PREMIER SUMS UP HOUSE BUSINESS

Important Income Tax Amendments Included
Supplementary Estimates in the Commons Today or Tomorrow—Question of U. S. Magazines—Home Brew Bill Withdrawn.

(Canadian Press) Ottawa, June 19.—In the Commons today the first order of business will be the government bills on the order paper. After that the house will be asked to approve of the treaties signed at the Washington conference, and the protocol amending the convention of the League of Nations.

The senate will sit at 8 p. m. On Saturday the government will introduce bills to amend the income tax act, the act controlling the importation and sale of oleo, the Three Rivers harbor commissioners act, the naturalization act and any legislation arising out of the budget resolutions.

Hon. W. S. Fielding, replying to Mr. Melghan said the amendments to the income tax would be of important nature and would deal with exemptions and certain difficulties in connection with commercial travelers.

Hon. A. B. Copp, secretary of state, was unable to state the nature of the amendments to the Naturalization Act, but said he would try to do so on Monday.

Hon. H. C. Hocken, (Conservative, Toronto Centre), wanted an import on magazines coming over the border.

Mr. Fielding said that he would probably bring down the supplementary estimates on Monday or Tuesday.

Home Brew Bill Withdrawn.—A resolution prohibiting "home brewing" was withdrawn by the finance minister.

OTTAWA FEELING AGAINST SESSION OF HOUSE IN FALL

Ottawa, June 19.—(Canadian Press)—With the end of the present session at hand members are concerning themselves to some extent with the probable date of the next session. For a time there was a strong feeling in favor of resumption of the practice of meeting in the fall months but that is believed to have been abandoned.

Present indications, judging by the expressions uttered by the party whips and by the action of the government, are in favor of parliament being called as early as possible after January 6 next and then driving through in an attempt to finish as early in May as possible.

Objection is voiced on all sides to the proposal to meet in November and adjourn for two or three weeks over Christmas and New Years. As January 6, Epiphany, is also a holiday in Quebec, the government is being urged not to call parliament until after that date, but to get the members together about the second week in the month.

Premier Foster Well Pleased With By-election Results—Many Telegrams of Congratulation.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter, "I seen a young feller in a run-in 'n' suit joggin' along the road yesterday—didn't in shape fer a race, I 'pose. I been wonderin' 'bout 'em—Ain't they nobody to start things goin'?"

"You got lots of playgrounds now—but I don't hear about nothin' but baseball. Everybody talks about St. John's. It's a great sportin' town—then goes an' sets on the bleachers to see a ball game. Haint you got no young fellers that kin run—jump—take part in road field sports?"

"What's the matter with all the League an' Clubs an' things?"

"Ain't they nobody to start things goin'?" Can't you raise nothin' but fox-trotters an' bleacher hounds in St. John's? We kin beat that out of the Settlement. This town is wuss than a cross-village forty miles from no-where."

VOTES SHOW THE IRISH FOR TREATY

De Valera Statement Expected to Break Collins Pact.

Believed He Will Denounce Irish Constitution—Some Think Trouble Would Follow—More Incendiarism in Belfast.

(Canadian Press Cable) Dublin, June 19.—The Dublin newspapers treat the election results recorded as conclusive evidence that the voters support the Anglo-Irish treaty.

The counting of the votes here was begun today. It is thought possible that the results may be announced by midnight.

The return of Robert Day was looked for as he was recognized as the leader of the extreme labor section and was in command when the port was seized.

Already the accusation is made from the Republican side that the supporters of the treaty have violated the Collins-De Valera pact.

Mr. Collins himself is attacked not only for his speech at Cork but for the fact that he generally regarded as an utterance throwing over the board and the coalition of the right.

The counting of the votes cast in last Friday's parliamentary election in Dublin has begun at nine a. m. and up to the early afternoon had proceeded without incident.

There were eight fires and an attempt to burn a picture house was frustrated.

De Valera is expected to denounce the Irish constitution.

It is expected that the treaty will be supported.

There was considerable mystery about the guns after their seizure and an investigation was started by the U. S. Shipping Board and the department of justice.

The papers ask how soon will the ministers clear out of Europe and direct and energy and the people's energy towards the real sources of prosperity.

HE SHOWS THEM HE WAS NOT SUICIDE

Toronto Man Home to Find That He is Supposed to be Dead and Buried.

Toronto, June 19.—J. H. Vance has arrived here to find that he was several days late for his own funeral.

When Mr. Vance came in from Peterboro his friends turned slightly pale and made careful enquiries as to what would be the fate of the man who had been missing for fourteen years in the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, ten in Canada and four in Africa.

One of the most annoying features of the case from the point of view of the family is that a fund is being raised by the Orangemen and ex-members of the R. N. W. M. P. to erect a monument over the grave.

It is reported that the man who was supposed to be dead and buried is now in Africa.

MORE HOMERS BY BROWN LEADERS

The 17th for Williams; Team Strengthens Lead

Giants' Margin Reduced to Five Games and a Half—Stick Work Telling at a Critical Time in League Contest.

(Canadian Press) New York, June 18.—Led by their slugging stars, George Slater and Ken Williams, the St. Louis Browns have, for the moment at least, shaken themselves free of the field in the American League.

The Yankees dropped their seventh straight to Cleveland, now led by a game and a half. Williams clouted out his seventeenth homer, besides a triple, and Slater got a double and a homer.

Waite Hoyt lasted less than an inning against the Clevelanders and as the bats of Babe Ruth and his mates were silenced by Covelack, Speaker's men took the field game from the New Yorkers, 9 to 2.

The veteran Tris hit the onslaught with a brace of doubles and a single.

Rain abbreviated the only two games scheduled in the National League, but five innings were enough for St. Louis to halt the winning streak of the Giants, 4 to 2, while Wilbur Cooper and the Pirates blanked Brooklyn 2 to 0.

The result out of the field of the Giants to five and a half games over the Cardinals.

Hellmuth's hitting, including four hits in as many trips to bat, featured Detroit's easy victory over Boston, 8 to 1, while Walter Johnson had the best of Urban Fieber in a duel of veterans, and Washington defeated Chicago, 1 to 0.

The combination of speed and batting punch looms as the decisive factor at this stage of the major league pennant race.

The runaway pace of the New York Giants during the last week, which left them five and a half games in the lead after a defeat at the hands of St. Louis, and the sudden return of the St. Louis Browns to the top as the Yankees faltered, can be laid largely to supremacy over their rivals in those departments.

The Giants, whose winning streak reached eight games before it was stopped and included four in a row over Pittsburgh, were aided by a brace in hitting that turned the tide of the McGraw at the critical moment.

Frederickton N. B. June 19.—Two new players will join the Fredericton baseball club's roster this week.

(Canadian Press Cable) Paris, June 19.—France will take part in the conference at the Hague with the Russian delegates, beginning June 26, so as officially announced at the foreign office today.

The French government, it was explained, had decided its decision to participate with the Russians at the Hague without waiting for further developments in the preliminary negotiations.

The French delegates, however, have received strict instructions to adhere to the French policy as outlined at Geneva, and to leave the conference at once upon the entrance of political questions.

It was announced at the foreign office today, and notification of the appointments will be sent to Moscow tomorrow.

SON-IN-LAW OF AMBASSADOR IS INDICTED

A Charge of Conspiracy to Ship Arms to Ireland Laid Against Col. M. H. Thompson and Others.

Trenton, N. J., June 19.—Col. M. H. Thompson, vice-president and active member of the Auto Ordnance Company of New York, has been indicted by the grand jury on a charge of conspiracy to ship arms to Ireland in violation of the neutrality laws.

The announcement was made today by Assistant U. S. District Attorney Aronson.

Colonel Thompson is son-in-law of Colonel George Harvey, U. S. ambassador to Great Britain.

Indictments have also been returned against the Auto Ordnance Company and seven other individuals on the same charge.

The conspiracy is alleged to have been organized in the purchase of the Cosmopolitan liner freighter Eastside, in the coal bunkers of which were found 400 machine guns.

The guns were manufactured by the Colt Patent Arms Co. of Hartford, Conn., and are alleged to have been sold by the Auto Ordnance Co.

There was considerable mystery about the guns after their seizure and an investigation was started by the U. S. Shipping Board and the department of justice.

MAINE ELECTIONS

Portland, Maine, June 19.—United States Senator Frederick Hale sought re-nomination by the Republicans at the Maine state primaries today.

Opposed to his re-nomination were Frank E. Gueney and former state Senator Howard Davis.

Senator Hale left the campaign for friends, contenting himself with brief statements to the effect that he was content to stand on the record of his past term as a whole.

Governor P. F. Baxter, Republican, also asserted that the duty of every deputy before he votes or speaks is to take the oath of allegiance to the Irish Republic.

The counting of the votes cast in last Friday's parliamentary election in Dublin has begun at nine a. m. and up to the early afternoon had proceeded without incident.

After Three Weeks Use of BON-OPTO He Discards Colored Glasses and Can Read Three to Four Hours Without Pain. La Junta, Col.—I am pleased to report that I have been using Bon-Opto for my eyes about three weeks with very satisfactory results. For the last two or three years I have been unable to attend meetings without wearing colored glasses on account of the electric lights hurting my eyes and could read only a short time till they would begin to hurt and the letters run together. Now I can read three or four hours with no pain at all and perfect clearness. A few days ago I was in a lodge hall three hours and my eyes did not hurt at all. Formerly they would have pained me two days.

POLICY OF THE N. B. ELECTRIC POWER COMMISSION

What is the exact policy of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission? This question is sometimes asked by persons deeply interested in the development of water powers of the province. It is answered in the following statement given out by the commission:

First, that the commission is committed to the principle of public ownership of power and the development and sale of same to municipalities or individuals at cost.

Second, that it is not the policy of the commission to sell power to private corporations or others for resale at profit.

Third, that as to communities other than municipalities being desirous of obtaining electric service, when they have satisfied the commission that a sufficient revenue has been pledged to pay the interest and cost of administration, the commission will construct the necessary work, taking the bonds of the community or district which shall be duly authorized by act of the legislature to cover such capital cost.

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

In observance of the Feast of Corpus Christi, which fell on last Thursday, there was exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament in the Cathedral during the greater part of Sunday. A great many people spent some time in the church during the day. After vespers last evening there was a lengthy procession in which the Blessed Sacrament was carried about the church by Rev. W. M. Duke. In the procession walked school-boys and schoolgirls, the latter prettily dressed in white, and representatives of the Children of Mary, the Altar Society, the Holy Name Society and the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. The canopy bearers were John J. Coughlin, William Walsh, Charles Mitchell and Thomas R. Burns.

ARMATURE CARRIED CARS INTO DITCH

Canadian Westinghouse Company, Ltd., is Awarded $52,982.72 Damages.

Toronto, June 18.—Destined for the Laurentide Power Company, at Grand Mere, Que., a huge armature, twenty-eight feet in diameter and weighing nearly forty tons, had traveled 120 miles from Hamilton, the point of shipment, in safety, when at Elliott, Ont., a few miles west of Perth, the great piece of machinery tore away from its anchorage and carried the cars on which it was loaded over into the ditch. Thirteen other cars were derailed and their contents damaged.

In a law suit which followed, the Canadian Westinghouse Company, Ltd., shippers of this machinery and steam motors and motor parts billed to the Toronto Transportation Company, at Montreal, claimed $66,160.90 damages. The goods shipped on August 1, 1921, had never reached their destination, they said, but had been returned to them in a damaged condition. The Canadian Pacific Railway, on which line the goods were shipped, denied liability, and said

Difficult Job Successfully Completed

A large crew of waterworks employees, under the direction of Commissioner Wigmore, yesterday afternoon about five o'clock completed repairing a section of the concrete main pipe leading from Lake Latimer to Phinney's Hill, a distance of something more than a mile. The job took about thirty hours of concentrated effort, the repair crew working night and day, cramped up in the stretches of piping which is only thirty-eight inches in diameter. In the meantime, the city was supplied by the Little River reserve supply, of much lower pressure, causing the higher levels of the city to be practically cut off.

And so the work started on Saturday at noon. Whilst the men were in the pipe filling the breaches with new cement, they were kneeling in a row of about six inches of water. Some of the holes were small, other quite serious gaps. One crack had opened up fully twelve feet and had to be repaired by means of a specially constructed form for the concrete. The breaks covered a stretch of possibly an eighth of a mile.

It was when Commissioner Wigmore was checking up the system of distribution from the sources recently, as one of the first measures of his re-entry into his former position, he noticed water bubbling from around a manhole in abandoned Dry Lake section of piping. He promptly investigated. Upon opening a large vault which serves as a well for the newer concrete pipe leading from Lake Latimer he found the heavy bulkhead of the old pipe line broken down. It would be reasonable to suppose, the commissioner thinks, that the water in the huge vault, rising high in this enclosure, backed up through the broken bulkhead into the section of piping. ### AN IMPORTANT DISCOVERY IN WATER SYSTEM

A discovery made by Commissioner Wigmore, of the water and sewerage department, may help to solve the mystery of polluted drinking water which has been worrying health officials and the public in general for more than a year. The cut-off of the city water supply to a maximum percentage this last weekend and a week ago were necessary operations in the correcting of some grave troubles along the course of concrete water mains from Lake Latimer to Phinney's Hill. It was during the inspection that led to these repairs that the trouble was hit upon.

The one food unfailingly good either alone or in combination with other foods.

Properly used it is the key to a hundred dainty and appetizing dishes that cost but little and will add immeasurably to the charm and zest of your meals.

What we say of Bread is particularly true of St. John and Fairville Bread. St. John and Fairville baked Bread is Bread at its Best—always pure, wholesome and delicious.

KINGS HAS SPOKEN. There is no mistaking the significance of the victory won by Mr. J. D. McKenna and the Foster government in Kings county on Saturday. The people endorsed the government and its policies and continued the opposition and its new leader. Three by-elections have been held. In one there was no opposition, and in the other two the government won by large majorities.

Referring to Mr. Hanna's recent assertion that in course of time the Canadian National Railway would be a national asset instead of a liability, the Maritime Merchant says: "We have no doubt that Mr. Hanna's prediction with regard to the C. N. R. is a sound one. It may take some time to have it fulfilled, but its fulfillment is certain. Another thing that might be said too is that even though this fulfillment is some time away, the majority of people in Canada would prefer to pay the deficit rather than lose the road, that is if the losing of it were to mean the establishment of a railway monopoly in this country."

On June 20 Hon. W. S. Fielding will have been forty years in political life, during nearly thirty years of which he held office under the crown, either in the legislature of Nova Scotia or the parliament of Canada. His has been a remarkably successful career, and today as the finance minister of Canada he is steering the country safely through a period of financial stress which has been without parallel in its history.

At conditions in the west Canadian Finance says: "Optimism held in check by sheer weight of a depression now fading out of sight sums up the present financial and commercial situation. With crop prospects excellent in Manitoba and Alberta, and good in Saskatchewan the west is smiling again but the nearness of fifteen months of depression has a sobering effect and restrains the natural optimism of the prairies. The steady rise in the bond market is causing funds to be more plentiful for mortgage loans."

Dr. C. W. Saleeby, an English authority on eugenics, in an article in the Westminister Gazette, refers to the increased sale of milk under prohibition, and its beneficial effect. He quotes: "Before prohibition Americans drank about half a pint of milk per head per day. We drink about a quarter of a pint. The latest American figures are over three-quarters of a pint, and students of modern dietetics and of that food of foods in particular, will realize what these figures mean for public health, and especially for childhood."

THE CHEMIST AND THE ROSE.

There once was a chemist who found a rose, Dewy and fresh in its fragrant bloom. "I wonder," quoth he, "how this fair flower grows, And from whence it gathers its sweet perfume."

So he plucked the rose in this belief, That from its stem some magic perfume would befall. Deftly hidden in petal or leaf, Is its fragrance sweet that scents the air.

Then over his fire with alembic and still He burned it up, and he boiled it down. With acids and alkalis, until The rose and its sweet perfume were gone.

Lighter Vein. A Business Asset. "I never saw a man quite so full of optimism as my friend, Smiley." "Well, he needs it in his business. He edits the annual catalogue for a dealer in garden seeds."—Judge.

Not Buying Any. The ragman knocked at the door, and a tall, angular woman answered the summons. "Have you any rags to sell?" he asked. "No," replied the woman tartly. "Only these I'm wearing at the present time. If you want them you must take me as well."

Trinity Picnic at Grand Bay. The annual picnic of Trinity Sunday school, at Grand Bay on Saturday, was a splendid success, and in point of attendance it eclipsed all recent records.

LORD CAVE SPEAKS ON CRIMES OF WAR

Subject of Urgent and Practical Interest to Whole World. Specific Instances—Punishment Necessary to Vindicate Accepted Lands, But Application Presents Difficult Problems.

London, June 18.—(By mail).—Lord Cave, in an address on "War Crimes and their Punishment," at the annual general meeting of the Grocers' Society at the Inner Temple Hall, said the subject of war crimes and their punishment was of urgent and practical interest to international lawyers and to the world.

He referred to specific instances of acts of crime committed in the late war, such as the sinking of the Lusitania and the destruction of the lifeboats carrying survivors from the Landover. "These acts were examined by thought it would be found that all of them were not only forbidden by the laws and usages of war, but were, according to the general understanding of civilized people, acts of a criminal nature."

Peace talks lightly of bringing war criminals to justice, but every lawyer knew that there were real difficulties, and the question was how they could be surmounted. The question was considered at Versailles, and the Treaty contained provisions dealing with the war criminals. Lord Cave said that during the war there were remedies which were not difficult to apply, but were very limited in application.

Five Bullets Kill Bear 15 Feet Long. Monster Grizzly Is Shot By Two B. C. Prospectors. Prince Rupert, B. C., June 18.—Two prospectors, Edward Forsman and J. Kennedy, after an exciting battle in the White Creek district near Terrace, B. C., shot a grizzly bear which measured fifteen feet standing erect. The animal weighed 1,800 pounds, the skin alone weighing 100 pounds and measuring twelve feet long and nine feet wide. Its footprint was eighteen inches long and nine inches wide. The bear fought the prospectors. It took five bullets to kill him and when he fell he was but two feet away from Kennedy, who had become entangled in brush.

Kiddies Play Better in Sandals

And they're so cool and comfortable for them, besides affording protection for the tender little feet. Bare feet often encounter bits of glass, splinters and burrs which sometimes cause wounds into which dirt will enter and make trouble which sandals will always prevent. Barefoot freedom and safety, then, are invariably certain with sandals, which you'll find here, extra strong, for kiddies of all ages.

TAFT TO MEET
HARVEY DINNER

Both Will be Guests of the American Ambassador in London, June 24—To be Presented at Court.

London, June 19.—King George and Queen Mary have accepted invitations to be guests at dinner on June 24 of the American ambassador, George Harvey, and Mrs. Harvey. William Howard Taft, chief justice of the United States, and Mrs. Taft, who will be in London at that time, will also be present. Ambassador and Mrs. Harvey arranged the dinner for the king and queen several weeks ago. When they learned that Mr. and Mrs. Taft would be in England at the time they included them in the small company invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Taft will have a busy three weeks here. Scores of invitations have been pressed on those arranging their itinerary, and almost every moment which can be spared from the serious mission which is bringing the former president to this country is to be filled with receptions, luncheons, dinners or other entertainments.

The party, which is expected to arrive Sunday, will be met by Major Oscar N. Solbert, military attaché of the American embassy, who will be Mr. Taft's aid throughout his stay.

The Earl of Balfour will be the principal speaker at a dinner of the Pilgrims' Society on June 19, which will be the first welcoming event to the chief justice. On the 21st Mr. and Mrs. Taft and ten other Americans will be presented at Buckingham Palace at the second court of the season. On that occasion the chief justice will wear his official robes, as the lord chancellor will do.

In the course of Mr. Taft's visit there will be a luncheon in his honor given by the English-speaking union, at which Ambassador Harvey will preside; he will visit Oxford, where the degree of Doctor of Civil Law will be awarded him; will attend a fancy dress ball in London in aid of the King Edward Hospital Fund; will visit Sulgrave Manor, the Washington home of the late Stratford-on-Avon, and will attend a dinner given by the American Society. An address at the Middle Temple by Mr. Taft and a visit to Aberdeen are other features of the tentative programme.

FEMININE ROBIN HOOD.

Rich Girl Became Servant and Robbed to Help Poor.

(Special Cable to The New York Times and Montreal Gazette).

Paris, June 14.—A dispatch from Budapest reports that the police there have arrested a youthful feminine Robin Hood. The young woman when first taken into custody was thought to be a simple dishonest servant. As complaints began to flood the police and an investigation was begun to learn the real identity of the prisoner. It transpired that she is the daughter of a rich and honorable family and is known among the poor of the city as the "Angle of Faubourg."

The young woman then confessed that under a pseudonym she had been taking positions as servant in wealthy households in order to rob her employers, and in this manner secure money to feed the poor. She was forced to this action, she declared, because her soul revolted by the misery on all sides.

Officials have placed her in an asylum for examination.

HON. W. S. FIELDING FOR FORTY YEARS A PARLIAMENTARIAN

Halifax, N. S., June 18.—Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance, will on Tuesday, June 20, celebrate his fortieth political birthday. He entered politics from the editorial desk of the Halifax Chronicle and was first elected to the legislature of Nova Scotia on June 20, 1882, for the county of Halifax. On December 22 of the same year, he was sworn in a member of the legislative council and eighteen months later, July 28, 1884, became premier and provincial secretary, succeeding Hon. W. T. Piper. This office he held until July 18, 1896, when he resigned to become minister of finance in the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Mr. Fielding has contested thirteen elections, five for the legislature of Nova Scotia and eight for the dominion parliament. On two occasions, he has been elected by acclamation and in 1911 he suffered his first and only defeat. Of the forty years which have elapsed since he entered public life, he has spent fourteen in the legislature of his native province and twenty in the parliament of Canada. Out of the thirty-four years during which he has been a member of parliament or of the House of Assembly of Nova Scotia, Mr. Fielding has sat in opposition but for four years, from 1917 to 1921, and during the same period he has held office under the Crown for nearly thirty years.

 Maritime Fire Chiefs' Convention, starting today, and Fire Chief Blake expect to go to Sussex on Wednesday to attend meetings in connection with the Maritime Fire Chiefs' Convention, starting tomorrow. When asked if he would be present at the convention, Chief Blake said today, "I am holding it on the 20th. That is the anniversary of the St. John fire and I never go out of the city on that day. I think we will be returning to the convention on the 21st. Both he and Commissioner Thornton, however, likely will be at the convention on the following day."

LIQUOR HELD UP.
 On Saturday afternoon Liqueur Inspectors Journeay, Killen and Henderson made a raid on a box car being loaded with whiskey at the wharf and seized nine barrels and sixteen large cases of liquor. Some of the liquor was labelled to Providence, Rhode Island, and some to Boston. At local prices the estimated value of the liquor would be in the vicinity of $7,000. An investigation of the manner in which it was being shipped will be made, and if everything is found to be in order, the liquor probably will be returned. Pending disposal of it it is being held at the inspectors' office in Prince William street.

 The Cathedral was filled on Sunday afternoon by the school children of the parish and many parents at the offering of a spiritual bouquet gathered since last September by the little ones of the parish, the orphans of St. Vincent's, and the children in the Good Shepherd. This bouquet is made up chiefly of five-minute visits to the church from day to day. A record is kept, and the tabulation shows a total of 22,806 hours. There were also 5,947 Communions. Floral bouquets, emblematic of the spiritual offering, were placed upon the altar. Rev. W. M. Duke officiated.

GIRL CHAMPIONS IN WATER CARNIVAL HERE NEXT MONTH.

Frank White Announces Plans for Aquatic Meet on Lily Lake—Joe Moore is Included.

Plans to bring Joe Moore, Canadian amateur skating champion, to St. John with a half dozen of the champion girl swimmers of the United States to participate in an aquatic carnival on July 16 at Lily Lake are under way, so Frank White, N. B. Secretary for the Canadian Amateur Skating Association, announced this morning. The ladies will attempt to break all the Canadian swimming and diving records, he said, and Joe Moore will be seen in some novel water stunts which are said to rival his comedy antics on the blades. Arrangements are being made for Hilton Belyea to row, races are planned for junior sculls and swimmers, and an Indian canoe race is also included in the plans.

Amongst the girls who will accompany Moore to the city will be—Ellen Right, fourteen, winner of the Olympic championship for fancy diving at Antwerp last year. Helen Wainwright, U. S. National all-around champion, who recently broke the 150 yards record. Charlotte Boyce, a holder of several records and one of the best girl swimmers in the United States. Helen Meane, national and international high diving champion. Ethel McGary, fourteen years old, who recently established a record of 4 1/2 minutes and 11 seconds for 50 yards in a 60-foot tank. Gertrude Elderle, junior national champion, as well as another girl whose name cannot be announced at present but who is one of the stars in the swimming world.

One of the feature events planned is a swimming relay in an attempt to establish a Canadian record.

FIRE IN MOUNT CARMEL SCHOOL.

Quick work by the fire department and especially by Chief Blake, prevented greater damage from fire which broke out in Mount Carmel convent about 2:45 o'clock this morning. The chief was first seen, and men and hose were rushed to the scene, arriving there about 3:00, perhaps more, to rebuild the building. It was estimated this morning that it would cost $2,000 or $3,000, perhaps more, to rebuild the building. The damage was confined to these parts: the room above and down to the basement. The convent is used as a day school, business college and boarding school for girls. It is situated in one of the highest parts of the city, and the reflection of the blaze could be seen for some distance, causing many people to believe that the fire was worse than it turned out to be.

AT FERNHILL.

Visit of Directors and the Announcement of Plans for Cemetery Work.

The directors of Fernhill, comprising the lot committee, visited the grounds on Saturday for usual inspection and found the work going on well and the appearance of the grounds never better. Especially is this the case with the new completed and have been handsomely decorated with hydrangeas and ornamental trees. As there has been some enquiries for cheaper lots, a new block has been set aside near the back entrance, off Cliva avenue. As the ground there was found suitable and little work was required to lay out a most attractive plot. The prices named are exceedingly low, without perpetual care unless desired by the buyers.

A new avenue will be laid out in this section with exit on Waterford road, and a new drain has been laid to connect with the main drainage system. Some lot holders have pointed out the state of some of the small paths which it is difficult to keep free from weeds, so it has been decided that when it is desired to have concrete paths, the cemetery company will lay them out, provided the lot owners thereon pay one half the cost. This will be a decided improvement and add to the appearance of the cemetery. The directors took several lots and monuments under perpetual care, and made many suggestions regarding general upkeep. The sale of lots this year has been more than usual, most of them being of the more expensive. There is a large stock of cheap lots, supplied at Fernhill.

What's the Price of Good Clothes?

There is nothing the public buys in which quality and style are so important as in clothing. Nor is there anything in which cheap workmanship can be so easily concealed from the casual observer.

Good clothing is made up of three things—good fabric, good design and good tailoring. Skimping any one of these will cheapen the price, but it will cheapen the quality far more.

You can buy cheap clothing, which may look well when first put on, it may be of good fabric, but the real test comes after you wear it—that's when quality begins to show up.

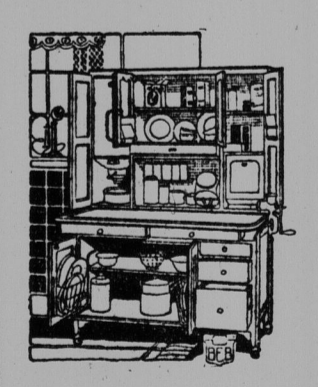

And Scovil's clothing is recognized as Good Clothing, smartly styled. The price represents the quality that's in it. It's the kind of clothing that makes satisfied customers. That's the kind of clothing you want and that's the kind we want to sell you.

'Midst all this talk of better homes, why not buy Everett furniture and have better homes? Formerly fine furniture was a luxury—only the wealthy thought of buying it. The rough pine table and the crude bench of unfinished plank were the typical furniture—not of the poor, but of the average commoner—only three hundred years ago. What a change! Today even the average home is not considered livable without its period furniture; its mahogany, walnut and fine oak—its tapestry.

Modern equipment for the kitchen is considered a necessity, and the Knechtel Kitchen Cabinet which we handle is the last word in convenience.

TEAM OWNERS ASK $8 A DAY

Their Case Presented Today at City Hall.

Matter of Site for the Labor Bureau—Street Paving—Some of the Coal Contracts—Question of Half Pay in Sickness Time.

An appeal on behalf of several team owners in the city was made to the common council this morning, asking that the rate of pay for double teams be increased from $7 to $8. K. J. Macrae said that he represented John Driscoll, Charles Smith, W. Kirkpatrick, John Bahr, Robert Horne and Frank Haasen.

The rate, he said, was $8, but this was cut to $6 and after some negotiations the amount was raised to $7, but the owners found that this was not sufficient. The teams averaged five days a week in the winter season, and he estimated that the cost of $15 a week, which left only $3 a week to pay for shoeing and stable overhead, as well as repairs to equipment. He said if the city paid only $7, contractors refused to pay the cost of shoeing.

With oats at seventy to seventy-four cents a bushel, hay at $12 a ton, and bran at $12.5 a hundred, the mayor figured that the amount of $15 a week was not unreasonable.

Commissioner Frink said that he had paid the following rates:—1917—double team, $5 to $6, single $4; 1918—double $5, single $4; 1919—double $5, single $4; 1920—double $6, single $4; 1921—double $6, single $4; 1922—double $7, single $5.

During this month teams double averaged four a day but in the winter they would average to thirty to thirty-eight. He said he could get all the teams he wanted at $7 but agreed that the owners could not make much money at that figure. He promised to make a report on the matter.

Commissioner Frink observed that conditions in the city were very serious and unless there was a change he anticipated difficulties. He asked the commissioners in the matter of employment of men, horses and property of taxpayers, that every effort be made to pay a reasonable maximum.

Employment Bureau. Commissioner Thornton reported verbally on his visit to secure office accommodation for the local branch of the federal employment service. He said that the building on the corner of Main and Hannon in Gormer street but found it too small; the same objection was raised to the premises of the late C. P. B. tracks, a location in the F. G. Spencer building in Charlotte street and to the premises of the late eastern superintendent, but the rental was $1,700, unobtainable; offices in the Bishop and Leinster streets, the building in Canterbury street owned by George Day and the building on the corner of King street were all unobtainable. The most suitable upstairs location which he had seen was in the Kennedy building, Prince William street, recently occupied by W. H. B. Sadtler, for which $800 a year heated, was asked. He reported on the books of the city to show that the dominion parliament had been asked to proceed.

IN WALL STREET. New York, June 18.—(10.30)—The week end in the stock market began with a resumption of the recent irregular movement. Notice served on the railroad labor board by the unions of their intention to call a strike invited further short selling. Market letters issued by prominent commission houses advising caution also added to the selling movement. Mexican Petroleum was the conspicuous feature, opening at a gain of 1.4 points, reacting one point and then rallying 1.8 points. Pan-American Petroleum and Gulf States Steel made an extreme rise of 81.2 points and others of that group were heavy, with railroads, shipbuilding and equipment.

The preferred stock of Spanish registered a loss of half a point to 92.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

Lesson No. 30. TUNING.

An electromagnetic wave, radiated from a transmitter aerial, will induce radio-frequent oscillations, of maximum amplitude, in a receiving aerial provided that the receiving aerial is electrically tuned to the frequency of the radiated wave. Tuning is the process of obtaining electrical resonance and if two circuits of radio frequency, each containing inductance and capacity, are adjusted so that the product of the inductance and capacity in one circuit has a value equal to the product of the inductance and capacity in the other, these circuits are said to be in electrical resonance.

Under these conditions both circuits will have the same natural frequency of oscillation, and the maximum amount of energy in the oscillations flowing in one circuit may be transferred to the other by electromagnetic induction.

In order, therefore, for oscillations of maximum amplitude to be induced in the open circuit of the receiver, it must be tuned to a condition of electrical resonance with the open circuit of the transmitter.

The open circuit in the inductively coupled tune includes the aerial (A), the aerial tuning inductor (L-1), the primary of the receiving transformer (L-2), the short wave condenser (C), and the connection to earth at (E).

The aerial loading inductance is necessary only when it is desired to receive long waves several times greater than the fundamental wave length of the radiated wave is less than the fundamental wavelength of the receiving aerial. Increasing the number of turns of the aerial inductance tunes the open circuit to longer wavelengths.

For receiving the "broadcasting" signals which are transmitted on a wavelength of 800 meters, the aerial loading inductance may be omitted, as satisfactory reception may be accomplished by adjusting the number of turns of the primary of the receiving transformer and by use of a variable condenser of approximately 0.001 mfd. in the open circuit.

By adjusting the secondary of the receiving transformer (L-3) and the variable condenser (C-1), the closed circuit is tuned to the open circuit so that maximum audibility is obtained in the receiving telephones.

MONTEAL STOCK EXCHANGE. Montreal, June 18.—(10.30)—Very little trading occurred on the local stock exchange during the first half hour this morning, but the general trend was upwards. ABIHI sold an eighth higher at 81.94, while Bell Telephone was up 8-8 at 110.84. Brazilian was up a quarter at 47 1/2, as was also the second preferred of British Empire Steel at 80. The preferred stock of Spanish registered a loss of half a point to 92.

REPORTS SHOW HYDRO GROWTH

Municipalities Make Public Gratifying Results of Using Niagara Energy—Large Surplus on Hand.

Reports on the 1921 business of five more hydro-electric municipalities were made public by the Provincial Commission today.

Stratford, with a population of 16,064, is 122 miles from Niagara Falls. Before the city joined the Hydro Municipal Union, in 1914, the average kilowatt rate for electric energy in Stratford was 22 cents, with a monthly meter rental of 25 cents. The first hydro rates averaged 1.5 cents domestic, 4.7 cents commercial. They have been reduced by authority of the Provincial Commission until they now stand at 1.9 cents domestic, 2.5 cents commercial and $17.15 per horsepower for industrial energy.

In 1912 Stratford's load was 492 horsepower. The price for this power, delivered, was $82. Now the load is 2,316.1 horsepower and the price is $27—electric generating costs at Niagara. Revenue in 1921 was $121,834.59. Expenditures, which included $14,275 for plant renewal reserve, was $115,911.18, leaving a net surplus of $5,423.41.

The assets of the Stratford system are $300,195.20. The liabilities $297,875.36. The reserve and surplus make a total of $23,319.84.

The Record of Clinton Clinton is 156 miles from Niagara Falls, and has been taking hydro power since March, 1914. Before that date the rate for electric energy was 10 cents per kilowatt hour and 25 cents per month for meter rental. The first rate quoted by the Provincial Commission for Clinton averaged 9.4 cents domestic and 8.5 cents commercial. These rates have been reduced to 5 cents and 4.7 cents respectively. Power rates have declined from $31.78 to $27.87. These rate reductions are equivalent to a dividend of $19,173.83 to consumers.

Revenue for 1921 was $18,169.87, expenditure $23,625.81. Assets are $20,942.51, liabilities $40,500. The reserve and surplus funds make a total of $20,442.51.

Low Rates in Goderich Goderich, 108 miles from Niagara Falls, paid, before it became connected with the hydro-electric system, 9 cents per kilowatt hour for electric energy. The first hydro rates were 8.6 cents commercial, 5.3 cents domestic. They have been reduced successively to 4.7 cents and 3.5 cents respectively. Industrial power rates have been variable, ranging from $28.00 to $47.00, in accordance with varying demands for power. The rate reductions to consumers has made $11,861.41. The increasing load made these rate reductions necessary for the revenue in 1914 to 4502 in 1921.

Revenue for 1921 was $99,167.77, expenditure $25,000. Assets are $124,200.87, liabilities $22,964.94. Reserves and surplus funds make the handsome total of $17,235.93.

Harrison's Good Surplus Harrison is at the distance of supply—168 miles. The pre-hydro kilowatt-hour rate was 10 cents. The hydro-electric rates in 1917 averaged 8.6 cents for commercial lighting and $8.45 for power. They are now 6.6 cents, 4.4 cents and $8.94 respectively. The money-saving to consumers by reason of these reductions has been $4,428.73. The load has increased from 18 horsepower to 212.4 within five years.

Revenue in 1921 was $15,152.88, expenditure $12,252.35, leaving a surplus of $2,900.53—equivalent to $12.33 per horsepower on the load taken by the municipality.

Assets are $22,709.93; liabilities $15,152.72; reserves and surplus funds $7,557.21.

Two Years in Listowel Listowel formerly paid 10 cents per kilowatt hour for its electric energy. Its first hydro rates, in 1917, averaged 4.8 cents domestic, 6.2 cents commercial, 8.02 cents per horsepower per annum for industrial energy. Readjustments have brought the rates to 3.8 cents, 5.3 cents and $9.98 respectively. Listowel is 194 miles from Niagara Falls, and the load has increased from 41.9 horsepower in 1910 to 478.4 horsepower in 1921.

Revenue for 1921 was $29,374.14; expenditure $26,958.04, leaving a surplus of $2,416.10.

Assets are $68,718.11, liabilities $48,401.78; reserves and surplus $20,316.33—accumulated since 1916 despite a low rate schedule.

Kings County Adds Another To Swell Government's Ranks

J. D. McKenna Elected by Majority of More Than 450—Sweeping Victory a Tribute to Foster Administration—The Poll.

Rolling up a sweeping majority of 457, according to figures compiled from various sources, or 534 as claimed by the government forces for James D. McKenna, the government candidate for the legislature in the by-election on Saturday, the electors of Kings county emphatically endorsed the record of the Foster administration and paid striking tribute to the progressive policies which have led to such splendid improvement in the public services of the province since 1917. The figures for the first majority are:—McKenna, 4,256; A. J. Brooks, opposition candidate, 3,799. The total vote cast was 8,055, out of an estimated eligible vote of 18,000. The correct returns will probably not be known until declaration day.

The government forces are naturally greatly pleased with the outcome, as all three by-elections have been carried handsomely, Madawaska returning Dr. L. J. Violette by acclamation; St. John county endorsing A. F. Bentley with 271 majority; and now Kings giving an emphatic verdict in favor of the government. The issue in the contests was the same, namely, the government's fine record during the years since 1917.

Conservative column. At the 1920 polls, the count was as follows: Wetmore, G. 2,783; Jones, O., 2,780; Dickson, O., 2,724; Keith, G., 2,682; Murray, O., 2,657; Huggard, F., 2,611; Flewelling, F., 1,510; Bouch, F., 1,497.

Great inroads in opposition strong-hold majorities were made by the government candidate and in several other districts the government forces turned former opposition majorities into the government column. At Upland, it is reported that the opposition machine was willing to take odds of 3 to 1. In former years, this section always administered a three to one defeat to the Liberals. The workers there predicted they could give Mr. Brooks a majority of 100 votes, or more. But Saturday's election shows that Upland not only did not give an opposition majority of 100, but it cut down the former majority by two-thirds. Mr. Brooks received 189 and Mr. McKenna received 104.

Mr. McKenna came out of Hampton with a majority of thirty-two. The opposition had a majority at the last election there of thirty-six. The Hampton showing is one of the most pleasing features of the campaign. There the government forces had a strong leader in Dr. Frank Smith, and he more than made good. Other places which gave the government candidate a majority this time where there was an opposition majority at the previous elections are: Cardwell, Havelock, Hammond, Sussex, Town, Springfield; while deep cuts in opposition majorities were made in the following places: Upland, Greenfield, Westfield, Studholm, Smith's Creek and Berwick. In Sussex town in the last

Mr. McKenna's Message to Electors

Sussex, June 18—I wish to most sincerely thank all who supported me on Saturday. It was a magnificent victory won by splendid organization. To those whose untiring efforts brought about such wonderful victory I cannot fully express my appreciation. My campaign in the interests of the Foster government was conducted with a view to appealing to the intelligence of the electors, and I repeated from every platform that I preferred defeat to indulgence in a campaign of slander and cheap abuse. Kings has given its answer and it is emphatic. I have ended a campaign in which I have received at the hands of the electors nothing but kindness and courtesies, and I thank all for their consideration—supporters and opponents. I also wish to thank all speakers who assisted me in my campaign and to assure the people of Kings that it will be my earnest desire to serve them to the best of my ability.

JAMES D. MCKENNA.

elections Jones' lead over Wetmore, low man for the government, was eighty-three votes, the count being Jones 410, Wetmore 327. Mr. McKenna wiped out that lead and turned it into a majority 121—McKenna 602, Brooks 481. Rothesay gave Mr. McKenna a fine majority of 288.

REAFFIRM THEIR BELIEF IN VALUE OF CHURCH UNION

Sackville, June 18—A strong belief in the proposed union of churches in the Sackville district was reaffirmed in a resolution presented to the N. B. and P. E. I. Methodist conference here at the Saturday session and adopted unanimously by the delegates. The resolution came from the laymen's section, which nevertheless felt that a point had been reached in the union negotiations when, if co-ordination of units could not be effected, the Methodist people should be called on to accept and reaffirm a specific sense of responsibility for strengthening of their own church.

The evening session was devoted to a banquet in the dining hall of the ladies' college under the auspices of the conference's historical society.

The nominees to the board of regents of Mount Allison University for the next four years were approved by conference, as follows: Ministers, Rev. George M. Young, Rev. H. E. Thomas and Rev. G. A. Ross; laymen, Dr. J. M. Palmer, R. C. Tait and Col. F. S. Moore, of Charlottetown.

Delegates to General Conference.

The election of the five delegates still required when the electoral college adjourned on Friday evening being the following nine ministers to represent the conference at the sovereign court of the church in September: Professor W. G. Watson, Rev. H. E. Thomas, G. A. Ross, J. J. Pinkerton, H. C. Rice, J. B. Chapman, R. E. Styles, J. M. Young, and

ARREST IN CASE OF HACHEY DEATH

(Canadian Press Dispatch)

Moncton, June 18—Although a coroner's jury brought in a verdict of accidental death following the finding on June 8, on the railway track, of the mangled body of Leonard Hachey, of Bathurst, the police authorities of that district have not been satisfied that no blame attaches to anyone.

As a result of investigations by Chief of Police Chamberlain, of Bathurst, Gordon Dempsey, of that place, is now under arrest and is being held on suspicion of being implicated in the death of Hachey. Chief Chamberlain expects to make another arrest in connection with the affair shortly.

CONCERT IN HOSPITAL.

The Marty Dupree Company went out to the County Hospital at East St. John yesterday afternoon and gave a special concert for the benefit of the patients in that institution, especially the returned soldiers who are in the ward. The concert was greatly appreciated by the returned men and they extended their hearty thanks to Miss Dupree for bringing the members of the company to the hospital.

Miss Dupree distributed flowers to all the returned soldiers who are in the various wards. The concert was given at the request of the G. W. V. A. entertainment committee and the members of that association expressed their appreciation of the courtesy of the company in according to their request.

A dozen patriots and employes among the 100 persons forced to flee were injured. The loss to the building is estimated at $200,000.

The dead: Mrs. Martin B. Koon, widow of Judge Koon, and Mrs. Lucy Gilbert, her companion, both prominent socially here.

MISS MACSWINEY ELECTED IN CORK

Dublin, June 18—Robert Barton, who was one of the signatories of the Anglo-Irish treaty, but afterwards decided he had signed under duress, and ranged himself with Erskine Childers in opposition to the treaty is expected to be unseated as a result of the poll in Kildare and Wicklow.

Cork, June 18—Members of the new Dail Eireann elected by Cork so far as the latest count shows are: Robert Day, Laborite, 6,840 votes; Miss Mary MacSwiney, anti-treaty, 6,088; J. J. Walsh, pro-treaty, 5,780; Liam Bolittle, (William Roache) pro-treaty, 5,687.

The other candidates who failed of election were Beamsish, 3,405; Daly, 3,098; Lord Mayor O'Callaghan, 1,029. According to the first count Miss MacSwiney received 4,016 but a recount gave her the additional votes and election.

A Record Shipment of Apple Cider Vinegar

Graves' Apple Cider Vinegar is becoming as popular in the United States as in Canada.

To meet the demand there, we have had to charter the "Scott Hamilton" now en route with 50,000 gallons for Boston, the first half of a 100,000 shipment.

This is the first shipment of Canadian vinegar for the States by water and the largest ever made by any route. It is evidence of the attractive price and quality of Graves' Pure Apple Cider Vinegar against the world. Graves' Cider Vinegar has been supreme for 88 years—always above government standards, always preferred by 75 per cent. homes in the Maritime Provinces. The salad season is on—stock up. St. Peter's Wins Two

St. Peter's defeated the Newburyport team Saturday afternoon and evening by scores of 4 to 3 and 6 to 4.

Both games were keenly contested and were featured by sensational playing.

In the afternoon fixture the locals secured their four runs in the last half of the third and the visitors theirs in the third, sixth and eighth.

The result was in doubt until the ninth inning as the visitors kept getting men on and threatening to score.

Sensational catches were made by Doherty, Bennett and Riley for the locals, while the visitors also cut down what appeared to be safe hits.

The box score and summary of the afternoon game follows:

SHE DIDN'T WANT TO LIVE

"I felt so ill and wretched that I didn't care whether I lived or not." This was Mrs. W.'s experience. If you are not feeling well you should read every word of her letter. She says, "I think you have actually or really ill, you don't know what suffering is. I felt so ill and miserable that I didn't care whether I lived or not. I am naturally of an active temperament and as a result I must have overworked myself, because I began to feel tired and weak after the least exertion. At times my face took on a deathly pallor. I was so all over. I was troubled with dull pains which at times produced nausea. My body felt as if somebody had been pounding it—every bit of it pained. When I laid down at nights I could not get into a comfortable position and the consequence was I got very little sleep. The pains, which followed sleeping in one position for any length of time, gave me frightful dreams from which I awoke weak and perspiring. I consulted doctors and they told me that I was completely run down and needed something to build me up. Their prescriptions only helped me for a while. One day I found a circular about Carnol and the state-ment in it sounded so honest and true and free from any exaggeration that I decided to try it. In six weeks after taking the first bottle I was as well as ever. If any one had told me that Carnol would do what it did for me I wouldn't have believed them."

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it has done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. ## STRIKING SCENE AS BOTTOMLEY IS FOUND GUILTY

Intense Moments as the Jury Files in and Verdict is Announced

Rumor of Another Royal Engagement and the Russians—Thrilling Spectacle as Captain Cuttle Wins the Derby.

(From Our Own Correspondent)
London, June 18.—(Horatio Bottomley) you will go to penal servitude for seven years." So this week ended one of the most notable criminal trials of modern times. Bottomley stood charged with fraudulently converting to his own use £150,000 subscribed by members of the Victory Bond and other clubs, which he had organized.

forty minutes—the door to the left of the empty judge's seat opened. The jury, grave-faced and showing signs of strain, filed into the box. As the judge, a scarlet-robed figure, heralded by three loud raps, entered, a deadly silence fell upon the court.

The dock was no longer empty. From many a via dolorosa appeared the gleaming form of the defendant. Wardens went before and behind him. He advanced slowly to the front of the dock. He had seen the tense, white faces of the jurors—ten men and two women. As though overcome with mental anguish, he bowed his massive head, with its mane of dishevelled grey hair, upon his hands, and thus remained.

"Members of the jury, are you agreed upon your verdict?" The voice of the clerk of the court cut into the silence. The foreman, white and distraught, nodded.

"How say you? Is the defendant guilty, or not guilty?" To each count, with but one exception, the questioner received the same answer—guilty, guilty, guilty.

Mr. Bottomley was now standing erect. His tremendous frame braced as he faced the judge.

"A long series of heartless frauds—I see no extenuating circumstances, none," the offence is aggravated by your high position," were some of the judge's comments.

In an almost inaudible voice Mr. Bottomley was heard to request an interview with his solicitor with a view to giving notice of appeal.

The judge, in cool, precise accents, said that that was a matter for the authorities to decide whether it should take place in that building or some other place.

A warden touched Mr. Bottomley on the shoulder. He turned, threw back his head, and moved unsteadily towards the steps in the floor of the dock, by which he had ascended.

The wardens kept very close, and Mr. Bottomley staggered a little, and one of the uniformed men slipped a hand under his right elbow to steady him. So slowly he disappeared from the stage on which he had fought the last and most frantic of his battles to escape the clutches of justice.

The last scene in this intense drama, one of the greatest trials in modern times, was intensified by its brevity. From the moment the jury filed in and took their seats in the jury box to the last glimpse of Mr. Bottomley's huge, inflamed, defiant face descending through the floor of the dock to the cells in the dock beneath the public gallery had recorded but five minutes.

Outside the courtroom, the public gallery had been witness to the immense public interest taken in the trial.

Another Royal Engagement.
A big dinner party will be held at Chesterfield House on the night of the Oaks, at which Viscount Lascelles and Princess Mary will be host and hostess to a distinguished company, including among the guests the king and queen.

It has been discreetly hinted today in one of the morning newspapers that the king may take this interesting opportunity to make an important announcement. Readers of this column will not be surprised to hear it relates to another royal engagement. It has for some time been expected that the duke of York would announce that he was the eldest daughter of the Marquis of Cambridge.

This charming young lady is now twenty-four years old—her birthday is in July—and was one of the prettiest of Princess Mary's galaxy of bridesmaids. She is not only blessed with good looks and figure but possesses a lively intelligence. She has been closely associated with the royal household and the court and her father is intimately allied to the royal family.

The duke of York is twenty-six, and there seems to be no doubt about his attachment, which will maintain the excellent precedent of the royal love romances.

How The Russians Behaved.
Those who have heard Lloyd George's private comments on Genoa know how bitterly he deplored the malign influence that wrecked its main hopes. The French attitude was not alone responsible though it greatly assisted to emphasize the other considerable factor.

Had France been less obstinate, more broadminded and less rigid, the Bolsheviks might have been less pedantic in their peculiar obsessions. The stiff officialism of Paris was an irritant to the fanatical officialism of Moscow, and the same factor was directly responsible for the Russo-German pact which did so much to kill the Genoa proceedings at their inception.

But apart from all this, Lloyd George was even less favorably impressed by the Russians than he had expected. Their attitude was most unhelpful, and showed no trace of that accommodating unscrupulousness which might have been looked for. While the Bolshevik theories are novel enough and their political views are wildly exorbitant, their methods are quite as hopelessly conventional in the old tradition of Russian diplomacy as anyone could imagine.

It will be noted that in his speech last night so the House of Commons the prime minister rather plainly hinted that, despite his hopes and endeavors, a policy of severe aloofness towards Russia under its present regime might become the only practical solution. All depends on whether at The Hague any less impossible spirit is made manifest on the part of Moscow.

THE ENGLISH DERBY

never seen such a huge concourse of people before assembled within such relatively narrow confines. A week ago I walked over the dry, spring downs without meeting a solitary living soul. Today the gorging folds of the Royal Standard floating in the heat wave above the famous grand stand, whence the king and queen watched the great race with a party that included Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles, must have been saluted by a super eye on at least 800,000 subjects, without counting foreign visitors and negro minstrels and gypsies.

Not even the most frenzied cheerer that claims the winning goal at the biggest cup-tie final could have dreamed as a jilt whirler about twenty minutes after three o'clock when that dramatic thunder of a thrilling roar that made the downs quake, sounded the old racing alarm: "They're off!"

The Grand Thrill.
I think that was the grand thrill of the Derby. But what a scene it was! All the crowded stands were tiers upon tiers of straining, excited faces splashed with brilliant colors of ladies' costumes and parasols, fluttering curiously with white wings, the latter effect being due to the fact that everyone was fanning himself or his fair companion with a race programme, for the heat was subtropical.

But the real fun of the fair, the characteristic Derby Day was to be found amongst the perisping plebs packed like the proverbial sardines over the rolling heath. Amidst a jumbled madman's dream of bookmakers' stands, refreshment tents, hawking wagons and horses, coconut sides, boxers' booths, gipsies' wigwams, lemonade and milk stalls, four-in-hand coaches, and motor cars and bicycles innumerable of all sorts, the race course crowd was congregated.

Family parties squatted on the ground over their lunch, with bookies in fancy costume shouting the odds from motor charabancs beside them.

And incidentally they were dimly short odds. What is officially described as a "ten to one winner," could not be backed outside the ring of the course at more than six to one. I lunched on hard boiled eggs and draught cider in a tent run by a genuine Somerset man, who must have weighed twenty stone, and who assured me that it was "West country cider." He assured other patrons heartily that it would "Doo yoo some good" and invited them to "taste before you buy." Lunch was diversified by a wild cantata on the tambourine by a gipsy boy with eyes like sloes and a complexion like an Arab. His attractive older sister offered to tell my fortune or whisper the name of the winner, which ever pleased my lord. Amongst the novel impediments of Epsom Downs to

It does not speak very well for British enterprise that "If Winter Comes," the most discussed British novel of 1921, is to be filmed by an American producer, William Fox will arrive in London on next Tuesday, and almost the whole of the film will be "produced" in this country, with an American producer, and very largely with an American company. I understand that the work will be begun about June 20, after Mr. Fox has conferred with Mr. Hutchinson, and the invasion of England by the second American film company this month, and the British companies are watching these enterprising Yankees with little discontent.

But British artists are correspondingly rejoicing. The more Americans come over here to produce, the more there will be for the small-part actors and actresses, who at the present time, owing to the desperate state of the British industry, are suffering actual privation.

Golfers at Prestwick.
It is interesting to notice that the two South of England golfers who most distinguished themselves in the amateur championship—Holderness and Roger Wethered—came respectively from the golfing home of Holderness, and is more like a seaside course than an inland one. It is laid out on the moorland and is constructed on the massive lines we associate with some of the championship links. London golfers speak of it as being an ideal test for the plus four man, just as Sunningdale is regarded as the ideal test for the mere scratch man.

Holderness plays nearly all his golf there, coming up to the club-house in a jaunty old Ford car and generally setting out for his round on the link unaccompanied by the usual caddie.

Wethered, where Wethered is on his native heath is more of a woodland course and nestles amongst some of the most beautiful scenery in Surrey. Its holes are extraordinarily well planned, and a loose shot is punished there every bit as severely as a loose shot gets into the "Tiger country" at Walton Heath.

The moral is that good links make good golfers.

The Derby—Comedy and Thrills.
A seasoned old punter, viewing his plant in the Derby through field glasses of a less powerful calibre than his check suit, assured me it was the biggest crowd in his time. Personally I have day I noticed a motor fried fish shop and another motor lemonade stall. The sellers of cool liquor were certainly amongst those who "backed a winner." On all sides the slogan sounded "now then 'ave a cooler before the big race."

One bookie advertised himself by means of a full sized observation balloon, regulation army pattern, fastened to his stand. On it appeared its name and an exhortation to "deal with the man you all know." A splendid gallery of sporting names these bookies blazon from their stands—Jack Derbyshire, Joe Child, Wal Miller, "Kinky," Tom Shelton, Alf Birchill, Jen Oldfield, generally with their town or origin, Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Leeds and what not.

Each man makes a parade of his name on a big brass plate round his neck as an assurance that he does not mean to switch his patrons, but some of them wear rather disconcerting sweaters and running shoes. Lady clerks were a feature of this year's Derby. They are bouncing, fashionable ladies and give confidence to the punter. All sorts of folk of old hands, who know the game and the novices who are shy and more than a little distrustful.

They're Off.
About three o'clock the real protagonists of this record Derby Day appeared. In a long handsome string the Derby runners proudly paraded up the course, carefully handled by their jockeys in their brilliant and rich colors, before the admiration—and perhaps prayers of intense hops—followed their progress. Turning at the end of the stands the jockeys give their mounts a canter back to the starting post just as a breather. The crowd picks out each animal by its racing colors, and praises the matchless beauty of each silken movement.

Never shall I forget the thundering roar of the crowd as the horses sped into the bend.

Everybody on the stands is tiptoe with glasses glued to eyes. Those waiting on the course to see the finish can follow the progress of the racers round the track though inevitable totem, by the uniform angle of the race glasses on the grand stand. Then a special rumble of the sporting crowd's majestic thunder tells us they have rounded Tattenham Corner, and come to the now-or-never straight stretch home to the winning post.

They come, ventre a terre, hell for leather, like burning shafts of slow lightning dashing down the course. The white and black hoop, red cap and gold tassels, tells the multitude that Donoghue leads on Captain Cuttle, but as they flash past the king, the white-nosed horse seems to be all out, though his jockey, lying out on his neck like a sailor on a spar in a storm, urges him manly seeming to life him along by sheer will. And the light blue, pink and gold of Tamar closes rapidly on the leader.

It is just one instant of palpitating excitement, a mad glow of purple contest in excelsis, and then as Tamar's gallant spur just falls, amidst the mighty uproar nearly half a million throats, Captain Cuttle wins the 1922 Derby. Another racehorse climbs into one celestial companionship of historic winners.
