MINERS ON THE CORNER

"Those men," said Sheriff Holmes, "are colliers. You can tell it by their attitude." The men, very clean in white shirts and black overcoats, squatted on their heels on a sunny corner. "Any other men," continued Holmes, "would stand. They would lean against the lamppost or the wooden Indian of the tobacconist. But these men, in the low galleries or tunnels of coal mines, for lack of space must work seated on their heels—squating as we say. And this position, which would become a torture to you or me in five minutes, is to them, from long usage, comfortable and customary. It is their favorite position at all times. Hence when you see men sitting on their heels on the street corners you can always set them down as miners. If they are hawkeyed the case against them is doubly strong."

JOINED CREW AT 23

He was about twenty-nine years of age when he was taken in as a member of the Paris crew in 1867. Previous to this the crew had consisted of Robert McLaren, Elijah Ross, Samuel Hutton and Robert Fulton. However, in the winter of 1867 Mr. McLaren's father passed away, and he being the oldest of the family, had not the time to devote to rowing. Mr. Price was taken in as how do you suppose a valuable oarsman.

GEORGE PRICE, MEMBER OF PARIS CREW, PASSES AWAY

Deceased Had Been Ill for About Six Months and His Death Was Not Unexpected—Leaves a Large Family—He Became Famous as a Member of the Paris Crew, Once Champions of the World. The four years prior to 1867 saw the Paris crew taking part in races on the Kennebecasis, which they easily captured. The first time the four entered into any heavy racing was at Pottsville, near Boston, when they captured the event. There were about this time four crews in Carlton, and they commenced their early training at Sand Cove at the Rev. Father Duppy's picnic. If the water there was too rough the races would generally come off in the harbor the day following. Excellent prizes were offered and keen interest was shown. In 1869 rows were rowed at Lachine, Toronto and old Niagara Town. The Paris crew captured all these events handsomely. In the fall of that year through the instigation of the Lachine Rowing Club a match was arranged between the Paris crew and the Wingham and Taylor crew of England. This took place at Lachine in 1870. After a mile of the race had been completed and the Paris crew in the lead, a cyclone sprang up and the local men's boat went under water. The Englishmen under Renforth had a stronger boat and she withstood the cyclone, winning the race. This was the first event lost by the Paris crew. St. John challenged again that same fall and Renforth declined to come out with the same crew but stated he would seek another from England. He chose Harry Kelley, James Pierce, Robert Chambers and himself. This race took place on the Kennebecasis on the 22nd of August, 1871. When the two crews had rowed about a mile at a heart-breaking pace, and the Paris crew had a slight advantage, Renforth collapsed. He was taken shore, but died about an hour afterwards. The Paris crew completed the course, all 80. John witnessed the race and there were about 40,000 visitors in the city from all parts of Canada and the United States. $500,000 BET. About $500,000 was bet alone in this city as to the outcome of the event. Boston and New York financiers were on hand, the former backing the Paris crew, and the New Yorkers the others. No crew disputed the Paris crew's right to the championship of the world in the next few years, none being in the class to compete with them. In 1874 there was big rivalry on the Kennebecasis. "Bob" Fulton rowed in the singles with John Biglan of New York, Alex. Briley and a sculler from Halifax. Fulton captured the event, although Biglan disputed it. In the four-oared events another Halifax crew named the Aurora, rowed four McLarens from Sand Cove, the Longshore crew from the United States and the Paris crew competed. The Paris crew for a week in Paris and then returned to Southampton, where they had been training for the race. They had return tickets to New York on the steamer Baltic, but pleased the local men and were compelled to remain until the next sailing. The crew returned to St. John about the middle of July, 1867. They left for Paris on the latter part of April, the racing being rowed there about June 1st. Ross, concerned to row the Indian town crew backed down and no agreement could be reached, so the Paris crew remained the champion of Messrs. Ross, Price, Hutton and Fulton, rowed the Ward brothers of Springfield, Mass., for the championship of this side of the Atlantic ocean. The race was for six miles and after the second mile the Paris crew had the contest much to themselves and finished about a minute and forty seconds in advance of their rivals. This made the Paris crew the undisputed champions of this side of the water.

RACES ON THE SEINE

Going to Paris in 1867, the Paris crew entered the races in connection with the exhibition there and captured the burge and out-rig event. The burge race was the first one to be pulled off, and eight strong fours came to the starting point. Included in this number were the local crew, the Guelings, composed of two Englishmen and two Frenchmen, which rowed for France; crew from Belgium; crew from the Rhine; crew from Brighton, England; and two other crews representing France. The race was held on the Seine River at Boulogne, about fourteen miles below Paris. The start was made at the lower end and there were two turns with a finish in the centre. Four miles were traversed, and the local crew won the event handsly. They had about seven lengths lead over the Guelings, who finished in second position. OUT-RIG RACE. Three-quarters of an hour after the finish of this race the out-rig race was brought on and again the local four proved their superiority, despite their previous efforts in the burge contest. In addition to the Paris crew there were seven other fours, including crews from London, Oxford, Cambridge, Bohlin and two French crews. No Irish scullers started in this event. The Paris crew were the only ones who competed in both races. The course in the out-rig race was straight-away for about two miles. The London crew hung on to the local men until about half way down the course. When two-thirds of the distance had been rowed, Mr. Ross' outrigger upset. The crew lost two strokes on account of the mishap and the London crew came on an even terms. During the remainder of the course the Paris crew out for extra efforts and went under the burge a winner by about three lengths. London finished second and the Oxford four in third position. After the races the crew remained

OLD ENGLAND WELCOMES COLONIES' OFFER OF AID

LONDON, March 26.—At the admiralty office great interest was manifested today in the report that Canada would make an offer of naval assistance to Great Britain and that the feeling among the Canadian Ministers was favorable to the building of one, and possibly two Dreadnoughts. This, with the actual and prospective offer of similar Dreadnoughts from other British colonies, notably New Zealand and Australia, has opened up new possibilities of naval expansion. Aside from the naval aspect of the matter, the willingness of the colonies to contribute naval assistance gives a practical view to the long-cherished dream of Imperial federation in which the mother country and her colonies will have a common interest.

AMUSEMENTS.

SPECIAL VAUDEVILLE AT THE PRINCESS NEXT WEEK
For next week the management of the Princess announce two big Vaudeville acts, Miller and Russell in that very funny comedy sketch, "The Lunatic and the Girl." In this act Miller and Russell introduce some very fine eccentric dancing. The next act on the bill is Gardner Towel, a dandy acrobat and his trained dog. The Princess is making a great name for itself in presenting to the people of St. John some vaudeville that is way above the average. The acts booked by this house have got to be good or they will not be kept. The management have made a hard and fast rule to close any act that does not come up to expectations. So you see when they announce a good act everybody can rest assured that it is good. There will also be the regular bill of pictures next week and an illustrated ballad by Mr. Waterall. If possible attend the matinee.

BIG DAY THE NICKEL TODAY.

This is the great day for the children at the Nickel and parents should send their little ones bright and early after dinner. There will be more of those secret snapshots taken of the wee boys and girls as they enter the theatre and Harry Bennett will sing his Bonnie Scotland song three times during the afternoon. He will appear in the full regiments of the 48th Highlanders. The picture bill will be more than ordinarily good. Tonight the same bill will be put on with the exception of the special matinee pictures. On Monday Mr. Bennett will sing Harry Lauder's funny boy-song, "The Saffest of the Family." Last night, in spite of the weather the Nickel did a rushing business and Mr. Bennett was encored time and again.

A SPLENDID SATURDAY PROGRAMME AT THE UNIQUE.

An exceptional matinee programme will be offered today at the Unique. Five interesting pictures are being shown, together with Mr. Kilcooza's best song bill, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep." At the Stroke of Twelve, the feature picture, is one of the most dramatic ever shown in the city, and during its showing last evening the audience frequently burst into enthusiastic applause.

DEADLY HORNETS.

The coolest and finest man in the detail was a young soldier who had never been under fire before. When he began pulling down the fence he fancied he had disturbed a nest of hornets as he thought he heard them singing fiercely about his ears. But the lad was not going to run from hornets when there was more serious business ahead. Ignoring the angry insects he opened the fence and rejoined the regiment without being stung. In a day or two he was surprised to hear that he was to be promoted. "But," he said, modestly, "I don't think I deserve promotion over the others."
"My boy," replied the general, "I saw you pull down that fence. You were the coolest man under fire I ever saw!"
The man gasped, stared and turned pale.
"What," he exclaimed, regardless of grammar, "Was then wasp bullets?"

BUTTER TAKES A BIG SLUMP

Householders will delight to hear that the price of butter has shown a marked decrease during the past week. The price asked is 20 to 22 cents per tub butter and 25 cents for pound rolls. This is considerably cheaper than during the same season in previous years. In fact many dealers appear confident that the high prices have faded away and in future good quality at low price may be looked for.
In other lines the market is quite strong. The usual meats are on hand and prices show but slight variation. There is a big demand for veal, but the quantity is limited. Ten to fourteen cents per pound by the carcass is the price asked.
In connection with the butter supply a well known market dealer informed The Sun last evening that the cold storage butter was also on the market.
Lettuce and radishes and other green stock are now arriving. About sixty cents a dozen is being asked in some quarters.
Potatoes are bringing from $1.25 to $1.75 a barrel; turnips, 80 cents; beets and carrots, $1.50.
Yesterday's storm cleared away what little snow remained on the roads. Wheels are now being used to convey the produce to market.

"TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME"

BOSTON, March 26.—The baseball season has apparently opened unofficially judging by the activity noticeable on the playgrounds and vacant lots. The college baseball season opened on Wednesday with Princeton leading off. The National and American League teams are playing practices widely in the South and will begin the official season in about two weeks. The weather here is spring like and reasonable.
COLONIAL IGNORAMUSES.
The patriots were holding the Boston Tea Party.
"But," they were asked, "don't you understand that the tax doesn't fall on the consumer?"
Obdurately stupid, they continued to have the stuff overboard.

DOCTOR GETS A DIVORCE FROM WOODSTOCK WIFE

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—De-feated in his struggle for his wife's love by the allurements of music, Dr. Edward Kner, who sued his pretty young wife, Margaret Ross Kner, for divorce a year ago, has been granted a decree within the last few days. Thus ends a romance which began most happily in the forests of Canada, and which resulted in the marriage of the pair more than six years ago.

Mrs. Kner was Miss Margaret S. Ross of Woodstock, N. B., Canada. She met the young Philadelphia physician while the latter was on a hunting trip in Canada. Later she came to this city, and the acquaintance was renewed.

The pair lived happily together until 1906, but about that time the love of the young wife for music began to assert itself. Possessor of a fine contralto voice, she wished to sing.

In the fall of 1907 she left her home for a six months' concert tour. A short time afterward the suit for divorce was brought. Dr. Kner is a son of Dr. Calvin Kner of Princeton, Delaware county, and comes of a long line of physicians.

suit for absolute divorce against his wife, Mrs. Clara Hartman. The Hartmans were married September 18, 1890. According to the husband's statement of claim he and Meyer were close friends. For several years Meyer was a welcome guest at the Hartman home, the husband asserts, until he learned that Meyer was visiting his home when he was away.

Hartman began an investigation, and the two suits followed. The charges on which the suit is based include personal indignities offered him, and a more serious charge. The day he filed the suit against Meyer, he says, his wife refused, much to his surprise, to let him enter his home when he returned at night. Since then, he has been boarding at 1384 Ridge avenue.

Within less than a week after bringing suit for $20,000 against John A. Meyer, for alleged alienation of his wife's affections, William C. Hartman, 4128 Diamond street, has brought

A STORY OF 1893

Apple Growing in Nova Scotia as Good as Owning Bank Stock

OTTAWA, Ont., March 26.—Fruit and estimates were the topics of today's sitting of the Commons. The afternoon was spent in a discussion of the administration of the fruit marks act, and the evening in passing supplementary estimates for the current year.

Mr. Lewis introduced and had read a first time a bill to amend the railway act by providing for the appointment of five inspectors to look after the sanitary condition of trains, railway stations and railway buildings.

Mr. Burrell called the attention of the Minister of Agriculture to certain features of the fruit marks act which he thought required amendment. He urged that regulations as to packing and grading should apply to fruit coming from the United States; that there should be a uniform package in all provinces; and that there should be more fruit inspectors.

Hon. Sydney Fisher believed it would be impossible to secure a large number of inspectors during the rush of the fruit trade and then drop them at the end of the rush to go back to other employments. The act was not intended to insure anything like complete inspection. It was designed rather as a protection for interprovincial and export trade and in his view to make inspection too rigid would be to interfere with the fruit trade to extent that trade would not stand. He informed fruit marks act applied to imported Mr. Burrell had regulations under the fruit.

In Nova Scotia Dr. Black (Hants) said apple growing in Nova Scotia was as good as owning bank stock. He advised Ontario fruit growers to go to Nova Scotia or British Columbia to get some seasons in intelligent fruit growing and packing. The only fault found with the fruit marks act was that it did not provide a sufficient number of inspectors. In Nova Scotia they had not as many inspectors as they would like, but they had nothing but praise in that province for the fruit marks act. "What was needed in fruit growing was education."

DEATH SECRET BURIED ALSO

Mrs. Lorillard's Secret in Folds of Shroud

BURIAL YESTERDAY

Dramatic Events Mark Interment of Late Society Woman

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 26.—In the folds of her shroud the material evidence of the death secret of Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, Jr. is sealed with her body tonight on its final journey to the grave. The funeral party left the Lorillard residence on Hillier Place at five o'clock this afternoon for New York. At the old home of the Lorillards at Irvington, on the beautiful east bank of the Hudson, the casket will be interred tomorrow.

The departure from the city furnishes another of the dramatic events which characterized the death of Mrs. Lorillard, in which Mrs. Lorillard had been accorded such a prominent part, were crowding the aristocratic Massachusetts avenue, the body of the deceased was driven rapidly down that thoroughfare toward the city.

Only Two Mourners The husband, one of the famous Lorillards of the tobacco business, and prominent clubman and sportsman, and his son Pierre, by their own preference, were the only mourners.

Rev. Roland Cottonsmith of St. John's Episcopal church officiated at the services, which occupied only half an hour's time.

Shortly afterwards the most dramatic event of the day occurred, when Dr. J. Ramsey Nevitt, the coroner, laid away in the folds of the shroud two notes and the mysterious trinkets found on Mrs. Lorillard's body after her death. Contrary to the general understanding, Mrs. Lorillard wrote neither of the notes after she returned from the Townsend dinner. It is now believed that the only words she wrote on the morning of her death were on an envelope that contained the notes and the trinkets. They were: "Bury this with my body unopened."

Another fact that has been brought out is that one of the notes was addressed to Mrs. Lorillard and was in the handwriting of another person. The second note had been written by Mrs. Lorillard evidently many days before her death.

CITY RIFLE CLUB

At the annual meeting of the St. John City Rifle Association held last night in the market building, Neil J. Morrison was re-elected captain, and Sergeant Jas. Sullivan secretary-treasurer.

A match will be shot on Good Friday at one o'clock. A team of eight men will be entered in the Overseas Daily Mail competition on Victoria Day.

The association will also shoot for the Montreal Citizens' Challenge shield. Mayor Sears, H. Sullivan, Major J. H. McRobbie, Captain Jas. Manning and Geo. A. Dixon were appointed a committee to interview the merchants on the idea of holding a merchant's match.

The secretary-treasurer reported seventy-one members in good standing. He showed total receipts for the year of $21.82, and an expenditure of $23.54. Ex-Mayor Sears, D. McRobbie, G. A. Dixon, Captain Jas. Manning and E. F. Chedwin were elected the executive committee.

AMENDMENTS IN LAW FOR MONTREAL INVESTIGATION

Complainants Will Not Have to Bear Costs Unless Charges Were Not Made in Good Faith.

MONTREAL, March 27.—An important amendment to the bill appointing a commission to investigate the affairs of the city of Montreal was adopted in the legislature yesterday on motion of Premier Gouin. Under the law as it at present exists complainants in investigations of this kind are compelled to bear the costs when charges were not made in good faith. By today's amendment the commission is given authority to place the costs upon the complainants only when they are of opinion that the charges were not made in good faith and the public interest. Just what effect this change will have upon the investigation remains to be seen. A great many people are disappointed because the government has not seen fit to take the entire cost upon the city treasury.

JAPANESE NAVAL CADETS TO INSPECT CANADIAN COAST

OTTAWA, March 27.—Mr. Sugimura, acting consul general for Japan in Canada, has received official notification from Tokyo that two cruisers of the Japanese training squadron will visit Esquimaut and Vancouver next May during the annual cruise around the Pacific coast. The cruisers are the Aso, 7,720 tons, and the Soya, 6,500 tons, under Rear Admiral Ijich. They will have on board a large number of naval cadets. The cruisers will reach Esquimaut on May 12th and Vancouver on 13th.

WHEN YOU CAN'T SLEEP.

There is many a man and woman tossing night after night upon a sleepless bed. Their eyes do not close in the sweet and refreshing repose that comes to those whose heart and nerves are right. Some constitutional disturbance, worry or disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system, that it cannot be quieted.

Or again, you have, a sinking sensation, a feeling you are going to die, or perhaps, you wake in your sleep feeling as though you were about to choke or smother, and rest leaves you for the night. If you allow these conditions to continue for a short period even, you will begin to feel your health declining. It is the nerves and heart not acting rightly, and they can only be set right by the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They soon induce healthy, refreshing sleep, not by deadening the nerves, but by restoring them to healthy action.

Mrs. E. Nutt, St. Mary's, Ont., writes:—"I can gladly recommend your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as I was greatly troubled with my nerves. I was so bad I could not sleep at night without the lamp burning, but after taking four boxes of the pills I became all right again."

CANADA'S CHIEF OF POLICE HERE

Col. Sherwood Discusses Secret Service

ITS GROWTH

The Parole System Works Well—The Kinrade Case

Lieutenant Colonel Sherwood, chief of the secret service, Ottawa, arrived in the city yesterday. Colonel Sherwood is accompanied by Mrs. Sherwood, who is leaving for England today, a passenger on the outgoing Tugela.

In conversation with The Sun last night and speaking of the growth of the secret service, Colonel Sherwood stated that the scope of the organization would expand as the country developed a haven for fugitive offenders. There were no marked changes in the staff during the last year and but few recruits were taken on.

Asked as to the parole system and its effects Colonel Sherwood stated that the results were on the whole fairly good. A very small percentage of the men given their liberty have returned to crime as a livelihood while the great majority were given a long lift toward the narrow path in its operation. Altogether the results achieved by the system had more than justified its inauguration. It was absolutely impossible for the Speaking of the Kinrade case, Col. Sherwood stated that it was absolutely impossible for one gaining his information from the newspapers to form a first opinion.

"What is your name?" asked the lawyer. "Kewalyo," answered the witness. "Are you a native of this country, Mr. Kewalyo?" "No, sir."

"What is your nationality?" "My what?" "What race do you belong to?" "I'm kind o' mixed, I guess."

"What do you mean by that?" "Well, I was born in Honolulu and—"

"Then you are a Sandwich Islander and he married an African, and so—"

"Then you are a Ham Sandwich," interrupted the court. "Proceed with the investigation, Mr. Sharpe," Chicago Tribune.

The remains of the late David Blain, who was assistant steward on the steamer Casca, and who met death by drowning in the harbor on Thursday evening, will be buried from the Seaman's Institute this afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. Gordon Dickie will conduct the services.

SEEKS BY STARVATION FAR BETTER HEALTH

Niece of Dr. Tanner, the Famous Fester, Begins Series of Interesting Experiments.

BERLIN, March 26.—To prove that complete abstinence from food for indefinite periods is not only conducive to good health, but also to perennial youth, Miss Claire de Servat, niece of the famous "Fester" Dr. Tanner, has submitted herself to a remarkable series of experiments at the Royal Charite Hospital in Berlin.

Most of the time Miss de Servat has lived in a glass cage, into which fresh air was pumped by a motor. Today she was removed from the cage and was placed in the ordinary ward, but she intends to abstain from food for another twenty days, living in the meantime on mineral water.

She informed an interviewer that she never once felt ill from lack of food and drink, and was entirely free from fever or headache. The young woman says that she was induced to become a "fester" in order to cure herself of chronic headaches and lack of appetite, and also because she finds she emerges rejuvenated after a period of self-imposed starvation.

SHOULD'NT WED AGAIN, HE SAYS

Senator Cloran Would Bar Divorcees

OTAWA, March 26.—On motion for a third reading of a bill to grant divorce to V. E. Blackhall, Senator Cloran questioned the propriety of the senate taking final action in the case until the evidence had been printed in French. The speaker saw no reason why the senate should not follow its regular practice.

Senator Cloran then moved in amendment to the bill that the woman who had been found the offender should not be allowed to marry again in Canada under penalty of the Sixtieth Parliament authorized the protection of animals from disease and the prevention of parliament should be established of the physical and moral well-being of society, and guilty persons from whom divorce had been granted should not be allowed to marry again.

Senator Kluehoffer doubted if it would promote morality for parliament to forbid the offender of a divorced pair to remarry. It would have a tendency to prevent one who had once offered reformation and living a respectable and useful life. It would encourage such persons to follow a life of crime.

NEW SCHOOL A FINE ONE

Dr. Bridges expresses satisfaction with the progress of the new school in Winter street. Its completion is dated for the end of July. It is a model structure with modern improvements, capable of seating from 400 to 500 pupils. Light, air, warmth and all sanitary matters have been carefully studied.

It is a fine brick reinforced concrete structure, presenting a cheerful and quite well. That's the way most people feel in the spring. Dull, tired, appetite, sometimes headaches and a feeling of depression. Perhaps pimples or eruptions may appear on the skin, or there may be twinges of rheumatism or neuralgia. Any of these indicate that the blood is out of order, that the indoor life of winter has left its mark upon you and may easily do this again, unless you take prompt action.

The doctors helped him a little when he was tossing about the bed in dreadful agony. They succeeded in easing the pain and getting him up about, but as soon as he went to work, there was another cruel attack of pain, worse than before.

The former advocated co-operation between Canada and the United States in protecting the Pacific coast from Oriental hordes.

Col. Hughes Follows

Colonel Sam Hughes, M. P., followed and referred to the subject of annexation and the "yellow peril" as follows:

"Annexation should never come to pass. The statements of the speakers today are full of problems that may tax their ingenuity to solve. The nation is in a state of confusion, and whereas were they one, there would be more growth of power, gradually becoming a nation, and in a few generations disruption would surely follow. In the interests of each, annexation should be avoided.

Charcoal Lozenges A Natural Breath Perfume

CHARCOAL ASSISTS IN GAINING AND RETAINING A SWEET BREATH.

Breath perfumes should never be resorted to. They seldom conceal the odor and never remove the cause, and are very suggestive.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges sweeten the breath by removing the cause—a disorder of condition of the stomach, and by this means impart to the breath the natural, healthful odor, void of all unnatural or suggestive condition. Charcoal fills a four-fold mission. First, it purifies the breath by restoring to it the natural odor nature intended it to have. Second, charcoal is an absorbent, absorbing 100 per cent. per volume of gas, by this means regulating the action of the bowels, relieving flux, diarrhoea, piles, constipation, etc. Fourth, charcoal oxidizes the blood, thus preventing pimples and other eruptions that arise from indigestion and impurities of the blood.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are a household necessity and should be in every home, containing only young willow wood charcoal and honey. They are perfectly harmless and any quantity may be taken without ill effects. Old and young alike can take Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges with the same beneficial results.

The next time that you have sour stomach, indigestion, bad breath, heart burn, gastritis, bad taste in the mouth, belching or belching up of food, just step in the nearest drug store and get a box of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges and try them; the results will be gratifying and almost instantaneous, the stomach will soon feel better and the disagreeable odor disappear in a very short time.

If you prize a sweet breath and healthy stomach, you should occasionally use Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. A lozenge now and then will suffice to sweeten the breath and keep the stomach in a healthy condition; try them for sale everywhere, or a sample will be mailed free upon request. Address: The "P" A. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Montreal, Mich.

PAUPER ARISTOCRAT ASTONISHES GUARDIANS

Appears Before Board Wearing Eyeglasses and Sporting Silver-Mounted Stick.

LONDON, March 26.—Richmond Board of Guardians has just discovered in its workhouse a pauper who has been in the habit of writing begging letters from that institution.

There arrived at the workhouse for the man, whose name is Slater, a letter which an official suspected contained money. On opening the envelope there was found in it a postal order for $5 from a gentleman at Stoke-on-Trent. When interrogated, Slater admitted he had written letters to people all over the country asking for money, which was forwarded to him in postal orders. He always, he declared, addressed the letters from "2, Grove road," which is the registered postal address of the workhouse.

Slater was called before the board for an explanation, and created great surprise when he appeared before the guardians attired in a heavy double-breasted coat, with an eyeglass and a silver mounted walking stick, presenting a very distinguished appearance.

The guardians, after discussing various alternatives, such as retaining the money to pay for his maintenance or returning it to the sender, decided to give the man the postal order, and with it his marching orders. Slater was accordingly told that he was no longer destitute, and must leave the workhouse.

FIVE CORPSES ADRIFT IN SHIP'S LIFEBOAT

Gross Discovery by Passing Steamer Solves Mystery of the Sea.

PARIS, March 26.—The steamer Cleopatra from Hamburg, which reached Algiers yesterday, has assisted to clear up a mystery of the sea. Two weeks ago the steamer Australia was blown down in the Mediterranean by an unknown sailing ship.

The crew of the Australia took to the boats and were saved. The fate of the crew of the sailing ship was uncertain. The captain of the Hamburg steamer reports that the morning before he reached Algiers and at a point about 100 miles from Oran he discovered a water-logged ship's lifeboat, bearing the words, "Condor, London." The boat, which had a mast and portion of its hull, contained five bodies of five sailors. As the steamer drew alongside the wreck, one of the corpses was washed overboard.

The captain examined the lifeboat and it was found to contain five bodies, and finding that it contained only one dead man, he kept the bodies and left the boat to drift. The man had clearly been dead for some time, judging from the condition of the bodies. From this discovery it is presumed that it was the Condor which was in collision with the Australia.

What has happened to the rest of the Condor's crew is not known.

KETCHEL WINS FROM O'BRIEN

NATIONAL ATHLETIC CLUB, New York, Mar. 26.—Not since the repeal of the Horion law, which stopped the big fistic bouts in this city, has such a fast and furious contest been seen here in the squared circle as that fought in which Stanley Ketchel, the middleweight champion, defeated Jack O'Brien at Philadelphia at the National Athletic Club. Many thought that O'Brien would do some stalling in this fight, but everyone who saw the fight was agreeably surprised as it was a hot bout from start to finish.

In the first round, O'Brien was knocked down three times and his last fall was practically a clean knockout. The timing of the blows was found the Philadelphia in a hopeless state. It was Ketchel's right hand in the squared circle as that brought down the champion.

The men weighed in at noon today, each tipping the scales at 160 pounds. There were three preliminary bouts, one of which resulted in a knockout, Freddie Dipples of Brooklyn, stopping Andy Parper of New Haven in less than two minutes of the first round.

and so it was that in ten rounds.

WHAT THE SIX HUNDRED DOLLAR MAN THINKS

St. John, March 26th, 1909. To the Editor of the Star:

Dear Sir,—Permit me to place before you the views of a wage earner of six hundred a year.

I have a leasehold property on which I am assessed for water and city taxes, about forty-five dollars. This would mean that my holding is valued at about one thousand dollars, although I will be pleased to hand it over to the city at eight hundred.

I know of a great many properties worth from seven to eight thousand dollars that are only assessed on five or six thousand.

I earn six hundred and forty dollars per year, and I am taxed thirteen dollars. I do not save any money for a rainy day because my children have many wants that I cannot supply. I do not get or spend a cent foolishly.

My grocer, dry goods, hardware and boot and shoe men as well as other traders I deal with, are taxed on the stock they carry at the rate of two dollars per hundred, and I know that for every dollar's worth I buy I pay two cents as a tax to the city, and I know the merchants don't actually pay one cent of this stock tax. I know the small merchant is taxed up to the full amount of his income or nearly so, and in some cases over. I am told that the rich merchant is not taxed on his net profits or income that he derives from his business, but is only taxed on what he could get a man (who would be much harder up than the rich merchant is), to act as foreman or manager to his business.

I know that as the consumer pays the stock tax of two per cent, on my wages, I pay four per cent, on my six hundred dollars into the city treasury.

Now, I know that the rich merchant may make from five to twenty thousand per year net profit out of his business, and he is only taxed on from one to three thousand dollars. I know a great many professional gentlemen who are taxed on from one to two thousand dollars per year income, when from four to ten thousands would be near the mark. Vacant lots are not taxed at what the landlady values them at, but if a workman buys one it jumps up in value at once.

Property in the vicinity of the city has been increased in value by the city putting water and sewerage through it or part of it, and the owners do not care about selling at any price. They will lease at from one dollar to one fifty per foot, front, a valuation of from one thousand to fifteen hundred dollars per lot, whilst they only pay taxes on wild land or unimproved property.

The worker will not build, or cannot build, a home for himself in St. John. We never had since the great fire in '77 a building boom, and we never will until such time as we change our present assessment act.

The carpenter, mason, plumber and other building tradesmen walk about looking for work, and a constant look for them. The rich escape but the poor must pay.

Do you wonder that our population is not increasing as other cities increase? Manufacturers will not locate when the worker is taxed to death, as there never will be any surplus of skilled labor; any man worth his salt will keep clear of such a city. The worker not having a home of his own in the city quietly folds up his tent and departs to other cities where he has only to pay a toll tax.

WANTS TO FOUND REPUBLIC IN PERSIA

Bulgarian Officer Starts on Mission of Deposing Czar and Proclaiming Himself

ST. PETERSBURG, March 26.—An ex-officer of the Bulgarian army named Petroff is now the central figure in the Persian revolution.

Petroff has placed himself at the head of the revolutionary "army" and is now marching on Teheran with the avowed intention of killing the Shah and proclaiming himself President of the Persian republic.

This soldier of fortune is apparently destined to become one of the most picturesque figures in the modern history of Persia. He had experience in Macedonia as a leader of insurgent bands, and recently joined the Persian revolutionaries, who specially recognized him as a leader.

As a precautionary measure Russia has dispatched sixty Cossacks and two Maxim guns from Baku to Reht to reinforce the consular guard there, which has hitherto consisted of only nine Cossacks. A Russian garrison has been sent to Enzeli.

At least 300 Russian deserters and saboteurs are stated to have joined Petroff's revolutionary force.

The critical position of the Persian government is intensified by the fact that the Shah's troops are insufficiently supplied with artillery and ammunition and cartridges for their rifles, while the revolutionaries are well armed, having plundered the arsenal at Reht.

It was the night of his dinner... his arrival to bachelorhood and all the charms thereof... "I have a date," continued Dick, untroubled.

"It would be a bully finish to the night," Tom said... "There was a long silence. Presently the husband-to-be stirred, as with a sudden resolution."

The husband-to-be awoke with a start... "The husband-to-be endeavored to think, but because of a splitting pain in his head his brain refused him service."

"What the devil," he pondered dully... "The door opened suddenly. The intruder Richard, fresh from a Turkish bath, entered, and appraising the room with swift eyes, laughed loudly."

DEBATE ADDRESS EDITED AFTER EIGHT HOURS' ORATORY

Hon. Mr. Sweeney in Strong Speech Vigorously Criticised Crown Lands Administration - Surveyor General Forcefully Defended His Department Against the Attacks

FREDERICTON, March 26.—The debate on the address was concluded in the legislature at 10.30 o'clock this evening and the address passed without division. Hon. Mr. Sweeney and Surveyor General Grimmer were the only speakers today.

House met at 3 o'clock. Mr. Lahlolis gave notice of motion for all correspondence and papers concerning the address of Geo. W. Mercer as Auditor Commissioner for Dalhousie.

Mr. Sweeney, resuming the debate on the address, congratulated the Speaker and the mover and seconder of the address. The province was to be congratulated that year by year new men kept coming forward capable and willing to assist in the transaction of the country's business.

people the repeal of the "Iniquitous highway act." It had not been repealed yet and they had asked County Councils to help them frame a new road act. This government employed lawyers to conduct criminal prosecutions just as the old government had done.

He hoped that when the tuberculosis sanatorium was established that people would not be refused admission because they were opposed to the government as was done with school book vendors. Money spent on collecting stumpage on the land had been put on the old government.

HON. MR. GRIMMER. After recess Hon. Mr. Grimmer said he had not had any particular desire to take part in the debate on the address, but several speakers on the opposition side had fallen foul of his department and he was therefore more or less compelled.

EMPTY BOAT FOUND WITH HOLE IN BOTTOM; FEAR CREW IS LOST

The boat belonging to the Schooner Nina Blanche was picked up this morning about two miles from the derelict vessel. The boat had a hole in its side and was unseaworthy. It was of course empty and there was nothing to indicate whether or not the crew had attempted to escape in it.

Referring to the Gloucester mines for which the government claimed credit, he wondered how the number for Gloucester was arrived at. He regretted the dual control of the fisheries, but the Dominion government did not pay their full share.

HON. MR. GRIMMER. After recess Hon. Mr. Grimmer said he had not had any particular desire to take part in the debate on the address, but several speakers on the opposition side had fallen foul of his department and he was therefore more or less compelled.

P. E. I. LEGISLATURE
PROROGUED TODAY

Commercial Tax Abolished—Amendments Sought in Liquor Legislation and in Meat Inspection Act.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., March 27.—The Provincial Legislature prorogued today after a two months' session. The measures passed included bills to repeal the Commercial Travelers Tax, to prevent the spread of box-tongue weevil by requiring farmers to destroy them under penalty, and to prohibit the collecting of orders for intoxicating liquors. A resolution was passed asking the Dominion Government to place this province in the same position as the counties throughout Canada which have adopted the Sect Act, with regard to the importation and exportation of liquor. There was a long debate on another resolution respecting fisheries. It was finally decided to ask the Dominion to appoint a non-partisan independent commission on which the Island should be represented, for the regulation and control of Canadian Atlantic fisheries. There was much discussion over the Dominion meat and canned foods act. A resolution was finally passed asking the Dominion to modify the regulations of the act so that dealers or merchants purchasing meat from retail butchers or farmers be allowed to export that meat under the same privileges as are granted the farmers whose product is exempt from inspection but who are obliged to furnish certificates that the meat is wholesome. It was claimed that trade has suffered greatly owing to inspection being required on the part of the dealers.
