

MEIGHEN GETS BIG WELCOME IN PETERBORO

Overflow Meeting Necessary to Accommodate Crowds That Came to Hear Him.

PROTECTION FOR CANADA ESSENTIAL

No Demand for General Election Except Among the Opposition.

Peterboro, Ont., Jan. 10.—One of the largest political meetings held in Peterboro in many years was addressed here tonight by Premier Meighen, Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of militia, and R. Denny, government candidate in the by-election in the riding of West Peterboro.

Mr. Guthrie, on opening, was asked by one of the audience why he did not resign when Sir Robert Borden resigned. This ally Mr. Guthrie ignored and proceeded to explain that the government did not pledge itself to resign at the expiration of the war.

Mr. Guthrie agreed that there was mainly on the question of a general election outside of the government forces. On the other hand the government is strongly of the opinion that this is no time for a general election.

He reviewed some of the activities of the present government during the war. He said that more good old-time Liberals from within the support of the prime minister than were supporting Mackenzie King.

He said he had heard Sir Wilfrid Laurier say that he would not vote until every vestige of protection had been removed from the tariff. When Sir Wilfrid came into premiership his government made no attack on the tariff.

Where is the government going to get the necessary revenue if they cut down the tariff? asked Mr. Guthrie. "From the millionaires" shouted a voice.

"All we are trying to get it but all you will get from that source won't amount to much."

R. Denny, the government candidate, followed with an address in which he endorsed the policy of the Meighen government.

E. W. MAIR WILL BE CANDIDATE IN WOODSTOCK

Agrees to be a Mayoralty Nominee When Citizens Present a Petition.

NOMINATION TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Three Aldermen and Mayor to be Elected—Three Have One Year Yet.

Special to The Standard. Woodstock, N. B., Jan. 10.—A committee of the citizens waited on Mr. E. W. Mair at his office this afternoon and through their spokesman, Mr. W. B. Byles, presented him with a request that he be a candidate for the office of mayor.

Mr. Mair, in replying to the committee, said that while he had no objection along the lines mentioned in the petition, he felt that he could not afford to ignore the request of so large a number of ratepayers, and would accede to their wishes.

Dominion Steel Embargo May Be Raised Saturday

Decision of Directors Sent to the Railway for Approval After Montreal Meeting.

Montreal, Jan. 10.—Transportation of Dominion Steel Corporation products over the Canadian National Railways will recommence on Saturday if a decision reached by the directors of the corporation after considerable deliberation and made public today, meets with the approval of the railway. The embargo on these products had been in force since December 25, but to avoid any complications the corporation had decided for a time at least to offer no business to the C. N. R. This, however, caused considerable inconvenience to the corporation and it was decided on Saturday last that on Saturday, January 16, the Dominion Iron and Steel Company would offer freight to be transported over the lines of the railway in the usual way.

BRITAIN LEADS WHOLE WORLD IN SHIP BUILDING

Her Contracts Are Over Half of All Let in the World Now.

UNITED STATES IS SECOND IN RACE

America Has Lead in Construction of Tank Ships by a Slight Margin.

New York, Jan. 10.—Great Britain is now building more commercial ships than all the rest of the world combined, says a statement issued heretoday by Lloyd's register of shipping. Of reports received up to and including December 31, 1920, shipping under way in the United Kingdom amounted to 3,705,000 gross tons, in the United States it amounted to 1,200,000 tons, and in all the countries of the world it amounted to 7,170,000 tons. Tonnage under construction in all countries on December 31, 1919, amounted to 7,781,000 tons.

On a percentage basis, the report shows Great Britain's share to be 51.6 per cent. of the total, as compared with 38.1 per cent. at the beginning of 1920. In the same period the share of the United States has decreased from 37.7 per cent. to 18.2 per cent.

Tank steamers under construction at the beginning of this year amounted to 1,163,000 tons, of which 637,100 tons were in American yards, indicating an increase in internal construction engine ships of this type building at the end of last year amounted to 454,000 tons.

Many Gifts For Retiring Banker

Watch, Club Bag, Cane, Gold Pencil and Other Presents for A. W. Hyndman.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Jan. 10.—A. W. Hyndman, manager of the Royal Bank here for the past eleven years, and recently appointed assistant supervisor of branches for the Maritime Provinces, with headquarters at Halifax, was presented by the bank patrons here today with a gold watch, club bag and an address, read by Mayor Riley. The Rotary Club also presented him with an address and watch chain, and the bank employees with a silver mounted cane, gold pencil and address.

DENY USING PRESSURE

Washington, Jan. 10.—Acting Secretary Davis, denied today before a senate committee that the State Department had brought any pressure to bear on the Cuban Government to prevent the landing of the Western Union Bahamas cable, as had been charged earlier in the day by President Carlton of the Western Union Company.

PLOWING IN ONTARIO.

London, Ont., Jan. 10.—Farmers all through this district are taking advantage of the usually fine weather to get a large amount of plowing done. There is no frost in the ground and the soil is in splendid shape for plowing.

GOLD FROM ENGLAND.

New York, Jan. 10.—The steamer Estrella Augusta Victoria, today arrived from England with $4,500,000 in gold for New York bankers. Of this amount $2,400,000 was consigned to Bank, Lomb and Co.

WILL ST. JOHN PRODUCE NEXT PICTURE STAR

City Given An Opportunity for Some of Its Residents to Become "Movie" Stars.

GAIN FAME AND FORTUNE IN FILMS

Universal Film Company of California Makes Big Announcement in This Issue.

A full page announcement is appearing in today's column of The Standard, which is going to cause a furor in this community, or we will miss our guess. The Universal Film Manufacturing Company of Universal City, California, is offering a limited number of the residents of the Maritime Provinces an opportunity to gain fame and stardom in the movies.

Open to Everybody. The proposition is open to everyone, young or old, male or female, and, according to advance publicity received by The Standard regarding the proposition, it will include railroad fare to Universal City, California, an assured salary during "a few weeks" "try-out" period, and a chance to secure a contract and stardom, or a cash consolation gift, if the party fails to make good.

A Movie Star Maker. In Sunny California, the home of the movies, the Universal Studios are usually referred to as "The Cradle of the Stars," because so many of the small town popular film stars got their first foothold on the ladder to fame and fortune and started in their first pictures under the Universal Film Co's banner.

Many Canadian Stars. The Pickford family, including Mary, Jack and Lottie, have made Eastern Canada famous among millions of movie fans, because they were born and reared in Toronto. Mack Sennett, of Keystone and pie-throwing fame, was born in a small town in the Province of Quebec. Charlie Chaplin, Hindoo's highest paid male actor, is a Britisher, having been born and reared in London, England.

What About St. John? Will the Maritime Provinces, and more particularly, St. John, produce another Mary Pickford, Mack Sennett or Charlie Chaplin? The Standard is anxiously hoping that it can be instrumental in assisting some present "unknown" to even greater heights of fame and fortune than the three persons named above now occupy and possess.

HATE CAMPAIGN IN AMERICA IS HURTING IRISH

New York Post Declares Ravings of Men Like Boland Detriment to Cause.

ALIENATES ALL OF PUBLIC SYMPATHY

Go Back and Fight in Ireland—Not in Madison Square—is Its Retort.

New York, Jan. 10.—Under the caption "A Real Irish Grievance," the New York Evening Post this evening deals editorially with the recently proposed vendetta against British subjects and the "tearing down of everything British in the United States," as advocated by Henry Boland, secretary to Eamon De Valera, at Madison Square Garden.

Boland's remarks, the newspaper says, are "romanticized a trifle to the speaker's ignorance as to his foolishness."

Inflaming Ireland. "Sensitive and intelligent Irishmen have long been aware," says this newspaper, "that a serious disservice is being done to Ireland by the ignorant hate-mongers, who apparently dominate the Irish-American campaign."

Intellectual bootlegging, frequently translated into appropriate acts, is alienating all sympathy from Ireland in this country. If the Sinn Fein movement had been conducted in Ireland with the same incompetence and aggressive stupidity as some of the champions display here, it would never have established itself as it has done.

Go Back and Fight. "Sinn Feiners, who tell the need for physical combat with their enemies, should not select the untrodden territory of Madison Square Garden, but join the combatants and their victims whose sufferings they exploit. As Americans we are interested only in a peaceful settlement, which will strengthen the bonds of friendship between our own country and British Ireland."

EMBARGO BILL NOT LIKED BY SUGAR DEALERS

Bermuda Potato and Onion Growers Declares It Will Kill the Trade.

SUGAR MEN WANT EIGHT CENT RATE

Americans Require Almost All Onions and Potatoes That Bermuda Grows.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Disappointed by the emergency tariff bill passed by the Senate finance committee, representatives of producers of sugar, raisins and other commodities in New York of shipments of Bermuda potatoes and onions and other importers appeared to protest against the bill as it passed the House.

Robert Millen, of New Orleans, declared the sugar producers should be given protection to the point where they could get 8 cents a pound for their product.

Wants Automatic Tariff.

He suggested that some provision be made whereby the tariff would automatically become inoperative above the figure.

J. E. Reed, of New York, said importers of Bermuda potatoes and onions felt that the duty on those products meant to kill the industry in the islands. He told the committee that the whole output of those two commodities was sold in the United States, and that representations on the subject had been made to the state department through the British embassy.

H. M. Smith, of Philadelphia, when asked to explain his suggestion, the proposed bill would lead to trade reprisals, said that the United States was now sending vast quantities of raw and semi-raw materials to the Continent, at a time when Canada and much of Europe is entering actively the field of selling.

Sees a Danger. Canadian prices, the witness said, were higher than those in the United States, and he added "those people can just as well place their bets in British Columbia as with us." This, he added, was merely an indication of how the retaliation might start, and he explained that there were many other commodities which could be included if a trade war were begun.

O'CALLAGHAN CANNOT STAY STATES' VIEW

Clash Apparent Between Departments of State and Labor.

MUST BE REGARDED AS ORDINARY STOWAWAY

American Named in Casement Letters Says He Has No Apologies to Make.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Refusal to waive the passport restrictions in the case of Daniel J. O'Callaghan, Lord Mayor of Cork, who arrived from Ireland last week as a stowaway without a passport, was decided today by the state department.

An announcement was made that an opinion of the solicitor of the State Department that there was no reason why an exception should be made in the case of the Lord Mayor had been received by Assistant Secretary of State Davis and the decision transmitted to Secretary of Labor Wilson.

Conflict With Labor. The state department's decision, brought forth the assertion by Labor department officials that jurisdiction in the case still rested exclusively with the secretary of labor. This indicated a continuation of the controversy between the two departments which has been more or less apparent ever since the landing of the Cork Lord Mayor in the United States.

Not a Bit Ashamed. Philadelphia, Jan. 10.—No citizen of the United States need apologize for any effort he may have made to help the political independence of Ireland, said Joseph McCarthy of this city, today in a formal statement with reference to the British "white book" concerning Ireland recently issued and in which his name is mentioned as a plotter.

HUNGARY IS PLANNING TO RESTORE KING

Said Charles Hapsburg is to be Offered the Throne.

"LITTLE ENTENTE" OBJECTS STRONGLY

Italy and Jugo-Slavia Prepared to Go to Extremes to Prevent Plan.

(Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger.) Rome, Jan. 10.—Reliable news from Budapest indicates the imminent proclamation of a monarchy there and that the Hungarian political leaders have decided to offer the crown of Saint Stephen to Charles Hapsburg. Your correspondent is able to state that Italy will strenuously oppose an attempt to restore the Hapsburgs and will be supported by Czech-Slovak, Jugo-Slavia and Rumania. It will be the first trial of strength of the "Little Entente" under Italian lead.

Nobody denies that Hungary has the right to adopt a monarchical regime in place of the republican, but what is considered inadmissible is that Hungarians should attempt to unsettle through intrigue the results of his war and of Italian victory by aiming to reconstruct the Hapsburg system whose destruction, with the consequent liberation of oppressed nationalities of Italian, Slavic, Czech-Slovak and Rumanian, was the war's only definite beneficial achievement. Rome, as well as Prague, Belgrade and Bucharest, thoroughly realize that the return of the Hapsburgs to the Hungarian throne will be only the first step towards an Austro-Hungarian re-union under the same monarch with the inevitable result of further attempts to reabsorb the other provinces which have detached themselves. This would mean the beginning of a fresh era of unsettlement, intrigues and conflicts in Central Europe which, in the interest of peace, must be checked at once.

Jugo-Slavs Against it. Since the Rapallo negotiations your correspondent is able to declare a special agreement was signed by the Italian and Jugo-Slav delegates providing against a Hapsburg restoration, which agreement strengthened the previous Czech-Jugo-Slav agreement forming the basis of the "Little Entente." The Jugo-Slav premier, M. Venich, stated to your correspondent that this was a momentous step which would permit Italy to lead the young nations born out of the destroyed Austro-Hungarian realm to wards security and progress.

Speaking in the Italian senate, December 17, Count Stora, the foreign minister, confirmed that at Rapallo not only had been signed the Italian and Jugo-Slav pact, but that of an agreement by which the two governments would lend political and diplomatic support against danger of coming from action contrary to their interests, aiming at a Hapsburg restoration; such agreement was immediately communicated to the Czech-Slovak government whose foreign minister will soon visit Rome.

Will Mean Isolation. If the unequivocal warning is not heeded by Budapest it will mean the Magyar has decided to defy Rome, Prague and Belgrade, not counting Bucharest, whose interests are similar. Automatically the veto against an eventual Hapsburg return will make operative a solid bloc of "Little Entente," plus Italy, against Hungary, whose isolation will become unbearable. Hungary then will discover how little comfort lies in the plighted support of certain French quarters, mostly reactionary, where a Hapsburg restoration is favored. It should not be forgotten that the French government has not signed the several Allied notes forbidding a Hapsburg restoration nor should it be overlooked that the return to the throne of any Hapsburg prince will establish a clear precedent for an eventual Hohenzollern restoration.

The dispatch adds that all the foreign legations and Nationals and the Shah with his court will leave Teheran in the spring.

DE VALERA WILL BE LEFT ALONE IF HE BEHAVES

Arrest Will Follow His Arrival in Ireland Only if He Becomes Dangerous.

REGARDED BY MANY AS PEACE FACTOR

Not Likely However That He as "President Can Interview Lloyd George.

London, Jan. 10.—That apparent immunity of Eamon De Valera from arrest would continue as long as De Valera does not participate in the affairs of the extreme nationalists, was the statement made in authoritative quarters in London this afternoon.

Government officials express the belief and the hope that owing to De Valera having allegedly been compromised at home by what is claimed to be a split within the ranks of the Irish-Americans, and taking cognizance of what is termed the moderate opinion in Ireland, which the government contends is growing in strength and influence if it is possible De Valera will become a factor in bringing into force the home rule act.

A Critical Point. It was said today to be unthinkable that De Valera as president of the "Irish republic" would be invited or permitted to see the premier, but certain authorities, asserted that should De Valera be delegated by the Dail Eireann the situation might be reconsidered.

Meanwhile it is declared that the government stands on the statement of its willingness to meet qualified spokesmen of the Irish for truce discussion but that such parleys must now be considered secondary to the preparation of the country for the application of the home rule bill.

No immediate action to this end is contemplated, it is said by those who profess to know, but rather the opening of negotiations toward the return of the roads on the basis of ratification laid down by the board, composed of Sir Walter Cassels, Sir Thomas White and Hon. One of the arguments to be brought up against the continuation of government ownership of the railways, it is claimed, will be that objection is being raised by the government of the United States against the Canadian Government being the owner of a road which operates partly on United States territory.

PRISONER TELLS STRANGE STORY OF 1915 MURDER

Alleges He Killed a Man in a Place Near Ottawa Before Emigrating.

DECLARES ACT WAS TO SAVE OWN LIFE

New York Police Notify Ottawa of the Unusual Tale the Man Tells.

New York, Jan. 10.—Confession of a murder committed near Ottawa in 1915 was made here today, according to the police, by Harry Dracy, 25 years old, a clerk in a Maiden Lane jewelry store, who is held on a charge of larceny. Dracy was arrested last night in a supper restaurant on the larceny charge, and later, the police allege, made his confession of the previous crime.

According to the police's statement, Dracy said that in 1915 while living in a "place about 2000 miles from Ottawa," he had quarrelled with a man, a married couple living in the same hotel, and had decided for the woman. Later he was in a café across the street when the husband entered, drew a revolver and threatened him. In self-defense he allowed confusion, went on, Dracy shot and killed the man.

Served in Army. Dracy succeeded in eluding the police, he says, and finally joined the Canadian army, and serving during the war. The Ottawa police have been notified of the man's statement.

Claims 3,000 Cannot Get Bell Telephones

All Dealings With Subsidiary Company Are on Strictly Business Basis.

Ottawa, Jan. 10.—That for the year 1921 the Bell Telephone Company will fall short by 3,000 of filling the demand for telephone stations was a statement made before the Board of Railway Commissioners in the hearing of the application of the company for an increase in rates. The budget for 1921 provides for an expenditure of $10,424,412 on new plant and the carrying-forward of an expenditure $1,425,537 to 1921. Of this amount $8,484,000 will be chargeable to capital, said Mr. W. H. Whelan, general plant superintendent.

MEIGHEN GETS BIG WELCOME IN PETERBORO

Overflow Meeting Necessary to Accommodate Crowds That Came to Hear Him.

PROTECTION FOR CANADA ESSENTIAL

No Demand for General Election Except Among the Opposition.

(Continued from page 1) Premier Meighen was greeted by three cheering crowds as he entered the hall from the overflow meeting. He described the West riding of Peterboro as a representative constituency. This, said the premier, will enhance the value of the meeting in February next. He said the government never committed itself to resign at the conclusion of the war. The government and the same means in 1917 as any other government had. It is true the government was elected for a specific purpose. That is true of any government.

No Election Demand.

Though war was the issue of that time no commitment was made by the leader of that government regarding the constitutional lifetime of the government. "I have been through Canada during the past few months and have heard nothing of a demand for a general election," said the speaker. "What I find is that the people of this country need an opportunity to get along quietly and re-establish their business on a normal basis. I don't believe Mackenzie King himself desires an election. What the ex-member of this constituency wants is an election for I will not attempt to define. We are not afraid of political division in Canada. We are glad to get out and meet some of the charges that have been leveled at us." The speaker reviewed some of the activities of the government and its war record. "That record stands unchallenged," said the premier.

Stakes All on Tariff.

"We are challenged on the tariff issue after the greatest struggle any government ever had," continued Premier Meighen. "On that it is demanded that we go to the country for a verdict." The premier said he knew something about the insurrection of the farmers' movement and what they would do if they ever got into power. If Mackenzie King was put in power who would be his allies? Ask him where he comes to this city if he believes in the protective principle. Write me at my expense.

Refuses An Answer.

The reason why he will not say yes or no to the question of a tariff is that he gets paid the next election, and if by any chance, through running on protection in one part of the country and on the platform of the farmers' group in another, he is elected and wants to unite with Mr. Crear, he could not do the latter if he said he was in favor of a tariff. "Take up any speech Mr. Crear has made in several years and you will find he favors free trade. I don't think he understands what free trade is, but he does not dodge the issue. He is frank about it.

"We have free trade which has become of the industries of this country," asked Mr. Meighen. "They only came here because they could get cheap labor," he said in a voice in the audience. "Let's see what I am sure here because labor was cheap," he said. "I would never support a tariff which is essential to produce goods here," continued Mr. Meighen.

Trade With States.

"Last year we bought from the United States $297,000,000 worth of goods, which was more than we bought from the entire world during the previous years. We sold only $645,000,000 to that country for the same year. Get your minds on that and decide whether there is any good reason to break down the tariff. That is one good reason why you should support the present government. We pay our neighbors several millions in exchange alone.

Depends on Protection.

The integrity of the industries of this country depend upon the protective principle of the present government. You can have a tariff and no protection. If you want that kind of a tariff don't vote for us. "There never was a time when the necessity for maintaining a moderate protection in Canada was as apparent as it was today."

Hospital Staff And Commission Met

Staff Suggests Building of Wing to Accommodate One Hundred Patients.

Fully realizing the inadequacy of the general Public Hospital to accommodate the public seeking admission for treatment and believing the time has arrived when immediate action should be taken to remedy the conditions existing, the commission and staff of the hospital met in joint conference last night for an open discussion of plans and methods for securing what the public demanded.

The medical staff has been sorely tried because of the lack of accommodation at the hospital. They have discussed the situation among themselves and have formulated a plan that, in their opinion, will give the greatest degree of efficiency at a minimum of expense. Last night there was presented to the commission for their consideration a plan which the medical men have agreed upon as feasible and practicable.

Wing Suggested.

Dr. Curran, as spokesman, outlined the plan. The site of the present building was ideal, and it was a propitious idea to think of doing away with the building and erecting one more grandeur. The present building was suitable for much of the work required to be done, but an addition to the building is needed to properly care for others seeking attention and attendance. The staff, he said, suggests the building of a wing, similar to the nurses house, wherein 100 extra patients could be cared for—maternity cases, more private rooms be secured and out patients handled in a more satisfactory way. It was estimated the wing could be added at a cost of some $100,000 less than would be required in the building of a new hospital.

Hospital Needs Wing

Dr. Aday emphasized the position as set forth by Dr. Curran. He said the present building was as bright as far as it went but it certainly fell far short of the local requirements. Increased hospital service is demanded by the public in the way of maternity wing, out door department, etc. A maternity wing must be provided and better accommodation for out patients an absolute necessity. He believed there should be more ample provision made for private patients.

Reject Old Plans.

Dr. Roberts of the Commission thought the staff should be given consideration in what they asked, and he believed rooms should be provided for all classes of people.

Plans that have been approved of for the remodeling of the building were exhibited. Dr. Heddon explained that if carried out about fifty extra rooms would be provided but the private rooms would be reduced from 16 to 7. After the plans were examined the staff was unanimous in condemning them as the rooms would not be provided with sufficient light, etc. Suitable changes could not be made. It would be adapted to hospital purposes. The establishment of a new wing as most feasible. They will meet again Friday afternoon to discuss the plan proposed before the joint meeting in the evening.

Epidemic.

All present agreed that the city's first need was a epidemic hospital and that it should be had immediately. It was also deemed best that the epidemic hospital should be in the present buildings where it can be properly conducted. Much discussion occurred over the epidemic branch of the hospital as to manner in which it should be conducted, etc.

After the medical staff had retired the commission considered the suggestions made by the staff and showed a disposition to acquiesce in what they had said. The idea for increasing the accommodations appealed to them as most feasible. They will meet again Friday afternoon to discuss the plan proposed before the joint meeting in the evening.

THEY CALL HER "MADAM CHAR"

It is amazing to see the hesitation of some men speakers in addressing a woman who occupies a chair—what ever they call her they never seem to feel just right. Even in London there would seem to be similar difficulties. One editor remarks:

"Scarcely less acute than the Cambridge degree question for women is the problem which confronts a meeting with a lady in the chair. Unless distinguished by a title the chair lady is exceedingly difficult to address. Mrs. or Miss Chairman is out of the question; "Chair" alone is too abrupt, and "Chairwoman" too suggestive of a lover's calling.

The Lyceum Club solves the problem for itself by addressing the presiding genius as Madame Chair. A female male visitor came near committing himself at the close of a recent meeting by asking how the name of the lady in the chair was spelled—she suddenly realized that "chair" was not a name but a title.—Cornelia in Toronto Telegram.

Respectful motion seems to be a failure from the word go.

Considerable money must go into some friendship in order to make them last.

Arrostook Jct., Jan. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Jones, on account of snow closed at McAdam. The girls of Arrostook have formed a social club. The Oddfellows Lodge has been transferred from Andover to Arrostook. The marriage of Harry Wade of Perth Jct. and Miss Cassie Craig of Arrostook Jct., was solemnized at St. John on Dec. 23rd.

Deaths.

Dec. 29, 1920, W. Grass, tollmaker at McAdam Jct. Mr. Grass commenced working for the C.P.R. at McAdam in 1896, and was transferred to Arrostook on June 2, 1914, where he worked until his recent illness and subsequent death. He was a good faithful workman and his death is much regretted.

When the C.P.R. was established in May, 1910, there were only 19 houses at the present; there are some 30 houses, and in order to accommodate the great increase in families, one of the finest schools on the St. John river was built a few years ago, chiefly through the generous efforts of Mr. W. J. Pickrell, who was at that time Asst. Supt. for the C.P.R.

Jan. 28, 1920, Edgins J. B. Gardner, killed at Edginsville.

UNITED STATES IS WATCHING THE JAPANESE

Her Naval Programme is Governed by the Japanese Activities.

HAVE NO FEAR OF WAR WITH BRITAIN

Possibility of Clash Between English Speaking Races Regarded as Very Remote.

By FREDERICK WILLIAM WILE.

(Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger.)

Washington, Jan. 10.—Japan's determination to become more and more powerful at sea, as expressed in special cables to the Public Ledger from Tokyo, makes a profound impression in Washington. It comes as no surprise either to our naval authorities or to members of Congress familiar with Japanese ambitions. On all hands it encounters the opinion that it is a menace such as those of Premier Hara, minister of war Tanaka and former premier Okuma—undoubtedly representing the controlling public opinion of Japan—are likely to remove the idea of any cessation of navy-building in the United States from the sphere of practical politics. With the Japanese in their apparent frame of mind, it is not surprising that the United States is being urged to increase its naval armaments race, is viewed as almost identical in the position of a rival from a single man-of-war.

Recalls Germany.

The unanimity of sentiment in Japan, at a moment when the suggestion of a "naval holiday" is being met with such widespread support in Great Britain and the United States, is considered in Washington little short of astonishing. Japan today, on the subject of a breathing-spell in the international construction of Germany, is viewed as almost identical in the position of a rival from a single man-of-war.

Great Britain.

In one highly important direction the Japanese fleet is steadily outstrips it. It has four powerful battle-cruisers in commission, four under construction. The United States has begun the construction of six battle-cruisers, but will have none of them in commission for a long time.

Apert from these technical and strictly naval conditions, authorities in Washington aver that political events in the Pacific never so much as today justified American vigilance and preparedness. Japanese statements, it is pointed out, have unalloyed and underlying friendship for the United States, but simultaneously press on and on with their policy of peaceful penetration everywhere in the Far East. They have on one pretext or another continuously their position in China, Manchuria and Siberia. They hold the Caroline and Marshall Islands, astride our communications to the Philippines, under mandate from the League of Nations. They have not yet yielded to our attitude on the subject of immigration control in California. When, on top of those purely political situations, Japanese of the non-jingoistic type of Hara and Okuma, sell the Public Ledger, that Japan cannot think of restricting her naval outlay, American naval men and Congressional authorities declare it would be "criminal folly" for us to slacken up in the one realm in which we can hold Japan at bay—the navy.

Royal Society Holds Exhibition at Grafton Galleries—Much Excellent Work.

(Copyright, 1921, by Cross-Atlantic.)

London, Jan. 10.—The Royal Society of Portrait Painters is holding its thirtieth annual exhibition at the Grafton Galleries. Most of the best known artists of the day are members of the society, which in the past boasted such names as Whistler, Watts, Millais, and Oreharson. The present exhibition contains much excellent work.

Sargent's portrait group, "The Misses Vickers," three young ladies, robed respectively in white, black, and purple-brown, seated against a dark background, is an early work, dating as far back as 1884, and is but an admiration of the Sargent school. It shows little of that dash and vigor, that astonishing virtuosity, for which he was to become so famous. Sir John Lavery contributes four canvases; they are clever, accomplished works, though the flesh tints are rather opaque, and lacking in luminous quality.

His "Miss Baird" shows a well known member of that well known black background. Better is his "A Lady in Brown," a pretty girl in a pale brown hat, and brown fur coat, against a dark background. Very interesting is the same painter's posthumous portrait of "Dora Sigerson Shorter," the poetess.

Oswald Birley shows good work in "Lady Lavery," in an old gold evening dress; the gold is repeated in the sitter's hair, and in some hangings. J. McClure Hamilton, famous for his portrait of Gladstone, has a small portrait, a three-quarter view, of Mr. Asquith in a grey suit. Full of character is Herbert Oliver's portrait of "General Tasker Bliss, military representative of the U. S. A. on the Supreme War Council." The powerful face of this white-haired soldier, in full, appears intensely alert, and is full of character.

Great Britain.

In one highly important direction the Japanese fleet is steadily outstrips it. It has four powerful battle-cruisers in commission, four under construction. The United States has begun the construction of six battle-cruisers, but will have none of them in commission for a long time.

Apert from these technical and strictly naval conditions, authorities in Washington aver that political events in the Pacific never so much as today justified American vigilance and preparedness. They have on one pretext or another continuously their position in China, Manchuria and Siberia. They hold the Caroline and Marshall Islands, astride our communications to the Philippines, under mandate from the League of Nations. They have not yet yielded to our attitude on the subject of immigration control in California. Who Will Be the Movie Star From New Brunswick? Will It Be YOU?

Stardom, Fame and Fortune in the "Movies" is offered to you without one cent of cost

The St. John "Standard" and the Universal Film Manufacturing Company of Universal City, California, offer the residents of the Maritime Provinces an opportunity to gain fame, fortune and stardom in the Movies.

Elmo Lincoln in "THE SILVERHOE" UNIVERSAL

Here is Your Chance to Become Star in Movies

Budding Geniuses Will be Given an Opportunity to Become Famous on the Screen With the Universal Film Manufacturing Co. of Universal City, California!

A decade or so ago, almost every girl in her teens, and many beyond that age, longed to go upon the stage and win fame and fortune behind the footlights. Today the dream of almost every young miss is to be a star of the "silverhoe"—the movies.

Young Lady—How many times when you have seen Mary Pickford, Priscilla Dean, the Gish sisters, Norma and Constance Talmadge, Mme. Petrova, Dorothy Phillips, Mae Murray, and other stars of the film firmament have you imagined yourself playing their parts on the screen? How many times have you said to yourself, "I could be just as great a star if I was given the opportunity." Well, here is your opportunity.

And Young Men—How many of you have felt that you have the makings of a second "Douglas Fairbanks, Elmo Lincoln, Eddie Polo, Bill Hart or Charlie Chaplin" within you? Probably you have. Here is your chance to find out at our expense.

Half Yearly Contracts or Longer

The St. John Standard and the Universal Film Manufacturing Company of Universal City, California (the largest and most progressive moving picture concern of filmdom), are going to give a limited number of young folks, middle-aged folk and old folk (either sex) an opportunity to become movie stars. If you consider that you have "acting ability": If you long for world-wide fame; or if you are interested in the million-dollar-a-year salaries many of our leading film stars receive each year, it will pay you to get full details of this offer from the "Movie Star Dept." of the St. John Standard.

The persons chosen by the St. John Standard will have their railroad fare paid to Universal City, California. The Universal Film Manufacturing company will then take these persons under their direct supervision and give them a four weeks' try-out at $25 per week, with every opportunity to become a star. Those who film well and show talent and ability will be contracted with by the Universal Film company for six months or possibly permanently. Those who are unsatisfactory will be given each consolation gifts of $100 and returned home.

An Unusual Opportunity.

There are thousands of young ladies and men in Canada and the United States whose parents would willingly pay large sums of cash to secure an opening for their daughters or sons in "Movie-land" similar to those openings offered by the St. John Standard. There are thousands more who have gone to California hoping to "break into the pictures," only to find that every movie employment office was already filled to overflowing and that there were thousands of applicants whose names were already registered for positions and that the chances for becoming even an "extra" were very remote.

These difficulties will be smoothed from the path of the persons sent to Universal City by the St. John Standard, and the beauty of it is: that it will not cost any of those taking advantage of this opportunity one cent.

Another Mary Pickford.

Mary Pickford a few years ago was a little Toronto girl. Today she occupies the leading place in filmdom and received a salary in excess of a million dollars a year. Who can say but what we may discover "another Mary Pickford" here in St. John.

For full details regarding this exceptional offer write the "Movie Star Department" care of the St. John Standard.

Use this blank to get full details of this unusual offer. The offer is open to everyone, regardless of age or sex. Clip out this coupon, fill it in and send it to the "Movie Star Department" of The St. John Standard today.

 - 3 Pills a Purgative,
- This is the Way Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills Work

You will have one of the old griping nauseating, sickening, purging pills, containing, as they do, calomel and other drastic mineral ingredients, one you use Milburn's Laxa-Liver, a pill that is purely vegetable.

Working gently and effectively, without a gripe or pain. If you are troubled with constipation, biliousness, driven to distraction with sick headaches, if your tongue is coated, your breath bad, your complexion muddy, your eyes yellow, have floating specks before the eyes, jaundice, itching, bleeding or protruding piles stir up your sluggish liver with a few doses of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

Mrs. Roy Mackie, Orillia, Ont., writes—"I desire to express my thanks for the relief I have had by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I had been suffering for some time from constipation and had headaches. I tried all sorts of cures, which did me no good, until I was advised to try your pills. I got great relief after taking only a few doses."

MINTO MINERS
BACK AT WORK ON NEW TERMS

No Great Reduction in Wages
But Pay is on the Contract System.

MUST WORK HARDER TO INCREASE PAY

New Plan Designed to Add to Efficiency of the Mine
Staff.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 10.—The International Paper Company's coal mines in the Minto district resumed operations this morning after having been shut down for a week or two, with the miners working under revised rates of pay and adjusted working conditions.

Only one shaft was said to be working today, but while there will be a curtailment in production because of general business conditions, Mr. Taylor, the general manager of the mines, declared this morning that there would be employment for all the residents of Minto who had previously been employed at the company's mines.

Closed For Week.
All last week the mines were closed as a result of a notice posted by the management that the revised rates and new working conditions were effective as from Jan. 3. There is no substantial reduction in the rates of wages, the minimum of unskilled labor employed by the day being $4, but the coal is gotten out largely on contract work and the company are taking steps to enforce a bigger tonnage per man and to make effective working conditions which the past several years could not be enforced.

Depends On Efficiency.
"If the miners return to their former state of efficiency they can make as much money under the new rates and conditions as they ever could," said Manager Taylor. "Had it not been for the officials of the U. M. W. the mines would not have been closed down as they have been. The U. M. W. officials came here and instructed the men not to go to work if there was a change made in rates of conditions and when our notices were posted the men quit. Two U. M. W. officers were here last week and the decision of the miners to return to work followed conversations which were held. Our absence had had been raising up as high as thirty per cent, men were working only three or four days a week when we wanted to get all the coal we could and now we propose to have the work at the mines carried on with as little interference and interruption as possible."

Rotary Club
Pass Resolution

Ask Minister of Works to Cancel Bridge Permit Issued and Reopen Issue.

There was a good attendance of members at the regular Rotary Club luncheon at Bond's yesterday afternoon. Dr. William Warwick delivered an interesting address on Pure Milk.

The proposed plans for the new C. P. R. bridge caused quite a discussion and at the close the following resolution was unanimously adopted: "Whereas, the proposed plans for the new C. P. R. bridge at the Falls are open to criticism from a shipping point of view;

"Therefore resolved, That the Rotary Club deem it expedient in the best interest of the shipping activities and as the city at large, that the Hon. P. B. McCurdy, minister of public works, be asked to cancel the present permit issued for the construction of the bridge as at present planned, and reopen the issue by calling upon the services of an independent engineer, and to include the representatives of the city in order that the requirements of shipping and the safety of the public may be fully protected."

The one adapted generally in Canada however, is the policy of keeping Zam-Buk always handy. Zam-Buk ensures quick relief in cuts, burns, scalds, cold-sores, and all injuries and skin troubles. It promptly ends pain, irritation and inflammation; it purifies the tissues; prevents blood-poison and ulceration. Its ever-ready herbal character and powerful antiseptic properties make Zam-Buk the safest and most reliable ever discovered.

Mrs. Belle Grant, Brazil Lake, N. S., says—"Cold got into my burnt hand, and I began to fear blood-poison. I hadn't used Zam-Buk long before it took out all pain, soreness and inflammation."

Mr. Jonathan Beaton, of Delta, Alta., writes—"While the dressing outfit last fall, many little accidents happened, cuts, bruises, frost bites, etc., for which we found nothing so good as Zam-Buk. "Devil Anse" Hatfield, Leader of the Hatfield-McCoy Battles, is Dead.

BROTHERS RECONCILED
OVER THE CASKET

Law Suit Over Hogs Started
One of the Most Tragic
Feuds in States.

"Devil Anse" Hatfield, noted leader in the Hatfield-McCoy feud of thirty years ago, is dead. Word of his death Thursday night in the Hatfield home at Island Creek, Logan county, West Virginia, reached Huntington Friday night. Pneumonia caused death.

Anderson ("Devil Anse") Hatfield was one of the leaders of the historic feud between the Hatfield and McCoy families in the mountains of West Virginia and northern Kentucky. Shot at from ambush and in hand-to-hand combat scores of times with the McCoy, he had always predicted he would die a natural death, as he now has at the age of 70 he could not shoot a squirrel out of the tallest timber. He often turned the trick for admirers with the old rifle that he carried for action at all hours, and with which were clove the early evening he would shoot on sight any member of the McCoy family.

The celebrated feud of the Hatfield family with the McCoy was started over some boys, one of the Hatfields winning a lawsuit that was brought to determine their ownership. Soon after that a brother of "Devil Anse" was shot and wounded in more than fifteen places by one of the McCoy. Then feud then started did not end until the few remaining McCoy went over into Kentucky, where they now reside.

The funeral services were marked by a series of dramatic occurrences which were present consistent with the burial of "Devil Anse." Before the march to the cemetery began the hands of two of the men's sons, long estranged brothers, were clasped over the coffin. These were "Cap" Hatfield, the father's namesake, and feud settlement; and Dr. E. R. Hatfield of Charleston. At the grave, before the body was lowered, "Cap" Hatfield addressed "Uncle Dyke" Garrett, an old friend and preacher, and told him that he had "made his peace with God and was ready to be baptized" whenever the minister would say the word.

"I will baptize you, boy," responded the old clergyman, "in the very hole where I baptized your Pappy."

There was no funeral sermon by "Uncle Dyke," but the Rev. Green McNeely, a companion preacher, spoke briefly not on the life of "Devil Anse" but on "the lesson of death."

Citizens' Committee at Harlingen Tells Two Families
Presence is Undesirable.

Harlingen, Tex., Jan. 10.—Two families of Japanese, consisting of two men, two women and four children, who arrived here last night from the West, intending to settle on farming lands, were met at the railroad station and informed by a committee of citizens that their presence was undesirable. The Japanese were told that they could remain overnight but could not stay indefinitely. The committee did not make any threats.

This is the second demonstration against Japanese here this week. Another Japanese family stopped here early in the week and was told to "move on."

Considerable anti-Japanese sentiment has developed in Rio Grande Valley towns the last two months since committees representing American Legion posts of the state have been advocating legislation to prohibit Japanese and Chinese from settling in the Rio Grande Valley. No effort of force has been made in the attempt to exclude Japanese from valley lands. Without exception they have departed when requested to do so.

The two families which arrived last night had purchased land in the Rio Grande Valley from a Japanese agent in California, who previously acquired the land from a Texas real estate man.

Special to The Standard
Charlottetown, P. E. I., Jan. 9.—A valuable "find" was made by one of the railway repair men lately while working on the track near St. Dunstan's in the shape of a black fox, killed by the train evidently only a few hours before, for the body was quite warm. The fox was lying crouched between the wide and narrow gauge rails. The wheels of the train just nipped the nose and ear of the animal killing him, but leaving the body untouched. The fox was a handsome one, probably escaped from some nearby ranch, though its ownership is unknown.

THE GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS

It is earnestly to be hoped that the rumor reported from Ottawa that there is a possibility of the Canadian Government Railways reverting to private ownership, will turn out to be true. Public ownership of the railways has some good features, but it also has many bad ones. Among the former may be mentioned the claim that the rights of the public are better safeguarded; that as the public provides the plants and physical assets, they also reap the profits that are to be obtained. Further that private ownership of public utilities creates a monopoly under which the public suffers; that under public ownership, rates can be kept down to a bare paying basis; and that generally, public ownership is more or less of a guarantee of efficiency.

On the other hand advocates of private ownership maintain that under this system greater efficiency is obtained; that while rates may in some cases be higher, there is no resort to general taxation to discharge deficits incurred in operation; that policies which cannot be kept wholly out of public concern—have no effect on private concern; and that if a claim arises against a privately owned concern, it can be carried to the courts and satisfaction obtained, something which seldom is done in the case of a publicly owned utility.

The Canadian public is getting pretty well tired of the everlasting deficits which crop up year after year in the balance sheet of the Government Railways. Notwithstanding a forty per cent. increase in freight rates some few months ago, the C. N. R. is piling up a deficit of a million dollars every week, with not the slightest indication that any improvement may be looked for. The view is taken by some people that this condition of affairs is immaterial; that the prime object of the railway is to serve the people's convenience, and that the question of cost is a secondary one. The Canadian Pacific is also operated for the public convenience, but it is not so far behind at the rate of a million or so a week in the effort and no one will contend that C. P. R. efficiency is not at least as great as that of the C. N. R.

It cannot be truthfully asserted that Government ownership of railways in this country has become a howler success; in fact it is not at all difficult to prove the contrary. Whether the Intercolonial Railway, the construction and operation of which was one of the terms of Confederation, could be transferred to private ownership, we are not in a position to say; that section of the National Railways might have to remain a Government charge. But all others can very profitably be handed over to private interests to take care of, then, if a paying traffic is to be had, an efficient service must be provided.

AN OMINOUS OUTLOOK

Senator W. C. Edwards, the veteran lumberman of the Ottawa valley, in an interview in The Canadian Forestry Magazine, predicts that within 15 years Eastern Canada will be securing most of its timber from British Columbia, unless immediate and vigorous steps for strict conservation are taken. He is pessimistic as to securing an action for the reason that the Canadian public has been taught to believe that Canadian forest resources are inexhaustible. The sole remedy, he declares, is to pass legislation permitting the cutting of only matured or diseased timber. This temporarily might mean increase in timber prices, but would avert disaster in the end.

The senator says:

"I am quite definite when I prophesy that within a few years Eastern Canada will be drawing the bulk of its sawn lumber from British Columbia and will be paying for it through the nose on account of high freight rates. The consumer, not the lumberman or the land holder, is the man who will pay the price of forest exhaustion."

"I have almost given up considering a remedy as long as the mass of the Canadian people look upon their natural resources as the 'free gift' on earth, and the degree of exploitation to date as a mere trifling percentage of what can be undertaken in the future. I have not very much hope, therefore, in face of the nefarious convictions of the Canadian citizen, that any scheme of conservation will be put under way. To one in my position, who knows by first hand evidence the true condition of the forest resources east of the Rockies, and who sees the present ever increasing tendency to over-exploit our timber areas, it appears that we must pursue our happy way until disaster is upon us. Then we will have no alternative except to satisfy our daily timber requirements by paying the bill of the British Columbia salesman."

"The only remedy for timber land depletion is to gauge the cut by the ability of that particular timber area to sustain production. I mean that we should only cut the mature and diseased timber."

The plain facts seem to be that there is a limit to the timber resources of Canada, and unless drastic conservation measures are taken it will not be many years before the Dominion will find an actual scarcity of good lumber.

WEST PETERBORO

Mr. J. H. Burnham, ex-M. P., who wishes to become a candidate in West Peterboro at the forthcoming by-elections, but cannot get a nomination, announces his intention of applying to the court for a mandamus to compel the Liberal Conservative party to hold a convention to select a candidate. Mr. Burnham probably it would seem, has never heard of the old saying: "You can take a horse to water, but you can't make him drink."

Mr. Burnham was until a short time ago Unionist member for West Peterboro, but resigned his seat as a protest against the continuance of the present Parliament, which he claims was elected for war purposes only and should have been dissolved long ago. There are those who aver that Mr. Burnham was more pliant than profit to his party, which should consider itself well rid of him. Apparently this is the opinion of the ruling powers in the party at any rate, for they have chosen another candidate, and left Mr. Burnham out in the cold. Hence these tears, or rather threats, on his part.

No party has any particular use for a man who, while professing to be a friend, does it more harm than an avowed enemy would do, and although he still maintains that he is a Conservative, the party is taking a wise course in putting up another candidate. A supporter who is constantly complaining that the Government has no mandate to remain in office is better thrown on the scrap heap. If Mr. Burnham thinks that a convention would give him a nomination, after the manner he has followed, there is probably a rude awakening awaiting him.

I SEE IN THE STANDARD

Lord Decies has offered to be a candidate for the next Parliament of Ireland established under the recent Home Rule legislation. Lord Decies is well known in Canada and the United States; he is a frequent visitor to the Dominion, while his marriage to Helene Vivian, which he contracted in 1896, the wife of the late George Jay Gould, the American millionaire, makes him a familiar figure in the cities south of the border.

He was born in 1856, the son of the third baron in the line. His pedigree is an Irish one, so there is an explanation for his offer to be a candidate for the new Commons.

He has been a soldier all his days, entering the army in 1877, when he served with the 10th Lord Connaught, then Governor of Madras. He served in the operations against the Matabele in 1896 in the field, and as a despatcher for his gallantry in action. Later he became an A. D. C. to H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught. In the South African war he held a command in the Imperial Yeomanry, while later in the campaign in Somaliland he commanded the militia, and as a Lieutenant Colonel and once won honorable mention for his services.

Lord Decies is a great sportsman and is interested in cricket, polo and racing.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Yes, Let's See It.

Prof. Albert A. Michelson, of the University of Chicago, who has excited the astronomical world by measuring Alpha Orionis, which is 27,000,000 times as big as the sun and 30,000,000,000 times as big as the earth, would add greatly to the public interest if he would bring it around where the people can get a close look at it.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Dregs of Bombay.

Mahomedans in Bombay have started an anti-drinking campaign to "reform" their co-religionists. They are picketing the liquor shops, and the Muslims found coming out, have their faces blackened and are marched through the streets.

One man found drunk was decked with a "garland" of old shoes and taken round the city by an escort bearing empty oil tins.—London Daily Mail.

A Surprise For Her.

Ex-President Taft told at a recent literary dinner, a story about a colored man. "A colored man," he said, "was picked at a meeting of the 'What's your name' Mrs. Brown asked, for the liked the fellow's looks. 'Mahomed's name,' he answered. 'Who are you?' said Mrs. Brown. 'I suppose some of your family once worked for Edgar Allan Poe—did they?' The colored man's eyes bulged, and he stared at himself a rewording whack on the chest. 'Why, mah'am,' he said, 'Ah is Edgar Allan Poe.'—Argonaut.

Something New.

We note in the news that a couple of beings from Ottawa who are known as agronomists, are on their way to Edmonton to attend a meeting of agronomists in that city. We are not sure just what kind of an animal an agronomist is, but it reminds us of the story of the minister down country, who enquired of the wife of an old settler if there were any Episcopalians in the country, and was informed that the skins of a lot of animals shot by her husband were nailed up on the south side of the barn, and he could go out and see for himself if there were the pelts of any Episcopalians among them.—Winnipeg Free Press.

A BIT OF VERSE

THE CHILDREN.

Martha Haskell Clark.

For sake of the child I dream of now
 I will set the board with my best
 Clotted cream from the Jersey cow,
 Eggs from the white hen's nest,
 Strawberries, scarlet and downy-wet,
 Piled in a cool green leaf.
 To smile in a golden sheaf.

Long ago, and long ago, I mind my berries tasted Sweeter for a cool green leaf from off the maple trees—
 Now I row life's journey through.
 The robin sang in the apple tree
 When the years have kept so clear such little things as these.

For sake of the child that once was I,
 I will set the cushions white,
 That her eyes may gaze on the woods and sky
 In the glow of the sunset light,
 I will set the kitten beside her chair
 asleep on a cushion red,
 And pray that a robin be singing
 there
 In the apple boughs overhead.

Long ago, and long ago, naught I knew of drugging,
 Never haven could compare with one small country farm—
 Bless the little city feet down the green lane trudging,
 Keep 'Ho's' pathway smooth for them, and shelter them from harm.

For sake of the child I knew of old
 I set the board with my best,
 Sweet brown biscuits and butter gold,
 Eggs from the white hen's nest.
 The robin sang in the apple tree
 In the gold of the sunset skies,
 And the child that was I looked out at me
 Through the joy in the other's eyes.

Long ago, and long ago, I mind the eager coming,
 And how the small red station gleamed against the woodland wild,
 The scent of sun-warmed clover fields, the dark bees' lazy humming,
 And the wondrous, breathless gladness in the heart-beats of a child.

London, Jan. 10.—Philip de Laszlo, the once-fashionable portrait painter, seems to be emerging from the cloud that gathered about him during the war owing to rumors that he was an enemy spy. He has just completed a new portrait of the Queen of Spain, which King Alfonso inspected during his recent visit to London. De Laszlo, who is a Hungarian, before the war rivalled John S. Sargent and Sir John Lavery as the limner of society beauty, and to be painted by him was to be acknowledged as a reigning belle.

SHE WAS ON VERGE OF A BREAKDOWN

Mrs. Dobbin is Restored to Perfect Health by Taking Tanlac.

"I just can't help but feel happy over starting the New Year in such splendid health," declared Mrs. Charles Dobbin, of Sydney, N. S., while relating her experiences with Tanlac recently. Mr. Dobbin is a life-long resident of Sydney and lives on Prince Street.

"I just seemed to be on the verge of a breakdown and took little interest in anything, I got up in the morning tired, went to bed tired and all through the day felt so weak and dreary that life seemed hardly worth living. What little I did do me more harm than good and I suffered awfully from gas and bloating and pains in the stomach. Sometimes my chest and shoulders hurt and I often had headaches that were just about as severe as I could bear. My nerves kept me restless all the time and at night I slept but little. I worried and worried over myself and didn't know which way to turn for relief.

"But I am thankful that I have at last found good health. Tanlac was just what I had been needing all the time and I began to improve in just a few days after I started taking it. My appetite is splendid now and I enjoy everything I eat. My nerves seem to be as steady as ever and I haven't a pain anywhere about me. I sleep perfectly sound and have been built up wonderfully. Tanlac certainly deserves the praise people are giving it."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., E. W. Munro and by R. D. Wetmore, Perry's Point, N. B., under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Advt.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Eliza J. Keller.
The death of Mrs. Eliza J. Keller, widow of Mr. William L. Keller, took place at Springfield, Kings County, Sunday, 9th, after a long illness borne with Christian fortitude. Mrs. Keller was a life long member of the American church and was born at Norton, was the daughter of the late Mr. Leah S. Frost, of Loyalist descent. Two sons, Edward and Leo of Springfield and five daughters, Mrs. Laura Akertley of Springfield, Mrs. Rosemary McLaughlin, St. John, Mrs. E. J. Seely, Detroit, Mrs. J. H. Crocker and Miss Eliza Keller, Bristol, England, survive. Funeral from Trinity church, Springfield, Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Alice Delacour Jack.
Miss Alice Delacour Jack, whose death took place early yesterday morning at her home, No. 62 Wright street, was a very active worker in many good causes and particularly in those movements aimed to help and succor the poor. The second daughter of the late William Jack, Q. C. and his wife, Emma Carleton Jack, she is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Thomas Walker, Mrs. B. McLaughlin and Miss Helen Ramsay Jack of this city, and Mrs. Warwick W. Street, of Boston. W. A. Jack of this city is the only surviving brother. Miss Jack had been an active member of the Mission church since the organization of that congregation, and a warm friend of the poor she ever took a deep interest in the philanthropic activities of the church societies. She was an active member of the Natural History Society and the Art Association, frequently contributed to their discussions. Few women were better informed on the old time history of the city, its family traditions, etc.

Ottawa Does Not Think Lord Burnham Next Governor Ruler

Thinks Story Grew Out of Lord Northcliffe's Suggestion at a Recent Dinner.

Ottawa, Jan. 10.—The suggestion that Lord Burnham is to be the successor to His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire is not given credence in official circles here. It arose solely through the fact that Lord Northcliffe announced at a dinner given to Lord Burnham after the conclusion of the imperial press conference that he, Northcliffe, had sounded Lord Burnham on the subject of accepting the Governor-Generalship of Canada, having sent one of his "young ambassadors" to approach him with the suggestion. Lord Burnham turned the suggestion down, possibly not considering the proposal as authorized. The term of the Duke of Devonshire expires on November of this year.

Over Seven Hundred Enrolled in Classes

Application Will be Made to Open Additional Vocational School Classes.

There is at present enrolled in the Vocational School classes over seven hundred people with a waiting list and other applications rapidly coming in. Mr. Lawson intends asking the committee to open additional classes at an early date to take care of the large number of applicants, otherwise a great number will have to be turned away.

New Classes Opened.

Three new classes were opened last night. One in the high school on building constructing; while in the Vocational school classes in elementary mechanical drawing and machine drawing were opened. These classes were well attended, and after a short organization the students got down to work. There are still a few vacancies.

Next Week's Classes.

The first of next week's classes will be opened in electricity, chemistry and architectural drawing and applications for these should be made immediately.

Mr. Lawson visited all the classes last night and reports all actively engaged in the work.

Brantford Lady Shouting Her Praises

SHE USED DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS FOR SCIATICA

Mrs. R. McIntyre who suffered from Sciatic Pains tells why she is enthusiastic over Dodd's Kidney Pills. Brantford, Jan. 10th.—(Special)—"I wish I could shout the goodness in the people's ears of dear old Dodd's Kidney Pills." These are the words of Mrs. Mary R. McIntyre, who lives at 92 Walnut St., W. this city.

Mrs. McIntyre has every reason to be enthusiastic over Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"In June last," she states, "I had a very bad attack of Sciatica. I could not move my leg without great pain. The doctor told me to rub it with a liniment he left. The pain got worse and I sent for another doctor.

"He put needles in my leg and gave me a sleeping pill. Next day he repeated this, but still the pain was just as great. Then he wanted to operate. He wanted to cut from my knee down to my ankle.

"That day a friend told me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. She had great faith in them. I took her at her word. I kept right on taking the pills. Now I can't praise them enough. I am a well woman today without one ache or pain."

Sciatica is caused by disordered kidneys failing to strain the uric acid out of the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the standard remedy for disordered kidneys.

Swift Current City Hall Fire Swept

Foreigner Who Was Helping Fight Fire Dies as Result of the Smoke.

Moone Jaw, Sask., Jan. 10.—The city hall at Swift Current was completely gutted by fire which was discovered at 6:30 o'clock this morning by the janitor. One man, a foreigner, who was assisting in salvaging, was overcome by the dense smoke and died on the way to the hospital. At ten o'clock the fire had not spread to any other buildings. Only portions of the walls of the city hall remain standing.

THE STANDER'S SPORTING SECTION

McGovern Showed Form As A Novice

Combative and Tireless in the First Year of His Brilliant Career.

Terrific Terry McGovern, who began his boxing career in 1927, nearly all his early bouts being staged in the old Greenwood A. C. on Twenty-fifth street, Brooklyn, and the Pelican A. C. of Bay Ridge, left his native haunts on the evening of March 13, 1928, and went to the city of Yonkers to exhibit his pugilistic wares.

It was on this occasion the writer got his first glimpse of the boy who later was to startle the pugilistic world and win both the national and feather-weight championships.

It was not with the object of seeing McGovern that I went to Yonkers on that dismal night, there being a prospect of snow on the ground. The chief event for the night was a twenty round bout between Matty Matthews of New York, holder of the water title, and Tom Broderick of Yonkers, a candidate for the honors.

This was regarded as an important contest at the time, and the advance notices of the entertainment made no reference to the fact that Terry McGovern of Brooklyn and Pinky Evans of Yonkers would engage in an eight round combat by way of a warm-up. McGovern had but recently graduated from the vegetable business and his vocal efforts in disposing of potatoes to the detriment of a South Brooklyn indicated that his lungs were in excellent condition.

Dazzling Guarantee.

In view of the alleged half million dollar guarantee to boxers of the present day it will interest the frenzied financiers of the ring to know that the Finklers A. C. promoter, after serious reflection, had offered the magnificent sum of thirty dollars by way of a reward to the two boxers, of which the winner was to receive twenty dollars and the loser ten dollars!

When Evans and McGovern entered the ring and were introduced the spectators all became interested, for it was known that Evans was a skilled boxer and a hard man to make an impression on, and this carried with it the assurance that McGovern must be a capable youth to get a match with the pride of Yonkers. Pinky was built on the gymnasium plan, had met with a somewhat defensive ability, and while not a hard hitter yet possessed an annoying left and a stinging right.

When McGovern stripped for action, displaying untrained condition and reddish skin, I reached the conclusion that he was one of the pugilistic tribes known as "mixed alkies." Those trained on that popular beverage, and while they fought furiously for a time they usually flickered out in a year or two.

But it appears the application of the term to McGovern was an injustice and the only charge that could be brought against him was that he had not trained. He was so full blooded that he seemed red as a lobster, and as soon as he got into action his whole body became crimson red.

The echo of the gong had barely died away at the beginning of the first round when McGovern leaped at Evans like a bull at a red rag. The Brooklynite started swinging with both hands like a strong man beating carpets, and Evans skipped about the ring with McGovern in full pursuit. Pinky was so quick on his feet that McGovern, despite his torrential rushes, was unable to get close enough to land an effective blow. At times Evans passed in his mad flight, and poked out a left that rested for a fraction of a second in the countenance of the inhibited McGovern, but Evans was compelled to hurry away after each of these aggressive efforts.

Evans Elusive.

Although McGovern shot over blows that were of knockout force he failed to reach the jaw of the elusive Pinky. A majority of the shots landed on the arms and shoulders of the Yonkers boy, and there is no question that he had plenty of bruises for days afterwards.

For eight rounds McGovern chased Evans about the ring, aiming destructive blows at the flying Pinky, and never stopping from the sound of the gong till the bell ended the eighth session Terry was not even breathing hard at the finish, and looked able to go twenty rounds more.

The Brooklyn boy was much disappointed at the finish and expressed the opinion that he could "get" Evans if he had a few more rounds.

McGovern received the decision of the referee and also pocketed the $20 in spoils that went to the victor.

Matty Matthews outpointed Broderick in their contest, and it was therefore a fruitful evening for the visiting thumpers.

In writing of the encounter I devoted as much space to the remarkable combativeness and vitality of McGovern as to the mad bout and predicted he would be a champion in the future.

The description of McGovern's prowess brought the attention of Sam Harris to the embryo champion and resulted in the business relations that brought McGovern two boxing titles and enhanced the bank account of Mr. Harris.

Boxers Cannot Wear U. S. Flag

Boston, Jan. 16.—The wearing of the United States flag by boxers appearing in bouts in this state is prohibited in a ruling announced today by the boxing commission. The ruling was made at the request of the American Legion. The commission also requested that boxers refrain from making religious signs in the ring.

Frank Garnett Won Mile Race

Eight Hundred People Saw Fast Event on South End Rink Last Night.

About eight hundred people assembled at the South End Open Air Rink last night, and at nine o'clock witnessed a fine one mile race on the twelve lap track. The starters who started were: Fred Logan, Frank Garnett, John Nixon, Granville King, Murray Bell, Roy Lawson, Ervin Dalton, Jas. Barnes, Leo McCrossin, Leo Floyd and Bulleragan. Fred Logan and a couple of others dropped out of the contest after the half mile had been started. During the race John Nixon stumbled, Bulleragan held him up and both skidding inside the blocks were disqualified. Frank Garnett started a very pretty race, winning first place and a handsome silver medal given by A. W. Corey, Murray Bell was second and captured a silver cup given by E. A. Ellis. The officials were as follows:—

A. J. Tufts, referee; H. J. Sheehan, C. M. Lindley, Hilton Belyea, judges; Fred Kelly, timer; Frank White, starter; George Stubbs, announcer; Chas. Ackison, clerk of course.

It is intended to hold one or two races every ten days, and the event will be so arranged that both seniors and juniors will have a chance.

Shakespeare A Link Between Nations

American Actor Feels That the Great Dramatist Appeals Intensely to Theatregoers.

(Copyright, 1921, by Cross-Atlantic.) London, Jan. 16.—The genius of Shakespeare is an imperishable bond between the peoples of England and the United States. The admiration for the greatest of Englishmen is as intense and widespread in America today as it ever was. When he is played with sympathy and understanding the appeal to American theatregoers is still irresistible.

An American actor feels that he is "carrying coals to Newcastle" in playing "Macbeth" to the English. Believe me, I am facing my task in a humble spirit of reverence.

Dreamed of Playing Macbeth.

A wise actor learns something from his audience each night. Your great Gladstone declared that "sequence was received from an audience in an essence and poured back upon in a flood." This is true of acting. The actor draws much of his inspiration from those beyond the footlights. That is why one from the western continent hopes that he may enlarge his education by playing Will Shakespeare's plays in a grey old town where Will Shakespeare himself played them long ago.

Even in those dim days, when, a boy at school in New York city, I studied "Macbeth" and other Shakespearean plays dreamed of some day appearing in them in England. My father played here many years ago, and desired that his son should follow in his footsteps and endeavor to reveal in some small way the love of Americans for the greatest of all dramatists.

Somewhere I have read that Canada was destined to play the part of liaison officer to England and America, and to explain and interpret the two senior partners of the English speaking world to each other. It is presumption for me to hold it a happy augury that I was born in Canada when my parents were spending a holiday there.

Jazz Music of Chinese Origin

Confucius Said to Have Dealt With it in His Writings Many Centuries Ago.

The hunt for the origin of jazz has led to the African jungle and to the music of cannibal feasts and orgiastic dances. But, further back it can be traced to the beginnings of civilization to China itself. Confucius, who lived nearly 2,500 years ago, edited a book of ceremonies called the "Li Ki." The book of ceremonies was a venerable Chinese classic long before Confucius gave his attention to it. The sayings in the "Li Ki" represent a viewpoint of musical criticism in China which perhaps corresponds to the data set forth by the Jewish chronology for the Garden of Eden. The "Li Ki" describes music as a powerful influence for good or evil, and pictures the prehistoric synecrisis as follows:

"The airs of Kang go to wild excess and debase the mind; those of Tung speak of slothful indulgences and enfeeble the mind; those of Wei are strenuous and fast and perplex the mind; and those of Ki are violent and depraved and make the mind arrogant. The airs of these four states all stimulate desire and are injurious to virtue."

If we see what else falls in with the description? Kang, Tung, Wei and Ki—their names are the four trigrams. Only the monotonous drum beat which they denounce is contained in modern Chinese music.

If any of the household boys have become rusty, hammer them in parallel and leave them for a few days, with an eye on the cabinet set.

Will British Team Compete In 1924?

Matter of Finance and it is Question if Britain Will be in Olympic Games.

(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.) London, Jan. 16.—Will Britain compete in the Olympic games of 1924? After the nearness of last August, when it was touched and go whether there would be any British team at Antwerp, this question has now been outlined by Sir Theodore Cook, editor of "The Field," and chief of the leading authorities on British sport. In an interview recently Sir Theodore pointed out that the matter was simply a question of finance.

"Anybody," he said, "who would give 150,000 pounds in trust to the British Olympic Council before the end of the year for the purpose of the British team of 1924 would destroy any argument of mine or anybody else's against these games."

"The unfortunate fact is, however, that the British Olympic Council has never had as much as 50,000 pounds to spend six months before any of these games began. The public refused to subscribe in 1908 until a leading newspaper obtained about 75,000 pounds by an appeal at the last moment. In 1912 the public refused again, and a team had to be sent to Stockholm with very little money which had been left over from the previous occasion.

"In 1913 an extremely strong committee was formed, with men like Lord Roberts, the Duke of Westminster, and others signing the appeal, and the public took no notice in spite of the press being filled with exhortation on the subject. In 1920 the public took precisely the same view, but the British Olympic Council were even more unfortunate than usual, for they were trusted to their new president, Lord Dunsany, to secure the necessary funds. They were faced by his illness and subsequent death, but the public left nothing to be misinterpreted about their attitude because they still refused to give anything after a committee had been formed in the House of Commons, including many energetic members.

"The difficulty of this position was still further emphasized by the fact that the Foreign Office had taken a hand in the game, and had therefore given an appearance of official sanction to the entrance of the British team, and in this light the rest of the world most certainly regarded the entrance, particularly when the King himself appeared among the few subscribers.

"The Government, however, limited their action to the compilation of a list of names, and never allocated a penny towards the expenses of the team they had officially entered against teams of other countries, which, in nearly every case, were assisted by subsidies of public money, or large subscription lists; and the Americans (who came over on a battleship) were particularly resentful at only having about $150,000 to spend.

"Now, apart from any contention that sporting matters should not be fettered and obscured by any diplomatic considerations on the part of government, in relation to the governments of other countries, I want it to be clearly understood that in 1924 no association controlling any form of British sport would be likely to refuse to send a team to represent the country anywhere, even apart from the expressed desire of Belgium that we should in this way help her to celebrate her victory over Germany. That was a request that was practically impossible to refuse when tendered through a department of the British Government. Nor was it likely that any athlete in any form of sport would refuse the honor of representing his country in what used to be the open amateur championship of the world, when there was any opportunity of doing so. You get, therefore, a middle in which nobody could say no, and it is the repetition of the middle I least enjoy to stop.

Need New Laws To Fight Gamblers

Organized Baseball Will take steps at once to have bills introduced in the Legislatures of California and other states making it a criminal offence to throw a professional baseball game.

Organized Baseball will take steps at once to have bills introduced in the Legislatures of California and other states making it a criminal offence to throw a professional baseball game. In some states an attempt also will be made to put through bills making it a crime to bet on baseball games or any other sporting activity. Betting is contrary to law in this state, but there is no statute against it in Massachusetts. In consequence the owners of the Boston clubs are handicapped severely in their fight against gamblers.

In Massachusetts a man may be prosecuted if he is a common gambler, but men who wager on baseball games are not classed as such by the Bay State courts. Last summer 500 men were caught betting on baseball games at Fenway Park—most of them cheap handbooks men—were arrested. Fifty-three of them were fined. But if these men had carried

Carpenter Ready To Abandon Ring

If Beaten by Jack Dempsey, French Boxer Says He Will Quit Game.

Amsterdam, Jan. 16.—Georges Carpenter, champion heavyweight of Europe, in an interview in the Telegraph regarding his coming fight with Jack Dempsey, expressed optimism over the outcome. He said it would be a hard fight, but that the result was not for him to predict.

He had nothing to offer regarding definite arrangements as to where the fight is to be held.

"Whether I retire from the boxing game depends upon the result of the match with Dempsey," Carpenter said. "If I am beaten I will retire, if not I probably shall go on fighting for some time."

In an exhibition match Saturday night with the Belgian boxer Lemmers, Carpenter astonished the Dutch sportsmen by his cleverness. "He is even better than we expected," said one of them. "He can land five blows where another lands one." Carpenter said he might meet Frank Moran of Pittsburg before his fight with Dempsey.

Canadian Curlers Win Two Matches

Glasgow, Jan. 16.—The Canadian curlers, who arrived here last week on the Empress of France, played two matches today at Edinburgh. They beat Glasgow Province by one hundred and six to sixty five and Renfrew Province by 80 to 63.

Throwing Bricks At Big Leagues

Up in Boston a baseball writer the other day came through with a blast to the effect that everything was not on the up and up in the major leagues.

Up in Boston a baseball writer the other day came through with a blast to the effect that everything was not on the up and up in the major leagues. He said the Yankees and the Giants were getting airways holds on the pennants. The acquisition of Dugan would put about hand the flag to the Yankees, he averred. That may be true, and then again it may not. The Yankees get Dugan they will have to give up some pretty able ball players. There will be nothing even resembling a half guarantee that Dugan will continue to hit or that the Yankees will finish even as good as third again. Baseball is a peculiar game, and the best laid plans of men in it are apt to go awry. As for the Giants, how crooked are things when $50,000 will not buy them an outfielder.

Howsoever, it is decidedly obvious to cast any aspersions on the grand old game, particularly at this time. If Boston does not like the way things are going with its major league clubs why does it not show some civic pride, and pride in its own teams, and see that they are owned in Boston? Why does it permit both the Braves and the Red Sox to be run from offices in New York?

London, Jan. 16.—The draw for the second round of the English Cup was announced today. The games are to be played by league soccer teams on January 29.

Their cases to the higher court they would, without question, have been whitewashed and have had their fines returned. In the face of such conditions it is extremely hard to make war on the gambling element.

Inter-Collegiate Sporting Contest

International Meet Will be Held in United States Next Spring.

New York, Jan. 16.—An international inter-collegiate sporting contest in the United States next spring appears certain as the result of the Cornell University cross-country team trip to England during the Xmas holidays. It was this effort which brought back by Manager McGovern and Trainer Jack Mosley who arrived here today with the seven Cornell runners who competed against the combined Oxford-Cambridge Universities team at Roehampton, England, on December 30.

Mr. McGovern stated the undergraduate annual of the Cambridge University were ardently in favor of a return athletic visit to Cornell next spring.

New National Agreement Drawn

Action of Committee Put at Rest Rumors That American League Not Satisfied.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Committee chosen by the two major baseball leagues to draw up a new national agreement formulated in New York recently, which provided for reorganization of the game with Federal Judge Landis as baseball commissioner.

The agreement will be formally acted on by the two leagues probably tomorrow, but this action is looked upon by baseball men as a mere formality. The National League having already signed the agreement and president Byron Baskett Johnson of the American League having officially announced that the agreement met with the approval of the club owners in his circuit.

In 1912 the public refused again, and a team had to be sent to Stockholm with very little money which had been left over from the previous occasion.

"In 1913 an extremely strong committee was formed, with men like Lord Roberts, the Duke of Westminster, and others signing the appeal, and the public took no notice in spite of the press being filled with exhortation on the subject. In 1920 the public took precisely the same view, but the British Olympic Council were even more unfortunate than usual, for they were trusted to their new president, Lord Dunsany, to secure the necessary funds. They were faced by his illness and subsequent death, but the public left nothing to be misinterpreted about their attitude because they still refused to give anything after a committee had been formed in the House of Commons, including many energetic members.

"The difficulty of this position was still further emphasized by the fact that the Foreign Office had taken a hand in the game, and had therefore given an appearance of official sanction to the entrance of the British team, and in this light the rest of the world most certainly regarded the entrance, particularly when the King himself appeared among the few subscribers.

"The Government, however, limited their action to the compilation of a list of names, and never allocated a penny towards the expenses of the team they had officially entered against teams of other countries, which, in nearly every case, were assisted by subsidies of public money, or large subscription lists; and the Americans (who came over on a battleship) were particularly resentful at only having about $150,000 to spend.

"Now, apart from any contention that sporting matters should not be fettered and obscured by any diplomatic considerations on the part of government, in relation to the governments of other countries, I want it to be clearly understood that in 1924 no association controlling any form of British sport would be likely to refuse to send a team to represent the country anywhere, even apart from the expressed desire of Belgium that we should in this way help her to celebrate her victory over Germany. That was a request that was practically impossible to refuse when tendered through a department of the British Government. Nor was it likely that any athlete in any form of sport would refuse the honor of representing his country in what used to be the open amateur championship of the world, when there was any opportunity of doing so. You get, therefore, a middle in which nobody could say no, and it is the repetition of the middle I least enjoy to stop.

Need New Laws To Fight Gamblers

Organized Baseball Will take steps at once to have bills introduced in the Legislatures of California and other states making it a criminal offence to throw a professional baseball game.

Organized Baseball will take steps at once to have bills introduced in the Legislatures of California and other states making it a criminal offence to throw a professional baseball game. In some states an attempt also will be made to put through bills making it a crime to bet on baseball games or any other sporting activity. Betting is contrary to law in this state, but there is no statute against it in Massachusetts. In consequence the owners of the Boston clubs are handicapped severely in their fight against gamblers.

In Massachusetts a man may be prosecuted if he is a common gambler, but men who wager on baseball games are not classed as such by the Bay State courts. Last summer 500 men were caught betting on baseball games at Fenway Park—most of them cheap handbooks men—were arrested. Fifty-three of them were fined. But if these men had carried

Up in Boston a baseball writer the other day came through with a blast to the effect that everything was not on the up and up in the major leagues.

Up in Boston a baseball writer the other day came through with a blast to the effect that everything was not on the up and up in the major leagues. He said the Yankees and the Giants were getting airways holds on the pennants. The acquisition of Dugan would put about hand the flag to the Yankees, he averred. That may be true, and then again it may not. The Yankees get Dugan they will have to give up some pretty able ball players. There will be nothing even resembling a half guarantee that Dugan will continue to hit or that the Yankees will finish even as good as third again. Baseball is a peculiar game, and the best laid plans of men in it are apt to go awry. As for the Giants, how crooked are things when $50,000 will not buy them an outfielder.

Howsoever, it is decidedly obvious to cast any aspersions on the grand old game, particularly at this time. If Boston does not like the way things are going with its major league clubs why does it not show some civic pride, and pride in its own teams, and see that they are owned in Boston? Why does it permit both the Braves and the Red Sox to be run from offices in New York?

London, Jan. 16.—The draw for the second round of the English Cup was announced today. The games are to be played by league soccer teams on January 29.

Their cases to the higher court they would, without question, have been whitewashed and have had their fines returned. In the face of such conditions it is extremely hard to make war on the gambling element.

Matinee Races At Woodstock

Four Classes Handled on Connell Park, Three Went in Straight Heats.

Care of Winger.

To keep a winger in good condition, it should be oiled with good machine oil and the pressure screws should be loosened when it is not in use. When the pressure is put on again, both screws should be turned at once. The pressure will be more even.

Inter-Collegiate Sporting Contest

International Meet Will be Held in United States Next Spring.

New York, Jan. 16.—An international inter-collegiate sporting contest in the United States next spring appears certain as the result of the Cornell University cross-country team trip to England during the Xmas holidays. It was this effort which brought back by Manager McGovern and Trainer Jack Mosley who arrived here today with the seven Cornell runners who competed against the combined Oxford-Cambridge Universities team at Roehampton, England, on December 30.

Mr. McGovern stated the undergraduate annual of the Cambridge University were ardently in favor of a return athletic visit to Cornell next spring.

New National Agreement Drawn

Action of Committee Put at Rest Rumors That American League Not Satisfied.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Committee chosen by the two major baseball leagues to draw up a new national agreement formulated in New York recently, which provided for reorganization of the game with Federal Judge Landis as baseball commissioner.

The agreement will be formally acted on by the two leagues probably tomorrow, but this action is looked upon by baseball men as a mere formality. The National League having already signed the agreement and president Byron Baskett Johnson of the American League having officially announced that the agreement met with the approval of the club owners in his circuit.

SHIPYARD STARTS WORK.

Quebec, Jan. 16.—Two hundred men returned to work at the Davies Shipyard at Lauzon this morning, and it is expected that gradually full operations will be resumed.

MACDONALD'S CUT BRIER

MACDONALD'S "BRIER" has become a Canadian institution. Smoked by the men who made history. In the bush, on the trail, in mining camps, prospectors' huts, factory yards, on trains, steamships, in the luxurious homes and downtown clubs of our Canadian cities—Macdonald's has always been recognized as the smoke.

MACDONALD'S CUT "BRIER"—the same tobacco but in new form—maintains every Macdonald tradition since 1858, and gives to smokers—more tobacco for the money.

COUNCIL MEETS TO CONSIDER ESTIMATES

Estimates of Water and Sewerage and Light Department Discussed—Fire and Police Under Consideration—Harbor and Public Works This Morning

The council, which had two sessions yesterday and will hold another this morning to consider the estimates for the coming year...

The water department is asking for $20,000 more this year than last, the light appropriation is $279,38 higher, the fire $122,23 larger and the police $47,60 less than that for 1920.

Table with columns: Estimate 1920, Expend. 1920, Est. 1921. Rows include Labor, Sewerage Maintenance, Fire Hydrants, Light Appropriations 1920.

More detail was asked for in connection with the items marked general labor charges, salaries and expenses. That for interest was also criticized as this could be definitely ascertained from the chamberlain and there need be no more assessed for than was actually required.

Table with columns: Estimate 1920, Expend. 1920, Est. 1921. Rows include Light Appropriations 1921, 170 arc lights, 110 100-W. lights, 3 additional arc at $93.76, 14 additional W. at $11.25, etc.

Table with columns: Estimate 1920, Expend. 1920, Est. 1921. Rows include Afternoon Session, On motion of Commissioner...

KINGSTON SUNDAY SCHOOL HAD TRAIT Presentations Made to Organist and Sunday School Teachers. The children attending the Holy Trinity Church, Kingston, Sunday school had their annual Christmas entertainment on Thursday evening last in the Kingston Hall. The first part consisted of a short programme by the scholars, assisted by Mrs. Waterman, who sang "Dear Little Jemmy" and "When Mother Sang Hush-A-Bye Baby to Me," followed by a lecture by the Rev. Henry Waterman on "Pigmen's Progress," after which the presents were distributed from the Christmas tree. The Rev. made presentations to Mrs. Albert Hoyt, the organist, and to the Sunday school teachers, Mrs. R. Reddick and Mrs. Leslie Sawyer. He also gave a short address to the children, in which he spoke highly of the officers of work of the Sunday school teachers. A pip scroll was also awarded, held Harry McAlary making an excellent selection.

STRONG CLOSING BUT POOR START IN WALL STREET

Spectacular Recoveries Made in Many Securities in Mid Session.

BIG DECLINE IN STEEL TONNAGE

Oils, Steels and Motors Were the Best Actors in an Erratic Day.

New York, Jan. 10.—The successive stages of today's stock market were characterized by a hesitant opening, general heaviness before noon, spectacular recoveries in several of the speculative issues during the latter part of the day, and a final decline in the afternoon.

Attention was attracted by a vigorous advance in foreign exchange, notably the British rate, which declined from 100 to 99 1/2, the lowest figure in three weeks, and the December report of the United States Steel Corporation, disclosing another severe decrease in finished tonnage. Strength of foreign remittances, some of which rose to highest quotations in almost half a year, was based in part on reports that the British treasury has in contemplation a plan for reducing its extensive obligations in this country.

Money Demand Relaxes. Relaxation of demand money, which failed to extend to time loans, seemed to be little more than a belated recognition that the supply of such accommodations is vastly in excess of present requirements. The drop of about 375,000 tons in the United States Steel tonnage is the largest reported in any month since the setback which began last August and reduces the corporation's bookings to the smallest total in more than a year.

The Day's Features. Oils, steels, equipments, motors and shippings, as typified by Mexican Petroleum, Houston oil, Crucible Baldwin, Pressed Steel Car, Studer and Atlantic Guano, were the main money features of the final hour. Early losses of two to six points gave way to gains of substantial proportions in most instances and full recoveries elsewhere. Sales amounted to 1,135,000 shares.

There was only a moderate market for bonds, including the Liberty division and the general bond was most often indicated an irregular volume of value aggregated $15,000,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

GOSSIP AROUND THE MARKETS

President Mead of the Spanish River Paper and Paper Company, speaking Saturday at a banquet in Seattle, said that his company was presently producing 625 tons newspaper, 500 tons of groundwood, 230 tons sulphite, and 40 tons of board daily, representing 20 per cent of Canada's production and 8 per cent of the production on the American continent.

A syndicate of Canadian bond houses, headed by Nesbitt Thomson and Company are offering to the public an issue of $5,000,000 of 7 per cent, cumulative preferred stock of Winnipeg Electric Railway at $90 a share with a bonus of 30 per cent in common stock.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Montreal Tramway Company, the regular quarterly dividend on capital stock for the three months to December 31 at the rate of 2 1/2 per cent, payable February 1st to March 31st, was approved. This completes payments for 1920 calendar year. The company will open its payment on account of dividend arrears, which it is expected will be taken care of in the near future, thus wiping out the balance owing to the shareholders on this account.

MONTREAL POWER STAR ACTOR ON MONTREAL LISTS

Over 4,000 Shares Sold at a Net Gain of 3 1/4 Points in Day.

Montreal, Jan. 10.—The feature in a strong market on the local stock exchange today was the activity and strength of Montreal Power which rose 3 1/4 points net to 85 1/2, with a turnover of 4,046 shares, the largest in months. The strength of the issue is attributed to the likelihood of a merger with the Light, Heat and Power Company of Montreal, a rumor which is neither denied nor confirmed by the parties interested. Brompton and Breweries continued active and the former registered a large fractional gain; the latter holding steady.

Papers Are Strong. The papers were as a whole strong. Riondon's three point drop to 132 and Spanish common's fractional loss at 88, being the only declines registered. Spanish preferred moved up 2 1/2 points to 94 1/2 on small buying; Laurentide appreciated a large fraction to 94 1/4, and Abitibi was up 1 1/2 points to 57 1/2, while Wayagamack added four points to 86. The largest gain of the day was scored by Ames Holden preferred, of which a small lot at 38, up 8 points, with 38 bid at the close and 40 asked. Other large gains were Nabors Cotton up three points to 46, and B. C. Fishing up 2 1/2 points to 42 1/2.

Canadian Dollar Worth 86.37 in New York; Pound Advances to New High

Highest Quotation for English Remittances Since Last August Has Been Reached.

New York, Jan. 10.—There was a veritable boom in foreign exchange today, particularly the British rate, which rose to 86.37 at mid-day for demand bills. This is the highest quotation for that remittance since the early part of last August. Canadian dollars were at 15 5/8 per cent. discount. The strength of the London rate was believed to have much of its momentum from cables, intimating that preparations are being made by the British Government to refund its obligations in the United States.

RAW SUGAR QUIET

New York, Jan. 10.—Raw sugar was steady early today at 4 1/2 cents for Cuban, cost and freight, equal to 5.52 for continental. Refined opened steady at 7 1/2 to 7.90 for fine granulated with a moderate inquiry noted. Sugar futures were quiet with operators watching developments in the spot market. The undertone was firm and prices were about ten points higher at noon on covering and commission house buying.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.

London, Jan. 10.—Close, bar silver, 40 1/8d. per ounce, bar gold, 112s. 6d. Money five per cent. Discount rates, short bills, 6 1/4 to 6 3/8 per cent. Three months 6 1/2 per cent. Gold premiums at Lisbon, 140.

SEABOARD SALES SEND WINNIPEG WHEAT SOARING

Offerings Were Slightly Higher With Elevator Companies Making Large Offerings.

Winnipeg, Jan. 10.—Reports from seaboard of fairly heavy sales to European buyers and a splendid cash demand for all grades of wheat caused further recovery in the wheat market today. The offerings were somewhat larger, elevator companies using the best sellers, but those offerings were not sufficient to meet the demand. After opening higher May wheat advanced to $1.97 1/2 with only slight reaction. Cash premiums were unchanged to half cent better. The undertone to the market is very strong. The short interests have covered up yesterday well, and were taking profits today on the bulge.

The coarse grains continue dull, although prices were ranging slightly higher, being influenced by the strength in flour and grains. The poor cash demand is a check on buying of futures, but with wheat and rye higher firmness resulted. The offerings continue very light.

ASSESSORS' NOTICE

The Board of Assessors of Taxes of the City of St. John

Hereby require all persons liable to be rated for the year 1921 forthwith to furnish to the Assessors true statements of all their personal estate and income which is assessable under "The Saint John City Assessment Act, 1918" and true statements of wages or salaries paid to employees, and hereby give notice that blank forms on which such statements may be furnished may be obtained at the Office of the Assessors, and that such statements must be perfected under oath and filed in said office within thirty days from the date of this notice.

Dated the tenth day of January, A. D. 1921. E. MURRAY OLIVE, Chairman. TIMOTHY T. LANTALUM, JAMES COLLINS, JOHN ROSS, Assessors of Taxes.

EXTRACTS FROM "THE SAINT JOHN CITY ASSESSMENT ACT, 1918"

30. (1) Every person liable to taxation under this Act, shall make the following returns: (a) A return of his personal property located in the City of Saint John and taxable under section 5 of this Act. (b) Income taxable under section 6, and the particulars thereof, except when the total taxable income is included in the return of an employer as provided in sub-section 2 of this section. (c) Earnings or receipts taxable under section 8 and the particulars thereof. (2) Every person employing the services of labor of another person or of other persons shall make a statement giving the name and address of every person employed by him and the amount of wages, salaries, or other compensation paid to such employees or employees. Every firm, co-partnership, or corporation shall make a statement of the salaries, allowances, or other compensation of partners or officers.

(3) The return or statement required by this section shall be made on or before the tenth day of February in each year, in such form as the assessors shall from time to time prescribe, and shall be made under oath which may be sworn to before any assessor, or any Justice of the Peace of the City and County of Saint John, or any Notary Public; and for the purposes of this Act, and of all other laws relating to the levying, assessing and collecting of rates and taxes in the City of Saint John, any assessor and any Justice of the Peace of the City and County of Saint John, and any Notary Public, shall have full power, and lawful authority to take affidavits and affirmations, and administer oaths, in any matter whatsoever relating to rates, taxes and assessments in the City of Saint John.

32. If no return, or a fraudulent, incorrect or insufficient return, has been filed by a person required to file a return under the provisions of this Act, and the person so in default refuses or neglects, after notice, to file a proper return, the assessors shall determine the personal property or income of such person taxable under this Act, according to their best information and belief, and shall assess the same at double the amount so determined. In the case of sickness, absence, or other disability of a person liable to the tax the assessors may allow such further time for the return as they may deem necessary.

33. If the assessors discover from the verification of a return filed under this Act, or otherwise, that the income of any person subject to taxation under this Act, or any portion thereof has not been assessed, they may at any time within two years after the time when such assessment should have been made, assess the same, first giving notice to the person to be so assessed of their intention, and such person shall thereupon have an opportunity within ten days after such notification to confer with the assessors in person or by counsel or by other representative as to the proposed assessment. After the expiration of ten days from such notification the assessors shall assess the income of such person subject to taxation, or any portion thereof which they believe has not theretofore been assessed, and they shall thereupon give notice thereof to the person so assessed, and the tax shall be payable fourteen days thereafter from the date of such notice. The provisions of this Act, in respect to the collection of taxes shall apply to a tax so assessed.

47. No person shall, have an abatement unless he has filed with the assessors the statement under oath within the time required; nor shall the Common Council or the Board of Revision in any such case sustain an appeal from the judgment of the assessors unless said Common Council or Board of Revision shall be satisfied that there was good cause why the statement was not filed in due time as herein provided.

SOME THINGS IT HAS INAUGURATED. Outlines Many Things That Must Be Solved Yet League.

Paris, Jan. 10.—The secretaries of the League of Nations today issued an official document entitled "Work Accomplished by the League of Nations." During the first year of its existence, Jan. 10, 1920, to Jan. 10, 1921, the League has accomplished many things, some settled or discussed.

It mentions first the establishment of a permanent international court of justice, second, the work done in the limitation of armaments, third, the creation of an international commission to study the blockade as an economic weapon, and fourth, the work done in the three foregoing areas.

Political Confession. Under the heading, "Efforts toward conciliation," the document refers to the question of the Aland Islands, upon which the League has undertaken to effect within weeks.

As measures destined to remedy economic crisis, the report mentions the creation of an economic and financial commission in accordance with the conclusions of the Brussels conference and the organization of a transit commission were foreseen. The League's work concerning the maintenance of peace and order on the continent, the League elaborated a series of projects, including an appeal to nations to fight typhus, the appointment of a commission to study the effects of the influenza epidemic, the caused the United States, and Spain to accept mediation, and effected the repair of more than a hundred thousand bridges.

Keeping Peace Treaty. Regarding execution of the Treaty, the League points out that the League has accomplished the Administration of the Saar, the Direction of the affairs of the City of Danzig; 3. Rejection of German government's conclusions, and the awarding of the territory to Poland. 4. The establishment of a neutral mandate commission to study the affairs of the mandate system. 5. Acceptance of responsibility for the protection of minorities. 6. The registering of 69 treaties in accordance with the stipulations of the Versailles Treaty.

SOME THINGS IT HAS INAUGURATED

Outlines Many Things That Must be Solved Yet by the League.

Pack, Jan. 10.—The secretary of the League of Nations today issued an official document entitled "The Work Accomplished by the League of Nations." During the first year of its existence, Jan. 16, 1920, to Jan. 15, 1921, commencing the various questions settled or discussed by the League.

It mentions first the establishment of a permanent international court of justice; second, the work accomplished in the limitation of armaments; and, third, the creation of an international commission to study use of the blockade as an economic weapon.

The three foregoing are mentioned as "measures destined to prevent war."

Political Constitution. Under the heading, "Efforts at political constitution," the document refers to the question of the island islands, upon which the League commission will report within three weeks.

As measures destined to remedy the economic crisis, the report says, the creation of an economic and financial commission in accordance with the conclusions of the Brussels financial conference and the organization of a transit commission were foremost in the League's work.

Regarding execution of the peace treaty, the League points out the following missions accomplished: 1. Administration of the Saar Valley; 2. Direction of the affairs of the free city of Danzig; 3. Rejection of the German government's conclusions and note asking further guarantees in Danzig and Memel; and the final awarding of the territory to Belgium; 4. The establishment of a permanent mandate commission to administer the affairs of former German colonies; 5. Acceptance of responsibility for the protection of minorities; 6. The registering of 69 treaties in accordance with the stipulations of the treaty of Versailles.

Typist "Too Cute To Shoot"—But She Did And Employer Dead

Girl's Confession Solves Mystery of the Murder of Texas Restaurant Owner at Dallas

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 10.—William J. Coleman, restaurant proprietor, whose death has been a mystery for ten days, lost his life at the hands of a girl he believed "too cute to shoot," according to a confession the police said Miss Louise Merier, 16 years of age, a typist, made today.

Miss Merier, who was arrested at Crossbuck yesterday, said she fired the shot that caused Coleman's death in the abdomen on the night of January 1. He died without regaining consciousness.

Invited to Park. Miss Merier in her alleged statement said that on New Year's evening she accepted Coleman's invitation to visit a party of friends camped in the park. Arriving at the park, the girl's statement says she felt uneasy, he deserted, and started to leave, whereupon Coleman was alleged to have detained her. "I told him to turn me loose or I would shoot," she said. Chief Gunning quoted the girl as saying: "He said I was too cute to shoot, so I pulled the pistol and shot him."

GUARDS ON SHORE WERE LURED AWAY

Their Aircraft Picked Him up and Took Him to Unknown Destination.

New York, Jan. 10.—President Eamon De Valera of the Republic of Ireland used at least two boats and a seaplane on his trip to Ireland, according to disclosures.

It is declared that he departed from this country either on December 31 or January 1, being picked up outside of territorial waters by a yacht which had made the trip from Ireland for the purpose of transporting him home.

On the afternoon of December 29 his yacht was met by a seaplane at a point about twenty miles out from Matton Island, which is five miles from the coast of County Clare. After some trouble with engine of the seaplane the Irish president was landed on Matton Island near dusk, tired and hungry. He was given temporary assistance in the shape of bread and water.

Lured Guards Away. Communication through established channels was maintained with the main land and shortly before the dawn word came that the British guards had been lured from the vicinity.

De Valera and his party embarked in small boats and made for the mainland. He went to the home of a loyal friend near Kilmurry where he remained all day December 30. In the early hours of that day while he rested, the word was flashed back to America to release the message of his landing in safety.

At one time on the trip across the yacht was challenged by a British captain, but the captain of the yacht persuaded the Britisher that his was a pleasure yacht on a cruise.

Since landing De Valera has moved nearly every night, always travelling with a sufficient guard of the Irish publican army to insure his safety from capture by any ordinary detachment of the military.

Cigarette Must Match The Frock

Berlin Lady Smokers Demand Paper Color of Dress.

(Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger.) Berlin, Jan. 10.—The color of the paper, instead of the grade of the tobacco, now is the primary matter considered when Berlin ladies purchase cigarettes. Plain white, even rose-tipped cigarettes, are scorned, for the fashion of the moment demands that the color of the cigarette must match the color of the frock the lady happens to be wearing.

Society leaders maintain that at last they have got the jump on Paris, where women dye their hair to match their gowns.

A Berlin manufacturer with the assistance of a feminine expert, has produced a stock of cigarettes with papers of all colors to satisfy the increased demands for many-hued cigarettes.

RAILWAY MEN LAID OFF

JUGGLING AVIATOR IS ARRESTED ON BORDER

Galveston, Jan. 10.—Border customs officers arrested a juggler and aviator who was juggling his plane up and down the Rio Grande. Ranger Jackson, though, has set a new record for the intrepid organization when he "plucked" a low flying aviator for disturbing the peace.

According to Jackson the aviator was juggling his plane up and down in a "disorderly manner," narrowly missing telephone wires and houses. The ranger placed the aviator under arrest when the latter brought his machine to earth in a field.

The chief of the fire department burned 376 gallons, the commissioner's car 352 gallons, the pumping engine at No. 2 station 174 gallons, the ambulance 65 gallons, the police patrol 520 gallons and the two salvage cars 60 and 75 gallons respectively.

Think Hospital Most Satisfactory

Visiting Committee Report to Commission on Conditions Now Existing There.

The report of the visiting committee from physicians and surgeons was read before a meeting of the hospital commission last night. The committee finds that, under existing conditions, affairs at the hospital are very satisfactory. The report shows that the committee fully realizes that the Superintendent and his assistants are laboring under a very serious handicap in not having accommodations to carry on the work properly, and the difficulty in securing a sufficient number of pupil nurses. They report the Emergency Hospital in bad straits and out-patient facilities most inadequate. The lack of accommodation to private patients was dwelt upon.

Booster Up Nursing Staff.

They urged upon the commission the necessity of increasing the nursing staff. Dr. Roberts believed great care should be taken in choosing pupil nurses, as many of them are not physically fit to stand the strain. Dr. Hedden was instructed to hire graduate nurses, if necessary, to keep the staff up to requirements. The inadequacy of the hospital to the demands made upon it was gone over. It was decided that hereafter it would be wise only to accept the number of patients that can properly be cared for and not take more than can be handled.

Care of Sailors

The question of cutting out the care of sailors was gone into. It was felt that the contract with the Federal Health Department should not be renewed, as the average number of sailors under treatment show eight eight per day. The committee recommended better facilities for handling out patients. It was thought better provision might be made for the care of patients in the quarters now occupied by the nurses when they into their new home. A committee, consisting of President Agar, Dr. Hedden and Mr. Kelly, was appointed to examine into the report on possibilities of providing at present needed accommodation.

Many Cases Heard In Police Court

Alleged Colored Thief, and Man Who Passed Worthless Cheque Sent up for Trial.

Albert Middleton was sent up for trial by the police magistrate yesterday on the charge of breaking and entering James Macaulay's grocery on Wentworth street. Evidence was heard in a case against Josephine Zed, charged with violating the Prohibition Act, and the case was postponed until next Thursday. Kenneth Williams was committed to trial on the charge of giving John Macaulay a check for $35 which was worthless. A young Italian woman was fined for being drunk. Three other drunks were remanded.

After Inspectors Crawford and Journey gave evidence a young man was fined $200 for selling beer containing higher percentage of alcohol than allowed by law. Arthur Stevens charged with common assault was remanded until Monday.

Public Take Kindly To Ticket Scheme

President Ross Well Satisfied With Results of First Day on Increased Fares.

President Ross, president of the Power Company, expressed himself last night as well pleased with the results of the first day's operation of the Street Railway lines under the advanced fares. The public, who are accustomed to using the cars daily, readily purchased the 14 tickets of fare for one dollar and made no complaint. The conductors quickly sold out their first supply of tickets and called on for more. About $1,500 worth were sold during the early hours of traffic.

Closely Contested Basketball Games

Two closely contested basketball games in which a number of old timers who starred in the game some years ago took part, were featured in the Y. M. C. I. Senior League last evening. A team captained by Conway won from Jacobson's squad by a score of 16 to 12. As the score indicates, the game was a close one with the winner in doubt up to the very last minute of play. The old timers took the floor captained by Nelson for the winners and Stirling for the losers. Maher the regular captain being absent. The old timers mixed things up lively and several come-backs were noticeable as they fell into the swing of their own game. The game was fought on (both and) and finally went to the Nixon aggregation by a score of 21, to the 22 points scored by Maher's team.

Opposition to Street Car Fare

Hardware Clerks Object at Annual Meeting — Favor Daylight Saving.

A strong opposition to the raising of the fare by the St. John Street Railway without any improvement in the service, was registered by the St. John Hardware Clerks' Association at their annual meeting last night in the Natural History Society rooms. The clerks also went on record in favor of Day Light Saving under a plan similar to that followed last year. They urged that the matter be considered by the City Council at an early date, so that when the time came, it might not be accompanied by the confusion experienced in the past. H. S. Sullivan the president reviewed the work during the year. He announced that the hardware merchants had consented to the granting of a Saturday half holiday during the months of January, February and March.

R. A. Willett, the vice-president, thought that their association should extend their support to the Retail Merchants' Association in this respect. The election of officers resulted in a re-election of the old executive. The secretary-treasurer, P. H. Butler, asked to be relieved of his duties, owing to the pressure of business. A new ballot was cast resulting in the election of P. C. Johnson. The managing committee appointed included Messrs. J. Henderson, H. Murphy, W. D. Bagnell, K. MacKenzie, E. H. Marshall, T. A. Graham, G. L. Gue, A. Dixon, J. Walsh, A. Baxter.

Valuable Donations To Natural History

Infant's Cradle, One of First Pieces of Furniture Brought to New Brunswick.

Yesterday was one of the red letter days of the Natural History Society, three valuable donations coming in one right after the other. One which is especially prized because of its relation to the history of the province is an infant's cradle of the Loyalist period, and in a perfect state of preservation. The fact that it is not only one of the first pieces of Loyalist furniture to have been brought to New Brunswick but also that it was used by several of the provinces distinguished men, makes it a highly prized acquisition. The cradle is made of butternut and was built in Salem, Mass., prior to 1764.

Donation of Coins

A fine lot of coins, 100 in number, were received from Gordon A. Lewis. Some of the Canadian coins go back to the year 1800. There are coins of practically every nation included in the collection.

Rattle Snake Skin

Mrs. L. Peatman, of Jacksonville, Florida, has presented the society with the skin of a rattle snake. An interesting feature of the donation is that it was shed by the rattler, which like all snakes sheds its skin once a year.

J. M. Johnston of 166 Carmarthen street presented mounted Snowy Owl.

The bird is a fine specimen and a valuable addition to the bird collection.

St. Martins Has A Measles Epidemic

One Hundred and Twenty-Nine Cases Have Been Reported to Board of Health.

The epidemic of measles which was experienced in the city during the month of December is now raging in St. Martins, and 129 have been reported to the sub-district board of health. The epidemic has about subsided in the city, as but three cases were reported to the board last week. It has attained much more of a foothold in St. Martins than it did here, for only fifty cases were reported in St. John for the entire month of December. Fortunately the disease is of a mild type, and parents report their children much improved in general health after the compulsory rest that their illness enforced.

MENTORS' ASSN. HOLD SEMI-MONTHLY

The St. John City Mentors' Association in connection with boys' work, with President R. H. Parsons in the chair, met in the Y. M. C. A. last evening. It being the semi-monthly meeting there was a large attendance and after a supper was enjoyed a general discussion was held on the work of the association. Particular emphasis was laid on the Canadian National Athletic competition for this year. Nelson McEwan, boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., thought that a determined effort will be made by the St. John Turin square to hold the shield in New Brunswick this year that was won by a square in Hampton last year.

Board of School Trustees' Meeting

Vocational School Board Apply for Rooms — Truant Officer's Report.

At the meeting of the Board of School Trustees all the members were present at the meeting. They included the chairman, Dr. A. P. Emery, Mrs. Richard O'Brien, Mrs. E. R. Taylor, H. Colby Smith, Dr. H. S. Bridges, superintendent of schools; Allen McLarty, Thomas Nagle, W. E. E. Ingraham, George E. Day, M. Coll, E. R. Green and J. F. D. Lewis.

Communications

An application for a position on the teaching staff was received from Miss Elna Higgins. Miss H. Kerr asked that her leave of absence with pay be continued. A certificate was received from Dr. C. M. Pratt to the effect that the health of Miss Helen Hannah would not permit her assuming her duties.

Budget Not Completed.

H. Colby Smith, chairman of the finance committee, announced that the board's budget for the coming year had not yet been completed, and recommended that a special meeting be called on Monday, the 17th, to discuss the estimates for the coming year. A motion was passed to that effect.

Levying of Taxes.

Mr. Nagle asked for information as to the levying of taxes by the trustees of the Vocational Training Board. Mr. Lewis stated that the board was only authorized to levy money to a certain amount, and that the estimates of the Vocational School would have to be included in estimates submitted by the Board of School Trustees.

Gordon M. Johnston Receives Promotion

Gordon M. Johnston, sales manager of the James Peader, Ltd., plant here has been promoted to fill the vacancy created in the Dominion Steel Corporation at Montreal, caused by the death of R. B. Condon. This was announced by Stanley E. Elkin, M. P., director of the corporation at Montreal yesterday.

Goes to Position With Dominion Steel Corporation at Montreal.

Mr. Elkin further announced the promotion of R. W. McKee from the position of assistant general sales agent at Sydney to that of assistant general sales agent at Montreal. Mr. Johnston is a returned officer, having had valued service during the great war with the New Brunswick 26th. He is very popular in this city and his promotion will be heard with great pleasure by his many friends.
