WOLFVILLE DEFEATS CANNING

In Keenly Contested Game of Hockey Score 7 to 6

The Wolfville boys played their first hockey game of the season last Friday night when they defeated the Canning team at Evangeline Rink by the score of 7 to 6. The game was fast and keenly contested, and much enjoyed by the 450 fans present. The Wolfville band was in attendance and furnished some splendid music before the game and between periods.

Referee Smith, of Windsor, started the play at 8.30 and for the next few minutes some fast hockey was witnessed, both sides making futile attempts to reach their opponents' goal. Scriven made several long rushes, and after one vain attempt Hirtle shot the first goal for Wolfville. The Canning team rallied, however, and soon managed to tie the score. Lyons was penalized for loafing offside, but despite their lessened number the visitors continued their good playing. At this time Grant in the Canning nets showed up to good advantage, but Clarke proved his mettle, and scored Wolfville's second goal, the period ending with the score 2-1 in favor of the locals.

The second period started off with a rush both teams being determined to score, but as in the first period Wolfville started the scoring, Kennedy doing the trick. He was followed soon after by Woodman and Clark, giving the locals a substantial lead. Once more the Canning team rallied and succeeded in beating Wolfville's defence, Dickie getting the score. Almost immediately Lyons scored from a face-off in front of Wolfville's goal, and the second period ended with the score 5 to 3.

Soon after the third period started Wolfville scored again. Canning then put on a fresh burst of speed and scored three times in quick succession, tying the score. Excitement then ran high and both teams played hard for the deciding goal, which was finally scored by Kennedy, and the game ended in Wolfville's favor.

The line-up was as follows:
Canning—Goal, Grant; defence, Dickie, Baxter; forwards, Bennett, Lyons, Christie.
Wolfville—Goal, Eagles; defence, Scriven, Clarke; forwards, Woodman, Hirtle, Kennedy; substitutes, Harvey, Thompson, King.

INAUGURATION OF PRESIDENT OF ACADIA

Will Take Place at Wolfville on February 15.

The Governors and Faculty of Acadia are making more or less elaborate preparation for the inauguration of the new President, the Rev. F. W. Patterson, D. D., L. L. D., who is expected to arrive from Winnipeg about the 24th of January. The Inauguration has been set down for February 15th, when Dr. Patterson will have formally committed to him the presidency of the University and everything pertaining thereto. A large number of Canadian and American Universities have been asked to send representatives, some of whom will no doubt participate in the inaugural exercises. Following the first meeting, which is scheduled for 10.30 in the Baptist Church, the Alumni Association will tender a luncheon to the visitors in the College Women's Residence and it is not unlikely that the exercises will be concluded with a reception in the spacious rooms of the Memorial Gymnasium in the evening. Dr. Patterson and family will take up their residence in the house on Main Street, formerly occupied by Dr. George E. DeWitt and purchased by the College a couple of years ago for the residence of the President.

On Thursday evening of last week the Kentville hockey team played an exhibition game with the Dartmouth team at Kentville, and won by the score of 6 to 4.

GREENWICH NEWS

WEEK OF PRAYER IN WOLFVILLE

Well Attended Meetings at the Various Churches—Able and Interesting Addresses by Well Known Speakers

The regular week of prayer union services have been held in Wolfville this week beginning on Monday evening at the Baptist church. These gatherings have been well attended and full of interest. If we might be permitted to make a suggestion for such meetings in future years it would be that provision be made for a program of subjects of especial local interest and that these be discussed from the viewpoint of community conditions.

The meeting on Monday evening was held in the School Room of the Baptist Church which was well filled at the appointed time. Rev. Dr. MacDonald presided and made the opening prayer, after which Rev. R. F. Dixon read the scripture lesson from the fourth chapter of Ephesians.

The subject for the evening was "Our Church and the Neighborhood", Rev. G. W. Miller was the speaker and his address was practical and interesting. He said in part:

In all things Jesus Christ is preeminent. He brought to the world a new thing, a clear and new conception of God and of religion. His background was the religion of Israel and he fulfilled all that was best in the outlook of that religion. The centre of the ancient religion of Israel was its worship of Jehovah in the offering of sacrifices and the observance of fasts and feasts. True there was the occasional voice of the prophet like Amos or Isaiah calling them to more vital requisites in worship namely, justice, righteousness and mercy.

Jesus came into a Jewish religious world of law. These had been multiplied beyond number and there was a law for everything. The most religious people were the most scrupulous in the observance of these laws. This was the centre of their religion, the worship of Jehovah is the observance of laws.

Jesus called them from law to life. Not that he destroyed any vital law but rather fulfilled it, but he changed the emphasis to life. He taught them to worship the Father God and to look round upon men everywhere as brothers. He exalted Samaritan above priest and Levite and to the seraph rendered by the Good Samaritan to the fallen by the way as the kind of worship most acceptable to God. The church is his body to function for him and do his work on earth. To teach his teaching of the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of men. To call home in his voice the wandering sons of men. To be hands for him in the work of healing and helping men and fashioning on earth the family of God.

The church is not in the community as a burden to be supported by that community but as the servant of all, and everything wholesome in the life of the community comes within its interests. It bears the burden of the community's sins. It weeps with those who weep and mourns with those who mourn, and must carry upon itself the marks of the Lord Jesus.

The measure of its success will be the measure of good will in the community life, the alacrity with which the people turn to the one fallen or distressed; the degree to which the suffering of one member is felt by all and the burden of one assumed by all, the measure and extent of the love that we bear toward each other.

WINDSOR DEFEATS CANNING 8 TO 4 IN LEAGUE GAME

Champions Have Too Much Speed For Home Team

Canning, Jan. 8—Windsor defeated Canning 8 to 4 here tonight in the third game of the Eastern section of the Valley league. Eight hundred spectators were present and they saw the fastest game of the season, with great excitement all the way. Windsor had too much speed for the locals and the champions were the better team tonight.

So great was the interest in the game, that a special train carrying nearly 300 fans from Kentville, Wolfville, Windsor and surrounding towns, came to town. The train was on time, to the surprise of the home team supporters.

Canning is represented by A. Squadron, King's Rifles and the boys played hard throughout the game.

E. Mosher, Windsor, was injured in the first period and was unable to return to the game. Windsor took a three to one lead in the first period. In the second session the visitors scored four goals and the locals two. Each club got a goal in the final period.

Yes Laing made an impartial referee. The line up:

Canning: Grant, goal; Baxter, Dickie, defence; Lyons, centre; Bennett, Christie, wings; Eaton, Huston, Burns, subs.

Windsor: G. Smith, goal; McCann, S. MacDonald, defence; J. MacDonald, centre; Poole, Mosher, wings; Clarke, Huges, Cochrane, subs.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

Holds Business-like Session at Kentville

The January term of the Municipal Council convened at the Court House, Kentville, on Tuesday morning. The county clerk, Mr. C. L. Dodge, read the report of the presiding officers at the last election, held in November, and the sixteen councillors elect were duly sworn into office.

The first item of business was the appointment of a warden, and the position was unanimously tendered to Laurence Gaul, of Dalhousie, the oldest member of the Council. Mr. Gaul recognized the honor conferred upon him but decided not to accept the position and council proceeded to ballot. Fred M. Munro, B. A., Kingston, was elected warden on the first ballot, although this was his first entry into the work of the council. He assumed the duties of his office, and the work of the council proceeded harmoniously throughout the day.

Matters of particular importance dealt with were the appointment of standing committees; the reappointment as inspector under the Canada Temperance Act of Robert White; the appointment of a committee to investigate matters as regards the condition of affairs in the county jail, Kentville; the consideration of a grant to Memorial Hospital, Berwick; the report of commissioners of the county home at Waterville, as to cost of new building, equipment and sale of the township poor farms, etc.

The report of Mr. H. Stairs, agent of the Children's Aid Society of Kings County, was read by Judge Webster and adopted by the Council. The usual annual allowance of $500 was made towards the salary of Mr. Stairs, the value of whose work is fully appreciated.

At the afternoon session on Wednesday it was, on motion of Councillor Durno, resolved that the Memorial Hospital, Berwick, be declared a public hospital and that the sum of five hundred dollars be voted for the present year. On motion it was resolved that Councillor Gaul be the county representative on the hospital board.

The report of the expenditures of the County Home was read, giving the amount received from sale of township property, etc., showing over $3,000 on hand.

It was resolved, after much discussion, that the county health clinic be discontinued, and a committee was appointed to investigate health conditions in the county and acquaint themselves with work in other counties and report in April. The committee appointed was Councillors J. B. Gertridge, Durno and Bishop.

The county jail committee recommended a change in management as soon as convenient.

In regard to roads, it was resolved that one man in each district be appointed to lay out road districts and be paid for necessary work.

The sessions of the new Council were conducted in a business-like manner and the work finished on Wednesday. Next week THE ACADIAN hopes to give its readers a detailed report of the proceedings.

Two local merchants, who have been operating small punch boards for special prizes were fined ten dollars yesterday by Stipendiary Magistrate MacKenzie. In expressing an opinion upon the two cases Magistrate MacKenzie informed the two merchants that if it was their desire they could have a preliminary hearing, and carry the case to the Supreme Court as the offence under present statutes is indictable. However, the two offenders decided to take their chance before the local magistrate. Under the law, it was possible for the stipendiary magistrate to impose a fine of five hundred dollars upon the two men. Daily News, Amherst.

CLEARING SNOW FROM THE SIDEWALKS

The severe storms of the past week or two have laid a heavy and unusual burden upon those responsible for the care and condition of our streets and sidewalks. As a result the sidewalks have been almost impassable, especially in the business section of the town. This is due chiefly to two causes—the packing of the snow by pedestrians before the work of clearing away was begun and the work being well done in front of some business places while in others most of the snow was allowed to remain. The fault is apparently with the system which makes no provision for enforcing the removal of the snow by the property owners within a reasonable time and in accordance with specified directions. In most towns a by-law governing this procedure exists and very little difficulty is found in keeping the sidewalks safe without undue hardship to any individual. It is time that similar regulations existed in Wolfville and we believe that throughout the business section its enforcement would be gladly undertaken by citizens. In the residential sections the snow-plows would still be necessary and better conditions should result there also because of the change.

CIVIC ELECTIONS

With the date of the civic elections less than four weeks away citizens should soon be displaying some activity in the matter of the nomination of men who are to fill the vacancies in the Council. It goes without saying that Mayor Sutherland will be asked to carry on for another year as it has always been the policy in Wolfville to expect the mayor to sit for two terms. The councillors who retire are Messrs. Wheaton, Cox and Peck and of course these are eligible for re-election if the citizens so desire. Just what their attitude will be with reference to the coming elections THE ACADIAN is unable to say. The selection of our civic government is perhaps the most important responsibility of the citizen and demands his careful consideration. If you have opinions relative to the conduct of town affairs now is a good time to express them. If you are pleased with the manner in which the town business—your business—has been carried on during the past year it will do no harm to say so. The financial statement will soon be ready and will appear in these columns so that he who runs may read.

A TIME FOR HEART-SEARCHING

There is an ancient and rather suggestive adage to the effect that politics makes strange bedfellows and in this county in days that are gone, perhaps not so long, we have had ample testimony as to its truth. Be that as it may the game of politics certainly furnishes its full quota of inconsistencies as well as much food for thoughtful consideration. In this good old Canada of ours we have, for instance, liberals that are conservative as well as liberal-conservatives, and progressives that are neither progressive nor appreciated by the old party leaders. Perhaps the strangest freak of all is the aged "liberal" government of Nova Scotia, which gives evidence of being the most conservative institution in the realm of representative government. Save in the matter of taxation this province by the sea is lamentably behind the newer provinces of the Dominion in everything that makes for up-to-date and efficient legislation and all our public institutions are shamefully behind the times. The people themselves are not without blame for the condition and the time is opportune at this the beginning of a new year for a heart-searching in the matter of our responsibility towards public affairs. If we are satisfied to allow conditions to remain as they now exist we cannot expect much improvement. There is that which places party interest above public good—but it makes for disaster.

GOOD WORK, LIVERPOOL

The last issue of the Liverpool Advance contains a brief statement of the situation in that town relative to the collection of taxes, which is quite suggestive. The total tax-roll for the year 1922 was $29,881.90 and of this amount $29,662.93—or 99 1/2 per cent.—has been collected. This is a showing that might be emulated with profit by other towns in Nova Scotia. The items which make up the $218.97 outstanding are also published in the Advance for the benefit of delinquents and citizens generally. Evidently in the enterprising and well conducted Queens county shiretown they are not afraid of publicity in the matter of civic finances.

An emigrant had taken up his own holding, but, although he worked hard, he found little to reward him for his labors. One day when he was very much depressed by the situation, a stranger accosted him and asked: "Why is it that nobody fishes in the river yonder?" "Ain't no fish," the farmer grunted. "How is it that there is no fish in such a fine river?" asked the other. "Stranger, if you could get out of this barren country as easy as a fish kin, do ye reckon ye'd stay?"

LAW RELATING TO GAMBLING

Section 236 Criminal Code
The Social Service Council of Nova Scotia is endeavoring to arouse the people of the Province against this insidious evil; and to have the law dealing with it impartially enforced.

Many forms of gambling are so innocent looking that often people who would not care to be reckoned among the criminal class are persuaded that there is no wrong in the methods they take. The law however, is very severe, and it is only right that any persons who have been, perhaps unknowingly, breaking that law, be advised what the law is, and given an opportunity to quit, without any necessity for legal action. We believe that no honest, patriotic citizen will wish to defy the law, or flagrantly break it, when he knows the facts.

The section of the criminal code dealing with the matter is as follows:

1. Every one is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to two years' imprisonment and to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars who—

(a) makes, prints, advertises or publishes, or causes or procures to be made, printed, advertised or published, any proposal, scheme or plan for advancing, lending, giving, selling or in any way disposing of any property, by lots, cards, tickets or any mode of chance whatsoever; or

(b) sells, barter, exchanges or otherwise disposes of, or causes or procures, or aids or assists in the sale, barter or exchange, any lot, card, ticket or other means or device for advancing, lending, giving, selling or otherwise disposing of any property, by lots, ticket, or any mode of chance whatsoever; or

(c) conducts or manages any scheme, contrivance or operation of any kind for the purpose of determining who, or the holders of what lots, tickets, numbers or chances, are the winners of any property so proposed to be advanced, loaned, given, sold or disposed of; or

(d) disposes of any goods, wares or merchandise by any game or mode of chance or mixed chance and skill in which the contestant or competitor pays money or other valuable consideration; or

(e) induces any person to stake or hazard any money or valuable property or thing on the result of any dice game, shell game, punch board, coin table or on the operation of any wheel of fortune.

2. Every one is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a penalty of twenty dollars who buys, takes or receives any such lot, ticket or other device as aforesaid.

"Would Wake Up Screaming"
"The Least Sudden Noise or Loud Talking Would Startle Him."

"Up to the age of eight, my boy was a strong, healthy lad, full of life and energy. While playing leap frog one day with some boys of his own age, and, while in a stooped position, a big boy jumped on his back and in falling my boy caught his foot in an iron grating and dislocated his hip. The pain was so great that he fainted and the other boys were so frightened they ran away. For hours he suffered terrible pain and when found and brought home was very weak, with his thigh and leg swollen twice its size. The doctor set the bone but the pain and exposure were too much for the poor boy and he became unconscious. A high fever set in and for weeks he lay between life and death raving for hours at a stretch. One day he opened his eyes and murmured 'Mother,' but this is the only word he could utter he was so weak, but I knew the worst was over. He got stronger but for months was in a nervous condition. The least sudden noise or loud talking would startle him and he would begin trembling. He was quite lame and the swelling still remained. The doctor gave him a tonic and told me to rub the leg with olive oil. This reduced the swelling and took away the lameness, but the nervousness remained. The poor child would waken in the night screaming at the top of his voice. The doctor gave him several different tonics but they were no use. I found a circular about Carnol and it seemed so different from other tonics I had heard of, that I thought I would get a bottle. Three bottles were all that was needed to make my boy like his own self again. It is hard to convince my friends that the change in him now is entirely due to Carnol. Of course I still have to watch him and give him Carnol occasionally but I know that he will soon be as strong again as ever he was."

Mrs. P., Montreal.

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. 2-622

Use Modern Ways These Modern Days

Have you noticed how jokes these days are fewer at the Club, in the Cars and at the Counter, and how, somehow, they seem feebler and less pointed than of yore?

It is Budget time; that's the reason!

Everybody is pondering his business plans for the year just begun—and that is no joking matter!

Many of these business men of your acquaintance will sit down and frame their Budgets along the old, old lines, in strict accordance with tradition.

Yet, modern science has opened up new ways of doing things with better results and at less cost.

Take, for instance, the most important of them all, the Long Distance Telephone.

What a cut in the cost of getting orders the aggressive use of that modern facility effects. Yet some business men fail to count on it in framing their estimates.

Don't you be one of their number!

Frame your cost sheets based on a full use of your Telephone.

It multiplies orders, cuts costs and practically crams 120 minutes into the hour.

THE WORLD'S W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

Philadelphia, November 11-16, 1922

(By Miss Archibald, of India.)
 Where could there have been a more suitable place for this great Convention than in the historic city of Philadelphia, the third largest in the United States and the ninth largest in the world? Two thousand delegates were in attendance from twenty-seven different countries.
 The airplane that brought the delegate from Alabama, was all decorated with the white ribbon, and bore this message, "The airplane formerly used by man for the destruction of life, today for the first time is used by women for the distribution of temperance literature over the City of Brotherly Love at the World's W. C. T. U. Convention."
 Well, the very first night was the big reception in Bellevue Stratford hotel ball-room. Delegates from foreign countries were seated on the platform and spoke briefly after the welcomes were given. Addresses were given by Miss Slack of England, Mrs. MacLeod of Australia, Rev. Helen Hyde Carlson of U. S. A. and Miss Campbell of India.
 On Sunday night prohibition was the theme. A beautiful young girl, a namesake and relative of the founder of the W. C. T. U., Frances Willard, recited in a most effective style "The Call of the Eighteenth Amendment". An address was given by Major Roy A. Haynes, Federal Prohibition Commissioner. Very graphically did he outline the forces arrayed for and against the enforcement of prohibition and stated his belief that the real trouble was not in the minority opposed, but in the desire of the few to nullify the law for the sake of large personal gains to be derived from the trade. "But we need not fear," he said, "when we look at the churches and leaders of thought, the fathers and mothers of the citizens of tomorrow, the populations of the great rural sections who are with us to a man and the women of the W. C. T. U., who have ever exerted a tremendous force for every righteous cause." Major Haynes expressed himself as highly pleased with the progress made in the last eight months.

 Mrs. Martha Allen, Superintendent of Medical Temperance, stated that twenty-two states now bar the sale of liquor even for medicinal purposes. She quoted prominent medical authorities who deny the beneficial medical effect of the use of liquor. Miss Mary Anderson forcibly showed the benefits of the prohibition law to working women. The industrial creed of the W. C. T. U. is: "A living wage, an eight-hour-day, courts of arbitration, justice as opposed to greed and gain, 'peace on earth, good will to men'".
 The last item on the great program was two-minute speeches from all the delegates outside the United States. It was a most interesting sight to see them march to the front and give their salutations and messages. Six appeared to represent India. It was a great pleasure to present the brass-begging bowl in behalf of the National W. C. T. U. of India with many salamas. At the close Miss Campbell, the organizer for India, gracefully presented a silver vase to our beloved World's President, Miss Anna Adams Gordon.
 Every foreign delegate stressed the fact that all eyes were on America. If America succeeds, victory would come to the world. Miss Slack our energetic Honorary Secretary said, "The world is looking to America to effect the greatest economic and moral reforms of all time through prohibition and an attempt to modify the amendment to your constitution will be considered a sign of failure. The responsibility of America is a grave one."
 It was no small thing to have the opportunity of attending this great convention—to see four thousand filling every seat in that beautiful Academy of Music; hundreds were turned away from every session and those who came paid $3.00 for their seat. Was not the enthusiasm amazing? Yes, and the music, the cables, the greetings, the flowers, the teas, the receptions, the presentations, the seeing of so many from different countries and races and hearing the stirring messages emphasizing their own needs, yet showing their earnest desire to help all mankind in this great struggle for world prohibition, world purity and world peace.—Maritime Baptist.

FOUND HIS SISTER BY RADIO

A homemade radio set in the hands of a boy living in Ohio enabled him to accomplish in a few weeks what his mother, assisted by lawyers and private detective agencies, had been trying to do for thirteen years. He succeeded in finding his lost sister. The story, as Mr. Pierre Boucheron tells it in the Radio Broadcast, is one more instance of the romance of wireless telegraphy.

 One evening, says Mr. Boucheron, Lester Archer of Toledo conceived the idea of broadcasting a call inquiring for and describing his lost sister, whom unfriendly relatives had placed in a children's home many years before. The powerful amateur station 8ZL sent out his call in the continental Morse code, and hundreds of other amateurs relayed it.
 Night after night Archer sat at his receiving set, listening for an encouraging reply. Weeks passed, and his task had begun to seem hopeless when one evening the faint call 8KV, Archer's own registered call signal, came from an amateur at Van Wert, Ohio. Following the call came some words that were hardly discernible, but among them Archer was able to distinguish "your sister".
 Late the same night when there was less local interference in the air he got into communication with the station at Van Wert and learned that a young girl who answered the description of his sister was living at the house of a nearby farmer at Rockford in Mercer County. The amateur added that he had been trying to reach Archer for the past two weeks.
 To the surprise and joy of Archer and his mother the report proved to be correct; Mrs. Archer recognized the girl instantly as her daughter.

HOW PARENTS CAN ASSIST

Without doubt there are many occasions upon which the school teacher is blamed for results attained (or unattained) which at once prove that the censure is not being placed in the right quarter.
 The following few pertinent questions, carefully studied and acted upon might do much to increase efficiency and reduce occasional friction.
 Do you visit the school to inquire about your child's progress and deportment, and to see if you can help the teacher help the child?
 Do you encourage your child to respect its teachers and others in authority?
 Do you send your child to bed in time so that the child will be properly rested and fit for the next day's study?
 Do you provide plain nourishing food and see that the child is up in time in the morning to eat a good breakfast?
 Do you teach your child to read the papers and find out the best in them; and do you encourage an interest in public affairs?
 Do you avoid gossip and the telling of incidents which they may misinterpret, before your children?
 Do you encourage helpful conversation at the table?

 Do you interest yourself in the child's sports, amusements and friendships?
 Do you comply with the rules of public health in your home and do you keep in mind that while the school may do much to instil right principles, your child is handicapped if you do not support it by instilling obedience and high ideals of patriotism and personal life?

Business IS Good

The Farmer sells a load of wheat, And all the world grows fair and sweet. He hums a couple of cheerful tunes, And pays the Grocer for his prunes. The Grocer, who has had the blues, Now buys his wife a pair of shoes. That ten the Shoeman thinks Godsent, And runs and pays it on the rent. Next day the Rent Man hands the bill To Dr. Carver for a pill. And Doctor Carver tells his Frau That business is improving now. And cheers her up and says: "My dear You've been quite feeble for a year. I'm thinking you should have a rest, You'd better take a trip out West." And in a couple of days the Frau Is on the farm of Joshua Howe. She pays her board to Farmer Howe, Who takes her bill and says, "I swear, Here's something that just can't be beat This bill's the one I got for wheat." He hums a couple of cheerful tunes, And goes and buys a lot more prunes. —Anonymous in the Commercial Traveller Bulletin.

Did You Ever Stop to Think

- THAT it takes real co-operation between the head of a business, the ad man and the clerks to make a bigger business.
- That advertising is the poser that brings the customer.
- THAT too much attention cannot be paid to careful, persistent advertising.
- THAT some merchants advertise themselves more than they do their merchandise.
- THAT merchandise is what they have to sell.
- THAT good service, good goods and good prices, plus good advertising is what will make any merchant's business better.
- THAT if that is kept up it will give the merchant plenty of personal advertising.
- THAT THE MERCHANT WHO CONTINUES TO IGNORE THE BENEFITS OF ADVERTISING IS JUST BUYING GREASE TO OIL HIS OWN FAILURE.
- THAT the man who succeeds in business is no great wonder, he is just the man who went ahead while the other fellows sat around and said it could not be done.
- THAT the customer knows that the secret of economical buying is information he will find in the advertising columns.

INTERESTING MARRIAGE

Quite a ripple of excitement was occasioned this week by the announcement of the marriage of Miss Flo. M. Harris, of this town, and Mr. G. H. Barnes, of Amherst. The happy event took place some time ago and is only now made public. Miss Harris, who is one of our best known residents and a daughter of the late Smith P. Harris, has carried on a successful book and stationery business here for some years and has many friends. Mr. Barnes is not a stranger in Wolfville, having been employed here in connection with building enterprises of various kinds. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes expect to leave shortly for a short trip after which they will return to Wolfville and take up their residence on Acadia street. Townspeople generally will join THE ACADIAN in best wishes for the happiness and prosperity of the newly wedded couple.

LIVING COSTS DECLINE IN 1922

During the past twelve months, the cost of living has substantially declined. The dollar purchases quite a good bit more than it did this time last year. In 1921, the average cost of the family budget was $11.82 as against $10.28 today. We freely admit that it is still a far cry from even the last-named figure to the 1914 figure of $7.83, but it is happily, even a farther cry from the present day figure to the 1920 monstrosity of $15.95.

You often hear people talk about the quality of tea they used to get in the good old days of yore, but as a matter of fact, the tea of those good old days did not begin to compare with MORSE'S teas of the present time. The finest flavored tea ever sold is MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE. It cannot be surpassed in flavour in any market of the world.

The death of Rev. Thomas Stewart, D. D., one of the best known and most highly esteemed ministers of the Presbyterian church of eastern Canada, occurred at his home, 49 Morris street, Halifax, on Monday of this week. A frequent visitor in Wolfville and for some time a resident of Grand Pre, Dr. Stewart was by no means a stranger to this locality, and the news of his passing was heard with profound sorrow by many friends.

King's English Drill

Judging by the newspaper reports of the visit to this province of the Scottish curlers there must be some pretty good teams of the roarin' game in Nova Scotia. Time was when in Wolfville a number of citizens were interested in this grand sport and there seems no good reason why it should not be revived. True we would need a rink but that might easily be provided. Curling is a game that appeals especially to the middle-aged men and they would unquestionably be the better for the exercise which the game provides.

At the last Council meeting it was decided, on the motion of Councillor Eaton, to procure a number of chairs for use in the Council Chamber, and have them plainly marked so that they may be easily identified as the property of the town. In the past many of the chairs belonging to the town have been "borrowed" and failed to come back. The Council Chamber is used for public meetings of various kinds and citizens in future will appreciate not being obliged to stand as has often been the case in the past.

Just Arrived

Some of our subscribers inform us that they are bothered by neighbors borrowing their copy of THE ACADIAN and that the habit in some cases has become a nuisance. THE ACADIAN costing less than four cents a week—less than the price of an ice-cream cone—there is no reason why those who are continually borrowing from their neighbors couldn't afford to subscribe for the paper themselves. Our list is getting big, but we can handle a few more subscribers, folks. Just slip us two dollars and you won't need to bother your neighbor for a whole year.

Following the suggestion made by THE ACADIAN last week the snow-plows were set in operation on Wednesday immediately the regular snowstorm for the week began. The work was carried on faithfully throughout the day with the result that the snow was not allowed to accumulate and when the storm ended in the evening the sidewalks were passable and pedestrians had no difficulty in pursuing their various ways. Those in charge of the work deserve much credit for the very satisfactory manner in which the plows were operated under unfavorable conditions.

Speaking of the town sidewalks, they certainly have had their ups and downs this winter, haven't they?

Probably not since the winter of 1905, when during more than two weeks preceding Feb. 10th there were no trains running and traffic was practically at a standstill, has there been a greater accumulation of snow on Main street, and this in spite of the fact that the town team has been busy hauling it away. In the country sections the conditions are said to be very bad. On the Gaspereau Mountain the snow is said to range in depth from three feet to ten feet, and the work in the woods is carried on with great difficulty.

THE FARM WOOD LOT

According to the 1910 census the value of forest products produced on the farms of the United States East of the Great Plains was close to $200,000,000. In 1918, over 100,000,000 cords of wood were burned on American farms or sold off the farms to town and city dwellers.

Except in the more thickly settled sections of the country lucrative employment is found for farm labour and teams during the winter months cutting and hauling logs, ties, pulpwood, pit timber and cordwood. Even in the thickly populated portions of the Eastern Townships of Quebec where the farms have been cultivated for well over one hundred years, it is quite common for farmers to handle from 100 to 200 cords of firewood in a season.

In many sections considerable revenue is derived from the sale of maple sugar products. Forest areas conserve moisture for springs and wells, act as windbreaks, make the landscape more attractive and utilize land unfit for cultivation.

A little care given each year to fire protection, proper thinning and utilizing of the timber would nearly double the yield from the average woodlot. Instead of slashing half grown trees of the useful marketable varieties for home requirements, if the less valuable varieties, windfalls, and trees showing signs of insect damage and rot were used, the remaining trees would make more rapid growth.

Open spaces should be avoided as much as possible because once a grass sod is formed the growth of the trees is checked. Tops should be lopped to ensure more rapid decay and to lessen the danger from fire. The main idea is to keep a blanket of leaves and wood on the forest floor to hold moisture and encourage the growth of the young trees.

It is bad practice to allow sheep or cattle to pasture in the woodlot, because they destroy the young growth which should come on as soon as the heavier timber is removed.

Of the hardwood trees the hard or sugar maple is the most valuable. Besides supplying sap for sugar making, the wood is valuable for fuel, the manufacture of agricultural implements, furniture, hardwood flooring and distilled products. Other valuable hardwoods are, birch, beech, brown and white ash and elm. Basswood and poplar grow more quickly than other deciduous trees and are useful for reforestation. Among the conifers spruce is the most important wood, supplying the bulk of the timber and rough lumber for building purposes. Besides, it is useful for pulp wood and pit timber. Pine is not often found in farm woodlots, but is useful for manufactured lumber. Fir and hemlock are used mainly for building lumber and pulpwood. Cedar makes the best shingles and is also used for telephone and telegraph poles, crosses and fence posts. Tamarack, although not a common wood, is very durable and is valuable for fence posts, ties, mine and crib work timbers.

Wherever there is plenty of moisture a second growth usually springs up where the heavy timber has been removed. Because of their rapid growth the spruces, firs and poplars often supplant the original hardwood forests. Fully stocked with trees an acre of soft woods will grow at the rate of one to two cords per year, will supply posts or pulpwood in 15 to 25 years and saw logs in 20 to 40 years. Hardwoods grow at the rate of one-half to one cord per year, a cord being equal to about 500 board feet of raw lumber. By proper management rocky, waste and swampy land if allowed to grow up under forest may be made to yield a worth while income.

Autoist—"Say, constable, what is that red light for?" Constable—"To keep people from falling over that pile of stones." "Well, what are the stones for?" "My, but yer dumb! They hold up the light."

REALIZING THE PROPAGANDA MENACE

(From the Financial Post) There has recently been an awakening on the part of the press of Canada and the United States to the menace of foreign propaganda. A writer in the Toronto Telegram refers to the meddling interference in foreign policies of well-intentioned busybodies, who are so ill-informed on world affairs as to be unfitted to judge international situations. But, this writer also points out that there are signs of a realization of the danger of letting sentimentalists dictate the country's policies.

The Financial Post has been pointing to this development but the newspapers generally have been inclined to belittle the danger and many business men and financiers, wrapped up in their own affairs, have been inclined to agree with them and close their eyes to an unpleasant situation.

But the campaign has been going steadily on, with its dangerous tendency to undermine the loyalty of Canadians to the Canadian and British governments and the institutions which have built up under them. In Toronto University recently there was held a secret meeting of students of foreign descent or parentage, presided over by an emissary from the United States, and an organization was formed to carry on disloyal propaganda.

It is well that there is now a more general recognition of these unsettling influences, backed by propaganda to eliminate capital, promote strikes and otherwise upset sound government and established financial and trade institutions.

WE ARE GOING TO BE GRASS-HOPPERS

Did you ever hear of Doolittle? If some fellow had told your grandfather when he was a boy that in the time of his grandchildren a man would take dinner one evening on the cool summer verandah overlooking the broad Atlantic and at 10 o'clock bid his friends good night saying, "I am dining with friends on the Pacific Coast tomorrow evening. I must be on my way," your grandfather would have looked upon the predictor as either a laughable romancer or a pitiable fool.

Well—Doolittle did it. And not many people noticed it. The whole world accepted it as a little news item of passing interest. Few even noted the item and most of those who did as quickly forgot it.

Lieutenant James H. Doolittle, U. S. Army aviator, hopped off in his aeroplane from the broad Atlantic at Pablo Beach at three minutes past 10 o'clock Labor Day. At 5:34 the next afternoon (Pacific time) he stepped out of his sky-boat at San Diego, Calif., on the Pacific.

Doolittle stopped an hour and seven minutes at San Antonio, Texas, to take breakfast with his wife and mother. In actual flying time, he flew from sea to sea in twenty-one hours and eighteen minutes.

What would grandfather, as a boy, have thought of that? Nothing more than a passing news item of the hour now. We have grown accustomed to startling events.

Some day some fellow will rise up into the heavens and sail all the way around the world. And when that day comes, even that will not amaze us.

We once thought it a wonderful thing to talk by wire across town. Now we talk by wireless across the continent. We once thought it was a great thing to go from Montreal to Toronto in one day. Now we go from sea to sea in a day. You have seen in your school histories pictures of the little Columbus fleet, the Nina, the Pinta and the Santa Maria, compared to the modern ocean liner, nearly one-fifth of a mile long, accommodating thousands of passengers in the luxury of palatial grandeur.

You have seen pictures of the little kettle-like locomotive, the De Witt Clinton, which was the marvel of 1831 because it acquired the amazing speed of 15 miles an hour. You have seen the modern engine which pulls a palatial Pullman faster than a mile a minute. Wonderful changes, aren't they? Well—

The little air ship that Doolittle lifted above the storm clouds and sailed by compass was but the Santa Maria sailing an uncharted sky. A sky where great ships will follow. It was the De Witt Clinton piloting the path for the up-in-the-air passenger coach that our children will some day use to meet a business engagement or to greet a friend at dinner a few thousand miles away.

All over the skies new lines of passenger ships will fly. As Doolittle hopped from sea to sea, we will hop from shore to shore.

Soon Asia is but a day away. We take breakfast in Buenos Ayres tomorrow.

Usually when an editor makes remarks about a public official it is easy to tell whether they are favorable or unfavorable. But the following paragraph in a South Carolina newspaper leaves the reader in doubt: "Some malicious person started a report on the streets that there was something the matter with Mayor Snipe's head. We are glad to announce that it is sound as ever it was, and that there is nothing in it."

Opportunity and Canadian Boys

In the heart of the Laurentians surrounded by lakes and mountains that compose that far-famed summer resort of Eastern Canada is the Shawbridge Boys' Farm and Training School, an institution that is doing a great and much needed work. Its several fine buildings are set in surroundings that make for the upbuilding of physical and moral stamina, and upwards of two hundred lads of varying ages are there being given a new and better chance to make good in this country of opportunity for young men.

The farm is supported partly by a grant from the Quebec Provincial Government, and partly by public subscription. Its president is E. W. Beatty, President of the C. P. R., and at a recent gathering there, Mr. Beatty gave an address in which were said many things that might profitably be read by all Canadian boys. "He said in part: "When I was a very young boy at school I did not believe in study. I worked a little, but I played a lot, and I did many of the things I should not do, and let someone many of these I should. When I was thirteen years of age and had finished one year's course in a prominent school in Toronto, my parents received a report which, without bragging, I think I may say was the worst report ever written about a boy. I was in trouble from the beginning of the year. I had spent most of my time after hours in school, doing the things I should have done during the class period. When this report was received it was accompanied by a note that in the opinion of the principal of that school it would get along fairly well if I did not return."

tion of this fact increased until I succeeded who did not work and do not make for permanent success. None of you here will ever regret the time you have spent in mastering things which appear hard, or curing yourselves of habits which they have inherited or which you have acquired. The older you grow the more you will realize the fact that men even in this young country are fighting for a living, that competition is keen and men more numerous than good positions.

You will be told that your object in life is to be a success, and that is true, because without ambition to a success no man goes very far. But success does not necessarily mean the amassing of money or the obtaining of high position. A man may be a success in the truest sense of the term if he has moderate means, is charitable and helpful to others, and, above all, retains his own self-respect, which inspires the respect of others, quite regardless whether he is the possessor of money or without it.

You will find, too, that the things which you admire in others are the things which you would like to be yourself. You will see men judged by others in accordance with three or four simple standards. If he possesses these qualities and those standards he will be admired and respected by his fellows. If he does not, he will fall.

To attain success the most essential thing is good health. A sound body usually means a sound mind, and a boy who is careful of his health and makes himself strong and vigorous has distinct advantage over those who are physically weak. While it is not impossible, it is extremely difficult for anyone to work against the handicap of ill health. And so I say to you in all seriousness, work hard, and play hard, enjoy games and spend your time as much as possible in the open. Build yourselves up, because you may have a long life, and every ounce of strength you store up in your youth adds to your vitality when you are older.

If that is a physical necessity to a man's success, there are certain moral qualities without which he cannot obtain permanent advancement. The first is honesty. No man in this, or any other country who is not honest has attained permanent success. He may appear to do so. He may amass money by means which are at least doubtful, but without honesty he cannot gain or retain the respect of his fellow-men, and without that no man can be said to be a success. The second essential is courage.

Moral courage like physical courage, is of a great advantage to a boy. Moral courage is what enables a man to do right, regardless of what others think or say, who refuses to do wrong no matter what the temptation. Physical courage is that independence and confidence in your own physical abilities which enables a man to fight a bully, even though he is physically his superior, because he will not be put down through fear. Physical courage is very common. It exists to a more or less extent in most Canadian boys. Moral courage is more rare.

The third essential is modesty. There is nothing more admirable than the modesty of a boy who at the same time maintains his own self-respect. Coupled with modesty is courtesy, and most modest people are courteous. Most conceited people are not.

The modest boy never forgets to be polite to his elders or to women, and the first thing which an older man or woman recognizes and appreciates about a boy is his attitude of respect to those who are older than he. I cannot tell you how many positions have been won by boys whose manner towards older people has been modest and respectful, or how many lost by those who forget this essential quality.

I told you that life is a struggle. It is also a race, and if you are in the race you must be equipped so that the competition will be equal. No boy who neglects his studies has the same opportunity afterwards as a boy who does not. He finds himself handicapped in a hundred ways by a lack of knowledge which he should have acquired when the opportunity was offered him. He sees other boys go ahead of him because of this advantage, and he oftentimes is reduced to earning his living by physical work for the simple reason that he has not trained himself to think.

Learn all that you can learn. Follow the instructions of your teachers, because later what they teach you will be found of great advantage, and without it you will feel handicapped, embarrassed, and sometimes ashamed. There is a word we use to sum up a lot of qualities which we admire in any boy, and that is manliness. Manliness means a boy who is considered courageous, fair, generous, and who respects himself and others. Everyone admires a manly boy. No one admires a boy who is a sneak, who cheats, who does mean, underhand things. We like a boy or a man who stands on his own feet, looks everyone in the eye, who succeeds because he works and because he uses his ability for his own advancement without injuring anyone else.

Canada's Historic Loss

The Basilica at Quebec which for over 300 years has been a landmark of the ancient city and which was gutted by fire recently. It will be rebuilt at once. In the lower right hand corner is Cardinal Beato's palace seen from the steps of the monument to Bishop Laval. The palace adjoins the Basilica and narrowly escaped destruction. In the upper corner is the Chateau Frontenac which stands about a block away from the Basilica and which is here pictured for the first time with the new tower.

THE fire that destroyed the ancient Basilica at Quebec on the night of December 22nd, destroyed one of Canada's ancient landmarks that had long years ago assumed a place in the affections of the Canadian people quite irrespective of creeds. To Quebec city the loss is irreparable, and the Christmas season in that city has been to some extent marred by the disastrous event. English, French, Catholic and Protestant dwellers in Quebec Province alike feel the loss of this historic old building with its association with Canada's romantic past. The building itself spoke of other days. Its architecture was characteristic of Quebec city, and all who had visited it carried away a memory of a quaint old building, richer in historic interest than in architectural beauty, but none the less of great charm and an ornament to the city quite in keeping with the surroundings. The ancient edifice dated from 1647 and occupied ground in the vicinity of the first parish church in Quebec, Notre Dame de la Recouvrance erected by the founder of Quebec in 1638. The first Mass in the Basilica was said on Christmas Day, 1656, but it was not until 1666 that the church was consecrated by the first Bishop of Quebec, Mgr. De Laval, and opened for public worship. It underwent a restoration in 1745. The church suffered considerable damage in 1759 as a result of the bombardment of the city by Wolfe's Artillery. Since that date it has undergone numerous alterations and additions. Mgr. De Laval, who died in 1708, was buried in the crypt of the Basilica, but in 1788, his remains were transferred to the seminary chapel. Fully 900 persons sleep their last sleep in the crypt of the cathedral. They include the remains of four Governors of New France, church dignitaries, high military officers, judges, and many other prominent people. The Basilica was one of the finest edifices of its kind in the Dominion and contained many very precious relics of the past as well as paintings by some of the leading masters of the French, Dutch, and Italian schools. Many religious treasures, vestments, ornaments and sacred vessels were also contained in the Basilica. Some of the stained glass windows were the finest and most artistic on the American continent, and the interior decorations which had been completely renewed recently at a cost of nearly $90,000, were particularly artistic. Among the pictures were a Saint Paul by Carlo Maratta, and a Christ by Van Dyke. The vestments were probably more gorgeous in adornment than anywhere else in America. Many of them were gifts from the French kings. The church is in the see of the Archbishop of Quebec. In 1874 Pope Pius IX. elevated it to the rank of a Basilica Minor. It is, of course, to be expected that a large and more beautiful Basilica will arise on the site of the old building, and that it will continue to carry the associations with early French history in Canada. The tombs of the early governors and others will still remain, and other historic relics and paintings will take the place of those lost, so that except for the building itself the loss may in some measure be replaced. It was later announced that most of the vestments had escaped the fire.

A RURAL POSTMASTER AND MERCHANT'S VIEWS

To the Editor of the Globe (Toronto): I have read with much interest your advertising sheet, booming the new postal C. O. D. service, also your questionnaire, and thought it might be of interest to give you my views on the matter, from a double standpoint, first, of a rural Postmaster, and secondly, a retail merchant in a rural district.

We admit, of course, that this service, from the standpoint of a Toronto daily paper, looks like a pretty good thing, not as much, perhaps, for the general public as for the Toronto department stores, whose money, collected from all parts of the Dominion, yields large profits that are invested in Toronto.

However, to be fair in this matter, we must look at all sides of the question. In every postoffice in the country, the Postmaster and his assistants spend all their time and energy in a service that is more arbitrary and exacting than any other public service, with less pay and longer hours of work, and are finding themselves every year more and more an "Annex" to Toronto department stores.

The Postmaster's salary is based—not on the mail matter he distributes, or the tonnage that he handles, but on the number of stamps that he sells. Consequently, two or three stamps that he sells will bring him fifty or a hundred pounds of mail matter to distribute, for which he receives neither pay nor commission.

This in itself would seem to be a sufficient burden to add to the ordinary post-office work, but now a paternal Government, imitating our American neighbors, makes the Postmaster, already nearly crowded out of his office with mail-order parcels, responsible for the collection of the Department store accounts, through the C. O. D. service. It is of absolutely no benefit or convenience to the public; a package cannot be delivered until the charges are paid, and it simply adds work and expense. As an instance of this: A firm in Toronto advertised a two-dollar article at a special price of one dollar. A patron of this office sent the dollar, and the article is mailed to him with a C. O. D. charge of $1.15. Including charges, the amount to pay is $1.22 which he must pay before he gets his purchase.

That is the Postmaster's side of the story; now, look at it from the standpoint of the retail merchant, and show us where the public receives any benefit. True, the Toronto merchants are enabled to unload "sight unseen", as small boys trade broken jack-knives, a quantity of goods that they could not handle over the counters, and the money they receive is invested in Toronto, and nine times out of ten they get away with the transaction because it is less bother to keep an unsatisfactory article and wear it out as soon as possible, than to return it and try to get your money back.

In the meantime, the retail merchant in the country or small town is trying to hold his trade, compete with the big department stores and make ends meet, and does not always find it an easy problem; in the first place, he must keep a better class of goods, because he could not sell over the counter the class of goods sold by advertising, and, in the second place, in many cases, he is waiting for his money, while his customers are sending all their ready cash away to pay for wonderful bargains (?) they read about in The Globe. Possibly their conscience troubles them a little as they remember some absolutely necessary items they must have for dinner tomorrow, but then you know, "We have an account with Mr. Jones, and he won't mind waiting until next month for the money; in fact, he ought to be glad to have our custom at all, and we could not afford to miss a bargain like this."

Now no one will deny that the retail merchants throughout the country are a necessity, a necessary evil, judging from the amount of abuse they get. Nevertheless, they are a necessity, and besides being good citizens, they endeavor, as far as possible, to give good service as any department store in the city. They carry a heavy stock, too, compared with their volume of trade, much heavier than a city store, because they have to carry every line that is carried by a big department store, and their profits are less because they cannot turn their stock over as quickly. They pay taxes at home, they help keep up roads, schools and churches; they employ help at home, nearly always supporting from the business one or two families of employees, and when hard times come and money is scarce, they are the ones who hold a man up and keep him and his family from suffering for lack of necessities until he gets another job. Now, how much of this neighborly assistance and co-operation does the country district, or the far-away customer receive from a department store in Toronto?

Cut out "buying by mail", and we venture to say trade will be better for the merchants, and the customers will have a lot better return for their money, and the Postmasters will rise up and call you blessed, when the parcel post and the C. O. D. service are abolished.

WINNIPEG FORMS AN ACADIA CLUB

Winnipeg, Jan. 4.—Officers have been elected from graduates for the Acadia Club of Winnipeg, composed of graduates, former students and friends of Acadia University, Wolfville. The meeting performed a dual function, in that it served as an organization session and at the same time welcomed to Winnipeg Rev. Dr. F. W. Patterson, the new President of the University. The officers of the new club are: President—Professor J. A. Perry. Vice-President—Rev. W. V. Vincent. Secretary—Mrs. Elizabeth Caldwell. Executive Committee—Professor F. S. Nowlan and Rev. C. B. Freeman. Senator F. L. Schaffner, welcoming President Patterson, expressed hope that Acadia will pay more attention to giving proper training in English. He said all Canadian colleges, including Manitoba University, were not giving proper attention to this subject.

Do not be disturbed because of your imperfections and always rise up bravely from a fall. I am glad that you make a daily new beginning; there is no better means of progress in the spiritual life than to be continually beginning afresh.—Francis de Sales.

HONEY PHILOSOPHY FOR 1923
Half of us don't begin to think before we're thirty-five. We just think we think. When we get to forty we're still fools but some of us know it. We have a right to expect twenty-three years of life. At forty-five we may expect to live twenty years, at fifty we can look forward to sixteen years and at fifty-five, thirteen years and the bell will ring if it don't ring before. Fancy a fellow having thirteen years to live taking time fault finding. He sleeps half the time. That cuts him down to six and a half years. Chop out holidays, Sundays, time for three a day and he's just got time to start what he hopes to finish. Come to think of it, some of us had better quit picking on the other fellow and get busy.
The attention of those we dislike may even be worse than the neglect of our friends.

SABBATH SCHOOL HAS SPLENDID RECORD

Port Williams is justly proud of its Sabbath School. At the last session the yearly report was read. The following are a few of the interesting items given.

Total attendance for the year 6342.
Average per Sunday 122.
Amount of collections $540.00.
Average per Sunday $10.39.

This money outside of the school expenses, was divided among charitable purposes, $200 given for missions.

In addition to this the "Loyal Workers" (Miss Wood, Teacher) raised $100.00; the "Kings Daughters" (B. G. Lantz) $75.00; the "Live Wires" (M. K. McKinnon) $12.00; the "Busy Bees" (Mrs. S. I. Gates) $10.00 towards the fund for church repairs.

The membership now numbers 160 with 13 organized classes, 14 teachers. During the last quarter 3 teachers and 23 scholars did not miss a session.

Lewis Ellis and Mason Cogswell were present every Sunday of 1922 and were presented by their pastor with a leather bound pocket edition of the New Testament. This came as a surprise to the boys as no prizes were offered by the school.

Mr. T. S. Lockwood with his staff of officers and teachers are to be congratulated on the splendid success during the past year and were all unanimously re-elected for office the ensuing year. The objective now is money for a piano for the school room. The "Delta Alpha" class (Mrs. O. G. Cogswell) has already raised $52.00 toward that fund.

H. C. MASTERS

Berwick, Jan. 9—In the death of Holmes C. Masters which occurred on Monday afternoon after a severe illness of three months duration, the community loses one of its leading citizens. He was a son of the late Holmes Masters, M. D., who was one of the early pioneers of the place, and the only doctor in those days for miles around. Mr. Masters was born here sixty-three years ago. He had been in poor health for some years, and last winter went with his wife to Florida to see if he would be benefited by the change of climate. It seemed to help him for a time, but soon after his return in the spring he grew worse and for the last six weeks had to keep his bed.

He owned a beautiful property on Commercial street, which has one of the best orchards in the Valley, and he took a great pride in showing it to strangers. He was an ideal orchardist. He was a faithful member of the Baptist church and in politics he was an ardent Liberal; and in his death the party loses one of its best men.

He leaves a widow, who was Margaret, daughter of John G. Clark, and four daughters, Mrs. J. L. Pattillo, of Truro; Mrs. Fred Simpson, and Mrs. U. G. Stewart residing in town, and Margaret at home, also a brother Beniah in Roxbury, Mass., and two sisters, Mrs. George Ilsley, of Port Williams and Mrs. Sutherland in British Columbia, to mourn their loss.

In the improved state of export trade there is cause for solid satisfaction. The adverse trade balance of 1921 has been converted into a favorable one of substantial proportions, and, among the exporting countries of the world, Canada now ranks fourth, and as a wheat exporting country first.

"LILY OF THE VALLEY" DIVISION ELECTS OFFICERS

Monday evening a representation of the "Lily of the Valley" division met to decide whether it was worth while to carry on this order as the temperance sentiment here has not been at all enthusiastic of late. At first it looked as though the poor "Lily" was doomed but after some deliberations the interest revived and the following officers were appointed:

W. P.—A. B. Rand.
W. A.—Mrs. Chas. Newcombe.
R. S.—Leander Woodworth.
A. R. S.—Hilda Thompson.
F. S.—Chas. Newcombe.
Treas.—Mrs. L. Woodworth.
Chap.—Rev. O. N. Chipman.
Con.—Edson Griffin.
As. Con.—Chas. Woodworth.
P. W. P.—A. C. Clarke.
I. S.—Roy Shaw.
O. S.—H. R. Holding.

Worthy Patron.—Mrs. A. B. Rand.
Miss McCrow, G. W. Patron, of Halifax, was present and helped the good work along by her inspiring words.

DODGES MACHINES WHILE PEDESTRIANS ARE AWESTRICKEN

Movie Stunt Outmovies Los Angeles, Used to Queer Stunts of Film Industry

In one of the scenes of "Too Much Business", which will be shown at the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday, Edward Horton, who has the role of John Henry Jackson, is hit by an automobile and carried along several blocks on the fender. For this scene a street in Hollywood, Cal., was used. Although the city is used to movie stunts of all kinds, here was one that created a sensation. Through the business street Horton walked, dodging in front of one automobile, around another, back of another and playing hide-and-seek with a fourth, trying to cross the street while pedestrians watched him. They were amazed at the agility with which this actor moved. Then as they all paused with bated breath, he stood in the center of the road and looked at something which attracted his attention. A few women shrieked, men started forward and others closed their eyes—but Horton was in no danger. It was part of the picture. He dropped gently upon the fender of the automobile and rode out of camera range. A crowd surrounded the automobile as it drew up to the curb and it was all that Director Robbins could do to disperse the throng in order to take the remaining scenes upon the street.

The next sequence shows Horton chasing the automobile and climbing over the side. Others who witnessed the incident thought Horton was seeking retribution and became interested in his maneuvers as he climbed over the side of the car and sat down beside John Steppeling, who appeared annoyed at his presence.

The thing was so well acted that many were fooled and, as all the cameras were hidden from view, few who participated in the action realized that a moving picture scene was being taken.

"You don't love me any more. When we were first married you used to help me wash the dishes every evening."
"Sure—but we only had two dishes then."

HAPPENINGS ABOUT THE 'PORT'

Rev. O. N. Chipman is about to begin a series of Sermons on the Commandments. Last Sabbath morning his sermon was an introduction to this series, giving a description of the place where they were given, their effect on the national life of Israel, how Christ emphasized and magnified their importance in giving His commandment on "Love", and the manner in which they are kept and regarded by many of the present day.

Misses Pearl Lingley and Edith Zwicker spent a few days last week in Halifax. Mr. Kenneth Hibbert, of Halifax, spent Tuesday and Wednesday here on business.

Miss Mary Chase is boarding in Wolfville for the winter months while attending High School.

Herbert Johnson, of Church Street, is taking the Short Course at the Agricultural College, Truro.

Mr. MacDonald, of Toronto, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie at New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Gates have returned home after spending the holidays with their daughter Mrs. MaWhinney, of St. John.

Mrs. S. L. Gates is visiting relatives in Mass.

The public schools re-opened on Monday, Miss Wade (advanced), Miss Coleman (primary), having spent their holidays at their respective homes.

The regular M. M. A. S. was postponed on account of the severe storm of Wednesday to Friday when it will be held at the home of the President, Mrs. C. A. Campbell.

Mrs. Arthur Bezanson, of Cherry Brook Farm, has been confined to her bed with a severe attack of grippe.

Mr. Jas. Black and family have moved to the Jos. Starr house, Starrs Point, he being employed for the coming year by Mr. Harold Norton.

Miss Dewar, who is visiting her sister Mrs. D. Sutton, Church Street, spent Sunday the guest of Mrs. C. A. Campbell.

MRS. ELIZABETH STEADMAN

Kentville, Jan. 8—In the passing away of Mrs. Elizabeth Steadman Sunday night Kentville loses another of its oldest, best-known and highly esteemed residents. Mrs. Steadman was seventy-eight years of age and was born in Centreville, Kings County. She was the daughter of the late Stephen and Elizabeth North, and married Captain Edward Steadman who predeceased her some years. For the past nineteen years she has resided in Kentville, at the home of her only daughter, Mrs. Ralph H. Lamont, and during these years she has been beloved not only in the home but by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, her cheerful, sunny disposition, helpful spirit, and true Christian character winning for her many friends. She was a valued and consistent member of the Kentville Baptist church, and a constant attendant until failing health confined her to her home where she was lovingly cared for by her daughter until the end came.

She leaves to mourn their loss, her daughter, Mrs. Lamont, and three sons, Rev. Fred Steadman, missionary in Japan; William in Philadelphia; and Stephen in Kentville; also one sister survives, Mrs. Major Wheelock, of Beverly, Mass., aged eighty-five years.

WEEK OF PRAYER

furlough and residing in Wolfville, has done most effective mission work in India and is well qualified to discuss the subject selected for the meeting. His address was heartily enjoyed and most helpful. He said in part:

As a capitalist may for reasons of his own enter into a legal partnership with a bankrupt who is willing to accept him and thus become legally responsible for his debts, so Christ has become a member of mankind in such a way. He can legally bear the responsibility before God of those who by repentance and faith accept Him as their partner, and solemnly engage to work loyally with him for the salvation of men.

This great partnership with Christ places us under a powerful obligation to enter whole heartedly into the work of missions at home and abroad, in accordance with the "Great Commission".

Although imperfectly followed the Gospel of Christ has accomplished great things for our own race, advancing it from a state of barbarism to the place it now enjoys. As true fellow workers with Christ we should see that the message of Christ is preached in the most remote country districts in our own land, from which will crowd into our cities young men and women who will be the leaders in business and professional life a few years hence.

India, in which the speaker has spent more than a quarter of a century, is making prodigious strides in the way of education, literary and professional, manufactures, commerce, journalism, and self government. Christian missions in the face of tremendous obstacles have been winning their way and have been the means of transforming at least one large section of Hindu Society, and its influence extends over all. Ultimate success is assumed if the Christian church catches and maintains the viewpoint of Jesus, and are loyal and true as partners with him in his plans for the redemption of the world.

The service last evening was at the Church of England and there was a good attendance. Rev. R. F. Dixon, the Rector, presided. The subject was "International Relations and World Peace" and the speaker Rev. D. B. Hemmeon, who in a forceful address said in part:

There has been an increase of disruptive forces in the world in the form of passionate and fanatical attachments to the local and temporary. Sectionalism is one of the greatest menaces of the day. Everywhere the part is greater than the whole. This is seen in a narrowing nationalism, racialism, patriotism, capitalism, communism and denominationalism. If this process continues there will be another war.

The Great Powers should cease to exploit the weaker peoples for profit. They should loosen their hold as rapidly as possible on peoples that are developing the desire to govern themselves and give them independence. They should cease the struggle for trade privileges, raw materials, strategic zones, trade routes and gateways of commerce, and some way must be found by which each nation can get its share.

Something can be done—must be done, and every one of us can do something. We must reduce ambitious hatreds and rivalries.

First, by taking less pride in national wealth, territory and power which the Christian religion teaches are of secondary status, and more in the cultivation of the aesthetic, the intellectual, the moral and the spiritual—science, music, art and the graces of the spirit.

Second by re-writing and re-teaching history and putting the "war stuff" where it belongs and the real forces of civilization in the first place.

Third, by the spreading of information about the foreign affairs of the nation and insisting that the church check injustice by the government.

Fourth, by willingness to forego something of value. No peace can be either made or kept in any relation of life without the sacrifice of something dear.

Unless Christians in the church inform themselves, express themselves and deny themselves the church as it is to-day will pass from existence.
