GERMANY LOSES BIG WARSHIP; SUCCESS CROWNS ALLIED CAMPAIGN IN KAMERUN

ALLEGED GERMAN AGENT PLACED UNDER ARREST

May Know Something of Fire in Parliament Buildings at Ottawa.

ANOTHER BODY IS FOUND AMONG RUINS.

Messages of Sympathy from all Over Empire Reach Ottawa—United States Also Expresses Regret.

Wingham, Ont., Feb. 6.—On the order of Col. Sherwood, head of the Dominion police, Adolphe Schatte, aged 29, a member of the Wingham Band, and an alleged German agent, was arrested tonight by Provincial Officer Philpott and a detachment of soldiers. Schatte is said to be wanted on charges of espionage. It is reported that drawings of buildings, bridges, etc., in different parts of Western Ontario, were found among his personal effects. An investigation is to be held in connection with the finding of a box of cordite in a car of goods which arrived here yesterday over the Grand Trunk.

Special to The Standard.
Ottawa, Feb. 6.—The body of another of the victims of the Ottawa conflagration was found today. The man was unrecognizable. He had the nose at the end of a hose under his arm and presumably was Dominion Policeman Desjarlais. This is the fourth body recovered.

There are three other bodies still buried under the ruins. They are those of B. B. Law, M. P. for Yarmouth; Alphonse Desjarlais, a plumber, and uncle of former, and Randolph Parnis, of the post office department.

A report on Saturday night that the east block was on fire sent the capital into another spasm of excitement. The east block contains the premier's office, finance department, justice department and others. The fire brigade had only been called, however, for a slight new outbreak in the east end of the main building which was still standing.

The spectacle under the blackened walls of the former splendid home of parliament is a most pitiable one. The site of the chamber of the House of Commons is covered with debris many feet deep and is open to the sky.

Valuable Paintings Undamaged.
"Room 16," the lobby of the members of the government side, which is just west of the chamber and only the western wall of it remains standing. The place, floor and all have fallen through to the basement.

The Hansard offices, however, on the other side of the Commons chamber are entirely intact. The long press room running along the west end of the building was badly flooded, but otherwise undamaged. The offices of members on the second floor are also only flooded, and the restaurant and bar on the third floor scarcely suffered at all. The numerous large paintings on the walls of the restaurant are not damaged. Everything undamaged in

OTHER DOMINIONS MAY HELP BUILD NEW HOME FOR CANADA'S PARLIAMENT

London, Feb. 6.—(Montreal Gazette cable)—Notwithstanding official denials of German intrigue in connection with the burning of the parliament buildings at Ottawa, the British press is unanimous in regarding the catastrophe as the work of the Hun. With the expressions of sympathy there is invariably coupled the confidence that Canada will, in no way, allow herself to be terrorized by acts of frightfulness. The London Evening Star suggests that the imperial dominions, aided perhaps by the other dominions, be allowed to rebuild Canada's parliament as a mark of the Empire's gratitude and unity.

the ruined building that can be of use in the new home of parliament in the Victoria Museum is being transferred as rapidly as possible and wagons and trucks have been busy all day carrying furniture, desks, etc. The pictures in the senate chamber, and the carriages about it were all saved, Col. J. Chambers, gentleman usher of the black rod, and other officers, having put forth a desperate effort to save these from destruction. The furnishings of the senate side were also saved.

The lobby of the Liberal members of the House of Commons was flooded but not burnt. The area between the Conservative and Liberal lobbies is filled with debris including huge masses of cut stone that have fallen down from the top walls. The debris from the interior is being wheeled and carried onto the lawn to the west as the search for the bodies is pushed as fast as can be done. The gates leading up to the parliament building are still guarded by soldiers, and Rideau Hall is closely guarded by detectives.

Hon. Robert Rogers has requested General Hughes to recall Col. Robert S. Low from Halifax to superintend the work of clearing up the debris on Parliament Hill.

Will Call on Experts to Probe Disaster
Ottawa, Feb. 6.—(Via leased wire)—The special committee which is to investigate the burning of the parliament buildings will be constituted tomorrow or today. It will consist of two members, one nominated by the government and one by the leader of the opposition. Mr. R. A. Pringle, K. C., of Ottawa, will probably be the government nominee. The commission will issue as soon as the name of Sir Wilfrid's nominee is received by the government, and the commissioners will be given authority to employ all expert assistance that may be necessary for the purpose of making the investigation thorough and complete.

The search for the four bodies still in the ruins of the Commons wing was continued all day today but without success. A report that the remains of Bowman Law had been found was circulated this afternoon but proved to be without foundation. The searchers did succeed in reaching the part of the ruins where the members telephone cabinets had been. Mr. Law had been in this part of the building just before the fire broke out and had tele-

BIG GUNS OF BRITISH AND FRENCH HAMMER GERMANS IN WEST

Destructive Fire of Allied Artillery Playing Havoc With Enemy's Defences — Thousands of Germans, Driven From West Africa, Cross Into Spanish Guinea Where They Are Disarmed and Interned — Campaign Nearing End a Notable Victory for British and French Arms.

GERMANS INTERNED IN SPANISH GUINEA

Madrid, Feb. 6.—Nine hundred Germans and fourteen thousand of their colonial troops from the German colony of Kamerun have crossed the border into Spanish Guinea, according to an official announcement made here today. The troops have been disarmed and interned.

This is taken here to indicate that the Franco-British campaign in the Kamerun is nearing a conclusion.

The Franco-British campaign against the Kamerun, a German protectorate in Western Equatorial Africa, was begun in the spring of 1915.

French and British reports have told of the occupation of Ngaoundere, one of the chief interior trading stations, which, from its situation, climate and the number of roads converging from it, was the centre of German resistance; of the taking of Tibati, 137 miles from the Nigerian border; and the more recent capture of the towns of Daing, Nken Lolodorf, and the retirement of large convoys into Spanish Guinea.

The Kamerun protectorate has an area of 181,130 square miles, and has a population of 2,540,000, including about 2,000 whites. The only other possession of the Germans in Africa, not conquered by the Allies is the protectorate of German East Africa, which has an area of 384,000 square miles, and a population of 5,500,000.

The British are pressing the Germans hard in the Kamerun region of German West Equatorial Africa. A Spanish official communication says that 300 Germans and 14,000 of their colonial troops have crossed the southwest border and sought refuge in Spanish Guinea, where they were disarmed and interned.

Except on the western line in France and Belgium, and on the Caucasus front, little fighting of moment is in progress in any of the war theatres.

In Northwest Russia there have been aerial raids by both the Germans and Russians, and in Galicia and Bukovina small infantry and grenade attacks. At one point along the line where the Russian General Ivanoff is in command the Russians found a system of Teuton mines and having wired it, detonated the mines.

The British and French in Belgium have shelled, with destructive effect, German trenches at Boesinghe, and the French heavy guns have silenced a German battery to the east of Boesinghe.

Petrograd says the Russians continue to harass the Turks over the entire Caucasus region, and that all attempts by the Turks at an offensive have been repulsed with heavy losses to them.

In Mesopotamia, near Palahle, small artillery and infantry engagements have been going on between the Turks and the British. At Kut-el-Amara, where the British are besieged by the Turks, there is no change in the situation.

With Italian Army.
Rome, Feb. 5.—The following official statement was issued here today: "In the Sugana Valley there have been minor encounters between Rogno and Tarcongo, where the enemy was repulsed, leaving some prisoners in our hands."

"In the Tolmino zone the enemy attacked our positions at Santa Maria yesterday at dawn. In spite of the thick fog, which paralyzed artillery action, the prompt arrival of reinforcements enabled us to repulse the enemy with an appreciable loss to him. On the Podgora Heights, west of Gorizia, the enemy on Thursday night tried to approach our positions."

"At the second attempt our troops counter-attacked, putting the enemy to flight and taking some prisoners."

Severe Test for British in Mesopotamia.
London, Feb. 6.—The correspondent of the British press in Mesopotamia, telegraphing from Basra, Asiatic Turkey, under date of Feb. 2, emphasizes the hard task of the Kut-el-Amara relief force. He says the climatic conditions compare with the worst experienced in France in the winter of 1914. In few campaigns have the British and Indians been so severely tried. Lack of cover in the flat country exposed the advance of the troops to rifle fire at 2,000 yards.

At the present time, owing to the recent halt, the conditions are becoming like those in France. Communications trenches have been cut, and for the moment the operations are confined to sniping and artillery fire.

CORRUPTION IN BULGARIA'S PARLIAMENT

Thirteen Adherents of Former Foreign Minister Charged with Taking Bribes from French Agent.

Sofia, Feb. 6.—The state attorney has asked the Bulgarian parliament for authority to arrest thirteen of its members, constituting the so-called Ghendakoff group (adherents of M. BLACK'S HARBOR DOES WELL IN RECRUITING Rousing Meeting Last Night and Ten Men Offer Their Services to Empire.

St. George, Feb. 5.—A splendid recruiting meeting was held at Black's Harbor tonight in Connor's Hall. The hall was donated for the occasion by Lewis Connor, who also looked after the decorations and presided at the meeting. The hall was filled to the doors and stirring addresses were made by the following:—H. R. Lawrence, Dr. H. I. Taylor, M. L. A.; C. Hazen McGee, Dr. C. C. Alexander and M. E. Baldwin, all of St. George.

At the close of the meeting no less than ten young men between the ages of eighteen and thirty signified their intention to don the khaki and fight for king and country. These men are all splendid specimens of the best type of manhood, and Black's Harbor is to be congratulated on the response they made to the call of the Empire.

Invasion of Canada Part of the Scheme, New York Herald Says.

THOUSANDS OF RIFLES SECRETLY PURCHASED

German Officers Reach New York in Guise of Belgian Refugees to Take Part in Attack

New York, Feb. 7.—The Herald this morning prints a lengthy story to the effect that the Canadian secret service has uncovered a plot of enormous proportions, the object of which was the invasion of Canada and the destruction of the Welland Canal. The Canadian secret service agents, working on this side of the border, and reported by the Herald to have submitted these findings to their government: "That two hundred thousand mousier rifles had been secretly purchased by German agents, and were being shipped along the Canadian border. "That scores of German army officers recently have arrived in the United States in the guise of Belgian refugees, and from neutral ports of Europe, with the object of heading an armed force for the invasion of Canada.

"That the principal object of this secret movement is the destruction of the Welland Canal, and the shipment of $600,000,000 of Canadian wheat to the Allies.

"That one-third of the output of American munitions plants has been purchased by German agents, manufacturing as agents for the allied governments, and that these war supplies, the greater part composed of rifles, are stored secretly.

"That the destruction of the Canadian parliament buildings at Ottawa last week, and the attempted destruction of a munitions plant in the same city Feb. 5, were the work of German sympathizers."

APPAM'S CAPTAIN SAYS RAIDER WAS THE PONGO

Gives the Story of Capture of His Ship by German Raider.

BOMBS SCATTERED ABOUT SHIP'S DECK.

Captain Told Bombs Would be Exploded and Ship Sunk at First Sign of Trouble.

New York, Feb. 6.—The German raider which captured the British steamer Appam was the Pongo, according to Captain H. G. Harrison, former master of the Appam, who arrived here yesterday from the steamship Hamilton. With Captain Harrison were his officers and crew, numbering 150, who probably will be sent to England on the White Star liner Baltic.

Captain Harrison said he had no other recourse than to surrender when he discovered the warlike character of the cruiser which was two ship lengths away from the Appam. He was ordered to board her, with his deck officers and a number of his men. The name of the raider, he declared, appeared in plain English on the navigation charts hanging in the vessel's pilot-house and chartroom, where he was summoned by the commander.

"I had little time to make observations," Captain Harrison said. "With my men I was ordered below decks, and kept there for two days with the crews taken from ships previously sunk. While I talked with my guards, and many of them spoke English well, they gave no information.

"When I was again placed on board my ship, I found it in full possession of the Germans. Bombs had been planted on the bridge, in the chart house, and in the engine room, and it was told that at the first sign of trouble they would be exploded and the ship sent to the bottom.

"Nothing was taken from the Appam except a shipment of gold bars from West Africa, valued at about $180,000.

"I have no complaint to make of the way we were treated by the Germans. I was invited by Lt. Berge each evening at six o'clock to have a West African cocktail with him. This was served to us in what was, before our capture, my cabin. I was not allowed on the bridge or in the chart room."

Geneva, Feb. 5, via Paris, Feb. 6, 4.15 p. m.—Prince Leopold of Bavaria, who has studied Egypt thoroughly, will be appointed to command a German-Turkish army in an attack on the Suez Canal, according to the Kurier of Munich. The newspaper says the expedition is expected to get under way in the spring and that it will be commanded by German officers, who are making preparations at Constantinople.

GERMANS OPEN BRANCH OF KRUPP WORKS IN KOVNO

French Prisoners Forced to Help Make Guns for Enemy—German Forces Around Dvinsk Demoralized.

Petrograd, Feb. 6, via London.—The Germans have established a branch of the Krupp gun works at Shavli, Kovno, at which a large part of the male population as well as a number of the French prisoners are forced to work, according to statements made by German soldiers who have been taken prisoners by the Russians.

The movements of the German military forces in the Dvinsk region seem to be disorganized and to lack all method, says the Ruskaya Pravda, and this is ascribed by the newspapers to an insufficiency of German forces and to the bad weather and roads.

CAPT. KAHN IN THE TRENCHES, SIR SAM SAYS

Special to The Standard.—There is an erroneous impression in the country," said Gen. Sir Sam Hughes today, "that there is some German officer around the trenches. It is at the front in the German officer is at the front in the trenches. He is one of hundreds of Germans loyally fighting with Canada under the British flag. The Minister of Militia was referring to the battle of the Somme, the Canadian forces, it would be better if those who are endeavoring to make a race war out of it would follow their example. This is not a race war but a war of liberty.

"There is an agitation all over the country regarding military protection for civic works, such as water works. This is a purely municipal matter in which the militia department has no concern. If the people would throw fewer cartridges or clear butts around there would be fewer fires.

"Twice in three weeks there have been fires in the reading room of parliament.

"In the South African war," he said, "I had the honor of enlisting the first Boers in the British service. There never were truer men or better fighters once they realized the difference between Boer rule, and British liberty."

WHERE ALLIES LANDED TROOPS IN GREECE

According to reports from German sources troops of the Allies were landed at Salonica and re-embarked after a short inspection of the city. Another report states French and British troops have been landed at Corinth, Greece, forty-eight miles west of Athens. "Among the wild rumors as to the intentions of the Allies," the report continues, "is the statement that they intend to advance to Athens, whence King Constantine, his court and the government will retire in conformity with the King's desire to maintain armed neutrality.

phoned friends in the city accepting an invitation for today, and it was thought that he might have been overtaken by the fire or smothered while still in the cabinet. A mass of debris was cleared away but the body was not found, and it seems more than every likely that Mr. Law met his death on the third story or in near the room occupied by the Nova Scotia Liberals.

Less Certain Fire Was Accidental.

The official view still is that the fire was accidental in origin, but this view is held less strongly than was the case on Friday, in view of the subsequent events such as the burning of the Grant, Holden and Graham factory here, and the Jardine plant at Hespeler. To those in official circles who believe that the fire started from a match or cigar dropped by a careless visitor to the reading room, the most puzzling feature is the rapidity with which the flames took hold of the building. A well known contractor, who is familiar with the manufacture of matches, has suggested the possible use of cordite, a powdery substance which could have been sprinkled along the corridor and remained for undetected until ignited from a time fuse when it would have carried the flames in any direction desired.

Many of the theories held by those who believe the fire was of incendiary origin, however, have been already disproved. Investigation has shown that the chemical fire extinguishers in the building, which it has been reported had been filled with gasoline instead of fire smothering fluid, had not been tampered with, and that their contents were what they should be.

Whole Empire Strired

There is a strong sentiment in favor of the re-construction of the buildings by making use of the walls as they stand with the addition of steel and concrete in the interior, thus preserving the familiar outline of the building. On the other hand the increased accommodation has been pressing for years and the necessity of the construction of an entirely new building.

Whatever is the decision of the government in this respect no time will be lost in beginning the work. The loss of the parliament buildings is expected to shorten the session materially.

Thursday night's disaster has stirred the whole empire and has brought to Sir Robert Borden messages of sympathy from every part of Canada, from the United States, from the sister dominions and many from the motherland.

Premier Asquith cabled Saturday as follows: "Deeply sympathetic with you and the government, parliament, and people of Canada in their great loss. People of Great Britain already bound to the dominion by gratitude, and magnificent services to empire's cause."

Premiers of Australia And New Zealand Are on Way to Canadian Capital

They will be met at Vancouver by representatives of the Canadian government and conveyed here on a government train. The Australasian premier will proceed from Ottawa to London, where they will hold a conference with the Imperial authorities. It is understood that Sir Robert Borden will not accompany them to London, but that Messrs. Fisher and Massey, after discussing various mat-

The expectation is that the leading question to be discussed in Ottawa will be promotion and protection of inter-imperial and inter-allied trade. The war arrangements are thoroughly perfected.

CHEERY LETTER FROM GORDON M. MORRELL ONLY FEW DAYS AGO

Kings County boy gives life on field of battle—Expected to go to England on furlough soon.

Private Gordon Morrell, of Kings County, received word from Ottawa on February 3rd that her son Private Gordon M. Morrell, of the 26th Battalion, was killed on the 22nd of January, 1916. No particulars were sent. He had been employed with Jones Bros., of Apsahqui for two years, and was twenty-two years of age.

Profound sorrow was expressed on every countenance of the many friends of Gordon M. Morrell in Apsahqui, when the startling news came on Thursday that he had been killed in Belgium while fighting for his country.

Private Gordon M. Morrell was 22 years of age, was the son of Mrs. Christian Morrell, of Parish of Kings, Belleisle Bay, and is survived by his mother and one sister, Miss Lena Morrell. Though not a native of this place, he had been a valued employe with the firm of Jones Bros. here for nearly two years, and during that time had made many friends with whom he was very popular, both in business and social life, and one whose name suggested honor from every standpoint. He enlisted with the 26th and was often a visitor with friends here during leaves of absence when his company was training in St. John. On Tuesday of this week one of his friends, Herbert Wright, who is with the 104th, received a bright, cheery letter from him. In it he expressed the desire that he would be fortunate enough to return to relate his adventures which was most satisfactory to his friends.

NEW SEAPLANE TO UNDERGO TEST AT PENSACOLA

This seaplane, purchased by the United States Navy, has been shipped from Marblehead, Mass., to the Navy Training Station at Pensacola, Fla., by the Burgess Company, where it will undergo an official test under the direction of naval authorities. With a contract speed of eighty miles an hour the craft is the fastest seaplane ever designed and built for aero-marine service. In all, the navy seaplane must carry a load of 1,000 pounds, excluding the weight of the machine itself. The weight is made up of 380 pounds required by the department for pilot and passenger; 220 pounds specified for tools and instruments—as, in the case of war, bombs, and 400 pounds of fuel and oil, insuring a continuous flight of four hours' duration.

FIRE AT INTERNMENT CAMP IN QUEBEC

Special to The Standard.

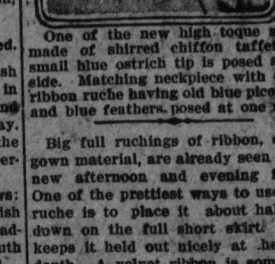

Fredericton, Feb. 6.—John G. Adams, who for many years has carried on business here as a funeral director, suffered a paralytic stroke on Saturday evening and is in a critical condition at his home here.

Word has been received here that the headquarters building at Spirit Lake, Quebec, was burned to the ground last week. Fire was discovered about 2 o'clock in the morning and smoke resulting was so dense that it was impossible to fight it. The blaze was discovered by one of the orderlies and the building was completely destroyed in about twenty-five minutes.

The cause of the fire is at present unknown, but officers in charge of the camp place no blame on interned Austrians, there being about 1,500 of them in camp.

Word of the fire was received here by Mrs. Daves Gilmore, whose husband Capt. Gilmore is one of the officers in charge of the camp.

FRENCH AIR RAID ON BULGAR CAMPS A SUCCESS

CHEERY LETTER FROM GORDON M. MORRELL ONLY FEW DAYS AGO

Kings County boy gives life on field of battle—Expected to go to England on furlough soon.

PRIVATE GORDON MORRELL.

Mrs. Alvin Morrell, of Kings County, received word from Ottawa on February 3rd that her son Private Gordon M. Morrell, of the 26th Battalion, was killed on the 22nd of January, 1916. No particulars were sent. He had been employed with Jones Bros., of Apohaqui for two years, and was twenty-two years of age.

Profound sorrow was expressed on every countenance of the many friends of Gordon M. Morrell in Apohaqui, when the startling news came on Thursday that he had been killed in Belgium while fighting for his country.

Private Gordon M. Morrell was 22 years of age, was the son of Mrs. Christian Morrell, of Parish of Kars, Belleisle Bay, and is survived by his mother and one sister, Miss Lena Morrell. Though not a native of this place, he had been a valued employe with the firm of Jones Bros. here for nearly two years, and during that time had made many friends with whom he was very popular, both in business and social life, and one whose name suggested honor from every standpoint. He enlisted with the 26th and was often a visitor with friends here, during leaves of absence when his company was training in St. John.

On Tuesday of this week one of his friends, Herbert Wright, who is with the 104th, received a bright, cheery letter from him. In it he expressed the desire that he would be fortunate enough to return to relate his adventures which was more satisfactory than writing.

As yet no particulars of his death has been received, save that he was not previously wounded. From the time of enlistment he has been in company with his friend lance Corporal Harley Wright of this place, and they were about to have a two days' leave, to take a trip to England.

DOORCHESTER MAN HAS HEAVY LOSS BY FIRE

Barn owned by W. Frank Tait destroyed, together with valuable contents.

Special to The Standard.

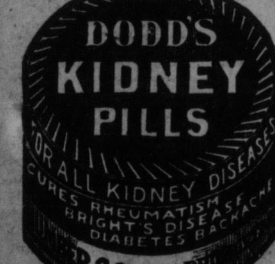

Dorchester, N. B., Feb. 6.—Fire broke out about seven o'clock tonight in a barn the property of W. Frank Tait on the Cherry Burton Road. The first to arrive on the scene was Asa Milton, who claims that the barn was a scorching furnace and that it was impossible to save any of the valuable collection of farming implements stored there for the winter. The barn, which was a new and valuable structure, contained 15 tons of hay and about 100 bags of fertilizer and a full complement of modern farm machinery. The loss is estimated at $1,500 with only $200 insurance. Mr. Tait, the proprietor, is convinced that the fire was of incendiary origin. His house, which adjoins the barn, is in no immediate danger, unless high winds should spring up.

NEW LAW FOR DEALING WITH DESERTERS

Ottawa, Feb. 6. (Via leased wire)—An order-in-council has been passed, under the War Measures Act, providing for a more speedy conviction of deserters from the overseas forces. It is provided that every man of the active militia of Canada, or of the Canadian overseas expeditionary force who absents himself from his corps while it is on active service, without the leave of the commanding officer, shall be guilty of an offence under the criminal code. On conviction the offender may be imprisoned for two years, with or without hard labor.

Production of the attestation paper shall be deemed to be sufficient proof that the accused was duly enlisted, and a written statement from the adjutant-general's branch that he was absent without leave shall, without other evidence, be deemed to be sufficient proof.

The new regulation is passed so as to obviate the difficulty hitherto experienced of producing witnesses to legally prove desertion under the old regulations. This difficulty was especially experienced in cases where the other members of the corps had gone overseas.

BERLIN IS HORRIFIED

German press indignant because British trawler did not risk treachery and save crew of crippled Zeppelin.

London, Feb. 5.—According to Berlin telegrams transmitted by Reuter's correspondent at Amsterdam the attitude of the crew of the trawler King Stephen toward the crew of the wrecked Zeppelin L-19 has raised a storm of indignation in the Berlin press which describes the case as a worthy counterpart of the Baralong incident.

"This fresh infamous action," says the Lokal Anzeiger, "discloses the brutality of the British character, which we barbarians did not know." The Vossische Zeitung says: "Every one who has still preserved an impartial judgment, will agree that the King Stephen affair is a stain on the shield of Britannia."

DEATH PENALTY FOR LT. CODERRE

Extreme punishment of law for officer of 41st Canadian Battalion charged with murder of Sergeant.

London, Feb. 5.—Lieut. Georges Coderre, of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, was sentenced to death today at Winchester on the charge of having murdered Sergt. Oranne, of his regiment.

Will Try For Reprieve

London, Feb. 6.—(Montreal Gazette cable)—Immediate steps will be taken in the endeavor to obtain a reprieve for ex-Lieut. Coderre, of the 41st Battalion. The jury's verdict of guilty in the trial for murder came as a surprise to the lawyers and witnesses for the defence who state that the judge's summing up, although impartial, left room for a verdict in accordance with the line taken by the defence. Col. Rioux, of Sherbrooke, will confer tomorrow with Sir Charles Russell, counsel for the defence, regarding the preparation of the petition for a reprieve.

Lieut. Coderre's wife was not present in the court room at the trial, being ill in London.

The breaking of the news of the verdict on Saturday threw her into a state of hysteria.

At an inquest, held in December, on the body of Sergt. Oranne, Coderre's victim, a peculiar crime was noted. Coderre sat in the courtroom and under a stout rope used to adjust the roof windows, and its sinister suggestion, as it swung above the suspect, was so noticeable that the officials hastily ordered its removal.

The prisoner was stripped of his uniform recently, at the same time signing his resignation from the service in court he wore hospital garb, having been treated for asthma.

Sergt. Martin, formerly of the mechanical department of the Montreal city hall, who was subjected to a warm cross-examination at the trial, has left the city and is returning to Montreal.

FIRST DESERTERS TO BE SENTENCED UNDER THE WAR MEASURES ACT

Montreal, Feb. 6.—Three privates in the 173rd Highlanders were convicted on Saturday before Judge Lanctot, of deserting from the regiment and then the system and drive out poisons, —then comes vitality, endurance, power. Ferronee does all this and more. It makes sick people well, weak people strong, changes "nerves" and induces into robust health. Take Ferronee and health is yours; 50c. at all dealers.

HUNS HAVE KILLED DOCTOR'S WIFE IS ACQUITTED

Jury frees Mrs. Mohr of charge of instigating husband's murder.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 6.—Mrs. Elizabeth F. Mohr was acquitted last night by a jury in the Superior Court of charge of having instigated the murder of her husband, Dr. C. Franklin Mohr.

C. Victor Brown and Henry H. Spellman, who were accused of the killing were found guilty. The jury was out seven hours.

The trial began January 10, and the jury had been kept together all the time. Dr. Mohr, a physician practicing in this city and Newport, was shot fatally on the evening of August 31, 1915, as he was sitting in his stalled automobile in a lonely spot in Barrington.

George W. Healls, the chauffeur, made a confession, in which he alleged that Mrs. Mohr had agreed to pay him, Brown and Spellman, $5,000 if they would murder her husband.

The police also claimed that the other two negroes made confessions which were subsequently repudiated. Healls pleaded guilty to manslaughter, and became a witness for the State.

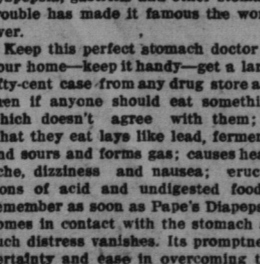

Dr. and Mrs. Mohr had been living apart for two years as a result of quarrels growing out of his alleged attentions to Miss Burger and other women. Separation suits were pending and the State claimed that Mrs. Mohr sought her husband's death for revenge and to obtain his estate. The defence maintained that Mrs. Mohr loved her husband and that she had been involved by the actual murderer, who hoped thus to mitigate his own punishment.

Dorchester, N. B., Feb. 6.—Fire broke out about seven o'clock tonight in a barn the property of W. Frank Tait on the Cherry Burton Road. The first to arrive on the scene was Asa Milton, who claims that the barn was a scorching furnace and that it was impossible to save any of the valuable collection of farming implements stored there for the winter. The barn, which was a new and valuable structure, contained 15 tons of hay and about 100 bags of fertilizer and a full complement of modern farm machinery. The loss is estimated at $1,500 with only $200 insurance. Mr. Tait, the proprietor, is convinced that the fire was of incendiary origin. His house, which adjoins the barn, is in no immediate danger, unless high winds should spring up.

FRENCH AVIATOR WINS HIS FIFTH BATTLE IN AIR

After a thrilling combat near Frise sends opponent to earth a mass of flames.

Paris, Feb. 5.—The following official communication was issued by the war office tonight:

"Between Soissons and Rheims our artillery shelled the bridgehead at Venimont and the enemy works at Vendres and Cernay. A column on the march was taken under our fire to the east of Saint Supet.

"Champagne our batteries damaged the German organizations on the plateau of Navarin.

"Between the Aisne and the Argonne there was a bombardment of the enemy shelters and trenches to the north of St. Thomas. At Haute Chevauchee we occupied the northern rim of a crater caused by the explosion of a German mine.

"In Lorraine our artillery was active in the region of Domèvre and Colcourt.

"About 11.30 o'clock this morning Sergt. Pilot Guyemere engaged in combat an enemy aeroplane in the region of Frise, and drove it to the earth in flames between Assesvillers and Hebecourt. This is the fifth hostile machine brought down by Sergt. Guyemere."

RECIPES TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities, which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

AFTER SIX YEARS OF SUFFERING Woman Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbus, Ohio.—"I had almost given up. I had been sick for six years with female troubles and nervousness. I had a pain in my right side and could not eat anything without hurting my stomach. I could not drink cold water at all nor eat any kind of raw fruit, nor fresh meat nor chicken. From 178 pounds I went to 118 and would get so weak at times that I fell over. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and ten days later I could eat and it did not hurt my stomach. I have taken the medicine ever since and I feel like a new woman. I now weigh 127 pounds so you can see what it has done for me already. My husband says he knows your medicine has saved my life."

Mrs. J. S. BARLOW, 1624 South 4th St., Columbus, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains just the virtues of roots and herbs needed to restore health and strength to the weak and ailing organs of the body. That is why Mrs. Barlow, a chronic invalid, recovered so completely. It pays for women suffering from any female ailments to insist upon having Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

BRONCHITIS COMES FROM A NEGLECTED COLD.

Bronchitis starts with a short, painful, dry cough, accompanied with rapid wheezing, and a feeling of oppression or tightness through the chest. At first the expectoration is a light color but as the trouble progresses the phlegm arising from the bronchial tubes becomes a yellowish or greenish color, and is very often of a stringy nature.

Bronchitis is usually at its worst in the morning on account of the phlegm becoming lodged in the bronchial tubes during the night, and it very often takes some time coughing and gagging before you can get the throat clear of the phlegm.

When this happens you may be sure that if the bronchitis is not attended to immediately it will sooner or later develop into pneumonia, or some other serious lung trouble.

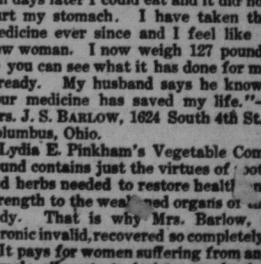

The best remedy for to cure the cold is DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP.

Mrs. Roy Corner, Greenwood, Ont., writes: "I must tell you what Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup did for me. Whenever I got a cold I would be troubled with bronchitis, and sometimes I would almost choke to death. After taking two bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup I was cured."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is almost a shock to death. After talking to two bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup I was cured."

"We are fighting for a worthy purpose, and we shall not lay down our arms until that purpose has been fully achieved."—H.M. The King TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

THE NEED FOR MEN

The criticism has been made that some recruiting speakers, in their remarks from the platform, have been unduly severe and harsh in the language employed toward young men who have not yet answered the call to arms. The results from the recruiting campaign during the past few weeks have shown that whatever might be said regarding local recruiting speakers, at least they cannot be accused of being too severe. As a case in point, a meeting was held in Black's Harbor, Charlotte county, on Saturday evening at which addresses were delivered by prominent citizens of St. George. After the meeting ten young men signed the roll of honor. In St. John on Saturday and Sunday three men were secured. The comparison is not flattering to St. John.

The difficulty here seems to be that the young men do not appreciate the need for service. They still persist in thinking that the war is 3,000 miles away and that Canada is not concerned. They forget what would happen if the Germans should succeed in prolonging the struggle to a point where the Allies would be forced to make peace on the best terms they could obtain. "In such an event," the Toronto World points out, "one of the demands of Germany would undoubtedly be for Canada as a German colony. The apathy of Canadians about enlistment would be pointed to as a reason for regarding the Canadian people as not opposed to such a change of government. The troops that are going overseas are not to any great extent Canadian born, but are composed of British-born and Americans. Canadians stand apart, and by their conduct give the Germans good ground to suppose that they do not mind whether the German eagles wave over Canadian public buildings or not.

"A German colony in Canada would mean the adoption of all the German methods which the German government imposes upon its colonies elsewhere. We would have a despotic German. English would be banished as the native languages are in Belgium and Poland. Quebec would become another Alsace-Lorraine. Ontario would be a larger Heligoland, armed to the teeth, all the men who now refuse to fight for themselves, conscripted to fight for Germany, and prepared to make the attack upon the United States, which would be the next step of world domination.

"The war levy which would be imposed on Canada would not be less than a thousand millions. The people who are saving their money now and refusing to contribute to military charitable funds would no longer save, but would support the German cause whether they liked it or not.

Possibly Canadian young men may be inclined to doubt the predictions of the Toronto World and to ridicule the idea that Canada would ever pass under German domination. But it is known that the one British possession most coveted by the Germans is Canada and if this war could be pushed by them to a successful termination, or even to the point where a peace with concessions could be obtained, Canada would be certain to be included in their demands.

The way to prevent such a possibility from becoming a reality is to join the colors and help to defeat the Prussian power on the battle fields of France and Flanders. When that is accomplished and the Kaiser compelled to sue for peace, instead of being in a position to dictate peace terms, Canada's future will be assured. Until then the future cannot but be held in doubt. The patriotic man, the loyal man, the man who believes that his services this day belong to his country, will not delay longer but will don the khaki at once, secure in the thought that his action is for the right.

MR. PARDEE AND SHIPS

In addressing the House of Commons in the course of the debate of last week F. P. Pardee, Liberal member for West Lambton, Ont., and chief Liberal whip, sought to make it appear that Sir Sam Hughes had furnished an argument in favor of the Liberal doctrine that Canada could build ships of war fit for the British navy. He said Sir Sam had stated that Canadian-made shells had won the battle of St. Julien and, consequently, Canadian-built ships would have been good enough to guard the trade routes and transport Canadian troops to the aid of the motherland.

No one will dispute Mr. Pardee's contention, but what does he hope to prove by it? No one ever said that the product of Canadian shipyards could not hold their own with any others. That was not the issue. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier proposed to build his little ships of war he asked for tenders from British builders and these tenders remained for months in the office of the Liberal Minister of Marine before the Borden Government came into power in 1911. Thus there was no intention on the part of the Liberals to build ships in Canada. In fact it did not appear that they wanted to build them out of Canada either, or they would have gone ahead with their proposals while they had the opportunity of doing so. Australia had her ships, and had them in action in the first period of the war. Sir Wilfrid Laurier could have had his as well if he had cared to have them. For it must be remembered he had no hostile Senate to thwart his proposals; his majority was safe and assured in both branches of the legislature.

Sir Robert Borden's first anxiety was to have the ships built, where they were to be built was not of so much importance as when they could be delivered. In his memorable speech in the House of Commons he told his hearers that the lightness of war were already flashing, whereas Mr. Pardee and his friends laughed loud and long, and claimed that the thought of an emergency was the child of the armament makers of Europe. Have they forgotten so easily? Mr. Pardee will hardly question this fact; that the ships making secure the peace of the world today are staunch and strong and fully equal to the task imposed on them. They were built where they have been building ships for generations, in the British shipyards, and where Sir Robert Borden wanted to build the Canadian super-dreadnoughts that should now be participating in Britain's naval wars. These ships were not built because the Liberal Senate strangled the proposal and for that strangling Mr. Pardee and his friends must share the responsibility.

THE OTTAWA JOURNAL AGAIN

The Times has been pleased to refer to the Ottawa Evening Journal as an "independent Conservative" newspaper. Consequently it is not too much to expect that the Times will approve the Journal's opinion of the events of the closing week of the debate on Friday evening published the following: "The speech from the throne at the opening of the present session of the Dominion Parliament expressed glowing satisfaction with the efforts of Canada in connection with the war. The address of the Commons in reply to the speech from the throne expressed the approval of the commons with the speech. And the debate on the address finally closed by unanimous adoption of the address. "No amendment to the address was offered, no vote taken. Our parliamentary procedure is designed to give an opportunity for civility; these things upon exactly that occasion, in case dissatisfaction is supposed to exist with the national administration. "What this country has seen and heard for a couple of weeks past therefore, is a furious attack by part of the opposition upon the Government for having done shameful things—things so shameful that Liberals, so the roar went, ought not to entertain the Canadian army unless something is done about it—while all this wound up with a unanimous vote that there is nothing to fuss about. The Government was victoriously denounced for gross partisanship, wrong and waste both directly and through the shell committee. But no motion of condemnation has shown itself. The shell committee was excoriated for favoritism, for mismanagement, for high prices and for giving rich business to its own members. But no motion for investigation has been offered. The Government was accused of causing slaughter of Canadian soldiers by failure to arm them properly, and of giving commissions as officers only to Conservatives. But no charge was formulated to vote on.

The debate on the address is over, and what looked like a real fight proves, so far as the Liberals are concerned, to have been carried on with blank cartridges.

What is the reasonable inference from this, as regards such speeches as those of Mr. Pugsley and Mr. Carvell?"

The Fredericton Gleamer of Saturday published the following: "There may or may not be any truth in the rumor that the Secretary and the President of the St. John Board of Trade have decided to demand that the new Dominion Parliament building be erected at St. John. The secretary has not made any public statement on the subject, nor has Mr. Lively, the president, nor Mr. W. E. Foster—that seems to be his name—been yet heard from. People generally are awaiting the announcement of their wishes in the matter with a feeling of intense anxiety."

After all Mr. Pugsley's bombardment and Mr. Carvell's ramping and raging, the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne closed without an amendment being offered by the blatant gentlemen referred to as having fought with blank cartridges.

The Telegraph and Times are still invited to interview Messrs. Cudlip and Fleming in regard to that shell contract.

Mr. Burrell's Reply

(Regina Province)
Hon. Martin Burrell's reply to F. H. Carvell on the question of hay put down by the Maritime Provinces properly divides itself into two sections. In the first he utterly destroyed Mr. Carvell's argument, or rather unfounded charges, regarding the hay purchased in the past year. In the second he completely exposed Mr. Carvell as himself an accomplished grafter upon the public treasury, and, strangely enough, in the South African war. It was the first time that Mr. Burrell has been engaged in a rough-and-tumble fight in the House of Commons. The most gentlemanly of men, not only cleared himself of any odium from Mr. Carvell's lying insinuations, but took pains to demonstrate that there are many weak spots in Mr. Carvell's own history, and places which will not stand the light of day.

One point Mr. Burrell made particularly clear. He had appealed to Mr. Carvell's patriotism to the whole respect of the British War Office could be made and presented to the House. Appealing to the patriotism of a man like Mr. Carvell, however, is only one degree more useless than trying to extract blood from a turnip. Mr. Carvell in several speeches before the war did his utmost to destroy and vilify the Canadian militia, and he certainly proved himself inconsistent in the course he adopted then.

The Old Songs

Down the years they come to me From out the crypts of time, With half-forgotten melody, With faintly falling rhyme; With here and there a broken chord, A missing word or phrase, But sweet as angel whispers are The songs of by-gone days.

A snatch of college drinking-song, A verse of cradle-hymn, A bar of tender serenade, Sung when the stars were dim; The truant strains they come and go Like sparks of smoky haze— A tangle of sweet memories, The songs of by-gone days.

What answer would the Carvels and the Pugsleys make, for example? What have they done to help the old Motherland? We know that Mr. Carvell, in the South African war, had a contract to supply hay to the army, and that his company received more than double the price that was paid to the farmers. Has Mr. Carvell done anything better than this in the present war?

Indeed, has he made shells, whether at a profit or not? Because it must be apparent that the man who made shells, though as a profit, was a much better citizen than the man who made no shells and hence had no profit. Without these shells the Germans would have been through to Paris and Calais, and perhaps over to Dover. The Liberal party is stronger today

Little Benny's Note Book

BY LEE PAPE
There was skating on the lake yesterday and I quick ran home after school to get my skates, and pop was home already, and he said, Wood that I had skates, I'd go out with you and show you how it's done. G, pop, come on, you can hire skates out there, I said. You can, well I'm very much tempted, but I haven't skated for years, said pop.

That's all right, you'll do all right, I said. I'm not worrying about that, said pop. And he went out with me, and sure man was in a tent with skates to hire for 50 cents a pair, and pop hired a pair and put them on after trying about 15 minutes, and after he got used to it he started to get around pretty good, not falling wants no matter how near he came to it, and all of a sudden him and a big fat man bumped into each other and both of them sat down on the ice looking at each other, the fat man saying, You'll have to excuse me, partner, I ain't had skates on for years.

Me either, it's mutual, said pop. And him and the fat man got up and started to skate again, pop going wun way and the big fat man going the other way, and wen they got all the way around they met each other in the same place and wat did they do but bump agen, say they grabbed a hold of each other and keep terring round insted of falling down agen.

We seem to have a fatal attraction for each other, said pop. Lets resign together, sed the big fat man, theres a place around the corse warre theres a man that mixes the best indoor heaters in town, and hes no plumber, either. And him and pop took three skates off and went away, and wen I got home they was all eating supper, in-klooding pop.

I resign, sed pop, Im cold, anyhow. Lets resign together, sed the big fat man, theres a place around the corse warre theres a man that mixes the best indoor heaters in town, and hes no plumber, either. And him and pop took three skates off and went away, and wen I got home they was all eating supper, in-klooding pop.

because of the action of those of the members who have taken a hand in the great work of turning out millions of shells, than it is because of those who have been no more than cynics and snivellers. If the profits were unreasonably great, let them be taxed. But let all the circumstances be taken into account. Let it be understood whether the shell contracts were given upon prices that were or were not forced by the shellmakers. Let the country have the reason why some manufacturers entered courageously upon the work, while others held back. And if it should be the fact that courage has been rewarded, let it be said whether courage is worthy of reward.

And as the measures float along Like shadows o'er the sea, Across the drifting bloom of years Lost faces smile on me; Eyes dimmed in death's eternal night Meet mine in friendly gaze— I kiss the marble lips that sang Those songs of by-gone days.

Old tunes touch hidden chords in hearts Long mute with age or pain, And give us for a fleeting space Lost faith and hope again. Within you cloudlands far away Where swell the hymns of praise, God grant the angels sometimes sing The songs of by-gone days!

"CANADIANS GET NO QUARTER AND CANADIANS GIVE NONE"

Member of the Fighting 26th writes of his first time in action—An exciting hunt after a Belgian rat—Private Tait in hospital suffering from shrapnel wounds.

Private J. H. Tait of the "Fighting 26th" writes an interesting letter to a friend in Fairhaven, N. B. The soldier has been in the Duchesse of Connaught Canadian Red Cross Hospital at Clivedon, Taplow, Bucks. The letter is dated the last of December and in part says:

"Just a line to tell you that I was not at Lemons to meet you, but because I will be there next Christmas if I'm not feeding the worms in Flanders. I tried hard to get some leave, but men are needed so bad that there is no chance. I tried to get a German helmet but did not see any, they were a kind of a round cap. I got one of them but had it stolen from me in the hospital in France. I guess I will be back soon as my wounds are all better; there is a small piece of shrapnel in my forehead yet but it does no harm. They took a piece out of my eye and a piece out of my chin, they are only the size of a buckwheat seed. I had a nice little hole through my right knee, it went through the bone and out the back of the leg. I was sure my leg was off. Nearly all the old 26th have been at it. They got a good feed of gas on Christmas day (Christmas dinner in the trenches).

"I got my poor old rusty Ross smashed all to pieces and was tossed about twenty feet. I only got three small pieces in the face; they were sure I was gone. Two were killed. When I came to they were just preparing to charge. I took a Leo-Enfield from a dead Tommy, one of the short ones with the long bayonet. The deal fellow had such a hold on the gun that I had to pry his hand open to take the gun from him. I then went over the top of the trench with the rest. Our platoon was in the lead and then the fun began. We only had about thirty-five yards to go when we met the Germans half way, and then the fun started in earnest.

"It was our first attack and the Germans could not stand it. When they were on the run the only way to catch them was to shoot one of them down and another of us to run up and make sure of him with the bayonet. Some of the boys stabbed the dead as well as the others and there's how we got the name of the 'White Gurkhas.' A Canadian gets no quarter from a German, and we got orders to give none, and we obeyed orders.

"I am all right now again and will

Private Clark of 55th tells of visit to Empire's capital.

Mrs. Frank Clark, of Young's Cove Road has received the following letter from her son, Private A. G. Clark, Bramshott Camp, England:

Dear Mother:

I will pen you a few lines. I am having a fine time here and enjoying Old England immensely. The weather has been bad of late, but we are getting along fine. I got my six days leave and went up to London with a number of the boys. Some went to Scotland and Ireland. I decided to stay in London and see everything and have a good time of it. Got on the train at Waterloo and went across to the Union Jack Club. As I did not know anybody I made it my headquarters. After looking around a bit I got on a bus, rode a few blocks then took the subway (tube) and went to Trafalgar square. I had heard of Piccadilly Circus, went there for an hour or two and found it a very entertaining place indeed. This about used up the first day. The remaining days I went about the city in a motor bus or taxi. I visited Saint Paul's, Westminster Abbey, the Tower, Whitehall, Buckingham Palace, the Parliament Buildings and numerous other places of interest. It is very dark in London at nights and one cannot get about very easily, so most of my evenings I spent at the theatre, Aldwick, Gaiety, His Majesty's and others. I was sorry when the time came to return to camp. I am sending a snapshot of an aeroplane that was at our camp a while ago, also a snap of a friend of mine.

Well mother, as it is getting late I will have to close.

HAD WEAK HEART HAD TO STAY IN BED

Many women are kept in a state of fear of death, become weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to their household, social or business duties, on account of the unnatural action of the heart.

To all such sufferers Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will give prompt and permanent relief. They do this by their calming, strengthening and invigorating action on the heart, causing it to beat regularly and naturally, and in addition to this they tone up the whole nerve system.

Mrs. J. Day, 224 John St. South, Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I was run down with a weak heart that I could not even sweep the floor, nor could I sleep at night. I was so awfully sick sometimes I had to stay in bed all day as I was so weak. I used three and a half boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I am a cured woman to-day, and as strong as anyone could be, and am doing my own housework, even my own washing."

"I doctored for over two years, but got no help until I used your pills."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c per box, 3 boxes for $1.25. They can be had at all druggists or dealers, or will be mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Spent Countless Nights Unable to Rest or Sleep

Was Run Down and in Terribly Nervous Condition—Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Gained Regularly.

In this letter is told once more the story which comes from many thousands of women. It is the story of exhausted nerves, of a run-down system and of all the accompanying misery of sleeplessness, headaches and loss of energy and vigor. But here is a silver lining to this cloud. There is the light of new hope and courage which comes with the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This letter is so representative of the kind we are daily receiving that you can judge from it what you might expect from this treatment under similar circumstances. Mrs. Conrad Schmidt, R. R. No. 1, Milverton, Ont., writes: "Two years ago last spring I was run down, had nervous prostration, and was in a terribly nervous condition. I could not sleep or eat. Could scarcely count the nights that I passed without sleep, and if I did eat, had sick headaches and vomiting spells. My limbs would swell so badly that it hurt me to walk. I would jump up in bed, awakened by bad dreams; in fact, I was so bad I thought I could not live, and started to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food without much hope. "It was not long before I began to improve under this treatment, and I can truthfully say it has done me a world of good. It took some time to get the nervous system restored, but I kept right on using the Nerve Food regularly, and gradually gained in health and strength. I have a fine baby boy now. We weighed 12 lbs. at birth, and though my friends were anxious over the condition I was in, I got over that fine, and now weigh 120 lbs. Before using the Nerve Food I was a mere skeleton. "You are not asked to expect miracles from Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. But if you are willing to feed back your exhausted nerves to health and strength you can depend absolutely on this great food cure to produce the desired results. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

"In my opinion any men in training would be benefitted by a glass of beer occasionally."

This week's Contest is quite different from any others you have reader of the Children's Corner will be having a hard try to win the prizes.

Below will be found a simple division sum, but a few of the figures are missing. What you have to do is this: Write the complete sum out carefully on a piece of paper, filling in the missing figures,

All entries must reach this office by Wednesday, February 16th, 1916, and to the Boy or Girl, not older than fifteen years of age, who sends in the most neatly written, and correct solution, I shall award a beautiful Story Book. A second prize of a Story Book will also be given to the sender of the next best attempt. Remember, neatness will count a great deal, and also there will be every chance given to the kiddie of any, six years of age, as well as to those older. Now get busy and let me see how clever you all are.

The people in Nova Scotia must be very glad that the difficulty with the law and the film men was settled. It would mean such a lot to so many towns to lose their amusement houses.
We would hardly know what to do with ourselves in St. John.

Miss Geraldine O'Brien to be seen in "His Wife," at the Lyric Theatre today, Tuesday and Wednesday, is another of the large army of stage favorites who have come over to the moving picture field. She is a talented actress and last year scored a success at the Astor Theatre in New York. She has already proved herself as most successful before the camera.

Lottie Pickford, now to be seen here in the most interesting serial
"The Diamond from the Sky," is soon to appear in a specially written five-part drama the title of which has not been announced. It is staged by the American Film Company.

In a contest for the most popular player in a magazine, Antonio Moreno, in "The Island of Regeneration" stands fifth. He has 2,530 votes. Earl Williams comes first with 4,300 votes as playing in "The Christian."

They say Kathryn Williams is quite the most sane and sensible star in the movies.

The old saying "Love laughs at locksmiths," has been beaten by Mr. Haverly, the young magician with the Young-Adams Company at the Opera House. He pays absolutely no heed to locks and bars, nails, bolts or ropes.
Two good plays are promised for this week, "Such a Little Queen," and "The Black Flag."

It is said that about 1,500 British actors are serving their king and country in the fighting forces.

Robert B. Mantell, our old Shakespeare favorite, and Genevieve Hamper are working in Jamaica on a production called "The Spider and the Fly," (more spiders—they are nearly as numerous as Peggies.) These two stage favorites recently gave an operatic performance of Romeo and Juliet.
The play, given for charity, was witnessed by 1,200 school children.

Lorraine Huling playing with Geraldine O'Brien in "His Wife," at the Lyric today, was led to the stage through her fondness for amateur theatricals. She recently appeared on Broadway in "Thruella," and "Help Wanted." She has played ingenue parts in many Thalhouser dramas.

Charlotte Walker to be seen here today and Tuesday at the Imperial is to appear in a new picture, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," based on the well known novel of the same name. Cecil B. de Mille is the director of this Jessie L. Lasky feature play.

This same Charlotte Walker played here a few weeks ago in "Kindling."

Charlie Chaplin is the hero of an anecdote told in Ian Hay's book called
"The First Hundred Thousand" (meaning of Kitchener's army). Last fall Capt. Wagstaffe, on returning to the front from leave in England is asked about the state of the people at home. He replies that they talk about a Charlie Chaplin.
"Who is Charlie Chaplin," inquired several voices.
Wagstaffe shook his head. "I haven't the faintest idea," he said. "All I know is that you can't go anywhere in London without running up against him.
He is 'it.' The mention of his name in a revue is greeted with thunders of applause. At one place I went, twenty young men came upon the stage, all got up as Charlie Chaplin."

"But, who is he?"
"That I can't tell you. I made several attempts to find out; but whenever I asked the question people simply stared at me in amazement."

"I can tell you," said Bobby Little.
"My servant is a great admirer of his.
He is the latest American star. Falls off roofs and gets run over by motors."

"And keeps the police at bay with a fire hose," added Wagstaffe, "that's him."

Major Kemp rose to go. "We are a great nation," he remarked contentedly.
I was a bit anxious about things at home but I see now there was nothing to worry about. We shall win all right."

The moral of that incident seems to be: "Are we down-hearted? No!"

Marjorie Daw playing in "Out of Darkness" is just fourteen. She was also in "The Warrens of Virginia."

Wild animals strolled about in the forest and leaped through windows of homes in a most casual way in "The Winning of Jess," at the Unique on Saturday night. It was a pretty love story woven round a separated father and child, two lovers, many accidents and rescues by the hermit of Wild Cat Mountain, who turns out to be the long lost parent. It certainly added to the interest to be looking for a bear or a puma or a wild cat to come into the landscape at any moment. The animals were the Bostock wild animal and the film a Centaur feature.

Jack Bonivita was the hermit who fought with the bear, Margaret Gibson and Roy Watson the lovers.

George Ovey in the Cub Comedies is certainly funny especially that curl in the middle of his forehead. The "Hearts and Clubs" picture had nothing to do with cards, except in the English slang sense. Ovey makes up very well as a girl and it is all good fun.

These George Ovey comedies are very popular in Sweden.

The author, Cyrus Townsend Brady;
the heroine, Anita Stewart; the hero,
Earl Williams; the time, Louis XVI;
the place, France, and the Vitagraph Company producing it. All good reasons for hoping St. John may see "My Lady's Slipper," a late picture.

Marguerite Clark will appear shortly in a Paramount picture called "Mice and Men," staged under the direction of the well-known Frederick Thompson, who was formerly with the Vitagraph.

One of the two aidmen in Vancouver who objected to the showing of the Birth of a Nation gave the reason that all the villains in the story were not punished. This is a sample of the criticism of plays and pictures. In real life we do see the actual punishment of all the wicked! The stage tries to be true to life. Should every picture end with the hazzard of the villain?
We know that wickedness is punished but it often takes years to work out.

Fannie Ward, the pretty actress who played Kitty in the Marriage of Kitty at the Imperial Theatre, is to appear in "Tennessee's Partner."

Much of the action in this picture takes place in the old mission of San Fernando, California.

A Kiss has been defined by John Jesco, Jr., as "An operation occupying the last three minutes of every drama."

A new device was shown at a demonstration given by William Hartmann and New York. This is called photo-plasts and plastic pictures. The pictures are projected by a regular machine, upon a screen set behind an inclined plate glass. The glass reflects a scene painted on canvas, and forms a background for the figures in the pictures. The effect is that the figures stand out from the screen in a most life-like fashion.

It might be a good plan for our soldiers to take some lessons from the lady and gentleman who are at the Imperial today. They do some wonderful rifle shooting. Swiss sharpshooters, they are, and there is music also.

Alla Nazimova will give her services for one photoplay for sixty thousand dollars. No one has so far accepted her offer. She thinks quite a lot of herself, doesn't she?

The V.L.S.E. Company are opening offices in Toronto under the management of G. W. Gookin. Mr. Gookin first became interested in moving pictures when he was instructor of sales for the National Cash Register Company. He was probably the first sales director to use moving pictures in instructing his force.

I believe all Canadians are to be employed at this Toronto office so the business will be "Made in Canada."

A revolt has begun against padding.
Padding is the repeating of scenes to make a picture longer. Now, length is no criterion of a picture's merit, as everyone should know. Many onereelers are very much more acceptable in every way than a five-reeler.

Sometimes the picture alternates between one supposedly dramatic situation and another till the poor actors and the poor spectators are complet-ly exhausted. It is a question not merely of art but vital to the exhibitor. He loses money when his audiences lose interest.

Derwent Hall Calne, son of the famous author, was lately the guest of A. W. Goff, assistant general manager of the V.L.S.E. Mr. Calne is to study the motion picture industry and possibly to appear before the camera in some of his father's works, in London he played the leading part of John Storm in "The Christian."

SPOTLIGHT.

ADELAIDE PHILLIPS

Early in 1840 a tiny English lass of seven years landed in America with her parents from Stratford-on-Avon, the historic birthplace of William Shakespeare. At the age of nine little Adelaide Phillips made her first appearance at the Tremont Theatre in Boston. Jenny Lind met her and advised her to go to London, and later she studied in Italy, where she won a great triumph as Aracoe in "Semira-mide." Returning to America she was given an ovation accorded few singers and continued her tour on to Cuba.

When the Boston Ideal Opera Company was formed in 1879 she appeared in "Pinafore" and the Sullivan operas, and added greatly to her fame as one of America's most popular and beloved contralto singers. It was a memory that can never be effaced to hear Adelaide Phillips sing the old popular songs as an encore after encore was demanded. To hear her sing that pliantive melody of Foster's "Massa's in de Cold, Cold Ground," vibrated the heart chord, and touched the hearts of hearers. This song is to be found on page 350 of "Heart Songs," a veritable library of the greatest songs in the world, and now offered to the readers of this paper for five coupons and the cost of distribution. See Coupon with terms elsewhere in today's issue.

BOOKS ARE NOT HERE YET

Rush for "HEART SONGS" Took Us Unawares!

The Standard, in announcing the distribution of Heart Songs anticipated a brisk demand and ordered a very large number of copies. But we never expected such a rush as actually took place. Three great big packing cases of books were cleared out in a week, exhausting the initial order. We wired for more and a duplicate order was shipped from Montreal on Thursday. These should arrive at any moment, and we hope to announce their receipt by the first of the week. In the meantime scores and scores of mail orders are held up, but will be filled whenever the books arrive. The coupon will continue to appear daily and The Standard promises that hereafter there will be no delay owing to scarcity of books.

LATEST FINANCIAL AND SHIPPING NEWS AND NOTES

TRADING PROFESSIONAL WITH BEAR PRESSURE DURING EARLY HOURS

Few factors in week-end session to encourage dealers - Remarkable trade improvements one of few bright features - Bond Market unsteady.

New York, Feb. 5.—No very definite or satisfactory conclusions were to be derived from the week-end session of the market, which began with declines, but made general, though irregular, recoveries before the close. Trading lost none of its professional favor, investment purchases and other constructive factors being deterred by the uncertain international situation. The declines of the first hour were suggestive of bear pressure, especially in Mercantile Marine preferred and similar active issues, which have been used in the past to depress other leaders. Supporting orders met the decline with considerable readjustment, some of the war group manifesting marked strength. Rails played a subordinate part in the operations of the short session, but that division was steady to strong, with Union Pacific, Canadian Pacific, and Lehigh Valley as leaders. Other standard shares were little changed. United States Steel and Crucible Steel were again the features, the former ranging within fractional limits, while Crucible rose and fell between 85 1/2 to 87 1/2, closing at 85 1/2.

CLOSING LETTER OF N. Y. MARKET BY E. & C. RANDOLPH

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.) New York, Feb. 5.—Conflicting reports from Berlin and Washington on regard to the Lusitania case kept the market irregular for some time after the opening, but later the optimistic view taken of the situation in Washington had the effect of strengthening prices in the standard stocks, and the closing was fairly firm. Secretary Lansing is reported to have asked Ambassador Von Bismarck for several days in which to consider the new German note and confer with President Wilson. There seems likely to be no further developments in the case before Tuesday. For that reason the market is likely to remain around present levels with more or less irregularity depending upon the tenor of reports from Washington. Norfolk and Western made an extraordinary statement of earnings. Agitation regarding the miners wage controversy will keep the matter of the railroad companies difficult with their men in the public mind, and will have an effect in restraining market operations.

LAWYER NOMINATED FOR SUPREME COURT

Louis Dembitz Brandeis, of Boston, was nominated by President Wilson to succeed the late Associate Justice Joseph R. Lamar as a member of the Supreme Court of the United States. The nomination was so unexpected, so different from what was expected by Senators and Representatives of all parties, that it nearly knocked them off their feet. Many persons are predicting that the nomination never will be confirmed by the Senate.

HOCKEY ON WEDNESDAY.

The hockey match on Wednesday night in the Queen's Rink, when the Siege Battery team and the St. Johns meet, will settle the question as to the leadership of the league for the time being. Each team has won two games, and have defeated the same teams, by almost the same scores, and it looks as if they should be pretty evenly matched. The St. Johns have secured a new defence man who formerly played the game with the Halifax Socials. He was out at practice on Saturday night and showed up well. It is expected that he will be in the lineup on Wednesday. Fitzgerald has been obliged to leave the team, having gone to Montreal to undergo an operation, so the procuring of the new man is a welcome addition.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES AT THREE NAMES COMPLETE CHURCH UNION ON HONOR ROLL

Eloquent sermons by Dr. DeWolfe in Brussels Street and Leinster Street Churches—A touching floral celebration—Children of United Schools parade to Central United Baptist Church.

The services yesterday in connection with the amalgamation of the Brussels street and Leinster street Baptist churches were of a most impressive character. Dr. H. T. DeWolfe of Acadia University, was the preacher on the occasion, assisted by Rev. M. E. Fletcher, Rev. D. J. MacPherson, pastor of the united body, Rev. W. H. Barracough, and Rev. J. H. A. Anderson. All the services were attended by overflowing crowds, and the unique formalities observed made important history in the religious life of this community.

In the morning, at eleven o'clock, a farewell service was held in the Brussels street church. Members of the contracting congregations attended in large numbers, and it was very noticeable that scores of old-time members of the church who had stayed away from their church homes, through family changes and otherwise, were present to pay a last tribute of respect to the historic church after its sixty-six years of usefulness.

Meeting in Imperial Theatre last evening largely attended—Stirring addresses.

ROLL OF HONOR.

- Sydney G. Lawrence, Hampton Court, London.
- L. Campbell, Erin Street.
- One other who did not wish his name given.

The preacher's platform was beautifully decorated with palms and a composite choir filled the organ loft. Rev. Dr. DeWolfe spoke with rare eloquence and learning upon the subject of the Kingdom of God, pointing out the existence of this kingdom in the hearts of Christian people and in the midst of Christian churches. The prominent educational's exposition was of a most scholarly character and was a distinct treat in pulpits utterances for those who were privileged to hear him. Rev. Mr. Fletcher and Rev. Mr. MacPherson also officiated at this service.

In the evening in the Central United Baptist church long before seven o'clock the building was filled with an overflowing number of persons being unable to obtain seats. There was a special programme of music, and the church was prettily decorated with palms and flowers. The opening ceremony was conducted by Rev. Mr. MacPherson and Rev. Mr. Fletcher. Dr. DeWolfe afterwards delivered a second and most eloquent sermon dealing with the foundation of the Church of Christ and the mission of his text some splendid precepts. As was the case in the morning sermon this was a gem in pulpits oratory.

The Imperial was crowded last night to welcome back Sergt. Knight, Lieut. C. F. Sanford was chairman, the Imperial orchestra supplied music and Miss Blenda Thompson sang with splendid effect "Do Your Bit" and "The Best Old Flag on Earth." Sergt. Major Dalsiel was the first speaker. He said that if the young men would not enlist conscription would have to come. If the men would come in sufficient numbers there would be no trouble in beating the German hordes. It was to be hoped that for the fair name of Canada the present recruiting policy would prove effective and produce the required men. He knew what the Germans were like for he had worked among them and they were hard taskmasters. If Germany should win this war it would not be well for you; but you must.

Sergt. Knight said he had not come back to the city because he was a quitter or because he was looking for a job. He had come back because of being allowed to go back and help finish what he had been compelled to leave. He said those who had not as yet offered might have counted the cost of going to the front but he did not believe they had counted the cost of staying home. He wanted them to sit down quietly and count up what their loss would be if they did not go. The Empire might mean. If Canada were to be saved it must be by Canadians and the saving must be done on the fields of France and Belgium not here. If we did not send sufficient men for Germany should win there was no question at all but what Canada was the first thing she would ask for. The only way to be sure that the German flag would never fly over this fair Dominion of ours was to send men in sufficient numbers to make sure of defeating the enemy. Which was better, to stay at home and let someone else do his own share and yours as well do not fall to the enemy. He said that he had a letter from a soldier in the front lines of the war. He said that he had a letter from a soldier in the front lines of the war. He said that he had a letter from a soldier in the front lines of the war.

Around the City

Sleigh Drive Tonight
The annual sleigh drive of the Epworth League of the Portland Methodist church will be held this evening at 7.30 sharp.

Police Called In.
Officers Hamm and Bridgen were called to Mrs. Sprague's, corner of Brook and Sheriff streets, Saturday afternoon to eject persons not wanted there.

To Strengthen Treaties.
The I. C. R. treaties between Reed's Point and the Ballast Wharf in its course of being strengthened with the object of making it safer for heavier engines and freight.

Silk Muffler Found.
A silk muffler, found on German street, near the corner of Princess, has been handed to the police, and the owner can receive the same on application at police headquarters.

Will Meet at Fredericton.
The St. John River Commission will resume its meetings next Wednesday at Fredericton. The evidence is all in and the commission is now considering it and will probably announce its decision in a short time.

A Peculiar "Package."
Sergt. Sullivan and Officer Linton received a telephone message calling them to 183 Main street, the people of the house having found a parcel in the hall and were afraid to open it. On investigation it was found to be a lady's stocking with two bottles of lager beer in it.

A Pleasant Outing.
A very pleasant afternoon was spent by the office staff of Hall & Fairweather's at Thomas E. Simpson's summer house at Drury Cove Saturday. After dinner a snowshoe tramp was indulged in up the Kennebecasis river. After tea the party returned to the city on the 9.30 train.

Sheriff Freese Ill.
The condition of F. W. Freese, of Hampton, whose recent illness has caused his friends much anxiety, was reported late last night to be about the same. Dr. J. N. Smith, of Hampton, stated that but little change was noticeable yesterday, but that since the morning he had been able to hold his own, the pulse, however, being very low.

Tug, G. K. King Busy.
The tug G. K. King, Captain Golding, on Friday last towed the schooner Laura C. Hall to Tyngmouth Cove, where the vessel will take on a cargo of lumber for Boston. While at the Creek the tug took hold of the schooner Mayflower and towed her as far as Lorneville with lumber. The Mayflower is bound to Barrington, N.I.

Full of Water.
Word reached the city on Saturday afternoon that the schooner Mildred H. Cochran is inside the Quaco Reef full of water. The schooner is 221 tons, 117 feet in length and 32 feet 7 inches beam. She is loaded with lumber at Alma and had hardly got started on her voyage to the westward when she sprung a leak. The crew are standing by and it will be known to what what will be done with the vessel.

Mission Sunday.
Yesterday was observed as Mission Sunday in the Anglican churches in the city and all the services were of a missionary nature. The different pulpits were occupied by men from out of the city, largely those on home mission stations, who told of the problems to be met with on their fields. At the evening service in St. James' church the Rev. G. F. Scott spoke on China. He referred to the awakening going on there and to the fact that possibly the next world menace would come from there. He said it was not only a duty from a Christian standpoint to give the Gospel to China, but from a purely material point of view it was to our interest to civilize the millions of that country.

Just before the closing hymn in the morning service a wealth of flowers, evergreens and laurel was bestowed upon the Brussels street church out of respect for its long period of useful work and in the fondest sentiment and love by the various branches of its body, such as the Sunday school and its sub-divisions, the women's societies, the young men's organizations, the general church body, the Chinese department and a number of private members. Flowers in pretty baskets, garlands, potted plants and wreaths of laurel and immortelles were heaped upon the platform and along the pulpit. This ceremony was very touching and those who witnessed it were deeply moved. Among the tributes placed by private parties were those in memory of Dr. J. E. Harper, William H. Brown, charter member, Rev. Dr. G. M. W. Carey, Deacon B. A. Stammers, Mrs. William Allwood, Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. J. N. Golding, senior. The Chinese department placed a basket of exquisite flowers in memory of Mrs. Golding, their late superintendent, accompanied by Mrs. Golding's portrait. It was a very pretty sight to see the aged senior deacon, now close on ninety years, placing tributes on the platform alongside a two-year-old tot from the infants' class. The honor roll of the boys who have enlisted and the two nurses at the front was decked with flags and wreaths of everlasting flowers. After the interesting ceremony the large platform was literally covered with the tributes.

At the afternoon session the Sunday schools of the two churches met in their respective quarters and were marshaled in line. At a signal given by the ringing of the Brussels street bell both marched to and met on Carmarthen street hill, there being between 200 and 250 from each school. The Leinster street children were headed by A. A. Wilson and Ira B. Kierstead and those of Brussels street by Rev. Mr. MacPherson and A. E. Jenner. When the two schools approached each other the Brussels street children opened up their ranks and the others marched through. After thus merging the signal to halt was given, when all marched back to the Central United Baptist School. As they passed the Presbyterian church in King street East the Sunday school children of that church halted them by singing "Blest Be the Tie that Binds." On arriving at the auditorium of the United Baptist church they were addressed by the new superintendent, Ira B. Kierstead, and L. A. Belyea, the assistant superintendent, and also by Rev. Mr. Barracough, Rev. Mr. Anderson, Rev. Mr. Fletcher and the pastor, Rev. Mr. MacPherson. The exercises were particularly interesting and impressive.

In the evening in the Central United Baptist church long before seven o'clock the building was filled with an overflowing number of persons being unable to obtain seats. There was a special programme of music, and the church was prettily decorated with palms and flowers. The opening ceremony was conducted by Rev. Mr. MacPherson and Rev. Mr. Fletcher. Dr. DeWolfe afterwards delivered a second and most eloquent sermon dealing with the foundation of the Church of Christ and the mission of his text some splendid precepts. As was the case in the morning sermon this was a gem in pulpits oratory. At the close of the evening the pastor presided at the ordination of the Lord's Supper about 400 participating. Throughout the day there was abundant evidence to the most casual observer that the idea of union was being materialized in a way that could not well fail to be most all so proud. There will be further observances of the union each day of the present week. The proceedings to-night will take the form of an address, illustrated by lantern slides, on the subject of "The Union of the Churches." Reference to the events that have happened during the existence of the two churches now united.

RUM CRAZED PRISONERS DESTROY POLICE CELLS

Inferior quality of liquor blamed for desire to be destructive.

Some of the liquor consumed these days puts consumers in not only a drunken state but causes them to become destructive. During the past few weeks three or four men who have been arrested on the charge of intoxication, have become raving mad after being locked up in a cell, and as soon as the officers leave them, the prisoners start in immediately to destroy the cell fixtures. A few cells at police headquarters have had the fixtures torn out by rum crazed prisoners and the latter, on being asked the next day, when sober, if he is guilty, tells that he has no knowledge of such actions.

On Saturday, Eugene La Fleuch, was arrested on Leinster street by Inspector Wickham, and Patrolman Powell for being drunk. After being placed in a cell for a short time the prisoner asked for water, this being supplied to him in a tin pail, with a tin drinking cup attached by a chain. The officers had not left the prisoner but few minutes when he dumped the water on the cell floor and demolished the pail and cup. In addition to the charge of drunkenness La Fleuch is charged with doing damage to city property to the value of $125.

INTERN ALL GERMANS UNTIL AFTER THE WAR

Rev. Ralph Haughton says Ottawa fire was deliberate plot to murder Premier.

Rev. Ralph J. Haughton last night had as his subject "Neutrality as Jesus Viewed it" and found his remarks on the following words: "He that is not for us is against us." He defined a neutral as one who took no part one way or the other in a quarrel which was going on. He claimed that the man in Canada today who claims to be neutral was a traitor. It was time the people of this country wakened up to the fact that this war was not 2,000 miles away but at our very doors. The German menace was here. Count Von Bernstorff was the emissary of the Kaiser and he was prepared to do anything and go to any lengths in order to achieve his purpose. He was using a neutral country as his base of operations and it was time for Canada to put every German where he could not do any harm, until the war was over. Every German, no matter what position he held or how trustworthy he might be, should be interned till the close of the war. He believed that the burning of the parliament building was a deliberate plan to murder the premier and members of parliament. No man had a right today to be unconcerned or indifferent to his country's danger. His home and women were in just as much danger as anybody else's and it was his duty to do his share in defending them. He was not a prophet but he believed this war would come closer to us in St. John before it ended than it had yet done.

VETERAN SOLDIER DIED ON SATURDAY

James Robert Quinn passed away at the age of 84 years—A British veteran

The death occurred on Saturday of James Robert Quinn, who had reached the age of 84 years. He was born near Fredericton and when a young man he enlisted in the 70th Regiment of Foot and served for 10 years abroad in India and other parts of the Empire. In the year 1874 he received his discharge as cook and had long service and good conduct medals, of which he was very proud. After returning to Canada he lived for a number of years at Oliville, Queens county, where he had a brick farm and kept home for himself. About three years ago he came to the city and went to the hospital and had his arm amputated because of cancer. Since that time he has lived in the city and Loyalist Chapter, I.O.O.F., have been looking after his comfort. The funeral will be held today from St. James' Church with military honors. A detachment of the 115th and 69th will attend. Service will be at 2.30 o'clock.

Fortunate the merchant with a large stock of diamonds. Under the latest ruling diamonds may not be imported into the United Kingdom. That is to say—diamonds mined in future be cut and polished within the British Empire and must be from British mines. Allan Gundry has diamonds and diamonds.

PERSONAL

John Keeffe returned from Montreal on Saturday.

George E. Holder arrived on the Montreal train on Saturday.

Miss Helen Chipman of 92 Harrison street, who has been at the River Glade Sanitarium for the last four weeks is improving in health.

Arrested for Vagrancy.

William Barker was arrested yesterday afternoon by Det. Charles Barrett and Briggs on the charge of being a vagrant. The prisoner is a young man who has been loafing about the city with no visible means of support, and is locked up by the police as one of the class who avoid employment.

There is plenty of work in the city for men who are willing to be employed, and there is little or no need for poverty.
