Music at Long Range.
LONDON, July 24.—Madame Patti has signed a contract with Mayor Mayer for a series of 10 concerts in the United States, the first to be given in November, 1893, and the last in the following May. The tour will be announced as Patti's positive farewell to North America.

A Clergyman in Limbo.
DUBLIN, July 24.—Rev. Samuel G. Colton, formerly at the head of the Caragh Orphanage, is causing the death of his wife by neglecting to give her the necessary medical attention. She was taken ill yesterday, and the doctor, who was called in, found her in a state of collapse. The doctor has ordered that she be kept in bed, and that she be given the necessary medical attention.

Cholera Riots Are Feared.
ST. PETERSBURG, July 24.—Fearing cholera, the Government has proclaimed a state of siege at Nijni-Novgorod. The Government of Nijni-Novgorod has ordered that all persons who are suffering from cholera be taken to the hospital, and that they be given the necessary medical attention.

The Disembarkment of Morocco.
MADRID, July 24.—The Spanish press has with satisfaction the information of the failure of the mission of the Spanish minister to Morocco. The mission was to secure the disembarkment of the Spanish troops from Morocco, and the failure of the mission is a great disappointment to the Spanish government.

Action Against Mrs. Deacon.
PARIS, July 24.—Edward Parker Deacon, who is serving a one-year sentence at the prison of St. Paul, has been released. The release is a great disappointment to the French government, which had hoped to keep Deacon in prison for the remainder of his sentence.

Noted Bank Robbers Arrested.
DENVER, Colo., June 23.—A great sensation was created early yesterday morning by the bringing into town of J. H. Cross and J. J. Davis, who are charged as principal and accomplice in the robbery of David H. Moffatt, president of the First National Bank in broad daylight, and at the point of a revolver forced Mr. Moffatt to give up $21,000, with which the thief made good his escape. Later the arrest of Cross and Davis was made by Detective W. T. Sawyer, who claims that he has been working for the case for some time. Davis is confessed to Sawyer's case. Davis is a robber, and that he (Davis) had helped pass some of the money which consisted of bills of large denominations. No money was found in his possession.

Mr. Frick's Condition is Critical, but He is Hopeful.

The Homestead Strikers Are Not Implicated.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 24.—A desperate and almost successful attempt was made yesterday afternoon to assassinate Henry Clay Frick, chairman of the Carnegie Steel Company, limited, a Russian Jew, who has been the principal on the side of the steel industry in the great struggle now going on between capital and labor in this city.

As was his custom, Mr. Frick took lunch at the Duquesne Club at noon and returned to his office at 1:30 o'clock. He went to the fifth floor, where he remained but a few minutes. He then came down the elevator to his private room on the second floor, fronting on Fifth avenue, where he seated himself at his desk. The office of Mr. Frick, adjacent to that of the chairman, Mr. Leishman, came in from the rear. A few minutes before 2 o'clock the office boy noticed a man hastily push open the double doors of the building and enter the public room and the enclosure between the public room and the office of Mr. Frick. The man, who was dressed in a dark suit, and who was carrying a revolver, entered the office of Mr. Frick, and fired a shot at him. The bullet struck Mr. Frick in the chest, and he fell to the floor. The man then fled, and was pursued by the police.

The man sprang within about five feet of Mr. Frick, and quickly drawing his revolver, fired a shot at him. The bullet struck Mr. Frick in the chest, and he fell to the floor. The man then fled, and was pursued by the police.

THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING PEOPLE

OF NORTH AMERICA

Extract from a speech by John Bright delivered during the civil war.

"I cannot believe that civilization, in its course with the sun, will sink into endless night in order to gratify the ambition of the leaders of this revolt, who seek to wage through slaughter to a throne.
 And shut the gates of mercy on mankind.
 I have another and a far brighter vision before my gaze. It may be but a vision, but I will cherish it. I see one vast confederation, stretching from the frozen north in unbroken line to the glowing south, and from the wild billows of the Atlantic westward to the calmer water of the Pacific main—and I see one people and one language and one law and one faith, and over all that wide continent the home of freedom and a refuge for the oppressed of every race and of every clime."

VANITAS VANITATUM! How evanescent is human fame! One year ago the name of Sir John Macdonald was in everybody's mouth; now it is rarely mentioned.

Russia is re-importing some of the wheat which she exported to Germany and Denmark last fall. The necessities of her people made them under-estimate the quantity of food required to carry them to the end of the cereal year. This change comes too late, however, to affect Canadian exports of grain.

PREMIER GREENWAY, of Manitoba, was incidentally helped to maintain his large majority in Saturday's general elections by his courageous determination to discover the views of the electors in regard to the intoxicating liquor question. In this respect the Manitoban Premier has had a similar experience to the Londoners who raised the same issue in a municipal contest, and by this means secured an improvement in local government all along the line.

LAST October Gladstone wrote an article in the Nineteenth Century Magazine, in which he reasoned out that he would have 46 of a majority when Salisbury appealed to the country. How wonderfully near he came to the actual fact is now known, as his majority is 42. This is how Mr. Gladstone reached his conclusions:

Eighty-nine bye-elections have resulted in 62 Unionists and 27 Gladstonians being replaced by 44 Unionists and 45 Gladstonians. The Government has, therefore, lost two-sevenths of its share of the 89 seats, and upon the assumption that its losses will be equally heavy in the remainder, Mr. Gladstone proceeds as follows:

Unionist members 1896.....293 Less 4, who have changed allegiance.....4 Two-sevenths of 288.....111

And if we give to the Liberals, now 215, an addition of 111, their force is thus raised to.....326

And there is shown a Liberal majority for Great Britain.....43

In a recent number of the Review of the Churches Archdeacon Farrar asserted that the disestablishment of the Church of England would be a gain to the majority of the clergy, as their salaries under the present plan are generally very small. In the diocese of Norfolk the average income of an incumbent is said to be £750, while in Liverpool 242 livings produce less than £500 per annum each. The archdeacon believes that if these clergymen were to the voluntary offerings of the people they would be supported by the laity, so many of whom are wealthy. Coming from a churchman of so great eminence as Dr.
 Farrar, this argument will go doubtless have some weight with those who doubt whether or not the Episcopal Church would hold its own with the other denominations if it were not specially recognized by the State and supported by tithes and other legally sanctioned props. What would probably happen, in the event of disestablishment, would be a considerable leveling up of salaries. There would be less luxury for the archbishops and bishops—many of whom have now very large incomes—and more for the hard-worked incumbents of parishes. The change would be beneficial all round.

It is a problem in these summer weeks to keep our houses cool, not a difficult one to solve; but it is hard to imbue some minds with the solution. The general rule is to throw doors and windows open; the right thing, while the sun shines, is to keep them closely shut, exclude the hot air as rigidly as summer, as you do the cold air in winter. Open all your casements early in the morning as nearly at sunrise as year aprisings permit, for that is the coldest time of the day; but when morning warms shut them up tightly, and be as chary as possible of opening them again during the heat of the day. A house well closed will keep cool for many hours, while the external heat is unbearable. The secret is to catch the cold air when you can, and when you have got it, keep it jealously. If the outer air grows cold during the day, and your rooms are warmer at the time, open windows and get a cooling, but otherwise keep all cold. Generally observe this warning. A couple of common thermometers, one indoors and the other out, will help you. Warmer out than in, keep shut; colder out than in, throw open.

THE ELECTIONS IN MANITOBA.

The result of the Provincial elections in Manitoba on Saturday, delayed in transit, are now known. The Greenway Government is sustained by a good working majority. In a House of 40 it will have at least 25, while the Opposition will have 14, and on all questions but one the remaining member, an independent Liberal, will vote with the Administration. The contest was conducted with considerable bitterness, and some side issues were introduced, but the chief subject before the people was the question of separate schools. Mr. Greenway and his friends declared that under their Government no state aid would be voted to separate schools, and no other schools than the ordinary public schools would be countenanced. If the British Privy Council decide that the constitution of the Province gives the right to separate schools to exist, and that the Government has no right to tax separate school supporters for public schools, the Administration will continue to uphold the national system and do nothing to help the separate schools. The Opposition was less explicit in its platform. It made little effort to discuss this subject, and preferred to deal in charges of corruption and incapacity.

While its supporters said that they favored a uniform system of public schools, they had the countenance of those who indorse separate schools, and this while helping them in some ridings hurt them in others.

The leading features in the individual contests are the sweeping victories for the Government candidates in Winnipeg, the election of Hon. Robert Watson by a substantial majority, the defeat of Messrs.

Roblin and Hagei, joint leaders of the Opposition, and of Hon. D. McLean and Hon.

J. A. Smart, two members of the Cabinet.

Despite these losses, the electors have given Premier Greenway a majority large enough to enable him to hold his own for the next four years.

BLAKE AND FAME.

By his entry into the British Parliament,

Hon. Edward Blake has been made better known to the world at large than in all his previous experience. His name is now found in almost every British and United States paper published, and many and varied are the speculations regarding his future. It seems to be the fate of Canadian statesmen to be little known outside their own territory. The London Standard was wont to speak of Sir Thomas Macdonald; and a few years ago when a prominent lawyer of this city, spent his holidays in a large inland Ohio city, he found the only Canadian whose name was known and recognized by the leading men of the place was Edward Hanlan, the champion oarsman. Mr.

Blake will probably achieve a more extended fame as a member of the British Parliament for one year than would go to him if he were Prime Minister of Canada for twenty years. One cause of this lies in the fact that the Dominion is only a colony, a state of affairs which keeps our leading statesmen in the background in nearly all matters relating to international affairs.

MANITOBA FOR PROHIBITION.

The electors of Manitoba, by a majority of three to one, have declared at the polls that they favor the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors within the Province. This plebiscite should and doubtless will convince the Legislature elected on Saturday that there are yet some doubts, however, whether or not a Provincial Legislature has the right to enact a prohibitory law to apply to the whole of the municipalities under its jurisdiction. It is true that it has been decided by several judges in Ontario that the Provincial law enabling municipalities to enact prohibition by local option bylaws is valid, and it is reasonable that if the Province can grant power to one municipality to abolish the sale of intoxicants as a beverage within its bounds it can enact that a prohibitory law shall be applied to the whole of the Province. The liquor men having resolved to test the validity of the Ontario Local Option Act in a higher court, it is probable that the Manitoba Government may delay the enacting of a prohibitory law till the legal question is entirely cleared up.

By-and-by, the example of the Manitoba Government can, with propriety and possitive advantage to the people of this Province, be followed by the Government of Ontario. A plebiscite on this question in Ontario would show as strong a preponderance in favor of prohibition as has been brought out in Manitoba. Temperance reform cannot be kept back.

In the London Exhibition of the Society of Portrait Painters is a wonderful full-length portrait of the Marquis of Lorne, K.T., G.C.M.G. He is painted in the full regalia of a Scottish laird, and a recent art critic says that he was positively in-cinated by this striking picture, and spellbound by the still more extraordinary costume of the Marquis, with his foot on his native heath," as being armed at all points.

"He is a regular peripatetic army of lethal weapons. How many pistols he wears in his belt, and how many claymores and dirks and hangers and skenes and daggers he has slung at his side, stuck in his stockings, attached to his filibeg, and otherwise concealed about his gorgeous person, I will not trust myself to compute." The critic goes on to say that the usually mild and pleasant-looking statesman appears not only in a murderous guise, but that his costume and position would most literally exemplify the poet's lines:

Come one, come all! This rock shall fly From its firm base as soon as I!

WOMAN'S DEADLY AIM

(Dundas Banner.)

It is being said that the best proof that the woman who hit Mr. Gladstone in the eye with a piece of gingerbread did not mean to do so is the simple fact that she hit him. If she had thrown the gingerbread on purpose to hit him she would have missed him, as women are terrible failures in throwing anything. They say that one of the funniest things in the world is to see a woman throw a stone at a hen. The only safe place under such circumstances is where the hen stands. If you are anywhere else within range you are liable to get hit.
 How is it that women are such poor shots?
 After they have pegged stones for a while as a hen without hitting it they grab their skirts and run towards it crying "choo!" and the poor hen, thinking they are out of their minds, goes away.

MRS. GLADSTONE'S PLEASANT TIME.

(Boston Herald.)

Mrs. Gladstone still sits on the platform every time her Grand Old Man makes a speech, and she doesn't have to assist him in restoring order either. Her task is rather more agreeable than the one which falls to Mrs. Stanley.

SINGLE TAX ON LAND VALUES.

(Ottawa Journal.)

The abolition of our present taxes on buildings, machinery and business stocks would not put the rich man in any better position than he is in now, so far as his opportunities of escaping taxation are concerned; but it might and would have the effect of encouraging him to put his money into buildings, machinery and business stocks instead of as now buying bank shares and railway bonds.

A MARKED CONTRAST.

The Spectator man keeps making faces at Uncle Sam so furiously that there is a danger of spoiling his beauty. He reminds us of a little banderolier crowing at an elephant and thinking he is scaring the elephant right into death.

Railway officers in Delaware and Maryland estimate the peach crop of the peninsula at 400,000 baskets, or about one-sixth of an average crop. Orchards in middle and northern Delaware that were laden with luscious fruit last summer are nearly barren this year, and are marked in every part with "the yellows." The failure of the crop this year is likely to be followed by the uprooting of many thousand trees.

Experts in peach lore are convinced that peach growing is doomed in northern Delaware.

Prof. Laborde's simple method of restoring life in persons apparently drowned has been recently tried in France with signal success. The other day at a watering place in Normandy two bathers, a young man and a boy, who were unable to swim, went to the beach and disappeared. They were brought on shore inanimate, and were taken to the village. Two doctors were sent for, but the young man gave no sign of life, and they declared he was dead. M.

Laborde, who was fishing at half an hour's distance, came up as soon as he heard of the accident. He examined the body, and found that the extremities were cold and the heart had stopped. Then taking hold of the root of the tongue he drew it violently forward, giving it a succession of jerks in order to excite the reflex action of the breathing apparatus, which is always exceedingly sensitive. At the end of a few minutes a slight hiccup showed that the patient was saved. In addition to the usual restorative means, Prof. Laborde, in extreme cases, rubs the chest with towels

I Had Colic

Oswellings in the neck since I was 10 years old; am now 62. I used Hood's Sarsaparilla recently and the swelling has entirely disappeared. It has been very troublesome. When I began I was feeling so disordered with the colic and rheumatism I felt that as alive. Whenever I caught cold I could not walk two blocks without fainting. Now I am free from it all and I can truly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. I received a letter from Mrs. Jennie Bigelow, now of Fremont, Mich., asking if my testimonial in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla was true; I replied it was, and sent her a bottle. I have another letter from her thanking me very much for recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla.
