BISHOP FALLON PUTS IT UP TO REAUME AND CITES SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS AS "BANEFUL EFFECTS" OF BILINGUALISM

In French-Canadian Parishes of Essex, With 2000 Pupils in 18 Schools, Only Ten Passed Entrance Tests, and Public Schools Are De- clared Worse.

ASSURED HIS PRIESTS HE DID NOT OPPOSE PURELY FRENCH SCHOOL

GODERICH, Oct. 16.—(Special).—Mr. Fallon, bishop of London, issued his promised statement to-day. He conducted a confirmation service at 10 a.m., and preached at 11 a.m. The statement reads: "I have never been, by word or deed, by intent or design, unfriendly to the interests of the French-Canadian people, and I never shall be unfriendly to them at any time or place, no matter what the provocation. A number of them live within the limits of my own diocese, and I am as solicitous for their welfare, whether spiritual or temporal, as I am for that of any other portion of the flock committed to my care. I have never issued any caused to be issued, directly or indirectly, verbally by writing, or in any other way, any order or mandate, or even expression of opinion, concerning the teaching of French or of any other language in the separate schools, or in any other schools in the Diocese of London, or anywhere else. No objection to teaching of French. I have not, and I never have had, any objection to the teaching of French, or of any other language, in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario, and the regulations of the provincial department of education. Within recent days a memorandum from the Hon. Mr. Hanna to the Hon. Dr. Fallon, purporting to contain the account of a conversation I had with the former in Sarnia, has been made public, with the evident design of discrediting my previous declaration. Let me state at once that I desire to fully and entirely exonerate Mr. Hanna from even the suspicion of dishonorable conduct. I am convinced that he had nothing to do with the publication of his memorandum. I am convinced that it is unjust to him as it is to me. Where I suspect the responsibility rests, I shall at once make clear. Dismissal Too Long Delayed. The dismissal of the private secretary of the minister of public works by no means reaches the root of the matter. I owe nothing to any man in public life, except decent treatment and fair play. I expect nothing else from him. Now, the dismissal of Mr. Malsonville has been by far too long delayed. I informed the Hon. Mr. Reaume privately over four months ago, and shortly after the stealing of the Hanna memorandum, that his private secretary had sent a lying and libelous attack on me to The Detroit Free Press. I refrained at the time, thru a desire to be more than fair to Dr. Reaume, from laying the matter before the prime minister. I knew that Sir James Whitney would not tolerate for an instant that any man should draw a salary from the province, and at the same time receive pay from newspapers for fomenting racial and national strife. Dr. Reaume assumed an attitude of almost apology for his secretary, and he promised to 'investigate.' I heard nothing of the results of his investigation. What I should now like to know is, how the Hon. Dr. Reaume failed in four months to discover what it took Sir James Whitney less than 48 hours to unearth and promptly deal with? I have no hesitation in affirming as my opinion that Mr. Malsonville lost no sleep thru any dread of punishment from his official chief, because of his mischievous misdeeds. I have never surrounded with any veil of secrecy my views on the baneeful effects of the alleged bilingual system in the Province of Ontario. The French-Canadian parishes of Belle River, Big Point, French settlement, McGregor, Ruscombe, Staples, Stony Point, Paincourt and Tibbury with eighteen separate schools and upwards of two thousand children on the rolls, passed a total of ten pupils at their recent entrance examinations. It is from some of these parishes that the loudest noise comes regarding my insistence that these conditions are a disgrace. If the separate schools in these districts are bad, the public schools, also under the alleged bilingual system, are worse. Essex stands lowest educationally amongst the nine counties that constitute the Diocese of London. Everything flourishes there, except education. This whole question is not a contest between English-speaking Catholics. It is a matter of great public moment. On the one side of the discussion are a certain number of French-Canadians, led by noisy agitators; on the other side are also French-Canadians, in no small numbers, together with the rest of the population of the Province of Ontario without distinction of creed or nationality. And let me hazard the prophecy that, when this second division awakes to the gravity of the situation, it will make short work of an alleged bilingual school system, which teaches neither English nor French, encourages incompetency, gives a prize to hypocrisy and breeds ignorance."

CITY RELIEF OFFICER'S LONG CAREER IS ENDED

Edward Taylor, For 24 Years in Civic Service, Passes Away at Evanston, Ill.—On Furlough.

News of the death at Evanston, Ill., of Edward Taylor, for 24 years city relief officer, was received last night by James Somers, chief clerk in the city clerk's department. The wire stated that Mr. Taylor, who was 82 years of age, passed away at 7:45 p.m. Mr. Taylor's kindly presence has been so long identified with the city hall that his passing will occasion wide regret. Although of late years increasing deafness had impaired his effectiveness as his work somewhat, he was diligent and painstaking all ways, and was a valued civic servant. Until three months ago, when a cancerous growth began to develop in his mouth, he was in normal health. The malady progressed rapidly, and three weeks ago he obtained leave of absence to visit his daughter, a physician, Dr. L. E. Taylor, at Evanston. Dr. Taylor was appointed by the late Mayor W. H. Howland in 1886. During his long years in the office, his name has become a familiar one to many thousands belonging to the class of humanity sometimes designated as the "submerged tenth." His benevolent appearance was a true index to his character, but, at the same time, he possessed a capacity for discrimination which professional medics came to respect. With the expansion of the city, the burden of the poor and destitute has been steadily increasing, and three years ago, Alfred Coyell was appointed as his assistant. Mr. Coyell has been acting as relief officer during the illness of his chief. Mr. Taylor, who had twice married, was a widower, and had been living with a daughter, Mrs. Slemm of East Toronto. He leaves two other daughters, one whose home is in Saskatchewan, and the others Mrs. (Dr.) Ruth of Chicago, and also a son in Vancouver. He was a member of the Church of England. It is thought that the body will be brought to Toronto for interment.

EARL GREY COMING With Vice-Regal Party He is Expected to Arrive Thursday Morning.

Announcement is made that the Governor-General and Lady Grey will leave Ottawa by special train Wednesday night, arriving in Toronto Thursday morning. It is set out only partial arrangements for their reception have been completed. Capt. Douglas Young, secretary to the lieutenant-governor, said last night that he expected to receive a letter from Ottawa this morning. Thus far no official announcement is forthcoming. It seems assured, however, that Earl Grey's party will be present at the performance to be given by Miss Anna Pavlova, M. Mikali Mardkin and the Imperial Ballet at Massey Hall Thursday night, and that they will be guests at the Hunt Club races on Friday afternoon. On Friday morning he will present prizes at St. Andrew's College. Other social engagements will be made later.

DYING ENGINEER TOOK FULL BLAME OF WRECK

Overran His Orders—Imperial Limited in Collision With a Stock Train.

NORTH BAY, Oct. 16.—(Special).—The remarkable part of the head-on collision Saturday between the Imperial Limited westbound express and a stock train is the small casualty list, which was confined to three engineers, caught in the crash before they had time to leap from the engine. The express received orders at Carter to meet the stock train at Geneva, three miles west, where no stop is usually made, and the stock train was slowing up, preparatory to taking a siding, when the express thundered thru Geneva, and, with a crash, piled into the stock train, which was after leaving Carter. A number of cattle were killed, and other injured. In one car every animal perished. Engineer D. S. McLennan of the express, who was at Sudbury Hospital, made a statement, in which he admitted responsibility for overrunning his orders, and expressing a desire to take the entire blame in accordance with the rules of the conductor, W. Lidka of the express, took the orders to the engineer before leaving Carter, and each read the orders aloud, following which the engineer read the orders to his fireman. As the collision occurred just beyond the west switch at Geneva, Conductor Lidka could hardly have observed that the express was overrunning his orders were being overruled, and he was standing on the platform, the time at his disposal to warn the engineer and apply the emergency brakes would be measured in seconds. From the fact that only six minutes had elapsed from the time Carter was left until the collision occurred. As the track is of a curving nature west of Geneva, the headlights of the approaching trains were hidden, and the express rushed on thru the night to certain disaster. Engineer Smith of the stock train was just slowing down to take the siding at Geneva, and the brakeman stood upon the step of the engine, ready to throw the switch, when he observed the headlights of the coming express, and yelled to the engine men to jump for their lives at the same time making his own escape. Engineer Smith succeeded in clearing his engine before the crash, but Fireman Percy Vice was caught and killed. Fireman William Summers of the express was so seriously injured that he died last night at Sudbury Hospital. Engineer McLennan leaves a wife and two children. His body was taken to Ottawa for interment. An investigation into the cause of the accident begins at White River Monday morning. While the passengers and other members of the train crew were severely shaken up, no one received serious injuries. Traffic was resumed fourteen hours after the accident happened, the wrecked engines and cars being in a shape hard to handle. R. C. Roberts, 85 Wilton-ave., brought back from Grimby to snower charges of false pretences, pleaded guilty Saturday, and was sent to jail for 30 days.

STANLEY KETCHELL DEAD MURDERED BY RANCHER

Woman Figures in Case Where Middleweight Fighter
Loses His Life.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 15.—Stanley Ketchell, champion middleweight pugilist of the world, died last night as the result of being shot yesterday by Walter A. Hertz, a ranch hand. The shooting took place on the ranch of R. P. Dickerson, a friend of Ketchell, near Conway, 40 miles east of here. An hour before he died Ketchell regained consciousness. There was then thought to be a slight chance for his recovery. His condition soon took a decided change for the worse, however, and he died quickly.

The pugilist died in the Springfield hospital, where he had been rushed after arriving here from Conway on a special train, chartered by Mr. Dickerson. Three physicians were on the case.

An operation was performed on Ketchell at the ranch house in an attempt to locate the bullet, which entered his right shoulder and pierced his lung. It was not found. A report from Conway has it that a .22 calibre rifle bullet, the same pattern as that which inflicted Ketchell's wound, was found on the floor of the room in which the shooting took place. It is thought there is a possibility of this being the bullet that killed Ketchell.

Out in the wooded hills, east of here, Hertz, Ketchell's slayer, heavily armed, is fleeing before a pack of bloodhounds and a posse of officers and citizens. Dickerson has placed a price of $5000 on the capture of Hertz, dead or alive. After reading the report, Hertz rushed from the house into the yard. He then faltered a moment, turned and went back into the room where Ketchell lay upon the floor. Reaching into Ketchell's pocket he removed the pugilist's 38-calibre revolver and struck him over the head with it. He then ran across the yard and away from the house. Investigation of Hertz's belongings in that room revealed the name in Web City, Missouri, and that he had been at the Dickerson ranch since last Wednesday and but few knew anything about him.

The trouble between Ketchell and Hertz is said to have started when the pugilist was hired to break a horse for a ranch hand. This angered Hertz. The incident took place yesterday. Ketchell had just come down to the ranch, which adjoints his recently purchased to spend a few days. Mrs. Goldie Smith, in a statement to the authorities, assigned another cause for the shooting. "While I was working in the kitchen yesterday," she said, "Ketchell insulted me. I became angry. He was greatly wrought up over the incident and pleaded with me not to say anything to him. When Hertz came home I told him what Ketchell had said to me. He was very angry. I think that is what caused him to kill Ketchell."

Officers believe Mrs. Smith's story, although they think this was not the only reason for harsh feeling between the men. Mrs. Smith says she is a daughter of Andrew Bright, a Christian Union, Mississippi farmer. She says she met Hertz about a month ago. "Friends of the dead pugilist say he was a crew member on the Canadian Pacific. When he went to Dickerson's ranch he carried about $500 in cash with him. There was no money in his pockets when ambulance men took him to the hospital. Hertz's first reached him after he had been shot."

The dead pugilist's real name was Stanislaus Kiecal. He was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, Sept. 16, 1887. His parents are living in Michigan. To-day was the first anniversary of his death with Jack Johnson, his last important ring engagement.

MAY COME TO CANADA NEW SCIENTIST CHURCH HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED

Will Occupy Zion Church Property on College St.—Rendered Necessary by Membership Growth.

The Third Christian Science Church has been organized, and will occupy the former Zion Congregational Church at College and Elizabeth streets. The church is to be re-dedicated and the formal opening services will take place next Sunday. Although the church was organized on the yesterday services were held in the church parlors. Although Mrs. Isabella Stewart of Walmer-road, who had a serious disagreement with the First Church Scientist last summer, is prominently identified with the new congregation, it was stated last night that there is no division in the Scientist ranks, but that another church has been rendered necessary and desirable because of the growth in membership. The present First Church property on Queen's avenue is now for sale, the intention being to locate a new church in the northern part of the city. At present, it is said, there are members who attend the central churches from East and West Toronto. The new church has an initial membership of over a hundred.

The board of the new church is composed of J. Fielding, R. H. Dee, W. Spaulding, R. H. Spencer, W. G. Arnold, Mrs. Butler, and Miss Johns. W. H. Parker is superintendent of the Sunday school. At the organization meeting, a handsome tribute was paid Mrs. Stewart, who was granted the freedom to attend all the meetings of the board, and was invited to participate in all branches of the work. A reading room is to be opened in connection with the church.

HAGUE DELEGATE LOST HIS MEMOIR COMPLETELY

Had Been Missing For Six Weeks
—Located at a Hotel in Brussels.

OTTAWA, Oct. 15.—(Special).—A cable to the department of marine and fisheries from Hutchinson, superintendent of the exhibition branch, announces that Robert Venning, superintendent of fisheries, who has been missing for six weeks, has been located in Brussels. Mr. Venning was found in an hotel at Brussels, Belgium, suffering from amnesia, or loss of memory. He has been taken charge of by Mr. Hutchinson, and it is expected that he will be able to leave for Ottawa shortly, accompanied by one of the members of the staffs of the Canadian exhibit at Brussels. Mr. Venning was one of the members of the Canadian delegation to The Hague, in connection with the fisheries arbitration. He is one of the best posted men in the Canadian public service on international law, especially in its application to fisheries questions, and his advice was continually sought by counsel on the Canadian side.

MONTREAL SECOND SODOM Says Dominion Alliance' Secretary, Making Serious Statements.

MONTREAL, Oct. 15.—(Special).—Secretary R. Roberts of the Dominion Alliance stated in the First Baptist Church that the red light district was as flourishing as ever here, and that he knew of 500 unlicensed liquor saloons. Men and women of so degraded a character visit these places that Montreal is fast becoming a second Sodom and Gomorrah. Yesterday was "rally day" in the Anglican Sunday schools of the city, and special services were held.

WELLMAN STILL HOLDS COURSE FOR EUROPE

At 12.45 Sunday Afternoon,
Airship America Was Off
Nantucket, 300 Miles From Starting Point — Motors
Shut Off, Going 25 Miles an Hour With the Wind.

SIACONSETT, Mass., Oct. 16.—Somewhere east of Nantucket Island, off the coast of Massachusetts, and approximately 300 miles from Atlantic City, the starting point, Walter Wellman's airship America signaled a wireless, "All's well and good-by" at 12.45 o'clock this afternoon, and swung on up the coast thru the fog. This message, the last of the day's wireless conversations, was received here by A. H. Gimman, the Marconi operator, who had been on the alert since dawn. At 9 o'clock this morning, Siaconssett first came in touch with the giant dirigible. Then, although the wireless range of the craft is comparatively short, owing to necessarily limited power and antennas, the station was surprised to hear its call "M. S. C." clear and strong, followed by "W. J." from the strength of the signals, it was assumed that the America was in close proximity to Nantucket, and immediately all the life saving stations and lighthouses on the island were notified by telephone to keep a sharp lookout. Going With the Wind. But the fog, which had enshrouded the America since her departure yesterday morning, still hung over the ocean, shutting off the view. The Marconi station, however, began a rapid fire of interrogation and learned from Jack Irwin, the American operator, that the ship's motors had been stopped, and that the dirigible was heading east-northeast, and making twenty-five miles an hour with the wind. At Nantucket excitement was acute, but with motors idle, the airship sailed along as silently as a phantom in the sky, where ordinarily the engine's exhaust would have reverberated along the coast. However, the electric voice of the Marconi station filled in at times what the eye and ear were denied, and intermittently the operators here exchanged greetings with their late associates, who, it will be recalled, received at this station the dramatic "C. Q. D." from the ill-fated steamship Republic. At 10.30 a.m. signals from the dirigible became suddenly stronger, and it was momentarily expected that the America would come in sight of the station. Irwin, in fact, flashed that the sounds of the breakers, but the fog effectually shut the craft from view, although she was probably passing over the shoals surrounding the island. Signals Become Feebler. From that time on signals from the airship grew steadily weaker, until finally, at 12.45, a message flashed from here asking if everything aboard was O.K. Faintly came the reply yes, then later still the two letters "G. B." good-bye. Unable to take observations in the fog, the America's exact position remained unknown throughout the day, as had been the case since she set sail. Her course, however, has been along the steamship lines, and, as no word to the contrary has been received, the assumption is that Mr. Wellman's dirigible has fuel and 50 days' provisions aboard, is adhering to his plan of crossing the Atlantic and landing on the British Isles. It likely that no further word from the airship will be received here, but a dozen of the Atlantic liners fitted with wireless, were in her zone tonight. Not Going Very Fast. When last heard from at 12.45 p.m. the America had been in the air just 13 minutes less than 20 hours, and, having covered approximately 300 miles, must have averaged have averaged progress between ten and eleven miles an hour. At this rate the craft would not pass Sable Isle, 400 miles distant from Nantucket, until 9 a.m. Tuesday, and Cape Race, 65 miles further, 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. Brisk westerly winds aided the passage to-day, and the engines being idle while off Nantucket, the wireless must have been operated by storage battery. This probably accounts for the briefness of Irwin's message, for he was doubtless hoarding his limited supply of energy for an emergency. With the motors in operation dynamo can be pressed into service, but the sparking interferes with the receiving, and better results are obtained when they are silent. Commandant of Sealing Forces. MONTREAL, Oct. 16.—(Special).—The first imperial commandant of the new sealing force is here to-day, en route for his new post. He will visit Kingston, West Point and Ottawa, before leaving for Vancouver. Soft Felt Hats For Fall. There is reason in all things. And, there's a reason why English hats are so word. The standard for English made hats has been established by the Henry Heath Co., and competitive firms must live up to that standard or fail. They settle the styles and their goods are uniform in quality. The sole Canadian agency for this famous hat is held by the Dineen Co., and at the present time they are making a specialty of their soft felts. This is the popular hat for this season of the year and the Dineen display is well worth inspection. When you call take a fur catalog or write for one.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

BOLD THIEF AT ANCASTER FIRES SHOTS AT VICTIM

James Klock of Brantford Arrested on Serious Charge—Rev. A. H. Going's Triple Condemnation.

HAMILTON, Oct. 16.—(Special).—There was a sensational robbery at Ancaster last night, in connection with which J. Klock of Brantford was arrested. He is accused of having entered Gurnett Bros' store about 10.30 as one of the brothers was counting the day's receipts, preparing to close up. He asked for some candy, and when Gurnett turned is alleged to have seized $100 and made off. Gurnett chased the man and the latter turned on him and fired several shots from a revolver. Later County Constable Morrison formed a posse and arrested Klock a short distance from the village, on the Brantford and Hamilton road. He was taken to Dundas.

Constable Lord this morning arrested William Selby, 21 Richmond-street, and William Sheppard, Catherine-street, on charges of stealing a horse and carriage belonging to Alex. Thompson. The outfit was stolen from the vicinity of Haymarket-square. The prisoners may also be charged with illustrating the horse.

Isaac Lottridge, who is wanted here on a charge of stealing a horse belonging to J. H. Moore, from Ancaster, was arrested in Brantford on Saturday and brought to Hamilton by Detective Cameron.

One Sunday drunk was gathered in to-day, and there were four ordinary drunks and three drunks and disorders in the cells besides.

Two men were badly injured last night as the result of falling in stables, Frank Flood, who gave his address at the Fibro Hotel, fell out of the haymow in the hotel stables and sustained a compound fracture of one of his legs, several cuts, bruises and a black eye. The other man, John Watta, James and Perry-streets, who fell off a ladder in Sullivan's livery stable, Macnab and Cannon-streets. He also sustained a broken leg.

Too Many "Drunks." In the course of a temperance sermon to-night, Rev. A. H. George of Zion Tabernacle found fault with the license department, the police and the license department. He denounced because of the number of "blind pigs" in the city; the police for allowing so much rowdiness on the streets on the part of drunks, and the press for making an amusement column of the police court news. He said there were fewer arrests and more drunks here than in any city in the province. He was sorry to state that the sleeping in the city council over the plebeian matter also.

The congregation of St. Peter's Church celebrated its 15th anniversary to-day. Rev. Canon G. Schuchman, of St. George's Church, preached. Dorothy Soper, aged 7, daughter of Herbert and Mrs. Soper, 80 North Lock-street, died this morning from scarlet fever.

A two weeks' mission opened in St. Patrick's Church to-day. This will be the women's week and to-night the congregation was composed entirely of women. Father Gunning of Boston, Mass., preached the sermon.

An Oiled and Dustless Road from Niagara Falls to Windsor, particularly for the benefit of automobile owners, is the ambitious scheme of County Road Superintendent Taylor, who will submit such a proposition to the Good Roads Convention at Toronto next spring. For several months past, the superintendent has been considering the advisability of such a scheme, and after several scores of enquiries among automobile owners and residents who would be materially benefited by such a road, he has decided that the proposition can be easily undertaken. It is his intention, if possible, to have the one road from

AN ABSOLUTE NECESSITY. So think at least one traveling man without my mileage books and grip to start out on a trip without a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in my valise, said a traveling man who represents a St. Louis hardware house. Why? Because I have to put up at all kinds of hotels and boarding houses. I have to eat good, bad and indifferent food at all hours of the day and night and I don't know any man's stomach will stand that sort of thing without protest, anyway. I know mine won't. It has to have something to break the fall, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the crutch I lean on.

My friends often "josh" me about it, tell me I'm an easy mark for patent medicine fakers, that advertised medicines are humbugs, etc., but I notice that they are nearly always complaining of their aches and pains and poor digestion, while I can stand most any old kind of fare and feel good and ready for my work when it needs me, and I believe I can keep my digestion and sound health to the daily, regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, year in and year out, and all the "joshing" in the world will never convince me to the contrary.

Six 1/2-gal. bottles, 50c. One 2-gal. bottle, 25c. Quarts, per doz., 75c.

The Falls to Windsor covered with the same kind of oil that was used on the small strip of the Plains Road in this county, and which is proving so highly satisfactory, both to the county council and those who use it. Superintendent Taylor figures that the main cost will be at the outset, when the entire road is oiled, but thinks that after that there will be very little, if any, expense.

Superintendent Taylor is striving to secure such a system as is in the State of Massachusetts. There the principal roads are oiled, and have been for some time, and they are the source of great joy to the autoists passing thru that state and to the residents that live along the roads. The automobile owners who use the roads are taxed a certain amount each season, which is used to keep the roads in repair, and which has proved ample.

Hotel Hanrahan, corner Barton and Catherine-streets, Hamilton, conveniently situated and easily reached from all parts of the city. Erected in 1906. Modern and strictly first-class. American Plan. Rates $1.50 to $2 per day. Theo. Hanrahan, proprietor. Phone 1465.

On first reading our text some of us might have been inclined to say, Ah, a beautiful poetic extravagance. But the event will be a complimentary concert and demonstration by Miss Rose L. Fritz to the stenographers and typists of Toronto.

The program is an exceptionally good one, and Miss Fritz will be ably assisted by a number of Toronto's best musical artists and entertainers.

The event is unusual in that it is entirely complimentary, given only to the stenographers and typists. A long list of invitations have been issued, but stenographers who have not yet received tickets, may obtain them by notifying the office of the United Typewriter Company, 7 East Adelaide-st.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES. London ex-Alderman Hit by an Auto and Paralysis Set In.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—(Special).—Ex-Alderman Robert Parsons, who was injured in an auto accident on Friday night at Crumlin, died from his injuries at Victoria Hospital this morning. He was injured internally, but it was not thought at the time that he would die. Paralysis, however, set in. He is survived by his wife and one daughter.

GRENS VS. THE THIRTEENTH. Teams of Eight to Contest at Ranges—Picked Teams Compete.

A marksmanship competition between members of the Grenadiers and the 13th Regiment of Hamilton was held at Long Branch ranges on Saturday. The Grenadiers were represented by Staff-Sgt. Bayles, Sgt. Kelly, Corp. Roberts and Pte. Clifford, and four members of the 13th were expected to compete with them. Two only, however, were able to come, Staff-Sgt. C. O. Nicols and Col.-Sgt. J. Freeborn, so the six drew sides and lined up as follows: Kelly, Bayles, Roberts and Freeborn, Nicols and Clifford. A ten-shot match was held, at 200, 500 and 600 yards, with a possible maximum of 150 points for each man.

PASTOR RUSSELL'S SERMON THE SEAS IN THE HOLLOW OF GOD'S HAND

TEXT—"Who hath measured the seas in the hollow of His hand."—Isaiah, xl: 12.

ON THE OCEAN, Oct. 16.—Pastor Russell of Brockville, Ontario, is enjoying his usual health, en route for London. He expects to be back in Brockville the first Sunday in December. His Sunday in Great Britain will be given to London, filling appointments with as many as possible of the smaller cities west of the foregoing text follows:

The wonderful force and immensity of the thought of our text cannot be appreciated by those who have never been upon the great ocean. As we travel thru the "water at railroad speed and keep watch in every direction, yet seldom see a vessel, large or small, upon the great ocean, we get a little conception of the world in which we live. It is so much larger than previously we were able to comprehend. Yet by the aid of the telescope and the mathematical calculations we perceive that our earth and its seas are small, in comparison to many other worlds. We perceive that our solar system (our sun and the planets that live along the roads) is a small fraction of God's great creation. Astronomers tell us that by the aid of sensitive photographic plates they are able to count about one hundred and twenty-five millions of stars, around which planets are revolving, as our earth revolves around our sun. And they estimate that probably only a portion of these suns is visible to our naked eye—so far distant are they. Astronomers estimate that there are millions of others suns so far distant that their light cannot even be discerned by photography.

We stand appalled at the immensity of space and the law and order which everywhere reign. We heartily assent to the words of the Prophet David: "Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge; there is no place where their voice is not heard." The person who can look upon this wonderful display of supernatural power and who can believe that these worlds created themselves, shows to the majority of us that, if he has brains, they are sadly disordered, unbalanced and unscientific. And this intelligent thought, concludes that there is no God, that everything came to be what it is by chance or by the operation of some blind force—that person is described in the Scriptures in the following words, "The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God" (Psalm xiv, 1).

A night of weeping, six thousand years long, involving suffering and sorrow to twenty thousand millions of an awful thought. But the proposition is yet a different one when we remember that the majority of Adam's children are ignorant of the fact that they live their three score years and ten with labor and sorrow, there are pleasing and happy experiences, as well as tears. And when we read that even the cherubs and angels are a part of the disciplines, instructions and experiences which God designs shall be valuable lessons in preparation for a glorious and joyous eternity—then the whole matter begins to have a new aspect to our minds. If the light afflictions of this present time will work out blessings for eternity, then we can not do them for ourselves, but for neighbors and all humanity. And this is the divine proposition. Not that God has ever proposed eternal life for a single rebellious soul, but that He is justifying perfectly, thru works during His reign, the glorious plan of redemption which shall come into full harmony with Himself. At present He is teaching great general lessons to humanity as a whole by the exceeding sinfulness of sin. It would be hard to do these lessons, as learned, there should be no opportunity of profiting by them. But there will be an opportunity of profiting, and this is the great message which God has sent to mankind, and which, Scripturally, is styled the gospel—the "good tidings of great joy which shall be unto all people" thru Christ.

One of old truly said, "Thou art a God which hidest thyself" (Isaiah, xlv, 15). How truly that is the world by wisdom knows not God. He is near in His wisdom and love, yet He can be seen only by those whose eyes of understanding have been opened. But when all the blind eyes shall see clearly, "As I live, saith the Lord, the whole earth shall be filled with my glory." The knowledge of the glory of God shall fill the whole earth, and waters cover the great deep" (Habakkuk ii, 14). Then all shall see what God hath wrought and our temporary blindness will but accentuate the glorious brightness of His wisdom, justice, love and power.

"Blind unbelief is sure to err, and scan His work with a wandering eye; God is His own interpreter, and He will make it plain!" In the end it will be seen that the divine permission of the reign of sin and death in the earth, instead of being a blot upon divine character and a demonstration of divine unwisdom and incompetency, will reveal the great Creator to His subjects, His children, as nothing else could have done. Besides, the experiences of mankind learn that Jehovah, the true God, takes delight in doing good—in the exercise of His almighty power and wisdom in the creating of beings in whose everlasting life and enjoyment forever He takes pleasure. With such glorious intentions His creative work began with the celestial beings, who are still enjoying His favor. With similar benevolence He created man a little lower than the angels, crowning him with glory and honor as the king of all creatures, on the animal, the human, plane, the likeness of His maker, who is a spirit. Hearingkening to the explanations of the divine purposes by the apostles and prophets, we have received assurances that nothing has so far outweighed the sorrows of the past six thousand years, that the great Creator did not foresee. Further, we have the assurances that divine wisdom purposes eventually that the tears and sorrows, cryings and dying, the penalty for original sin, under which man has suffered all these centuries, the great Creator purposes shall work out directly to His creatures. Instead, the end of the divine program will attest the various elements of the divine character as nothing else could have done. The body of man, who is known to us, will in mankind lead to eternity a valuable lesson of the exceeding sinfulness of sin and the wisdom and blessedness of righteousness.

And among these wonderful things of the divine purpose none is more wonderful than that which relates to the character of the Father, who is called and begotten of the holy spirit during this gospel age. These justified by faith instantly, are a separate class from the world, who will be justified perfectly, thru works during Messiah's glorious reign. The arrangement for their faith-justification thru the merit of the Redeemer in advance of the purpose of allowing them, who by nature, are "children of wrath even as others," to become sons of God on the spirit plane, "partakers of the divine nature," is on lines of impartiality. God's offer to these members of Adam's race, a "little flock" in all, is that if they join with their Redeemer in sacrifice and walk in His footsteps, His merit shall cover their blemishes and they may become for all eternity His glorious bride and joint-heirs with Him in His throne and be associated with Him in His work of uplifting the children of men.

How wonderful is our God, infinite in all his qualities! "Who hath known the mind of the Lord; who hath been His counsellor?" (Isaiah, xl, 13). How came all these wonderful things which are written in His book, unless by His own knowledge? Let us bow before Him and adore Him, and be faithful laborers in the footsteps of Jesus until the end of the race—until we receive the crown of life.

More than this; some of us at one time were, perhaps, inclined to criticize our Maker and to say that He had no right to redeem us from the bondage of Calvary; that it was wrong to cancel the sins of one and require their payment of another. But we erred. It was not thus. Rightly understood, the death of the Father with the Son adds still further to His glory—manifestly still more His wisdom, justice, love and power. With all power and authority the Almighty would not command the death of His Son. For Jesus to become man's Redeemer meant His voluntary sacrifice of Himself. And how shall we understand this—the Redeemer's willingness to be man's ransom price? The Scriptures, replying, tell us that it was because of His great love for the Father, His great confidence in Him, and His willingness to submit to the divine will and purposes and arrangement in everything. Yet, notwithstanding the willingness of the Redeemer, the Father would not permit Him to engage in this great undertaking which would cost Himself so much, unless He would give Him the corresponding reward. Thus we read of Jesus, that "for the joy that was set before Him He endured the cross, despising the shame."

The divine plan being set forth to an old colored woman, she was asked if it was not strange that God should do such great things for us. Her answer was, "No, master; it is just like Him!"

So we say respecting the great God who made the heavens and the earth and the church and us, it is no strange that He should have a glorious plan for all of His creatures—a plan which will fully exemplify His character—His justice, wisdom, love and power.

And amongst these wonderful things of the divine purpose none is more wonderful than that which relates to the character of the Father, who is called and begotten of the holy spirit during this gospel age. These justified by faith instantly, are a separate class from the world, who will be justified perfectly, thru works during Messiah's glorious reign. The arrangement for their faith-justification thru the merit of the Redeemer in advance of the purpose of allowing them, who by nature, are "children of wrath even as others," to become sons of God on the spirit plane, "partakers of the divine nature," is on lines of impartiality. God's offer to these members of Adam's race, a "little flock" in all, is that if they join with their Redeemer in sacrifice and walk in His footsteps, His merit shall cover their blemishes and they may become for all eternity His glorious bride and joint-heirs with Him in His throne and be associated with Him in His work of uplifting the children of men.

PAUL IN ATHENS. Subject of a Scholarly Sermon by Distinguished Visitor.

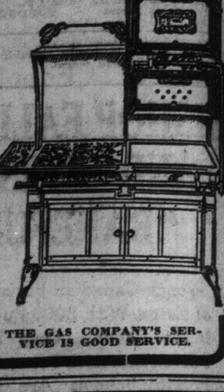

Prof. Mitchell Carroll, Ph.D., of Washington, D.C., who has been visiting Toronto and other Canadian cities in the interests of the Archaeological Institute of America, addressed a large congregation yesterday morning in Bloor-street Presbyterian Church on the subject of "Paul in Athens." Dr. Carroll is a noted Grecian scholar, who has been connected with the American school in Athens, and was fully qualified therefore to deal with his subject, which was an exposition of the 17th chapter of Acts in the light of Greek literature and archaeology. The life and character of Paul were first outlined, showing how fitted he was to be the bearer of Christianity to Greece and Rome, and how capable he was of appreciating the mind and art of these civilizations. A graphic picture followed of the Athens of Paul's day, and of its schools of philosophy, making realistic the local coloring of the scene and the discussions between Paul and his Athenian audience. Paul seems to have left the city in discouragement and to have regarded his work there as a failure, yet the seed he there sowed bore good fruit for the Aereopagus has become the symbol of Greek Christianity, and the Acropolis is of Greek paganism. As a result of Paul's ministry, within two centuries the Christian religion had spread over the Roman Empire, making realistic the local coloring of the scene and the discussions between Paul and his Athenian audience.

Ty Cobb Report Baseball Games for 'The World'

Note and Comment

It looks like Varsity for the Intercollegiate team that Montreal for the Interprovincial. The latter team had a close call at Ottawa on Saturday, where they lost to the players are amateurs.

The improvement of the Toronto student team in a week was marvelous. They had everything in the Rugby repertoire, gaining ground by running, bucking, punting and last but not least, worked the dangerous on-side kick as effectively as if Johnny Newton had been again behind the line.

The feature was the performance of John Maynard, who carried the ball on the run, sweeping aside the oncoming tackles almost as ferociously as the Buffalo Lawson a year ago, and the new phenomenon is only of ordinary stature.

Maynard in the new full back, the he performed at left half according to the Griffith idea, and not only advanced the full back position, but also showed the section and unexcelled. His touch-downs were secured after one of the longest runs ever seen on a local football field.

Capt. O'Neil was none the less brilliant and started the scoring at a stage when the Irishmen from Ottawa showed an inclination to break thru the Varsity line at will.

And it was sure a sorry day for Ireland. There were Egan, Quilty, Sheehy, Gilligan, Lacey, Sullivan, Kennedy, O'Neil, O'Halloran and one or two others and the score against them was 35 to 1.

It is interesting to note that a large portion of the star back division players in Interprovincial Rugby were formerly Intercollegiate players. The following played such a grand game for Montreal Saturday belonged to Queen's University: O'Neil, the Ottawa center, and the British representative, O'Halloran and Murray. Kennedy, now with Ottawa, was an old Varsity player. Argonauts went Willie Lawson with Varsity. Varsity while Hamilton would have been tickled to death if Gage, now with Varsity, had turned out with them.

Are you a Cub or a Mackman? Can the Athletic players of Chicago machine and Catcher Johnny Kling? First game today.

The next Olympic games will be held in Stockholm, in Sweden, in 1912. The British representative on the International Olympic Committee certain items have been included in the program, which is now as follows:

FIRST OF 'WORLD'S SERIES' TO-DAY AT PHILA DELPHIA

Overall For Chicago and Bender or Coombs For Philadelphia the Pitchers.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—The great baseball derby, the Blue ribbon event, the American diamond, will start here tomorrow, when the championship teams of the two major leagues will meet in the opening game for the world's championship. The contesting teams will be Philadelphia of the American League, commonly known as the Athletics, and Chicago of the National League, usually called the Cubs. They are not only the champions of their respective organizations, but also generally considered as the first developed teams that the two big leagues have ever produced.

The Cubs will be made up of practically the same men that won for Chicago two world's championships from Detroit, in 1907 and 1908, with the exception of five players. Pitchers Evers and Plan First Baseman Davis and Outfielders Murphy and Hartzel, Philadelphia will be composed of some of the best players of the team since the locals lost in a world's series competition against the New York Yankees in 1905. Each team is managed by Philadelphia's manager, Chicago by Frank Chance, who will pitch first base, and Philadelphia by Connie Mack, who will direct the team from the bench.

Substitute Players.
Injuries to players this month have changed some of the early forecasts as to the starting line-up. The Cubs, who had their leg broken in a game at Cincinnati on October 1. Evers is generally regarded as the best pitcher in the National League. His place at second base will be filled by Zimmerman, who is nearly as good a fielder as Evers and a better batter. Philadelphia suffered a greater loss last week, when Centrefielder Oldring, who is rated as their second best all-around player, suffered his knee so severely that he cannot play against Chicago.

Manager Mack has four players from whom he must choose his starting pitcher for Murphy is considered a fixture in right field. These men are Hartzel, Lord and Strunk, who played in the outfield during the championship games, and McInnis, an infielder, who is an excellent batsman. None of these men, however, has the same all-around ability as Oldring. For the first time since the world's series was first played, the National Commission, both the contesting teams will take the field with a new pitcher every nine minutes. Each team won its pennant easily and therefore had an opportunity to rest up and to prepare for the big contest with a fresh pitcher. Both are rated as the highest types of baseball machines; that is, individual players who are able to pitch for a long time. The followers of baseball through the country look for the greatest world's series ever.

Evenly Matched.
The majority of the critics and the public generally consider the two teams evenly matched. The result was presumptive. As to the pitchers and catchers, it is considered that Evers is superior to Oldring. Philadelphia's backstop and the Athletics' pitcher, Evers, are considered the best in the league. Trending interest has been shown in the series all over the country. So great was the demand for seats for the opening game here that the American National Commission's representative announced the plan of distributing them, practically equally between the two cities.

Some of the biggest men in baseball, including many of the club owners, will be here for the series. President Egan has promised to take in a game, if possible. Umpires Sheridan and Connelly have been appointed to represent the American League and Umpire Rigler and O'Day the National League. The program for to-morrow calls for a meeting of the two clubs at 11 o'clock in the morning, at which the final details for the series will be arranged; the opening of the game at 11 a.m., and the starting of play at 2 p.m.

The first two games are to be played here and the next two in Chicago. Wednesday being an off day, if possible, the teams will leave Chicago Friday afternoon and play here on Saturday, and if necessary, return to Chicago at once for a game on Sunday.

Manager Mack of the Athletics declared to-day that he had no comment to make regarding the outcome of the series, and the batting order of his team would not be announced until after he had handed it to the umpires to-morrow afternoon. No changes are expected in Manager Chance's team. It is expected that O'Halloran will be the opposing pitcher in the opening game.

The batting order is expected to be as follows:
Philadelphia: Hartzel, cf.; Lord, 1b.; Schulte, rf.; Hoffman, cf.; Strunk, 2b.; Zimmerman, 3b.; Steinfield, 2b.; Hertz, 2b.; Kling, c.; Thomas or Lapp, c.; Bender or Coombs, p.

GIANTS WIN THIRD

Defeat Highlanders in Close Game Before Big Crowd.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Fast baserunning and heavy hitting when Pitt's menning marked a snappy contest between the New York Americans and the New York Giants to-day. The Giants won by a score of 6 to 4, after Mathewson had been called to the pitching mound to check a desperate rally which the Highlanders made in the seventh inning. The post-season series now stands: Giants 2, Highlanders 1. Vaughn, for the Highlanders, and Drucker, for the Giants, were effective in the early innings, but their deliveries were subsequently solved, and they were driven from the box. Knight's short-pitched hitting featured the Highlanders' play, while a one-hand catch of Danie's wicked drive by Fletcher, cutting off a hit, was the star play of the Giants' defense. The series was filled close to its capacity when the game began. The score:

Cincinnati Wins Two on Sunday.
CINCINNATI, Oct. 16.—Cincinnati won both games of a double-header from Cleveland here to-day, the first by 3 to 1 and the second 5 to 2. In the first game Cincinnati pounded the Cleveland pitchers hard and were never in danger, as Gaspar was in fine fettle. The second game, which was only seven innings being called on account of darkness, was more interesting. Young pitched well until the last inning, when Cincinnati fell upon his delivery for six hits, and this, combined with two errors, allowed them to score five runs and win the game. The attendance at to-day's games was 11,532; total receipts, $328,550; players' share, $282,250; club's share, $192,325; National Commission's share, $32,500. The scores:

VARSITY WIN ARGOS ROSE MCGILL DEFEAT QUEENS

Montreal Victorians in Close Game at Ottawa—All the Rugby Fes Tied.

Varsity had no trouble defeating Ottawa College at Rosedale Saturday by the score of 35-1, the score by quarters being: 1-0, 1-0, 21-1 and 25-1.

The local college team were superior in every department of the game, and the line showed wonderful improvement over the game the week previous with McGill, and this was due, no doubt, to the careful work of the coaching staff. Varsity were forced to make a few changes owing to injuries received the week before. Kitchener was replaced inside right by Clark, a former O. A. C. player. Mike Kennedy played right outside wing in place of Murray Thompson, whose injured ankle prevented his appearance. Dixon was moved from full-back to centre-half, and Gage from centre-half to full-back, giving Maynard the intermediate duty of full-back. The last-mentioned player made good with a vengeance, particularly so after Red Dixon injured his ankle and was forced to retire. He showed he had the ability to make a great player; his running could not have been improved on; also his tackling was excellent. Whether in defensive or offensive, he always played excellent football, and his run in last quarter from centre field thru the line, breaking through the line for a try was of the sensational order. He also converted three out of the five tries he got during the game. His scoring record for the afternoon was two touch-downs and three converted tries, giving him 18 points to his credit—no bad for an intercollegiate just breaking into senior college football. He was steady and reliable, and his kicks were big ground-grainers for his team. He also showed good judgment in his kicking, and he was always ready to do the game very long, as he certainly will be missed. Gage was used up on the end of the afternoon, and is certainly a promising player. Time and again he played of opponents. Time and again he plunged thru the line and forced the other side to give ground. He was steady and reliable, and his kicks were big ground-grainers for his team. MONDAY MORNING, OCT. 17, 1910.

NO COMMITMENT MEANTIME.

Attempts to compromise North Toronto in the matter of its public franchises have not been relaxed. The Interurban Light and Power Company, which is nothing but a subsidiary organization of the Toronto Electric Light Company, has made a proposition to the town by which it hopes to secure a new franchise in the municipality for ten years, and probably by careful wording of the agreement to establish ultimately a claim that such is perpetual. The terms proposed by the Interurban Company are on the surface exceedingly liberal. They offer to provide light at the same prices as that ruling in the city, and at the same time to throw in gratis the lighting of the town hall. But it is doubtful if the bait will be sufficiently attractive to induce the council to commit themselves to a deal.

North Toronto must preserve its rights and liberties untrammelled, and steadily refuse to negotiate with any corporation until the people have been heard from in the matter of annexation to the city. If North Toronto wants light and power, there is only one satisfactory way to get it, and that is from the hydro-electric commission, either thru the city or directly from the government organization. By taking electricity from a public undertaking all danger of future trouble is removed and the interests of the municipality will be effectively safeguarded.

WAIT FOR THE VOTE.

Pending the result of the vote on the subject of annexation to the city, no new departure should be made modifying the present position of North Toronto as regards its public franchises. If the vote is favorable, these will become part of the greater problem the city is now considering, and it would be distinctly objectionable if any enlargement of the existing grants is authorized. This is an aspect of the situation which should determine the attitude of the Provincial Municipal and Railway Board towards the application for power to double track Yonge-street, made by the Radial Railway Company, really the Toronto Street Railway Company. The company's move has been prompted by the desire to anticipate annexation and to make it more difficult for the enlarged city to deal properly with the transportation problem. Common fairness requires that the application be held in abeyance until the annexation vote is taken.

THE CITY AND THE LIGHT COMPANY.

There will be no dissent from the action or non-action of the board of control over the letter of the Toronto Electric Light Company, signifying the willingness of the company to sell. The city has made various overtures, and been rebuffed. For the first time the company seems to have had a glimmer of the light of reason, and has headed itself in the right direction. But it will have to do more than get its head in the right direction. It must make some move. It must have some idea of what it wants for itself. It must be prepared to make an offer with a little more than a mere glimmer of reason about it. There must be a business basis for negotiations, and there must be a realization of the fact that the city has been compelled by the obstinacy of the company to do a great deal of work that renders the company's assets of much less value than they were some years ago, not to speak of the deterioration of the company's plant due to ordinary causes.

The officials of the company know the conditions thoroughly well. They are under no delusions. Sir Henry Bellatt is as well aware of the present worth of the Toronto Electric Light Company's plant as any man alive. He must not suppose that the city has any delusions about it either. If he wants to sell, he must be prepared to regard the proposal as indifferently and as judicially and with as little prejudice as if he were going to buy. What would Sir Henry offer for the company if he were going to buy it, instead of trying to sell it? It would enable negotiations to begin if Sir Henry would propound his views on that basis.

Meanwhile, why has Toronto not the power that a commercial corporation has to acquire stock in the Electric Light Company in the open market? If the city could buy the stock thru a broker, the matter could be settled probably in a short time. It is firm like Messrs. Osler, Hammond & Co. were entrusted with the task of getting control of the company's stock, would it be impossible for them to do so? We believe that solution of the problem should have been available for some years.

Sir James Whitney has stated that government intervention may be necessary if the city and the company do not get together. Let him give the city power to purchase the common stock of the company in the open market, and the stock of any other similar company which the trend of the times must inevitably bring under city control eventually, and many municipal difficulties would be removed. Sir James is not adverse to having the Toronto Electric Light Company absorbed by the city. Can there be a fairer or easier method than the ordinary commercial method?

The Electric Light Company was permitted to absorb its rival to the detriment of the citizens and in defiance of the plain agreement made with the city. No violence will be done to any interest if the city is allowed to act as any individual might act and as many corporations are allowed to act.

If Sir James will not consent to this, he must at least see the reasonableness of having the company approach the city, which has so often sued to no purpose.

Hon. George E. is a brave man. He is coming back, he says, in spite of what happened to Jeffries. Moving picture men please take notice.

Premier Whitney's statement looks like an effort to clear Hon. Dr. Reame. Mr. Malsonville's statement does not clash with that view. Perhaps the general doctor will now tell what he knows.

OFFERING OF SHARES

A. E. Ames & Co. Limited, Make Public Offer of $650,000 Pacific-Burt Company, Limited, 7 Per Cent. Cumulative Convertible Preference Stock, With Bonus of Common Shares.

An advertisement that will receive consideration not only because of its own character, but because of the standing of the firm subscribing to it, is published in our advertising columns to-day. A. E. Ames & Co., Limited, offer $650,000 of the 7 per cent. cumulative convertible preference stock of the Pacific-Burt Company, Limited, carrying a bonus of 25 per cent. of the amount of the preference stock in common shares. The nature of the business is fully outlined in the advertisement, the Pacific-Burt Company, Limited, being a company newly chartered under the laws of the Province of Ontario, taking over a profitable and going concern—the Pacific Manufacturing Book Company of Emeryville (San Francisco, California). The scope of the new company's business is a continuation of the Pacific Manufacturing Company's business, with the addition of a "Burt" department, which latter, it is expected, will, in the course of a few years, become a most important earner.

Ames & Co. state that they expect a hearty response to the advertisement for a number of reasons, amongst them being the strength of the company and its prospects, the indicated return as from January 1 next of 7 1/2 per cent. on the amount of the investment, the favorable market for the stock in private hands, and the record of the F. H. Burt Company, Limited, four of whose directors are on the board of the Pacific-Burt Company.

LIBERALISM AND THE CORPORATIONS.

Editor World: I have noticed, with some surprise I must confess, the light you are making for the people's ownership of public utilities. This surprise is further augmented by the fact that The Hamilton Times is making so strong a fight to continue these monopolies in private hands. I must also confess that my knowledge of these facts is almost wholly derived from the columns of The Times. That is, of both your stand and its opposition almost my whole knowledge is derived from The Times' columns. Its position—The Times—must be a source of daily surprise to the old time Liberals, who remember Gardiner! How the party, as a party of the people, can continue to influence public opinion seriously, is something of a mystery—that is, and continue to regard The Times as its organ! The head and front of all grafters in our American cities, and the main corruptors of our councils and local politicians, are the public service corporations, and the most glaring instances of "watered" securities, upon which these corporations force the public to pay interest, are to be found amongst them. I can hardly even say that the Street Trust, whose "graft" on the public, by reason of tariff, is a more glaring instance, altho Andy Carnegie refused to take any of the preferred or common stock in exchange for his property (holding that both of these were pure "water"), and demanded bonds. My interest would not, at this time, have influenced me to write you, had

THE UNIVERSITY SERMON

In an address which might fairly be described as keenly analytical, Dr. G. Johnson Rosa, of the noted Bryn Mawr College for women at Philadelphia, was the speaker in the "University" sermon at the Convocation Hall yesterday morning. Was the united worship justified? Was the pertinent query which he put forward at the outset in line of a Biblical text. We supposed the student mind assumed different attitudes towards the service. Some advocated, some doubted, and some were indignant. It was the ordinary student to decide for himself, and if he thought it unjustified, to cease his attendance. There were areas of educated life in which social worship did not commend itself. The secretary of a class which graduated at Harvard 15 years ago had written to the members as to their religious affiliations. Many had replied that they had abandoned social worship because it had ceased to interest. These were not men leading detached academic lives, but men of action. "Social worship seemed to them to be something verbal, not transactional, wherein what was being said but nothing was being done," explained the speaker.

Everyone had been impressed with the tremendous enthusiasm shown at the recent Ecumenical Congress. At the heart of it was the extraordinary power of the mass. In the mass something was supposed to be being done, the sense of being present at the last act in the grand drama of the world, in the way of sacrifice. Social worship could never appeal to many until it was gotten out of the area of the individual and made to appear a vital transaction with a reflex action on the personal life.

It should be acknowledged that when one came to worship, he came to pay a just debt, and he reached that period of life thru living upon the strength that was not his own. People of different creeds were united in belief that they were a body of consecrated trustees, and that they had received their knowledge thru humanity round about, but where did humanity receive its strength but from the source of power called God?

Thanksgiving pleasure and peace should not be verbal but an actual thing. Thanksgiving ought to unfold itself as something of a faith, not the reiterating of the words of the old songs, but as a new song. Those who most frequently assist with their broadening inspirations and aspirations were the men who made the most of life. Their relationship to God should come to us as a revelation of His goodness. Standards of life and conduct were elusive things. The habit of comparing ourselves with others and looking back into our lives, had the effect of gradually lowering all standards of conduct. Those were moments "when we wished to God we were other people, the whole of us cleaned out." These moments did not come often, and it was well for one's sanity that they did not. But those moments were curious enough. The result of refreshment and "being-in-itself" duty of social worship was to provide for and induce such moments. They came more often in the solitude of public worship than in the solitude of one's room. The Bible was a treasure house of this kind of thought. The words of Jesus, "What I am you may become," were strong in appeal.

Social worship had the great value of enabling people to recognize one another as engaged in the same quest for God. The proper attitude towards one's fellows was one in which the externals could be forgotten, leaving only the thought that all alike needed power.

Two classes were in danger of losing the world view of sympathy: the industrial slaves and the intellectual opportunists. Social worship gave the latter in its most sympathetic mood. Such worship was the thing to be most depended upon to strengthen a man's life, but it was not always a pleasure, as the services could not always be found conducted by men of intellectual strength.

Public Amusements

Unquestionable success attended the experiment of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra on Saturday evening of giving a popular concert, and we may look forward in the future to the establishment of a regular series of such concerts annually. The audience in Association Hall was a thoroughly encouraging one for the beginning, and only a few seats under the gallery at the back were vacant, so that for next Saturday, when another program will be given, application for tickets will have to be made early.

The concert fulfilled its first mission in being thoroughly popular, and yet, such as the taste and knowledge of Frank Weisman, the conductor, every item was of the highest class. Indeed, the most popular and highly-applauded piece was perhaps the most truly classical number on the program. This was Beethoven's lovely "Minuet" for viola and piano, delightfully rendered by Frank Converse Smith and Frank Weisman. The leading phrases of the music hall song "Won't You Harmonize With Me" are stolen from this composition, which Mr. Smith rendered with subtle and vibrant feeling and restrained power. The audience was carried away and applauded most persistently until the minuet was repeated. Mr. Smith also played a charming andantino from an Italian suite of Edmund Severly, and this was almost equally well received. David Ross secured the favor of the audience by his singing of "Dio Possente," from Gounod's "Faust." The orchestra accompanied in quite the grandest of grand opera styles. It was done with vitality and spirit. In Clara's setting of Kingsley's "Bands of Des" Mr. Ross sang with tragic fervor and displayed much originality of interpretation with true feeling. Hatton's animated "Wild Me to Live and I Will Live Thy Protestant to be," was given with brilliant dash and gained an encore, which Mr. Ross acknowledged in the bright little trifle, "Dr. Magin."

The orchestra played perfectly. They were well in hand and apparently indifferently familiar with their score. The opening number was the overture to Nicola's "Merry Wives of Windsor." The glowing warmth of the opening passages was given with cordial fervor, and the sprightly movements following were rendered with freedom and animation. Schumann's "Träumerei" was wonderfully successful as an encore, the unanimity and color in the reeds deserving the compliment, but the repetition was reserved for Laubert's "Sabade Primitivo," a most delightful composition full of the joyous animation of springtime, and performed with exceeding daintiness. Dvorak's lovely largo, "From the New World," was repeated at the next concert. It was a very triumph for the orchestra. The large represents the courtship of Hiawatha, and is of a pastoral nature, replete with subdued feeling. The exquisite scoring for the muted strings and the passionate clarinet music form a wonderfully seductive contrast, and the sprightly oboe leads to the full chords of the brass, which soften into lovely movements. Rossini's overture to "William Tell" closed the program and the picturesque and romantic music held everybody all the while when the applause was enthusiastic.

The Imperial Russian Ballet, headed by Mile. Anna Pavlova and Mile. Mikhail Mordkin, who will appear at Massey Hall next Thursday, afternoon and evening, includes a group of character dancers as the chief support of the faience. A complete corps de ballet, and an orchestra recruited from the membership of the Metropolitan Opera House Orchestra, with Theodore Sler, the London conductor, making an organization of about seventy people.

In order to approach an adequate description of the performances the term "secular opera" has been coined. In justification, it may be said that the ballet as presented in Russia approximates "visual opera." Entire programs, consisting of dancing only, are given throughout the seasons, the participants are graduates of government schools, where the course of instruction covers a number of years; dramas, sketches, operas—call them what you like—are written especially for interpretation thru choreography, and in consequence of all this the ballet has reached a stage of perfection in Russia that has caused it to be adopted as the national art of the country.

Anna Pavlova and Mikhail Mordkin are acknowledged to be the greatest living exponents of that art. Their programs include many creations of the type just referred to, of which "Giselle" is an excellent example, as is also "Le Lac des Cygnes." The former is a story dealing with the tragic love of Giselle and her lover, Albert. After the death of Albert, Albert appears at her grave to mourn and is confronted by his lost sweetheart in the form of a sylphide. Albert pursues her, but she is fated to a mortal to dance with a sylphide, she slides him and he dies of a broken heart. The narrative is elaborated by a curious imposed upon Giselle which condemns her to appear for ever, a naughtily spirit, hence her appearance in the graveyard when Count Albert comes to mourn. In the background, throughout this action, is the sinister figure of the unwelcome huntsman, Erlon, who intrudes himself upon the midnight dance of the sylphide and loses his life as a penalty.

Starting in New York October 15, a tour to the Pacific coast and back must be completed in less than ten weeks. In consequence, the only cities given more than one day in the wild flight are Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles. The prices for this attraction are from $50 to $100. For the matinee performance there are 600 seats at $1.50 and 600 at $1.00 and 600 rush seats at 50 cents.

The management of the Alexandra Theatre, in announcing for this week commencing to-night, a new attraction, the famous English comedienne, Wedson Grossmith, who accompanied by his own London company, will be seen in Mr. Carton's sensational three-act farce, "Mr. Freely and the Countess." The organization is to be brought here in its entirety. The only matinee will be on Saturday.

THEFT OF A CHATELAINE

Charged Up Against Young Woman Who Had It With Her.

Because she was found in possession of a chateleine which contained $1.82 and a gold watch, and which was identified as the property of the late MARY ANN McDONALD, about 11 o'clock on Tuesday, Oct. 12, at 2 p.m., she was charged with the theft.

The owner of the bag was shopping in Max Samuels' dry goods store, 11 East Queen-st., and she had put it down while she went to the rear of the store to look at some other goods.

Miss McDonald, except the clerks, was the only party in the store, and when the girl returned and found her chateleine was gone, the policeman was notified immediately.

He followed Miss McDonald down the street and arrested her.

While Clifford Gardner's wife was standing talking to another man on Gerrard-st., Saturday evening, her husband walked up to her and is alleged to have struck her a blow over the eye, which laid her out on the pavement, stunned.

BISHOP FALLON PUTS IT UP TO RESUME

With him, I stated my views before the public, and gave him certain facts because, in common with his colleagues in the Ontario cabinet, he is the guardian of public education, and not only my diocese in a deplorable condition, but, if any attention were to be given to the preposterous demands of the Ottawa French-Canadian Congress, it threatened to become more deplorable still.

"I wanted Mr. Hanna to use the information I gave him, and which seemed to astonish him, in any way he pleased. At the same time, I must say that his statements, as published, and particularly in regard to my meeting of the bishops of Ontario, which, in fact, had no basis at all, conveys an impression in several places that does not agree with my remembrance of the conversation.

Reaffirms His Position. "But, on the main issue, Mr. Hanna stated my views with absolute exactitude, and I desire to reaffirm them. The alleged bilingual system of education, as it prevails in certain parts of the Province of Ontario, is absolutely futile as concerning the teaching of either English or French, and utterly hostile to the interests of the children, both English and French. Let me cite a few facts, culled from a multitude that I have collected on my tour through the diocese of London.

"The French-Canadian parishes of Belle River, Big Point, French settlement, McGregor, Ruscombe, Staples, Stony Point, Painscourt and Tilbury with eighteen separate schools, and over two thousand children on the rolls, passed a total of ten pupils at their recent entrance examinations. It is from some of these parishes that the loudest noise comes regarding my insistence that these conditions are a disgrace.

Public Schools Worse. "If the separate schools in these districts are bad, the public schools, also under the alleged bilingual system, are worse. For in the above mentioned districts, the public schools succeeded in getting only seven children through the entrance examination, of which Tilbury furnished four, McGregor, Big Point and Painscourt one each, and the others none. And I could cite many other instances of acute inefficiency. All these facts have been supplied to me over their own signatures by the pastors of the parishes I have named.

"Is it any wonder that I should raise my voice on behalf of all the children who live in what might be called the bilingual belt of my diocese? And is it not monstrous that for so doing I should be charged with hostility to the French language, and to the interests of the French-Canadian people? In the schools the French language is not properly taught or decently spoken. The regulations of the education department are in many instances utterly defective. Because of the conditions that prevail, children are either sent to school at all, or are withdrawn in the face of the difficulties.

Astonishing Iliteracy. "During my present confirmation tour of the French-Canadian parishes in Essex County, said to me in the presence of witnesses: That on Monday, August 23, from 11 to 15 years of age) can neither read nor write. Every year since I came here I have offered a gold medal to the child who could read and write a grammar examination. Not one has ever passed.

"Another pastor made an equally appalling statement to me regarding the illiteracy of his children. Adjacent to a certain number of French-Canadians, led by noisy agitators; on the other side are also French-Canadians in no small numbers, together with the rest of the population of the Province of Ontario, without distinction of creed or nationality. And let me hazard the prophecy that, when this second Division awakes to the gravity of the situation, it will make short work of an alleged bilingual school system, which teaches neither English nor French, encourages incompetency, gives a prize to hypocrisy, and breeds ignorance.

(Signed) M. Fallon, Bishop of London.

The alleged bilingual system of education, as it prevails in certain parts of the Province of Ontario, is absolutely futile as concerning the teaching of either English or French, and utterly hostile to the interests of the children, both English and French. Let me cite a few facts, culled from a multitude that I have collected on my tour through the diocese of London.

"The French-Canadian parishes of Belle River, Big Point, French settlement, McGregor, Ruscombe, Staples, Stony Point, Painscourt and Tilbury with eighteen separate schools, and over two thousand children on the rolls, passed a total of ten pupils at their recent entrance examinations. It is from some of these parishes that the loudest noise comes regarding my insistence that these conditions are a disgrace.

Public Schools Worse. "If the separate schools in these districts are bad, the public schools, also under the alleged bilingual system, are worse. For in the above mentioned districts, the public schools succeeded in getting only seven children through the entrance examination, of which Tilbury furnished four, McGregor, Big Point and Painscourt one each, and the others none. And I could cite many other instances of acute inefficiency. All these facts have been supplied to me over their own signatures by the pastors of the parishes I have named.

"Is it any wonder that I should raise my voice on behalf of all the children who live in what might be called the bilingual belt of my diocese? And is it not monstrous that for so doing I should be charged with hostility to the French language, and to the interests of the French-Canadian people? In the schools the French language is not properly taught or decently spoken. The regulations of the education department are in many instances utterly defective. Because of the conditions that prevail, children are either sent to school at all, or are withdrawn in the face of the difficulties.

Astonishing Iliteracy. "During my present confirmation tour of the French-Canadian parishes in Essex County, said to me in the presence of witnesses: That on Monday, August 23, from 11 to 15 years of age) can neither read nor write. Every year since I came here I have offered a gold medal to the child who could read and write a grammar examination. Not one has ever passed.

"Another pastor made an equally appalling statement to me regarding the illiteracy of his children. Adjacent to a certain number of French-Canadians, led by noisy agitators; on the other side are also French-Canadians in no small numbers, together with the rest of the population of the Province of Ontario, without distinction of creed or nationality. And let me hazard the prophecy that, when this second Division awakes to the gravity of the situation, it will make short work of an alleged bilingual school system, which teaches neither English nor French, encourages incompetency, gives a prize to hypocrisy, and breeds ignorance.

(Signed) M. Fallon, Bishop of London.

WILL GO OVER THE F L S

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Robert Leach will attempt to go over the falls in a patented lifeboat, the invention of James Mitchell of Arroyo Lake, Manitoa. The inventor wrote Leach, offering the use of the boat, and Leach to-night wired his acceptance. The trip will be made as soon as the craft arrives here.

His inventor is 80 years old and wrote Leach that he would make the trip himself if he were not so old.

LORD KITCHENER

Has Accepted Position on the Committee of Imperial Defence.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The government has invited Field Marshal Lord Kitchener to become a member of the committee on imperial defence, and he has accepted. This removes a long-standing cause of agitation on account of the non-employment of General Kitchener in the Province of Ontario, since he resigned the Mediterranean command.

CANDIDATES FOR NAVY.

OTTAWA, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Sixty young Canadians, the majority from the maritime provinces have signified their intention of writing in the competitive exams for cadetship in the Canadian naval service. The list closed on Tuesday. Thirty cadets will be accepted the first year and fifteen in the second year only to the Toronto Rowing Club.

Owing to an error in making up the returns of the Canadian Rifle League, Cadet Sergeant Young of Quebec High School was declared winner of section 2 (cadets under 19), and the prize actually presented to him by Earl Grey.

A similar mistake has been rectified and declares Capt. Devitt of Harbord "best in order" in section 1 (cadets over 19), and his name now appears in place of that of Cadet Mallett of Dundas.

THEFT OF A CHATELAINE

Charged Up Against Young Woman Who Had It With Her.

Because she was found in possession of a chateleine which contained $1.82 and a gold watch, and which was identified as the property of the late MARY ANN McDONALD, about 11 o'clock on Tuesday, Oct. 12, at 2 p.m., she was charged with the theft.

The owner of the bag was shopping in Max Samuels' dry goods store, 11 East Queen-st., and she had put it down while she went to the rear of the store to look at some other goods.

Miss McDonald, except the clerks, was the only party in the store, and when the girl returned and found her chateleine was gone, the policeman was notified immediately.

process would begin on Saturday night, but it was decided to wait. It may take 12 to 14 days to bring the water level up to the normal, but as there is no heavy demand on the pumping capacity at present, the probability is that shorter time will be needed. The pumps should, at least be able to pump 100,000 gallons a day more than the consumption, and the surplus will pass into the big basin, the bottom of which has been entirely concreted, although a little work is still required on the sides.

CANADA AS A FIELD FOR ARCHAEOLOGICAL RESEARCH

It is in Our Western Territory That Traces Must Be Sought of America's Earliest Inhabitants.

Dr. Mitchell Carroll of Geo. Washington University, Washington, D.C., general secretary of the Archaeological Institute of America, Saturday evening addressed a meeting of the members and friends of the local society at the residence of President E. B. Oeler, M.P., Beau-road. Dr. Carroll is concluding a series of visits to the Canadian branches, including one recently formed at Quebec. The total membership in Canada is around 900. The subject of his address was, "Thirty Years in Archaeological Achievement," covering the history of the Institute. When the Institute had been formed, first of all, its primary object had been to stem the flood of vulgarities that had been spreading over the United States. For thirty years it had contributed to the higher culture of the country, seeking to bring home to the people that inherent love of beauty which had characterized the ancient Greeks. The Institute had gone back to the work of the old Greeks and Romans to find a correct standard of art, which it had endeavored at all times to sustain.

The Institute, he pointed out, encourages every form of artistic endeavor. He referred to the present as a great time for interest in civic improvement. The speaker had recently visited Halifax and Quebec, and had found in both cities enthusiasm for civic improvement. At Quebec the citizens were enthusiastic over Earl Grey's suggestions for the beautification of the historic battlefields. "You are anxious to make Ottawa a city beautiful," he said, "and if you will look for your ideals of beauty to the study of archaeology, I am quite sure that before long you will make us in Washington look to our laurels."

Has Many Branches. The Archaeological Institute of America, explained Dr. Carroll, as it grew in influence, and in numerical strength, had gradually extended its interests to other countries and had formed branches in some of the cities in the old world. A few years ago, at Toronto, a proposal to form a Canadian department had been made. The work had been started, and had gone forward rapidly. To-day, there were branches of the Institute in Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto, Kingston, Halifax, St. John, Winnipeg and Quebec.

Dr. Carroll proceeded, with the aid of a large number of excellent lantern slides, to show the work of the Archaeological Institute of America in Southern Europe, the Holy Land, and in North America. He showed views of the Institute's buildings in which the study of archaeology is carried on, and described the mysteries of that most interesting of work of the Institute. He described the work of the Institute at the schools of classical learning, established at Athens (1888), Rome (1886), and Jerusalem (1900), of which latter Prof. McCurdy of Toronto is to be director for 1911. The value of these schools to the teaching profession was shown. He also spoke of the contributions to American archaeology established at Santa Fe, New Mexico, and the projected explorations in the excavations of the city of ancient Cyrene, North Africa.

Canada Prolific Field. Dr. Carroll prophesied that Canada would be a prolific field for excavation in the future, as it was to Western Canada that the archaeologist must look for the remains of the earliest inhabitants of America. Dr. Carroll paid a great compliment to Canadian universities when he made mention of the many Canadians who go to the United States for post-graduate work in the American universities and, almost invariably, carry off the

BANK OF HAMILTON

Business Banking

The policy of the Bank of Hamilton, in directing the lending of Over Thirty-five Million Dollars of funds entrusted to its care, is to provide, first of all, as liberal and elastic Banking Accommodation to Canadian Merchants and Manufacturers as the standing and need of each individual account will permit. Security of loan is essential where Trust Funds are cared for; but, subject to legitimate requirements, and satisfactory security, the Bank of Hamilton is both willing; and able, to extend to Merchant or Manufacturer of good repute—whether large or small—every Banking assistance and accommodation that the fluctuating requirements of his business may demand.

Railway News.

If the hopes of the men who control the charter of the Southern Ontario Pacific Railway are realized Hamilton will have another connection with Guelph by a steam railway before John Patterson gets his electric line built, says The Hamilton Times. The Southern Pacific charter was granted fifteen years or more ago. At that time a number of Hamilton capitalists were interested in it. Now word comes from Ottawa that the present holders of the charter will apply to parliament at its next session for permission to build the road from Guelph to Hamilton. It is believed that the Canadian Pacific Railway is behind the move. It is well known that the

C.P.R. is anxious to connect Hamilton with Guelph. It had figured on taking over the Hamilton and Guelph Junction line, for which local men hold the charter. There is no immediate prospect of this road being built, however, altho its route thru the manufacturing section has been approved by the council.

Disappointed in Love, Succeeded. FORT FRANCES, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Annie McGinnes committed suicide by throwing herself into the canal here Friday evening. She was employed at the home of John Tighe, and left a note for Mrs. Tighe, saying: "May God forgive me, good-by." The cause of the rash act was disappointment in love.

The striking French railwaymen have been awarded the $1 a day minimum wage they demanded, beginning Jan. 1 next.

HARRY LIVINGSTONE BURIED

Many Newspapermen Attend Funeral of Globe Editor.

Many friends, including representatives of all the city papers, attended the funeral of the late Harry Livingstone of the editorial staff of The Globe, which was held from the residence of his brother at 184 D'Arcy street at 2.30 Saturday afternoon.

The services were conducted by Rev. James Murray, pastor of Ereskine Presbyterian Church, and interment was in Prospect Cemetery.

Numerous funeral tributes bore witness to the universal esteem in which the late Mr. Livingstone was held by his many friends. These included those sent by the Toronto Press Club, from all the newspaper offices and many personal tributes.

Among those who attended the funeral were: Wm. Houston, Wm. Banks, Jr., Wm. W. Anderson, J. Pritchard, W. K. Parkhurst, Chas. Blue and practically every member of The Globe editorial staff; Oliver Ross, Murdoch Macdonald, Ed. Mulline, C. L. Clarke, C. W. McGriggall of The Mail and Empire; H. J. P. Good of The World; Hector Charlesworth of Saturday Night; Alfred Robson, vice-pres. of the Press Club; H. B. Guest of The News; Arthur Wallis, Ed. Coombe, Frank G. Morley, Harvey Beatty, Chas. Daniels and Roden Kingsmill.

LESS SIN, LESS DISEASE

"Is faith cure a fraud?"

Rev. Dr. Hincks of Broadway Tabernacle says "no," and gathered the thoughts of his last evening's discourse around the words: "Wilt thou be made whole? . . . Behold, thou art made whole; sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee." He worked out psychologically the connection between the activity of the soul and that of the body, similar to the relationship between the nerve centres and the brain. He believed that sin was to a great extent the chief cause of most sickness, and expressed his belief that if sickness of the body were lessened by about 85 per cent.

Great stress was laid on the dominating attitude of the mind in making the body experience its various sensations. Dr. Hincks instanced case after case where the body experienced pain that was not local; but merely had located itself strongly in the mind. The pastor stated that he knew people who could smell coal oil out of a lamp just out of the glass works, and others that received electric shocks from batteries when the electric current was turned off.

The moral drawn was that the mind should be kept so full of pure thoughts that the experiences of the body would be in accord with them.

THE general public does not often acknowledge a debt of gratitude to the college boy, particularly at this season, when Hallowe'en looms ominously ahead.

But the present popularity of the COLLEGE ULSTER with all classes of men is certainly an acknowledgement that something sensible has been evolved, if not by the college lad, at least in his name.

Since the first show of our new College Ulsters, there has been a steady demand for them by MEN OF ALL AGES. They all like the good comfort as well as the good appearance of these weather-proof ulsters, and the range of patterns is such that a patriarch may be as well suited as a freshman.

Men's Winter Ulsters

Men's Heavy Weight Winter Ulsters, made from a fancy tweed ulstering, in dark mixtures, with self and fancy colored stripes; cut from the latest double-breasted models, with convertible collar, which can be worn with lapels turned down or buttoned close up to the throat; also in a heavy black cheviot made up in college ulster style, with neat stand-up military collar; splendidly tailored, and lined throughout with strong, durable linings; sizes 35 to 44. Tuesday, $12.50.

Men's Heavy Scotch Tweed Ulsters, in a dark brown and olive mixed ground, showing fancy red stripes, cut from the stylish double-breasted models, with the new fashionable convertible collar, which can be worn with lapels turned down, or in stormy weather buttoned close up to the throat, with neat military collar, nicely tailored, and finished with good quality serge linings and haircloth, and thoroughly shrunk canvas interlinings, perfect fitting; sizes 35 to 44. Price Tuesday, $18.00.

Derby and Soft Hats

Men's Derby Hats, latest fall and winter styles, in fine grade English fur felt; colors black, brown and London tan. Regular $2.00 hats. Tuesday, 98c.

Men's Soft Hats, correct shapes, in fawns, browns, greys, greens, etc., also black; fine quality fur felt. Regular $2.00. Tuesday, 98c.

Warmer Togs for Men

Men's Good Quality Flannelette and Cashmerette Pyjamas, made double-breast style, silk frogs and white pearl buttons. Special Tuesday, $1.49.

Men's Newest Neglige Shirts, in the latest colors and designs, good quality materials, well finished, and made extra large in the body, small American cuffs. Special Tuesday, 75c.

Men's Winter Weight Heavy Rib Cotton Underwear, velvet finish, nicely trimmed, a garment that will give good, hard wear; colors are tan, blue and ecru; all sizes to 46. Special Tuesday, 69c.

Men's Heaviest Sweater Coats, fancy stitch fronts and down sleeves, made with high double-knitted collar, fastens at neck with four cords and buttons; colors are plain grey, grey trimmed with royal green or navy. Special Tuesday, $4.00.
