Town and County News.
There is a case of thieving in town at present. The sufferer is very low.

PIC-NIC.—The employees of Messrs. Arms & Worwick intend having a trip to Pashlich lake to-morrow.

The picnic of Messrs. Hepburn's employees at Pashlich Lake yesterday was an enjoyable success.

On the sidewalk opposite Easton's Bookbindery, St. George's Square, is a most dangerous hole, which ought to be mended at once.

The monotony of the dog days in town was broken by the performance of a talented professor of the art of peripatetic hurdy-gurdyism this morning.

The Montreal Gazette of Wednesday appears in an enlarged form, nearly double the size of the former little sheet, and with a new type. The paper is excellently printed and full of news.

COUNTY TEMPLE.—We are requested by Dr. Curry, of Rockwood, Secretary of the County Temple, to state that the next meeting of the County Temple will be held in Guelph on the 10th of October, in September, beginning at ten o'clock, a.m.

The Patent Office Record and Mechanical Engineering has been sent by Mr. Anderson. It contains descriptions of new inventions and useful machinery, with various scientific jottings, the whole well illustrated by wood cuts; also a complete list of current patents. For sale at Anderson's.

A crowd was gathered in the Market Place last night by a man in a buggy who was selling a new patent thimble. He was accompanied by a colored youth, lately, we believe, one of Dan Rice's employees, who varied the proceedings by singing melodies at intervals, and who made the Market Square resound with the notes of his powerful contralto voice.

BARAGAINS.—Parties who wish to purchase goods at their own prices would do well to call at the store of Mr. William Stewart. The balance of his summer stock must be cleared out at once to make room for his fall stock, which he is now purchasing in the English markets. Don't fail to read his list of prices in another column, and you will be convinced that money can be saved by buying from him. A word to the wise is sufficient.

ROTSARY.—The half-yearly examination of the Rotsary school took place on the 18th inst., commencing at 1 o'clock p.m., and continuing till 6 o'clock p.m., and was the most successful examination ever held in that school. The day being fine the teacher had to send a large number of the children out to make room for the numerous visitors that attended. The pupils were put through a very critical examination by the teacher, the Rev. Mr. Anderson, and Mr. Hill, a teacher from Kinross. The pupils showed great advancement and proficiency in the branches in which they were examined, especially history, in which they seemed to excel. It was gratifying to see that the services of such an efficient and energetic teacher as Mr. Stull are so much appreciated. The proceedings were enlivened by the children singing several beautiful pieces. In the conclusion of the examination addresses were delivered by several gentlemen, all of whom spoke in glowing terms of the excellent state of the school. The examination was closed by the Rev. Mr. Anderson pronouncing the benediction.—Com.

THE FIGHTING CASE.
Taffery and McAttocker were brought up again. The man who held the stakes in the brutal bet was examined, and testified that one blow was struck by McAttocker, that there was a scuffle, and that Taffery did not want to fight. The case was dismissed.

NUISANCE.
Mrs. Soden was summoned by the Health Inspector for a nuisance on premises owned by her on Upper Wyndham Street, opposite the Wellington Hotel. She was allowed a week to abate the nuisance or be heavily fined.

DEPRIVÉ A FAMILY FRAGS in Dartmouth, near Halifax, on Monday, Dr. Des Brisay, who wanted to obtain possession of his child, was fired at by his sister-in-law, Miss Falconer, and narrowly escaped being shot.

RUFFIANISM seems to be rapidly increasing in Montreal. On Monday night two men were picked up on the street by the police fearfully cut and disfigured by lawless rowdies with whom they came in contact. Several others were arrested while engaged in a drunken melee.

A YOUNG MAN named Chandler was drowned in Burlington Bay, Hamilton, on Monday, whilst out rowing with a companion. Whilst Chandler was in the act of fixing the rudder he lost his hat, and in endeavouring to regain it lost his balance and fell into the water. His comrade put out an oar for him to catch, but from excitement and the unsteadiness of the boat it is said that it struck him, when he sank to rise no more. It is said that when the young man engaged the boat they were remarked as being the worse of liquor. At the time of the accident a man was swimming near the drowning man, but made no effort to save him.

The Seizure.
Another Engagement.
Arrival of Guns.

London, July 28.—At Carthagena, Spain, yesterday, the red flag of the insurrection, which has been flying above the fortresses and ships in harbour, was replaced by the national flag. In anticipation of trouble the iron-clad Mendez Nuñez had left the arsenal yard and anchored in the port, ready for any movement. The Narciso, Vizcaya and others. To-day the iron-clads, accompanied by three steamers, were to issue from the harbour, and if interfered with, will fire upon the attacking vessels. A sanguinary naval engagement is expected.

The Prussian and English Consuls have received orders from their respective Ministers to notify the cruisers that rebel ships are pirates, and to treat them as such. The rebels threaten that if any vessel belonging to a foreign power interferes, to massacre every consul and foreigner in the city. Strangers are apprehensive, and are flying for their lives.

Berlin, July 28.—The German Government disavows responsibility for the seizure of the Spanish steamer Vigilante, and have called upon the captain who made the seizure to explain.

Bayonne, July 18.—It is reported that a severe engagement took place near Pampeluna between the Republicans and Carlists, in which the latter were successful. Two guns and 300 prisoners are said to have been captured by the Royalists.

Madrid, July 26.—Republican artillerymen in Valencia have joined the insurgents.

Contreras has dissolved the insurrectionary junta in Carthagena.

Two additional German men-of-war and a British frigate have arrived at Carthagena.

Bayonne, July 28.—A steamer to-day landed 3,000 Remington Rifles near Bilbao, where they were received by 600 Carlists and taken into the interior.

Vienna, July 28.—Advice gives details of the trials of mowers and reapers; fourteen American reapers and fifteen American mowers entered. The grain was rye, tolerably stout and thick in one part of the field, but small and thin in another. Every machine had its section cut. The arrangements were very bad. There was no programme, no system, no rule about the number of men to accompany each machine. All the American machines except one did good work. The German machines were too heavy, especially history, in which they seemed to excel. It was gratifying to see that the services of such an efficient and energetic teacher as Mr. Stull are so much appreciated. The proceedings were enlivened by the children singing several beautiful pieces. In the conclusion of the examination addresses were delivered by several gentlemen, all of whom spoke in glowing terms of the excellent state of the school. The examination was closed by the Rev. Mr. Anderson pronouncing the benediction.—Com.

San Francisco, July 29.—Yokohama advices up to the 7th says an insurrection had broken out on the Island of Kinsing, and troops had been sent to quell it.

It is reported that as soon as the embassy to Europe returns all Japan will be thrown open to foreigners.

In the Province of Foe Kee Veoken twenty thousand farmers rebelled on account of the land tax. They destroyed the houses of the officials and raided through their section generally. A man-of-war and troops have been sent against the rebels.

The Inspector of Consulates sent from Washington has been overhauling the American Consulates.

Little Rock, Ark., July 28.—The cholera is prevailing on the plantations below here to a considerable extent. Eleven deaths have occurred since Friday on one plantation. It has not reached the city.

New York, July 28.—An infernal machine was picked up by a little boy in an alley adjoining 161 Livingston street, to-night, and handed over to the police.

A Mexican newspaper at Matamoros states that a revolution is imminent in the State of New Leon, by reason of numerous candidates for the Governorship and intense party hatred.

Madame Augustine Frazier, at Cincinnati, was to-day sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for procuring abortion.

Clouds of grasshoppers are hovering over Sioux City, Iowa, to-day.

Washington, July 28, 1 a.m.—Probabilities for the middle and eastern States, south and west winds, falling barometer, higher temperature, and partly cloudy weather and numerous local storms. For the lower lakes, variable, followed by north-west winds, partly cloudy and clearing weather.

First Meeting Against Prostration.
Riviere du Loup, July 28.
Hon. Letellier de St. Just convened a meeting of the inhabitants of the County of Temiscouata, which unanimously adopted a petition to the Governor-General praying for an investigation into Mr. Huntington's charges, declining against the appointment of a Royal Commission and in favor of a Parliamentary enquiry. Mr. Mailloux, member for the County in the Commons, joined with Mr. St. Just in his efforts, and the meeting supported them unanimously.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Hamilton Times says that none of the usual preparations for the assembling of Parliament are to be made in the buildings previous to the August session.

The new Minister of Militia not having turned up yet, a report has got abroad that he was delayed assuming office pending explanations from Sir John concerning the great scandal.

School Board.

The Board met on Monday night. Present, Mr Peterson, Chairman, and Messrs Kennedy, Knowles, Keating, Robt. Mitchell, Munton, Inglis, Bell, Raymond, Stephenson, Harvey, and Dr. McGuire. Minutes read and confirmed.

COMMUNICATIONS.
From the Department of Public Instruction, stating the Government grant for the half year to be $246.50

From Mr. Fisher, caretaker, asking for an instalment of salary, as he was without funds to enable him to move from the house he at present occupied.

Mr. Knowles made a motion to the effect that $10 be granted to Mr. Fisher to enable him to move. Mr. Raymond seconded, and the motion passed.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.
Mr. Knowles presented the report of the Finance Committee, in the absence of Mr. Newton, certifying certain accounts as correct.

SCHOOL PROPERTY COMMITTEE.
Mr. Knowles presented the report of this Committee, which recommended that Mr. Arthur Simpson be appointed caretaker, at a salary of $689 per annum; the engagement to be for one year, and the salary payable monthly. Carried.

THE CENTRAL SCHOOLS.
Mr. Raymond presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to receive and open tenders for the construction of the Central School building. Nine tenders had been received in answer to the second advertisement. The Committee recommended that the following tenders, the lowest, be accepted:—Excavations, Brickwork and Masonry $15,549, Thos. Dobbie; Carpentering had Joinery $10,300, Jas. Armstrong; Plastering $2,063, Wm. Day; Galvanizing Iron $949, Geo. Howard; Cast Iron $885, Inglis & Hunter; Sliding $678, G. Duthie; Painting and Glazing $779, H. Grimbleton.—Total, $31,285.

Mr. Raymond thought that all reductions possible had been made on the building, and it was now for the Board to say whether or not they would have a structure of the kind proposed.

Mr. Robt. Mitchell thought that before the contracts were let, there should have been some definite knowledge as to where the money was to come from. The Committee had already issued tenders for $20,000. The School by-law might be thrown out, and then the Board would either have to forego their plans or make a special assessment themselves.

Mr. Stephenson said that two of the heaviest ratepayers in the town, whose united assessment was one-twentieth of the whole proposed $80,000, were favourable to the scheme.

Mr. Inglis said that the statements did not include architect's fees, grading, fencing, or heating. Why was this not done? Mr. Raymond said as to the heating, that the Board could put in stoves for the present if they wished to be economical. These little items were not included in the instructions of the Committee, which had only relation to plans and tenders for the building.

Mr. Mitchell asked if drainage were included in the estimates.

Mr. Kennedy remarked that the last specifications included a well, but not drainage.

A discussion ensued as to the architect's fees, which were not included in the estimates.

Mr. Raymond said that the Board passed a resolution nearly two years ago, to the effect that Mr. Strickland, of Toronto, should have the work, which he undertook for a thousand dollars.

Mr. Kennedy asked how often he was to come. They would remember how Mr. Langley had humbugged them in the matter of the English Church. He doubted the wisdom of having the architect in Toronto.

Mr. Raymond said his experience with Mr. Langley, and with other architects, was that he did not care to have any more to do with that gentleman.

Mr. Raymond then moved, seconded by Mr. Knowles, that the report of the Special Committee be adopted; that instructions be given to the persons named in the report to proceed with the work on their finding satisfactory security for its due performance; and that the architect be notified to take charge of the building, his fees not to exceed the amount formerly named to the Committee, and to include such necessary supervision as the Committee may stipulate for.

Mr. Mitchell having repeated his objection as to the money not being made sure of beforehand.

Mr. Harvey said that there was no doubt whatever but that the Town of Guelph would pass the by-law. He believed that the public were anxious for better school accommodation. He was of opinion that the whole cost might ultimately amount to $35,000, but this would be spread over a number of years. When the new school was partly finished they would be enabled to dispose of the present High School building to great advantage, which would allow them, with a little extra assessment, to carry on the work. The Board had had many extra expenses lately—finishing the Grammar School, buying a piano, and purchasing the new lot. The Board would put to the public an extra expense every day through the want of a better Central School. He was sure that the public wanted it, and would vote for it.

The Chairman did not think Mr. Mitchell's objection was tenable. The population of the town was increasing, and would probably still more increase; could they, therefore, have a more judicious time than the present for building the new school? The matter had been agitated for the last two years as an acknowledged necessity, and it was very unlikely that the people would go against the by-law, for he believed that the ratepayers were as intelligent as the members of the Board; and it was the duty of the latter to enlighten any of the ratepayers who might not see the matter quite clearly. Mr. Mitchell's objection was a merely technical one, and did not justify anyone in opposing the resolution. He hoped that the Board would be unanimous on the subject. As to Mr. Inglis's objection, the money to be raised under the by-law would be supplemented by the value of the High School, which was worth $4,000, if not more, being in one of the most progressive parts of the town. Then again the money would not

Rockwood Correspondence.

When we view the progress our Dominion has made, we must admit we are in an age of improvement. Rockwood is also making some progress. It is an boast of a public school house nearly completed, under the management of Mr. Thomas Murphy. The size and beauty of the building is not excelled by any school house in the County.

If you wish good woolen goods you may visit to the Woolen Factory owned by Harris & Brothers. If you are in want of good boots pay a visit to the stores of the obliging Benner and Williams. If you are in want of good goods call and pay Mr. Passmore and Mr. McLeod a visit—they will use you well. For good flour don't pass Parrish or Miel sie's mills. If any parent wishes a good school for his son, let him send him to the Rockwood Academy, under the management of Mr. McMillan and Ferguson. If they wish a good teacher, Mr. Hill is the man.

In this vicinity, I am happy to say, the crops look well, bidding fair to yield a full harvest.

I was lately at Mr. William Hodgkinson's, who has an excellent cheese emporium. In quality and quantity he has few equals in this County.

If you want the Staff of Life don't pass Mr. J. Wright's. For harness, good and new, go to Hamm and Knowles'. If you wish a stove, good and cheap, go to this County, go to Eli Stone's. For Medicine try Rockwood. Don't miss Kilgour's new store. For temperance we can ask you to come and join our lodge, which is doing a good work in the noble cause of temperance. May its shadow never grow less.

Rumours are prevalent at Ottawa of a breach between Sir John and Sir Hugh, which seem to be confirmed by the course of Sir Hugh's organ, the Montreal Gazette.

The "Regulations" Suspended.

Perch once gave a cartoon in which Lord John Russell conspicuously figured, who was attired as a lad, with pinafore ill-besmeared with huge black patches of ink, and underneath it were the words, "Drat that boy! He's always in a mess." Substitute Egerton Ryerson, as chief of the Council of Public Instruction, for the head of the House of Bedford, and the truth of the picture would be as readily recognized to-day as it was a quarter of a century ago in England. The venerable superintendent is continually daubing himself from his well-filled ink-bottle. Regulation after regulation flows from his pen as readily as despatches were wont to do from that of Lord John, and with pretty much the same result. Not a school term passes without some alterations, which are found to be as useless and impracticable as uncalculated for, and in the manufacture of which "that boy" gets into another mess. Take as the latest effort in this direction, the recent endeavor to regulate our High Schools. Little more than a year ago a similar step was taken, and the Blake Government had to interpose and say, "Stop," and to invest the Executive with a power which had not previously existed. Then as now, the Superintendent's love of power induced him to frame "regulations" which entirely destroyed the efficiency of the local Boards of Trustees, and practically placed the whole control of the High School system in the hands of the Toronto Bureaucracy. Then as now, indignant protests went in from every quarter of the Province. And then, but, we are sorry to say, not now, the Government interfered to prevent "that boy" from doing further mischief. How what was declared illegal, a year ago, by Attorney-General Crooks, has been found to be all right by Attorney-General Mowat, is more than we conceive, and yet such is the fact. We are not disposed to be hyper-critical, and we willingly support the Mowat Government, as we regard it as superior to the Patent Combination, and, in the main, well-deserving the confidence of the people; but we are not disposed to pass over its short-comings without comment, and to refrain from speaking out when plain speaking is necessary. Our High Schools are really so many Normal Schools scattered throughout the land, and have fitted for work many of our most eminent men in every walk of life. To make them more and more efficient, and, if possible, more and more numerous, should be the object of every friend of higher education. But this is not the opinion of those in authority in educational matters in Toronto. Their aim, evidently, is to reduce rather than increase the number of our High Schools, and the Government, we are sorry to observe, has been made to assist in this work of suppression and demolition. As we have said, last year regulations were issued as to the mode of admission of pupils to High Schools, which were resented on every hand by High School Trustees as impertinent and unfair. So loud was the cry that the then Attorney-General looked into the matter and found that the Council of Public Instruction had far transcended its powers, and the regulations were promptly disallowed. A change in the Attorney-Generalship has emboldened the Council to make another attempt to carry out its views, and up to this moment the obnoxious regulations are permitted to continue in force, although we are glad to see it has been found advisable to temporarily suspend them. We trust that they will, in great measure, be yet repealed, and that admission to our High Schools will continue as at present conducted until further legislation has been had, as promised, upon the whole subject of education. The suspension until October of the new regulations is proof that they were ill-considered, and that it was found impossible to put them in operation as intended, and this first proof of their impracticability should induce the Attorney-General to seriously consider whether they may not be profitably dispensed with until a better and more comprehensive scheme is matured.

Tory Journalism in Guelph.

To the Editor of The Evening Mercury.

DEAR SIR.—Enclosed I send you an article from the Brantford Courier of this morning, hoping you will give it an insertion, as showing to the Conservatives of this locality, the estimate that is formed in other places of their Pet Organ in Guelph.

An Old Conservative.

Guelph, July 25, '73.

WILL HE REPENT?

In a former issue we took occasion to administer a mild rebuke to the Guelph Herald, for its unwarrantable impertinence in intermeddling in the newspaper affairs of this town. He does not take kindly to moral suasion, which leads us to conclude that his early moral training has been sadly neglected. A morally trained youth, though he may degenerate in manhood, will still have a sufficient spark of early virtue left to thank those who kindly point him back to the paths of virtue and morality which he has abandoned; but not so the Herald, for in return for our admonitions he turns upon us with the malignity of a viper, and language which entitles him to the distinguished honor of being considered the bawdiest of newspaper literati. There was a time when we hailed the Herald as one of our valued exchanges, but "the light of other days has faded." He wined under the title of "Snobocracy," "busy-body," and "puppyish impudence," with reference to his former article, and yet he falls into the same error while repudiating the applicability of the titles to himself. Even dumb animals are conscious of pain when they receive a stroke of the whip, but may not be able to reason wherefore; the Herald appears to possess as much sensibility.

He complains of our having copied from his columns without giving credit. If so we regret it, for if true, it places us in the same disreputable category with himself, only that we are no plagiarist.

A re-perusal of the Herald's former article leads us to the conviction that the writer must have been laboring under temporary aberration of mind. No sane person could wantonly give utterance to so abominable an effusion, more especially in a case where the very customary justification is resorted to for improper language—ill temper.

He threatens, in true Bombastes Furioso style, "if more (insults) are offered we shall feel called upon to hold the whole institution up to the scorn of all respectable journalists, and we'll do it, too." You'll do it when you obtain a new reputation for public and social morality; when the canker of your contemptible leprosy disposition will have become human, and so far cleansed as to render you fit to associate with respectable journalists, you may then make the attempt, but you will first have to await an introduction. Your puny threats exhibit your childish vanity, but, little fellow, adieu! adieu!!

We had noticed from our exchanges that a squabble was going on between the Herald and the Courier, arising from some comments the Herald made upon some exceedingly coarse and unwarrantable personal attacks by the Courier upon the editor of the Expositor. The Courier turned savagely upon the Herald, which replied with its characteristic voluble pugnacity, bringing forth the foregoing retort from the Courier, in which it uses strong epithets to bolster up a weak case. We have a hearty contempt for these mere journalistic scolding matches, and do not believe the public take any interest in them.

Our correspondent, like many other Guelph Conservatives, is disgusted with the Herald's peculiar style, but he has not made a happy selection when he brings forth such a paper as the Brantford Courier as "public prosecutor."—Ed. Mercury.

INCREASE AND MULTIPLY.—The St. Catherine's correspondent of the Globe is responsible for the following:—On Thursday last, a blue fly got into the ear of a carpenter named Edward Hudson, who has been engaged in the township of Grantham in building a barn for a man named George Cole. Hudson thought he removed the fly and paid no further attention to it. Next day he felt very painful sensations in his ear, which became so violent that he consulted Dr. Clark. That gentleman made an examination of his ear, and took out about five hundred small maggots.

On Monday a little son of Dr. Aikens, of Toronto, was so severely scalded at Meaford that he died from the effects. Dr. and Mrs. Aikens are both in Europe. The parties for complicity in the cock-fighting at the Garrison Commons, Toronto, the other day, at the instance of the Society for the prevention of Cruelty to Animals, were heavily fined by the Police Magistrate on Monday.

THE ATHLETICS OF Philadelphia defeated the WASHINGTONS in Philadelphia on Saturday, by a score of 90 to 19. The Oltawas have been invited to a tournament to be held near New York soon. We understand the MAPLE LEAF have also received an invitation, but can't go. Going to have a little tournament of our own next week. The DAUNTLESS club is to play the Port Hope SILVER STARS a game on the Toronto cricket ground on Friday; and after that will take a whack at the noted KINROSS club. Then we'll see. The ERIN club and the CHAMPIONS, of Halton, had a game in Acton on Friday, when ERIN were defeated by a score of 64 to 28. That's the club was talking of coming to town a little while ago. The Toronto DAUNTLESS and the BRAMPTON UNIONS had a game in Brampton on Saturday with the affixed result: Dauntless... 3 7 2 0 0 4 7 4 1-28. Unions... 2 4 1 3 1 0 7 0 1-19. NINE HEROES and nine CONSERVATIVES had a game in Georgetown last week. The REFORMERS came out all right, of course—21 to 18. DURHAM and FREDVILLE—ambitious villages—both sport a club, and they came together on Saturday. DURHAM came out ahead—27 to 14. Pretty good game that. Mr. TINKER, the M. L. scorer, informs us that Wm. Smith, the pitcher, won the three prizes of $5 each for best average, base hits, and runs made during the late tour. Billy O'Connell was up. Now, don't forget that meeting this evening, MAPLE LEAFS—Queen's, 8 o'clock.

Iron in the Blood. PERUVIAN SYRUP. MAKES THE WEAK STRONG. The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protochloride of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Purifying Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures a thousand ills, simply by Toning up, and purifying and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and purified blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damage, and waste, searching out and driving secretions, and leaving nothing for the tissues to feed upon. This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Discharge of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution. Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and it is the only remedy which is able to give it a trial. See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass. Pamphlets Free. J. P. DINGMORE, Proprietor, No. 36 Bay St., New York. Sold by Druggists generally.

DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES AND CALSAYA. Sanny Creek, Aug. 31st, 1872. The Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calsaya prepared by you I have been for two years using LABORLY in my practice, and I assure you that in my judgment there is no preparation of this kind that can compare with it where it is applicable. With feeble, anemic women, of whom we have so many, and in cases convalescing from prostrating diseases I should hardly know how to get along without it. In Dyspepsia it acts like a charm—in fact in any of the long list of exhaustive diseases it is the remedy. I am, yours truly, J. LYMAN BUCKLEY, M.D.

ANNABEL THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XXX. "Well, yes—I guess we have a chance of being there as soon as them," he heard Stevie say, in answer to Philip's previous observation.

"In that case," continued the hunter, "you'll get speech o' Jerry and may make tracks for England as soon as you like, with the information you want. That's a slick-up good prospect for you, Mr. Weston."

"Which if realised, will still lie under a dark shadow," returned Philip, sadly. "Though furnished with Jerry's information, I must yet return to England with sorrowful things for the friends that are there."

"Well, it ain't the best o' news you have to give o' Jim, and his fate can't but grieve them. Only, Mister Weston, if I were you, I'd say nothing in the way o' particulars. We know pretty well the sort o' end he came to among them Chickasaws, but there ain't no manner o' need for mentioning that he would be scalped and tortured to death."

"Not for worlds would I agonise them by such a revelation," said Philip. "His death I must of necessity disclose, but not the manner of it. Oh, Jim, my faithful follower and friend, I would give this right hand to have you safe by my side."

"Suppose you could have me for less, would it be just as well, sir?" said at this moment a voice at their elbow, which caused both Philip and Stevie to leap as if under an electric shock, and turn their eyes in horror towards the Indian from whose throat had come the voice of Jim Pojts.

"Good heaven, what mocking send art thou?" ejaculated Philip, on whose state of horror all present were now gazing. "I ain't no mocking send, sir. I'm Jim Pojts," was the simple yet thrilling answer.

"Snakes and serpents," I understand it now!" cried Stevie, grasping Jim's arm and gazing closely into his face. "You warn't killed—one of the squaws adopted you. Wasn't that it, Britisher?"

"Very like it indeed, sir," answered Jim. "And, as you see they made a redskin of me as far as they could. They colored me and painted me and dressed me in their heathenish toggery, but in course I took the first chance to bolt, and—"

"Why, sir, Lor' Master Philip, I ain't worthy o' that, sir. It's very kind o' you, sir, but I ain't a gen'l'm like yourself, and it's too condescendin' o' you, sir—far too condescendin'."

This sudden and strong remonstrance was made by Jim, and taking him to his heart, holding him there in a tight embrace, such was Philip's fulness and intensity of emotion at the sudden discovery of Jim's safety and restoration. As the color he felt at his supposed death had been keen and poignant, so his joy had been correspondingly great, and under its surging power he gave way to this manifestation, which to Jim's modesty and humility of nature, was embarrassing and even distressing.

"Jim, my good and faithful Jim," he impulsively exclaimed. "Are you really alive—really safe and unhurt? Oh, I cannot express the thousandth part of the delight I feel. We gave you for lost—Stevie and I. Never dreamed it possible that you could be spared, and how I was to tell the truth at Rockstone I know not."

"Wall now, Mister Weston" interposed the trapper, "I calculate it would be as well to stop your hugging o' Jim. The Injuns don't think much o' that sort o' thing. They count it weak and womanish."

"Can't help it, Stevie; my joy must have vent, let the Indians think as they will. We are not savages, to scorn the best feelings of our human nature. Are we, Jim?"

"I hope not, sir," smiled Jim, "though they did their best to make me one, and, in fact, I hardly expected to get away from them for the rest of my life. But I am made glad too, sir, to find you and Stevie safe, for in course I didn't know what might have happened and feared the worst."

"Oh, we are all right. We came upon Cherokee the second day. Stevie knew them to be friendly to the whites, and we have got them to proceed to Jerry's settlement to protect him against the party of Chickasaws that have gone with Gomez to destroy them. We are just about to start, for scouts have come in to say that the Chickasaws passed down the river yesterday."
