Royal Canadians in Thick
of It.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, June 8.—Casualties continue to come. Another chapter in the story of the Canadian fight at Sanctuary wood was laid upon the table of the militia this morning. It was in the form of a cable message containing the names of 22 officers killed or wounded in the fight which began on June 1. This morning's list makes the casualties among officers reported so far 262.

The fight was spread out over a week, for the German attack was launched on the 1st of June, and the casualties this morning are reported to have occurred between June 1 and June 7.

Jumped at Germans.
The rifle brigade, which was made up of four squadrons of the Mounted Rifles, fighting on foot, the Princess Patricia's and the Royal Canadian Regiment were the most severely engaged. After standing the artillery pounding in the trenches, they climbed out of their parapets and jumped with bayonets into the charging Germans. They took heavy toll before losing their grip upon the trench which had been a trim trench a few hours before.

Not Discouraged.
The blow had produced no discouragement. Already gaps in the ranks of the damaged corps have been largely filled, repairs are being carried out rapidly, and within a few days, between survivors from the fight, with reinforcements of new men for comrades, they will be ready to carry back to battle the names of the famous Canadian corps.

The Princess Pats have been built three times, and are ready for a further reconstruction. One of the names on the casualty list this morning is that of Major H. B. Veere of Ottawa. He was formerly private secretary to Hon. Rodolph Lemieux, and became assistant deputy postmaster-general. He left Ottawa with the 21st Regiment.

No Conscription For Canadians, Says Minister of Militia

Sir Sam Hughes Declares Militia Council Is Not Considering Compulsory or National Registration—How Provinces Have Contributed Men.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Ottawa, June 8.—Of half a million soldiers asked for by Premier Borden, Toronto military district has raised 75,000 of its 86,000 quota. London military district 29,000 or 46,000, and Kingston and Ottawa 35,000 of 53,000.

In Ontario altogether 139,000 of 185,000 called have enlisted. Quebec has provided 35,000 of 59,000 called.

The Maritime Provinces have raised half their quota, and all the Western Provinces have exceeded their share.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, June 8.—Sir Sam Hughes is greatly pleased with voluntary enlistment in Canada to date, and the possibility of conscription here, or even national registration, is not being ordered by the militia council.

This is the news brought back from Ottawa today by Major Williams, chief recruiting officer for this district, who laid before Sir Sam the views of Toronto regimental commanders recommending national registration. Sir Sam said the matter of registration was one of public policy for the Dominion Cabinet to decide. If it was considered necessary, he declared that Canada is the only part of the Empire raising soldiers purely by voluntary enlistment, and that she will live in history as a result of it.

"Another name discussed in connection with the vacancy is that of Mr. Churchill. His genius and energy are undeniable, but his great gifts are vitiated by bad judgment, and he has for the time being entirely lost public confidence."

WOMEN OF VIENNA IN PEACE DEMONSTRATION

[Canadian Press.]
London, June 8.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that peace demonstrators, most of whom were women, marched from Vienna Monday evening to Schoenbrunn Castle, the residence of the emperor, and demanded a separate peace with Russia.

A number of the women managed to avoid the police and entered the castle grounds, where they shouted their demands beneath the windows of the emperor's private apartments. They were arrested, and the castle guard was later equipped with machine guns.

WILSON DRAFTS A PLATFORM AROUND AMERICA FIRST IDEA

President is for Protection of Neutral Rights of Others and United States, Maintenance of Monroe Doctrine and Pursuit of Mexican Raiders.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, June 8.—President Wilson today practically had completed a draft of the platform to be submitted to the Democratic national convention. The principal plank, it is expected, will consist of a declaration of the administration's success in guarding the honor and interest of the United States, and at the same time keeping the nation at peace. Specifically the foreign affairs sections of the platform probably will praise these acts of the administration:

"Protection of the neutral rights of the United States and other nations."

"Refusal to allow the country to be drawn into the Mexican internal troubles, and prompt dispatch of troops in pursuit of raiders on American territory."

"Maintenance of the Monroe Doctrine and fostering good relations with other nations of the western hemisphere."

"Support of the policy of 'America First.'"

The plank on domestic affairs will refer particularly to the merits of the Underwood tariff act, the federal reserve act, and the administration's preparedness plans.

Extraordinary Interest Shown in Great Convention at Winnipeg.

[Canadian Press.]

Chicago, June 8.—Three days of rain, putting a stop to nearly all outdoor activities, has had a depressing effect upon many of the delegates to the Republican and Progressive conventions, and as a result there has been developed a strain of belligerency in many normally not observable. There have occurred several personal clashes among delegates in hotel lobbies, and last night in the lobby of the Congress Hotel, Sherman adherents and Roosevelt followers engaged in a free-for-all fight and scramble that involved several score men. Police experienced difficulty in restoring order, and several persons were slightly injured.

U. S. TROOPS READY TO GO TO PEKING

Tense Situation Follows Death of President Yuan.

[Canadian Press.]
London, June 8.—10:07 p.m.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Tientsin, China, says that the United States troops at that place have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to Peking.

The dispatch also says the French authorities already have dispatched a strong force of native troops from the French protectorate of Annam to Peking. A delegation of officers of the bodyguard of the new president, Li Yuan-Hung, has assured him of the fealty of the guard.

WONDERFUL FLOWER DISPLAY.
S. F. Wood has placed on exhibition in the public library a display of 25 varieties of named hybrid iris that will delight flower growers. He has also placed on exhibition specimens of peonies that for size and coloring are remarkable. The display is to be seen in the main entrance hall and in the reference room, and the names attached will be of value to growers.

Owing to the scarcity of paper, as a result of the war, the publication of the new hymn book, which has been in preparation for several years, will probably be indefinitely postponed.

It was freely reported this morning that the retirement of Rev. Dr. Robert Campbell, clerk of the assembly since 1892, is probable owing to church union developments. It is said that if the motion favoring union is carried in the assembly, Dr. Campbell will at once move that all those who voted in favor of union must at once retire, and that the minority must carry forward the work as they actually constitute the Presbyterian Assembly. The majority, of course, will not agree, and it is understood Dr. Campbell will refuse to continue to serve in a church which has, according to his view, taken action to dissolve.

There are some among the Progressives and among Roosevelt Republicans as well, who still believe that the colonel himself could save the day if he would come to Chicago. Representative Gardner of Massachusetts, who was defeated for Republican delegate-at-large from Massachusetts on a Roosevelt ticket, pleaded with Progressive leaders to bring Col. DOOR WAS OPENED TO CORRUPTION WHEN COMMISSIONS WERE ALLOWED, SAYS JOHNSTON IN SUMMING UP

Misery Brings Dual Monarchy Near Revolution

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 8.—A correspondent of the London Times, who "has unusual opportunities of ascertaining the state of feeling and actual position in Austria-Hungary," says that last week an important member of a neutral legation in Vienna wrote: "Here existence is no longer possible. We have no bread to eat, no milk, no butter, no fat, nothing—absolutely nothing."

"The general misery is indescribable. Everybody talks of an awful revolution if the war lasts much longer. The offensive against Italy has been undertaken in order to keep up the public spirits and because it is hoped that success in that quarter will end the war. We baffle us if this hope should also fail."

CARS ON SUNDAY NOW DEPEND ON COMPANY'S ACT

Council Firmly Against Any Concession in Regard to Population.

JITNEYS GETTING READY

Will Help Out Traffic If the Public Needs Them Sunday.

ONE DAY FOR DECISION

Company Must Answer on Friday If It Wants New Bylaw.

[Canadian Press.]

Manager C. B. King of the London Street Railway has received the proposition of the board of control as agreed upon yesterday afternoon, refusing to extend the Sunday car franchise unless the company waives its fixed population claim, but he will not announce definitely what the company intends doing until he has consulted the directors.

There is a disposition on the part of the company to consider the general program and Sunday cars as two separate and distinct matters. The board of control and the council consider them one. As a result, there is quite a divergence of opinion on the question, but it would appear that the company will meet the city's terms and accept the proposition.

"We have received the city's proposition," said Mr. King. "I am not prepared to say finally what the company will do until I have consulted the directors. It seems to us that we have made a generous offer. In every city in Canada, there is a cutting down in capital expenditures owing to the war. Other companies have been given breathing space, and we thought that we would. However, the city does not see it that way, and we have made the most generous offer."

Chicago, June 8.—As political leaders gathered for the second day's sessions of the Republican and Progressive National Conventions, it became more and more apparent that there would be two tickets in the field.

Victor Murdock, chairman of the Progressive national committee, summed up the whole situation when he said today: "Well, we left the door open and the Republicans don't seem to be coming in."

No Sign of Peace.
That was the Progressive leader's reply to inquiries as to whether there remained any prospect for harmony and whether there was likely to be appointed today conference committees representing both parties to receive and pass upon peace suggestions.

Republican leaders, too, discounted the success of the peace talk, saying that they had been delayed for so long that a majority of the Republican delegates already have decided to proceed without regard for any third party and nominate Justice Hughes, to whom the most support has been gathered.

T. R. Could Save Day.
There are some among the Progressives and among Roosevelt Republicans as well, who still believe that the colonel himself could save the day if he would come to Chicago. Asks Why Was Canada Ignored in Matter of Contracts and Why Was Allison Permitted to Break Prices Instead of Shell Committee—Opposition Counsel Blames Minister of Militia—Duff Not Impressed With "Wisdom" of Placing Contracts in United States.

[Canadian Press.]

Ottawa, June 8.—Final argument was made before the Meredith-Duff commission this morning by Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, chief Opposition counsel. Mr. Johnston said there were two points, one why Canada at a time when it required all the assistance it could get, was ignored in the matter of fuse manufacture, "contrary to the wish and expressed determination of General Hughes"; the other crucial point was Col. Allison. Why was it left to him to break prices instead of to a member of the shell committee?

The minister, the trusted agent of the war office, knew Allison would get a commission out of the fuse contracts because he specifically approved of his getting a commission. There was some dissent by the commissioners to this. Mr. Johnston argued in conclusion that Gen. Hughes had no authority from the war office to allow any commissions on war office business, and that allowing commissions was opening the door to corruption.

Mr. Ewart said that Liberal counsel, having failed to prove anything, had endeavored to cover their retreat in a cloud of dust. After replying to a number of Mr. Carvell's statements, he answered the charge of discrimination against Canadian manufacturers by suggesting it was unreasonable "when it was considered the shell committee was engaged in getting all other work possible placed in Canada and Canadian manufacturers, such as the General Electric and W. H. Bamfield, had considered fuse making impracticable."

Duff Not Impressed.
Commissioner Duff did not seem to be impressed by his comments with the wisdom of placing the contracts in the United States instead of Canada.

Mr. Ewart contended that this commission's scope was not to inquire into whether British money had been wisely spent, but into the conduct of General Hughes.

Mr. Ewart then pointed out that if the contracts placed with the United States firms by the shell committee were unwise, much greater objection could be taken to the contract the Canadian Car and Foundry Company had placed with the Recording and

French Holding Outskirts of Ruined Vaux-Foe Inside After Seven Days' Battle

Paris Official Reports Announces Occupation of Shattered Works by Germans, But Capture Is Not Decisive Nature—French Retain Points All Around and Break Assaults of Enemy.

[Canadian Press.]
Paris, June 8, 12:01 p.m.—Heavy fighting continues in vicinity of Fort Vaux, northeast of Verdun. The war office report of today says French troops still occupy the outskirts of the fort, as well as trenches to the right and left of the works.

The loss of the fort itself, of which an intimation was given in last night's report, is conceded. The announcement says the fort was abandoned by the garrison after it had been reduced to a heap of ruins by an incessant bombardment of seven days. German attacks on the adjacent positions thus far have been unsuccessful.

West of the Meuse intermittent cannonading was carried on last night.

FOE WANTS YPRES RUINS; BOMBARD DAY AND NIGHT

German Gain So Far Incommensurate With Great Preparations Made—Fierce Artillery Engagements on Whole of British Line.

[Canadian Press.]
London, June 8.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Rotterdam says:

"Very violent fighting continues in and around the Ypres sector. On both sides the artillery actions are as fierce and sustained as any ever known on this part of the western front. Day and night the guns thunder without cessation, and shells are raining on the whole of the British lines near Beclere, Zillebeke, Hooge and Gheluvelt."

Want Ypres Ruins.
"What slight advantage the Germans have so far gained is quite commensurate not only with the scale of the efforts themselves, but also with the preparations. These indicate beyond a doubt that they planned, if not to break through the British lines, at least a reduction of the British salient with the possibility of a military character."

Another indication that the Germans expect big operations on this part of the western front is the removal of civilians from certain places, even in one or two cases, where they had been employed in forced labor of a military character.

GERMAN STATEMENT.
Berlin, June 8.—Via London, 4:40 p.m.—The following statement on military operations was issued today by army headquarters:

DELAWARE DELEGATES ASKS COUNTY COUNCIL TO BUILD A BRIDGE

Want Temporary Structure Until New One Is Opened.

TRAFFIC INCONVENIENCED

Contractors Offer to Supply Material if Farmers Do Work Considered.

A large deputation of Delaware and bridge trustees met the county council at the session yesterday and presented a petition for a temporary bridge on the main road through Delaware village while the new steel bridge is being built. The petition was headed by ex-councillor Hugh Brodie of Carleton Place, who pointed out the traffic troubles which would be occasioned by the blocking of the road during the building of the new bridge.

Mr. Brodie stated that many who owned land on one side of the river lived on the other bank and to reach their property had to cross the bridge. He said that the shortest way around was eleven miles.

Other speakers on the subject were ex-councillor Daniel Delaney, J. Morgan of Lucan, and the contractor for the new bridge, David Witherspoon of Allis Craig, Reeve & Co. of Carleton Place.

TYPE OF SERBIAN INFANTRY.

FORMER LONDONER MAY BE NAMED ON C. N. R. DIRECTORATE

W. J. Christie To Be Government Representative.

BIG FIGURE IN WINNIPEG Real Estate Business There Rated as One of Biggest in West.

An Ottawa dispatch says that W. J. Christie of Winnipeg, formerly of this city, will in all probability be chosen one of the government directors of the Canadian Northern Railway. Sir John Eaton of Toronto, and Mr. Huntley Drummond are the other men named.

Mr. Christie is one of the London men who have done big things in the west. Today he is rated as one of the wealthiest and most able men in Winnipeg, his real estate business being probably the largest in that city. He is the only son of the late John Christie, and was born and educated in this city. He went into his father's building business for some time, later going into the city engineer's office as an architect with the late William Robins. Subsequently he joined the inland revenue service and was stationed at London, Petrolia and finally at Winnipeg.

After many years in the service in the west, he went into the real estate business, under the name of Huebisch & Christie. This firm dissolved after five years, and Christie went into business for himself, and both were leaders. Mr. Christie's firm is known as W. J. Christie & Co., and is one of the largest in the west. He has kept up his connection with the native city, visiting London frequently, and acting as investing agent for a number of London financial concerns. He has several sisters, including Mrs. Eryers Barkwell, and his wife is the sister of the late Mrs. Francis Love. Many of his old friends in London were gratified to hear of the prospect of his being given so important a national commission.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT COSTS HIM HEAVILY

Brings James Taylor Into Police Tolls and Retrial on Burglary Charge.

James Foster was sentenced to three months in the county jail by Police Magistrate J. C. Judd in the police court today. On May 19, Foster and two others were convicted of breaking into Taylor's barber shop on King street and stealing several razors, but were allowed to go on suspended sentence, with the warning that if they were arrested again they would be tried on the charge of theft. Wednesday night Foster was arrested for disorderly conduct in a local theatre.

In passing sentence, the magistrate declared that prisoners who are allowed to go on suspended sentence must not believe that they are safe from being brought back for trial on the original charge.

WILL DAYLIGHT SAVING AFFECT EXAMINATIONS?

Some Fear Advantage Might Be Taken to Telephone Questions.

The board of education is up against a problem in connection with the daylight saving bill. It refers to examinations. The departmental examinations start shortly, and it would be possible to imagine that an hour's difference in the time might give an advantage to students where the daylight saving bill was not in effect. This means that the soldiers cannot enter a barroom until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and must leave at 8 o'clock, not increasing the hours of sale a minute.

RAIN SPOILED PICNIC

Catholic Choir Outing at Port Had Small Attendance.

The Catholic choir picnic at Port Stanley yesterday was a success anticipated owing to the unfavorable weather. It was planned that the choir of each of the London and St. Thomas churches would attend, but the heavy rains during the preceding night and early yesterday morning kept them at home. The choir of St. Mary's Church and one of the St. Thomas churches went in a body, but outside of this attendance was small.

ST. ANDREW'S HALL HIVE OF ACTIVITY IN HOSPITAL'S BEHALF

Supplies Made Up and Packed for "U" Unit.

MANY WILLING WORKERS

But More Are Needed to Complete Preparation in Time Set.

Never was a factory a scene of greater activity, concentrated effort and business efficiency than St. Andrew's Hall is at the present time, in the role of headquarters for the Western University Hospital Unit supplies, which are being made up and packed under the direction of the Red Cross Society.

All the surgical supplies are being made up at St. Andrew's Hall, where the work is prepared in the forenoon under the supervision of Lady Beck and Mrs. C. R. Somerville. Lady Beck taking charge of the packing. Each afternoon, hundreds of more women work away with nimble fingers, which have acquired an amazing skill through the training in Red Cross work received in the past two years.

Thirty or forty were on duty this forenoon, and no worker was more in earnest than Lady Beck's daughter, Miss Marion, who has to her credit a great supply of triangular bandages.

A table piled high with long, was piled with surgical supplies waiting to be packed, the fruits of just one day's work. In the meantime, Lady Beck and Mrs. Somerville were busy packing the greatest skill and dispatch bags each packed with 50 surgical pads, all ready to be sterilized. Two of these bags go in each box, and already 100 bags have been sterilized by Miss Stanley, Victoria Hospital.

Two hundred boxes of garments are to be supplied by the end of the month, as well as 300 boxes of surgical supplies, and the members of the St. John Carling Chapter, I. O. O. F., of which Miss Jean Waugh is regent, are rendering most efficient service in gathering the bundles of out-of-use garments at the Red Cross tea-room, Richmond street, receiving again the finished garments, and sending them to St. Andrew's Hall to be packed by Mrs. P. P. Drake.

All garments are cut out at the Red Cross headquarters, Hyman Hall, then sent over to the Red Cross tea-room and carried over to the hospital unit, where the state that women's organizations and individuals are making an "amazing" response to the appeal for help in sewing.

More Help Needed.

The various chapters of the Daughters of the Empire have come forward promptly in answer to the call for assistance in the tremendous task of equipping the hospital unit within a month, and with these various other clubs and societies.

Notwithstanding the large number who have volunteered assistance, many more workers are needed for the accomplishment of all that must be done in the next two weeks.

When the work was first undertaken, a circular letter was sent out to the three hundred branches of the London Red Cross Society situated in Western Ontario, explaining the need, and the need of assistance. In response, donations of money are coming in from a large number of these branches.

GOOTSON CASE OF STEALING COPPER IS BEFORE COURT

Witness Admits Theft and Says He Sold to Accused.

DEFENCE BEGINS TODAY

Jury Disagreed After Hearing Evidence in Former Trial.

Witnesses for the defence were called in the Gootson case at the June county court this morning. Meyer Gootson is charged with receiving wire stolen from the Hydro-Electric Company at St. Thomas. Edgar Tinline, Israel Solway, and Louis Schott claim that they disposed of the stolen goods to Gootson. The case was tried before, but the jury disagreed on the verdict. Yesterday afternoon all the evidence for the prosecution was heard. Many little witnesses were the three thieves. They admitted their guilt, and charged Meyer Gootson with receiving the stolen goods.

Meyer Gootson, on the witness stand, denied the statement made about him by Tinline, Schott and Solway. He claimed that he was in Toronto on the day they alleged to have sold the goods to him. Many little witnesses were the three thieves. They admitted their guilt, and charged Meyer Gootson with receiving the stolen goods.

The first witness called was G. W. House, hydro-electric inspector at St. Thomas. He testified that on the night of Friday, May 21, 1915, a 1,400-pound reel of copper wire was missed from the Hydro-Electric Company's wire to the ravine. They removed as much of the wire as possible, cutting it into short lengths. They then drove to Meyer Gootson's place. Witness went back to St. Thomas alone. He saw the others in St. Thomas several days later.

Under cross-examination he admitted several shady spots in his past career. "You were sentenced to a year in jail for stealing from the United States," asked the counsel. "Yes," he replied. "How long did you serve?" "Six months," he replied. "How was that?" "I walked out of the jail and forgot to return," was the reply.

He forgot which of the three suggested the theft. He received $8 as a reward for the wire. The other two claim that he got $25. The wire was cut with a pair of scissors, but he did not know who owned them or who brought them to him.

Was Not Mentioned.

He stated that House had said nothing to him about prosecuting Gootson. He said that he had seen Gootson at the house told him that if he ("Tinline"), was out of a job he might be able to place him. He denied that he ever saw Gootson. He said that he had seen Gootson at the house told him that if he ("Tinline"), was out of a job he might be able to place him. He denied that he ever

RAYNAL'S HEROES HELD FORT VAUX 5 DAYS FOODLESS

Massed Germans Finally Swept Over Gallant Band.

Fortifications Are Pounded to Pieces in Seven Days' Bombardment.

[Canadian Press.] Paris, June 8.—1:35 p.m.—The bombardment of old Fort Vaux has finally passed into the possession of the Germans after a heroic resistance, in which the troops holding out there were cut off from food supplies for five days and from all communication for the last twenty-four hours. The French on the trenches were surrounded by the German trenches sweeping around the western and southern slopes of the fortress.

The desperate defence made by Commander Raynal and the small contingent left in the fort constitutes one of the most notable incidents of the Verdun campaign. The fort had been gradually pounded to pieces in a terrific seven-day bombardment, while infantry rushes were repeatedly launched in this period against the slopes of the fort, only its ditches and outworks. Early yesterday Commander Raynal's force was cut off from the first time from communicating with the French trenches lying only 300 yards to the south. The Germans brought up two fresh divisions and commenced the final assault in five successive massed attacks which, in spite of the fearful losses caused by the French artillery, finally resulted in the capture of the inner defences of the fort, and sweeping over its exhausted defenders. No word has been received from Gen. Raynal since communication was cut off, and nothing is known of his fate or that of his men.

While the prolonged bombardments have destroyed the usefulness of Vaux as a position, it is considered as important as it is one of the dominating heights on which the position of artillery is advantageous.

"The French lines now embrace the circle of inner forts and trenches lying south of Fort Vaux, the lines constituting a semi-circle of defences from five to six miles outside of Verdun.

The medical officers speak highly of the general physical fitness of the men of the unit.

Mrs. Clarke, wife of Lieut.-Col. Clarke of the 11th Battalion, and family, arrived in the city this morning from Galt and will be here for the summer.

the cause. I got to using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and was so improved that I began to study the malady. I found that the indigestion resulted from a bad case of inactive liver. I got the liver working right. I didn't have any stomach trouble or indigestion, the nervous system vanished and the blood flew away. I am never sick now, but should the old trouble return I know how to cure it quickly.

There is a whole host of derangements which disappear when the liver is set right. Biliousness, indigestion, headache, irritability, constipation are a few of the more common results of torpid liver action. By the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills you can control all such disorders.

An Advertiser Reporter's Sketch of Duchess of Connaught Hospital

This is a sketch of the rear elevation of the Duchess of Connaught Hospital at Cliveden, Taplow, Bucks. It was drawn by Pte. William Nelson Minihink, late No. 3 Stationary Hospital, who was a member of the editorial staff of The Advertiser until he enlisted with the hospital and after his recovery in England was attached to the staff of the Duchess of Connaught Hospital.

In a letter he says: "I sketched the rear of the Cliveden mansions today and am enclosing it. This will give you some idea of the kind of place Waldorf Astor owns. The Earl of Somerset owned Cliveden until Waldorf Astor bought it. The woods and gardens for a radius of half a mile or so of the house are beautiful with great trees and garden. Statuary is scattered around as if it cost nothing; also marble bridges and steps, esplanades, fountains and so on."

Canadians, many from this city, have been nursed back to health and strength again at this hospital, and the sketch should prove a most interesting one to many of the Advertiser readers who have friends or relatives confined there through wounds or illness.

Cargoes of War's Maimed Pass Daily Through Sweden

Stockholm, Sweden, May 30.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The great task of exchanging wounded prisoners between Russia and Germany through Sweden will be continued throughout the summer. The exchange applies only to those prisoners taken by the Russians in the Baltic region.

At a trainload of these miserable war derelicts leaves no doubt as to their disability. Missing legs, missing arms, sightless eyes, shattered jaws, twisted spines and here and there the glassy stare which tells its own story of a burned-out brain—these are the evidences the Swedish people see of the war that surrounds them.

Handled by Red Cross. The transfer through Sweden is handled entirely by the Swedish Red Cross, which is the official agent of the exchange.

Prisoner of War. The prisoners of war are received from the Russians at Haparanda, a few miles south of the frontier, only a few miles south of the sweep of the Arctic Circle. In trains specially fitted for their use the maimed and twisted wrecks of men are taken south through the night and the distance of Sweden, a journey of three nights and two days, the pace of the train being timed for the utmost of comfort.

Travelling. The wounded men, who are the one-time soldiers of the fatherland are placed upon German hospital transports for the short sail across the southern reaches of the Baltic to German ports of Saseitz. From there they are taken to Hamburg and held in detention for one month as a guarantee against the importation of any infectious disease. This quarantine period ended, the men, most of them dependents for life, are returned to their relatives and homes.

One Train a Week. In the case of the Russian prisoners the operation is just reversed. They are received from the German ships at Trelleborg and are taken through the glowing sunshine and the mysterious nights of the Arctic latitudes, where soon the days will fade into one with the other only a shadow of difference in between. The work has begun this year with one train a week in each direction. This month the number will be increased to three in each direction. The train consists of sixteen cars and has a capacity of about 235 soldiers.

When the work is fully under way, the rate of exchange will be about 3,000 prisoners a month. Among the contents of "totally unfit" among the men must be comparatively small, some idea may be gained as to the total number of prisoners held on both sides of the Russian-German battle line.

A Ghastly Assortment. The first train started north from Trelleborg with the burden of 230 physical and mental derelicts. Hampshire Sank In 20 Minutes, Says a Witness Column of Water Rose Suddenly, Followed by Steam and Smoke.

EDINBURGH, June 8.—3:35 a.m.—The Scotsman today prints the story of an eyewitness of the disaster to the cruiser Hampshire in which Earl Kitchener lost his life. This man, who saw the tragedy from the shore, is quoted as saying:

"The night was wet and stormy, but the light was good. From the shore a column of water was seen suddenly to rise from the Hampshire, followed by a great column of steam and smoke. In twenty minutes the ship had disappeared beneath the waves. A very heavy sea was running at the time. Four boats were seen leaving the ship but were not again sighted."

STEAMER IS CHARTERED TO SEEK MACMILLAN

Will Go to the Relief of Arctic Expedition.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The steamship Denmark has been chartered to go to the relief of Donald E. Macmillan's Crocker Land expedition, it was announced today by the American Museum of Natural History. Although Macmillan failed to find anything more than a mirage where Crocker Land was supposed to be, officials of the museum and other backers of his expedition believe he will have many valuable records and specimens when he is brought back to civilization. The Denmark will carry the second expedition sent to his relief since his departure for the Arctic regions nearly three years ago.

Macmillan is now supposed to be several hundred miles northwest of northern Greenland, while members of the first relief party are frozen in at Parker Snow Bay, 150 miles south of Etah.

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! See if tongue is coated, breath hot or stomach sour.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember a good "inside cleansing" should always be at hand.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

RUSSIAN PEOPLE GREATLY AFFECTED OVER THE TRAGEDY

Great Interest Exhibited in Kitchener's Visit.

NO EFFECT ON THE WAR

Under-Secretary of Foreign Affairs Says Conflict Will Not Halt.

[Canadian Press Cable.]
PETROGRAD, June 7.—Via London, 10:32 p.m.—Field Marshal Earl Kitchener's death has profoundly affected the whole of Russia. His purpose to visit Russia had been looked forward to with intense interest, not only by officials but by the public generally, as evidence of the further cementing of the growing cordiality between Great Britain and Russia, and as a concrete token of complete co-ordination between the fighting forces of the respective countries. Russia's remoteness from her allies has proved that close co-operation which exists between France and Great Britain and Earl Kitchener's visit was expected to unify Russia's efforts with the other nations of which her lot is cast. For this reason the loss of the British war secretary has come to Russia as a national calamity.

Sazonoff cables sympathy. Foreign Minister Sazonoff immediately telegraphed to Earl Kitchener's death with deep regret, and an expression of sympathy to London on behalf of the Imperial Government. Baron Schilling, under secretary of foreign affairs in the temporary absence of Mr. Sazonoff, said with regard to the death of Earl Kitchener:

"The Allies have sustained a grievous loss in the death of Earl Kitchener, whose ability and worth were fully recognized by Russia. His loss, however, great as it is, can have no appreciable effect on the future conduct of the war."

Stream of Messages.
Sir George W. Buchanan, the British ambassador, has been recipient of a constant stream of messages of condolence on the death of Earl Kitchener from Russian officials and men of all ranks and classes.

"Russia will feel his loss almost as keenly as England," said the ambassador today. "After all he had accomplished his death at this critical moment comes as a tragic end to a brilliant career. I had received no specific instructions regarding the purpose of Earl Kitchener's visit to Russia, but I assumed it was personally to acquaint himself with the details of the Russian fighting organization and bring the military operations of the Allies into closer rapport. The interest displayed in his prospective visit had been extraordinarily keen."

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT INGERSOLL CONVENTION

30 Churches of Oxford-Brant Baptist Association Well Represented.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
INGERSOLL, June 6.—Late this afternoon, in the neighborhood of 150 delegates had arrived to attend the session of the annual convention of the Oxford-Brant Association, which opened in the Baptist Church under the day delegates present here, and it is understood that the 39 churches in the association are well represented.

Splendid co-operation has been shown by the congregation of the Baptist Church in the matter of billeting, and looking after the comfort of the visitors. In the church today dinner and supper were served.

The afternoon and evening sessions were devoted to the work of the mission circles and bands, and some splendid reports were heard from the latter. Without exception the reports were optimistic, and indicated a growth of interest and helpful influence. An address was given at the afternoon session by Mrs. H. L. Stark of Toronto on "Young Women's Work." Another interesting feature was "The Mother Goose Family as Mission Workers," conducted by Miss Mae Waters of Ingersoll. The address of welcome at the opening session was given by Mrs. (Rev.) Jones, and the reply by Mrs. S. G. Read of Brantford.

At the evening session, which was well attended, Mrs. C. N. Mitchell of Woodstock gave an address on "Solivita," and Mrs. Vining of Toronto gave an address on "Home Missions." The regular sessions of the association will be held on Wednesday and Thursday.

DEWART WITHDRAWS FROM KELLY CASE

Court Refused Counsel Six Weeks' Time to Prepare Defence.

WINNIPEG, June 7.—When Mr. Justice Prendergast announced this morning in the assize court that he would allow counsel defending Thomas Kelly until June 19 to prepare their defence instead of the six weeks which had been requested, H. H. Dewart, K.C., of Toronto, chief of Kelly's counsel, announced that he would have to withdraw from the case. Edward Anderson, K.C., Dewart's associate, stated that he concurred in this decision, and shortly afterwards the two lawyers and their assistants packed their documents in their bags and left the court room. "I feel so strongly in this matter," declared Mr. Dewart, "that so far as myself and my associates are concerned we must withdraw from the case and leave the responsibility to the crown of sending this man to his trial without proper defence."

Mr. Anderson asserted that, realizing their responsibility, the defence counsel would be doing less than their duty if they attempted to go on with the case.

NO TRACE IS FOUND.

OTTAWA, June 7.—General Hughes, minister of militia, has received a cable dispatch that Major-General Mercer, commander of the 3rd Canadian division, is still missing. The presumption is that the general is dead. However, the Germans have reported the capture of one general and possibly this may be General Mercer, in which case General Victor Williams has probably been succumbed.

WHITEDUCK IS SENTENCED.

PEMBROKE, June 7.—Peter Whiteluck, an Indian of the Golden Lake Reserve, who with Anthony Jocko, another Indian, shot and killed Turnkey Robert Coxford, while escaping from the jail here on November 29, 1914, and who was tried for murder on two previous occasions, both juries being unable to agree, was today found guilty of manslaughter and jail breaking. Whiteluck was sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary on the first count and five years on the second by Sir William Mulock. Jocko died of wounds received when shot by a posse.

Motherwell Native Gets High-Prestigious Honor.

PIONEER OF THE WEST

Identified With Manitoba College for Almost Thirty Years.

[Canadian Press.]
WINNIPEG, June 7.—Rev. Andrew Browning Baird, M.A., D.D., who 35 years ago came to the West as a pioneer missionary of the Presbyterian Church, and who for almost thirty years has been identified with the Manitoba College, or which he is the acting principal, was tonight elected moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, thus receiving the highest honor which the denomination can bestow.

Other nominations included the Rev. Dr. John Neil of Toronto. Dr. Baird was born in the village of Motherwell, Ontario, in 1855. He was educated at Upper Canada College, the University of Toronto, where he graduated in 1887 (M.A., 1886), Knox College, Toronto (D.D., 1913), Edinburgh University (Ph.D.), and the University of Leipzig. He was ordained in 1881, and went to Edmonton, where he was minister of the First Presbyterian Church until 1887. In the latter year he was transferred to the University of Leipzig. He has remained in connection with the institution since that time.

500 Delegates Present.

Westminster Church, where all the meetings of the assembly will be held, was completely filled when the opening service was held. Fully five hundred delegates being present.

The annual sermon was preached by the retiring moderator, Rev. Dr. Malcolm Macmillan, of Kingston, Ont. At the conclusion of the sermon, the new assembly was solemnly constituted by the retiring moderator, who gave some account of his work during the year. He then called on the assembly to elect his successor, when Rev. Dr. Baird and Rev. Dr. John Neil were nominated, the latter retiring in favor of Dr. Baird.

Dr. Neil Next Year.

Rev. Dr. Turnbull of Ottawa, who nominated Rev. Dr. Neil, gave notice, amid much laughter, that he would consent to the withdrawal of the name of Dr. Neil this year, but that he would press for his election next year in Montreal, where it is believed the assembly of 1917 will be held.

Rev. Dr. Baird, in his opening address as moderator, referred at some length to the church union issue, and suggested that whatever the decision might be, the traditions of the assembly be maintained in the debate.

It is believed that the debate on church union may be taken up on Friday, although it has been suggested that nothing be done in this matter until the beginning of next week.

Striking Tribute Paid Kitchener in New York Theatre

Audience Stands in Silence When Picture Is Flashed on Screen.

NEW YORK, June 7.—A silent but intensely impressive tribute to the memory of Lord Kitchener was paid by a large and representative audience in a theatre in West 45th street last night. The tribute was spontaneous and was not anticipated by anyone in the audience.

A film entitled "How Britain Prepared" was being exhibited as an object lesson in preparedness. The first part of the picture dealt with the process evolved by Kitchener for the transformation of 5,000,000 recruits into an efficient and well organized force of fighting men in the brief time of eighteen months.

Suddenly an excellent portrait of the dead field marshal was flashed upon the screen. The orchestra leader tapped his baton, and as the opening bars of the hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee" were heard, the entire audience rose and stood in silence until the strains had died away. Not a sound of applause was heard, but a man who was in the audience said afterward that the genuineness of the tribute was made manifest by the very silence in which it was paid.

WOODSTOCK, June 7.—When two of the workmen at the Harvey Knitting Company went to the factory this morning they discovered the body of the night watchman, Fred Hulse, at the bottom of the elevator shaft. No one is known as to just how the man met his death.

Evidently he had fallen down the shaft in going the rounds of the factory. He must have had a light lantern in his hand, for a broken lantern was found beside him and his body was badly burned, evidently from the lantern exploding.

How the factory escaped catching fire is a mystery. Mr. Hulse was a married man with a family, living on Dundas street east.

Dr. Krupp was summoned, and he stated that the man had been dead for some hours. He ordered an inquest. A jury was empaneled and viewed the body, after which it adjourned.

INGERSOLL MAN IS CHOSEN TO INSPECT EAST ELGIN SCHOOLS

J. C. Smith Is Choice of the County Council.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
ST. THOMAS, June 7.—J. C. Smith, of Ingersoll, was appointed school inspector for East Elgin, to succeed the late Mr. Atkin, by the county council today.

The educational committee recommended the appointment.

Mr. Smith was present, and in a few well-chosen words thanked the council for the honor they had conferred upon him.

The appointee stated that the teaching of agriculture would form an important part of the curriculum, should the council desire it. Mr. Smith said that as a young man he asked for their sympathy and advice.

"I am," he said, "receptive, and willing to learn."

SOUTH HURON ORANGE LODGES HOLD SESSION

[Special to The Advertiser.]

CLINTON, June 7.—At the semi-annual meeting of the South Huron L. O. L. held here today every lodge was represented, and satisfactory reports were presented. The opening of the district was heartily promised to Clinton in its celebration of June 12.

Walter Hodgins of Lucan, county master, and three from here expected to take the course in agriculture and horticulture during five weeks of the holidays. They are: Misses Cecil Morrison, Ida Young and Kathleen McCallum.

The service in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening was conducted by the Executive Bible class, in the absence of Rev. G. Kerr, who was in Kingsville. Flower Sunday was also observed in the afternoon and the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

J. W. Hoffer, R. A. of the London Normal School, addressed the Sunday school, his theme being "Flowers and Their Application to Character." Four little girls gave a quartet number that was much enjoyed.

FRENCH OFFERED THE WAR OFFICE, REPORT IN LONDON

Conference With Asquith Leads to This Belief.

NAME LLOYD GEORGE

Times Says He Is Too Good a Man for Routine Work.

LONDON, June 8.—The choice of a successor to Lord Kitchener as secretary for war is touched on only lightly by the London morning papers. A news agency dispatch, published without comment by several of the papers, says:

"There is reason to believe that an offer has already been conveyed to Field Marshal Viscount French, who had a long conference with Premier Asquith yesterday."

The Graphic declares that the new war minister should be a civilian, and expresses the opinion that the man whose appointment would give the most satisfaction is Lord Derby, former director of recruiting.

The Morning Post sticks to its nomination of yesterday of Lord Milner as the most suitable man for the post.

The Times thinks that Earl Kitchener's successor should be a civilian, and says that the names most prominently mentioned are Lord Lloyd George and Lord Milner. It adds:

"It would be a misfortune to put Mr. Lloyd George in a position where departmental routine would tie up such a large part of his time. Lord Milner would probably make the best war minister of all, but we can hardly picture his inclusion in the present cabinet of party men."

The Daily Chronicle and the Daily Telegraph endorse David Lloyd George.

NEWSPAPERMAN WEDS.

PORT DOVER, June 7.—The marriage took place on Saturday of Miss Nellie Grant Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, to William Marchington, assistant city editor of the Toronto Globe. Both the young people are well known and popular in Port Dover. Mr. Marchington having been a frequent week-end visitor, as well as having spent the past two holiday seasons as one of the "park" guests.

APPEAL IN WAITE CASE

Counsel Files Notice Which Will Delay the Execution.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Counsel for Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, sentenced to die during the week of July 10 for the murder of his father-in-law, John E. Peck, filed a notice of appeal for a new trial today. This action will necessarily delay the time of execution.

Walter Deuell, Waite's counsel, declared that the appeal was made with Waite's approval, although Waite, after his conviction, had insisted that no appeal be taken. After a conference yesterday, he said, Waite finally was persuaded to consent to the legal step.

Good gasoline must be a straight-distilled refinery product—not a "blend" nor a "mixture."

Mixtures aren't good because they won't stay mixed; the lighter parts go off first, leaving behind a heavy residue which makes starting difficult, and is a frequent cause of carbonization.

MARVELLOUS SHOOTING

THAT the Waspite is safe in a British harbor, in spite of all German claims to the contrary, is a fact which is of deep interest and a cause of special gratification to the whole nation. Her deeds in the great naval battle were such that she may be looked upon as a tower of strength to the navy.

An officer of the Warrior, which was shelled up by the German heavy guns, tells a graphic tale of the courage and wonderful accuracy in shooting of the Waspite's crew. When the Warrior was a hopelessly battered hulk, waiting for the shell which would finish it and send the blue-jackets on board to a watery grave, the Waspite steamed into action, interposing her huge bulk between the crippled and the remorseless enemy, and with the first shot from her guns damaged the German battle cruiser which was shelling the Warrior. The next shot dismounted the cruiser's foreguns and in a few minutes succeeding shells had made of her a roaring furnace.

The big British vessel then turned attention to a second battle cruiser. With the same unerring accuracy shells were poured into her, and ripped her to pieces as she fled.

In a smaller battle such shooting would have been remarked upon in every paper in the land, but in this greatest of all sea fights it passes with but little notice. If every ship in the British squadron had been as successful, the German navy would have been wiped out before it could regain its base, or if the German fire had been as good British would have reason to dread future clashes.

With a sea thrown into convulsions by the explosions of huge shells and alid with smoke, it is marvellous that mortals could so gauge their fire as to find the mark at first shot and then continue, steaming rapidly, to maintain the accuracy. The loss of such gunners would have been truly a catastrophe.

Germans may believe that the Waspite has gone forever, but if they do they are inviting a most unpleasant surprise when the next clash comes. She is afloat and her men are still behind the guns.

UNPOPULAR WEATHERMAN

THERE is plenty of room for complaints against the weather man this spring, and farmers are not the only sufferers, though they are, perhaps, more seriously affected than others.

Those who have arranged and taken part in band concerts held here for patriotic purposes have had great discouragement and their efforts, because of the cold or wet evenings, have not met the deserved reward.

On Tuesday night the I. O. E. were sponsors for a concert, the proceeds of which were to help along a fund to procure a motor ambulance for the 111th Battalion. The weather was so cool that hundreds who would have attended and subscribed their mites on a warm evening failed to put in an appearance, and the receipts suffered. Fortunately many endured the chill air rather than miss the music, and a sum of $50 was realized.

On Wednesday the people of the city were promised an opportunity to witness a joint parade of all the units in camp here, but again the weather spoiled the plans, rain making necessary a postponement of the spectacle.

The great children's event of the year, the public school picnic, also had to be postponed at the last minute, bringing disappointment to the thousands who had their lunches packed and their day all mapped out.

All classes "have it in" for the weather man, who is running a close race with the kaiser for the lead in unpopularity.

THE PRAISE OF HEROES.

YESTERDAY most of the newspapers, The Advertiser included, laid an editorial wreath at the feet of Major Hamilton Gault, "father" of the Princess Patricia, in the belief that he had given his life for "the cause that roused his manhood, and the land that gave him birth." Today it is a gratifying duty to correct the inadvertent error, whereby his death was chronicled, the report since having been denied by the family. The word flowers will not be "retracted," however, and it may be well that this nation-wide tribute was paid the gallant young Canadian, who, if he is spared, will surely again show his devotion by returning to his regiment.

Even the greatest of the Empire's heroes gets small need of praise unless his death presents the final obligation of tribute. It is well that in the case of Earl Kitchener an exception is to be recorded. A few days before he died Premier Asquith paid the departed war secretary a remarkable testimonial. The premier's speech is just now published, and well it may stand as the thought of the British people. Even the "man of steel" must have thrilled over the words of Asquith, carefully balanced, dignified and not overdrawn, yet perhaps the most grateful phrases ever addressed by the nation to one of its sons. Kitchener

THE BRUISED CHAPLET

[The glorious 1st of June, the anniversary of Admiral Lord Howe's great victory of Cape St. Vincent, has hitherto been one of the brightest days in British naval annals.]

Why should I weep? I am an Englishman! And proud of those who died—"Tis not defeat, Albert great the loss. Nay more 'tis meet To bear a proud uplifted face and ban Approach to sorrow. It is not dead, Nor stricken, this might of England! Weep! When there's no cause for joy. Why should I weep? The bruised chaplet round so crowned a head!

Wait, and be patient. I am patient, wait! Heed not the little men and full of noise Shrieking disaster, they have unlatched no gate. Although the strewn sea with the wreckage toys. The humbled pride, and not the wound amonys, England endures, and England still is great!

—FRANK BROWNE.

lived to hear his great work in the Empire's emergency fully recorded.

The idle writers who like to seize upon "types" and hero-worship the great, strong men of silence and steel seem to be laying it on a bit thick regarding Kitchener. One report states that "he never smiled," yet almost every portrait of him reveals geniality and warmth of nature, and all of the personal sketches of him written by competent men, such as T. P. O'Connor and Irvin S. Cobb, show him as a kindly man of flesh and blood, rather than an iceberg or a metal thinking machine. Because he took life seriously, and cast off the usual military dash and passion for the life's spices, he was none the less warm-hearted. And it is fitting that the nation's encomiums were not all of the post-mortem variety.

It is to the eternal shame of Canada that there were no Canadian dreadnoughts in the North Sea—Toronto News.

It is not to the eternal shame of Canada that the training ship Rainbow has rendered effective service and captured enemy shipping.

No matter what the merits or shortcomings of either policy, is this the time for Canadians to "strait" one another?

A TOUCHING TRIBUTE.

OF ALL the tributes paid to Lord Kitchener, none is more touching or more illuminating than that of the South African Assembly, whose members remained standing after the announcement of his death as a mark of respect.

Among these legislators were many who had fought bitterly against the British a few years ago, and who were beaten by Kitchener, but today they are his friends and their sons are fighting in the army over which he has held control. They recognized the British leader as an honorable foe while the war was continued, and when it ended they found in him a friend eager to assist in the work of reforming South Africa.

Not only is there no lingering hatred for their conquerors in the minds of these legislators, but there is real gratitude to Britain for the treatment they have received at her hands. Entire freedom with the friendship and support of the world's greatest power is theirs, and they realize that in defeat they found the way to national happiness. In their gratitude Kitchener largely shared.

VICTORY NEARER.

THE MILITARY situation in Europe is looking satisfactory. The lot to the Canadians at Hooge is painful, but not a quantitatively large factor in this struggle of empire. The loss of Kitchener is sorely felt, but his work was done; he hit hard for a moment, but quickly recovered herself and held the Hun at arm's length without great difficulty. If the Austrians expected to ride over the Italians as Germany pressed last summer into Russia, they have suffered a disappointment.

But the great features of the present moment in Europe are the huge and sudden Russian advance in Volhynia and Galicia, and the crushing toll to the Germans at Fort Vaux. As to the first, it is like a landslide. Russia seems to have a chance of breaking right through the Austrian lines denuded of men and guns for the Italian adventure. No wonder the grand duke's army has been for some time at a standstill in Asia Minor, when the coup on the Austrian front was being prepared.

Perhaps the French success is even more glittering than that of the Russian. German militarism is finding its deathbed at Verdun, by all appearances. So quick, clean-cut, complete and apical, as has been the demolition of all asiling has been the French stronghold in the last two days, that the Germans are staggered and retreat in a rout. Yesterday wheat fell two points and stocks rose on the New York market, owing doubtless in the main or immediately to the Vaux defeats.

The critical hour draws near for the brute powers of Hun and Turk. It is a very black hour which stands with black wings poised to fly up and tear from his throne the arch-criminal of history. Victory approaches for our cause appreciably these days. If Germany could not win in 1914, she had less chance in 1915, and in 1916 has none at all. We hold the winning cards.

Daily Short Story

A QUITTER.

By Henry D. Morehouse.

"Well, if you say you can't there isn't any use of talking any more about it. The shape the work is in now, I don't suppose you would mind if I left tonight, would you?"

"Why, no, Joe; if you wish to quit tonight, it's all right. You can arrange to go at any time you like. But I'm sorry. I'm sorry to lose you and I'm sorry I can't pay you more money, but I've told you how things stand. Have you made any plans?"

"No; none whatever."

"Well, if you ever want to come back to work for me I'd be glad to have you. You're a good man and I think you are worth more than I would be able to pay you here. I wish you luck."

"Thanks," said Joe. "I'll not forget what you've said."

The men shook hands and Joe left the office.

He bought an evening paper and sat in the train he began to look through the "Help Wanted" columns, then turned back a page or two and listlessly began to read a short story. It was the story of a man who lived of the city and broke, who had left town one day, and after traveling many miles, had hired out as a farm-hand, and in a short time rented a farm, married, made money and returned to despise the city and all its works in the happiness and contentment of the life he was living.

Joe folded the paper and looked about him. There was nothing unusual. What a weary looking, throng surrounded him, packed as closely as they could sit or stand! It was the same sort of crowd he had traveled with all ways, but he had not with it a new interest and what he saw gave him an idea, hazy, indefinite, but the more he thought of it the more it grew to have substance in his mind.

The bell rang and Marion ran to the door, fastening a cuff button in a fresh waist as she went. Marion was a stenographer downtown, working for those who suited his convenience about dictating his letters; so often, as happened tonight, she was late reaching home and had barely time to finish a cold dinner after the rest of the family and hastily change her dress.

Joe had telephoned her a few days before that he wanted to see her that evening. This was nothing unusual, for he had been coming to see her once or twice a week for a long time, but this time he had said he had something important to tell her.

Although he never had said so, Marion thought she had a pretty clear idea of what his feelings were toward her. Any woman can tell that about a man. Instead of Joe at the door, as she expected, she met a messenger boy, who handed her a note. Opening it in the hall she read:

"Dear Marion: I decided a few moments ago not to come to see you, but thought I would rather write. I am going to chuck it—leaving town tonight. I haven't had any clear notion of where I am going or what I am going to do. I only know for certain that I must get away. I have had hopes for many months—hopes which I dare not tell—but it isn't any use. I've worked three years on this job and I'm not getting anywhere. I hardly make enough to support myself, and when I ask the boss for a raise he wanted to know why he should pay me more when he could get any number of men to work for what I get. Besides, I haven't had the business warrant it. Several weeks ago, a distant relative died and I found I had been left an income of just one dollar a week. I resigned my position, and I am taking a train for some place in the woods up north. I wanted to say good-bye to you, but I will let this be my good-bye note."

Marion sat a long time with the letter in her lap beneath her folded hands. Inured to disappointment as she was through the many that had come to her, she felt this to be the hardest she had ever known. She had not known until now how much she cared for what he said and dreamed about her. Here she had been so evidently considering herself a failure—a quitter—and was willing to acknowledge it even to her. His good-bye he seemed to mean to be final. He was to be the last she was to hear from him again.

Wearily from her day in the office and from its disappointing ending, she sought her bed.

Joe pushed up the shade in his berth in the early morning light and looked out on a world of white. Deep forests lined the track and the trees were covered with wet snow that by them the appearance of great white umbrellas. As he lay in his berth watching the moving landscape, he heard the porter say through the curtain: "Your station's next, sah. Due in forty minutes."

When Joe had purchased his ticket the night before he had told the agent he wished to go to some small place in the woods, he did not care where. He got into his clothes and prepared to leave the train.

After breakfast in the one hotel in the place, he learned from the landlord of a cabin in the woods about seven miles from the town that could be bought or rented. The owner lived in the town, and Joe rented the place without bothering to look at it and hired a man to drive him out to it.

He found a good house on the shore of a small lake and surrounded by great trees, the same big trees that seemed to be everywhere in this beautiful country. He believed he was in a paradise and he had stocked himself with necessary supplies before leaving the village. He spent the rest of the day making himself comfortable and did not leave the cabin, as a cold sleet storm had set in.

The next morning he started out to look over the place and found it as the owner had represented. There were about thirty acres of clear land back in the woods, and the whole farm looked so good he decided to try and buy it and stay there.

That night, as he sat by his fire in the cabin, he wrote a letter to Marion. He began by telling her that when he left her he never expected to see her again unless he felt he had made him self worthy enough to ask her to be his wife, and he was too discouraged at the time ever to hope for that. But now, he wrote, he believed he saw a chance here if she would come and help him. He pictured the life they might live together there, and asked her if she would give up her home in the city, her friends and her work and come to him.

Marion stepped out of her car on a cold, murky night and walked the long block to her home. She was more tired than usual, for it had been a trying day, and there had been many letters to write. She found a letter at her plate on the table, and she read it through twice. Then she quivered, and the table, returned to her room and wrote to Joe: "Come and get me."

AUSTRIANS CHECKED ALL ALONG THE LINE, SAYS ROME REPORT

Vigorous Italian Counter-Attack Near Campo Mulo.

ROME, June 7.—Checks for the Austrians along the line of their attack in the southern Tyrol are reported today by the war office. The important Coni-Sugna position in the Adige valley is still firmly held, while near Campo Mulo, northeast of Asiago, an Italian counter-attack was notably successful.

Today's official statement is as follows: "The enemy on Monday evening repeated his violent attacks, supported by intense artillery fire, against our positions in the upper valley of the Arco, on Monte Spil and along the Campo Mulo valley, northeast of Asiago. He was everywhere repulsed with heavy losses to him. On the heights east of the Campo Mulo we vigorously counter-attacked the enemy infantry, pursuing them with the bayonet to the bottom of the valley."

"Yesterday along the whole front from the Adige to the Brenta, artillery actions occurred. Enemy attempts to attack in the direction of Coni-Sugna in the Adige valley, and against our positions southeast of Asiago were promptly repulsed by our fire."

"In the Drava valley we are continuing our bombardment of the Toblach and Sillian stations."

"In the Carma and Isonezo fronts there has been an intense exchange of artillery fire. Infantry activity is pronounced."

DECOMPOSED BODY CAST UP BY ERIE

Man's Identification Impossible Unless Someone May Recognize Clothes.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, June 7.—What is believed to be the body of a man who may have jumped or fallen from a passenger steamer last fall, was found by farmers on the shore of Lake Erie, about five miles below Amherstburg today.

Dr. W. J. Park of Amherstburg, coroner for South Essex, declared the body had been worn by a man of average build, about 35 years of age, and was in the water several months. There was no possible chance of identifying the man owing to the condition of the body, and it was made an hour after it was discovered on the sands of the shore.

The unknown man was about five feet six inches in height, weighed 130 pounds, dressed in a black suit, black buttoned shoes, and wore a pleated shirt and blue tie.

A number of discussions took place, and the following officers were then appointed: D. D. G. master, S. McVittie, district secretary, J. W. Dodds.

HAD PALPITATION OF THE HEART ALSO WEAK AND DIZZY SPELLS

When the heart begins to palpitate it will beat fast for several seconds, then slow, then start to flutter, and a feeling of utter depression will come over your whole system, accompanied by weak, fainting and dizzy spells, and if you should happen to be in the street, and that "all gone" sinking sensation, and you feel as if you were surely going to die.

When you feel this way, you may be sure that both your heart and nerves are out of order, and what you require is a real good heart and nerve tonic; one that will build up and strengthen both the heart and nerve system.

Mrs. J. S. Nicholls, Listowel, Ont., writes: "I was weak and run down, my heart would palpitate, and I would take weak and dizzy spells. A friend advised me to take your Heart and Nerve Pills, and I started at once. In about three days I felt much stronger, and my heart was ever so much better in a short time. I cannot praise your medicine too highly for it has done me a world of good. My husband has also been bothered with heart trouble, ever since childhood, and finds great relief by using your valuable pills."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

For this purpose nothing can equal Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

CONVERSION OF BATTERIES LANDS OLD MAN IN JAIL

INGERSOLL, June 7.—On a charge of conversion of electric batteries, William Bingley, a man of about 60 years, was sentenced to two months in the county jail. He was freed from the London jail on Tuesday last, and was again taken into custody and brought here.

Some time ago a local resident and a citizen of Beachville purchased electric batteries from him. These Bingley wished to give treatments, and when he failed to return them the police were notified. He was located at London, where he was serving 21 days for being drunk.

TWITCHELL—ROSS.

CLINTON, June 7.—At high noon today, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Murray McEwen, Mary street, Miss Elsie Ross became the bride of a popular young businessman, Harry Twitchell.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Rutledge, pastor of Wesley Methodist Church, and before the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The couple left on the afternoon train for Detroit and other cities, and on their return intend to make their residence in Toronto.

"EATS" AT SIX PER FOR FAMILY OF FIVE

Mail-Box Reader Outlines Bill-of-Fare on the "More-for-Your-Money" Plan.

Dear Miss Grey.—In The Advertiser Mail-Box I saw a request from "Stratford Reader" and yourself for a program to live on $40 a month. In answer to your request, which I gladly furnish, and which I also leave open to criticism and improvement.

You will also notice that I have omitted everything in the line of pastry, for the sole reason that we do not use it, but it can be used in place of some other dish if you so wish. Then there is another important point in this program, and that is the flour, as this is figured by me, making my own bread. Also you will not find any of "Mrs. H. B.'s" cookies listed, although sorry; neither will you find that angel cake with two ten eggs in it.

Of course, as I stated in my other letter, I was not in favor of living on such a small amount, but that there are times when one is compelled "to pull in their horns," so to speak, I know for a fact that there are people right in London who do not average $35 per month all the year round, yet are making it go, because they have to—not because they want to. But such is life, and we have to put up with it, or get out.

Buy For Cash.
Now the program as I have tried to arrange, may not suit everyone, but then you will find it a hard task to do, so I would suggest that if you can, BUY FOR CASH, go around to different stores and learn where you can buy the most for the least money, for buying with cash and buying on credit are two different things, as we have found out ourselves. And then again, turn the program end for end, and so on, namely: Try one week the way the program reads, then start from Saturday and work back, and so on. Now I have had to do with a good deal less than $40 a month, so I am only saying that you can reduce the program to suit your own purse, if you have to, and I sincerely hope you don't, but you can judge for yourself; pick the program to pieces, as I would like to see it criticised or improved. Then, again, I have not stated anything as regards fuel, clothes, rent, also amusements, nor other items, because everyone's demands are not the same. But of one thing I am convinced, and that is this: that it depends largely on the husband and wife. Some wives can spend money on things that they actually do not get along without, and some husbands are the same. Now this is a program for five (although there are eight in our family); you will find it all substantial food for the average person.

Meals for a Week.

Friday—Breakfast—Poached eggs on toast, tea or coffee. Dinner—Shepherd's pie, bread and butter. Tea—Bread, butter and fruit.

Saturday—Breakfast—Porridge, toast, tea or coffee. Dinner—Liver and bacon and onions. Tea—Bread and butter and sardines.

Rice10
Total per week $6.10

By "porridge" I mean oatmeal, breakfast foods or other cereals; by salmon, the 3 cans for 25 cents. Now I hope "Stratford Reader" can make use of this, for I would love to be of some use to someone and try to help along.

With best wishes to all Mail-Box readers, also yourself, I remain,
STILL A MYSTERY.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letter can be answered privately.]

"Aunt Nannie's" "Love Quilt."

I hope our readers have not forgotten "Aunt Nannie" and the "Love Quilt." We were going to make for her. None of our quiltmakers—quite presumably deterred by diffidence—have come forward with any really definite ideas, so I offer the following, subject, of course, to the approval of the Mail-Box. Please say that you like it, and write me at once, saying if you'll make a plain or a patched block.

REQUIREMENTS—The quilt will need 56 blocks, each to be 10 inches square when finished, half the number to be plain, and half to be patched, the color scheme of the quilt to be red, white, and blue, with name of maker in each block.

DESIGN—The patched blocks should be of good, washable, red print, set together with white cotton after this fashion:

THE CARE AND FEEDING OF CHILDREN—By Dr. Emmett Holt.

For the use of mothers and children's nurses. Revised and enlarged edition. 75 CENTS POSTPAID.

THE MALLANG BOOKSHOP, LTD.,
163 DUNDAS STREET.

Centre, square of white, measuring 5 inches when finished; 4 corner blocks of white, each 2½ inches in size; four side pieces of red each 5 inches by 2½, completing a 10-inch square block when finished. Be sure and allow for seams, or the block will be smaller.

In the centre of the larger white block, write your pen name and place of residence, and outline it in red. "Aunt Nannie" was particularly anxious to have the names of those who helped with the quilt.

The remaining half of the blocks will be in plain blue print or chambray, preferably the latter. In the centre draw a circle four inches in diameter, work it in outline or tiny feather stitch, and add the pen name and home town in the centre, using white embroidery cotton.

This will give us a red, white and blue quilt in uniform design, and with the autographs of the makers.

And now, what about the cost of the batting and lining? It is likely that "Aunt Nannie" can buy this cheaper in her own city, and save the cost of customs charges. Would our men readers contribute towards this, since they presumably cannot put in any stitches for the "love quilt"? Ten cents from each masculine Mail-Box reader would go far towards the purchase of these necessities. Or would the block-makers prefer to supply the linings, too? May be "Twenty-One" will have something to say about it.

Folks, if the above meets at all with your approval, can't we "get busy" right away, and not allow the "love quilt" to remain an idea only? Please talk and sew. Send in your name and address to me, saying whether you'll make a plain or a patched block. Then I shall know when we have reached the required 56 blocks.

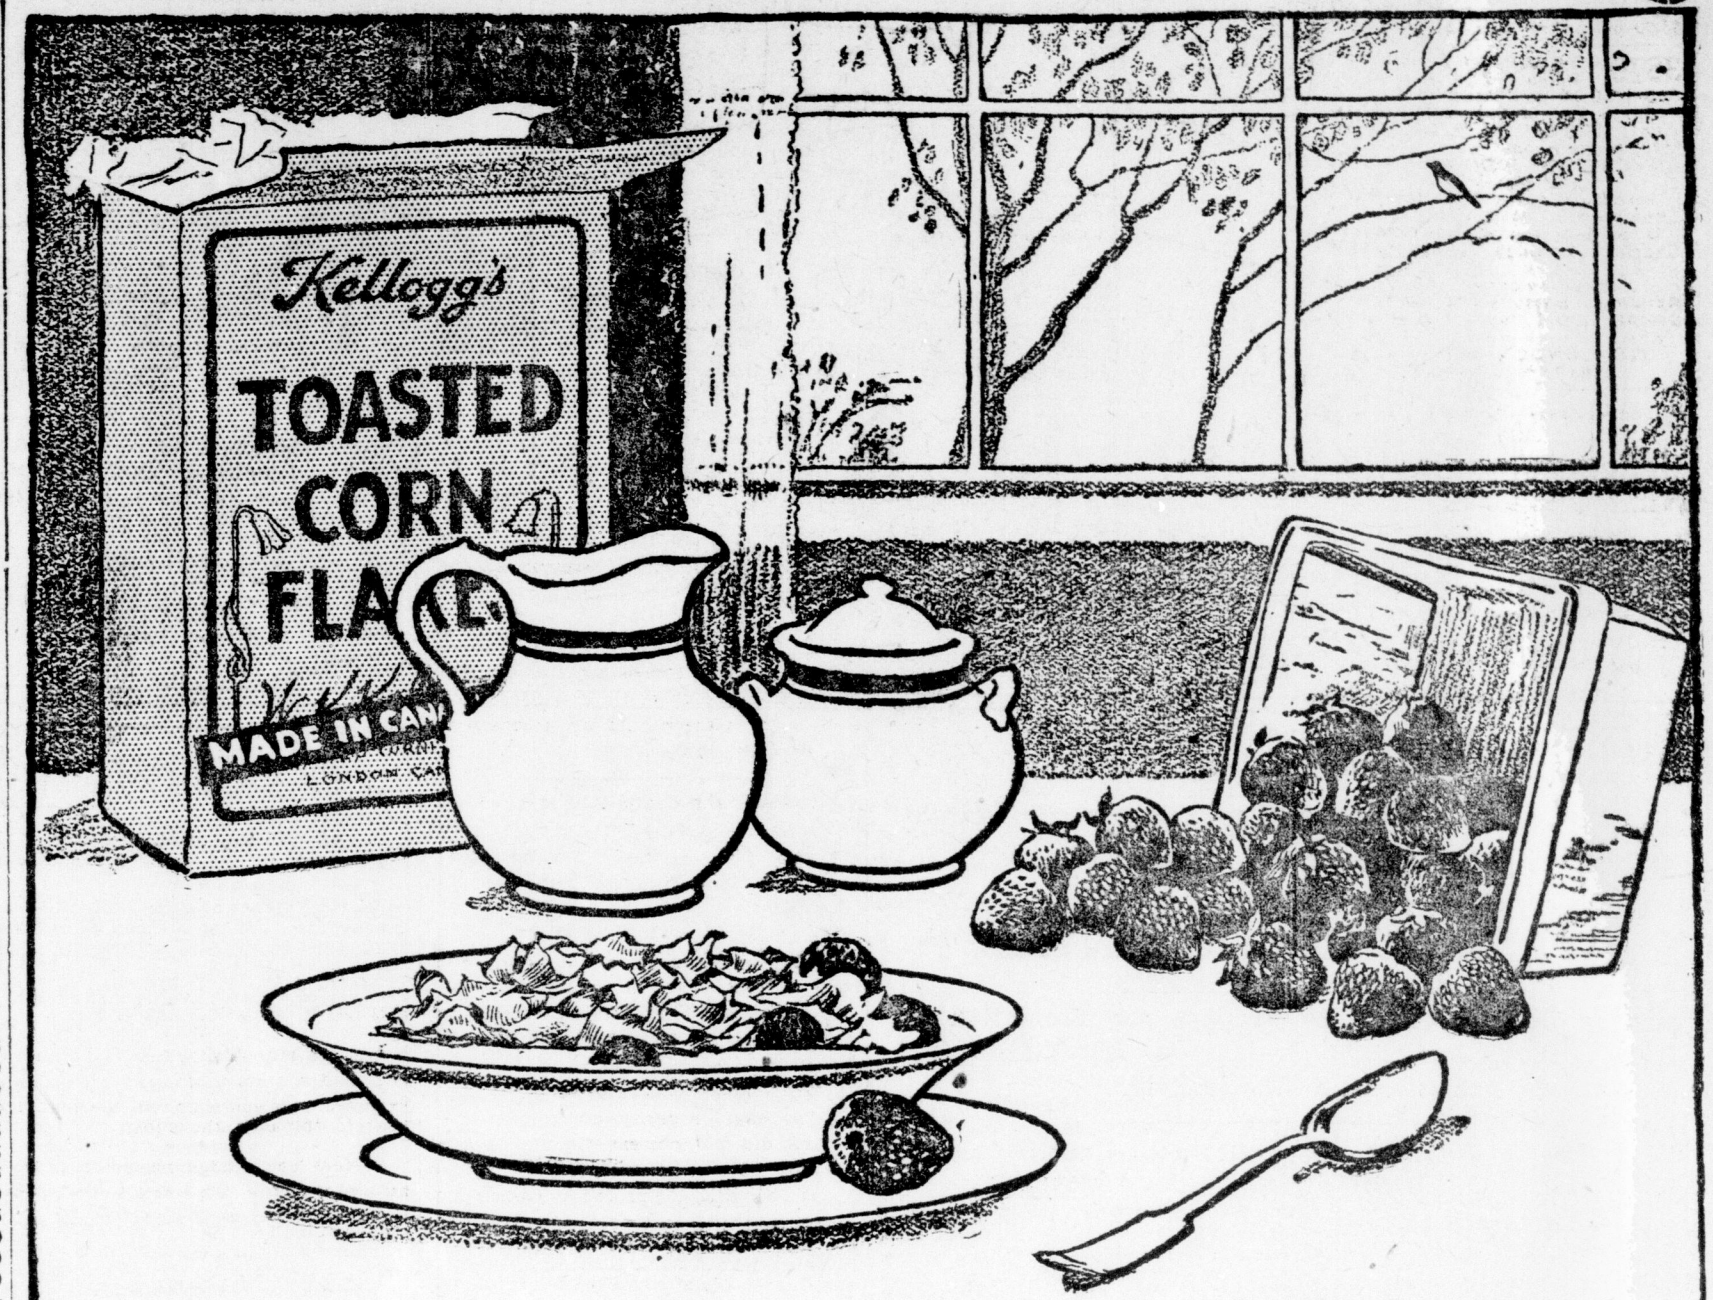

A Warden's Duties.

Dear Miss Grey.—1. What is the national flower of France and of India? If India has an emblematic flower, I do not know what it is.

2. I cannot say what a warden's duties are, but he is the presiding officer of a county council, made up of the representatives of the townships, villages, etc., in the county; a majority vote of these officials elects the warden nominee to office.

Write a Story.

"Young Hope to be Editor."—The fact of your being only 15 would not in itself deter you from writing acceptable stories, but I'm afraid that at that age your thoughts and ways of expressing yourself on paper will scarcely be up to the standard necessary. Indeed, I realize just how important a matter it is to you—or at least, I understand there myself. But I believe it is best to be quite frank with you, and so I offer no false encouragement. If you think your story is somewhat akin to the short stories daily appearing in our columns, send it to the McClure Syndicate, "Daily Story" department, New York, or to the Frank Munsey Syndicate, New York. Write it as nearly as possible on wide paper, number the pages, putting your name and address on the right-hand upper corner of each page, fold flat and mail in a long envelope. Or perhaps your MSS. is suitable for a Sunday school publication. Then send it to the David Cook Publishing Company, Elgin, Ill. Not necessary to write a letter, but attach sufficient postage to bring your story back again if it's not acceptable.

Antarctic Exploring.

Dear Miss Grey.—I am a constant reader of your page, and I thought I would like to join in with your cozy corner. Am I welcome? Would you please answer the following questions: "On what date did Capt. Scott start for the Arctic regions?"

2. The meaning of the names: Eleanor, Myrtle, Florence and Kathleen?

Criticism my writing, a girl of 15, please. Thanking you in advance, I am,
AN ENGLISH GIRL.

Ans.—Capt. Robert Scott left London, England, on his second effort to reach the South Pole June 1, 1910. His outfit was one of the best-equipped expeditions ever leaving for the Antarctic. The records found by the relief party indicate that the hero-explorer died on or about March 23, 1912.

2. Eleanor means light; Myrtle, myrtle; Florence, flourishing; Kathleen, pure.

3. You write very neatly.

Who's Who?

Dear Miss Grey.—1. Who are (a) Dominion representative, (b) provincial representative (for Lambton County); (c) wardens of Lambton County; (d) clerk of Lambton County?

2. What is your opinion of my writing?

3. Ask "Windy" if he isn't a teacher himself. He talks like one. Yours truly,
C. M. D.

Ans.—1. (a) East Lambton, Jos. E. Armstrong; West Lambton, Fred B. Pender; (b) East Lambton, John B. Martyn; West Lambton, Hon. W. J. Hanna. The clerk of Lambton County is John Dalziel. I do not know the name of the warden.

2. It is very legible and well formed.

3. "Windy" will please consider himself asked. Now 'less up, friend.

Where to Sue.

Dear Miss Grey.—Will you kindly assist us to settle a discussion on debate what is the law on the following point: A lives in Toronto, engages B by wire or letter in Sarina to manage his business at $30 a week for every week B should work, then at close of six months A disputes B's account. Can B sue A in Sarina, or must he sue A in Toronto? We are confident you will give us the correct law on the above. Gratefully yours,
THE LAW.

Ans.—B must sue A in Toronto.

Dear Miss Grey.—Perhaps you saw the wonderful rainbow about a week ago—such a beautiful reminder of God's promise to the world. Since then we have discussed its cause, and we cannot all agree, so need your kindly assistance.

Does the sun shine through the raindrops, as it would through a prism, causing the bow in the sky? Or does the bow stand between the storm and us, the sun's rays falling on the raindrops, and they acting as mirrors, reflecting the rays in their gorgeous colors, and thus causing the bow? We stand with our backs to the sun. I have looked through the "Fairland of Science" and other books, but find no clear definition. For my own part, I find great comfort in thinking God's promise stands between me and all storms. Thanking you in advance,

A MOTHER.

Ans.—Afrail I can't explain it at all clearly, because I don't understand the science of the matter myself very well. The arc, or rainbow, is formed by the sun shining upon falling raindrops. The amount of the circle visible being determined by the altitude of the sun. It is said that on a high mountain, or in a balloon, when the sun is near the horizon, completely circular rainbows are observed. As a rule the rainbow carries the regular colors of the spectrum. You can fashion a fair "object" illustration by pouring clear water from a sprinkling can, holding it high in the sunshine.

Re your postscript, you would read the young lady's letter stating that she was not able.

SARNIA INDUSTRIES
EXPERIENCING BOOMRight Down Line Big Plants
Are Rushed.

SOME NOW ENLARGING

"Behind With Orders" Generally Applies—Labor in Demand.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
SARNIA, June 7.—Sarnia at the present is enjoying a great amount of business and prosperity.

The managers of the different big concerns in the city were interviewed today by The Advertiser and the following notes in each case will give some idea of the position of the manufacturing concerns of the city at this time.

The Imperial Oil Company, with its hundreds of employees, is working its two local plants to full capacity and large improvements and additions are being made. The company is still trying to get more help.

The Perfection Stove Company is now operating a staff of about 200 men and a gang of night workers is being used in the press department, where the work is piling up owing to the great number of orders for stoves from all parts of the country. The company can always find a position for a good man and although the staff is up to capacity it is still taking on a few men when they can be got.

Building New Office.
The Mueller Brass Company is having considerable trouble in getting men to handle its work. The plant is working night and day. The company can use tool makers, mechanics of all kinds, and has room for screw machine operators and laborers. This company has called tenders for the construction of a new office building which will cost in the neighborhood of $20,000. The building will be of pressed brick and will be erected on the bank overlooking the St. Clair River.

The Laidlaw Lumber Company, which is the heaviest importer of lumber at this port, will have 60 cargoes of lumber brought down from the north this season, a total of about sixteen million feet. This company reports a scarcity of labor in spite of good wages paid. Chester Belton, the manager, has just returned from a purchasing trip to the lumber mills of the north shore.

Threshers Rushed.
The Goodson Thresher Works is experiencing a rush of orders from western points and is operating the plant on full time in spite of the fact that the weather conditions have been bad for this crop. The plant, which is situated in the eastern part of the city, runs steadily winter and summer and employs a large number of skilled men.

The freight sheds at Point Edward are now rushed to full capacity and the wages have been boosted until the men are receiving $10 a week for day work and 40 cents for night labor. This work is trucking and doing other jobs in connection with the loading of the boats.

The Dominion Salt Company reports having room for a dozen more men and that it is away behind with orders, due to the scarcity of labor. The company has built a big addition to the plant and started work yesterday in drilling in a new salt well. The addition to the plant will be used for the manufacture of a coarse grade of salt.

TECUMSEH I. O. O. E. WILL HELP BUY 149TH BADGES

WATFORD, June 7.—There was a special treat for members of Tecumseh Chapter, I. O. O. E., when they assembled at the home of Mrs. V. L. Thompson, after dinner, Corp. Gerald H. Brown of the Princess Pats, who returned home a week ago, although still far from strong, had conferred to give a short talk. For over half an hour he gave a thrilling and realistic account of his experiences in the trenches. Twice he was wounded and the last time so badly that he had to spend several months in the hospital before being able to make the journey home. Corp. Brown sat down amidst a round of hearty applause, with everybody crying loudly for an encore.

On the reading of a letter from Capt. Moncrieff, 149th Battalion, it was decided to furnish part of the funds necessary to purchase badges for the men of that unit.

Mrs. W. J. Thompson, convener of the society committee, reported the distribution of $15 worth of wool to knit caps and was authorized to purchase $15 worth more from the Red Cross agency.

EXCITING RUNAWAY THROUGH AYLMER TOWN

AYLMER, June 7.—An exciting runaway occurred in Aylmer yesterday afternoon when a horse owned by David Britton of Copenhagen, and tied in front of Mrs. Lapham's residence on Water street, became frightened and passing auto and broke loose, running westward on Talbot street, and in trying to get out the sidewalk in front of Mrs. Lapham's residence, collided with an automobile, bending the horse's legs and breaking off one of the wheels of the buggy.

The horse and three-wheeled vehicle proceeded westward on the sidewalk, miraculously missing some property standing on the sidewalk in front of J. Palmer & Son's store, and crashing into some plants in front of Young & Caven's grocery, badly breaking them up.

The horse continued westward, turning sharply at the east side of the postoffice and was captured in the park at the rear of the postoffice building. The horse was unhurt and the buggy badly smashed.

The streets were full of people at the time, but fortunately no one was injured.

INTERESTING PATRIARCH IS BURIED AT BURFORD

[Special to The Advertiser.]
BRANTFORD, June 7.—Joseph H. Jackson, formerly of Brantford, who died at Toronto on Monday at the advanced age of 89 years, was buried at Burford.

He came here as a lad of 12 from St. John, N.B., traveling by wagon for most of the distance. He was one time master of Brantford and a member of the Grand Lodge of the A. F. & M. Lodge for 45 years. He was in the sheriff's office here, having under three sheriffs. He operated a stock farm on the Mount Pleasant road, and won many prizes with his high-bred stock.

RETURNED SOLDIERS ARE STILL OVERLOOKED FOR IMMIGRATION OFFICES

WINDSOR, June 7.—That returned soldiers have little chance of being appointed to Government positions is shown by a statement made here this evening by Dr. W. J. Park, Conservative member of the House of Commons, who was a parliamentary candidate for South Essex at the last federal elections.

He is the identical man, Dr. Park, to recommend a Leamington man for the vacancy in the immigration staff at Windsor, caused by the resignation of Dr. W. J. Park, who was a member of the House of Commons.

Asked why a returned soldier was not going to be appointed, Dr. Park said that the majority of them could not qualify.

This is the second appointment made to the immigration service within two weeks, and neither of the successful applicants are returned soldiers, although the Government promised that the returned heroes would be considered first.

LAMBTON COUNCILLORS
ASKED FOR GRANT TO
PTE. BENWARE'S MOTHER

SARNIA, June 7.—The county council, in session here today, was addressed by Deputy-Commissioner of Highways McLean of the provincial department, Toronto. Mr. McLean described the great benefits that the county would get by installing a system of good roads in all parts of the county and also told of the amount of assistance that would be given to the county by the Provincial Government, which is trying to induce the different counties to go into the problem of fixing up highways.

The councillors were approached by a deputation of six gentlemen from the townships of Moore and Sombra, asking a grant of $1,000 to the parent of Pte. Benware, who was reported as killed in France.

Pte. Benware was the first man to enlist in Sarnia at the outbreak of the war and went immediately to Valcartier, where he became a member of the 1st Battalion. There was some mistake made at the time the county council was insuring the soldiers of the first contingent and the name of Pte. Benware was not included in the list. The county would be in the shape of a grant to the parent in lieu of the insurance.

Bylaws of different natures came up today.

OPPOSE ANNEXATION TO CITY OF WINDSOR

A Counter-Petition From Portion of Sandwich West Feels High Taxes.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
WINDSOR, June 7.—At this afternoon's session of the Essex County Council strong opposition developed to the petition to annex a portion of the township of Sandwich west to Windsor's city limits.

A deputation of township ratepayers presented a counter-petition against the annexation, which declared that if the plan went through the taxes would increase by at least 500 per cent. Opponents of the annexation scheme asserted that the petition was a portion of the township of Sandwich west to Windsor's city limits.

The evening session was opened with a song service, led by Rev. W. A. Asymore of Windsor. The evening session closed with prayer.

WESTERN ASSOCIATION OF BAPTISTS MEETING

[Special to The Advertiser.]
LEAMINGTON, June 7.—The morning session of the Western Association of Baptist Churches opened by devotional services, led by Moderator Rev. R. Benware, followed by an exposition of the book of Ephesians by Rev. J. T. Marshall of Chatham. Following the reading of the church letters and clerk's report, there was a discussion of the annual budget was led by Rev. J. S. Leckie of Leamington. An address on "The Ministry of the Church" was given by Rev. A. S. Parnell of Essex.

At the afternoon session, the mission circle and bands convened in the Baptist Church, while the pastor and deacons met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Asymore of Windsor. The evening session closed with prayer.

TAVISTOCK STATION
BEING MADE NICE

[Special to The Advertiser.]
TAVISTOCK, June 7.—At the regular school board meeting last night Jas. S. Russell, architect, submitted plans and specifications of the intended addition to the school. The plans were discussed, and finally accepted. Tenders will be received for the different work up to Saturday, June 24, after which the building will commence as soon as possible.

Ask Rest Room for Library.
At a special meeting of the library board, held last evening at the Ladies' Institute, consisting of Mrs. A. E. Ratz and Mrs. H. Sippel, asked the board to put a rest room for ladies in the new Carnegie library. The board did not seem anxious to comply, as expenses are running too near the $7,500 margin, but promised that if any money was left it would be applied to the library.

Fixing Up Station.
The local G. T. R. station is being freshly painted and a general clean-up is going on. The old plank platform was removed, and crushed stone put in its place. Crushed stone was also put around the yards, which gives the place a clean appearance. Lower beds were laid in front of the station, which has been an eyesore to the citizens of Tavistock and traveling public.

RIDGETOWN COLLEGIATE REQUIRES COUNTY AID

[Special to The Advertiser.]
CHATHAM, June 7.—A deputation from Ridgetown waited on the Kent County Council this afternoon and requested a grant to the collegiate high school in addition to the usual assessment.

It was claimed that the cost of maintenance of the institution during the past year had increased to such an extent that unless financial assistance was given it would have to close. Figures were produced showing that the amounts contributed by the county were not a fair proportion of the cost. A motion to grant $500 was laid over until tomorrow for further discussion.

HAMILTON MACHINISTS TO STRIKE

HAMILTON, June 7.—At a meeting of the local machinists union tonight at which nearly 600 members assembled, it was unanimously decided to call a general strike at 10:30 o'clock next Monday morning, should the local manufacturers fail to conform to the recent award of the royal commission. Approximately 300 men are affected.

RAISING THE PRICEStrong East Wind and Big Waves Retard Wreckers.

TO BE STUPENDOUS TASK

Sunken Vessel Lies in 60 Feet of Water Far Out From Shore.

SARNIA, June 7.—Although it was intended today to start work on the raising of the overturned steamer, Charles S. Price, the weather was so bad that the wrecker Favorite of the Great Lakes Towing Company, which has been at Port Huron for a couple of days, was unable to make a beginning and remained in port at that place waiting for the strong east wind and the big waves to go down.

Who scheme will be brought by the wreckers to turn the boat over and bring her to the surface is not known, but it is conceded by marine men that the company has a big job on hand as the boat lies 60 feet of water, keel up, and fifteen miles out in the lake from this port.

The boat has been in this position for over two years. The overturned turtle turned during the storm on November 9, 1913, when a dozen large steamers were lost, the location of many of them never being discovered. They included the McGee, McGee, Carruthers, Hydus and Scott.

It is expected that the wrecking operations on the boat will be the biggest undertaking ever tried on the Great Lakes, and it is thought that when the boat is brought to the surface some gruesome discoveries will be made, as it is thought that the bodies of most of the crew are still in the cabin.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
SARNIA, June 7.—A fire broke out at the Imperial refinery tonight, due to a leak in the still. No damage was done aside from the oil burned, and the blaze was re-ignited by the company's own department.

The flames shot fifty feet high into the air for the first few minutes, and were then quenched by chemicals.

ST. MARYS COLLEGIATE

ST. MARYS, June 7.—The collegiate institute board held a busy session last evening, the re-engaging of teachers taking up much time. Only $200 of advance was made in salaries, $100 being for Acting Principal W. J. Hayden and $100 to Mr. McGee.

Principal W. J. Wright, who is now enlisted as Lieut. Wright, with the 10th Perth Battalion, was re-appointed principal, and, at his own suggestion, without salary, with leave of absence to the end of his appointed term.

BRANTFORD BRIGHT SPOT
IN NO. 2 DISTRICT.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
BRANTFORD, June 7.—Brantford is one of the bright spots on the recruiting map of the 2nd Military District, according to local commanding officers who attended the conference which concluded at Niagara-on-the-Lake yesterday. During the conference one Toronto commanding officer reported that it cost over $20,000 to raise his battalion. Compared with this, the first Brant County battalion, which now has over 1,100 men, has cost between $1,100 and $1,200 to raise it.

Both the 125th and 125th Battalions this morning received checks for $200 from Edmund L. Cockshutt, brother of Lieut. Col. Harry Cockshutt of the 125th Battalion. The 125th Battalion is still needs about 40 men before it leaves for camp.

RUTHVEN BOY MADE SERGEANT.

RUTHVEN, June 6.—Clarence Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Smith of this place, who enlisted for overseas service some time ago, is rapidly being promoted. He was first lance-corporal, then promoted to corporal and later promoted to sergeant.

PROPHETS PREDICT DROUGHT.

RUTHVEN, June 7.—Weather prophets in this district, who "never fail" to predict correctly one month ahead, now say it rained on Good Friday of this year and that we were under the star at that time, which would, without fail, cause rain for forty days. The forty days would be up on Wednesday, and now they foretell an occasional shower with almost a drought.

WEIRD, WILD YARN
OF GERMAN-AMERICANDeclares He Was Lured into Canada
and Interned.[Canadian Press.]
New York, June 8.—Eugene Stitz, 23 years old, told the officials of the Hebrew Sheltering Home for Immigrants today that he had been lured from Buffalo over the Canadian line and interned in a German detention camp.

Stitz, who arrived here last night, declared he had walked from Buffalo in 26 days. He declared that he had served for three years in the German army, and that he came to America in 1914 and obtained work in a drygoods at Buffalo. He said he was employed there, he said, a stranger offered him a better position in "a neighboring town," and Stitz accepted it. After a ride of about an hour on a train, he alighted, and Stitz was seized by six men and taken to a barracks, where, he said, he was kept a prisoner of war, and made to scrub floors and do the office work. He said he thought this was in Toronto.

Stitz asserted that he was released after he had been in the barracks for a week. He said he was a Rumanian. He rode on freight trains back to Buffalo, but remained there only two hours. "I was afraid the police would catch me and take me back to Canada," he added.

in Sarnia.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
SARNIA, June 7.—A fire broke out at the Imperial refinery tonight, due to a leak in the still. No damage was done aside from the oil burned, and the blaze was re-ignited by the company's own department.

The flames shot fifty feet high into the air for the first few minutes, and were then quenched by chemicals.

BRANTFORD BRIGHT SPOT
IN NO. 2 DISTRICT.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
BRANTFORD, June 7.—Brantford is one of the bright spots on the recruiting map of the 2nd Military District, according to local commanding officers who attended the conference which concluded at Niagara-on-the-Lake yesterday. During the conference one Toronto commanding officer reported that it cost over $20,000 to raise his battalion. Compared with this, the first Brant County battalion, which now has over 1,100 men, has cost between $1,100 and $1,200 to raise it.

Both the 125th and 125th Battalions this morning received checks for $200 from Edmund L. Cockshutt, brother of Lieut. Col. Harry Cockshutt of the 125th Battalion. The 125th Battalion is still needs about 40 men before it leaves for camp.

RUTHVEN BOY MADE SERGEANT.

RUTHVEN, June 6.—Clarence Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Smith of this place, who enlisted for overseas service some time ago, is rapidly being promoted. He was first lance-corporal, then promoted to corporal and later promoted to sergeant.

PROPHETS PREDICT DROUGHT.

RUTHVEN, June 7.—Weather prophets in this district, who "never fail" to predict correctly one month ahead, now say it rained on Good Friday of this year and that we were under the star at that time, which would, without fail, cause rain for forty days. The forty days would be up on Wednesday, and now they foretell an occasional shower with almost a drought.

GRAIN.
Winnipeg, June 7.—Wheat today was $2 down for July, $2 down for October, and $1 down for December.

Oats were 1c up for both months, and $1 down for December. A good, big volume of trade featured the market today. Spreading operations were on all sides, and a heavy volume of fair volume. Traders bought Chicago September, and sold Winnipeg October, sold Winnipeg July, and sold September, and sold worked our own October and December also.

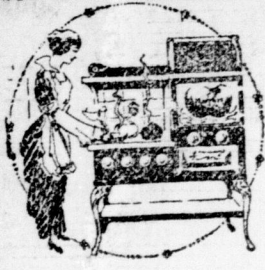

In the early morning and on the breaks there was some excellent buying, chiefly by exporters.

There was one of the features of the market, both in cash and futures.

Demand was excellent, with offerings fair to light. No. 1 northern was $2 higher than yesterday, while No. 2 Canadian western was $2 higher at 2c over July.

FARMERS ALIVE TO IMPORTANCE OF SCIENTIFIC STUDY

Agricultural Expert Presents Encouraging Report.

SCHOOL FAIRS POPULAR
Over 1,200 Letters Received Asking for Practical Information.

The report of Roscoe Finn, representative of the department of agriculture, was received by the county council at its meeting on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Finn's report was of a most encouraging nature. He spoke optimistically of the future of agriculture in this district. He gave details of the work of the department in this locality and by hard facts and figures proved that the younger generation of farmers in Middlesex are taking a great interest in the development of scientific farming.

During the past year there have been 2,800 callers at the offices of the department on the Market Square to obtain information which would aid them in working their farms. He had 1,270 letters asking for information. Ten school fairs have been held, in which 74 schools participated, and a total number of 1,525 pupils took part in competitions of growing produce. Throughout the country there have been 4,500 exhibits held and 41 fruit growers' meetings.

At the short course in agriculture, held at Mount Brydges recently, 100 pupils enrolled and the average attendance per day was 60. The domestic science course, held for the girls, was also very successful and was well attended.

The report indicated that the sons of farmers, who will some day be working their fathers' farms, are alive to the fact that to be a successful farmer in these times, it is necessary to be scientific.

TWO MORE CASES.
Two more cases have been entered for the non-jury sitting of the supreme court, to open before Sir Glenholme Falconbridge on Monday, June 12. An action will be brought by James Mote of Lebo against Neil Sutherland to have a declaration made that the plaintiff is the owner of certain lands. Arthur Thompson will sue the Composite Scale Company, Limited, for $3,340.47, commission on sales made by the defendants.

NO CARS ON SUNDAY UNLESS ST. RY. MEETS DEMANDS OF BOARD

Councillors Think Company Is Trying to Hold Matters Up.
FIGHT OVER POPULATION
Controllers Will Not Stand for Attempt to Cut Down Mileage.

The board of control, at a special meeting yesterday afternoon, decided upon the program of requirements from the London Street Railway and authorized the forwarding of a proposition to the company at once. If it is not accepted there will be no Sunday cars next Sabbath, the controllers announced.

The request contains the following clauses:

"That Dundas street be double-tracked from Queen's Park to the interlocking line.

"That the Hamilton road line be extended from Rectory street to West street.

"That a double switch be placed at Marmelon and Rectory streets.

"That the company pave the track allowances on the Hamilton road, Dundas street east, a portion of Rectory street, Beacomfield avenue and other streets that may be required.

Fight Over Population.

This is practically the same proposition offered by the company, with one exception—nothing is mentioned as to population. The board points out that the city is entitled to a mile of track for every 2,000 in population. The company wants to limit the population to 49,000 for the Hamilton road extension, about 2,000 feet. This means that the city is getting less than half a mile, when it is entitled to a mile and a half, an impossible proposition.

The opinion of the board was to the effect that the company was endeavoring to hold matters up. The directors were not favorable to the extensive paving program undertaken, and desired to save as much money on construction work as possible.

The controllers acted under the advice of City Solicitor Meredith, who directed the line of action. The demands made were in line with the procedure of bylaw 315, and according to the act governing such matters.

Now Up To Company.

The communication will be sent to Manager C. E. King in time to reach him some time today. It will be up to the company to announce its policy.

Sunday cars were not specifically dealt with. Rev. W. C. Riddford, chaplain of the 122nd Battalion, presented a request from the soldiers encamped here that Sunday cars be not cut off. He explained that from the centre of the city and the cars were necessary for their convenience and comfort. He asked the board to grant the request.

However, the controllers did not take any action on this question. It is a part of the bigger problem and the controllers were decisive in their views, that they would not yield to the company in the matter of Sunday cars until the company showed a spirit of reasonableness, until the company met the wishes of the city.

It would seem that unless the company come to time before Saturday night there will be no Sunday cars. The board of control are determined not to yield, being persuaded that the company must meet the city.

Not Represented.

The London Street Railway Company were not represented at the meeting. Their presence was requested and their presence was heard from them. If the company do not agree to the proposition laid down by the city a special meeting of the council will be held in the week to provide for Sunday cars and pass the necessary by-laws, relative to the extension.

Ald. Palmer, chairman of No. 2 committee, Ald. Summers, chairman of No. 3 committee, and Ald. Wilson, representing No. 1 committee, were present, and assisted the board of control in their deliberations.

"We people will back us up. I am sure, when they understand the situation," said Controller Gammage. "We want simply what is reasonable, what is our right under the by-law, and if the company will not agree with that, we cannot agree to give them Sunday cars. It may inconvenience some people, but the company will lose not only money, but in public sympathy."

This was the attitude of the whole council and it seems probable that for once the bluff of the street railway will be called.

COUNTY MAY FIGHT CITY'S GARBAGE TAX
Assessed $275 for Service Which is Not Required.

At the meeting of the county council yesterday afternoon it was decided to refer the question of whether the county can be compelled to pay the garbage tax of $275, which the city has placed upon the jail and county buildings. The garbage of the jail is sold to a farmer and none collected by the city. County Clerk John Stuart pointed out that the city churches and buildings where there is no garbage collected are taxed and that he had looked up authorities on the matter and believed the county had no other alternative than to pay the tax. The question will be referred to the county collector, J. C. Elliot, of Glenora. A letter sent in from the City Hotel for the board of Mrs. Harry Cain, wife of Harry Cain, arrested on charge of misappropriation of patriotic funds at Putnam and Dorchester, and bills contracted by Cain while in office as treasurer of the Dorchester patriotic fund, were submitted to Mr. Elliot to have his decision whether the council should pay them.

DEATH OF MRS. WM. WELSH.

LABOR DAY PARADE WILL BE HELD AS USUAL THIS YEAR

Some Delegates Favored a Picnic to Springbank.

TRADE CONGRESS COMING
Big Annual Gathering To Be Held in London Next Year.

Labor Day will be observed this year as usual by holding a parade in London. This decision was arrived at by the trades and labor council at its meeting last evening, following a lengthy discussion. Some few of the delegates declared that there should not be any demonstration this year, owing to the war, the delegates feeling that a parade of men not in uniform would not be in keeping with numerous parades of men in khaki, which are seen on the streets.

A proposal was made that the parade be held this year, and that instead, the labor men and their families go to Springbank, hold their games and have a picnic. Both these proposals were rejected by the council, the majority of those present preferring to hold the usual parade.

Was Not Approved.

Delegate Peabody of the cigarmakers wanted to hold the parade on the Saturday preceding Labor Day, each of the locals to hold their own parade. This was in the process of the council, which plans to hold a tag day parade for the labor temple on Labor Day, believing that the "tagging" would not be as successful at night as in the day. The Labor Day committee will complete the details of the parade.

The honor roll of the Toronto Photo Engravers' Union was received, and will be placed on the honor roll in the proposed labor temple on the council hopes to erect shortly.

The council decided to grant $5 for the aid of the Hatters' Union of England, to hold them in labor troubles. Delegate ex-Ald. Max Lerner donated $25 to the temple fund and $5 to the election fund.

Delegate Cummings, who attended the trades congress held in Berlin on May 24, representing the local council, reported on the work done by the congress. The congress next year will be held in London, on invitation of Mayor H. A. Stevenson, who attended the congress in Berlin.

The meeting was not well attended. President James Hussey was absent. The chair was occupied by Vice-President Donald Wright.

AWARDED $110 FOR FOX
Walter R. Campbell Entered Suit for $200 at June Sessions.
Walter R. Campbell was awarded $110 damages by the petit jury of the general sessions and June county court, Wednesday afternoon. He claimed $200 for a tame fox belonging to him which the defendants, Roger Headley and John Macintosh, shot last January. The discussion centred around the fact of the fox being a tame one or a wild one from some other part of the county. The pelt and some photographs were produced in court. The jury decided that the pelt was that of the killed fox and awarded $35 jury.
