GEN. MEWBURN NAMED AS SUCCESSOR TO KEMP

Adjutant-General Said to Have Already Taken Office, Sir Edward Kemp Going to Customs Department—Reid to Become Minister of Railways—Laurier in Toronto on Monday.

The Old Cabinet and Changes Made or Likely to Be in New One

The Borden government as it stood a few days ago and before the retirement of Hon. Robert Rogers was made up of the following ministers, officials and political heads of departments without cabinet rank, distributed geographically from east to west as follows: Maritime Representatives: Borden; First minister and president of the privy council. Hazen; Marine and fisheries. Quebec Representatives: Doherty; Justice. Perley; Canadian high commissioner. Blondin; postmaster-general. Sevigny; inland revenue. Ontario Representatives: Mewburn; Militia and defence. White; Finance. Reid; (probably) Railways. Kemp; (probably) Customs. Gauthier; Solicitor-General (without portfolio). Foster; (probably) With or without portfolio and leader of senate. Of the Ontario men in the cabinet before the reorganization began, Hon. F. Cochrane will probably be chairman of the board of directors of the Canadian Northern. Mr. Crothers will probably go on the bench. Prairie and B.C. Representatives: Rogers; public works. Roche; interior. Burrell; agriculture. Melchen; solicitor-general. Lousheed; (without portfolio), (leader of senate). This included seventeen ministers of cabinet rank, two political heads of departments, an acting high commissioner, and the officials produced in such numbers. Mr. W. J. Hanna, food controller, made this announcement tonight as the outcome of several conferences with representatives of all branches of the milling trade. Every mill with a capacity of 100 barrels of flour or more per day must take out a license from the food controller. The licensing will be optional with mills with a capacity between 50 and 100 barrels per day. Every licensed establishment must submit each month a detailed sworn statement of costs of manufacture and profits on sales. Failure to comply with any of the regulations may result in suspension or cancellation of license. Three Standard Grades. Mr. Hanna also stated that he would select and approve three standard grades of flour and that all licensed mills would be required to manufac-

More Than Forty-Four Hundred Germans Are Taken Prisoner in Haig's Latest Drive—Positions Have Been Consolidated—King Telegraphs His Congratulations.

London, Oct. 5.—The British official communication issued tonight announces that comparative quiet prevailed Friday on the Ypres sector. Prisoners to the number of 4446, among them 114 officers, have been taken by the British. The communication of this evening says: "No important infantry fighting occurred on the battle front today. Our troops have consolidated their positions. There is nothing to report from the remainder of the front. "The number of prisoners taken since yesterday morning amount to 4446, including 114 officers." The earlier official report said: "A hostile raiding party endeavored to enter our trenches last night north of Gouzeaucourt, but was driven off with loss by rifle and machine gun fire. Three other raids were attempted by the enemy in the neighborhood of Lens. All three were repulsed, in one case after a very hard fight. The King has telegraphed congratulations to Sir Douglas Haig for his leadership and the efficiency and courage of his troops." Consolidate Positions. Tonight's Associated Press report from the British front, says: "The sun came out after a night of rain, and the British were rapidly consolidating their positions. The positions that were the fruit of one of the most important conquests of the war. The night was comparatively calm as far as infantry action was concerned. The enemy, however, concentrated an intense artillery fire upon the entire battle front, and during yesterday afternoon and evening they smashed their shattered troops at various places for counter-attacks. They were attacked by our troops, and in almost every case the onrushing waves of German infantry were caught in a heavy artillery, machine gun and rifle fire and crushed before they reached their objectives. The German artillery fire was particularly heavy up to midnight along the section just north of the Menin road in the vicinity of Polderhoek. In the afternoon and evening the enemy

Enemy Has Reeled Back About Three Miles Mostly Uphill, As Result of Three Staggering Blows Dealt by British in Two Weeks.

London, Oct. 5.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency).—Telegraphing today from British headquarters in France Reuter's correspondent says: "The fruits of yesterday's victory have been held. No infantry counter-attacks occurred during the night time, demonstrating the German exhaustion, due to the manner in which their big offensive was devastated yesterday morning and our reception of the enemy's eight counter-attacks yesterday. "Five of these counter-attacks were made against a short front to the north of the Ypres-Menin road, being broken up by artillery. Three were delivered against our new positions near Reutel. Two of these were beaten back, but the third advanced in great strength late in the afternoon, bending back our line slightly, necessitating, however, only a trifling modification of the front which has absolutely no bearing on the general tactical results achieved. "Within a fortnight we have struck the enemy in Flanders three staggering blows in a very vital spot, bent him back reeling about three miles, mostly uphill. "A better appreciation of these victories is possible if we can imagine what we should be thinking and saying if the situation were reversed and the enemy had succeeded in doing to us what we have done to him. "A notable feature of the fighting was the wonderful completeness of the arrangements for rapidly clearing the wounded. Despite the inclement weather, stretcher-bearing was practically finished early in the afternoon as far as the open field was concerned. "Among the haul of prisoners is a larger proportion of mere boys than in any previous battle. "One regiment from a Russian front caused a panic by shouting the English were on them and bolting."

Big National Railway To Be Run Efficiently

Canadian Northern, Intercolonial and Transcontinental Railways With Telegraph and Express Systems to Be Thoroughly Reorganized and Freed of Politics

Ottawa, Oct. 5.—Sir Thomas White, who had charge of the bill to take over the Canadian Northern, Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways and canals, and one or two other members of the cabinet have about framed up their proposals for the administration of that railway. The government is to retain the company form of the C.N.R., and will appoint a board of directors to take the place of the existing board and to run that road as a national service organization free of political interference. It is generally believed that Hon. Frank Cochrane will be chairman of the board. Sir William Mackenzie was here on Thursday. It is also believed that the agreement between the owners of the $50,000,000 of Canadian Northern stock and the government has been about completed; it is altogether on the lines of the act just put thru parliament, and will be a short document. The government have also about settled that the maximum amount which the arbitrators who are to settle compensation for the $60,000,000 of surrendered stock is not to exceed $15,000,000; it may be somewhat less, although the arbitrators may make it any sum below the maximum. Removed From Politics. It is also current here that the framework of the management and organization of the Canadian Northern, the Intercolonial and also the Transcontinental, and later on the Grand Trunk and the Great Northern Pacific, and make the whole one consolidated national railway under company form, entirely removed from politics, administered by a board of men specially appointed for that work, and the operation of the road be put in the hands of railway experts taken from the three systems. The name of D. B. Hanna, at present general manager of the Canadian Northern, is mentioned either as a member of the board of directors or as chief administrator of the consolidated system. It is also believed that A. J. Mitchell, of the C.N.R. financial department, fully posted as regards the internal affairs of that company, will also be associated with the new board or in the accounting and financial department. The policy of this consolidated national railway, telegraph and express system would be to promote the men and move them along the line as the public interest called for, and that all local claims for patronage would hereafter be ignored, and yet no one of them is to be a business administration by men trained to the business of traffic and telegraphs.

FLOUR MILLING PROFITS ARE LIMITED BY HANNA

Order of Food Controller Allowing Twenty-five Cents Per Barrel Becomes Effective Nov. 1, When He Will Fix Price to Consumers.

Ottawa, Oct. 5.—After Nov. 1 the net profits of Canadian millers will be limited to a maximum average of 25 cents on the milling of sufficient wheat to make a barrel of flour of 196 pounds and the offals produced in such milling. Hon. W. J. Hanna, food controller, made this announcement tonight as the outcome of several conferences with representatives of all branches of the milling trade. Every mill with a capacity of 100 barrels of flour or more per day must take out a license from the food controller. The licensing will be optional with mills with a capacity between 50 and 100 barrels per day. LITTLE ACTIVITY ON FRENCH FRONT

Two Surprise Attacks By the Enemy Near Chevreux Are Repulsed.

Paris, Oct. 5.—There is very little activity on the French front. In the Champagne district, to the west of the Navarin front, there was heavy artillery fire on both sides yesterday, according to the latest official statement issued by the French War Department. Two surprise attacks southwest of Chevreux were repulsed. The statement of the war office is as follows: "On the front of the Aisne, to the southeast of Chevreux and to the east of Derry, we repulsed two surprise attacks. In Champagne to the west of the Navarin front and in the region of the Meuse, there was reciprocal artillery activity. On the right bank of the Meuse our artillery caught under its fire, scattered in the region of the Bois-des-Carrières, enemy assemblages. "Army of the east, October 4: Calm prevailed along the front, except in the Cerna Bend and north of Montastie, where the cannonade has been rather spirited. "The afternoon's official statement says: "The enemy attempted without success several surprise attacks during the night, especially in Champagne east of the Butte de Souain and in upper Alsace, near Machelbach. "There was violent artillery action on the right bank of the Meuse in the region of Bezonvaux and Hill 944."

HELP ORGANIZATION OF CANADIAN LOAN

Men Who Made Success of Liberty Loan to Assist Government.

New York, Oct. 5.—In response to urgent appeals from government and banking officials of Canada, Gilbert B. Bogart and John J. Schumann, assistants to the executive secretary of the distribution committee of the liberty loan committee, will leave tomorrow for Montreal to confer with authorities of the Dominion and help to organize a patriotic popular loan subscription across the border. The Canadian Government is planning a loan campaign based in part on the liberty loan here, and is desirous of having details on organization. The Canadians desired at least four months to complete their campaign in order which will be about six weeks. The short and intense drive on this side of the border, however, did not permit of the drafting of liberty loan executives for so long a period, in the opinion of Everett B. Swasey, chairman of the executive committee on distribution, but he agreed to send Schumann and Bogart to Montreal to serve in an advisory capacity. The Canadian campaign will be attempted to reach persons who do not naturally invest in bonds.

SOLDIERS TO SPEND WINTER IN BROCKVILLE

Detachment of 300 From Camp Borden Arrived Yesterday. Special to The Toronto World. Brockville, Oct. 5.—A detachment of 300 soldiers of the Forestry Corps from Camp Borden reached Brockville today to go into winter quarters at the fair grounds. This is to be made a base for the class of soldiers, the average population of which is expected to be maintained to at least 1000. The first reinforcements are coming from Rockcliffe Camp.

STORMY SCENES IN CITY COUNCIL

Street Cleaning Department Strike Draws Wrath Arguments From Aldermen.

SITUATION UNCHANGED

Men May Return to Work and Accept Board of Conciliation.

The dispute between the employees and head of the street cleaning department is responsible last night for one of the stormiest scenes that ever occurred in the city council. In it, however, the members of the council played a minor role to that of the men and the commissioner.

Thru the long afternoon the adherents engaged in a discussion of the board of conciliation, most of the time being spent on the proposed sale of four and a half acres of land on Ashbridge's Marsh to the Imperial Oil Company, finally sending it back to the board for further consideration.

It was well after 6 o'clock when Ald. Fenwick introduced a resolution that a board of arbitration should be appointed to settle the dispute between the employees of the street cleaning department and the street commissioner in connection with his resolution.

From then on the council was swept from one thrilling moment to the next with no drab intervals between intense dramatic situations. Even when the council adjourned at 8:30 a group of aldermen engaged in discussion with representatives of the men near the detention ward of the city hall.

Charges Were Defined. As soon as Ald. Fenwick had placed his motion before the council, Ald. Mitchell asked if the report of the board of conciliation which had been placed in the hands of each member of the council had been previously referred to in the negative, and the alderman pointed out that the report contained definite charges against the board of conciliation.

The majority told of the resolution of the board of conciliation which had been offered to the council, but which the board had refused to accept.

Lieut.-Col. Williams was the principal speaker at St. George's Hall on the Overseas Club. Col. Dinick, who presided, explained that the meeting was called with the hope of bringing the work of the Overseas Club more before the people of Toronto than it had.

of the mills. It is expected that sufficient information will be on hand for the food controller to name the prices for the three standard grades of flour by No. 1.

Restrict Package Sale. In this connection Mr. Hanna states that the mills would be permitted to manufacture their regular grades of flour, consisting of higher or lower quality than the standard grades, but that such manufacture would be subject to the same general provision as to profits.

At today's conference the food controller intimated that he was considering the advisability of taking action in the interests of the public to restrict the sale of flour and other cereals in small packages.

ARRANGING WINTER PROGRAM. The regular meeting of the Lodge St. George, No. 27, Sons of England, was held last night.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

WITH the Britishers secure in all the positions they won Thursday along the more than eight-mile front of the Ypres sector in Flanders, their newly-won positions and preparing for another back into the German lines when the time becomes propitious.

Artillery duels between the French and the Germans on the Verdun sector and in Champagne continue, and at several points in the latter sector General Petain's forces again have repulsed surprise attacks delivered by troops of the German crown prince.

Apparently the Teutonic allies in Rumania, after several weeks of virtual inactivity, again are preparing to force back the Russo-Rumanian line. The Russians have been forced to sustain an offensive near Radatz and at other points.

In Russia a coalition cabinet has been formed, with M. Kerensky as premier, notwithstanding the demand of the democratic congress that no government should be constituted without the sanction of the congress.

Meanwhile further trouble has broken out in Turkey, where a revolutionary movement was started early in the week, but later was suppressed. The Russian Government has now declared that a state of war exists in that region.

Jabots in Great Demand These Fall Days

And Many and Lovely Are the New Designs From Which You May Choose - At Prices From $1.50 Upward.

A MODISH, BECOMING NECKFIXING—unless this be assured, we betide your appearance. And soft and dainty as it is fashionable is the stock with the jabot—such as that worn by the girl in the adjoining sketch. For use with the Autumn suit it is one of the first bits of neckwear La Mode has to offer—to young or old. To her whose neck has lost the firm, white smoothness of youth, is it not a positive boon?

And such a charming array of stock-jabots as you'll find in the Neckwear Department—a superb pre-holiday display of exclusive styles. For example:

In white or cream filet lace is a stock collar with flat jabot of pleated Georgette crepe, tabs of the lace appearing at either side of the jabot—a delightful bit of neckwear. Price, $1.50.

In a combination of creamy net and filet lace of the same tone is another stock with jabot at $2.00.

With white Chantilly lace stock and full gathered jabot of lace is a smart design at $2.50.

With stock of white wash satin and jabot of filmy creamy net is a very lovely model at $6.00.

And in hand-made Carrickmacross lace is a stock and jabot fit for the proverbial princess—a bit of neckwear that promises a whole life-time usefulness. Price, $15.00.

Such Smart Tailored Hats

They're New York Importations—Sailors, and Mushrooms Softly Fashioned in Velvet.

INDISPENSABLE these days is the simple, well-tailored hat—plain but not harsh, inconspicuous but not unbecoming. For her who drives her own car it is a necessity.

And admirably do these New York hats meet the interesting need. They are simplicity itself, softly tailored in velvet. The edges are bound with corded ribbon, the same composing the band and bow which is their only ornamentation.

Included are sailors, mushrooms, several styles with rolling brims, and a quaint little drooping model known as the "jockey poke." All have the new large crown shown in the illustration. They may be had in navy blue, black, brown, green and taupe.

They are beautifully finished in every detail, the linings being of softly gathered satin. Prices, $8.50 to $10.00.

The assemblage of models at this price is remarkable not only for its nice interpretation of the season's mode, but for the exceptionally good quality of the materials employed. Here are four of them:

Copied from an imported model of much higher price—suit in beetroot, navy, green or black serge, the long coat in Russian blouse style with all-round belt. Price, $25.00.

A suit in fine navy blue or black serge is likewise characterized by a Russian blouse-coat, the same bordered with black military braid. Price, $25.00.

With simple, semi-fitting coat bound with black braid is another model in navy and black serge, the skirt, as in all other suits described, being in plain gored style. Price, $25.00.

And in taupe poplin or green, brown, navy or black serge, is an attractive model with long coat loosely belted, the collar faced with velvet in black or self-tones. Price, $25.00.

Smart Suits at $30.00.

At this price, too, is a wide selection of modish designs. Two of them are as follows:

In taupe, navy or black gabardine is a suit with long, belted coat. Price, $30.00. The same model is also procurable in black and in navy serge.

And in wool poplin in navy, green, brown or black, is a most appealing suit with box-pleated coat bound with braid, the belt fastening with large, dull black buckles. Price, $30.00.

Food Controller Says Loyal Support Not Received From Objectors.

REGULATIONS SUCCEED

Beefless Days Result in Large Saying of Beef and Bacon.

The following statement was issued from the office of the food controller yesterday:

The regulations enforced and the measures recommended by the food controller for Canada are in nowise designed to hamper or irritate that portion of the community that is already practicing economy. The food controller and his advisers are well aware that many Canadian housewives of limited means have brought the practical application of economy and food utilization to a very high state of effectiveness. These domestic managers are the backbone of the nation. All that can usefully be done to assist them will be done.

It is not from this class that complaints arise. Those who voluntarily regard the nation's present needs and who thereby undergo inconveniences, if not hardships, are the last to develop grievances.

The first month of beefless and baconless Tuesdays and Fridays achieved splendid results in reducing the consumption in the larger hotels and restaurants was 41 per cent, whilst the reduction in homes was 52 per cent, as compared with the previous month's consumption. The tonnage saved was large. This at once shows that the Canadian eating places willingly comply with the food controller's regulations.

Those Benefited. Complain. On the other hand, the same degree of loyal support has not been received from certain of those who complain most loudly of present conditions. The loudest protests, the loudest outcries, come from persons to whom the war has brought material benefits.

Price Regulation Promised. The adjustment of prices, a complicated and difficult matter, will be carried out with a view to relieving the needs of those who are feeling most the pressure of war conditions.

It must be clearly recognized that every pound of food wasted by those who have no fear of what increases the burden for the less prosperous, and tends to nullify any measures designed to reduce the cost of living. So far as possible the responsibility for what waste exists will be placed where it belongs.

Service Cards to be Signed on Conditions. York Township Women Will Economize When Brewing of Grains Ceases.

At a well attended meeting of the women of York Township, held yesterday, it was proposed by Mrs. W. T. Baka, of Downsview, seconded by Mrs. Joseph E. Jackson, of Etobicoke, and carried: "That we are ready to sign service cards which have been sent to us when, and as soon as the food controller forbids the use of two hundred million pounds of food-stuffs (grain, molasses and sugar) which were last year worse than wasted in the manufacture of liquor."

Only One Door Open to Count Von Luxemburg. Paraguay Only Place of Refuge on Continent for Eject of Argentina.

Buenos Aires, Oct. 5.—Announcement was made by the Argentine foreign office today that Count Karl von Luxemburg, former German military attaché, who recently was given his passports, will depart from the country within a day or two. He left Buenos Aires today in an automobile for a visit to the ranch of a friend.

As Chile has notified Argentina that Von Luxemburg is persona non grata to Chile, he is accredited to Paraguay, where he is the accredited German minister, and in which country alone in South America he can seek asylum.

Visit Aeroplane Factories. United States Military Officers and Editor of Iron Age Here.

Accompanied by J. G. Grace, of Iron Age, New York, along with a number of United States military officers, including Capt. J. G. Smith, arrived in the city yesterday, and paid a visit to the local aeroplane factories. It is understood that the United States plans to standardize its machines, and it is said that the presence of the party has to do with that matter.

FISH COMMITTEE WIDENS CAMPAIGN

Will Seek to Increase Public Interest in Marine Food.

CITIES TO HELP

Union of Canadian Municipalities to Co-operate Towards Greater Use.

After conferences with representatives of Canadian Press Association, Inc., the Union of Canadian Municipalities and the Canadian Fisheries Association, the fish committee of the food controller's office, announced today that the fish committee, with the assistance of the three organizations mentioned, will conduct an extensive educational campaign through the press, and with the retail fish trade, as a means of securing a still larger domestic consumption of fish. The primary purpose of the campaign will be to release additional supplies of beef and bacon for export overseas.

The food and other values of fish will be attractively presented to the general public thru a series of educational advertisements in the press. Thru these advertisements the public will be urged on patriotic grounds to use fish as far as possible as a substitute for beef and bacon.

In order to illustrate the many and varied ways in which fish may be served, the fish committee is preparing an attractive fish cook book that will be placed free in the advertisement and by retail fish dealers.

Publicity Committee. To assist in connection with the educational campaign in the press and among the retail fish dealers, the fish committee has appointed a publicity committee, consisting of the following: J. A. Paschus, chairman of the public committee of the Canadian Fisheries Association; J. J. Harpell, publisher of The Canadian Fisherman; John M. Imrie, manager of Canadian Press Association, Inc.; and Capt. F. W. Wallace, secretary of the fish committee of the food controller's office.

Government Counsel Denies Statement Made. H. A. Stewart Says He Has No Information on Price Fixing That May be Fixed.

H. A. Stewart, K.C., counsel for the government in the newspaper investigation by Commissioner of Ontario, denies having made the statement attributed to him in press despatches from Ottawa this week that "the price determined would be at least 400 per cent and perhaps more." In a telegram to the Canadian Press Association, Inc., in answer to an inquiry as to whether he had made any such statement, Mr. Stewart said:

"Telegram received. Did not make statement referred to. Have no knowledge of information as to price to be fixed, and no opinion to express or authority to make statement. Reporters under misunderstanding."

The Company Claiming to Hold It Say They Are Not German—Ready to Be Reasonable.

Editor World: Re Minerals Separation North American Corporation. We enclose herewith a further statement received from our principals, Messrs. Williams & Pritchard of New York, attorneys for the above corporation, and we would request you to give publicity to the same.

Ridout & Maybee, Patent Solicitors. In behalf of the Minerals Separation North American Corporation, who claim to own and control all of the North American basic patents for the flotation process, you are authorized to publish an absolutely and unequivocal denial of any and all assertions that this company is a German concern or a pro-German concern, or in any way influenced or owned, managed or controlled by any German or alien-enemy interests.

This corporation was organized under the laws of the State of Maryland in December, 1916, with the full consent of the British Government specially had and obtained in September, 1916, as the successor of the Separation American Syndicate (1913) Limited, a British company.

The directors of Minerals Separation North American Corporation, who constitute the organization are: John Ballot, chairman and managing director of the parent company, Minerals Separation Limited, and chief managing director of the former American Syndicate (1913) Limited; S. Gregory, director of Minerals Separation Limited, and vice-chairman and managing director of the former American Syndicate (1913) Limited; Frank Altschul, partner of the firm of Lazard Freres, and an officer in the American ordnance. These are the only directors and they have absolute control of the affairs of the company. There is not a single alien-enemy shareholder of the corporation.

Until August, 1916, the British company, Minerals Separation American Syndicate (1913) Limited, was represented in America by agents with the special authority of the British Government. As an incident of the organization of the present American corporation that agency and representation was discontinued. The policy of the company always has been and now is to encourage the production of metals, and particularly those needed for war purposes.

WOMEN REPORT ON RECENT CAMPAIGN. Fifty Per Cent. Service Cards Distributed Were Signed By City's Women. MAKE SUGGESTIONS. Auxiliary Has Recommendations to Offer Controller as Result of Canvass.

At a meeting of the women's auxiliary to the committee of resources, held yesterday afternoon at the city hall, Mrs. H. H. Loosmore, the controller, summarized results as found during the recent campaign and house to house canvass of the city for the conservation of food. She referred to the hard work of the captains and their assistants, work much harder than had been anticipated, but stated that the results on the whole had been very satisfactory, and the results in figures as to the cards signed were not to hand, yet it was said to say that a good fifty per cent.

Mrs. Loosmore also stated that it was the intention of the executive to preserve the information gained along with the cards, which had been submitted in written reports by the captains, and to send it to the government. She pointed out that educationally the campaign had been a success as it had cleared away many misconceptions and had brought to the attention of the public the fact that the food controller was not a mere official, but a person who was interested in the welfare of the city and its people.

A good deal of discussion arose out of the address of the president, and attention was drawn to the fact that a large number of people who had signed the cards had neglected, or put them in their windows. The workers were unanimous in their request that those who have not already done so would comply with this new.

Before the conclusion of the meeting a resolution was endorsed to be sent to the food controller and directed his attention to the fact that a good deal more education is necessary for the purpose of impressing upon the average householders that to avoid possible starvation conditions in England and France next spring it is essential that less flour, beef and bacon be put on the tables of the people of Canada and the United States. The resolution also asked that publicity be given periodically regarding any regulations made in the consumption of beef, four and bacon, also publicity be given to the fact that the use of any wheat in Canada for the manufacture of alcoholic liquors is now a punishable offence by law, also the extent to which manufacture of whiskey has already been reduced by using distilled for war purposes. Make Suggestions. The resolution expressed appreciation for the things already done by the food controller, and the following suggestions: From our experience there are a very large number of homes in which very little food is wasted. The price of such vital foods as bread, butter and milk and of all foods distributed thru cold storage plants, and including the price of recommended substitutes. That all restrictions upon the importation and sale of oleoargarine be suspended during the continuance of the war.

That the food controller endeavor to find means to effectively control, and if possible to reduce, the price of such vital foods as bread, butter and milk and of all foods distributed thru cold storage plants, and including the price of recommended substitutes. That all restrictions upon the importation and sale of oleoargarine be suspended during the continuance of the war.

That the food controller investigate the effect of controlling the manufacture of ice cream and the use of milk otherwise than as a food. That he consider the possibility of regulations making the price of bread one day old and of brown bread cheaper than that of fresh white bread. That he be requested to introduce regulations prohibiting the grinding of flour in Canada for Canadian consumption finer than say 75 per cent. of the weight of the wheat. At Publicity. We most respectfully urge that full publicity be given to any difficulties there may be as to the enforcement immediately or at any time of any regulations as the above, "seeing confident that the people of Canada will loyally stand behind those in charge of this difficult problem of food control if they are made aware of the difficulties which prevent immediate action or the impossibility of taking some apparently direct steps to attain the end all have so deeply at heart. As the next will be the annual meeting, a nomination committee to receive names for officers was appointed, consisting of Miss Laing, convenor; Mrs. Torrington and Miss Church. SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 6

A Good Appointment.

Nowhere will the appointment of General Newburn as minister of militia give greater satisfaction than in the army, unless perhaps in the City of Hamilton, which finds in him for some years her first cabinet minister. General Newburn has a reputation for efficiency, for fair-mindedness, and for courteousness which has followed him in all relations of life. He represents also the non-political element, which is so essential to successful treatment of army problems, and which is the excellent way for a win-the-war administration. General Newburn is a man devoted to the Canadian army, has grown up with it, knows it, and has proved his ability.

That Poison Antidote.

It is the fashion among some ladies (as well as some gentlemen) to sulk and refuse to help, or to obstruct others, because the game is not to their liking. In the United States Mrs. Henry O. Havemeyer has announced that she would not subscribe to the Liberty loan nor work for it because women had no votes. Mrs. Abbey Scott Baker of Washington advises all women to boycott the loan and defeat it. They prefer to help the Germans, who are very far from giving votes to women, to taking part with their nation in the emancipation of the world. We have been hearing a good deal lately from a similar set of women in Toronto. There is even less excuse in Canada for women to oppose the war and war measures and the government that carries on the war than in the United States, but women of a certain type of mind are not to be deterred by trifles of that sort.

It is an occasion of great offence to them that all the enemy aliens in the country are not granted votes. They know that the German Government does not regard a nationalization oath as binding. Once a German always a German is their motto. Perfidy becomes a virtue. Naturalized Germans are required in the country of their adoption to work and, if permitted, to vote for such measures as will benefit Germany.

Our bland and childlike Toronto ladies of the Havemeyer type are outraged because the German women are not allowed to vote. They are positive that nothing but good could come of it. In all respects they are so anxious for the polling of these German votes that a less unsophisticated one might suspect they coveted German assistance for the prosecution of German designs. But these simple-minded, innocent creatures have nothing in mind, of course, but keeping faith with the honest Huns who have settled in our midst, and we are informed by these gentle friends that the kaiser and his plans are the last things that his former subjects think about. Our familiarity with records in the United States and elsewhere leads us to take a different view, but ladies who have just been endowed with the vote cannot be expected to harbor base suspicions. So their innocent and unsophisticated natures are shocked at the idea of depriving the poor Hun ladies of a vote which they never enjoyed before and never expected to enjoy, while we, on the other hand, have been regarding the alien enemy population according to their deeds, which in many cases merit internment, if not internment, and who constitute a poisonous element in the national life for which the new Franchise Act provides a very proper antidote.

There are many ways of winning the war or helping to win it, but giving the vote to patriotic Germans, enemies of Britain and Canada, does not appear to us as one of them. If our lady friends become too clamorous in this German interest we shall begin to wonder, in spite of their unsophisticatedness, if they really wish to win the war themselves.

Knitting.

There is a time for everything, it was said of old, and there is a time consequently when a virtue may become a vice. In the opinion of The New York Financial America the time has come with respect to knitting. There have been semi-official intimations to the same effect in Great Britain, but no one has dared so far to call a halt to the glittering and rippling activity of the great Canadian knitting-needle. Wool at $3 a pound and upwards is being manipulated into sock which can be had for a much cheaper rate. It is true that the knitted sock may be better, that they bear the impress of much loving thought, and that they often afford an outlet for the feelings of women who have no other channel for their energies. But over and above the few who may require this solace there are multitudes who are, economically considered, wasting money and energy in knitting. "For misapplied patriotism," says Financial America, "there probably is nothing in America today comparable to this work of knitting."

The best service possible is not being rendered to the nation in this way in the majority of cases. If the women who could would "utilize their brains and time in solving household problems in economies they could aid America tremendously." This is the view of our New York contemporary. We do not think Canada has yet awakened to the grave character of the problems which the war has imposed upon us.

Famine is the chief of these. Whether we have war or peace, famine is an imminent possibility. Hard times, scarcity of money, high prices, is another problem, greater, think some, than famine, merely because famine has always seemed so remote, and hard times have occurred before.

The prolongation of the war, due to "foes within and fighting without," is a serious possibility. We are in the fourth year, and there are still many as sanguine that it will be over by Christmas as they were at the same time of the year in 1914. Two or three or four more years of war is a problem that requires hard study and by every unit in the nation.

Our resources have to be protected. Our industries have to be directed to such productive activity as will supply us with things that cannot be done without, and will not waste material or labor in unnecessary ways.

All these things affect the supply of money. Money is what makes the mare go, and the mare has to go faster and farther than ever she did before. We are on the verge of three great appeals for funds—the Red Cross fund, the patriotic fund, and the new war loan. It seems cruel to suggest that knitting could interfere in any way with the success, which is so essential, of these appeals, but while all knitting may not do so, a great deal of the time and money spent in knitting would be better applied to them.

And knitting is only a symbol. It represents all the other wasteful, useless, expensive practices that save the consciences of people who affect to think that they are helping to win the war or doing patriotic service, but are only occupied with amiable expenses for doing nothing, and even worse than nothing, when they might be engaged in something serviceable. We have no mind to condemn knitting indiscriminately, but those who knit should be knitting to determine that there is nothing else more useful that they might be doing.

Whole Wheat or White Flour?

An article in The Canadian Chemical Journal by A. J. Banks, F.C.S., chief chemist of the Ogilvie Flour Mills, Montreal, shows some bias even in its title—"White v. Grey Bread," grey meaning brown. After reading the article, had one had no practical experience, one might be inclined to think brown bread a dangerous article of food. To those who habitually use brown bread, or whatever form of bread they can use, the article is almost unpalatable. Mr. Banks bases his argument chiefly on what he alleges is the lower digestibility of whole wheat products, or rather of what Mr. Banks calls flour "containing added wheat offal." That is to say, the public does not get whole wheat flour, but ordinary flour mixed with bran. Those who grind their own wheat or have it ground for them will not agree that the genuine whole wheat product, of a proper fineness, is either difficult to digest or unassimilable. The charge that people in England who began to eat whole wheat bread suffered from indigestion may be due to the fact that they ate too much, as it is more appetizing when properly baked, or else that it was not genuine whole wheat flour, but some kind of flour "containing added wheat offal."

Our local M. O. H. has pointed out that the germ of the wheat when ground with the flour gave it the yellow or cream color, which once distinguished good wheat flour. This was eliminated to get the dead white effect in color that is popular with some bakers. This germ was probably the most nutritious part of the wheat, and its elimination from the flour reduces the nutritional value of the wheat proportionately.

Mr. Banks states that people find the coarser, more branny bread does not yield as readily its nutriment as white flour. Why then do the millers give us a coarse, branny flour? Why cannot the whole wheat be ground to the consistency of white flour? If it is the fineness determines the ease of assimilation, and if the roughage is required to add bulk to the food for the benefit of the intestines, the problem remains why the millers do not grind a whole wheat flour of standard fineness and not put us off with flour "containing added wheat offal."

Persons who are accustomed to live on boiled wheat with milk, and nothing else, find in it a complete dietary. It cannot be said, therefore, that wheat does not supply all the necessary constituents to the body. It is probable that if whole wheat were ground to flour, none of the berry being eliminated, a much more healthy bread could be baked from the product. The quotation of statistics and chemical analyses does not frighten those who are accustomed to these terrors. What is one man's meat is admittedly poison to another, but there is no reason why those who desire to get a genuine whole wheat flour should not be supplied with it. It should not cost more than ordinary flour. It ought to cost less. The real reason for the refusal of the bakers is included in Mr. Banks' article.

The keeping quality of flour in old times when a fuller wheat content was given was "very defective." The high oil content imparted an agreeable nutty flavor and aroma while the flour was fresh, but oxidation quickly brought about more or less rancidity and induced changes in constitution of an undesirable kind. Which would seem to mean that what we have gained by improved machinery, we have lost in material values. The well-known experiments of starving a dog to death by feeding him on nothing but white flour bear out this conclusion.

As Mr. Banks' comparisons of white flour are not with whole wheat flour, but with flour and bran added, they can scarcely be regarded as conclusive. The Chemical Journal itself editorially agrees that the knowledge available is insufficient to decide the issue. The British Government has appointed a commission to report on the whole question, and perhaps some steps may be taken to produce a pure and clean whole wheat flour. The maladies that have been said to arise from the use of whole wheat flour may be due to impurities rather than to any constituent of the wheat.

CAUSE OF HIS DISMAY.

The name of a bright young newspaper reporter was among the first to be drawn at the national capital for conscription into the army. It was evident to all his acquaintances that the prospect was far from pleasing, and when he went into the rooms of the Press Club several of the members began "kidding" him.

"What are you afraid of?" asked one. "That you will get seasick crossing the Atlantic?" "Is it possible that you fear service in the trenches where the English and French have been fighting so gamely?" asked another.

And so it went on until the prospective conscript unable to stand the "kidding" any longer, told why he dreaded going into the army. "I am not afraid of getting seasick," he said; "nor do I fear service in the trenches and the fighting connected therewith, but I certainly shiver in dismay when I think of the future—the every-soften military reunions I will have to attend all the rest of my life after I get back home."

HOW THE CIVILIANS HAVE HELD.

BY GILBERT SELDES.

Three lines in the British National Anthem are worth thinking about. They are: "Trust in our God, O God Save the King!"

Originally the second line referred to the monarch of the day. Today they are quoted with bitter emphasis when Britons talk of their own politicians. Confound their politics! Frustrate our hopes we fix. On Them our hopes we fix. On Them our hopes we fix. On Them our hopes we fix.

Not Britain alone feels so about their politicians. France has had so many political upheavals and reactions that few Frenchmen and no foreigners can untangle the mysteries of the chamber of deputies. Only last July the German military authorities had to rush all its forces to Berlin in order to quell a political riot in the Reichstag. France, Germany, and the United States have become a positive danger in this war.

How have the European belligerents met this danger? In Great Britain a political truce was declared as soon as war broke out. The cabinet stood behind the prime minister. But some people stood there in order to stir up the passions of the masses. They shrouded themselves behind the official back to further ends of their own. The cabinet had to be reorganized; the words "political assassin" passed in the papers, and Mr. Lloyd George associated of all the crimes in the Liberal calendar.

The coalition cabinet supposedly embraced all the chief parties. Mr. Asquith and Mr. Bonar Law, leaders of the Liberals and Unionists, respectively, were Edward Grey, Mr. Balfour, the unique Lloyd George and Lord Curzon. They all worked together, were an inspiration to England. But the coalition failed. The result was one of the most dramatic political episodes of English history. Had it happened in peace time it would have caused a riot; in war it was accepted as necessary, and since the success of the coalition depended on "win-the-war," and evoked immense outbursts of patriotism. It was called a success.

Mr. Asquith left office, the first prime minister to be forced out while he held authority in the house of commons. Mr. Lloyd George went in last December and held office for the remainder of the war. The coalition had broken up. Mr. Lloyd George was the only man who stood by his side. At the same time the Liberals were accused of having been the cause of the coalition's failure. The old gang became a rallying cry in certain newspapers. The first Democratic review was boldly used as a political instrument.

Mr. Asquith worked loyally with Mr. Lloyd George. In every crisis he seconded the prime minister's speeches; he stood by him in the house of commons. Mr. Lloyd George, a man without a party, drew from all his energies for the inner council fell upon Unionists, Liberals, and Conservatives. Mr. Asquith and Mr. Montagu, both Liberals, to office, the waiting of the Unionists was fierce among the Liberals who resented the admission of the Liberal to the war cabinet.

It is true that all the leading party moderates passed out in favor of even a moderate peace. But it was not the moderate peace that was the issue. It was the issue of the war. The moderate peace was a mere expedient. The moderate peace was a mere expedient. The moderate peace was a mere expedient. The moderate peace was a mere expedient.

The situation in Germany is not quite so bad, for the Germans. There you have a separation of parties, but even this separation of parties is not a sign of a party. The majority socialist have steadily played politics with the people who would strive to bring about the minority socialist, and the social-democratic of Germany which only a few years ago was the Liberal in Britain, is a discredited mirror of public opinion.

Two things a civilian always wants in war time: peace and war. He wants peace to take the heat, or to beat the nerve enough to want to be there. And he wants war to be there. He wants peace to take the heat, or to beat the nerve enough to want to be there. And he wants war to be there. He wants peace to take the heat, or to beat the nerve enough to want to be there.

The politician does nothing but terrorize him. If the party-man gets hold of the reins of administration, or the administration, or if the administration can insure its re-election by beating down the opposition, the politician succeeds. But always it leaves a bitter taste in the mouth. "They are playing don't care about the war and about me."

In England there has been a renaissance of every conceivable subject from horseracing to beer-selling. The politicians run the meetings, or they score them because other private interests can usually be discovered behind them. The masses which come to the meetings come away with the feeling that it has respect to the party. And ten days later it falls back into the attitude of hopeless and helpless anger against the politicians.

Europe is sick of politics. The air is foul with intrigue and sly side-pulling. The soldier on leave despises the whole business. And many civilians are realizing that the only way to respect confidence in governments is to root out the politicians and all their ways. They look to the soldier for help. Terrible as his life is, it is free from the greed of politics. And ten days later it falls back into the attitude of hopeless and helpless anger against the politicians.

Yell with Death, yet over there You breathe a somewhat purer air. Pure air is the civilian's only hope in war. And politics is a smoke screen which chokes off confidence and blurs the eye which ought to be looking clear and unafraid toward victory. Copyright, 1917.

BREWSTER UNLIKELY TO ENTER COALITION

Premier of British Columbia Leaves for East on Provincial Business.

Vancouver, Oct. 5.—Premier Brewster of British Columbia left this morning for the east on provincial business, which will necessitate his absence from the province for two or three weeks. "I am not very anxious to vacate my seat in Victoria," said the premier, following statements that he had been in consultation with Sir Robert Borden with regard to taking a place in a union government. He added that statements that he had been in consultation with Sir Robert Borden with regard to taking a place in a union government.

He said he knew of no conference of Liberals in Ottawa after today. "I have not had a single conference with Sir Robert Borden," he added. "If there are Liberals there I will be in conference with them."

Mr. Brewster said if he joined a union government "it would have to be in the best interests of everyone, and they would have to prove to me that it was in the best interests of Canada."

BORDEN'S CHOICES GRATIFY ROGERS

Winnipeg, Oct. 5.—Hon. Robert Rogers, according to a statement which he made this morning, is of opinion that Sir Robert Borden is seriously carrying out his intention of forming a national or union government before the election. Mr. Rogers believes that the selection of Col. C. C. Ballantyne and Hugh Guthrie, K.C., is but a start toward the inclusion of other Liberals of outstanding worth.

Mr. Rogers declared that it was the intention of Sir Robert Borden to include in his cabinet a representative of the labor party if a suitable man can be found. He could not say anything further than he has already said as to his own views.

Hon. A. B. Hudson, attorney-general of Manitoba, and Hon. W. M. Martin, premier of Saskatchewan, went to this morning on the Montreal train with Ottawa as their destination. It is understood that their trip is in connection with the cabinet reorganization which is going on at the federal capital. Hon. Mr. Hudson has been reluctant when asked about the possibility of his going east, and other members of the cabinet will not state why Mr. Hudson is making the trip. It is understood that a caucus of all the Liberal members of the Manitoba Legislature will be held in the city tonight.

SIGHT RESTORED THRU MEDICAL TREATMENT. Milton Soldier Pierces Eye With White Repairing Shells.

Kingston, Oct. 5.—Pvt. G. Taylor, of Milton, Ont., who became totally blind two weeks ago as result of an accident, regained his sight under medical treatment at Queen's Military Hospital. He had lost an eye but was refused a pension as he was a successful infantry battalionsman with a railway construction corps. His illness necessitated his being sent home. While repairing his shoes he slipped and pierced his good eye and he became totally blind.

GRIEVANCES AND DEMANDS OF CART OWNERS AND DRIVERS

Hired Carters Formulate Statement of Complaints Against Management of Street Cleaning Department and Ask For Reforms.

The following statement of grievances and demands was last night handed to The Toronto World by Arthur Schofield, representing the employees of the street cleaning department who are owners and drivers of their own carts.

REFORMS ASKED FOR. First: Hired carters be granted the status of civic employees, which means that they shall be permanent civic employees, enjoying the same rights and privileges as other civic employees...

Second: That owners and drivers of their own carts should have first call on the position and that their year's service in the department as owner and driver of their own carts should be taken into consideration when they are promoted to their new position as to one year's continuous service as applied to vacations.

Third: That in employing new drivers for the city-owned carts the owners of their own carts should have first call on the position and that their year's service in the department as owner and driver of their own carts should be taken into consideration when they are promoted to their new position as to one year's continuous service as applied to vacations.

Fourth: That in the purchasing of horses by the street cleaning department, the department should be purchased from the owners and drivers in their own carts, and the owners should be engaged to drive them.

Fifth: In view of the fact that our work in the fall, winter and spring is extremely heavy and strenuous, and that few men could stand the strain of such heavy work for twelve months in the year, some consideration should be given to the men doing the lighter work of the summer months as a mitigation of the strain of the winter months.

Sixth: That in lieu of the above reforms, known as one, two, three, four and five, all owners and drivers of their own carts be engaged as civic employees of the street cleaning department at the present wage of $18 per week, and that the street commissioner be authorized to purchase their horses and harness subject to the following conditions: (a) That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively, and that the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Seventh: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Eighth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Ninth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Tenth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Eleventh: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Twelfth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Thirteenth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Fourteenth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Fifteenth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Sixteenth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Seventeenth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Eighteenth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Nineteenth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Twentieth: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Twenty-first: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Twenty-second: That the street commissioner be authorized to purchase the horse and harness of the owner and driver of their own carts at the present price of $100 and $25 respectively.

Request for Stadium At McGill University

Montreal, Oct. 5.—The late Capt. Percival Molson in his will donated $75,000 towards the construction of the stadium at McGill University. Word to this effect was recently received by the governors of the university from the executors. The bequest means that the stadium will be able to take over the stadium practically free from debt when spring sports are resumed at the university. During his college career the late Capt. Molson was prominent both in track and football activities, being captain of the track team in his senior year (1901), the year of the memorable Oxford-Cambridge-Toronto-McGill meet. Construction of the stadium was commenced in the fall of 1914, with the late Captain Molson, chairman of the committee of graduates. Referring to the gift, McGill Daily says: "This magnificent bequest is typical of the donor, for not only was Captain Molson a star in the sporting field during the whole of his college career, but from the day of his graduation until he met his untimely end he displayed the keenest interest in all matters pertaining to student interests, but more particularly in the line of sports. To his efforts was due, in a very large degree, the building of the stadium."

Booming Military Hockey in Boston

Boston, Oct. 5.—Ice hockey and general skating will be conducted at the Boston Arena this winter, and more Canadian teams than ever before are expected. At the annual meeting of the directors of the corporation it was decided to leave the matter to Treasurer Charles C. Abbott. The result is that there will be at least one, perhaps, two teams on the ice during the coming season. While an effort will be made to have a team represent the Arena H.C., if the promoters find that men are not available, they will give up the field to the Boston A.A. Enrollment and draft have played havoc with hockey conditions, but there are still enough men left under the draft age, to make up a good team. The B. A. A. has Raymie Skilton, Forest Osgood, Jack Hutchinson and Frankie Dowling from last year's team; Dart Nowell and Red Spout of the Arena team, and Geo. Beved, the Dartmouth sensation, who round out a powerful aggregation—better, in fact, than any local team of last season, if a reliable goaltender could be found. An effort will be made to boom military hockey, which was so popular in Canada last season. It looks as if the Amateur Hockey League here was a thing of the past. The Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn has entered into the war game with such spirit that it has given little attention to hockey. This being the case, the Canadian amateur teams will have the call at the Arena this winter. The teams from across the border, it is felt, appreciate the increased cost of producing hockey in this country since the United States became involved in the war. And for this season, it is believed, the Boston Arena management should be able to get teams from Canada for smaller guarantees than ever before.

IMA JAY CAPTURES THE TRANSYLVANIA

Seven Hard Heats to Win Twenty-Eighth Renewal of Big Race.

Lexington, Oct. 5.—Ima Jay, owned and driven by Harvey D. Earnest of Kamm, Ohio, won the twenty-eighth renewal of the Transylvania at the Grand Circuit meeting here today after seven hard heats, which lowered the world's record for a seven-heat race.

Four heats were trotted Thursday, Ross B. Early Drams, Royal Mac, and Ima Jay, having each won a heat the first day. Ima Jay came back today, winning the fifth and seventh heats and the race. Royal Mac won the sixth heat.

The racing today was the best of the meeting, each race proving a stiff battle, with the exception of the Lexington Stake, which was a gift to Peter June, driven by George W. Grier.

The Blue Grass stake for 2:05 pacers, the 2:12 pace, and 2:21 trot, were unfinished at sundown and will have to be finished tomorrow.

During the morning the half-mile track campaign, Harry J. S., was given a time record of 2:05 1/2.

The summaries for 2-year-old trotters, two in three, $200, 2 heats: Peter June, ch.c., 17 1/2; Peter, ch.c., 17 1/2; Royal Mac, b.g., 17 1/2; Early Drams, b.g., 17 1/2; Ima Jay, br.m., 17 1/2; Royal Mac, b.g., 17 1/2; Early Drams, b.g., 17 1/2; Ima Jay, br.m., 17 1/2.

When Detroit Won World's Series From St. Louis Thirty Years Ago

If the baseball magnates of 30 years ago had any conception of the magnitude of the world championship contests of the present it was a hazy one, says a writer in The New York Sun.

The world's series of 1887, the first in the history of the game, was between the Browns and the Athletics. The Browns won three in a row. It was a short horse race limited to five games. As the Browns won three in a row it was a short horse race limited to five games.

WHICH?

"This bulk tea is the best I could buy at the price, Mrs. Brown, but I believe you will like Red Rose better. "We use Red Rose at home and like the rich flavor. My wife says it goes further."

Hundreds of grocers are making statements somewhat like this. They have sold Red Rose Tea for many years and have found the quality so good that they use it in their homes.

Most grocers naturally like to make an extra profit on their bulk tea, but they cannot help recommending Red Rose Tea because they know it's worth the price.

They know it goes further because it consists chiefly of the teas from Assam in Northern India, the strongest, richest teas grown anywhere in the world. Red Rose tastes better and goes further.

Bad Complexions. Peeled Off at Home. The girl with the poor complexion complains, "I have to touch up my cheeks with yellow and rouge, and only my makeup saves me."

How to fix. Remarking that the hair on her face was becoming very thick, she said, "I have a very fair complexion, but I have a very thick growth of hair on my face, so I have to use a depilatory."

With a production which is fragrant.

New System of Fat Reduction

Here's a new way for all fat people to laugh together at that old bugaboo—Obesity. The saying that "there is nothing new under the sun" does not now apply to fat people any more. Here is something new for them—a new sensation, a new pleasure, a new and graceful figure, easily found by anyone who is passing beyond the number of almshouses.

Everyone has heard of the Marmola Prescription; that harmless combination of known as the most successful of all reducing treatments. Now there comes another idea—the idea of condensing these same pure, harmless ingredients into a pleasant little tablet.

After eating and at bed-time, they help the stomach to dispose of the surplus food, converting them into compact, solid flesh, muscle and energy, without dieting or exercise.

Marmola Prescription Tablets regulate the entire system—do for you what bodily exertion and self-denial can do for no one. You can prove all this at a trifling cost.

Marmola Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists or sent post paid by the Marmola Co., 384 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. A large case—sufficient to bring lasting results—is but $1.00.

BRITISH HOLDING TO NEW POSITIONS

Enemy Efforts to Regain Lost Ground Defeated by Artillery. DETAILS OF OFFENSIVE At Many Points in Battle Germans Ran Before Victorious Britishers.

British Front in France and Belgium, Oct. 5.—(By the Associated Press).—The southern extremity of the new battle front—the section extending from the Ypres-Menin highway northward by Poperinghe, Cambronne Covert and Bapaume—today continued to be the position to which the Germans were paying most attention.

The British were holding strongly to all the positions secured yesterday, with the exception of a few advanced posts in a very small area of the Rettel region, where they drew back slightly after a German massed counter thrust.

The British line was remarkably dug in by morning, despite the difficulties raised by the flurries of rain yesterday. The latest reports indicate that they have been little troubled by the enemy infantry although heavy bombardment is being kept up by the German guns.

Late details confirm earlier reports that the Germans did not fight well in the Rettel region, where they were most successful.

The total prisoners who surrendered is great. On one sector of the Anzac front alone, the Australians captured seven officers, including a battalion commander, in one shell hole.

At a point not far from the Ypres-Roulers railway an Australian officer, single-handed, took 150 Germans prisoner.

In a sector considerably to the north of Rettel, the Australians and other British troops who had fought together before, made a gala occasion of the attack.

By special request these veterans were allowed to go side by side, and after a remarkably successful rush forward they were seen exchanging sentiments. One body of the men went thru the German barrage, but luckily suffered few casualties.

JUDGMENT GIVEN IN MILLERS' COMPLAINT

Dominion Railway Board Finds There Has Been Discrimination. ORDER AGAINST C.P.R. Justifiability for Different Treatment Has Not Been Established.

Ottawa, Oct. 5.—The board of railway commissioners has given judgment in the complaint of the Dominion Millers' Association that mills in Ontario are discriminated against by the railways in connection with the milling of grain from the three prairie provinces.

The millers' main contention is that they should have a right to mill in transit at one cent per hundred weight, the same charge as is made for mills in certain parts of Ontario.

Being the most easterly milling point, Montreal has the most restricted area within which to ship the flour, and the further west from Montreal becomes, Sudbury has the greatest territory in which to operate, as the route southerly as well as easterly is practically all the Ontario markets at the flat one cent transit charge.

It is alleged by the Canadian Pacific that the milling-in-transit charge applicable in the west does not represent the cost involved. That is, to say, part of the cost is absorbed in the mill.

The justifiability for difference in treatment in a common competing market of the flour from western grain by bay and lake ports and therefore which is transit as compared with flour milled from western grain and moved all rail or by lake and rail, has not been established.

AUTOINTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition Which Produces Many Well-Known Diseases. HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE "Fruit-a-tives"—The Wonderful Medicine—Will Protect You.

Auto-intoxication means self-poisoning, caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the Kidneys and Skin are overworked, in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

BERNSTORFF WILY IN PLOT DEALINGS

Careful Not to Name Bolo in Instructions to Von Jagow. TO PROTECT HIS PLANS Asked That Newspapers Be Muzzled on French Cabinet Changes.

Washington, Oct. 5.—More of Count von Bernstorff's confidential cable exchanges with the Berlin foreign office were made public by the state department tonight, furnishing documentary proof of the extraordinary activities of Bolo Pasha, now a prisoner in France, and throwing further light upon the machinations of the German diplomatic service.

The messages, signed by Von Bernstorff and by Von Jagow, then foreign minister, show that $1,700,000 which the ambassador obtained authority to place to the credit of Hugo Schmidt, then a representative of the Deutsche Bank at New York, was sought as a means to bring peace.

The wily Von Bernstorff cautioned against expressions in the German press concerning internal French changes, suggesting that German approval might upset all his plans. He was careful not to put down the name of the political personality involved in France, saying a trusty messenger could be found.

The state department contributed its latest disclosures, like those that have preceded it, without explanation as to how the documents came into its possession. Its statement follows:

"The department of state communicates to the press the following telegrams bearing upon the case of Bolo Pasha exchanged between Count von Bernstorff and Herr von Jagow, German minister of foreign affairs:

"No. 573, February 26. 'I have received information from an entirely trustworthy source concerning a political action in one of the enemy countries which would bring about peace. One of the leading political personalities of the country in question is seeking a loan of $1,700,000 in New York for which security will be given by the name of the person can be found to bring it to Germany.'

"No. 585, March 5. 'Please instruct Deutsche Bank to send $1,700,000 to the credit of Hugo Schmidt. The affair is very promising. Further particulars follow. (Signed) 'Bernstorff.'

"No. 592, March 20. 'With reference to telegram No. 535 please advise our minister in Bern that some one will give him the name of the person who wishes to establish relations with the foreign office. Intermediary further request to bear on our part to pass over the change in the inner political situation in France so far as possible in silence so that the name will not be spread by German approval. (Signed) 'Bernstorff.'

"No. 206, May 21. 'The person announced in telegram No. 592 of January has not yet reported himself at the legation at Bern. Is there any more news on your side of Bolo? (Signed) 'Jagow.'

BE PREPARED! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly prepared, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for 'Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound' you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You dampen sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray will disappear, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

DEATH SENTENCE IMPOSED THRU MISTAKE OF JURY

Twelve "Good Men" of Quebec Returned Verdict When They Intended Manslaughter. Montreal, Oct. 5.—One of the most peculiar incidents ever recorded in connection with a Canadian court of law occurred at Sweetsburg, Quebec, this afternoon, when a French-Canadian jury, mistaking the name of Joseph Pellerin, a 14-year-old boy, when they had intended to convict him of manslaughter. It was not till Judge Hinkley had sentenced Benjamin Hill to the gallows on November 30, that it dawned on the jurymen that they had made a terrible mistake. It was made clear to the court that the jury had overlooked adding the qualifying words "in voluntary" which would have carried the conviction as one of manslaughter, not murder. A statement was forwarded to the minister of justice, praying to have the verdict changed and Benjamin resented.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET

A Well-known Actress Tells How She Darkened Her Gray Hair With a Simple Home-Made Mixture. Miss Blanche Rose, a well-known actress, who darkened her gray hair with a simple preparation which she mixed at home, in a recent interview at Chicago, Ill., made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To make a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Orlex Compound, and 1/2 oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the required shade. This will make a gray-haired person look 20 years younger, it makes the hair soft and glossy, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.
