Marked Progress
By British On The
Flanders Front

More Positions Taken—Reach Old Line
From Neuve Chapelle to Givenchy—
Improvement Also At Cambrai and Near The Canal to South

London, Sept. 5.—Marked progress was made by the British last night along the Flanders front, according to today's war office report. Ploegsteert village has been captured, as has Hill 63, southwest of it.

On the Lys front the British hold the general line of Voormeesse, Wulverghem, Ploegsteert, Nieppe, Laventie and Givenchy.

From Neuve Chapelle southward to Givenchy the British have reached the line which they held until the German attack on April 9 last, while to the eastward of Givenchy sections of the old German positions have been taken.

On the battle line in front of Cambrai an improvement in the British position south of Mouscron is reported. The positions to the east of Herinval, near the Canal du Nord, just to the south, also have been improved. Still further south the British have captured the village of Neuville-Boujeval, east of the Canal du Nord.

More than 16,000 prisoners and more than 100 guns have been taken by the British in the last four days.

STIFF FIGHTING NORTH OF LYS.

London, Sept. 5.—The British official statement follows: "Sharp fighting took place yesterday north of the River Lys. During the morning our troops attacked and captured Hill 63, southwest of Mouscron, taking more than 100 prisoners. In the afternoon we attacked and captured Ploegsteert village with another 100 prisoners and some machine guns. North of Hill 63 our troops were continuously engaged in the sector of Wytchachte, where the enemy attacked repeatedly but without success. On the Lys front our troops now hold the general line of Voormeesse, Wulverghem, Ploegsteert, Nieppe-Laventie-Givenchy.

"South of Neuve Chapelle as far as Givenchy we have regained the old line held by us prior to April 9, and east of Givenchy we have occupied portions of the old German positions. Ploegsteert, Nieppe-Laventie-Givenchy.

"On the southern battlefront the enemy strongly attacked our new position at Inchy-Epa-Artois yesterday morning, but was repulsed after sharp fighting. We have improved our positions south of Mouscron and east of Herinval and have taken Neuville-Boujeval. The enemy counter-attacked yesterday evening east of Mouscron and was repulsed. Fighting has taken place also in the neighborhood of Peronne and our line has been improved slightly.

"During the last four days the British troops have taken over 16,000 prisoners and more than 100 guns."

HAD PLANNED TO ATTACK US AT MERVILLE.

With the American Army in France, Sept. 5.—By the Associated Press. The discovery has been made that the Germans planned to attack the British lines in the Merville sector of the Lys front, but that they gave up their programme because of the German fall in the Mame fighting.

GUISCARD'S
CAPTURED; LA
FERE IN FLAMES

General French Advance Of Four to Seven Miles

STOP AT HAM UNLIKELY

Speed of French Advance Disarranges German Retirement Schedule—Mangin Forces Passage of Aisne at One Point

With the French Army in France, Sept. 4.—(By the Associated Press, 10 P. M.)—Guiscard, north of Noyon, was captured by the French this afternoon, following a general advance of from four to seven miles from Mont-St. Simon to the Canal du Nord.

French cavalry advanced this afternoon from Baboulet to the region of Montecourt on the Noyon-Chateau road, the midway between the two towns, while Mercurio, southeast of Guiscard, was occupied this evening.

Officers taken prisoner in the wood between these points had received orders to retreat to Bethancourt, northwest of Chateau. The orders received there orders at 1.30 p. m. just before the arrival of the French troops.

There are indications that the Germans proposed retreating from this part of the line to the line Berancourt-Ham-Manancourt. The speed of the French advance, however, is deranging the schedule for retirement so much that possibly the enemy will not find leisure to stop at Ham.

The manoeuvre which forced the retirement of the enemy over the front of the Aisne at the Sisa Farm, between Venizel and Misy, many prisoners were taken during these operations, besides three and four inch cannon and a great quantity of material.

Justy, La Fere and other towns beyond the Aisne also have been reported in flames tonight.

GOOD WEATHER FOR GAME TODAY

Interest in World's Series Appears to Be Much Reduced

Chicago, Sept. 5.—With clear and warmer weather predicted the Chicago Cubs and Boston Red Sox games scheduled to be played this afternoon were postponed until tomorrow.

Despite the fact that the present series marks the swan song of baseball until after this year than ever before, in the opinion of world's series veterans, threatening weather may have been partly responsible, but only a handful of spectators gathered for the early morning watch yesterday and even fewer were there today.

Out of Russia.

GALLANT LEADER OF N. B.
BATTALION IS KILLED

Lieut. Col. A. E. G. McKenzie Crowns Years of Glorious Work on Western Front by Sacrifice of His Life

Lieut. Colonel A. E. G. McKenzie, commanding officer of the famous New Brunswick Infantry Battalion, has been killed in action. This news, which was received this afternoon through advices on the North Shore, will be received with deep regret throughout the entire province.

Lieut. Colonel McKenzie, who was thirty-eight years of age, was a native of Campbellton. After completing his school education, he graduated from the University of New Brunswick, receiving the degree of M.A. from that institution.

Removing to Campbellton, he entered upon the practice of law there, at first in partnership with the late Judge Freeman. He was prominent in politics, taking a fitting part in the councils of the Liberal party on the north shore. He was prominent in the Masonic fraternity also, and was an active member of the Caledonian Society.

He was observed in a most dispassionate manner, he made friends wherever he went and (Continued on page 3, sixth column)

Rev. George F. Dawson Receives Word of His Aviator Son

Further News of Casualties Received in St. John Homes—Several of Men Mentioned Today Are Wounded in Arm

A letter received by Rev. George F. Dawson of this city confirms the official announcement that his son is missing and expresses the fear that he is dead. The many friends of the family had hoped that the son was still alive, but the future may bring better news of the young aviator who himself is to be a most capable pilot and his work was a great example to every one.

His loss was a great blow to me, as an am deeply sorry to have to inform you that your son, Lt. S. Dawson is missing and is, I fear, killed.

He was on patrol duty on August 10 and was flying with his formation just underneath some clouds. A German machine dived out of the clouds, attacked him and got away again before any one could do anything.

When last seen your son's machine was going down, apparently out of control.

His loss was a great blow to me, as an am deeply sorry to have to inform you that your son, Lt. S. Dawson is missing and is, I fear, killed.

Enemy Driven
Back To Aisne

French and Americans North of Vesle
Reach Crest of Ridge Dominating First Named River—Gains Also Elsewhere on Line

Paris, Sept. 5.—Today's war office announcement shows that the German retreat before the French northeast of Noyon continued during the night. The French troops kept in touch with the enemy rear-guards and pushed after the retreating force east of the Canal du Nord.

Franco-American forces, pursuing the Germans north of the Vesle, have reached the line of the Aisne, according to advices from the front this morning.

Advancing north of the Vesle, French and American troops reached the crest of the ridge dominating the river Aisne.

In the Neule section, on the Somme front, the French crossed the Somme Canal near Voyennes and Offert. Just to the south they have reached the region beyond Hondehoux, Flamey-Hallon and Flavy-Le-Midoux.

The operation on the Vesle has been extended to the east and a crossing has been effected between Vauxaux and Jonchery, a two and a half mile front.

Heavy Bombing.

Paris, Sept. 5.—(Havas Agency)—Nearly forty tons of explosives were dropped by 148 Entente Allied airplanes on the towns of Braucourt and Ansay-Le-Chateau, south of Concy Forest, on August 20, in connection with the advance of General Mangin's army, says the Matin. Important material damage was done.

In the course of the aerial operations fifteen fights took place. Six enemy airplanes were shot down. Only one Allied machine was lost.

TAKE FOUR PLACES NORTH OF VESLE.

Washington, Sept. 4.—American troops in close pursuit of the Germans retiring from the Vesle have captured the villages of Basoche, Fries, Pilette and Dasleux, taking prisoners and machine guns. General Pershing so reported in his communique for the day, received last night at the war department.

AMERICANS IN STRADY ADVANCE.

With the American Army on the Vesle, Sept. 4.—(By the Associated Press)—The Americans with the French moving with them on their left, have advanced from the Vesle to the edge of the plateau along a line from Brenell, Vauxaux, Blansy and Basileux. The Germans nearest this line along which they might make a rear guard defence of any consequence are opposite the edge of the plateau paralleling the Aisne, over which it is obvious they have removed their stores and heavy artillery.

The advance of the Americans in force began at 4 o'clock this morning, and the advance of the French moved on going all day and meeting sharp resistance at some points.

which they have been subjected to gentle pressure night and by day by the lightly drawn line from Soissons to Rheims, the Germans appear to be heading straight for the Aisne and possibly for their old positions on the Chemin des Dunes. It was not unexpected because it was inevitable. While the pressure from the south was insistent, if not vigorous, the forward drive north from Soissons on to the western end of the plateau made their position between the two rivers practically untenable.

NAVY LEAGUE DAY
PROMISES TO PROVE A GREAT SUCCESS

Expectation That The Sum of $15,000 Will Be Exceeded—
The Ship Cruises City

The Navy League day started in with a great deal of enthusiasm on the part of the workers, and a most generous response from the public. It looked as if every person in town had been tagged—an impression gained from people crowding about the principal thoroughfares at noon.

On the public streets dotted with tags, the Young Women's Patriotic Association, but business houses and private homes were invaded and automobiles went out in the suburbs as far as Westfield on the C. P. R. and Fair Vale on the government road. It was truly a dragnet of workers and few there were who were not asked to contribute by the tag method.

The headquarters of the executive was Trinity church schoolroom. Here the strategic board directed the execution of plans. Everything was orderly and systematic, and the officers of the league were ably assisted by the executive heads of the patriotic associations and permanently organized bodies of the city.

Paris, Sept. 4.—"Belgian communication—During the night of September 3 and 4 one of our patrols penetrated to an enemy post south of Dixmude and put the occupants out of action. One prisoner was brought in. We captured about thirty prisoners, machine guns and grenade throwers.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Aerial postal service between New York and Chicago was inaugurated this morning when Max Miller, in a large aeroplane carrying a sack of mail, left Belmont Park at 7:09 o'clock.

Cotton Market.

New York, Sept. 5.—Heavy selling in cotton futures was general at the opening of the market here today, as the result of the announcement in Washington last night that the war industries board planned to bring about the stabilization of cotton prices. First quotations were approximately 5 a bale under last night's closing ones. October sold at 84 1/2, equivalent to 81 1/2 a bale, under the high level of Tuesday.

Out of Russia.

WAR SUMMARY

New York, Sept. 5.—The Associated Press today issued the following:—The British, after their victorious drive through the Hindenburg defenses, are knocking at the gates of Cambrai, but apparently are momentarily pausing before attempting to force an entrance. Meanwhile the centre of the greatest activity has shifted to the Franco-American front, where the Germans are in full retreat on a wide front north of the Vesle, with the French and Americans in pursuit and reported as having reached the Aisne in their chase. Between these two sectors another considerable German retrograde movement is in progress. The French pressure in the region north and east of Noyon has forced a German retreatment on a wide front in this sector and advances of five to seven miles have been scored by the French forces within the last eighteen hours. The French are now but little more than two miles from the important road centre of Ham. Its speedy fall seems probable. The Germans here are apparently heading back for the St. Quentin-La Fere line. Between the Aisne and the French are getting ground. They have crossed the Aisne at several points northeast of Solismans and have taken the town of Misy-Sur-Aisne on the north bank, where they were already in possession of Bucy-La-Long. Farther north on this front they have taken the towns of Bray and Clamecy. The Franco-American operations on the Vesle front have been extended farther eastward, towards Rheims, and new crossings have been effected on the two and a half mile front between Venouseux and Jochery, seven miles west of Rheims. In the north the Germans are continuing to move backward along the Flanders front.

She is survived by her mother, sister and three brothers, Miss Rita, Ernest and Louis, at home, and Alonzo, overseas.

The death of Mrs. Adelaide E. Mann, eldest daughter of the late John Elliott, of Moncton, and widow of Edgar E. WAR NOTES

The Socialist Paris newspaper L'Heure has been forced to suspend for twelve hours. Other newspapers say the suspension was due to a request from American agents for the arrest of General Komiloff, Russian, is again reported killed.

Captain Von Lovetsov has been appointed chief of the naval staff at German headquarters. It is said he has been granted greatly extended powers. The Austrians say they have taken from the Italians Punta San Matteo and Monte Montello and a summit glacier.

On the right bank of the Verdun British troops on the night of August 30, completed their success of the preceding evening, taking new enemy works. In the Corns bend and the region of Monastir enemy surprise attacks failed.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Failure of frost predictions had a bearish effect today on corn and cotton. Selling, however, was of a scattered sort, and the market was easily influenced. Opening prices, which varied from unchanged figures 8-4 lower, with September 1.53-1.8 and October 1.53-1.8, were 1-4 lower, and then by another sag.

Oats were steady as a result of any aggressive selling. After opening quiet off to one-eighth up with October 72 1/2-73-4, the market hardened slightly and then reacted a trifle. Declines in the hog market weakened provisions. Most of the business was in ribs.

INTERESTING GROUP That was an interesting group of photos in the Standard this morning, but when did Manning W. Doherty become the Hon. C. J. Doherty? The getting together of Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Hon. A. R. Sillip and Mr. Doherty on one page of the Standard no doubt reminded the faithful of the good olden days, now gone forever.

IN MEMORIAM SIMPSON—In loving remembrance of Mrs. Elizabeth Simpson, who departed this life on Sept. 3, 1918. Gone, but not forgotten.

LONDON AROUSED OVER KILLING OF CAPT. CROMBIE

London, Sept. 5.—The attack on the British embassy in Petrograd last Saturday, involving the seeking of the embassy, and the killing of Captain Crombie, the British attaché, has aroused intense indignation here. The London morning newspapers denounce the act and endorse the British government's action in the demand upon the Bolshevik government for reparation and the threats of outlawry for the members of the Soviet government should it fail to give complete satisfaction. It should further acts of violence be committed against British subjects.

According to foreign office advice Captain Crombie opposed the Bolshevik troops and killed three soldiers with his own hands. It is feared that similar outrages will be committed against the French embassy at Petrograd and some French soldiers already have arrived at Petrograd. The Bolsheviks are reported to be encouraging the populace to massacre the British and French.

Amsterdam, Sept. 5.—A despatch from Moscow quoting the newspaper Pravda says that forty persons for the most part British subjects, were arrested. The reasons for the action, it says, were that the Moscow authorities had received a report regarding a connection between various counter-revolutionary organizations in the British government and the embassy.

One of the Bolshevik commissioners, it is added, was instructed to investigate the report, it being supposed that the counter-revolutionists, Savinkoff and Filonenko, were hiding in the embassy. Accompanied by a detachment of Scouts, the account continues, this commissioner, M. Hillier, went to the embassy and proceeded to the first floor where he was met by shots which killed one of the scouts and wounded another. A fight ensued in the corridor and it is declared the scouts were obliged to fire, and Attache Crombie was killed.

The police then entered the embassy and arrested forty persons, including Prince Schachowsky. It is alleged that weapons and compromising documents were found in the embassy.

Three Kings County Soldiers Have Interesting Visit to Scotland

Moncton, N. B., Sept. 5.—Three Kings county soldiers, Sgt. George Calhoun of Sussex County, Canada, and Sgt. C. G. R. telegraph operator, and Pte. James DeBour of Cornhill, have an interesting experience in visiting the home of the immortal Robert Burns, but not interesting to the Burns family. The three soldiers are the grandsons of "Bonny Jean," the Burns' sister, Helen, who married one of the Browns of Ayrshire. Three brothers, Hugh, John and Alexander Burns, manufacturer respectively (the soldiers) came out to Canada and settled in Havelock parish, Kings county, many years ago. Their grandmothers were Helen Armour, sister of "Bonny Jean."

Irvine Brown, writing to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Brown, of Cornhill, tells of a recent visit to Havelock, where he was the guest of the Burns family, who are his relatives. One of the relics inherited by the Burns is a shawl which was owned by the wife of the famous poet. For this shawl they have refused an offer of $2,000.

TWO DELEGATIONS ARE HEARD BY GOVERNMENT

Need for More Sanitaria for Tubercular Patients—Lumbermen Attended

The need for more sanatoria for tubercular patients throughout the province was urged upon the provincial government this morning by a delegation representing the commissioners of the St. John County Hospital. Showing what had been accomplished in this county, they pointed out the value of similar institutions in other parts of the province. They also informed the hospital which might take steps towards securing proper accommodation for sufferers from tuberculosis.

The delegation, which included H. B. Schofield, chairman of the board; Dr. Hugh MacRae, the superintendent; Dr. S. H. McDonald, the board; Councilor James E. Bryant, and J. King Kelly, the county secretary, also asked for increased facilities for the hospital. They requested a larger annual grant and also asked for a change in the regulations affecting the grant of thirty cents a day a patient. At present this allowance is paid for not more than 100 days for each patient. Some patients may remain in the hospital for several years and the commissioners ask that the allowance be paid for 100 days in each year during which the patient remains.

A delegation representing the recently organized lumbermen's association, also waited on the government today. The members present included W. B. Snowball, James Robinson, Garfield White, Donald Fraser, and F. C. Beasley. The lumbermen informed the government of the objects of their association and presented a copy of their by-laws. They also informed the government that they intended to appoint a permanent secretary and asked that the government be notified of the interests of the lumbermen.

VISIT OF G. T. MILNE

G. T. Milne, British trade commissioner, representing the Department of Overseas Trade (Development and Intelligence) of the imperial government in Canada, and Newfoundland, is now on a visit to St. John. It is only about six weeks since Mr. Milne arrived from Melbourne, Australia, at his headquarters in Montreal, to take up his duties. He had been acting as British trade commissioner in Australia since the early part of 1913. Previous to his appointment in Australia he was engaged for some time on a special mission of enquiry on behalf of his department in Central America, Colombia and Venezuela.

Before entering the service of the imperial government, Mr. Milne was for many years identified with business enterprises in South America, and he has a wide acquaintance of a general kind with the economic conditions of the Latin-American countries. He is now given an address in the board of trade rooms while here.

GALLANT LEADER OF N. B. BATTALION KILLED

(Continued from page 1) his loss to the province will be deeply felt. Soon after war was declared, Mr. MacKenzie offered his services and was given a commission as major and second in command of the N. B. Battalion. Throughout the glorious career of this unit he has been with it almost continuously. So far he had escaped wounds, but at one time was invalided to England to recover from a severe case of shell-shock.

When Lieut.-Col. J. L. McAvity relinquished the command of the unit, Major MacKenzie was promoted to the command of the N. B. Battalion. Later his career in the field having brought him to the attention of the authorities, he was sent to England to take the course of training to fit him for the rank of brigadier-general and had he lived, there is no doubt that he would have advanced to the higher rank.

A letter received by a member of his family only a day or two ago, contained a feeling reference to the losses the unit had sustained in the heavy fighting. Lieut.-Col. MacKenzie remarking that he had lost nearly all his officers.

HUNS FEAR TANK MENACE

With the American forces in France, Sept. 5—(By the A. P.)—Germany's anti-tank crusade has reached a stage where every machine gunner in a sector where the Entente Allies are using tanks has been supplied with armor-piercing bullets to reinforce the anti-tank gun.

In a recently captured troop communication, a German expert described the warfare as a kind of large-scale cavalry. The orders go into detail regarding the German plans to overcome the tanks of the Allies.

The communication says the tanks must be fought along the same lines as if they were great armored cavalry. The document says that wherever commanders believe the Allies will use tanks, orders should be issued to battery commanders to have outposts of anti-tank gun day and night to protect the light artillery at all costs.

SAYS STEEL PUDDLERS MAKE $30 A DAY AND DRIVE TO WORK IN AUTOMOBILES

New York, Sept. 5—Executive heads of the largest iron and steel manufacturing concerns in the country, to the number of 160 men, met here in conference. Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the Board of the United States Steel Institute, presided. Despite the reticence of the conferees it is known that the labor situation is causing grave concern among steel producers. The steel workers have been bringing pressure to bear upon the War Industries Board to induce the government to influence manufacturers to grant a still further increase in pay, notwithstanding that the last two years wages have been increased on a greater scale than in any other industry, increases granted by the United States Steel Corporation since Jan. 1, 1916, having amounted to nearly 104 per cent.

One prominent steel manufacturer said: "The proffering of American labor in a very serious phase of the industrial situation. Puddlers in the steel mills are earning as much as $30 a day and are driving to work in their automobiles. The boys who are fighting in the trenches are getting only $30 a month. The latter make no complaint, but the steel workers want still higher pay."

War Has Eliminated Dutch Cigar Stubs

Standard Cigar Issued by Government Has Wooden Mouthpiece

The Hague, Sept. 5—Standardized food becomes the rule in Holland, and standardized clothing may be next. The scarcity of meat has called into being the standard sausage, a mixture of beef and veal, produced under government control, and sold at the fixed price of twenty-two cents per pound.

The shortage of leather is a stumbling block for the introduction of standard shoes in three grades and sets of standard sack suits in six varieties of sober tints are promised for the near future.

Standardization in women's clothes is urged in some quarters, but few venturesome spirits hazard any concrete suggestions on this thorny problem.

The latest in the standard cigar, tobacco prices are soaring and cigars now cost twice or three times as much as they did a year ago. The government article will be made of the remaining stocks of Java tobacco in the country, and provided with a wooden mouthpiece, enabling the smoker to finish the weed to the bitter end, which is expected to result in a saving of 15 per cent. The cigar will retail at 8 Dutch cents, and pickers-up of cigar stubs will have to look for another trade.

VIA CANADIAN GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS TO WESTERN CANADA

Excellent Through Train Service From Maritime Provinces to Winnipeg and Pacific Coast.

Via the Canadian Government railways to western Canada is the route now extensively followed by many travellers from points in the maritime provinces, splendid through service being afforded via Canadian Government railway through Quebec or Winnipeg.

Through the vast section of northern Quebec and northern Ontario, the new and comfortable journey through a new country abounding in great lakes and rivers, a territory growing with the lively promise of Canada's great future.

From maritime provinces, the new passenger journey to Lewis by the Ocean Limited or by the Maritime Express, the latter train affords the most convenient and direct connection with the Western National which leaves Quebec at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week. Thus a passenger leaving Halifax on Monday, Wednesday or Friday will reach Lewis at 1:20 p.m. the day following, and by taking the Western National from Quebec the same afternoon will arrive in Winnipeg on Thursday, Saturday or Monday evening at 6 p.m.

A pleasing feature of travel via this route is the personal attention given passengers by train officials. At Lewis a special representative meets the train and attends to all details of the transfer to Palais Station, Quebec, etc.

Via the Canadian Government railway is the quickest and most convenient route between eastern and western Canada, through a country of marvellous scenic beauty and over one of the finest and smoothest roadbeds in America.

Full information regarding fares via this route and reservation for sleeping cars, etc., may be obtained on application to nearest local ticket agent or Canadian Government railways, or to A. C. Gibb, City Ticket Agent, St. John, N. B.

How You Can Remove Every Trace of Hair

(Toilet Talks)

A stiff paste made with some powdered delatone and water and spread on a hairy surface about 2 minutes will, when removed, take every trace of hair with it. The skin should then be washed to free it from the remaining delatone. No harm can result from this treatment, but be sure it is delatone you get and you will not be disappointed.

Kindergartens Win Prestige in States

Five States Pass Laws in Accordance With Plea of Educationists

New York, Sept. 5.—The advance in kindergarten education throughout the country for the year 1917-1918 is noted in a bulletin issued by the bureau of education of the department of the interior. During the school year 1917-1918 five states have developed their kindergarten laws in accordance with the suggestion of the United States bureau of education, while the organization of mothers and clubwomen devoted to the education of children has received remarkable impetus in every part of the country.

In Maine and Texas the new laws authorize the school boards to open kindergartens wherever parents petition for them. This makes it possible for a community to determine for itself without the slightest degree of difficulty whether it desires the advantages of a kindergarten training for its children. In Maine, a feature of the legislative campaign was the presence of ten of the kindergarten children of Bangor before the educational committee of the house on the hearing of the kindergarten bill.

In Texas the congress of mothers and women's clubs were effective in arousing sentiment for kindergartens all over the state. The education officials of the state supported the measure from the start, and the result was not only successful legislation but a widespread public sentiment for the best type of kindergarten training.

The amendment to the Washington law, although it does not expressly state that parents may petition for a kindergarten, is practically the same in effect, since it provides that a kindergarten shall constitute a part of the regular school system and shall be supported in the same way that primary and grammar courses are supported. The result is that when fathers and mothers make known their wishes for a kindergarten as part of the public school system of their community a class will be started.

The following arguments presented by representatives of the Congress of Mothers in Washington were effective in obtaining legislation:

- (1) The early years are the most impressionable and in a wise educational system these years should not be left unprovided for.
- (2) Little children receive a good start not only in school but in life through the excellent training which the kindergarten gives.
- (3) The majority of parents who want kindergarten training for their children cannot afford to pay tuition at kindergartens.
- (4) The kindergarten is democratic in that it brings additional educational advantages to all children before any must leave school to go to work.
- (5) One dollar spent in right formation is better than a hundred spent for reformation later.

In Oregon progress was made in kindergarten legislation despite considerable opposition. The new law applies only to the City of Portland, and has the further restriction that not more than five and not less than three kindergartens must be installed during the year. It is hoped that Oregon will find the Portland experiment so desirable that the legislation will extend to the kindergarten advantages throughout the state.

In Tennessee the school authorities have usually felt that since the state law did not permit the use of state and city school money for kindergartens there was no way to maintain them. The new kindergarten law, obtained largely through the efforts of the Tennessee state branch of the Congress of Mothers, does not add to school taxation and does not affect the basis of school population, but simply gives cities and towns the right to supplement their grade work with adequate training in kindergartens.

GERMANY NOW BARS ALL ALLIED PAPERS TO HELP CHECK PEOPLE'S PESSIMISM

London, Sept. 5.—The sale of newspapers published in allied countries has been prohibited in Germany for some time. Previously English, French and American newspapers could easily be bought at shops and bookstalls and were allowed to circulate freely, but now they are obtainable only by special permits, which are issued to privileged persons, such as members of the Reichstag.

The prohibition apparently is intended to counteract the growing pessimism of the German people, and is attributed to fear on the part of the German military authorities lest the truth about the American effort should become known.

Cereal Food That Contains Its Own Sugar Grape-Nuts

is utterly unlike any other prepared cereal.

Take a handful of its golden-brown granules and hold it in a strong light. You will see little shining particles on each granule—a result of the Grape-Nuts process of cookery, which turns the starch of wheat and barley into actual sugar.

The sweet, nutty flavor of Grape-Nuts requires no added sugar and where fresh milk or cream is not obtainable condensed or evaporated milk fits in finely.

No sugar is needed, and but little cream or milk, and this makes Grape-Nuts a very desirable cereal these saving days.

THE SAILOR'S WEEK

(Toronto Star)

Perhaps it is as well to bear in mind that the appeal made by the Navy League is not for the mercantile navy, but for the men and their families who are engaged in a peaceful occupation. Their work has been rendered exceedingly perilous by the submarines lurking in the sea over which trade is carried. They carried it on as cheerfully as if there had been no perils but those of wind and wave.

With full knowledge and experience of danger and of loss of life, men have shipped again and again. Their services have been of inestimable value. It is because of the skill and heroism of comparatively small lots, that the lines of communication between America and Europe have been kept unbroken.

Thousands of sailors who have lost their lives in this perilous work have left families who, unless assisted, must endure the hardships of poverty. We now have the opportunity to relieve and comfort them, and to recognize as far as we can the valuable service which sailors have done for the common cause.

SUEZ BRIDGED FOR RAILROAD

Desert 200 Miles Wide is Spanned for Transportation of Troops—Great War Need Met

Cairo, Sept. 5.—The suspension bridge across the Suez Canal is now complete and part of the railroad system. Direct trains are running between here and Jerusalem. The building of this bridge is one of the most important events in the history of the Orient.

A long time before the war engineers planned this span, which was to connect Egypt and Palestine. When war broke out nothing had been accomplished. A desert 200 miles wide lay between the Suez and the end station of the Jaffa-Jerusalem railway.

At the beginning of the war the line from Zagazig to Ismailia up to the bank of the canal opposite El Kantara was built. This line was to facilitate the transport of troops needed for the protection of the canal and their means of subsistence.

To connect with Egypt it was necessary to use a ferry. This caused delay and annoyance. Besides, it cost time and money. Actual military necessity accomplished what had been too much of a task for the engineers before the war. A splendid suspension bridge was built, which now furnishes direct connection between the land of Moses and the land of Pharaoh. This new line is important not only from a military point of view, but promises also the greatest economic possibilities for the development of the Orient.

RECENT WEDDINGS

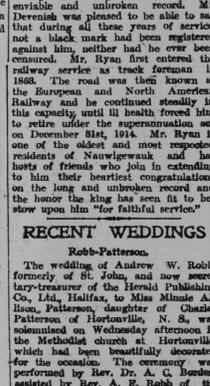

Robb-Patterson.
The wedding of Andrew W. Robb, formerly of St. John, and now secretary-treasurer of the Herald Publishing Co. Ltd., Halifax, to Miss Minnie Allison, Patterson, daughter of Charles Patterson of Hortonville, N. S., was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon in the Methodist church at Hortonville, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. A. C. Boudin, assisted by Rev. A. E. Robb of the Presbyterian mission in Korea, a brother of the bridegroom. Mr. W. Woodman and L. H. Curry acted as witnesses. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of cream serge with black lace and carried a shower bouquet of roses and carnations. She was attended by Miss Jean Robb, who acted as flower girl. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Robb left for an extended trip through upper Canada and on their return will make their home in Bedford, a popular suburb of Halifax. The bride's travelling gown was of brown velvet. Substantial evidence of the popularity of both the bride and bridegroom was given by the large number of valuable presents received.

Polarine
FRICTION REDUCING MOTOR OIL
"Makes a good car better"
Select the Right Oil—Then Stick to It
A MIXTURE of oils, that have different gravities and that vary widely in chemical composition, can't blend and feed evenly. The mixture won't properly follow, coat, cushion and lubricate the bearings and moving parts. It can't give adequate protection against wear. It won't burn up clean. It can't give uniformly dependable engine operation and freedom from engine troubles.
Get the habit of saying "Polarine, please" and you will give your engine better habits and get more satisfactory service.
Polarine is always uniform in consistency and composition, wherever you buy it. It will always feed freely and lubricate correctly at low temperatures or at summer heat. It won't break down at cylinder heat. It burns up clean and goes out with the exhaust, thus minimizing trouble from carbon. It is free from harmful acids and has the correct body to maintain the gas-tight, piston-to-cylinder "seal," that makes and keeps an engine powerful.
Polarine is made in two grades—Polarine and Polarine Heavy. It is supplied in one-half, one and four gallon sealed cans, also in 12 1/2 gallon steel kegs, barrels and half-barrels.
There are also Polarine Oils and Greases for effective transmission and differential lubrication.
Buy Polarine where you get Premier Gasoline—at the Sign of the "Red Ball."

YOUR MOTOR MUST HAVE THE RIGHT OIL

Morning War Summary

New York, Sept. 4.—The Associated Press tonight issues the following: The Germans are now giving ground over the entire 150-mile battlefield from Ypres to Rheims.

Seemingly the question whether the Germans will be able to hold even relatively their present line from Flanders to Champagne is being answered. And the answer is in the negative.

The strategy of General Foch, which imposed upon the Germans the necessity of falling back in Flanders, Artois and Picardy, now likewise is compelling the enemy to withdraw from the Vesle River between Soissons and Rheims, northward toward the Aisne in order to avert disaster.

In Danger From Flank

Outflanked on all defense works along the western part of the battle line and in great danger of a turning movement eastward from the region of Noyon and Soissons, the German high command at last has been forced to begin the retrograde movement in the Soissons-Rheims sector which the military experts long had predicted would be necessitated through the success of the British, French and American armies.

The climax of the German manoeuvres along the Vesle culminated when the French virtually swept away the remaining portion of the old salient in the region of Noyon and the French and American north of Soissons and along Vesle reached positions dominating the Aisne and the Chemin Des Dames and crossed to the north side of the Vesle on a front of nearly twenty miles.

All behind the front toward the Aisne huge fires are to be seen where the enemy is making his way as fast as possible northward, in all probability harassed by outposts of French and American troops and by artillery fire and the machine guns and bombs of the Allied aviators.

While the debacle in the south seems complete, in the north the Germans also are facing a crisis. Everywhere from Peronne to Ypres Field Marshal Haig's men are keeping hard after the enemy, whose line daily is being bent back further eastward, giving the British better points of vantage from which to work in the task of regaining as their first objective St. Quentin, Cambrai, Lille, Armentieres. From Ypres to Lens additional towns have been re-captured and the old salient now more nearly reclaimed.

Eastward of the old Droocourt-Queant line the enemy has been pushed across to the east bank of the Canal Du Nord, where at last accounts he was endeavoring to prevent by the use of innumerable machine guns a British advance over the ditch.

To the north of Peronne, over an eight-mile front between Moislains and Denicourt, the British at several points have broken their way across the canal and, Wednesday night, were pressing the enemy well to the eastward.

The clerks of the peace in the various municipalities are appointed by the government, and the respective municipalities pay their salaries, and in the case of sheriffs the municipalities contribute to their salaries.

It was also contended by the government that the city of St. John received into its own treasury all the fees resulting from police court activities. Many years ago the city of St. John decided upon this policy, so in reality the salary of the police magistrate paid out of the fees produced from the court, and the city when it changed the scheme did so for its own benefit.

The session will resume this morning at 10 o'clock. Those present were Hon. W. E. Foster, Hon. J. P. Byrne, Hon. J. P. Ventol, Hon. E. A. Smith, Hon. C. W. Robinson, Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, Hon. W. Roberts and Hon. Robert Murray.

LOYAL RUSSIANS UNITE WITH CZECHO-SLOVAKS
Washington, Sept. 4.—A Czecho-Slovak officer has arrived at Archangel with word that 80,000 loyal Russians are operating with the 40,000 Czecho-Slovak forces moving westward along the Trans-Siberian railroad and Ekaterinburg. The news reached the State Department in a message from Ambassador Francis, dated August 26.

London, Sept. 4.—The British government has sent a telegram to the Bolshevik government at Moscow demanding preparation and prompt punishment of those culpable in the attack on the British Embassy at Petrograd on Saturday, when the Embassy was seized and Captain Cromie, the British attaché, was killed.

The British government threatens in the event of the failure of the Bolshevik government to give satisfaction, or if there should be a repetition of acts of violence, to make the members of the Soviet government individually responsible and have them treated as outlaws by civilized nations.

DOLLAR WORTH ABOUT HALF.
Washington, Sept. 5.—Comparison of food prices prevailing now with those of five years ago shows that the purchasing power of a dollar bill has shrunk to fifty-four cents in Washington, fifty-nine cents in New York and Chicago, and sixty-three cents in San Francisco, according to a statement by the Department of Labor.

Food which could be bought for $1 in July, 1913, now costs $1.85 in Washington, $1.84 in Baltimore, $1.77 in Philadelphia, $1.65 in New York, $1.56 in Chicago, and $1.48 in San Francisco.

In the one-year food period from July, 1917, to July, 1918, food prices advanced 22 per cent in San Francisco, 20 per cent in Washington and Philadelphia, 20 per cent in Baltimore, 17 per cent in New York, and 11 per cent in Chicago.

Showed Value Of Organization

Fine Address by R.M.A. Treasurer at Convention—Illustrated Lecture by W. H. Farley in Evening

The opening day of the provincial Retail Merchants Association convention was marked with two addresses of unusual interest and value yesterday.

In the afternoon Henry Watters, Dominion treasurer, spoke on the value of organization and in the evening W. H. Farley of Dayton, Ohio, gave a lecture illustrated by stereopticon and moving pictures on some causes of failure and how to avoid them.

H. Watters, in prefacing his address on the need of organization amongst the retail merchants said that the evil to be guarded against was a just increased power. He went on to tell of what the Ontario and Ontario branch of the organization had accomplished by a thorough system of district branches, which had created the power to obtain from the government a reduction of $25 on a proposed license of $50 for Ottawa wholesalers.

He expounded the folly of the cry to cut out the middleman and explained that the social development specialists became necessary and the producer could not be the seller also. He also said that the problems that confronted merchants could not be dealt with by lawyers with as much understanding as they could by the merchant themselves.

As an example of the great advantages which organization brought he quoted the results which labor organizations have to their credit and said that a Dominion-wide organization of retail merchants would be a real power and could come before the Federal government to ask with authority for the licensing of all merchants in order to prevent unsuitable persons from starting in business and to prevent the big establishments from overpowering the retail houses through unfair prices.

He also urged that an educational propaganda be carried out through the schools and colleges. Retail merchants, he said, supplied the necessities of humanity and were interested in everything that interested the community.

After a very hearty vote of thanks had been tendered to Mr. Watters for his excellent address, the motion picture of William Hawker, the treasurer, A. A. McIntyre, read a most satisfactory report and was much complimented on the improved financial standing of the Association since the last convention. In her report the secretary, Mrs. F. P. Alward, referred to the fact that the New Brunswick Branch now has more than 500 members and twenty-one organizations, the Montreal branch being especially noteworthy, as it possesses one hundred members.

W. Hawker moved the hearty vote of appreciation which were given to the treasurer and the secretary.

At the evening session, F. W. Daniel presided and introduced the lecturer, W. H. Farley. Mr. Farley approached his subject of "The Retail Merchant as a Merchant" by first giving some figures as to the number of failures which occur in retail businesses in Canada and the next gave an abundance of excellent advice as to how a retail business can be made to run smoothly both from the point of view of the proprietor and the clerk.

LAWYERS URGE DIVORCE COURTS
Montreal, Sept. 4.—When the Canadian Bar Association resumes its sessions tomorrow, having elected its new board of officers, it is understood that other members of the Montreal bar will propose that in view of the close proximity of the United States and Canada in war matters, as well as in a work for peace purposes, the next meeting of the Canadian Bar Association be held at a point within the United States, probably Chicago.

This afternoon when the time arrived for the election of officers, Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice, was re-elected honorary president, while Sir James Aikins, K.C., of Winnipeg, was also re-elected as president. Other officers elected were: E. Fabre Sarveyor, K.C., Montreal; John F. Ord, K.C., Ottawa, honorary treasurer; R. Grant Wynipie, and J. D. P. Lewis, St. John, associated secretaries, with R. J. MacLennan, Toronto, secretary-treasurer.

Montreal, Sept. 4.—The question of whether the federal government should be asked to establish a uniform divorce law for the whole of the Dominion of Canada and either set up a special court to deal with the matter or give power to all the provinces of Canada to handle it was discussed at the annual meeting of the Canadian Bar Association this morning.

The debate arose on a recommendation of the committee on the administration of justice, which was as follows: "As the courts in certain provinces have jurisdiction over contracts of marriage and their dissolution or breach, while in other relief is only obtainable through parliament, the time has come when the courts of all provinces, save Quebec where treaty rights may be a genuine obstacle, should have this jurisdiction or the parliament of Canada should establish divorce courts."

F. R. Taylor, of St. John, held the view that any advocate who had appeared before the senate committee realized the difficulties that were in existence and his belief was that a federal measure would not facilitate divorces or encourage them, but give more power to the courts to deal with them.

The ex-attorney-general for New Brunswick, J. E. M. Baxter, said there should be no cheapening or weakening of divorce laws, for it should only be granted on the highest grounds, but those grounds should be the same for all people. There should be one court with as few judges as possible, because they did not want in Canada such scenes as disgraced some of the courts in the United States.

VERMONT ONCE MORE WHEAT-RAISING STATE Burlington, Sept. 5.—More than a score of flour mills are now under process of erection throughout Vermont, and many more are to follow as soon as labor and materials become available.

These mills are to grind the flour which the Vermont bumper wheat crop will produce. While no accurate estimate of the wheat crop can be obtained, it is known that it is much larger than the bumper crops of the State in the days when wheat raising in Vermont was in its prime, long before competition of the western grain fields. For the most part the crop will be used in the state.

"A FIGHT FOR MILLIONS" Vitaphone Adventure Story

CHAPTER III. Caught by the full force of the explosion as the lamp hurled by Jean shattered itself against a beam above his head, Lawless staggered back. Blazing oil set fire to his clothes, and protecting his face with his arms he began to grope his way forward. Jean was quick to take advantage of the situation before "Snaky" could return and she darted past the outlaw and out into the welcome night air. Lawless was tied a few yards distant and vaulting into the saddle and with never a glance behind, the girl rode madly away into the blackness of the forest.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE. Jean Benton, on whose Montana ranch nickel and cobalt has been found by Bob Hardy, mining expert, is left her father's millions provided she marry either of two brothers, cousins, Jacob Lawless or Walter Hyde. Hyde reaches Montana first and meets Jean. Lawless, sweating vengeance, also comes to Atwanna and aided by Snaky, a henchman, captures Hyde, Arkins and Bill Barry, Northwest Mounted Police Sergeant. He shoots Hardy from a horse as he gallops across a high bridge and Hardy falls to the rapids below. Lawless then lures Jean to a cabin. She hurls a lighted lamp at him, enveloping him in flames.

On both sides were steep cliffs making a V-shaped opening through the mountains. Bob's party soon caught up with the outlaws and their prisoners, purposely lagging behind and at once entered into a brisk rifle duel with them, meantime advancing further into the trap. Above on the cliff, Lawless had poised a giant boulder, willing enough to crush the men to death and realizing that the girl would be kept far enough behind to escape their fate. With feigning precision, as Iron Star came into view around a bend, the outlaw launched the rock which crashed into the trail, missing the Indian by a scant yard, but effectually choking the way.

Alone at Forsythe Ranch, Iron Star's anxiety for the safety of the mistress and her friends was told to her as the night passed without word from any of them. Standing on the porch peering out into the darkness, his keen hearing warned of an approaching horseman. It was Jean and almost fainting she fell from the saddle into the arms of the Indian and other servants. Her first words on being revived were for the men.

She set fire to the place and escaped," muttered the outlaw and when pleasure showed in the face of Hyde and Barry, he kicked the helpless prisoners—all but Arkins, who cowered in a corner. "Get to town for more men," he ordered "Snaky." "I'll stay here and tend this outfit."

Dusk was closing in when the six prisoners and their outlaw escort crossed the line into Canada. An hour later they were herded under heavy guard in a room. Lawless behind the general store of a secret trading post in the wilderness, where for years he had robbed the Indians of their furs in exchange for whiskey smuggled from the States.

He was quick to take advantage of the situation before "Snaky" could return and she darted past the outlaw and out into the welcome night air. Lawless was tied a few yards distant and vaulting into the saddle and with never a glance behind, the girl rode madly away into the blackness of the forest.

Along the constantly rising mountain road and across the summit of the range, the outlaws and their prisoners made their way, not stopping even for dinner. All day long, Lawless had scanned the trail behind for pursuers and finally was rewarded as he caught sight of Jean and her escorts a couple of miles behind. Evil anticipation was in his eyes as he told his companions, "Snaky" was for going back and shooting them, but his chief sharply ordered two of the outlaws:

"Go on ahead with the prisoners and be sure to show yourselves on the trail." Then turning to "Snaky," by the strong arms of the Indian, and also by Jean who rushed out into the river, he was hauled, half-swimming, to shore and taken not much the

Repairs to Sidewalks Damaged During Paving Operations—Union Street Lots to Peters Firm if They Establish Industry

Authority to use the balance, if any, of the Main street paving appropriation to repair sidewalks damaged by the paving operations was given by the council on Monday afternoon. Tenders for pipe for the Courtenay Bay water extension were opened and referred to the water commissioner. The sale of lots at the western end of Union street to C. H. Peters' Sons, Ltd., was authorized on condition that the purchaser establish an industry there.

When the meeting opened Commissioner Fisher moved that as the paving of Main street has made alterations in the grading of the sidewalks necessary in many places, and also has caused destruction of portions of the asphalt sidewalks in connection with the re-laying of the curbing, the cost of the sidewalk repairs be paid for out of the bond issue, or as far as a surplus above the estimated cost may allow of so doing. The matter was recommended to the council.

Tenders for pipe and castings for the East St. John extension were opened and were as follows:
Phoenix Foundry, twenty-nine special castings, ten cents pound.
Equipment Specialties Ltd., seven tons standard and special castings, 9 1/2 cents pound.

Vroom & Arnold, 420 tons sixteen-inch cast iron, $1000.
Vroom & Arnold, 200 tons standard castings, $8.40 per 100 lbs., casting not standard, $9.40.
F. W. Hayes submitted proposals for the construction of a reinforced concrete pipe line.
All the tenders were referred to Commissioner Hilyard and the city engineer.
On the recommendation of Commissioner Hilyard, two sheds at Miram were sold for $20 and two acres of land were leased at $10 a year to Paul Dargow, a former employee of the water and sewerage department, whose health had been affected by gas poisoning.
On motion of Commissioner Bullock, the sale of the city lots at the eastern end of Union street, the site of the old Howe woodworking factory, to C. H. Peters' Sons, Ltd., the present lessees, was recommended to council at $1,500, subject to the stipulation that an industry be established there within eighteen months.
Mayor Hayes again brought up the matter of damage caused by water from defective service pipes. He said that on Sunday 15,000 gallons of water entered the basement of J. M. Humphrey & Co., and considerable of it flowed through into the Bank of Montreal premises and again on Tuesday night, another 1,000 gallons escaped, owing to a break.
Commissioner Hilyard said he had given orders to ensure that more care would be exercised by the boys who are installing water meters, but that the trouble was due largely to sewer pipes which have become rotten through old age.
Commissioner Bullock asked about repairs to the King street pavement and Commissioner Fisher promised consideration.
The Canadians are credited with more than 20,000 prisoners as the result of a month's work. This number is in excess of our total casualties, so far as current figures show.

BOY FROM HEART OF BIG DRIVE

How The N. B. Battalion Went At Huns on August 8

Six Mile Objective Gained in Less Than Seven Hours—Cavalry on the Flying Enemy Eves Before Goal Set Was Reached

The following is a section of a letter received from one of the boys of the famous N. B. Battalion:

"On the morning of Aug. 8 this big attack started and, believe me, it was some experience.

"You have read in British history or perhaps in Henry's books of the Scotch regiments going into battle with colors flying and bagpipes playing, etc. Well, leaving out the colors part of it, everything else was there. Our pipes went over with us and played us forward first half of the attack; those not wounded were with us at the finish.

"We jumped the bags at 5:30 a. m. and at 12 noon had reached our objective, six miles forward. The battalion and a Montreal battalion took the lead for the second half of the distance. The boys were splendid every one of them.

"The tanks accompanied us and did excellent work clearing out trenches and machine gun nests. The flying men were right there with the goods, keeping track of our progress, dropping bombs and turning machine guns on retreating Boches.

"Even before our objectives were gained the cavalry came rushing into action and cut off the remaining Huns before they could escape.

"In the early part of our drive we had some difficulty in keeping our direction because of a thick mist which settled over the land. About 8 o'clock it cleared away, when we were able to advance more quickly. We were held up about an hour by a series of machine gun nests. Aided by tanks we eventually settled them. By the time you receive this you will have learned all about the number of prisoners taken.

"Seccon's day's drive we were in support, attach getting away at noon; did not advance as far as on first day, considering our flank would be in danger. We were a pretty tired lot at the end of the second day I can tell you. The strain was beginning to tell on us and we were not at all sorry to see reinforcing battalions going forward.

"Weather has been fine every day, which has helped us greatly to get our guns transported quickly, etc. Splendid reports are coming from other parts of the line. We say four German planes brought down within an hour. We have the upper hand now so far as the air is concerned."

Youth at Willow Grove Escaped From Window—Shots Failed to Stop Him

The first local case involving the harboring of a defaulter under the M. S. Act came up in the county yesterday before Magistrate Adams at Brookville. Information being laid by the military inspector, the man involved belongs to Willow Grove, and his son was being rounded up last week. The young man escaped through the window of the house, it is said, and though shots were fired by the officers, he managed to make his escape to the woods and has not yet been apprehended.

The case of the father has been postponed for a few days.

SHRAPNEL THROUGH RIM OF HIS HELMET

George E. McCoy's Narrow Escape Learned of in Letter To Mother

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McCoy was cheered today by receipt of a letter from their soldier son, George E., who was reported wounded recently. He tells of a narrow escape which he had as follows:

15th Can. General Hospital, Taplow, Bucks, England.
Ward Alex. I.

Dear Mother—These few lines to have you know that I am getting along O. K. Just arrived back in "Blighty" last evening and am at Taplow, about twenty-five miles from London. There have been big "doings" in France this last week. It was during the big attack on the Amiens front that I got hit. I got two pieces of shrapnel in my left arm and two pieces in my left shoulder. The piece that "got" me in the shoulder passed right through the rim of my steel helmet, so you see I had sort of a narrow shave. My wounds are not really serious as there are no bones broken, only I am rather torn up in general. I suppose you will want to know how all happened. Well, to make a long story short, the colonel called for so many pipers to play the boys over the top, and of course I was right on the job. This is all I can write just now as I cannot sit up very long at a time.

Love's regards to all.
GEORGE.
