RUSSIANS WIN BRILLIANT VICTORY

Germans Put to Disorderly Flight North of Warsaw

Steamer Dacia Seized By a French Cruiser || Inner Dardanelles Forts Are Silenced || Austrians Defeated In Eastern Galicia

The Blucher's Death Agony---The Most Dramatic and Wonderful Picture of the North Sea Battle.

This most remarkable photograph was made during the last moments of the doomed German cruiser Blucher, just a few moments before she capsized and sank, following the first battle between Dreadnoughts. With her machinery and armament shot into masses of twisted iron and steel, great fires raging forward, amidships and aft, the officers of the Blucher may be seen, a dark mass astern, standing arm in arm, ready for the end, while hundreds of the crew, either intentionally or unavoidably, slipped down the sides to the more merciful sea.

Despite the fact that German dirigibles hovered overhead, dropping bombs, the British cruiser Arethusa stood by to rescue such of the crew as might be found floating in the water after the Arethusa had fired the torpedo which settled the Blucher's fate. Having converted the great cruiser into a floating mass of junk, her decks an inferno, the British battle cruiser left her to the "mosquito" fleet and continued the pursuit of the other German battle cruisers, which had been caught in the North Sea, evidently bent upon another raid upon the English coast. The photograph of the dying Blucher was made by an officer from the deck of the Arethusa a few seconds after that vessel had discharged the fatal torpedo.

With hundreds of her crew dead and wounded, while hundreds more calmly faced death, the Blucher, after floating for a brief time on her side, keeled over forward. When the photograph was made the Blucher was afloat in a score of places. Her magazines had been exploded, her guns dismantled, her masts shortened and her machinery crippled. The Blucher's two funnels evidently had been shot away, for they cannot be seen in the photograph. The tripod foremast is seen to the right and just below, and to the left of it a six-inch gun is seen outlined against the sky. Aft the second turret, with its pair of 8.2-inch guns, is seen another 6-inch gun. Her armor belt runs as a black line for the entire length of the side. Evidently the booms which carried the torpedo netting had not been hit, although one forward had its fastenings shot away and is hanging. The others are in their usual places.

of perhaps ten minutes, she floated keel up, while several of her crew ran along the bottom of the vessel, and then disappeared from sight.

In the photograph some of the crew may be seen walking along the slippery bottom. One man climbed down to the bilge-head, from which a cataract poured, while others were sliding into the sea. One man jumped. Others may be seen swimming, dark spots bobbing about in the water. Many of these were stripped of their clothes, or had their garments burned or shot away. Many of them wore swimming jackets.

Dense white smoke is seen pouring from the hull amidships and heavy black smoke belching forth from

Brilliant Victory Won By Czar in North Central Poland on Przasnysz Front, Above Warsaw, and Cossacks Are in Effective Pursuit of Enemy.

By Frederick Renner.
Special Cable to The Toronto World.
PETROGRAD, Feb. 28.—Against the central German column in north Poland the Russians have delivered a sensational attack. The Germans held the line stretching 30 miles from Przasnysz to the east, and the Russian army, supported by motor traffic from Lodz, and Mlawa, had also westward to Plock, and southward to Nowe. Near Plock the Germans assembled a vast quantity of motor vans for a swift raid upon the Narwa, with the object of reaching the railway northeast of Warsaw, but the Russians, supported with a number of swift squadrons of swift light tanks, captured the position, the pioneer of this arm dashed within thirty paces of a German field battery and shot down the gunners, but he himself was killed and his adjutant, Prince Vatchnadse, was wounded.

Break German Line.
The Russian infantry repeatedly broke the German line, about half of which seemed to be composed of raw recruits and conscripts. They began to scatter and the afternoon in the groups. Some German officers were commanding.

Forcing of Dardanelles Is Continued Unchecked

French Official Statement is That Progress of Four Miles From Entrance Has Been Made and Batteries Successfully Bombarded.

PARIS, Feb. 28.—The ministry of marine has issued the following statement regarding the operations in the Dardanelles:
"The Anglo-French fleet continued methodically during Feb. 28 the operation of forcing the Dardanelles. The mine-dragging was effected without incident up to four miles from the entrance. Three battleships advanced in the strait as far as the limit of the dragging operations, and successfully bombarded the batteries, while a detachment which was landed and finished the demolition of the four forts which had been cannonaded and reduced the day before."

Turkish Capital is Transferred

LONDON, March 1, 1:25 a.m.—"According to diplomatic information received in Rome," says The Daily News correspondent in the Italian capital "the decision of the Turks to transfer the capital to Broussa, Asia Minor, was in direct opposition to Germany which wished the transfer, if made, to be to Adrianople."
"The prophet's mantle, together with all the important relics and treasures already have been removed to Broussa, where the sultan's harem also has been sent."

ALLAN LINE STEAMER SPRANG LEAK ON TRIP

Mongolian Arrives at Halifax With Loose Plates—Proceeded Under Own Steam.
Canadian Press Despatch.
HALIFA, Feb. 28.—The Allan liner Mongolian from St. John's, Nfld., for Glasgow, with over 200 passengers on board, arrived here today, leaking in the forepeak. Some of the plates put on at St. John's opened up and the ship sprang a leak. There was no great excitement on board, and the pumps were able to keep the water in check. Altho the Mongolian came into port under her own steam, the U. S. coast guard steamer Seneca stood by her.

Furs Will Surely Be Higher Priced Next Season.

Now that the closing days of Dineen's big fur sale at 150 Yonge street are announced it would be well to take a definite step towards a purchase if you wish to make what will be one of the most profitable and soundest investments possible. Every indication points to higher prices on next season's furs, and you will find no values to compare with those now offered at Dineen's. No cut prices on furs of this high grade can compare with those offered at this well-known house now. There's positively no time for delay, and your inspection will reveal bargains without parallel.

Neutral Powers Notified That Rigid Embargo Is Now in Effect, and That All Kinds of Shipping Is Barred.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.
LONDON, Feb. 28.—In the house of commons on Monday formal pronouncement will be made of the allies' intentions concerning German commerce. It will constitute one of the most important pronouncements of international law in history, upstating Germany from accepted principles. Urgent necessity, and Germany's departure from accepted principles will be cited as justifying the unusual and momentous course. There's no question but that the government will have the enthusiastic support of the nation as well as the other allies, and when protests from neutrals come, as they surely will, the allied nations will present a united front, insistent upon having their hands free to deal with the unscrupulous enemy as they think best. There are indications that in announcing their policy they hold themselves at liberty completely to stop German commerce. England and France are not only threatening to follow that course, but fully intend doing so.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Feb. 28 (Midnight).—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Athens says:
"The allies have disembarked detachments of artillery near the destroyed Dardanelles forts and British and French flags are now flying over them."
"The fleet continued a bombardment of the inner forts yesterday afternoon. A powder magazine was blown up. There were numerous victims. The fleet had reached as far as the light-house near Fort Kilita Bahr. The forts on the European side have been reduced to silence. Mine sweeping operations continue."
"There are 50,000 Turks on the European side and 15,000 on the Asiatic side."
Ferry Warships Advanced.
The allied fleet on Friday fired a huge salvo at the Bosphorus forts, says a despatch from the Athens correspondent of the Havas Agency of Paris. The message continues:
"The British fleet discharged its guns at a distance of 18 kilometres."

PROPOSED INCREASE IN FARES OPPOSED

North Toronto Ratepayers Think It Complicates Radial Question.

PASSED RESOLUTION

Property Commissioner to Be Asked to Install Public Scales.

Whether it would be a wise proceeding or not to assist in the organization of a Women's Ratepayers' Association, on account of the possibility of their becoming entangled in a question that provided a humorous thirty minutes at a meeting of the North Toronto ratepayers in the town hall, Saturday night. The discussion was the outcome of a communication from the Toronto Local Council of Women, in which they requested the support of the men in the district of a Women's Association in the district. D. D. Reed immediately announced himself favorable to the proposal and hinted at possible achievement.

W. G. Ellis stated that he was opposed to the proposition. Dr. Evans pointed out that the Women's Suffrage Movement was to some extent allied with the Council of Women, and warned the ratepayers to guard against entanglement with the question.

"The legislature recently turned down a motion of mine as to why should we run the chance of becoming mixed up in it?" he said.

Mr. Thorne suggested that a lady might be invited to address the meeting on a ladies' night, which it is proposed to hold shortly.

Alderman Risk stated that it would be a simple act of courtesy to allow a lady to address the meeting.

It was decided to adopt this course.

The main business of the evening was commenced when D. D. Reed introduced a motion of opposition to the increase in the civic car fares. He stated that if the ratepayers acquiesced in the increasing of the fares to three cents, they would be playing into the hands of the York Radial Railway Company, consequently pre-judging their chances for better arrangements with them. He declared that there should be a single fare to all parts of the city, but as the matter stood he urged the members to oppose any increase in fares on the city car lines. "Seconding the motion," Frank Home stated that if the city could not give a better fare to the city the least they could do would be to refrain from any increase of rates.

W. G. Ellis also opposed the proposal, contending that the money which is being expended by the city on its commercial enterprises such as the building of a boulevard round Toronto could be used more expeditiously on smaller matters, such as the civic car system.

Deficit the Reason.

Alderman Risk stated that he could not agree with the members to the raising of the fares is contemplated to do away with one of our many defects, and that the raising of the fare would be a great undertaking should be made to pay over a cent of their cost. He called attention to the fact that many of the people who travel on civic cars are not ratepayers in the city in connection with the fact that in his opinion the fares would have to be increased, and advocated a two and a half cent fare on 10 tickets for 25 cents. "If we do not raise the fare, the feeling in the city is so good to civic car lines," he said.

Dr. Evans stated that he did not oppose the increase in fares, but that the alderman should stand out for the lowest fare possible.

On a vote being taken Mr. Reed's motion was carried by 8 to 6. A number of members refrained from voting.

The matter of public scales being installed in North Toronto was brought forward by F. Howe.

"The nearest weighing station is at Tannery Hollow, and much inconvenience is caused in this locality through the absence of scales."

The secretary was instructed to write Property Commissioner D. Whitcomb in this regard.

It was decided to have a ladies' night shortly, at which Fares Commissioner Chambers and Kenneth J. Dunstan of the Bell Telephone Company will be requested to deliver addresses. A musical program will also be arranged.

J. A. Carson, a visitor from the district south of Bloor street, presented his views regarding the Metropolitan problem. He stated that he had interviewed Managers W. H. Moore and C. L. Wilson and that they were willing to sell the section within the city limits, provided the radial was given running rights over the double tracks, for which it was willing to pay a rental to be fixed by arbitration. He urged that a deputation go down to the city council and ask that the city request the company to state at what price they would be willing to sell.

William Mills, 138 Nairn avenue, Earlscourt, has received information from his brother, Austin Mills, in Birmingham, England, of the serious wounds of his brother Austin, a private in the Garrison Artillery, in the trenches of northern France. He is present at a French hospital. The extent of his injuries is yet unknown.

Mills has been for many years with his brother in Earlscourt, and was connected with the police force in West Toronto during the time of the C. P. R. strike seven years ago.

Thousand Passengers During First Week on New Civic Line.

The Bloor street civic car line has now its regular stops placed at every corner or intersection of the route. ## EARLSCOURT RATE ABOUT CAR FARES

President of B. I. A. Claims Increase Would Be Rank Injustice.

"I believe it is a downright injustice to the people of Earlscourt to raise the fare on the 3rd Clair avenue civic cars, as recommended by Works Commissioner R. C. Harris," said President H. Parfrey, B. I. A., yesterday to the World. The civic cars were supposedly inaugurated for the benefit of the working people, and to be a burden upon them, Toronto's civic car system, run by the people, and was not meant to be an imposition on the people. It seems to be a point with the authorities at the city hall to place the burden of taxation always on those least able to bear it. Many of these who will have to foot the bill are now numbered among the ranks of the unemployed. These are compelled to (if only occasionally) to go into the city to seek work, and how can it be expected that they will be able to meet the increase?

Heavy Blow.

"The average wage of the residents of the section upon whom the full burden will fall, is not more than $10 per week, and in most cases a large family has to be provided for from this poor pittance. One of the pledges exacted from alderman aspirants in wards five and six before last election, was that they would oppose any attempt to raise rates on the civic cars. Considering the agitation which arose at a recent attempt to inaugurate a five-cent fare, it should have been sufficient to enlighten the civic officials as to the opposition which would arise should any further attempt be made in that direction. Recently the people voted for a car extension on Lansdowne avenue, between St. Clair and Royce avenues. Does Works Commissioner Harris imagine that people will pay three cents for so short a ride?"

May Walk.

"It is already rumored through the district that should the commissioner's recommendation be adopted, the people will walk as they threatened one before. Petitions and resolutions from the aldermen in the north-west section of the city will be immediately presented to the council," said Mr. Parfrey in conclusion.

Asked if he was in favor of an advance to meet construction charges, he said: "The working men's fares should under no consideration be tampered with, but the excess committee should be levied on passengers using the cars during the day time."

At the meeting of the executive committee of the Northwest Mutual Aid Association will be held tomorrow evening in Hugh J. Macdonald's office, 514 St. Clair avenue.

CENTRAL'S BLESSING

A. H. Birmingham Says That Association Can Call Convention.

The controversy which has for some time past been claiming the attention of Conservatives in the eastern section of ward one was in all probability brought to a satisfactory conclusion last Saturday afternoon at a meeting of the East York Federal Association in Snell's Hall, East Toronto.

James A. Norris, president; J. R. L. Starr, 1st vice-president and A. H. Birmingham, secretary of the Central Association, were present and declared that they had power to call a convention for the selection of a candidate for the Dominion Parliament.

This declaration resulted in the unanimous adoption of a resolution introduced by F. M. Baker of the Beach Branch, to the effect that a conference of the executive committees of the Central and East York Associations be held with a view to the settlement of the trouble now existing in the riding.

Meeting Not Packed.

Dr. H. W. Burgess refuted statements alleged to have been made at a recent meeting at Norway that the first meeting of the East York Association had been a packed one. He contended that many members of the unit were not present, and that the meeting simply thru an error on the part of one of the orderlies, a matter which should be discussed," he said.

BRITAIN DECIDES TO STOP SHIPPING

Public Announcement of Reprisals Against Germany Expected Today.

TERMS TO BE GENERAL

No Special Articles of Commerce Will Be Mentioned in Note.

Public announcement of this action will be made early this week, probably Monday. The text of the declaration will set forth that this decision is necessary because of German submarine attacks, but that Great Britain and France will respect the lives of crew and passengers in any steps they may take.

The exact date carried by the declaration has not been announced, but it is probably Feb. 26 or 27.

Terms Will Be General.

No special articles of commerce will be mentioned in the British-French declaration. Cotton and foodstuffs, for example, will not be specified, but the terms will be general. The situation created will be entirely justified, according to the English view, because of Germany's unprecedented action in attempting a submarine blockade regardless of danger to the crews and passengers.

Shipping in the Baltic will not be affected except as Great Britain and her allies prevent supplies from reaching Norway, Sweden and Denmark for re-exportation to Germany. Holland, by making it prohibited to conform with the British embargo list and by the creation of the Netherlands interest trust—to which virtually all cargoes entering Holland are now consigned—the government guarantees that they will not be exported to Germany.

Similar Action Probable.

It is believed here that the Scandinavian countries doubtless will take similar action to ensure continuation of supplies for home use. While Denmark and Norway have repeatedly modified the lists of prohibited exports, their regulations for the prevention of re-exportation apparently have been unsatisfactory to Great Britain or the administration of the regulations has been unsatisfactory as regards have not moved to the Scandinavian countries with the same freedom as to Holland.

MANOEUVRES TODAY

Nineteenth Battalion to Parade and Proceed to Practice the Attack.

Vigorous training has been ordered for the second contingent this week. The infantrymen of the 19th Battalion in camp today, commencing work for the first time this morning, and are to be at it by 9.30 o'clock. Manoeuvres at Cedarvale have been arranged for the 19th Battalion. Orders are issued to parade at 9 this morning and to proceed to the district north of the city to "practice the attack."

Back at Exhibition.

The 160 men of the 19th Battalion who are on Strachan avenue on account of meningitis are now back at the battalion quarters in the government building. On Saturday afternoon they went with the other members of the battalion for a long route-march to a point north of High Park and returned by way of College street, Spadina avenue, King street and Dufferin street.

Hon. Captain Rev. J. Thompson, chaplain of the Artillery Brigade, preached at the Sunday morning service at the camp.

Major-General G. S. Durness, commandant, made a Sunday inspection at the noon hour of the quarters occupied by the Mounted Rifles, Artillery Brigade, Army Service Corps and the Army Medical Corps.

Twelve more members of the city regiment have been taken on the military police at the camp. Of these three belong to the 10th Royal Grenadiers; five, 4th Highlanders; one, Queen's Own Rifles; two, Missisquoi Horse, and one, Canadian Army Service Corps.

Continue Inspection.

Major-General Durness, inspector-general Eastern Canada, will continue his inspection of the units in camp today, commencing with the Divisional Ammunition Park at 8.30 a.m., and then the Divisional Supply Column, Field Bakery, Field Butcher, and the Canadian Cavalry Coy. Cyclists in the order named.

The order issued on Saturday afternoon prohibiting members of the second and third contingents from visiting at dwellings where cases of spinal meningitis have been known to exist, should be strictly observed.

Thirty-one members of families connected with the Anglican Church of St. Mary's, Toronto, are now at the front, and 20 more are training to go with the second or third contingents.

Secretary E. J. Dykes has organized a Second Contingent Chapter of the brotherhood of St. Andrew. The other contingents will take the name of St. Andrew's. The members of the new chapter will be members of senior or junior chapters in connection with their home churches in the second St. Andrew's Brotherhood military chapter to be organized Monday. The text of the declaration will set forth that this decision is necessary because of German submarine attacks, but that Great Britain and France will respect the lives of crew and passengers in any steps they may take.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER IN BROCKVILLE SOON

Line From Prescott Nears Completion and Big Radial Project is Talked Of.

Special to The Toronto World.—BROCKVILLE, Feb. 27.—The hydro-electric line from Prescott to Brockville is nearing completion and work is being pushed on the transformer station, which occupies a site convenient to the power house of the Brockville light and power company. The line covers a distance of 15 miles, running thru a rich agricultural district between the two towns.

It is believed that the power will be brought from Morrisburg, as the line from there to Prescott has been in operation for some months, and supplies Winchester, Oxtremville and Prescott. It is said that at Morrisburg there is not yet capacity to supply all the demands of the municipalities named, to say nothing of the rural requirements in the townships en route. The eventual source will probably be Chateaux Falls on the Ottawa River.

A radial railway from Toronto to Ottawa, thru Brockville, is spoken of in connection with the Chateaux Falls project, which is thought to be receiving the attention of Sir Adam Beck.

Brockville is becoming very impatient over the long wait for cheap power. In July of 1912 the ratepayers ratified a bylaw empowering the town council to sign the 50-year hydro contract.

Charles R. Green, 66, a prominent farmer of this vicinity, died suddenly at his home on Tuesday. He had recently disposed of his farm, with the intention of removing to Brockville.

RUNNYMEDE RATEPAYERS' GARDEN COMPETITION

Scheme May Be Extended to Include Vegetable Plots and Poultry Shows.

Speaking of the decision of the Runnymede Ratepayers' Association to award prizes for the best kept gardens in the district during the coming summer, Samuel Clouston, the vice-president, strongly recommends the cultivation of vegetables on every bit of available land. Garden produce, he maintains, will be scarce this year than formerly, and the scheme already proposed in the city and elsewhere, will be of practical aid in the relief of the unemployment situation and in the reduction of the high cost of living. It is possible, therefore, that the vegetable plot will be taken into consideration when the executive draws up the rules of competition.

It is also proposed by I. C. Woolner that the poultry keepers of the district should be recognized by the holding of periodic shows for the encouragement of breeders and fanciers.

CURED FIFTEEN YEARS AGO OF PILES AND ECZEMA

By Using Dr. Chase's Ointment—Certifies That the Cure Was Permanent.

Some people have tried so many doctors and so many treatments in their search for a cure for piles and eczema that they have almost given up. It is difficult to believe there is an actual cure.

The strong point about Dr. Chase's Ointment is that it not only brings relief promptly, but brings about actual and lasting cure.

In 1887 Mr. Ketcheson, 85 D'Arce street, Peterborough, Ont., was troubled for thirty years with itching piles and eczema. I could not sleep at night, and when I got warm the itching was terrible. Eczema covered my legs down to the knees, perfectly raw. I have tried every preparation I could hear of, but from this I received a permanent effect. A complete cure.

On Sept. 28, 1912, Mr. Ketcheson writes as follows:—"I received a letter from you to-day, saying that you found on file a statement made by me 25 years ago. I have always given Dr. Chase's Ointment a good name since it cured me, and shall tell you how I came to use it.

"I had suffered for many years from eczema and piles, and had tried doctors and everything I could hear of in vain. Reading about Dr. Chase's Ointment, I purchased it at once, and was soon completely cured. That was fifteen years ago, so there can be no doubt of the cure being a permanent one. I have met a great many people who have been cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment."

Canadian Press Despatch. WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The chancellor of the exchequer, David Lloyd George, made a pointed reference to the United States in a speech here today.

"Germany is triumphant over this country," he said, "she would be practically dictator of the world, and she would look to a chivalrous country to protect us—America?"

"If countries like France and Russia, with huge armies, and we, with the most powerful navy in the world, could not stop this terrible machine, how could America step in? It would be more than America could do to defend her interests in her own continent. America is unready more than we were."

The chancellor then took up the liquor and industrial questions. "The government has wide powers to deal with the drink question and it means to use them," he declared. He said a small minority of the workmen employed in the armament factories had refused to work a full week because of the lure of drink.

The government would use its powers discreetly and in a spirit of moderation, Mr. Lloyd George asserted, "but fearlessly."

He was sure the public would support whatever the government did to show no indulgence of this kind to interfere with the country's prospects in the war.

"The war," he said, "is to be won or lost by the engineers. We need men, but we need arms more than men, and every day of delay is full of peril to our country. For one reason or another we do not get the assistance we have a right to expect from our allies. Industrial differences are inevitable, but we cannot afford them now."

Cannot Tolerate Strikes. "It is intolerable that the lives of Britons should be imperiled for the sake of a farthing an hour. During the war governments should have the power of settling differences so that work shall go on. If men are entitled to money, they should be paid. It is not for us to believe the parties involved will refuse to comply with the urgent commands of the government that there should be no delay."

Expressing confidence in the outcome of the war, the chancellor said that the government of the country had realized yet the importance of the struggle in which they were engaged, and warned them that victory would not be won without a long struggle. He declared that while England had enrolled the largest volunteer army ever gathered in any country in any century it ought to be larger still.

SEVERE DEFEAT FOR RUSSIANS IN EAST GALICIA

Russian Force, Operating Thru Dense Woods, Falls Invincibly on Enemy.

ATTACK BIG SURPRISE Four Thousand Prisoners Taken by Czar's Men in Brilliant Encounter.

PETROGRAD, Feb. 28.—Following up their victory at Przrasnyz the Russians successfully repulsed a renewed attack by the Germans to regain this point, and inflicted a severe defeat on the Austrians on the Jasasivotz front in Galicia, capturing 4,000 prisoners and nine machine guns. This victory was won in a difficult forest fighting without artillery. The Russian regiments hacked their way thru the woods with their bayonets from the Tchet-Chva Valley. The Austrians were taken by surprise and were badly cut up. Their survivors fled to the hills.

In order to save their columns retreating from Przrasnyz the Germans brought up new reinforcements and immediately began a new attack upon that town. An all day battle raged for the possession of this point of vantage, but the Russians had possession of it when evening fell. The German forces that had partly re-occupied the town laid down their arms in large numbers. Important progress was also made by the Russians in other sections of this battlefield and in several places they forced the enemy to abandon his wounded and convoys, his flight was so hasty. The gallant action of the Russian soldiers who braved the German fire and resisted fatigue, received special praise in the official report. By Saturday evening the total number of prisoners taken was 45 officers and 4,000 soldiers.

Fierce Fight on Niemen. The battle of the Niemen is gaining intensity. It stretches from the left bank of the river to the Forest of Grodno and beyond, and is now thrown far in front of the fortified works. Attacks are launched by the infantry of both sides, supported by heavy artillery fire. Villages on the battlefield frequently change hands as the tide of combat ebbs and flows. The Russians captured a height with six German guns and several hundred prisoners, and also an ambulance which had fallen into Russian hands by Saturday night as the Muscovites made progress. The battle is still proceeding and the Germans slowly yielding ground.

Artillery duels for the possession of Ostelitz are still going on with the defenders making an effective reply to the German bombardment.

NEW PHASE OF WAR BEGINS. Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Feb. 28.—The Russian offensive operations appear to be present time to extend along the whole front, an indication that they have been able to bring very strong reinforcements into the field. They successfully checked the advance in north Poland, where the Germans are reported to be in retreat and their capture of Przrasnyz has given them an excellent pivot point from which to carry on their further operations. All the Petrograd correspondents refer to the capture of a large number of Germans as a new phase of the war and credit it to a lack of officers among the German armies and the large number of young untrained men who have taken the place of them.

The Russian line extends now to what is known as the Bzura-Rawka line in eastern Poland. Next to the Polish Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's attempts to advance on Warsaw in December and January. "Since the beginning of the war Gen. Brusseloff's army has captured 1900 officers and 138,000 soldiers."

CONSIDER INCREASE IN FREIGHT RATES

Railway Commissioners Will Hear Application of Eastern Companies Today.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE Not Known What Line of Opposition Will Be Developed to Proposal.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Feb. 28.—The board of railway commissioners tomorrow will begin its consideration of the application of the railway companies operating in eastern Canada for a general increase in their freight rates on various classes of general merchandise and commodities. It is not yet clear what line of opposition will be developed to the proposal. It is intimated, however, that the objection will be made to the fact that the increase is complicated in nature, and their incidence is difficult to ascertain. In the connection it may be contended that if the railways desire an increase in rates on the ground that war conditions have affected revenues, the increase should be in the nature of a "war advance," so that when war conditions have ceased to affect revenues the rates could be simply and easily changed back.

Railway companies will also be required to show why the increase in the international freight rates between Canada and the United States should be allowed to stand as filed with the board.

ARMORED MOTORS SILENCED BATTERY

Canadian Press Despatch. PETROGRAD, March 1.—An official statement describes Russian tactics in the recent fighting.

As a German battery to the south-east of Przrasnyz was impeding our offensive," says the statement, "Capt. Gourdoff sent several armored automobiles, under fire, in the direction of a hostile battery, and at a distance of 20 yards they killed all the gunners. Capt. Gourdoff was killed at the very moment his valor had turned the battle in our favor."

DAZIA SEIZED AS WAR PRIZE WILL BE SOLD

Steamer Loaded With Cotton for Germany, Captured by French Cruiser.

HER CARGO TO BE HELD Owners Must Sell or Deliver the Cotton Only to Neutrals.

Canadian Press Despatch. PARIS, via London, Feb. 28.—A French cruiser has arrested the American steamer Dacia in the channel and taken her to Brest. This announcement is officially made.

The announcement of the capture of the Dacia, which was issued by the marine department, gave no details, nor the name of the cruiser which took her under arrest.

The steamer Dacia left Galveston for Rotterdam on Jan. 21, with 11,000 bales of cotton to be transhipped to Bremen. It was fully expected at the time that the ship would be seized on her way to Rotterdam, as Great Britain questioned the validity of the recent transfer from German to American registry.

Representations were made immediately by the British embassy at Washington, questioning the validity of the transfer of the interned German vessel and it was generally understood that when the ship sailed she would be seized by British or French warships and taken before a prize court.

WASHINGTON VIEW. Officials Believe Seizure Was Result of Concordance of Action.

Special to The Toronto World. WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—As receipt in Washington of the news that the former Hamburg-American liner Dacia had been seized by a French cruiser and conveyed to a French port has caused the belief that the capture by a French war vessel instead of a British one was the result of a concordance of action on the part of the allies.

It is believed that the capture by the French disposed of one of the embarrassments of the part of the allies. It was pointed out that the capture by the French disposed of one of the embarrassments of the part of the allies.

The French prize court is expected to register the Dacia as a prize of war. The Dacia was transferred to American registry to escape the consequences of war.

After having completed the destruction of the forts at the entrance of the Dardanelles, the allied fleet of British and French warships, the greatest which has ever been in action, is now attacking the inner fortifications.

Apparently the outer forts could not withstand a great bombardment, and when they had been leveled and deserted by their defenders, men were landed from the ships to complete the work of demolition, while mine sweepers cleared a passage for ships in the straits.

On to Constantinople. More serious work is now ahead, for the all-important fortifications are at Kilit Bahr and Chanak, which guard the narrow part of the straits, which the fleet is now approaching.

There is no doubt, however, that the allied commanders have instructions to make their way to Constantinople in spite of all obstacles, and have been supplied with the best means for carrying out these orders.

The able, efficient Manager is the brains of many a business. He is the firm's greatest asset. But the death of that Manager destroys this asset and may create a liability which will wreck the firm.

Sometimes a business with moderate capital makes greater headway than one much better equipped in that respect. The secret of its success is its superior management. How necessary it is, then, that the firm should be protected against the loss of this most important factor.

The Canada Life way of doing this is well worth your earnest consideration. Its partnership policy takes the risk from the firm. We shall gladly send you particulars.

ALLIES' FLAGS OVER PORTS ENEMY DRIVEN OUT WITH GREAT LOSS

French Triumphed in Fierce Conflict Between Ypres and Menin.

RECAPTURED TRENCHES German Casualties Eight Times as Great as Those of French.

Canadian Press Despatch. PARIS, Feb. 28.—A description of recent fighting in the districts between Ypres and Menin, Belgium, is given in a despatch from the French official "eye-witness," made public Saturday. The message follows:

"The Germans prepared a great effort against our trenches at the Chateau Heeratte, on the road from Ypres to Menin, beginning with a violent shelling on Feb. 19, which struck by a Turkish shell and three more killed and five wounded. The British battleship Irresistible, Venegance, Cornwallis, Albion and majestic, each of which carries four 12-inch guns, and the Triumph which has four 10-inch guns, and the French battleships Gascogne, Suffren and Charlemagne, each of which carries four 12-inch guns.

Other vessels, including the French battleship Bouvet, and one of two British battle cruisers, are in the vicinity, to render assistance should it be required.

The Fort Dardanus, which the ships attacked Friday after the entrance to the straits had been swept of mines, is not far from the narrow, and it is probable that the big, and more important attack has begun by this time.

Reports from neutral Italian states say that the residents of the islands in the Sea of Marmora have been ordered to evacuate their homes, and that an imperial train is waiting to take the sultan to Asia Minor.

So far as Great Britain is concerned, however, the most important result of the initial success is the reduction which it has brought in the price of wheat, which has dropped two shillings a quarter.

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

SPRING MILLINERY NOW BEING SHOWN

Show Cases Contain Many Styles for the Coming Season.

ONLY FEW LARGE HATS

Medium-Sized Look Large Beside the Small Ones Seen Lately.

The March millinery openings are on. The exclusive up-town establishments and departments given up to the display of milady's chapeau in the downtown shops are one and all transformed into wonderful spring gardens.

In the review there are few large hats—and the medium-sized look large beside the pill-box and cap-like little affairs that perch in such a saucy manner on the side of femininity's well-dressed coils.

As for trimming, quality and the mode of employment is the keynote. There is no end of novel ornaments, cockades by the hundreds, little Union Jacks, tricolors and the national emblems of all the allied nations are fashioned from feathers, and are most attractive.

Flowers will be very popular trimming—especially small, close rose clusters in all the latest shades. Ribbon in many instances is the only ornamentation, while straw cordings are also very chic.

It Really Does Pay To Be Good-Natured

By WINIFRED BLACK

Copyright, 1914, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Did you see the man's will in the paper yesterday?

He was an old man and he had been ill for some time and alone a good deal, and when he died he left $50,000 to a homely little woman with four children and a mortgage on her house.

"I leave this money to this woman," said the will, "to pay her in some slight measure for being so good-natured, but I hereby warn her to be aware of fortune hunters and frauds."

"When I was ill and depressed," the will went on to say, "this woman's very good nature was a great help to me and I want to show her that I appreciate it."

And upon investigation it turned out that the woman was very poor and rather ill, and not particularly clever, and not in the least good-looking, but she had a gift of homely cheer about her that was like a streak of sunshine.

"Her house was old and tumbledown, and in the summer a wild morning story like a really new dress for years. I've seen her make over that one she's wearing now at least four times, and the trimming on that hat has been at the back and in the front and on the side for I don't know how many seasons."

The Geranium Woman.

"She had geraniums in the window all winter, and in the summer a wild morning story like a really new dress for years. I've seen her make over that one she's wearing now at least four times, and the trimming on that hat has been at the back and in the front and on the side for I don't know how many seasons."

"I do hope she won't get a new house and move out of the neighborhood."

Winifred Black

People up in the smart part of town wouldn't half appreciate her. They don't need her, we do.

All the old men and old women and all the little children and the babies and the widows and the bachelors—why even the dogs and cats down here know the little Geranium Woman—we couldn't do without her.

The man who left her the money? Oh, he lived next door.

Roomed there with a young couple who quarreled a good deal when they first came to this part of town.

They got over that before they'd been a neighbor to the Geranium Woman long.

"I can't imagine the neighborhood without her. I do hope she won't move away with her $50,000, the little Geranium Woman."

I wonder what she'll do with the money.

What Will She Do?

I hope she'll put it in the bank and just draw the interest on it, so she'll have plenty to make all the cookies she wants and turn them into lemonade with them now instead of plain water.

I hope she'll go on making over her hats and turning her dresses. She can never stay good-natured if she tries to follow the fashions of this year.

Dear little Geranium Woman: I wish she'd let me know when the house next door to her is vacant on either side, if either of them ever is.

I'd like to move down and live there next to her, and have her bring me a plate of cookies and sit on my back porch and tell me how to make the blue morning glories bloom at the right time.

Ways to Care for Your Ankles and Feet

BY LUCREZIA BORI

Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York.

Lucretia Bori

THE return of the ankle and foot to their normal state is a matter of some importance. The ankle is the joint which connects the foot to the leg, and it is the point of support for the body. It is therefore, one of the most important joints in the body, and it is one which is often neglected.

When the ankle is neglected, it becomes stiff and sore, and it is difficult to move. This is especially true in the case of the elderly, who often neglect their ankles and feet.

There are several ways to care for your ankles and feet. The first is to keep them clean and dry. The second is to keep them warm. The third is to keep them exercised.

Exercise is very important for the ankle and foot. It keeps the muscles and ligaments strong and supple. It also helps to improve the circulation of the blood to the area.

There are several exercises that can be done for the ankle and foot. The first is to sit on the floor with your feet flat on the ground. Then, with your hands on your ankles, pull them towards you. Hold for a few seconds, and then release. Repeat several times.

The second exercise is to stand on your toes. This helps to stretch the muscles of the foot and ankle. Hold for a few seconds, and then release. Repeat several times.

The third exercise is to walk on your heels. This also helps to stretch the muscles of the foot and ankle. Walk for a few minutes each day.

It is also important to wear comfortable shoes. Shoes that are too tight or too loose can cause problems with the ankle and foot. Shoes with good arch support are also important.

Finally, it is important to get regular massages for your ankles and feet. A massage helps to relax the muscles and improve the circulation of the blood. It also helps to remove any toxins from the area.

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

Dear Annie Laurie: I am a girl of 17. I have traveled a great deal, and have met a great many young men. My home is in a small town. A little over three years ago I first went with a young man who lives here. Last summer we quit, believing we would never go together again. After not speaking to each other for a year we started going to gether again.

More than once he told me that he loved me. I laughed at him. A few weeks ago I heard that he had been drinking. I asked him if it was true. He said it was, and that if it had not been for me he would not have done so. I asked him why, and he said because he thought I did not care, because I laughed at him. I knew that I must quit going with him, and told him. He said that I was doing right, that he was not gentleman enough to go with me. I cried right there before him.

If he should ever ask to go with me again do you think it best that I refuse, or should I trust him again?

Florence.

Yes, you did wrong when you laugh-

Secrets of Health

Of All Senses Common Sense Is the Leader

BY DR. L. K. HIRSHBERG, A.B., M.A., M.D. (Johns Hopkins)

HEALTH is the most frequent error held by those who accept the touch-an-go of everyday speech as actually correct, that there are only five senses in man, needs to be brought up sharply with the fact that there are, perhaps a score of them—and the end is not yet.

In a philosophical magazine for October, 1914, I observe an elaborate, transcendental thesis upon perception by a professor of a great university. Ostensibly from his degrees he might be rashly judged to have all the education and knowledge available to man. Yet he seriously announced that "the evolution of the human race will undoubtedly in the future develop a sixth sense."

Nature has not true enough, been either lavish or prodigal with the flesh in the endowment of the senses, yet to speak of a prospective sixth sense, or, for that matter of a 10th or 12th sense, is to put butter upon bacon, to employ a locomotive to crack a nut—experience and "facts."

When the eye, ear, skin, nose, muscles, joints, stomach or tongue is stirred up in certain ways—your ego, yourself, the personality, John, which differs from Jim or Jane—becomes aware of something else in the universe besides whoever "you" happens to be.

If you were utterly devoid of each of your score or so of senses you could not have such sensations as touch, feeling, squeezing, seizing, pushing, heat, cold, pain, addition, sight, taste, smell, ticklishness, hunger, thirst. Therefore, you would meet with disaster. You would be a mere inert mass, a real world other than you yourself. You could not escape a fire, an automobile, hunger, or any real danger. You would die a horrible death.

Sensations are merely unorganized perceptions. The latter are compound sensations full of memories which back to infancy—the only time you ever did have pure sensation. What you really experience, what you know, is really the response of your sensations or perceptions to the world around you, the environment, your surroundings.

That your likes and dislikes are after all made up of your sensations and restricted experience and habits of life is evident from the homely expressions about the sense of taste. "Every one to his taste" embodies this notion.

Using Your Judgment.

"Come, give us a taste of your quality." "She has execrable taste," such and various are the tastes of men that you must often wish many of them all sorts of prosperity and a little more taste.

Emerson put it sentimentally thus: "By doing his work he makes the need felt which he can supply. He creates the taste by which he is enjoyed. He provokes the wants to which he can minister."

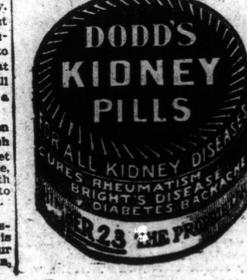

All the world and his wife submit that to have common sense is the golden calf of "self-made" men, is to have in your proud possession the key to Cashday. Far be it from me to rouse you from the panharmonic unanimity of the multitude. Nothing could be further from my thoughts.

With the exception of those great masses of humanity who are content with mind-bound lifelong habits, common sense is about the least thing a well man may have and remain sane. Over and above your common sense, if these are sound and vigorous there must be added reason, judgment, reflection, mental synthesis of many judgments, will, decision and action.

The will of man is truly by his reason swayed. When judgment and logic flies to British beasts, men may be honestly said to have lost their reason. Reason only comes after a man has had the experience of many sensations and perceptions. You compare one dog with another or a table with a chair, you are performing a kind of elementary reasoning. The conclusion you reach with regard to these simple propositions is your judgment.

Reflection comes by a comparison of more than one judgment with another. A decision between several judgments leads your will to direct your thoughts and action in a given direction.

Property Owners and University Graduates

Premier Hearst resorted to the fine old trick of replying to the woman's suffrage proposition that "it had not been proven that the influence of women for good would be enlarged by the possession of the franchise."

Not only is Premier Hearst illogical and silly in this matter, but he is incorrect. As far as the franchise has been granted in Ontario to women, it has been proven that the influence of women for good has been enlarged.

The only plausible thing Premier Hearst had to say to the deputation was that the government was too busy this session with war measures and revenue legislation, to deal with the matter.

The City Car Lines

Commissioner Harris has recommended in view of the substantial deficits on the civic car lines that the fares be raised to three cents or nine tickets for a quarter.

and eventual profits, and the immediate benefit of increasing taxation revenue from the districts thru which the cars pass, should bear part of the burden.

If the civic lines are to be entirely supported by the population of the city areas included since 1891, it is evident that these residents are not only making a gift of the civic lines to the rest of the city, but they are also contributing thru the street railway to the general revenue. It is admittedly a make-shift arrangement.

Forcing the Dardanelles

So important and far-reaching are the consequences attending the opening of the Dardanelles to the merchant ships of the allies that it is not surprising the British and French admiralties have undertaken the formidable task of forcing a passage.

It is of good augury that considerable progress has already been made in the forcing of the entrance from the Aegean Sea.

The narrowest part is between Sestos and Abydos, a little over twenty miles from the entrance, where the strait is less than a mile in width.

BATTLESHIP HIT BY TURKISH SHELL

Three of Agamemnon's Crew Were Killed and Five Wounded. HUGE GUNS IN ACTION. Queen Elizabeth in Attack on Dardanelles—Landing Parties Effective.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Feb. 26.—The admiralty announced last night that during the bombardment of the Dardanelles fortifications the battleship Agamemnon had been struck and that three men were killed. The announcement said, further, that the Dardanelles operations were still proceeding.

The new battleship Queen Elizabeth, one of the largest members of the British fleet, took part in the bombardment of the Dardanelles on Feb. 25. It is estimated in which 15-inch naval guns were used. The Queen Elizabeth, a vessel of 37,500 tons, has eight 15-inch guns.

The admiralty announcement says that landing parties went ashore from the allied fleet with their assistance three of the four forts at the entrance of the Dardanelles were completely demolished and the fourth was damaged badly.

Opened at Long Range. The admiralty statement follows: "The entrance to the Dardanelles was guarded by four principal forts, namely, Fort Orthogori, Fort Serrail, Fort Orkanah, and Fort Serrail. The forts were armed as follows: A, two 9.2 guns; B, six 10.2 guns; C, two 9.2 guns; D, four 10.2 guns and two 5.9 guns.

The weather having improved, although the wind was still from the south, the attack on the Queen Elizabeth commenced on Thursday morning (Feb. 25) at 10 o'clock. The Queen Elizabeth, Agamemnon, Irresistible and Gaulois began by deliberately bombarding forts A, B, C and D respectively at long range. Fort A replied. One shell at 11.00 a.m. hit the Agamemnon, killing three men and seriously wounding five. The Irresistible and Gaulois made excellent progress on forts C and D, while the Queen Elizabeth concentrated with great accuracy on fort A, putting both of its guns out of action by 11.30 a.m.

Warships Closed In. The Vengeance and Carnivale were then run in under cover of long range fire and engaged fort A at close range. The reduction of the fort was completed, while forts C and D opened a very slow and inaccurate fire. The Sufferer and Charlemagne next delivered an attack on forts C and D, advancing to within 3,000 yards of the forts. The Sufferer and Charlemagne were then engaged by the forts. The Vengeance, Triumph and Albion were then ordered in to complete the reduction of the forts. All four were reduced by 5.15 p.m.

Sweeping operations, covered by a division of battleships and destroyers, were immediately begun. The enemy set fire to a village at the entrance as darkness fell. Sweep Four Miles. A report has been received of the operations of Feb. 25. The straits had been swept up to four miles from the entrance. The Albion and Majestic, supported by the Vengeance, proceeded to the limit of the swept area and began an attack on Port Dardanus. Some new batteries which had been erected on the Asiatic shore. The fire in reply was ineffective.

Mrs. Newlywed Says:--

"I've heard of Eddy's Indurated Fibreware. What's the difference between fibre and woodenware?" "Fibreware is made from compressed fibre, baked at extreme heat. All in one solid piece, it cannot warp or fall apart. No chance of splinters. Wears much longer, looks better, and is light to carry. The latter point you should always take into consideration," concludes Mrs. Wiseneighbour.

COURIAN & SON'S GREAT ORIENTAL RUG SALE

As in the case of all artistic fabrics of great value oriental rugs give satisfaction from the genuine products of the skilled eastern workers who have established themselves in the confidence of experts and connoisseurs. Their popularity lends itself to the manufacture of goods that do not belong to this category, and it is therefore highly desirable that the public should rely in this respect on the guarantee of dealers of established reputation and business experience. Among firms in this class is Courian & Sons of Toronto whose great realizing sale will commence today (Monday) at 3.30 p.m. in the premises, 40 King street east, a few doors west of Toronto street.

This is beyond doubt the most important and representative public sale of high-grade oriental rugs that has ever taken place in this city. Moreover, it is a genuine clearance, necessitated by present business conditions. This stock has been selected for the highest class of retail selling and not for auction sale purposes, and purchasers can thus rely that every number cataloged is in stock because it conformed to the requirements of Courian & Sons' retail customers. As the sale will be conducted by C. M. Henderson, the dean of Canadian auctioneers, the public have another guarantee of the genuine character of this record-breaking clearance. Remember, 40 East King street is four doors west of Toronto street.

STOCK MARKET

FOR N. Y. STOCKS

Early Rally Gave Way to Irregularity With a Weak Close.

EXCHANGE WAS EASIER

Further Withdrawal of Gold From Ottawa Looked For This Week.

Canadian Press Despatch. NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Irregular price and moderate trading were the features of today's two-hour session on the stock exchange. The movement was upward at the outset, followed by general declines and an uneven close. Amalgamated copper was strongest of the active list, its rise being accompanied by rumors that large orders for the metal had been received. Other net gains were made in favorites, including U. S. Steel, the Pacific and coal, made only fractional gains.

Foreign exchange was easier, the rate for London being slightly under yesterday's final quotations, while remittances on Germany repeated recent low figures. It is expected that the coming week will bring developments of importance to the various markets for exchange. Further gold imports from Canada.

General Trade Improves. Weekly reviews refer to renewed expansion of business, particularly in the west. Retail trade in most sections is reported to be stimulated by the first indication of spring weather.

Change in interest included depositions of a probable by-law by our bankers. The amount mentioned was $100,000,000, which would be the form of treasury notes. A more liberal volume of operations there, especially in Americans was little more than a rumor.

The bank statement fulfilled expectations by showing few changes of importance. The bank volume was reported to be small, with a correspondingly light decrease in excess reserves. Anticipation that the bank would probably default on its bond interest and that receivership proceedings would be instituted had been little affected by reason of the fact that such action had been forewarned.

WHEAT BULLS IN THE ASCENDANT

Strong Rally in Both Options on the Chicago Market.

CORN WAS ALSO HIGHER

Oats, Too, Enjoyed an Advance on Urgent Seaboard Demand.

Canadian Press Despatch. CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—It was more on account of a change of feeling than because of a change of news that the wheat market today scored a substantial advance. Intelligence that 40 warships had forced a passage many miles up the Dardanelles did not reach here until after trading hours. Prices closed strong, 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents higher, and provisions 1/2 to 1 1/2.

Buyers ruled the wheat pit today from the start. Virtually all of the decline of the preceding session was overcome. The violent setback had apparently accomplished a drastic re-orientation of the market and had given fresh stimulus to export and milling demand. Sentiment favoring the bull side was also encouraged by the fact that Liverpool quotations failed to reflect fully yesterday's declines. There were besides continuing reductions in the estimates of the Argentine exportable surplus.

Russia's Governing Factor. Traders' opinions regarding the Dardanelles situation seemed a good deal to the view that as far as the wheat market was concerned the progress against the Turks at Constantinople to the extent that has been heard from was not to be taken seriously as implying immediate results. It was in accord with this theory that the highest prices of the day were in force at the close.

Shipping and export sales amounting to 800,000 bushels put the corn market on the up grade. All the major items were in a scramble to export. Rain and snow in the southwest formed a barrier to the export of the best wheat. Seaboard demand remained urgent as well as sales to foreigners, however, were reported.

In provisions the feature was a rally from early weakness. Grain strength finally gave the advance to the bulls.
