DREDGE SCOWS IN THE CITY CLEAN-UP

Will Take Refuse to Sea For Disposal WILL GET INCINERATOR Commissioner Agar Gives Notice—The Way Cleared for Appointment of a Town-Planning Commission For St. John

The co-operation of the federal government has been secured for St. John's clean-up day on May 15, and the government scows used in connection with the dredging will be placed at the disposal of the city for hauling the refuse matter to sea, where it will be disposed of by dumping it in deep water.

Commissioner McLellan wired to Hon. J. D. Hazen last Friday night asking him to secure this assistance for the city and this morning he received a reply to the effect that instructions had been given to place the scows at the disposal of the city on that day.

The method of getting rid of the refuse has been decided upon on account of the strictly limited area of public dumps around the city.

Immediate steps are to be taken towards establishment of an incinerator for the disposal of garbage and other refuse. At a meeting of the city commissioners, Commissioner Agar gave notice that at the next meeting of the council he would move that the time had arrived for the establishment of such a plant and that he be given authority to negotiate with persons who would promote and operate the plant.

The appointment of a town planning commission to supervise future construction and remedy past mistakes in St. John has been made possible by a communication from the attorney-general, which was submitted to the city commissioners this morning.

The decision to appoint a town planning commission for this city was reached last year and was authorized by the government. As it was necessary also to secure the government's approval of the regulations governing the body, the appointment of the commission had been delayed on this account.

TWO HUNDRED SENT TO FORTRESS FOR TRIAL

Portuguese Government Act Falls Hearts of Relatives of Political Prisoners With Fear Lisbon, Portugal, May 8.—The Portuguese government has sent all the political prisoners arrested for complicity in the last attempt to overthrow the present republic on Sunday, April 27, to the Azores for trial and punishment.

About 200 of the prisoners were marched on board the steamship Cabo Verde. She is bound for Terceira Island, where the accused will be court-martialed in the fortress of Angra, the capital of the island.

The Portuguese premier was questioned in parliament on the subject and replied that the prisoners had been sent to Angra under the provisions of the law giving the government the right to choose any place for the trial of political prisoners.

The families of the accused are terrified by the step taken by the government, and express fear about what may happen to their relatives when they arrive on the remote island and are placed in the second stronghold.

Prosecuting Attorney Says He Employed White Girls as Sparring Partners Chicago, May 8.—White women who associated with Jack Johnson, negro heavyweight champion of the world, were used as sparring partners, according to charges of government attorneys in the trial of Johnson, charged with violation of the Mann law.

SUFFRAGETTES THREATEN TO DO EVEN WORSE THINGS

Intimation in Their Newspaper In London TWO FROM ST. JOHN TAKE DEGREES

"GENERAL" FAINTS IN COURT

Precautions Against Trouble at Royal Court Last Night—Impressive Scene in St. Paul's as Congregation Sing Doxology in Thanksgiving For Preservation of Cathedral (Canadian Press)

London, May 8.—The militant section of the British suffragettes intend to inaugurate a campaign of even greater violence than hitherto used, in order to avenge the defeat of the woman's suffrage bill in the House of Commons on Tuesday night and the prosecution of the officials of the Women's Social and Political Union, the central militant organization.

The more advanced members of the fighting sisterhood promise that the events of the last few days are to be eclipsed by worse things to come.

Notes for women, the woman suffrage newspaper, edited by Mrs. and Mrs. Petrick Lawrence, says in its latest number: "We see before the country a period of disaster such as has not been known for decades, perhaps for centuries. We see a prospect of violence being answered by violence of a terrible character. We foresee the likelihood of crimes being sympathized with if not condoned and approved by many of the most respected law-abiding members of the community."

The police authorities are greatly concerned about the increase of violence and bomb attacks on buildings, another of which occurred at Tottenham, in the northeast of London, this morning. It was that occurred yesterday in St. Paul's cathedral, the bomb was discovered before it had time to explode.

The damage to property in the British Isles, caused by the militant suffragettes during the last three months, amounts to upwards of $5,000,000 according to an estimate made by the authorities of Scotland Yard. To this amount must be added the increased cost of protecting lives and property.

Three detectives have been assigned to watch over each member of the cabinet at all times while at the residence of the prime minister. They are all clad in plain clothes and all public buildings have been placed under strict guard.

Mrs. Drummond faints in court London, May 8.—"General" Mrs. Flora Drummond suddenly collapsed and fell in a heap on the floor of the prisoners' enclosure at the Royal Court yesterday afternoon when proceedings under the malicious property act were resumed against seven militant suffragettes.

According to a circular had been found in the home of Mrs. Drummond, the initials of the "Y. H. B." were prominent. The society was to be composed of the younger members of the Women's Social and Political Reform Union and no married women were eligible for membership.

At the Royal Court London, May 8.—The fear of a suffragette invasion prevailed at Wednesday night's royal court, and the precautions which were developed were increased to an extraordinary degree.

The women who were presented last night to undergo a rigorous scrutiny from the time they left their arrival till they reached the entrance to the throne room. No one was admitted even with an invitation, unless she was vouched for by a responsible court official.

In the case of women presented by the embassy, the secretaries to the ambassadors were obliged to meet them at the entrance and personally vouch for each before she was admitted.

These officials were personally responsible for the women during the entire evening.

HE HITS AT FRIEDMANN

Washington, May 8.—"One of the adverse factors regarding the prevention of the white plague," was the characterization applied to Dr. F. F. Friedmann's vaccine by President Homer Folke today at the meeting of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

"Only those who have been engaged from day to day in inducing state and local authorities to appropriate funds can appreciate how vastly more difficult this task has been in the last few months by the extremely effective press agents of Dr. Friedmann. Thus far it has not been evident to me as a layman that any of those who have had to do with the subject in this country have been much credit to the announcement of the cure summoned to our vision."

The cathedral against the mercenary who had tried to wreck it. He went to say: "We say in our human way that it was only by an accident that the lever was turned by mistake to the right instead of to the left or the chance would have been a wreck, and therefore we know that those who set themselves to do the devil's work would not do that right. We ought to leave that to the judgment of God and render thanks to Him and His overruling providence, for saving the cathedral and preventing perhaps the sacrifice of many innocent lives."

The bishop then called upon the Church Army band to play the Doxology, but before the conductor struck the first bell, the congregation broke out into the great anthem with immense fervor. When the hymn was finished the bishop said: "I am sure that God has heard the grateful thanks of His children. The extraordinary difference of parliamentary opinion over women's suffrage shown in an analysis of voting on the bill which met defeat."

For the bill—Unionists 22; Liberals 131; Nationalists 7; Orientals 3; labor, 34; Total, 217. Against—Unionists 135; Liberals, 78; Nationalists 55, total 268.

Washington, D. C., May 8.—Skiters will be discarded by the time 2013 rolls around, and both sexes will parade in oriental trousers. Kissing at that time will be compelled to approach the altar armed with personal health certificates.

These predictions are made in a drama written by Mrs. Christian Hennick, a local society woman and suffragist which, it was announced today, is to be produced here this month for the benefit of the suffragists' cause, in connection with a morality play, also written by Mrs. Hennick.

HAMPTON TO HAVE A FINE POST OFFICE

The building will be located on the corner of Main and Crawford streets, opposite the court house and will be set back a short distance from the street lines and will be surrounded by concrete curbing and grass plots with a steel flag pole rising in front of it on the Main street side.

The dimensions of the building will be 40 by 40 feet and it will be two stories in height with a tower on the corner. The foundations will be of concrete faced with freestone on the outside and the walls will be of pressed brick with freestone trimmings. The ground floor, which will be used for post office purposes, will have a flooring of reinforced concrete covered with tiles. The woodwork will be in whitewood with a natural finish. The second floor will be fitted up as commodious and comfortable living apartments for the post master.

The scheme suggested is the establishment of a modern flour mill in the province to afford a market for the wheat without heavy transportation charges. The by-products of the flour are used for live stock food.

An Ontario miller has been brought to the province to look over the field and pass judgment on its possibilities. To the Times today he said the samples of wheat shown him were of such high grade that he would have no hesitation in undertaking its milling provided there were sufficient quantities of the same grade. He would not recommend the erection of a mill of a capacity of more than 500 barrels and this would require an annual production of at least 500,000 bushels of wheat. Some assistance might be required for the mill for the first few years, but he did not think it would long be needed.

A MESSAGE FROM A WOMAN TO WOMEN

"Every Woman Should Take 'Fruit-a-tive'"

Lakewood, Ont., May 12th, 1911. "Kindly publish the letter of mine if you think it will benefit other women who might be afflicted with the disease I have had in the past, but am now, thanks to 'Fruit-a-tive', completely cured of. It is my firm belief that every woman should take 'Fruit-a-tive' if she wants to keep herself in good health.

Before taking 'Fruit-a-tive' I was constantly troubled with what is commonly known as 'Nerves' or severe Nervousness. The Nervousness brought on the most violent attacks of Sick Headache, for which I was constantly taking doctors' medicine without any permanent relief.

Constipation was also a source of great trouble to me and for which the doctors said "I would have to take medicine all my life," but 'Fruit-a-tive' banished all these troubles and now I am a well woman."

MRS. FRED. GADKE. 5c a box, 6 for $2.50—trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent prepaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tive, Limited, Ottawa.

BADLY ULCERATED LEG

Zam-Buk Cured Her When So Bad She Had to Use Crutches

For varicose sores, bad leg, or chronic ulcers, Zam-Buk is without equal as a healer. A proof of this is just to be had from Montreal. Mrs. T. Edwards, of 164 Amherst street, writes: "Some time ago a bad sore broke out on my left leg near the ankle. For a week or two I did not heed it, but it got so bad that I could hardly walk. I sent for our doctor, and he told me that I would have to lay up with the wound. I did so for three weeks. At the end of that time the ulcer healed a little, but I could only move about by using crutches. "The sore then broke out badly, and the doctor told me that the only thing that would cure it would be an operation, and that I should have to lay up for a year. This, I knew, was impossible, as I had a family to attend to. "My son had cured a bad cut on his finger by using Zam-Buk, and he advised me to give this balm a trial. I did so, and in less than a week's time it gave me wonderful relief. It stopped the pain, which had been so bad that many nights I did not get a wink of sleep. In a very short time the wound was so much better that I had no more sleepless nights, and was also able to move about and do my work. I persevered with Zam-Buk, with the result that the wound is now perfectly cured, and the limb is as sound as a limb. I am now able to walk without crutches, and I feel as good as new."

Zam-Buk is just as good for piles, abscesses, boils, scalp sores, blood poison, festering wounds, cuts, burns, scalds, bruises, eczema, eruptions, and other injuries and diseases. All druggists and stores 5c. box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations. Have you tried Zam-Buk Soap? 25c. tablet.

BANDITS ROB AND KIDNAP

Swaggering Fra Diavolo of Russian Poland

HE IS AN EX-VETERINARY

His Bold Capture of Girl in Her Home Because of Father's Interference With Him — Officials Said to Give Him Protection

(Times' Special Correspondence)

St. Petersburg, April 21—Probably no country except Russian Poland could produce such a drama as that being enacted by the bandits of Lublin. Lublin is a Polish province of which part is being taken away from Poland and tacked on to the new Russian government of Cholm; and it is noted for the high boots worn by the peasants, for illicit drinking, and for pretty girls. So pretty are the girls that a Russian proverb says "Luboy Lubinyne"—which means "Love in Lublin."

Of late into this Eden of boots, drink, and beauty a serpent has crept. It is the bandit Khlustief. Khlustief is an ordinary bandit, but an extraordinary surgeon; and he has about him thirty other bandits organized in small gangs. They raid country houses, rob the treasurers of vodka monopoly stores, and shoot at sight. Eighteen deadly shooting cases have taken place since the autumn of 1912. In February a posse of police followed a wounded bandit by his blood trail in the snow, and found on him papers which indicated that Khlustief has friends and protectors in official spheres. The bandit's last exploit was a raid on the Swidniki estate and the capture of Miss Tserbitski. The Swidniki estate belongs to rich Jan Wenginski, and it lies on the frontiers of the Chruschew and Zamost administrative districts. Wenginski heard that the bandits were coming, and he armed his servants. Khlustief, by a ruse, got the defenders to expose themselves and the bandits shot Wenginski and four servants dead and put a bullet through fifteen-year-old Miss Wenginski's lungs. They then stole goods and gold estimated at $175,000 and burnt down the house. They told a captured servant that they did this because Wenginski had hurried to the help of a lady whom they had attacked the day before near his house.

Runs Away With Girl

Wenginski's cousin is Pan Louis Tserbitski. He has a pretty daughter, named Caterina, and the adventures of this Caterina have stirred Russia. Tserbitski caused the local nobles to petition the governor-general at Warsaw for protection against the bandits. Khlustief resolved to give Tserbitski a lesson. With seven desperadoes he surrounded his house, broke into it, beat Tserbitski into insensibility, and robbed the house. He next made for the room where Caterina Tserbitski slept, woke her, dressed her in a bearskin rug, slung her across the back of a horse, and departed. When Tserbitski came to, he saddled his horse and rode after his daughter. The bandits poured a volley into him, and he fell with three wounds.

Next day the hunt for Miss Tserbitski was resumed. It lasted three weeks. At the end of this M. Rykatchoff, procurer of Lublin province got an anonymous letter stating that Miss Tserbitski had been shot while trying to escape. The procurer reasoned that this was a ruse intended to weaken the pursuit. A posse of police scoured the country. They traced the bandit gang to Kovel, across the Russian frontier, and made for Kovel. There in a pine-forest at midnight they found the bandit's camp. A battle began. Three bandits were shot; the rest fled. In a tent, tethered to the ground, dressed in a nightdress, a beanie, and a man's high boots, Miss Caterina, outrageously hungry but otherwise well. Miss Tserbitski's adventures, as told by Procurer Rykatchoff, show that bandit Khlustief in his way is no mean a character; and she added ironically, "that explains his friendly relations with the government of St. Petersburg." She said that the bandits numbered sometimes thirty, but that they split up in twos and three and remained only at night, when a forest camp was chosen. They had not ill-treated her seriously; but once when drunk Khlustief had ordered her to kiss fifteen bandits, and feeling worse she had consented. She says that Khlustief is a highly intelligent man who spends generally all his money he steals; that he is given to drink and boasting and has an exaggerated high opinion of his vocal powers. The only time she ever saw him angry was when one of his followers sneered about the way he sang.

For three weeks Caterina implored Khlustief to release her, to explain his intentions, and to find out what had happened to her wounded father. Khlustief politely explained that he wanted to punish her father for getting up the petition to the governor-general. He declared that her father was not wounded at all—which was a lie. He talked Russian to his followers and, thinking that she understood it badly, he talked freely, from this she gathered that a high police officer was in the bandit's pay. She also learned that Khlustief takes himself seriously as a politician and Russian patriot.

The "Okhrans," that is to say, the political police, makes use of him; and St. Petersburg once paid him $10 for smuggling into the library of Count Zamiatina certain forged documents which were to incriminate the count as a conspirator against the local nobles. Khlustief did his work honestly, but apparently the count found and destroyed the papers before the police searchers came, because nothing was found.

Miss Tserbitski heard Khlustief boasting that it did not matter much whether he was captured or not, as whenever he is captured he gets an easy release. The local police who went out to catch him, overruled by his police ally, M. Volosin, twice telegraphed from St. Petersburg ordering his liberation. "And the day after," said the cynical Khlustief, "I robbed the Monopolka (i. e., vodka monopoly office) at Chruschew."

Naturally such revelations—not the first—that the government is in league with assassins and robbers has made a stir. St. Petersburg swears that Khlustief is a liar. He is an ordinary robber, it says, without protectors; and Miss Tserbitski misunderstood him. That is always the way with St. Petersburg; but the average Muscovite would believe a bandit sooner than he would believe the "Okhrans," which is the real source of nearly all Russian crime.

However, St. Petersburg, conscious of rectitude, is doing the correct thing. It has decided to send an official of good reputation to investigate the scandal; and Major General Djunkovsky is such a well-reputed man. People wait the issue with smiles. They know that the honest general—who had an extremely good name when governor of Moscow—will find out the truth and make an honest report. They know also that the minister of the interior will suppress all the more damaging parts of the report; and proclaim that the "Okhrans" was without stain. And they know that privileged M. Khlustief, ex-veterinary surgeon, will continue to rob and to murder.

Fill with sweet milk, add a speck of salt and turn into a bowl. Mix soft and divide into two portions. Roll out and put one piece in a round tin, butter the top and put the other pieces right on top of that. Bake in a quick oven. Split and spread with butter and one box of fresh strawberries, washed, drained and mashed, with four good cupfuls of sugar. Spread between and on top.

Deal Gently With That Corn

Not the slightest discomfort. One simply forgets the corn.

This invention makes it folly to have corns. A million corns monthly are now being removed by it. Stop and think of that.

Why suffer from corns—why pamper them—when 15 cents will end them.

A is the picture is the soft B & B wax. It loosens the corn. B shape the pain and keeps the wax from spreading. C wraps around the toe. It is narrowed to be comfortable. D is rubber adhesive to fasten the plaster on.

How to care for baby's delicate skin

Many mothers seem to forget that a baby's skin is much more sensitive, much more readily injured than that of an adult. They bathe the baby with soaps never meant for a skin of such delicate texture and then wonder why the skin becomes raw and irritated.

So little soap is used the first three or four years of baby's life that there is no excuse for not using the best. Woodbury's Facial Soap is the work of an authority on the skin and its needs. Daily baths with its soothing lather keep baby's skin in perfect condition—alleviating, burning and smarting—leave the skin beautifully soft and smooth. Get a cake and try it today.

Woodbury's Facial Soap costs 25c a cake. No one has it at the price after their first cake.

GRAND OPERA STARS

F. G. Spencer Has Completed Big Contract

A TREAT FOR ST. JOHN

Boston Grand Opera Company Singers Here May 19 and 20 in Biggest Musical Event of Eastern Canada

Following on his successful career as a concert promoter during which time he has brought to St. John the world's greatest stars, F. G. Spencer now announces that he has negotiated for the appearance here of the great artists of the Boston Grand Opera Company. Yesterday Mr. Spencer affixed his signature to a contract whereby grand opera as it is heard in the Boston House will also be heard in this city on the evenings of Monday and Tuesday, May 19-20. The opera will be complete in regards to costume, principals, etc. but without the chorus.

Such an event has never before been attempted in Eastern Canada and the enterprising promoter deserves the hearty co-operation of the public in pursuing his policy of bringing to St. John the best the world affords in the realm of entertainment.

TOM BARRETT

St. John Boxer Who Has Made Name in Boston

NEAR TO CHAMPIONSHIP

Only Short Time Since He First Took up Boxing Game, But He Has Made Rapid Strides

Special local interest has been taken in the National Amateur Boxing Championships in Boston this year and the friends of Thomas J. Barrett, as well as a large number of followers of sport in the city, were pleased to learn of the excellent showing he made during the tournament even though he did not land the championship in his class. A Boston despatch says his opponent was carried from defeat only by the gong.

Barrett is twenty-six years old and began his boxing career about two years ago under the tutelage of John T. Power. From the first he showed signs of cleverness with the gloves. He figured in two exhibition bouts this winter and got the decision in both.

Besides the ring, Barrett has been locally connected with other lines of sport, having played with the Clipper base ball club for two seasons, in 1907 and 1909 in the capacity of pitcher. He also with considerable success as a pole vaulter. His brothers, James and Daniel J., are also well known in athletic circles in the city, having taken part in long distance running races during the last few years.

THE STEAMERS.

C. P. R. steamship Lake Michigan arrived at Quebec from Antwerp at 9:30 o'clock last night.

The conference on shipping rates has shifted from Europe to London. The C. P. R. is standing firm. The steamer Montreal will leave Trieste tomorrow with 1,500 passengers. Extra steamers have been chartered to carry the freight.

The Donaldson liner Saturnia left Quebec for Montreal this morning at seven o'clock and is due at Montreal this evening.

TUBERCULOSIS There was an unusually large number of deaths from tuberculosis in St. John last month. Another very significant fact which should not be overlooked is that among those who have been examined in this city lately, and who had intended to go to the sanitarium at River Glade, quite a number were found to be in the advanced stages of the disease, and therefore were not eligible for treatment at that institution.

The Standard prefers another grave charge against Mr. Carvell. It says that he "trampled the rights of the people of Canada to the ground in insulting them by holding up business for two hours while he talked and talked and talked."

As on a former notable occasion Mr. Borden took advantage of the absence of the leader of the opposition, but the latter arrived in time to remark that this was the first application of the gag in a Canadian parliament.

What with the promise of new industries and the erection of many building by companies interested in the development of the city, and the fact that more construction work is now going on than at any time for very many years, the outlook for St. John is very bright.

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

THURSDAY, MAY EIGHT.

The Rt. Hon. Sir Edward P. Morris, premier of Newfoundland, is 47 years of age today. He was born at St. Anne's.

The Hon. Sir A. B. Routhier, retired chief justice of Quebec, was born on May 8, 1830, at St. Placide. He practiced law at Kamouraska and became a justice of the supreme court of the province in 1873.

Hon. H. J. Cloran, senator of the dominion, was born in Montreal on May 8, 1855. Three times he unsuccessfully tried to enter parliament, but in 1893 was called to the senate, where he has taken a prominent place.

EVIL DAYS FOR THE STAGE. The kind-hearted woman had given the frazzled tourist a generous supply of cold victuals.

"Haven't you any regular trade or occupation?" she asked him.

"Yes," he answered, with his mouth full, "I'm an actor."

"And can't you find anything to do on the stage?"

"No, ma'am; they ain't usin' any real actors on the stage these days."—Chicago Tribune.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS. Why is it that classy major-league girls always sign up bush-league husbands?

Keep your troubles to yourself. You never heard of a man who would cross a street to shake hands with a fellow who had a hard luck story to tell.

Another reason for the high cost of living is that the man who used to press his pants by laying them under the mattress now sends them out and pays a half-dollar for the creases.

Now For Your Summer Home

After the 1st of May moving we get inquiries about second hand stoves for the summer cottages. How expensive is that old stove that you buy that some one has thrown out? It won't give you the pleasure you look for when you go to the country. It will smoke, it won't bake right, and in general it is an inconvenience to your pleasure. We have this Hummer, a four-hole cook stove that won't take up much room and is a guaranteed baker at $12.75. Then we have them at $17.00 and $20.00, and if you are looking for a stove it will pay you to look over our line. We also have Oil Stoves of all kinds.

KING'S COLLEGE, WINDSOR
 Alumni Meeting — Today's Degrees — The Alexandria Society

The reports of the executive of King's College presented at the meeting of the alumni in Windsor yesterday showed much progress. There was an increase in the number of students. It was decided to make a change in the matter of providing prizes to matriculants. A recommendation was passed that a prize of $50 be offered annually if possible to the best matriculant from Robeson Collegiate School, or Edgell Church School for Girls, Windsor, or St. Peter's school, Wolfville, who enters King's College to take a course there. Action on the reform of college government was deferred until a later meeting.

Vacancies in offices were filled as follows: Judge Foster, president; Canon Vroom, vice-president; Rev. G. M. Ambrose, secretary; Rev. C. W. NEW INDUSTRIES

John Proser, managing director, and Benjamin Horton, chairman of the Molasses Company, of Greenwiche, Eng., arrived in the city yesterday to secure information about conditions here with the idea of selecting a site for the site of a Canadian factory for their product. L. C. Prime of St. John is their general agent for Canada.

A large bleaching concern and an umbrella factory have been securing information from the Board of Trade regarding the attractions at St. John for branch factories. Several other United States companies also have been interested as a result of Mr. Hoag's recent visit to New York.

TRIBUTE TO FATHER O'FLAHERTY

St. Andrew's Beacon — A clergyman who has filled the place since Rev. M. O'Flaherty has filled for thirty-three years in this community cannot be allowed to depart without some expression of good will from his fellow-citizens. During the years that he has been in St. Andrew he has won the esteem of all who have met him by his broad-mindedness, his gentle yet manly courtesy, his Christian charity, and his public spirit. Though in every sense a faithful pastor, he always recognized the duties that he owed to the public, and was ever ready to extend a helping hand to any scheme for the benefit of the community. Men of all creeds will regret his departure, while congratulating him upon his well-deserved promotion.

MORNING LOCALS

The opening spring prices for American coal this year are 25 cents higher than last spring's, but $1.50 to $1.75 lower than the winter rates.

Among recent appointments by the provincial government are the following: — Andrew L. McIntosh, St. John, as a police and stipendiary magistrate for Simons; Fred Alward, police and stipendiary magistrate for Havelock, Kings county; and Parker A. Nelson, Wolfville, to be a commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the supreme court.

A special committee of the county council, yesterday afternoon, after consideration of the application of the C. P. R. for permission to lay tracks across North street, Fairville, decided to make no recommendation and to leave the matter to the Dominion Railway Commission.

James Carleton, ex-alderman, has been appointed temporarily as inspector of buildings.

The Builders' Exchange last evening considered both sides of the new law restricting height of wooden buildings. There was some discussion of the possibility of a carpenters' strike but no action was taken. James Carleton, the temporary building inspector, was made a member of the exchange.

Tenders will be called for permanent paving for Germain street between King and Princess, according to a petition received from the majority of the property owners. This will be the last new work the department of public works will be able to undertake.

VIEW OF THE FATHER OF 23 ON COST OF LIVING

Jack Harris, a coal miner of Philidia, Ia., and father of 23 children, recently witnessed the marriage of his daughter, Lora Harris, his thirteenth child, to enter upon matrimony. Miss Harris became the bride of George Gilliland, twenty-two years old. She is seventeen.

"It's pretty costly buying wedding presents," said Harris after the ceremony. "But the money sinks into insignificance when I think of the pleasure I receive from seeing a child of mine become happy."

Lora Harris is the ninth daughter of Mr. Harris to become a bride. Four sons of Mr. Harris have married. Mr. Harris is hopeful of seeing all his children married before he dies.

"This tale of the high cost of living is all hoo," said Harris. "It is not the high cost of living that is bothering the people today, but the cost of living high. I have raised probably the largest family in Iowa, and work at the Phillips' coal mine at Philidia. Ask one of my twenty-three children and they will tell you that they have been well provided for."

"All of them are happy. True. I have been unable to give them the best education possible, but I have taught them how to save their money, and to enjoy themselves."

"I've got a cherry pectoral Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Away back in 1841. Old enough to remember those days? Still used for coughs and colds. Sold for 70 years. Ask Your Doctor. J.C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

THE SARDINE PACK.

St. Andrew's Beacon — Steamer Connors Bros. Capt. Warnock, discharged 700 cases of new sardines at St. Andrew on Monday. These are part of the output of the Connors plant, Black's Harbor. So far this season this factory has packed about 8,000 cases of sardines. Capt. Warnock says sardines are scarce on the coast last year, and haddock are more plentiful.

SITE FOR FACTORY
 David Johnson has offered to contribute a site for the proposed shoe factory in St. Stephen.

TELL IF NOT IN GLASGOW

St. Andrew's Beacon — Just to show the changing ideas of the times. Not many weeks ago, at a town not a thousand miles from St. Stephen, the members of the St. Andrew's Society foregathered to have a jolly time. The promoters of the gathering thought it would not be complete without the presence of a couple of bottles of whiskey. But when the feast had been finished, it was found that scarcely half a bottle of the liquor had been used. "Such a thing had never been heard of before at a Scottish gathering."

N. B. and Maine League. It is expected that the meeting to arrange the schedule for the N. B. and Maine League will be held here tomorrow. Leonard is expected here then.

Players We Know. "Hannah" Hoyt had a hit on Monday when they beat Worcester nine to two. That hit was one of sixteen made by Hoyt...

For Lowell's Last. Lowell had a hit put-out and three assists. (Gaskell) Portland's first baseman, had three put-outs and an error in a double play.

For Lynn, Joe Neptune showed improved form, having one hit, one sacrifice put-out and two assists and figuring in one double play. For the same team Wilson had one base hit and nine put-outs.

Stahl Doing Well. Jake Stahl who was operated on in the Corey Hill Hospital, in Boston, and a growth removed from the ball of his left foot, is resting very comfortably.

Montreal, Too. Hatcher, of the Montreal Royals' pitching staff, entered the General Hospital in Montreal this week to undergo treatment of his foot, which has bothered him since joining the Royals.

Four Hits; 15 Bases. Four avata for a total of fifteen bases are enough to knock any pitcher stiff and win any game. There is good reason, then, why the Phillies beat "Rube" Marquard on Monday 6 to 3. The Giants also hit well and hard, but not hard enough.

It was home run day, sure enough, and had Harzog's smash in the eighth been a few inches higher and cleared the coping of the left field bleachers he would have had a fourth to his credit. As it was, he scored McCormick.

It was the fourth consecutive time "Johnny" McGraw's Giants have fallen before the Phillies in the present series. But his time it was not a one run victory. Alexander pitched in rare form, only three hits being scored against him, Marquard did well in street, but at critical times he appeared to be well in the air. Crath made one home run and Magee made two.

Why Owens Was Dismissed. President Lynch, of the National League, announcing that he had dismissed Umpire G. P. Owens for violation of the rules of department, said: "Umpires in the National League by their department in and off the ball field are supposed to add dignity to their positions as representatives of the league. They are backed up by the president in the discharge of their duties, and in order to gain and hold the respect of the players, the press and the public, it is most essential that their conduct at all times be above reproach."

"Mr. Owens' action has forfeited the right to the protection afforded him by the president of the league, and for the good of the game he is discharged. The alleged violation was entering a gambling resort."

Which is The More Brutal, Boxing or Club Swinging

By TOM ANDREWS

Can it be any more brutal for a man to box with big gloves on his hands, get a few clouts about the head or body, even have his eyes discolored than it is to permit a man to stand on a platform and swing three and a half pound Indian clubs for 100 hours without any rest whatever, and to end with the man becoming delirious and wanting to fight his own friends?

The other day in London, at the Alhambra theatre, Tom Burrows, a famous Australian club swinger, endeavored to beat his own record of eighty hours for continuous club swinging and at the same time to beat the Australian record of 100 hours made by Jack Beamish and 112 hours by Martin Dobrilla, although Burrows said that these records were not authentic. Burrows had held the record for many years until these men went after it. He had no trouble beating his own mark of eighty hours, passing it in good condition, and also the 100-hour mark, but after that he began to show signs of weakening, and when he had gone 100 hours he collapsed and became delirious, wanting to fight all his attendants. He was finally quieted and put to bed where he went into a sound sleep, utterly exhausted. His nervous system was shot to pieces and the question once more arises, "Is it not more brutal to let a man go to such extremes than to permit of even the hardest kind of a boxing match, yet even a prize fight?"

There are several Australians who have been after the record for club swinging. In addition to Beamish and Dobrilla breaking Burrows' mark, Harry Lawson last year set a mark of 113 hours for swinging 9-pound clubs, and he was followed by Dobrilla again, some saying 120 hours, for continuous work. It may be clever work in the minds of some people, but at this distance it seems that it is a terrible ordeal to put a man through and he is liable to be more broken up after such a feat than he could possibly be after going through the severest kind of a fight, London or Queensbury rules.

young oriental being a worthy foe for Hoppa, but while his possesses rare skill and has the credit of a victory over the champion, he nevertheless lacks the seasoning and experience of Hoppa.

SPORT BRIEFS. Philadelphia, May 5.—"Jock" Soular, of Philadelphia, yesterday won the professional racket championship of the world by defeating Charles Williams, of England, the title holder at the Raquet Club.

WILL MISS FATHER DUKE IN MONCTON ATHLETICS. Moncton Transcript.—When Rev. Father William Duke, who for some time has been stationed here, leaves for St. John to take charge of the cathedral of that place, Moncton, besides losing a good citizen will also feel the loss keenly in the line of sport. When Father Duke came to Moncton he became actively connected with the Young Men's Society, changed the name from the Y. M. C. C. to the Young Men's Society of St. Bernard's, put new life into it and today it is a society which any member should be justly proud of. Through his efforts a splendid gymnasium has been installed in the building situated in Queen street, and it is a place where the members can go and have good, clean healthy exercise.

Last winter the boys organized a hockey team, principally through Father Duke, and were making a good showing in the hockey league, when, owing to some reason or other not clear to us, the league was abandoned. In his younger days he was a ball player himself, and will be remembered by the older fans of Moncton, as being one of the stars of St. Joseph's baseball team, and what will be undoubtedly Moncton's loss will be St. John's gain.

The "Yellow Peril" in the person of Koji Yamada, has invaded the billiard field, and the young Japanese who has made an enviable reputation for himself since his advent into American billiards is determined to win the world's 182 ball line championship before he departs for the "land of the thousand autumns."

Yamada has challenged Willie Epppe, American wizard and world's champion, at both styles of ball line play, to a match for the 182 championship. Hoppa was accepted and they have been matched for a 500-point contest in New York on May 27.

Ever since the Japanese expert gained the distinction of being the only player to win a single game from Hoppa in the 182 tournament in New York last fall, billiard enthusiasts of Europe and America have awaited a match between the pair.

JOE PAGE SEES SUCCESS FOR THE N. B. & M. LEAGUE

Bangor Commercial.—Among the visitors in the city Tuesday was Joseph H. Page, of Montreal, who is a guest at the Penobscot Exchange. Mr. Page is a baseball fan of the 32nd degree and more than that, is interested in the business, for he is editor of the Canadian edition of Spalding's baseball guide and Canadian representative of the Chicago American league baseball club. He is not a stranger to Bangor as he came here occasionally to play ball in the old days. He recalls that the last time he visited this city to play ball was with the Montreal team in 1897. "I have always considered Bangor one of the best of ball towns in proportion to its population," remarked Mr. Page, "and I have no doubt that the city will have a play ball in the Maine and New Brunswick league and be well satisfied with its 125 people at the park at a Saturday game. I certainly believe that the Maine and New Brunswick league will be a success and expect that Bangor people will do their share in it. That they will do their share I have no doubt."

THEY STILL GET BOOZE. Bangor Commercial.—Bangor is a dry town. That is so stated generally and the liquor squad seems to have hunted out the last few cases in the desert for the seizures have been yielding nothing the last few days, but still the patrol wagon is busy making its trips to the station, bearing those who have imbibed not wisely but too well. In this city, on Saturday and Sunday there were fourteen arrests for intoxication, three Monday and two Tuesday. It is noteworthy that on the corresponding dates last year to Saturday and Sunday there were eight arrests for drunkenness as against fourteen this year.

HAPPY ST. ANDREWS. Beacon.—Tourists to St. Andrews will find that the town has lost none of its old time attractiveness. They will find an enlarged summer hotel, with a well appointed ballroom, and a new and comfortable hall in close vicinity. They will also find a greatly improved and a greatly enlarged golf course, with a new and comfortable club house within easy walking distance of the hotel. The hotel company has also been improving the tennis ground and likewise the bathing beach at Katy's Cove.

PROGRESS IN FREDERICTON. Gloucester.—Today marked the commencement of a new era in postal affairs in Fredericton. Ground was broken preparatory to the commencement of work on the construction of the new $150,000 post office building and the free mail delivery service was inaugurated. Five carriers started from the post office with the first free mail delivery. The complete uniforms will not be in use for some time. They will be of blue with red trimmings.

THE RESULTS IN THE BOSTON FINAL BOUTS

In Boston last night, Tom Barrett of St. John failed to win the 145 pound championship only by hard luck. He stopped Smith of Revere in one round and then met Atkins of Boston, national champion, for three rounds. The judges gave it to Atkins on points though it is said the bell saved him from defeat.

Thomas L. Regan, of Boston, won the 115 pound championship by defeating Henry Goodwin of Toronto in three fast rounds.

Charles Atkins of Boston stopped John F. Parks of Boston in one round in the 145 pound class.

In the 125 pound class, Dan McDonald of Bangor was stopped in one round by William Barrett of New York.

In the final of the 125 pound class W. Hitchen of Toronto stopped Walter Ridge of Brockton in one round.

Joseph B. Cox, of Hamilton, Ont., was disqualified in the 128 pound class on account of professionalism.

The new national champions are: 108 pound class—Barney Snyder, Boston, present champion.

125 pound class—W. Hitchen, Toronto.

128 pound class—M. J. Crowley, Malden.

145 pound class—Charles Atkins, Boston, present champion.

175 pound class—Joe Brown, Pawtucket, R. I.

Heavyweight class—Alfred L. Reich, New York.

Final honors in the latter class went to Reich by default after he had convincingly demonstrated his prowess in the semi-finals by forcing Robert McEachern, a Boston police officer, to the mat in one round. Reich, regarded as one of "white hope" caliber, was to have met William F. May, a sailor, in the final bout, but May, who had been defeated in the 175 pound class, had injured his hand in winning his semi-final in the heavy weight class, and defaulted the final.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL

The last session of the National Council of Women will be held in Montreal today. There will be a discussion on "the care of the foolish-minded." There was a discussion last night on the matter of carrying firearms, and Miss Peters of St. John said that parents should not allow children to have toy pistols.
