CRISIS NOT FORCED Neither Party Wishes to See Up per House Swamped With New Barons—Lord St. Aldwyn Will Lead Fifty Peers Into Government Lobby

London, July 28—It is reported that Lord St. Aldwyn has pledged himself to lead fifty Unionist peers into the government lobby in support of the veto bill. This plan, while relieving Lord Lansdowne of the onus of voting against his amendments to the bill, would insure its passage without resort to the creation of peers, as the government can rely upon fifty votes in the house of lords from the Liberal peers, and it is doubtful whether Lord Lansdowne will succeed in taking fifty into the opposition lobby.

The salary attached to the office is $800 per annum, plus $50 whenever the holder's services are requisitioned.

Victoria, B. C., July 27—Advices from the far east report the seizure of the Japanese sealer Kofuji Maru by a Russian patrol cruiser off the Copper Island group. The seizure of the schooner has caused a storm of protest in Japan. Shortly before it took place Russia gave notice to Japan of an extension of the limits of territorial waters and the Japanese claim that the schooner was on the high seas outside the proper limits when seized by the Russian authorities on the Siberian coast.

PEACE OR WAR?

That was an inspiring moment in the British Commons yesterday when the leaders of parties, though engaged in a bitter political struggle at home, united in a declaration of patriotism which could leave no doubt in the minds of other nations that when British interests are threatened there is but one party in Britain.

In grave and measured words the prime minister stated Britain's position in regard to Morocco. There was no trace of the jingo in his manner or his utterance, which were those of a statesman who realized the gravity of the issues involved.

Following him came Mr. Balfour, who spoke these memorable words: "There isn't any one who supposed that we would be wiped off the map of Europe because we have our difficulties at home, it may be worth while saying that they bitterly mistake the temper of the British people and the patriotism of the opposition."

Then came Mr. MacDonald, leader of the Labor party, who, after declaring that his party was utterly opposed to war, added the significant remark that "he hoped no European nation would assume for a single moment that party divisions would affect national spirit."

It is stated that the temporary words of the prime minister created a favorable impression in Germany, although the warlike section of the German press regarded some of his statements as "unnecessarily sharp."

He speaks, however, with the voice of a united empire, and while a European war seems in this age too horrible to contemplate, yet national honor and national interests must be preserved.

Germany has been the storm centre for a considerable period, and her territorial ambitions may carry her too far. The cables state that the situation is more peaceful today than it was a few days ago, and it may be that the crisis is past. It would be an unparalleled calamity if, in a year during which movements toward universal arbitration have seemed to be making good headway, the continent of Europe should be swept by a hurricane of war.

ENDORSES SIR WILFRID

In the course of an interesting address at the anniversary meeting of one of the Orange lodges last evening, though politics is foreign to the aims and purposes of the order, Recorder Baxter felt that the important occasion should not pass without a word of commendation for the Nationalist allies of Mr. Borden.

County Master Baxter made a brief but interesting address. He deplored the fact that efforts were being made to foster in Canada feelings fatal to the integrity of the Empire, and said greater efforts should be made to counteract the dangerous tendencies which had been set in motion.

A gentleman Bramley gravely informs the Standard that free trade in England has proved a failure. He should tell that to the people of England, who have as yet no knowledge of the fact, and who see their trade increasing at a remarkable rate.

The following paragraph from the Ottawa Free Press shows that the citizens of the capital are alive to the importance of advertising the city: "That the board of trade had collected $4,700 of its share of $5,000 of the publicity fund for this year was ascertained at the meeting of the publicity bureau last evening."

The city of Cleveland, Ohio, some time ago provided for medical and dental inspection, of the public schools, and a great improvement in school work resulted. The New York Press, discussing the question, says: "Children with bad teeth, defective sight and poor digestion are handicapped in every way, both in and out of school."

This sufficiently obvious fact is now recognized by all educationalists, and efforts are being made by the educational and health authorities of most large cities to remove these handicaps, so far as is possible, in the case of all public school children.

THE ISSUE AT OTTAWA

The Montreal Herald clearly states the situation at Ottawa as follows: "Mr. Fishling asks the opposition to allow reciprocity to be voted upon in the house, which would then proceed to a redistribution based on the census, and then to an election."

"Mr. Borden asks for the temporary abandonment of the reciprocity measure, which has been before parliament for six months, for the introduction of a redistribution measure, the figures governing which will not be properly available for months yet, and then for an election."

"From such an impasse the only exit consistent with constitutional usage is the one Sir Wilfrid Laurier seems to favor, an immediate appeal to the electorate to ascertain whether they accept or reject the agreement to which the United States stands committed."

"Sir Wilfrid says that when he read in London Mr. Borden's western declaration that he would not let the agreement be ratified he cabled instructions to prepare the lists for an election. Unless Mr. Borden and his followers now back down, we have really been in the period of a general election ever since he made that declaration."

"We have not yet heard the earth resounding to the tread of the provincial premiers hastening to join the army of Mr. Borden."

It is intimated that the Conservatives will be aided in the fight against reciprocity by funds contributed by the enemies of the agreement in the United States, and by the Tariff Reform League in England. It is a pity that outside investors do not put their money into something safer than the fortunes of the Derby party. They will be "stung."

In face of the fact that Canada has the shortest route and that more than one-third of the exports from St. John last winter came from the United States, the Standard continues to shout that reciprocity will direct trade to American ports. Why is it not diverted now? It can go there free in bond. The Standard is making itself ridiculous."

This is Lord Rosebery's advice to the Unionist peers: "Let the leaders of the former hope protest as strongly as they can. That is one of the few remaining privileges left to the peers. Let them resolve when the swing of the pendulum places them in power again to construct a strong and efficient second chamber, but let them not by a mistaken idea of courage bring down upon their country, their party and themselves even greater calamities than they have already endured."

"My poor little man, whatever are you crying so bitterly for? 'Bookho!' I've been playing truant all day and now I find we've been having a holiday."

TYPHOID VACCINE IS PERFECTED

Only One Case of Fever Developed Among 18,000 Soldiers—Vaccination is Urged

The general public and a great many physicians scarcely seem to realize that the prevention of typhoid fever by vaccination has been absolutely proved. According to the highest medical authorities in America and Europe there is already overwhelming testimony in favor of the protective value of anti-typhoid vaccination. The latest endorsement of this procedure is made by The Journal of the American Medical Association in an editorial, based partly on the last report of the Surgeon General of the U. S. Army and partly on conditions among the troops stationed along the Mexican border. Here are some extracts presented by the writer: "The figures given for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1909, showed an incidence of typhoid fever sixteen times greater among the unvaccinated than among vaccinated troops. Up to October 1, 1909, only five cases had been developed among the immunized as against 418 among the non-immunized. Moreover, of these five cases four were so mild as to leave doubt as to the diagnosis, and there were no bad effects of any kind as a result of the vaccination. "The practice was introduced into our army in March, 1902, and, although lacking of treatment in our minds, we are the better able to appreciate the great strides which have been made in preventive medicine since the days of the Spanish war. "During that campaign there were 29,738 cases of typhoid with 1,280 deaths, and all within three and a half months. One man in every six had the disease, and this was increased to one in every five among those regiments which were left in the United States. "Now, among the 18,000 men who have been mobilized on the southwest border for over two months, living under the usual camp conditions, where rain and mud prevail, the only case of typhoid fever which has developed has been that of a single teamster, who was unprotected by vaccination. "Discovered by Briton "Like most medical discoveries, the final perfection of the practice of anti-typhoid vaccination has resulted only after years of experimentation and apparent failure. To Prof. A. E. Wright, of the British Army Medical School at Netley, is due the honor of having first conceived and put in practice the idea of anti-typhoid vaccination. This was before the Boer war. "The results were rather unsatisfactory in South Africa during the campaign, and it was only after further experimentation that the technique was perfected. One of the chief troubles had been in the fact that it had not yet been fully demonstrated that the best results were to be obtained only after the repetition of the process three times at intervals of ten days. "The German army next took up the investigation, and as a result the medical officials succeeded in cutting the typhoid fever rate in half by vaccination of a portion of the troops in Southwestern Africa in the campaign against the Hereros in 1904 and 1907. "By this time the English were beginning to get better results, and in India, in 1908, among 12,000 soldiers stationed there, 6,000 were vaccinated, and 6,000 under similar circumstances were left unvaccinated and maintained as controls. They found that seven times as many of the controls contracted typhoid and eleven times as many died of it. "The trial has now been made long enough and with such uniformly good results that it is true the procedure should be seriously considered in civil life. A step has already been taken in this direction by the public health and marine hospital service. According to instructions recently issued, officers are required to practice anti-typhoid vaccination on all beneficiaries of the service who may desire it. "Speaking in general terms, these beneficiaries include all seamen or persons employed in any capacity on all licensed vessels of the United States, and also on men in the army and navy. Sailors on both inland waters and the high seas are, from the sanitarian's point of view, especially liable to exposure to typhoid infection. Thus they frequently become carriers of the disease and menace to the general public. In view of these facts the recent action of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service should be regarded as a measure directly calculated to preserve the public health. "It would seem as though the most logical move would be to place the anti-typhoid vaccine at the disposal of the civilian practitioner as has been done already with the vaccine for the treatment of rabies. "Since the above was written anti-typhoid vaccination has been made compulsory in the United States army in the cases of all soldiers under 35 years of age. "PROBLEMS THAT AWAIT INVENTION "Silver is a metal that has its problems. The tarnishability of silver, particularly to people who live in the smoke-enveloped cities of the present day, is a time and muscle consuming annoyance. It is not surprising, then, that a prominent company manufacturing silverware should inquire as to the possibility of adding small quantities of other elements to silver, with the idea of lessening or eliminating its tendency to tarnish. So far as the writer is aware, no work of any kind whatever has been carried on with such an idea in view, and it thus certainly offers opportunities of distinct promise. "It is extraordinary, the diversity of demands made by manufacturers for a really resistive enamel with which to coat their wares, and equally extraordinary is the entire inability of manufacturers of enamels to respond to their demands. One manufacturer desires an enamel for coating the malleable iron shells used on the Bunsen burners employed in incandescent gas-lighting mechanisms. The enamel used is destroyed by oxidation and by the ammonia and sulphur found in the gas. Another manufacturer desires an enamel resistive to the reagents used in photography; he manufactures photographic machinery and photographic trays. Still another is desperately in need of a resistive enamel with which to coat his storage battery cells. The art of enamelling cooking utensils is practised under medieval conditions of superstitiousness and empiricism, and in no instance do these cooking utensils even remotely approximate the ideal. No enamel in the market is fit for the lining of iron or steel containing vessels responds to the needs of manufacturers.—Professor Robert Kennedy Duncan, in Harper's Magazine for August.

MANCHESTER ROBERTSON ALLISON, LTD.

THE BENEFITS OFFERED CANADA BY RECIPROcity

(Montreal Herald.) The agreement which the United States has adopted opens the market of that country to all of the important natural products of Canada, at a time when the United States is just developing a consumption demand in excess of its own supplies. It opens that market, moreover, to Canada alone. The exports for United States are people with great quantities of money to spend and a determination to get the best in return for it. The climate and soil of Canada are such as to enable us to produce the best of almost any class of produce to which northern conditions are favorable; and the brains of Canadians ought to be as apt at turning the climate and soil to advantage as anybody else's. Mr. Borden and his followers insist that Canada shall take no notice of this conditional action on the part of the United States and shall go its way as if nothing had happened, as if no markets were available to us still but those of Europe, as if our destiny on this continent required us to have absolutely nothing to do with our neighbors. It is a strange demand, and if it were successful we can imagine grave recriminations a few years hence, when Canada should wake up to find that the United States, the first-developed part of the continent, the great new importing market of the western hemisphere, had sought in other parts of the world the sources of supply which ought to have been afforded it by this dominion. It is a demand based on no actual objection to the contents of the reciprocity agreement as they stand (it should not be discussed as an economic question the Star tells us), but on many fantastic prophecies of what may result from it to our poor weak nationhood and our struggling Empire. It is a demand which we firmly believe will be refused, by parliament if it were refused, by the people of Canada if they do. The sooner it is refused, the sooner shall we be able to avail ourselves of our new opportunities.

GREEN PEANUTS WHERE ONCE COTTON BLOOMED.

Chicago, July 27.—Certain sections of the South have found it practically impossible owing to the ravages of the boll weevil, to raise cotton for the past few years. Mississippi man, writing to the Manufacturer's Record, says that his county will have produced this year just coming a crop possibly 3,500 bales of cotton compared with 25,800 bales three years ago. "Last year," writes the correspondent, "I took it upon myself to investigate the raising of peanuts as a substitute for cotton. My associates and myself began a trial of advocacy of the peanut, and we succeeded in having about 2,500 acres of them planted in this section last year. The results were so good that I was called upon to go to many points in the

MILLIONS ARE EDUCATED BY TUBERCULOSIS EXHIBITS
Exhibitions, showing in graphic form the prevention of consumption, have been given in every state in the United States, except Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, and Wyoming, and also in most of the Canadian provinces, and in Mexico, Porto Rico, and Cuba, according to a bulletin issued by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. The bulletin also shows that twenty-five states and sixteen cities have permanent traveling exhibits, besides the two operated by the national association itself, the total number of such displays being more than 200, including about 100 small school exhibits.

The first tuberculosis exhibit in America was shown by the Maryland Tuberculosis Commission in January, 1901. In 1908 there were four such exhibits. Today practically all of the larger cities of the country have such displays, and in twenty-five states comprehensive campaigns have been carried on with them. These exhibi-

PRACTICAL TEACHING WILL BE INTRODUCED IN AN OTTAWA SCHOOL

A New Departure by Which Pupils Will Be Fitted for Business or Home Life—A Broad General Training

Ottawa, July 28.—Announcement is made of the opening on September 5 next, in the former Kent street school building, of the newly created school for higher English and the applied arts which, under the management of the public school board, will prepare more fully than any other school in Ottawa for the needs of the ordinary public school course.

For several years the public school board has given some instruction beyond the fourth book by maintaining classes in different centres, called commercial classes. They now propose to centralize them in the Kent street school. This school will not teach Latin, French or other languages, but will therefore not prepare candidates for matriculation or teachers' examination as in the college institute but will give a short and very practical course of two years. It will include a grounding in English composition, grammar and spelling, and an acquaintance with many of the masterpieces of English literature; a fair knowledge of British and Canadian history, commercial geography, arithmetic and algebra, bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, manual training, drawing and art work, household science for girls, music and physical exercises while there will also be a good literary course in connection with the instruction.

CANDIDATES TAKE PLACES IN ONTARIO

Liberals Line up For Fray in Fighting Spirit—W. M. German and Lloyd Harris Will Stand by Allegiance

Toronto, July 27.—The Liberals of Ontario are rapidly getting into line for the coming test of strength in the provincial election, while the West Kent men will get a dozen more candidates, will begin in the field.

Four additional conventions to nominate candidates have been arranged for next week, and the Liberal campaign will begin in the following order: St. Catharines, Hamilton, and the East Ontario Liberal convention will be held on August 21. The East Ontario Liberal convention will be held on August 21. The East Ontario Liberal convention will be held on August 21.

From present indications only one Liberal member of parliament for Ontario will be absent from the line-up when the fight begins in earnest. The absentee will be Robert Smith, M. P. of Stormont, whose place will be taken by G. L. Goggin.

For some time past it was feared his loss in the fight in Thunder Bay but the party organizers have received assurances that the executive in a number of other ridings are now meeting to decide upon convention dates.

Much interest centres in the situation in Brandon and the struggle in the riding of Lloyd Harris and William Manley German, respectively. Both members have found that their stand in opposing reciprocity has not met with the approval of their supporters, but it is quite likely they will run under the Liberal standard again.

Mr. German and Mr. Harris are staunch Liberals and have done a great deal for the whole matter of their re-nomination will be left to the local Liberals.

BAND CONCERT ON FORT HOWE ENJOYED

That Fort Howe will be popular as a public park was demonstrated in a most convincing manner last night, when several thousand people gathered on the hill to hear the first band concert held on its summit. The St. John pipe band furnished the musical programme which was enthusiastically received by the crowd.

Further evidence of the attractions of this form of entertainment was shown in the crowds which listened to the concert given last night by the Carlton Cornet Band on the square in Carlton and by the City Cornet Band at Seaside Park. Even the practice programmes given by the 62nd Band in their rooms in Canterbury street, and by the Artillery Band on Charlottetown street attracted appreciative crowds of listeners during the evening.

Eight Dead
Charlotte, N. C., July 27.—Eight are dead, fifty-nine seriously injured and twenty-eight partially hurt as the result of a head-on collision by a negro excursion train bound from Durham to Charlotte and a freight train in the Hamlet yard. The injured were brought to Charlotte on special train. Many additional deaths are expected.

PARTIES UNITED IN ENGLAND AGAINST GERMANY'S DEMANDS

Determined Not to Surrender in Moroccan Affair—Premier Makes Impressive Statement in House

London, July 27.—The most pessimistic views regarding the acuteness of the Moroccan crisis were largely confirmed by the prime minister in the house of commons today, when with a manner as impressive as his words he read from a manuscript, which had been carefully prepared, a warning to Germany that Great Britain would stand for what she considered her rights and to maintain the balance of power in Europe.

Further testimony as to the gravity of the situation is given by the fact that the prime minister obviously had taken the lead of the opposition into the government's confidence and Mr. Balfour's declaration was no less firm than Mr. Asquith's. The prime minister's statement was couched in diplomatic, though not reassuring language.

In promising the support of the opposition to the government Mr. Balfour said: "If there are any who supposed that we were to be wiped off the map of Europe because we have our difficulties at home, it may be worth while saying that they bitterly mistake the temper of the British people and the patriotism of the opposition."

Mr. Balfour, strongly hinted at what is the general feeling of the opposition, he could take advantage of the crisis in Great Britain's domestic politics, in the belief that so absorbing to the country that the country would not pay attention to foreign affairs.

SONS OF ENGLAND GIVE RECEPTION

Sergt. Major Alfred Cartson, one of the members of the coronation contingent from this city, was tendered last evening an enthusiastic welcome by the members of the Sons of England Band Society, of which he is a member.

The reception followed the regular meeting of the Sons of England Band Society, at the hall, Charlotte street, and consisted of readings of addresses of welcome and an interesting programme of songs and addresses. The members formed the fraternal circle and joined in the singing of "Soldiers of the King," as the present. A. F. Webb, concluded the reading of the address.

The programme consisted of the speeches by Sergt. Major Cartson, W. C. Allen, president of Portland Lodge, H. C. Green, district commander, and others, and songs by E. J. Punter, G. H. Lewis and R. Casson. Sergt. Major Cartson told us in an interesting manner of his part in the life of the soldiers which have not appeared in public print and spoke particularly of the fine building of discipline arranged by the dominion government at the Festival of Empire at Crystal Palace.

In one room in the palace 200 London troops sat down to dinner, presided over by General Ian Hamilton, to a most tempting and abundant feast.

An efficient committee served ice cream during last evening, and the gathering did not disperse until a late hour.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WILES

It is believed that Lorimer Danke, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., and Miss Lillian Danke, of the same place, were drowned in New Rochelle Bay on Tuesday afternoon last. The two were sailing in Danke's boat, which was later found to be adrift, and it is feared that they met a watery grave, as no trace of them has been found.

According to a government report a bumper crop will be the order in Nova Scotia, and there will be light owing to the continued dry weather.

About $75,000 loss was caused last night by the mill of the Crown Paper Co. at Cayuga, Ont. One man lost his life. Mrs. J. F. Barr, of Cleveland, was killed and her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Paul McMillan of Greenwich, Ohio, were seriously injured when their auto plunged down an embankment near Ashfield, Ohio, yesterday. They were on their way to Boston, Mass.

It is feared at Sydney that the collier Irwin, Captain Heather, which left Port Morien, N. S., last Monday with a cargo of coal for Halifax, has been lost with all hands. A gale raged along the coast Monday night and Tuesday and she probably foundered with her crew of twelve.

Red Evening Gowns
Brilliant red evening gowns made their appearance during coronation season in London and were seen here and there on women who have picked up the faded and to whom red is becoming. Red is apt to be trying, even to the most beautiful, to any but a flawless complexion. It has a way of showing up shadows and hollows and bringing out the harsh lines in the face. A most lovely red gown, however, was worn by a youthful "hatron" at a country house party the other night. This gown was of Egyptian red chiffon veiling gold garter and over a red chiffon was a tulle of black, chiffon embroidered in flaming red-poppies. The black, poppy-embroidered chiffon was draped over the red-chiffon bodice and where the ends of the fichu were tucked in the black, poppy-embroidered tulle was a very black rose with a golden heart. The skirt was of black velvet and one long fringe of black velvet was draped over the front.—Jean Carrington (Fashion article), July Columbian.

THE MAGIC WATER MAY CARRY GERMS

Rome Has a Problem That Would Puzzle The City Fathers of St. John

Rome, July 28.—Every visitor to Rome will remember the street cry of "Acqua Acetosa"—the "condemned" water which wells up near the Tiber, not far from Paroli, and which is supposed to be a cure for all human ills. Rome is at present in the throes of an "Acqua Acetosa" crisis, which affects more people than the government monopoly scheme. Some time ago the municipality considered that the "mode" in which the water was put into the streets was unsanitary, and it was therefore decided to grant the spring from July 1 to a firm of dealers, the spring in the property of "the Roman people," to whom old Prince Chigi, its former owner, long ago bequeathed. A few months ago, however, some 150 small vendors, called "acquasottatori," have made a living by selling the water in the streets. The firm which has obtained the concession from the municipality has proposed to pay these vendors a fixed sum of 22 cents a day, pocketing the surplus profits, and increasing the price of the water to the public.

GRAND MASTER SPEAKS AT ORANGE ANNIVERSARY

The members of the Orange Order here present last evening at the celebration of the 6th anniversary of the Blue Six O. L. in their hall West Side. Several ladies were in the audience. W. G. Smith, W. M., presided.

Among those who delivered addresses were P. G. M. Heine, of Moncton, J. B. M. Baxter, county master; Rev. R. M. Robinson and Grand Master Selton of the P. A. P. B.

Rev. B. H. Thomas, G. M., was the principal speaker, and he dealt interestingly with the Orange order's progress in the world. He had joined it when a young man, and had been well satisfied with himself for his action. He would always be an avowed Protestant and Orangeman, and said the battles of Prof. Eastman could best be fought by the men who taboosed the Sunday motor trip.

A better place was the altar of God. He thought the women should take a more decided stand in the affairs of the country, and for one thing, should stand united in the fight against the Ne Temere decree.

RECIPROcity GOOD FOR CANADIAN LUMBERMEN

Secretary-Treasurer of Argentine Company Would Welcome It—Would Raise Values, Particularly on Pacific

(Montreal Witness)
That the passage of the proposed reciprocity agreement with the United States will not seriously affect conditions in local lumber circles was the opinion expressed today by Mr. Geo. A. Scott, secretary-treasurer of the Argentine Lumber Co., the mills of which are located at Morin Plains, Que.

"It may be," said Mr. Scott to a "Witness" reporter this morning, "that the local market for spruce lumber, will be stimulated to some extent, at least for some time, and that an increased export in this branch of the trade may be looked for, and I, for one, hope that this may be so, but so far as other woods in this and adjoining territory are concerned, I do not look for any change immediately in the value. Any tendency, however, should be in the nature of an increase in price and a consequent advantage to the Canadian manufacturer."

"Where the greatest benefit may be looked for in the new agreement is in connection with the lumber industry in the Pacific coast, where general conditions are different from those in this part of the country, and where I anticipate the opening up of new territory for the placing of the product of the manufacturers in that section of the country."

TROUBLE WITH COBB IS ONLY NERVE STRAIN

Detroit, July 27.—That Ty Cobb, the great, is suffering from a nervous ailment which may wreck his brilliant career, and spoil the chances of the Detroit Tigers of capturing the American League pennant once more is the firm belief of many of Cobb's friends...

It is feared that Cobb has overtaxed his strength. During the Philadelphia series he played like one possessed. He ran the bases in a daring and reckless manner that completely dumbfounded the Philadelphians. On the field he was in constant motion—seemingly a bundle of nerves.

Sunday morning while talking to a friend Mrs. Cobb made the remark that she was very much worried over the physical condition of her husband. Cobb is suffering from a bad summer cold, which seems to have gone through his entire system.

Through under the constant care of Trainer Harry Tutbill and a private physician, Cobb's condition has not grown any better. He is naturally of a very nervous temperament, and it will not take a great deal to wreck his nerves in his present physical condition.

It is possible that the Tiger star may be given a rest for a few days in order to recuperate. A local physician, a friend of Cobb's, made the following remark after Saturday's game: "Ty Cobb looks as if he were worked out. The old-time spring in his step is missing and he moves as if his muscles were sore and stiff. I think Cobb needs a rest. He has played every game this season, and the way he plays he uses up twice the amount of energy the ordinary player does."

"If Ty Cobb ever has a nervous breakdown, it will knock him all to pieces. Cobb is a bundle of nerves, and I think it is sheer nerve that keeps him up most of the time."

ORIOLES OUT OF THEIR ORBIT. President Johnson of the American League and five owners of major league clubs have expressed their opposition to any change at this time to Baltimore's baseball status and the Orioles will remain in the Eastern league for at least another year...

A HIGH PRICE. Talk about speculation, and people in the grain business taking chances, what about the management of the Pittsburgh National baseball team, when they paid $25,000 for Pitcher O'Toole to the St. Paul club in the American association. They are surely taking a chance on the terms he is not to report to the club until the fall season is practically over. He is only young yet, too.

HENLEY REGATTA INSTITUTION OF MORE THAN HALF A CENTURY

A striking feature of this year's Henley regatta was the appearance of a Maori crew, the men stripped to the waist and the women clad in a bright red garment. They would sport quickly for a time and then raise their paddles in the air with picturesque cries. The Maori were from the Maori village at the Coperton Exhibition at Shepherd's Bush.

The grand challenge cup, for which the people of Henley furnished the funds in 1859, and which has ever since remained the "blue ribbon" of amateur rowing, was given the form of the celebrated Warwick vase. It is supported by a shaft or stem, covered with burlesque, and a figure of Father Thames, with his arms and coronet, reclines on the neck of the cup. The handles are also formed of burlesque, and spring from heads of Thames and Isis, modelled after those by the Hon. Mrs. James on the keystones of Henley Bridge.

C. P. R. PROFITS AND GROWTH IN TRADE BIG REVELATION

Does Not Look Much Like Fear That Reciprocity Will Destroy East and West Trade—A Remarkable Record.

(Montreal Witness). Canadian Pacific Railway shares on Friday made a new high record in Wall street, at which price the stock is selling on an income basis of 4 per cent. This is the highest point ever reached by either of the three 10 per cent. rails of the New York list, Union Pacific, Canadian or Lehigh Valley, being 2 1/4 points above the record made by Lehigh in the spring of 1910, then a 6 per cent. stock, when it sold at 242 1/2, in anticipation of a "plum" dividend of $27,485,000.

Since January, Canadian Pacific has advanced with but slight recessions over 20 points. Such appreciation in market value has as its basis the phenomenal development of the country traversed by its lines. Operating in excess of 10,000 miles of railroad, covering over 12,000,000 acres of land, running 67 steamships on the Atlantic, Pacific and the lakes, managing hotels, telegraph lines, and mines, Canadian Pacific's growth is indisputably bound up with that of the Dominion.

Canadian Pacific is now in the select class of railroads with gross in excess of $100,000,000 per annum. Gross business of the June 30 last, estimating the June figures, was approximately $104,000,000, net $80,500,000, and surplus for common dividends $27,485,000, or 152 per cent. on $180,000,000 of stock.

It is a striking feature in last year's operations, that the percentage of increase in 1910, as regards capital, about 20 per cent. The road has shown an ability to earn almost the same rate in 1911 as in 1910 on an amount of stock $30,000,000 greater. It is this potentiality of increase last year by no means as great as in 1910, is, as regards capital, about 20 per cent. The road has shown an ability to earn almost the same rate in 1911 as in 1910 on an amount of stock $30,000,000 greater.

It should be remembered that this is the earning power of the railroad, which at the present rate is compelled to furnish but 7 per cent. of the regular 10 per cent. The other 3 per cent. is declared from the proceeds of the land sales. Thus, any explanation in the earning power of the land department is in addition to what has been figured on above.

The following table contains the principal items of the income account for the past three years, the estimate for 1911, being based on the 11 months' figures, and shows the tremendous development undergone by this company in recent years:

Table with 3 columns: Year (1910, 1911, 1912), and 4 rows of financial data including Gross, Net, Total, and Dividend.

The tactical advantage of this system is that it gives a fire of three of the guns on either broadside, and it gives this fire without having recourse to raising one turret so that may fire over another.

NOVEL FEATURES IN NEW WARSHIPS Japan Ordering New Cruisers From Her Own Shipyards

New U. S. Battleships to Have Three Guns in a Turret. London, July 27.—The Times says, two significant announcements in connection with foreign warship building have just been made, indicating in the one case a further increase in the armament of the Japanese Navy and in the other the introduction of novel features in the new battleships of the United States.

In a paper read before the jubilee meeting of the institution of Naval Architects by Rear-Admiral Motoki Kondo, inspector-general of Naval Construction of the Imperial Japanese Navy, this officer stated that in addition to the large armoured cruiser of 27,500 tons building for Japan by the Vickers Company a similar cruiser had just begun at the Yokosuka Navy Yard in Tokyo Bay, and that orders had been placed with the Mitsubishi Dockyard, Nagasaki, and the Kawasaki ship-building works for the construction of two similar armoured cruisers.

In point and power the four Japanese cruisers between the British Lion of 28,200 tons, and the new cruiser of 27,500 tons are 25,000 horse-power. No official information is given about the armament of the new cruiser, but the press states that the Ordnance Department of the Japanese Navy had the capacity for manufacturing guns and mountings up to the largest size, and almost the whole armament of all the warships built in Japan of late years has been made there.

Little Times' Washington correspondent states that in the 1911-12 it has been decided to mount 12 14-inch guns, three in a turret, this is a new departure in the Japanese Navy, but the press has already followed with 12-inch guns in the Italian Dante Alighieri, launched on August 29, 1910, and now completing at Spezia; in the Austrian Viribus Unitis, launched on June 24, and in the Russian Sevastopol, launched on June 29. Discussing the objections to this system, Sir William White has said:

Usually a man who would rather be right than a president soon acquires a reputation of being poor but honest.

FATHER OF 62 CHILDREN

This Was Centuries Ago But Some Modern Parents Have Had Big Families.

In these days of declining families it is quite reassuring to read in the same column of a newspaper of one lady who, in fourteen years, has contributed twenty to the population; and of another who boasts as many descendants as there are days in a leap year, says Pearson's Weekly.

It is only a few months since we read of a woman at Antwerp who actually gave birth to six sons last year—three making their entrance together into the world in January, and three others following in December.

Perhaps more interesting still was the achievement of a baker's wife in Paris who added twenty-one members of her family at seven births and in as many days in a leap year, says Pearson's Weekly.

There was, for instance, that Scottish wife of a merchant, Mrs. M.S.S. tell us, who had no fewer than sixty-two children by one wife, of whom forty-six sons and sixteen daughters (and a hundred in all), lived to be twenty-one and upwards.

Thomas Greenhill, the duke of Norfolk's surgeon, was the 20th child of one father and mother; there was a French lawyer, according to Boyle, who had forty-five children, and a French nobleman, who died in 1748, at the age of 106, left thirty children to wear mourning for her.

In very recent years, too, Mrs. Mary Jones, of Chester, was the mother of thirty-three children; an old man who applied to the Oulton Guardians for outdoor relief had thirty children to call him father; and one Anthony Clark, quite shocked his honor Judge Edge, at the Clerkenwell county court, by pleading guilty to thirty-three children and daughters.

When Mrs. Honeywood of Charing, in Kent, died in 1620, it was said that her descendants comprised sixteen children, and nine great-grandchildren—making the creditable total of 367 persons who owed their existence to her.

But a much more wonderful old lady was Lady Temple of Stow, who actually lived to see her 700th descendant on the head.

In the "Annual Register" of 1776 we read that Mrs. Anne, who died there, in the neighborhood of Festing, in Merionethshire, Wales, an honest Welsh farmer's wife who was 100 years of age. By her first husband she had thirty children; by her second, ten; by her third, four. His youngest son was sixteen years younger than his eldest; and 800 persons, descendants from his wife, attended his funeral.

Another daughter, Sally, by name, ranks fourth in order of contribution to the census with 208 descendants; then follows the eldest child, Letty, with a total of 201; while Mary's youngest son, according to a later family tradition, the father of children, 16 grandchildren and 80 of the two succeeding generations.

Webb's second son also has more than 400 descendants; while his daughter, Polly, beginning with ten children, lived to see her 250th descendant, and to raise the family of Webb senior above the 1,000 mark.

TWO CARRIAGES BROKEN IN EXCITING RUNAWAY ON LOCH LOMOND ROAD

Mrs. E. W. Paul Badly Shaken up When Mr. Paul's Horse Bolts Into Another Team—Eight People in the Carriages

A very exciting runaway occurred at Loch Lomond yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, in which two double seated carriages were badly broken up, and several people received minor injuries. The accident occurred about one hundred yards this side of the Ben Lomond house. A horse driven by E. W. Paul, of this city, took fright and ran away and crashed into a double seated carriage driven by James H. Macaulay.

Mrs. Paul and two little children were in the wagon with Mr. Paul, and when the horse started to run away she picked up one of the youngsters and jumped out into the ditch. Mrs. Paul was quite badly shaken up, but did not receive any serious injury.

The frightened animal kept on and crashed into Mr. Macaulay's team, in one of which were two women and another man. One hind wheel of this carriage was taken completely off and Mr. Paul's team was also badly damaged. The horse was brought to a standstill after the collision. The occupants of Mr. Macaulay's team were thrown out into the road, but escaped unhurt.

MAGISTRATE DISMISSES MALCOLM McLEOD ON DRUNKENNESS CHARGE

Has Some Remarks to Make Concerning Conduct of Policemen in Making Arrests—Evidence Favorable to Prisoner

In dismissing Malcolm McLeod from custody in the police court this morning, Judge Ritchie took occasion to pass a few remarks regarding when a police officer should place a man under arrest for drunkenness and also to the way a prisoner should be handled by the police. McLeod was arrested by Policeman Linton in Sheriff street Wednesday afternoon, and was charged on the police books with drunkenness.

Several witnesses testified that in their opinion McLeod was not drunk enough to be arrested. McLeod swore that he was down on "Surrey's" wharf on Wednesday morning when the policeman went down and took hold of him by the ears and called him vile names. He was not arrested there, but he went to the North End police station and made a complaint against Linton. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon he stated that he was sitting on a doorstep in Sheriff street when the policeman came along and arrested him.

While on the way to the station McLeod swore that Linton said to him: "This is what you get for being a squalor," and that while he was being searched in the police station, Linton struck him in the face. The prisoner was represented in court by morning by E. S. Ritchie, Esq. Mr. McLeod, a brother, gave evidence of seeing the policeman striking his brother and also of hearing him call vile names. He did not think his brother was drunk enough to be arrested. The policeman had given him evidence of a previous hearing. His Honor, after hearing the evidence, dismissed McLeod from custody. He stated that according to the evidence the policeman had exceeded his rights. He had no right to call the prisoner names, nor had he any right to strike him. He also pointed out that a police officer had no right to go through a prisoner's pockets when he was only arrested for being drunk or for some other small offence.

HANDSOME MOTOR CAR FALLS PREY TO FLAMES

30 H. P. Russell Machine From Princess Garage, Driven by Carl Wessinger, Totally Destroyed Last Night

A handsome grey 30 h. p. Russell touring car, belonging to the Princess garage, was completely destroyed by fire on the Marsh Road at an early hour this morning, and is now lying in the ditch with nothing but the bare frame. The car was being driven by Carl Wessinger and was occupied by three other city men. The car had been acting badly about an hour before the accident happened, but the chauffeur thought that he could make it before he would start to fix the car.

When nearing the One Mile house, the car began to balk fire, and on investigation a fire was discovered around the carburettor. In spite of all efforts to extinguish it, the flames spread to the pan of the car, and it was soon a mass of flames. Word was sent to the city, and another car was sent out, but the first car was then almost destroyed. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

BUILDING TRADES.
The building trades council will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in Painters' Hall, Charlotte street.

ABOLISH THE CHECK REIN.
Speaking of cruelty to horses, a citizen called attention last evening to an animal whose head was so tightly held back by a check rein that its lips were curled back and its position must have most painful. In Germany the check-rein has been abolished, as brutal and unnecessary. The same course, said the citizen, should be adopted in Canada.

PLAYGROUNDS CONCERT.
The concert to be given from 7 to 8 o'clock this evening, out of doors on the Every Day Club playgrounds at the Aberdeen school, Erin street, should be largely attended by parents and others. In addition to the children's programme, the Misses Monahan have kindly loaned a gramophone to assist in the entertainment. Samples of work done by the children will also be exhibited.

EXAMINING PAPERS.
Local students who tried the exams, will be interested to know that the examining board who are appointed to examine the matriculation papers of the University of New Brunswick, commenced work yesterday in Fredericton. The board is composed of Chancellor Jones, Prof. Raymond, Prof. Hutton, of Mount Allison University, and H. H. Hagerman, M. A., B. Sc., of the Normal School. The Normal School entrance papers will be examined by members of the Normal School faculty.

VISITING THE CAPITAL.
Governor—His Lordship Bishop Casey arrived from St. John last evening in company with Rev. Dr. Greene, S. J., of Woodstock, Md., who preached at the retreat recently conducted for the priests of this diocese at St. Joseph's College. They spent the evening here the guests of Rev. Fr. Carney at St. Dunstan's rectory and returned to St. John by boat today. Bishop Casey met several of his old friends and former parishioners from whom he received a hearty welcome. The visiting clergyman was delighted with the St. John river and trip.

THE GOVERNOR CARLETON.
The report that the new ferry steamer Governor Carleton had fallen over from her place at the West Side, and that her position as she laid on her side at low water had strained her, was denied by Alderman Smith, chairman of the ferry committee, this morning. Talking on the matter this morning, Chairman Smith stated that the ferry steamer had purposely been placed in that position for the purpose of examination. No harm would result from it, he said. It is expected that some hearings for the machinery will arrive from Montreal today and the plan now is that the trial run up river will be some time the first of the week.

ENTRIES WELL FILLED FOR HORSE RACES HERE

About Forty Horses Will Arrive From Fredericton Tonight—Frank Power May Act as Starter

Entries for the races which are to be held at Moorpath on Friday and Saturday night, closed with Secretary Ross last night. All the races, with the exception of two, filled and some good races are expected. The races that will be run are the 2:12 pace, 2:14 trot, 2:17 pace, 2:17 trot and 2:20 pace, and the 2:20 trot. The 2:20 trot and 2:17 pace races did not fill, and were consequently called off.

It is expected that there will be between thirty-five and forty horses here for the meet. They will come down from Fredericton tonight, and will be taken right out to the track.

The officials have not yet been appointed, but it is very likely that Frank Power, the well known Halifax horseman, will act as starter. Excursions will be run on both the I. C. R. and C. P. R. and bumper crowds are looked for.

KING STREET COR. GERMAN GREATER OAK HALL
SCOVIL BROS. LIMITED, St. John, N. B.

Are Your Friends Wondering or Not You'll Be Able to "Worry Through" The Season Without a New Suit?

Is the 'best' suit somewhat doubtful? How about a real business investment in a $9.98 suit? It would have cost you a good deal more if bought at the beginning of the season—or at the beginning of next season.

NOW the price will not bother at all.
