two series of $5000 was given, and Billy Ponton was brought down to the Paisley House in a hack. There was a scene for your life in the streets as the train pulled out. Women rushed out of the houses and waved their kerchiefs at him; sons and daughters went waving and waving. A crowd was congregated, an oration was given by the prisoner, and he was taken to his foundation. Farmers, storekeepers, business men and men of leisure took off their hats and waved three round hats and a tiger to the boy that was almost free.

Ponton left for Belleville on the 4:30 train, and a big crowd accompanying him to the station and cheering him as the train pulled out. He was accompanied by his mother and his popular counsel as the train pulled out, and there is a hot time in Belleville right now.

Ten Men Own the Town. The jurors who stood out for Ponton are the lions of the town, and nothing is so good for the town as a jury of ten men. They would be in a bad way towards complete ineffectuality. As it is, they could do the town their own good.

The verdict does not meet with general popular approbation. Popular opinion is divided. A decision has been detailed to enquire into the whole matter. There are grave rumors afloat, but nothing is likely to be revealed of a serious character.

Mr. Osler and B. E. Osler, Q.C., and Alexander Crawford, he of the sturdy frame, went out of town on the 2 o'clock train.

Mr. Osler Indignant. Mr. Osler thinks that last night's turmoil was a disgrace to the town, and is indignant as a result. Mrs. Mackie visited her husband in the jail, and she was a very pretty woman. She was accompanied by her children, and they were all very well.

High Constable Sills had a rough handling by a vigorous young man, who was a member of the crowd. Sills was a member of the crowd, and he was a member of the crowd. Sills was a member of the crowd, and he was a member of the crowd.

The court is adjourned by an effluxion of time, were the jury's last words. "The court's adjourned, please," said Constable Huff, and everyone got out.

The Jury's Deliberations. The trial is over, and discussion of its result is the work of everyone. The town is flooded with people from miles around. The truth of the jury's deliberations is out. They went to their room at 9 o'clock, and the full evidence was reviewed. Ten men from the start stood out boldly and firmly for Ponton's acquittal. They declared that the evidence of Pare and Holden was a fabrication and that there was an organized conspiracy on the part of the American detectives to put the guilt on Ponton. The other two jurors, Edward Kaytor and Andrew Crawford, were of the opinion that the evidence was true. The point they stuck out was that Pare could get his information regarding the conspiracy from the American detectives, from Ponton alone. The jurymen asked them why not from Baines, Durand, or the other two. They said that they had circled similar bills were Beds Brought Up. Beds were brought up from the Campbell House at 12:30, and most of the jurors retired to their rooms at 1 o'clock, and returned at 9 o'clock, when court sat. It is said that Kaytor would have given in if Andrew McCaughey had not been present. Besides it was against Ponton Kaytor kept him company.

Verdict Against Mackie. It took the jury one hour and a half to agree upon a verdict against Mackie. The jury recommended him to mercy on the ground that he was a sort of intermediary between the bank and the real robbers. Besides it was thought that the corroborator of

THE DRINK TRAFFIC. Vigorously Denounced by Rev. William Searls, D.D., Ex-Chaplain of Auburn State Prison.

Despite the fact that the weather yesterday afternoon made it more pleasant to remain indoors than go out, every seat in the Pavilion was filled when the usual Sunday afternoon meeting of the Canadian Temperance League was called to order at 3 o'clock.

Vice-President Thomas Foster occupied the chair, and with him on the platform were: Rev. Dr. German, J. H. Holmes, J. W. Gresham, Dr. John H. Gresham, Mr. W. Warden of the Central Prison, the president of the league, George B. Sweetman; the pastor of the church, Rev. J. H. Gresham, S. Shenstone, W. H. Mitchell, James Forster, W. B. Speight, W. S. Armstrong and others.

Mrs. M. de M. Harvey of London sang very beautifully two songs in English and French. The first was "The Good Samaritan," and the second was "The Lord's Prayer." The songs were well received, and the audience was much pleased.

Mr. Searls, D.D., of Auburn, N.Y., made a generous reference to the temperance cause, and the audience was much pleased. An Important Item in Linoleums.

The manufacturers never expected to see these Linoleums sell for so little money as we are going to ask on Tuesday morning. On account of some patterns being slightly imperfect, although it doesn't interfere one bit with the wearing qualities, we have decided to clear out the entire line, nearly 1,500 square yards, at Sixty Cents a square yard, instead of Ninety Cents, the original selling price:--

Best Hand Painted Linoleums, two and four yards wide, a complete range of new floral and block patterns (up to 250 square yards of a pattern), just the thing for restaurants or large rooms, formerly sold at 90c a square yard. To clear Tuesday at 60c

We also have 500 yards of Heavy Union Carpet, 36 inches wide. It comes in nine new patterns, all reversible and in choice colorings. It would be considered quite cheap at 30c a yard. On Tuesday we go one better and will sell it at Twenty-five Cents a yard.

Holiday Gift-seekers Half-Price.

Gift-seekers will find our Handkerchief Department the most attractive spot. Better assortments or better values than we have would be hard to find. These hints may interest you:--

THE TORONTO WORLD

ONE CENT MORNING PAPER | NO. 85 YONGE STREET, TORONTO

Canada First! In view of recent events and what is now taking place at Washington, it is time to engender in the minds of our people the principle of Canada First.

As we said, we have been doing all the giving; a preferential duty in favor of the Mother Country on all the goods we import from her; a two-cent postal rate between England and Canada, when our domestic letter rate is still three cents; we are getting ready to build a Pacific cable between Vancouver and Australia, where we have also established a steamship line; and best of all, we have built that great inter-continental way known as the Canadian Pacific Railway, with its steamships to China and the East.

First of all, it is natural that Great Britain should be most anxious to have the United States as an ally, especially under the existing circumstances, and it is at the same time true that never was there so good an understanding between the two countries and the two peoples as exists to-day.

Something happened this year, only a few weeks back, which at the time, although it struck us as of great significance, we refrained from discussing; in the light of present facts, we are bound to refer to it, and that was the recent visit to the United States of the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies.

We believe Sir Wilfrid Laurier made the mistake of his life when he did not strike out boldly in England in the Jubilee year and demand preferential trade for Canada and firmly say, while we were prepared to do many things, we expected equally to get something in return.

Canada is ready at all times to make due sacrifice on behalf of the Empire, but Canada is not prepared to do all the sacrificing; and it is just as well that everybody should understand this, the Government at home as well as the Government of the United States.

Municipal Gratters. Much as we would like to support the application of the Women's Council for quarters in the new municipal buildings, we are sorry that our respect for principle obliges us to oppose the idea.

What the Montreal Assessors Report After Their Visit to the Queen City. The Montreal Board of Assessors, which spent a few days here some time ago, to get material from the Toronto Assessment Department for a report as to up-to-date methods of assessment, submitted their report to the Charter Committee at Montreal, Saturday morning.

Toronto and Montreal. The total amount of revenue of the city of Toronto for the year 1897, inclusive of tax on machinery for school purposes, was $3,400,853. Comparing this with the revenue of the city of Montreal for the same period, ($2,921,925), it will be seen that the city of Toronto contributes per head the sum of $17.34 and the city of Montreal a fraction less than $10 per head.

PRETTY STRAIGHT TALK.

London Spectator Says Britishers Expect to Get a Quid Pro Quo for Their Good Will.

London, Dec. 3.—The practical conclusion of the peace negotiations at Paris is held here with considerable satisfaction, and the newspapers daily discuss the so-called "imperial" future of the United States, coupled with the fervent hope that the United States will adopt a colonial "open door" policy.

In fact the latter is regarded as being a corner-stone of the Anglo-American understanding, which is an important feature of every political speech delivered on this side of the Atlantic.

No Slabbering Cant. The Saturday Review is very candid about what it describes as "the slabbering cant and hypocritical blooming of doubtful affection" between the United States and Great Britain, and says: "Let us be frank, and say outright that we expect mutual gain in material interests from the rapprochement."

The American commissioners at Paris are making their bargain, whether they realize it or not, under the protecting naval strength of England, and we shall expect a material "quid pro quo" for this assistance.

It is to be expected that the United States will be generous with Canada in the matter of tariff, and we expect to be remembered when the United States shall be in possession of the Philippine Islands, and, above all, we expect her assistance on the day when the United States shall settle for the young Imperialist has entered upon a path which will require a strong friend, and a long friendship between the two nations, can be secured not by frothy sentimentality of public opinion, but by reciprocal advantages in solid, material interests."

The Status of the Islands. The question of the Sulu Islands has awakened a great deal of interest, and this again is viewed through the spectacles of British circles. The Pall Mall Gazette remarks: "Let the United States acquire the Sulu Islands, and we shall let us have an 'open door' there for our trade, adding: 'The Sulu is the connecting link between North Borneo and the Philippines, and we have as much interest in these islands as the Americans will have. An equality of treatment is demanded, not only between Borneo and Sulu, but between Borneo and the Philippines also.'"

Who Does He Represent? Aguinid's supporters in the Philippines are very much concerned about the proposed visit to the United States of a Filipino named Cortes, a representative of the Philippine feeling. The so-called Filipino Junta at Hong Kong has called to the London office of the Associated Press a drawing of Cortes, and declaring that he represents nobody but himself. The Junta adds: "The Filipino Government, and that do now consist of representatives of all the constituted provinces, and that the army, limited only by the lack of arms, numbers over 40,000 men, fully armed in the island of Panay, while the island of Negros, the richest sugar district, is said to be under full control of the Filipinos."

The Filipino Government, the Junta also says, appeals for an impartial enquiry, and implores the American people to strain from a hasty decision.

SOLD PAPERS, ASKED ALMS

Margaret Reid Not a Pauper by Any Means.

HER QUEER CHARACTER.

She Died in the Toronto General Hospital of Pneumonia, Having Gone There at the City's Expense—Over Two Thousand Dollars Found at Her Lodgings—Said to Be Well Connected in Ireland.

With all the evidences of poverty and neglect an old woman known as Margaret Reid passed away in the General Hospital Saturday morning, after an attack of pneumonia. Nothing was ever known of her life, as she made no friends and always kept aloof. She had a decided dislike for any person who attempted to be genial towards her, and thought that they were after her money. She was a familiar figure around the streets, where she sometimes peddled apples, sold papers or solicited alms, and no particular place of abode had she.

A few days ago she presented herself at the Union Station, and, in sorrowful tones, told the constable that she wanted to go to Montreal and proceed a dollar bill in payment for the trip. The officials of the depot were also well acquainted with her and at different times have given her passes to where she wanted to go. At one time she asked for a ride to New Brunswick and another to Nova Scotia, and when she last made a request, no ticket was forthcoming.

Her last rooming was on Richmond-street, near St. James, and when the winter weather came she contracted a cold which developed into pneumonia. She was removed last Thursday to the Hospital, but, despite medical aid, she died early Saturday morning.

A search was made at her quarters, and in an old trunk filled with trinkets were found among other things, a deposit receipt for $2000 in Bank of Montreal and a receipt for $10. An address of a brother, James Reid, was found, which read, "James Reid, Annapolis P.O., County Tyrone, Thyny concession, Ireland."

It was evident from the discoveries made that deceased was well connected, and it is said that her brother and three sisters in Ireland are proprietors of a large estate and are influential people, probably millionaires. The body was removed to the undertaking establishment of P. W. Matthews, 457 Queen-street west. Mr. Matthews called to the address given of her brother, and if he can be located an answer is at hand by the end of the week, the remains will be buried at the expense of the burial paid out of the money she left behind.

LONDONIAN WAS LOST.

Sighted in Mid-Ocean With Her Decks Submerged and No Sign of Her Crew.

Liverpool, Dec. 3.—The British steamer King Arthur, Captain Hendry, from Denmark, arrived here to-day and reported that she sighted the British steamer Londonian on Nov. 29, in latitude 45 north, longitude 16 west, on her beam ends on the starboard side, with decks and hatch cover submerged. All her boats were gone except a small boat, and there was no sign of life about her. A strong northwest gale was blowing at the time, and the vessel was apparently fast settling by the head. The Londonian sailed from Boston, Nov. 15, for London, in command of Captain Lee.

Formerly the Idaho. New York, Dec. 3.—The Londonian was a steel vessel built at Glasgow in 1896, and registered 5322 tons gross and 3614 tons net. She was 130 feet long, 40.1 feet beam and 30.0 feet deep. She belonged to the Wilson-Furness-Leyland Line and hailed from Hull. Her original name was the "Idaho," but was changed to the present name about a year ago. At the office of Sanderson & Son, the New York agents of the line, it was said that the Londonian carried a warrant on a steamer, and her complement of officers and crew numbered 45 men.

Her Cargo. Boston, Mass., Dec. 3.—The Londonian carried a general cargo, including a large quantity of grain and cattle. She had about 800 tons in all. In the cargo were the following: 168,835 bushels of oats, 29,965 bushels of wheat, 423 sacks of flour, 5822 cases of 1150 sacks of ground meal, 400 tubs of lard, 228 tubs of butter, 2473 pieces of mahogany and 635 head of cattle. The cargo was valued at about $300,000. The Londonian carried a warrant on a steamer, and her complement of officers and crew numbered 45 men.

Grand juries were sworn by the chief in the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes last evening.

Michael Calkahan is under arrest, charged with theft. John F. Rogers is the complainant.

STOCK MARKETS OF A WEEK

Tendency of Conditions Toward Higher Level.

But Prices Have Already Risen a Long Way—London's Money Scarce Failed to Break the Market—Good United States Railway Earnings—Canadian Securities Wind Up the Week buoyant—Notes.

Saturday Evening, Dec. 3. The trend of the past week in the financial world of London was the withdrawal of large amounts of gold for German and American accounts.

These withdrawals, therefore, caused a dropping of 9-10 in British consols, and the dropping of a lot of American stocks on Wall-street, but the heavy foreign pressure was so well met by domestic buying that no serious break occurred.

An interesting feature of this support as a whole is that it apparently came from the self-protective measures of speculative investors with large outstanding commitments.

The fact that the resistance did not come from the public is shown in the absence of any increased commission house business.

With the subsidence of the London scare and the failure of the Bank of England to raise its discount rate, the Wall-street market has recovered strength.

The domestic foundation for this buoyancy is seen in the splendid showings of nearly all railway lines, including especially the granary, southern and western roads.

Canadian securities have, on the whole, been rather dull for most of the week, but some issues have, during the past few days, exhibited some marked strength.

Electric issues are the most buoyant, while Cable, C.P.R. and Richelieu show an upward tendency.

With the close of the week War Eagle and Cariboo are a little weaker.

American rails declined a net 1/4 to 1/2 points in London to-day.

Consols rose 1/4 in London. In Paris, 3/4 cent, notes were at 102 1/2.

French exchange on London, 25 1/2. Bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day, £200,000.

McLaughlin's Ginger Ale. FRENCH EFFERVESCENCY.

Mr. Warner Miller on the Panama Canal Men to Washington.

New York, Dec. 3.—Senator Warner Miller, who was formerly at the head of the Nicaragua Canal Company, in a public statement to-day, touching the fact that representatives of the Panama Canal Company are reported to have gone to Washington, supposedly to oppose the building of the Nicaragua Canal, said he looked upon it as "an astounding piece of effrontery on the part of the French company."

Mr. Miller calls attention to a message sent to Congress by President Hayes on March 8, 1880, in which he said: "The policy of this country is a canal under American control."

Mr. Miller then says: "The American people will have no canal under any auspices save their own, that of their own Government, and if the Panama Canal is ever to be built it must be surrendered to the control of the American Government."

The monthly Board meeting of the Church of England Women's Auxiliary will be held on Thursday next, Dec. 8, in St. Philip's Schoolhouse (corner of Spadina and St. Patrick-street). Proceedings will begin at 10:30 a.m. Lunch will be provided.
