Nursery Rhymes, No. 14. JIM BOGBEAN.

Jim Bogbean, on a summer's morn. Rose from his *punk, haggard and worn. Beneath his straw hat there peered an eye, And his empty stomach grew flabby and dry. He whistled a tune with a vague unrest, And a tear coursed down his yellow-tailed vest. He tsallied out on the open street. And he sought in vain for a man to treat. Some one came, but his pallid cheek Told the playful story he couldn't |repeat. He leaned his frame 'gainst a friendly porch, And his ¶claret-bin shone like a well-lit torch. Oft hath he stood 'neath the moon's bright glow, And watched the Policeman come and go. For of all sad words e'er writ in a book. The saddest are, "by a peeler took." With a shambling gait Jim sauntered along, Humming a bar of a popular song. His ballad grew faint and his breath got shorter. When he halted in front of a pestle and mortar.

And his lips turned white, and he shivered with As he modestly asked for a couple of pills. He looked as wild as an egg hard boiled.

And he thought of his garments seedy and soiled. Then he threw his pipe and his cup away, And ††" went on a keg" for a year and a day. The sun shot down in a golden beam,
For Jim Bogbean drinks only #Soda AND

WHITTIER. Notes. NOTES.

*A bedstead or inexpensive couch.
†Probably some new air with which he was not exactly familiar, hence "vague unrest."
*I Meaneth, walked out.
He was too full.

*Bis nose—a (very) free translation.
*a policeman.

The usual sign of an apothecary; usually made of wood covered over with gold leaf, and very much unlike a real pestle and mortar.
*An aphorism, and means. "Swore off."

Carriages and Sleighs, LIKELY, CAMERON & GOLDING WESTERN EXTENSION RAILWAY Thread Laces, [From the Swiss Times of May 30th.]

We have already drawn attention to the annual meeting of the Society of Arts held on the 23rd current, under the presidentship of M. Th. de Saus-ure, and are now able to furnish some further details.

Professor Soret, in delivering a most interesting report, passed in review the operations of the Industrial section, in reference to Commerce, laying great stress upon the competition that has taken place in the manufacture of chronometers. This competition was instituted with the object of testing the workmanship and precision of chronometers turned out by Genevese manufacturer, and none but those adopted for pocket use were admitted. They were deposited in charge of the authorities at the Observatory, and underwent the most searching ordeal possible to be applied to pocket instruments of this class. The jury specially retained to decide the difficult question as to whom to award the palm of excellency unanimously decided in favor of Messrs. J. M. Badollet & Co. This firm having carried off the sole prize by exhibiting a chronometer which fulfilled in the highest degree every condition required, crowned their first success by gaining honorable mention for two other chronometers. The allusion to this triple honor was received with enthusiastic applause, and Professor Humbert, President of the Fine Arts Section, closed the meeting with a happy and humorous dissertation upon subjects connected with this department.
