Charged With Attempt To Poison Whole Family

Developments In a Feud in Carleton County

JAS. TAPLEY ARRESTED

John La Francis Says He Was Given Strychnine to Put in the Shannon Family Teapot—Tapley Says All False—Burglars in Hartland Post Office

(Special to Times) Hartland, N.B., July 11.—There have been further developments in a feud that exists between the Tapley and Shannon families at Grenfield and James Tapley is held on a charge of attempting to poison the whole Shannon family.

John LaFrancis is held as a witness. Information was laid by the Shannons before Stipendiary Magistrate Noble in Bristol and the case will be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow. LaFrancis says that on July 4 he met James Tapley in Houlton and hired with him to work on his farm at Greenfield, this county. The story of his grievances against the Shannons, says LaFrancis, says that they buried his buildings and that he was determined to exterminate them. LaFrancis says Tapley proposed to him to take two bottles of strychnine which he produced and said he procured in Houlton and, after a few days call, for a meal at the Shannon home and administer the strychnine by way of the family teapot. LaFrancis says Tapley kept him hidden for several days and then sent him as a chance wayfarer to the Shannon place for dinner.

LaFrancis says he was not enthusiastic over the job he had undertaken and was arriving at the Shannons today when he had come to save their lives but had been sent to murder them. He says he told the whole story as here given with the result that yesterday the information was laid and Tapley was arrested by Sheriff Foster. He is held under $2,000 bonds.

Tapley alleges that the whole story is a fabrication, that he had never been to Houlton and had never seen LaFrancis before his arrest. Some years ago Tapley lost his barns by fire and accused Shannon of incendiarism. The case was tried in court and settled in his favor. The Shannons, Jonathan and Robert, on the other hand, had informed Tapley of perjury and he is to appear at the next county court to answer that charge.

Hartland post office was burglarized last night and a small amount of loose change taken from the till. The loss was not molested.

TORONTO FOLK WALK TO WORK; STRIKE IS ON

Street Railway Motormen and Conductors Go Out

MORE MONEY; BETTER HOURS

Ask Ten Cents an Hour Increase. Company Offers Two—Half Million People a Day Was Usual Carrying Record

Toronto, July 11.—A threatened strike of the Toronto Railway Company's conductors and motormen materialized this morning at five o'clock. Negotiations yesterday and last night were without result and at a mass meeting of the employees, which began at midnight, 1,400 were completed, the night cars were voted to strike and only seventy-three were opposed. All the runs of yesterday were completed, the night cars were run into the barns at 4:45 and after that not a wheel moved.

At six o'clock and again at seven o'clock the incredulous waited for cars that did not come, but the public as a whole had anticipated the worst. The sidewalks of the main thoroughfares were packed with pedestrians, while automobiles, vans and carrying from six to six passengers.

The strike ties up completely the lines of the Toronto Railway. The civic system and the radial lines are run, but these do not serve the centre of the city. On more than 100 miles of track there are no cars running; usually the day's work calls into service more than 600,000 passengers.

They were passengers on a vessel which was sunk off the north coast of Ireland in the latter part of June. Forty-one persons were lost.

WILL BRING THE WAR SOONER TO TERMINATION

Effect of Embargo Proclamation in United States

COMMENT BY LORD RHONDDA

English Food Controller Says it Also Will Help Solve Food Problem of European Allies—Action as to Prices Awaited With Interest

London, July 11.—Lord Rhondda, the food controller, issued a statement to the Associated Press on the embargo proclamation of President Wilson. He said that the comprehensive and effective character of the president's latest action is typical of the way in which the United States has thrown itself heart and soul into the war. It seems to me that the additional pressure which will thereby be brought to bear upon our common enemies should go far towards bringing this struggle to an earlier termination, especially in view of the fact that in applying an embargo on provisions the president will have the advantage of Mr. Hoover's unequalled knowledge of conditions in the neutral countries.

CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES
Chicago Record-Herald.—The closer organization of the British Empire has removed for all time, so far as we can see, even from academic discussion, the question of annexation. Canada is and will not be a colony but a free nation. And, moreover, she is our ally. Frictional feeling is gone; mutual confidence is engendered. We must seize the opportunity to unite our feelings more closely. In all Pan-American congresses we must see that Canada is recognized. Our educational institutions must study Canada as they study Latin-America. We must cultivate personal international friendship with her. For Canada and we are facing common problems of immigration, of water ways and railroad transportation, of labor and capital, of currency. We shall solve them with far greater ease if we approach them in a spirit of trust and co-operation.

Asking Five More of Prussian Cabinet to Step Out

POST FOR VON BERNSTORFF?

Mentioned for Position Which Zimmermann is to Lose—Speculation as to Outlook For Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg

Amsterdam, July 11.—German Imperial Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg, says the Koelnische Volks Zeitung, promised the Reichstag that he would consent to the resignation of Foreign Minister Zimmermann and Dr. Karl Helfferich, secretary of the interior, and vice-chancellor from the Prussian cabinet will be asked to resign.

Copenhagen, July 11.—Count Von Bernstorff, former German ambassador at Washington, mentioned in the lobby of the Reichstag as a candidate to succeed Zimmermann in case of his resignation. The name of Dr. W. S. Solf, colonial secretary, is also mentioned.

Dr. Anton Meyergerhard, who was von Bernstorff's minister of commerce in connection with the Lufstana case, and whose activities in the United States were the subject of much comment, has been promoted to be ministerial director of the German colonial office.

Copenhagen, July 10.—(Delayed)—A despatch from Berlin to the Cologne Gazette says the retirement of Ministers Helfferich and Zimmermann will be requested on Thursday. The Germans of Berlin, declares that Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg in committee accepted the ideas of Matthias Erbeberger, Centrist leader, regarding a parliamentary declaration committing Germany to peace on the basis of the chancellor's declaration of August 4, 1914, namely no annexations. The "Tagblat" Sunday, Monday evening showed that the imperial chancellor possesses the emperor's complete confidence. The emperor, after the adjournment of the council, conferred with the chancellor until midnight.

Hollweg's position, the paper adds, seems also to be more secure with the political parties. The radicals are said to be clauding by the chancellor while the centre socialists attach no importance to a mere change of persons and not of principle. Political circles believe that the matter will end in a compromise.

The agricultural department is advising growers who intend to ship to Montreal to adopt the twenty-seven box crate. The standard is a wooden box with the octagonal box is declared not adapted to modern requirements, the square box being the standard.

The Boston market, which has almost passed the New England strawberry season, will have large quantities of New Brunswick berries.

There has been an increase in the production of strawberries in the province. The Bowville district will ship about 125,000 boxes. In York county there also has been an increased acreage. On the lower St. John river the crop will not be as large as in other seasons on account of reduced acreage.

THREE EXPLOSIONS OF BOMBS IN CHICAGO

Man Killed and Brother Fatally Injured — Police Say Black Hand and Labor Trouble

Chicago, July 11.—Three bomb explosions in widely separated sections of the south side early today caused the death of one man and the fatal injury of another, damaged a score of buildings and drove dozens of families into the street. The police say that two of the explosions were laid at the door of the "Black Hand," the other by labor trouble.

The bombs were exploded in buildings with stores on the first floor and apartments above, driving many of the residents into the streets in their night clothes.

Silva O'Connor and his brother, James, were passing a building at 1600 West 99th street when an explosion occurred. The former was killed instantly, and the latter fatally injured, though many suffered cuts by breaking glass.

GIRL IN BOY'S CLOTHES IS SILENT AS TO IDENTIFY

Fredericton, N. B., July 11.—A young girl arrested on the charge of vagrancy and who was dressed in boy's clothing in the county jail on remand, has refused to give any information about herself. The police have sent out messages to various places.

BAR GERMAN FROM NEW YORK DOCKS

New York, July 11.—A further move to keep the water front here free from enemy alien was made today when placards warning all Germans to keep off were distributed to all docks and piers in this city and Long Island points.

It was said that similar notices would be sent to points on the Hudson River and the Connecticut shore before the end of this week.

No rule has yet been issued closing the big skyscraper buildings along the harbor front to alien enemies and it was said no such move was contemplated for the present, at least. It was also the Methodist church burying ground.

WERE COMELY AND WELL DRESSED
And Two of Them Were Soldiers' Wives—And All Were Taken In Raid in Halifax

(Halifax Chronicle)
Seven women and a man rounded up in a raid on No. 76 Grafton street on Saturday night by Detectives Kennedy and Coyle and the police were bailed on Saturday night to appear this morning before Stipendiary Magistrate Manie Barrett was taken on a charge of keeping a bawdy house and the man, Thomas O'Toole, and the other six women, Winnifred Heustay, Catherine Feder, Carrie White, Elizabeth Dawson, Ethel Barker, and Fanny Boutiller, with being inmates.

Mrs. Barrett, through her counsel, submitted two affidavits, one from a physician showing her to be in a state of health which would not allow of being imprisoned without danger and the other sworn to by herself, containing the following paragraph:—

"On the advice of counsel I am pleading guilty to the charge herein, because of my passive neglect in not providing for the proper control of my home at No. 76 Grafton street in this city, which in the opinion of counsel makes me amenable to the charge herein. I do not, however, keep a disorderly house as a means of making a livelihood, but I am supported by my husband who is overseas."

The stipendiary imposed a fine of $80 and costs on Mrs. Barrett. The young women charged with being inmates were a comely, well-dressed party, and as at least three of the seven women are married, two of them to overseas men, the promises further developments in their domestic concerns. The ages of the six women ranged from twenty-seven, to one from Newfoundland, one from Digby, one from Hants county, one from England. The police had no direct evidence to show of improper conduct of the women and man charged as inmates, and the accused were discharged.

DISEASE AND HUNGER RAVAGE TURK ARMIES
 Forces in Asia Minor Reported in Grave Plight—Native Troops Mutiny.
 Saloniki, July 11—According to reliable advice from Asia Minor the Turkish Army is in the most serious plight of any period of the war on account of the depletion of man power from the ravages of epidemics and from actual starvation as a result of the failure of the commissariat. All classes of the gendarmes are being mobilized to fill the gaps.

 It is said that the spread of munitives among Arab and Kurd troops has become so alarming that Enver Pasha, the Turkish war minister, is rushing to Mesopotamia in an effort to cope with them.

BRITISH TOOK 739 GUNS FROM GERMANS, LOST 96

General Maurice Points Out That Allies in West Have Taken 63,222 Prisoners Since April 1

London, July 11.—Figures given out by Major Gen. F. B. Maurice, director of military operations, form the basis of some illuminating comparisons. In the whole theatre of the war since the beginning of the British have taken 739 German field guns and lost 183, of which 87 have been recaptured. These 37 are not included in the 739, making the total British losses in guns 96, as against 739 taken from the Germans. Of these ninety-six, eighty-four were lost on the western front in the first few months of the war, not one gun having been lost since April, 1915.

To Ward Off Summer Complexion Ills

To keep the face smooth, white and beautiful all summer, there's nothing quite so good as ordinary mercurochrome. Discolored or freckled skin, so common at this season, is gently absorbed by the wax and replaced by the newer, fresher skin beneath. The face exhibits no trace of the wax, which is applied at bedtime and washed off morning. Creamy creams, powders and lotions on the other hand, are apt to clog pores, cause excessive perspiration, and give an unclean, greasy appearance. Use mercurochrome and use it often. It will help any skin at once and it's weak or so the complexion will look remarkably young and healthy. Sun, wind and flying dust often cause itching and other annoyances which make wrinkles. You can quickly get rid of every line, however caused, by using mercurochrome. Wash face with mercurochrome wash lotion, made by dissolving a little powdered mercurochrome in lukewarm water.

Equality of Service for Men At Home and Overseas

Hon. Dr. Pugsley Moves for Increase in Soldiers' Pay or For Compulsory Service in Other Fields at Same Rates

Ottawa, July 10.—Today's discussion on the details of the conscription bill in committee hinged mainly upon the things which the government has failed to do, and which at present it still shows no inclination to do toward laying a fair basis for manhood conscription. Liberals who have sincerely supported the bill on second reading, joined with those who opposed conscription in an endeavor to secure from the government some earnest of an intention to bring about an equality of sacrifice and service.

The dominion-wide demand for the conscription of wealth, Sir Thomas White intimated at the opening of the session, is having the effect of frightening people from depositing their savings in the banks. The minister reassured these fearful ones and incidentally the banks, by declaring on behalf of the government that it was not the purpose of the government by any form of taxation to discourage savings. He qualified his statement, however, by declaring that this did not preclude the possibility of an income tax upon such incomes as might fairly be expected to contribute toward the cost of the war.

The entire debate of the day centres round that part of the bill dealing with exemptions. The chief critic of the day was Hon. Frank Oliver. The pilot of the bill, Hon. Arthur Meighen, had some difficulty in explaining the somewhat vague provisions laid down in the bill as to exemptions, and invariably fell back on the statement that upon the tribunals would devolve the task of working out the details, and deciding upon what man should go and what should stay at home.

As the bill stood, Mr. Oliver declared, without contradiction, one clause provided for the conscription, and another for the exemption of every man in the dominion between the ages specified. Under its provisions there was no class of citizens who could not be exempted if the various tribunals saw fit. The solicitor-general was pressed to specify for the guidance of the tribunals the industries under which exemption could be secured. He declined to do so even in the case of agriculture, and declared that it was for the tribunals to decide upon the regulations.

The member for Edmonton further contended that under the system of exemptions sanctioned but not specified by the bill, men would be driven into the munition factories under the threat of military service. "We have a right to know," he declared, "what part of this measure is for the battle fields in France, and what part is for the munition profiteers. When the government wants to make provision for the fighting forces the measure which it brings down should be framed with that end in view."

When it wants to protect home industries then it should make provision for that in another bill, and not by forcing men into these industries under the threat of military compulsion. In the name of loyalty, in the name of patriotism, and in the name of our dead boys, the government brings down a bill, one of the purposes of which is to provide cheap labor for the contractors who have been clamoring for the exemption of their citizens, and who are wealthy enough now without any further assistance."

HON. DR. PUGSLEY'S AMENDMENTS

Hon. Dr. Pugsley presented two amendments. One provided that the courts when exemptions were considered should be open to the public. The solicitor-general said they would be. The other called to make exemption conditional upon the willingness of the man applying to engage in productive industry at a rate of pay to be fixed by the governor-in-council, which would be proportional, all things considered, to that paid the men in the trenches.

The solicitor-general thought such a provision would reduce the economic fabric of the dominion to chaos. Other members also spoke against the proposal, but the suggestion raised the question of the pay of the men at the front and strong advocates for a substantial increase were found in Messrs. Nesbitt, McCook, Pugsley and many others who contended that the man who went to the front should be paid at least as well as the laborer who stayed safely at home.

Sir Herbert Ames, however, pooh-poohed "the nonsense" about the inadequacy of the pay of the fighting man. He calculated that in actual wages, plus separation, and patriotic fund allowances, and plus food and clothing the married man with a family who went to the front was receiving $36 per month, or over $3 per day.

Three clauses of the bill received consideration today and were passed subject to consideration of certain amendments. The committee has now reached clause 13, and there are only 16 clauses in the bill. Further consideration of the contentious sections left over, however, will occupy considerable time.

The Montreal Star's correspondent today predicted an election before the measure was proclaimed by order-in-council.

Charges Barrage To Silence Gun Three Recruits

New Zealander Shows Superheroism—Privates Carry on When Officers Fall

London, July 11.—Stories of the superheroism of New Zealanders at the battle of Messines are related by Malcolm Ross, special correspondent with the New Zealand forces.

He tells how wounded officers and men fought on until forcibly sent back; how a private, single-handed, charged through their own barrage in order to silence a strong enemy machine gun emplacement, actually accomplishing his task; how a sergeant, acting as a chaplain, under the heaviest fire, continuously tended wounded men from early morning until late at night; and how one by one all of a company's officers fell, then the non-coms, and then still some masterful private continued to carry on with initiative and gallantry.

It was thought that the high-water mark for gallantry in this division was reached on the Somme, but the record of Messines excelled all previous standards.

EQUL RIGHTS IN HOPEWELL. Hopewell Hill, July 9.—For the first time in the history of this district, a woman was nominated for the position of school trustee, at the annual meeting of the ratepayers held here today.

Though falling of election, the candidate polled a creditable vote. The meeting was presided over by M. M. Tingley, and the usual routine business was put through.

TO PROVIDE HUTS FOR OVERSEAS SOLDIERS

A movement is now under way in St. John as well as throughout the length and breadth of Canada to raise the sum of $50,000 for the purpose of erecting rest huts and chapels for the Catholic soldiers of the Canadian army who are in England and France. The movement has been launched as the result of an appeal for funds from overseas chaplains and is in charge of Major (Rev.) John J. O'Gorman, D.C.L., C.F., who returned from the front last winter suffering from wounds. Already a good portion of the desired amount has been secured and it is felt that no difficulty will be experienced in raising the required amount.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Fire caused several thousand dollars damage in the work room of the Murdoch McLeod, Jr.'s tailoring shop in Moncton last evening. The ladies' art store conducted by E. H. POSTUM HELPS WHERE TEA OR COFFEE HURTS! "There's a Reason"

Villa Mirafiori in Rome, the former residence of the American Academy, has generously been placed at the disposal of the government for the use of mutilated soldiers ever since the beginning of the war. The lovely position of Villa Mirafiori, situated outside of Porta Pia on the Via Nomentana in the midst of large shady grounds, makes it a charming place for the soldiers to spend their time of confinement. The villa has been thoroughly equipped with all modern medical and surgical conveniences, its large halls and rooms being turned into dormitories, operating rooms, laboratories, etc.

MODART CORSETS

Front Laced

Your husband—acquired or prospective

Is first attracted to you, in most cases, by your personal appearance.

Your other qualities, good as they are, would not have as fair a chance, were it not for the introduction given by Attractiveness.

As your appearance is so important, why not consider carefully its foundation—the corset, for upon the correctness of design, the proper boning and other materials, as well as the workmanship in construction—depend the poise of the wearer, her grace, her comfort, and her health. And these features are all necessary to Attractiveness. MODART Front Laced Corsets are designed for discerning women.

We will not use extravagant language about them. The quality of any corset must be proven by actual trial, so our only suggestion is this—

Have a trial fitting of a MODART Front Laced Corset (at no cost whatever). Then the superior comfort will be felt. Then the superior style will be seen. Then the superior poise it gives its wearer will be appreciated.

Spies Were Everywhere

Northcliffe Describes German System in England

Some Notable Instances

The Case of Lady Spies Divided Into Five or Sixes—Ad- vice on Censorship of the Press

Washington, July 10—Lord Northcliffe, head of the British mission in this country, has authorized publication of parts of a confidential speech on spies and censorship made to the National Press Club on July 4. He described the work of spies in England and the danger of fatal information that pours over the cables through neutral countries to Germany, and spoke of the technical military and naval censorship of the press. The address in part follows:

"We in England were least to be found in the existence of an extensive German spy system in our midst until strange happenings by land and sea proved that their spy preparations, firmly established in England years before the war, were being efficient as all their other preparations."

"The German spies are divided into five or sixes, working independently of each other. "There is the business spy, whose work is the gathering of information personal and otherwise. An establishment called Schimmelfennigs opened in England, purporting to be something like your Bradstreet or Duns, but really with the object of ascertaining the capacity for making guns, munitions and what not of every plant in England, together with any other information that might be useful to Germany when it went to war.

"In naval and military towns, the German government provided Germany with capital with which to open and purchase hotels. This was done through the consuls. "Then there was a series of spies organized by the Great Britons, organized by the German consuls in Great Britons, who collected information by means of their water carriers, German emissaries and domestic servants to whom they paid comparatively small sums monthly."

"In and military towns, the German government provided Germany with capital with which to open and purchase hotels. This was done through the consuls. "Then there was a series of spies organized by the German government which had its headquarters in Brussels. There were spies who moved about in motor cars, and picked up any information they could get. When it came to picking up information as to the German spy system, they got it all wrong, for it has been notorious that, almost without exception, they reported that the Great Britons were not going to war. Members of this class of spy were entirely unknown to each other, and they were usually engaged on different jobs. They were paid a minimum of $5,000 and a maximum of $15,000 a year, and were usually engaged on some other kind of work—very often as travelling salesmen. Quite a number of them went to London and were usually engaged on the Tower of London work, and were sent to London for long terms of imprisonment."

"Further, there were the military and naval spies. This kind of spying is regarded as legitimate among all nations. Carl Lody, whom I saw tried by court martial and who had an American passport and spoke American only with the slightest German accent, was a legitimate naval spy and was so regarded by our authorities, who treated him as well as he could be treated in the circumstances, and finally very properly sent him back to his own country to citizenship on his part. Among other foolishnesses, he kept his code in his pocket, and he was arrested when he was a dead man. One of the things that led to his detection was the fact that he was a German spy and was warned for years that the country was full of German spies, and that our authorities, who treated him as well as he could be treated in the circumstances, and finally very properly sent him back to his own country to citizenship on his part. No Peace Without Annexations

Berne, Switzerland, July 10.—According to Berlin newspapers, the German chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, said to the members of the Reichstag: "I repeat that the formula of peace without annexations is unacceptable to us. We cannot declare our terms of peace. We must fight and conquer."

The chancellor made a strong attack on Matthias Erzberger, leader of the Catholic centre party, who assailed the Pan-Germans in his address before the main committee last week and advocated peace without annexations or indemnities. Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg said Herr Erzberger's attitude was unpatriotic.

According to the summary of the chancellor's speech before the main committee published in the Lokai Anzeiger of Berlin, he said: "We must continue the war with our whole energies. I do not deny that we have great difficulties to overcome, but so have our enemies. We shall see whether their difficulties or ours are greater. I am sure we can win if we hold out."

"Nothing was further from my intention than to cling to my post, but now it is a question of protecting the fatherland from injury, and for this reason I consider it necessary to retain my post."

French Repulse Formidable Attack

French Front in France, Monday, July 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The French troops holding the sector of the Chemin Des Dames to the south of Falaun, although drenched to the skin and mud-covered from head to foot, were full of confidence and cheerfulness today when the correspondent went among them. They had just repulsed an attack of the most formidable nature, in which the Germans sustained shocking losses without obtaining more than a temporary foothold in these constantly contested positions.

Returned Men Get Provincial Appointments

Charles Robinson, secretary of the Returned Soldiers' Aid Commission, has received a letter from Hon. Dr. Smith, minister of lands and mines for New Brunswick, informing him that he has placed the two returned soldiers as game wardens in the county as recommended by Mr. Robinson.

He has also received word from Hon. Mr. Veniot, minister of public works, saying that he has placed two returned soldiers on the traction road working machines and would be in a position in a few days to place three or four more.

Mr. Robinson had an interview with Hon. Mr. Tweeddale, minister of agriculture, and also the deputy minister, Mr. Reid, in connection with a returned soldier who is anxious to get established on his farm in St. John county. The interview was most satisfactory and arrangements were made whereby this returned soldier will be able to take up his farming under satisfactory conditions and the minister assured Mr. Robinson that he would do everything in his power to assist in placing those returned men who are anxious to take up work in agriculture.

Good positions also are being held open for returned men, specially trained in agriculture.

Council Approves Agreement With D. A. Saker

Another Project

Commissioner Says Local Concern Has $140,000 Ready for Use; Talk of Municipal Wood Yard Again; New Credit Arranged

The proposition submitted by D. A. Saker for partial tax exemption of his shipbuilding plant in Strait Shore for a period of twenty years, was approved yesterday by the common council and will become effective immediately. The agreement as presented provided that Mr. Saker should spend at least $60,000 before December, 1918, that the plant should not be idle for more than four months consecutively in one year or eight months in two years under pain of reverting to the regular method of assessment, that for the first year he should pay $200 and that each year following until 1938 he should pay $1,000.

Commissioner McLellan and Commissioner Fisher opposed some of the provisions of the agreement as they were not in line with the verbal arrangements made. During the course of the debate, Commissioner McLellan stated that he knew of two other companies who were coming to ask concessions. In one case, he said, there is $80,000 in an office in the city to purchase the property, and $80,000 more to build ways, four at $20,000 apiece.

Commissioner Russell asked who the others were who might appear before the council, to which Commissioner McLellan replied that they were Thomas Nagle and Grant & Home. He was asked if the Grant & Home contract was not directly with the federal government. To this he stated that they were working on a ten per cent basis, taking the same proposition that Nagle refused. This, he pointed out, did not render them immune from local assessment.

The mayor, speaking on the question, pointed out that the province of Nova Scotia and the city of Halifax had voted large amounts to assist the industry and he remarked that local merchants were talking of making a request for a bonus for the first tonnage laid down.

It was decided to accept the offer of the Bank of Nova Scotia to extend credit to the city to the extent of $400,000 for the next three years, paying four per cent for credit and charging five and a half per cent for overdrafts. The arrangement with the bank for the last three years had just expired.

The fuel situation was discussed in a general way and Commissioner Wigmore suggested that the steel steam hopper scoops that were at work in Courtenay Bay be put in the coal carrying business to bring a supply here to municipal consumption. The mayor told of an offer from a Nova Scotia source to land 100 cords of hardwood here at $9 per cord, and he suggested the establishment of a municipal wood yard. No definite action was taken, however, as the mayor proposes to investigate the steam hopper scheme.

On the recommendation of Commissioner Russell the controller was advised to pay an account of $709.18 to J. S. Eagles & Co. for birch timbers for repairs on the new pier and South Rodney wharf.

A renewal lease will be issued to Hugh McGill, of lot 691 in Brooks ward, for seven years from Nov. 1, 1918, at $18.00 per annum, an increase of ten per cent on the old rental.

Properties for Auction.
The commissioner of public lands recommended that he be authorized to sell at public auction the two city properties at Fairville, known as the Duncan and Reid properties, situated in the Green Head road, and having a frontage of 30 feet and 20 feet respectively. He explained that the properties were in bad repair. He was offered $2,500 for them, he said, which he considered very good, but being public property he considered it more advisable to dispose of them at public auction. The suggestion was approved.

A letter was received from James Cuddeon, building inspector, drawing attention to the fact that the Queen's rink was being converted into a moving picture theatre to seat 800 people. He could see no reason why he should refuse a permit for the repairs.

Commissioner McLellan pointed out that he certainly had no right to refuse a permit. It was up to the mayor to decide whether the building should be used for the purpose when permission is sought. It was up to the builder to take the responsibility for the alterations in the meantime. He stated frankly, however, that from a standpoint of protection, there could be no furnace or heating arrangements beneath the wooden structure without adequate provision against fire.

On motion of Commissioner Mrs. James F. Robertson was reappointed commissioner of the Free Public Library for another term. On motion of the mayor, Richard O'Brien was also reappointed to the board.

The board of trade of Winnipeg has applied for the appointment of an internal trade commission and a request has been sent by that board to St. John for the local board of trade to lend support in the appeal.

Are You an Asset to Canada—or are You a Liability?

ARE you helping to win the War? Or could Canada put up a better fight without you?

Are you working—saving—paying—to back up the men at the front? Or are you loafing—wasting—spending—on selfish indulgences the money that should be loaned to the Nation?

Man-power is at a premium! The time and strength of every man in Canada should be devoted whole-heartedly to really useful work—work that will help, directly or indirectly, in the Struggle.

Food is short the world over! Every housewife in Canada should devote herself earnestly to the problem of conserving it—of feeding our people well, yet economically and without waste.

Everyone should save—and lend the savings to the nation!

Canada needs every dollar you can invest in War Savings Certificates, and for every $21.50 you loan now, she will repay you $25.00 at the end of three years—or you can get your money back at any time. Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, which may be purchased at $21.50, $43 and $86 respectively, at any Bank or Money Order Post Office.

of efforts the contending Phillies got on the right side of the ledger only once.

As a consequence the Giants have won six more games than the Phillies, and have lost seven less.

They are in the first place by margin of almost 100 points. At the rate they are now playing the race may be a runaway before many more weeks have passed.

The Giants are playing the best ball of the season right now. Schrupp has returned to form, Anderson, Perritt, and Terreau are delivering.

Zimmerman is doing far better than at any time in several years, and the rest of the infield is going fine.

The outfield has settled down to steady playing, while the comeback of George Gibson has eliminated the only weakness over which any recent fear has been felt.

NEWARK, N. J., July 8—Ten thousand bicycle fans stood up while the band played "The Star Spangled Banner," and Arthur Spencer, the most sensational cyclist developed in years, was crowned the cyclist champion of America here this afternoon.

The crowd went wild with applause for the boy from Toronto, and the folks back home can be mighty proud of their youthful wonder.

He rode around the track draped on the American flag and a large bouquet of American beauty roses in his hand.

His father standing by was the happiest man in the vast assemblage, and beamed with smiles as Arthur dismounted from his wheel.

Frank L. Kramer, looked upon as the greatest athlete the world has ever produced, shook Arthur by the hand and wished him success in the years to come.

The day would have been a little brighter for Arthur had he won the five mile championship race, the last of the series of six which was decided this afternoon, but with nothing at stake Arthur tried to win by sprinting a lap and three-quarters, and was not equal to the hard task he had selected.

Alf Goulet rode around him on the last turn, and won by riding the last eighth mile in 11 3/5 seconds.

Wille Spencer chased Goulet madly down the home stretch, and finished second just inches ahead of Kramer, while Arthur was "dead" from his hard ride and only got fourth place.

The final standing of the riders in the American championship competition is as follows:

Arthur Spencer, Toronto, 21 points.

Alfred Goulet, Australia, 18 points.

Frank L. Kramer, America, 9 points.

Robert E. Spears, Australia, 8 points.

ADVISES VACATION.

Holiday psychology is thus partially explained by Dr. Hastings, Toronto's medical officer of health.

It has been repeatedly demonstrated that society loses untold production from the failure to recognize that holidays increase efficiency.

Especially does this apply to mental workers. As for factory employes and others, it has been shown that the eight-hour day is more satisfactory from the employer's own point of view than the ten-hour day.

A man cannot do his best work when he is not feeling at his best. Holidays are necessary, and they are profitable. Even in the munition factories it has been proved. Seven-day weeks had to be abandoned.

Yet those who live in perpetual holidays, Dr. Hastings forgot to mention, are termed the "idle" rich.
