JAPANESE PRESS TRYING TO KEEP UP THE WAR SCARE

Some of the Papers Still Talking About the Feeling in America, But Others Regret the Silly Agitation. TOKYO, Feb. 20.—The special correspondent of the Asahi from San Francisco claims that anti-Japanese sentiment is rapidly spreading and that the war feeling in America is general. The Asahi, widely circulated and copied, continue to sustain the feeling of uneasiness among the Japanese people. Nichi Nichi, a paper owned by K. Kato, the Japanese Ambassador to England, which commented with great bitterness during the earlier stages of the anti-Japanese agitation by the California legislature, in a lengthy editorial on the anti-Japanese sentiment in America published today, says: "Americans continue to regard Japan with suspicion and this illfeeling continues notwithstanding the efforts of the Japanese government and people to prove the sincerity and cordiality of their feelings. This distrust extends throughout Europe. It is incomprehensible to our people why America and Europe continue to regard Japan as a meddling war. Two wars were enough. We want peace in the future. War with America could only be forced by the United States threatening the independence of Japan. It is unnecessary for America to fortify against Japan."

Driscoll is Better Man. Proves Superiority Over Attell. BUT NO DECISION.

Championship Title Not Involved—A Fast Bout.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 29.—(Jan. Driscoll, the English featherweight champion and Abbe Attell, American champion, held a fast shade the better of the contest.) They weighed in at six o'clock, neither turning the scales to the satisfaction of the referee. No decision was given by Referee Charles White, as the laws of this state do not permit decisions to be rendered in boxing bouts. The championship title was not involved in the contest.

It was one of the fastest and cleverest bouts ever seen in this city. Both men are very quick, but Attell seemed to have more steam behind his blows. Driscoll's left jab was frequent.

The honors of the contest were won by Driscoll. No decision was given by the referee, but it was the opinion of the majority of the members that Driscoll was entitled to the honors.

SKATERS TAKE A RACE EACH. Logan and Bush Break Even Again. RECORDS SMASHED. St. John Boy Captures the One Mile and Westerner the 440.

IN two of the fastest events seen here in recent years, Fred Logan and O. E. Bush broke even in the concluding races of their series in the Victoria rink last evening. Bush captured the 440 yard race, while Logan was the victor in the half-mile. Both were exciting and hotly contested from the start.

Logan and Bush were evenly matched and the battle was a close one. In four of the rounds Driscoll appeared to have the best of the game, but each time Attell would come back as fresh as ever.

Attell staggered with two left punches on the jaw. He sent him to the mat with a right to the stomach. Attell jabbed mouth with left and then answered in kind.

SOME ODD ANIMAL CONTESTS.

At Huddersfield, England, is an association for the promotion of cock fighting which has achieved a more than local fame. The association has now been in existence for about twenty years, and so many as three hundred and twenty-five birds have been entered for the various competitions at one meet.

As a rule, the birds are kept for a considerable time in the dark, and when the competitor's turn comes he is brought in to his darkened cage before a mirror. Light is thrown on the mirror, and when he sees his own reflection, he takes it to be a rival. He is allowed about half a minute in which to catch the "enemy," after which his wings are clipped and he is brought to the arena. The cock is then brought in to his darkened cage before a mirror. Light is thrown on the mirror, and when he sees his own reflection, he takes it to be a rival. He is allowed about half a minute in which to catch the "enemy," after which his wings are clipped and he is brought to the arena. The cock is then brought in to his darkened cage before a mirror. Light is thrown on the mirror, and when he sees his own reflection, he takes it to be a rival. He is allowed about half a minute in which to catch the "enemy," after which his wings are clipped and he is brought to the arena.

COCK-CROWING COMPETITION.

A cock-crowing competition open to the world, was held in Paris in 1902. In this competition the birds were brought by their owners in darkened boxes. At each competitor's turn into the light of day and taken out on a platform. The bird imagined he was there to herald in a supposed dawn, and began to crow vigorously. At the same moment a special timepiece was started. The utterer of the greatest number of cock-crowings in a quarter of an hour was the one proclaimed champion chanticleer.

BULL AND TORTOISE RACES.

A form of sport very popular in Burma is bull racing. These contests are largely attended by the natives, who bet considerable sums of money on the result. A native sportsman who owns one of these bulls, values it at twelve thousand dollars, and it is said to bring him in an annual income of five thousand to seven thousand dollars.

PUGILISTE FISHES.

A few years ago a well-known sportsman of New York imported several of the famous fighting fishes of Siam, in order to furnish sport for his friends. The natives of Siam devote great care to the cultivation of these fishes, which are called plakat. The interest in the fights is so great that the houses to exhibit them bring a considerable annual revenue to the King of Siam. The Siamese are inveterate gamblers, and stake large sums on these contests.

HARE AND HOUNDS.

One of the most ancient of field sports was coursing, or the pursuit of a hare by dogs. It is a sport which is by sight and not by scent. There are two kinds of coursing—"open," or haphazard pursuit of any hare that can be discovered and "close" coursing. In the latter the course is determined in advance, and the dogs are kept in a line until the hare is sighted, and after sufficient time or release has been allowed them, the dogs are allowed to pursue the hare.

SAVED BABY'S LIFE.

Mrs. T. Osborn, Norton Mills, N. B., says: "I have no hesitation in saying that Baby's Own Tablets saved my baby's life and I cannot say enough in praise of this medicine. He was so weak and sickly that he took no notice of anything, and cried so much that I was worn out caring for him. After giving him the Tablets there was a great change, and he is now a bright-eyed, laughing baby, the pride of our home." Baby's Own Tablets cure all stomach and bowel troubles, break up colds, destroy worms, and keep little ones healthy and happy. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

of a piece of paper, and the one that proved most adept in making a speedy bee line to the edge of the paper was matched against the pick of a rival stable.

Some of the fastest could not be induced to travel in a straight line; in racing pastimes they bolted, and were bad betting propositions. But when two came together that showed a disposition to race straight and true the betting on the result was lively enough to stir up the anti-gambling enthusiasm.

Porpoises are the race horses of the deep, and seem to take special delight in exhibiting to man their marvelous speed. In Alaska they often race with the steamers or launches, or with one another. It is not at all unusual to see two, of them, going at top speed, circle a steamer or launch time after time, each apparently trying its utmost to distance the other.

TURTLE RACING IN FLORIDA.

In Florida the turtle fishermen occasionally have races with turtles as their steeds. A pair of loggerhead turtles weighing each several hundred pounds, are generally selected. Wearing bathing costumes the contestants mount their steeds, grasping the front part of the animal's upper shell with both hands; the contestants then give the signal to go.

As soon as released the turtle makes for the water. Ordinarily the animal would at once go to the bottom; but the rider prevents this by throwing his weight on the back part of the shell and at the same time pulling the forward part up with his hands, which keeps the animal's head above the surface. It is easy to guide a turtle, as it can be forced, either to the right or left simply by pulling at the shell on each side of the head.

In some of these contests the turtles cover several miles and do it in remarkably fast time. The races are generally guided parallel to the beach, which allows spectators to follow the race to the finish.

In the eighteenth century an odd sight occasionally seen on Newmarket Heath, the scene of many of the great English stake races was the sight of two geese racing between birds of that day. Great care was observed in the training of these birds, and a champion frequently sold for a large sum.

AROUND THE SOUTHERN EXTREMITY OF SOUTH AMERICA.

South America is to be found a very large duck which bears the common name of "steamer duck" or "race horse," owing to a peculiar habit it has of slipping and pursuing the surface of the water at great speed. This is said to be due to the remarkable fact that the duck's power of flight is very common, and sailors derive great pleasure from witnessing what look like the "Great Game" between ducks, and large sums are sometimes wagered on the races.

AYLESWORTH IS TO HANDLE THE CANADIAN CASE

Terms of Anglo-American Treaty ANNOUNCEMENT MADE Sir Charles Fitzpatrick to Arbitration Board

OTTAWA, Feb. 19.—Announcement was made here tonight of the terms of the Anglo-American treaty for the reference to the Hague court of arbitration of outstanding disputes between Canada, Newfoundland and the United States relative to the rights of American fishermen in the coastal waters of British North America under the terms of the treaty of 1818. Through the instrumentality of this reference it is expected that an authoritative settlement will be obtained of disputes which have been outstanding for close on a century.

The court of arbitration will have a membership of five. Dr. Lamarche of Vienna, a well known authority on international law, has been agreed on as umpire. Canada has nominated Chief Justice Sir Charles Fitzpatrick as its representative. The United States will probably be represented by one of its supreme court judges, whose name is not yet announced.

TWO OTHER MEMBERS. In addition to the foregoing there will be two other members of the court to be chosen from among the European countries.

Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, minister of justice, is to have charge of the Canadian case. Owing, however, to the time which is allowed in the treaty for the preparation of the American and Canadian cases, and the filing of pleadings, counter-claims, etc., the matter will not really come to a hearing at the Hague until after April 1st of next year.

In the negotiations between Mr. Bryce and Mr. Root which led up to the conclusion of this treaty the latter was desirous of applying the term "rights" to the privileges which American fishermen enjoy. Canada, however, succeeded in having this word "rights" altered to "liberties" and other respects as well the views of the Canadian authorities after much discussion and delay have at last prevailed.

It is contended on the part of Great Britain that the liberty which American fishermen received under the treaty of 1818 in common with British fishermen to take fish were subject without the consent of the United States to reasonable regulation by Great Britain, Canada or Newfoundland. On the other hand it is contended by the United States that the exercise of such liberty is not subject to limitations or restrictions by Great Britain or Newfoundland.

It is stipulated that in the case of any future differences regarding the exercise of the rights accorded to American fishermen by the court they shall be referred informally to the permanent court at the Hague for decision by the usual summary procedure.

One of the most important issues to be decided is as to the definition of the three-mile limit in question along the treaty coast. The American contention has been that this should closely follow the bays and indentations of the shore, while Canada has held that in the case of bays whose entrance is less than six miles wide that the three-mile limit shall be three miles from a line drawn from cape to cape. An important supplementary agreement reached by the negotiators was that the treaty is to regard to the fishing privileges of Americans in the Bay of Fundy and in the Gut of Canso. In 1845 Lord Elgin, on behalf of the British government, conceded to the United States without prejudice the privilege of the sea waters outside of the three mile limit. Canada maintains that as a matter of right the Bay of Fundy and Gut of Canso waters are exclusively Canadian and that American vessels could be altogether excluded therefrom. It is agreed, however, in a formal exchange of notes between Ambassador Bryce and Secretary Root that the convention existing since 1845, which obviates any friction in this regard, shall be continued. The question of legal right to be unaffected by the present treaty.

All previous festivities conducted by the Knights of Pythias were eclipsed last evening at the celebration of the 4th anniversary of the order in their rooms, Germain street. Over 300 members were in attendance and the evening was one of much enjoyment. An excellently rendered programme and some masterly addresses assisted in making the evening a success.

LeBaron Wilson, supreme representative, presided and made a brief address, welcoming all in attendance. He was assisted by Adjutant Everett, P. S. Rep. F. A. Godwin and P. S. Prelate James Houlston, conducted the installation.

HALIFAX, Feb. 19.—Dalhousie is furnishing another man to a big university. Dr. J. E. Woodman, professor of theology and curator of the geological museum at the New York University, beginning his duties with the next academic year.

At this distance this university is known best perhaps for its splendid library, the gift of Miss Helen Gould, and for the classes of students who attend the Hall of Fame. It is, however, in point of size one of the major universities, having a membership of some what more than four thousand. A scholarship fund, amounting to $100,000, is different from the others in that Harvard and Yale have theirs, but a specialty in research and professional work. Dr. Woodman will serve upon seven of its faculties, and a large part of his work will be in graduate and professional schools.

EVIDENCE INDICATES THAT ERNEST DUPERT MET WITH FOUL PLAY

Was in the Company of a Number of Drunken Rowdies
Face Presented a Ghastly Expression When Discovered
Inquest Held at Sussex Yesterday—Several Give Testimony

SUSSEX, Feb. 19.—That Ernest Dupert, the Hamilton man who was yesterday found frozen stiff in the snow near Newton, came to his death by foul means and not at his own hand, as was at first supposed, is now the generally expressed opinion of the neighborhood.

From evidence brought to light today it is now known that Dupert was in the company of a number of drunken lumbermen previous to his setting out for the mill of Smith and Stewart.

The police are investigating the matter, and tomorrow Chief of Police McCleod will institute a thorough search of the locality in which the dead body was found in the hope of arriving at some clue in the solution of the mystery.

Dupert's face when found depicted the most agonizing expression. His hands were frozen upright and crossed as if he had been warding off an attack at the time of his death, and his jugular vein was discovered severed upon an examination being made.

This afternoon the inquest was commenced before Coroner McDermott, but an adjournment was taken after the examination of six witnesses, it being thought advisable to wait until a thorough probing into the matter had been made. The inquest will be continued on Monday.

Dr. Burnett was the first witness called this afternoon. He stated that he had been called to the scene of the death at the result of the jugular vein having been cut. He described the condition of the body when found, and stated that the "discharge" of a quantity of blood might have been from the artery of the neck.

The following comprise the jury: Albert McArthur (foreman), W. H. Calder, W. G. Atwell, Harry Hayes, David McQuill, C. W. Clark, J. Caldwell.

This woman was ill, blue, and discouraged. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Mrs. R. Gentlemen, 1068 St. James Street, Montreal, Quebec, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

I suffered from a severe female weakness, and extreme nervousness, and was blue and utterly discouraged. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking several bottles, I am not only cured, but am an entirely different woman, and on the whole a healthy woman than before taking your valuable medicine.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.
For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women, who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, painful periods, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham writes her sick women to write her for advice. She has qualified thousands of women. Address, Lynn, Mass.

MARCH OF CIVILIZATION FATAL TO INDIAN TRIBE

Railway Construction Drove Away Game Supply—Starving and Dying of Pneumonia—Woman's Terrible Experience.

WINNHAM, Feb. 20.—In acknowledging receipt of several boxes of warm clothing sent from here and Toronto to the vicinity of Lake Nipigon, a private letter reveals a sad state of affairs in that district. Between forty and fifty Indians have been carried off by the grip within the past month and many are still suffering severely as the cold continues and there is great scarcity of clothing and provisions. It appears that the big game which the Indians formerly relied upon for subsistence through the long northern winter has been destroyed and driven away by the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific which runs about forty miles north of the head of Lake Nipigon or 120 miles due north of Nipigon Station on the C. P. R. From which point supplies have to be taken up the Nipigon River and Nipigon Lake. The letter also states that the bodies of three white men were found frozen on the ice of Lake Nipigon but no clue could be discovered as to who they were.

Today he pleaded guilty and was sentenced by Police Magistrate Malloy to four years in the penitentiary. It was his first offence.

SARINA, Ont., Feb. 19.—William Lowry, a man about thirty-five, who for many years had been employed in the Imperial Oil works here, while changing lines to one of the underground tanks this morning about 1 o'clock, slipped and fell into the slot returning in a reasonable time he was inquired for, and the latch of the tank was found open. Afterwards his body was recovered by the other employees.

HARVEY, N. B., Feb. 19.—Patrick Conaghan, a respected farmer of Cork Settlement, hanged himself in his barn this afternoon. He has been showing marked signs of insanity for several weeks. Foul Breath

Made Pure and Sweet by the Use of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges
TRIAL PACKAGE SENT FREE.
Do not go on your friends with a breath so odorous as to make you a presence distasteful. Foul breath is capable of easy removal if you will take a little time to overcome it. Generally foul breath comes from one of two causes, impure gases or foul digestive fluids.

Charcoal is the strongest absorbent of foul gases known. It positively attracts poisons and neutralizes their evil effects.

A noted French physician swallowed sulphuric enough to kill three men and with a teaspoonful of charcoal and the result of their use after meals. Simply dissolve two or three after meals and at bed time and foul breath flies at once. No matter how you cause these gases, whether by bad food, alcohol or other causes, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will stop gas making and sweeten the breath.

They are perfectly harmless and the getting of a box would cause you no inconvenience whatever.

Charcoal is hard to prepare for the stomach because it must be strong and pure and most people will not take it unless made palatable. Stuart's inimitable process presents charcoal to the plate and system in all the nicety desired.

Choice virgin willow is burnt into desirable charcoal; this is mixed with pure honey and the combination is compressed under tremendous power into a lozenge of great pleasantness and efficiency.

Don't let your bad breath make people cross the street to avoid you. Go to the nearest drug store and buy a box of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges today and eat what you will. Two or three after the meal will sweeten your breath at once. If you want proof of this fact send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address: P. O. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

THE SECURED A NEW BISHOP
TORONTO, Feb. 19.—Venerable Archbishop Sweaty, M. A., D. D., rector of St. Philip's church, Toronto, has been elected Bishop of Toronto in succession to the late Archbishop Swaitman. The election appears to give the most satisfaction, and when the chancellor of the diocese announced the result of the ballot late this afternoon he added that the venerable archbishop was elected there was a suppressed yet audible applause with some of the hand clapping and stamping of feet. The joint committee appointed to select a compromise candidate made no public announcement of its decision, but passed word that all had agreed on the venerable Archbishop Sweaty and how loyally all parties carried out the agreement was evidenced by the vote, which resulted as follows:
Archbishop Sweaty 152
Rev. Canon Coyle 13
Bishop Thornton 1
Rev. Canon Welch 3
Rev. Canon Tucker 3
Rev. T. W. Powell 0
Bishop Reeve 1
Total 173
In this ballot two clerical papers were blank and on the vote was lost.

manifested no concern as to the manner in which ordinary companies distributed profits. In the present case the main question was as to whether the company was living up to its contract. Mr. Aylesworth reviewed the private council case of 1924 instituted to determine the amount on which the company could pay ten per cent dividends before being compelled to apply its profits to the reduction of rates.

Hon. A. B. Aylesworth said in reply that he was not a defender of the Canadian Pacific and was of the opinion that the original agreement made with the company had been very disadvantageous to the country. But, having entered into many years ago the country was obliged to carry it out. In applying for power to increase its capital to two hundred millions, the company gave the government sound reasons for the increase in a statement of its agreements and how the money would be used.

DOWNIE ARRESTED, BUT WILL PROBABLY NOT BE PROSECUTED BY FIRM

$1,100 Stolen from Office of T. S. Simms & Co. Yesterday Clerk Found on Floor of All Appearances Unconscious His Story Not Believed, and Later Money is Found in Box Under His Desk

Undoubtedly as far as is known, the eleven hundred odd dollars which was yesterday stolen from the vault in the office of T. S. Simms & Co., Bank street, was discovered at ten o'clock last night by Sergeant Campbell in a satchel hidden beneath a box and under the desk of W. Herbert Downie, the invoice clerk of the firm.

Downie, a little over twenty-one years of age, his record has been a comparatively good one and the firm is loath to proceed against a man in whom every confidence has been placed during his connection with the concern.

Downie was arrested by Chief of Police Clark at the firm's boarding place, corner of Leinster and Carmarthen streets, and the youth who is suspected of planning and perpetrating one of the most daring and audacious robberies in the history of the city, is now behind the bars at the central police station.

Anderson to the office, and on searching noticed a box under the desk used by Downie, and on lifting it up the missing money was found in small handkerchiefs. The money was taken by Mr. Anderson and handed over to Chief Clark, who then accompanied Sergeant Campbell to Leinster Hall, where they found Downie preparing for bed, and placed him under arrest. They took him to central and placed him in charge of Officer McLaren in the guard room.

W. HERBERT DOWNIE. Discovered that something was amiss, he had occasion to enter the office at about twelve-forty. He stumbled over the body of Downie lying prone between the typewriter desk and the door of the vault.

Downie, in the interval of a few minutes, had produced a number of black and blue marks about the throat and appeared to be generally shaken up. He stated that his stomach was painful, and that he had been jumped upon at a vice and thrown backward to the floor.

Downie stated that the last person he saw before he was attacked was a man by the name of Grant, who, according to the time clock, went through the office at 12:30 p. m. He also said that he did not hear any noise until he was seized and strangled. The officers made a close examination of the office and safe, and after questioning all the office help left the building.

THE MYSTERY OF THE BRAIN.

Hardly any subject in research is more fascinating to human self-esteem than that which relates to the brain. Dr. Alexander Hill once compared our investigations of its processes to a visit to a textile factory, in which we were allowed to see the machinery turning out a carpet, without being permitted to examine either the mechanism of the loom or the material of the wool.

DOWNFOLDED ON THE CHARGE OF THEFT

Brought Before the Magistrate This Morning, When the Charge Was Read to Him.

W. Herbert Downie, the young man who is charged with stealing $1,114.89 from T. S. Simms and Co., was taken before Magistrate Ritchie this morning. The young man evidently feels his position keenly. His eyes were red and swollen from crying. As the charge was read to him, and in a low voice he pleaded "guilty." The magistrate told him that it was not necessary for him to say anything at this stage. The prisoner was then handed to jail. His reply was not entered against him, the proceedings being only to remand him to jail. The prisoner was not represented in court by counsel.

J. M. Price, of Price, McCherney and Truman, has since the proceedings this morning been retained to act on behalf of the prisoner.

SOME DAMAGE DONE BY TODAY'S HIGH TIDES

Wharves Covered and at Least One Coal Shed Flooded at a Loss of $250.

The unusually high tide this forenoon caused a great deal of inconvenience and some damage around the wharves. The high water mark was reached at 11.31 a.m. and according to the tide tables the tide rose 27.2 ft. above tide table data. It is probable that the height of the water was at least 18 inches more than that for the tabulated lists are based on normal conditions. Today however, the barometer stood at 29.3 inches, slightly more than an inch below normal, and it is generally conceded that an inch variation in the barometer results in a foot variation in the tide, so that the water was probably 12 inches higher than the tide table estimate, because of the variation in barometric conditions. In addition to this a strong southerly wind prevailed which always piles up water in the harbor. Still today's tide was not the highest on record. The tide tables have frequently noted 28 feet, and we have had tides of 29 feet due to exceptional meteorological conditions.

North and South Wharves were flooded in some places almost up to the stores, but merchants were prepared and no damage was done. Along the Pettigill and McLeod wharf districts, staging on the wharves floated around during the period of high water. The Francis Kerr Co. at the foot of Charlotte street, suffered damage to the extent of $250. The water flooded into the premises until there was a depth of fully 3 feet in the engine room. Fires were put out and work suspended. Some twenty-five tons of coal was washed away from under the shed, being carried into the slip. The premises were rented from the J. F. Seely estate, and some damage was done to the floors.

HEARING OF EVIDENCE AGAINST GEORGE PRINCE

Mr. Sharpe and A. P. Hazen Tell of the Worthless Check on Which W. H. Thorne's Name Was Forged.

In the police court this morning one drunk was fined $4. A man named McLean was remanded on the charge of wandering about Main street and in month.

George Prince charged with uttering worthless checks and forging was before the magistrate this morning and was represented by W. W. Allan.

Allan Sharp gave evidence that on Thursday morning the defendant entered his store on King street and selected a gold ring and fountain pen valued as good as cash while it had Mr. Thorne's name on it. The defendant then offered to pay ten dollars and promised to pay the balance next day.

Verner Sharp, son of the previous witness, gave evidence of making the sale to the defendant and taking the cheque in payment.

A. P. Hazen, manager of the Bank of B. N. A., said of receiving the cheque and learning that there were no funds at the Bank of Nova Scotia. He had been notified by the bank that Prince was giving out cheques which were worthless.

The prisoner was remanded until this afternoon.

Louis Golding was charged with stealing $80 from Walter Nelson.

Mr. Burns, who keeps a boarding house on Union street, told about the man boarding at her house, and that Golding gave her some money to keep for him on the morning that the theft is supposed to have taken place. The case was adjourned until Monday morning. The parties in this case were originally said to be boarders at James Brennan's hotel. This was erroneous.

G. H. Arnold, of Arnold's Department Store, leaves by train today for New York on a business trip.
