MR. LUCAS SPEAKS

Public Conviction Must Lead the Way in the Handling of the Liquor Traffic --Meeting at Thornbury.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

THORNBUARY, June 25.—[The safe way and the sureway of temperance reform is to go slowly and surely, to educate public opinion, to support it so that when you have prohibitory laws they will have behind them a great body of public opinion.]

In these words the Hon. I. B. Lucas, speaking to an enthusiastic audience here last night, defined the temperance question. The Provincial Treasurer was returning to his own riding after campaigning about the province, and was accorded a remarkable welcome by his Thornbury constituents.

Bilingual Question.

Hon. Mr. Lucas spent little time on general issues, the temperance and bilingual questions occupying the greater part of his address. A feature of the meeting was the decided position taken by Mayor Snettinger, a prominent Methodist, and local opinion worker, who, in a speech, urged along temperance lines.

Dr. McCullum, Liberal worker, was given opportunity to speak for Mr. Lucas' opponent. He put a half dozen so-called posers to the Minister, but the Treasurer turned them back on him with ridicule, to the great delight of the crowd.

The Rowell Policy. The Minister gave the audience an insight into the true inception of the Rowell policy. "I am not questioning the sincerity of the clerical gentlemen who are taking the platform in this campaign against me," he said.

In dealing with the bilingual question Hon. Mr. Lucas restated the Government's position on the use of English as the language of instruction and communication in the Public Schools. He held up to scorn Mr. Rowell's intense elusiveness on the subject, and quoted from his speeches made in the western part of Ontario to show how different an impression he had left there to that left with the French-Canadian people of the eastern districts.

EXTRACT FROM SIR JAMES WHITNEY'S SPEECH IN MASSEY HALL, TORONTO

"They are trying with a blare of trumpets to banish the bar but hold on to the jug." "I say a clergyman has no moral right to take this question into the pulpit and denounce, as bad citizens and worse men, those who do not agree with him on this particular subject. We are all agreed on the evils of the traffic, but we have no right to accuse another that the methods he defends are bad and that he is bad because he defends them."

WHERE THE EXPOSITOR STOOD ON LOCAL OPTION QUESTION LAST YEAR

"The temperance people of Brantford were offered last year by the City Council to have a by-law submitted without any 25 per cent. petition being submitted to the Council. The offer of the City Council was rejected because certain of the temperance party, being of Grit persuasion, put a damper on it. They wanted to save their ammunition and make party capital out of a question which should rightly appeal to those of Grit as well as Tory persuasion, and be discussed without politics."

A Speech at St. George Which Was Not Reported Mr. Westbrook Spoke to Big Crowd There Last Night.

That the village of St. George will give John W. Westbrook, the Conservative candidate a substantial majority on Monday next was evidenced by the bumper meeting held last night in the Library Hall. As compared with the Liberal meeting a few nights previous there was a marked difference all in favor of the Conservative cause.

No Anarchy In China

[By Special Wire to the Courier] MONTREAL, June 25.—A London cable to The Gazette says: Dr. Morrison, political adviser to the President of the Chinese republic, who has arrived in England, will in a few weeks return to China, going via British Columbia with the intention of investigating the immigration question in that province on the spot.

ROOSEVELT IS BACK IN POLITICS

Declares That He is Through With Geography For Several Months.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 25.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who returned last night from Europe, where he had gone to attend the wedding of his son, Kermit, permitted himself to rest today but immediately got to work on his correspondence and other matters which had accumulated in his absence.

"My career as a geographer ended to-night," he declared. "For the next four months I suppose I shall be a politician."

After enumerating some of the things Mr. Perkins has done, the colonel said: "As for reading him out of the party, when that is done they will have to read me out too."

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—"Al" Orth, National League umpire, was severely injured on the knee and elbow previous to yesterday's game at the Philadelphia ball park.

MEANS VICTORY

Magnificent Meetings Held Last Night in the Interest of Brewster and Good Government--Liberal Lies Nailed.

A rousing rally for the Conservative party and W. S. Brewster was held last night in West Brantford on the large vacant lot at the corner of Gilkinson and Richardson streets.

Mr. Brewster was late in arriving, having been detained at his meeting in the Holmedale, and was therefore the last speaker. Before he arrived the crowd was addressed by Mr. R. T. Hall, manager of the Watson Mills, Mayor Spence, Ald. W. A. Hollinrake, and A. L. Baird.

Ald. Hollinrake received great applause when he rose to speak and he made a capital speech, every word of which cut open the tactics of the Liberals in this election and laid bare their knavery before the audience.

Big Rally at Paris Friday Night

John W. Westbrook will close his campaign in Paris on Friday night with a great demonstration in favor of continued Good Government for Ontario.

FLAT DENIAL IS ISSUED BY HOTELKEEPERS

Men on the List Will Not be Served--Matter Never Contemplated.

The hotelkeepers and liquor dealers of this city give an absolute denial to the report in the Expositor last night that men who have been denied liquor by the Association are to be served with the same. No such action has been contemplated by the Association, and the following signed statement was presented to this paper to-day:

To the Editor of the Courier: Sir,—It having been reported to the Hotel Keepers' Association of Brantford that they have called off the list of men, which they decided at a meeting some time ago should not be served with liquor, we, the undersigned hotel keepers and proprietors of liquor stores of the City of Brantford, wish to give said report a flat denial, and wish the general public to know that the said report has not a word of truth in it in any manner, shape or form.

"I was never approached on the matter," said Mr. Charles Hacker, "and even if I were, I would not consent to the proposition. The men who are on that list in my house are on to stay." The same statements were expressed by other members of the association.

With the City Police

A comely was enacted at the police court this morning when Roxilla Johnson charged her brother Herbert with assault. Both are colored people. Looking none the worse for the alleged battering and presenting a robust appearance, she exclaimed that she and other women, gabbling as woman will, had decreed that a man who married his first cousin, must be a poor mortal.

"Herbie" as she affectionately termed him, gave another version of the affair, and denied her tale in its comeliness, but admitted that his spouse was his cousin. He said that the controversy started with reference to a white man and his sister. Here she defended herself, retorting that he was no common guy' and that she had worked for him in Hamilton before and after his wife died.

"This is only a little family affair, only you two settle it," asked the magistrate. She replied she was willing to do what was right. "Right is right you know," she added. "You can't eat three square meals a day, can't you," she was asked, and she admitted that this was so. Addressing himself to Herbert, the bench said: "Now, remember, that you can't fine your head in the air as much as you please but their jurisdiction must end where your sister's back begins. With that he allowed defendant to go.

The enlisting of clerical campaigners for the Grit machine is about done. So also is the Grit machine.

HOW WATER RUSHED INTO ALL THE CABINS

Additional Evidence Today at Enquiry Into Big Disaster.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] QUEBEC, June 25.—Technical evidence from the point of view of the Storstad's owners, was put in at this morning's session of the Empress of Ireland commission holding meetings in the court house here. It differed most materially from that submitted by Percy Hillhouse, of the Fairfield Shipbuilding Yards, where the Empress was constructed. The evidence was supplied by John Reid, a naval architect, with British experience now practicing in Montreal, who put the angle of contact between the two vessels as forty-five degrees and not eighty as deduced by Mr. Hillhouse.

Survivors stories of how the water rushed into their cabins through the port holes was also submitted to substantiate the theory that these open apertures contributed to the capsizing of the vessel.

First Woman Witness

The Empress wreck commission heard the first woman witness this morning when Miss Townsend, an Australian lady, told of her experiences after the collision between the collier Storstad and the liner. Miss Townsend spoke of how when towards the last the Empress was over on her side, she and her aunt walked along her steel sides which was then a deck over the port holes and into the water. She went down and when she came up there were a number of men around her in the water with life belts on. One of them promptly pushed her away. Coming up again she was assisted by a man named Burt, who had a life belt and a suit case. He gave her the latter and assisted her to get her overcoat off. Though hampered by her shoes, she swam fifty yards until picked up by a boat from the collier.

Miss Townsend was called by Mr. C. S. Haight, of counsel for the Storstad owners to answer questions in regard to whistles she heard the Empress blow. She said in this connection that just before the crash she distinctly heard three short and two long blasts. She heard other whistles earlier, and they woke her up. She had looked out on deck from her cabin and had seen that it was quite foggy.

To Mr. Aspinall of the C. P. R. lawyers the witness said that she thought some of the earlier whistles came from a third boat ahead of them.

Chas. Burns, an assistant storekeeper on the Empress said that he ran up from his cabin where he was sleeping after the collision and then saw the Storstad drawing away towards the stern of the liner and parallel to it.

George McConney, junior engineer on the Empress, testified that he had just gone off duty before the ramming and heard fog signals from his ship. He then noticed that he was going astern by the vibration.

The court gave most of the Empress' witnesses permission to go home to-day: ordering Captain Kendall, First Officer Jones and Engineer Brennan only to remain.

Mr. Newcombe, who is conducting the case for the Federal authorities, desired to call Captain Murray, harbor master here and formerly commander of the Empress of Britain, to give route of the big passenger ships in putting out from Father Point to sea. Lord Mersey did not think it was necessary as Mr. Haight admitted that he had no fault to find with Captain Kendall's course except with reference to the presence of the Storstad in the vicinity.

Having been asked by the court yesterday if there was any other evidence in the testimonies taken by the C. P. R. immediately after the accident, which might throw light on the closing of the water-tight doors and the port holes of the ship. Mr. Newcombe obtained permission to read the evidence of three passengers who were in England or the west at the present. One of them swore that he was awakened by the water pouring through his port hole and that he saw a grip floating over the floor of his cabin; another said that when he was awakened after the collision the water was already rushing in through the windows, while the third one swore that he was roused by water pouring on his bed.

Lord Mersey asked Mr. Newcombe to direct his attention to the question as to whether, in ships of the type of the Empress, where the apparatus for closing the water-tight doors from the outside was not the most modern type it was desirable or practicable to close all water-tight doors and port-holes when the vessel entered any fog.

John Reid, a naval architect, formerly with Steeman & Sons, Glasgow, Cammell Laird on Mersey, and Armstrong, Whitworth & Company on the Tyne, was put into the box by Mr. Haight and gave his theory of the angle at which the Storstad struck the Empress. Illustrating his arguments with the model of the present condition of the bows of the collier, Mr. Reid deduced that the Storstad must have hit the liner's side at an angle of 45 degrees, a point about 8 feet from the bottom of the extreme edge of the stem making the first contact, the remainder of the blow being inflicted by the starboard side of the ship and its anchor, the flukes of the latter being driven up in a very ugly position. He said that the twisting of the Storstad's nose to port indicated this. He thought the hole made in the Empress' side would be about twelve feet in diameter. The damage to the Storstad extended back about 14 feet on the starboard side, but a wound of this diameter would not be inflicted, as the Empress was not at right angles to the collier.

Asked by Lord Mersey to give his theory on how the Storstad came to get away from the Empress and what caused the vessel to sink, Mr. Reid said that the collier's nose was hooked into the liner's side, that locked, and she swung round to her stern about one degree and then got clear the Empress moving forward. He said indications on the bow of the collier convinced him that an Empress bulkhead was only slightly hit and that it was not damaged enough to render it useless. He thought that the Storstad only damaged one compartment at the boilers, and that any water that found its way into other parts of the ship must have done so through water-tight doors and port-holes. He thought the Storstad only penetrated eight or ten feet measured at right angles from the Empress' side.

Mr. Reid said that the area of the Empress rudder was not enough. She had 1.53 per cent. of rudder after it was enlarged in 1908 to the submerged plane of the ship. This was not enough, he thought, to make her a good steering vessel. She should have had 2 per cent. Vessels being built with cruiser effect sterns now had 2.4 per cent. of rudder space.

Mr. Reid said the Empress stern effect was new when she was built. The extra fullness of the stern was made to accommodate the steering machinery. The same effect was now secured, but in a different way.

Mr. Aspinall had just begun his cross-examination of Mr. Reid when court adjourned for lunch.

Echo Place Garden Party a Success

The monster garden party held at Mohawk Villa yesterday afternoon and evening under the auspices of the Anglican Church Extension society, was a pronounced and great success.

It was feared at first in the morning when the thunder storm broke over the city that a wet day was about to spread a mantle of gloom over the affair, but as the clouds hastened away and Old Sol came out in all his glory, hundreds of people arrived on the grounds. There were children, parents and grandmas and grandpas, the majority with their lunch baskets. It is only glorious family-like re-ticence of the Anglican people and their friends. As the afternoon wore on, the crowd became greater on account of so many stores closing up for the half holiday and by evening there was a splendid gathering assembled together. Speeches were to have been made in the afternoon by several prominent citizens, and they were all present, but on account of the heavy wind, making hearing almost impossible they were postponed until the evening. In the afternoon among those present were Mayor Spence, W. S. Brewster, M. P., John W. Westbrook, M. P., J. Joseph Ham, Rev. C. Jenkins and Rev. H. A. Thomas, superintendent of the Echo Place Anglican Sunday School. In the afternoon music was provided by the St. Luke's orchestra under Mr. E. Johnson, and in the evening the Telephone City quartette rendered a delightful program. Mrs. Wm. Lewis delighted the gathering with her singing of "Land of Hope and Glory." Splendid solos were also rendered by Mr. Farquhar and Mr. Unsworth.

Before the programme the children delighted themselves with the fish-pond and other amusements. The feature of the evening though, was the display by 65 picked boy scouts under Commissioner McFarlan. They erected a tent and did other scout tests that won great admiration from the crowd. The grand finale was the scene that captivated the crowd, and caused great excitement. Flames were seen to shoot up all around Mohawk Villa House, and the crowd not knowing what was coming thought the place was on fire. The scouts had concealed some flash powder on the veranda in order to carry out their rescue stunt from a burning house, quickly and in order the Scouts formed a human pyramid under one of the windows and rescued several boy scouts in the upper room. Some were rescued by jumping into the fire sheds but all were finally safely rescued in order the display was over. The scouts received great applause for their splendid work.

Taken altogether the garden party was a great success and a most enjoyable outing.

Women's Institute

The Echo Place Woman's Institute was held at Mohawk School House on Saturday, June 20th, and was well attended. The president, Mrs. J. J. Burke in the chair. The meeting was opened by singing the Maple Leaf.

She spoke of the good the Woman's Institute were doing for home and country. The ladies then sang together, "Blest be the tie that binds." A reading by Miss Mary Edmanson was heartily enjoyed. The district delegate was Miss Smiley of Toronto, was certainly delightful. She gave an address on good health that was appreciated and very instructive to all having the pleasure of hearing her. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. M. Patterson, July 1st. The meeting closed by singing God Save the King.

Tutela Institute Tutela Women's Institute met at the Bell Homestead on June 23rd. The meeting opened in the usual way the president, Mrs. A. Hird in the chair. Instrumental by Miss Alexander, solo, Miss Robbins of Brantford, Miss Smilie of Toronto, government delegate, gave a talk on "Good Health," the value of sunshine, sunlight, fresh air and the benefits of drinking plenty of pure water.

Solo, Mrs. Heath of Brantford; piano instrumental, Mrs. W. Brooks; duet Mrs. Heath and Miss Robbins was much enjoyed.

After the close of the programme, an hour was spent taking in the scenery and enjoying the beauty of one of the loveliest and most historical spots possible to find, and which, we as Canadians, do not prize enough. At 6.30 a number of the men arrived, supper was served on the lawn, all enjoying the social hour very much. The next meeting to be held August 4th, at the home of Mrs. R. Greenwood, Tutela Heights.

Nuptial Notes

GORVETT-McCONNELL

A very pleasant event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McConnell, West Luther, on Wednesday, June 24th, when the eldest daughter, Isabella Gertrude, was united in wedlock to Mr. Russell Gorvett of Arthur. The Rev. Robert Rogers, pastor of the brides, officiated. At one-thirty p.m. the bride entered the drawing room leaning on her father's arm to where there was a beautifully arranged arch which was tastefully decorated with orange blossoms and the conventional wedding bell. Miss Hazel Eveling of Belwood played the wedding march. The bride looked charming in a gown of white satin de chene trimmed with shadow lace and pearls and carrying a bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley. Miss Pearl Post, cousin of the groom acted as bridesmaid and was becomingly attired in a gown of pink satin and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations, while Hilliard McConnell, brother of the bride, was best man.

After the ceremony and hearty congratulations the guests, numbering well over one hundred, took their place on the lawn where a tent was erected and beautifully arranged for the occasion. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold necklace set with pearls and the bride's gift a gold cuff links and the organist was Miss E. A. Knill, the junior third, and Miss Reynolds of Bothwell, teacher of domestic science.

Miss Gertrude Dunn is receiving congratulations from her many friends in town, she having secured the gold medal at St. Joseph's College, Toronto, for the highest standing in Science Form 111.

Mr. H. Isaacs has sold out the Canadian Hotel to Mr. R. H. Gair. The new proprietor takes possession on Friday.

A very pleasant time was spent at the residence of Mrs. Cavan, Brantford Township, yesterday afternoon, when the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church held their annual picnic. The ladies left on the 3 o'clock car, and all report having had a real jolly time.

Miss Mildred Smith of Mr. J. M. Hall's military department, will have the sympathy of many in town in the death of her father which took place in Simcoe. He was in his 67th year.

Mrs. James Muir formerly of Paris was buried in Toronto on June 23rd in Mt. Pleasant cemetery. Many in town will remember her as Bessie Gouin-Lochead, as her girlhood days were all spent here. At one time Mr. Muir had a business in town under the firm name of Galloway and Muir. Mrs. Muir had been ill for some time. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives in this their sad hour of trial.

People in town received quite a scare last night when the general alarm was rung in for fire, and whistles started to blow. It was between half past eleven and 12 o'clock when mostly every one had retired but at the first ring of the bell the streets were crowded, people came rushing in autos and farmers drove in from the country, but they found it was a false alarm, which our town's people were very thankful for. It seems that the fire was out in the Y. M. C. A. when the janitor returned, so he put excelsior in to light it up. This went up the chimney which caused a cloud of smoke to settle on the main street, which looked very much like a bad fire at first. The firemen soon responded to the call and were promptly on hand had their services been needed.

Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives in this their sad hour of trial.

People in town received quite a scare last night when the general alarm was rung in for fire, and whistles started to blow. It was between half past eleven and 12 o'clock when mostly every one had retired but at the first ring of the bell the streets were crowded, people came rushing in autos and farmers drove in from the country, but they found it was a false alarm, which our town's people were very thankful for. It seems that the fire was out in the Y. M. C. A. when the janitor returned, so he put excelsior in to light it up. This went up the chimney which caused a cloud of smoke to settle on the main street, which looked very much like a bad fire at first. The firemen soon responded to the call and were promptly on hand had their services been needed.

Leper Mission Holds Meeting
 The regular monthly meeting of the Mission to Lepers was held in the club room of the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday, 23rd, notwithstanding the intense heat, there was an attendance of 21 ladies. The treasurer gave a very encouraging report of the finances of the society, she has just sent $170.00 to Toronto, that being the amount raised the first half of the year, an advance of $20.00 above the first half of last year. She also stated, the annual thanksgiving had reached $100.75. Mrs. Sickle who has charge of the Surprise soap wrappers, reported that she had sent 4,000 to Toronto this year, and had just received 1,900 more. The society received from headquarters in Toronto, 50 cents per hundred for soap wrappers sent to them. This adds materially to the good work of the society, and donations of soap wrappers from any source would be gratefully acknowledged. Mrs. Rose gave a helpful Bible lesson taken from Rev. 21:7, "The lion faithful unto death." It was very fitting for the closing meeting for the summer. The lesson for the day was on Pentecost the largest leper home in India. Seven hundred lepers are there at the present time. Miss Butler and Miss Whelan gave very interesting readings on the work done in Pentecost. Miss Walker gave a most interesting sketch of the sad condition of these poor lepers and of the work done there in the last 38 years. Miss Jean Sickle sang "One Sweetly Sings the Doxology" very beautifully, followed by an instrumental solo by Miss Ethel Dixon. The meeting closed with all joining in reciting I Co. 15: 58. The next meeting will be held on Sept. 22nd.

MARKET REPORTS

CHICAGO, June 24.—Plattering reports about the wheat harvest in the United States caused a severe break in prices in Liverpool before trading here began. The result was an abrupt setback for the Chicago market. The instant that business opened, there was a general rush, which was followed by a reaction on profit-taking, and by a renewal of weakness, with later a second rally.

With the City Police

Magistrate Livingston had only a moderate list to deal with at the police court today.
 Mrs. Brinn was given to understand this morning that over a neighbor's children she had no jurisdiction and that in future if she wanted to chastise them she must do it legally through the court. She alleged that Isaac Pullman's daughter had insulted her by calling her names, and that she imagined the best way to deal with the case was to give the child a good thrashing. The little girl denied offending Mrs. Brinn and the bench allowed defendant to go with a warning. Four young fellows were warned not to go bathing in the dam of the river beside the Watson Manufacturing Works. They got into the water and then someone would release the flood gates and the result was a pleasant water shoot into the river. The mill owners complained of the practice of opening the gates and asked that the boys be warned. They did not wish to prosecute and the offenders were warned. "We will have to shoot for the bathers," commented the magistrate.

IT MEANS VICTORY.

 "where does the Expositor stick his reply to the questions asked by the Women's Liberal Club? Down in a corner on the last page where one can hardly find it, and why? Because Dr. Mackenzie happened to stand firm by his convictions and upheld the Whitney government and gave his reasons. You know," continued the Alderman, "the Expositor always comes out on some great moral issue, and now they are parading 'Rowell and social reforms.' Now who is Rowell? With that, Mr. Hollinrake opened up on the past career of Newton Rowell, who defended the last rotten fables of the Ross government by getting on to the platform to speak in their defence, a government that had broken every single pledge it ever made with the people. He also claimed that Rowell received $20,000 for putting a deal through for a steel corporation. Mr. Hollinrake then dealt with the Hydro Electric showing how it would save Brantford thousands of dollars a year in house lighting. Sir James Whitney always stood for public ownership of public utilities.

Mayor J. H. Spence
 Ald. Calbeck then called on Mayor Spence to address the gathering and the Expositor had stood. The temperance party had approached the city council last year. Asking that local option be submitted to the people and the council told them that they could have the by-law presented with out any petition provided they would place temperance candidates in the municipal field. They were quite satisfied but in a short time there was a change. T. L. Wood became president of the local temperance organization and they started to get cold feet and gradually the Expositor began throwing out feelers stating that it wouldn't be wise to have a local option fight just yet. 'My friends,' said the mayor, 'they knew this provincial election would be coming off soon and they wanted the temperance cry of 'Abolish the Bar' to work on just as they are working on now, and want to say here to-night, that if you, the electors, want to submit local option next January you can do so without the necessity of any petition, that is where I stand on local option.' (Applause.)
 Mayor Spence then dealt with the Hydro-Electric refuting the charge that the company he was manager of did not have hydro as all they had to do was to examine the books of the Hydro Electric to see that they were not a customer of theirs. He closed his speech by showing the hypocrisy of the Liberals in not taking the bar out of their own club in Toronto. They should begin temperance at home. He appealed to the electors to support Mr. Brewster on Monday next.

THE SWING OF VICTORY.

The closing days of the Ontario election campaign have witnessed a vast change in the previously cocksure attitude of the Rowellite papers and speakers.

The truth is that right now they are a badly-licked crowd, and they know it.

If anything was needed to clinch the whole situation it was that grand speech of Sir James Whitney at Toronto, and not only the speech, but the outstanding personality of the man, grown old in public service, with a record of ability, honesty and whole-souled integrity beyond compare.

Any man who takes the trouble can easily see that the Rowell forces are badly handicapped right from the start.

The Conservatives have three seats by acclamation to one Liberal ditto, and in some twenty other constituencies they have no straight candidates of their own.

Suppose the utterly impossible thing that the independent candidates in these ridings should all be elected. Suppose the other equally impossible thing that Rowell should win, where on earth would he be if he had to depend on the help of non-partizan men to hold office?

As the Hamilton Herald (Independent) very well points out:

"He could not long carry on the government under such conditions. He would have to satisfy his heterogeneous following in everything. Every division would be in doubt. There would very soon have to be another appeal to the people."

True, every word of it. Whitney will win by an overwhelming majority, and both Brants, as they should, are going to stay in line.

POWER TO THE FARMER

In a notable speech at Port Stanley yesterday, Sir Adam Beck spoke of the determination of the Government to go into the development of power for the province, instead of relying upon the private companies for its production.

The announcement that the Government would undertake the production of 500,000 horsepower and that rentals coming to the government from privileges granted to private companies would be used to build transmission lines to the farms, was received with marked evidences of satisfaction.

The Minister of Power dwelt effectively with the social problem as it affects the farm life of the province, and pointed out that with electricity lifting the burden from the back of the farmer, his wife and family, the boy and girls would remain upon the farm, glad to do so, because of the privileges they could there enjoy in advance of city life.

Sir Adam dealt in vigorous fashion with the hydro radial policy. Sir James Whitney had said that his government would cobweb the province with these roads. The electric railway would bring the farm and the city into the closest relationship, and for the great benefit of all concerned.

A CATECHISM FOR THE CAMPAIGN

Here are a few questions which we should especially like Liberals to answer frankly;

Would ten per cent. of the "Banish the bar" advocates be as ardent did the proposition come from a Conservative?

Did five per cent. of them ever split from their party over temperance?

If not, what claim have they to the character of being temperance before party men, which they are pretending to be before Conservatives in this campaign?

Did even the beatific Mr Rowell ever give a sign that he was a temperance before party man?

Further, are these new found temperance enthusiasts going to vote for Local Option or the Scott Act later on?

Will their enthusiasm wane with Mr Rowell's defeat?

Do the numerous Liberals who keep liquor in their houses think Local Option too drastic?

And so prefer "Banish the bar" merely in the hope of heading off Local Option?

Since Local Option would hinder their keeping liquor of which they use in their houses, would they vote against Local Option?

Are they such class legislationists that they would cut off the poor man's glass by closing the bar, yet keep open the shop, for their own selfish indulgence?

Will they gratify a natural and reasonable curiosity as to what their course is going to be toward Local Option?

Since Local Option is more radical than mere bar abolition, is it not a fair test of sincerity in the present campaign to demand they show their hand toward Local Option?

Do you not think Rowell should purge his following of the spurious, stick-to-the-liquor element, like the Ontario Club, Toronto, etc.?

Have Liberals noticed that French bilingualists are all for Rowell?

If Rowell is straight on the bilingual question, where do the bilingualists get their cue?

Where does Rowell stand on Regulation 17?

If he does not approve of Regulation 17, would he make it stronger or weaker?

Where do bilingualists get their cue to call Mr Rowell their "protector"?

Is he tricking the bilingualists or tricking us? Does the Liberal leader really think a man supporting Whitney is repudiating temperance?

Is not the Whitney method working out effectively, without reaction; and has there not been more temperance progress in the Whitney reign than in three the period before him? Is it to be supposed that Whitney will never have another amendment or improvement to the liquor laws, after having made them by the dozen in nine years?

Is Sir James Whitney a man of honor and uprightness?

Has he not given us a new and elevated government standard?

How does that standard compare with that of the "Minnie M." the "Cap. Sullivan" and the "Hug the Machine" period?

Do you think the Government that has given us this new standard, Niagara power at your door, real liquor law enforcement, prison reform, school books at half, big aid for good roads, the most advanced Workmen's Compensation Act on the continent, honest elections, a secret ballot, etc., without a dollar misappropriated or one election scandal in nine years, has all at once become barren for good?

What was the Rowell course when a signally corrupt Government still tried to hang on—you know how—after a record of thirty-three years?

Where has Rowell got the timber out of which to make a cabinet to compare with Whitney's? Honestly, do you think the Province can afford to risk a transfer from Whitney to Rowell?

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Brewster. * * * Westbrock. * * * Whitney. * * * Just three more days. * * * Rowell, the trimmer, will be trimmed.

Let Whitney and Beck finish their work. * * * Make it sure for Brewster and Westbrock. * * * Sir James Whitney's speech put the kibosh on Grit hopes.

There has been a notable shrinkage in the Grit chest market in both Brants during the last few days.

The Rowell who supported broken temperance pledges under Ross is the same Rowell of to-day.

Whatever your views may be, dry or wet, you want no temperance faith breaker as Premier of Ontario.

Clergymen who have been worshipping a political fetish, may have some regrets on Monday night next.

The ministers of London, Ontario, very largely refused to be used as political tools in the present campaign. Good for them!

If N. W. Rowell could not abolish the bar in his own political club can he be expected to abolish the bar anywhere else?

Meetings such as were held in West Brantford and Holmedale last night fo: Mr Brewster have the ring of victory to them.

How credulous the temperance man who believes in N. W. Rowell, when two of his candidates are directors of a liquor selling club and he is himself a member.

There's a landslide in progress.—Expositor.

That's so sonny, and you can bet that it is going to land on your chest.

The pretence that N. W. Rowell would let Beck finish his work is answered by the demand that Rowell made for a candidate in London to humiliate and defeat Beck.

"The people will stand with Adam Beck against the Corporation Law-ye's who cries "Temperance! Temperance!" while the Corporations seek to steal away the birthright of the people.

"Talk to the average man you meet and he will tell you that he is satisfied with the temperance legislation of Sir James Whitney and Mr. Hanna."

"The average man you meet and he will tell you that he is satisfied with the temperance legislation of Sir James Whitney and Mr. Hanna."

And even after all bars and clubs are closed tight forever, the liquor shops will still be there, and probably as an exaggerated evil compared with what they are to-day.—From the Christian Guardian, June 17, 1914.

"The average man will say that temperance has made better advancement under this government than ever before. This is what they tell you and me, AND WE HAVE NO ANSWER."—H. J. Pettypiece, ex-Liberal M. P. P. for East Lambton.

"If the Liberal party got into power, and are really in earnest in carrying out 'Abolish the Bar,' how are you to control the sale of liquor while the shop is open and you have to depend on personal evidence to convict. I am confident that it would be a repetition of the Scott Act, which was repealed in every constituency in which it passed. Why? First, the maladministration and non-assistance of the Liberal Government then in power; second, because it is practically almost impossible to enforce an act of this nature when you have to depend upon personal evidence to convict.

I was an ardent supporter of the Scott Act, but in view of its subsequent failure through difficulty in enforcing, it is one more evidence that hasty legislation very often defeats its own ends."

—Mr. J. D. Flavell, life-long Methodist and temperance worker, of Lindsay, Ont.

To ministers of religion who from their pulpits solicit the votes and influence of their congregations in favor of this or that party politician a severe lecture is read by a Fort Worth contributor to country newspapers in Texas. Some of the cleverest players of the game of politics have been attacking the Farmers' Union in that state because of its stand on certain economic questions, and in their campaign to disrupt the union they have enlisted the help of a number of preachers. We give some of the passages of the Fort Worth writer's article. He says:

"What we have to say has no reference to that vast body of militant ministers who have consecrated their lives to the uplift of mankind, and whose precepts and examples are a beacon-light illuminating the pathway of the human race. We address ourselves exclusively to that coterie of political clergymen who prostitute their high calling by capitalizing their reputation and by lending their occupation to designing politicians, and we appeal to the Texas laymen to use their influence in preventing the yellow peril of politics from entering the pulpit in any of its disguises.

"The religious preacher is the most capable servant and the political preacher is the sorriest master the world has ever known. Wherever power is placed in the hands of the latter they invariably become intolerant, bigoted and vicious."

"There never was a time when preachers and politicians formed an unholy alliance that civilization did not shriek out and Christianity cry aloud.

"We appeal to the laymen of Texas to demand that political preachers give their congregations more old-time religion and less political clap-trap; that they display a more earnest effort to reach the hearts of men and play less to the galleries; that they more often hold fellowship with the members and fewer caucuses with the politicians. Certainly the laymen cannot perform their full duty to the Church by singing songs, paying Church dues and voting tickets handed down from the pulpit by political evangelists. The laymen should become a dominating factor in the policies of the Church. Let all the brethren unite in lifting fallen ministers from the sloughs of politics back into the pulpit."

"Political leaders may live wet and vote dry, and the low standard of statecraft is not offended, but when the Church turns over the pulpit to office-seekers and their henchmen, true Christianity has received a crushing blow and hypocrisy runs rampant in the altar, for it is written 'Ye cannot serve two masters.'"

"Since the beginning of government politicians have sought to decoy the ministry into meshes of politics and make them carry banners in political processions. They have taken the ministry to the mountain top of power and offered to make them monarch of all they surveyed, and while most of them have said, 'Get thee behind me, Satan,' a few have fallen with a crash that has shaken every pulpit in Texas.

"The ministry, unsophisticated and confiding, is no match for the politician versed in artful persuasion and skilled in deceit, and it is the duty of the laymen to protect the ministry against the onslaught of these wolves in sheep's clothing and drive the politicians from the pulpit with the lash of public scorn. It is the laymen's problem to keep the ministry free from unholy alliance, for it is said on Divine authority that we are our brother's keeper.

"There is a political machine in this state that would put Tammany to shame and make Thurlow Weed turn over in his grave with envy, and the pulpit politician is one of the component parts of its mechanism."

Poor Lads Proud

Small boys of the Newport Market Army Training School in Greencoat place, Westminster, are very proud of themselves. The King has just sent them a birthday cake and a letter of good wishes. A few years ago a similar gift was received at the school, and the Queen has sent several times clothing and gifts to the lads. They go out to exercise every day in the Green Park, and possibly the King has watched them unseen from the windows of Buckingham Palace. The school was founded in 1863 as an offset to a refuge in Newport Market, long since destroyed. They are destitute boys who are cared for to the number of between eighty and ninety, and almost all go into the Army.

LIVELY BANTER IN THE COMMONS

Lloyd George and the American Heiresses and Arms for Ireland.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

LONDON, June 25.—American firearms and American heiresses were the subjects of some amusing banter to-day between the rival Irish factions in the House of Commons.

Premier Asquith was asked to take special steps to prevent arms entering Ireland from the United States in response to an appeal of John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists to Michael J. Ryan, president of the United Irish League, Philadelphia, for aid to the Nationalist volunteers in Ireland.

David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, who replied on behalf of the Premier, declined to make any representations on the subject to the American Government.

Arthur Lynch, a Nationalist member then tried to carry the war into the Unionist camp by inviting Mr. Lloyd George to ascertain how much money American heiresses had furnished to foment civil war in Ireland, but hilarious shout from the opposition of "where is Harcourt," reminded him that there were American heiresses in both camps.

Robert Vernon Harcourt, a radical member, is a son of Lady Harcourt, a daughter of John L. Mosley, formerly United States minister in London.

THE BEE

The busy little bee is called a model by some bodes, for it has never loafed or stalled while doing up its chores. It scoots around in frantic haste, and bumbles as it flies; it lets no moment go to waste, and that, we know, is wise. And as from flower to flower it bolts, unless you stand aside it sends about a million volts of lightning through your hide. Now, industry is bully goods, but it should seasoned be, e'en in your most impatient moods, with tact and courtesy. Because the bee has lots of biz, it has no moral right to make its red-hot stinger whiz into me out of sight. The bee's no model for the gent who'd do the proper thing, for he, though on his business bent, will not by standers sting; he captivates, by winning ways, the ancient and the young; not by them he stung. The bee is always out for scraps, its head is always sore, it shoots its venom into chaps it never saw before; and e'en the ladies and the kids it stings, as home it flies, and so we ought to put the lids upon the humble bees.

Nine thousand school children were entertained at Welbeck on Monday by Duke and Duchess of Portland in celebration of the coming of age of the Marquis of Titchfield, his eldest son, who attained his majority on March 16. ANOTHER PLANT FOR BRANTFORD

Ontario Concrete Post Company is Established in This City.

One of the newest concerns to be established with headquarters at Brantford is "The Ontario Concrete Post Company Limited." They propose to manufacture and sell angle iron reinforcements for posts, and poles of all kinds—fence posts, hydro poles, and electric poles of all sorts. They will also supply finished posts and do reinforced work of every nature.

Posts for the farm can compete at a cheaper price with cedar posts and they make a very attractive looking fence. They will last a life time. These posts are now generally used in the States are a proved success. The headquarters factory is located at Muncie, Illinois.

The local concern, which will manufacture under a Dominion patent, has the rights for Ontario, and the Company has been capitalized at $40,000. At a meeting held in Brewster and Heyd's office the following officers were elected:—J. W. Clark, Cainsville, President. Col. J. Z. Frazer, Barford, Vice-President.

John O. Whiting, Onondaga, Secretary-Treasurer. Joseph R. Moyle, Paris, Director. R. W. Devereaux, V.S., city, director. A. R. Rose, Cainsville, director. D. W. Henry, Toronto, director. G. H. Cooper, Brantford, manager.

It will be seen that this is a very strong list of practical men who possess the confidence of all with whom they come in contact. Two or three properties are now under consideration for the establishment of headquarters.

Farewell Party To Mr. Jordan

The spacious grounds of Dr. Britton on Dufferin Avenue, contained a merry crowd of picnickers last evening when the choir of Brant Avenue Church and many of their friends gathered there to hold their annual picnic and incidentally to say goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Jordan, who are leaving the city to reside in Winnipeg.

Before an enjoyable supper was served, baseball and other popular sports were indulged in. Later in the evening and impromptu program was rendered, under Mr. Jordan. Songs, and choruses and gramophone selections filled out an enjoyable evening. The grounds were artistically decorated with flags, bunting, booths, etc., the trees with Chinese lanterns, and reflected credit on the host, who succeeded in making it a most successful outing.

Slick Game Failed Utterly

Last night there was an organized but futile attempt to interrupt the meetings held in the interests of Mr. Brewster in West Brantford and Holmdale. An automobile, the owner of which is well known as a Ham henchman, was seen to convey several young men from one meeting to the other. They were from the Grit committee rooms. In West Brantford they failed wretchedly, while in the Holmdale the attempt was considered too dangerous and was passed up.

WINE LIST AT LIBERAL CLUB

"Abolish-the-Bar" Party Has a Magnificent Stock at Headquarters.

The Ontario Club is the headquarters in Toronto of the Ontario Liberals. Mr. Charles M. Bowman, chief Liberal organizer, and Mr. Rowell's right-hand supporter, is a devoted officer.

Mr. Rowell himself has given dinners at the Ontario Club. At most hours of the day, groups of his "ardent" followers and his chief platform speakers may be seen within its precincts. These men are the custodians of the Rowell policies and resent any insinuations that their preaching and their practice are not one and the same thing.

But facts are facts. One fact is that the Ontario Club is the headquarters of Rowell's party. Another fact is the Ontario Club's wine list. Every member is presented with a copy and may order the various delectable drinks at his pleasure by day or night. On that list are over eighty kinds of spirituous liquors. This is the way a small section of it reads:

BILINGUAL FIGHT IS ON IN EARNEST

Big Legal Case by English Minority in Courts at Quebec.

OTTAWA, Ont. June 25.—Nothing of outstanding interest marked the case of the English-speaking minority of the Roman Catholic separate school board of Ottawa versus the French speaking members of the board at this morning's session before Mr. Justice Lennox.

The case is being brought to have the majority of the board discontinue the employment unqualified teachers, to have them compel the teachers in the bilingual schools to obey the in-struction of the department of edu-cation especially Regulation 17, and to prevent the board from issuing de-bentures worth $350,000, while the regulations are defied.

Mr. J. G. Doyle, secretary of the board, was the only witness called this morning and when the court ad-journed for lunch he was still on the stand. His evidence, dealt chiefly with the minutes of the board in the last two years. Most of it was taken up with the reading of resolu-tions passed at different meetings of the board practically of which defied Regulation 17. Besides all the trust-ees of the separate school board be-fore the court, there were about a dozen French-speaking priests. Mr. A. H. U. Colquhoun, deputy minister of education, for Ontario, was also on hand and at times consulted with Mr. McGregor Young, K.C., counsel for the department of education, who holds a watching brief in the case.

During the hearing, Hon. N. A. Belcourt of counsel for the defense, remarked: "We admit we are not carrying out the regulations. We have not done so either before or after the writ or injunction was issued in this case. That is what the issue rests on."

Hon. S. H. Blake Buried Today

TORONTO, June 25.—A remark-able testimony to the place Hon. S. H. Blake filled in the community was large and representative concourse that filled St. Paul's Church, Bloor street, at the public funeral this after-noon. Members of the bench and bar, eminent in the church, civic dignitaries, and representatives of the Ontario Government joined in a trib-ute to his worth.

A private service was held at the home 46 Maple Avenue, at 2 o'clock. At this service only the immediate members who were present were present. This was followed by the public ser-vice at St. Paul's.

Obient to the wishes of the de-ceased there was no sermon or ad-dress. The congregation joined feelingly in two hymns that were favorites of Mr. Blake, "Just as I am," and "Rock of Ages."

The service was conducted by Arch-deacon Cody and the Bishop of Tor-onto also officiated.

There was no funeral procession, either to the church or from the church to St. James cemetery. At the grave the family were present. The remains were laid in the vault beside those of his distinguished brother, Edward.

Hamilton Store Said to be Part Of Big Wreck

NEW YORK, June 25.—An-ouncement was made this after-noon that all of the so-called Claf-lin stores, strictly speaking, would be closed, pending adjust-ment of the company's affairs.

According to the best records available here the Claflin stores include Thomas C. Watkins, Lim-ited, Hamilton, Ontario.

TIP-TOP TAILORS BRANTFORD STORE IS AT 68 COLBORNE STREET.

Owing to a printer's error last Fri-day and Saturday, the Tip Top Tail-ors advertisement was made to read 78 Colborne street instead of 68 Col-borne street. It is hoped that none of the company's patrons were put to any inconvenience by this error.

Electors Take Notice.

Meetings have been arranged for the week as follows in the interests of the Conservative candidates, Messrs. Brewster and Westbrook:

Burford—Thursday, June 25 (Mr. Westbrook).

Paris—Friday, June 26 (Mr. Westbrook).

The candidates and others will deliver addresses.

Cheeky Trick Is Resorted To

The latest climax to the dirtiest campaign ever waged by the Opposition in this riding has occurred with regard to the Cour-ier.

This paper has received word from several subscribers, and has the literature to show, that Liberal campaign stuff in leaflet form was inserted in last evening's issue.

Rigid enquiry has shown that the trick was done after the papers left this office, and there will be prosecutions when enough evidence has been gathered.

FOG SIGNAL EXPLODED AND HURT BOY

George Lawton Was Very Painfully Injured Yesterday Afternoon.

George, the young son of George Lawton, of North Park street, Grand View, met with a very peculiar and at the same time extremely painful accident, yesterday afternoon. George and some young boy companions were on their way home from school when they found what proved to be a tor-pedo, such as is used on the railways for signalling, and placing it on the sidewalk they crushed it with a stone. The result was an explosion that sent flying pieces of stone and other materials in all directions.

Young George who stood directly be-side the torpedo, got the full blast of the explosion and his arms, chest and legs were terribly lacerated with the flying pieces. The lad was in fright-ful agony and Dr. T. H. Bier and Dr. Hana were summoned and placed the lad under chloroform. The wounds were dressed and to-day the lad is doing quite nicely. It is very lucky for the boy that some of the pieces did not fly in his face.

1 in Can Case In County Court

Delivery books tied up in bundles and numbering around one hundred were scattered over this morning when the general sessions were re-sumed, Judge Hardy presiding.

The case was that of Malcolm vs the Hamilton Dairy and the books were there to prove delivery of a large number of milk cans which the plain-tiff alleges were delivered to the dairy company and which were not duly re-turned. The defence of the Hamilton Dairy company is that all cans deliv-ered to them were returned and they do not hold themselves responsible for any cans that are missing. M. A. Secord represents plaintiff and Evans and Slater of Hamilton, the Dairy company.

The summer sittings of the County Court were this morning brought to a conclusion when Judge Hardy ad-journed the case of Malcolm versus the Hamilton Dairy company until the September session. The judge wanted the two parties to come to a settlement but that was not possible owing to the defendant's attitude, and in order that the many delivery books produced might be examined in the meantime, His Honor adjourned the case as mentioned.

BIG EXTENSION TO PHONE PLANT IS ANNOUNCED

Bell Telephone Co. Has Plans For Two Storey Addition.

Plans and specifications are now out and tenders called for the erec-tion of a two-storey addition to the Bell Telephone Building on Dalhousie street. The addition will be built in the rear and has become an ab-solute necessity on account of the in-creasing expanding business of the company demanding more extensive quarters. The general offices down stairs have already been enlarged somewhat and the general girls' rest room at the rear of the ground floor will be carried back into the new addition and made as attractive and modern as possible. But it is for the operating room upstairs that the addition has been made absolutely nec-essary. At present the operating desk is right up to the end of the rear wall and as the light must still be had from the west side, it has become nec-essary to put up an addition allowing the desk to be extended. It practi-cally means that the whole plant of the company will be doubled.

Chase Pitched Good Ball And Won Again

Big Red Sox Southpaw Proved Effective in the Pinches—Peterboro Beaten 4-2—Sox Clash With London Today.

PETERBORO, June 25—Del Chase, the big left-hand mound artist of the Red Sox put another victory to his credit here yesterday when the Petes were beaten 4-2. Chase was assisted by the Red Sox bats in the eighth inning, but he pitched a splendid brand of ball throughout. Brantford came from behind in the eighth with the score 2-1 against the Red Sox. Chase filled the bases by passing Ivers and hitting Taylor and a hit. In the fourth inning an error by Deneau was responsible for one run, but poor base running on the part of the Petes prevented further scoring. The Brantford manager with two out and two on, muffed an easy fly, and the Pete base runners stood still on the base paths. The feature of the contest was Taylor's good hitting. Taylor got three hits in four ups to his credit, and was hit by pitcher, thus having a perfect day at bat. The work of both teams was of stumpy variety and Empire Freeman saw good satisfaction. The score: PETERBORO. A. R. H. O. A. Notes of the Games

Heck pitches against Brantford today at London.

Only 5 1-2 games separate Brantford from the leaders.

The Red Sox passed through the city this morning en route to London from Peterboro.

Deneau's move in putting Taylor in right field is working out well. Taylor had three hits yesterday.

At Stratford last night the home team defeated Guelph 8 to 0 in a Western Ontario League game.

The Athletics got only seven hits in two games against Johnson and Borchling of Washington yesterday.

Dick Radolph beat the New York Nationals 7 to 5 yesterday. Deneau and Fromme worked against him.

Brantford is doing as well on the road as other teams apparently. London and Ottawa have both lost considerably.

It is rumored in Jersey City that Manager Hulsitt is to be deposed and that George Witse, the veteran New York pitcher will assume charge of the Skeeters.

Chicago Tribune: Comiskey and Somers are the only club owners opposed to the formation of a new major league. In other words there will be no new major league.

Last night the members of the Newark team gave notice that they would go on strike if First Baseman Kraff is ordered back to Nashville by the National Commission.

Only a short time ago the moguls were saying that there was no room for a third big league and here they are now getting ready to launch a fourth organization upon the unwilling fans.

A representative of Jack Dunn, owner of the Baltimore Orioles, was in Richmond, Va., yesterday, looking over the ground around the probable transfer of the Baltimore team to the Virginia city.

"Just a stall." That was the characteristic comment of President Fogarty of Jersey City when asked as to his opinion of the possibility of the formation of a new major league. The Skeeter owner is more concerned at present in the pitiful attendance at home games. Unless the attendance improves, Jersey City will probably be minus a ball team in a very few weeks.

As Umpire Orth was walking under the grand stand from the Umpire's dressing room to the Phillies' locker yesterday he fell and dislocated his right knee cap and fractured his right elbow. It is very dark under the stand and one has to stoop considerably while walking. Orth missed his footing on one of the steps and fell heavily against the woodwork and then on the concrete floor.

According to a yarn spun by Danny Murphy, the famous $100,000 infielder of the Athletics will be a thing of the past next season. Eddie Collins, the pivot of the inner works of the world's champions, has agreed to sign with the Brooklyn Federals as soon as his contract with Connie Mack's team expires at the end of the season. His contract, so Murphy says, calls for a salary of $25,000 per year for three seasons.

Port of Nottingham

If the Nottingham Corporation committee approve the scheme to advance £150,000 for three new locks between Newark and Nottingham, one hundred ton barges will be able to reach the city instead of stopping at Newark. Nottingham would thus be brought into direct connection with the seaboard and ultimately become a port.

Ottawa and Erie Are Beaten By Beavers and Saints; Hams Take Last Game From London

ST. THOMAS, June 25—St. Thomas fans had given up all hopes of their team winning yesterday afternoon's game, when Eric tallied a seven run lead in the first three innings, but ball games are such funny things that the disgruntled fans became a highly elated set when the Saints got within one run of the visitors when they secured six tallies in the third. The weekenders slightly, allowing a triple and two singles, which netted two tallies. Shears was sent in to relieve him and retired the side without difficulty.

Fitzpatrick started well but was derailed in the third with no one out and Close replaced him. The Saints hammered him to all corners and tucked away a game which looked a certain victory for the visitors. The Saints were due to have a good day at bat and yesterday's game was a grand display of hitting. The hitting of two of the Saints batting was the feature of the game, while Colligan, of Erie, secured four hits in five times at bat. Reilly stopped the Erie slugger, and not a run was garnered off him, although he was hit at times. Fast double plays by both teams were added features.

LONDON LOST. HAMILTON, June 24—Heavy hitting and good fielding on the part of both teams featured yesterday's game between London and Hamilton, which was won by the locals by a 5 to 3 score, despite the fact that they had three errors and fewer hits than the Tecumsehs. While the locals did not connect with Deel's offerings as frequently as the visitors got to Dolan, the latter pitched a far superior game to the London boy. Up till the 9th Dolan only allowed Doc Reisinger's lurch five safe singles, and had struck out eight batsmen. In the ninth he weakened slightly, allowing a triple and two singles, which netted two tallies. Shears was sent in to relieve him and retired the side without difficulty.

As in Tuesday's contest, much extra base hitting was indulged in by a few of the players on both teams. Dudley had two doubles, and Whatcrat kept up his good work by landing out a two-bagger. Corns, Bierbauer and Snyder each had a triples ending to them. The fielding was particularly good, many of the best plays of the season being pulled off. Both teams were on their toes right from the start and anything that could possibly have been fielded was gathered in.

Beavers Bumped Kubat TORONTO, June 25.—The Beavers and the Ottawa champions staged a weird exhibition here yesterday, the locals coming out on top 9 to 7. Ottawa hit four Toronto pitchers hard while the Beavers topped up Kubat for 12 satettes.

OTTAWA, June 24—A special meeting of the Ottawa Ministerial Association was held this morning when the principal matter discussed was the playing of professional baseball in Hull on Sundays.

Although the majority of the ministers expressed the strong disapproval of this it was realized that no action at the present time could be taken which in any way would assist in stopping these games, in view of the fact that it is not as yet known whether the Provincial law in Quebec over-rides the Lord's Day Act. This matter is being deided at the present time, but until it is, nothing can be done.

The general feeling among the ministers is that a deeper conviction of the importance of the sacredness of the Sabbath should be created rather than the matter be approached by law.

Rev. Robert Edie is of the opinion that the golf enthusiasts, etc., who are breaking the Sabbath should also be attended to.

Rev. J. F. Macfarland, of Hull, explained that some little time ago there was a case tried in the Quebec Superior Court in regard to keeping shops open on Sunday, and judgment was given in favor of the shop keepers. The Dominion Alliance appealed this judgment, and the appeal is still pending. Alliance would be benefited whether the judgement was sustained or the appeal carried.

The Association heartily endorsed the proposed movement for a social survey of the city, which will in all probability be made by the Social Service Council of this city.

The Association and which waited upon the Association and explained the situation was composed of Mrs. A. Gordon, Rev. E. Stewart, Mr. Lawrence Burpee and Rev. Geo. Bousfield.

Football Executive is Having Its Troubles

Secretary is Likely to Resign—Lively Meeting Was Held Last Night—Referee is Heard.

The Brantford and Paris Football league executive held a very lively and lengthy session last night and the outcome will probably mean the resignation of the secretary, Cyril Uniacke. It came about after a few words had been exchanged between Mr. Speechley and the secretary, who was said by the Holmedale representative to be somewhat unfair in his dealings. This the secretary denied and as Referee Crouch made a further complaint later and declared his dissatisfaction at Uniacke's statement that two notices had been served to him; it is likely that the next meeting of the executive will be the last with its present secretary in office.

After deducting expenses it was found that the Courier Cup games had resulted in a sum of $8.36. This sun goes towards obtaining medals for the winners of the trophy.

Walter James was found eligible to play with the Scots; J. A. Little for the Wanderers; J. Pennell for the Tigers and Bob Smith for the Sons of England.

The protest committee had a very busy session, they being called upon to deal with seven or eight cases.

C. Parker of Paris was suspended for seven days for lifting his hands to strike a player and also for refusing to leave the field immediately upon being told to do so by the referee.

Billy Richardson was reported for striking a player named Jarvis at the P.S.A. and Scots match. Witness testified that Richardson was not the offending player, and in order to get the referee's version of the affair it was held over for one week.

George Crouch, the referee of the S.O.E. and Duffs game, was asked why he did not turn up at last Wednesday's meeting and he emphatically stated that he was not notified to be present, in spite of the secretary's assurances that he had been notified along with another referee who had attended. His explanation was accepted.

Richardson and Robinson were reported for disorderly conduct at the Tutela and Cocks-shutt game on Saturday last and they both denied any unpardonable behaviour. Referee Clarke gave testimony as to why he had ordered them off. Richardson had, he said tripped the referee, and Robinson had assaulted him. Witnesses were wanted and the case was held for a week.

The executive drew the referees for the next two Saturday's game because for the next meeting will be irregular on account of the holiday celebrations.

Referees for Saturday first are as follows: S. O. E. v. Tutela, Goatly. Paris v. Scots, Hollands. Holmedale v. Wanderers, Farrow. P.S.A. v. Duffs, Smith.

The games for the following Saturday, in the John Hill cup as follows with the referees: Duffs v. Paris, Darlington. P.S.A. v. Scots, Mears. Holmedale v. Tutela, Clark. Wanderers v. S. O. E., Smith.

The executive adjourned until next Thursday night in order that the meeting should not interfere with the holiday rambles of the members.

As surgery will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It is a positive cure for all Catarrhs of the Head and Throat. It is taken internally and acts on the system. It is sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

OPEN SHOP WORSE THAN OPEN BAR

J. D. Flavelle, Methodist and Temperance Worker Declares Against Rowell.

TORONTO, June 25.—The report was sent out from Toronto that Mr. J. D. Flavelle had given a large contribution to the support of N. W. Rowell's campaign, and was given wide prominence in the Rowell press. Mr. Flavelle is a Methodist and was formerly owner of the Toronto News. The News last night published the following statement by Mr. Flavelle: "If the Liberal party got into power and are really in earnest in carrying out 'abolish the bar,' how are you to control the sale of liquor while the shop is open and you have to depend on personal evidence to convict?"

"I was an ardent supporter of the Scott Act, but in view of its subsequent failure through difficulty in enforcing, it is one more evidence that hasty legislation very often defeats its own ends."

WORD-PICTURES OF INQUIRY

Rival Counsel are Smooth Questioners—Two Captains Follow the Evidence Closely.

QUEBEC, June 25.—With the second week begun of the Royal Commission inquiry into the Empress' catastrophe, and the investigation due to last to at least Saturday, public interest in the proceedings shows no signs of flagging. Fashionable Quebecers in mourning, pretty girls in smart costumes, look intently down on the scene below, where a medley of lawyers, uniformed ship's officers, sailors and stokers in blue jerseys and a heterogeneous mass of idle, pack the crowded court. Save for the black-gowned court crier, who plants his staff of office upright during the session, and illustrates the dual language with its respective calls to order of "silence" and "silence," no one, judge or lawyer, wears court dress.

A Dignified Judge.

Bereft of his accustomed full-buttoned wig and imposing red ermine-trimmed robes, Lord Mersey has not for an instant, however, cast aside his dignity. Thumbs thrust in his waistcoat, he leans back and dominates the court. At times when particularly aroused by a recalcitrant witness or the uncovering of something appearing sensational, as on Saturday, he has an odd little way of rapidly grimacing until his eyelashes slip off the end of a slightly retromose nose. Following the discomfiment of the prince nez, the court is due to hear something pretty well to the point.

Counsel for C. P. R.

Like his fellow countrymen on the bench, Butler Aspinall, the admiralty lawyer from London, is wont to wear a wig when in court at home in England—the little powdered pig tail of the British barrister. Here he, like most of the other lawyers, is garbed in black morning coat. As Aspinall's side and assisting him as the C.P.R. counsel argues the case, sits Deputy the young Toronto man, who, at little past thirty, has risen to the high post of chief solicitor for the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Counsel for Collier.

Just behind the urban Aspinall, whose gentle, reassuring ways of often times serve to tangle witnesses more effectively than the blunt belling of another school, sits his opponent, H. S. Haight, Keen and alert, debonaire of address, the tall, dark, vandyke-bearded New Yorker, with the smooth whensver skill, never forgetful, despite his republican forefatherland, to dully "my lord," the august personage on the bench. These two lawyers with Lord Mersey, do most of the talking, the Deputy Attorney-General of Canada, Mr. Newcombe, having little to say.

Noises to Disturb.

None too quiet is the courtroom. Considerable shuffling comes from the gallery and although the clatter of clever telegraph keys operated at full speed temporarily installed in an adjoining room to disseminate the news to the world no longer percolates in gusts from the door there is a continuous banging of the green baize doors to the court and the audience gives free vent to its risibility. But Lord Mersey shows no impatience with those interruptions in marked difference to certain Toronto judges who inveigh against the noises about the City Hall.

The Two Captains.

The respective attitudes of the two captains is noteworthy. In the next seat to the writer Kendall of the ill-fated liner sits eagerly taking notes in a little book following every jot of testimony scarcely restraining a smile of satisfaction when things go his way turning to the chief engineer of the Empress who sits behind him, and commenting on their alleged mendacity when witnesses make certain diverse statements. Mrs. Kendall has vacated her nook in the court.

The Steward's commander, Andersen, intently follows the case, sitting further back in the room. So far he seems to have been personally exonerated. Andersen's rosy, good natured face shows no trace of anxiety.

Godfrey's Election In West York Is Confirmed

TORONTO, June 25.—Dr. Forbes Godfrey is elected a member for West York of the Ontario Legislature by acclamation. The appeal of Mr. Alex. Hains, the Liberal candidate, who mailed his nomination papers too late, according to the returning officer, was thrown out yesterday afternoon by Justice Middleton. The judge dismissed with costs the application of the Liberal for a mandamus to compel the returning officer to accept the nomination.

The judge pointed out that the nomination paper of Dr. Forbes Godfrey was in the hands of the returning officer and as soon as 12 o'clock came it was operative.

More than one hour elapsed between the time that the returning officer received an offer of nomination, and the returning officer acted rightly when he proclaimed the only person nominated at that time duly elected.

PARIS, June 25.—Jack Johnson, so far as any one can tell, will be right when he faces Frank Moran, the latest white hope, here Saturday night for 20 rounds at the Vedetrome d'Hyver.

I saw Johnson the other day and gave him the once-over carefully. There have, even in Paris, been many reports that Johnson is fat, is slow, hasn't got the punch; in a word, is all in. He did not look like it to me. The big negro looks fit for a fight with any man, and unless the high living of the past few years has burned him out inside, the persons who are putting their money down on Moran as a long shot will never cash in.

Johnson was sparring with his French and Swiss partners at his training quarters across from the Bois de Boulogne. In the hands of the big black his assistants looked like children. Johnson rarely struck a blow, but the defense that has been given ever saw was there as of old. Simply crossing his arms Johnson received attack after attack of his sparring partners, and not one blow of no went home. Those big brawny arms took everything, and the peaked, closely shaven skull of the champion rolled easily from side to side as the whizzing swings went by.

Then Johnson changed his style. "Wade in, boys," he said with a grin and drew the protective arms away from his midships. Biff, bang, slant the wallops came into Johnson's stomach, but he never grunted, never by any sign showed that he was distressed by the punches, and some of them were a real roo. If Moran planned to sink Johnson's ship by stomach punches, he will surely have to deliver some punch.

"Nothing to it," the giant black said. "You can see I'm right. I feel right. I can't figure how Moran has a chance with me."

WILL HOIST THE 1913 PENNANT ON SATURDAY

(Ottawa Free Press).

After an absence of ten days, the Senators will return to Lansdowne Park next Thursday afternoon for a long stay at home. They will bring with them, the Hamilton team under the leadership of Doc Yates, a protégé of Comie Mack, sent up to Canada to give the Ambition City a pennant winner. This will be the first visit of the Hams this season and while they are not at the top of the league, they show flashes of being a good ball club. As they took two in three from the Shamgen up in Hamilton a couple of weeks ago, they will have something coming their way at Lansdowne Park.

Next Saturday the pennant won last year will be hoisted. It is a gorgeous blue flag lettered with the red and white pennant of 1912, both bits of muslin being run up together on the same pole.

To date the champions have won two and lost four of their long road series. Two postponements at Erie were necessary on account of rain. The Senators are in Toronto to-day, to-morrow and Wednesday and the outcome of this series will show how well they fare on the road tour. As the Beavers copped two from London they look a hard nut to crack.

Toronto will play here after the Hamilton series, figuring in four games, two of them being Morning and afternoon games of Dominion day. Then will follow the great big tussle with London who will sojourn in our midst for no less than four days during which five games will be played as there is a postponed contest coming from the last visit of the Cockneys here, a doubleheader being billed for Saturday, July 4th.

Brantford seeks an outfielder from the California State League, whom they offer the "largest salary paid an outfielder in the Canadian League."

Here's hoping the Red Sox are successful in securing this high-priced player for they sure need him, if his ability measures up with his salary.

Ted Kroy, the Toronto International player turned over to the Beavers, played his first game for the Canadian Leaguers Saturday against London. He scored one run, but failed to secure a hit.

London pitchers have their own

MUCH ADLER-I-KA USED IN BRANTFORD.

It is reported by M. H. Robertson Limited that much Adler-I-ka is sold in Brantford. People have found out that ONE SPOONFUL of this simple buckhorn bark and glycerine mixture relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. It is so powerful that it is used successfully in appendicitis. ONE MINUTE after you take it the gases rumble and pass out. It is perfectly safe to use and cannot gripe.

Lacrosse

The lacrosse boys had a good hard practice last evening which will probably be their last real hard workout before Saturday's game. It is not likely that Dr. Hamilton the last year's Toronto player will be seen on the line-up, although all the familiar faces of last year's team will be in their old positions with one or two exceptions.

The London team this year are much faster than last year. They defeated St. Mary's in London last week by a score of 12-5 and Manager Collins of London states that they are sparing no effort to capture Saturday's game in Brantford.

It may be possible that Jack Kelly will be seen in harness, playing point for the locals as in the event of Harry Collins being unable to play Slattery promises to have Kelly in line for the opener. If Jack does turn out he will no doubt greatly strengthen the team not only by his exceptional skill on the field and his keen knowledge of inside lacrosse, but by his stability in the midst of a struggle.

Kinder of Preston has been agreed upon as referee for the day, but in the event of his inability to officiate, Doyle of Toronto will likely be here.

Military Notes

A C company has gained four more fine strapping recruits, two of them trained soldiers. They are: Messrs. A. Reece, W. Wood, C. E. Grant and A. Brooks. The Adjutant swore them in on Tuesday evening. That big fellow, Jack Roach, knows all about it. He hooked the whole bunch of them, and didn't wear an angelic smile when he brought them up.

Hampshire beat Sussex by two wickets.

Yorkshire and Leicester drew; Wilson (Yorkshire) made 53; Whitehead (Leicester) 66.

G. T. R. INAUGURATES IMPORTANT NEW TRAIN SERVICE THIS MONTH

The International Ltd. East-Bound is Established—Other New Trains

When the summer time tables of the Grand Trunk Railway System take effect on June 25th very important improvements will be introduced, particularly on the main line between Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, London, Detroit and Chicago.

The Grand Trunk having a double track all the way between Montreal and Chicago have arranged their new services to take full advantage of this fact. The International Limited, westbound from Montreal at 9 A. M., reaching Toronto 4:30 P. M., Detroit 9:55 P. M., same day, and Chicago next morning at 8 A. M., is to have a sister service in the opposite direction—The International Limited Eastbound. This train will leave Chicago at 5:45 P. M., daily, Detroit 11 P. M., Brantford 7:05 A. M., Toronto 9 A. M., and arrive at Montreal 5:45 P. M. The departure from Chicago will be two hours and forty-five minutes later than the present service and passengers will reach Montreal fifteen minutes earlier than at present, thus reducing the time taken on the journey by three hours.

Observation, Library, Drawing Room, Compartment Cars, will be operated on The International Limited from Chicago to Toronto via the famous Dundas Valley and Burlington Bay, near Hamilton. New and most attractive features of these scenic and exclusive features of the Grand Trunk Route have been secured and will be used extensively in the form of large framed pictures for office windows and in the illustrated literature of the Grand Trunk to attract tourists from the United States for a trip through Canada. To the International Limited, westbound from Montreal, a similar type of observation car will be attached at Toronto running through to Chicago. These new observation cars will be known as the "Dundas Valley" and "Burlington Bay" respectively.

The night limited train now leaving Montreal at 10:30 p.m. will reach Quebec in the evening and leaving Portland, Maine, for breakfast on the following morning. A similar service will be operated in the evening from Portland for the convenience of tourists from New England who will be enabled to reach Quebec in the morning ready for an inspection of the Citadel City and its most interesting environment.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Grandma's Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens so Naturally That Nobody Can Tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, graying or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Sage tea is the only way to get the nature was to make it at home. It is messy and troublesome, and takes days, by asking at any drug store, "Wetli's Sage and Sulphur Tea," you will get a large quantity of this famous old recipe for a few cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! You can possibly tell that you have dyed your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a piece of soft brush with it and draw this through your hair—starting at the scalp strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy. DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Grandma's Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens so Naturally That Nobody Can Tell.
Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't say gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy. Agent T. George Boles.

Rowell's Supporters Don't Hope To Win

Liberal Leader's Flirtation With Bilingual Question Causes Party to Hope for Help From French Canadians.

TORONTO, June 25.—As the campaign progresses it becomes clear to close observers that the Whitney Government will be returned by a substantial majority. Mr. Rowell's own supporters in Toronto admit that 35 seats is the most they can hope to carry, and some did not care to predict the return of more than 20 Liberals. Even the most pessimistic of those in close touch with the Government do not accord more than 30 seats to Mr. Rowell, while the general opinion is steadily gaining ground that the Opposition will hardly occupy more seats than they did at the commencement of the last Parliament. It is generally conceded that Mr. Rowell will secure a number of seats in the eastern end of the Province where the French-Canadians vote is strong. It is generally understood that he has acceded to the most advanced demands of the supporters of French teaching in the public schools. This should mitigate greatly against the Liberal candidates in sections where the English-speaking element is in the majority. Sir James Whitney's refusal to consider any suggestion that he should retire from his position with regard to the enforcement of regulation 17 is expected to bring many votes which might otherwise have to Mr. Rowell's candidates. Toronto is practically sure to return ten Conservatives. Any suggestion that the regulations with regard to French should be put on the same plane in schools as English will not be tolerated here.

Reports from the northwestern end of the Province and from New Ontario are more encouraging than had been expected. Mr. Mageau, it is admitted, will be returned again for Surgeon Falls. Mr. McCrea will be hard pressed, but should be successful in Sudbury, although there is a large French vote there. The Liberals are claiming a number of seats in the western portion of the Province. One of these is West Lambton, the home of the Provincial Secretary. All indications show that Mr. Hanna will have at least five or six hundred of a majority, while Mr. McCormick, the Liberal member from East Lambton, will probably be left at home. Mr. Rowell himself is in danger in North Oxford. It is said that the Liberal convention was anything but

SHE BEAR AND CUB VISITS HOTEL IN ROCKY MOUNTAINS

Mother Bruin Comes Out of the Woods to Make Friends With Guests at Resort

NELSON, B.C., June 20.—At the hotel in connection with St. Leon Hot Springs in the Kootenay district, the proprietor and employees are daily scanning the mountain side to look for a big black bear. If the big monster with her inevitable cub returns as hoped for, it will form one of the most remarkable true "bear stories" on record.
The story is vouched for by the provincial game warden, having been reported by the district warden in his departmental report. The game warden quoted the incident to allay the wild fears of some folk about the dangerous character of the black bear. This particular black bear had been sighted last June by some of the guests at the St. Leon Hotel. She was then feeding up the mountain side with her cub and had alarmed some of the guests. The hotel proprietor, who has views of his own about the animals, and who will not allow any wild animals to be killed about his premises, went out armed with some berries and meat and other choice morsels for the bear, and scattered the food in the clearing where the bear had been seen. After a few days he had established such good relations with the bear that he had decoyed it down to the hotel grounds, where it became one of the star attractions of the place. Before the winter came the bear became so tame that it would come up to the dining room window at meal times and eat the food which the guests placed on the window sill. The limit was reached when it allowed the proprietor to feed it out of a plate, while at the same time a little girl fed the cub a few feet away.

Late in the fall the big she bear and her cub heard the call of the wild and departed. This week or next is the time when the bear with a new cub is expected back, unless, as is feared is possible, she has in the meantime fallen a prey to the rifle of some hunter.

THE RETURN OF TARZAN

By EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

Copyright 1913 by W. G. Chapman.

When Clayton returned to the shelter and found that Jane Porter was missing he became frantic with fear and grief. He found Mr. Thurman quite rational, the fever having left him with the surprising suddenness which is one of its peculiarities. The Russian, weak and exhausted, still lay upon his bed of grass within the shelter.
When Clayton asked him about the girl he seemed surprised to know that she was not there.
"I have heard nothing unusual," he said. "But then I have been unconscious much of the time."
Had it not been for the man's very evident weakness Clayton should have suspected him of a plan to conceal the girl's whereabouts, but he could see that Thurman lacked sufficient vitality even to descend, unaided, from the shelter. He could not in his present physical condition have harmed the girl, nor could he have climbed the rude ladder back to the shelter.

Until dark the Englishman searched the nearby jungle for a trace of the missing one or a sign of the trail of her abductor. But though the sporadic starlight glimmered as they were, would have been a plain to the denser denizen of the jungle as a city street to the Englishman, yet he crossed and recrossed it twenty times without observing the slightest indication that any men had passed that way but a few short hours since.
As he searched Clayton continued to call the girl's name aloud, but the only result of this was to attract Sabor, the tiger. Fortunately, the man saw the shadowy form worming its way toward him in time to climb into the branches of a tree before the beast was close enough to reach him. This put an end to his search for the balance of the afternoon, as the tiger paced back and forth beneath him until dark.

Even after the bear had left Clayton dared not descend into the awful blackness beneath him, and so he spent the night and the following night in close quarters and then to descend to the beach, relinquishing the last hope of succoring Jane Porter.
During the week that followed Mr. Thurman rapidly regained his strength, lying in the shelter while Clayton hunted for both. The men never spoke except as necessary to Clayton now occupied the section of the shelter which had been reserved for Jane Porter and only saw the Russian when he took food or water to him or performed the other kindly offices which common humanity required.
When Thurman was again able to descend in search of food Clayton was stricken with fever. For days he lay tossing in delirium and suffering, but not once did the Russian come near him. Food the Englishman could not have eaten, but his craving for water was so great that he would crawl to the well and drink. Between the recurrent attacks of delirium, weak though he was, he managed to reach the brook once a day and fill a tiny can that had been among the few appointments of the lifeboat.

Thurman watched him on these occasions with an expression of malignant pleasure. He enjoyed to enjoy the suffering of the man who, despite the just contempt in which he held him, had ministered to him to the best of his ability while he lay suffering the same agonies.
At last Clayton became so weak that he was no longer able to descend from the shelter. For a day he suffered by water without appealing to the Russian; but finally, unable to endure it longer, he asked Thurman to fetch him a drink.
The Russian came to the entrance to Clayton's room, a dish of water in his hand. A nasty grin contorted his features.
"Here is water," he said. "But first let me remind you that you maligned me before the girl; that you kept her to yourself and would not share her with me."
Clayton interrupted him. "Stop!" he cried. "Stop! What manner of man are you that you traduce the character of a good woman whom we believe dead! God, it was a fool error to let you live! You are not fit to live even in this vile land!"
"Here is your water," said the Russian, "but he basin is his lips and drank. What was left he threw out upon the ground below. Then he turned and left the sick man.
Clayton rolled over and, burying his face in his arms, gave up the battle.
"The next day Thurman determined to set out toward the north along the coast, for he knew that eventually he must come to the habitations of civilized men. At least he could be no worse off than he was here, and furthermore the ravings of the Englishman were getting on his nerves.
So he stole Clayton's spear and set off upon his journey. He would have killed the sick man before he left had it not occurred to him that it would really have been a kindness to do so.
That same day he came to a little cabin by the beach, and his heart filled with renewed hope as he saw the evidence of the proximity of civilization, for he thought it but the outpost of a nearby settlement. Had he known to whom it belonged and that its owner was at that very moment but a few miles inland, Nikolai Rokoff would have had the place as he would a pestilence. But he did not know, and so he remained for a few days to enjoy the security and comparative comforts of

Grandma's Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens so Naturally That Nobody Can Tell.
Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.
Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair-taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray has disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy. Rowell's Supporters Don't Hope To Win

Liberal Leader's Flirtation With Bilingual Question Causes Party to Hope for Help From French Canadians.

TORONTO, June 25.—As the campaign progresses it becomes clear to close observers that the Whitney Government will be returned by a substantial majority. Mr. Rowell's own supporters in Toronto admit that 55 seats is the most they can hope to carry, and some did not care to predict the return of more than 20 Liberals. Even the most pessimistic of those in close touch with the Government do not accord more than 20 seats to Mr. Rowell, while the general opinion is steadily gaining ground that the Opposition will hardly occupy more seats than they did at the commencement of the last Parliament. It is generally conceded that Mr. Rowell will secure a number of seats in the eastern end of the Province where the French-Canadians vote is strong. It is generally understood that he has acceded to the most advanced demands of the supporters of French teaching in the public schools. This should militate greatly against the Liberal candidates in sections where the English-speaking element is in the majority. Sir James Whitney's refusal to consider any suggestion that he should retire from his position with regard to the enforcement of regulation it is expected to bring many votes which might otherwise have gone to Mr. Rowell's candidates. Toronto is practically sure to return ten Conservatives. Any suggestion that the regulations with regard to French should be put on the same plane in schools as English will not be tolerated here.
Reports from the northwestern end of the Province and from New Ontario are more encouraging than had been expected. Mr. Mageau, it is admitted, will be returned again for Sturgeon Falls. Mr. McCrea will be hard pressed, but should be successful in Sudbury, although there is a large French vote there. The Liberals are claiming a number of seats in the western portion of the Province. One of these is West Lambton, the home of the Provincial Secretary. All indications show that Mr. Hanna will have at least five or six hundred of a majority, while Mr. McCormick, the Liberal member from East Lambton, will probably be left at home. Mr. Rowell himself is in danger in North Oxford. It is said that the Liberal convention was anything but

BRANT LODGE INSTALLATION

Impressive Ceremony--Lodge is in Very Flourishing Condition.

There was a large attendance of the members of Brant Lodge, A. F. and A. M. last night on the occasion of the installation of officers for the year 1914-15. The ceremony was conducted in a most impressive manner by Rt. W. Bro. Chas. S. Kilgour of Hamilton and Brantford past masters. Following the installation ceremony refreshments were served in the banquet hall and a short but interesting toast list was introduced by the newly installed officers: M. Bro. R. T. Whitlock. Speeches were made by

Rt. W. Bro. Kilgour, W. Bros. Perry and Dr. Kelly of Hamilton, and W. Bro. Dr. Hanna, Dr. Russell, Rev. G. A. Woodside and M. Bro. Bro. R. W. F. H. Handsfield. The musical part of the programme consisted of several songs rendered by Mr. F. H. Burt, formerly vocal teacher at the Ontario School for the Blind, and now of Toronto Conservatory of Music. Mr. Burt possesses a resonant voice of fine quality which was shown to advantage in his selections. Bro. Axworthy also contributed a song in his usual happy manner. The accompanist was Bro. J. R. Cornelius. The officers elect are as follows: W. M., Bro. R. T. Whitlock; S. W., Bro. H. W. Sullivan; J., Bro. A. E. Day; Treasurer, Bro. C. R. G. Sutherland; Secretary, Bro. George Whitwill; D. of C., Bro. H. R. Clatsville; Chaplain, Bro. C. Greiner; S. D., Bro. W. E. Lochhead; J. D., Bro. E. H. Newman; I. G., Bro. F. Fraser; S. S., Bro. L. D. Miller; F. S., Bro. H. E. Miss Myrtle Norrie sang two solos in her usual good style. The delegate, Miss Smilie, gave a very interesting talk on Home Nursing and Bandaging after which ice cream and cake were served. ber of her friends on Saturday afternoon. The annual convention of the North Brant and Onondaga Sunday School Association, was held in the Methodist Church, Cainsville, last Thursday. A solo was rendered very acceptably by Miss Vera Robinson. A class of Sabbath School children sang very sweetly after which an address to the school children was given by Rev. Mr. Kelly. Election of officers was conducted and the afternoon session closed. In the evening the newly-elected president, Mr. Mayle, occupied the chair. A very fine address on The Sunday School was given by Rev. Mr. Marshall and Rev. Mr. McClintock spoke on these words, "Let no man despise thy youth," which was very much enjoyed by Mrs. Wilson and Woltz and Smith and a Misses Robinson and Norrie very much appreciated. League was held on Monday evening, Rev. Mr. Morrow being the speaker. A paper on Epiphany at the Early Church was read by Ferguson. Mr. Lew Smith and Annie Smith sang a duet in the usual good style. We congratulate Miss Kelly on being the silver medalist at Loretta Conv. The Adult Bible Class gave a berry social in the school on Tuesday evening. The program consisted of selections from the Ontario owned by Mr. John McFarland Junction. A very enjoyable evening was enjoyed, after which berries and cream with butter were served, and an engaging singing was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

Last Night and Peter of Fough

In point of earnestness and in point of a militant spirit of Conservatism, last night's meeting never been excelled.

The reception accorded speaker was magnificent, remained for Mr. Brewster Sir Adam Beck to get such demonstration as is accorded men in public life.
