The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Izaak Walton Killam Memorial Library
Dalhousie University

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Izaak Walton Killam Memorial Library
Dalhousie University

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

ALMANACK

For the Year of the Christian Æræ, 1774; and from the Creation of the World according to Chronology, 5723, being the second after Bisextile or Leap-Year; and in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Third, consisting of 365 Days:

Wherein is contained,

The Eclipses of the Luminaries, Sun and Moon's Rising and Setting, Moon's Place, Time of High Water; Lunations, Aspects, Spring Tides, Judgment of the Weather, Feasts and Fasts of the Church, Sittings of the several Courts and Sessions in the Province of Nova-Scotia, &c.

To which is added,

A Moral and Political Map of Europe. A Remarkable Anecdote. Requisites in an agreeable Companion. &c. &c. Names of the Governor, Lieut. Governor, Members of his Majesty's Council, and House of Assembly, and other Officers of Government.

Calculated for the Meridian of Halifax, in Nova-Scotia, Lat $44^{\circ} 44'$ North, and 4 Hours, 13 Minutes and 20 Seconds West Long. from London, but will serve without sensible Error for any Part of Nova-Scotia.

By A. L I L I U S.

HALIFAX: Printed and Sold by A. HENRY, by Mr. Robert Fletcher, and Mr. Francis Boyd.

ECLIPSES in the Year 1774.

THESE will be two Eclipses this Year, both of the Sun,

The first will be the 12th of March, about 5 'oclock in the Morning. But as the greatest obscurity will happen near about half an hour before Sun rise, there will be but little of the Eclipse seen here.

The Second will be on the 5th day of September, about half after nine at Night, consequently Invisibile.

Industry inseparable from a true Greatness of Mind.

INDUSTRIOUS wisdom often prevents what lazy folly thinks inevitable. Industry argues an ingenuous, great and generous disposition of soul, by unweariedly pursuing things in the fairest light, and disdaining to enjoy the fruit of other men's labours without deserving it.

A Method to gain Esteem and Applause.

IT is a sign of a sublime genius, not to be over eager to display wit, but to talk of trifles with mean people, and so to proportion yourself to the humours and characters of those you converse with, as to let them think themselves upon a level with you; nothing can be more pleasing, they are charmed with you, and themselves, when they see his equality, which infinitely gratifies their self-love. It requires a great deal of sense to be able to make these condescending self-denials, and a vast stock of modesty not to desire to outshine others when we can, and make a show of our best talents.

On the Credulity of the Populace.

IT is observable, that daring and undertaking fellows have ever been the darlings of the populace, who are so credulous as to take men's characters even from themselves, and believe pretenders in every art to be really what they profess: Bold ignorance passes upon the multitude for sense; confident knaves live upon credulous fools.

On the different Effects of Knowledge.

KNOWLEDGE softened with complacency, and a yielding sweetness of temper, make a man equally beloved and admired by all the world that knows him: but joined with a severe, morose, and assuming behaviour make him not only shunned and feared, but mortally hated by every creature.

The Precepts of a good and a bad Man contrasted.

THE precepts and admonitions of a very good man have in them a great power of persuasion, and are apt to move strongly, and to inflame others to go and do likewise: but the good instructions of a bad man are languid and faint, and of very little force, because they give no heart or encouragement to follow that counsel which they see he that gives it, does not think fit to take himself.

A MORAL and POLITICAL MAP of EUROPE.

RUSSIA. *T*HE motley creation of Peter, called the Great imitators of all Europe, but not Russians; a country taught to rear the produce of southern climates to vapid life, and to neglect its own vigorous offspring; history, mathematics, geography, a general ballance of trade, inhuman interpidity, slavery, savage place of wealth.

SWEDEN. Private industry; public profligacy; a state abroad enslaved by bribes, and ruled at home by the smell of surleins; the country of Linnæus and Artedi.

DENMARK. A nation of voluntary slaves to a race of goodnatured kings; Dutch plodding; some sense; no genius.

POLAND. The asylum of Socinus; the scymetar supreme judge of right and wrong; of liberty and slavery.

HUNGARY. The phantom of a people once free, vigorous, and acute; the clergy ruling; the press curtailed; the nobility crest fallen; a soil rich by nature, poor by policy.

BOHEMIA. Moral forests and deserts.

GERMANY. Its heroes, like Italian pictures, shew best at a distance; the rest parcelled out, to deserts, petty tyrants, priests, pedigreed beggars, and peccants, and all her neighbours know Germany. Yet this is the mother of Armanius and Frederic; of Leibnitz and Wolfe; of Handel and Graun; of Mengs and Donner; of Winkleman and Reimarus.

SWITZERLAND. The land of liberty. — Trade, taste, knowledge, discovery among the Protestants, vigour in all; despisers of death; slaves of money abroad. Abroad a contemptible swarm of valets, clerks, officers, artists, schemers; the leeches of fools.

HOLLAND. A country thro' all ages fertile of patriots, tho' now plethoric with wealth, and unstrung by public indolence. A nobility once full of republican metal, sneaking by degrees into courtiers. Here are scholars civilians, laborious triflers, trade. Here absence of misery is happiness; indifference contentment; profit honour, Here sentiment is nonsense; plain sense wit; jollity, pleasure; possession enjoyment; money the anchor of minds, the gale of passions, the port of life.

ENGLAND. The domain of liberty and property, the country of extremes. Virtue is here divinity, vice infernal. Here are liberty of conscience, political civil liberty, commercial liberty, liberty of thought, tongue and pen, to and beyond the limits of the most profligate license; news-papers, magazines, pamphlets, registers; heaven and earth a job; turfs, cockpits, clubs, Maccaronies, blackguards, stocks, lotteries, schemes, lame ducks, clever fellows, humour and Novembers big with suicide; post chaises, Italian music and pictures, but few ears or eyes; the nest of foreigners; the country of Shakespeare, Newton, Hogarth.

FRANCE. The country of citoyens and modes. Here things are estimated by the air; a watch may be a masterpiece, without exactness; and a woman rule the town without beauty if they have air. Here life is a dance, and awkwardness of step its great disgrace. Character here is dissolved into the public, and an original a name of mirth. "Cela se fait et cela ne se fait pas," are here the supreme umpires of conduct. Their religion is superstition, fashion, josphism: Tyranny may grind the face, but not the countenance of a Frenchman; his feet are made to dance in wooden shoes. France was the country of Le Sueur & Racine, & of Voltaire.

SPAIN. The dregs of a nation two centuries past, the arbiters of Europe, and leaders of discovery. Still sense, sagacity, and cool courage, are tamely submitted here to the iron yoke of inquisition; and each note of humanity drowned in the yell of Dominics victims. The prerogatives of society moulder here in provincial archives; these are the execrable lords of one hemisphere, and the humble factors of Europe. To see a scepter in the gripe of women confessors and favourites make no characteristic of Spain; nor is the country of Calderon and Cervantes, more than its neighbours, the land of ignorance, vanity, indolence, poverty, envy.

PORTUGAL. Something of literature and history, glare, gallantry, superstition, earthquakes, daggers, inquisition, the bloody dawns of an uncertain day, the country of Canceus.

ITALY. An unweeded garden, its inhabitants flies bred on a dead horse.—Slavery, and license. Each moral principle the pimp of pamper'd organs: the country of arts, tricks, castration, and banditti; of Raphael, Goldoni, Farinelli, Archangeli.

A Remarkable ANECDOTE.

IT was the custom, in Henry the VIIIth's Reign, for the Bishops, upon the coming in of the New Year, to make presents to the King: And many of them presented very liberally; proportioning their gifts to their expectations.— Among the rest, Bishop Latimer, being then in town, waited upon the King with his New-Year's offerings: but instead of a purse of gold which was the common oblation, he presented a New-Testament, with a leaf folded down, in a very conspicuous manner, pointing to this passage, "Whoremongers and Adulterers GOD will judge."

Of Requisites in an agreeable Companion.

THE reason why we find so very few men of sense, & agreeable conversation, is, that almost every body's mind is more intent upon what he himself has a mind to say, than upon making pertinent replies, to what the rest of the company say to him. The more ingenious and complaisant sort go no farther than pretending to hearken attentively, when, at the same time a man may plainly see that both their eyes, and their mind, are roving from what is said to them, and posting back again to what they long to be at themselves; not considering, that to seek one's own pleasure so very passionately, can never be the way either to please or persuade others; and that diligent attention, and proper rapartees, are the two perfections that accomplish a man for company.

On the Imprudence of TATLING.

THE indiscretion of talking too freely of one another, is the source of those so many differences which embroil mankind. Such as, having heard disobliging discourses repeat them again to the person concerned, are much mistaken if they think to oblige him by those indiscreet confidences; it grates us to the heart, to hear a man who is so imprudent to tell us to our faces vexatious things, though he only repeat what others have said of us.
