OTTAWA, April 1.—The Hon. R. L. Borden made a sensational speech this afternoon on Barker's motion for copies of all documents in the government's possession regarding the G. T. It is Laurier's method, said Mr. Borden, to conceal documents from the house on the plea that they are private and confidential, but it is not treating the country with decency.

Laurier made an evasive reply.

Barker's motion passed, but the government will take its time about bringing down the correspondence,
