MARITIME PROBE COMMISSION NAMED

SIR A. R. DUNCAN, WHO HEADED N. S. COAL INQUIRY, MEMBER

Dr. McGill, Winnipeg; Judge W. B. Wallace, Halifax; Hon. Dr. W. E. Foster, Saint John, Also On Board

OTTAWA, March 27.—It was learned here today on the highest authority that the personnel of the commission to investigate conditions in the Maritime Provinces will be as follows: Sir Andrew Rae Duncan, Kent, England; Dr. McGill, of Winnipeg; Judge W. B. Wallace, of Halifax; Hon. W. E. Foster, of Saint John.

The Nova Scotia Government is at the present preparing its case and it is presumed that the Governments of New Brunswick and P. E. I. will take immediate action to get ready their cases for the commission.

The work which this Royal Commission is to do was outlined in the Speech from the Throne made public at the opening of Parliament on January 1st.

AUTHORITY OF COMMISSION.

The paragraph in the Speech relating to the Maritime Provinces was as follows: "With a view to affording such remedies as may be practical and appropriate, the Government propose to appoint a Royal Commission to inquire fully into the claims that the rights of the Maritime Provinces, in regard to the operation of the Intercolonial Railway, have not been observed, and that in regard to transportation, immigration and other economic factors, these provinces have suffered prejudicially in their position under Confederation."

PERSONNEL IS STRONG ONE.

The personnel of the new Commission will strike Maritime Province people favorably. It has been suggested on several occasions that the investigation should be under the chairmanship of an experienced and able public man from Great Britain, who, because of his detachment and training, would view all the issues judicially.

Sir Andrew Rae Duncan has all these qualifications. He was chairman of the commission of investigation which a few weeks ago completed its inquiry into the mining situation in Nova Scotia, and his ability and impartiality, as well as the character of the report submitted, have been the subject of no little complimentary publicity. Sir Andrew was Coal Controller in Great Britain in 1919-20.

Hon. Dr. W. E. Foster, former Premier of New Brunswick, needs no introduction in the Maritime public. His fitness for the work will be generally recognized.

Judge W. B. Wallace, of Halifax, is an able and public-spirited citizen with a penetrating knowledge of Maritime conditions, a man trusted and respected by the public.

Dr. McGill is secretary of the Grain Exchange of Winnipeg, and formerly was a professor at Dalhousie University. He is known as a well-equipped student of public affairs and of economic questions, and he has special knowledge of Maritime problems.

NEW YORK, March 27.—New York criminals are in a panic as the opinion of recent Police Attorney Banton. "The roundup of several 'night club' gangs, including the Whittmore band, and the rapid disposition of cases in the courts since the first of the year have frightened the criminal element, he believes."

There are only 862 indictments pending against 699 a year ago. Of 1,638 cases tried since January 1, 1925 resulted in convictions.

Confession Exposes Plot To Kill European Leaders

LONDON, March 27.—Another Central European sensation rivaling the Hungarian bank note forgeries is threatened should the confession of an accused orderer in jail at Budapest be corroborated. Theodor Okoliosany is awaiting trial for the killing of a Budapest demagogue, Amelias Leizer. He has signed a statement that he and another man who has since committed suicide were entrusted with a 'patriotic mission' to assassinate Dr. Bene, the Czecho-Slovakian foreign minister. According to his confession, a passport was granted to the prisoner by Chief of Police Nadosy, who is charged with complicity in the bank note forgery. A written account of the 'mission of murder,' implicating high Hungarian officials, has not been published and Okoliosany's counsel is said to have repudiated the document. According to information reaching here, however, the papers are in the hands of the Hungarian parliament and are likely to be made public. A plot to assassinate President Masaryk of Czecho-Slovakia is also alleged.

COULD DO MORE BUSINESS HERE IN HARDWOOD

Portland Dealer in City on Mission in This Connection

POSITION IN NEW ENGLAND BETTER

C. E. Towne Makes Suggestion for Industry in N. B.

That there was a decidedly improved tone to the hardwood market in the New England States was said today by C. E. Towne, of the firm of R. E. Glaves & Son, Portland, Me., who was at the Royal Hotel. All those interested in the hardwood business were talking in an optimistic vein, Mr. Towne said. The dealers were not heavily stocked and while they were buying cautiously at present, indications pointed to an improvement.

BAGS SOUNDER
A factor tending to improve conditions was the fact that many of the lumber dealers recognized by writing off losses and the business now on a generally sounder basis. The eastern furniture business also was improving, he said.

Mr. Towne is here for the purpose of familiarizing the New Brunswick lumbermen with the national method of grading hardwood. When graded by this method, he said, hardwood could be sent to any part of the United States and the grading would be accepted, thus doing away with unnecessary disputes. More care had to be taken, also, in cutting hardwood than soft, and this necessitated a slight change in equipment. Small variations in hardwood methods would permit the local lumbermen to cut hardwood and ship it to the United States at a profit, Mr. Towne said.

MAKES SUGGESTION
A novel factory in the province to use low grade hardwood not suitable for shipment, should prove profitable, Mr. Towne thought. He believed there would be a large influx of tourists to these parts during the next few years and there should be a good market for the manufacture of furniture for sporting camps, summer residences, etc. Such an industry could be started in a small way and gradually expand, enabling various odd articles for home consumption.

Mr. Towne has been at Sorensen, outside of Perth, the last of his trip, which places his firm in shipping about 100,000 feet of hardwood. He thinks New Brunswick and Nova Scotia have a great future in regard to hardwood, and thinks a very satisfactory business can be worked up in this line.

Collected Money to Buy Shares, But Never Delivered Certificates

NEW YORK, March 27—Mrs. Grace O. Bange, and her husband, a 440 a week clerk, are under arrest today charged with swindling friends and relatives out of nearly $400,000 in fictitious stock transactions.

Mrs. Bange admitted to police, they say, that she told friends she was able to get an employe of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, to buy the company's stock at par, which is under the market price. They flooded her, asking her to invest money for them, and she gave them receipts but no stock. From time to time she paid dividends out of capital to keep them satisfied and spent the rest in luxurious living for the past three years.

The heaviest loser, police believe, is H. A. Demington, an executive of the Standard Oil Company, employe of the husband, Charles W. Bange. Mr. Demington, police were told, paid $75,000 for the fictitious stock.

MANITOBA APPROVES PUBLIC UTILITY BD.

Regarded as Start in Direction of Local Government System

WINNIPEG, Man., March 27.—As being a start in the direction of having a local government board in Manitoba, the principle of which was heartily endorsed, representatives of opposition groups in the Legislature last night placed themselves on record as approving of the government's bill for creating a municipal and public utility board. They made it clear, however, that they are not satisfied with some of the 184 clauses of the measure, which is one of the longest ever presented to the House, and would make a strenuous fight to get amendment effected in committee.

Under the legislation a board of three, a chairman and two part time members will be created to control the affairs of municipalities and keep them financially sound and to administer the public utility acts, under which control is exercised over sale of company shares.

Yet at modest outlay they lend full truth to the idea that every man's Home ought to be his palace. It is the place he spends the hours of reward for toil, of rest and stimulation to renew the battle of life. The basis of it all is Furniture that delights the eye, Furniture of scenic beauty, of utmost comfort and utility. And on Monday next you may own that finer understanding of what Furniture can be and do—with your old suites turning the trick for you. No cash required whatever.

When Mr. G. R. Smith Traded His In

A year ago Mr. George R. Smith read the first Trade-In announcement of J. Marcus, Ltd. He had been passing the Marcus windows, looking with longing eye on the lovely Furniture that was not known when his was bought seven years before.

He realized his Furniture was not up to scratch by modern standards. He decided it was worth so much to him—called in the Marcus valuer—the allowance offered was exactly the same. He then selected two specially fine Suites.

A month ago Mr. Smith moved a long ways off. He offered his Suites for Sale. They were bought by another Furniture dealer for exactly the same money as charged by J. Marcus, Ltd., the dealer remarking that the price was 20 per cent. below wholesale.

That says something for Marcus buying power and how it helps you in the Trade-In Sale. The name is given to verify the story. You'll find by far the largest and tastiest selection of Furniture at J. Marcus, Ltd., safe guarantees and better value.

CUTICURA HEALS ECZEMA IN RASH

On Scalp, Later on Limbs, Caused Much Suffering.

"I had eczema which made the appearance on my scalp in a rash. It itched terribly and when I scratched it, blisters broke out. Later the eczema broke out on my limbs, which were badly swollen and very red. It kept me awake at night and caused much pain and suffering. When I washed or went near the hot stove it was very painful."

"I had an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more and in two or three months I was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Emma C. Gibson, R. 1, Box 71, Island Pond, Vt., Oct. 26, 1925.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., MARCH 27, 1935.

THE OLD AND THE BLIND.

The Mackenzie King Government's proposal for old age pensions to begin at the age of seventy, the maximum payment to be $240 a year, is likely to prove a highly contentious piece of legislation.

There is in Canada a considerable body of opinion favoring the introduction of some such plan, and the Government is right in believing that at its inception the scale of payments should be very limited.

Of course, if the Dominion Government raises the money, it can only do so by some form of taxation falling upon the people of all the provinces.

The search for painless taxation, which is universal, has nowhere been successful, and however great the genius of Canadian statesmanship, it probably is unequal to the task of finding money receipts in the pockets of that portion of the population which pays the taxes.

It has been said in many quarters that in a young country like Canada, where there is no numerous class of very rich people, yet where serious and honest work in almost any line produces a reasonable return, we should avoid legislative adventures in philanthropy.

It is interesting to note that a petition has been presented to the Government by Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, on behalf of the blind people of Montreal, asking that special consideration be given them in the work of old age pensions legislation.

At present the outcome of the Government's plan is doubtful, but should Parliament approve of it, the movement on behalf of the blind throughout Canada should receive most sympathetic consideration.

THE LIGHT BLUE WINS.

The Cambridge eight rowed to easy victory over Oxford on the Thames today, cheered by crowds estimated loosely as numbering from half a million to a million people.

The famous classic lores nothing in popularity as the years go on. This is the seventy-eighth race between the two great Universities. Last year, in rough water, Cambridge won, the Oxford boat becoming water-logged, compelling the Dark Blue to abandon the struggle.

THE THERMOMETER REGISTERING TWELVE DEGREES OF FROST AND ICE FLOATING IN THE THAMES.

Many of Britain's most famous men, both in military and in civil life, rowed for Oxford or Cambridge in their youth.

Hon. J. C. Elliott, the new Minister of Labor, was described the other day by a Conservative newspaper as "a small town lawyer." The Toronto Globe refers to some other "small town lawyers," finding many of them among the pathway of political progress in Canada.

The conductor and the lady. Always had to have their jokes. "I help you to alight," said he. She answered, "I don't smoke."

Listen to the Hon. Robert Rogers. He says that he expects a general election during the present year. Having scanned the field with an experienced eye, he says: "All signs point that way."

A newspaper plebiscite on prohibition in Nova Scotia is being taken by the Halifax Herald. For some days past it has been publishing a ballot form asking two questions: (1) "Are you in favor of the existing prohibition law in Nova Scotia?" and (2) "Are you in favor of the law being modified to permit the sale of liquor?"

Odds and Ends

The Old Ones Are Best. (P. B. M. Column in Ottawa Citizen.) Dear Pbm: What do you think of this one?

It is a common occurrence that on reading a newspaper one will frequently, almost daily, note errors in spelling or in sentence construction.

The Very Idea!

THE folks 'er goin' out tonight—stoppin', as it were—and both of them are dressin' fit to kill. It's Saturday, and Saturday is when such things occur and all week long it's hard to wait until.

JUST A MINUTE

Doesn't seem right to charge a man with having voted more than once—when he expected to be paid for it.

Don't worry if you promise to do your best to arrive home at a certain time, and then miss it. You'll catch it when you get home.

A porter captured a bandit who tried to hold up a train and now they don't know whether to reward him for protecting passengers, or removing competition.

Seems to me like people make too much trouble over trouble. All you gotta do is stop and think back over a few years, and you'll find out that bad times are just situations, aren't half as bad or tough as you thought they were going to be.

Remember that when the next mess of seeming trouble comes along—and fight it out just like you did before.

A train may be going to New York and points east—but who cares which way it points, as long as they're sure of the destination?

Remember that when the next mess of seeming trouble comes along—and fight it out just like you did before.

Just Fun

I HAVE found the meanest man at last. "Who? What did he do?" "He's deaf, and has never told his barber."

THE waitress with a million dollars doesn't have to be a good conversationalist; her "money" talks.

"IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE." A lion met a tiger. As they drank beside a pool. Said the tiger, "Tell me why you're roaring like a fool?" "That's not foolish," said the lion. "With a twinkle in his eyes."

THE man who buys the dress is willing to for it to be shorter if she will only wear it longer.

FAMOUS FLATS. Title. To Let. Head. Iron.

THE great transcontinental trains now are equipped with bathtubs. All prudent people will now arrange to travel on Saturday so as to get their money's worth.

WIT NOT LAME. TRAMP: For the love of God, help a poor cripple. Aged Woman (touched by the appeal): Bless me, why of course. Here's a dollar. Where are you crippled, my poor man? Tramp: (Crippled, miss.) Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

MAN (to boy seated alone on edge of lot in which several boys were playing): What's the matter, sonny, why aren't you playing with the other boys? Boy: They don't want me to play with them; they found out something about me.

Man: Was it something bad? Boy: They think so, but I can't help it. You see, mister, these fellows say I'm a sissy because I'm twins with a girl.—Los Angeles Times.

THERE are two sides to every question. Yours and the idiotic one.

Poems That Live

STANZAS FROM "MAUD." O that 'twere possible After long grief and pain To find the arms of my true love Round me once again!

When I was wont to meet her In the silent woodsy places By the home that gave me birth, We stood fringed in long embraces Mist with kisses sweeter, sweeter Than anything on earth.

A shadow flits before me, Not that, but like to thee; Oh, Christ, that it were possible For one short hour to see The souls we loved, that they might tell us What and where they be.

The Best of Advice

BY CLARK KINNAIRD

WHOSO WOULD BE A MAN—

NO ONE above the intelligence of a patriot-fighter or movie actor really believes the American political machinery is perfect, and that it represents man's highest achievement in the art of government; yet among certain elements it is a disloyal and even unsafe to publicly suggest that a better scheme of rule could and should be instituted in Washington.

Any man with any such idea is a Radical and a dangerous fellow, even if he merely wants to do by means of the ballot what a little band of patriots did by force of arms in 1776-1781.

Conformity is a favorite subject in the pulpits and in schoolrooms; yet man owes all his progress to NON-CONFORMISTS.

"Whoso would be a man must be a nonconformist," Emerson declares. "No law should be sacred to a man but that of his own nature."

THOREAU greets a guide-post with his, "Let ever man mind his OWN

business and endeavor to be what he was made"

"That is not easy. Is your mind your own? Then you are different from most men."

Thinking for yourself, acting as YOU think best, is like swimming against a furious current. It is always easier to go down than UP stream, and most men are content to drift along with what is known as Public Opinion, with no more individuality of mind than a sheep, animal that must have a leader.

"WHAT I must do is all that concerns me, not what other people think." This rule of Emerson's, equally arduous in actual and intellectual life, may serve for the whole distinction between greatness and meanness.

It is the harder because you will always have about you persons who think that you know what is your duty better than you know it.

"It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after our own; but Emerson opines, "the GREAT man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude."

THERE is no one thing that ALL men love. As Montaigne observed in one of his essays, "There never was in the world two opinions alike, no more than two hairs, or two grains; the universal quality is diversity."

Yet men do not act according to their own distinctly individual bent, but in accordance with the force of that most powerful of winds, Public Opinion.

Dinner Stories. A SMALL, hen-pecked, worried-looking man was about to take an examination for life insurance.

"You don't dispart, do you?" asked the physician, as he made ready for tests. "Not a fast liver, or anything of that sort?"

The little man hesitated a moment, looked a bit frightened, then replied, in a small, piping voice: "I sometimes chew a little gum."

"Twice as the horse-bus slowly wended its way up the steep hill the door at the rear opened and slammed. At first those inside paid little heed, but the third time they demanded to know why they should be disturbed in this fashion.

"What?" cautioned the driver. "Don't spake so loud. Hell overhear us."

"The boss. Spake low. Shure O'm deavin the creature. Every toime he 'ears th' door close he thinks was 'ez is gettin' down ter walk up th' hill, an' that sort 'raises 'is spirits."

A CONFIRMED hypochondriac, meeting his personal physician on the street, said to him: "Doctor, I have just come from a popular medi-

business and endeavor to be what he was made"

cal lecture and I am much afraid that I have kidney trouble."

"I knew it!" gasped the hypochondriac. "My symptoms exactly!"

Timely Views On World Topics

By HANFORD MACNIDER. IN THE next magazine there will be no present waste and extravagance as occurred during the war to do its thinking and planning for such disastrous emergency.

We used nearly everything in the national household in our sudden wild floundering to arm ourselves for defence, we threw energy and money in a hundred useless directions, to say nothing of needlessly sacrificing the lives and health of those men who stood forth for service with the colors.

The industrial preparedness is in the plan of industry to prevent a repetition of such waste and confusion—the plan of industry to insure the nation against the destructions of war.

What we all want is not a great army, but an expert nucleus; not great men or arms, but a well thought out, comprehensive and expert structure of emergency insurance plans. Then, when the people through the Congress declare it operative, we can rise as one mighty and overwhelming company any put out any configuration which may menace the peace and welfare of America—and that means the peace and welfare of the world.

MRS. FARRIS DIES IN EAST SAINT JOHN

SURVIVED HUSBAND ONLY FEW MONTHS

Was Formerly Miss Hay of Woodstock and Helped Sick and Suffering

Mrs. Mary Louisa Farris, widow of Hon. L. P. Farris, died in East Saint John last night. Mrs. Farris made her home for the last five or six years with her son, Dr. H. A. Farris, superintendent of the Saint John County Hospital. Mrs. Farris had been in failing health for some time but since the death of her husband on Dec. 9, 1925, she had felled rapidly and only survived her life partner by a little more than three months.

WAS WOODSTOCK GIRL.

Mrs. Farris before her marriage was Miss Mary Louisa Hay, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hay of Woodstock. Her early days were spent in Woodstock and she was educated at the Grammar school there. Hon. L. P. Farris sat in the Provincial Legislature for 16 consecutive years and was for some time Commissioner of Agriculture for the province. Mrs. Farris ably sustained her husband in his public duties and their home in Queens county was noted for its open-hearted hospitality. The inspiration which they derived from a devoted and devoted mother may be in some measure responsible for the fact that all of Mrs. Farris' four sons have achieved conspicuous success in fields of high endeavor. One son, J. W. DeB. Farris, K.C., was formerly attorney-general in British Columbia and is now practising law in Vancouver. Dr. H. A. Farris, of East Saint John, is a tuberculosis expert of wide reputation who has made a valuable contribution to the fight against that disease in Canada. Bruce M. Farris, another son, is a member of the King Farris Lumber Company and a partner in the firm of the Great Central Saw Mills Company of Vancouver. The youngest son, Wendell B. Farris, K.C., of Vancouver, is a member of the law firm which is headed by J. W. DeB. Farris. There are two grand-children residing in Vancouver. Mrs. Farris is also survived by two brothers, Dr. H. B. Hay, of Chatham, N. B., and Clarence Hay, in Aberdeen, North Dakota.

EPIDEMIC OF 'FLU' RAGES IN HALIFAX

Scores Are Confined to Bed and Trade is Badly Inconvenienced

HALIFAX, March 26.—During the past several days an epidemic of influenza has been daily adding fresh names to its steadily lengthening list of victims. The disease, generally described as a mild type of "flu," has already caused no little inconvenience in the business life of the city, scores of workers in banks, stores and other establishments being confined to their beds. According to local health authorities, those stricken usually recover in about a week. In many cases the disease is no worse than a severe cold, being accompanied, however, with giddiness, pains in the head and a feeling of weakness, while many sufferers feel so hoarse that speech is almost impossible. It is unofficially estimated that to date several hundred persons have been attacked by "flu" germs.

Lieutenants Helen Cannell of third Rothsay company, and Katherine Peters, of 1st Rothsay company, have received their warrants. The second Rothsay company played a most exciting hockey match against Y. W. C. A. girls on Monday evening. The score resulted in a tie. Captain Haquard is to be congratulated for her good work among the guides, since many of the guides have passed their second class tests, and are working towards the first class badges. The Guides also extend their thanks to Lieutenant Elizabeth P. Mott for the fine encouragement she gives the guides in their work.

SHAKESPEARE MEMORIAL BURNS

On Shakespeare's birthday, April 23, 1877, the first stone of the Memorial at Stratford-on-Avon was laid. It comprised a picture-gallery, a library, and a theatre. It is this theatre which has just fallen prey to flames, but fortunately the remaining buildings were saved. The theatre was built in a style reminiscent of the Globe Theatre in London in which the bard's plays were first produced. In it the annual festival have been held since its completion.

A Special Plea to Those Who Have Children, Dogs or Chickens—Which Mother-in-Law Shall They Invite to Live With Them After Marriage?—How Can He Get His Sweetheart's Kisses?

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—Now that spring is nearly here and every one is thinking of flowers and a nice garden, won't you please write something about other people's children, chickens and dogs? I spent a lot of money and good hard work last year on my flower beds, only to have them destroyed by my next-door neighbor's children and dogs and chickens. I am a lover of children and dumb animals, but I also love my flowers and desire to keep my place attractive. While I made no protest, in order to keep the peace, I don't think it fair, do you?

GOOD-NATURED.

ANSWER:—Certainly don't. People who keep chickens and dogs should certainly have enough regard for their neighbor's rights to keep them within bounds. But they rarely do.

Generally, they let their hens scratch for a living in the back yard, or in the immediate vicinity, and think it highly amusing for you to demolish your shrubbery digging for rats. Furthermore, there is no surer way to get the reputation of being a grouch and a crank than to object to being waked up at 4 a.m. by the Jones' rooster or to throw something at the Smiths' cats when they trespass on your back fence.

There is nothing in human nature stranger than the mental twist which makes otherwise fair and just people think it perfectly all right for their chickens to scratch up your garden, but a high crime and misdemeanor for anybody else's chickens to molest their garden. Why, I have even known people who could not see why any dog should be kept in their yard, which they explained, always nipped you in a playful spirit! But they would not have seen the humor of the situation if your dog had bitten them.

As for parents, it is only once in a blue moon that you find a father and a mother who have any regard for anybody else's pleasure or comfort or property rights when they come in contact with their offspring. They themselves are kind and considerate and fair and honest. They would not injure you in any way themselves, but they will let their children ruthlessly destroy your most cherished possessions. They will let them keep you awake with their noise and shatter your nerves without the slightest compunction.

It is because parents permit their children to be vandals that landlords so often refuse to rent handsome apartments or houses to people with children. They know that mother will think it cute for Johnny to try out his penknives on the mahogany banisters, and amusing for Tommy to drive nails in the hardwood floor, and for Susie to show how well she can write by scrawling her name on the drawing-room wall.

There is not one of us who has not been driven to the verge of nervous prostration by the screams and yells of some child that its mother did not apparently hear and who has not watched while some infant demon scratched our old mahogany with a pin or dog-eared some precious first edition, while its mother complacently smiled and said that she thought Percy would be an artist because he was always drawing pictures, and she was sure that Araminta would be a writer, she was so fond of books.

So I think that parents are beyond reach of any argument to their sense of justice or any appeal to their pity, Good Natured. If their kids want to play on your lawn, their fathers and mothers are not going to try to stop them. All you can do is just to keep on being good natured and reflect that if you had children you would, without doubt, do the same way, and think that anybody who objected to the little darlings amusing themselves by pulling up flowers was a little bit of a prig.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am a young man engaged to be married, but here is a trouble. My girl wishes to live with her mother after marriage. I have three sisters married, but I don't feel that my mother should be supported by her sons-in-law. My girl has two brothers who are married and who are much better off financially than I am. If we cannot keep both of them, which mother-in-law has the most right to live with us?

J. A. B.

ANSWER:—This is a hard question to answer, as undoubtedly the duty of a daughter and a son to a mother are equal.

However, I think it is the son's duty to support his mother financially and the daughter's duty to take care of her personally. This would put a mother in her daughter's house, but the daughter's husband would not be required to feed and clothe her brute.

Undoubtedly it is much less trying for a woman to live with her own mother than it is with her husband's mother, because her affection for her mother and her habit of giving in to her makes it easier for her to bear with her nagging and to put up with the continual meddling in her affairs and the never-ending advice and suggestions which every old woman cannot refrain from handing out to those about her.

And it is easier for a man to live with his mother-in-law than it is for a woman to live with her mother-in-law because the interests do not conflict at every point and he is away from home most of the time. He is not shut up with her all day long every day in the same house.

But it is not right that the sons should simply pass the buck, as most men do, in a case where they have sisters and wish mother and her support on brother-in-law entirely.

The best solution of the mother-in-law problem is for it not to be on the children, but on the mother, by each paying his or her share, to support her in her own home or else in some nice boarding house or hotel. Then mother can live in peace and dignity, with the certain knowledge that she is not upsetting any household by her presence, and she can visit her children with the knowledge that she is a welcome guest.

But I should say to your case, J. A. B., that your brothers-in-law should pay their mother's board in your house and that you should pay part of your mother's expenses in your sister's. There are three of them and they should contribute their pro rata.

But don't try living in the house with two mothers-in-law unless all four of you are pin-feathered angels.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am crazy about a girl, but it is not serious because I am only 20 and she is 18. My trouble is this: She doesn't like to be kissed. I have only had four kisses in the last two years. Now, I would go through fire and water for one of her kisses because they are so few and far between. And I want to know how to get them.

TOMMY.

If I knew how to turn a nice girl into a kissing bug I wouldn't tell, Tommy, because I think a girl cheapens herself so when she makes her lips a free sweet-lunch counter for every lad who comes along.

I only print your letter to show girls how true is the thing that I am always telling them, that the more a girl holds herself the more men run after her, and the rarer her favors the more men value them. If diamonds were as common and cheap as pebbles on the seashore, we wouldn't have them set in platinum and hang them about our necks and ears. We would boot 'em out of them and trample them underfoot.

By Marie Belmont. The woman who wishes to own a spring coat which imparts added elegance to her figure cannot make a better choice than a model like the coat above.

A soft red light-weight woolen material is chosen for the coat, with brown suede insets being trimming. This is all, save a soft, folded collar of the red which stands up about the neck.

The smart little hat is of brown felt, folded over high at the back.

Noah Beery In Another Story by Rex Beach

"PADLOCKED" is the second Rex Beach story in which Noah Beery has an outstanding role.

"One of the performances in which Beery is still remembered is "The Spotters," in which he played with Milton Sills, taking the role of McNamara, the politician.

In "Padlocked" he has the powerful part of Henry Gilchrist, considered one of the outstanding fiction characters of the year. Rex Beach's story is appearing in a magazine.

It is a story of strong denunciation of the attempted repression by the narrow-minded members of the older generation. The younger generation, with its ideas of individuality, freedom and accomplishment is glorified.

IN NEW YORK SEE SAWING UP and DOWN BROADWAY

RANDOM notes from an afternoon's ramble about Manhattan: Hurrah, the first circus posters flaunt their gaudy colors in our village. Which means that Dexter Fellows has come out of his hole, or wherever he spends the winter, and 'seen his shadow. In speaking of spring bargainers, within the past few weeks I completely overlooked Fellows. He's a veteran circus press agent—grand mistakes are an everthing.

IN THE Wall Street belt they are known as the "Standard Oil tenors." They are all graduates of the Park Avenue Baptist Church choir, which is affectionately named as John D. Rockefeller's church. Franklin Bauer is a heavy young broadcaster and phonograph record maker; George Raseley went into musical comedy; Bechtel Alcock, in addition to being husband to Mrs. Alcock of the Metropolitan, went upon the musical stage and returned to Broadway and John Steel went into musical comedy. They all got their starts in John D's church.

OBSERVE many of the handsome foreign invaders of our American movie strutting into first night performances on Broadway. And getting little or no tumble from the fan mob which generally breaks its own and several other necks to get a peep. But, then, the girls have scarce had time to see the newcomers flourish.

Lars Hanson, the quite blondish young idol of Sweden, will henceforth be found in the film company of one of the Gishes—Dorothy, I believe. And then, my dears, there is Ivan Petrovich. No, he is not another thirty-second cousin of the late Czar. Rather he comes from Serbia to be seen along with Allan Terry. This Petrovich, I am told, studied music at Prague and then they are nervous and do sleep a concert artist. But the war came on, and so he became an officer in the royal cavalry. When the Serbians were forced from the country, who was right along but little Ivan? All of which makes his own life somewhat of a scenario in itself.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS by OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

PRICKLES PORCUPINE SNEAKS OFF. The burglar alarm over the tub in Scrub-Up Land went "Brrrr! Brrrr! Brrrr! Brrrr!" "Come back! Someone's trying to sneak off without getting spring-cleaned."

"You don't say so?" exclaimed the March Hare, who was just about to leave with the Twins in search of some more Meadow people to scrub up so they could go to the Land-Where-Spring-Is-Coming.

"Spring was getting very near now, and there was still ever so many of them not finished. "Whose number is it?" said the March Hare, looking over his spectacles at the little clock-shaped affair that told you whose house was being robbed—or at least whose front door was being opened without the fairman knowing about it.

"I think it says 'Prickles Porcupine,'" he remarked. "Come, Nick, and tell me whose burglar alarm is ringing. There it goes again. I can't see very well."

"Prickles Porcupine?" said Nick. "Prickles Porcupine?" cried Mister Rubadub and the March Hare together in some too pleased a voice, or rather their too pleased voices. They both were thinking the same thing—that of all the people they had to barber, or bring to be barbered, Prickles was the very worst. Indeed he was just about as dreadful as anyone could possibly be.

Prickles appears to be just as soft and pleasant as a lamb to look at. His long brown hair lies down so flat and sleek against his sides, that you never would dream that right under it he is a whole coat of daggers.

Yes, sir! Still sharp, spiny daggers! He's threatening to invade America as a concert artist. But the war came on, and so he became an officer in the royal cavalry. When the Serbians were forced from the country, who was right along but little Ivan? All of which makes his own life somewhat of a scenario in itself.

There are people who lack the red blood to give color to their lips, warmth to their hands and brightness to their eyes. The tonic that gives strength, that revitalizes weak nerves, that increases the appetite and aids digestion, will put color in the cheeks, and give vigor to the step. That means new joy in living, increased usefulness and longer life.

Wherever you find a person who has taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills faithfully you find an enthusiastic friend of the tonic that has made life mean more in many ways. These blood-making pills have been used by those who are generally poor and almost every community, however small, can be found those who owe health and happiness to this famous household remedy.

Weak and Run Down. "I wish from my heart I could persuade every person who is run down in health to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. This writes Mrs. Louis Mitchell, Oak Point, Man., who further says:—'About a year ago I was a weak woman, suffering from a run down system and impoverished blood. Any little exertion would cause my legs to tremble and my heart to throb violently. I could not sweep a room or walk fifty feet without being exhausted. Then I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking only six boxes I am as well and strong as ever. I can walk and run without stopping every few seconds gasping for breath as previously. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be my standby in the future if ever my blood needs building up again and I shall always find pleasure in recommending them to anyone needing a tonic.'

Relief from Indigestion. When the stomach is feeble and food lies in it undigested the poisonous gases distend the walls of the stomach and cause serious interference with the action of the heart and lungs. These poisonous gases have other ill effects. They are absorbed by the blood and so weaken and corrupt it as to cause aches in remote parts of the body and the formation of unhealthy tissue everywhere. Experience shows that these troubles vanish just as soon as the stomach is made strong.

Keep Your System Toned Up. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and foods that once distressed you will be harmless, exposure will bring no fears of rheumatism and neuritis and even germ disease need hardly be dreaded.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills assist digestion, correct the heartbeats, the palpitation of the heart, shaky nerves and the pallor of the face and lips that are the results of thin, impure blood. Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness. Take them as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate a resistance that will keep you well and strong. Get a box from the nearest drug store and begin this treatment now.

BE IN THE THROG OF RED BLOODED MEN AND WOMEN

Get More Pleasure Out of Life and Be of More Use in the World by Toning Up Your System With This Well-Known Household Remedy

There are people who lack the red blood to give color to their lips, warmth to their hands and brightness to their eyes. The tonic that gives strength, that revitalizes weak nerves, that increases the appetite and aids digestion, will put color in the cheeks, and give vigor to the step. That means new joy in living, increased usefulness and longer life.

Wherever you find a person who has taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills faithfully you find an enthusiastic friend of the tonic that has made life mean more in many ways. These blood-making pills have been used by those who are generally poor and almost every community, however small, can be found those who owe health and happiness to this famous household remedy.

Weak and Run Down. "I wish from my heart I could persuade every person who is run down in health to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. This writes Mrs. Louis Mitchell, Oak Point, Man., who further says:—'About a year ago I was a weak woman, suffering from a run down system and impoverished blood. Any little exertion would cause my legs to tremble and my heart to throb violently. I could not sweep a room or walk fifty feet without being exhausted. Then I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking only six boxes I am as well and strong as ever. I can walk and run without stopping every few seconds gasping for breath as previously. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be my standby in the future if ever my blood needs building up again and I shall always find pleasure in recommending them to anyone needing a tonic.'

Relief from Indigestion. When the stomach is feeble and food lies in it undigested the poisonous gases distend the walls of the stomach and cause serious interference with the action of the heart and lungs. These poisonous gases have other ill effects. They are absorbed by the blood and so weaken and corrupt it as to cause aches in remote parts of the body and the formation of unhealthy tissue everywhere. Experience shows that these troubles vanish just as soon as the stomach is made strong.

Keep Your System Toned Up. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and foods that once distressed you will be harmless, exposure will bring no fears of rheumatism and neuritis and even germ disease need hardly be dreaded.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills assist digestion, correct the heartbeats, the palpitation of the heart, shaky nerves and the pallor of the face and lips that are the results of thin, impure blood. Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness. Take them as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate a resistance that will keep you well and strong. Get a box from the nearest drug store and begin this treatment now.

Send For These Health Books. Two useful books, "Building Up the Blood," and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., if you mention this paper. LEAVE TO SELL TIMES-STAR AT MONCTON TOLD

Two Witnesses Tell of Arrangement With Road's Police Chief

PROSECUTION HOLDS PERMIT VIOLATED

Court Adjourns Until March 31 For More Evidence, Etc.

MONCTON, March 26.—At this afternoon's hearing of the case against Kenneth D. Clifford of Saint John, charged with selling the Times-Star on the C. N. R. station platform here without permission from the railway authorities, two witnesses for the defence swore positively that such permission had been given, some days prior to the arrest, by Chief of C. N. R. Police Tingley and had never been withdrawn. Evidence regarding the circumstances leading up to the granting of this permission and the terms under which it was given was adduced, and, at the close of the case for the defence, rebuttal testimony was offered by the prosecution in an endeavor to show that the terms had been violated.

TRIAL STARTED. The trial of the case was commenced in the morning before Magistrate C. A. Steves, in the police court here. The charge laid against Mr. Clifford, to which he pleaded not guilty, was that of selling newspapers on the C. N. R. platform at Moncton without the permission of the railway authorities and in violation of the by-laws governing the management of the Canadian National Railways.

platform and, when informed of this the next day, Tingley said, "That's different; that's a local paper." Harold Trites, the Times-Star newsboy, was with McLeod when the agreement was reached with the C. N. R. police chief. Witness stated that he had never had word from Tingley withdrawing the permission given on March 16, and he was the proper person to receive such communication if any were to be sent. He told Clifford that the permission had been given.

ORDER-IN-COUNCIL. The order-in-council came into being by virtue of the powers laid down in Chapter 96 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, which deals, among other things, with the rules and regulations governing the management of the railway.

RIGHT TO SELL PAPERS. To Mr. Allen the witness said he thought he had as much right to sell the Times-Star in the place in question as had the Transcript, and that when Clifford had informed him of the boy's being ordered off on Saturday, he told Clifford to tell the boy on again. Tingley had said that one boy could sell so long as he did not go on the trains. There was a boy who traveled by train to Sunny Brae to sell in the latter place.

HUMOROUS TOUCH GIVEN. The early stages of the proceedings in court brought forth interesting facts, and, on several occasions the wily worded and pointed questions asked by Dr. Taylor, defence counsel, added a timely humorous touch to otherwise cut and dried procedure. His repeated reference to the C. N. R. as "Henry Thornton's railway" drew forth several objections from Mr. Allen for the prosecution. The sparring of counsel was all of the good-natured variety.

"Do you know," asked Dr. Taylor, his cross-examination of Station Agent Howard, "that the Times-Star and Telegraph-Journal have been criticizing the management of the C. N. R. under Sir Henry Thornton?"

"I read the papers," replied the witness.

"He does know," observed Dr. Taylor to the court, "since he reads the papers. He is able to buy them even if they try to prevent other employees from doing so."

Referring to a statement made by Inspector Dunphy that there was a verbal agreement from pre-war days by which the Moncton papers could be sold on the platform, defence counsel asked the witness:

"When you speak of pre-war days, Inspector Dunphy, are you referring to the Great War or the war between the Telegraph-Journal and Sir Henry Thornton?" (Laughter.)

Hardly had the case opened this morning when Mr. Allen received a telegram from Montreal instructing him to secure an adjournment for a week if possible. Dr. Taylor said he would agree to this if Mr. Allen would agree of the boy being permitted to sell the Times-Star on the platform if the latter meantime. The court thought this fair, but counsel for the prosecution would not grant permission, but he did so far as to say that, if postponement were granted, he would see that the Saint John witnesses' expenses were paid by the C. N. R.

McLEOD TAKES STAND. When court resumed at 2:30, Harold McLeod, circulation manager of the Telegraph-Journal and Times-Star, took the stand for the defence. To Dr. Taylor, he said that he had been told by Mr. Linkletter, manager at Moncton of the Canada Railway News Company, that on March 15 the latter had been approached by City Harbour, manager of the Moncton Transcript, who asked him (Linkletter) to keep the boy from selling the Times-Star on the platform, but this Mr. Linkletter refused to do. The latter told witness he had no objection to the papers being sold on the platform.

According to the witness, Mr. Harbour then told Mr. Linkletter that he would see Mr. Appleton, general manager of the C. N. R., about the matter. The boy had been selling up till that day without trouble, but was afterwards ordered off.

TOLD TO SEE TINGLEY. The witness asked Officer Ahearn why he had ordered the Times-Star boy off the platform and had not ordered the Transcript boy off too, and was told he had better see Mr. Tingley about that. McLeod accordingly went to Chief Tingley, of the C. N. R. police, and was told that there was an arrangement whereby one Transcript boy was allowed to sell. He informed the witness that the Moncton Times was not allowed to be sold on the platform because the railway employees had formed the habit of reading the paper in the shops when they should be working.

AGREED TO TIMES-STAR SALS. Chief Tingley, witness said, finally agreed to allow one Times-Star newsboy to sell on the platform along with the Transcript boy. This was on March 16. On the same day the witness saw four boys selling the Transcript on the Allen asked for an adjournment until next Wednesday at 11 o'clock when he would close his case with the evidence of Chief Tingley. Court adjourned to that date when argument of counsel will also be heard.

FEW CHANGES SEEN IN SHEDIAC COUNCIL

Dr. Webster Mentioned to Succeed Mayor Robidoux, if the Latter Retires

SHEDIAC, March 26.—It is probable that changes will be slight in the membership of the Shediac Town Council which is to be elected in April. It is understood that Mayor Ferdinand J. Robidoux, ex-M. P., who is a member of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, will not consent to continue as chief executive of the town. He has been in office two years and has given good service.

Several leading residents are advocating the nomination of Dr. J. Clarence Webster for Mayor.

MANY PROJECTS. The new council is expected to deal with several projects of importance, including the hydro power, street improvements, sewers and possibly the laying out of an automobile camping ground for tourists.

Shediac residents are strongly in favor of the erection of a C. N. R. hotel in or near the town and this project is expected to be considered.

It is generally considered that Shediac and vicinity constitute one of the greatest natural summer resorts in the eastern provinces, but conveniences need to be supplied, according to many residents.

JACQUET RIVER CO. BILL IS APPROVED

Corporation Committee Agrees to Change in Extension of Powers

FREDERICTON, March 26.—The corporation committee met this morning and considered the bill to amend the act relating to the Jacquet River Boom Company.

The bill is for the purpose of continuing the company with others with capital stock of $25,000.

The committee amended the bill by making the term of extension of powers ten years instead of 25, as provided in the bill. The bill was reported.

The bill relating to St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Fredericton, was laid over, there being a possibility of interested parties getting together on some sections.

The committee reached the conclusion with respect to the length of the Jacquet River bill that if Hon. D. A. Stewart, who introduced it, could bring sufficient reasons for an increase over the term of 10 years that it would be considered when the bill was before the House.

LABOR MINISTER FACES PEOPLE IN VOTE MONDAY

Premier King Is At Stratroy For Liberal Wind-up

ROADS WRETCHED

Conservatives End Speaking Activities Yesterday—Both Sides Are Confident

Canadian Press. STRATHROY, Ont., March 27.—The West Middlesex by-election campaign draws to a close in a burst of Liberal oratory. Twelve meetings are being held this afternoon and evening in the interests of Hon. J. G. Elliott, Minister of Labor, the official wind-up being at Glencoe this evening, with Premier King and the Hon. Mr. Elliott as the speakers. Several other Dominion cabinet ministers will be in the riding and will address various meetings. The scheduled speaking campaign, as far as the Liberal-Conservative were concerned, closed last night, when meetings in the interests of Thomas A. Elliott were held at Wardsville, Delaware and Adelaide.

The riding goes to the polls on Monday. Both sides profess to be confident of the outcome and supporters of both parties will continue personal activity till the polls close on Monday evening.

ROADS ARE BAD. The roads, which on nomination day were just beginning to disintegrate, were worse than ever now, and the vote on Monday may not be large for the same reason that campaign meetings were not largely attended. Even with difficult transportation as a drawback, however, the interest in the election fight has been keener than for a great many years.

The total vote in the general election last October was just over 11,000. It was divided as follows: J. C. Elliott, Liberal, 4,880; A. McDougall, Progressive, 3,223; and Thomas A. Elliott, Conservative, 3,970. This time the fight is a straight one between the Conservative and the Liberal, the Progressive having decided not to enter a man. It is estimated that the total vote on Monday may reach 10,000.

Labor Vice-president Criticizes His Stand on Old Age Pensions Scheme

TORONTO, Ont., March 27.—Bert Merson, of Toronto, vice-president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, issued a statement today, criticising Premier Howard Ferguson for his attitude on old age pensions, the Premier having stated that the Ontario Government could not at present co-operate with the Federal Government on a scheme by which the poor of the province would receive twenty dollars a month after seventy years of age if without means of support. Merson declared the Premier would find that there were other issues than the Ontario Temperance Act when he appealed to the country.

BOOST IN CANADIAN MILK DUTY FOUGHT

Four Yarmouth Men Find 12-Foot Hemlock Upon Island

YARMOUTH, March 26.—A party of four Yarmouth men have just returned from a cruise in the vicinity of Lake Misepough, the surface of which they found covered with 26 inches of ice, which goes well to show that the inland waters will not be free of ice for some weeks to come.

Misepough is the largest body of fresh water in Yarmouth county and contains many islands. During the cruise the party in a hike of several miles visited some of the islands and made a few interesting discoveries.

One was on a heavily wooded island where they found a hemlock, fresh green and of exceptional growth. On measuring it, it was found to be 12 feet in circumference and as one of "the party estimated its age the tree must have been a sapling when DeMonts founded Port Royal.

The party also discovered how disastrous is the way the crypto coccus fagi is attacking and destroying the beech trees in the vicinity of Misepough. That was particularly so in the mainland where they found large numbers of trees either totally dead or badly showing the effects which that destructive insect is playing among the beech. Visiting many of the islands there were no signs of the crypto coccus fagi to be found, so far as they could discover. They also report snow in the woods over two feet in depth which seriously interfered with the real purpose of the trip, namely, tapping maple trees for syrup.

SOFT ROADS IMPEDE SHEDIAC TRAFFIC

SHEDIAC, March 26.—The mild weather which has prevailed the greater part of the week has almost prohibited travel by team on the highways. Country roads have been late and much business held up by the soft roads. Shediac Bridge and Grand Digue residents broke a road across the bay to town, about three miles, and traveling by this route has been fair. There had been practically no travel on the bay since December because of deep snow. Water is appearing on the ice at the Scoudouc river mouth in town.

175 DADS AND SONS FETED IN YARMOUTH

YARMOUTH, March 26.—The second annual "Father and Son" banquet of the local Y. M. C. A. was held in the gymnasium this evening and was a grand success. It was promoted by and held under the auspices of the H-Y Club and about 175 fathers and sons were present.

The catering was done by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. and that organization served a fish chowder and all that goes to make such a supper complete. During the supper music was furnished by the H-Y orchestra of six pieces and the program was rich with many well rendered selections.

Clifford L. Cann sat at the head of the table and acted as toastmaster and immediately following the supper a general old fashioned "sing song" was held with Karl W. Baker at the piano and J. A. Cann as song leader. The toast list was as follows: "The King," "The H-Y Club," proposed by S. M. Cain with Bancroft Davis responding; "Our Dads," proposed by Don Cain and Alvin Chipman; "Our Sons" by Dr. S. W. Williamson and J. Robbins; "Y.M.C.A. Camp, Wapomeo," Hugh Allan and Secretary W. O. Bell; "Our Mothers," proposed by Earl Suttie and responded to by Mrs. J. J. C. Robbins. The speaker of the evening was Rev. H. L. Haslam, rector of Holy Trinity Church, who spoke to the boys most earnestly, on the subject of "Roads or Highways."

LONDON, March 26.—Captain Harry Tose, of the freighter Antioque, whose crew was rescued by the liner President Roosevelt, denied that his vessel was in poor condition when she sailed for New York, at the continuation of the Board of Trade hearing.

"She was a good, stout ship; the strongest vessel I have ever seen," he said. He also declared that 80 spare hatch wedges were aboard when she sailed, these all being used up in the storm, after which the crew made others. This was in denial of charges made on Monday that the vessel's equipment was poor. He said the loss of the vessel was due to the jamming of the steering gear and the damage done the hatches.

Arthur Anglin Advocates Election of Council Members From Different Sections

Would Have All Serve Without Salary—Speaks on Municipal Affairs Before Women's Council—Mrs. A. W. Estey Comments on Local Tax Business

AT THE SPECIAL request of the Saint John Women's Council, Arthur Anglin, former lecturer in municipal administration at Harvard University, addressed the Council's meeting yesterday afternoon on the subject of civic government. Mrs. Anglin said a tribute to the work of the present city officials. He advocated having the members of the city council each elected to represent one section of the city only, and all to serve without salary.

The heads of the civic departments to be appointed by the council and responsible to it, and the council to meet only once a week, preferably in the evening in order that busy men might be able to serve as council members. Mrs. A. W. Estey, president of the Women's Council, was also present. Mr. Anglin was not in favor of a town ward in the chair, and the meeting was held in the Church of England Institute. A paper by Mrs. H. H. Pickett on Women's Franchise, was also greatly appreciated.

BUSINESS SESSION.
Mrs. T. H. Carter, treasurer, reported a balance of $180.83 in the general fund and $68.71 in the free milk fund. Contributions to the milk fund received included $14.50 from the Monday Night Bridge Club.
Miss Grace W. Leavitt reported having sent gifts to Mrs. Richard Hooper, Mrs. R. R. Pickett and Mrs. Hooper's maid in appreciation of congress extended to the council members, selling World Shaking meat tugs.
Mrs. Estey reported having received a letter from the New Brunswick national vice-president, Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, extending greetings and declining nomination by the Saint John Council for national president, and suggesting Mrs. Carpenter as a nominee instead.
The meeting placed Mrs. Carpenter's name as its nominee for national president, and nominated Mrs. E. Atherton Smith as a national vice-president.

OFFERS TO GIVE RECITAL.
E. Clyde Parsons having offered to have a recital by Saint John musical welcomed and spoke of his willingness to help the council at any time because of his great respect and admiration for the council work.

He said he had started the first milk station in Montreal, and last year this station handled $25,000 worth of milk. He had also organized the Child Welfare League of Canada.
Turning to speak of his special theme he said that all were working for a better Saint John. He said the city expenditure each year was $2,500,000, or about 70 per cent. of the provincial budget. The size of municipal expenditure was not realistic, he believed, and he said New York City yearly expenditure was $350,000,000, or a larger sum than the budget for Norway or Denmark.

CITY MANAGER SCHEME.

Discussing the city manager scheme, he said it was not an exact parallel to the city as a public utility. In business concerns the directors were large shareholders, but the City Council members were not large shareholders. He considered the city was actually a political unit and if it wanted to have two lighting systems and an expensive vocational it could decide to have them. Pictorettes and recalls, he explained, had been introduced by politicians in the United States, not by the people, and had been intended as a means of shifting responsibility. The abolition of the primaries, he felt, was a step in the right direction.

ELECTION COSTS.

The costs of hiring a hall, and automobiles and paying representatives at the polls made the expense of running a civic election about $1,000 to $2,000 for each candidate.
The City Council, he said, was to decide city problems and he thought the members should be those who by experience had something to contribute to the city's development. He suggested that a woman candidate be brought out and said he would vote for her but the members smiled at the suggestion.
The $20,000 salary for a commissioner, he said, would be quite inadequate to pay for the experience and technical training that were really required for the duties that were placed on the commissioners.
The commissioners were trying their best to fill the jobs but too much was asked of them in the commission type of government.
Mr. Anglin thought the council was large enough, as too large a membership made it difficult to place responsibility. He advocated having the city divided into sections, with one un-

2 BANGOR MEN HELD IN LIQUOR SEIZURE

BANGOR, Me., March 26.—Two men carrying malt cases coming east on the Pine Tree Limited from Boston last night, aroused the suspicion of Robert C. Worster, United States customs inspector, who trailed the men on their arrival here to the Hotel Bancroft, where he seized the cases each of which contained ten gallons of Alcohol.
James P. Holland, proprietor of the hotel and his chauffeur, Reginald McAdam, were arrested and held for illegal deposit and McAdam, who carried the cases, for illegal transportation. They gave $1,000 bail for a continued hearing.
The United States imports cotton from Egypt, China, India, Peru and Mexico.

GIVEN VOTE OF THANKS.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Anglin on the motion of Mrs. H. H. Pickett, seconded by Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson felt it was up to the women to take a definite stand for the reforms they desired. She urged the women to push for the election of the man who represented women's ideals.

THE NEXT PROGRAM.

It was announced that the April meeting would have the privilege of hearing the program on politics that was given a short while ago for the University Women's Club.
It was also announced that arrangements were being made for an address on Bermuda to be given under the auspices of the Women's Council on Monday afternoon by Mrs. Gordon Wright, national president of the W. C. T. U.

POWER COMMISSION IN ROUTINE MEETING

The regular meeting of the Civic Power Commission was held yesterday afternoon, routine matters only being dealt with. F. S. A. McMullin, chairman, presided, and others present were Commissioner Harding, John Flood and A. M. Rowan. Bills to the amount of $1,223.12 were ordered paid. A letter from the Exhibition Association, asking if the commission would take the same space they had last year for the 1926 exhibition, was laid over until the next meeting for consideration.

IN CALIFORNIA.

He told how on his recommendation a California city had taken the money formerly spent on printing annual reports and used it to make motion picture films of city developments, giving statements of the expenditure. These films shown throughout the city had aroused keen public interest and disseminated information as the reports had never done.
Mr. Anglin urged the teaching of civics in the public schools and the

The Joyous Business of Being Well

Constipation conquered, skin and stomach disorders corrected—youthful energy renewed—by this fresh food

Not a "cure-all," not a medicine in any sense—Fleischmann's Yeast is simply a remarkable fresh food.

The millions of tiny active yeast plants in every cake invigorate the whole system. They aid digestion—clear the skin—banish the poisons of constipation. Where cathartics give only temporary relief, yeast strengthens the intestinal muscles and makes them healthy and active. And day by day it releases new stores of energy.

Eat two or three cakes regularly every day before meals: on crackers—in fruit juices, water or milk—or just plain, nibbled from the cake. For constipation especially, dissolve one cake in hot water (not scalding) before breakfast and at bedtime. Buy several cakes at a time—they will keep fresh in a cool dry place for two or three days. All grocers have Fleischmann's Yeast. Start eating it today!

And let us send you a free copy of our latest booklet on Yeast for Health. Health Research Dept. L-726, The Fleischmann Company, 208 Simcoe St., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

"MY SKIN BROKE OUT in ugly blotches. Eating irregularly caused stomach trouble. Then I became constipated. One day a friend advised Fleischmann's Yeast. I started to eat it that day. I slept soundly that night for the first time in weeks. In a month's time I was a new person. Every blemish had vanished from my skin. My eyes sparkled. My appetite was excellent. All as the result of Fleischmann's Yeast."
Ethel Patrick, Boston, Mass.

"FOR YEARS I had pimples all over my face and body and was also troubled with constipation. Nothing seemed to help. I thought I would try Fleischmann's Yeast. In two weeks I could see the pimples drying up and no signs of others coming. I took the Yeast for about three months. I am never troubled with constipation any more. I look like a different person—thanks to the wonderful effects of Fleischmann's Yeast."
Mrs. James E. Knight, Toronto, Ont.

THIS FAMOUS FOOD tones up the entire system—Aids digestion—clears the skin—banishes constipation.

"AN ATHLETE and former physical director of the Cincinnati Gymnasium, during the war I served as a director of an aniline dye plant. When I returned to my old active work, I was not fit; I suffered from an acid stomach. Then I discovered Fleischmann's Yeast. I no longer suffered from acidity of the stomach. And I enthusiastically recommend Yeast to the men who come to me to be kept fit."
Frank Mills, Cincinnati, Ohio

"MY LITTLE DAUGHTER eats Fleischmann's Yeast as though it were a bar of chocolate. When she was run-down, it gave her strength and energy. She has perfect health, amazing vitality and her complexion is a joy to behold."

JUMP TO $4 PER 1,000 FEET FOR TIMBER FEES PROPOSED BY MICHAUD MOTION IN HOUSE

Veniot Secnds Resolution for Raise in Dues as Technical Amendment to Move for Granting Supply

MORE CROWN LAND REVENUE URGED

Ex-Minister Surprised Legislators By Action and Criticizes Budget Speech, Pointing Out Late Government Got More Income and Started Sinking Funds

FREDERICTON, March 26.—Increase in the present stumpage rate from $2.50 per 1,000 feet to $4.00 per 1,000 feet to avoid the threat of direct taxation formed the test of a resolution moved in the House this afternoon by J. E. Michaud, former minister without portfolio in the Veniot cabinet, and seconded by Hon. Dr. P. J. Veniot, leader of the opposition. Technically, the resolution is an amendment to the motion to grant supply and will not be voted on until the debate on the budget speech is concluded a few weeks hence, but it caused a flurry of excitement and was a total surprise to the House.

In a well thought-out address, Mr. Michaud said he noticed that in his budget speech, Hon. A. J. Leger, provincial secretary-treasurer, had placed a value of $60,000,000 on the crown land domain and that as the province was deriving only one per cent on this investment, he declared that until the government had taken every step necessary to obtain more revenue from this valuable source, it had no justification for threatening the people with direct taxation.

Lieut.-Col. W. H. Harrison, M. L. A. for Saint John, moved the adjournment and will continue the debate on Monday evening next at 8:30 o'clock. Next week, when the House adjourns on Thursday, it will probably not convene until the following Wednesday, as the Lieutenant-Governor's ball will be held on Tuesday, April 6. The adjournment early next week is on account of Good Friday.

TEXT OF MOTION

The complete text of Mr. Michaud's motion is as follows: "That all the words after the word 'that' in the resolution now before the House be struck out and the following words substituted therefor: 'Whereas, the Government has incurred when the revenue of the province was not increased; and 'Whereas, any method of direct taxation is not in the best interests of the taxpayers of this province; and 'Whereas, in the opinion of this House a greater revenue could be derived from our public domain.

"Be it therefore resolved, that the consideration of the granting of supply to His Majesty be not proceeded with until after assurance has been given to the House that steps will be taken to increase the territorial revenue proportionate to the value of the lumber cut on the public domain by an increase in the stumpage rate, which, in the opinion of the House, should be advanced from the present rate to $4 per 1,000 feet."

REMOVED BY VENIOT

Last summer the Veniot Government reduced the rate from $4 down to $3 on spruce and when the Baxter Government came in there was a further reduction of 50 cents, making the present rate $2.50 on spruce and $2 on fir. A jump of $1.50 now is proposed on spruce.

This reduction by the Veniot Government last summer formed the material in the resolution now before the House. Michaud advanced increased revenue from this source, Hon. L. P. D. Tilley interjected to ask why the Veniot administration had cut down the rate last summer.

Mr. Michaud replied that that had been a mistake. "Oh, no, no, you could not make mistakes," Hon. Dr. Veniot—"We were led astray."

MICHAUD OPENS SPEECH

In opening, Mr. Michaud said he regretted that he had not been able to give his speech the careful study it deserved. He explained, however, that A. A. Dyvart was to be the first speaker but he had been unavoidably called home yesterday owing to sickness. It was in no perfectionary manner, Mr. Michaud said, he extended his congratulations to Hon. Mr. Leger for his sound method of the case for the Government. He was sincere in saying it was very able done.

SINKING FUNDS PROVIDED.

In addition, sinking funds had been provided to retire portions of the debt. From 1917 to 1925, the province paid in the sinking fund the sum of $1,424,000. This, he claimed, was produced by government and was taken out of ordinary revenue. He trusted this policy would be pursued by the present government.

It was charged that the Foster-Veniot regime had increased the bonded indebtedness of the province by 102 per cent, this additional had also increased the revenue by 122 per cent.

ECONOMY PREAMING.

The opposition had been charged when in power of being extravagant, but if his honorable friends were sincere, they would practice the economy they preached. Their estimates, he said, failed to show any economy; on the contrary many increases were noted, particularly in agriculture. Crown lands showed practically the same, he said.

OFFICIAL REPORT.

FREDERICTON, March 26.—The House met at 8 o'clock. Bills relating to the Wilson Box Company, the Town of Woodstock, deputation of the Town of Woodstock, the Southwest River Logging Company, the building laws of Fredericton, and deputation of Fredericton, were read a second time.

POWER BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. Smith (Carleton) introduced a bill to incorporate the River Saint John Electric Company.

bill to incorporate the River Saint John Electric Company. Mr. Harrison introduced a bill to incorporate the Nepisiguit Storage Company, Limited, also to incorporate the Sledgrift Power, Limited. Hon. Mr. Tilley moved that on the grounds of urgency, Rule 78 be suspended to permit of the immediate introduction of the bill regarding sidewalks in Lunenburg.

Mr. Michaud, on resuming the debate on the motion to go into supply, said he felt it his duty to apologize for speaking without adequate preparation. On account of the unavoidable absence of Mr. Dyvart, who was the financial critic of the opposition, he had undertaken to make a few remarks in reference to the statements in the budget speech made by the Provincial Secretary yesterday. He sincerely congratulated the honorable gentleman on the excellent manner in which he had presented his first remarks to this House. He knew the situation required a special pleader, and he felt that on such an important friend's eloquence the House would not doubt give a verdict in accordance with the plea made in the honorable gentleman's eulogy on Queen Alexandra and also in his remarks in reference to the deceased members of the House. Like his honorable friend, he was loyal to the Crown, and like him, more from reason than from sentiment.

ADDRESS IN 3 PARTS.

The honorable Provincial Secretary had divided his speech into three parts, first the financial record, second our natural resources, and third, methods of taxation. He said our liabilities were now about $89,000,000 and compared this statement with 1917 to show that we were carrying more serious now than then; and he found fault with the late government for an unwarranted increase in the public debt. With this he (Michaud) did not quite agree. A comparison of the increase with that of the previous government was made and he did not place the blame on the late government, which, if they did increase the debt, they did so to meet the liabilities were provided by establishing sinking funds adequate to take care of the liabilities when they matured.

DEBT INCREASE.

The situation was not as bad as the honorable gentleman had made it appear. In 1908 the public accounts showed that the bonded debt was $5,084,922, with a revenue surplus of $1,000,000, in 1916 the bonded debt had grown to a little over $10,000,000 and the Province was carrying a deficit of nearly $10,000,000. In other words, the debt had been increased by over 100 per cent while the province as between 1909 and 1915 had only increased 15 per cent.

ERROR FOUND OUT.

Hon. Mr. Tilley—"Why then did you take of a dollar a thousand?" Mr. Michaud—"We thought at the time conditions necessitated that reduction, but we have found out since that we were wrong."

Mr. Smith (Carleton)—"Why did you raise the rate from $3 to $4 and then come down to three fifty?" Mr. Michaud—"Because the depression was so bad that we had to raise it and then we found out that it was wrong."

Mr. Michaud further quoted Mr. Smith to show that he disapproved of reducing the rate to $2.50 when stumpage was so low. He said that the rate was selling for $8. He maintained that until the government had taken the right steps to secure adequate and just revenue from the natural resources they were not justified in reducing the rate to $2.50.

WISE ADMINISTRATION.

This, he considered, wise administration and in addition they had established sufficient reserves for ordinary revenues to meet the liabilities when they matured. The then Premier (Hon. Mr. Foster) was the first to establish a reserve fund system which gave financial assurance to the banking houses. He hoped this sound method of policy would be continued by the present government.

BRIDGES AND ROADS BUILT.

Modern transportation also demanded of more permanent bridges, and some of these cost much more than the highways would during normal times. The highways also demanded large expenditures to keep this province up to the progress made in other parts of the province. These services might have been slighted and only the surplus of ordinary revenue used to pay the demands of the people. Education also demanded increased expenditures and the necessities of the times demanded hydro-electric development. These were all services required by the public and appreciated by them.

DEFICIT LEFT IN 1917.

The present government party, through the press and on the platform, had talked of the deficits for the past years and charged the late government with extravagance. Deficits were not peculiar to the late government, for its predecessor had gone out in 1917, leaving a very big deficit with no Valley Railway interest to meet and also left a lot of floating liabilities.

$10,000 LESS ASKED.

The Attorney-General's department was asking $10,000 less, but that sum had been spent that year in carrying out the provisions of the Public Works Department, where the public service required large expenditures, there was a cut in the Department of Health, a department for which the late Government was solely responsible, and which was severely criticized by the honorable friends, the appropriation was only reduced $125 from last year's expenditures. The Department of Health, when in opposition, did not approve a minister for the Health Department in 1918, as the Minister's synopsis report would show, said that the work might well be put under the jurisdiction of the Provincial Secretary. He was now in an excellent position to carry out his ideas and about $4,000 could be saved if that course were followed. He (Michaud) however, believed that the present incumbent would earn his salary.

LOCAL PASTOR IS CONSIDERING CALL

Rev. J. S. Bonnell Intimates He is Contemplating Going to Regina

At a meeting of the office bearers of St. Andrew's church last night Rev. J. S. Bonnell intimated that he had received a call from Knox church, Regina, to succeed Rev. M. A. McKinnon, D.D., the former minister, who has been called to Toronto.

Mr. Bonnell's invitation had stated that a committee representing the session, the board of management and other organizations of Knox church had unanimously agreed to request him to consider a call.

Last night when asked whether he would accept the call, Mr. Bonnell made no definite statement. He said, however, that he had the matter under consideration.

Mr. Bonnell has been minister at St. Andrew's church for the last three years and during that time there has been a large increase in the church membership and several new organizations, notably the Young Men's Club, have been formed.

Mr. Bonnell came to Saint John from Prince Edward Island. He was born in Charlottetown and graduated from Pine Hill College, Halifax, with distinction in theology. During the war he served overseas as a sergeant of artillery. His personality, his eloquence and marked ability as a leader have won for him a golden reputation not only in his own congregation and in Saint John but in a far wider field.

HAS 1,000 COMMUNICANTS.

The church which is extending a call to Mr. Bonnell, according to the report of the last General Assembly, had more than 1,000 communicants and 38 elders in the session. The congregation raises approximately $68,000 annually for church purposes. The minister is provided with an assistant and receives a stipend of $5,000. Knox exercises a wide influence in the Canadian West and is one of the strongest of the former Presbyterian churches in the United Church west of Winnipeg. It entered the United Church with a very small loss in its membership.

Y. P. L. of Portland United Church Witnesses Missionary Evening

The Young People's League of the Portland United Church was greatly interested in the missionary program provided for last night's meeting by the missionary committee. Miss Molly Lingley gave a reading, "Edge of the East," by Kipling. Miss Harriet Wright's reading was on the rivals of religion in Japan. A very helpful discussion period was held in which the theme was the United Church in the Japanese Empire.

During the evening Japanese songs were very pleasingly rendered by Miss Cora Orr and Mrs. George Hartshorn. The accompanist was George Hartshorn. The Sunday school orchestra gave several enjoyable selections. A short business session was held with Harold Chown, president, in the chair.

The papers published at that time all information in connection with his death and also his photograph, with the result that he now has been identified as James Murphy. This morning his sister, Mrs. Edmunds, of Saint John, and James E. Haynes, a friend of the family, also a resident of Saint John, arrived in Halifax and the body, which had been buried in Mount Olivet cemetery, was exhumed, both Mrs. Edmunds and Mr. Haynes positively identifying it. After the identification had been made the body was reburied.

Why the Thrifty Man Buys a Studebaker

One-Price Prices reduced again
Unit-Built Construction adds excess mileage
Time Payments lowest rates

If a motor car means something more to you than mere transportation—if you want more comfort—more power—and if you want to be certain that your money buys the utmost in tangible value—a One-Price Studebaker is the car for you.

Studebaker's unique facilities

Few motor car "manufacturers" have foundries, forges, etc., to make their own engines—yet one-fifth of an automobile's cost is in the engine. Even fewer build their own bodies—yet one-third of a car's cost is in the body.

Studebaker builds all its own bodies, all engines, all clutches, gear sets, springs, differentials, steering gears, brakes, axles, gray-iron castings and drop forgings. Only Ford in the low-price field and Studebaker in the fine-car field have such complete manufacturing facilities.

One-Price value

These facilities enable Studebaker to manufacture quality cars on a One-

Profit basis—eliminating outside profits. The savings thus effected are passed on to Studebaker owners in the form of higher quality and lower prices. The thrifty man buys where he gets the most for his money.

Unit-Built construction

Studebaker facilities result, too, in cars designed, engineered and built as units. The hundreds of parts in a Studebaker function as a smooth-working unit, resulting in scores of thousands of miles of excess transportation and greater riding comfort. The thrifty man looks ahead and considers what service his car will give after years of use.

Always kept up-to-date

Direct manufacturing control enables Studebaker to keep cars constantly up-to-date. We add improvements regardless of the calendar—we do not save them up for spectacular annual announcements which make cars finally obsolete. The thrifty man puts his money in merchandise which is readily convertible into cash.

At $1650
Studebaker's lowest priced enclosed car

SAYS SCHOOLS ARE CAUSE OF HIGHER TAXES

Commissioner Wigmore Makes Statement At Sons of England Banquet

CITY'S FINANCIAL STATUS EXCELLENT

More Than 100 Present At Lodge Portland Celebration Last Evening

The appropriation for the City of Saint John would have been higher this year than last if it had not been for the school board assessment, Hon. W. Wigmore, Commissioner of Water and Sewerage, said last evening at a banquet given by Portland Lodge, No. 246, Sons of England, in the Orange Hall, Simonds street, last evening.

The assessment in other departments was not greater than in the past year, Commissioner Wigmore said, and with the exception of the school board, all had lived within their income. With Dr. L. M. Curran as chairman, the speaker expected that the board would keep within its appropriation in future. This year a saving of some $16,000 was made.

Saint John, he said, was financially in as good a position as any in Canada. As contrasted with Ottawa with less than double the population the financial position was encouraging. Saint John's bonded indebtedness was approximately $7,000,000, Ottawa's $28,000,000. Saint John's last tax rate was $2.10 and Ottawa's $2.50, while $24,000 had been lost in revenue by a reduction of wharfage charges on grain. The act had been made at the instance of a committee from the Board of Trade who hoped that it would bring greatly increased business to the port but this had not proved to be the case.

SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

The banquet was one of the most successful in the history of the lodge. More than 100 guests sat down to an elaborate and well served repast. Rev. E. B. MacDonnell said grace. The hall was trimmed with flags and bunting and the tables were decorated with a color scheme of red and white, a profusion of cut flowers carrying out the color scheme.

After dinner had been served the following program of toasts, musical and literary numbers was enjoyed. Dr. J. M. Curran, The City, Hugh Connell, Hon. R. W. Wigmore; Dr. E. George's Society, Rev. G. H. McDonald, H. Rising; Grand Lodge, I. A. Belyca, District Deputy Selenia; Sister Lodges, H. C. Green, H. F. Thompson, president of Marlborough Lodge; the Ladies, E. Murray, G. Kier; and the Press, S. A. Clark, H. Murray; solo, Miss Ethel Parker, violin solo, Winford Dalsell; reading, Miss A. Van War; solo, J. D. 'Fruit' selections by the High School music quartette, composed of Albert A. Punter, Murray Thomson, Norman J. Magness and E. Wesley Mott.

CAMP NIGHT AT 'Y' IS MUCH ENJOYED

Supper Followed By Good Program—Enthusiastic Over Outing of 1926

It was "Camp" night at the Y. M. C. A. last evening, and the event was very enjoyable. About 25 of the other camp members attended a supper gathering, and at 7:30 p. m. when the programme was commenced, there was a company of 125 on hand. A hearty sing-song was indulged in. F. M. Logan gave a humorous sketch "Adolphus Carly contributed piano selections, and amusing readings were given by the camp editor, John Cowan. A playlette was then staged acceptably. "Fun in a Schoolroom" was the title, and those taking part were D. McAndrews, Don Stewart, Walter Stewart and Jack Gidding. A nickel and saxophone orchestra added some lively music to the evening's entertainment, and two reels of comic movies rounded out the program. Camp photographs were shown, and there were happy reminiscences. Everyone was enthusiastic in planning for the camp of this year, and the prospects for a large attendance looked very bright.

ABLE TO RETURN HOME. Miss Amelia Haley's many friends will be glad to learn that she is making a satisfactory recovery from her recent illness and was able to move on Thursday from the Saint John Infirmary to her home in Rockland Road.

CAMBRIDGE WINS BY FIVE LENGTHS

Defeats Oxford in One of Finest Boat Races on Thames in Years

PUTNEY, Eng., March 27.—The Cambridge varsity crew, with a substitute rowing at number 4, defeated their old rivals of Oxford by five lengths today in one of the finest races seen on the Thames in years. At the start there was little to choose between the two eights, although Oxford was slightly the favorite. It was a gruelling race, from the beginning at Putney over the four and one-quarter mile course to Mortlake, but when Cambridge flashed over the line, hardly a man in her boat seemed in distress, while several of the Oxford crew were in a state of collapse.

MINUTE UNDER RECORD. The official time was 19 minutes, 29 seconds, which is just a minute slower than the record established by Oxford in 1911.

Oxford won the toss for position and chose the south side of the river. The dark blues led slightly for most of the first two miles, but did not seem to have much in reserve. The Cambridge, although rowing a somewhat longer course around the big horseshoe bend at Hammersmith, took the lead and maintained it to the end. At the mile mark, Oxford led by six feet. At the two mile mark Cambridge had closed the gap and the shells were racing evenly.

It is reported that Cambridge tried out a new stimulant, each member of the crew taking two teaspoonsful of brown sugar just before the start. See also Sport Page.

Lecturer Writes To Rev. Mr. Cody And Congratulates Him On Book

New Brunswick friends will be interested to learn that a university lecture there was recently broadcast from Winnipeg a talk on the poems of Rev. H. A. Cody, of this city, which were recently published under the title of "Songs of a Bluesose."

It was another New Brunswicker, Professor Aaron J. Perry, professor of English at the University of Manitoba, a native of Queens county, N. B., who gave the university lecture. He has written to Mr. Cody to tell him about the radio program. The letter is as follows:

"My Dear Cody:—Two or three weeks ago, over our radio as a university lecture, I gave a talk on your "Songs of a Bluesose," which came into my hands as a Christmas present. I enjoyed reading your poems very much. I knew you were always a poet—even when a boy you saw the glory in the sunset and beauty in the falling rain. Glad to see you have published a volume of poems. Keep on. You are a poet. What poems did I use?—a few which I read 'on the air'—"Bluesose Blood," "The King and Mine," "Sure," "Down to the Sea on Rafts," "Masts for the Royal Navy," "Scuddle Men," "The Unknown Pine Log Rider," "Old Ship-Riggers" (You thus see, I built for them the ship from the falling of the pine to the time when she slipped her moorings' and 'snow-footed down the stream')."

SAINT JOHN PROMINENT

"Then, of course, I read 'The Port of Saint John,' and compared it with Carman's 'The Ships of Saint John'; 'The Welcome to Bliss Carman,' 'The Loyalists' Reception,' 'The Loyalists.' Then two or three others of your Yukon songs, 'The Lilt of the Northland,' to show your kinship with Service. Then I closed by paying due reverence to your lines on the Saint John River—'Vine-clad-Bide-a-wee.'"

"Keep on in your good work. Why is it that those who can write poetry, why don't they everlastingly keep at the job? Is it because our public do not read poetry, and so no encouragement? I wonder why? A Winnipeg lady called me up the next day and said she had read every one of Mr. Cody's novels, and was surprised and pleased to know he was a poet. So your books are read in Winnipeg."

How Nature Rebuilds Flesh

Nature's method of rebuilding a weakened and run-down system, of giving new flesh to people who are thin and under-weight, is to take from the food that is eaten certain proper elements which by the wonderful process known as metabolism are really turned into tissue and flesh. Some portion of this food also becomes body energy or strength. When you take Father John's Medicine to build new flesh you are using exactly the same method. This old-fashioned food medicine contains cod liver oil and other elements, which nature makes use of in building flesh and strength and these elements are so prepared that they are easily absorbed even by a system which is weak and run-down. You know you are safe when you give Father John's Medicine to any of the family because it is guaranteed free from alcohol or dangerous drugs in any form.

THREATENED PARIS MINISTER TO HIDE

Malvy Gets Menacing Notes From French Facists and Royalists

PARIS, March 27.—Louis Malvy, Minister of the Interior in the Briand cabinet, is preparing to go into hiding because of menacing letters and threats from French Facists and Royalists. No day has passed since Malvy entered the cabinet that he has not received threatening letters. On several occasions placards bearing copies of the court's order in war time which exiled Malvy for five years as a traitor have been placed on the door of the Malvy apartment.

The constant campaign against the minister has worried members of his family. From 15 to 20 detectives act as a bodyguard to Malvy and as guards at his apartment and office.

An ANNOUNCEMENT by IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED TO THE MOTORISTS OF CANADA. ON the 20th of April we will be offering you a new motor oil which we sincerely believe is going to set aside all previous standards and introduce an entirely new era in Automotive Lubrication. Marvelube is not the improvement of an old oil but the revolutionary discovery of a new. Its production involves a new system in refining. Four years ago the scientists of our research department got on the trail of this new principle. Silently they have followed it ever since, testing, experimenting, perfecting, searching for the key that would unlock the ultimate. Last October they found it; and production meantime of an adequate stock to serve every motorist in Canada on the opening day, has been one of the closely guarded secrets of the Imperial Oil family. Marvelube is a strictly Canadian triumph; the discovery of Imperial Oil scientists in our research laboratory at Sarnia, with no help from the outside world. For its base the ideal was found in a select grade of the world-famous Peruvian Crude, the product of a far foreign field developed by Canadian genius and controlled by Imperial Oil Limited. Its lubricating qualities will recommend Marvelube at once to every motorist who gives it a trial. You will find Marvelube on sale at every Imperial Service station and at the establishments of all good dealers on the 20th of April. Fill your crank case once. We leave the verdict to you. PRESIDENT IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 27—The city is hockey mad. All interest is centred on tonight's hockey championship game when Senators and the Montreal Maroons come together in the final game of the National Hockey League playoffs. It is expected that a packed house will witness the game, as the auditorium was completely sold out as early as Wednesday morning.

Both teams are reported in good shape for the final struggle. The Maroons, coached by Ottawa players in Montreal on Thursday, are classed as light and are expected to have been relieved of waddlers in the Montreal line-up. Both clubs will likely trot out their strongest crews.

There is little speculation on the result, which is looked upon as an even bet. A low scoring game is freely predicted.

Leo Marsh and Bobby Hewitson, of Toronto, will referee. With their backs to the wall, both teams can be expected to fight a desperate battle and the arbitrators will need to have both eyes open at all times.

The "Victoria Cougars" are on their way east and may arrive in time to see the match. Reservations have been made for them at the game in case they get there before the big battle.

Communications are pouring in from all corners of the Ottawa Valley, Toronto, Montreal and other cities. All are on the same trend with a request for tickets that cannot be met. Only standing room is left and this area is quoted at $2 to see, with handily by three lengths, while Stephen Sanford's Bright Boy matched third place at the same price.

Old Tay Bridge, owned by Mrs. W. H. Dixon, was the favorite backed at eight to one against, but came in second, as he did last year. He led at the last jump but gave way to Jack Horner close to the finish.

Mrs. Patricia's Sprig, another heavily backed horse, finished fourth. Jack Horner was ridden by W. Watkinson, Old Tay Bridge by J. Anthony and Bright's Boy by E. Doyle.

Additional Contestants In Training For Amateur Boxing Event

Several additional aspirants for amateur boxing honors have started training for the big championship meet to be held here next month as a result of the keen interest being taken in this event by the local boxers.

Two new men working out in the 126 pound class are Bobby Lee and Young Livingston. Lee made an excellent showing in the Maritime championships last year against Digs, of Glace Bay, while Livingston is another likely looking featherweight.

Arthur Walker is another likely looking featherweight. He is in training and also Charlie McCann, a rugged fighter. They will meet Arthur Murphy and William Dallin, both clever boys.

Herbert Lee, the present holder of the 126 pound title, has announced his intention of defending his title and has gone into training at the gymnasium.

Competition in the 147 pound class looks to be good as Arthur Walker is in training and also Charlie McCann, a rugged fighter. They will meet Arthur Murphy and William Dallin, both clever boys.

Win Intercollegiate Basketball Championship From Mt. Allison

SACKVILLE, March 26—In the concluding game of the Maritime Girls' Intercollegiate Basketball League played here this afternoon the Acadia Coeds, winners over Mount Allison in Wolfville a month ago, defeated the Mount Allison squad by a 22-18 count in a fast game, but none, as has been seen here this season.

The engagement was replete with thrills, and the large crowd in attendance was kept enthusiastic all the way through. Mount Allison opened the scoring when Miss Tremblin dropped in a field goal, but Miss Doherty, who played a stellar game, speedily put Acadia into a lead from which they were never headed. The first period ended with the victors on the long end of a 13-6 count.

STAGES COME-BACK

In the final session Mount Allison staged a come-back and equalized Acadia on field baskets, but lost out on penalty throws. For Mount Allison, Miss Pauline Lister were good, and she had Miss Anna Doherty, their most effective player. The game ended 22-18 in favor of Acadia.

The championship of the league has already been won by the Dalhousie Co-eds.

Stribling Will Make Drive For Ring Crown

NEW YORK, March 26—Young Stribling, Georgia's agile and rugged young fighter, has decided upon a vigorous campaign in both light-heavyweight and heavyweight ranks.

Fresh from his victory last night over Jimmy Slattery, Stribling today placed himself among the challengers for the Berlenbach's proud crown, while negotiations went forward to match the champion with Gene Tunney, Dempsey's prospective 1926 opponent. So far as a title bout with Berlenbach is concerned, Stribling must wait until Jack Delaney, of Bridgeport, Conn., has had another crack at Paul's championship, the State Athletic Commission decided today.

Third Game For Allen Cup is Now Necessary at Montreal on Monday

MONTREAL, March 26—University of Toronto hockey player kept in the running for the Allen Cup and the amateur hockey championship of Canada when they defeated the champion Port Arthur sextette 3 to 1. Victory went out through the fighting finish of Plaxton, varsity centre, who broke himself among the challengers for the championship and the Memorial Cup at the end of the schedule third period and netted two goals in the first five minutes of the overtime period.

The collegians led the Port Arthurs in the second five minutes, turning aside all the threats of the Ports with a strong defensive play.

As a result of the varsity victory tonight a third game will be necessary to decide the title, this final tussle being set for Monday at Toronto.

Canadian Press Despatch

CHICAGO, March 26—John Lafferty, 24, loved his "kid" and it cost him his life. He had married Corinne Gillispie and, although he worked intermittently, he hung on the fringe of the worst gang of bandits that has come to the notice of the police in years.

One of them, Tommy Shupe, knew Mrs. Lafferty. She had plenty of money, so one day he eloped with Mrs. Lafferty, taking the baby along. "I want my kid back," Lafferty told a member of the gang. "If I don't get him, some of you fellows will be in the stir." A few days later the police arrested the gang. "Three-fingered Jack" White was the leader. They were identified as the gang that held up the International Harvester plant and got away with an $80,000 payroll.

Trojans Will Be In Line With a Team

Reports to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trojans A. C. will have a team set for honors in the City Baseball League this season, Walter R. Golding, manager of the team announced last night. Mr. Golding declined to announce his line-up but said that the Orange and Black would have a strong team in the field, with Kerr and Cox, regarded as one of the best batteries in the city, as a nucleus.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., March 27—Fourteen states and the Dominion of Canada are represented in the entry list for the $25,000 American Pacing Derby, the biggest stake race of the Grand Circuit. It will be run here on July 20. The list of 45 entries is the largest ever reported for this race.

Of the nine horses nominated by Canadian owners, five are from the stables of Robert Trench of Teeswater, Ont., from which came Tarzan Grattan to win the Derby last year. Tarzan Grattan now is owned by Walter T. Candler, son of the Atlanta, Ga., beverage maker, who has entered Lulla Forbes and Louis Direct for the 1926 Derby.

Among the pacers nominated for this event are Brook Volo, Brown Forbes, Trampalene and Trampalene, Braden Ruler, Ed Direct, Hollywood, Walter, Jean Grattan, Janet Royal, Lulla Forbes, Miss Belwin, Miss Ellen W., Phil O'Neill, Theodore Guy and Star Ruth were entered in one previous running of this race.

HALIFAX "Y" WINS BASKETBALL GAME

HALIFAX, March 26—Scoring 23 points in a second period rally, the Halifax Y. M. C. A. basketball team, champions of the City League, defeated the visiting Sydney "Y" players by 29 to 26 here tonight, capturing the Nova Scotia amateur basketball championship.

The Sydney boys started off fast, shooting line baskets from close in after sweeping the play from end to end with excellent combination work. Matthews, Fraser and Noble worked well in the shooting line, and the visitors had a good margin when the locals started to get in the running. As the score indicates the Sydney men had the margin in the play through.

AMHERST BOWLING TOURNEY IS LIKELY

AMHERST, March 26—A Nova Scotia bowling tournament is now in prospect with a similar tourney to be held in New Brunswick and the two provincial winners to meet for the Maritime championships.

A. W. Covey, of Saint John, has interested himself in the new prospect. By splitting up the two provinces it is felt that the tournaments can be concluded in two days with the third day devoted to championship play.

REFeree QUESTION BEING CONSIDERED

Good Man Will Be Here For Basketball Championship Games

The mix-up over referees in the final game against the Rideaus last year in Saint Vincent's gymnasium, when the spectators were kept waiting for fully an hour for play, will not likely occur this year, as every precaution is being taken to guard against such a tangle.

W. E. Stirling, who represents the Dominion Basketball Association in the Maritimes, has been ordered to procure a man to handle one of the games, while President Boyd will appoint a referee for the other.

It was Mr. Boyd who caused all the trouble here last year when he instructed the Trojans to secure a man for the final game, and then at the last minute wired that Pat Manley, who refereed the first night, was to handle the second game. Hubert Nevez had been brought here from Patten, Me., by the Trojans, but owing to Mr. Boyd's last-minute decision, was prevented from handling the whistle.

The M. A. A. protested Mr. Boyd's selection for the game at Ottawa Wednesday night of this week, when he named Kell as referee. The M. A. A. based their protest on the fact that Kell was the man who scored the game at Montreal for the Rideaus. Both Mr. Boyd and Mr. Kell are said to be very much interested in the Rideaus, the former being a long-standing member in the club. The protest, however, was ignored and Mr. Kell handled the game well.

The Trojans are very much interested in the M. A. A. protest, and in speaking of the matter their manager said that Mr. Boyd had arranged for Kell to come to Saint John last year to handle both games, but he was unable to get away at the last minute, and Manley was sent instead. In notifying the Trojans of Kell's appointment, the Dominion president said he was a neutral referee.

All this happened last year, but the M. A. A. protest this week has thrown some light on the whole affair, and it looks as though the Trojans and M. A. A. have a grievance against President Boyd, and both teams will be more cautious in future. If the Montreal team comes to Saint John for the final against the Trojans, the players may be assured that the referee question will be handled in a satisfactory manner.

HAMILTON, ONT. BLAZE CAUSES $700,000 LOSS

Flames Gut Top Floors of Robinson Department Store

STOCK IS RUINED

Whole Block Menaced, But Lack of Wind Stops Fire Spread

HAMILTON, Ont., March 27

Damage estimated at from $600,000 to $700,000 was sustained when fire swept through the upper stories of the G. W. Robinson department store early this morning.

Examination of the fire-story building by experts, now being conducted, may increase this estimated damage to the million mark. Water poured on the building in hundreds of tons to quench the flames, washed its way down through the successive floors, practically ruining all stock in the store. Four-fifths of the damage sustained was caused by water.

Two an hour after the fire was reported, the fate of the block bounded by James, King, Main and Macmah streets, hung in the balance. Only the absence of any considerable wind saved this block.

MUNICIPAL GOLF COURSES

To the Editor of The Times-Star: Sir—So many people have endorsed the proposition for a municipal golf course for Saint John, that the following letter showing the revenue from one municipal golf course in Winnipeg might be of interest to your readers. If you will be good enough to publish it, New Brunswick Tourist Association, W. E. ANDERSON, Manager, Saint John, March 27, 1926.

MR. HERRITT'S LETTER Dear Mr. Anderson—I read with interest as reported in The Telegraph-Journal your remarks pertaining to a

Venetian Gardens TONIGHT Also Wednesday Evening and Saturday Afternoon

220,000 IS NAMED AS PURCHASE PRICE OF SHEDIAC PLANT

No doubt a considerable portion of our citizens would be perhaps aware of the financial side of an undertaking of this nature and would perhaps think that it would cost the city thousands of dollars each year. Three years ago I happened to be in the city of Winnipeg and was invited to play golf on the municipal golf links there. The charge for playing on this golf course was only 40 cents, but on making inquiries, I found out that in the previous years, 1922, not only had the golf links paid the interest on its bonds, all expenses and supplied a considerable sum for improvements, but besides this it made a net surplus of some $20,000.

The population of Winnipeg at that time, I think, was less than 200,000. A great portion of this population is foreign and does not play golf. I was informed while there that about 10,000 golfers play golf in Winnipeg, supporting besides the municipal golf links some fifteen or fourteen regular golf clubs. I believe that the number of golf links in Winnipeg has increased considerably since that time. In fact, I understood that another municipal links was started last year.

On Saturdays and Sundays on the municipal links it is practically impossible to get over them as long lines of players wait there from 9 o'clock in the morning until almost dusk in order to get their turn to play.

I think that this information will be of great assistance to you for I would certainly like to see a municipal links in Saint John not only for the benefit of our own citizens but also for the tourists who come here. Yours very truly, G. MARLEN HERRITT.

ICE IS STILL SOLID UPON ST. JOHN RIVER

VAN BUREN, Me., March 26.—There is no sign yet of the Saint John River going on a rampage this spring. The river is at a low pitch and the ice appears as hard and solid as at any time this winter and some ice is being cut and stored. While the snow is reported as melting fast in the upper valley and on the head waters the effects have not been felt yet by the main river. The snowfall is reported about the average in depth in the woods but light and of comparatively small water content. Indications are that the ice will be much later than usual in leaving the river unless there are unusual conditions.

FLOODS IN AUSTRALIA

SYDNEY, Aus., March 26.—Heavy rains in parts of New South Wales have caused serious floods and the Macquarie River is a great sea for miles in its course. It has reached its highest since 1870. Several towns are isolated as a result of the floods. However, the loss of stock in the floods is slight. The waters are now receding.

Under the statutes the Hydro Board cannot deal with the companies in the matter of transferring plants. Should the town take over the company's property no bond issue will be made, it is understood, but the plant will be transferred by the town to the Power Commission which would make allowance for interest charges on the cost of the plant in fixing rates for lights and power.

Resolution at Annual Meeting Recommends Closing Season on Partridge

FREDERICTON, March 26.—W. T. Griffin, Cross Creek, was elected president of the New Brunswick Guides' Association at the annual meeting held here last night. Mr. Griffin succeeds W. Harry Allen, Pennac.

A resolution was passed recommending a closed season on partridge. It was also decided to seek an amendment to the Game Act to permit shooting big game only with antlers of ten points or more. At present the regulations permit the killing of moose whose antlers have attained six points. The amendment of the regulations would ensure the taking of older animals. A special license during October for deer is also advocated by the Guides Association. MANY EXPECTED ON SALMON STREAMS

Early Demand For Guides and Equipment For Coming Season

The guides assembled in Fredericton Thursday in annual session gave out the opinion that salmon fishing this spring would be considerably later than for several years.

Mr. Allen has received a large number of applications for guides and accommodations for this spring's run of salmon.

In fact the demand is so great for canoes and camping staffs that extra men are being employed and extra canoes have been ordered. It bids fair to be a record-breaking salmon season.

It will be remembered that Mr. Murray was captain of the Canadian team that visited Scotland last winter, and was closely in touch with Mr. Lindsay during the last visit of the Scottish anglers to Canada in 1922, when Mr. Lindsay was in charge of the arrangements made by the C. N. R. for their accommodation from the time they landed in Halifax until they reached Montreal.

Flags are flying at half-staff from the various Saint John fire stations in the city as a tribute of respect to Mr. Lindsay, who during his newspaper activities in Saint John was a member of the Salvage Corps. Such a note of remembrance indicates the tender memories of the genial Sandy that linger.

F. W. Coombs, secretary of the New Brunswick branch, Royal Caledonian Curling Club, has received the following telegram from W. C. Murray, vice-president of the Royal Caledonian Curling Club of Edinburgh.

"Please convey to curlers of New Brunswick branch my personal feelings of regret, as well as those of the mother club, at the untimely death, under such tragic circumstances, of Sandy Lindsay."

It will be remembered that Mr. Murray was captain of the Canadian team that visited Scotland last winter, and was closely in touch with Mr. Lindsay during the last visit of the Scottish anglers to Canada in 1922, when Mr. Lindsay was in charge of the arrangements made by the C. BURIAL HERE MONDAY The funeral of Mr. Lindsay will take place from his late residence in Moncton to St. George's Church there on Monday and the body will be brought to Saint John for interment in Fernhill, there to be laid in the family lot. There will be funeral service in Knox Church at 2:30. As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times-Star reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "do the people of the settlement talk much about taxes?" "The gaze which Hiram bent upon the reporter was not one to be described as placid or reassuring. There was in it a certain intensity amounting almost to a glare. His whiskers, seemed to stiffen and thrust themselves out like a brush. "Taxes!" he roared, with an energy that startled the reporter. "Look-a-here, Mitter. Man, this country is goin' to the dogs. It's taxes here, an' taxes there—an' taxes from morning till night. Past it's one party, an' then another party; but it's alvius taxes." "There's rents and the rates, and the sessions and taxes." "I can't give Riddle-dee-ee what he axes," quoth the reporter. "That's jist it," said Hiram. "What can be done about it?" queried the reporter. "S'ir things up an' git more work an' more people to pay taxes," said Hiram. "Bellert's about it wont mend no fences. We're losin' taxpayers all the time. That's got to be stopped—an' everybody's got to help—By Hen!"
