A ROMANCE OF LOMBARDY.
BY MARJORIE BOWEN.

"Naught, father," answered Vincenzo heavily, though his heart was beating hot and thick. "Naught, save that that can not fall us."

"No, Vincenzo; the wind blows eastward across the town," said d'Este, with a calmness that was almost brutal. "There will be none for Visconti to take back to Milan."

"We shall light the sky bravely to-night," said Vincenzo, and bit his lip to keep it steady.

His father's dark face lit with a sudden proud smile that transfigured it.

"Some scouts say Visconti sends men to treat with us, Vincenzo—with us on one of the flames blowing from the walls shall be our flag of truce."

The streets, the whole town, were in a panic. The wild terror of the whole countryside had found its voice inside the gates of Novara, there were six hundred men to defend the walls—and God! how Visconti sacked a town!

The sunlight that had rested along the walls when Conrad said farewell, lay along the floor now, a great square of gold that just tipped the table where Vincenzo's hand rested, and lay lovingly on the scarlet doublet, with its little fish scale canopy of ribbons, and that other hand among them, clutched nervously, almost desperately, in the poor crumpled tunic.

"Estr took the crucifix from the wall and laid it on the table. Under it burned a candle, and he moved that, his stalling it beside him, as he took his seat opposite his son."

Behind him was the open door, in front the symbol of his religion—both meaning one thing, that the crucifix lying there boldly on the rough wood table told more plainly even than the powder keg.

Vincenzo's eyes were on the missal, but not his thoughts; his ears on the strain for that sound he sets his teeth in readiness to hear—the rattle of the gates.

In the silence of the chamber, the noises from the street sounded distinct, painfully, distinctly, and cries and cries of "poor souls" so near eternity, and fighting over a handful of goods! Presently all noises died away into faint murmuring, or had he lost his power to hear? Then, all at once it came—the beat of the drums, the summons to the walls! Loud, leader, wild, invigorating, the beat of the drums, and Vincenzo's heart bore them company.

They rose to their feet, the two d'Estes, and dashed hands across the table, the crucifix between them.

"God have mercy on our souls!" said Ippolito, and raised the pale, flaming candle.

"Amen," said Vincenzo, kissing the missal with cold lips.

The drums beat wildly, intoxicatingly, then suddenly stopped.

d'Este pushed back his chair, for a moment there was perfect stillness, then he had the candle to the powder.

And Vincenzo d'Este was on his knees in the patch of sunlight, its glory full on his beautiful, upturned face.

TWO-STORY.

CHAPTER THIRTY-TWO.

The Price of Dishonor.

He who was once the great Lord of Verona and a proud and stainless knight stood without Brescia, awaiting the price of his dishonor. It was mid-day, a swarming heat, and great purple clouds lay heavily about the horizon, with a somberness that foretold a storm.

SUFFERED EIGHT YEARS FROM KIDNEYS

Doctor's said Female Trouble.

Mrs. Charles Lewis, Collingwood, Ont., writes: "For eight years I suffered from Kidney Complaint, and until twelve months ago doctors said I was suffering from Female Trouble. Last November (1905), I was seriously ill, resulting I believe from kidney trouble. Finding doctor's medicine doing me no good, I persuaded my husband to purchase me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, after having read of a case somewhat resembling mine. I commenced taking them according to directions (not taking the doctor's medicine), and on second day a swelling commenced in my feet, legs and body. The following day I was so changed and swollen my husband, in alarm, hastened to Johnson's drug store, who told him to use he thought the pills were drawing 'ing out of the blood, and to keep on them. I did so and after taking them, the swelling disappeared, and I was completely free from pimples, feeling gone, constipation, from for years, gone, pain in the back, and a general feeling of joy and well-being. I have not felt since as well as in me."

(Mrs. Bryan), seeing the Pills, and the change lined in me, sent for my cured her. When of telling people I did for us, we all, and tell them to use per box or 3 all dealers receive by The Ont.

A NEW VEIL AND ITS ADJUSTMENT.

Since the small hat has established itself as a popular favorite in the present modes, the veil is but a matter of course. Novelties in these are continually making their appearance, and new forms of draping and adjustment are introduced with almost every new veil design. With those smart little mushroom shapes, which fit closely over the modish coiffure, the most fetching veil is similar to that pictured, a diamond mesh net with a floral border executed in machine chain stitchings. The upper edge of the veil is pinned easily around the crown of the hat, and fastened in the back with a fancy pin. From this point the ends of the veil fringe gracefully to between the shoulder blades, for its length is from one and one half to two yards. Then it is held in place at the back of the head with a long veil pin, which succeeds in drawing it snug enough that it may not be raised without removing the pin. It should be noted that the pin is placed several inches lower than it was earlier in the season, this arrangement making for a much prettier and more artistic headline.

THE MONCTON CAR WORKS PLAN

Moncton, May 8.—At a largely attended meeting of the board of trade tonight E. A. Wallberg, contractor for the new I. C. R. shops, submitted his proposition for the establishment of wood and steel car works in Moncton. Briefly, the proposition is to lease from the government the old I. C. R. shops for a term of ninety-nine years upon their being vacated by the railway. Mr. Wallberg asks the cooperation of the city in securing from the government an satisfactory terms a lease of the shops and stated he would come with any proposition to raise capital or guarantee bonds, as that had already been done. He proposed taking charge of the shops as soon as vacated if a lease can be secured.

He views with favor Moncton as the location for such works and predicts within a short time if the scheme is successful the works will be employing 1,000 or 2,000 hands. The construction of steel cars is the principal part of the proposed industry.

Mr. Wallberg said he expected from the city exemption from taxes, free water and light for twenty years and also a free grant of the bridge and Waterloo street in the event of the construction of the works. J. W. Y. Smith moved and Hon. C. W. Robinson seconded a resolution to the effect that the board of trade petition the railway department to lease such buildings and site to E. A. Wallberg and associates for a term of ninety-nine years to carry on railway car construction there. After discussion this was adopted unanimously.

Senator McSweeney moved a resolution asking the city council to grant such concessions as asked by Mr. Wallberg and also that the council secure legislation authorizing the city to convey the street in question to the Wallberg Company. Seconded by W. F. Humphrey and adopted unanimously.

It was further decided to appoint a committee from the board of trade to form part of a delegation with the city council to go to Ottawa to interview Mr. Fielding regarding the proposition. The committee is J. T. Hawke, Senator McSweeney, J. W. Y. Smith, C. W. Robinson, E. C. Cole, F. J. Sweeney and D. I. Welch.

The president informed the meeting that Hon. H. R. Emmerson was heartily in favor of the proposition and would do all possible to assist the city in obtaining a lease of the shops. The meeting heartily supported Mr. Wallberg's proposition and offered any assistance position possible.

The I. C. R. is changing its lettering on its freight cars to avoid confusion with American roads. In future the letters will be I. R. C., representing Intercolonial Railway of Canada.

Bell Telephone Company Very Kind Now to People of Ontario Town.

An Uxbridge, Ont., letter says:—

"The Uxbridge & Scott Telephone Company, a co-operative institution, is asking permission to come into the town of Uxbridge. The town council has appointed a committee to look into the question of telephones and report at the next meeting of the council."

"As soon as the Bell Telephone Company heard of the move of the Uxbridge & Scott Telephone Company they approached the town council and said that they had made arrangements with Doctors Bascom and McClintock, who own a telephone line running out into the township, so that farmers could rent their phones for $12 and have the use of the list of telephones, or the town subscribers can use the wires free of charge to outside points, and in return for this concession they ask that the town give the Bell Telephone Company a five-year lease and cut out all the other companies. Besides the Bell Telephone Company agrees to put in two corporation telephones free and establish a night service."

"Thus it will be seen that for years, while the Bell Telephone Company held the monopoly, they were prepared to hold the citizens of the town of Uxbridge up and exact from them the last dollar for service, but as soon as competition appears on the ground the Bell Telephone Company hastens to cover and is prepared to underbid the competing lines, but only on condition that competition is held out and a five-year franchise is given the Bell monopoly."

"The citizens of Uxbridge are not in the mood to accept the Bell Telephone Company's offer favorably. Should that company take over the control of the town, it will not be long before they will be making the users of telephones in Uxbridge sweat for their folly in granting a five-year franchise. Besides, it is held by prominent citizens that the town of Uxbridge has no right to grant an exclusive franchise to the Bell Telephone Company, and has no right to restrain the progress of a competing line in favor of the Bell Telephone Company."

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES

At the regular meeting of the Associated Charities yesterday afternoon routine business was transacted. Mrs. C. H. Hall, secretary, presented her monthly report. The facts were: Communications received, 29; number requesting employment, forty-seven; seeking aid or relief, twenty-three; ladies' aid, three; women wanting work by the day, forty; experienced nurses, eight; request for girls to go to country, ten; wanted to adopt children, two; recommended to employers, thirty-nine; records given, twelve; cases investigated, given, twenty; sick men sent home, four; men wanting night lodgings, twelve; sent elsewhere for employment, men, twenty-five; women, twenty-five; boys, five; girls, five.

Twenty applications were received for common laborers but no men could be found to take the places. Mrs. Hall commented on this as very creditable to St. John.

He who is truthful, just, merciful, kind, does his duty to his race, and fulfills his great end in creation, no matter whether the rays of his life are not visibly beamed beyond the walls of his household or whether they strike the ends of the earth.

ROYAL Baking Powder preserves its leavening strength until used. The last spoonful in a can is as good as the first, and its work is always uniform. Housekeepers have been vexed when using other powders to find their work uneven. If good when fresh, before the can is empty they make sour or heavy food, and the flour, eggs and butter used therein are wasted. This is because they are made from alum or other cheap and inferior ingredients.

WOEFUL DULNESS IS THE OUTSTANDING FEATURE

Hope is All the Wall Street Commission Houses Have Left-- Evolution of the Money Market--Will Probe Harriman System.

New York Journal of Commerce, Tuesday.

The outstanding feature in the stock market is its woeful dulness. Even the squibbled optimists now tardily admit that the recent activity in Union Pacific and Reading is the work of manipulators. "Discovery" was made yesterday that rash sales were being indulged in; this had been shrewdly suspected ever since movement began. Union Pacific is evidently the object of the manipulation, and Reading is, to all appearances, used merely as a foil. Just what has been accomplished thus far, it would be hard to say. If the intention was merely to fan enthusiasm the failure of the machinery could scarcely have been more complete. A trader who has a penchant for statistics said yesterday that up to 11 o'clock 60 stocks on his board had not been traded in, while at noon 44 blank pages remained, and even at 1 o'clock 24 issues had not opened. Outside of Union Pacific, Reading, and to a lesser extent Atchison, Smelters and Canadian Pacific, the list was unconvincingly dull.

One prominent commission house has fixed a plate to its ticker bearing the word "Hope." In explanation the manager said, "That is all we have left."

The evolution of the world's money markets is proceeding satisfactorily. High authorities who recently expressed conservative opinions on money were yesterday quoted as having placed themselves on record that rates would be low for months to come, but on investigation it was learned that such opinions were accompanied by qualifications and reservations. The optimism of Europe on the financial situation has not communicated itself in undiluted form to New York, though the continued eases--notwithstanding that it is somewhat superficial--encouraging the belief that rates will continue low up to July. It should be remembered, however, that the market has not been put to the test for six weeks. The treasury has been emptying its vaults into Wall street, and extraordinary demands in the shape of new flotations have been at a minimum, whereas the near future holds in store extensive new issues and a cessation of the government's assistance. A more definite opinion regarding the basic condition of the money market will be possible after the Harriman and one or two other railroads invade the market. The latest financing--that of the Atchison--certainly does not go to indicate that money is abundant.

Washington now declares that the Har-

HARRY THAW'S LEGACY AMOUNTS TO $439,534

PITTSBURG, May 8--Four trustee accounts under the will of William Thaw have been filed for audit in the office of the register of wills in Pittsburg. The Fidelity Title and Trust company as trustees, prepared the accounts and will send them to the judges of Orphan's court on June 3. The accounts are the second triennial ones which have been made since the trust company took the affairs of the legatees under William Thaw's will into their hands six years ago.

Harry K. Thaw is shown to have received the second largest income of any of the heirs, nearly $80,000 having been paid to him from this source alone. This sum was exclusive of the income which he derives from various other bequests under his father's will. The account of Harry Thaw shows there is due to him under the direct legacy allowed by his father, the sum of $439,534. The income from this during the three years is $93,903.20.

Of this sum, expenditures have been made covering the necessary expenses of the estate, bringing the amount actually paid him down to something less than $60,000.

WHAT NEXT?

Since it has been deemed inexpedient by the directors of the exhibition association to hold an exhibition this year, after the necessary funds had been guaranteed, no time should be lost in deciding whether there is to be an event of any sort to break the year's monotony.

THE CONFERENCE

A London cable states that Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues agree with Mr. Balfour, that the preference is bound to win. It is also pointed out that some apprehension exists in England as a result of Canada's intention to negotiate with foreign powers on the basis of the intermediate tariff, since the conclusion of agreements might interfere later with the United Kingdom getting the full benefit of the preference now enjoyed.

The latest phase of the dispute among British doctors on the subject of alcohol and its uses is the following published statement, expressing the view of Sir Frederick Treves and about a dozen other men of great prominence in the medical profession.

Moncton is making a very tempting bid for a car-making industry. Works that would employ a thousand hands or more would certainly be a vast benefit to the town.

If Canada's peat bogs can be successfully developed as a source of fuel supply, there are sections of New Brunswick to which the news will be of local interest.

At yesterday afternoon's sitting of the police court, Gilbert Lauckner, charged with assaulting Miss Nairn, recently, was fined eight dollars or two months in jail.

A sailor named Emanuel, charged with refusing duty, was allowed to go. Wm. McArthur, charged with interfering with the police in the arrest of Lauckner, was let out on suspended sentence of $8 or two months.

Phoebe Dukeshire and Margaret Mansfield, colored, charged with soliciting men, denied the charge. The Mansfield woman was allowed to go on condition that she leave for Boston, where her husband is, and Phoebe Dukeshire was told to remove from Sheffield street or pay the penalty.

More Coming

Up to the present date, as vouched for by our own correspondent, the following charges have been made against the Panama Canal: That it was simply to be a ditch for the President's gondola. That more than $20,000,000 would be stolen during its construction. That it would be lost or stolen before completion. That there would be too much water. That there wouldn't be enough water. That the President wanted it for a duck pond. That Ryan wanted it for a frog pond. That Rockefeller wanted it to mix with his water oil. That Speaker Cannon was sure that it would bring war and give him a chance to fire himself off.

That a great big hole would suddenly appear in the bottom and all the water run out and flood China. That it would take a force of 10,000 locksmen to keep the locks in order. That there would be so many bullheads and catfish in the big ditch that ships couldn't pass through. That there never was the slightest intention to build the canal, but that John Smith would get away with at least $200,000,000 of the money.

PASSING

A spice jar in an empty room: A fountain in the wilderness: A spark of flame in the forest gloom: A jewel in a mourning dress--

So seem her bravely dancing feet. Her bounding hair and girlish face, At gray noon, on my dripping street-- A dreary, rattling paved place.

IN LIGHTER VEIN SURE THING. A lot of folks who think of faith only as a ferry to heaven are going to get their feet wet.

AS IT IS IN WALES. A certain fair maid named Llewellyn, For her mother began loudly yelling, When a young man plumed Hys arm 'round her waist-- Say, sayn't thys unformed spellyn?

HE WAS A PROUD MAN. "No man named Bepoo shall marry the daughter of Patrick Mulrooney." "Well, father, what do you want?" "Let him change his name to O'Beep and I'll talk wid him."

NATURAL INFERENCE. "I always pitied Adam and Eve for being driven out of Eden in such magnificent clothing, just as winter was beginning." "How do you know it was winter?" "Why, it was just after the fall, wasn't it?"--General Leader.

OLD JOKE REVAMPED. Doctor--You have been overworking yourself, my dear madam; all you need is rest. Patient--But look at my tongue. Doctor (examining tongue)--Just what I said, only rest.

HORRIBLE MISTAKE. "Poor Miss Sere! She spent 50 cents yesterday for a dry old scientific book called 'Best Methods of Filtration.'" "The idea! What did she want with that?" "She thought it was 'Flirtation.'"

THE BACHELOR'S VIEW. Oldbach--I see by the paper that an Ohio man married four women merely for a joke. Weddery--He evidently had no sense of humor. Oldbach--Huh! He evidently had no sense of any kind.

Tommy--Say, pa-- Pa--Now, I told you not to ask me any more questions. Tommy--I know, but my Sunday school teacher says I'm made of dust. Am I? Pa--No; if you were you'd dry up occasionally.

SHE SAVED HIM. Mayne--One evening last week Jack Higgins calmly informed me that he would like me or die in the attempt. Edly--My goodness! And did he kiss you? Mayne--Well, you haven't heard of his demise, have you?

PUTTING IT UP TO THE INDIVIDUAL

(Kalamazoo Gazette.) Are you a reformer? Are you one of the hundreds of scores of people in this great country of ours who are attacking the dishonest rich? Are you in this move to make better the moral conditions of the nation? It is indeed nice to expose graft and the shortcomings of the manipulators of corporation stock and to put an end to dishonesty.

But in doing this, making a fight against municipal graft and corporate abuse--while in a period of hot indignation at the great and far away--are you looking to yourself to see that you are not lawless. Are you keeping a level head and seeing things in due proportion?

Are you a violator of the law in a small way? Do you spit on the sidewalk in direct violation to one of the best ordinances on the city statutes, and do you do it when you think no one is looking at you? Do you run your automobile just a little faster than the law allows and not quite fast enough for an officer to make a case against you? Do you throw your trash in the alley? Do you tempt a friend to slip into a Sunday bar for a drink in violation of the state law? Do you conform with the law in returning your personal property for taxation? Or do you perjure yourself every year? If the street car conductor overlooks you in collecting fares, do you voluntarily go to him with your nickel? Do you cheat merchants by failing to pay your debts? Do you spend any time or effort toward getting the best men for office, looking toward a good government? In fact, do you go to the polls regularly?

In this country every man is an office-holder--he is an elector. When you fail to vote, you make yourself a party to an indifferent government and you give your consent to grafting. You do not want to forget yourself. It is really fine to expose and do all you can to raise the morals of the United States by denouncing public graft and bringing to an end the dishonest conditions of the rich men. But to uplift the morals of the country, you must begin at home, look to your own shortcomings. They may be small, but in a way as great as the graft which involves millions. Don't forget yourself. How deceiving, lawless and dishonest are you?

MR. BOWMAN'S COMPLAINT Wm. E. Bowman, of Bowman & Cole, had an unpleasant experience on Tuesday night, which caused him some delay. He was driving from St. John to Belyea's Point, and when he reached the Nerepis bridge, found that the draw was open and he was compelled to wait until after midnight and then thought it best to spend the night at Westfield.

The annoyance was caused by James Kennedy, who earlier in the evening had taken some screws up stream to load, and opening the draw, took the key (or crank) with him, so that nobody else should come and close the draw before he returned with the screws. When a messenger went to get the key Kennedy refused to give it up.

Existence is one great drama; but you have the choice to see what you will. Inherited millions sometime rob one of the native right to make a living.

No matter how small the business, it is essential to keep a record of all the business transactions. This system is the only one that is simple, efficient and saves time. FISHERMEN HAD AWFUL EXPERIENCE; SIX DAYS AT SEA IN AN OPEN DORY

American Fishermen Rescued by Steamer Bornu and Taken to Halifax—Miraculously Saved from Death from Exposure or Starvation—Six Days in Open Boat Without Food or Water.

Halifax, N. S., May 8—David H. Steele, of the American fishing schooner Montrose, who with his dory mate, Columbus C. McPhee, were brought into port yesterday afternoon by the Elder-Dempster steamer Bornu, by whom they had been miraculously rescued from death by exposure and starvation on the open sea, were for six days and five nights in an open dory without food or water, drifting in their frail boat at the mercy of the waves and winds.

"Our position which was desperate before now seemed absolutely hopeless. With hands and feet frozen and strength completely spent we fell into the bottom of the boat and decided to let fate take its course. We fell into a delicious sleep and awoke with a start to find that only a few rods away was the friendly light of a steamer. In a frantic joy I aroused myself and, bracing myself for one final effort, we again seized the oars and struck out in the direction of life and safety. With our parched throats we called for aid and to our delight our feeble cry was answered from the steamer change her course and bear down upon us.

"In a moment she was beside us and her companion ladder was dropped down. We were too weak to grasp it, but some of the crew came down and tenderly lifted us to the deck, leaving the dory to its fate. No greater kindness could have been shown anyone than that which we received at the hands of the officers, crew and passengers of the Bornu.

SCARCITY OF PREACHERS

Rev. Dr. W. E. McIntyre returned yesterday from Charlotte county, where he has been in connection with the work of the Baptist Home Mission Board. Dr. McIntyre said that there still seemed to be no prospect of increasing the numbers of ordained preachers, and that when the student returned to their colleges in October there would be at least twenty pastorates in New Brunswick without a pastor.

ROOSEVELT SPEAKS OUT

In Letter to a Pittsburg Editor He States His Position in the Moyer-Haywood Labor Controversy

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 9—John D. Pringle, editor of the Labor World of Pittsburg has received the following letter from President Roosevelt in acknowledgment of an editorial recently published in his paper in connection with the Moyer-Haywood controversy which he sent to the president:

"The White House, Washington, May 7, 1907. My Dear Mr. Pringle: 'Nothing that has been spoken or written that I have seen of the Moyer and Haywood controversy has pleased me as much as your letter and editorial. In my letter I wished to drive a wedge in between the two men, and I am glad to see that you have done so. I feel much sympathy—and those worst foes of the movement who preached anarchy and lawless violence; and I wish to see a wedge driven between the capitalist who is an oppressor or swindler, and the capitalist who strives to do right by all his fellows the man who is an American citizen first and a capitalist second. Above all I want to express my absolute agreement with your final paragraph, namely as follows: 'The Labor World has not a word to utter regarding the guilt or innocence of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone in their present terrible position. 'We hope they are innocent and will be proved to be so, but what we want to point out is that their innocence of the preferred charge against them will not, in our estimation, exonerate them from the charge of preaching an industrial and social policy that is damaging to the best interests of the wage workers of the country.'

MUST CUT OUT THE LIVING STATUES

England Aroused Just Now Over Form of Entertainment Which Managers Claim is High Art.

LONDON, May 8—For many months "living statuary" has been a universal feature in the programmes of music halls both in London and in the country. The new craze is a west-end hall, whose atmosphere, covered with a white coating, made of Russian tallow, bismuth and other ingredients, gave representations of well known classic statues. W. T. Stearns, her on his first visit to a music hall. He afterwards described the entertainment as "drivel for drags, but excepted the living statue, whom he praised for her beauty and refinement. This made her famous and soon every hall in the country had its bronze figures, Elgin marbles, etc.

NEW PAPER MILL FOR NOVA SCOTIA (Halifax Herald)

A new paper mill is nearly completed to be operated in connection with the pulp mills located at Milton Falls, five miles above Liverpool. The pulp mills there have been in operation for a number of years under the management of John S. Hughes. They have been very successful. A new corporation consisting of Halifax and Liverpool parties are purchasing the entire property with timber land and water power. The branch of the H. & S. W. railway now being constructed from Liverpool to the yards of the mills will greatly reduce the cost of handling wood as well as the manufactured goods. The tendency of wood pulp generally is upward, and the market is ample both in Great Britain and United States. The prospects of the new company are therefore very encouraging. The output of the pulp mills is about 8,000 tons per annum, and the capacity of the paper mill 2,000 tons.

Free Samples of "Prevention" and a booklet on "Colds" will be gladly mailed you, on request by Dr. Shoop, Eadie, Wis., simply to prove merit. Prevention is little Candy Cold Cure Tablets, No Quinine, No Laxative, nothing harmful whatever. Prevention prevents colds—as the name implies—when taken early or at the "Sneeze Stage." For a sealed cold or La Grippe, break it up safely and quickly with Prevention. Sold by all Druggists.

The rose is the emblem of secrecy in Greece, and was formerly hung over the table where guests were entertained in token that nothing heard there was to be repeated. Hence the expression "rub rosa."

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 8-George de Maro was killed and fifteen persons injured today in a fire that destroyed the five-story brick university building at the northeast corner of Locust and Ninth streets, causing damage of $250,000.

WHAT ARE THEY WORTH? Try and Answer This Yourself. In dollars and cents what is the worth of the brain of your arm; what is the value of the staying power that permits continuous labor-what are they worth to you?

Suppose you did something so foolish as to reduce your strength, vitality or judgment one-half, and it were impossible to get them back-how much would you pay to regain the lost portion?

When you let yourself run down, you reduce your chances for success in life-if sleeplessness comes to you, you are starved in the face by physical bankruptcy.

Don't let it go far, take Ferronox. It has cured thousands and it will cure you; it builds up bodily strength, makes muscles like steel, replaces spring tiredness by energy and new life.

Especially before the hot weather comes, everyone needs a purifying tonic-Ferronox fills the bill completely-nothing known that juvenates and uplifts so fast.

At once the appetite improves, you feel rest and arise next morning feeling fit and fine. Headaches disappear, weakness gives way to the vigor that only Ferronox can supply.

THERE WILL BE NO FAR IN ST. JOHN THIS YEAR

Idea Abandoned Owing to Impossibility of Arranging Dates---Horse Show, Carnival or Old Home Week May be Held in July or August.

There will be no exhibition in St. John this year. A motion to this effect was carried unanimously last evening at a meeting of the executive of the exhibition association and subscribers to the fund, which had been raised to replace the government grant that was not available.

It was found impossible to arrange dates which would not conflict with other attractions of a similar nature in the maritime provinces, and the idea was reluctantly abandoned.

It was decided to call a meeting of citizens in the near future to discuss the advisability of holding a horse show, carnival, an old home week or a similar form of attraction to take place probably in July or August.

Mr. Dykeman said he felt that to some extent he represented the subscribers, and they would have to be asked as to whether they would agree.

He suggested that the meeting organize through the exhibition association with a view to holding a horse show at that date arranged and that the subscribers should be asked if they would be willing to contribute.

After some further discussion Mr. Barry moved that no exhibition should be held this year.

Mr. Rieing seconded the motion. Mr. Dykeman said he quite agreed with the motion, but he was not sure that he had announced St. John could not hold an exhibition with credit to itself.

Mr. Schofield said exhibitions should be held in St. John every year, but it should not be necessary in future to canvass for subscriptions. There should be a contribution from the city's funds as matters stood many who paid the most would get the least of it.

The motion was then carried unanimously. Mr. Allan said he wished to place on record the sentiment they all felt at the generosity of the subscribers to the fund and moved that the association and meeting wished to express their appreciation of the efforts of Mr. Macaulay and of the liberal response made by the citizens.

The motion was carried. Mr. Macaulay, in reply, said he must confess to a feeling of disappointment but in view of the impossibility of securing suitable dates they must accept the situation. They should, however, provide some attraction, he thought, to bring people to St. John this autumn.

After some further discussion it was decided what form the autumn attraction should take.

THE CONFERENCE A FAILURE. Sir Wilfrid Laurier Says He is Satisfied With What They Have Done---Cattle Emargo Question to be Reconsidered by Britain.

Montreal, May 8-The Star's London cable says: Now that the colonial conference is practically over, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the other ministers are expressing themselves on the whole well pleased. They have, they say, smilingly, won almost all along the line as against the too ardent imperialists.

They are now completing the future arrangements. Sir Wilfrid has promised to visit Bristol to receive the freedom of that city, so closely associated with the earliest American colonization.

Mr. Skinner suggested that the meeting should first consider the question of the intermediate tariff and the cattle emargo. He pointed out that Frederick had secured Sept. 14, 21, Halifax Sept. 25 to Oct. 3, and Charlottetown Oct. 10 to 15.

Gasperaux fishing has been going on in the harbor recently and generally speaking good catches have been made. There was an exceptionally large fleet of boats in evidence this morning, and they presented a very pretty picture.

It is the intention of the Kindergarten Association to hold a rummage sale in a week or ten days. Those having articles to send may leave them at the very Day Club, where the sale takes place, or telephone No. 1400, when they will be called for.

The axle of one of Starr's loaded coal carts broke this morning, while passing the corner of Germain and St. James streets. The driver was thrown off with such violence that he hit the stem of the pipe he was smoking at the time. The only damage was to the cart and pipe.

The city market lavatory, which has been closed for repairs since Saturday last, will probably be opened tomorrow. The glazed white filling which has been falling from the walls has been entirely removed and is substituted by a heavy dressing of cement.

The open cars of the street railway company have all been re-upholstered and painted. The cars that, last year, had a single seat, have been fitted with two seats to make them much more convenient for passengers. The new car shed on the west side is about completed and the cars were run in yesterday.

A very pleasing entertainment was held in the Old Ladies' Home on Broad street last evening. John F. Bullock went down with about thirty members of the Junior League of Queen Square Methodist church and a fine programme of vocal, instrumental and literary numbers was carried out, which the ladies of the Home very much enjoyed.

WILL MOVE THE MORGUE

Municipal Committee on Jail Building Improvements Has This Change in View.

A meeting was held in County Secretary Vincent's office this morning of the committee appointed some time ago to consider changes to be made in the jail building on King street east. Several important changes will be recommended to the county council at the meeting on Tuesday next.

It is proposed to remove the morgue to a site on one of the wharves along the harbor front and to convert the space now used for the morgue into offices for the jail officials. This will enable the jailors to have a better supervision over the prisoners. The front of the building will be faced with stone to correspond with the rest of the building and the entrance to the jail changed from the eastern to the western end of the building. The site for the morgue has not yet been decided on. The committee will visit the jail this afternoon.

THE EVERY DAY CLUB

A number of the active members of the Every Day Club were at the Victoria grounds last evening from six till after 8 o'clock and tore away much of the wreck of the old grand stand. There will be a "frolic" of this sort at the grounds every evening until things are put in better shape. The active members will hold a meeting either at the grounds or in the hall this evening between 8:30 and nine o'clock. Arrangements have been made for another dime concert, on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock.

MORE ABOUT THAT OYSTER PROJECT

Col. Markham's Oyster Culture in British Columbia Coast Waters Arouses Interest.

(Victoria Colonist.) The experiment of raising eastern oysters in western waters is now well under way, the West Coast Oyster Company, Limited, having just completed the placing in the Magazine Cove, Esquimaux, of 1,100,000 oyster seeds, secured off the coasts of Connecticut and Massachusetts. These are a trial shipment, but the promoters of the enterprise--Col. Alfred Markham, of St. John, N. B., and Capt. George V. Williams of Wellfleet, Mass.--are most sanguine of success. Col. Markham is president of the company and Capt. Williams is manager.

Discussing the plans of his company with a reporter of the Colonist, Capt. Williams said that he could see no reason why eastern oysters should not do well in western waters. The temperature of the water here was lower than on the east coast, but that should make no difference, oysters flourish at a temperature anywhere from 15 to 20 degrees below zero to 80 above. There should, therefore, be no difficulty on this score, while conditions were the same on both coasts. If everything went well--and he could see no reason why it should not--his company would have western-grown eastern oysters on the Victoria market next fall. The advantage would be apparent to all, times larger than the native western. The company will deal in native oysters, clams and crabs, as well as in eastern oysters. Capt. Williams is now in negotiation for the securing of large native oyster beds off the northern coast of Vancouver Island. He will remain here for a month or so, when Col. Markham will arrive, and he will then leave for the east to look after their interests there.

UP-TOWN BRANCH FOR BIG BANK

Understood that Bank of Montreal Will Soon Have Branch in Furlong Building, Charlotte Street.

Rumors have been in circulation for several days that the Bank of Montreal and the Bank of Nova Scotia have been negotiating for the purchase of the Furlong building in Charlotte street, with the object of opening a branch office there. It was stated this morning that the Bank of Montreal had secured the property. F. D. Widdier, of the Bank of Montreal, when seen, said that if such a deal had been consummated the local branch knew nothing of it. He said he had heard rumors that the bank wanted to purchase the property, but he knew nothing about it.

Manager Eason, of the Bank of Nova Scotia also confessed ignorance of any deal being made by the Bank of Nova Scotia.

It is known, however, that negotiations have been going on, and it is generally believed the Bank of Montreal will have a branch there shortly.

THE MILL OWNERS WILL STOP BUYING DRIFT LOGS

In past seasons and for a time this season the millowners at St. John have paid liberally for all stray logs picked up by boatmen in the freest season, but they have now decided to discontinue the practice. The change is due to the discovery that all logs offered are not drift logs, but some are coolly rolled off rafts near the mills in the night, and towed to some other mill for sale the next day. It is known to what extent this has been done, but the mill owners assert that it has been and is being done, therefore they will not pay out any more money for alleged "drift logs."

A TEAMSTER'S HARD LUCK

John P. McBay, an elderly teamster, in the employ of the Massey-Harris Company, met with hard luck yesterday afternoon. He was taking a load through George street, when he received an ugly cut on the forehead from a stone thrown by a small boy, who was playing near by. The cut, which bled freely, was bound up by a passer-by, who drove home with the injured man. While going along Mill street his rig was run into by another team and the shafts broken. Temporary repairs were made to enable him to drive home.

Policeman McCollum was given a partial description of the boy who threw the stone. Mr. McBay thinks, with malicious intent, and was on the lookout for him last evening.

Mrs. James Osborne

The many St. John friends of James Osborne, formerly manager of the Atlantic division of the Canadian Pacific railway, will learn with deep regret of the death of his wife, Alice Maud Barrie Osborne, which occurred in Toronto early this morning.

The circumstances attending Mrs. Osborne's death are particularly sad. Yesterday she gave birth to a still-born child, despite the best medical attention procurable, she died early this morning. Mrs. Osborne made many friends here during the time her husband was stationed in this city. She was a most estimable lady and her death will be sincerely regretted. Her sorrowing husband, in his bereavement, will have the sympathy of all his St. John friends. Mrs. Osborne's body will be taken to Montreal for burial, where interment will be made on Saturday.

THE LATE SAMUEL SWANTON

The funeral of the late Samuel Swanton took place yesterday from the residence of Mrs. George Mills, St. Patrick street, where he had lived for the last twelve years. Interment was at the new Catholic cemetery, and the services were conducted by the Rev. Father Holland.

The late Mr. Swanton was a native of County Cork, Ireland, and came to America when 19 years of age. He landed in New York on the day President Lincoln was shot. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. Campbell, of Boston, and Mrs. Dwyer, of Buffalo.
