Ministerialist Majority will Total 150 to 160.

HOW THEY STAND.

Ministerialists.....	327
Liberals.....	101
Home Rulers.....	61
Laborites.....	8
Total.....	492
Elections yet to be held.....	178

London, Tuesday, Oct. 9, 2.30 a. m.—Only four results out of the 21 constituencies polled yesterday in the parliamentary general election have been thus far announced. These show that the Liberals have gained two seats—one in Carmarthenshire and the other, strangely enough, in the Radcliffe-Farnsworth Division of South-east Lancashire, which had hitherto gone strongly Conservative. It looks therefore as if there might be a slight reaction in the county pollings, but this will be too late to affect the general result seriously. Last evening, Mr. Herbert Henry Asquith, one of the Liberal leaders, admitted that the Salisbury Government would return to power with a majority of from 150 to 160. Of the 92 members already declared officially elected, the Ministerialists number 327 and the Opposition 165. The former have gained 23 seats and the latter 18. The Daily Telegraph says it understands that the cabinet has resigned as a formality, and in order to enable any necessary reconstruction. The Right Hon. Chas. H. Hemphill, Liberal, formerly Solicitor-General for Ireland, retains his seat for North Tyrone by a reduced majority. The latest political gossip is that the Earl of Dudley, who is now serving in the Yeomanry Cavalry in South Africa, will replace Earl Cadogan as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Mr. Thomas J. Healy, Irish Nationalist, has been defeated in the poll at North Wexford by Sir Thomas H. G. Stansfeld, Irish Nationalist. Mr. Wm. Abraham, Liberal, has been re-elected for the Rhonda Valley Division of Glamorganshire, Wales, with a majority of 6,549. In the general election of 1895 he was returned unopposed, as was also the case in the election of 1885 and of 1892.

ELECTION DATE.

The Dominion Parliament Dissolved by Order-in-Council.

Nominations will Take Place on Oct. 31st, Polling Wednesday, Nov. 7.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Wednesday, November 7th next, is the date fixed for the general elections. Nominations will be held as usual a week earlier, Oct. 31st. An order-in-council to-day effect was passed and issued to-morrow, in accordance therewith, announcing the dissolution of the present House and directing writs for the new election to issue forthwith, returnable before December 5th.

The boards of registration in cities and county towns to prepare the lists under the manhood suffrage system in Ontario, will be appointed at once, and will in nearly all cases be the same as under the Ontario act. They will proceed with their work as soon as they conveniently may do so.

Sciatica put him on Crutches.—Jas. Smith, dairyman, of Grimsby, Ont., writes: "My limbs were almost useless from sciatica and rheumatism, and, notwithstanding my esteem for physicians, I must give the credit where it belongs. I am a cured man to-day, and South American Rheumatic Cure must have all the credit. It's a marvel."—34 Sold by J. W. McLaren, Chatham.

Not Much Fight Left in the Boers Now in the Field.

Lord Roberts Expected to Issue a Proclamation of Peace on Thursday.

London, October 8.—The war office has secured the following despatch from Lord Roberts, dated Pretoria, Oct. 7: The Naval Brigade leaves for Cape Town to-day. Edwards, commanding the Boer scouts, who has surrendered at Krugersdorp, said the Boer forces have been broken up and have not much fight left in them. Scattered remnants are getting tired of the war.

Cecil Rhodes has arrived at Cape Town, and will probably attend parliament shortly. A PROCLAMATION OF PEACE. A Cape Town despatch says: "A proclamation of peace in South Africa is expected to be issued by Lord Roberts on Thursday, that being the anniversary of the declaration of war. Lord Roberts leaves at the end of the month for England to assume his new duties as commander-in-chief of the British army."

A Cape Town despatch says: The Boers now occupy Weponer, in Orange River Colony, and the British are attempting to surround them.

A HALF A MILLION LOAN. The Cape House of Assembly to-day passed a second reading of the bill to raise a loan of £500,000 to ensure the immediate payment of half the losses sustained by private persons through the war.

FIGHTING NEAR KRUGERSDORP. Johannesburg, Oct. 6.—Gen. Garton is fighting with a Boer commando north-east of Krugersdorp. Several bands of guerrillas have appeared in that district recently, and more are expected.

AN ENGLISH LEADER. Mr. Edwards, an Englishman, commanding a Boer force, who became prominent after the Jameson raid on account of a rabid anti-British speech he made, has surrendered in Krugersdorp with a few men. A colonial force has gone south to Elandfontein to clear the Boers out of the Kip Rivers hills. These hills have been a regular rendezvous for the burghers of late.

MISGUIDED BOERS. The ignorant Boer inhabitants here attribute the fact that the British officials are selling and distributing food to a desire on their part to elect the stores before they give up the count. These same people still count on the belief and circulate the most absurd stories about the intervention by the powers.

RE-ORGANIZING THE POLICE DEPARTMENT. Mr. Henry, who wears the decoration of the Star of India, and who is re-organizing the police department here, has introduced the system of identification by finger marks, and this way intends to register every native. This plan will be of great assistance in the distribution of labor and passes, the regulation of liquor selling, the suppression of illicit liquor selling.

SUICIDE OF A TEACHER.

Rodney, Oct. 8.—B. Osterhout, principal of the Rodney public school, committed suicide this morning, about 9 o'clock, by cutting his throat with a razor, and died ten minutes after. Mr. Osterhout has been sick for the past few days, and under Dr. Dorr's treatment his condition improved, and on Saturday he went to the residence of his brother-in-law, Peter McVicar, near Wardville, where he committed the deed which ended his life so suddenly. He came here only because since the holidays, and had been teaching since the holidays, and had a severe illness, which left him in a weak condition, and having some trouble in his school last week it is supposed his mind was not in a proper condition to stand the strain of worry and work, as he had not fully recovered from his former illness.

All who see Mr. C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., as he is now, cheerful, erect, vigorous, without an ache, could hardly believe he is the same man who a short time ago, had to sit in a chair, propped up by cushions, suffering intensely from an aching back, in agony if he tried to stoop—all caused by chronic kidney trouble, that no medicine helped till he used Electric Bitters and was wholly cured by three bottles. Positively cures Backache, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, all Kidney troubles. Only 50c. at A. I. McCall & Co's, Druggists.

WAS SET AFIRE

End of the Abandoned British Ship Nonpareil.

New York, Oct. 9.—The British steamer Knight Templar, Capt. Finis, which arrived last night from North Shields, reports that on Oct. 1, she sighted the abandoned British ship Nonpareil of London, which left New York Sept. 10 for Sourabaya, Java, and was abandoned on Sept. 22. Capt. Finis sent a boat to the Nonpareil, and it was thought possible that she could be towed into port. There was only 14 inches of water in the hold. A volunteer crew was called for and after patting them aboard, a hawser was passed to the vessel. She was towed from 6:50 p.m. until midnight, when the weather became very squally with a heavy rain. The Knight Templar stood by until daylight when it was decided to take off the volunteer crew and scuttle the vessel. She was set afire, and in a short time was a mass of flames. It was thought that she eventually sank, as the water was washing around the hatches.

The Nonpareil was fired directly in the track of vessels bound to and from Europe, and about 1,300 miles from New York. She was a new ship and was laden with case oil. Her owners were the Standard Oil Co. The crew of the Nonpareil was taken off by the steamer "Glengal," which arrived here Sept. 30 from Beyout.

AT THE THEATRE.

To-night's attraction at the Grand Opera House will be Lincoln J. Carter's spectacular nautical melodrama, "Remember the Maine." It is said to be a consummate achievement of stage art, and the expense has been a secondary consideration. A moment's thought and the very name of the production is sufficient to impress upon the mind the possibilities for a picture novel are tremendous.

Hoyt's "A Brass Monkey," which comes to the Grand on Thursday night, is a genuine New York production and is first class in every particular. W. C. Roberts, who is conducting the tour of "Blue Jeans," was in the city yesterday and says that he saw this production of "A Brass Monkey" in Albany, N. Y., a few nights ago. He has seen the play a number of times and says the cast which appears here this week is the best play ever had and has not a single weak spot in it. This is a disinterested comment from one who knows, and it is to be hoped that local theatre-goers will recognize the merit of the production and seek the Grand on Thursday evening.

In his play entitled "Remember the Maine," Mr. Carter, who is the acknowledged scenic author of the stage, has weaved a romance around such men as Lee, Shafter, Roosevelt, Miles, Dewey, and McKinley, beginning with the outbreak of the war, depicting the destruction of the battleship Maine, the destruction of the Spanish Armada at Manila, in a series of elaborate scenic pictures of wondrous realism. The boom of the guns, the roar of the cannon, the bursting shells, the blazing forts and the sinking of the ships and a firing show of rockets, transports the audience in thought to the actual scene of carnage. Those who have witnessed the play pronounce the blowing up of the Maine, and of the battle of Manila as the most realistic stage picture ever witnessed.

Mr. Carter's company has been strengthened for the coming season, and the performance in its entirety will be seen at the Grand to-night and to-morrow night.

Charles H. Hoyt always gave original and "quaker" names to the personages in his farces and comedies. "A Brass Monkey" that ran a whole season in Greater New York and outshines all his other brilliant successes, is an illustration of this fact, and playgoers here will have a chance to convince themselves at the Grand next Thursday night, Oct. 11. To begin with, there is Jonah, a victim of superstition, and a host of other things. Double Work; Dodge Work; August Frost; the Mascot (the dog); Faith, Hope and Charity Grace, in a bunch, and the Marvellous little cabarette Engage, the alleged daughter of Jonah. The latter character is not a "hoodoo." It represents a victim of superstition. Engage is the star part, and Miss Marie Trumbull fills it perfectly. She seems to have been moulded for this role by nature's premier sculptor. She is a dream of loveliness in repose, and a poem of beauty in action.

The great amount of design work done at the Victoria Avenue Green House is sufficient proof of the excellence of the work. Nothing but the best at the lowest prices. Telephone 181.

INTENSE FILIAL DEVOTION.

A Trait Common to Both Japanese and Chinese.

Intense filial devotion is one trait which Japanese and Chinese possess in common. A remarkable honor has just been paid to a Japanese girl, the 15-year-old daughter of a resident of Tokyo, Riki Wakayama, who was not very careful in the choice of her parents, for although they were people of some education and had once been in pretty good circumstances, they were at the time of Riki's birth, very poor, and when she was 6 years old they were reduced to absolute poverty. The father was compelled to run a jirikucha in order to keep the family from starving.

About the same time the wife became an invalid, helpless creature. While the woman lay helpless, and her husband worked from early till late to stave off starvation, the child not only acted as nurse to the invalid, caring for her every want, but also acted as housekeeper, mending clothes, washing and cooking. She never went out to play with other children. The only recreation she had was walking for miles in search of some cheap dainty which the sick woman fancied. Towards the end the invalid's sufferings grew more acute and the child, in addition to nursing through the day, sat up half the night.

A few months ago the mother was happily released by death. The child sought relief for her sorrow in working for strangers, and with what she earned supported her father, who had grown too weak to work.

This touching story of devotion, covering the care of the mother of Tokyo, he sent the girl an official diploma of honor, together with a sum of money to be employed as dowry when she marries. As long, however, as her father lives she has no thought of marrying. It should be mentioned that, in spite of all the duties which Riki took on her young shoulders, she found time to learn to read and write, taught by her invalid mother.

How Kipling Crushed a Bore.

I met a traveller who came from the Cape aboard the ship on which Rudyard Kipling made the passage, and he had some good stories to tell of the author. Kipling was pestered by a flock of passengers who wished to gush over him and hero worship him.

Kipling, you know, is not built that way and puts up impatiently with gush and hysteria. One forenoon Kipling was walking the deck hand in hand with his little daughter, when one of the gushers, seeing an opportunity to flatter the father and so make friends with the author, threw himself in the way of the couple.

"Oh, Mr. Kipling," he gushed, "is that your child?" Kipling granted a noncommittal "Yes," and tried to pass. But the fellow was not done with him. Still standing in the way, he exclaimed: "What a delightfully beautiful and healthy child she is!" Kipling gazed at a stony gaze at the man, and saying, with great emphasis on the personal pronoun, "I'm reasonably satisfied with her make," he shouldered past the bore and tramped on—Saturday Evening Post.

Ventilating an Invalid's Room.

A point to be observed in the invalid's room is: Never put a patient in a direct line of draft—that is, between the open window or door and the fireplace. A sickroom must be thoroughly well ventilated without draft. A hospital nurse once gave the following little wrinkle concerning ventilation. The simplest plan, she said, is to have a lath ventilator, about six inches wide and the length of the window, should be slipped just inside the window sash at the bottom. First, open the window from the lower part, then fit in the lath and shut down the window on to it. In this way you get ventilation by raising up the lower sash; the air comes in at the division and goes upward toward the ceiling. This lath ventilator is only applicable with the sash windows. If you have no lath, open the windows at the top and cover the opening with a piece of muslin to which the dust will cling.

A Spectacles Charity.

London has a curious philanthropic organization called the Spectacles mission. It was founded by Dr. E. J. Warner many years ago and provides spectacles for poor working people suffering from defective sight. Last year more than 1,000 pairs of spectacles were given away by the mission. A subscriber of 5 shillings receives four spectacle cards for distribution, a 10 shilling subscriber 10 cards, and so on. The eyes of each applicant are carefully tested, and the spectacles are new, of good glass with steel frames. Many a poor working man and woman has been enabled by this mission to retain employment.

Barrie in the Chair.

Mr. J. M. Barrie some years ago was persuaded to take the chair at a Burns celebration in Scotland. He was extremely silent and stole away at the earliest opportunity. Next week appeared in The National Observer a humorous article, entitled "Mr. Barrie in the Chair," in which Mr. Barrie's lack of social tact was held up to ridicule. Many people thought the writer had gone too far and protested. But the author was Mr. Barrie himself, according to The Temple Magazine.

Japan's Strong Cash Box.

When the war with China broke out in 1894, the Tokyo treasury held a sum of about 25,000,000 yen, representing accumulations of surplus revenue. It contains now a sum of 50,000,000, representing a reserve set apart from the Chinese indemnity for purposes of naval maintenance, famine relief and educational aid, and it can lay its hand on 80,000,000 more without any trouble.—London Mail.

A Siege

The matrons of the Edison Orphanage at Lowell, Mass., U.S.A., wrote they had a siege of whooping-cough in their institution. They said that every case was promptly relieved by Vapo-Cresolene. Its value in coughs and colds was so great they always kept it ready for use. You know how it's used, don't you? 'Tis heated by a vaporizer and you inhale it. Write us for a book that tells all about it.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. The Vaporizer and Lamp which should last a lifetime, and a bottle of Cresolene complete, $1.50; extra supply of Cresolene, 25 cents and 50 cents. TELEGRAPH NEWS.

Bubonic plague has made its appearance in a district of Glasgow hitherto considered free from the disease. Lord Roberts reports that several Boer commandos surrendered recently, and that the Boer prisoners now number 16,000.

The hydraulic pumps at the London, Ont., waterworks are working again, after being idle nineteen months owing to the destruction of the dam.

A young man named Wm. Shoudice, who lived with his father near Pinkerton Station, was instantly killed by a tree falling on him. Walter Vandleet, of Oakville, fell while working on Bronte bridge, 60 feet to a rocky bed of the creek below. He struck the abutment in his fall, and slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.

THE RIGHT THING.

A New Catarrh Cure, Which is Rapidly Coming to the Front.

For several years Eucalyptol, Guaiacol and Hydrastin have been recognized as standard remedies for catarrhal troubles, but they have always been given separately and only very recently an ingenious chemist succeeded in combining them, together with other antiseptics, into a pleasant, effective tablet.

Druggists sell the remedy under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and it has met with remarkable success in the cure of nasal catarrh, bronchial and throat catarrh and in catarrh of the stomach.

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark House, Troy, N. Y., says: "When I run up against anything that is good I like to tell people of it. I have been troubled with catarrh more or less for some time. Last winter more than ever. Tried several so-called cures, but did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago I bought a 50-cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I am glad to say that they have done wonders for me, and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are the right thing."

Mr. George J. Casanova, of hotel Griffin, West 9th street, New York City, writes: "I have commenced using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in preference to any other treatment for catarrh of the head, throat or stomach. He claims that they are far superior to inhalers, selves, lotions or powder, and are much more convenient and pleasant to take and are so harmless that little children take them with benefit as they contain no opiate, cocaine, or any poisonous drug."

All druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 50 cents for full sized package, and they are probably the safest and most reliable cure for any form of Catarrh.

PATRIOTISM AND T.F.A.

Up to ten or fifteen years ago the tea markets of the world were supplied by China and Japan, but the special adaptability of Ceylon and India as tea-growing countries has brought their products very prominently before the tea-drinking public. The total absence of coloring matter and adulteration, and the peculiarly fine flavor and healthful qualities of Ceylon and India teas have all combined to entirely displace the product of China. Ceylon and India are now commencing to make the most delicious Green Teas that have ever been produced in the world, and they are gaining great popularity in Canada and the United States, where Japan teas are largely consumed. There is not a pound of Japan tea which is not artificially colored and adulterated. "Artificial coloring" means injury to the health of the tea drinker, hence the physician's invariable advice to his patients is to not drink green tea. However, with the new product of Ceylon and India and the entire absence, as we say, of coloring or adulteration, will soon make their Green Teas as popular as their Black Teas. The green teas of Ceylon and India can be gotten in the well-known sealed lead packets of the "Salada" Tea Company, and buyers had better see that the words "Salada" are on the packet; and thus, in addition to drinking tea of much finer flavor and more healthful qualities, they will be showing good-will towards their own fellow colonists and thereby helping to unite the Empire.

Messrs. James Epps & Co., Limited, the well-known Cocoa Manufacturers, of London, have just issued an exceedingly tasteful little medal in aluminum, for distribution amongst their numerous customers and the public generally. It is called the National Medal of the United Empire, and having been struck on the termination of the war in South Africa, it forms a fitting souvenir of the Mother Country and her various colonies, typical figures of each being represented thereon. A pretty scarlet ribbon and a suitable inscription complete its equipment, and we feel sure that all sections of the public will be eager to possess Messrs. Epps & Co.'s patriotic medal.

A GOOD MEETING.
There was a large attendance at the annual thank-offering meeting of the W. M. S., held in the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. The program was an exceedingly good one, the special features being the addresses given by Messrs. McDonald and Gage, of Hawick, and an exquisite solo sung by Mrs. S. C. Walker. The offerings amounted to over $50.

NEW FALL HATS

Many a man has bought a good hat at this store and paid so little that he didn't appreciate how much he got for his money. We don't make hats and can't control shapes—they are arbitrary and fixed by the best makers. But we can control colors and qualities in our buying and buy the best and control the price after the buying.

Our Price for Standards

No need to pay $5.00 with our full stock of American stiff hats, in Dunlop, You-man and Knox, new blocks, in black, seal and alder to choose from, at.....$2.50
A full range of Christy's celebrated hats, in the new fall shapes and colorings, from $1 to.....$3.00

Some makers of hats purposely leave off all distinguishing marks to accommodate certain dealers. The hats we buy the makers father, and we think enough of them to add our own label.

A QUESTION OF PREVENTION.

It is certainly true that a vast proportion of the sickness and suffering that exist in the world might be avoided if proper attention were given to the means of prevention. There are times, however, when a given cause will produce sickness and other have no bad effect. This is explained by the fact that the system is at times better able to resist the effects of exposure to these causes.

It is here that the well known medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, proves especially valuable. It puts the system in condition to rest and overcome disease. We know of no medicine that stands so high in the estimation of the people as this, and there is abundant reason for it. Every one who has read the newspapers to any extent must have seen reports of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and these reports are given by honest and conscientious people. These cures prove beyond any question that this medicine possesses extraordinary merit and that it may be depended upon to keep up the health tone, thus preventing serious illness, and also that it has power to cure all forms of disease that originate in or are promoted by impure or impoverished blood.
