SEVENTY OTHERS, WHOSE BODIES HAVE NOT YET BEEN FOUND, WERE PROBABLY KILLED IN EXPLOSION—BELIEF IS THAT NOT ONE HAS SURVIVED THE DISASTER IN THE PRIMERO MINE

PRIMERO, Colo., Feb. 1.—Fighting madly to escape through the narrow, partly choked air shaft, tramping over fallen comrades in their struggle for life, more than half of the 149 miners employed in the Primero Mine of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. wrecked by an explosion yesterday afternoon, were found in heaps about the bottom of the air shaft where they had fallen in the desperate struggle. One hundred and forty-nine men are known to have been in the mine when the explosion occurred. It is said that seventy-nine are dead. One has been rescued alive but dangerously injured. Their bodies are torn and charred beyond recognition. It has been impossible to identify the dead. Early this morning twenty-four bodies had been brought to the surface and rescue parties equipped with oxygen helmets are still searching the ruined works.

The explosion occurred at 4:30 o'clock. With a roar and a belch of flame the main shaft crumpled blocking the entrance to the mine. Both fans with which the property is equipped, were shattered and it was not until three hours later that the shaft was repaired and a rescue party headed by General Supt. J. F. Thompson, was able to descend into the mine. They discovered three bodies before they were forced

RETAILERS BEAR THE BRUNT OF THE FIGHT

Wholesale Prices Going Up; Demand Going Down

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Retail meat dealers in this city today faced perplexing situation. With the demand from consumers fallen off to a greater extent than ever before in the history of the trade, the retailers found themselves confronted by an advancing scale of prices in the wholesale market. Wholesale rates went up only a fraction of a cent yesterday, but the dealers were advised that curtailed shipments were likely to lead to a further advance today.

The petitioner in the suit is Ernest Henry Sackville-West, who asks the court to declare him the eldest and legitimate son of the late Lord Lionel Sackville-West. If he is successful he will acquire the title to the estates now held by Lionel E. Sackville-West, a nephew and the former British minister at Washington.

LETFERDINGS, Alta., Feb. 1.—A fatal train wreck occurred yesterday afternoon at Thiopah, ten miles west, on an abandoned section of the Crow's Nest line. A work train was tearing down the old bridge and men had loosened new joists when the entire bridge suddenly collapsed and went down, taking with it the engine and several cars. One man, a foreigner, was jammed between two cars and instantly killed. Another foreigner was badly crushed and will die, while other, including Engineer Moore, whose engine turned over completely, are badly injured. About twenty were injured all told.

NEWS OF SPORT

BATES AND MOORE ARE STILL DISSATISFIED

Unless Big Corporation Offers Them Presidency They Will Not Report to Club—Mozt Signs Two Men

Virtually the only two ballplayers of Philadelphia whose ideas on their earning capacity do not dovetail with that of their foreman are Johnny Bates and Earl Moore.

When these estimable Phils went over their household expenses and discovered that 100 per cent increase in rent, coal, gas, and other domestic necessities, they decided to make President Fogel share a part of the burden.

Therefore they returned their documents to the Phillies' leader with the suggestion that he build an addition to the figures named therein. Quick came the reply from Mr. Fogel that he was contemplating no improvement just now with the exception of the new stands at Broad and Huntington.

PLAT WAITING GAME.

Therefore it has developed into a waiting game, with Fogel as stonewalled as a Simon Legree and Phil as two gnashing their teeth.

It looks like the ballplayers have the strategical position in the little battle, for neither has he been ready to sign a living. It is known to be a fact that Mr. Moore was recently tendered the presidency of the Knickerbocker Trust Company and he can get it any time he wants it.

As for Bates, it is persistently rumored in the exclusive Mateswan set that the directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad want him to succeed Mr. McCrea, who is wearing slippers and trousers.

With these facts in mind, President Fogel will undoubtedly have to loosen-up or he will be deprived of two of his best men. It may be that Messrs. Bates and Moore, who are two of the cleverest ball players who ever got a club owner for a hunk of advance, will find their love for the game so strong that they will be among the first to stamp their tents on the floor of the special board of Southern Pines. The fans hope so.

FOGEL LEAVES FOR SOUTH. President Fogel left for the Southern Pines yesterday to tidy up the place for the visit of the Phillies. He will at once request the inn-keepers there to present sealed bids to keep the appetizer of Broadfield, Jacksonville, Magnolia and 60-horsepower eaters ready.

He will also see that golf links are in good shape so that no time will be lost in getting down to work. Mr. Fogel expects to be in the place for several days, but will return in time for the Sauer's hog-killing, the big event on the social calendar next month.

Two more signed contracts filtered through the mails to Cornelius Mack yesterday. They were from James Dyer, the bantamweight, who thinks a baseball is a cucumber, and Buscher, an outfielder, who played with the Evansville, Ind., team last year.

BOWLING

A bowling five from the J. M. Humphrey Co. establishment took three out of the four points from the Brock & Patterson team in Black's bowling alley last evening. Gambin was at the top of the bunch with an average of 88, which was boosted by a string of 116. The score:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Includes Crasby, Cochrane, Roberts, Crawford, Gambin.

BROCK & PATTERSON. Dale, 70; 105; 258; 81-3; McMichael, 80; 84; 86; 230; 81-3; Tyab, 66; 84; 74; 236; 81-3; Mahony, 78; 71; 85; 234; 78; Masters, 70; 81; 83; 232; 71-3.

C. Linney won a handsome calabash cream-crook last evening for a pinfall of 110. The score was put up in the course of the weekly roll-off, twenty-five bowlers participating.

This evening's league game is to be between two of the league leaders, Newman's and Insurance.

BALTIMORE TO LET OUT FIVE PLAYERS. BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 31.—Manager Jack Dunn has asked for waivers on catcher Hughie Hearn, pitcher Marony and outfielders Strang, Clarke and Jackson, and a club in the Eastern League can take his pick or have the whole lot for $750 apiece. Dunn admits that certain big league managers have made promises to him to fill their places. Chattanooga is after Strang for manager, and probably will get him, as its offer has been accepted. Dunn has sent out contracts to the players he wants. Doc Adkins, Schmidt, Byers, Brady and Campbell have already signed. The Orioles will report for practice April 23.

INTERESTING SPORT ITEMS FROM THE OLD COUNTRY

English Promoters are Talking About Another Match Between Burns and Johnson.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—British athletes are very interested in the trouble arising out of the American athletes asking for a return to the amateur status at Buffalo to increase the value of the prize. The request seems to have been made in a courteous manner, and the suspensions which followed strike British athletes as rather a severe punishment.

If an athlete is not satisfied with the prize offered at an English meeting, he does not compete—a course American athletes should follow. Further, an athlete here with a prize which he does not consider to be of advertised value, he sends it to the Amateur Athletic Association and that body will compel the club to give the value if the athlete's complaint is justified. In this particular, the English governing body, while very slow in some matters, shows that it will not allow athletes to be unjustly treated.

Real amateurs are not greatly concerned about the value of the prize, and our cross-country runners show this by supporting the championships and other events in which they have full prospects of winning either a silver or bronze medal is virtually nil.

On the other hand, so far as England is concerned, it is the athletes who make meetings possible and successful, as they pay the entry fees and travelling expenses. It is only just that the promoters should be compelled to keep faith and give prices of the advertised value.

Will Tommy Burns and Jack Johnson meet again, is a query many supporters of boxing in this country are asking on another. Since the memorable day at Bushcutter Bay, when the colored man beat Burns, many people have veered round in their opinion of the plucky Briton who hung on grimly after being almost knocked out by that terrible upper-cut in the opening round. Burns had some of the fighting during the preceding six months before meeting the present champion, and the writer has reason to know that the Canadian was very state and "fed up" on boxing when he left London for Sydney. Fights with Squires and Lang gave him no chance to recuperate, so that he was certainly not at his best on Boxing Day of 1909.

It will be contrary to the usual order of things if Jeffries regains his old-time form, and on that account the writer will be surprised if he knocks out Burns next July. On the other hand, the colored man is hardly likely to put Jeffries to sleep, considering he could not do this Burns' "spite of that lucky punch at the start. Johnson, however, will be no doubt on the point Jeffries may take the winner's share on this account. Should this happen, he will hardly feel like hurrying off to Sydney for the purpose of meeting Burns for the £3,000 ($40,000) purse which Mr. MacIntyre offers for a return engagement. If, however, Johnson only gets the small end of the winnings (New York rights) he will not be in quite the same demand, so that he might then accept.

"NAT" CARTMELL MAY BECOME THE CHAMPION SPRINTER OF WORLD. "Nat" Cartmell, the University of Pennsylvania sprinter, who was a member of the last Olympic team, has almost realized his ambition to become the world's champion sprinter. He had to turn professional to do it.

Cartmell is in England, matched with Forrie, England's greatest sprinter since the day of Harry Hutchinson, the Sheffield hand-pick King.

They agreed to meet at 190 and 220 yards, and in the event of a third race being necessary the distance is to be decided by the flip of a coin. The contestants bet $5,000 upon the outcome of the race, $2,500 on each distance. That Cartmell is warranted in backing himself as he has done is evidenced by a letter he wrote a close friend in the States, in which he said he was running the century a few feet better than 9-4 seconds, and the 220 in 2 1/4 seconds, only 1/10 of a second under "Vet's" world record.

Since he wrote, Cartmell has taken the turning, and with it $2,500 of Postle's money. Should he win the 100 yard, he will be the unquestioned champion of the world.

Cartmell was beaten in the Olympic 100 meter race by "Reggie" Walker, the South African speed wonder. Since then the old Penn. flyer put it all over Walker upon three occasions, twice at 100 yards and once over the longer distance.

Since Postle won the English championship a dozen men have tried to match stride with him, but until Cartmell beat him in the first race he never lost a heat.

STICKING TO BUSINESS.

The Currie Business University is run on the basis of optimism and common sense, according to its methods of instruction bristle with the kind of stuff that gets right at you. The head of this institution knows his business from A. to Z. and is right in his place during the opening hour hustling students into action and inspiring the whole school with the habit of sticking to business.

ANOTHER SCARE FOR MONTREAL BALL FANS

The Bronx Would Like the Eastern Ball Club—An Offer May Also Be Made.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Allan Rouge, baseball expert, of the Evening Journal, writes: The long-expected invasion of Greater New York by a minor league is pretty well under way. If the rumor is correct, for weeks it has been known that certain capitalists here were making overtures to establish in the Bronx an Eastern League club, and today the name of Billy Gibson, was associated with the deal. Gibson is a well known sporting man, identified with the Fairmount Athletic Club, and able to call upon millions of financial backing. Report has it that Gibson wishes to transfer the Montreal club to Bronx.

Gibson and his financial backers have hopes of getting the consent of Frank Farrell and John T. Brush, if successful they will immediately set the matter before the National Commission for amateurism. It is not believed that Bobbit, of Brooklyn, would be hostile, as the proposed park would be too far away from Bobbit's domain for competition. It is admitted that the Bronx Eastern League club, might be a dangerous rival to both the Giants and the Yankees, but the promoters argue that there is a tremendous population, estimated at 40,000, in the Bronx, which is not tapped by either of the big leagues, and that anyway, the city is growing so rapidly that another attraction in baseball must eventually be established.

A number of sites have already been offered. There will be no trouble in choosing one if the big League officials agree on permitting minor league competition.

It is said the Montreal club has never paid on account of the distance to be travelled and the expense involved, and that the purchase can be made without trouble. The Eastern League would undoubtedly gain very little by this, and they would every day get in order to turn over their goods, and make prompt payments.

With the relative value merits of the goods of the three countries under discussion we have nothing to bet here, but we believe that the trade factor that will count most in the immediate year is rapid and frequent connection. From the accident of geographical contiguity Canada has the advantage of time it takes to cross with us if she can give the goods that will be very much enhanced by a better and faster schedule of sailings.

There are many reasons for this, but the first danger signals that announce something wrong with the heart is the irregular or violent throbs. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all gone" sinking feeling, or again, a sudden and unexpected attack, as flushings of the skin and visible pulsations of the arteries.

There may also be experienced a smothering sensation, gasping for breath, and feeling as though about to die. In all such cases the action of Millburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in quieting the heart, and restoring it to its normal beat, is beyond all question marvelous, as thousands of testimonials will show.

Mr. Martha Mason, Mathbank, Ont., writes:—Just a few lines to let you know what Millburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I have been troubled with weakness and palpitation of the heart, would have severe choking spells and could scarcely lie down at night. I tried many remedies but got none to answer my case like your pills did. I can now rest and sleep as usual. I received a $1.25 at the price of the T. Millburn Co., Liverpool, Ontario.

of the big pitcher said yesterday that he was delighted with the terms of the contract he signed with the New York Nationals on Thursday. Macky was expected to be a trifle late in coming to terms, but the promissiveness with which he attached his name to the document gave rise to the report that he will pocket not less than $10,000 for his services between April and November. Mathewson, by the way, has enabled the New York club to stay away handsome profits in recent years, and is believed to be worth more money as a pitcher than any other man on the ball field.

Pitcher Tom Hughes signed a contract with the Highlanders yesterday. He is expected to be more than the "inland commerce of the future," as Manager Stallings has a world of confidence in his skill. Hughes makes the eleventh Highlander to get in line, and the other men, having received 150 contracts, will probably sign without much fuss or feathers. President Farrell believes in liberal salaries. As he says, when they seem warranted by the student life and if it were not for football it would be more good substitute.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 31.—Maybe there will not be any football at all at Amherst and some of the other colleges next year, if there are not radical changes made in the playing rules, declared President George Harris, in his speech to the members of the Amherst Alumni Association of Boston and vicinity, at the annual dinner at the Somerset Hotel tonight. POOL CHAMPIONS IN CONTEST AT NEW YORK. NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Jerome Keogh, of Rochester, gained a comfortable lead over Thomas Huston, of St. Louis, tonight, in the first block of their match for the world's championship at continuous pool. At the end of the twenty-fifth frame, the scores stood: Keogh, 209; Huston, 188.

Keogh also took the high run, 37, against 25 for Huston. Play will continue for two more nights for a total of 600 points.

This broke his fall and probably saved his life. Fellow workmen rescued him from the water and he was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where it was found his collar-bone was broken. Last night he was resting easily.

HIGH FREIGHT RATES HURT ENGLAND'S TRADE WITH N.F.D.

Report of Canadian Commissioner to Island Colony Points Out Some Shortcomings of the St. Lawrence Route Which Might be Remedied.

The Newfoundland Trade Review commenting on the report on Newfoundland Trade, by Mr. Joseph E. Ray, Canadian Commissioner, has some interesting remarks to make on matters affecting Canadian trade with the island colony. The Review says:

Mr. Ray remarks that our imports increased in the last twenty years from seven to eleven and a half million dollars per annum—something over fifty per cent. When we consider that the population has increased but very little in the meantime, and that we have been increasing our home output of manufactured goods in several lines every year, these figures make a remarkably good showing of our value as a market for foreign goods. Our manufacturers of boots, shoes, lines, twines, clothing, tobacco, lumber, furniture, stoves and grates, mattresses, oilcloths, paints, biscuits, etc., have practically all come into existence in twenty years. To put the position in a nutshell: We have increased home manufacturing in twenty years; the United States has increased its trade with us, while Great Britain has lost ground in nearly every department but "wearables" and these keep up, because our buyers go there twice a year.

HIGH FREIGHT RATES. Mr. Ray is of opinion that the traveling representatives of American and English goods are being to lower the figures of imports from Great Britain to Newfoundland, year after year. There is no doubt in this; but that is not the whole reason to account for the shrinkage in the volume of trade.

There are at least two other explanations to account for the decrease. First, the irregular or violent throbs. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all gone" sinking feeling, or again, a sudden and unexpected attack, as flushings of the skin and visible pulsations of the arteries.

There may also be experienced a smothering sensation, gasping for breath, and feeling as though about to die. This broke his fall and probably saved his life. Fellow workmen rescued him from the water and he was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where it was found his collar-bone was broken. Last night he was resting easily.

MARITIME REPRESENTATION

The position of the Maritime Provinces today is much the same as that of the little boy to whom someone had given a chubby mastiff puppy. At first the child was able to drag the unwilling puppy at the end of a cord, but within a year the dog having attained its growth, made sport of its vainly resisting owner.

These provinces got fair play at the time of Confederation, as conditions existed then, but slight regard was given to the future and now a state of affairs has arisen which might have been prevented by a little forethought. There is no use crying over spilt milk. Our representation has dwindled by the marked increase in the population of Quebec, which province in this respect governs the rest of Canada, we are liable to lose still more of our already small share of influence at Ottawa.

Mr. Warburton's resolution, asking that the representation enjoyed by these provinces at Confederation be restored will not pass. It is in direct violation of the British North America Act. Nor indeed can we legally have even the number of members now returned unless—as has been suggested by the prime minister—the other provinces agree that an amendment providing for this be added to the B. N. A. Act. The other provinces are by no means likely to accede to this request without objection. They all naturally desire influence for themselves. Yet they may see things in a more generous light, and perhaps if a conference were to be held there might be but little difficulty in securing permission now considered necessary before legislation may be sought.

But the real remedy, and the only one which can be regarded with satisfaction by our own people, is the development of these provinces to that state wherein no concessions need be asked from the rest of Canada. We must retain our present membership, and we must increase it, by our own right, based on growth of population. The west has had and is still having its day. During the past forty years most of the effort of the Dominion has been towards opening up the land to the west of the lakes. The east has borne a large share in this development, and has contributed generously with men and money. But today the west is able to look out for itself, and our own provinces are in need of all the help we can give them. The easterner's present duty is to the east, and on our own energy and aggressiveness will depend our future representation at Ottawa.

TRUSTS AND PRICES.

Walter E. Clark, discussing in the Review of Reviews, "Trusts and the Cost of Living," inclines to the opinion that the greatest increases in prices during the past ten years are to be found in the commodities which are not affected by trust control. He says: "The Labor Department index number shows that general prices have risen 21.3 per cent. in the last decade. Granulated sugar, produced by one of the oldest trusts, was in 1908 only 4 1/2 per cent. above its average price during the base years 1890-1899. Coffee, prunes, and sugar were the three glorious exceptions in a list of thirty principal food articles whose retail prices were studied by the United States Labor Department experts in 1909. As compared with their average retail prices during the years 1890-1899 these three articles were each lower in price in 1907. The other twenty-seven articles, over half of them free from trust control, had risen for the same time by amounts ranging from 4.5 per cent. to 27.3 per cent., and averaging over 21 per cent.

"Refined petroleum was 51.7 per cent. higher in 1908 than during the base years. This means that refined petroleum had advanced in price more than twice as rapidly as general commodities. It must be noted, in fair and perhaps full offset, that crude petroleum had risen in the same time 55.5 per cent.

"The Beef Trust is the special target for many an opprobrious shaft. Yet the higher cost of hogs and cattle rather evenly balances the higher prices of products. As compared with the base years, cattle of all kinds averaged a rise of 37.4 per cent. in price for 1908, while fresh beef (native sides) sold 21.1 per cent. higher, and bacon averaged 23 per cent. higher, and smoked hams only 14.3 per cent. higher, in 1908, than during the base years.

"The Steel Trust has held the price of its steel rails steady at 238 per ton since its formation in 1901.

"When the rising cost of raw materials and the average rise of wages per hour (reported at 23.5 per cent. by the Labor Department) are considered, it must be admitted that the trusts, as represented by four of the greatest and the most-abused of them all, do not appear to have forced their prices to arbitrary heights. Certainly there is no indication at all that the trusts are responsible for the general price rise.

This conclusion, sustained by the price records, is by no means a justification of the trust level of prices. It affirms simply that trusts have not played an important role in the drama of the rising cost of living."

Now that Mr. H. C. McLeod, General Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has resigned there is an evident desire on the part of other bankers and of newspapers, to convey the impression that Mr. McLeod's resignation was unexpected and came as an entire surprise. This is certainly not the case. Mr. McLeod is getting along in years. He has favored banking methods to which other bankers have been opposed and which were not warmly supported even among the directors of his own institution. His resignation has been rumored for at least two years, and in the past six months his approaching retirement was frequently referred to among officials of the Bank of Nova Scotia, although there had been no intimation of his intended handing in his resignation. His course has not been unexpected, nor have the causes leading to it, mentioned by Mr. McLeod, as well as others not so particularly referred to by him, been wholly unknown to his associates.

So another fire-water investigation is to be held. It will be remembered that the last one resulted principally in the discovery that a fairly large proportion of members of the fire department did not know how to manipulate the hydrants. Mr. Murdoch believes they have not yet learned. Possibly the coming inquiry will shed some additional light.

Simultaneous Evangelistic Meetings Have you drifted? That question every man must face if he would render a fair account of himself in life. For it is man's peculiar glory that he may direct his life according to selected principles.

He need not be the servant of inherited instincts. He need not drift aimlessly with the crowd. It is for him to determine what his life shall mean.

Have you become what you vaguely dreamed you would? Have you formed the habit of obedience to your conscience?

Do men recognize in you a man who may be depended upon to do that which he believes to be right?

Or have you drifted? Have you become one of the crowd?

Do you follow the fashions in morals as well as in clothes?

Do you habitually select the easy way or the right way?

Do you smile in a superior sort of way at the men who have convictions?

Are you proud of yourself when you so smile?

Or do you sometimes wish that you dared to do the right thing always, that you would govern your life by selected principles, that men could depend upon you always to play the man?

This campaign is for you.

It is a call to you and to all of us to put purpose into our living.

It is the call of Jesus and it means manhood

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

An exclusive and wealthy woman's club in Chicago has a very novel programme for this year.

It has pledged itself as a club and as individuals to expend its energies in the effort to make its daughters good housewives.

These daughters, most of whom are society girls, are to be taught to be capable and economical housewives, to cook simple, wholesome, appetizing meals, to make nice dishes from left-overs, and to know how to select good meat and the right kind of vegetables.

It is a splendid programme and one that it seems to me that all the women's clubs in the land might take up some year to good advantage.

And before they go back to their Browning and civio reform and milk inspection I have another suggestion for them.

Suppose, after they have taught their daughters to cook simple, wholesome food, they teach their sons not to manure their nails in public.

I wish some one would kindly tell me just why it is that although a woman of any breeding at all never thinks of attending to her nails anywhere outside of her own home, men who come of good families and, supposedly, have been well brought up, will walk up and down their offices or sit in the train, calmly filing their nails.

Suppose, after they have taught their daughters to make nice dishes from left-overs, they teach their sons to use dental floss instead of a toothpick, and to use nail-brushes in public.

Suppose they attempt to turn loose in the world a few men who never fall to rise when a woman—especially an older woman—enters the room, and who even occasionally go so far as to remain standing until she is seated.

Suppose they try to supply a few young men, who never fall to say goodnight to their hostess's mother and father at the end of an evening call, with the discovery that a fairly large proportion of members of the fire department did not know how to manipulate the hydrants.

Mr. Murdoch believes they have not yet learned. Possibly the coming inquiry will shed some additional light.

WIFE SAYS HE MAKES $100 A WEEK IN TIPS

Wants Waldorf-Walter to Give Her $50 of It as Alimony—Got $70 Per at Rector's.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Julia Wendling of 464 Columbus avenue, asked Supreme Court Justice Gerard today to award her $50 a week alimony pending her suit for a separation from William Wendling, and in support of her request, said that her husband makes $100 a week as a waiter at the Waldorf, and before that $70 a week at Rector's. The court reserved decision.

Abraham Snyder, counsel for Mrs. Wendling, asserted that the tips received at the Waldorf-Astoria were so many and so large that he did not see how it was possible for a waiter of the class of the defendant to take in less than $100 a week. He said: "We all know from personal experience the tips we give to waiters, and it seems to me that it is not saying too much to assert that a waiter in a first class hotel or restaurant must receive fully $20 a day in tips."

The plaintiff and the defendant were married on July 27, 1895, and have three children. The plaintiff set forth in her affidavit that almost from the day of their marriage her husband had treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner, and that he had beaten and called her names.

She said that it had been his habit to allow her but $1 a day to live on. In his answer Wendling set forth on information and belief that his wife was guilty of improper conduct with a man known by the name of Garrison, alias Evans, a bookmaker and gambler. On this ground the waiter filed a counter-suit for an absolute divorce.

Decision was reserved.

If you don't get bargains in Boots and Shoes now. Yesterday Coady's store was closed all day, the whole stock was gone through and such a tearing and mutilation of prices took place that today you can get footwear for actually less than the bare cost of the leather alone. See the position we are in. The new owners are clamoring for the store and the goods must be sold. People who bought at this sale since it started—a couple of weeks ago—were delighted with the bargains they got. Well, those prices have been sliced again, so that the bargains offered today have never been equalled in St. John. Surely this is a feast for bargain hunters. Don't Delay! Come in Crowds! Just think of a pair of Women's Boots or Oxfords for 29 cents, and that only one of the many bargains.

SURGEON OPERATES BY MOTOR LAMP LIGHT

Electric Illuminant Cut Off From Hospital by Labor Agitation—Patient's Life Saved.

PARIS, Jan. 29.—A remarkable tragedy was narrowly averted in one of the Paris hospitals last night, owing to "Kings' Patents" having cut off the electric light in several districts of the city.

A wealthy Parisian was undergoing an operation for appendicitis, which was in order to carry out the color scheme of a costume.

For dressy wear, black satin slippers are always in good taste. They are, too, more economical than many others. Gold, silver and brass buttons, with insets of semi-precious stones, are made in order to carry out the color scheme of a costume.

For the foundation of blouses over which dark chiffon falls, Persian silks are artfully utilized by many of the best dressmakers.

Nearly all evening gowns and the majority of reception gowns are a-glitter with beads, gems, sequins, steel ornaments or tulle.

Silver filigree, frequently modelled after the old Italian button, will serve as fastenings and as jewelry at one and the same time.

The most exquisite little fan that has appeared for some time is a tiny affair with mother-of-pearl sticks about three inches long.

It is correct this winter, as it has been in the past season, to have the hat close shined; if not in shape, the stones should be the same.

Among the mourning ties are those of net trimmed with folds of crepe. They are hour-glass shaped, one tab hanging over the other.

AT MOLOKAI (By Robert J. Shores)

Molokai is that island of the Pacific, lighter are banished the lovers of Hawaii, and where they continue to drag out their miserable existence to the miserable end.

God's sun was yellow in the sky. God's grass was green as yesterday. A writhing lizard lashed by, And brushed against my feet at play, And I—what sort of Thing was I, To peep the crawling beast away?

Across the sea, the azure sea, Bathed in a kindly Heaven's light, Bearing my Brothers out to me, Companions in an endless Night, A ship was rounding Koko Head Bound for the Island of the Dead.

How blue the surf that broke upon Oahu's shining coral strand, How gently in the rosy dawn, The palm-tree by the sea-breeze fanned. In nodding friendliness was drawn To greet the softly smiling land.

Far out across the rail they leaned, To bid good-bye to Life and Love, To mothers and to babes unwedded; And high, the Punch Bowl's rim above, A summer sun begit the swell That bore my Brothers out to Hell.

No tip of kindred is so stout, But bursts ampler with the Shams, And no devotion so devout, When farewell face and farewell fame Are by one tainted breath blown out As lightly as a candle's flame.

The floral wreath that bound my brow, The soft "Aloha!" from the shore, The last farewell, where are they now, And shall I never know them more? Ah, God! in this, Thy vast Demense, Hast Thou two Hells for the Unloved?

While on his vacation a city doctor attended the Sunday morning service at a little country church. When the congregation was dismissed several of the members shook hands with him, and one, wishing to learn if he were a Methodist, inquired, "Are you a professor, brother?"

"Oh, no, indeed," answered the physician, modestly, "just an ordinary doctor."

Joakley—"You're right; most people worry over what they haven't got, but I know certain people who worry because of what they have."

A COLUMN FOR WOMEN

Fashions and Fads

Household Hints

Brown as well as black chantilly lace veils are being seen more as the season advances.

With the black and white evening dresses the French women are wearing gaily colored stockings.

The time-honored black lace shawl hangs from the back of a more magnificent evening gown.

There is a tremendous vogue of gold and silver in the realm of millinery, blouses and laces.

An extreme novelty of the season is the heading of hats for evening wear with Irish crochet lace.

Fashion has decreed that short coats are smart, and the newest gowns from abroad show the abbreviated coat.

Ivory and gray satin, stamped with a good design, also green satin, are on the modish list for evening wear.

A cluster of silver leaves, gilded with mock dewdrops, is high in vogue for the evening dress of today.

There is no doubt about the attractiveness of a military cut in coats and wraps for the majority of women.

Some of the handsome Japanese corded silks are being bought by women who like clothes a little unusual.

For dressy wear, black satin slippers are always in good taste. They are, too, more economical than many others.

The careful housekeeper covers her mattresses and other tickings with unbleached muslin to keep them clean. This should be done on, or better yet, should be provided with buttons and buttonholes.

When carpets are not taken up they can be greatly freshened by washing over with water to which a tablespoonful of ammonia has been added to each pail of water. This should be done after a thorough sweeping.

Do not use wood alcohol for the chafing dish as the fumes are poisonous. As grain alcohol is quite costly, the best fuel is denatured alcohol, which is cheapest of all.

Never use a wooden spoon for stirring anything containing onion, as the wood will absorb the flavor and will impart it to other food-stuffs, even after a lapse of many weeks.

When the head of a hatpin comes off it is of glass, porcelain or wood, melt a bit of resin, stick the pin into the resin, insert it in the ornament and it will hold well.

A pleasing effect is obtained, if mayonnaise for a fish salad is colored green. A little spinach juice will answer, or soft mashed green peas will give color as well as consistency.

Fumec soap and ammonia will cure the worst case of tarnished brass. Just moisten the cloth with ammonia and rub it briskly over the soap and apply to the article to be cleaned.

If a quick dessert is wanted, use popovers. As the batter is poured into the tins, add a piece of fruit to each; served with a simple syrup, these popovers are delicious.

When using stale bread for puddings always soak it in cold liquid. Bread that has been soaked in cold milk or water will be crumbly and light, whereas if soaked in hot liquid it will be heavy.

Frosted grapes are a most attractive garnish for many a dish. Take white grapes and brush them over with white of egg, and then sprinkle the bunches of fruit well with granulated sugar.

If a generous amount of horseshall is added to mayonnaise it will be found an acceptable dressing for a fish salad. It is also delicious served with cold meats.

TO ORGANIZE MARITIME THEATRICAL CIRCUIT

A. J. Small, of Toronto, Has Been Asked to Take a Hand in Plan to Make Maritime Circuit

Ambrose J. Small of Toronto, proprietor of the big Ontario circuit which bears his name, has been asked by a number of theatre managers of the Maritime Provinces to organize a circuit with Halifax as a centre, on lines similar to that which has made successful in Ontario. Mr. Small has taken the matter under consideration, but no decision has been reached. At present the Maritime Provinces, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, are heavily handicapped theatrically, owing to the absence of organization. No inducement can be offered to owners of important theatres to take over the territory, as each town stands unaffiliated with its neighbor, and unable to offer continuous looking over a definite route. Companies which venture into the provinces are obliged to make separate arrangements with each theatre owner, involving risks which no large company cares to take. This is a contrast to the Ontario system under which Mr. Small books a tour through ten, fifteen and twenty good theatrical towns and cities, enabling managers to make arrangements in advance, and assuring them of profitable returns. Mr. Small made a trip through the provinces last week and interviewed a number of the managers regarding this proposition. It is understood that he was looking over the Halifax Academy of Music, tenders for the sale or lease of which close today at Halifax.

CURRY CASE AGAIN BEFORE THE COURT

Mrs. Curry Appeals Against Decision to Disallow Suit Money and Dismissal of Case—Sally vs. Kerr.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 1.—On the assembling of the supreme court this morning the one equity appeal case on the docket was taken up and Mrs. Curry vs. Kerr, respondent, Recorder Skinner, with the attorney general, appeared for the former and Amos Wilson for the latter. The appellant asked for an adjournment of argument, which was granted by Mr. Wilson. After some discussion the court decided to set down the case for the 14th instant, the appellant to pay the respondent the costs of the day. Shortly after eleven the divorce docket was taken up. There are two cases on the docket, the parties in each being the same—Mary Eliza Curry vs. Lemuel A. Curry. In the first case Mrs. Curry is appealing against the divorce judge's decision dismissing the suit money, and in the second against the judge's decision dismissing the case. A. H. Hamilton, K. C., and G. S. Ford, K. C., are appearing for Mrs. Curry and Recorder Skinner for Mr. Curry. The first case was taken up and was still before the court on adjournment.

SIXTH CHARGE MAY BE MADE AGAINST SEAL

Silver Pitcher Found in His Room Believed to be the Property of the Royal Hotel.

As the days go by James Seal, the young Englishman, now in jail on five charges, is being suspected of having something to do with other thefts. It is now very likely that he may be charged with robbing the Royal Hotel. This will make the sixth direct charge against the young fellow.

Among the articles found in his room was a small silver pitcher. It is believed to be the property of the Royal Hotel. Young Seal for some time was a bell boy at the Royal and it is thought that while he was employed here he stole the pitcher.

The case against him for stealing rubber goods from the Merchants' Rubber Company on German street will be heard tomorrow morning.

BOARD OF WORKS AND HARBOR BOARD TONIGHT

The Board of Works meets at eight and the Harbor Board at nine o'clock this evening for their regular monthly session. The Harbor Board will consider plans for the extension of Reids wharf for the E. S. S. Co., a project which will involve a large expenditure. The recommendation of the ferry pier committee that a slip be provided at Kennedy's wharf for the ferryboats while undergoing repairs will also be dealt with.

The Board of Works has little but routine business on the programme for this evening. The report of expenditures during the past month shows an unusually small outlay.
