BEGS to return his best thanks to the Public, for the kind Patronage he has received since he began business, and desires to intimate, that he has completed his Establishment in a superior manner to any in this dify—he has procured a New Patent Engine for Glazing Chints, Furni-tures, Soft and Chair Covers; also a New Cylimder Machine for Watering Silks, Moreens, &c., equal to new; also, a New Hot Press, for Table Covers, Damaks, Merino Dresses, Shawls, &c.
Every article of Goods, which the art of Dysag is capable of improving, is done by him in the most perfect and satisfactory manner, promptly, and much cheaper than at any other House in North America.
