PRES. SCHURMAN OF GOLDWIN SMITH

Head of Cornell Says Vision Will Be Fulfilled

Eloquent Tribute

Problems Arising Out of China and Japan Will Draw Canada and United States Into Closer Relations—Alliance of English Speaking Nations

Ithaca, N. Y., June 23.—The late Goldwin Smith, his work and his influence were taken by President Schurman today for the text of his annual address to the graduates of Cornell University.

"The foundation of Goldwin Smith's political philosophy," said Dr. Schurman, "was the maxim he carried on the stone seat which he placed on the campus of Cornell University, 'above all nations is humanity.' An Englishman by birth, he was proud of his ideal and traditions and loyal to the genuine interests of England, but he sternly refused to identify those interests and ideals with territorial acquisitions, with selfish aggrandizement, with the subjugation and the blinding of peoples in Asia and Africa, with unprovoked war against any of the nations of Europe and America, with a reckless and bellicose diplomacy which makes it difficult to settle international disputes by peaceful methods or by friendly arbitration. It was the moral greatness of England that he persistently championed, and that moral greatness was, he felt, in essential harmony with the welfare of all mankind.

Dispassionate Views "This same spirit of world-citizenship enabled him to take a dispassionate view of public affairs in the United States and Canada where he spent the last half of his life. In full sympathy with the democracy of the new world, he saw more keenly or exposed more clearly the narrow and local selfishness which still in too many of the blunders and follies into which it has been betrayed by ignorance and passion.

"Yet democracy was his ideal, and he held it as his mission as a writer to hold democracy up to its ideal—to lift it above the level of the lower forces, from whose influence it can never wholly escape.

"While his heart beat for all mankind, he cherished a special vision of the union of the English-speaking nations, particularly the union of Canada and the United States, and to the furtherance of this union he devoted much of his best thought and energy. The particular form of union he projected for Canada and the United States may never be realized. The opening of the Canadian northwest in the twentieth century is a most potent factor in the development of Canadian nationality and it came too late for him to supervise its force.

But that the two English-speaking nations on this continent are destined to be drawn more closely together in the future will already appear pretty certain to any one who considers the implications of that British-American policy which we call the Monroe doctrine, and the significance of the emergence of powerful Asiatic nations confronting Canada and the United States on the other side of the Pacific with all the problems arising of intercourse and emigration, of trade and commerce, of political and religious action and reaction and of national and international prestige and recognition.

"Has ever its national destiny made, Canada has at all events the same international future as the United States, or the future of both is determined by their location on the American continent, the disconnection with the politics of Europe and the consequent political and military alignments of European nations, and the position with the Pacific uniting and parting them from the hundreds of millions of people who are peopling this vast and powerful continent just over the western horizon of California, British Columbia and Alaska.

"These mighty forces upon the two kindred American nations can scarcely fail to mold them to a common international destiny, and thus in substance if not in form, Goldwin Smith's dream of continental union may be actually fulfilled. With it may also come—is it not already rapidly approaching—the moral union of all the English-speaking nations and their alliance, informal if not formal, for the purpose of maintaining the peace of the world and the settlement of international disputes by the arbitration of The Hague Tribunal which is at this moment settling for Great Britain and the United States their century-old dispute over their respective rights in the North Atlantic fisheries. Let us at any rate cherish such uplifting visions and dreams."

MR. BORDEN COMING It is announced that Mr. Borden, after a few weeks rest, is coming to New Brunswick to hold a series of meetings. Why not come to New Brunswick for the few weeks rest? There is a pleasant cottage among the trees on the banks of the Kennebecasis, in one of the most beautiful spots in that lovely valley, where Mr. Borden could combine plain living and high thinking, and find rest to his soul.

MR. BORDEN'S OMISSIONS The Ottawa Free Press has set Mr. Borden right on one or two matters dealt with in his speeches in Ontario. Here is a sample, which illustrates very well the opposition leader's habit of omitting important facts when he desires to make a point against the government. The Free Press says:—

Mr. Borden is coming down to St. John, N. B., in his new position as Mr. Borden's chief lieutenant he doubtless pines for action, and might find the daisy strewn meadows around Apohaqui too peaceful for his fighting blood. And yet, it is only a short run to St. John, where he could find ample scope for his activities in settling the feud in the camp of the Standard—a task that has thus far baffled all the local peace-makers.

A USEFUL COMPANION Since Mr. Borden has criticized the immigration policy of the Canadian government, and charged that quantity rather than quality has been aimed at, a comparison between the conditions in the United States and Canada will be found both interesting and instructive.

At the general session in New York recently Judge Swann declared that a great burden is imposed upon the taxpayers by the practice of certain foreign governments of sending to that country criminals, paupers and other undesirable for the purpose of getting rid of the obligation to support them in prisons and other institutions. A large number of prisoners were before him who had been indicted for offenses ranging from murder to petty larceny. All of them had the appearance of foreigners of a low type, and most of them were poorly dressed and apparently had little knowledge of the proceedings.

Our Courts and institutions get crowded because of these people," and Judge Swann. Let us turn now to Canada. The Ottawa Journal gives the following statement of the nationality of prisoners in Canadian jails:—

Table with 2 columns: Nationality and Number of Prisoners. Includes entries for England, Ireland, Other British, United States, Italian, Russian, German, Austrian, French, Danish, Chinese, and Other countries.

The Journal adds:—Instead of our penitentiary population being made up almost entirely of new-comers from the foreign countries of Europe, this table shows that 77 per cent. are made up of Canadian and British born, fifty-nine per cent. being native-born Canadian. This leaves only 23 per cent. to the foreigners, and if the ten per cent. of prisoners charged to the United States is excluded, the much-abused foreigner is left with less than 15 per cent. to be chaffed up against him."

There is clear evidence in this comparison of conditions that Canada, so far as undesirable immigrants are concerned, is infinitely better off than the United States.

States. The movements of well known people are always matters of personal interest, and in a general sense are legitimate news; but to pry into the private affairs of a young lady to furnish gossip for the public is to merit public scorn.

The government has decided that the vessels for the Canadian navy must be built in Canada. This will give an immense stimulus to ship-building, and develop a great industry, from which the port of St. John should derive much benefit.

IN THE WRONG SHOP. "Lady," I would like you to paint my portrait with my hat on." Painter—"Get your hat, Madam, you'll have to go to a landscape painter for that."—Meggendorfer Blaetter.

MILDRED THE WISE. Mr. Pham (roaring from the top of the stairs)—"Mildred! What is that young man doing down there so late?" Mildred (sweetly)—"He's just dipping out the wine we intend to drink for the present."

HE HELPED. The brakeman was a novice, and on his first run here there was a very steep grade. He stopped the engine, and he saw a man standing on the track.

MANY ALIEN CRIMINALS IN AMERICAN COURTS. CANADIAN NEWS C. P. R. Trainers Refuse Award

Montreal, June 22.—The general committee representing the men employed in train and yard service on the Canadian Pacific railroad tonight refused the department of labor at Ottawa, refusing to accept the decision of the dispute between the men and the board of arbitrators.

Ontario, June 22.—In the conditions of the tender for the construction of the ships of Canada's new navy it has been definitely decided that one of the requirements shall be that the ships must be built in Canada.

Albert Vickers is now in Ottawa submitting to the government plans for the firm's dry dock and shipyard at Montreal. The company's projects contemplate a most extensive iron and steel industry at Montreal. In addition to the shipbuilding the company will probably branch out into other lines of iron and steel construction, including, it is said, a plant for the manufacture of car wheels for which the market in Canada now offers a large field.

London, June 22.—The Standard says: "We in this country can feel nothing but admiration for the zeal and promptitude with which Canada entered upon the great enterprise of establishing a navy," and adds it is glad to see some vessels are to be laid down in Canadian yards.

New York, June 22.—Frank Grillo, a "white slaver," convicted of holding girls captive, was sentenced in Brooklyn today to ten years' imprisonment in Sing Sing, Frank Salvatore, similarly convicted, got four years.

Miss Marian Macaulay and Miss Portia McKenzie won the prizes, two handsome bat pins, in the ladies' tennis tournament yesterday afternoon. There were about twenty competitors in the tournament. The event was served by Mrs. R. K. Jones, Miss Schofield and Miss Minnie Girvan. The committee in charge was composed of Miss Tonia McKenzie, Miss Lillian Raymond and Miss Vivian Barnes.

A little girl named Catherine Creley strayed away from home yesterday afternoon and got lost. She was found by Policeman Sheehan in King square and taken to the central police station, where she was later called for by her mother, Mrs. Michael Creley, 142 St. Patrick street.

Bears are reported to be destroying the sheep at Lamsden, Alberta county. One Riverside man, who has pasture in that section, has been compelled to bring his flock out owing to the depredations.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

THE man I love doesn't love me. Tell me some way to make him, in the substance of the world-old appeal that occasionally appears in my mail in one form or another.

Dear folks, if I could give any recipe for the solution of that trouble, don't you know that I'd be rich beyond the dreams of avarice or Midas or John Bull?

All I can offer you is just a few suggestions. Take them for what they are worth. I really think that's a little something. There is an old idea that you want to win a man's love, it helps for you to act indifferent towards him. I think that's a great mistake.

Indifference seldom serves as a spur except when your steed is already galloping. If I wanted to make a man love me, I should show him in a frank, open way—not boldly, or in forward fashion, but just as I would a girl—that I liked and admired him. That, if it didn't do anything else, at least would convince him that I had surprisingly good taste.

Secondly, I should ask his advice. A man naturally feels superior when he gives advice, hence pleased with himself, hence pleased with you. Ask it often, steer him around to telling you what you intend to do anyway, and then make sure you follow up to a letter like his words of wisdom.

Then I would take an interest in his health. Never mind how little need there seems to be. The bigger and braver you could do it in a womanly way I would myself to their measure.

And then I would surprise him by the intelligent interest I took in his fads. Next—when you're with a man who has a mania for botany. She knew nothing about botany and hated sciences of all kinds, but she got a book and read it. I said when she told me about it, "Oh, yes," she answered, "I didn't see as I knew anything about it—only as I wanted to know. I did that reading up, so that I could answer his questions and letters well. I knew that he'd be glad to know. I had brought him to the letter writing stage, I would make it a point, no matter how much I wanted to answer his letters, to let him know that I was comparatively indifferent to acquire an inflated value from delay—and the letter you are really anxious for—well, your eagerness for that gets fairly burned into your brain."

And, lastly, I'd go after him with all the arts that convention allowed me. Of course, I don't mean to do anything but what I would do naturally—although I have seen the woman who hunts her quarry in the open field succeed.

What I mean is, that if I loved a man and were afraid he wasn't going to love me, I would deliberately set to work to study his tastes and his habits, his fads and his ideals, his sense of humor, his admirations and his dislikes, so far as I could do it in a womanly way I would myself to their measure.

To anything else but love—Yes.

SEVENTY-SEVEN HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Miss Mollie Lingley and Miss Innes Ogilvie Tie For First Honors—School Closing Tomorrow

The closing exercises in the public schools will be held tomorrow. In connection with the High School closing a special programme has been prepared and the exercises there promises to be unusually interesting.

The graduating class this year will be the largest that has been turned out from the school, numbering seventy-seven. The results for the examinations in Grade XI were given out yesterday and about that the honors this year.

This can be seen from the fact that two young ladies succeeded in tying for first place. Miss Mollie Lingley and Miss Innes Ogilvie were the successful ones and they are both deserving of great credit for their excellent showing. They were closely followed by two or three others. There is a rule in the school that the pupil making the highest standing in the vocabulary and this rule was set a little at variance, however, as the result of the candidates qualifying.

An agreement was reached last evening, however, which will no doubt prove very satisfactory. It was decided to give Miss Ogilvie the vocabulary and Miss Lingley the Latin declension which always goes to the one making the highest standing.

The programme will be of a mutual and literary nature. There will be selections by the High School orchestra and three comes from Racine's French play, Esther. A feature of the programme will be the presentation of the different prizes which have been won by High School pupils throughout the year. Among these will be the presentation of the Board of Trade Essay prizes, carried off by three pupils of the school. The presentation will be made by Dr. C. Cross, vice-president of the Board of Trade. The address to the graduating class will be given by Rev. H. A. Cady.

The examinations for the special prizes which are awarded each year will be concluded today. There are ten contestants for the Ellis medal, which is given to the pupil making the highest marks in these will be awarded the Zimmerman medal. There are eight contestants for the forty-ninth prize given to the pupils in Grade IX.

The following is the list of this year's graduates: Lillian Baskin, Beryl Blanch, Lydia Bolt, Annie Bray, Rowena Bray, Edith Cameron, Mary Carter, Nora Carter, Blanch Cox, Sarah Collins, Constance Coster, Jennie Custer, Christine Curran.

Eric Jones had a very unlucky day of yesterday. While riding a bicycle yesterday morning in King square he came in collision with a team driven by George Kearns and owned by the St. John Street Railway Company. His wheel was completely demolished. In addition to this he was reported by Policeman Marshall for riding a bicycle in the foot path in King square.

About 250 people attended the moonlight excursion held last night by the Royal Arcanum. It was a success.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR. Socialism and the Church. Editor Times and Star: Sir,—Having read the letter referring to the "Church and Socialism," which appears in your paper over the non-deplorable name of a "working man," I am constrained to enter the controversy if only to enlighten the writer thereof.

He admits practically that social conditions are far from perfect and then he points to the church as the best organization to help suffering humanity.

The writer ought to know that the Christian religion will never be able to alter the conditions; if any set of people wish that to be done they have to set to work and do it for themselves, or in other words, must create a public desire for a change.

What was in something here and now. Looking at the church steeples of St. John don't fill empty stomachs; and Canada don't give any one a cent a week and being happy. It is such a ridiculous statement that one is tempted to wonder what the "captains" hold their record the Christian must face, for after more than 1900 years of Christian effort, not more than one person in sixty of the present generation has been truly converted to Christ.

West End League. In the West End League last night a tie game between C. S. & Co. and La. Tours with the score 11 all, was announced in error. The game was won by the former 11 to 10. The batteries were: For the winners, Stealy and Gardner; and for the losers Logan and Estabrook. The league standing follows: C. S. Smith & Co., Won. Lost. P.C. Maple Leafs, 6 3 66. Sons of Scotland, 2 6 386. La Tours, 2 7 222.

The Prix des Vaux d'Or, of $2,000, distance ten furlongs, was run at St. Cloud, Paris, Monday, and won by W. K. Vanderbilt's Ramesseur. Mr. Vanderbilt's Claretfoot finished third in the Prix des Clarettes.

St. John's Defeated the Clippers for the seventh time on the Every Day Club grounds in the South End league last night. The score was 6 to 3. The Clippers were greatly strengthened by McGovern, their new pitcher, who had a barrel of speed and a variety of curves. He also is strong with the willow. However, he did not receive the support he should have. The St. Johns played a good snappy game. The score follows: AB. R. H. PO. A. E. E. Ramsey, 2b, 4 1 0 3 6. Copeland, ss, 4 1 0 1 2. Lynch, rf, 4 0 1 1 1. Crosby, lb, 4 1 1 12 0. A. Ramsey, 3rd b, 4 0 2 3 0. Carson, cf, 3 1 3 0 0. Rootes, c, 4 1 2 0 0. Cribbe, p, 4 1 0 0 1. Case, p, 4 1 0 0 1. 34 6 5 21 11

These people are held to be much superior in education, manners and ability to the masses of the South American States. As a sample it may be mentioned that one of the families landing in Montreal today included an electrical engineer, a jeweller, a trained nurse, and several skilled mechanics. The engineer had received his education in Canada and had been back to Demerara for his relatives. They were away from their island home for the first time, and the first railway train they ever saw was the one which brought them from St. John to Montreal. They know all about trains, however, and were by no means worried.

Another party of the party was highly respectable, good-looking and well dressed. They stated that many West Indian colored people were now living in Montreal and were doing so well that it was likely many others would come to the city. Most of the colored people in the city live in Windward street and the streets adjoining, and a large portion of them are employed on the railways. Some, however, are engaged in business for themselves, and one, a carpenter, is beating a record of milled lumber in his employ.

Montreal's population is now near the half million mark.

BULL THAT KILLED HAMPSTEAD MAN BROUGHT TO SLAUGHTER

The Object of Timid Observation By a Large Crowd on Arrival of the Steamer Victoria Yesterday Afternoon

A part of the live freight on the steamer when she reached Indiantown yesterday afternoon became a source of much attraction—at a respectable distance—from a large number of people who were gathered about. It is quite a common occurrence for a young bull to be brought down river, but yet this is what an interested crowd of bystanders gazed at steadfastly until it was taken on a sled and passed from view.

The reason for their fascinated, yet timid stares, is easily explained. On the arrival of the boat, it was soon whispered about that the young bull in the cattle quarters was the one which caused the death of Wm. Cameron, at Upper Hampstead, last week, and was now on its way to be slaughtered itself. The butcher who was bringing it to market was talking no chances, but led the animal to the sloven by use of a pole about nine feet long, attached to a ring in the bull's nose.

WANTS MONEY BACK Sussex Man Dissatisfied Over Horse Deal With McInerney

A horse deal, which was carried out yesterday between a man named deForest of Sussex, and Albert McInerney, of St. Patrick street, has evidently not proven altogether satisfactory to the Sussex man at least, since he has laid a complaint against McInerney alleging that the animal which he purchased was not what was represented. The case is expected to come up this afternoon, in the police court. The complainant asserts that he paid $60 for the horse, and took McInerney's word for it that the beast was a quiet one. He says he was unwise when he purchased the animal, for he had not driven far when the horse became unruly. Now he wants his money back.

SAYS LICENSE WAS OBTAINED THROUGH FRAUD

Terry Denies This in Lancaster Liquor Permit Hearing Before Judge McKeown

Hearing on the return of the summons in the matter of the application of William J. Linton, of Fairville, for the revocation and cancellation of a license granted to William W. Terry in the Parish of Lancaster was had before Mr. Justice McKeown in chambers this morning.

L. P. D. Lewis appeared for the applicant and J. B. M. Baxter for Terry, showed cause.

The applicant claims that Terry obtained his license through fraud and also that he has insufficient accommodation as required by the act.

Mr. Baxter read the affidavit of Terry in which he deposed that he had sufficient accommodation and also if he were guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation in obtaining the license every license in that parish was equally guilty.

Mr. Lewis applied for an adjournment to file further affidavits and this was granted. The matter will be heard on Tuesday next. His Honor in hearing this application under the statute.

WATCH WAS PROPERTY OF ROBT. HORNE

Relatives Identify Time-piece Found Near Bones—Remains of Man Lost 16 Years Ago

Some bones found found at Black River on Tuesday by a millman, Edgar Belyea, have been positively identified as those of Robert Horne, who disappeared sixteen years ago from his home in Richmond street, and was never heard from. The identification was made by a son and daughter of the dead man, by means of a silver watch found near the bones. They recognized it as his property, on being shown the time piece by Coroner Berryman. The watch, a fishing rod, and a knife were also found, which along with bones were placed in the morgue. Relatives will further examine the articles.

EVERY DAY CLUB GROUNDS PLACE OF GREAT ACTIVITY

Good Baseball Last Evening—Everything Running Well—The Children's Interests Looked After

Not for years has such a crowd been seen at an evening baseball game in St. John as was seen on the Every Day Club grounds last evening to witness the game between the St. John and Clippers. The enlarged grand stand was crowded, the bleachers were filled, and there was a fringe along the fence. The two teams, with the exception of a little loose playing at times, put up a great game, and there was great enthusiasm throughout the eight fast innings.

"If any man wants better ball," said one enthusiast, "he must travel." Managers Tilley and McInerney are making great efforts to keep up the standard of the game, and no wrangling is tolerated. The grounds are in fine condition, and the most cordial relations exist between the baseball managers and the Every Day Club. This promises to be the greatest year for baseball these grounds have ever witnessed.

The commercial leagues that play on four evenings of the week have a large following, and are playing a good game, and the dry goods men especially, in their handsome uniforms, make a fine appearance on the field.

The cricketers have also sent their equipment to the grounds for weekly practice on Thursday afternoons. Yesterday afternoon a baseball team from Hampton played a high school team on these grounds. Indeed, they are in use all day long for sport or play of some kind.

Next week the supervised playground will be opened for the summer holidays. It is now crowded every evening with hundreds of children in care of Miss Kerwell, members of the club and others. Last evening, at the close of the ball game, the children swarmed over the field, and until dusk several hundreds of them had a delightful time. On Tuesday evening Charles A. Jones, B. L. Sheppard and Charles Dixon built a pavilion near the swings for kindergarten work and clay modeling, sheltered from the sun and rain.

JUDGMENT AGAINST CONSTABLE IN FIFTY CENT CASE

Judgment in the case of Day vs. Sherwood was delivered by Judge Ritchie in the civil court this morning. His honor found for the plaintiff for the amount involved, which was fifty cents. The plaintiff claimed that Sherwood, who is a constable, overcharged him by that amount in the case of a horse.

G. Earle Logan appeared for the plaintiff and H. W. Robertson for the defendant.

A party of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sterling, of King street, called at their home last night, and spent a pleasant time taking the opportunity to congratulate them upon the third anniversary of their wedding. During the evening one of the guests presented to them a handsome hat-tree.
