FORCE WEALTH CONSCRIPTION BY GREAT STRIKE IN CANADA

J. C. Watters, President of Trades and Labor Congress, Calls on Workers When Conscription of Manpower is Declared, to Offer Services to Nation Alone.

Ottawa, July 2.—In reply to a letter from the secretary of the British Columbia federation of labor, asking for a statement from J. C. Watters, the president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, as to the attitude labor should assume towards the conscription of man-power as provided for in the military conscription bill now before parliament, Mr. Watters, to-night issued the following statement: "The military service bill, now before the house of commons, is a measure which will be put into operation immediately it becomes law, or whether a period of time will be given for another effort to recruit the men wanted on a voluntary basis, whether there will be a general election, is yet too early to know with certainty. The fact of the bill having been introduced to the house makes the duty of every worker in the Dominion plain. States in Jeopardy. "If we concede of the prime minister that conscription would be resorted to only when it should prove the only effective method to preserve the existence of the state and of the institutions and liberties which we enjoy, we are driven to the conclusion that the existence of the state is in jeopardy. That being so, it means all the material wealth and natural resources of the state and all to protect and defend the state and all it implies is the need of the hour. "Man-power is not sufficient to itself, nor is material wealth, to protect and defend the state. Both are equally necessary. Man-power is useless without material wealth in the shape of land for the production of food supplies, mines, mills and factories for the production of fuel, munitions, war munitions and other necessary supplies and railroads for transportation of same, since men must be fed, equipped and supplied with munitions to be effective. It logically follows that to protect the state both man-power and material wealth must be conscripted and to do which both must be conscripted if necessary. "The prime minister has pledged that the whole power of the nation shall be consecrated to the task of winning the war. The whole power of the nation is not limited to man power, which in itself is useless, but to the material wealth of the nation as well. I am strongly of the opinion, then, that the greatest and most patriotic service we can render to our country, our motherland and our allies in the struggle to preserve our liberties and our democracy is, on the day of conscription of man power is put into effect, to implement the pledge of the prime minister by forcing the government to conscript material wealth through every worker in the Dominion refusing to work for the gain of the private profiteer and offering his services to the nation and offering his services to the nation, and the nation alone. In other words, not a wheel of industry would turn save only for the nation in its hour of need. Not a mine, railway, mill or factory necessary to be operated for the profit of the owners of such, but solely to protect the nation. "I strike is necessary to bring it about."

Forty Millions In a Single Contract Let by Great Britain.

Between $50,000,000 and $60,000,000 a week is being spent in the United States by Great Britain. The total average daily war expenditure of the Mother Country is over $55,000,000. One contract placed in the United States in a single day totaled $40,000,000. Such figures stagger the imagination. But they are not peculiar to Great Britain. Canada with a population of only eight millions has added more than $50,000,000 to its national debt since the war began. It is estimated on good authority that another $600,000,000 will be required this year.

Pte. T. C. Thompson of Brantford Awarded Military Medal for Bravery.

A party of 129 returned war heroes arrived back in Toronto yesterday, and were received with great enthusiasm by hundreds of their relatives and friends. The band of the Queen's Own Rifles and a reception committee, which included Hon. W. D. McPherson and Mayor Church, also took part in the welcoming ceremony. The contingent of returned men included 75 Torontonians. Through an error, the published list of the soldiers expected contained the names of about a dozen men who were not in yesterday's party. This resulted in a number of families being on hand at the North Toronto station to welcome soldiers who failed to appear, while a number of other war veterans arrived who had no one to greet them, and they had to make it a surprise homecoming.

After being reunited to relatives and friends, the returned men were conveyed to the Spadina Military Hospital and officially welcomed back by representatives of the province and city. Those extending the official welcome included Hon. W. D. McPherson, Mayor Church, Ald. Ryding, Ald. Gibbons, W. Banks, sr., Tom Stevenson, Canon Dixon, J. L. Walsh, Dr. Thornhill, Sergt-Major Geo. The ideal behind the movement is to provide safe, healthy and instructive recreation for the large number of Toronto children who have no means of a change from their hot summer. The two hottest months of summer. The total enrolment last year was 680, with an average attendance of 323 per day.

It is estimated that the schools cost $1 per head for each child attending; this cost is met by contributions of voluntary workers are in charge of classes in clay modeling, hammock and baseball making, rug weaving, and various kinds of sewing for the girls.

Dressmaking is to be a feature of the girls' work at Memorial Institute, the pupils hoping to appear at the school closing end of August in dress-making which will be entirely made by themselves.

So popular is this centre that the overflow of junior members will meet at the school on the evening of putting the roadways in shape. "It is very strange that we can provide rural road from Toronto to Hamilton and we cannot do anything for ourselves," said Ald. Ball.

Commissioners Bradshaw and Harris stated that they would not use the money for the work, it would cost $20,000 to improve the road. Mayor Church was in favor of appropriating $10,000 for the work, "We can't fix roads up with prayers," he said. At a private meeting of the board, commissioners and the city solicitor discussed the discussion of the remuneration allowed city employees for active service. It was decided that regardless of former policies every man should receive from the city the difference between his civilian and his civic pay. The increase granted to civic employees this year were made to apply to employees overseas.

WOULD HOLD TAG DAY FOR BLIND SOLDIERS

Police Commissioners Delay Decision Until War Veterans' Association is Heard From. Request was made by a number of women to the police commissioners yesterday afternoon, for the aid of the blind soldiers, but as the commissioners are expecting a similar request from the Great War Veterans' Association, the matter was held in abeyance until the association is heard from.

CITY HALL NOTES

On the suggestion of Controller Cameron the board of control will consider the question of reorganizing the Firemen's Benefit Fund at the next meeting.

Toronto yesterday received an offer of 2,000,000 tons of coal for two years and are available for a grant of $5000 to the fund for the relief of British prisoners in Germany.

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a special meeting of the city council to authorize the board of control to conduct the city's business during the vacation period.

Finance Commissioner Bradshaw will report to the board of control on the amount of $5000 to the fund for the relief of British prisoners in Germany.

Payment of $2600 to the estate of G. H. Palmer for about 8000 feet of land on Howard street, expropriated by the city for the Blue street viaduct has been approved by the board of control.

The board of control has turned down the recommendation of the parks committee to tear down the clubhouse at 400 Broad street.

E. W. Trent of Chapman's Limited, sent a bill for $5 to the board of control yesterday for loss of time in waiting at the city hall from 10.30 am to 11.45 am on June 28 for tax bills, but payment was refused.

After an inspection of the work of the construction of the dormitory building at the jail farm City Architect Pearce and Property Commissioner Chisholm will probably advise that the city take over the contract as it is away behind schedule.

In the official test for the new incinerator on Wilton avenue, the three Sterling furnaces exceeded their guaranteed capacity by from 100 to 150 per cent, and the city accordingly has paid over the contract price, $49,500 less five per cent, which will be retained to provide for any damage or dissatisfaction arising during the year. The plant is in full operation.

WILLS PROBATED

Vegetables Are Making Wonderful Growth in Field and Garden. APPLES TO BE SCARCE

Light Draught Horses Are in Demand at Increased Prices.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture issues the following report on farm conditions for week ending July 2: Hay crops are coming forward most encouragingly, and are already promising well for straw; fall wheat and rye are heading out nicely. Timothy and clover promise an average yield in most sections of the province. The yield of alfalfa will be large, but the unusually late mowing with by rain. The first cutting of sweet clover has been also reported.

Spring grains are coming forward most encouragingly, and are already promising well for straw; fall wheat and rye are heading out nicely.

Timothy and clover promise an average yield in most sections of the province. The yield of alfalfa will be large, but the unusually late mowing with by rain. The first cutting of sweet clover has been also reported.

Risks are promising well, especially those sown early. Mangolds are getting their first hoeing; but turnips are unusually late. Potato plants are flourishing, with early varieties nicely in bloom.

Vegetables have been making a wonderful growth, both in field and garden. Early carings particularly are doing well. Beans, however, are being attacked in Norfolk and elsewhere by the corn seed maggot, and serious infestations of the unusually late sown acreage which has been planted this year.

Live Stock. Horses are in demand at increased prices, especially light draughts generally is now counted on. Pears have done somewhat better. Cherries and small fruits will be plentiful.

Cattle are doing well on grass. Beef animals are selling at from 9 cents to 12 cents per pound according to quality and nearness to shipping points. Many farmers are looking for stock early, and have purchased Shorthorn males held in the province during the week attracted many buyers from a distance. In one case the forty animals of the herd commanding $3600, and one of the finest dams her calf bringing $1750. At the other end of the herd, a cow averaging $780, the best bull bringing $2600 and the favorite cow $2025.

Hogs are in steady demand at from $1.25 to $1.45 a cwt. In the Province of Ontario are relatively at wool bringing 76 cents a pound. All fodder except hay is more or less scarce, most farms having a lack of oats.

Labor: There is an increasing demand for farm labor, owing to laying and hoeing having begun but the supply is short, as men experienced in such work are hard to find. Inquiries are being made for men who have fair satisfaction in spring farm work.

Henderson as business manager of the separate school board, was the "best thing" work for the board for many a long day, was declared by Dean Hand, chairman of the board, following the regular monthly meeting of that body last night.

The committee providing for the appointment of Mr. Henderson with a monthly salary of $150 to supervise details concerning the assessment, physical part of the schools and general business affairs, was proposed by Mr. McGrand. An amendment providing that the matter be held over for consideration was proposed, but was lost by a vote of 6 to 5.

The late Salvation Army officer had a long and interesting career in the organization. In England he had charge of some of the Army's largest corps and was also a divisional officer. He came to Canada in 1907 and had done excellent service as a divisional commander at Hamilton and Vancouver. His last appointment was that of candidate's secretary at the Toronto headquarters. His wife and daughter, Minnie, survive him.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY AT SALVATION CITADEL

Fifty-Three Salvation Army Cadets Commissioned at Gathering in Headquarters. Impressive ceremonies marked the commissioning of 53 cadets of the Salvation Army by Commissioner Richards before several hundred people last night in the temple at James and Albert streets. Eight of the 53 cadets were unable to attend, and the forty-five present were called by the commissioner and informed of the work to which they had graduated, in the training college. A number of the cadets will take a special training course in nursing work. Owing to the large number of male members who have enlisted with the expeditionary force the training school did not conduct a cadet class for young men. During the evening Commissioner Richards announced that twelve new stations would be opened through Canada. In his charge to the new officers Commissioner Richards read from the second and third verses of the fourth chapter of Zechariah. He held a candlestick all night, with a bow upon the top of it and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven nations, which are upon the top thereof, and two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl and the other upon the left side thereof.

The seven candlesticks, he said, may be taken to represent the responsibilities, powers and experience of the life of a Salvation Army officer. They mean knowledge, revelation, sympathy, sacrifice, love to God, love to mankind, and adoration. Several of the places where new stations are to be opened have already been taken in England. Hamilton will have four, London three, Peterboro two, Windsor two, while quarters will be taken up for the first time at Trenton, Nova Scotia, Walkerville, Clarke Harbor and Liverpool, Nova Scotia, Puywash and Odesa.

Brigadier Bell, principal of the Sherburne street school, gave an outline of the training work and announced that, aside from the regular work, $6888 had been raised for charitable work.

SALVATION ARMY OFFICER DEAD

Brigadier William H. Green Had Held Many Important Positions Here and in England. SCARCITY OF COAL NOW THREATENING

So far as can be learned the railway board and the Dominion Government have taken no such action regarding the coal shortage in Canada.

In an article dealing with the record-breaking coal shortage in the United States and Canada, which in April amounted to 145,449 freight cars, the latest issue of the Toronto Board of Trade News contains the following:

Toronto business men say that the coal movement could be greatly expedited by the board of railway commissioners taking the necessary steps to assure the prompt return of American equipment instead of allowing it to be diverted for the local movement of crushed stone and building material, as is the present practice.

No Reduction Here. Toronto dealers are now inclined to the opinion that the reduction in prices mentioned last week will not affect Canada at all.

"It would appear," said a dealer, "that it is a case of the United States first and that Canada was not even mentioned at the conference of operators. What has the fuel controller done? Has he secured anything more than a vague promise from Frank Peabody, chairman of the fuel production committee, the powers of which body if it has any, are likely to be canceled or changed by the present Baker-Lane cabinet."

It was pointed out that while France and Italy were securing vast amounts of coal, no arrangements have apparently been made between Canada and the United States for an adequate fuel supply.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 4.

The Fourth of July.

Uncle Sam's 41st celebration of the glorious Fourth of July will be the greatest ever. The great United States as a constituted nation is thirty-four years older than the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and upstart governments like the German Empire, which only dates, like the French Republic, from 1871, have no standing beside their venerable uncle, Russia's infant republic and China's undecided ruler are too recent to compare with the vigorous centenary of the Stars and Stripes. Japan among the great powers is the only one that can produce a respectable antiquity for its flag. So Uncle Sam has much to boast of in the way of age and reputation.

In some other respects Uncle Sam has room for pride. His population is over 103 millions by latest computation, and the millipaire nations are not numerous. China and Russia are larger, and the British Empire with India runs China close. In wealth Uncle Sam also claims a great pre-eminence. The total wealth of the United States is placed at $230,000,000,000. This is nearly double the wealth of the British Empire, which is $180,000,000,000. Germany, Austria and Turkey combined could buy only a twenty per cent. interest in Uncle Sam's estate.

These are the things we thought about a year ago when we turned our minds to Uncle Sam and his affairs. Today it is different. We are not concerned now about his wealth nor his possessions, but about himself. He has hesitated long, and it is not altogether clear why he did, nor why he ceased to hesitate, because many earlier opportunities offered when he might have changed his mind. But the great thing is that he was magnanimous enough to change it. It was a great hearted and a great minded action, and the world will probably not be aware for a long time to come how much it owes the United States for what it has set out to do.

There is no doubt that the nations were growing war weary. They had about exhausted their storge batteries of the dogged cheerfulness with which they had stuck out these three years of murderous war. It won't be so difficult to face the fourth with Uncle Sam in the ranks.

The effect on Russia directly and indirectly has been wonderful. Mr. Root, who went to Petrograd on a special mission, has evidently been able to exert some influence. The appeal of the war minister, Kerensky, was certainly heartened by the support of the great western champion of freedom. The moral effect of the adhesion of the United States to their cause was highly stimulating to France and Great Britain. It was like the closing of a great breach thru which the flood might have burst at any moment. When the flood bursts now it will flow in another direction. It is Germany which must strengthen her broken walls.

Their necessary fuel will be forthcoming at reasonable prices. The big coal operators have had information that at a time when the social world is in a state of combustion the occasion is not one in which to dwell too tensely on the amassing of wealth. In less strenuous, less dangerous times wealth may be regarded as a legitimate extract from citizens under pressure, but when they are to be requisitioned for their blood and perhaps their lives, it is ill-timed to go after their money also.

We are not sure that this view has been disseminated in Canada yet, or that the government has been fully seized of the important place it holds in the mind of most citizens. The prices fixed by the United States Government mean that the coal operators will take in $190,000,000 less this year than last. On a similar reduction in Canada, not less than $15,000,000 would be saved to our people. They would pay $16,000,000 more taxes with a better grace if they could save that much off their coal bills.

In very few places in the United States will coal be more than $3 a ton at the mines. Middlemen's profits are placed at 25 cents, and to this has to be added freight, cost of handling and delivery. There is no reason why coal should be more than $7.50 in Canada, if so much, if the government was doing its duty.

Labor and Conscriptio.

Editor World: Referring to the press reports concerning the statements made by Mr. Verville and other "so-called labor leaders," that the Canadian organized labor movement would call a general strike if the conscription bill became law, permit me to point out a few salient facts.

In the first place, I am absolutely confident that as far as the Province of Ontario is concerned, a general strike could not be brought about, as much as the organized labor movement in the first place is not yet sufficiently educated in the principles of mass action.

In the second place, there is a wide divergence of opinion in the organized labor movement itself on this matter of conscription, and it would be wise if the powers that be at Ottawa were to take the trouble to become cognizant of their expressed opinion before they enacted a conscription bill in order to avoid as much friction as possible.

There are, of course, several extremists in the labor unions who are opposed to conscription under any and every circumstance. They, rightly or wrongly, do not matter here, claim that conscription is the beginning of democracy, and any democracy that makes conscription part and parcel of the economic life of its members comes by that act to be democracy, and becomes a bureaucracy.

For corroboration of this view permit me to point out that this conscription discussion has produced travesties like Baron Atholstan of Huntingdon, erstwhile Sir Hugh Graham, who has had the audacity to suggest that the hands of the clock be set back to the fifteenth century by the abolition of the secret ballot. If, then, in order to snatch a majority vote in favor of conscription it is necessary to hark back to the old feudal methods, what becomes of all the trials, all the sufferings and all the hardships of our forefathers? But by far the largest proportion of the members of the organized labor movement are opposed to conscription on the following grounds.

Permit me first of all to demolish the argument that is now being urged by some of our Ottawa demagogues that inasmuch as a large percentage of organized men are now in the trenches, therefore the organized labor movement is favorably disposed towards conscription. Q.E.D.

Statements like these are misleading and fundamentally wrong, for my experience has taught me that those of our members who might have favored conscription are now in the trenches, and those who are yet in Canada are those who have other views.

These views I now propose to lay before you, hoping that some of our representatives at Ottawa may read and inwardly digest. The fundamental principle upon which the organized labor movement has been constructed is the principle of collective bargaining. Therefore any legislature that is calculated to infringe upon this right—not privilege—must of necessity meet with the organized opposition of the entire labor movement.

Now to what extent would conscription infringe upon this sacred right of collective bargaining? This question can be answered very easily if we examine industrial conditions now obtaining in Great Britain. A close scrutiny of British conditions reveals the fact that militia conscription has an aftermath, viz. industrial conscription, and that this industrial conscription must inevitably follow military conscription as the letter "U" must follow "Q." There is no exception to either of these rules. Industrial conscription as it exists today in Great Britain would entirely rob the organized labor movement of the power of collective bargaining.

WHAT EVERY WOMAN MAY DO TO HAVE BEAUTIFUL ARMS

By LUCREZIA BORI
The Famous Spanish Prima Donna.

LUCREZIA BORI scrawny a r m e

beautifully rounded arms, a r m e following exercise is recommended by authorities on physical culture:

Clasp or hook the fingers of one hand in those of the other, one hand being palm downward, the other palm upward. Raise the elbows shoulder high and move to the left, dragging the right arm slightly and gently rub it into the skin. If you desire to hasten the plumping process, bandage your arms at night. It will take only a few minutes, and the results will be most gratifying.

Easy to Bandage.
Take several strips of old linen, four inches wide and soak them in the oil. Wrap them firmly about the arms, but not tight enough to interfere with circulation. It is important to cover the wrapped arms with oiled silk if you wish to keep the oil from staining the bed linen.

Before applying the oil it is well to mop the arms with hot water from the wrists to shoulders. The object is not only to cleanse, but to open the skin and to open the pores so the surface will be in a condition to absorb the nourishing oil. The arms should be thoroughly dry if any water remains the grease will not be absorbed.

If the arms are too fat they should be massaged by some one else. The flesh should be massaged with a wringing, twisting movement. Indian club exercises will make the arms graceful and supple without overdeveloping the muscles. Some arms lose much loveliness because the skin is coarse of texture. To correct this defect scrub the arms with a flesh brush; one with a long handle is preferable. Use warm water and a soap made entirely of vegetable oils. This scrubbing will stimulate circulation and open the closed pores. After thoroughly drying the arms apply:

A Softening Lotion.
Brain Tonic..... 1 ounce
Enough benzoin to moisten it
The juice of one lemon

The following preparation will make the arms appear white if your skin is naturally of an unattractive, yellowish color, and it will not rot on your dark dance frock or your black-coated partner.
Oxychlorid of bismuth..... 1 ounce
Rosewater..... 2 ounces
Apply this cosmetic to the arms with suggestions, if carefully followed, will help you to improve the appearance of your arms. Inasmuch as fashion has made it a point to have your arms gracefully shaped and as smooth and white as marble.

TO ENTER CIVIL COURTS.

Theft Case is Held up to Allow Differences to Be Aired.

Judge Coatsworth named August 22 as the date of the trial of W. J. Reid, on a charge of theft, to give Reid and the United Cigar Store an opportunity to air their differences in a civil case, yesterday.

Reid failed to fulfill an order to pay into court $221, representing the amount he is alleged to have stolen from the cigar store. A. A. Macdonald, who appeared for Reid, said credit should be given for the amount of his client's commission. Crown-Attorney Greer agreed to accept $170, but said Reid was defying the court and should be put in custody.

JUDGMENT GIVEN

Judgment was given Phil Davey, formerly of the Russell House by Judge Morson, in the division court yesterday, in the case of the Crofton Storage Battery Co., against Davey for $109.50, for repairs to a motor car.

Germany, the Next Republic?

By CARL W. ACKERMAN.

When Carl W. Ackerman went to Germany from the United States in 1915, he was asked by the German press correspondents, and tell them that Von Hindenburg wanted this thing or that thing done and they would do it without even a show of opposition. The attitude of the German people towards the massacre of women and children on the Lusitania, he says, was to commend the assassin for his bravery in striking an unarmed steamer and running away. They are so bloodthirsty that they demand a repetition of the Lusitania horror as often as possible. They made the commander of the submarine that sank the Lusitania a popular hero.

Mr. Ackerman regards the British blockade as pretty effective in reducing the quantity of foodstuffs available in Germany. The chancellor and the big merchants and military leaders, he says, own country estates, and so they have plenty of food for their own use, but the poor people have little. After eating a meal at one o'clock in Berlin, one is hungry again, and can eat another at three o'clock, so much the German food lacks nourishment owing to the absence of fats.

Persons who favor a food dictator will hardly become so enthusiastic about one when they read his account of the efficacy of the German food dictator in increasing the scarcity of food.

As to the mental condition of Germany, Mr. Ackerman says she is like one on the verge of nervous prostration. She has got to the point at which it was previously thought no nation could survive the strain, but she still continues to fight as hard as ever. The Kaiser and the German war leaders understand her diagnosis, and they keep her alive by promising speedy victory and by issuing false reports of victory. If Germany suffers a decisive defeat, she will collapse.

The Reichstag is also simply a rubber stamp to carry out the will of the German military leaders. After a conference with the general staff at the front,

Prince Mousie Grey.

Snap! went the trap door. Mousie Grey was a prisoner. "Now wasn't that a silly thing to do?" I should have known better. Well, so long as I'm here, I might as well get what I came after," said Mousie Grey. "Then your really matter whether I have anything to eat or not," replied Mousie Grey.

"Go I see, but I'm very hungry. This white Puss, bit of cheese thru the bars for me!" Mousie Grey took a big piece and handed it thru the bars to White Puss. "Mousie Grey, this is no reason why I shouldn't support it. This being my last supper, I don't really matter whether I have anything to eat or not," replied Mousie Grey.

"What steps the organized labor movement would take should conscription be enacted, and to read the signs of the times, the clouds are fraught with more than summer showers.

Each successive decade opens their eyes a little wider to the world's conditions. By subdividing their labor, their masters are unconsciously communicating their efforts. The very zest of mutual effort is teaching them their dignity. They are learning their craft, their castes, their grades and their distinctions are being inevitably reduced to their lowest common denominator and that lowest common denominator is man power or man power.

RAILROAD ENGINEERS OUT WITH STATEMENT

Men in the Cabs From Many States Declare Tanlac Conserves Health of Railroad Men and Makes Them Fit for Responsible Duties in Most Nerve-Racking Service.

Small, secretary of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, writing to the board of control in reference to the complaint of Thomas White regarding the use of closed cars during the summer months by the Toronto Railway Co., states that nothing can be done to meet the complaint, as the board has decided that the devil strip in Toronto is too narrow to permit the use of cross seats. # Buy According to Food Values!

"If we do not economize in food stuffs we stand a grave chance of losing the war."
Herbert C. Hoover,
Chairman of the Belgian Relief Commission.

WHEN you have nothing else to do with your money, it may be alright to spend it on extravagant food and out-of-season delicacies. But now—in this critical year of the war—there are more important uses for it!

Save it by purchasing economically—and to do this, study food values. You will be surprised to know how extravagant some supposedly cheap foods are, and how some that seem high are really more economical. These true values are brought out clearly in a new National Service pamphlet, "How to Live in War Time," which we will gladly send you on request.

Under present conditions careless buying is worse than wasteful. It encourages still higher prices, and makes conditions harder yet for the less fortunate who are already feeling the pinch.

Buy carefully for their sake—for your own sake—and for your country! Canada needs every dollar you can save and invest in Canadian War Savings Certificates. Buy these certificates at any Bank or Money Order Post Office, at $21.50, $43 or $86. In three years you will get back $25, $50 or $100, respectively—which means over 5% interest. Or you can get your money back at any time you need it.

The entire community of 80,000 persons is terrorized by the events of the last two days, and that they have little confidence in the ability of the guardsmen to cope with the situation, was intimated today when the chamber of commerce demanded to know from Adjutant-General Dickson, why the troops had not displayed more energetic activity last night in controlling the rioters. Members of the chamber did not hesitate to charge cowardice against the soldiers and indifference on the part of the police.

COWAN'S COCOA

"Perfection Brand"

"MADE IN CANADA"

We all appreciate tea and coffee, but after all, these beverages are merely pleasant, slightly stimulating drinks, with little or no food value. And you know, to your cost, how their prices are soaring!

The food value of Cocoa, on the other hand, is higher than even that of Beef Extract, Chicken Soup or Bouillon. In Great Britain this has been recognized for generations. Physicians recommend Cocoa as a great body-builder, particularly for growing children. Our soldiers swear by Cocoa and Chocolate as quick and ready sources of strength in times of extra strain or food shortage.

At the price your grocer will ask you for COWAN'S Perfection Cocoa and at the price this amounts to per cup, it is a most economical as well as a most delightful food-drink. For breakfast—luncheon—supper—or a bedtime snack, you'll enjoy it immensely, and if you use it regularly you'll notice quickly the benefit to your health.

Give the kiddies plenty of COWAN'S Cocoa at every meal—see their eyes sparkle—and watch them thrive! For confections give them COWAN'S Milk Chocolate and Maple Buds, they are really economical food!

When you serve COWAN'S, less of other foods is necessary, thus conserving the food resources of the country and at the same time, saving money.

We recommend that the money saved from household expenses be invested in War Savings Certificates, which the Government now offers at $21.50, paying $25.00 in three years time. Every dollar you save will help to win the war.

Cowan's Perfection Cocoa is sold by all Grocers in 5 lb., 1 lb., ½ lb., ¼ lb., and 10c. Tins.

Ask for Cowan's ACTIVE SERVICE Chocolate; just what our soldiers in the trenches appreciate. Specially manufactured to meet their needs.
